THE ONLY WAY
to become familiar with local building progress is to read the Daily Press Building Page each Saturday.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.
Fair tonight; Tuesday increasing cloudiness and slightly warmer; light northerly winds, becoming variable.
Max., 47; Min., 35.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 2, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

NEW RECTOR FOR HOLY CROSS

Rev. Charles H. Kues, of New York, Takes Charge of Local Episcopal Church.

ON SIX MONTHS' LEAVE

Greeted by Large Congregations at Yesterday's Services, Clergyman Outlines His Plan of Work for the Future.

Granted six months leave of absence from his work in New York city, Rev. Charles H. Kues, who is to be identified with Holy Cross parish through the summer, assumed charge at the morning service yesterday. There was a large attendance both at the service of morning prayer and at the communion service which followed.

Speaking of his work in Plainfield, as a preface to the morning's sermon, Mr. Kues said:

"For some time my work has been among the unfortunate, the friendless, the homeless, the forgotten, in New York city. This has been a big strain, and while my health has in no way suffered, it was thought that a change to another field of work for awhile would be advantageous. My resignation was refused, but a six months' leave of absence has been granted.

"And so I come to you at Holy Cross, hoping not of myself but by my work to do you good. I urge you all to make this church your home, to love God and to do your duty—never mind about me. I'm going to neglect the faithful here for awhile; I'm going to devote my attention to the others, to those who are not here this morning. The church is first to be considered, everything else is to be put aside, even me, in the interest of the work."

The sermon was on faith and service, the text being taken from the ninth verse of the eighth chapter of St. Matthew. Mr. Kues made a strong point of the importance of self control as a factor for service; exemplified by the Roman centurion in the text, a commander ready to obey commands. The thought was developed an analogy to the individual, the speaker showing the necessity for absolute control of the desires, the passions and the thoughts, with the power of a commander, by the means of faith and in the interest of service for the church of Christ.

Mr. Kues announced that he is now completing arrangements for the Lenten services. There is to be a special preacher at the evening service to be held each Thursday and among those who will come to Plainfield on these occasions are to be Bishop Courtney and Rev. Herbert Shipman, of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, New York city.

Early morning communion services are to be held regularly each Sunday morning at 7:30 o'clock, beginning next week.

FINE TALENT ENGAGED FOR SCOTTISH CONCERT

Clan Mackenzie, No. 204, Order of Scottish Clans, of Plainfield, will hold its fourth annual concert and dance at the Park Club, on Washington avenue, on Friday evening, February 20. Among the talent which will be seen and heard on the occasion will be Miss E. Hallet Frank, of New York, who will sing Scottish songs; Miss Agnes Roy, of Kearny, elocutionist and contralto; W. Patterson Campbell, the well-known tenor of the First Presbyterian church of this city; William Holmes, baritone, of the First Baptist church here; Professor Davidson, of Jersey City, and his famous troupe of Highland dancers and pipers, dressed in Scottish costumes; Professor Harold, organist of the First Presbyterian church, of this city, and Will Wilson, celebrated as a Scotch comedian. J. D. Mitchell and S. Lassen, will be heard in violin and piano selections. Mitchell's orchestra will play for dancing at the conclusion of the concert.

As usual, Clan Mackenzie will donate ten per cent of the net receipts of its concert to the Anti-Tuberculosis League.

PURCHASES A FARM.

Thomas M. Eganey, who has been living on Osborn avenue, has purchased from Samuel Stranahan, the latter's small farm on West End avenue, just below Washington Rock. The tract comprises six acres of ground and includes two bungalows and several outbuildings. Mr. Eganey will remove to his new property in a few weeks and will operate the farm in connection with his painting business.

PRINCETON CLUB SMOKER.

The Princeton Club of Plainfield will hold an informal smoker at Truell Inn at 8:30 o'clock tonight, to be preceded by a meeting of the executive committee.

TRAVELING MEN HOLD A BANQUET

Plainfield Council, U. C. T., Join in Plan to Increase Membership.

Plainfield Council, United Commercial Travelers, in conjunction with all the other councils throughout the United States, held a meeting, Saturday night, which was followed with a banquet at the Ritz on West Front street. The supreme councilor requested all councils to hold the extra meeting on Saturday night as a means of increasing the membership, and Plainfield Council added two new members to its roll, I. B. Hill and Ralph Auerbach. Others were to join, but owing to the nature of their business they were obliged to be out of the city. It was estimated that as a result of the extra meeting at least 2,000 new members would be placed on the rolls of the organization throughout the country.

There were about forty members who gathered about the tables at the Ritz and enjoyed an excellent repast served by Stephen Haff. Afterward several short speeches were listened to. Senior Councilor Peter H. Bennett was the toastmaster, and he interspersed the introduction of the speakers with appropriate remarks. Among those who spoke were John M. Lewin, James C. Field, Ralph Auerbach, I. B. Hill, H. H. Taylor, Charles A. Sturtevant, Edward B. Ryder, Isaac Laing, while Joseph D. Moon made a few remarks and sang a solo. Another feature was the singing of plantation songs by a quintet of colored men, which added to the merriment of the occasion. Of course, those present had a good stock of stories which were exchanged during the evening. To Fred Kling, as chairman of the executive committee, is due much credit for the success of the affair. The Commercial Travelers look after the old as well as new members, paying a substantial sick and death benefit.

MR. AND MRS. B. R. WALDRON CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Celebration of the twentieth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Waldron, of Califon, formerly residents of Plainfield, was enjoyed Saturday night, at a reception given in honor of the couple by Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Burner, at their residence, 32 Jackson avenue, North Plainfield. Twenty guests, all friends of the couple in honor of whom the affair was given, were present and extended their congratulations, felicitating Mr. and Mrs. Waldron on their having passed two score of years of matrimony.

Mr. and Mrs. Waldron have two sons, Marcus and Edward, who are engaged with their father at his creamery at Califon. During the evening the guests enjoyed cards and music. Refreshments were served. The couple were married by the Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor-emeritus of Trinity Reformed church.

BELIEVES AMERICAN FLAG WILL BE RETURNED TO THE SEA

In a speech delivered before the members of The Maritime Association of New York, at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel in that city, on Saturday night last, former Governor John Franklin Fort said that the greatest humiliation of his life had been his trip around the world during which he saw only one ship flying the American flag, and that was on a private yacht at Ceylon. He predicted that the breaking up of big business combinations and the return to competitive business conditions would eliminate men of great wealth like Rockefeller and Carnegie, but would bring about a closer unity among business men, and would result in an American spirit which would eventually restore the American flag to the seas.

WILL OBSERVE ENDEAVOR WEEK WITH A RALLY

The Plainfield Christian Endeavor Union will hold a rally meeting tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock at Warren chapel, in recognition of Christian Endeavor week, which is being observed by members of the society throughout the world.

An attractive program has been arranged by Arnold Finckle, the president, including addresses by the Rev. John Y. Broek, of Trinity Reformed church, and Rev. Evarts C. Conover, of the Temple Baptist church, and cornet solos by William Moke. There will be a roll call of the societies. The devotional exercises will be in charge of Rev. J. O. McKelvey, of Warren chapel. All Endeavorers and others interested are invited.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

PREACHER TELLS WHERE LAW FAILS

It Condemns and Indicts, But Cannot Save One From Sin.

Declaring that the law failed in that it could not do what grace accomplished, the Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire preached to a large congregation in the Park Avenue Baptist church on Sunday night, on the much advertised subject "Where the Law Fails."

"The law," he said, "expresses the mind of God. The law declares the whole duty of man. Men who scoff at Christ and at many parts of the Holy Scriptures, declare the faultless character of the decalogue.

"The law condemns and indicts all those who violate it. In the law it is justice and not mercy. The soul that sinneth shall die. Sin and penalty yoked together is cause and effect.

"The law cannot compel a man to obey. It cannot ignore sin. Neither can it absolve from sin. The law cannot save one from sin and that is the one thing that man requires of it. Therein the law fails. What the law fails to do, however, grace has accomplished."

On Sunday morning Rev. Mr. Maguire preached on the subject "Seek Those Things Which Are Above." He visited Yonkers, N. Y., in the afternoon, where, for the second time this season, he addressed the members of the Y. M. C. A. He spoke to an audience of 900 young men in the Hamilton Theatre, in Yonkers, reaching home in time for his evening prayer meeting and sermon.

POLICE START CRUSADE TO STOP STREET LOAFING

A vigorous campaign has been instituted by the local police force against the practice of youths congregating in front of the Babcock building on West Front street and annoying pedestrians with the passage of personal remarks. The efforts to break up the practice was started in the city court this morning when City Judge William G. DeMeza fined two frequenters of this rendezvous for rowdies $3 each and warned them to keep away from the place in the future.

The police have a list of names of those who gathered there yesterday afternoon and these will probably be summoned before the court tomorrow or Wednesday morning. In speaking of the nuisance this morning Judge DeMeza referred to the practice as a disgrace to the city and declared that those who gathered there, especially on Sunday afternoons, sought to annoy everyone who passed the spot by making remarks and flagrant insults.

The same gang of youths congregate at the point in question during week days but the business section is more or less alive with shoppers and pedestrians during the week and the annoyance has not become noticeable as on Sundays.

JUNIOR MUNICIPAL ORCHESTRA PLAN TO REPEAT CONCERT

The Junior Municipal orchestra of Plainfield will hold a special rehearsal in Franklin School auditorium on Thursday evening, at 8 o'clock. The last concert given by the organization, and which was so highly praised by those who attended it, is to be repeated on the night of Lincoln's Birthday, Thursday, February 12. It will be given in the auditorium of Washington School.

The Rev. Frederick J. Hubach, of the Monroe Avenue Methodist church, has consented to sing again and Miss Evelyn Berg will, as at the previous concert, play the "chimes" accompanied by the full orchestra. The leader and director of the music will be Martin A. Korff.

WILL WORK OUT FINE.

George Totten, a laborer, thirty-six years old, who was arrested Saturday by the police of North Plainfield for being drunk and disorderly, was fined $5 when arraigned in court this morning. He lives at 13 Harmony street. Totten said he had no money to pay his fine, but had secured work harvesting ice and would pay his fine Saturday if he was permitted to go free until then. This was agreed to and he left the court room smiling.

DISPOSES OF BUSINESS.

Henry Rubenson who has been conducting a tailoring establishment at 62 Somerset street, has sold the business to John Matthews, of New York, who will continue the same in the future. Mr. Rubenson and family will leave this week for their former home in Dundee, South Africa.

—The North Plainfield Board of Health will meet tonight at 8 o'clock.

MRS. A. C. CHAPIN DEAD IN 71ST YEAR

Former Plainfielder and Founder of Church Periodical Club.

Mrs. Augusta Cock Chapin, aged 71 years, widow of Josiah L. Chapin, and niece of William R. Cock, of East Fifth street, this city, died yesterday at her residence, Spencer Arms, New York, following a long illness. She was a member of an old Manhattan family. Her grandfather, Dr. Thomas Cock, was one of the founders of the College of Physicians and Surgeons, and served as president of that institution from 1855 to 1865. Her father, Dr. Thomas F. Cock, was for many years connected with the New York Hospital.

Mrs. Chapin was a member of St. Stephen's Parish, New York, and was active in Episcopal circles. She was one of the founders of the Church Periodical Club. Her husband died in 1906. Mr. and Mrs. Chapin lived on Rockview avenue, the borough for a number of years. Mr. Chapin was deeply interested in the work of the Church of the Holy Cross, acting as superintendent of the Sunday-school for a number of years.

MRS. ANN M. ALLEN DIES IN 93D YEAR

Native and Resident of Somerset County for Many Years.

Mrs. Ann Maria Allen, aged ninety-three years, widow of Aaron Allen, one of the oldest residents of the borough, died this morning. Although she had been in fairly good health for some time she failed gradually and passed away peacefully this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harrison Coddington, 12 Mountain avenue, with whom she had lived for a number of years.

Mrs. Allen was a native of Somerset county, and was married in February 1847, to Mr. Allen, who was a prosperous farmer in Washington Valley. Following their marriage they lived in New York for a time, but later settled on a farm in Somerset county. They removed to Plainfield in 1897. Mrs. Allen was the only daughter of the late Thomas Stead, for many years a deacon of the First Baptist church. The family was noted for its longevity, her mother living to be 101 years of age. Mrs. Allen celebrated celebrated the ninety-second anniversary of her birthday in August last.

BISHOP SCARBOROUGH TO VISIT HEAVENLY REST CHURCH

The Rt. Rev. John Scarborough, D. D., Bishop of New Jersey, will visit the Church of the Heavenly Rest on Wednesday morning, April 15, to administer the sacrament of confirmation. The rector, the Rev. C. H. Mallery, is now organizing a class, in anticipation of the Bishop's visitation.

The mission study class, which is being held Wednesday afternoons, at 3:30 o'clock at the Church of the Heavenly Rest, under the leadership of Mrs. J. S. Hansen, is proving most entertaining and instructive. The course is on the book "The Conquest of the Continent."

AN EXHIBITION OF ART WORK TO BE SHOWN HERE

Under the auspices of the art committee of the Plainfield Public Library, of which Grove P. Hinman is chairman, an exhibition of sculpture, painting and drawings in pen and ink will be held from February 9 to February 14, inclusive. The exhibit will be shown in the art gallery, the works to be shown are those of Mrs. Caroline Peddle Ball, Stefan Ivanowski and D. C. Gordon, all three artists of reputation in their respective and chosen fields of art. It is planned to have the exhibition open days as well as evenings. Thus the fullest opportunity will be afforded Plainfield people to witness the display. Admission to the exhibition will be free and the art gallery will be open on Lincoln's Birthday.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

The following officers were elected by the members of the Washington Social Club at its weekly meeting Saturday night: President, George Marsh; vice president, Peter Walsh; second vice-president, Harold Shirley; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. George Marsh; chairman floor committee, Donald Muldowney; assistant floor manager, Walter Bater, G. M. Cooley and Fred Carner.

WINTER'S BACKBONE GOOD FOR SIX WEEKS

Groundhog Crawled Back Into His Subway Apartments for Another Snooze Today.

Old Sol's appearance in the horizon this morning was a cause for much lament among those who had been praying for a curtain of clouds from dawn to nightfall today so that the groundhog or woodchuck as we know him, would not be able to find his shadow when he emerged from his subway apartments to make a survey of the earth. The sun made its appearance in the heavens and the little animal who had no trouble in seeing his shadow, crept back into his cellar apartments and curled up for another six weeks' snooze.

According to legend, the backbone of the winter has not been broken and we will be treated to cold, wind, hail and snow before the robins flit into town for their summer sojourn. Although none saw the groundhog poke his nose above the soil a number of the more superstitious who are planning their potato planting time, found small checks in the earth's surface supposed to have been left by the animal when he turned back in disgust.

The groundhog's reconnaissance is a thing looked forward to at this period of the year by farmers and cold blooded human beings and his return to hibernation was a disappointment to a large majority.

The groundhog is a strict vegetarian and will eat almost any growing leaf, twig, fruit or grain. Feeding liberally through spring and summer, the beginning of the hibernating season, in October or later, finds him in great form for his long winter's nap. His appetite was immense and his thinness extreme when he made his appearance to resume his gay life outside the burrow this morning and although a few degrees difference one way or the other makes little difference in his enthusiasm for the wide world, the reception accorded him this morning was a discouraging one and his fast will now continue for another six weeks.

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF MARRIAGE JUST ANNOUNCED

Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, of DeKalb avenue, entertained a company of about fifty relatives and friends at their home, Saturday night, in honor of their marriage. The couple was married last September, the announcement of the fact being withheld until Saturday. Mrs. Hill was formerly Miss Rose Green, of West Third street. The bride and groom received the congratulations of their guests.

Dancing was the feature of the evening, music being furnished by the Empire City stringed orchestra, the members also singing solos and quartet selections. There were songs by Marshal William Davenport, of Dunellen, and Patrolman Arthur Craig, of this city. Supper was served during the evening.

LOCAL PICTURES TO BE SHOWN AT INDOOR CARNIVAL

The indoor carnival of the Knights of Columbus will be held for one week, beginning Saturday, February 7, in Columbus Hall. Elaborate arrangements have been made by members of the organization for the affair and it promises to be the best entertainment ever given by the order here. One of the features of the carnival will be moving pictures showing the attendants of St. Mary's church leaving that edifice at the conclusion of the morning mass. The pictures were taken yesterday after the church services.

MOYNIHAN INDICTED.

Among those indicted in the Court of Oyer and Terminer in Newark Saturday in the proceedings growing out of the wrecking of the Roseville Trust Company was Michael Moynihan, of the Dunellen Home Ice and Products Company. Reymond E. Smith, the chief figure in the case, was interested in the Dunellen concern.

BURNED RIGHT HAND.

John Laprestic, proprietor of a confectionery store on Watchung avenue, burned his right hand severely this morning while trying to extinguish a fire when a curtain became ignited from the flames of a flashlight being operated by a photographer in the store.

SPEAKERS FOR BANQUET.

The fifth annual banquet of the Dutch Arms of Trinity Reformed church will be held Thursday night, February 19. The speakers will be Judge Robert Carey, of Jersey City; Rev. Dr. I. W. Gowen, of Weehawken, and Rev. Dr. W. P. Bruce, of Yonkers, N. Y.

CHURCH CLEARED OF $1,500 DEFICIT

Congregationalists Respond Promptly to Appeal From the Building Committee.

"Permanent Investments," was the subject of the sermon delivered Sunday morning by the Rev. Charles L. Goodrich, pastor of the Congregational church. Praise was accorded the congregation for providing more commodious buildings for the church and Sunday-school. Such investments, the pastor declared, to be of permanence and of incalculable advantage for the advancement of church work.

Following the sermon the congregation was addressed by Alexander Millar, who, with Chairman Frank A. Weeks and John M. Whiton, comprise the building committee of the church. Mr. Millar spoke of the joy over the improvements, particularly as there was no mortgage incumbrance, and referred to the fine equipment furnished for the new parish house. There is still needed $1,500, he said, to complete the repairs and lighting and furnishing for the building. This will make the total cost over $21,000. The congregation subscribed $1,560, more than covering the deficit, after which the doxology was sung.

There has been co-operation of all the church members and organizations over the building project this winter. Carpet runners were given for all of the aisles of the new building by the Woman's Association. The Girls' Club furnished the kitchen elaborately and the Tuckabatchee class of young men, of which James McClymont is leader, is to furnish its own class room with chairs and other needed articles of furniture.

The Rev. Dr. Goodrich said today that he was much encouraged by the co-operation of his church people in his efforts to advance the cause of religion in this community.

MISS INGER V. BYE WEDS RUSSELL H. HANN

Miss Inger V. Bye, daughter of Henry C. Bye, of Clinton avenue, and Russell H. Hann, of Somerset place, were quietly married Saturday afternoon in the presence of the immediate families of the bride and groom at the St. Joseph's rectory, by Rev. John F. Baldwin. Miss Cora Landsberg, of New York, was the bridesmaid, and LeRoy S. Hann, brother of the groom, best man. Following the ceremony, the bridal couple, in company with their attendants, left for New York, where a wedding supper was enjoyed, after which the party enjoyed the performance at the Hippodrome.

The groom is employed by the Allen B. Laing Company, of this city, as an electrician. The newly-wedded couple will not take a honeymoon trip at present, but in the spring will spend two weeks at Baltimore and Washington. The couple returned to this city yesterday and immediately went to housekeeping in North Plainfield.

MISS NETTIE J. BEECHING BRIDE OF ROBERT LOVE

In the presence of only their immediate relatives, owing to the recent death of the bride's mother, Miss Nettie J. Beeching and Robert Love, of North Plainfield, were married on Saturday afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. C. Cain, pastor of Grace Methodist Episcopal church, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, of the First Baptist church, at the home of the bride, at 138 Grove street. The bride wore an embroidered lace gown, trimmed with charmeuse and pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the volley. There were no attendants. Numerous handsome wedding gifts were presented the couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Love left for New York on their honeymoon. They will be "at home" to their friends at 44 Duer street, upon their return, until April 1, after which date they will reside at 138 Grove street, North Plainfield. Both bride and groom are well known church workers of this city. Mrs. Love has long been active in Sunday-school work and has taught a class in Grace M. E. church, in the borough, for several years. She is a daughter of the late Stephen and Annette Beeching. Mr. Love is a member of the First Baptist church, is active in its work, and is superintendent of Evona chapel.

PLAN TO CONSOLIDATE.

For the purpose of considering the advisability of consolidating all the missionary societies, a meeting will be held at the First Baptist church, tomorrow afternoon. The officers of the various societies believe that more work can be accomplished with one society, and that it will be the means of increasing the attendance and interest.

FATHER BOGAN SCORES DANCES

Refers to Some of Them as "The Present Manners of Cultured Animalism."

A NOTE OF WARNING

Individual Conscience Should Be Society's Monitor, Declares Pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic Church.

Disclaiming sensationalism and delivering his remarks upon the subject in a paternal manner to the members of his congregation, Father Bernard M. Bogan, pastor of St. Mary's R. C. church, on Sunday voiced a protest against the lure and insidious indencency of those dances which society people are exploiting at the present time.

Scoring what he termed "the present manners of cultured animalism" in referring to the turkey trot, the tango, and other pronounced dances of that ilk, Father Bogan declared that there would be eminently proper dancing and conduct though by no means sanctimonious behaviour, among those who attend the coming entertainment to be given by the Knights of Columbus. This is always one of the enjoyable affairs of the season in Plainfield and is largely attended.

"The individual conscience should be society's monitor, in dancing as in all else," Father Bogan declared. He said that he hoped the people of his congregation would appreciate the opportunity so soon to be afforded them of attending the entertainment which the Knights of Columbus was so soon to give. There would, he said, be orderliness and good conduct shown by the attendants. While desirous that the affair be conducted in a manner eminently proper there was no thought on his *part, Father Bogan said, that the en*tertainment was to be sanctmonious, which would, he declared, be worse under such circumstances than the reverse.

"While some of the present day dances," said the Father Bogan, "may be innocent to some individuals, there is, at least, a tendency to indecency which does not come through the usual custom of holding hands in the dance."

PLANS TO PURCHASE DARLING FARM ARE UNDERWAY

There will be a meeting of the joint sewage commission in the Council chamber on Wednesday evening. Reports will, it is expected, be received from the committee recently appointed regarding the matter of the selection of a permanent engineer whose duty it will be to look after the construction of the proposed trunk line pipe, and as to the possibility of purchasing the Darling farm. It is understood that the committee has visited the farm and talked with the owner concerning its purchase. There have already been three meeting of the joint sewage commission and the members are said to be pushing the project with all possible expedition and vigor.

The cost of establishing the sewage disposal beds and to build the trunk pipe line will cost in the neighborhood of $240,000. This does not, of course, take into consideration the necessary expenditures that will have to be made by the taxpayers and municipalities of Plainfield, North Plainfield and Dunellen.

NELSON BATTS.

Nelson Batts, colored, aged 53 years, well known in this city, died yesterday at his home, at 443 West Third street, of a complication of diseases. He had been ill for some time. He is survived by a wife and daughter. The funeral will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Mt. Olive Baptist church, of which the deceased was a member, Rev. Mr. Vaughn, the pastor, officiating. Mr. Batts was employed by the firm of A. E. Force & Co., and had worked for Edward White, the predecessor of that firm.

READY TO DISTRIBUTE SEEDS.

Plainfield residents who desire garden seeds may make application for same to U. S. Senator James E. Martine at Washington, who will send them to any one who may ask for them. The giving away of seeds of various kinds is a yearly custom of the government and their distribution is one of the many prerogatives of Senators and Congressmen who are always glad to accommodate their constituents.

SPECIAL C. E. SERVICE.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Hope Chapel will hold a special anniversary service Sunday night. A musical program will be given by the choir and Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor, will preach a sermon appropriate to the occasion.

All Day Tomorrow

TUESDAY

is

DOUBLE STAMP DAY

2 FREE S. & H. GREEN TRADING STAMPS ALL DAY With Each 10 Cents You Spend

THE HIGH COST OF LIVING GETS AN AWFUL JOLT WHEN YOU BEGIN TO SAVE S. & H. STAMPS. BEGIN TOMORROW---DOUBLE STAMPS ALL DAY

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"The White Store"

We Give the Famous S. & H. Green Trading Stamps

Store Opens at 8:30; Closes Saturdays at 10 p. m. Others days at 5:30.

Plains & Fanwood.

Anthony Albert, the local contractor, has been awarded a contract for the erection of a frame structure, which will be used as a butcher shop, for a Plainfield man.

Miss Gertrude Smalley, of Front street, who has been ill for the past six weeks, returned to her position in Plainfield, this morning.

Eugene Lidgate and Jack Carter, of Fanwood, spent the week-end with friends in Cranford.

The Parish House Junior Basketball team met the Mount Pleasant Juniors, Saturday afternoon. The Mount Pleasant quintet went down to defeat by a score of 74 to 16. Next Saturday afternoon the Junior Five of the local institution will again try conclusions with the same team.

Owing to the failure of those who applied for entry in the bowling league which has been started by W. A. Batterson, of the Parish House, depositing their entry fees and signing the entry sheets the first game of the schedule will not be played tonight as expected but will be rolled the middle of the week.

The Sewing Guild of the All Saints Episcopal church will hold a dinner at the home of Mrs. Edward Sherwood, on Martine avenue, Fanwood, Friday, February 13.

Leon Minatty, of South avenue, has returned home from a business trip to Boston and other smaller towns around that section of Massachusetts.

A large party of local people are expecting to attend the dance to be given at St. Mary's church, at Stony Hill, Wednesday night. The local dance enthusiasts will meet at one of the local stores and will go to Stony Hill in a body. This is the first dance that has been held under Father Mac Grath's supervision. The proceeds of the affair will be used to help defray the expenses of the church.

The pupils of Public School, No. 1, are making preparations for an elimination contest to be held the last of the month to select the pupils who will represent this school district in the prize speaking and spelling contests to be held in Westfield in March, under the direction of the Union County Principals' Association.

Work will probably be started this week on the improvements to the local police court which were ordered by the Borough Council at its last meeting. They will include a recorder's desk and stand.

William Sisserson, who has resided here for the past five years, has sold his farm in the borough to Richard McElory, of Brooklyn, who took possession last week.

Mrs. Henry L. Jesperson, Sr., who has been confined to her home by a sprained ankle, caused by a recent fall on the ice, is able to be out again.

Dunellen & Vicinity

James Margentino, of North avenue, is detained at home by illness, and is under the care of Dr. Roger Cooley.

Owing to the vacancy of a scoutmaster who can drill the local troop of Boy Scouts, Clarence Voorhees, of Jackson avenue, is helping out with the weekly meetings of the troop by instructing the members of the local organization.

Peter Mohan, of New York, is visiting his uncle, Owen Mohan, Sr., of Dunellen avenue.

Charles Jensen, of Columbia street, who has been detained at his home for the past week by a slight illness, is again able to be out and around.

Thomas Beck, of Jackson avenue, who several weeks ago had his foot smashed while in the discharge of his duties as conductor on the Plainfield drill engine, is again able to be out and around and will resume his duties on the railroad tomorrow morning.

George Day, of Front street, spent the week end in New York on business.

Irving Mundy, a former clerk of Charles Day, of New Market, has opened a seafood market, in the store formerly occupied by Harry Titsworth, on North avenue, above Lincoln avenue.

Robert F. Bogardus, Jr., of New Market road, is a member of the petit jury now in session in New Brunswick.

Sylvester Rinehart, the fireman on the Dunellen pusher, of the Central Railroad, who received a painful injury the forepart of last week when a hot cinder fell into his eye, is again able to resume his duties although the injured member still troubles him considerably.

Bound Brook.

T. D. Van Syckle has sold the three story brick building on the corner of Main and Hamilton streets, belonging to Mrs. Alpaugh and Mrs. Rutt, to Peter and Loentine Moine, who will open a department store there in the near future.

The directors of the Public Library have organized with the election of the following officers: President, Mrs. George Stryker; secretary, Mrs. George M. LaMonte; treasurer, Mrs. Charles V. Higgins.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Congregational church will meet in the chapel tomorrow afternoon at three o'clock; topic, "Results and Prospects;" leader, Mrs. William W. Smalley. Hostesses, Mrs. George V. Cornell, Mrs. Henry Raul and Mrs. A. H. Tiedemann.

Miss Hettie Walters, of South Bound Brook, has been spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Leon A. Walters, of Beechwood Heights.

Reserved seats for the Y. M. A. minstrels were placed on sale this morning. As about one hundred tickets have been sold, those desiring to exchange them for reserved seats had better do so at once.

St. Paul's gymnastic class for women will have a masquerade ball this evening at 8:15 in St. Paul's Parish House. Each member has the privilege of bringing one woman guest. The committee is Miss Helen Wirtz, Miss Alice Rugen and Miss Ellen Fetter.

The regular meeting of Somerset Lodge, No. 56, K. of P., will be held in Hamilton Hall at 8 o'clock this evening.

The Bound Brook Council, Boy Scouts of America, will meet in the Middlebrook Country Club house this evening at 8 o'clock.

The February "social afternoon" of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed church will be held in the chapel tomorrow afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

William E. Johnson, of Newark, was a week-end visitor with his mother, Mrs. Peter Johnson, of Beechwood Heights.

Mrs. May Eickman Foster, sister of Mrs. Clarence Holt, of Beechwood Heights, died on Saturday at Trenton. The funeral services will be held in the South Bound Brook Reformed church, on Thursday.

The February meeting of the Board of Education, of the Borough of Middlesex, will be held in the Beechwood Heights fire house this evening.

Somerville

A. W. Thatcher has purchased the house and lot owned by the estate of the late Phebe Burner, of No. 63 East High street.

The following children attended the West High street kindergarten school every day during January: James Carroll, Horace Coates, Francis Morganroth, Stewart Packer, William R. Sutphen, Jr., Ogden Ackerman, David C. Jeffcott, Howard Williamson, William F. Wissell, Robert Holmes, Cecil Lindley, Jr., Thomas Anderson, George Anderson, Mabel E. Beekman, Theresa Hoch, Claire O'Donnell and Marian Hockenbury.

Mrs. John S. Allen, of the Women's Board of Domestic Missions, will address the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Second Reformed church on Wednesday afternoon, at 3 o'clock, in the chapel.

Several houses are being erected on Third street by the Charles J. Smith Company, and it is also said that building operations are to be quite lively this spring.

David Daniels will move his family from East Main street to one of the new houses recently erected on Middagh street.

Mr. and Mrs. James Patterson and daughter have been spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Dalrymple.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon T. Stryker, of New York city, spent yesterday with the latter's mother, on East High street.

Miss Mary Griggs, from the Vassar College, has been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Griggs.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman F. Moosbrugger have returned from their trip of several weeks to Florida.

Quite a surprise was occasioned at the close of the morning service yesterday, when the Rev. Frederick J. Soule, the pastor, announced his resignation, to take effect with the last Sunday in the present month. Mr. Soule had been pastor of the church for about four years, coming here in July of 1910, and his resignation caused considerable surprise. He stated that he considered his further connection was not necessary, as everything was in excellent shape, and that he wished to take up a different line of work, especially settlement work in one of the large cities, and it was this desire that prompted him in severing his relations as pastor. During his stay in Somerville Mr. Soule has identified himself with the growth of the town, as well as his particular church, and he will be greatly missed.

The funeral services of Miss Keturah Griggs was held yesterday afternoon at her late home on Mercer street. Miss Griggs had long been an active member of the First Reformed church. She died suddenly at her home on Thursday evening, after a short illness. Interment was in the new cemetery. The Rev. Samuel Parry officiated at the services.

County Superintendent of Weights and Measures Thomas P. Gallagher, of Raritan, and Miss Erma Wolfinger, formerly of Wilkes-barre, Pa., were married on Saturday evening by the Rev. J. J. Zimmer, pastor of St. Bernard's church, Raritan. Miss Wolfinger formerly taught school at Green Knoll, Hamilton Station and other places in Somerset county. After a short honeymoon trip Mr. and Mrs. Gallagher will reside in apartments in the Hickey building, at Raritan.

Westfield.

Dr. A. L. Johnson, the new county superintendent of schools, has announced that two county schools contests will be held at Westfield this spring. The primary and grammar oratorical contests will be held at the Washington School March 6. The county spelling contest will be held at the Washington School in May.

The wedding of Miss Lillian B. Hunt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Hunt, of Ross place, to Walter B. Taylor, of this town, will take place February 19, at the home of the bride-elect.

Flemington.

The Flemington Concert Band has elected the following officers: President and musical director, Howard F. Barrass; vice president, Stephen B. Jones; secretary, R. C. Harsel; treasurer and manager, Harry B. Green, trustees, William Munson, William Flynn and Mr. Jones; assistan musical director, Wilson Dunar.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Staples, of Hampton, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Roche.

New Providence.

Arthur Doty, of South Orange, is spending several weeks with his uncle, Collector Arthur C. Doty, of South street.

Harry Lamberson was initiated as a member of Starry Flag Council, No. 158, Jr. O. U. A. M., Friday night. He is the first candidate to be initiated since Edward G. Miller became councilor.

"The Christian Source of Happiness" was the topic of Rev. W. A. L. Jett, pastor of St. Luke's Reformed Episcopal Mission, South street, Murray Hill, yesterday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lawyer, of Summit, are visiting Mr. and Mrs George Osborne, of Springfield avenue.

Rev. A. W. Karnell, of Barrington, preached in the Presbyterian church yesterday morning.

A son was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. Dominick Rosata, of Marion avenue, Murray Hill.

Holy communion was observed in the Methodist church yesterday morning. In the evening the pastor, Rev. William H. Evans, preached on "The Bread of Life."

Mrs. A. J. Gittens and family, of Putnam avenue, Berkeley Heights, returned home Friday, after visiting friends and relatives in Brooklyn.

Miss Marion Johnson entertained the teachers of the Lincoln School at her home in Central avenue, Long Hill, Chatham township, Friday evening.

William Burgmiller, of New Providence township, has presented to the Columbia School of Berkeley Heights the flagpole and vane on the property he recently purchased from the Board of Education.

The "Millionaires' Fire Department" of Short Hills, Friday night dined at the Pine Tree Inn, Berkeley Heights. It was the first of their annual dinners to be held in New Jersey; heretofore they have been held in New York.

High Bridge-Califon.

W. Eugene Apgar, sixty-four years old, is ill at his home in Califon.

Under the auspices of the High Bridge Garden Club an entertainment will be held in Rialto Hall, High Bridge, tonight.

H. A. Fritz, of High Bridge, has succeeded L. W. Jones, resigned, as general superintendent of the Taylor Wharton Steel and Iron Company's plants at High Bridge and Plainfield.

A play, "Engaged by Wednesday," morning, caused John Sargent, of will be presented February 6 by members of the senior class of the High Bridge High School in Rialto Hall.

Revival meetings will continue this week at the High Bridge Methodist church. Services will be conducted tomorrow night by Rev. L. J. Gordon, of Flanders, and on Wednesday night by Rev. C. W. Vawter, of Hampton.

William Philhower is ill at his home in Railroad avenue, Califon.

Members of the High Bridge Gun Club, Saturday, took part in a live bird tournament at Easton.

Whitehouse.

Mrs. William W. Shampanore and sons, Kenneth and George Shampanore, of Whitehouse Station, are in Pennington, where they are visiting Mrs. Shampanore's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Blackwell.

Frank LaTourette, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter LaTourette, of Whitehouse Station, who has been ill from pneumonia, is improving.

Alvin Shafer, of Pleasant Run, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Newton Shafer, at Whitehouse Station, while he is recovering from an attack of the grip.

Charles Jerolaman, who has been suffering from grip at Gladstone, is improving.

Raymond Miller, of Bedminster, is visiting his sister, Mrs. A. E. Weis, at Gladstone.

Mrs. Peter D. Reed returned Friday to East Whitehouse, after a visit to her sister, Mrs. Edgar Lance, in High Bridge.

Miss Ethel Conover, who is a student in Barnard College, New York, is spending a vacation until Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Conover, at Potterstown.

At the services in the Methodist church at Lebanon yesterday the pastor, Rev. Sylvanus D. Decker had for his topics: Morning, "The Battle of the Pitchers;" evening, "The Man Lame in Both Feet."

Charles Daggett, of East Whitehouse, is the week-end guest of William Cadmus at Newark.

Samuel Daggett and daughters, Misses Ethel and Mary Daggett, of East Whitehouse, and Miss Van Derveer, of New Brunswick, went to Newark Saturday to visit Mrs. Daggett, who is a patient in St. Barnabas' Hospital.

The New Jersey Telephone Company will hold its annual election of officers at Lebanon, February 9.

Clarence Belton, of New Germantown, is the guest for a few days of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Belton, at Peapack.

A special meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society was held in the Reformed church at Peapack last night.

Mrs. David Lindabury, who lives at Centre, near East Whitehouse, is seriously ill from a complication of diseases.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETING.

Delegates from Plainfield, Elizabeth, Metuchen, Somerville and other points in this vicinity will go to Elizabeth on Wednesday, where they will attend the session of the upper division of the New Jersey branch of the Women's Auxiliary. Several speakers will address the meeting, among them the Rev. Stuart L. Tyson, of Tennessee, who will speak of his religious work among the crude mannered and untutored Tennessee mountaineers.

STILL ALARM.

A small fire was discovered in a house on Sherman avenue, just outside the city limits, early this afternoon and the chemical engine, responding to the call, put the fire out with little or no damage resulting.

THE DAILY PRESS IN DUNELLEN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by Edward Pennock, druggist and newsdealer.

WORKING GIRLS TO FORM FEDERATION

Extension Dep't of Y. W. C. A. Will Make Newark Clubs a Nucleus.

The first federation of working girls' clubs in this country is soon to be organized in the extension department of the Young Women's Christian Association, the plan for the work of the entire country to be worked out in the Newark administration building of the association.

Miss Ernestine L. Friedman, national extension secretary for the northeast field, which takes in New York, New Jersey and New England, has been in Newark several days arranging for the federation of all the local clubs, as well as all the clubs in the towns and cities of the United States. She has enlisted the services of a number of local club women and school teachers, who, with the local extension secretaries, are working out the plans for federation organization. It is expected that the organization meeting will be held February 12.

There are at present 200 clubs in the northeast field, with a membership of 7,000 girls. Newark alone has fifteen of these clubs, with a membership of 725. The clubs are organized in fifteen local factories and the club members enjoy all the advantages of the association, because of the extension plan, at figures much lower than those allowed the girls and women who take advantage of the day classes.

As explained by Miss Friedman, the object of federation is to interest all the girls in the extension clubs in the Y. W. C. A. movement, and to make them a part of it. While the extension clubs are now confined to the girls in stores and factories, other girls will not be hindered from forming similar clubs.

SUBSCRIPTION DANCE.

The subscription dance held on Saturday evening at the Park Club was a very delightful as well as a highly successful affair. The music was furnished by Miller's orchestra, and altogether the dance was one of the pleasantest and most enjoyable affairs that has been given at the club in a long time.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SCOTCH PLAINS and Fanwood is delivered every afternoon by carrier leaving the main office in Plainfield at 3:45. Orders may be telephone or mailed to the main office and will receive prompt attention. 'Phone Plainfield 1300

Jacob Gerner, newsdealer, Somerville, sells the Daily Press or will deliver to any home for 15c per week.

STYLISH RELIABLE

A Professional Man

In referring to the Rothberg store the other day was heard to make the following remark:

"The one thing I like above all else at the Rothberg store is that you are never asked to buy anything when you go in, and they never try to sell you something that you don't want when they happen not to have one of the 'Most Things Men Wear' that you do want.

seems to mean 'Sunny Reception' — busy or not.''

This ad. was written by one of Plainfield's prominent architects.

Will you write an ad. for the Rothberg store?

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's

Union Made Union Stamped

The Waldorf Shoes

$2.50 and $3

All Waldorf Shoes received since January 1st, 1914, bear the official stamp of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, insuring to the wearer the best workmanship.

Sole agency for Plainfield.

SHOES FOR THE BIG FOLKS

Stuart's SHOE SHOP

215 WEST FRONT ST.

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

SHOES FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS

J. B. GREENHUT, PRES. "THE BIG STORE"

GREENHUT-SIEGEL COOPER CO.
"MEET ME AT THE FOUNTAIN"

BOTH SIDES OF SIXTH AVE.-18TH TO 19TH ST.
NO CONNECTION WITH ANY OTHER STORE

GREENHUT'S---
The Store That Has No Dull Days

EVERY DAY commands public attention at "The Big Store."

Every day presents its extraordinary offerings that cannot be missed by thrifty people.

That is one of the fundamental policies of this business.

Among the upward of a hundred merchandise operators who watch the market, in the various lines of goods we sell, we demand that three or four, at least, will have secured Bargains beyond the ordinary, for each individual day of the calender, all year 'round.

While everybody cannot buy every day, nobody who knows this store fails to WATCH THE ADVERTISING EVERY DAY, so that each may be SURE TO COME when anything is offered that they DO need.

For "The Big Store's" Bargains Offer the Biggest Savings to be found in New York City.

If You Are Not Already a Charge Customer of The Big Store

we will make it easy for you to become one. Consult our Department of Accounts, Balcony, MAIN Building.

MAIN BUILDING

$2 to $3 (1-20)

Gold Bracelets

Placed On Sale Here, Tomorrow, at . . . $1

Lovely, new designs in all sizes for babies, girls, misses and women.

All of these bracelets are hand-engraved; all with secret locks; a wonderful variety for your choice, in this sale, tomorrow.

And, remember $2 to $3 bracelets at $1 comprise only one of the items arranged for tomorrow's shoppers in the February sale of jewelry which began so successfully this morning.

We Give S&H Green Trading Stamps

Complimentary S&H Stamps FREE, Tomorrow

Distribution in Premium Parlor, Greenhut Building.
Only 100 complimentary stamps good in any one book.

MAIN BUILDING

Tomorrow the Big Inventory Clean-Up of

Men's, Women's and Children's Hosiery

This is the stirring occasion when "The Big Store" brings out of the shelves and the stock-room all the odd lots and discontinued lines of stockings, and puts them on sale at startling reductions, together with importers' clean-ups and tempting lots of manufacturers' "seconds."

It Is the Time to Buy a Year's Supply for the Whole Family

Every style, kind, size, color, and price, for the baby, the children and all the grown-ups. Read the remarkable list:

Women's Hosiery

Fast Black Cotton Hose—light and medium weight; extra long; heavy heels and toes; pair..... 7c

19c and 25c Boot Silk Hose—black cotton with spliced heels and toes, and black cotton with unbleached soles; pair..... 12½c

Full-Fashioned and Seamless Fast Black Mercerized Lisle, Plain Lisle and Extra Quality Maco Cotton Hose—with double tops and double soles; "seconds"; pair.. 19c

35c and 50c Imported Lisle Thread Hose—plain or with self and contrasting hand-embroidered fronts; double tops; pair..... 25c

50c and 65c Full-Fashioned Double Top and Sole Pure Thread Boot Silk Hose—black, white, tan or colors; "seconds"; pair..... 29c

$1 to $1.50 Light- and Medium-Weight Ingrain Pure Thread Silk Hose—all silk or lisle tops and soles; black, white, tan, pink, sky, navy, etc.; pair..... 79c

50c Fine Black Cashmere Hose—extra good quality; elastic; double soles, heels and toes; pair..... 25c

60c to 75c Fine Light-Weight Black Cashmere Hose—with silk-mixed, reinforced heels and toes; some have slight imperfections which can hardly be detected; pair 39c

Men's and Children's Hosiery

Men's 15c Medium and Heavy Black and, Colored Cotton Hose—extra well made; pair..... 8c

Infants' and Children's 25c and 35c Silk and Wool Hose—in white, black or tan; pair..... 15c

Misses' and Children's 19c Extra Quality Black Cotton Hose—double soles; sizes 6 to 9½; pair..... 12½c

Men's 25c and 35c Silk Mercerized Lisle and Fine Cashmere Hose—made with strong double heels, toes and soles; "seconds"; pair..... 19c

Misses', Boys' and Children's 25c and 35c Medium-Weight Black or White Hose—made with double knees, fashioned feet and double soles; "seconds"; pair..... 19c

Men's 50c Full-Fashioned Black Cashmere, Pure Thread Silk and Thread Silk Plated Hose—all with double soles; "seconds"; pair..... 29c

Men's 65c Full-Fashioned Black and Colored Thread Silk Hose—medium weight; made with lisle thread double soles; "seconds"; pair.. 39c

GREENHUT BUILDING

Every Home Wants FURNITURE This Spring; but, if You Wait Until Housecleaning Time, You'll Pay Far Bigger Prices Than Rule Now in This

February Furniture Sale

Thoughtful and thrifty housekeepers are BUYING NOW while the PRICES ARE LITTLE; for, by special arrangement, we will keep the furniture and send it home later on in the spring, if you are not ready for it now.

Handsome, Durable FURNITURE for Every Room in the House; Big Assortments; Most-Wanted Kinds; at Large Savings

$12 Golden Oak Tables—as illustrated; all oak; 6 ft. extension; top 42 inches in diameter, well made and finished; claw feet; tomorrow, at..... $9

$4 Mahogany-Finished Tables—top 24x24 inches; neat design; material, construction and finish are good, tomorrow, at $3

$46.50 Brass Bedstead Outfits—consists of an $18 brass bedstead with 2-inch continuous posts and 7 one-inch filling rods, in 4 ft. and 4 ft. 6 sizes; guaranteed lacquer in bright or satin finish; a genuine $23 "Ostermoor" mattress and a $5.50 woven wire spring; complete..... $28

$38 Solid Mahogany Dining Room Tables—6 ft. extension; 45 inches in diameter; beautiful Colonial design; to morrow, at.. $29

Same table in beautifully figured quartered oak, tomorrow, at..... $22.50

Golden Oak Buffets.

Regularly.	Sale Price.	Regularly.	Sale Price.
$52.00....	$46.00	$32.50....	$28.50
36.50....	30.00	27.50....	23.50
35.00....	31.00	27.00....	22.50
		23.00....	20.00

Stock on these limited.

Golden Oak Extension Tables.

Regularly.	Sale Price.	Regularly.	Sale Price.
$34.00....	$30.00	$18.50....	$16.50
27.50....	24.00	16.75....	14.50
22.75....	19.00	13.75....	12.00

Stock on these limited.

$14 Solid Fumed Oak Library Tables—as illustrated, fumed oak finish; 25x41 top; 2-inch legs, one drawer, tomorrow, at..... $10

$11 Fumed Oak Library or Living Room Tables—26 inches long and 24 inches wide; one drawer; book rack at each end for books or magazines; tomorrow, at..... $8.50

$27.50 Mahogany Library Tables—45 inches long and 28 inches wide; heavy pedestal and top; one drawer; beautifully finished; tomorrow, at..... $19 50

$8.50 White Enamel Chiffoniers—29 inches wide; 5 large drawers; all wooden knobs; mirror 10 x 17; good locks; at..... $5.75

Golden Oak China Cabinets.

Regularly.	Sale Price.
$40.00....	$35.00
39.00....	35.00
31.00....	27.00
29.00....	25.00
22.50....	19.00
17.50....	15.50

Stock on these limited.

$34 Square-Post Brass Bedsteads—as illustrated; 2-inch posts; heavy top rails and filling rods; bright or satin finish; guaranteed lacquer; all regular sizes; at..... $21.50

$10 White Enamel Dressers—as illustrated; top 20x38 inches; 12x20 French plate mirror; two large and two small drawers; good locks and casters; wonderful value; at..... $7.50

$17.50 Jacobean Arm Saddle Wood Seat Rockers—quartered oak; handsomely carved and splendidly finished; tomorrow, at..... $10.50

GREENHUT BUILDING

Framed Pictures 95c

Regularly Priced $1.50 to $4; Tomorrow, at

These pictures have been priced at various figures from $1.50 up to $4 in our own stock. They are thus heavily reduced for tomorrow, because some of these pictures have been slightly hurt from handling during recent sales.

About 300 Pictures in the Lot

Only one or two of a kind. Splendid variety of subjects. Many are copies of the world's best in art—excellent reproductions.

BIGGEST bargains for those who come EARLIEST. None sent C. O. D., and not more than 2 pictures sold to any one customer.

GREENHUT BUILDING

Another Shipment of Newest

$1.50 Scrim Curtains 98c

In Tomorrow's Sale, at, Pair

Choice of several designs of lace insertions; splendidly mounted on good quality scrim.

Quantity limited, so come early.

MAIN BUILDING

A Triple Event in Our Men's Clothing Store---

Three Purchases from Manufacturers

Suits, Overcoats, Raincoats

$10 and $12 Values, Grouped for Special Selling, Tomorrow, at $6.95

All good clothing—every bit of it made for this season and intended for retailing at regular prices.

Our purchases of limited quantities, under price, bring you these bargains.

$10 and $12 SUITS for Youths & Young Men, at $6.95

Only 481 suits. Patterns and materials such as will at once appeal to careful dressers.

Black and white mixtures, stripes, pin checks; also grays, browns, tans and neat mixtures. Sizes 30 to 38.

$10 & $12 Overcoats $6.95

for Men and Youths, at

Handsome and serviceable garments. Some with shawl collars. Others with convertible collars. Also a splendid collection of regulation styles in neat mixtures. Sizes 32 to 40.

164 Genuine Imported English Raincoats, at $6.95

Our first shipment for 1914.

First showing tomorrow.

No other store in town can show raincoats like these. But when they can they will most likely price them at $10 and $12 each.

Added to Our Annual Sale Are 3,000 Pairs of Trousers, $3 and $4 Grades, at $2

Best- looking and most serviceable trousers for business and dress wear. Principally in striped worsteds, fancy suitings and plain blues and blacks. Sizes 29 to 56 waist-measure.

GREENHUT BUILDING

This Useful Set of Seven

Kitchen Bowls

(As Illustrated) Complete for 98c

A boon and a blessing to every housewife. The sizes of these bowls range from 4 to 10 inches. Each is decorated with a blue border design.

English Porcelain Table Ware at ½ Price

Plates—all sizes; each..	8c & 10c	Meat Dishes—each..	10c, 15c & 25c	Soup Tureens—each	69c
Fruit Saucers—each	6c	Covered Vegetable Dishes—each	49c	Sauce Boats—each	19c
Tea Cups and Saucers—each	15c	Uncovered Vegetable Dishes—each	15c	Individual Butters—each	2c

MAIN BUILDING

Extraordinary Specials in Commercial Stationery

50c Blank Books—full duck binding; imitation Russian leather corners; spring back, good paper in all ruling; size 8x12; 300 pages; at..... 35c

50c Desk Pads—real leather corners; cloth-bound edges; size 19x24; including sheet of blotting paper; at 22c

25c Pkg. Typewriting Paper—Manila; packed 500 sheets to ream; used for carbon copies; letter size; 8½x11, at..... 17c

Typewriting Paper—500 sheets to package; size 8½x11; values to 50c; at..... 37c

Box Carbon Paper—100 sheets to box; letter size (8½x11); or legal size; black, blue or purple; box..... 50c

1,000 sheets.... $4.25.

25c Box Business Envelopes—Imperial brand; good white stock; size 6¾; 250 to box; at..... 19c

1,000.... 69c.

Gem Paper Clips—No. 1; 100 in box; at..... 3c

1,000.... 22c.

5c Circular Typewriter Erasers—each..... 2c

Dozen.... 22c.

50c Doz. Lead Pencils—yellow; finished with tip and eraser; dozen..... 29c

Box Files—Fountain Brand, equal to any 25c box file on the market; each..... 16c

Dozen.... $1.75.

Dandy Dust-Proof Letter File—with brass catch; each.. 23c

Dozen.... $2.69.

25c Wire Letter Trays—for desk use; each..... 15c

5c Blotting Paper—size 12x24; standard colors; each..... 3c

Dozen.... 33c.

Ink—specially priced to close; quart bottle..... 19c

75c Gross 048 Falcon Penpoints—Esterbrook's; gross..... 59c

$1 Gross Spencerian Penpoints—No. 1; gross..... 65c

Index Cards for Filing—size 3x5; reg. 1,000 for $1; at, 100 for 7c

1,000 for 59c.

Daily Calendars—each..... 6c

Vest Pocket Diaries—each..... 10c

GREENHUT BUILDING

This List Contains Many Unusual Economies—

Housefurnishing Articles

Reductions On Best Standard Grades—This Store, You Know, NEVER Sells "The Other Kinds"

$1.25 Stationary Wash Tub Covers, at..... 98c

$2.80 Rotary Ash Sifters, each..... $1.98

$1.80 Ash Cans, iron side protectors; at..... $1.25

50c Wash Tubs, family size; at..... 40c

35c Garbage Cans; tight-fitting cover; at..... 50c

$1.75 Family Scales; weighs up to 12 lbs.; can be used as a parcel post scale; at..... $1.25

60c Wash Tubs, with wringer attachment; at. 25c

Mrs. Pott's Irons—set of 3 irons, stand and handle; at..... 85c

5c Roll Toilet Paper—at..... 10 Rolls for 25c

Kraemer's Oval Wash Boilers—heavy gauge copper bottom; at..... $1.15

Fancy Scrap or Waste Paper Baskets—values up to $1; at..... 50c

Torquoise Blue Enamel Ware

On Sale, Tomorrow, at About ½ Regular Price

$1.45 Preserving kettles, at..... 90c

This is a clearance, and of some of the items there are not enough to last the day.

Almost every cooking utensil is in the lot. We quote the following five specimen values:

85c Colanders, at..... 50c

$1 Lipped Sauce Pans, at..... 60c

85c Coffee Pots, at..... 50c

45c Pudding Pans, at..... 30c

No Mail or Telephone Orders Filled.

"Everybody's Going to THE BIG STORE" — Double S&H Green Trading Stamps with Purchases Made Before 12 o'Clock—Single Stamps Thereafter

ABANDONED COLORED INFANT FOUND NEAR SCOTCH PLAINS

Cries of an infant, heard while the rain was falling heavily on Saturday morning, caused John Sargent, of Scotch Plains, to investigate. He found a three months' old colored baby lying in the big woods, near the golf club, a nursing bottle partly filled with milk lying close by the child. The baby was warmly dressed although its clothing was drenched with rain. The foundling was turned over by the finder to Dr. F. W. Westcott, county physician, and the township authorities will endeavor to find its parents.

"YOUNG PEOPLE AND THE KINGDOM" SERMON THEME

"Christian Endeavor Sunday" was observed at the First Baptist church, last night, when Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, the pastor, preached on the subject, "Young People and the Kingdom of God." He paid tribute to the world-wide influence of the Christian Endeavor Society. Since its organization, in 1881, he said, there have been 50,00,000 meetings held and 100,000 conventions. Foreign missions have been given $20,000,000 and over 4,000,000 young people have given their souls to Christ through the influence of the society.

The Rev. Dr. Strong declared that in the ranks of the society of the First Baptist church young men and women can be trained to service in the great Christian army.

MRS. T. E. CURRIN, JR., DIES AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Mrs. Gertrude Currin, wife of Thomas E. Currin, Jr., paying teller at the First National Bank, died shortly before noon today at her home on Mountain avenue. She had been ill less than a week with an acute attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Currin was a native of East Millstone, where she was born forty-five years ago; the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Nathan Wilson. When a young woman she entered Jefferson Hospital in Philadelphia and graduated as a surgical nurse. She followed her profession until her marriage to Mr. Currin twenty years ago since which time she has been a resident of the borough. Beside her husband, Mrs. Currin is survived by three children, Margaret, Alfred and Gertrude. Also a sister and a half-sister and half-brother living out of the city. The funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

RAISED LARGE SUM.

The congregation of the Ebenezer Baptist church raised the sum of $1,106.40 during the last year. Members who joined the church by baptism were James Bolling, Jr., A. C. Campbell, Jane Gardner, Viola Schomps, John Brother, Rebecca Reins, Isabella Brothers, Florence Reins, Sarah Scott, George Jenkins and Pauline Mustall. Others who became members through Christian experience were Mattie Long, Robert Randolph, Josephine Jackson, Luther Jackson, Alonzo Randolph, William Warrick, Mrs. Hicks, Clara Bell Doyle, all of this city, and William Neil, of Scotch Plains.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The monthly meeting of the McAll Auxiliary will be held at the Y. W. C. A., at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

The monthly meeting of the Women's Home Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church will be held in the church parlors Friday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The subjects to be considered are "Immigration" and "The North American Indian."

The Ladies' Aid Society of St. Peter's Lutheran church will meet at the residence of Mrs. John Hummel, at 121 Duer street, on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

THE MONROE DISASTER.

Two Plainfield clergymen, the Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, of the First M. E. church, and the Rev. C. H. Mallery, of the Church of the Heavenly Rest, touched upon the lessons to be drawn from the sinking of the steamship Monroe of the Old Dominion line a few days ago, in their sermons yesterday morning.

SERVICES AT BONNIE BURN.

Rev. C. H. Mallery, Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson and Rev. Harris S. Rush, of Grace church, will go to Bonnie Burn Wednesday night, where the regular weekly religious service will be held.

NEW MT. BETHEL SCHOOL.

Scriven & Company were awarded the contract for the erection of the new school in Mt. Bethel by the Board of Education of Warren township at tis meeting Saturday night. The building will cost $2,500.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 35 degrees; 11 a. m., 43 degrees; 1 p. m., 43 degrees.

Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, of Grace church, who has been detained at home by illness, is able to be out again.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

FEBRUARY 2ND IN HISTORY.

1754—Talleyrand, one of the most notable diplomats in European history, born in Paris. Died there, May 17, 1838.

1801—Assembly of the first parliament of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

1859—General Zuloaga resigned the presidency of Mexico.

1865—President Lincoln and the three Confederate commissioners—Stephens, Hunter and Campbell—held a peace conference at Hampton Roads.

1869—Lord Lisgar assumed office as Governor General of Canada.

1881—Society of Christian Endeavor first organized in Portland, Me.

1897—Pennsylvania State Capitol in Harrisburg was destroyed by fire.

Plainfield, N. J., February 2, 1914.

LET WELL ENOUGH ALONE.

Common Council members are expected to settle the question of more wholesale liquor licenses at tonight's meeting of that body. The retail matter has been disposed of by the resolution passed last month not to consider any more applications for that form of license, but there is some doubt as to what will be the final verdict at tonight's session. The councilmen have had a substantial demonstration to show that sentiment is against any more wholesale licenses being granted, but it is said that this demonstration was not satisfactory to several of the city fathers. They claim that they have been button-holed and urged to vote for one more wholesale place, because of personal dislike on the part of some people for one of the present licensees.

We have no use for a man who is afraid to speak his mind in public on a matter of this kind. It is cowardly to say the least. Many who secretly declare in favor of more wholesale places have not the moral stamina to get up before their fellows and back their statements with good solid argument, as did those who oppose the establishment of any more places for the sale of liquor. The letting down of the bars for one store may lead to another being added next year. If some of the councilmen are not satisfied about the question let them leave well enough alone for the present, and then persuade someone to seek election, as an avowed advocate of license. The matter would then be settled once and for all.

There is not a man in the Common Council who would run for election on a platform pledged to the granting of more licenses. They all know that they could not win with that as an issue, and yet some of them claim that the people want another place where liquors can be dispensed at wholesale. Again let them go back to the last election. Councilman Claybrook was the only man elected on the Democratic ticket at large. He has been a member of the Executive Committee of the Federation of Men's Clubs for over a year, and took an active part in the fight against the retail licenses in 1913. Last fall when he was a candidate he made no secret of the fact that he was opposed to more licenses, with the result that he ran away ahead of his ticket. He was approached by persons interested in additional licenses, and he gave them to understand plainly where he stood. It can be safely said that he had the opposition of those who favor more licenses, but he won handily.

No matter what action the Council takes tonight, the license question will become an issue at the election next fall. Last year it was thought that because of the character of the men running there was no danger of any more being granted, and the anti-license people sat quietly by. Now they are sorry that they did not make every man declare himself before the election. The councilmen can do no better than to leave the matter as it is for the only people who have not been afraid to publicly speak their minds have opposed more licenses.

Plainfield will be following the example of other cities throughout the country if a series of "Go to Church" Sundays are arranged, as has been suggested by the Plainfield Ministers' Association. In Chicago yesterday, in spite of the fact that a great blizzard struck the city on Saturday, the first of such days for that community was a great success, and thousands of men, women and children, many of whom are not regular attendants, filled the churches to capacity at every service. The "Go to Church" movement in the windy city was begun by the Christian Endeavor Union early last December, and later taken up by the ministers and other church organizations. Committees made house to house canvasses last week, squads of workers visited the factories and workshops, wholesale and retail stores, police stations and firehouses, and in fact every place where many workers are found together, and urged all to attend church on Sunday, being careful not to specify any denomination. At each service an appeal was made that those present who were not regular attendants would strive to observe the day every week, instead of once a year. The Chicago experiment seems to have been a success. Plainfield will do as well.

Philadelphia will tomorrow become the scene of a discussion which recurs every few years, in which the people of the eastern states are vitally interested. The coal operators and miners will take up the question of readjustment of wage scales, and it is to be hoped that a new agreement will be reached to go into effect on April first which will settle the problem for many years. The troubles to the nation which came as a result of the strikes in the Pennsylvania fields a few years ago are fresh in the minds of many, and it is to be hoped that they will not be repeated. It is said that the miners appreciate the fact that the present condition of the mining industry is not such as to warrant any radical demands for increased wages. They will ask for a readjustment of the present scale and other modifications, most of which are said to be of an unimportant nature, and in all probability nothing will arise to lead to a general strike. It is certainly to be hoped that the predictions made are to be depended upon.

Charges are being made, according to Trenton dispatches, that Republican leaders in some sections of the State are planning to nullify the spirit of the Chancellor-Sheriff jury law, by endeavoring to secure the appointment of politicians to the new positions of jury commissioners authorized under the law. Anyone knowing Chancellor Walker knows how perfectly ridiculous these stories are, for he is not a man that will be swayed in the slightest degree by any political influence.

Former Governor Edward C. Stokes ran for election last November on a platform pledged to the submission of the suffrage amendment to the people. Just to show how consistent he can be he has become a member of the Men's League Opposed to Suffrage. Once again, as the small boy would say, "someone has his number."

The promotion of Councilman A. D. Edgar to the position of assistant superintendent of the Central division of the Central Railroad has met with the approval of his friends in Plainfield and his associates on the railroad. Mr. Edgar has been long connected with the road and faithful service has won the honor for him.

By the way, what is there to prevent the Eastern Bottling Company from starting a general wholesale business. How about the monopoly argument then?

THE FORUM.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

Whenever I go to an anti-suffrage meeting my strongest feeling is one of astonishment that they are willing to countenance the use of the arguments against woman suffrage which their speakers almost invariably present. The suffragists, on the rare occasions when they make any reference to the opponents of this cause, are invariably careful to quote only people who are thoroughly identified as members of the Anti-Suffrage Association; but the antis adhere to no such rule. At the legislative hearing on Wednesday, Mrs. Oliphant, one of the principal speakers on the side opposed to woman suffrage, devoted most of her time to reading extracts from writers whose theories are disapproved of quite as sincerely by the suffragists as by the antis.

One of these was W. L. George, an Englishman, who was recently employed by the Atlantic Monthly, which, as everybody knows is strongly anti-suffrage, to write an article on the "feminist" movement. Too many people confound "feminism" and woman suffrage, and if feminism is going to lead to the results which Mr. George hopefully predicts it will, such people would naturally feel that they wanted none of it.

Mr. George says, among other things: "They (women) are inferior to men, physically, morally and intellectually." "The majority of women are inaccurate, petty, calumnious, dishonorable and vain." "I do not believe that women are fit to have a vote." Over and over again he denounces the so-called narrowness of "suffragism."

The New York Times and other anti-suffrage papers published very complete reviews of Mr. George's article, some of them being prefaced with the headline, "W. L. George, the great votes for women advocate," and their comments, as were the comments of Mrs. Oliphant when she read precisely the same extracts which they quoted, were such as to make people believe that the suffragists approve of Mr. George's rantings and that woman suffrage means sex-strikes, sex-war and the abolition of marriage. If the suffragists used such tactics the antis would denounce them as dishonorable, and with good reason.

If the suffragists of the United States, and particularly of New Jersey, are expected to be responsible for the ravings of every irresponsible radical, then we must expect the antis to accept an equal responsibility, for all their supporters. For Emma Goldman, the anarchist, for instance, one of whose regular lectures is entitled, "The Folly of Woman Suffrage," and for Sir Almwroth Wright, who in his "Unexpurgated Case Against Woman Suffrage," says:

"It is not only the fact that the ideals of abstract justice and truth would inevitably be brushed aside by woman in the interests of those she loves which comes into consideration here; it is also the fact that woman is almost without a moral sense in the matter of executing a public trust, such as voting or attaching herself to a political association with a view of influencing votes." And also, "In this matter (that of a public moral sense), one would not be very far from the truth if one alleged that there are no good women, but only women who have lived under the influence of good men."

Another strong supporter of the anti-suffrage cause is "Progress and the Reflector," of Watertown, Wisconsin, which describes itself as "An Educational Journal, covering every phase of the Retail and Wholesale Liquor and Brewing Interests." Its August, 1912, number, says, "A campaign against woman suffrage and other dangers of the brewing and affiliated industries that threaten the trade, is to be waged by Progress from now on until the fall election. Progress will go to every saloonkeeper, brewer and to many barber shops and hotels while this campaign is on." Even though woman suffrage was defeated last year in Wisconsin, by the efforts of Progress and other anti-suffragists, Progress is still attacking it. In the July, 1913, number was republished the anti-suffrage essay of Julia D. Henry which won first prize in an anti-suffrage contest and was first published in "The Woman's Protest," the official organ of the anti-suffragists.

Rabbi Foster, of Newark, speaking for the antis at Trenton last Wednesday, included Mary the mother of Jesus among the women of the olden times who felt that their sphere was properly in the home, training their sons to be good, rather than out in the world. It is just as absurd to hold the suffragists responsible for Mr. George's ridiculous statements, as it would be for us to assert that the anti-suffragists believed the goodness of Jesus Christ to be due to his mother's teachings.

LILLIAN F. FEICKERT.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. Frederic L. Greene, of Hope chapel, who preached at Albany, N. Y., yesterday, will return in time for the mid-week prayer meeting. Rev. Dr. R. S. Campbell preached at Hope chapel Sunday morning, and F. H. Andrews spoke in the evening.

Samuel Ridout, of North Plainfield, will speak at the Plainfield Rescue Mission at 8 o'clock tonight. Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, of the First M. E. church, will speak at the mission tomorrow night.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Hope chapel will meet at the chapel Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

"Love Divine," the offertory anthem at the First Baptist church yesterday morning, was sung by the women members of the chorus choir, without the male voices.

Rev. Dr. Dagar, of Philadelphia, will give a humorous lecture at the First Baptist church, tomorrow night, under the auspices of Mrs. Louis Matlack's' Bible class. Her subject will be "Stung."

Rev. Dr. T. L. Gardiner, editor of the Sabbath Recorder, conducted the service at Evona chapel, last night. The meeting on Thursday night will be in charge of William Demaris.

The following are members of the athletic committee of Trinity Reformed church Bible School: Clarence Rittenhouse, Chauncey F. Colthar, Charles W. Harvey, LeRoy Hann, William Sowden, Charles Mehlenbeck and Elmer French.

The intermediate department will hold a social in Trinity Reformed church, Friday night, February 13.

The regular business meeting of the Epworth League of the First M. E. church will be held Friday night in Vincent chapel.

The next bi-monthly supper and entertainment under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. church will be held Tuesday night, February 10.

Mrs. Mary O. White, of Summit spoke at the vesper service in the Y. W. C. A., yesterday afternoon, subject, "Mormonism." Miss Runkle was the soloist.

The Women's Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. church will meet in Vincent chapel, Friday, February 13, when the mite boxes will be opened.

The Ladies' Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed church will meet in the church parlors this afternoon. Mrs. G. Q. Dolliver will lead the devotions.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will hold a social this evening, at which the Dutch Arms Band will play.

The Dutch Arms Band, of Trinity Reformed curch, will hold its annual meeting tomorrow night and elect officers.

The quarterly meeting of the visitors of the home department of Trinity Reformed church will be held Thursday night at the home of Mrs. G. Q. Dolliver, 82 Fairview avenue. Reports will be received.

The Young Women's Mission Band, of Trinity Reformed church, will meet Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Leonard S. Smith, 113 Duer street. The topic will be "Arabia," and each member is requested to bring a spool of white sewing cotton.

Under the auspices of the Missionary and Aid Society of Warren Chapel, a turkey supper will be given at the chapel Thursday night, February 12, from 6 to 8 o'clock with an entertainment to follow.

Eight new members were received on confession and one by letter at the communion service in Warren chapel yesterday morning.

DOROTHY DEMAREST WORTH.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Worth of Martine avenue, have the sympathy of the community because of the death of their daughter, Dorothy Demarest, aged one year and six months. She had been ill about a month, and several days ago was taken to a private hospital in New York, where she died Sunday night. The funeral will be held Wednesday at the home, and will be private. Rev. A. E. Wilson will officiate.

COMMEMORATION SERVICE.

The mid-week prayer meeting at the First Baptist church, Wednesday night, will be partly in commemoration of the late Robert W. Barnes, who was a deacon of the church for many years, and who died at his winter home in Florida last week.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

The February Furniture Sale

In this great sale of Reliable Furniture for every room in the house, the REDUCTIONS RANGE FROM 10 TO 25 PER CENT.

Club Plan Payments May Be Arranged

The Club Plan is merely another form of a charge account upon a liberal time payment basis. You can take advantage of these February selling prices and pay so much weekly or monthly as best suits your convenience. By this plan we make it easy for young folks to go housekeeping and make it easier for older folks to refurnish their homes. Watch our advertisement from day to day for particulars of our special offerings.

If you don't want your purchases delivered till later on, all that's necessary is to PAY A SMALL DEPOSIT on what you select, and we will STORE THEM FREE OF CHARGE and make delivery at your convenience.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Woodhull & Martin Co.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

WE GIVE FIVE PER CENT. PROFIT SHARING COUPONS.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Debele, of Somerset street, leave Wednesday for Florida where they will spend several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Bird, of George street, are parents of an eight-pound boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Royle T. Phillips will remove March 1 from West Front street and West End avenue to Arlington avenue, between West Seventh and Eighth streets.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis J. Skinner, of West Fifth street, are parents of a boy, born to them a few days ago.

Miss Sadie Brown, of Jersey City, who has been spending several days with Plainfield friends, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Rushmore, of this city, sailed Saturday on the steamer Corona, for a ten weeks' trip abroad. While away they will visit France, Italy, Germany and England.

Tommy Timbo, who was recently a patient at Muhlenberg Hospital under treatment for injuries received in a fall, has fully recovered and has returned to his business.

Clarence Brokaw, of West Front street, has recovered from an attack of pleurisy, has returned to business.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Drake, of this city, are touring the South in their automobile.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETINGS.

There will be a meeting of the Lincoln Branch of the Bryant-Lincoln Parent-Teacher Association, in the Lincoln School, at 8 o'clock this evening. H. W. Rankin will give a sleight-of-hand entertainment. The Bryant-Lincoln Parent-Teacher Association will meet at the Bryant School, Wednesday afternoon at 3:15 o'clock. Mrs. H. E. Parker will speak on "The Education of Moving Pictures."

JUNIOR CHOIR SANG.

The junior choir, comprising ten voices, which was recently organized by Mrs. J. O. McKelvey, sang for the first time at the service in Warren chapel, last night, singing the hymns and anthems. Young people between the ages of ten and eighteen years are eligible for membership.

PEDDIE ALUMNI DINNER.

The Peddie New York Alumni banquet will be held at the Sherman Square Hotel, New York, on Friday night. A number of Plainfield members will attend. It is expected that former Governor Leon R. Taylor, who is a member, will be one of the speakers.

ANNUAL TURKEY SUPPER.

The Woman's Society of Christian Work of the Seventh-Day Baptist church will hold their annual turkey supper next Wednesday night, from six till eight. An entertainment will follow.

RASORES MEETING.

The Rasores will meet with Mrs Townsend Rushmore, of Stelle avenue, tomorrow morning.

—Advertise in The Daily Press

DOANE'S KIDNEY PILLS 45c.

Genuine English COLTS FOOT ROCK in sticks

COUGH CORDIAL
Something different in the way of cough medicine. Prompt relief after first doses.

SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists
PARK AVE., COR. SECOND ST.

SITUATION WANTED—MALE.

MAN wishes position as butler; experienced, personal reference. 635 West Fourth street. 2 2 3

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Cook-laundress, waitress-chambermaid. Apply evenings, 915 Kensington avenue. 2 2 tf

DIVIDEND NO. 74.

City National Bank, Plainfield, N. J.

The Board of Directors have this day declared their regular semi-annual dividend of 4% on the capital stock and an extra dividend of 1% out of the earnings of the past six months, payable on and after Tuesday, Feb. 3, 1914.

W. F. ARNOLD, Cashier.

Dated, Plainfield, N. J., Jan. 27, 1914. 1 28 5

Headquarters for
GIBSON'S RYE
E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

HODGE'S PHARMACY
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

—There's not a dull, nor an unimportant ad in today's paper. There's not one that may safely be overlooked by any great number of the paper readers.

THE THREE COMPONENT PARTS

of our banking service are accuracy, courtesy and promptness

We extend to you every banking privilege consistent with sound, conservative business.

Your account subject to check (large or small) is cordially invited.

3% INTEREST ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS OF $500.00 AND ABOVE

4% INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS OF $10.00 AND ABOVE

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Capital $150,000.00 Surplus and Profits $300,000.00 (all earned)

NEMO CORSETS AT $2 TO $7.50.

Nemo Corsets in all the new models, low and medium bust, long and medium hip; lace trimmed, extra strong hose supporters attached; prices $2, $3, $4, $5 and $7.50.

SMART SET CORSETS AT $4 to $10

Smart Set Corsets of fine white coutil and fancy brocade; low bust, long hip style; trimmed with lace; hose supporters attached; priced $4, $5, $6, $7.50 and $10.00.

Free Fitting and Demonstration Throughout the Week.
Second Floor.

HAHNE & CO.

Newark, New Jersey's Greatest Store

Tomorrow Morning, Sharply at 8:30 o'Clock---The Yearly-Awaited-for Event at the Hahne Store

A Gigantic Disposal of 150,000 Yards of "A. P. C." Wash Fabrics at, Yard 6½c

Better Than Ever! Better Patterns! Greater Assortments!

An Event Certain to Meet With Tremendous Response!

For Hahne & Co. Engineer This Sale as no Other Store in the Country!

A. P. C. SHIRTINGS
A. P. C. SOLID COLORS
A. P. C. CALCUTTA CLOTHS
A. P. C. PINK AND WHITES

6½c

A. P. C. NAVY BLUES
A. P. C. BLACK AND WHITES
A. P. C. GUN METAL
A. P. C. POLKA DOTS

6½c

A. P. C. SHEPHERD CHECKS
A. P. C. MOURNING STYLES
A. P. C. SILVER GRAYS
A. P. C. WHITE WITH COLORS

Over One Million Yards of A. P. C. Wash Fabrics Sold by Hahne & Co. in One Year

'Tis the talk of the country—the wonderful A. P. C. Wash Fabric Sales engineered by us the first of every February. One million yards! One milion yards of Wash Fabrics—one particular brand—sold by one store in one year—by Hahne & Company, of Newark!

Certainly sounds blustrous—but the facts ring true! Seems a tremendous output for one store—probably few other stores in the country accomplish it—and especially the product of only one maker! For, in addition, we probably do one of the largest general businesses in wash goods.

We've purchased 250,000 yards of A. P. C. Fabrics for this one sale—and they'll go quickly. The time limit is one week. Enough material in this lot to make full size dresses for 30,000 women -- 60,000 children's dresses.

Counters and tables will be piled high—extra space—extra salespeople—extra cashiers and wrappers have been provided—everything to make this great sale convenient to the shopping public.

And remember—500 Different Patterns at 6½c a Yard.

250,000 Yards of A. P. C. Wash Fabrics, 500 Different Patterns--Guaranteed Unfadeable

There is considerable satisfaction in selling Wash Fabrics that you are positive are unfadable—and this one fact, probably more than any other, has been the great success behind these mighty yearly sales of Hahne's. The fact that they are unfadable has been abundantly demonstrated by our increasing sales—over one million yards by one store—the Hahne Store of Newark.

In fact, these fabrics are really equal to the time honored Manchester Print Fabrics of England—quality for quality and style for style.

This season's fabrics are remarkable for their beauty and the splendid assortment of designs—many are exclusive with Hahne & Company. There are many fabrics with novelty and other Spring ideas.

The variety of the patterns and colors is really amazing—and we wish we could have conducted you on a personal tour through our receiving rooms that you could have seen the piles and piles of fabrics, for you would have better comprehended the great scope of this sale.

No second quality goods in the collection—every piece new, direct from the maker—new patterns found only in the Hahne Store and absolutely unfadable.

HAHNE & CO., Broad, New and Halsey Streets, Newark, N. J.

Sure Edge Cutlery

WE ARE SHOWING A FINE LINE OF

Table Knives and Forks .....63c per set and upwards
Carving Knives and Forks, Keen Kutter goods....$1.50 up
Pocket Knives, Robeson's make .....50c up

Butcher Knives, Grape Fruit Knives, Spatulas, Kitchen Knives, Razors, regular and safety; Razor Blades, Scissors, Shears, Kitchen Cleavers, Tweezers, Nail Clips, all fully guaranteed.

YOUR INSPECTION IS ASKED.

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

FORESIGHT

There is such a thing as looking so far ahead as to overlook the dangers close at hand. The foresight which induces an owner to take proper precautions to safeguard his property with insurance are excellent.

Yet it should require no foresight to employ us—it is as plain as daylight that this office and the companies represented are all the protection an owner needs.

REAL ESTATE
LOANS
RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

A Cabinet Filled With KEEN KUTTER Tools

is a present any man or boy will be proud of.

Gentlemen, if you havn't someone to give you a set, buy one yourself; it will be a treat.

They are always useful in making repairs around the house, and when a Tool is wanted the Cabinet is the place to go.

Why buy odd jobs tools when you can purchase a Cabinet with a complete set of the most useful tools, and then have a place for each one.

F. A. Kirch & Co.

205 Park Ave.

Phone 578.

TRY THESE
DELICIOUS CRULLERS

Plymouth Home Made Crullers, sold by us, are made by [illegible] They are Pure, Clean and Digestible. Sanitary package, 10 cents.

W. W. Dunn

THE CARE CANDY KIT
Three Stores and Elsewhere Place

Your Appearance Counts

Have you ever realized how well [illegible] are received when your appearance favorable? Men, send your Suit have it cleaned and pressed. Ladies your tea gowns, woolen dresses, or cloaks, plain or fancy waists, and deed anything worth cleaning.

I guarantee my work and assure you that my method will tend to renew the fabric, brighten the colors and [illegible] the nap thereby restoring the [illegible] ment to the freshness of new clothing

A. ROTGUN

432 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 1676-W
Nine years with G. [illegible] Keller

B. KIVATINOS

(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 886-W

HORSES CLIPPED

By Charles C. Brower.

PLAINFIELD CAB CO.,

130-134 E. Second St. 'Phone 10.

11 6 6mos

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

Hoagland's Express

FINE FURNITURE.

MOVING

Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

TRUSSES

NEW FITTING ROOM

Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces
KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.

William M. Walsh

North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964.

OPP. DEPOT.

CAPTAIN BARRY.

Commander of the Nantucket, Which Rammed the Monroe.

Photo by American Press Association.

$300,000 FOR AERO RACE AROUND WORLD

Panama Exposition to Give Winner Prize.

New York, Feb. 2.—Plans for an aerial race around the world under the auspices of the Panama-Pacific exposition and the Pacific Aero club were announced by the Aero Club of America, which as the representative of the International Aeronautical federation will referee the event.

There will be a prize of at least $300,000 for the aviator who drives his machine around the world within ninety days and more quickly than any other contestant in the race.

The exposition officials already have put up $150,000 and expect to have at least $300,000 to offer in prizes. This money, together with the offer of Lord Northcliffe of $50,000 to the first aviator to fly across the Atlantic ocean, is expected to stimulate aviators from all parts of the world to get ready for the race, which is scheduled to start next May from the grounds of the exposition.

The aviators will fly about 28,000 miles. The course is to be due east across the Sierras then by the way of Reno, Nev., to Cheyenne, to Kansas City, St. Louis or Chicago and then to New York. The route from this city will be along the Atlantic coast to Belle island, between Newfoundland and Labrador, where the flight across the Atlantic will begin. The distance to Cape Farewell, Greenland, is 610 miles, and that may be the objective point of the aviators. From Cape Farewell to Iceland the distance is 670 miles, and from Iceland to Stornaway on the Hebrides is 570 miles.

The proposed course then traverses the well known routes by the way of Edinburgh, London, Paris, Berlin, Warsaw, St. Petersburg, Moscow and then along the Transsiberian railway, then down through Manchuria to Vladivostok. The next leg is across the sea to Korea, over the Japan sea to Kuoe and Tokyo, thence north to Kamtchatka and along the coast either to East cape or to the Aleutian islands.

AUTOS KILL 302 IN NEW YORK

This Is a Big Increase Over 1912, Other Statistics.

New York, Feb. 2.—According to figure compiled by the National Highways Protective society from the monthly reports to coroners, 302 persons were killed by automobiles in New York city during 1913, as against 221 in 1912. During the same period 108 were fatally injured by trolley cars and 132 by wagons in the greater city.

In New York state outside of the city the killings were as follows: By automobiles 149, as compared with 112 in 1912; by trolleys 79, and by wagons 32.

The loss of life by vehicular traffic in the entire state, therefore, was as follows: By automobile 451, by trolleys 187 and by wagons 164, making a total of 802 persons killed in the streets.

During the years 1913, 1912, 1911 and 1910 in New York city alone 777 were killed by automobiles, 499 by trolleys and 730 by wagons, or a total of 2,006.

The percentage of children killed during those four years was: For automobiles, 45 per cent; trolleys, 31 per cent, and for wagons, 52 per cent.

BRIDEGROOM 94, BRIDE 74.

New England Couple to Wed, Were Both Married Twice Before.

Boston, Feb. 2.—Thomas B. McNabb, ninety-four years old, a blacksmith of South Weymouth, is to marry Mrs. Alice Clark, seventy-four years old, of Northampton. The couple took out their marriage intention papers at Northampton. Both were married twice before.

The second Mrs. McNabb died two years ago. His father died at the age of 116 and his mother at 107.

—To a merchant, the "cost of ADEQUATE ADVERTISING is a mere incident. *While the cost of inadequate advertising is always diffi*cult to meet.

DIVERS TO SEEK MONROE BODIES

Wreck of Old Dominion Liner Is Located.

MAST STILL ABOVE WATER

No Bodies Are Recovered—The Position Indicates That the Ship Made One Complete Circle After Receiving Fatal Blow.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 2.—With fifteen feet of her single mast showing above water the Old Dominion liner Monroe, lost, with forty-one lives, when she was rammed by the steamship Nantucket last Friday morning in the Atlantic off the eastern shore of Virginia, was located by the wrecking tug Merritt. She lies twenty-four miles southwest, one-quarter south, off Winter Quarter lightship, almost in the exact spot where the collision occurred.

The wrecking tug Merritt is standing by the sunken ship, and if the weather is favorable she will send down two divers in an effort to recover bodies supposed to be in the wreck. E. E. Palen, assistant general manager of the Old Dominion line, said the ship probably would be blown up to clear the path of navigation.

A red light was twinkling at the wreck's masthead to warn passing vessels of danger.

The position of the wreck is directly *in the course followed by the north*bound ships of the Old Dominion company. The Monroe lies with her bows pointed in the direction of Winter Quarter light, for which she was steering at the time of the accident.

This is taken to indicate that the ship must have made at least one complete circle after receiving her death wound in sideswiping by the Nantucket. Marks of the impact on the hull of the Nantucket and a smashed port quarter boat aboard that vessel show that the sideswiping occurred.

Immediately after the Merritt located the sunken ship wireless messages were flashed to the offices of the Old Dominion company in Norfolk. About two hours later the steamer Jamestown, which has replaced the Monroe in the passenger service of the company, having been withdrawn from the freight department, hove into sight.

The Merritt at that time was taking her bearings with a view of ascertain*ing more accurately the position of the* wreck. By the time the Jamestown reached the scene the foremast had been buoyed fore and aft by the Merritt. Ten minutes later the United States revenue cutter Onondaga arrived.

No Bodies Seen.

Captain Fitzgerald and First Officer Purcell of the Jamestown told newspaper correspondents that they had passed within 150 yards of the submerged mast. Both remarked that they saw very little wreckage floating in the neighborhood of the disaster.

As yet no bodies have come to the surface. It is usual for the bodies of drowned persons to remain below the surface of the sea for at least forty-*eight hours after death, but much de*pends upon sea conditions, temperature, tide and wind. Bodies have been known to remain submerged for ten days or even longer periods, so the fact that none have yet been sighted is regarded as nothing out of the ordinary.

The Merritt sent down a diver as soon as the Monroe's foremast top had been seen. Owing to a heavy undersea current or undertow he was not able to remain below long enough for even the most cursory survey of the wreck, but it is thought that in the calm sea which now prevails off the capes that divers may be sent to the bottom and a complete review of the situation obtained. The Merritt is equipped with the necessary apparatus for undersea fighting, and work will be pursued at any hour of the twenty-four that the tide conditions make favorable.

At the offices of the Old Dominion company here Assistant General Manager Edward E. Palen said:

"The most necessary thing to us now is the recovery of the bodies of the victims. We are convinced that few of the drowned passengers or members of the crew were caught below. From the testimony of survivors by a process of induction and elimination we have found that more than half of the missing men and women were seen on deck after the accident. The firemen and oilers and passers on watch, for example, all escaped from the firerooms. It is a fact of sea conditions that men coming in a swelter of perspiration and with blood at top notch heat from working in the firerooms are far more apt to drown quickly than either passengers, deck or steward department employees. The death toll among the firemen was relatively our heaviest loss."

It is the belief of the Old Dominion officials that the salvage of any considerable portion of the $400,000 cargo can be saved. The fact that the ship in sinking righted herself of course improves the chances of the recovery of some of the cargo and the money and jewelry of the passengers and members of the crew.

Sayres Leave For Home.

Washington, Feb. 2.—Mr. and Mrs. Frances Bowe Sayre, the White House bridal couple, left Washington for Williamstown, Mass., where they will reside. Mr. and Mrs. Sayre attended church earlier with the president.

—Some store may be placing on "special sale" just now the article you have not felt like paying "regular" prices for.

OLIVE OIL

In Gallon Cans, Half Gallon Cans, Quart Cans, Quart Bottles, Pint Bottles and Half Pint Bottles.

DIRECT FROM FRANCE

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS

Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760

Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage

WAREHOUSE

North Avenue

OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE

125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.

OLD RELIABLE

STORAGE

All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry

Furniture Packed and Shipped

Office 69 Somerset St. 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS

THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.

AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS

The Leading

Auctioneers

W. A. SCHORB & CO.

Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold

120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg

Telephone 1707-W.

HENRY J. SIEBERT & CO.

1147 East Jersey St.,

ELIZABETH, N. J.

(Opp. Proctor's Theatre).

We specialize:

AWNINGS

WINDOW SHADES

CURTAIN MATERIALS

BRASS GOODS, etc.

Large assortment.

Low prices.

'Phone Elizabeth 852.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JUST RECEIVED 8,000 ROLLS OF THIS YEAR'S

WALL PAPER

At special prices, selling at 8 and 10 cents per roll. This is an opportunity to secure up-to-date wallpaper at a big saving.

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators.

145 NORTH AVENUE.

Now is the Time

To paint your house—in the cool of the year, when the paint dries slowly, and consequently lasts longest. No hot sun to cause blisters. And the house painted now is preserved against the ravages of winter storms.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's pure colors, ready mixed paint, varnishes, glass, etc.

JAMES C. HANSEN

Tel. 346.

Corporation Notice.

PROPOSALS FOR OATS, HAY AND STRAW.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield at the regular adjourned meeting held January 26, 1914, notice is hereby given that the Common Council will meet on Monday, the second day of March, A. D., 1914, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the Council Chamber, No. 149 North avenue, at which time and place said Common Council will receive sealed proposals for furnishing the following, that is to say:

1,000 Bags, more or less, best No. 2 Natural White Oats. Old Oats to be furnished up to November 1st.

50 Tons, more or less, of Timothy Hay.

25 Tons, more or less, of Rye Straw.

To be delivered at the various engine houses, and police station, in quantities as required by each of said departments during the remainder of the current year, with the privilege on the part of the City to purchase at the same prices for the first three months of 1915.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals the Common Council will immediately proceed to unseal the same, and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding or their agents, provided said parties or agents choose to be then and there present, and also make propert record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Council.

The right to reject any or all bids is expressly reserved by the Common Council. Proposals should be endorsed "Proposals for Oats, Hay and Straw."

By order of the Common Council.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., January 26, 1914.

2 2 2-m

Dr. Robert W. Rogers

OSTEOPATH

720 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1936-W.

Office hours: 8 to 9 a. m., 7 to 8 p. m.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

EXEMPT LABOR IN TRUST BILLS

Union Leaders Plan to Fight Democrats.

WILSON OPPOSES CHANGE

Those That Seek Re-election Fear Retaliation if They Don't Line Up—Concerted Attack Is Planned In Every District In the United States.

Washington, Feb. 2.—A campaign has been started by organized labor that extends throughout every district in the United States and is designed to force the Democratic congress to incorporate in one of the pending anti trust bills a provision exempting labor organizations and farmers' associations from prosecution under the Sherman anti-trust law.

An issue has been raised which administration leaders acknowledge may cause much trouble in a political way. Some leaders say that if any one of the pending bills reaches the White House with such an exemption the president will promptly veto it.

While Democratic leaders are disinclined to discuss the subject, one has said that in a recent conference the president expressed disapproval of the exemption sought by labor. This was at a time when the president's anti-trust program was being whipped into shape by leaders in congress.

Although Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, has repeatedly demanded amendment to the anti-trust laws expressly providing that they do not apply to labor, the fact was either overlooked or ignored by Chairman Clayton and the other members of the judiciary committee who framed the pending administration anti-trust measures. This is accepted as indicative of the frame of mind of the committeemen who will handle the trust bills in the house and does not reflect the attitude of the administration toward this particular labor proposal.

Hearings on Bills Going On.

Hearings are now in progress on the administration anti trust bills, and organized labor is preparing to move on the committees. Labor leaders apparently believe the judiciary committee will not incorporate an exemption provision in any of the pending bills.

This is indicated in letters received by practically every member of the house and senate. These letters, written by labor men in close touch with local political conditions in the various districts, call on senators and representatives to stand by labor in this "emergency." The letters are by no means threatening, but they are phrased in such a way as to make it clear that if the recipients take a stand against an exemption amendment labor will retaliate.

In all the letters members are called upon to make a reply outlining their views on the question. This has embarrassed many representatives, who are constantly dodging issues raised by labor.

In the last congress the Democratic house incorporated an amendment in the sundry civil bill prohibiting the use of any part of a certain appropriation for the enforcement of the anti-trust law in prosecution against labor unions or farmers' organizations. President Taft vetoed the bill. The measure was re-enacted and was approved by President Wilson.

Conservative Democratic leaders insist that the president's approval of the sundry civil bill must not be accepted as a token that he favors exemption of any class from prosecution under the law. They point out that the exemption carried in the sundry civil bill vetoed by Mr. Taft and later approved by Mr. Wilson applied only to one of the various funds made available for trust prosecutions by the department of justice.

It was explained when the president signed the sundry civil bill with the provision relating to labor that his approval of it did not commit him to the principle that any exceptions should be made in enforcing the anti trust laws. He said he signed the bill because any further delay in obtaining the money provided for the federal departments in the sundry civil bill would work hardships.

SEND DINNER BY PARCEL POST

Woman Offers Complete Chicken Feast For Four For $2.21.

Boston, Feb. 2.—Sarah Mitchell of Durham, Me., is advertising a cooked dinner of chicken, plum pudding, gravy, hard sauce, cranberry sauce, mince pie, pumpkin pie and vegetables delivered any time by parcel post.

She put a little advertisement in a local newspaper, and orders began to pour in upon her at once. She sends enough of all these good things for four people for $2.21, including postage. All that is necessary to prepare the dinner for the table is to warm it.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

REMEMBER

We carry the largest and finest stock of plants and cut flowers in the city. Floral design work by expert designers. Plant or flowers delivered to any city of the United States. Store, 159 East Front street; Tel. 928; greenhouses, 1126 South avenue. 40,000 feet of glass.

STANLEY

159 E. Front St. Tel. 928.

Woodhull & Martin Building.

Greenhouses, South Ave., Tel. 331-J.

Classified Advertisements---Copy Received Until 1:30 P. M. Daily

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No Display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

—To go straight to the right store, at the right time, in making a particular purchase, is not a matter of luck, or of general knowledge of the stores—but of keeping in touch with store advertising all the time.

Corporation Notice.

PROPOSALS.

For Furnishing Crushed Stone and Materials for Culverts and Crosswalks.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield at the regular adjourned meeting held January 19, 1914, notice is hereby given that the Common Council will meet at the Council Chamber, No. 149 North Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, on Monday evening, March 2, 1914, at 8 o'clock p. m., at which time and place said Common Council will receive sealed proposals for furnishing crushed stone, and for furnishing materials for culverts and crosswalks as follows:

For crushed stone for the remainder of the year 1914, with the privilege on the part of the city to continue until new contract is made in 1915, the bids to state the price per ton of 2,000 pounds, for furnishing the following sizes, namely:

"Binder Dust," or stone dust with an admixture of not more than 30 per cent. of clay.

"Screenings," or stone which will pass through a one-half inch mesh.

"½-inch," or stone which will pass through a 1-inch and not through a ½-inch mesh.

"1-inch," or stone which will pass through a 1½-inch mesh and not through a 1-inch mesh.

"1½-inch," or stone which will pass through a 2-inch and not through a 1½-inch mesh.

"2½-inch," or stone which will pass through a 3-inch and not through a 2-inch mesh.

In such quantities, and delivered at such times and places in the city as the Street Commissioner may direct.

The approximate quantities of the several kinds of crushed stone, as estimated by the Street Commissioner, are as follows:

Binder Dust	500 Tons
Screenings	500 Tons
½-inch	500 Tons
1-inch	1,000 Tons
¾-inch	1,000 Tons
½-inch	500 Tons

And such estimated quantities may be taken into account in awarding bids.

The above must be of the best quality trap rock, free from soft stone, dirt or other foreign matter, and each bidder will submit with his bid or bids samples of the crushed stone to be furnished if such bid or bids is or are accepted and guarantee that the crushed stone to be furnished shall in every instance be equal in quality and practically equal in size to the samples submitted with the bid, the Common Council reserving the right to pass on the quality of the crushed stone as well as on the prices bid.

The stone must be weighed on such scales as the Street Commissioner may direct, and a voucher or weigh bill must be delivered with every load to the Street Commissioner or his authorized representative.

Also for furnishing the following materials for culverts and crosswalks:

Cover stone for culverts not larger than 3 feet by 3 feet by not less than 3½ inches in thickness, per square foot.

Curbing 16 inches by 4 inches, 3 to 6 feet long, per linear foot.

Curbing 20 inches by 4 inches, 3 to 6 feet long, per linear foot.

Crosswalk stone 24 inches by not less than 4 inches, 3 to 4½ feet long, Belgian edge, per linear foot.

Crosswalk stone 30 inches by not less than 4 inches, 3 to 4½ feet long, Belgian edge, per linear foot.

The approximate quantities of the several kinds of materials for culverts and crosswalks, as estimated by the Street Commissioner, are as follows:

Cover Stone	300 Square Feet
Curbing, 16 inches	50 Linear Feet
Curbing, 20 inches	300 Linear Feet
Crosswalks, 24 inches	1,000 Linear Feet
Crosswalks, 30 inches	100 Linear Feet

And such estimated quantities may be taken into account in awarding bids.

All to be of the best hard blue stone, equal in quality and durability to stone from the Hudson River quarries.

No bid for crushed stone will be considered which does not include prices for all sizes of stone, and all bids must be submitted on forms which can be obtained from the Street Commissioner.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals the time and place appointed, the Common Council will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding or their agents, providing said parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Common Council.

The right to reject any or all bids is expressly reserved.

By order of the Common Council.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., January 19, 1914.

2 2 2-m

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON,

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS

Office, 516 Park Avenue. Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 584-W. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2594-Gramercy.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,

UNDERTAKERS

402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

JAS. J. CHAS. A.

J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS

FUNERAL PARLORS

109 W. Fourth St. Tel. 1753-J.

Our Booklet Entitled

A Modern Mortuary Establishment

Sent Upon Request.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS

Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

PRUGH—John, died January 31, at South Bound Brook, N. J., in his 90th year.

Funeral Monday, February 2, at 7:30 p. m., at the residence of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Uhlmer, South Bound Brook, N. J. Interment at Easton, Pa., at convenience of family. 1 31 2

BATTS—February 1, 1914, at his residence, 443 West Third street, Nelson Batts, in his 53d year.

Funeral services Thursday, February 3, from Mt. Olive Baptist church at 2:00 p. m. Relatives and friends invited. Interment at Hillside.

LITTLE TALKS BY THE WANT AD MAN

Copyright, 1913, The Int. Syndicate, Baltimore.

No. 55.

MR. or Mrs. House Owner—listen to me!

There's a "FOR RENT" sign in the window of that vacant house of yours.

It has been there quite a while, probably.

People pass that house every hour of the day. Some of them see that sign. But very few of the people who are looking for a house like yours see that sign.

No. Folks have learned a better way than trotting about town looking for a house that is for rent. They turn to the CLASSIFIED Columns.

Remember this: The renter wants to know something about that house you have to let. And the best place to tell that something is where people will look for it—in the "FOR RENT" columns on the CLASSIFIED pages.

Tell, in your WANT AD., about the size of the house; the location of the rooms; about the heat, light and water; about the basement and the attic, and the car lines, and the proximity to a schoolhouse—and—well, tell people what you would want to know if you were in search of a house.

And by jimminy crickets, you'll rent that house quicker'n you have any idea it could be done!

The Want-Ad Man

(All rights reserved, 1913, by Jerome P. Fleishman.)

T. A. MOORE

UNDERTAKER;

612 E Sixth St.

Tel. 741-R

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 29 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Manning, 183 North avenue. 10 14 tf

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

A GIRL for general housework; references required. Apply at 825 Park avenue.

WANTED—An experienced assistant chambermaid. Telephone 773.

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rate; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Airedale terrier dog, part brown, black saddle, tan markings, white toes. Reward, Thos. K. Bray, Terrill road, Plainfield. 1 31 1

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

HOUSEWORK, 25c an hour, wanted by handy colored man. 317 Liberty street. 10 28 tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

COLORED painter and paperhanger wanted. Call 1548 West Front St. 2 2 3

FOR SALE.

ROYAL TYPEWRITERS — The best built standard typewriter in the world for only $75. Write or call for a demonstration. Plainfield Office Supply Co., Local Agents, P. O. Box 701. 'Phone 921-W. 1 25 1mo

FOR SALE—All kinds fine gloves for ladies, men and boys, at wholesale and retail; large variety of deer skin gloves for auto, driving and working; best canvas, 10c; per dozen, $1.00; kid gloves, slightly damaged half price. H. Texier, 58 Somerset street. 12 31 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

TO LET—Attractive rooms, with board. Mrs. L. R. Williams, 13 Crescent avenue. 2 24 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board; also table board. 433 East Seventh street. 1 17 tf

FOR RENT—Two comfortable rooms with excellent home table. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 12 27 tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Good house, for colored people; 6 room house, part improvements; right in town. See Mr. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 6 26 tf

FOR SALE—To close "French Estate," Somerset street carriage factory, stores, and tenement houses and stable in rear; lot 100x200 ft.; alley at side and in rear; bargain, terms arranged. Apply, Elston M. French, executor, 171 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 12 19 tf

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—New 7-room house, improvements; near trolley and station. J. P. Fenner, Dunellen, N. J. 1 31 3

FOR SALE OR TO LET—Two new seven room houses; all improvements; garage, sleeping porch, decorated to suit tenant or buyer. 839 Osborne avenues, Netherwood, telephone 894-M. 1 28 tf

FOR RENT.

FLAT to let, five rooms, all improvements. 538 West Fifth street, or enquire 432 Watchung avenue. 11 11 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street, with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

TO LET—Well lighted, six-room flat, all improvements, newly decorated; centrally located. Call at Neuman Bros., Watchung avenue. 1 28 tf

FIVE-ROOM apartment, all modern improvements; central location. Inquire P. C. Thomsen, 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—Six room house and bath. Inquire 147 East Fifth street. 11 28 tf

TO LET—Six room, steam heated flat, all improvements, on Plainfield avenue near Front street; also other apartments and houses; rent reasonable. Inquire 126 Plainfield avenue. 1 29 6

TO LET—Four rooms, East Seventh street, near Berckman street. Inquire 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—No. 45 Prospect place, near Washington avenue, 6 rooms, reception hall and bath; all improvements. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 12 1 tf

TO LET—At eleven dollars, to respectable colored families, 4-room houses, with improvements. Inquire 1348 West Front street. 2 2 1d

TO LET—House, six rooms and bath. 409 Liberty street, Tel. 450-W. 12 8 tf

TO LET—New four room apartments; improvements; 1361 and 1351 South Second street; $10.50 per month. John Herrman, 369 Somerset street; 'Phone 2512-W. 1 23 1mo

HOUSE to rent; eight rooms, all improvements; small garage. Inquire 222 Madison avenue. 1 16 1mo

SIX ROOM house to let; all modern improvements; rent reasonable. W. R. VanDerveer, superintendent, 231 East Second street, Cor. Church. 1 17 tf

FOUR-ROOM flat to let, part improvements, $10. 203 Grant avenue. 11 21 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town; rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 11 6 tf

HOUSES $12 to $50, flats, $15 to $30; stores $7 upwards. D. McKinness, West Third street. Tel. 1192-W. 6 30 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

TAXIDERMIST—Birds and animals stuffed and mounted. T. W. Sisty, Wayside Park; 'Phone 1299-J, Dunellen, N. J. 11 14 3mos

FASHIONABLE dressmaker, skillful, artistic, speedy worker; understands every detail of first-class dressmaking; very reasonable; home or out. Address Mme. Eugene Andre, General Delivery. 1 2 3

EMBROIDERY, INITIALS, ETC.—Orders taken for all kinds of embroidery and initials; first class work; prices reasonable. Mrs. C. S. Groot, 768 Woodland avenue, near Putnam avenue; telephone 1687-M. 1 15 1mo

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES; AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY CO. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, reliable help only; all nationalities, faithful service commands good situations and our fees are very reasonable; courteous treatment to all. 326 West Front street, near Grove; Phone 666. 11 26 tf

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

HANSEN'S Employment Agency, 128 Watchung avenue, corner Second street. Excellent positions furnished to reliable help of all nationalities. Telephone 2559. 1 28 6

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—One four cylinder (Little) 20 H. P. automobile runabout. Auto Shop, 158 East Second street. 1 22 10

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Day's work of any kind. Housework, care Press. 2 2 3

Of Interest to Women and the Home

The Housewife's Daily Economy Calendar

FRANCES MARSHALL

Left-Over Meat Pies.

Meat pies are the best left-over meat dish possible, if they are well made. The regulation crust meat pie might come in for condemnation, on the same grounds that bring condemnation to other crust pies—that the crust is indigestible. But there are many kinds of meat pie that can be made without crust.

Lancashire Pie.

Lancashire pie can be made from any sort of left-over meat, which must be freed from bone and gristle and chopped fine. Put it in alternate layers with fresh, hot mashed potato, beaten fairly to a cream, in a buttered baking dish. Top the pie with mashed potato and make little depressions in it with a spoon. In each of these put a bit of butter. Bake the pie brown in a moderate oven. The potato should be very creamy and the meat should be slightly moist, either with gravy or with warm water. Both meat and potato should be carefully seasoned.

Left-over vegetables can be combined with left-over meat in pies. The crust can be a layer of mashed potato, or a layer of rice, moistened with milk and mixed with a beaten egg. Or bread crumbs can be moistened with cream and mixed with an egg and spread over the pie for crust. Biscuit dough can be dropped on the top of the pie in little biscuit, far enough apart so that they will be brown and crusty all around when done.

If there is a cupful of tomato left over, add that to chopped lamb, mutton, chicken, veal or beef for a pie. If there is rice it can be added to left-over chicken or lamb in the pie. Sweet green pepper can be used with lamb and mutton and beef. Boiled onions can be chopped and added to the filling for a meat pie.

A Left-Over Pie.

Here is a delicious pie that combines many left overs: Put a layer of chopped cooked meat in the bottom of a buttered baking dish and sprinkle it with crumbs. Then add a layer of spaghetti or macaroni; in tomato sauce. On top of this put another layer of meat, then more crumbs, and so on until the dish is full. Put a final layer of crumbs on the dish and then pour on enough gravy or stock to moisten it thoroughly. Bake brown in a moderate oven.

(Copyright, 1914, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Some Cookery Suggestions

WINTER VEGETABLE SOUPS.

DINNER MENU.
Vegetable Soup.
Mashed Turnips and Carrots.
Braised Beef.
Mashed Potatoes.
Lettuce Salad.
Lemon Jelly.
Coffee.

A NICE hot soup makes a wholesome introduction to the winter dinner. Vegetable soups are the most generally popular.

Some ways of making various vegetable soups have been gathered together here.

Made With Stock.

Rich Vegetable Soup.—Take two or three onions, carrots and turnips, a quart of veal stock, an ounce of butter, the yolk of an egg, a teacupful of canned green peas. Melt the butter and lightly fry the diced onions, carrots and turnips. Add the stock and cook the vegetables until tender. Add the yolk of an egg to the soup just before serving. This must not be done when the soup is boiling, otherwise it will curdle. Cook the green peas separately and add to the soup just before serving.

Cream of Vegetable Soup.—Leftover vegetables may be utilized in this. Take a spoonful of cold mashed potatoes, a cupful of stock or of any available cold soups, a little cold cabbage and some gravy and put in a small saucepan. Any leftover meat can be used. Add two cupfuls of hot water, a little onion juice and heat through. Add two cupfuls of boiling milk. Rub one teaspoonful of butter with one teaspoonful of flour until smooth and add to the soup. You can strain and mash through strainer and serve in cups or leave all the vegetables in and add one teaspoonful of chopped parsley and serve in plates.

Flavored With Bacon.

Vegetable Puree.—Take one onion, two carrots, one-half a rutabaga, a stalk of celery, two potatoes, one cupful of sweet milk, one egg, four slices of bacon, two tablespoonfuls of rice, one tablespoonful of butter. Cut up the vegetables. Put the bacon on a frying pan and cook until all the grease is removed. Drop the onion into the hot grease and fry brown. Remove the bacon and pour the contents of the frying pan into the vessel in which the soup is to be made. Put in the vegetables with water and cook until the turnips are done. Beat the egg with the milk, pour it into the soup, stirring constantly; add the butter and let it boil up again. Season to taste.

Anna Thompson.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

Bossy White's Escape From the Cross Blacksnake.

Betty Called Her Cow Bossy White.

"A LITTLE girl named Betty," said daddy, "once had a pet cow. Now, that may seem a very strange pet to have; but, after all, the cow was a very nice pet, for every morning and every evening she gave Betty delicious warm milk. Betty always milked her own bossy herself and would carry into the house twice a day a bucket of milk. But before she did that she always had to drink a little first, so the cow would be pleased and would look at her softly out of her great big eyes. Betty called her cow Bossy White, for the cow had a round white spot above her right eye.

"During the daytime Bossy White stayed in the pasture, and at nighttime she came in to a warm, comfortable stall in the barn.

"Betty's home was very near a swamp where a great many black racer snakes lived. But as the pasture had a wire fence all around it nobody was afraid the snakes could get inside, for the black racer snakes adore chasing cows and try their hardest to catch them. Often they succeed.

"Nobody had noticed it, but a piece of wire had really broken in a part of the fence, and one of the black racer snakes got in.

"'Now,' said the snake to himself, 'I shall have lots of fun chasing this cow.' So he began to hurry through the grass, and poor Bossy White ran for all she was worth, almost frightened out of her wits.

"A little boy passing by saw the cow running and the grass moving, so he knew that a black racer snake was chasing the cow. He jumped over the fence and called: 'Bossy White!' (for he had often heard Betty call her). 'Come, Bossy White; follow me!' And he led a wild chase, running first to one side and then to the other until they reached the barn in safety. You see, with the cow following the little boy's crooked route, the snake could not keep up, but got way behind, for the black racer snakes lose so much time in going from side to side that that is the way to escape them.

"When the little boy and the cow reached the barn there was Betty waiting to milk Bossy White. She couldn't understand why Bossy White rushed into the barn nor why the little boy was so breathless.

"As soon as the little boy got his breath, though, he told Betty what had happened. You can imagine how happy Betty was to feel that her beloved Bossy White had been saved, and she told the little boy how grateful she was to him. She also said, 'Now I know how grateful Bossy White feels, and I'm sure she'd like to give you a bucketful of her delicious milk.' So the little boy, who was very poor and who had an invalid mother, took home his reward of a bucketful of delicious milk.

"A doubly strong wire fence was put around the pasture, so that Bossy White never again was chased by a black racer snake."

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

LOHRMAN'S
Chocolate Shop
161 EAST FRONT STREET.
High Grade Chocolates. Candies. Ice Cream and Sodas. Mottoes, Favors and Ice Cream Forms for all occasions. Orders taken for Frozen Puddings, Glaces, Mousses, Etc.

O. A. R. GARAGE
915-917 South Avenue.
Carbon removed by Oxygen method—$3 for 4 cylinder, $4 for 6 cylinder
Sole agents for Symplex Gas Savers—positively gives more power, speed and uses 25 to 50% saving.
GUARANTEED REPAIRS

LEGISLATURE IN STATE REOPENS

Labor Men Line Up Behind Industrial Bills.

REGULATE FEMALES' HOURS

Amendment Provides That No Woman Shall Work More Than Nine Hours Per Day—Keen Interest Centers About Retiring of Daniels—Speculation Is Rife on His Successor.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 2.—Both houses of the New Jersey legislature will resume work tonight. The interest manifested indicates a large attendance of spectators. Important subjects will occupy the attention of the legislature. A mass of bills awaits both the senate and assembly.

The members of the Mercer County Central Labor union will be out in force in an effort to have two bills passed this week. The measures were introduced by Assemblyman McCabe of Essex county.

The first is a bill to amend an act of 1912 which regulates the hours of employment of females in industrial establishments. The amendment provides that no female shall work more than nine hours per day or more than fifty-four hours in any one week. The second deals with the act regulating the age and employment of persons in factories, workshops and mills and also provides for the establishment of a department for the enforcement of the act.

Senator White of Burlington also will use his best efforts to have a bill passed, which he already has introduced, providing for standardization of cranberry barrels. The new standard will be similar to that of Massachusetts and Wisconsin.

Keen interest centers aboout the retiring of Winthrop M. Daniels, chairman of the public utilities commission, from the affairs of state in New Jersey by reason of his appointment by President Wilson to the interstate commerce commission. Daniels is a Democrat. Speculation is rife as to who will be his successor. There are many seekers for the office. The position pays $7,500 a year and the term is six years.

WILLIAM RUNKLE EXPIRES.

Playground Commissioner and Philanthropist of Orange.

Orange, N. J., Feb. 2.—Playground Commissioner William Runkle, rich foundryman and philanthropist, died suddenly at his home here of heart disease. He was sixty-seven years old and had lived in Orange thirty years.

When the movement to establish a large recreation center in this city was launched a few years ago Mr. Runkle and Colonel Austen Colgate contributed $10,000 each toward the purchase of the ground. When the first playground commission was created Mr Runkle was made one of its members.

Mr. Runkle was senior member of the Warren Foundry company of Phillipsburg. For many years Mr Runkle has donated thousands of dollars annually to the charitable institutions in the Oranges and Essex county.

A brother, Henry G. Runkle of Phillipsburg, survives. Funeral services will be held tomorrow afternoon.

WOMAN FALLS ON PALISADES

Too Badly Hurt to Move, She Waits Aid All Night.

Hackensack, N. J., Feb. 2.—Miss Margaret Hughes, sixty-eight years old, of New York was found semiconscious on the river road between Edgewater and Shadyside by Policeman Frank Jorett.

At the Englewood hospital Miss Hughes was able to say that she crossed the river on a Fort Lee ferryboat and started to walk from Edgewater to the home of Mrs. Mary Hanley in Weehawken, a distance of five miles. In the darkness she wandered away from the road and fell over a small embankment.

At the hospital it is feared that the exposure to which the aged woman was subjected might prove fatal.

STATE NEWS.

Fire did $2,000 damage to the plant of the Meyer Undergarment company in Newark.

A man whose object seems to be to peep into bedroom windows has been going around Red Bank. He carries a ladder, which he places at windows. Dr. W. D. Sayre of Maple avenue shot at him several nights ago, but the man escaped.

Two large mass meetings were held under the auspices of the law and order committee of the Paterson Ministerial association. The city was practically "dry" yesterday. Detectives were busy looking for evidence of violations of the Sunday laws.

John Danenhauer, forty-three years old, of Jersey City, went to his houseboat and, taking a gun which he thought was not loaded, put his left hand in front of the barrel and pulled the trigger. The load of shot tore his hand so badly it will have to be amputated.

Finding his salary of $450 a year inadequate for the support of himself and family, the Rev. Lyman B. Rice has resigned as pastor of the Chambers Street Methodist Episcopal church in Trenton. He told his congregation he should have $1,000 annually and quit when it was not forthcoming.

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

BY EARL DERR BIGGERS

Copyright, 1913, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER V.

A Professional Hermit Appears.

MR. BLAND walked calmly to the table and picked up a popular novel that lay thereon. On its cover was the picture of a very beautiful maiden.

"See that dame?" he inquired of the professor. "Sort of makes a man sit up and take notice, doesn't she? Even the frostbitten haberdasher here has got to admit that in some ways she has this Arabella person looking like a faded chromo in your grandmother's parlor on a rainy afternoon. Ever get any notion, professor, the way a picture like that boosts a novel in the busy marts of trade? No? Well"—

Mr. Bland continued. Mr. Magee leaned back, overjoyed, in his chair. Here was a man not to be annoyed by the mere filching of his story. Here was a man with a sense of humor, an opponent worthy his foe's best efforts.

"I used to paint dames like that," Bland was saying to the dazed professor. He explained how his pictures had enabled many a novelist to "eat up the highway in a buzz wagon." As he approached the time when the novelists besieged him he gave full play to his imagination. One, he said, sought out his apartments in an aeroplane.

"Say, professor," he finished, "we're in the same boat—both hiding from writers. A fellow that's spent his life selling neckties—well, he can't exactly appreciate our situation. There's what you might call a bond between you and me. D'ye know, I felt drawn to you just after I fired that first shot. That's why I didn't blaze away again. We're going to be great friends. I can read it in the stars."

He took the older man's hand feelingly, shook it and walked away, casting a covert glance of triumph at Mr. Magee.

The face of the holder of the Crandall chair of comparative literature was a study. He looked first at one young man, then at the other. Again he applied the handkerchief to his shining head.

"I used to paint dames like that."

"All this is very odd," he said thoughtfully.

He permitted Mr. Magee to escort him into the hall and to direct his search for a bed that should serve him through the scant remainder of the night. Overcoats and rugs were pressed into service as cover. Mr. Bland blithely assisted.

"If I see any newspaper reporters," he assured the professor on parting, "I'll damage more than their derbies."

"Thank you," replied the old man heartily. "You are very kind. Tomorrow we shall become better acquainted. Good night."

The two young men came out and stood in the hallway. Mr. Magee spoke in a low tone.

"Forgive me," he said, "for stealing your Arabella."

"Take her and welcome," said Bland. "She was beginning to bore me anyhow. And I'm not in your class as an actor." He came close to Magee. In the dim light that streamed out from No. 7 the latter saw the look on his face and knew that underneath all this was a very much worried young man.

"For God's sake," cried Bland, "tell me who you are and what you're doing here. In three words—tell me."

"If I did," Mr. Magee replied, "you wouldn't believe me. Let such minor matters as the truth wait over till tomorrow."

"Well, anyhow," Bland said, his foot on the top step, "we are sure of one thing—we don't trust each other. I've got one parting word for you. Don't try to come downstairs tonight. I've got a gun, and I ain't afraid to shoot."

He paused. A look of regret passed over his face. For on the floor above they both heard soft footsteps, then a faint click as though a door had been gently closed.

"This inn," whispered Bland, "has more keys than a literary club in a prohibition town. And every one's in use, I guess. Remember, don't try to come downstairs. I've warned you. Arabella's castoff Romeo may be found with a bullet in him yet."

"I shan't forget what you say," answered Mr. Magee. "Shall we look about upstairs?"

Bland shook his head.

"No," he said. "Go to your room and go to bed. It's the downstairs that—that concerns me. Good night."

He went swiftly down the steps leaving Mr. Magee staring wonderingly after him. Like a wraith he merged with the shadows below. Magee turned slowly and entered No. 7. A fantastic film of frost was on the windows; the inner room was drear and chill. Partially undressing, he sank down on the brass bed and pulled the covers over him.

At length his mind seemed at last still, and there remained of all the amazing evening's pictures but one—that of a girl in a blue corduroy suit who might—were only that her smile might be the more dazzling when it flashed behind the tears. With yellow locks crowned like golden wire, murmured Mr. Magee. And so he fell asleep.

Every morning at 8 when slumber's chains had bound Mr. Magee to his New York apartments he was awakened by a pompous valet named Geoffrey, whom he shared with the other young men in the building. It was Geoffrey's custom to enter, raise the curtains and speak of the weather in a voice vibrant with feeling, as of something he had prepared himself and was anxious to have Mr. Magee try. So, when a rattling noise came to his ear on his first morning at Baldpate inn, Mr. Magee breathed sleepily from the covers. "Good morning, Geoffrey."

But no cheery voice replied in terms of sun, wind or rain. Surprised, Mr. Magee sat upon his bed. About him the maple woods in venture of suit 7 stood shivering in the chill of a December morning. Through the door at his left he caught sight of a white tub into which, he recalled sadly, had even Geoffrey dare not pour a gill of the drop. Yes—he was at Baldpate inn. He remembered—climb with the dazed Quimby up the snowy road, the plaint of the lovely haberdasher, the vagaries of the clerk with a penchant for blondes, the mysterious slips of the door latch, the floor stove. And last of all—a sage that it enough have been last night to blue corduroy somewhat dark and her eyes, she wept amid the pines as a gloom.

"I wonder," reflected Mr. Magee, staring at the brass rail at the foot of his bed, "what new variations on the theme the day will bring forth?"

Again came the rattling noise that had awakened him. He looked toward the nearest window and through an unfrosted corner of the pane he saw the eyes of the newest variation staring at him from a ledge. They were dark eyes and kindly. They gave no desire to enter.

Rising from the warm covers, Mr. Magee took his dressing gown across the uncarpeted floor and unfastened the window's catch. From the plastering balcony a plump little man stepped inside. He had a market basket on his arm. His face was a stranger to razors; his hair to shears.

Magee dived hastily back under the covers. "Well?" he questioned.

"So you're the fellow?" remarked the little man in turn. He placed the basket on the floor. It appeared to be filled with bromidic groceries, such as the most addled householder carries home.

"Which fellow?" asked Mr. Magee.

"The fellow Elijah Quimby told me about," explained he of the long brown locks, "the fellow that's come up to Baldpate inn to be alone with his thoughts."

"You're one of the villagers, I take it?" guessed Mr. Magee.

"You're dead wrong. I'm no villager. My instincts are all in the other direction—away from the crowd. I live up near the top of Baldpate in a little shack I built myself. My name's Peters, Jake Peters, in the winter. But in the summer, when the inn's open and the red and white awnings are out and the band plays in the Casino every night, then I'm the hermit of Baldpate mountain. I come down here and sell picture postcards of myself to the ladies."

Mr. Magee appeared overcome with mirth.

"A professional hermit, by the gods!" he cried. "Say, I didn't know Baldpate mountain was fitted up with all the modern improvements. This is great luck. I'm an amateur at the hermit business. I'll have to tear me the line points. Sit down."

"Just between ourselves, I'm not regular hermit," said the plump, b whiskered one, sitting gingerly on the edge of a frail chair—"not one of these 'all for love of a woman' hermits you read about in books. Of course I have to pretend I am in summer, in order to sell the cards and do my whole duty by the inn management. A lot of the women ask me in soft tones about the great disappointment that drove me to old Baldpate and I give 'em various answers, according to how I feel. Speaking to you as a friend and considering the fact that it's the dead of winter, I may say there was little or no romance in my life."

"Back to nature, in other words," remarked Mr. Magee.

"Yes, sir; back with a rush. I was down to the village this morning for a few groceries, and I stopped off at Quimby's, as I often do. He told me about you. I help him a lot around the inn, and we arranged I was to stop in and start your fire and do any other little errands you might want done. I thought we ought to get acquainted you and me, being as we're both literary men, after a manner of speaking."

"No?" cried Mr. Magee.

"Yes," said the hermit of Baldpate. "I dip into that work a little now and then. Some of my verses on the joys of solitude have appeared in print—on the postcards I sell to the guests in the summer. But my life work, as you might call it, is a book I've had under way for some time. It's called simply 'Woman'—just that one word out, oh, the meaning in it! That book is going to prove that all the trouble in the world from the beginning of time was caused by females. Not just say so, mind you. Prove it!"

"A difficult task, I'm afraid," smiled Magee.

"Not difficult—long," corrected the hermit. "When I started out four years ago I thought it would just be a case of a chapter on Eve and honorable mention for Cleopatra and Helen of Troy and a few more like that and the thing would be done. But as I got into the subject I was fairly buried under new evidence. Then Mr. Carnegie came along and gave Upper Asquewan Falls a library. It's wonderful to think the great works that man will be responsible for. I've dedicated 'Woman' to him. Since the new library I've dug up information about a thousand disasters I never dreamed of before, and I contend that if you go back a ways in any one of 'em you'll find the fluffy little lady that started the whole rumpus. So I hunt the woman. I reckon the French would call me the greatest cherchez la femme in history."

"A fascinating pursuit," laughed Mr. Magee. "I'm glad you've told me about it, and I shall watch the progress of the work with interest, although I can't say that I entirely agree with you. Here and there is a woman who more than makes amends for whatever trouble her sisters have caused. One, for instance, with golden hair and eyes that when they weep"—

"You're young," interrupted the little man, rising. "There ain't no use to debate it with you. I reckon I'll start your fire."

He went into the outer room, and Mr. Magee lay for a few moments listening to his preparations about the fireplace.

"I say, Mr. Peters," he cried, leaping from bed and running into the other room, where the hermit was persuading a faint blaze, "I've an idea. You can cook, can't you?"

"Cook?" repeated the hermit. "Well, yes; I've had to learn a few things about it, living far from the rathskellars the way I do."

"The very man," rejoiced Mr. Magee. "You must stay here and cook for me—for us."

"Us?" asked the hermit, staring.

"Yes. I forgot to tell you. After Mr. Quimby left me last night two other amateur hermits hove in view. One is a haberdasher with a broken heart"—

"Woman!" cried the triumphant Peters.

"Name, Arabella," laughed Magee. "The other's a college professor who made an indiscreet remark about blonds. You won't mind them, I'm sure, and they may be able to help you a lot with your great work."

"I don't know what Quimby will say," studied the hermit. "I reckon he'll run 'em out. He's against this thing—afraid of fire."

"Quimby will come later," Mr. Magee assured him, drawing on a dressing gown. "Just now the idea is a little water in yonder tub and a nice cheerful breakfast after. It's going to pay you a lot better than selling postcards to romantic ladies, I promise you. I won't take you away from a work for which the world is panting without more than making it up to you financially. Where do you stand as a coffee maker?"

"Wait till you taste it," said Peters reassuringly. "I'll bring you up some water."

He started for the door, but Mr. Magee preceded him.

"The haberdasher," he explained, "sleeps below, and he's a nervous man. He might commit the awful error of shooting the only cook on Baldpate mountain."

Mr. Magee went out into the hall and called from the depths the figure of Bland, fully attired in his dashy garments and looking tawdry and tired in the morning light.

"I've been up hours," he remarked. "Heard somebody knocking around the kitchen, but I ain't seen any breakfast brought in on a silver tray. My inside feels like the Mammoth cave."

Mr. Magee introduced the hermit of Baldpate.

"Pleased to meet you," said Bland. "I guess it was you I heard in the kitchen. So you're going to cater to this select few, are you? Believe me, you can't get on the job any too soon to suit me."

Out of a nearby door stepped the black garbed figure of Professor Thad

"I'm not a regular hermit."

deus Bolton, and him Mr. Magee included in the presentation ceremonies.

They talked little, being men unfed, while Jake Peters started proceedings in the kitchen and tramped upstairs with many pails of water.

"You ain't going to see any skirts up here," Mr. Bland promised him. And Mr Peters, bringing the water from below, took occasion to point out that shaving was one of man's troubles directly attributable to woman's presence in the world.

At length the hermit summoned them to breakfast, and as they descended the heavenly odor of coffee sent a glow to their hearts. Peters had built a rousing fire in the big fireplace opposite the clerk's desk in the office, and in front of this he had placed a table which held promise of a satisfactory breakfast. As the three sat down Mr. Bland spoke:

"I don't know about you, gentlemen, but I could fall on Mr. Peters' neck and call him blessed."

(to be continued)

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office, Rowleys' Drug Store, 218 West Front St. Tel. 2081-J-2.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
80 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 1155

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street. Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN.
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
714 Webster Place, Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1309-R.

THE DAILY PRESS IN LINCOLN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by E. Purvis, newsdealer.

THE NATIONS SHOULD BE THANKFUL TO SCOOP

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

NOTABLE VERDICT FOR LOCAL FIVE

Y. M. C. A. Team Disposes of Trenton Deaf Mute College Team in Fine Style.

CONTEST A THRILLER

Ahead at the End of the First Half the Trentonians Are Forced into the Background by a Phenomenal Burst of Speed by the Locals.

Another basketball game was presented to lovers of this sport in the Y. M. C. A. "gym" Saturday night when the Deaf Mute College team of Trenton, one of the fastest aggregations of basket tossers seen in this vicinity in years, was defeated in a game filled with thrills by the Y. M. C. A. quintet, the final score being 41 to 31. Replete with everything that goes to make a contest of the indoor pastime interesting the game was by far the best exhibition played on the association court this season and the local team played far above its usual form in taking the speedy Capitol City crew into camp.

Spectacular passing and superb shooting featured the visitors' playing and many of their two-point scores came from seemingly impossible angles on the floor. The Silent Five had a code of signals never before tried on a local team and the work of their stellar performer in the center position enabled them to get their team play started with tantalizing irregularity on many occasions. The teamwork and passing of the Plainfielders was far above par and in several instances the ball traveled from the center via the forwards straight to the basket following the touch-off.

Aggressive tactics were employed by both combinations and the contest was waged in a nip and tuck style from whistle to whistle. Coming to Plainfield with a record established on their home court in Trenton, not having met defeat in seven years, the rival clan fought like a herd of demons for every slight advantage that made its appearance and throughout the initial period set the pace while the locals were contented to hang on doggedly two, four or six points in the rear. The Trentonians had decidedly the better of the battling in the first period, running up a big lead before the local crew scored its first field goal, but before the half ended the locals had brought the count up to 14 while the visitors had 15.

Captain Glover sprang the inevitable in the final session and on the first touchoff caged a neat field goal from a side angle. He repeated this stunt four times, running up eight points in rapid succession and giving the locals a big advantage which came in handy in the last few minutes of play. Despite the sudden burst of speed and subsequent margin in the scores, the Trentonians came back in great style and kept the Plainfielders worried throughout the session. Many chances for foul shots were missed by the Plainfield quintet and although Moulton managed to turn five into pointers this was but a fourth of the number called. The visitors familiarity with the professional code of rules injected speed into the contest and during the entire forty minutes of battle there was not a single let-up in the gruelling grind.

Moulton, with four field goals and five fouls was high score man for the winners, while Gavett came in for second honors with a trio he had bagged during the issue. For the visitors Throck was easily the star being all over the floor at the same time and from his position at guard managing to chalk up four field goals. Captain Dixon also did some excellent work for the Trentonians getting five of the two-point scores.

The scores:

Y. M. C. A.

	G.	F.	P.
Moulton, f.	4	5	13
McNamee, f.	5	0	10
Gavett, c.	5	0	10
Glover, g.	4	0	8
Farmer, g.	0	0	0
	18	5	41

DEAF MUTES.

	G.	F.	P.
Brede, f.	1	1	3
Dixon, f.	5	0	10
Wigngzn, c.	2	0	4
Waltz, g.	1	0	2
Throck, g.	4	2	10
Petois, f.	0	2	2
	13	5	31

Score by periods:

Y. M. C. A.	14	27—41
Deaf Mutes	15	16—31

Referee, Lidgate; scorer, Berse; timer, Dunning.

BORO GIRLS HANG UP GREAT RECORD

North Plainfield High School Quintet Wields the Kalsomine Brush.

SCORE A PRECEDENT

Playing With a New Lineup the Canadian Girls Wallop Bound Brook Rivals—Fouling Prominent.

Even without the services of their star forward, the North Plainfield High School girls' basketball team could not be stopped from winning last Saturday when the Bound Brook girls were shut out at that place by a score of 28 to 0. Captain Elsie Debele played a forward position in the absence of Marjorie Burtis and Edna Green was placed in guard to assist Miss Smith. She did all the assisting that was necessary, and between the two girls the home team's forwards could not put the ball in the basket once, in fact, they only had about six chances during the whole game. The home team was penalized constantly for fouling and Miss Spencer took advantage of four in the initial period. The score ended 12 to 0.

In the second half the local forwards each made two field goals while eight points were made on fouls, Miss Debele making five in succession. Miss LeMauquais played well at guard for Bound Brook. Lillian Spencer scored fifteen points with Miss Debele a close second with eleven. Near the end of the game Miss Keller replaced Miss Green at guard. The scores:

NORTH PLAINFIELD H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
Miss Spencer, f.	4	7	15
Miss Debele, f.	3	5	11
Miss Douglas, c.	1	0	2
Miss Smith, g.	0	0	0
Miss Green, g.	0	0	0
Miss Keller, g.	0	0	0
	8	12	28

BOUND BROOK H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
Miss Wolf, f.	0	0	0
Miss Stashalf, f.	0	0	0
Miss Fetter, c.	0	0	0
Miss Sanelli, g.	0	0	0
Miss LeMauquais, g.	0	0	0
	0	0	0

Summary—Time of halves, 15 minutes; referee, Chandler; scorer, Burner; timer, Smalley.

Score by halves:

N. P. H. S.	12	16—28
B. B. H. S.	0	0—0

Queries, Comment and Answers

Sporting Editor:
Query—Is there a French newspaper published in New York?—L. A. P.
Answer—Yes the Courrier des Etats Unis is published in New York daily.

Sporting Editor:
Query—What is considered the safest and most pleasant period of the year to cross the Atlantic?—B. F. H.
Answer—From June 1 to September 1.

Sporting Editor:
Query—At what temperature will water freeze?—C. S. L.
Answer—Water freezes at 32 degrees Fahrenheit.

Sporting Editor:
Query—Is there a lawyers' club in Plainfield and if so who is the secretary?—F. E.
Answer—We never heard of such an organization in this city.

Sporting Editor:
Query—How can I tell the exact number of people in Plainfield and North Plainfield today?—F. J. Y.
Answer—You cannot tell the exact population for today but will have to depend on the 1910 census for your information.

Sporting Editor:
Query—If a person dies in New York State what time is allowed for a settlement of the estate?—P. T.
Answer—At least a year and under some conditions much longer.

J. J. N.—Do you mean the oldest in age or in point of service.—Sporting Ed.

H. L. S.—The answer has been mailed to you.—Sporting Ed.

T. W.—You have probably misspelled the word you refer to because it canot be found in any modern language.

"Sportdom Tips"

REMARKABLE RECORDS.

Two of the teams that appeared on the Y. M. C. A. basketball court Saturday in the regular week-end competition had records seldom equaled in the popular indoor pastime. The Silent Workers came here cherishing a record that consists of seven years of supremacy on their home court in Trenton. During that time the Deaf Mute teams have not bowed to a single quintet on their home court and their basketball prowess Saturday night against the locals certainly substantiated this claim. The Grace Church boys, a local junior quintet, met its initial reverse in three years at the hands of the North Plainfield High School second squad Saturday night. This latter record is probably the best ever established by a local team of any calibre and should not go unnoticed.

A FORMIDABLE RIVAL.

The Kingsley School basketball team, of Essex Fells, which has scored victories over both Plainfield High School and Leal School by one-sided margins this season, has a record of five consecutive victories to its credit. The present team is one of the best in the history of the school and has proven a nemesis for some of the best squads in the State.

AN ANSWER FROM CANADA.

In response to numerous challenges hurled indirectly at the heads of those interested in North Plainfield High School basketball, an official of the borough team came forth with the announcement Saturday to the effect that the boroughites would like nothing better than to get a crack at the Hope Chapel players. The one condition is that the game shall be played in the Y. M. C. A. gym (a neutral court) and this is only reasonable. Here's your cue, now get busy and get the game over with.

The North Plainfield High School basketball team (male and feminine) scored their annual defeats over the Bound Brook High School foresters at the latter place Saturday afternoon. The Canadians also discovered that the Bound Brookers maintain their outstanding characteristic as of yore, that being poor sportsmanship.

The Montclair girls basketball team, rivals of Plainfield and North Plainfield High School forces, won from Hackensack High School, Saturday afternoon by a score of 20 to 13. The Montclair tossers have one of the best teams in their history this season.

George L. Listman's Montclair Y. M. C. A. boys hung up their thirteenth consecutive victory Saturday night, defeating the Belleville crew by a count of 47 to 27. Efforts to sign up Listman's crew to play the local Y. M. C. A. quintet have been futile so far this season.

Jack Johnson is ready to defend his title of heavyweight champion in a bout with Moran next June. Why wouldn't he be with a bonus of $35,000 hard simoleons starring him in the face?

De Witt Clinton High School won the school athletic championship of Greater New York in the annual meet held Saturday afternoon, corralling 27 points.

The Morris County Golf Club has been selected as the venue for the New Jersey State championship golf tournament next June.

The annual motor boat show opened in Madison Square Garden, Saturday night. The event is greater than in former years and the exhibits unique.

Walter Merrill Hall and Walter S. Clark won the regimental lawn tennis doubles championship of the United States, Saturday afternoon, defeating Arthur S. Cragin and King Smith.

Announcement has been made of the fact that England's plan to change the much discussed footfault rule in tennis will not be endorsed by American authorities and it will be allowed as before. We lead, others follow.

DAY IN BIG MEET.

Alfred Day, manager of the Plainfield High School track team, has entered the Erasmus High School's annual field and track meet which will be held in New York next Saturday night. Day captured fourth place in the Central High School's meet in the interscholastic mile run Saturday night.

MT. PLEASANT BEATEN.

The South Plains second basketball team defeated the Mt. Pleasant quintet by the score of 74-16, Saturday afternoon.

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY
from the fact that breakdowns will happen no matter how high a grade of wheel you own. Unless you are exceptionally fortunate you'll need our services as bicycle repairers par excellence sooner or later. True, you may save a mishap by letting us overhaul your machine after a long ride; but at any and all times will do the best possible for you and your wheel.

LEO ZEISEL
Bicycles, Sundries, Musical Instruments and Sporting Goods.
Temporary at 328 W. Front St.
Permanent Headquarters after March 1st, 222 W. Front St., Next Door to Proctor's.

ALFRED DAY AND RALPH RUNYON, OF PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL, LAND PLACES IN CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL'S ATHLETIC CONTESTS

From left to right—Ralph Runyon, Morris Mann, Alfred Day.

Olympic and National champions competing along with stars of collegiate and scholastic firmament, among the latter being a trio from the Plainfield High School—such was the athletic feast served up to Newark followers of the track and field sport at the annual meet of the Central High School held Saturday night at the First Regiment armory. The calibre of the racing may be judged from the fact that five records for the meet were shattered and another equalled and the finishes were so thrilling in some instances that the judges found it necessary to make some hair-breadth decisions.

In the interscholastic events, exclusive of the open competition, Central High School athletes ran away with the point trophy, a beautiful silver shield offered by the Princeton Club of Newark. Plainfield High was only one of the twenty-one High schools in New Jersey entered in the affair and despite her limited entry made a good showing in the events favored by red and blue competition.

The crowning feat of the interscholastic competition was pulled off by Charlie Broughton, of Central High School, when he turned the interscholastic mile race in 4 minutes 37 1-5 seconds. This time beat the previous record for the meet made by Ezra Wenz, the Roselle High School runner, by 2 4-5 seconds. The indoor record is 4:36 held by Joe Meyer, of Newark. The Central runner won this event after a thrilling struggle with Garlock, of Bloomfield High School, and this, too, despite the fact that he had set the pace for most of the distance. Garlock finished second; Levine, of Bayonne, third; and Alfred Day, of the Plainfield High School fourth.

The senior running high jump brought out a dark horse in the person of B. M. Brook, of Newark Academy, who made 5 feet, 3¼ inches. L. Hutchings, of Central High School, was second; and Ralph Runyon, of the Plainfield High School, was third.

The local boys were accompanied to the meet by Ralph Patch, athletic instructor in the local school and although the trio failed to land a first place their work is considered unusually creditable when the calibre of competitors they had to lineup against is taken into consideration.

N. P. H. S. SMEARED SOMERSET RIVAL

Bound Brook High School Clan No Match for Speedy Canadians.

ROUGH-HOUSE TACTICS

Home Team Never Had a Look in—Visitors Scored Field Goals at Will From all Angles—Substitutes Play Good Games.

Playing with a battered lineup, the North Plainfield High School basketball team trounced the Bound Brook five at the latter place, Saturday afternoon, for the second time this year by the score of 50 to 13.

Love and Abrams were absent from the lineup and Conroy and Newkirk were substituted in the initial period.

The visitors had possession of the ball most of the time and by fast team work ran the ball to their basket, where the forwards and centre turned the passing into points. Conroy scored six field goals, all of which were the result of team play from the centre to the basket. Van Mater scored a brace early, while Burner made the sensational shot of the game. The home team was erratic and took shots that were impossible, throwing away chances to score, which could have been accomplished by a little passing. The first half ended 25 to 3.

Townley replaced Conroy in the second half but his big opponent kept him covered and he had very few chances to get into the game.

Dunning and Van Mater each tallied five in this period, while Townley added four points. The extra loose playing of the home team was the advantage that gave the locals the game. Van Mater and Dunning were tied for high score honors, each making fourteen points, while Frezza and Heagney led the home boys.

The score:

N. P. H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
VanMater, f.	7	1	15
Conroy, f.	6	0	12
Townley, f.	1	2	4
Dunning, c.	7	0	14
Burner, g.	1	4	6
Newkirk, g.	0	0	0
	22	6	50

B. B. H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
Frezza, f.	2	0	4
Cullen, f.	1	0	2
Heagney, c-g	1	3	5
Mingle, g.	1	0	2
Mason, g-c	0	0	0
	5	3	13

Summary: Time of halves, 15 and 20 min.; referee, Rugan; umpire, Chandler; scorer, Beckman; timer, Smalley.

Score by periods.

N. P. H. S.	25	25—50
B. B. H. S.	3	10—13

NASH OUT OF GAME.

Although Jim Nash went to Brooklyn, Saturday night, to attend the Temple University-Pratt Institute basketball game he failed to get into the fracas while the Brooklynies were walloping the Philadelphians to the tune of 36 to 15. Nash has been ill during the past month in Sleeptown and has been kept on the side lines for that reason.

SCHOOL LEAGUE SCHEDULE.

Two interscholastic basketball league contests are scheduled to be played during the next week, the Leal School and North Plainfield High School teams getting together on the Y. M. C. A. court Wednesday afternoon and the Plainfield High School and Leal School fives meeting on the same court one week from today.

INITIAL DEFEAT IN TWO YEARS OF PLAY

Grace Church Boys Trimmed by Speedy North Plainfield High School Seconds.

Grace Church basket tossers were treated to their first defeat in two years, Saturdaynight, in the Y. M. C. A. gym, when the strong second squad of the North Plainfield High School triumphed on the bigger end of a 33 to 19 count. Starting off with a rush and hanging on tightly during the initial half the churchboys appeared to be an even bet for winner's laurels, but the schoolboys displayed more stamina as the contest progressed and in the second period swept the unblemished record of the Grace crew to the tall timbers.

The teams scored point for point in the first half and if anything, the Grace five held the advantage in passing, pulling up some clever work in manipulating the sphere. Hebert's ability to get the touch-off at centre proved a valuable asset to the winners and they invariably completed a signal play before the rival guards had an opportunity to lay their hands on the ball.

Warren Townley was high scoreman for the evening, totaling up seven pretty field goals, while Dan McNamee led the church team with a quartet of two point tallies. Conroy and Newkirk also did some clever all around playing for the boroughites and it was due largely to the guarding of the latter that the score was not closer.

The score:

GRACE CHURCH.

	G.	F.	P
Cottrell, f	2	1	5
D. McNamee, f	4	0	8
Williams, c	1	0	2
Wheelan, g	1	0	2
Ryder, g	0	0	0
Fitch, g	1	0	2
	9	1	19

NORTH PLAINFIELD.

	G.	F.	P
Townley, f	7	0	14
Conroy, f	5	0	10
Hebert, c	2	0	4
Newkirk, g	2	1	5
Van Mater, g	0	0	0
	16	1	33

Score by periods:

Grace	11	8	—19
N. P. H. S.	15	18	—33

Summary: Referee, Burner; scorer, Berse; timer, Dunning.

SOMERSET COUNTY BALL LEAGUE NEXT

Tentative Plans Made for a Four Cornered League for Coming Season.

Tentative arrangements were completed in Bound Brook, Saturday afternoon, prior to the North Plainfield-Bound Brook basketball game, for the organization of a Somerset county baseball league to operate during the coming spring months. Captain Ralph Smalley and Manager Charles Beckmen went to the town where game winning is the leading consideration, for the sole purpose of completing details for the launching of the innovation and although no definite schedule was drawn up at that time it was announced that the organization is now a surety.

A baseball league is somewhat of an innovation in Somerset county scholastic competition, but the keen rivalry stirred up by basketball leagues will without doubt serve to bring the new project into immediate prominence and popularity. Captain Smalley is optimistic of the North Plainfield nine's chance of copping a diamond championship and it would not be a surprise to many to see the boroughites clean up on such a proposition as there is an abundance of good material available this season and Smalley will not have to do much scratching in order to turn out a nine of high calibre.

It is planned to offer some suitable trophy for competition in the league and to purchase a set of medals to be awarded to the players on the pennant team at the end of the season. Although nothing has as yet been heard from other sources present conditions seem to indicate that Bernardsville and Somerville High Schools will also be taken into consideration in the forming of such a league, thus making a four-cornered circuit.

BELLEVILLE AGAIN.

The Y. M. C. A. basketball team, for the first time this season will play away from its home court on a Saturday night, this week, when the team will go to Belleville to play the quintet of that place. The schedule was interrupted in order to accommodate the Belleville five, which defeated the locals by a margin of one point here early in the season.

FANWOOD BOY ON TEAM.

Murray Hall, captain of the Scotch Plains Parish House second team, played guard on the Berkley School basketball teams, of New York, Saturday afternoon, when the New Yorkers were defeated by the Cutler School aggregation by a score of 21 to 14.

NEW ERA IN FITZ CASE NOW OPENED

Ex-champion's Attorney Ordered to give Security for Costs of Hearing.

Another chapter was added to the contest between Robert Fitzsimmons, of Dunellen, the former heavyweight champion of the world, and the New York State Boxing Commission, which denied Fitz the privilege of boxing in the Empire State, when Attorney George Norton, counsel for the prizefighter, was served yesterday with motion papers, demanding security for costs before the case goes any further. This move was due to the fact that Fitzsimmons is a non-resident of New York, now claiming Jersey as his residence. The case is returnable in the Supreme Court tomorrow.

Fitzsimmons is trying to secure a permanent injunction to restrain the State Athletic Commission from interferring with him boxing in New York State. A few days ago the application of Fitz for a temporary injunction was heard and the court decided in favor of the commission. Fitzsimmons is tentatively booked for a bout in New York city at the Atlantic-Garden A. C., if he succeeds in getting the necessary injunction.

Complete reports of his bout at Williamsport, Pa., Thursday night, with a heavyweight sporting the name of "Knockout" Dan Sweeney and hailing from Cleveland, Ohio, seems to bear out his contention that he is fit to meet the best of them and hold his own. Fitz put up a splendid exhibition in the ring last week and displayed much of his old time cunning and punch that gave him three pugilistic titles during his career.

WEIGHT HANDICAP PROVED TOO GREAT

Leal School Basketball Players Furnish Food for Fifth Straight Victory.

Kingsley School basketball players hung up their fifth consecutive victory of the season Saturday afternoon, taking the Leal School boys into camp by a score of 44 to 12. Greatly outweighed by the aggregation that trimmed Plainfield High School in the same handy style, the private school youths put up a stiff battle but failed in an attempt to ward off the many shots taken by their rivals from all angles of the floor.

Familiarity with the court gave the home five a big advantage and the Leal players had to fight against handicaps as they have in a majority of their contests this season. The Kingsley basketeers were exponents of the close guarding game and kept the little forwards who opposed them constantly covered. Bingham and Tremain were easily the stars of the game for the winners, while Stewart put up a great all around contest for the losing faction.

The score:

LEAL'S SCHOOL.

	G.	F.	P.
Stewart, f	4	0	8
Dickerson, f	1	2	4
Van Deventer, c	0	0	0
Harrington, g	0	0	0
Schneider, g	0	0	0
	5	2	12

KINGSLEY SCHOOL.

	G.	F.	P.
Frost, f	6	0	12
Tremaine, f	8	0	16
Bingham, c	7	0	14
Arnold, g	0	0	0
Sperry, g	1	0	2
	22	0	44

Score by periods:

Kingsley School	20	24—44
Leal School	10	2—12

Summary: Referee, James Nash; scorer, Phillips; time of halves, fifteen and twenty minutes.

NORTH PLAINFIELD ONE BEST BET FOR CHAMPIONSHIP HONOR

North Plainfield High School basketball players have fought their way to the top rung in the fight for Somerset county championship honors for the present season and have only to defeat Bernardsville High School to establish an undisputed claim to another county basketball title. The overwhelming defeat handed to Bound Brook and the refusal of Somerville High School to pit a team against the fast traveling Canadians leaves only the Bernardsville youths in the race and the title meeting will probably be staged next Friday night in the Saengerbund Hall gym.

North Plainfield High School won the championship with ease last season and those who are behind the scenes predict another walkover this year as Bernardsville is but a minor consideration in the run for the pennant and the playing of the team from that village a mere formality which has to be dispensed with before the flag can be unfurled.

—The merchant who, in his advertising, emphasizes ten value-giving facts to his competitor's one, uses the best sort of "strategy" in expanding his business.

THIRTY ENTRIES FOR ELKS' POOL TOURNEY

Handicaps Have Been Alotted to Promote Keen Competition.

Thirty manipulators of the pool cue have entered their John Hancocks as participants in the Elks' Club pool tournament which opens in the new clubhouse on Watchung avenue tonight. Handicaps have been allotted according to the ability of the artists and some close and interesting competition is assured.

Although there has been a great deal of individual playing in the Elks' Club since the tables were installed in the new clubhouse this is the first tournament to be held and the rivalry brought out during the individual competition will serve to promote interest and enthusiasm in the new project. A number of the antlered cue pushers are recognized as exceptionally clever players and some good exhibitions will without doubt be the issue. William Hand and Edward Hardingham, scratch men, will play Harry DeMeza and Frank Denckhau, respectively, tonight, the latter two having a handicap of forty over their opponents.

HOPE CHAPEL AGAIN ON THE PLUS SIDE

Circle Five Succumbs to Second Defeat at Hands of Local Churchboys.

Hope Chapel again defeated the Circle Five basketball team, of Newark, on the local court Saturday night by a score of 44 to 41. The visitors put up a good game against the Chapelites on this occasion and the home team had its hands full in coming out in the lead.

The close playing resulted in a number of fouls being called on each side but the foul shooting was about even up and the locals won the game by a margin of two field goals. Leighs and Snyder were out of the Hope lineup Saturday night and their places were taken by Hunter and Wardrop. The Heron brothers led the scoring for the victorious aggregation each rolling up a total of five field goals. Nichols and Menke did the best work for the losing side.

The scores:

HOPE FIRSTS.

	G.	F.	P.
J. Heron, f.	5	0	10
T. Heron, f.	5	0	10
Doig, c.	7	6	20
Wardrop, g.	2	0	4
Hunter, g.	0	0	0
	19	6	44

CIRCLE FIVE.

	G.	F.	P.
Nichols, f.	5	3	13
Menkes, f.	6	0	12
Broomer, c.	2	0	4
Kirch, g.	3	1	7
Fagen, g.	1	1	3
	17	5	*41

*Two points awarded.

Time of halves, 15-20 minutes; referee, Rimmer; timer, Doig; scorer, Heron.

PARISH HOUSE JUNIORS TROUNCED MT. PLEASANT

In a loosely played game on the Scotch Plains Parish House court Saturday afternoon the Juniors, of that place, completely outclassed the Trojans, from Plainfield, defeating them by a score of 74 to 16.

The scores:

S. P. P. H. JUNIORS.

	G.	F.	P.
Howell, f.	6	0	12
Venizio, f.	9	0	18
Jesperson, c.	15	0	30
Southard, g.	4	0	8
Barry, g.	2	0	4
	36	0	72

MT. PLEASANT JUNIORS.

	G.	F.	P.
Eggie, f.	1	1	3
Gullberg, f.	1	1	3
Stevens, c.	2	0	4
Mowen, g.	2	0	4
Wilmerding, g.	1	0	2
	7	2	16

Score by halves:

S. P. P. H. Juniors	32	30—74
Mt. Pleasant	6	10—16

Referee—Batterson.

MORRISTOWN NEXT.

Manager John Cottrell, of the Plainfield High School basketball team, has booked a return game with the Morristown High School basketball team to be played at the latter place next Saturday afternoon. Morristown won the former game by a close margin.

'PLAINS VS. Y. M. C. A.

Tentative arrangements have been made for a contest to be played between the Plainfield Y. M. C. A. and Scotch Plains Parish House basketball teams one week from tomorrow night in the 'Plains gym.

—It is wiser to know what a thing OUGHT TO COST before buying it; and ad-readers usually do know this.

LOCAL KNIGHTS LOST THREE TO NEWARKERS

Pinning on Rival's Alleys the Plainfielders Were Properly Spanked.

Newark Council pinners took all three of the contests rolled in connection with the Knights of Columbus League in Newark, Saturday night at the expense of the Watchung Council bowlers. The Newarkers trimmed the locals by 109 pins in the first, but the Plainfielders came back and managed to creep up to within eight pins of the rival clan in the second.

The third game was a repetition of the first, the Queen City men falling below the water level once more and handing the game to the Newarkers on a silver platter with 103 pins to spare.

Farrel was high man for the series, turning in 220 in the opening issue. Shannon did the best and most consistent work for the locals.

The scores:

WATCHUNG COUNCIL.

Shannon	175	175	148
Pasch	117	153	126
Wilson	122	136	101
Howe	151	175	153
Taylor	150	148	144
	713	792	666

NEWARK COUNCIL.

A. Speany	172	153	177
Barkhorn	154	145	134
Sullivan	156	153	142
Farrell	220	145	158
J. Speany	140	199	156
	822	799	769

HOPE CHAPEL SECONDS RUN AWAY WITH CENTRAL FIVE

The Hope Chapel second basketball team hung an overwhelming defeat on the heads of the Central Railroad "14" crew here Saturday night, by a score of 60 to 18.

Bohl and Schott stared for the seconds, while Briggs and Diman led for the railroaders.

The score:

HOPE CHAPEL SECONDS.

	G.	F.	P.
Bohl, f	9	0	18
J. Heron, f	2	0	4
Porter, f	5	0	10
Grisley, f	5	0	10
Schott, c	6	0	12
Hunter, g	3	0	6
Wardrop, g	0	0	0
	30	0	60

CENTRAL RAILROAD "14."

	G.	F.	P
Briggs, f	3	0	6
Diman, f	2	0	4
Reeve, c	1	0	2
Clark, g	2	0	4
Sellman, g	1	0	2
Holden, g	0	0	0
	9	0	18

Summary: Referee, Rimmer; timer, Doig; scorer, J. Heron; time of halves, 15 and 20 minutes.

PLAINFIELD HIGH SCHOOL MEN IN SOUTH SIDE EVENTS

A big squad of Plainfield High School track stars has been selected to go to the annual athletic meet of the South Side High School in Newark next Saturday night and the local boys expect to cop a big share of the awards.

Morris Mann, Alfred Day and Ralph Runyon who entered the Central meet Saturday night will also be on hand at the South Side School. William Peacock will enter the standing broad jump, the running high jump, the twelve-pound shot-put and the fifty-yard dash; Mann will enter the half century and the standing broad jump; Day will run in the half mile and mile; Runyon the standing broad jump and the running high jump; Berrien the shot-put; Smith, McNamee and Leary, the junior sprints, Zelmas and Schuyler the half mile, and Blair the high jump and fifty-yard dash.

COLUMBUS CLUB LEAGUE.

Two games will be rolled in the Columbus Club bowling league this week, the Brandywine five lining up against the Lexingtons tonight and the Gettysburg pinners rolling a game with the Germantown five Friday night.

FRITTS FAILED TO PLACE.

Jack Fritts, with a handicap of sixty-five yards, failed to win a place in the A. A. U. mile run held in connection with the Central High School meet in Newark, Saturday night. The event was won by Tom Gordon, of the New York A. C.

GIRLS DIDN'T PLAY.

The game scheuled to be played between the Plainfield and Springfield High School girls' basketball teams in the former's gym Saturday afternoon, was postponed indefinitely.

SPORT SCRIBE ILL.

Harold Sharkey, sporting editor of the Courier-News, is detained at his home on East Second street, with a severe attack of the grip.

K. OF C. LEAGUE.

Watchung Council players will roll a league game with the Star of Bethlehem quintet here Wednesday night.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

"Omar, the Tentmaker," Richard Walton Tully's Persian love play, at the Lyric Theatre, New York, is drawing great houses, with Guy Bates Post as star. In the language of the Rialto, it has "caught on"; it is a "hit." Going into the city without the blare of trumpets which usually precedes the big productions, it has established itself by the strength of its direct appeal to audiences. Judging from the receipts, those who see the play, like it well enough to send others. Aside from the beauty of the production which led the critic of the Globe to write: "Nothing more beautiful has ever been witnessed on the American stage," and the interest which surrounds Omar Khayyam, the central figure, there are novelties in the staging of the production which cause talk. At every performance since the opening week there has been a steady rise in the cash receipts. "The Bird of Paradise," Mr. Tully's last play before this, had a corresponding start in New York, and it remained for six months. "Omar, the Tentmaker," has had larger receipts constantly than the corresponding performances of the earlier play, and it will probably have greater popularity.

The departure of the cook or maid does not prostrate the lady who knows the efficiency of Press want ads.

And want ad-reading servants are of the desirable class.

Make the Slack Hours Count —Telephone

MANY merchants use the slack hours of the business day to good advantage by calling their customers by TELEPHONE and offering for sale articles that are likely to be in demand. Telephone selling provides an efficient means for holding old customers and for reaching out after new.

And the cost of selling by telephone is far less than the cost of personal solicitation.

Have YOU a telephone in your place of business to help you in selling?

Our nearest Commercial Office will gladly give you full information if you will just telephone, write or call.

NEW YORK TELEPHONE CO.

17—14

A. B. WILSON, Local Commercial Manager,
109 East Fourth Street, Plainfield, N. J.

WE DO FINE JOB PRINTING. TRY US

IN THE SILVER COURTS OF THE JEWELRY STORE
We Present Tomorrow, Tuesday,

Our Most Distinguished Sale of Sterling Silver Tablewares and Novelties

It is the silver event of the year. The opportunity to replenish the silver closet, to select a wedding gift, or for the bride or groom to completely furnish their new household with silverware.

It is a sale of sterling silver only—.925 fine. It includes—

1. Sterling Silver Spoons, Forks, Knives

A complete pattern of spoons, forks, knives and serving pieces in an exquisite Louis XV. design. Teaspoons of good weight for as little as $10 a dozen; others proportionately low in price.

2. Sterling Silver Table Dishes

A large collection of dishes, plates, trays, tea and coffee sets, vases, pitchers, etc., of a character and weight not usually offered in a sale. Many of these pieces are reduced as much as 50 per cent—really remarkable for sterling silver.

3. Very Moderate Price Table Silver

A large offering of very moderate price table silver—prices lower than we have ever been able to quote before.

4. Genuine Old English Table Silver

A special selection of old English silver, many pieces of established history, crested, registered, and of great historic value—offered at not more than half the prevailing prices.

The average reduction in price reaches 36 per cent. Many things are offered at half the regular prices, which means they will quickly be taken.

These Few Examples Indicate the Prices

Sterling Silver Spoons and Forks
Louis XV. Design

	Regular Price	Annual Sale Price
Tea spoons, 5 o'clock	$ 8.00	$ 6.15 doz.
Tea spoons, 5 o'clock	8.50	6.75
Tea spoons, Regular	10.00	8.00
Tea spoons, medium	12.50	10.00
Tea spoons, heavy	15.50	12.00
Dessert spoons, medium	19.00	15.00
Dessert spoons, heavy	22.00	17.50
Soup spoons, medium	22.00	17.50
Table spoons, medium	27.50	22.00
Table spoons, heavy	31.50	25.00
Dessert forks, medium	19.00	15.00
Dessert forks, heavy	22.00	17.50
Table forks, medium	25.00	20.00
Table forks, heavy	29.50	23.50

Sterling Silver Table Dishes

	Regular Price	Annual Sale Price
Pitcher, engraved	$110.00	$53.50
Compote, pierced	60.00	40.00
Platter, 16-inch	60.00	45.00
Basket, pierced	39.00	27.00
Coffee set (3 pieces)	68.00	49.00
Tea set (5 pieces)	120.00	90.00
Tea set (5 pieces)	235.00	173.00
Sandwich plate, engraved	30.00	18.00
Bread tray, floral design	38.00	21.50
Vegetable dish, double	42.00	29.00
Basket	23.00	15.00
Vase	72.00	34.00

Sterling Silver Fancy Pieces
Louis XV. Design

	Regular Price	Annual Sale Price
Individual salad forks	$24.00	$18.00 doz.
Sardine forks, large	2.50	1.75 ea.
Sugar spoons, gilt	2.00	1.25 ea.
Bouillon spoons	16.00	11.00 doz.
Ice cream forks, gilt	18.00	13.25 doz.
Ice cream spoons, gilt	18.00	13.25 doz.
Cold meat forks, plain	5.00	3.25 ea.
Cold meat forks, gilt	5.25	3.75 ea.
Berry spoons, plain	5.75	4.00 ea.
Berry spoons, gilt	6.00	4.25 ea.
Coffee spoons, gilt	8.50	6.00 doz.
Coffee spoons, plain	8.50	6.00 doz.
Berry spoons, small	4.50	3.00 ea.
Butter knives, curved	3.00	2.00 ea.
Cold meat forks, small	3.00	2.00 ea.
Oyster forks	13.50	9.00 doz.
Bon bon spoons	1.75	1.25 ea.
Butter knives, flat	3.00	2.00 ea.
Butter spreaders	20.50	14.00 doz.
Sugar tongs, large	3.75	2.50 ea.
Sugar tongs, medium	2.50	1.75 ea.
Bon bon spoon (large)	3.25	2.25 ea.
Cucumber server	3.25	2.25 ea.
Orange spoons	20.00	8.85 doz.
Sugar sifter (small)	3.00	2.00 ea.
Gravy ladle	5.25	3.50
Salad forks (large, gilt)	7.00	4.75
Salad spoons (large, gilt)	6.00	4.00 ea.
Fruit knives	21.50	14.50 doz.
Orange knives	22.50	15.00 doz.

To give the sale the conspicuous setting it deserves, so that details may easily be commanded at a glance, we have arranged it in the specially arranged and enlarged Silver Courts of the Jewelry Store, near the Private Motor Entrance on Tenth Street.

JOHN WANAMAKER
Broadway & Ninth, New York

Safe Deposit and Storage Vaults

In a building of fireproof construction

INCREASING YOUR POSSESSIONS

may be your first business in life but it is quite as necessary to

SAFEGUARD WHAT YOU HAVE.

It has cost this Company thousands of dollars to erect its massive vaults but the security which they afford is offered to you for a nominal sum. If you will call at the bank our Officers will be glad to show you our safe deposit boxes, the smallest of which will hold many valuable papers.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Boxes may be rented for $5.00 to $150.00 a year.

AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S Vaudeville Front Street. 10c, 15c, 25c.

Monday Tuesday Wednesday

PAULINE

And Her Six Colored Madcaps

5 OTHER BIG ACTS

EDUCATIONAL.

SECRETARIAL

ELEMENTARY, REGULAR AND SPECIAL COURSES At

HERR'S BUSINESS COLLEGE

(Plainfield Business College and School of English)

"One of the most complete EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS in the State of New Jersey, devoted to BUSINESS EDUCATION."

All inquiries promptly attended to. Call, 'Phone or Write

PROFESSOR A. S. Herr, Principal. Woodhull & Martin Bldg., Plainfield, N. J.

m-w-f

NECESSITY -- PRUDENCE -- CONVENIENCE

All these point the way to a Safe Deposit Box in the Manganese Vault of The State Trust Company. Necessity because the Safe Deposit Vault has long since superseded the secret hiding place. Prudence because of the maximum of protection afforded. Convenience because of ease of access.

Rentals $5 to $100 per year. Hours 8:15 to 4:30.

[SERVICE

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

At the sign of the clock. 201 Park Ave.

THE POWLISON & JONES FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

TODAY, FEBRUARY 2, WE BEGIN OUR FEBRUARY SALE OF FURNITURE

The discontinued and unmatched pieces are taken from our regular stock and marked at prices much below their real value. The offering includes many artistic reproductions and period pieces and represent all the standard woods. Furniture that meets the needs of every part of the Home.

It's the kind of FURNITURE everybody wants and at the price concessions we make they are real bargains both in quality and price. The pieces we offer are not factory "Seconds" bought for the purpose of making a sale, but good dependable FURNITURE.

It includes DINING ROOM and CHAMBER SUITS as well as single pieces of all kinds, LEATHER COVERED CHAIRS and ROCKERS, LIBRARY TABLES, METAL BEDS and a host of odd pieces. The quality will please you and the price interest you.

We will be glad to have you visit our warerooms no matter if you wish to buy or not.

POWLISON & JONES

149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Get Out of the Rut

Send us your family wash Friday; it will be returned not later than Tuesday following.

Bed and Table Linen ready for use. All other pieces ready to iron. All wash-day cares done away with. This includes everything except Shirts, Collars and Cuffs, Blankets, and Lace Curtains. Handkerchiefs, 1 cent each.

Average bundle weighs 15 lbs. at 6 cents will cost 90 cents cheaper than home work—and better. TRY IT.

Marshall's Laundry, Inc.

Watchung and Fourth.

Phone 702.

10 27 m-s tf

NO WOMAN CONSIDERS---

her wardrobe complete without a pair of TAN BOOTS, heavy or light weight as her fancy dictates, but tan they must be.

We have them in all leathers.

$3.50 TO $6

M. C. Van Arsdale

127 E. FRONT ST.

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists

AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Free Consultation.

Hours 10 to 4:30.

DON'T STOP SAVING

Some young people resolve to save and for a time they deposit their money regularly in the Bank—but after a while they lose interest and spend money for luxuries not actually needed.

Start an account now with us and determine to make a deposit to your credit each week.

4 PER CENT. INTEREST PAID.

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

THE ONLY SAVINGS BANK IN PLAINFIELD.

ORGANIZED 1868.

OFFICERS.

WM. F. ARNOLD ..... President
A. C. STEBBINS ..... Vice President
JAMES C. POPE ..... Secretary and Treasurer
H. A. POPE ..... Assistant Secretary and Treasurer
H. B. MacDONALD ..... Second Assistant Secretary and Treasurer

Money deposited by the third of the month will draw interest from the first.

TIME TABLE

Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

Waiting room at Kensington Hotel, Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD

WEEK DAYS.

Leave Plainfield—7.45, 9.00, 11.45 a. m. 1.00, 4.00, 5.00, 7.00, 9.00, 10.20, x11.10 p. m.

Leave South Plainfield—8.00, 9.30 a. m. 12.00, 1.30, 4.30, 5.30, 7.30, 9.30, 10.45, x11.30 p. m.

xSaturdays only.

SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—9.00, 12.00 a. m., 2.00, 4.00, 5.00, 9.00 p. m.

Leave South Plainfield—10.00 a. m. 12.15, 2.30, 4.30, 5.30, 9.30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE and MT. BETHEL.

WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6.30 a. m., 3.00, 6.2 x11.00 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6.45 a. m., 3.15, 6.4 x11.15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3.30, 6.5 x11.30 p. m.

Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m

Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m

Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30, 7.3 x11.30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.4 x11.45 p. m.

Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 7.5 x12.00 p. m.

xSaturdays only.

Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9.00 a. m. instead of 6.30 a. m. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STERLING.

WEEK DAYS ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—8.45 a. m., 4.30 p. m

Leave Watchung—9.00 a. m., 4.45 p. m

Leave Stirling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m.

8.45 a. m. bus connects with 9.27 a. m train at Sterling, for Newark.

4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m train at Sterling, from Newark.

An enclosed electric-lighted and heated bus may be procured for an afternoon or evening, from The Plainfield Transit Co. to carry from 10 to 25 passengers to any point within a radius of 25 miles from Plainfield

R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave 'Phone 130, Plainfield.

Roth & Co.

SANITARY MARKET

Fresh Shoulders, lb 14c
Small Cal. Hams, lb ....

Jersey Pork Chops, lb
Loin Jersey Pork, lb
Pork to Roast, lb ... 16½c

Forequarter of Lamb, lb
Lamb to Roast, lb 12c

Legs of Lamb, lb .....
Hindquarters Lamb, lb (Small) 16½c

CANNED GOODS.

Corn, can .....
Beets, can 8c
Kidney Beans, can ....

Butterine, lb 16c

Winslow Ice Skates Sale

An extremely low price on all skates The following prices apply to goods now in stock:

Our $1.50 Hockey Skates, now $1.15
Our $2.25 Hockey Skates, now $1.55
Our $3.50 Hockey Skates (flange runner) $2.60
Our $3.75 Hockey Skates (flange runner) $2.70
Our 75c Lever Club 58c
Our $1.00 Lever Club 83c
Our $2.00 Rink Club $1.43
Our $1.25 Ladies', strap heel 98c
Our $2.25 Ladies', strap heel $1.75
Our $1.75 Ladies', strap heel $1.25

Hockey Sticks, Pucks and Straps.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

J. HIMMELFARB

Ladies' Tailor, Dressmaker and Furrier.

NOS. 309-311 NEW ST., BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH STS., TEL. 903-W.

Particular pains exercised in the making of a garment, the fitting of the same and attending properly to the little details that mean so much in the finished garment—thus satisfactions follows.

Expert workmanship and Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

I will appreciate a call and will be pleased to show styles and samples of work. Prices reasonable.

J. L. BROWER

STATIONERY, BOOKS and MAGAZINES

311 PARK AVENUE

Valentines and Booklets from E. P. Dutton & Co.

Have you read?
The Initials
On the Branch
The Heart of Life

TELEPHONE 1012.

L. Moraller & Son

WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.

Jobbing a specialty Estimates cheerfully given. Telephone 347-J.

1120 Myrtle Ave. Plainfield, N. J

HORTON'S Charlotte Russe

Fresh Twice Daily

325 W. FRONT ST.

Between Madison and Central Aves.

m-w-f tf

Stop! Look! and Listen!

Twenty-five desirable building lots felt at $75.00 each. Sold on terms to suit the purchaser; located at LINCOLN HEIGHTS, N. J., in a fine industrial location, near large industry in course of construction. Apply to WILLIAM J. DAVENPORT at first house west of Dunellen Car barn.

1 30 6

ADMINISTRATOR'S SETTLEMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given that the account of the subscriber, substitutionary administrator with the will annexed of Joseph Webster, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans Court of the County of Union, on Friday the sixth day of March next.

JOHN H. VAN WINKLE Jr.

JOHN H. VAN WINKLE & SON Proctors

Dated January 30th, 1914

2 2 5-m Fees—$4.26

Attend the Remarkable FUR SALE of

Charles Kurtzman Furs of Quality 178 E. Front St

DR. PITTIS OFFICE BUILDING

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

SHERIFF'S SALE—In Chancery of New Jersey. Between Jonathan Clawson, complainant, and Berkeley Heights Association et al., defendants. Fi fa for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue, at the sheriff's office in the Courthouse, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all the following described tracts or parcels of land situate, lying and being in the city of Plainfield, in the county of Union and State of New Jersey.

WEDNESDAY, THE TWENTY-FIFTH DAY OF FEBRUARY, A. D., 1914,

First tract, lot number twenty-seven (27) in block number one (1) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J. February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Second tract, lot number thirty-one (31) in block number one (1), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Third tract, lot number twenty-two (22) in block number one (1), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Fourth tract, lot number seven (7) in block number two (2), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Fifth tract, lot number one (1), and the easterly half lengthwise of lot number three (3) in block number one (1), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union, described as follows:

Beginning at a point being the intersection of the southerly side line of Woodbine avenue and the southwesterly side line of Park avenue and running thence along the said southerly side line of Woodbine avenue in a westerly direction a distance of one hundred and sixty-three and ninety-five one hundredths (163.95) feet to a point being the centre of the front line of lot number three in block number one on a "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E.," which map is filed in the clerk's office of the county of Union, thence southerly and making a new line through the centre of said lot number three in block number one aforesaid a distance of one hundred and forty (140) feet to the centre point in the rear line of said lot, thence easterly along said rear line which is also the rear line of lot number twenty-eight in block number one a distance of twenty-five (25) feet to a point and corner of lot number three and also a corner of lots numbers twenty-eight, twenty-nine and two, thence northerly and along the line of lot number three and the rear line of lot number two a distance of seventy (70) feet to a corner of lot number two and also lot number one, thence easterly along the line of lot number one and two one hundred and eighty-nine and fifty-six one hundredths (189.56) feet to the southwesterly side line of Park avenue aforesaid, thence northwesterly along the southwesterly side line of Park avenue eighty-six and thirty-eight one hundredths (86.38) feet to the point and place of beginning.

Together with the land in front of the same to the centre of Park avenue and Woodbine avenue to be used as a public highway and subject to the easement of the public therein.

Sixth tract, lot number five (5) in block number one (1), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Seventh tract, lot number eight (8) in block number one (1), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Eighth tract, lot number two (2) in block number one (1), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Ninth tract, lot number one (1) in block number two (2), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Tenth tract, lot number ten (10) in block number two (2), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Eleventh tract, the easterly portion of lots numbers thirteen (13) and eighteen (18) in block number one (1) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union, described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the northerly side of Randolph road as the same is now laid out and opened said point being distant one hundred and twenty-five and twenty-eight one hundredths (125.28) feet more or less from the intersection of the northerly side of Randolph road with the westerly side of Dusenbury avenue, said beginning point being in the old property line between lands of Dusenbury and Clawson, thence running along said old property line north ten minutes east (N. 10 E.) a distance of two hundred and thirty-one and thirty-three one hundredths (231.33) feet to a point on the southerly side of Woodbine avenue, thence along said southerly side of Woodbine avenue in a general easterly direction and following the curves of the same a distance of twenty-two and sixteen hundredths (22.16) feet more or less to a point being the northwesterly corner of lot number twelve, thence along the westerly line of lot number twelve and nineteen south four degrees west (S. 4 W.) a distance of two hundred and thirty-seven (237) feet more or less to a point on the northerly side of Randolph road aforesaid, thence along said northerly side of Randolph road north eighty-six degrees west (N. 86 W.) a distance of six and thirty-two one hundredths (6.32) feet to the place of beginning.

It being the intention to convey that portion of lots number thirteen and eighteen in block number one, lying east of the old property lines between Dusenbury and Clawson.

Together with the land in front of the same to the middle of Randolph road and Woodbine avenue to be used as public highways and subject to the easement of the public therein.

Twelfth tract, lot number two (2), in block number two (2) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union, excepting and reserving, however, therefrom a strip of ten feet in width front and rear off of the southerly side lengthwise of said lot, described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the westerly side of Park avenue distant ninety-five and six one-hundredths (95.06) feet northerly from the northwesterly corner formed by the intersection of the westerly side of Park avenue with the northerly side of Woodbine avenue, running thence westerly one hundred and eighty-four and ninety-seven one hundredths (184.97) feet parallel with Woodbine avenue to the line of lot number three, running thence northerly and along the line of lot number three fifty-nine and forty-six one hundredths (59.46) feet to the rear corner of lot number three, thence easterly parallel with Woodbine avenue one hundred and forty-four (144) feet to the westerly side or line of Park avenue, thence southeasterly and along the westerly side of Park avenue seventy-three and ninety-one one hundredths (73.91) feet to the point or place of beginning.

Being the said several dimensions more or less as an accurate survey may show.

Thirteenth tract, a strip of ten feet in width front and rear off of the southerly side lengthwise of lot number two (2) in block number two (2) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903. F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Beginning at a point in the westerly side line of Park avenue distant in a northerly course along said side line eighty-five and six one hundredths (85.06) feet from a point at the intersection of the westerly side line of Park avenue with the northerly side line of Woodbine avenue and is a corner of lot number one, thence running along the said westerly side line of Park avenue in a general northwesterly direction a distance of ten (10) feet to a point in said side line; thence westerly and parallel with the northerly side line of Woodbine avenue aforesaid to a point in the rear line of lot number two and also in the side line of lot number three, thence southerly along the said rear line of lot number two and the side line of lot number three to the corner of said lot number two also corner of lot number one, thence along the side line of lot number two and lot number one, which line is also parallel with the northerly side line of Woodbine avenue, a distance of one hundred and ninety-four and ninety-seven hundredths (194.97) feet to the westerly side line of Park avenue and the place of beginning.

Be the said several dimensions more or less as an accurate survey may show, it being the intention to convey ten (10) feet frontage on Park avenue.

Together with the land in front of the same to the middle of Park avenue to be used as a public highway.

Fourteenth tract, lot number one (1), in block number two (2) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J." and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union, described as follows:

Beginning at a point being the intersection of the northerly side of Woodbine avenue with the southwesterly side of Park avenue, as the same are now laid out and opened, thence running along said southwesterly side of Park avenue in a magnetic course of north thirty-one degrees and fifty-two minutes west (N. 31° 52' W.) a distance of eighty-five and six one-hundredths (85.06) feet to a point and corner of lot number two, thence along the southerly line of said lot north eighty-six degrees west (N. 86° W.) and parallel with Woodbine avenue aforesaid a distance of one hundred and ninety-three and twenty-two hundredths (193.22) feet to a point in the easterly line of lot number three, thence along said line and at right angles with Woodbine avenue south four degrees west (S. 4° W.), a distance of sixty-eight and ninety-two one-hundredths (68.92) feet to a point on the northerly side of Woodbine avenue aforesaid, thence along said northerly side of Woodbine avenue south eighty-six degrees east (S. 86° E.), a distance of two hundred and forty-two and ninety-nine one-hundredths (242.99) feet to the place of beginning.

Together with the land in front of same to the middle of Park avenue and Woodbine avenue to be used as public streets.

The second tract, ninth tract and tenth tract above described are sold subject to the sale for past due taxes and interest and costs thereon, and all of the above tracts, including the second tract, ninth tract and tenth tract, are sold subject to any and all unpaid taxes and assessments of any kind.

WILLIAM H. WRIGHT, Sheriff.

JOHN H. VAN WINKLE & SON, Solrs.

2 4-m E10J&PDP Fees, $104.38

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.08, 5.40, 5.52, 6.27, 6.55, 7.22, 7.26, 7.41, 7.44, 7.55, 7.58, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.42, 8.59, 9.29, 9.53, 10.26, 11.27, 11.52 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.25, 3.39, 4.55, 5.12, 5.48, 6.13, 6.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.43 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.40, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.34, 9.40, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.29, 1.28, 2.09, 2.23, 2.55, 3.17, 4.29, 5.24, 6.37, 7.14, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.27, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.08, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8.36, 9.29, 10.26, 11.27 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.59, 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m. 12.29, 12.58, 1.28, 2.09, 2.55, 3.17, 4.29, 5.24, 7.14, 8.13, 9.35, 9.27, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.06, 9.44, 11.27 a. m., 2.00, 5.24, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), (6.59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.32 a. m., 1.58, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.18, 9.44 a. m., 5.44 p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.32 a. m., 5.44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.12, 11.27 a. m., (2.34, (12.58 Red Bank only), (3.12 Red Bank only), 4.36, 6.25, 8.27, 11.43 p. m. Sundays—3.41, 8.52 a. m., (2.09 Red Bank only), 3.17, 8.35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., 12.34 Saturdays only), 3.12. Sunday—9.40 a. m., 1.28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6.38, 7.39, 8.45, 10.43, 11.52 a. m., 12.42, 1.54, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 a. m. Sunday—8.45, 9.39, 9.57, 10.39, 10.43, 11.41 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.39, 4.56, 5.39, 6.39, 7.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.55, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk. 12 21 14

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING

CANDIES, ICE CREAM, DAINTY LUNCH

THE ONLY WAY
to become familiar with local building progress is to read the Daily Press Building Page each Saturday.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.
Fair tonight, warmer; Wednesday fair; moderate south winds, becoming west.
Max., 43; Min., 25.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

RARE ORIENTAL RUGS ON VIEW

J. W. Redway, of Yonkers, N. Y., Lectures Before Monday Afternoon Club.

SHOW COSTLY CARPETS

Mrs. Frank C. Ard, of This City, Said to Be Possessor of Magnificent Specimen of the Weaver's Art.

Of all the Oriental rugs that grace Plainfield's handsome homes probably the handsomest, in proportion to its size and cost, is a rug that is the property of Mrs. Frank C. Ard, of Park avenue. It is an old Shiraz piece. Its colors are mauve and ecru. The rug has a border of henna flowers and the coloring of mauve in a greenish field produces a wonderfully pleasing and very beautiful effect. This rug, than which one seldom sees a finer nowaways, since the olden time cottage prayer rugs and other oriental handwoven carpets have for the most part disappeared, was picked up by its owner accidentally not long since, being bought at a sale of rugs at a big department store. It is an old Shiraz piece that delights the eye and aesthetic taste of all rug connoisseurs. It is said to be worth ten times its cost.

Authority for the statement that the rug which has been described is a rara avis among the oriental rug family and its owner most fortunate to possess it is no less a personage than Jacques W. Redway, of Yonkers, N. Y., himself an expert on rugs from the Orient and who has collected thousands of dollars worth of cottage made weaves. Mr. Redway, who is a geographer by profession, and a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society, of London, lectured yesterday afternoon before a large and fashionable audience of Plainfield women on "Oriental Rugs," under the auspices of the Monday Afternoon Club.

Illustrating his lecture were glowing oriental rugs of almost every conceivable shade and hue. The colors were dull and brilliant; sombre and gay. There were rugs of silky lustre, of deep pile, and others of the very softest tones, but each and every weave a symphony of color and artistic in the extreme. Rugs shown during the lecture were valued at more than $3,500. While comparatively few in number the oriental woven pieces were highly meritorious as regards their quality. There was scarcely a rug shown by the lecturer that was not worth considerably more than $100.

Of oriental rugs and carpets there are three classes, according to the lecturer. These are Persian, Turkoman and Caucassian weaves. Rug making is the oldest of all industries in Persia and it is from that eastern country that the finest rugs are obtainable. Oil oriental weaves are symbolic. In no other part of the world can such rugs and carpets be made. It requires just the sort of climatic environment that is found in the Far East to produce the fibre and the dye that makes such rugs, jeweled carpets, so to speak, and seems to hold and imprison flames of color in the warp and woof of the weave.

One of the handsome rugs displayed at yesterday's lecture was the "Tree of Life," symbolic of the age old story of the Garden of Eden. The history of a people is to be found in rugs woven by the people of the Far East, and this because of their symbolism. Rugs are woven in that region lying to the north and south of the Caucausus mountains, in Anatolia, in far-off Asia Minor, in that great region extending east to Persia, Afghanistan and Beloochistan, and in Samarcand, which now under the domination of Russian, was formerly a Chinese possession. Symbolism is the keynote of each and every handwoven carpet. Rug weaving among the peoples of the East is far older than is any literature that is obtainable upon this most interesting subject. The weaving of rugs goes back 6,000 years and the industry dates away back to the Aryan people. The very earliest industries known of were the manufacture of weapons of the chase, the making of human habitations, and decorative work, including the furnishings of homes. In the latter work is embraced the rug industry.

Competition, said to be the life of trade, has done much to do away with the age old cottage weaving of oriental rugs. Most rugs these days, though made in the eastern countries, are factory made. They are genuine in every way but are not hand woven by the women and young girls as formerly as the rate of such production is far too slow to supply the enormous demands made by the buying public. Not the bazaars of the East, but New York city, is the greatest rug market of the world today. Representatives of the great stores keep their headquarters where they are able to have first choice of the offerings of the factories and of the laden camels of the Arab caravans.

(Continued on page 5.)

MERCHANTS PLAN FOR "DOLLAR DAY"

Unusual Values Will Be Given at Local Stores on February 28 to Boom the City.

Bundles of merchandise of various sorts will be sold for one dollar by merchants of Plainfield who belong to the Business Men's Association, on Saturday, February 28. This decided innovation in local merchandising was resolved upon as a means of booming the city's business establishments at a meeting of the organization held last night at its headquarters in the Frost building. Purchasers are to be given unusual values for their dollar by every merchant holding membership in the association.

Allan F. Davis is chairman of the committee having the plan in charge, the other members being M. C. Van Arsdale, Herman Schwed, Jacob Tepper, A. E. Force, Henry Rosenbaum and Samuel Rothberg. The Business Men's Association decided to incorporate and the secretary was instructed to have the necessary papers prepared and filed with the county clerk and the Secretary of Etate.

At its next meeting, on Monday evening, March 2, the association will hold a smoker. Refreshments will be served and every Plainfield merchant, whether a member of the organization or not, is invited to attend and to bring a friend with him. They will be given a cordial welcome by the members. Fourteen new members joined the association last night and the membership is growing rapidly.

Discussion was had as to the advisability of closing Flainfield stores and other business places on holidays. A schedule of holidays to be observed was drawn up and submitted but it will be optional whether merchants will close or keep open on such days.

BOY SCOUTS PLANNING TO GIVE A WAR SKETCH

In connection with the Dutch supper which will be held in the parlors of the First Presbyterian church Thursday night, February 26, Troop 5, of the Boy Scouts of America, will give a sketch based on an incident which occurred in the Mexican War. Rehearsals for the sketch will begin tonight under the direction of Scoutmaster Allen E. Beals. Forty boys will take part in this demonstration with a full fife and drum corps in attendance.

Scoutmaster Beals will assign members of local Boy Scout troops in this city for a city-wide distribution of "White Plague" literature, the campaign to be waged on Lincoln's Birthday. Leaders and scouts who wish to engage in this campaign, for which prizes will be offered, should have their names in the hands of the commissioners before Sunday, February 9.

A troop of Jewish boy scouts is being organized in this city and the troop is at present looking for a good scoutmaster. Troop eleven was recently organized in Grace Episcopal church with C. J. Sproull as scoutmaster, and Raymond Manley, one of the original Boy Scouts of Plainfield as assistant. Troop 10, of the Trinity Reformed church, is still without a scoutmaster and Troop 8 of the Crescent Avenue church is in a similar position.

GEORGE W. MEYER PASSES AWAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

George W. Meyer, aged 62 years, a resident of this city for thirty-five years, died this morning at his home, 115 New street, following a long illness. Mr. Meyer was employed as a polisher at the Rushmore Dynamo Works for nine years, and was well thought of by his associates. He was a member of Hope chapel and a regular attendant at the services. Mr. Meyer was born in Bavaria, and he came to Plainfield soon after arriving in this country.

There survives a wife and four children, William, George, Howard and Alma Meyer. The funeral service will be held at the late home Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor of Hope chapel, will officiate. The burial will be in Plainfield avenue cemetery.

NEWARK MAN IN TROUBLE.

Victor Ferrino, of Newark, paid a visit to friends in Dunellen yesterday and imbibed so much Middlesex county tonsil varnish that he went down and out. Policeman Patrick J. Torpey found him in a helpless condition last night and locked him up in the borough jail. When arraigned before Recorder Campbell this morning he paid a two-dollar fine and boarded the first train for Newark.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

BOARD OF EDUCATION MEETS TO ORGANIZE

W. S. Tyler Again Chosen President and F. T. Woodhull Vice-president.

The Plainfield Board of Education at its meeting, last night, organized for the coming year by again electing William S. Tyler president and Floyd T. Woodhull vice president. Albert A. Tilney, who was appointed a member to succeed Calvin E. Brodhead, met with the Board for the first time, but Archibald Cox, who was named by Mayor Percy H. Stewart to succeed J. F. Buckle, was prevented from attending, being detained at home with scarlet fever. He is convalescing.

The following committees were appointed to serve for one year: Teachers and text books, Hedges, Tyler and Cox; books, stationery and supplies, Tilney, Cox and Tyler; buildings and repairs, Tyler, Woodhull and Hedges; finance, Woodhull, Hedges and Tilney; fuel, Cox, Tilney and Woodhull.

Bills were ordered paid to the amount of $2,073.73 and reports were received from County Superintendent J. J. Savitz, stating that he had forwarded to the custodian of school moneys, William F. Arnold, ninety per cent. of the State school money, amounting to $60,028.52. W. S. Tyler and F. T. Woodhull were elected members of the Board of School Estimate for the year.

PRESENT RECTOR STEVENSON WITH A HANDSOME STOLE

Presentation of a handsome white stole was made recently to the Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, of Grace church, by members of St. Mark's Mission, colored, which was formerly connected with that church and is now a separate organization.

The stole, given as a token of the appreciation of the faithful and devoted service of the rector to the mission for many years, was presented at services held in commemoration of the Feast of the Conversion of St. Paul.

St. Mark's Mission is now under the general care and supervision of the Archdeacon of the Diocese. It is in charge of C. S. Sedgewick, a student at the General Theological Seminary. It is hoped by the mission members that they can develop St. Mark's into a self-supporting parish which will be able to engage a resident rector. The Grace church clergy will continue to visit the mission monthly when communion will be administered the members and they will always lend the mission a helping hand.

WANT GEORGE HOWE RETAINED AS FIRE WARDEN

Two hundred residents of Warrenville, all taxpayers, has petitioned the Township Committee to reconsider its action in appointing Edward Hahr, a Democrat, as fire warden. They ask the retention of George Howe, a Republican, and claim that he should never have been removed from office as it is alleged he is protected under the civil service rules.

An appeal has been taken from the action of the Township Committee to the State fire commissioner. Deputy Fire Commissioner William Lindsey, who is chief of this division and a former resident of Plainfield, will be the official to pass upon the appeal, it is said.

George Howe, the deposed fire warden, is well known to Warrenville residents, and has long been active in the organization and conduct of the Mt. Bethel fire department.

The Township Committee held a meeting yesterday afternoon at Mt. Bethel. The deposing of Howe and the appointment of Edward Hahr, as his successor, was due to the change in the political complexion of the committee when George Friday took his seat on January 1.

IN HONOR OF MISS FLEMING.

An informal dance, in honor of Miss Barbara Fleming, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fleming, of Park avenue, whose engagement to Howard Craig, of this city, was recently announced, was given by the Misses Goddard at their home on East Ninth street last Saturday evening. Fifty-five guests were present, all of whom thoroughly enjoyed the evening and congratulations were extended the couple.

NELSON BATT'S FUNERAL.

The funeral of Nelson Batts, a well known colored resident of this city, was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the Mt. Olive Baptist church, of which the deceased was long a member, Rev. Dr. Vaughn officiating. The interment was in Hillside cemetery.

WANT DIVISION OF CITY'S FUNDS

First National Bank and State Trust Company Ask for Share of Deposits.

WANT FAIR TREATMENT

Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital Ask for $1,500 Increase for Care of City's Poor—Plans to Widen Madison Avenue.

The First National Bank, through its president, Augustus J. Brunson, and The State Trust Company through E. F. Feickert, in communications to the Common Council, last night, requested that their institutions be given a proportionate share of the city funds on deposit, both setting forth their claims for such recognition. Mr. Brunson stated that this institution had two dormant accounts, one for $489.76 and the other for $11.20, but he expressed the opinion that the bank was entitled to a reasonable share of the funds, being a depository.

Mr. Feickert in his communication set forth that the State Trust Company had previously purchased some school bonds thereby helping the city, and he asked that the Council cooperate with the bank and give it a proportionate share of its funds on deposit. Both communications were referred to the finance committee.

George H. Beiser, of Prospect avenue, in a petition, requested that an electric light which had recently been removed from a point near his home be replaced. This was referred. Another petition asked for a light on East Ninth street, between Third place and Park avenue and this was referred.

George P. Mellick, of the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital, asked the Council to make its appropriation to the hospital this year $5,000 instead of $3,500, declaring that the expense of caring for the indigent poor last year aggregated $4,500, and the amount appropriated was not sufficient. This was referred to the finance committee.

Alexander Melick, who cares for one of the city's ash dumps, drawing a salary of $25 a month, asked for a raise of $10 a month. This was referred to the finance committee, and a communication from the J. D. Loizeaux Lumber Company, informing the Council that Michael Garafone, the sewer contractor, had settled its claim, was referred to the sewer committee.

The oaths of office of Armstrong Mulford, D. J. Couraine and F. J. Hubband, as sewer commissioners and Thomas Hughes, DeWitt C. Ivins, J. G. MacLaughlin and Henry Liefke as the board of assessors were filed.

Building Inspector T. O. Doane reported the granting of thirteen permits last month. A resolution offered by Mr. Calkins and adopted, authorized the borrowing of $3,000 on account of sewer extension work.

Another resolution by Mr. Calkins which was adopted, referred to the new sanitary sewer commission, the work of assessing damages and benefits for construction work in the west end of the city done by Charles A. Peterson, Mobus Brothers and Michael Garafone, the whole cost of damages and benefits having been determined to be $78,156.

Councilman Blatz presented a petition from residents of Watson avenue requesting that lights and sidewalks be placed on that thoroughfare. This was referred. Overseer of the Poor Garret T. Dunham reported expenditures of $808.13 for the past month. Horace G. Adams, clerk of the District Court, reported receipts of 283.93 for the month with a balance of $193.20.

A resolution was offered by Mr. Blatz and adopted, fixing Monday night, March 16, as the time for treating with property-owners in regard to the widening of Madison avenue.

In response to a petition a new fire-box will be located at Wylie avenue and East Second street, in accordance with a resolution offered by Councilman A. D. Edgar. On his motion, Eugene V. Lorton was appointed a trustee of the fire department pension fund to succeed the late Captain James H. Daly, the recommendation being made by A. D. Jennings an officer of the fund.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ALLEN.

The funeral of Mrs. Anna Maria Allen will be held on Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock at her late home, at 12 Mountain avenue. The Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, of the First Baptist church, will conduct the services. The burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Josephine Culbertson, daughter of Mrs. Laura Culbertson, of Central avenue, to Arthur D. Stout, of Warrenville road, Watchung. No date has been set for the wedding as yet.

FIRE DEPARTMENT FORCE INCREASED

Mayor Stewart Appoints Five New Men for Regular Service.

Mayor Percy H. Stewart, at the February meeting of the Common Council last night, appointed Otto Gunther, James W. McDonough, Harry E. Hann, Harry Wierenga and Frank Schroepfer as regular members of the fire department, and N. J. Randolph Chandler, health inspector, was appointed a special policeman, while Dr. T. S. Davis, having reconsidered his resignation, and Stephen H. Voorhees were re-appointed members of the Board of Health.

The appointees were all confirmed, but owing to a technicality the firemen must be confirmed at the next meeting of the Council before they can begin service. The men are needed for service on the new automobile fire engine when it arrives, which will probably be within a few days. Owing to the fact that Mr. Gunther has had several year's experience driving an automobile it is believed that he will be selected to drive the new engine.

CO. K MEN RECEIVE MEDALS FOR MARKMANSHIP

The battalion drill and review to be held at the Elizabeth armory the latter part of this month will be participated in by the members of Company K, of this city. Captain Charles A. Peterson, First Lieutenant Arthur R. Phillips, and Quartermaster Sergeant James A. Thompson were awarded medals last night by Brigadier General Bird W. Spencer, inspector general of rifle practice for the State of New Jersey. The men shot at the international rifle matches at Camp Perry, Ohio, last summer, as members of the New Jersey State rifle team. They were among eighteen of 5,000 national guardsmen in this State who qualified. All hold proficiency certificates from the school of musketry and now act as rifle instructors.

Announcement was made last night of the gift of six months' salary by Mayor Percy H. Stewart to Company K. The new office at the armory is now occupied. Sergeant Bryant of the U. S. Army, detailed to the Second Regiment, New Jersey militia, attended the drill last night and gave instruction in tactics. Privates French, Glennon, Amory and Tilley have been elected to membership.

POPULARITY CONTEST DECIDED BY RELIABLE JEWELRY STORE

Patrons of the Reliable Jewelry Store, which has been conducting a "popularity contest" among its patrons for the last six months at its establishment at 245 Westt Front street, today announced the names of those who, because of their having received the largest number of votes, have been awarded the prizes offered by the firm. Every person who purchased any article of them during the last six months was entitled to vote for any person, he or she desired to popularize. Every cent invested entitled the purchaser to one vote. There has been a good deal of interest manifested in the contest by friends of the numerous contestants.

The first prize, a handsome piano, of the value of $450 has been awarded to Mrs. R. G. Slorah, of 1115 West Front street. Mrs. Slorah received a total of 2,003,295 votes. The other prizes, each consisting of a handsome silver set, were awarded as follows: Miss Pauline Butenstein, 133 New street, 1,705,015 votes; Mrs. Ferraro, 183 Somerset street, 1,004,965 votes; Mrs. Cartwright, 212 Jackson avenue, Netherwood, 901,835 votes; Miss Martin, 420 West Second street, 747,940 votes; Mrs. J. Mutnick, East Third street, 677,140 votes; Frank Caruso, West Front street, 628,300 votes.

Messrs. Penn and Bernstein, proprietors of the Reliable Jewelry Store, have been engaged in business in this city for nearly two years and have been successful.

THOMAS HANNA RETURNS.

Thomas Hanna, formerly connected with the F. L. C. Martin Auto Company, arrived in Plainfield yesterday, after a year's absence in the West, during which he spent considerable time in various cities in California, Oregon and Washington. Mr. Hanna will remain in the city for a week or more, after which he expects to return West.

"ANTIS" DISCUSS FINANCES.

The regular monthly meeting of the Anti-Suffrage Society of this city was held in the public library this morning, twenty members attending the affair. The meeting was taken up with the discussion of the finances of the organization and much routine business was disposed of.

CLAIMS TO BE VICTIM OF FLIM-FLAM GAME

Mrs. Elizabeth T. DeForest Thinks She Was Led to Sign a Note for $250.

Mrs. Elizabeth T. DeForest, of 435 West Sixth street, believing that she has been the victim of a clever flim-flam game, has asked the aid of the police in locating an agent who gave the name of "Rudge" and said he was employed by a brokerage firm at 195 Broadway, New York city.

The agent came to the home of Mrs. DeForest one day last week and demanded that he be shown ten shares in the Montana silver washed stock, which he alleged Mrs. DeForest held. The latter denied carrying on any negotiations with the concern in question and when the agent pressed the claim she finally told him to call the next day. In the meantime Mrs. DeForest consulted her lawyer and the counsellor advised her to send "Rudge" to his office the next time he appeared at her home.

The agent was on hand at the appointed hour and when asked by Mrs. DeForest to accompany her to the office he refused to do so and offered to go to the lawyer's office unaccompanied. Before leaving to consult with the counsellor "Rudge" requested Mrs. DeForest to sign a certificate which she readily consented to inasmuch as he offered to lay the matter in question before the lawyer.

Reflecting on her action after the man's disappearance, Mrs. DeForest now thinks she signed a note for $250, and in the meantime the "agent" has had plenty of time to cash the order and spend the money.

DISCUSS PLANS TO EXTEND FIRE ALARM

Somerville, Feb. 3.—The extension of the borough fire alarm system, including the installation of two new alarm boxes in East Somerville, which will cost $250, was discussed at a meeting of the Borough Council last night. J. H. Gernert, superintendent of the alarm system, said he was averse to giving the work out on contract. Borough Collector J. K. Brokaw filed his bond of $30,000. His sureties, as last year, are Lewis A. Thompson, Abram A. Cortelyou, Marshall H. Johnson, Hugh K. Gaston and John J. Kline. Constable S. W. Davenport also filed his bond of $500. His sureties are Herman F. Moosbrugger and George R. Dilts.

The collector presented his monthly and annual reports which were referred to the finance committee, which is to determine as to the advisability of purchasing an adding machine. Claims for chickens killed by dogs amounting to $90, will be paid as soon as the dog taxes amount to that sum. The collector reported enough money on hand to pay the monthly bills of $3,500.

ABRAHAM V. LUNGER SUCCUMBS TO LONG ILLNESS

Abraham V. Lunger, aged 68 years, a veteran insurance agent, having been connected with the Prudential Insurance Company for eighteen years, died at Muhlenberg Hospital, last night. He had been ill for the past two years and unable to work. Death was due to diabetes and paralysis. Mr. Lunger was born at Pottersville, Hunterdon county, being a son of the late William Lunger. He had been a resident of Plainfield for more than twenty years.

Mr. Lunger was a member of Trinity Reformed church, Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. & A. M., and was for many years active in church and Sunday-school work. There survives a wife and two children, Miss Ella Lunger and Mrs. Randolph Marsh. The funeral will be held at the late residence tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. Rev. J. Y. Broek, of Trinity Reformed church, will officiate and the burial will be in Evergreen cemetery.

DR. DAGAR TO LECTURE.

"Stung" will be the subject of a humorous lecture to be given by Rev. Dr. Forrest E. Dagar, at the First Baptist church, tonight, under the auspices of the Matlack Bible Class. Dr. Dagar is associated with Rev. Dr. Russell Conwell, dean of Temple University, Philadelphia.

"TEA DANSANTE."

Mr. and Mrs. Allan Cowperthwaite, of the borough, have issued invitations for a "Tea Dansante," to be given at the Park Club, Saturday evening, February 21 from 6 to 11 o'clock.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

—Neuman Brothers are selling choice butter, including Rockdale creamery at 34 cents; Rockdale print at 36 cents, and Elgin creamery at 32 cents.—Adv. ***

LICENSES NOT TO BE INCREASED

Common Council Almost Unanimously Decides to Continue Present Policy.

SETTLES THE QUESTION

Despite Eleventh-Hour Petitions Favoring Additional Wholesale Licenses All New Applications Are Refused.

The Common Council at its February meeting last night, decided not to increase the number of liquor licensed places in Plainfield, standing by its action of a few weeks ago, when it was voted to retain the same number of retail places, and taking a big step in the direction of determining the policy of that body regarding wholesale places. As Councilman Leighton Calkins termed them, there were several "eleventh-hour" petitions from citizens urging the Council to grant an adidtional wholesale license, not advocating any particular applicant.

One petition was headed by Chas. Foster and signed by fifteen other persons, another was headed by Samuel F. Sabocher and signed by 312 other persons, another one was headed by George W. Pope and signed by thirty-nine other persons, while two others were headed by Thomas F. Flynn and signed by fifty-one other persons and E. N. Nadler containing the names of ninety-nine other residents.

Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring, representing the Plainfield Ministers' Association, presented a remonstrance against granting any additional retail or wholesale licenses and advocating a reduction of the present number.

Arthur M. Harris, who was the chairman of the mass meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. on Friday night, January 23, in a communication, set forth at some length his reasons why no additional licenses should be granted. He put several pertinent questions, such as why those who favor additional licenses do not state so publicly. He called attention to the fact that he gave ample opportunity for such an expression at the mass meeting, but it was not accepted. He also called attention to the fact that a resolution was adopted at the meeting opposing the granting of additional licenses.

At the proper time Chairman Charles C. Graves moved a suspension of business to consider the license applications, and the following were granted by an unanimous vote:

Hotels—Henry F. Windham, East Front street; Peter Floersch, Park avenue; Jacob Blimm, Jr., Somerset street; William J. Kitchen, North avenue. Saloons—John C. Clark, Liberty and West Third streets; Michael F. Watson, Grant avenue; Godfrey J. Weinman, Park avenue; Ellsworth C. Westcott, East Front street; Eastern Bottling Company, West Second street; Frank Linke, West Front street, wholesale.

These applications being disposed of, Mr. Graves presented the application of Francis X. McIntyre for a wholesale license on North avenue, which was followed by considerable argument. Councilman Francis J. Blatz said that in view of the number of petitions signed by possibly five hundred citizens, he thought they should be given due consideration. He said that they ask for another wholesale place, and moved that this application be laid on the table until Monday night, February 16, to look into these petitions. He felt as though there must be some merit in their contention for another wholesale place.

Mr. Blatz cited the fact that wholesale dealers in North Plainfield cannot deliver goods in Plainfield and the trade is restricted to two local dealers unless they buy out of the city. Later, when Mr. Blatz learned the sentiment of his colleagues he promptly decided to stand by the recommendation of the license committee which was that no additional wholesale license be granted.

It was suggested that possibly there might be someone present who would like to speak in favor of additional licenses and such an opportunity was given, paid attorneys being barred from speaking. Before anyone else spoke, however, Councilman Calkins took occasion to remark that he would like to know how the license committee felt about laying Mr. McIntyre's application over, and as for the petitions which had just been read, he thought it was quibbling to say that time should be given for further consideration, it being known that petitions either for or against could have been presented any time since January 1, and he could see no reason why they should be presented at the eleventh hour.

Mr. Graves declared that the question of licenses should be settled now, and even though there were pe-

(Continued on page 6.)

INVENTORY IS OVER

And many odd lots are on sale away below regular prices—as well as

The Biggest Sale of Remnants We Ever Held at Half Price

Hundreds of remnants including WASH DRESS MATERIALS, DRESS GINGHAMS, FLANNELETTES, OUTING FLANNEL, GALATEA, MUSLINS, PERCALES, APRON GINGHAMS, WHITE GOODS, CREPES, LAWNS, RATINES, TOWELING, ETC.

Lowest Prices of the Season for Women's and Misses' Ready-to-Wear Garments

Nothing talks like price—therefore no descriptions—come and see the garments.

Women's and Misses' Coats
2.50, $5, 7.50 & $10
Former Prices $7.50 to $21.50.

Women's and Misses' Suits
3.98, 8.00 and 13.50
Former Prices $8.98 to $35.00

Children's Coats.
$1, $2 and $3
Former Prices $3.98 to $7.50.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"The White Store"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

Store Opens at 8:30; Closes Saturdays at 10 p. m. Others days at 5:30.

Dunellen & Vicinity

Edward Quinn, of Prospect avenue, the local youth who was arrested in Elizabeth last week for carrying concealed weapons, has been released from the Elizabeth jail, with the payment of the fine imposed by Judge Connolly. Yesterday morning the lad decided to turn over a new leaf and left for New York, where it is understood that he has been given a position.

George Vliet and Benjamin Gill, both of this borough, spent the week-end with friends on Staten Island.

Peter Benson, of Columbia street, and Bergen Naylor, of Plainfield, of the Stryker Motor Company, of North avenue, left yesterday for Trenton, to insure the safe delivery of a machine purchased by a man in that city.

Thomas Frescoln, of New Market road, spent Sunday with out of town friends.

Under the auspices of the stewards of the Dunellen Methodist Episcopal church, a chicken supper will be served Thursday night between the hours of 6 and 9 o'clock, in the lecture room. The proceeds will be used to defray the expenses of the church.

A large number of the young women bowling enthusiasts of the Presbyterian church are making good use of the alleys every afternoon. If they continue to improve the way they have within the past two weeks there are chances that a match will be formed between the young men's and young women's teams.

The local troop of the American Boy Scouts has organized a basketball team and will play its first game in the parish house of the Presbyterian church, Thursday night, February 12.

Robert Fitzsimmons, senior and junior, have both returned to town from Pennsylvania, where the former participated in a boxing match last week. Both the athletes are interested in boxing and have again resumed strict training.

Miss Meta Pennock, a student of Barnard College, is spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pennock, of Mountainview terrace. Miss Pennock has just completed her mid-year examinations, which were held last week.

Charles Dodwell, of Jackson avenue, who has been detained at his home for the past few days by illness, is reported as improving.

This week, which is the thirty-third anniversary of the organizing of the Christian Endeavor Society, is being celebrated by the local societies of that strong young people's society. Tonight a number of the local members will go to Plainfield, where an anniversary meeting will be held in the Warren chapel. Tomorrow night the local society will be in charge of the prayer meeting service at the Presbyterian church. Other services appropriate to the celebration of the anniversary will be held the balance of the week at the churches of other societies of the local union of which the Dunellen society is a unit.

'Plains & Fanwood.

The Baptists and the Methodists will again unite in a union prayer meeting service tomorrow night. The service will be at the Baptist church. Last week the two congregations united and held a union prayer service at the Methodist church.

W. A. Batterson, physical director and supervisor of the Parish House gymnasium, spent the week-end with his parents in New York.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Parish House is scheduled for Friday night.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Albert Meyers, of Front street, this place, and Miss Gertrude Schlief, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Schlief, of Plainfield, which will take place Tuesday night, February 10.

An interesting as well as instructive meeting was held by the Baptist Young People's Union, Sunday night. Miss May Weller gave a talk on work done by the organization.

Joseph Albert, of Park avenue, has taken the agency for a well-known ice cream.

With the spell of warm weather which has hit this section of the country the baseball germ is beginning to get busy. For the past few days members of the Parish House "gym" have been out on the floor with the baseball and gloves warming up so that when the season opens in earnest they will not be troubled by sore and stiffened muscles. It is understood that a team will be organized to represent the Parish House this year.

The Parish House first basketball team will play the fast Elizabeth Banks' quintet on the local court Saturday night. No game has been scheduled for the second team as yet.

George Jasperson, the centre of the Parish House junior basketball team, is suffering from a badly swollen and discolored eye, the result of an accident in the basketball game Saturday afternoon between the Parish House Juniors and the Mount Pleasant Juniors.

Lindsey Dallas, the crack forward of the Parish House first basketball team, has enlisted with the Methodist quintet in the Rahway Sunday-school league and played his first game with that aggregation last night. Although he has donned the uniform of the Rahway team he will not dessert the local five and will appear in his proper place on the floor Saturday night in the game between the Elizabeth five and the local aggregation.

Holton Roberts, one of the members of the junior class of the Parish House gymnasium, succeeded in setting the highest score for the junior department on the alleys, yesterday afternoon. Young Roberts put up a total score of 211 points.

The Parish House first basketball team will try conclusions with the fast Y. M. C. A. quintet, of Plainfield, on the local court Thursday night, February 12. As both teams are in the prime of condition an interesting and exciting game is expected.

The Borough Council will hold its February meeting in the Fanwood firehouse tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Among matters to be brought up for discussion will be the improvements to be made on the local borough hall.

Practically all of the members of the Royal Arcanum formerly of this place, have joined the Westfield lodge. There are about fifteen members here.

At the Scotch Plains Memorial Parish House on Friday evening, February 6, Miss Mildred Bass, well known as a reader and elocutionist, will give readings from the drama "Hazel Kirke."

—Use Press Want Ads.

Union Made Union Stamped

The Waldorf Shoes

$2.50 and $3

All Waldorf Shoes received since January 1st, 1914, bear the official stamp of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, insuring to the wearer the best workmanship.

Sole agency for Plainfield.

SHOES FOR THE BIG FOLKS

Stuart's SHOE SHOP

215 WEST FRONT ST.

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

SHOES FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS

South Plainfield.

All the employes of the Lehigh Valley Railroad who have had a clear record from October 31, 1912, to October 31, 1913, were presented with honor buttons today by the company.

Rev. and Mrs. J. J. Allen are visiting Mr. Allen's parents in Easton, Pa. Mr. Allen is helping his father conduct revival meetings.

Miss Belle Mullison is spending a few days with her aunt, Mrs. Henry Mullison, in Plainfield.

Miss Nevius is recovering after a severe attack of the grip.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Snow, of the Sunswick Poultry Farm, are parents of a boy, born on Saturday.

Miss Alice Snyder has returned home after spending a few days with her grandmother in Newark.

Mrs. Edward Alexander has returned home after visiting with friends in Newark.

Mrs. Hugh McCaffrey, of Elizabeth, is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. P. F. Kaine.

Miss Irene Duschane, of North Plainfield, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John Geary.

John Higgins, formerly of this place, but now of Jersey City, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Harlow.

Mrs. John Mack, of Newark, has been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. John McGuire.

"The Blessing of the Throats" will be held in the Sacred Heart church tonight at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Melvin Shrope has returned home after visiting friends in Newark.

Gilbert Mullison, of Perth Amboy, has returned home after spending a few days with his aunt, Mrs. M. D. Teeple.

James Galligan, of New York, spent Sunday with his wife, Mrs. James Galligan.

John McDonough has just taken a position with the Watchung Hunt Club at this place.

Mrs. William Riely and daughter, Madeline, formerly of this place, but now of Plainfield, visited relatives here yesterday.

John Conger, accompanied by William Winans, have returned home after visiting with friends in Newark.

The Independent Order of Foresters held their monthly meeting in Washington Hall last night.

The Township Committee will hold their regular meeting in New Market tonight at 8 o'clock. The steward for the Piscataway township farm will be chosen. There are a number of candidates.

On account of lack of room in the public school there has been two sessions for the kindergarten classes and Miss Duschane, who has been teaching from 8:30 in the morning, will change places with Miss Geary, who has been teaching from 12:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon.

William Hamilton, the local agent, has purchased a new wagon for Henry Lammers, who bought the Winter farm. Mr. Lammers will take possession of the farm next Thursday.

Patrick McDonough, of New Brunswick, has returned home after visiting his mother, Mrs. Mary McDonough.

William Farrel and son, John, have returned home after visiting Mr. Farrel's mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary McDonough, of this place.

German Valley. and Chester

Adrian Blanchard, of New York, has taken employment as chef at the German Valley Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Parker, of Hampton, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Archibald P. Down, of German Valley.

Misses Velm and Eva Ewing, of Flemington, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frederick B. Hoffman, of German Valley.

Dr. Lorenzo B. Phillips, of German Valley, will move to Lawrence, N. Y., about March 1.

William F. Appleby, Jr., of Chester, is able to be about, after a long illness.

Miss Olive M. Searles, of Chester, entertained several young women yesterday in honor of her guest, Miss Appley, of Orange.

Miss Minnie Donovan, of New York, is visiting Mrs. James Donovan, of Chester.

The Young People's Society of the Chester Congregational church will give a supper in the local chapel tomorrow night.

Mrs. Reuben C. Carlisle, of Chester, is spending several weeks with her daughter, Mrs. Frank Lewis, o Irvington.

Bound Brook.

Rev. Henry R. Rose will give an illustrated lecture in the Lafayette School this evening on "Parsifal and the Holy Grail."

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Johnson, of South Bound Brook, have been visiting friends at Finderne.

William Vosseller, who recently removed here from Raritan, has purchased the house he occupies from Richard H. Brokaw.

Mrs. Fred Porter, of Plainfield, has been visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mingle, at Harris lane.

The funeral of Mrs. May Eickman Foster will be held at the Reformed church at 11:30 a. m. tomorrow, conducted by Rev. H. E. Green.

Mrs. Mary K. Brokaw, of Somerville, has been visiting with Bound Brook friends.

The February meeting of the Mayor and Council will be held at 8 o'clock this evening.

Miss Charlotte Granert, of Beechwood Heights, is spending some time with relatives at Elizabeth.

O. W. Hollar, of High street, was a week-end visitor at Washington.

Lewis Parker Lodge, No. 276, I. O. O. F., will meet at 8 o'clock this evening.

The committee arranging for the annual dinner of the Men's Class, to be held in the chapel of the Congregational church on Lincoln's Birthday, has secured as speakers the Rev. Oscar Maddaus, of Manhasset, L. I., and Rev. W. D. P. Bliss general secretary of the Religious Citizenship League of America. An orchestra will furnish music.

THE DAILY PRESS IN DUNELLEN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by Edward Pennock, druggist and newsdealer.

Somerville

William Harris will move his family on Thursday to the house on East Cliff street, which he recently purchased. The house in which he lives at present has been purchased by Miss Corcoran.

The members of Central Hook and Ladder Company will hold an important meeting in the rooms on Division street on Thursday evening.

The annual men's dinner of the First Reformed church will be held in the chapel this evening. Besides the excellent menu to be presented, and which is always a feature, interesting addresses and music may be expected, as the affair is in the hands of a very competent committee.

Louis Block has returned to Brooklyn, after spending several days with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Zins, of Mechanic street.

Grand Orator James F. Grealey, of the State of New Jersey, will visit the session of Bridgewater Council at the meeting room on Friday evening.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Fourth Reformed church will have a sauerkraut supper in the Sunday-school rooms on Thursday, from 5:30 to 8 o'clock.

N. O. Dunster expects to leave the first of the week for a business trip to the West, returning in about two weeks.

A great game of soccer football is promised for Saturday afternoon on the former West End grounds between the team representing the Sons of St. George, of this place, and the famous Hawthorn Club, of Elizabeth. This is the first of a series of games for the championship cup, and a great crowd is expected to witness the contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Edgar have been entertaining Edmund L. Jones, of Neshanic.

The Van Doren barn, which was burined several weeks ago, has been rebuilt, and is again ready for occupancy.

CLAUSE ADOPTED TO BAR ASIATICS

Amendment Is Added to Immigration Bill.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Administration leaders were seriously disturbed over the action of the house of representatives in incorporating an amendment in the Burnett immigration bill excluding all Asiatics, including the Japanese, from the United States, except in so far as they have rights under existing treaties or agreements.

While the vote taken is tentative and subject to change when the bill comes up for final passage, members of the Wilson administration were concerned over the prominence given to the exclusion question at this juncture in the diplomatic negotiations now in progress between Japan and the United States. Fear was expressed that if the house should remain firm on the amendment adopted the result might be a further irritation in Japan and new outbreaks of the anti-American feeling in the empire.

The amendment adopted would in no way affect the actual status of Japanese immigration to this country. The immigration of Japanese laborers into the United States is prevented now through a gentleman's agreement with Japan, by which the emperor agrees to withhold passports from Japanese subjects of this class. This agreement was reaffirmed in the treaty with Japan ratified in 1911, and it has operated effectively and satisfactorily.

While the amendment adopted does not change the existing status of the relations with Japan on this score it will put in the form of a statutory prohibition what formerly had been merely a matter of agreement between the two nations. Under the present laws the Chinese and the Mohammedans are the only ones excluded. The classing of the Japanese with the negroes in this general exclusion clause is likely to give offense in Japan, even though the prohibition is subject to the existing gentlemen's agreement and treaty rights.

The Californians who have been fighting for Asiatic exclusion regard the adoption of the amendment as an initial step in the direction of their desires.

PREFERS MAN FOR EUROPE.

Miss Mildred Lupton Marries Kenneth Fischer Rather Than Travel.

Patchogue, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Kenneth Fischer and Mildred Lupton of Mattituck were married here by the Rev. L. H. Johnston of the Congregational church. Miss Lupton refused recently to go to Europe with her aunt because she believed an attempt was being made to prevent her marriage to Fischer.

The couple left Mattituck yesterday by automobile, ostensibly to attend church. They presented themselves before the Rev. Johnston as he was about to hold his morning service, showed him their marriage license, and he married them.

Socialist Riots In Germany.

Berlin, Feb. 3.—Socialist riots, in which twelve persons were wounded, occurred in the city of Brunswick, seat of the government of the grand duchy of Brunswick. Prince August Ernst, son-in-law of Emperor William, ascended the throne of Brunswick recently.

MO-JO White Chewing Gum

Talk No. 37

THESE MO-JO talks have been letting the sunlight in on dark places.

They have been preaching the gospel of cleanliness and purity.

They have been telling the story of MO-JO—the clean white chewing gum—the chewing gum that is dainty and different.

It is rather an interesting story, don't you think? It is certainly one that is mighty important to public health.

MO-JO is a white clean chewing gum because the gum from which it is made is cleaned and purified by a special process.

It is the chewing gum you can be sure of.

Even if MO-JO did not have the wonderful appeal of cleanliness, you would love it for its splendid flavor.

THE CHICLE PRODUCTS CO., NEWARK, N. J.

STYLISH RELIABLE

A Professional Man

In referring to the Rothberg store the other day was heard to make the following remark:

"The one thing I like above all else at the Rothberg store is that you are never asked to buy anything when you go in, and they never try to sell you something that you don't want when they happen not to have one of the 'Most Things Men Wear' that you do want.

SR seems to mean 'Sunny Reception' — busy or not."

This ad. was written by one of Plainfield's prominent architects.

Will you write an ad. for the Rothberg store?

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's

If the man who says, "I can't afford to advertise" will look over the list of big concerns that were LITTLE concerns before they started to advertise, he will be more likely to say:

"I can't afford NOT to advertise.

The Press is Plainfield's best advertising medium because its circulation is among the people who make and spend the most money.

Plainfield Daily Press, "The Home Newspaper"

Our First Showing of New Spring Dress Goods, Silks and Linens are now on display. Every new weave that Dame Fashion has decreed may now be seen here.

Krinkle Cascade

is a silk that will be among the most prominent materials for street dress; following are the most favored shades, all of which are now in stock: Russian green, Tango, New Blue, Copenhagen, Brown and Navy.

Wool Plaids and Wool Crepes will vie with one another for first place among woolens. Liberal assortments in the season's most wanted colors are here for your inspection.

Full line of colors and black in Crepe de Chine, Crepe Meteors and Taffetas have just been put in stock at our usual moderate prices.

New Wash Goods and Linens in White and Colors are Arriving Daily

To be Fashionably Clothed

you must be correctly corseted in just the model suited to your individual figure. Nothing will lend as much grace to women's dress than the corset which she wears, but it must be well chosen. In our Corset Department an expert corsetiere will be pleased to help you obtain the graceful lines so much coveted by every woman of fashion and good appearance.

More For Your Money at—
Tepper's
PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY

THE BUSY STORE.

Get the Community Spirit---Patronize Home Stores

To make a city, a model city, there must be co-operation between the merchants and its citizens.

There must be reliable merchants who sell goods at a reasonable profit and who stand behind each sale.

This is called modern merchandising and being based on a foundation of truth and mutual benefit it must eventually win the confidence of the public.

Truth is the only thing that will stand.

We have learned after many years that truth pays.

We have found that the Golden Rule works wonders.

We have learned that when a house or a city is divided against itself it cannot stand.

It has been whispered that buying abroad was what started Rome on the roller coaster to destruction.

We do not vouch for the truth of that statement--but we know that Plainfield can become a great city. You can help make it so by patronizing local merchants, craftsmen and mechanics.

Let's get together! A little more team-work!

DO IT FOR PLAINFIELD!

The Business Men's Association

of Plainfield, N. J. P. O. Box 575

MRS. RHETA C. DORR.

Took Prominent Part In Suffrage Meeting In Washington.

Photo by American Press Association.

President Wilson gave no encouragement to a delegation of 300 working women who, clad in the garb of their different trades, marched on the White House with a brass band and flying colors to ask his support for a constitutional amendment enfranchising women. Twenty-five of the women were received by the president and five in short speeches presented their argument. The president reiterated that as leader of the Democratic party he was limited only to recommending those things on which the party had made up its mind. Among them was Mrs. Rheta C. Dorr, who took a prominent part in the discussion.

TO FREE NEW YORK FROM ALIEN EXPENSE

Glynn Plans Relief of 9,241 Insane Foreigners.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 3.—Governor Glynn sent a special message to the legislature urging the adoption of a concurrent resolution calling upon congress to free New York state from the expense of caring for 9,241 alien insane at present in the state hospitals for the insane. Investigation of this problem shows that the average length of the hospital residence of these alien insane is about ten years, which will entail an expenditure by New York state of $25,000,000. The governor points out that the care of this large number of aliens is a national duty which devolves on to the state because of the unfairness of the present immigration laws.

Under the present immigration laws, the message points out, New York state has no right to require tests of mental makeup of the aliens who are to come into this state, "neither has it the authority to prevent them from coming within its borders nor the right to remove them once here."

"The unfairness of these regulations," the message says, "is apparent in view of the fact that it requires five years for the alien to become a citizen After the three year period, after which the federal immigration laws forbid deportation, an alien may become insane and escape being sent back. He is insane, he is not a citizen, he does not contribute to the support of the government, but the state is powerless to send him back to his native land so long as he chooses to remain here

"Under the present immigration regulations the state must furnish proof that the alien is insane from causes existing prior to landing. Formerly the federal government paid the state the per diem cost of maintaining the alien who became insane, but this payment by successive modifications has been cut off almost entirely. During 1913 the federal government contributed $8,290 for the care and deportation of aliens, while the state paid out $2,579,902.

"LOOPS THE LOOP" FOR KING

Aviator Hamel Turns Somersaults Over Windsor Castle.

Windsor, England, Feb. 3.—Aviator Gustav Hamel "looped the loop" fourteen times in midair and was vigorously applauded by King George and Queen Mary, who saw his performance. Afterward he was the guest of the royal pair at luncheon.

Hamel began his flight from Brooklands on a royal command and when directly over Windsor castle he turned his machine earthward and rode head downward many times while the king and queen and their suites looked on. Thousands of the townsfolk also watched the daring exhibition. When Hamel landed within the castle grounds he was congratulated by the king and queen.

BARNETT LEADS MARINES.

Nominated Major General and Will Succeed General Biddle.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Colonel George Barnett was nominated major general and commandant of the marine corps to succeed Major General William P. Biddle, retired.

—Jacob Gernert, newsdealers, Somerville, sells the Daily Press or will deliver it to your home each day

—At Westness, C. F. Wittke has the Daily Press on sale each day.

ROAD'S ACTION TO BE INVESTIGATED

Barring Passes Causes Probe by Attorney General.

HOUSE ADOPTS RESOLUTION

Authorized to Take Such Proceedings as Might Be Necessary to Compel the Pennsylvania to Revoke Its Order. Scores of State Employers Embarrassed by New Order.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 3.—A resolution introduced by Leader Branegan of Hudson was adopted in the house directing the attorney general to investigate the action taken by the Pennsylvania railroad in ordering its conductors not to honor state passes issued to 137 state officers and employees. The attorney general was authorized to take such proceedings as might be necessary to compel the company to revoke its order by reinstating the pass holders.

A similar resolution passed by the house directed counsel for the board of public utility commissioners to take an appeal from the decision of the supreme court holding that the legislature was without power to order the railroads indiscriminately to afford free transportation of persons in the state employ. There are upwards of 300 of such passes issued by the secretary of state, and for a number of years the list has been constantly growing with each session of the legislature. The railroads have complained frequently of the abuses resulting from the extension of the pass list not only because of their use for other than official purposes, but because of the extent to which they are loaned or trafficked in.

Scores of state employees, particularly the minor officers of the legislature down to pages and doorkeepers, were embarrassed by the new order.

Senator McGinnis introduced a resolution for an investigation of telephone companies by a committee of three senators and three assemblymen.

BANKER'S WIFE IN STEERAGE.

Mrs. Tomaschoff, Whose Husband Absconded, Goes Back to Europe.

Perth Amboy, Feb. 3.—After pledging her jewels and selling off the contents of her fine home in an effort to get funds to meet the demands of aliens her husband had ruined, Mrs. Armin Tomaschoff and her three-year-old daughter Stella sailed for Europe in the steerage. Her husband, Armin Tomaschoff, for the last ten years was one of the most prosperous exchange bankers in this part of the state.

About three weeks ago he deserted his wife and child and disappeared with about $100,000 of his depositors' money. Mrs. Tomaschoff braved the wrath of depositors and was among them daily. She will take her child to her parents in Hungary and return to this country to keep up her search for her husband.

MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE.

Keeper Accused of Being Slayer of Aged Inmate In Almshouse.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 3.—Thomas Layland, a former keeper at the City almshouse on Elizabeth avenue, is on trial in the court of oyer and terminer before Judge Harry V. Osborne on a charge of manslaughter arising out of the death of Charles Warriner, an aged inmate of the home, on Oct. 13 last.

In opening the case for the state Assistant Prosecutor Andrew Van Blarcom said he would show that on the night in question Layland came on duty at the almshouse in an intoxicated condition and that when Warriner, who was eighty-four years old and bedridden, began to moan told him to keep quiet and then began to beat him.

DENIES ROSEVILLE BANK PLOT

Holbrook Pleads Not Guilty to Charge of Conspiracy to Get Cash.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 3.—Francis W Holbrook of Plainfield, another of the men indicted in connection with the wrecking of the Roseville Trust company, pleaded not guilty to a charge of conspiracy and was released by Judge Osborne in $5,000 bail. He was manager of the Home Ice and Products company, one of the enterprises in which Raymond E. Smith, secretary and treasurer of the bank, was interested.

The indictment against Holbrook charged that he conspired with Smith and A. R. Jennings, one of the bank tellers, to get sums aggregating $28,735.

SAFE BLOWN FOR SIXTH TIME

"Most Robbed Man In New Jersey" Is Again Victim of Yeggmen.

Hackensack, N. J., Feb. 3.—Daniel MacMullen, postmaster of Rochelle Park, "the most robbed man in New Jersey," was again the victim of yeggmen, when his safe was robbed. Shots were exchanged, but the robbers escaped.

This was the sixth time Mr. MacMullen's safe has been robbed, and he has been held up three times.

—The merchant who, in his advertising, emphasizes ten value-giving facts to his competitor's one, uses the best sort of "strategy" in advertising his business.

Sure Edge Cutlery

WE ARE SHOWING A FINE LINE OF

Table Knives and Forks .....63c per set and upwards
Carving Knives and Forks, Keen Kutter goods....$1.50 up
Pocket Knives, Robeson's make .....50c up

Butcher Knives, Grape Fruit Knives, Spatulas, Kitchen Knives. Razors, regular and safety; Razor Blades, Scissors, Shears, Kitchen Cleavers, Tweezers, Nail Clips, all fully guaranteed.

YOUR INSPECTION IS ASKED.

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

FEBRUARY

Reduction sale applies to our entire line of regular patterns; also odd pieces of

FURNITURE and BEDDING

at prices far below anything offered you at any other season of the year. The object of this is simply to reduce stock previous to taking inventory and the saving is well worth your investigation.

SALE

L. B. Van Camp

FRONT AND SOMERSET STREETS.

Attend the Remarkable

FUR SALE

of

Charles Kurtzman Furs of Quality 178 E Front St

DR. PITTIS OFFICE BUILDING

The Question of PURE MILK

IS SETTLED HERE

We are just as PARTICULAR about the superiority of our MILK as you are. That's why we have the DAIRY with a reputation and that dairy is

THE FAMOUS ONE OF DR CHARLES A. EATON

Modern sanitary machinery BOTTLES THE MILK AT THE DAIRY in STERILIZED BOTTLES, and sealed and iced it is delivered to you.

THE MILK WHERE PURITY REIGNS SUPREME

WELSH FARMS DAIRY

188 East Front Street. Phone 1964.

Moss Aztec Pottery

New Lines of Incrusted Gold Border Dinnerware

Joseph W. Gavett

WEST FRONT STREET

LOST

Millions of dollars each year by Fire, Wind-storms and accidents.

FOUND

Relief and protection in the policies issued by

J. C. POPE & COMPANY

First National Bank Building, Plainfield, N. J.
Insurance and Real Estate.

FORESIGHT

There is such a thing as looking so far ahead as to overlook the dangers close at hand. The foresight which induces an owner to take proper precautions to safeguard his property with insurance are excellent.

Yet it should require no foresight to employ us—it is as plain as daylight that this office and the companies represented are all the protection an owner needs.

REAL ESTATE
LOANS
RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

Plainfield, N. J., February 3, 1914.

TO THE ELKS CREDIT.

The action of Plainfield Lodge of Elks in withdrawing from the Union County Board of Taxation its petition to have the organization's new clubhouse on Watchung avenue freed from taxation, is one that will receive the hearty approbation of every fair-minded citizen. In the primary stage the request was absolutely without justice or equity to the hundreds of property owners who conscientiously pay their portion of the city's expenses as a matter of principle, and seek no loophole in the laws for the purpose of escaping. Because the charter of the Elks says it is a charitable and benevolent institution, some of its members conceived the idea that it furnished an excuse to have its property classed with churches and schools, accordingly becoming exempt from assessment. It was a grievous error and it is to the credit of the lodge that it realized its mistake before further censure was heaped upon it than that which immediately arose from all parts of the city. The petition was a veritable parading of poverty from what is acknowledged to be the most influential local organization. The Daily Press commends those instrumental in having the matter quashed and trusts that the Camden Elks, who have a similar petition before the State Board of Taxation, will quickly follow suit, thereby receiving the respect for the order which likes to have its membership referred to as the "Best People on Earth."

CAN HE COME BACK?

Prize-fighting at its best cannot be called a refined sport, but for all that those who have come in contact with Robert Fitzsimmons during the last few weeks, realize that "Lanky Bob" comes as near being a gentleman as any one who is now identified with the game. Fitz has been training in this city and has been a frequent visitor at the Daily Press office. Time after time he has entertained groups of those who happened to be in the office with stories of the prize ring, told with a grace and interest that few men can equal. Clergymen, professional men and others in all walks of life have united in urging him to write a book of his experiences.

One thing that is pre-eminent in the man is his belief that he really can "come back" and "clean up" the best of the heavyweights. The metropolitan sport writers have ridiculed Fitz as being too old, and the Boxing Commission has barred him from sparring in New York State, but anyone who has seen the chest development of the man who was once the pre-eminent fighter of the world, realizes that he is serious in his belief that he still has plenty ginger left.

Fitz is one of the men who has kept his record clean in the fight game. He may not succeed in his ambition to "come back," but he can always refer to the days of the past with pride.

Councilman Graves summed up the situation regarding more liquor licenses last night when he said that apparently 3,500 of the people of the city of Plainfield are satisfied to have things left as they are. The Daily Press has pointed out its belief that the sentiment as expressed at the meeting held under the auspices of the Federation of Men's Clubs represented the feeling of a majority of the people of the city, and nothing that has occurred since that meeting has changed the situation. There is only one way in which the matter can be settled and that is by a direct or indirect referendum by the people of the city. The indirect referendum can be reached by the method suggested in these columns last night, namely, having someone run for Council pledged to more licenses, and is probably the only practical way, as legislation would be necessary to hold an election on the liquor question alone. It is our belief that while they undoubtedly voted as their convictions prompted them, and were sincere in their action, both Councilmen Van-Herwerden and Martin did not reflect the sentiment of the majority of the people in the wards which they represent by voting for another wholesale license.

Charges and countercharges are being made by the officers of the two steamers which collided last Saturday and resulted in the death of nearly half a hundred of the passengers and crew of the Old Dominion Liner Monroe. From a distance it is hard to draw any conclusion in a matter of this kind, but it is very evident that gross carelessness was exhibited by someone. The decision of the government authorities to probe the matter thoroughly and also to put more stringent maritime rules into effect meets with the approval of the public, btu, of course, it is mighty poor consolation for the relatives of those lost in the wreck.

Councilman Cose's suggestion that the matter of whether the people of Plainfield want more licenses or not be put to the vote of the people is, perhaps theoretically, all right, but we fear that special legislation would have to be passed before it could be attempted. It would be treading dangerously on the local option issue, and an act of the kind probably could not be passed. Councilman Calkin's three ideas are much more practical, namely: Restore no licenses that have been revoked for cause; assure those now holding licenses that so long as they obey the law they will be given renewals and grant no additional licenses.

Saturday's contributed editorial will contain much of interest to our readers. It comes from the pen of a popular local clergyman—one of the cloth who has red blood in his veins.

For Governor, Edward Casper Stokes—Billboard sign on Springfield road.

What? Again in 1916? The perpetual candidate, perhaps.

The ground hog certainly saw his shadow. Look to your coal bins.

Eleven little councilmen
Breath a happy sigh
Because the awful license time
Has safely ambled by,
But ere another year rolls round
These same eleven men
Will wish they were in Hades,
'Cause the license comes again.

PARENT-TEACHER ASS'N ENJOY INFORMAL PROGRAM

Members of the Lincoln School Parent-Teacher Association met in the auditorium of the school last night and enjoyed an informal program presented by those interested in the work of the association. Mrs. James Munro, the president of the Bryant-Lincoln Parent-Teacher Association appeared before the Association and explained why the midday lunch movement had not been extended to the Lincoln School as originarlly planned.

Mrs. Munro claimed that the equipment was limited at the present time and if the movement was extended to another school more money and additional equipment would be needed. She urged the establishment of a fund to bring about this end and it likely that the idea will be taken up. Following the meeting refreshments were served.

PRINCETON CLUB SMOKER.

The Princeton Club of Plainfield held an informal smoker last night at Truell Inn, on Park avenue. A collation was served in the tea room during the evening. The members discussed various matters of interest to the local organization. The club will hold its annual election of officers in May. The officers of the club are James Murray, president; P. A. Ransome, treasurer; Albert D. Beers, secretary; Albert Beers, Henry Cochran, Joseph Van Deventer, Dr. Frederick E. DuBois, Knox Taylor, Samuel Carter, Brown Rolston and Allan Randolph, executive committee.

WILL GIVE A RECITAL.

Mrs. Howard Lewis, a soprano soloist, will appear in the auditorium of the Hartridge School tonight in a recital planned for Plainfield music lovers. Mrs. Lewis will be accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Harry Johnson.

The monthly meeting of Craiglea Lodge, No. 43, Auxiliary to Clan Mackenzie, Order Scottish Clans, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock. Six new members will be initiated and other business of interest considered.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

NO HOPE IS HELD OUT FOR BREMNER

His Will Power Alone Keeps Him Alive.

Baltimore, Feb. 3. — Congressman Robert G. Bremner, who has been taking the radium treatment for cancer at Dr. Howard A. Kelly's sanitarium, is dying. All hopes of his recovery has been abandoned. Members of his family have been told that the end will come in a few days, perhaps in a few hours. His wife, his sister, Mrs. Helen Bremner and three of his eight brothers are now at his bedside waiting for the end.

Only the congressman himself still hopes for recovery. He is unconscious the greater part of the time, but it is said that in his lucid moments the indomitable will which has characterized him all his life is manifested. With almost the whole of his left breast and the left side of his back cut away, he still thinks of going back to the floors of congress, of aiding in the fight here for the establishment of a government owned radium institute.

When told by his brother, Leith Bremner of Richmond, Va., of how near death he was, Bremner said:

"Get me my shoes; I'm going to leave this place with you. I want to get to work."

It is in that manner that he has faced the terrible illness which is killing him through all the four years during which he has known it for what it was. Neither Dr. Kelly nor Dr Curtis E. Burnham, Dr. Kelly's assistant, has ever been sanguine about his cure.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE ENTERTAIN.

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's League of St. Joseph's church was held in Debele's Hall, last night, Miss Agnes Fitzgerald presiding at the session. The affair was well attended and following a short business session a program of entertainment was enjoyed by those present. The features of the program were vocal solos by Miss Julia Brancati and readings by Mrs. Andrew E. Kenney and Mrs. J. E. Bailey. Dancing was also enjoyed.

NOISE AND NOTHING ELSE.

Joseph Sattels, of 321 East Sixth street, telephoned to the police department shortly after midnight that he heard mysterious noises about his home and requested the presence of an officer on the scene. Captain Frederickson dispatched Patrolman Kelley to the Sattels home but he found no one of a mysterious character in the vicinity.

GAME CHICKENS MISSING.

Andrew McClellen, of 321 Watchung avenue, reported to the police today that someone had broken into his chicken coop sometime last night and stole thirteen game chickens from the roost. Detective John Flynn, who says he knows a thing or two about "chickun" of the feathered variety, has been detailed to the case.

Nietzsche Hated the Germans.

"Nietzsche's personal charm of manner," said Dr. Brandes, the Danish critic in a recent lecture, "was in strong contrast to the violence with which he attacked established institutions in his writings. His pet aversion was the Germans, and in his later books the word Teutonic stood for him for all that was evil. To dine with Germans, he said, gave him indigestion!

"This antipathy to his countrymen is closely paralleled in Byron's antipathy to Englishmen, Stendshl's to the French and Heine's to the Germans. It arose in Neitzsche's case from a disgust of humanity—a disgust which was best expressed by what the Greeks called misanthropy."—London Globe.

She Makes Violins.

Working quietly in a sunny apartment in Brooklyn, the only woman maker of violins in this country, if not in the world, plies her trade. She came by her talent naturally, for her father was a famous maker of violins in Austria in his day, and he imparted the secret of his art to his daughter. The young woman fashions the delicate instruments with the master's touch and then, when all is completed, applies the coat of varnish, that process which makes or mars the finest instruments. The formula of the varnish is a secret given to her by her father.—New York Tribune.

French Kongo.

The territory formerly known as the French Kongo and now designated as French Equatorial Africa comprises more than 600,000 square miles and contains approximately 7,000,000 inhabitants. The country is divided into three colonies: Gabon, capital at Libreville; Moyen (or middle) Kongo, capital at Brazzaville; Ubangi-Chari, capital at Fort de Possel, and the territory of Tchad.

Togoland.

Togoland, a German West African colony, lies between Dahomey on the east and the Gold Coast colony on the west, the Atlantic ocean being the southern boundary. It has an area of 33,659 square miles and a population of more than 1,500,000.

Must Be Ill.

"Your father's a sicker man than we thought."

"That so, ma?"

"Yes. I just did something that suited him."—Detroit Free Press.

Feb'y Furniture Sale

You will possibly need Furniture in the Spring. But if you wait till then to buy it you'll pay more for it, so why not take advantage of the big savings offered now? There's positively no excuse for waiting. If you don't want the goods delivered till after housecleaning time we'll store them free of charge and deliver when you are ready. Then again

CLUB PLAN PAYMENTS MAY BE ARRANGED

You can take advantage of these February selling prices; pay a little down and so much weekly or monthly, as best suits your convenience.

THE FEBRUARY SALE OF BED OUTFITS

WHITE ENAMEL BEDS, Complete with Spring and Mattress, at 6.98 8.50 10.98 14.50 16.98 23.50

SOLID BRASS BEDS, Complete with Spring and Mattress, at 16.98 24.50 37.50 49.50

BLOCH PULLMAN CARRIAGES

SOLD EXCLUSIVELY IN THIS CITY BY US.

1914 MODELS NOW ON SALE AT SPECIAL PRICES DURING FEBRUARY SALE.

Regular Price—	16.98	19.50	21.50	23.50	25.00	29.50
Sale Price	14.95	17.95	18.95	19.95	21.95	24.95

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Woodhull & Martin Co.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

WE GIVE FIVE PER CENT. PROFIT SHARING COUPONS.

N. P. H. S. NOTES.

Miss Ada Goble, of Morristown, and a student in the Montclair Normal School, visited the High School, yesterday, with Miss Helen Woodruff, '14.

Yesterday afternoon the Boys' Athletic Association constitution committee met, and under the supervision of Principal Earley drew up a new constitution which will govern the association as soon as adopted. At present there is no set of laws in force, the old ones being lost some years ago. The members of the committee in charge are as follows: Principal Earley, chairman; Ashley Burner, Hyman Abrams, Elmer French, Lester Chandler, Duclos Van Mater and Frank Dunning.

During the course of examination week, Miss Mary Robley, instructor of languages in the High School, and Miss Edna French, head of the kindergarten classes, visited in the public schools of Brooklyn and also Adelphi Academy.

Miss Olive Dugan, teacher in the seventh grade, who has been detained at her home because of illness, has returned to her duties.

The children of the lower grades were examined by School Physician Arthur D. Dundon yesterday.

PERSONAL.

Alexander Gilbert, of West Eighth street, who has been quite ill with the grip, has left the city in the hope that a change of climate will effect speedy recovery.

Archibald Cox, of Watchung avenue, who has been ill at his home with scarlet fever, is reported today as much improved, the crisis in the disease having been passed.

Mrs. Andrew Billings and son, Robert, of Codington avenue, have returned after spending a few days with Mrs. Billings' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Thompson, of Brooklyn.

Lester Sutton, a local student at Lehigh University, is spending a few days visiting his mother, Mrs. Lydia Sutton, of West Sixth street.

Phillip Drake, of Trenton, has returned home after a short visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Drake, of West Third street.

LeRoy Leland, of Newark, has returned home after a week's visit with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. V. W. Nash, of Prospect avenue.

Russell Phillips, of College place, who has been ill with scarlet fever, is convalescing.

VALENTINE FAIR.

Under the auspices of the Young Women's Guild of Grace church, a valentine fair, cake and candy sale will be given Monday afternoon, February 9, in the parish house from 2 until 6 o'clock. Tea will be served. The proceeds will be sent to Bishop Thomas, of Wyoming.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It pays.

WATCHUNG CHEMICAL CO. CAMPAIGNING FOR ENGINE

The regular monthly meeting of the Watchung Chemical Engine Company was held last night in the Watchung fire house when the department decided to extend the fire lines to include all the valley section of Warren Township and up the Warrenville hill to the Coontown road. Attention was called to the active start of the campaign organized effort to raise funds for the purchase of a new auto fire apparatus and the company has erected a clock such as was used in the Muhlenberg Hospital campaign to show the progress that is made by the canvassers each day.

Liberal subscriptions have already been made by those interested in the project and the prospects for a successful termination on February 12 are bright. Contributions should be sent to Lewis Snoden, in Watchung.

The Watchung fire department has proven a valuable asset to the community in the past and the new engine with its many advantages will greatly increase the facilities for fire protection in that section.

Attention was called to the fact that a delegation of Watchung and Warrenville people are contemplating a trip to Plainfield February 6, when the Oak Farm Dramatic Club will present its annual performance in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, the proceeds of which will be devoted to swelling the campaign fund.

"LITTLE MISS BROWN."

"Little Miss Brown" will be the attraction at the Plainfield theatre, Thursday afternoon and evening, February 12, Lincoln's Birthday.

—Competition between the stores in value-giving grows keener all the time—and makes the store ads of increasing purse-interest to you all the time.

ENJOYABLE C. E. SOCIAL.

The Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church held a social and entertainment, last night, a feature of which was the selections by the Dutch Arms Concert Band of the church, under the leadership of Edmund D. Young. The young people played games, an amusing incident being the selection of representative teams of various colleges. Each team was given fifteen minutes to get up a college yell and was then permitted to vocalize their efforts. Refreshments were served.

PROGRESSIVE CLUB DINNER.

The Progressive Club of Elizabeth, will hold its second anual diner at Gordon's Hippodrome Auditorium, on Elizabeth avenue, near Broad street, that city, on Tuesday evening, February 17. United States Senator Moses E. Clapp of Minnesota will discuss "Progressivism," and Miss Alice Carpenter, of New York, "Woman Suffrage." Miss Carpenter is organizer of the National Progressive Service League. There will be several other prominent speakers. Elwood W. Pharis, is chairman of the dinner committee.

PARK AVENUE BAPTIST NOTES.

The Agoga Bible Class, of the Park Avenue Baptist church, of which William N. Runyon is the teacher, has invited the members of the church to be their guests tonight at a musical entertainment. The Women's Foreign Mission Society will meet Thursday afternoon, and tomorrow night an old-fashioned praise and thanksgiving service will be held. Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire will preach Sunday night on "Laughter."

BELATED ANNOUNCEMENT.

Announcement is made of the recent marriage at St. Mary's rectory in this city of William Edmundsen, of this city, and Miss Catherine Whelan, of High Bridge. The ceremony was performed by the Father Daniel Hogan.

APPOINTED DOG-CATCHER.

Fred Smith was appointed dog-catcher of Dunellen at the Borough Council meeting, last night, succeeding I. V. Smalley, who is now a marshal. The other business of the meeting was of a routine nature.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Trade will be held this evening, when the annual banquet and the question of the consolidation of the city and borough will be discussed.

—Daily Press want ads. bring results

DOANE'S KIDNEY PILLS 45c.

Genuine English COLTS FOOT ROCK in sticks

COUGH CORDIAL
Something different in the way of cough medicine. Prompt relief after first doses.

SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists
PARK AVE., COR. SECOND ST.

Headquarters for
GIBSON'S
RYE
E. C. WESCOTT.
115 East Front Street.

THE THREE COMPONENT PARTS

of our banking service are accuracy, courtesy and promptness.

We extend to you every banking privilege consistent with sound, conservative business.

Your account subject to check (large or small) is cordially invited.

3% INTEREST ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS OF $500.00 AND ABOVE

4% INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS OF $10.00 AND ABOVE

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Capital $150,000.00 Surplus and Profits $300,000.00 (all earned)

The John Wanamaker Store

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co.

Broadway and Ninth, New York

Only Over Night, and---

The Great February Silk Sale

Commences Bright and Early Tomorrow Morning

Everything in the sale brand new.

Silks which Parisiennes are wearing today and those which will be worn through the Spring and Summer.

$215,996 of new silks—to be sold for $92,929.

How can we do this? How can we sell for average less than half the very silks that are in fashion now?

Mainly because we can sell large quantities quickly and thus dispose of manufacturers' overstocks and ends of stocks without disturbing the regular market.

When we say in the detail below made to sell for so much, or others will sell these silks for so much, or quote a certain grade or value, it is because dealers all over the country have purchased these very silks in the regular way to sell at the higher prices.

We, ourselves, shall have to ask the higher prices for these grades when these special lots are sold.

It is a Privilege to Offer These Silks Now

NOW—Just when Spring fashions are being shown in Paris.

NOW—When women can have their silk gowns made up in those new fashions.

NOW—Before dressmakers in New York become busy.

9,000 Yards New French Silks (Will be Sold by Others at $3 to $6 yard)—Here Now, $1.85 yard

Canton crepe and fleur de soie, both in direct accord with the new silks designed by Paul Poiret. Modern patterns in colors that gleam like sunlight and the green foliage and flowers which Parisiennes favor. Altogether—different designs. All the silks are double width.

These printed silks, Paris says, should be made up with

Black Charmeuse—10,000 Yards of $3 Quality (in Our Own Stocks)—for $1.85 Yard

Rich, lustrous face, heavy quality, good black, double width.

4,500 Yards Egyptian Crepes $5 Quality for $2.25 Yard

Later on it will be here at the regular price of $5 yard. One of the new materials for spring. Six self-color broche designs. The silk is heavy and all silk and copies the famous French cascadeuse. 40 inches wide.

This same crepe printed with colored flowers, 27 inches wide, regularly $3, now $1.45 yard.

1,500 Yards Crocodile Crepe $4.50 Quality for $2.85 Yard

A heavier crepe than the above, with even more decided crinkle. Four self-color brocaded designs. Street shades. 40 inches wide.

2,000 Yards Broche Moire $7.50 Quality for $3.50 Yard

This is being used by manufacturers today who are making spring draps and tailored suits. You can get ahead of them and have your suit made before theirs are shown, and your silk costs less than half the established price. This moire is soft and beautiful and comes in three patterns. All street colors, double width.

3,500 Yards Moire Forme, $4.50 Quality, $2.85 Yard

Designed for the spring. Worn in Paris today. Fifteen colors in four different designs. 40 inches wide.

11,000 Yards Poplin Brocade and Matelasse $4.50 and $5 Quality, now $1.85 Yard

Manufacturers are making brocades for next season. Demand seems on the increase for these soft rich fabrics which wear well and make up very beautifully.

All colors, including black. Eight designs. 40 inches wide.

5,000 Yards Brocaded Satin Poplin $4.50 and $5.50 Quality, now $1.95 Yard

Two designs in variety of street colors for suits and dresses. Double width.

5,000 Yards Brocaded Satin $6 Quality for $2.85 Yard

Fine, soft satin has been chosen and woven with beautiful designs—these are not the stately satin brocades of a century ago. They will make exquisite evening gowns and afternoon dresses, not to speak of gowns for brides and bridesmaids. Nine patterns in evening and street shades. Double width.

12,000 Yards Satin, $2 Quality for $1.38 Yard

36 inches wide, black, white and ninety street and evening colors.

3,000 Yards All-Silk Duvetyne—We Sold it Originally at $8.50, now $1.95

Duvetyne has been used in the Paris models up to the present moment. It is a luxurious fabric. This particular duvetyne is made so well that we guarantee it to wear satisfactorily. 40 inches wide. Black and all wanted street colors.

Brocaded Velvet and Plush $15 to $25 Qualities for $5.50 Yard

A new lot never shown here before. Rich designs and colors. Luxurious fabrics for next season's wrap or opera cloak or sumptuous evening gown.

The Silk Sale will be held in the Silk Rotunda and on the Main Aisle and in the Lower Silk Rotunda, Subway floor, Old Building.

All these special lots will be ready at 8:30 o'clock tomorrow morning.

DAUGHTER OF MAJOR GENERAL WOOD, THIRTEEN, RIDES FORTY-FIVE MILES ON HORSEBAC

MISS LOUISE WOOD AND HER FATHER, MAJOR GENERAL LEONARD WOOD.

When Miss Louise B. Wood, the thirteen-year-old daughter of Major General and Mrs. Leonard Wood, galloped into Fort Myer lately upon Fort Hunter, a thoroughbred racer, and shook the raindrops from her wind-blown blue dresses, the soldiers of the post had a new idol and Washington society added to the plaudits which it already had bestowed upon this youthful horsewoman as she paraded her mounts in the show ring. Miss Wood had just completed a forty-five mile ride, the last leg of the annual ride which her father, as an officer of the army, must take in compliance with regulations.

But Miss Wood had not done anything unusual for her. The applauding public probably is not aware that practically every Saturday and Sunday she accompanies General Wood on a thirty mile ride, and during the summer can be seen daily taking the stirrup upon her favorite pony, Santiago for a ten mile morning gallop.

WIDOW IGNORED, $1,000,000 ESTATE GOES TO BROTHER

New Brunswick, Feb. 3.—With no mention made of the widow, the will of James Weaver Sterry, who died January 2 in Metuchen, has been probated by Surrogate Daniel W. Clayton. With the exception of a bequest of $5,000, the entire estate, estimated to be worth about $1,000,000, is left to Sterry's brother, William DeWitt Sterry, of Roselle. The $5,000 is left to Sterry's cousin, Harriet Sterry Park, of New York.

A short time ago Sterry's wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Stivers Sterry, of New York, brought suit for separation before Supreme Court Justice Newburger of New York, charging desertion and cruelty. Mr. Sterry defeated the action by setting up that Mrs. Sterry was not his legal wife, as she never had secured a legal divorce from her first husband, Albert S. Rennis, of Chicago.

On May 19, 1908, Mr. Sterry's brother, George W. Sterry, Jr., shot and killed his father and then killed himself in the offices of Weaver & Sterry, 79 Pine street, New York. The patricide was the result of friction over the report that Mr. Sterry contemplated wedding Miss Rachel Blaiki, a New Jersey school teacher.

The father's estate was valued at $1,000,000, nearly all of which James Weaver Sterry inherited. He was formerly a member of the firm of Weaver & Sterry, which operates a grinding mill at East Spotswood.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It pays.

ORIENTAL RUGS ON VIEW

(Continued from page 1.)

These who dye the rugs are the aristocrats of dyers. In Persia where the old time colors are known. Particularly is this so if the dyer is proficient in red dyes. These secrets of the dyers are kept invulnerable, the processes being handed down in families from fathers to sons. The use of aniline dyes is taboo in Persia and an edict was once passed by the Shah of Persia that any dyer caught using aniline dyes should have both of his hands cut off. Good red dyes will, it is said, last 100 to 150 years. Most of the rug weavers are frightfully poor, live in abject poverty and squalor while working at the beautiful weaves, are very illiterate but sing always at their work and what is more to the point seem happy. Surrounded with poverty and denied all that seemingly goes to make their lives worth while they yet are in the midst of beauty as they make the wool that they have cut and gathered and sent through the dyers' hands blossom into glorious lights and colorings too exquisite for mere words to paint as the result of rich patience and skill in weaving. Any well made, hand woven oriental rug can last its possessor a lifetime. For years, the Persian declared, it was General Markets.

New York, Feb. 3.

WHEAT—Receipts, 87,000; shipments, 285,000; No. 2 red, elevator export, $1; No. 2 red, f. o. b. afloat, $1.01½; No. 1 north Duluth, f. o. b. afloat, $1.02¾. The market late was steady with a quiet trade. The visible supply showed a fairly good decrease; May, $1.00¾; July, 96⅞c.

FLOUR—Receipts, 37,000; shipments, 15,000; spring patents, $4.50a4.75; winter straights, $4.25a4.40; winter patents, $4.50a4.85; spring clears, $4a4.20; winter low grades, $3.10a3.45; Kansas straights, $4.10a4.25; rye flour, fair to good, $3a3.25; choice to fancy, $3.30a3.65.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—$3a3.15, nominal.

CORN—Receipts, 229,000; No. 2 new, f. o. b. to arrive, 69½c.

BUTTER—Better trade, firmer; receipts, 3,027 packages; creamery extras, lb., 29½a30c; firsts, 27a28c; seconds, 25a24½c; held, extras, 28a29½c; firsts, 24a25½c; seconds, 22½a23½c; state dairy tubs, firsts, 25½a26c; good to prime, 24a27½c; common to fair, 1a22c; process extras, 32a32½c; firsts, 31a32c; seconds, 30a30½c; imitation creamery, firsts, 25a27½c; factory, current make, firsts, 21c; seconds, 20a20½c; packing stock, held, 19½a20c; current make, No. 2, 18½a19½c; No. 3, 17a18c.

CHEESE—Firm; receipts, 738 boxes; state, whole milk, specials, white, held, lb., 18a18¼c; firsts, 17½a17¾c; colored, held, 18a18½c; firsts, 17½a17¾c; average fancy, white, held, 17½a17¾c; firsts, 17¼c; colored, held, 17½a17¾c; firsts, 17¼c; skims, specials, held, 13½a14½c; good to choice, 11½a12½c.

EGGS—Steady; receipts, 6,852 cases; fresh gathered extras, doz., 34a35c; extra firsts, 32½a33c; firsts, 31½a32c; seconds, 30a31c; refrigerators, firsts, 29a30c; seconds, 27½a28½c; state, Pennsylvania and nearby hennery whites, 38a40c; gathered whites, 39c; hennery browns, 35c; gathered browns and mixed colors, 32a34c.

LIVE POULTRY—Firm; prices unsettled.

Live Stock Markets.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 3.

CATTLE—Supply, 110 carloads; market slow and prices 10 cents lower; choice, $8.50a8.90; prime, $8.30a8.60; good, $8a8.25; tidy butchers, $7.75a8.15; fair, $7.25a7.75; common, $6.50a7; heifers, $5.50a8; common to good fat bulls, $4.50a7; common to good fat cows, $3.50a7; fresh cows and springers, $60a85.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Supply, 25 double decks; market slow and prices steady; prime wethers, $5.75a6; good mixed, $5.40a5.75; fair mixed, $4.75a5.25; culls and common, $3a3.50; lambs, $5.60a8; veal calves, $11a11.50; heavy and thin calves, $7a8.

HOGS—Receipts, 55 double decks; market higher; prime heavy, heavy mixed, mediums, heavy Yorkers and light Yorkers, $8.95a9; pigs, $8.75a8.80; roughs, $8a8.15; stags, $7a7.25.

YOUNG AVIATOR THRILLS CROWD

Airman's Nerve Saves Him In Daring Flight.

MOTOR "DEAD" EACH TIME

Tries Three Times to Loop the Loop. Gets Control, Alights Gently and Goes Up Again to Do More Thrilling Stunts.

New York, Feb. 3.—Charles F. Niles, a young aviator, tried to "loop the loop" in an aeroplane at Garden City and failed, but he accomplished a greater aerial feat than the loop would have been. In fact, those familiar with the perils of aviation who saw his performance said that probably no other airman had passed through such a dangerous adventure and had lived to tell about it.

Falling, he dropped 2,700 feet through the air, balanced his monoplane after each stage of the fall and sailed vertically up and down with motor stopped until 300 feet above earth.

Then he descended with perfect control and alighted without a scratch upon his silken wings.

Niles' magnificent guidance of his machine in every conceivable position for the two frightful moments of his descent will put him in the front rank of the world's birdmen. Officers of the Aero Club of America who watched him said that there had never been an air performance like Niles' in the history of aviation.

As if Flung From the Skies.

The only thought of the little group of men below the monoplane was that it was falling to destruction. Had it been flung from the skies its drop could not have been more wildly eccentric. Niles came down in no graceful spiral, but head over heels.

His engine stopped twice, once when he was sailing vertically upward, the other time when he was headed vertically downward. Both times his hand on the steering gear was a shade quicker than gravity. With a little flirt of its shimmering wings the monoplane swung through a great arc into the horizontal.

Alfred J. Moisant of the Moisant firm, for whom Niles is to fly, could not contain his joy. Alan R. Hawley, president of the Aero club, catching his breath after Niles was seen to be safe, shouted:

"That fellow's a wonder! He gave me more thrills than I ever had before in my life. I thought the man was coming smash bang into the hangars!"

Niles failed to loop the loop because his gasoline wouldn't feed into the engine continuously while the monoplane was heading straight up or down. A system that will feed the gasoline under pressure will fix that all right the next time. After his first flight he went up a second time and flew upside down for a way to show that it wasn't his fault that he didn't describe a complete circle with engine running.

When the young aviator alighted after a little half turn to get his breath Alan Hawley said to him:

"Let me congratulate you, Mr. Niles, on having shown us something we have never seen here in the east."

Niles was pleased but quiet about his performance. He said:

"I couldn't make the loop straight over as I tried to because the gasoline wouldn't feed into the engine when the plane was straight up and down.

"There wasn't any time when I didn't feel that I had perfect control over the machine. Afraid? I've never felt afraid flying."

Then he went up again right away without any fuss to fly head downwards, which he did thrillingly for fifteen seconds and a quarter of a mile.

"My eighteen months of flying were spent mostly with Glenn Curtiss," Niles said after his second trip. "I was a year with Curtiss, and when I asked him to let me try to loop the loop he not only refused, but wouldn't let me go up again.

"With the Kirkham Aeroplane company I had the same experience—they wouldn't hear of my looping the loop. I've been two months with Mr. Moisant."

Niles is to fly an eighty horsepower military aeroplane for the Moisants later.

ROYALIST COUP IN LISBON?

Republican Guard Said to Have Rebelled Against Government.

London, Feb. 3.—A dispatch from Madrid to the Evening Standard says that Portuguese refugees arriving there told of a royalist coup long planned in Lisbon. It was said that the republican guard were in revolt, marching through the streets crying "Long live the king!"

BIG DECISION WAITS.

United States Supreme Court Takes a Recess Until Feb. 24.

Washington, Feb. 3.—Without deciding the intermountain rate or other important pending cases the supreme court adjourned until Feb. 24.

Weather Forecast.

Fair in south, snow in north portion today; tomorrow local rains or snow, with moderate southwest winds, increasing.

—To a merchant, the "cost of ADEQUATE ADVERTISING is a mere incident. While the cost of inadequate advertising is always difficult to meet.

CASSIDY GUILTY; SO IS WALTER

Jury Reached Verdict In Fifty Minutes.

SENTENCED ON WEDNESDAY

Both Convicted of Selling Judicial Nomination to Willett—Queens Boss Near Collapse and Pales When Verdict Is Announced.

New York, Feb. 3.—The jury in the trial of "Curly Joe" Cassidy and his right hand man, Louis T. Walter, Jr., reached a verdict of guilty in just fifty minutes.

The verdict was brought in to Justice Jaycox in Part 11 of the supreme court in Brooklyn.

The charge is conspiracy in having sold to William Willett, Jr., his nomination to the supreme court bench in 1911. The maximum penalty is two years' imprisonment and $2,000 fine.

Cassidy lost his nerve. As he followed Robert H. Elder, his counsel, into the courtroom his mustache was twitching, his forehead was wet, and he was visibly nervous.

Walter, the go-between, who passed the money from Willett to Cassidy, followed. His nerve has not stayed with him during the trial as has Cassidy's. He was scowling nervously, and as the jury filed into the box both men watched the faces of the jurors, trying to read what was to come.

It was 10:58 when Clerk Doubleday called the roll and asked Foreman Stephen S. Powell if the verdict had been agreed upon. Foreman Powell said it had.

"What is the verdict against these defendants?" asked the clerk.

"Guilty, both of them," said Powell.

Cassidy's Frown Deepens.

Cassidy's frown deepened, but he made no other sign. Walter was biting his mustache.

To the clerk Cassidy said he was forty-eight years old, born in Queens county, resident at Far Rockaway, a real estate dealer, neither of his parents is living; he is a Catholic, temperate and was never convicted before.

Walter, his voice breaking at times, said he was forty-five years old, born in New York city, resident of Far Rockaway, a contractor, married, an Episcopalian, temperate and was never convicted before.

Mr. Elder asked Justice Jaycox to set Wednesday morning as the time for motions in behalf of the defendants. Justice Jaycox agreed to this, naming the same time for sentence. William Willett, Jr., convicted in forty minutes a week ago last Saturday night, will be sentenced this morning.

The case against Cassidy, Walter and Willett arises out of an editorial printed in October, 1911, in the Brooklyn Standard Union. Charges were made that one of the Democratic candidates for the supreme court bench had bought his nomination. William Berri, owner of the Standard Union, was accused of criminal libel, whereupon he set out to prove the allegations in the editorial. The libel suit was dropped, but John Doe proceedings were brought in Queens county before Justice Scudder, sitting as magistrate, to determine the truth of the allegations.

These proceedings resulted in no indictments, and District Attorney Whitman sent his assistant, William A. De Ford, to investigate the matter. Eventually indictments against Willett, Cassidy and Walter were handed down.

Large Loans and Deposits.

The case of the people was that Willett had borrowed a great deal of money just before he got the nomination that he insisted upon cash in getting these loans and that about the same time the bank accounts of Joseph Cassidy began to show large deposits of cash. It was shown that Walter also deposited a large amount of cash. Walter was thought to be the collection between Willett and Cassidy.

FELIX DIAZ NOT CONSPIRING

Discredits Report That Huerta Has Accused Him.

Havana, Feb. 3.—General Felix Diaz doubts the authenticity of the report printed here to the effect that President Huerta has accused him of being connected with the latest conspiracy to overthrow the present Mexican administration. General Diaz says there is absolutely no ground for the charge. He is not in communication with any one in Mexico.

General Diaz says he will remain in Havana until the suit growing out of the attempt to assassinate him on his arrival here from Mexico is settled. When this has been done he will leave Cuba, but he refuses to say where he intends to go.

WEATHER EVERYWHERE.

Observations of the United States weather bureau taken at 8 p. m. yesterday follow:

	Temp	Weather
New York	35	Clear
Albany	28	Clear
Atlantic City	36	Clear
Boston	36	Clear
Buffalo	32	Clear
Chicago	40	Clear
St Louis	48	Clear
New Orleans	60	Clear
Washington	42	Clear

—Some store may be placing on "special sale" just now the article you have not felt like paying "regular" prices for.

THE ROYAL TYPEWRITER

Best built Typewriter in the world. Nineteen exclusive features not possessed by any other machine—best references of local users.

Write or phone for particulars and demonstration.

A. W. HAUCK,
LOCAL AGENT
70 Norwood Ave. Phone 921-W
1 27 6 eod

TRY THESE DELICIOUS CRULLERS

Plymouth Home Made Crullers, sold by us, are made by a new method—they are Pure, Clean and Digestible. Sanitary package, 10 cents.

W. W. Dunn
THE PARK GROCER
Duer Street and Lincoln Place.

Your Appearance Counts

Have you ever realized how well you are received when your appearance is favorable? Men, send your Suit and have it cleaned and pressed. Ladies, your tea gowns, woolen dresses, opera cloaks, plain or fancy waists, and indeed anything worth cleaning.

I guarantee my work and assure you that my method will tend to renew the fabric, brighten the colors and raise the nap, thereby restoring the garment to the freshness of new clothing.

A. ROTGUN
432 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 1976-W.
Nine years with G. O. Keller.

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOM
Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.
William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964.
OPP. DEPOT.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

To Charles D. Robinson, Receiver, Etc., and The Mercantile Co-Operative Bank:

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein Catherine Hegeman is complainant, and you, Charles D. Robinson, Receiver, Etc., and The Mercantile Co-Operative Bank are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of said complainant, on or before the 20th day of March next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill is filed for the purpose of quieting title to certain lands in the City of Plainfield, in the County of Union and State of New Jersey, bounded and described as follows, to wit:

Known as Lots Nos. 29 and 31, Block D, on a map of 264 lots, owned by Watson Whitbeck, at Netherwood Station, in the City of Plainfield, Union County, N. J., surveyed Sept. 1891 by F. A. Dunham, C. E. and Surveyor of Plainfield, N. J., and filed for record in the Register's Office of Union county, N. J., Sept. 1891. Beginning at a point on the west line of George Street 144 feet northwesterly from the northwest corner of George Street and Jackson Avenue; running thence northwesterly in a line parallel with the north line of Jackson Avenue 100 feet; thence northeasterly in a line parallel with the west line of George Street, 50 feet; thence southeasterly to the west line of George Street, 110 feet; thence southwesterly along the west line of George Street, 50 feet, to the place of beginning.

Also all of Lots 32 and 33, in Block D, on a Map of 264 lots owned by Watson Whitbeck, located at Netherwood Station, in the City of Plainfield, County of Union, State of New Jersey, surveyed August 1891 by F. A. Dunham, Engineer, Plainfield, N. J., and filed for record in the Register's Office of Union County, N. J., Sept. 1891, all those tracts or parcels of land and premises hereinafter particularly described, beginning at a point on the west line of George Street, one hundred and fifty and seventy-five hundredths (150.75) feet southwesterly from the southwest corner of George Street and Netherwood Avenue, running thence northwesterly in a line parallel with the southerly line of Netherwood Avenue one hundred and ten (110) feet; thence southwesterly in a line parallel with the west line of George Street, fifty (50) feet; thence southeasterly to the west line of George Street, one hundred and ten (110) feet; thence northeasterly along the west line of George Street, fifty (50) feet, to the place of beginning.

Now, you, Charles D. Robinson, Receiver, Etc., are made a defendant because of your office as Sole Permanent Assignee of the aforesaid Mercantile Co-Operative Bank, to Catherine Hegeman, complainant, by a deed of bargain and sale, dated and intended to convey the title to the property and to be the said deed declared to be a sufficient conveyance. And you, The Mercantile Co-Operative Bank, are made a defendant because your receiver aforesaid refused to use a deed with the proper words of conveyance as aforesaid, this action is made necessary to obtain such a deed to pass title.

Dated January 29, A. D. 1914.

C. M. DOLLIVER,
Solicitor and of Counsel with,
Complainant,
118 East Front Street,
Plainfield, N. J.

HORSES CLIPPED
By Charles C. Brower,
PLAINFIELD CAB CO.,
130-134 E. Second St. 'Phone 10.
11 8 6mos

Hoagland's Express
FINE FURNITURE.
MOVING
Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

B. KIVATINOS
(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 886-W

OLIVE OIL

In Gallon Cans, Half Gallon Cans, Quart Cans, Quart Bottles, Pint Bottles and Half Pint Bottles.

DIRECT FROM FRANCE

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS

Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760

Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage

WAREHOUSE

North Avenue

OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE

125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.

OLD RELIABLE

STORAGE

All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry

Furniture Packed and Shipped

Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS

THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.

AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS

The Leading

Auctioneers

W. A. SCHORB & CO.

Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold

120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg

Telephone 1707-W.

HENRY J. SIEBERT & CO.

1147 East Jersey St.,

ELIZABETH, N. J.

(Opp. Proctor's Theatre).

We specialize:

AWNINGS

WINDOW SHADES

CURTAIN MATERIALS

BRASS GOODS, etc.

Large assortment.

Low prices.

'Phone Elizabeth 852.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JUST RECEIVED 8,000 ROLLS OF THIS YEAR'S

WALL PAPER

At special prices, selling at 8 and 10 cents per roll. This is an opportunity to secure up-to-date wallpaper at a big saving.

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators.

145 NORTH AVENUE.

Now is the Time

To paint your house—in the cool of the year, when the paint dries slowly, and consequently lasts longest. No hot sun to cause blisters. And the house painted now is preserved against the ravages of winter storms. Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's pure colors, ready mixed paint, varnishes, glass, etc.

JAMES C. HANSEN

Tel. 346.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

February 1, 1913.

NEW-YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30, 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 8:00, 9:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:00 a. m., 12:30, 3:15 and 7:0 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00 a. m., 1:30, 4:2 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:0 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:0 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:0 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6.30, 11:30 a. m., 1:3 5:00 and 9.00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close 6:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5.00, 7.00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5.30, 8:4 a. m., 1:30, 2.00, 5:30 p. m. Close—8:0 9.00 a. m., 12 noon, 2.00, 5:50, 9.00 p. m

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a m., 1.30, 2:30, 5.30 p. m. Close—6:3 8.00, 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:30 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m Close—9:00 a. m., 2.30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

W. J. CIRD, P. M.

Dr. Robert W. Rogers

OSTEOPATH

720 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1936-W

Office hours: 8 to 9 a. m., 7 to 8 p. m.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

CONTRACTOR ARNOLD.

Testifies Against "Bagmen" at the John Doe Probe.

Photo by American Press Association.

NO MORE LICENSES

(Continued from page 1.)

titions representing 521 persons, he added that the Council represented 3,500 voters and if they had wanted additional licensed places they, too, would have petitioned to that effect.

In the opinion of Councilman R. A. Claybrook the majority of the sentiment was not for additional places. He felt sure that last year's action of the Council was satisfactory and if the matter was delayed at present he thought there would be petitions before the Council bearing 3,500 names against additional licenses.

It was then that Councilman Thomas F. Hylan suggested giving anyone present a chance to speak for or against the granting of additional licenses.

William F. Wilson, son of former Councilman W. W. Wilson, who wanted a license on Park avenue near Fourth street, addressed the Council urging favorable action on his application, explaining that fully ninety per cent of the people he had seen favored an additional wholesale place. He admitted he had no practical knowledge of the business, but explained that he proposed to have James Colvin, a middle-aged, experienced man, associated with him. He also admitted that a number of people he saw declined to sign his petition for "business reasons," and he added "under the circumstances I would not ask them to sign."

These remarks led Mr. Calkins to say that while he agreed with ninety-five per cent. of what Mr. Blatz had said, he declared that the people of Plainfield are divided into two groups, one opposed and the other for licenses, and he contended that there should be a third, the one he was in, that of having a fixed policy for all time.

Mr. Calkins said that he attended the recent mass meeting, that he didn't agree altogether with those who spoke, but if there are ninety per cent. of the business men, reputable citizens, who want additional wholesale licensed places why don't they say so. "I cannot understand," said Mr. Calkins, "why such people don't get up a meeting and speak frankly on the subject and let the Council know where they stand. It appears to me that possibly it would do no harm to have one more licensed place, but it is more important to my mind to have a fixed policy than to increase the number. Grant an additional one now and next year perhaps efforts will be made to get more licenses. It may be possible to adopt an ordinance fixing the policy of the Council. I would favor such action."

The new applications were then presented and upon the motion of Chairman Graves of the license committee, they were refused. All the members with the exception of Councilman Martin and van Herwerden voted not to grant Mr. McIntyre's license, while all the members voted against the applications of Thomas F. Traynor, on Somerset street; George R. Wescott on North avenue; William F. Wilson on Park avenue, while all but Mr. Martin voted against the application of Henry P. Vosseler, of North avenue. The lobby was filled with interested spectators, including not a few lawyers who watched the proceedings closely throughout.

FUNERAL OF JOHN PUGH.

The funeral services of John Pugh who died on Sunday, in his ninetieth year, were held last evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Uhlmer, in South Bound Brook. The interment was at Easton, Pa., where the deceased formerly lived. Mr. Pugh was one of the oldest members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows in this State. He had been a member of that order for sixty-nine years. Mrs. Richard V. Kinney, of 71 Pearl street, North Plainfield, is a daughter of the departed.

FUNERAL OF MRS. CURRIN, JR.

The funeral services of Mrs. Thomas E. Currin, Jr., will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, at the late residence, at 62 Mountain avenue, North Plainfield. The burial will be in Hillside cemetery.

YESTERDAY'S LOCAL WEATHER.

8 a. m. temperature	30
8 p. m. temperature	30
Maximum temperature	43
Minimum temperature	27
Mean temperature	35
Normal temperature	26

—Daily Press want ads. bring results.

HODGE'S PHARMACY

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Telephone 62.

REMEMBER

We carry the largest and finest stock of plants and cut flowers in the city. Floral design work by expert designers. Plant or flowers delivered to any city of the United States. Store, 159 East Front street; Tel. 928; greenhouses, 1126 South avenue. 40,000 feet of glass.

STANLEY

159 E. Front St. Tel. 928.

Woodhull & Martin Building.

Greenhouses, South Ave., Tel. 331-J

T. A. MOORE

UNDERTAKER!

612 E Sixth St.

Tel. 741-R

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON,

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS

Office, 116 Park Avenue. Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 584-W. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 23d St. Tel. 2284-Gramercy.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,

UNDERTAKERS

402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3745-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

JAS. J. CHAS. A.

J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS

FUNERAL PARLORS

109 W. Fourth St. Tel. 1753-J.

Our Booklet Entitled A Modern Mortuary Establishment Sent Upon Request.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS

Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

CURRIN—On Monday, February 2, 1914, Gertrude Griggs, wife of Thomas E. Currin, Jr., aged 47 years.

Services at her late residence, 62 Mountain avenue, North Plainfield, on Thursday, February 5, at 2:30 p. m. Interment in Hillside cemetery.

MEYER—On Tuesday morning, February 3, 1914, George W. Meyer, in his 62d year.

Funeral services at his late residence, 115 New street, Thursday afternoon, February 5, at 2 o'clock.

ALLEN—On Monday, February 2, 1914, Ann M. Allen, in her 93d year.

Funeral services at her late residence, 12 Mountain avenue, Thursday, February 5, at 10:30 a. m. Interment in Evergreen cemetery.

2 3 2

ROOMS AND BOARD WANTED.

WANTED—By gentleman, one or two furnished rooms, vicinity North Plainfield. Address Reasonable, care Press. 2 3 2

MISCELLANEOUS.

TAXIDERMIST—Birds and animals stuffed and mounted. T. W. Sisty, Wayside Park; 'Phone 1299-J Dunellen, N. J. 11 14 3mos

FASHIONABLE dressmaker, skillful, artistic, speedy worker; understands every detail of first-class dressmaking; very reasonable; home or out. Address Mme. Eugene Andre, General Delivery. 1 2 3

EMBROIDERY, INITIALS, ETC.—Orders taken for all kinds of embroidery and initials; first class work; prices reasonable. Mrs. C. S. Groot, 768 Woodland avenue, near Putnam avenue; telephone 1687-M. 1 15 1mo

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES, AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY CO. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

Classified Advertisements---Copy Received Until 1:30 P. M. Daily

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No Display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

LITTLE TALKS BY THE WANT AD MAN

Copyright, 1913, The Int. Syndicate, Baltimore.

No. 56.

EVERY time I see any "poetry" in advertising I feel like getting up and breaking a few windows.

However, here is a really sensible little piece of rhyme, with a worth-while moral, clipped from "Economic Advertising," an interesting little publication printed in Toronto, Canada. It is entitled:

DEAD.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said:
"My trade of late is getting bad;
I'll try another ten-inch ad."
If such there be, go mark him well;
For him no bank account shall swell,
No angels watch the golden stair
To welcome home the millionaire.
The man who never asys for trade
By local line or ad. displayed
Cares more for rest than worldly gain,
And patronage but gives him pain.
Tread lightly, friends; let no rude sound
Disturb his solitude profound;
Here let him live in calm repose,
Unsought except by men he owes
And when he dies, go plant him deep,
That naught may break his dreamless sleep;
Where no rude clamor may dispel
The quiet that he loved so well.
And that the world may know its loss,
Place on his grave a wreath of moss,
And on a stone above: "Here lies
A man who wouldn't advertise."

The man who doesn't advertise his business doesn't usually remain long in business.

Hiding your light under a bushel, Mr. Merchant, will some day result in the light going out.

Keep step with the spirit of the times—keep your name and your business in the minds of the great purchasing public—keep growing—

ADVERTISE!

The Want-Ad Man

(All rights reserved, 1913, by Jerome P. Fleishman.)

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Manning, 183 North avenue. 10 14 tf

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Young girl to take care of two small children during the day. Apply 114 East Sixth street. 1 29 3 eod

WANTED—Cook-laundress, waitress-chambermaid. Apply evenings, 915 Kensington avenue. 2 2 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

REFINED English woman wants position as companion to elderly lady; excellent sewer. Apply Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'Phone 1724. 2 3 2

FIRST-CLASS laundress wants washing out by day or at home. Clark, 643 West Fourth street. 2 3 2

REFINED English woman wants place as infant's nurse; excellent sewer. Apply Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place. 'Phone 1724. 2 3 2

WANTED—Day's work of any kind. Housework, care Press. 2 2 3

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—New 7-room house, improvements; near trolley and station. J. P. Fenner, Dunellen, N. J. 1 31 3

FOR SALE OR TO LET—Two new seven room houses; all improvements; garage, sleeping porch, decorated to suit tenant or buyer. 839 Osborne avenues, Netherwood, telephone 894-M. 1 28 tf

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Airedale terrier dog, part brown, black saddle, tan markings, white toes. Reward. Thos. K. Bray, Terrill road, Plainfield. 1 31 4

FOR SALE.

ROYAL TYPEWRITERS — The best built standard typewriter in the world for only $75. Write or call for a demonstration. Plainfield Office Supply Co., Local Agents, P. O. Box 701, 'Phone 921-W. 1 25 1mo

FOR SALE—A new bicycle, $25. Inquire 108 East Second street, or 318 Liberty street.

FOR SALE—Manure, soil. Sam Redd, 933 West Third street. 2 3 1m

FOR SALE—All kinds fine gloves for ladies, men and boys, at wholesale and retail; large variety of deer skin gloves for auto, driving and working; best canvas, 10c; per dozen, $1.00; kid gloves, slightly damaged half price. H. Texier, 58 Somerset street. 12 31 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

TO LET—Attractive rooms, with board. Mrs. L. R. Williams, 13 Crescent avenue. 2 24 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board; also table board. 433 East Seventh street. 1 17 tf

FOR RENT—Two comfortable rooms with excellent home table. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 12 27 tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Good house, for colored people; 6 room house, part improvements; right in town. See Mr. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 6 26 tf

FOR SALE—To close "French Estate," Somerset street carriage factory, stores, and tenement houses and stable in rear; lot 100x200 ft.; alley at side and in rear; bargain, terms arranged. Apply, Elston M. French, executor, 171 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 12 19 tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

COLORED painter and paperhanger wanted. Call 1548 West Front St. 2 2 3

FOR RENT.

FLAT to let, five rooms, all improvements. 538 West Fifth street, or enquire 432 Watchung avenue. 11 11 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street, with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

TO LET—Well lighted, six-room flat, all improvements, newly decorated; centrally located. Call at Neuman Bros., Watchung avenue. 1 28 tf

FIVE-ROOM apartment, all modern improvements; central location. Inquire P. C. Thomsen, 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—Six room house and bath. Inquire 147 East Fifth street. 11 28 tf

TO LET—Six room, steam heated flat, all improvements, on Plainfield avenue near Front street; also other apartments and houses; rent reasonable. Inquire 126 Plainfield avenue. 1 29 6

TO LET—Four rooms, East Seventh street, near Berckman street. Inquire 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

APARTMENT for rent; steam heat; 95 Westervelt avenue; 6 rooms. Lamar Van Syckel. 1 6 tf tu-th-s

HOUSE for rent, 1072 Arlington avenue; 9 rooms; steam heat. Lamar Van Syckel. 1 6 tf tu-th-s

TO LET—Flat of five rooms, with improvements. Callahan & Son, Third and Richmond Sts. 1 24 tf eod

FOR RENT—No. 45 Prospect place, near Washington avenue, 8 rooms, reception hall and bath; all improvements. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 12 1 tf

TO LET—At eleven dollars, to respectable colored families, 4-room houses, with improvements. Inquire 1348 West Front street. 2 2 1d

TO LET—House, six rooms and bath. 409 Liberty street. Tel. 1560-W. 12 5 tf

TO LET—New four room apartments; improvements; 1361 and 1351 South Second street; $10.50 per month. John Herlman, 369 Somerset street; 'Phone 2512-W. 1 26 1mo

HOUSE to rent; eight rooms, all improvements; small garage. Inquire 222 Madison avenue. 1 16 1mo

SIX ROOM house to let; all modern improvements; rent reasonable. W. R. VanDerveer, superintendent, 231 East Second street, Cor. Church. 1 17 tf

FOUR-ROOM flat to let, part improvements, $10. 203 Grant avenue. 11 21 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town, rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 11 6 tf

HOUSES $12 to $50; flats, $18 to $30; stores $7 upwards. D. McInness, West Third street, Tel. 1124-W. 6 30 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT, big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, reliable help only; all nationalities, faithful service commands good situations and our fees are very reasonable; courteous treatment to all. 326 West Front street, near Grove; Phone 666. 11 26 tf

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 3 2

HANSEN'S Employment Agency, 128 Watchung avenue, corner Second street. Excellent positions furnished to reliable help of all nationalities. Telephone 2559. 1 28 6

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

MAN wishes position as butler; experienced; personal reference. 635 West Fourth street. 2 2 3

COLORED chauffeur, experienced, willing and handy; go anywhere; best reference. Address J., Press office. 2 3 2

HOUSEWORK, 25c an hour, wanted by handy colored man. 317 Liberty street. 10 28 tf

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rate; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

Of Interest to Women and the Home

The Housewife's Daily Economy Calendar

By Frances Lawrence

Avoiding Colds.

A few days ago a dispatch from Paris told of leg muffs—really loose stockings of fur to pull on over the thin shoes and silk stockings that the fashionable woman now wears. The French society woman, it appears, has been catching cold en route from her motor across the pavements to the door of the theatre or house which she was visiting. Hence the leg muff.

The styles demand some innovations to make up for their flimsiness and thinness. What would our grandmothers have thought of a young girl who braved winter weather with nothing over her arms but a layer of chiffon and a layer of whatever fabric her outside coat was made of? And what would she have thought of modern woman's house and evening frocks! They seem to have been designed for tropical wear.

However, it seems to be a fact that women in the days of our grandmothers were no whit stronger than we are today. Perhaps they were not so strong. Modern woman has solved some of the problems presented by the modern fashions, and this matter of avoiding colds is one of them.

Some Modern Virtues.

One of the biggest causes of colds is doubtless overheating; and the fashionable woman seldom becomes overheated, that is certain. If you are very hot and a sudden blast of cold wind strikes you, your doom is almost certain—you are booked for a cold.

This is a good thing to remember as spring comes on. When a warm day comes—and some of the first warm days are phenomenally warm—take off your winter coat. Wear something cool and moderately thin. If you are to be away from home all day, if possible take an extra coat with you to put on in case of a sudden drop in the temperature.

Don't cling to your furs just because you have got in the habit of wearing them. Discard them for the warm days and put them on for the cool days, but don't coddle your throat by wrapping a fur collar tightly about it.

Fresh Air.

Another preventive of colds is fresh air—and perhaps the modern woman knows its value better than her grandmother did. Even if you have felt it necessary to be a little cautious about going out of doors on cold and stormy days, try to accustom yourself to going out every day as soon as the spring begins to come.

(Copyright, 1914, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Some Cookery Suggestions

BEEF SALADS.

MEAT salads afford the housewife an easy way of using cold meat. They are delicious and nourishing. Some recipes for making beef salads are given here.

If you live where hothouse tomatoes are available the following makes an attractive and delicious salad:

Beef and Tomato Salad.—Take one cupful of chopped beef, one tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one teaspoonful of chopped onion, one-half teaspoonful of salt, six tomatoes and one head of lettuce. Mix the seasoning with the meat. Peel the tomatoes, cut off their stem ends and scoop out the seeds. Then fill the shells with the meat and arrange on lettuce leaves.

With Cold Boiled Meat.

Plain Beef Salad.—Cut half a pound of cold boiled beef into pieces an inch and a half long and as thin as possible. Put in a bowl and season with a pinch of salt and pepper. Then slice with it two medium sized boiled potatoes and a pinch of parsley. This may be dressed with either pickles or pickled beets. Some plain boiled beets may be mixed in with the other ingredients. Served with a plain French dressing it makes a nice tasting salad.

Vinaigrette of Beef.—Slice some left-over boiled beef and let it lie for an hour in a dressing made as follows: Thin one scant spoonful of mustard with vinegar and oil, enough to soak the meat in. Add salt, pepper, a pinch of chopped chervil, the same quantity of parsley and as much of taragon. Leave in the dressing at least one-half hour before serving. One may add a little chopped onion or gherkin or rub the dish in which it is served with a clove or garlic.

A French Salad.

Spiced Beef Salad.—Take some cold beef, free it from skin and bone and cut it into small dice. For each pint make a French dressing with four tablespoonfuls of olive oil, one tablespoonful of tarragon vinegar, one-half of a teaspoonful of salt and one-quarter of a teaspoonful of white pepper. Marinate the meat with it. Set aside for an hour or more that it may be impregnated with the dressing. If you have any cold vegetables pour boiling water over them to rinse off any previous sauce or dressing, drain and marinate separately with French dressing. Arrange a bed of lettuce or other green salad on a platter, pour on it the meat and garnish with the vegetables.

Anna Thompson

Valentine Was a Good, Kind Man.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—Why There Is a Saint Valentine's Day.

JACK and Evelyn had been making valentines all day, for it was the day before the 14th of February. When daddy got home that evening he found all sorts of traces of them. Bits of red cardboard and red tissue paper lay around the floor and pieces of paper were stuck together with paste.

"This does look as if you two had been having a busy day," remarked daddy.

"Oh, we have," said Evelyn. "We've just made quantities of valentines of all sizes and we'd like you to post them for us. Will you, daddy?"

"But you mustn't look at any of them carefully," added Jack.

"Oh, no," agreed daddy. "I'll post them the last thing tonight, and I won't look at any of them. I wonder if I'll get a valentine by any chance?"

Jack and Evelyn looked at each other with a knowing smile and Evelyn said:

"Wait and see, daddy. Maybe you will, though maybe you won't! Anyway, do tell us a story now, for we're wasting so much time talking."

"What I'd like to know," said Jack, "is if there ever was a person named St. Valentine and why we have St. Valentine's day."

"I've always wondered why, too," added Evelyn.

"Yes," said daddy, "there really was a St. Valentine. He was a bishop in the third century—that was many, many years ago. He was a very good, kind man and always went about doing kind things for people. But some of the Romans didn't like him, and in those days the people were cruel, and if they didn't like any one or thought he might do them harm, they had him beheaded, and Bishop Valentine, as he was then called, was beheaded.

"His friends felt dreadfully that such a good man should be so cruelly murdered, and for days they could talk of nothing else but of the good Bishop Valentine, and they'd tell one another of all his good deeds and of his love for all people and of his kindnesses. The older people would tell their children about him until before long they began to speak of him as St. Valentine, and that name clung to him.

"So that ever since then, through all the years that have passed, he has always been known as St. Valentine, and although he was so cruelly beheaded, still his deeds of charity and kindness will always be known.

"You see, that is why we send valentines around to tell people we're thinking of them and are fond of them, and we call them valentines because they're nice, thoughtful messages and are like the dear old St. Valentine."

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

LOHRMAN'S Chocolate Shop
161 EAST FRONT STREET.
High Grade Chocolates, Candies, Ice Cream and Sodas. Mottoes, Favors and Ice Cream Forms for all occasions. Orders taken for Frozen Puddings, Glaces, Mousses, Etc.

O. A. R. GARAGE
915-917 South Avenue.
Carbon removed by Oxygen method—$3 for 4 cylinder, $4 for 6 cylinder. Sole agents for Symplex Gas Savers—positively gives more power, speed and uses 25 to 50% saving.
GUARANTEED REPAIRS

Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

8004

The house dress is quite as important as the afternoon or evening gown; perhaps more depends upon its suitability.

No. 8004 is a design that is greatly favored for its simplicity and good lines. It may be made up in gingham, linen, percale, madras or any of the suitable wash materials, and as a touch of contrast the trimming bands may be of a plaid gingham if the dress is plain, or of a plain material if the dress is checked.

The blouse closes on the left side, may be made with a square or round neck and may have either a long or three-quarter sleeve; the skirt is a seven gored design and you have a choice of a habit back or an inverted box pleat.

This dress requires in size 36 4⅞ yards of 36 inch material.

The pattern is cut in 7 sizes: 34 to 46.

This Is a Perfect Pattern.

Be sure to state right size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust for dimensions.

It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15 cents in stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

COUPON

Name .....
Street and No. .....
City and State .....
Pattern No. .....
Sizes .....

A. E. Force & Co., "The White Store," carry all patterns in stock and the Daily Press recommends that its readers procure them there. They will be furnished by this paper when the orders come direct to us, through A. E. Force & Co.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SCOTCH PLAINS

and Fanwood is delivered every afternoon by carrier leaving the main office in Plainfield at 3:45. Orders may be telephone or mailed to the main office and will receive prompt attention 'Phone Plainfield 1300.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

PREPARE FOR PLAIDS.

Paris Decrees That Smart Women Must Wear Them.

BLUE TAFFETA GOWN.

The gown illustrated here is one of the most useful of spring models, for it incorporates many style hints that the wise woman would do well to note. The sleeves are set low on the shoulder, but so adjusted as to have a comfortable fullness at the elbow. The skirt has a moderate fullness, which is caught in at the side with three fancy buttons. Plaid is very prominent in its decoration. This use of plaid is one of the touches which Paris is now imparting to many smart gowns and wishes to make the fashion. Plaids will be exploited more and more as the season advances. This gown was carried out in blue taffeta with plaid silk in harmonious colors.

Paris says checks are returning to favor and plaids continue to meet the approval of smartly gowned women who need at least one such simple and practical dress as they afford.

Bright buttons a lot of contrasted trimming material or scarcely more than a frill or vestee gives the style accent.

Designers are offering attractive plain models for misses and young women, with novel features to distinguish them from the style of early winter.

Travelers' Coat Hanger.

A convenience for travelers may be made as follows:

Buy two nickel towel rack rods, with the screws, a screwdriver and gimlet. Roll together in paper and place in the trunk when starting on a journey to supply the often felt need of proper hanging conveniences.

Adjust your rod at such a distance from the back of the wardrobe that you can slip coat arms over it and give them space to hang in a straight row.

When leaving unscrew the rods and take them with you.

When this has once been tried it will always be the traveling companion and one that never indulges in moods or whims.

—You can make it PAY you to read the store ads in today's paper—make it pay you in actual savings on purchases you need to make. Try the experiment.

NEEDLEWORK

By MARGARET LAWRENCE

OLD ENGLISH INITIALS

14484

It has become a general custom to mark all household linens with either an initial or monogram. No style is more satisfactory than the Old English, for it never goes out of fashion, is easy to embroider and has a dignity which makes it appropriate with either the plainest or the most elaborate of linens. These letters should be worked in well-padded, solid embroidery and stem-stitch.

Pattern 14484 includes 42 transfers of any one initial. There are 12 each of the one-half-inch and one-inch sizes, and 6 each of the two, three and four-inch sizes. The four-inch letters are appropriate for marking sheets, blankets, bedspreads, table cloths, laundry bags and baby carriage-covers. The three-inch letters are suitable for marking sheets, pillow-cases, bath towels, luncheon and tea cloths and large dinner napkins. The two-inch initials are used on small towels, napkins, center-pieces, tray-cloths, serving table-covers, bureau-covers and the many odd small pieces of linen, while the one-inch initials are appropriate for doilies or cases, and the one-half inch letter may be used on handkerchiefs or underwear.

The Old English initials may be used singly, or two or three letters may be placed close together but not overlapped, if one prefers to use a monogram. You will get the 42 transfers of any one initial in the five sizes in one pattern, so if you wish to use a two letter monogram, order two letters and for a three letter monogram, order three letters. These will be separate patterns at 10 cents each.

Pattern 14484, any one initial, will be supplied to readers on receipt of price, 10 cents.

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

BY EARL DERR BIGGERS

Copyright, 1913, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER VI.

"From Tears to Smiles."

THE gentleman thus referred to served them genially. He brought to Mr. Magee, between whom and himself he recognized the tie of authorship, a copy of a New York paper that he claimed to get each morning from the station agent, and which helped him greatly, he said, in his eternal search for the woman. As the meal passed Mr. Magee glanced it through. Twice he looked up from it to study keenly his queer companions at Baldpate inn. Finally he handed it across the table to the haberdasher. The dull yellow sun of a winter morning drifted in from the white outdoors; the fire sputtered gayly in the grate; also Mr. Peters' falling for literature interfered in no way with his talents as cook. The three finished the repast in great good humor, and Mr. Magee handed round cigars.

"Gentlemen," he remarked, pushing back his chair, "we find ourselves in a peculiar position. Three lone men, knowing nothing of one another, we have sought the solitude of Baldpate inn at almost the same moment. Why? Last night, before you came, Professor Bolton, Mr. Bland gave me as his reason for being here the story of Arabella, which I afterward appropriated as a joke and gave as my own reason. I related to Mr. Bland the fiction about the artist and the besieging novelists. We swapped stories when you came. It was our merry little method of doubting each other's word. Perhaps it was bad taste. At any rate, looking at it in the morning light, I am inclined to return Mr. Bland's Arabella, and no questions asked. He is again the lovelorn haberdasher. I am inclined to believe, implicitly, your story. That is my proposition. No doubts of one another. We are here for whatever reasons we say we are."

The professor nodded gravely.

"Last night," went on Mr. Magee, "there was some talk between Mr. Bland and myself about one of us leaving the inn. Mr. Bland demanded it. I trust he sees the matter differently this morning. I for one should be sorry to see him go."

"I've changed my mind," said Mr. Bland. The look on his thin face was not a pleasant one.

"I have a letter to Mr. Quimby from my old friend, John Bentley," said the professor, "which I am sure will win me the caretaker's warm regard."

Mr. Magee looked at Bland.

"I'll get Andy Rutter on the wire," said that gentleman. "Quimby will listen to him, I guess."

"Maybe," remarked Magee carelessly. "Who is Rutter?"

"He's manager of the inn when it's open," answered Bland. He looked suspiciously at Magee. "I only know him slightly," he added.

"Those matters you will arrange for yourselves," Mr. Magee went on. "I shall be very glad of your company if you can fix it to stay. Believe it or not—I forget, we agreed to believe, didn't we?—I am here to do some writing. I'm going up to my room now to do a little work. All I ask of you gentlemen is that, as a favor to me, you refrain from shooting at each other while I am gone. You see, I am trying to keep crude melodrama out of my stuff."

"I am sure," remarked Professor Bolton, "that the use of firearms as a means of social diversion between Mr Bland and myself is unthought of."

"I hope so," responded Magee. "There, then the matter rests. We are here—that is all." He hesitated, as though in doubt. Then with a decisive motion, he drew toward him the New York paper. With his eyes on the headlines of the first page, he continued: "I shall demand no further explanations. And except for this once I shall make no reference to this story in the newspaper, to the effect that early yesterday morning in a laboratory at one of our leading universities a young assistant instructor was found dead under peculiar circumstances." He glanced keenly at the bald headed little man across from him. "Nor shall I make conversation of the fact," he added, "that the professor of chemistry at the university, a man past middle age, respected highly in the university circle is missing."

An oppressive silence followed this remark. Mr Bland's sly eyes sought quickly the professor's face. The older man sat staring at his plate; then he raised his head and the round spectacles were turned full on Magee.

"You are very kind," said Professor Bolton evenly.

"There is another story in this paper," went on Mr. Magee, glancing at the haberdasher, "that it seems to me, I ought to taboo as table talk at Baldpate inn. It relates that a few days ago the youthful cashier of a bank in a small Pennsylvania town disappeared with $30,000 of the bank's funds. No," he concluded, "we are simply here, gentlemen, and I am very glad to let it go at that."

Mr. Bland sneered knowingly.

"I should think you would be," he said. "If you'll turn that paper over you'll read on the back page that day before yesterday a lot of expensive paintings in a New York millionaire's house were cut from their frames and that the young artist who was doing retouching in the house at the time has been just careless enough not to send his address to the police."

Mr Magee threw back his head and laughed heartily.

"We understand one another, it seems," he said. "I look forward to pleasant companionship where I had expected solitude. Ah, here's Peters!" he added as the hermit entered through the dining room door at the side of the stairs.

"Peters," said Mr. Magee, "we have been wondering if you will stay on here and cook for us. We need you. How about it?"

"Well, I'll be glad to help you out," the hermit replied. "I guess I can manage to give satisfaction. Seem there ain't no women around here there was I wouldn't think of it. Yes, I'll stay and do what I can to assist the hermit life in your estimation, I'—

He stopped. His eyes were on the dining room door, towards which Mr. Magee's back was turned. The jaw of Peters fell, and his mouth stood wide open. Behind the underbrush of beard a very surprised face was discernible.

Mr. Magee turned quickly. A few feet inside the door stood the girl of the station, weeping no more, but radiant with smiles. Back of her was the determined, impossible companion of yesterday.

"Oh, mamma," laughed the girl, "we're too late for breakfast. Isn't it a shame?"

"From tears to smiles," said Mr. Magee, taking the girl's hand. "What worked the transformation? Not the Commercial House, I know, for I passed it last evening."

"No, hardly the Commercial House," laughed the girl. "Rather the sunshine of a winter morning, the brisk walk up the mountain and the sight of the hermit of Baldpate with eyes like saucers staring at a little girl who once bought his postal cards."

"Then you know Mr Peters?" inquired Magee.

"Is that his name? You see, I never met him in private life he was just the hermit when I knew him. I used to come to Baldpate in the summers and send his cards back to the folks at home, and dream dreams of his love story when from my window I saw the light of his shack at night. I'm so glad to meet Mr. Peters informally."

She held out her hand, but Peters, by long practice wary of women, had burdened himself with breakfast plates which prevented his clasping it. He muttered "How d'ye do?" and fled toward the door, narrowly averting what would have proved a serious collision with the large woman on the way.

"Mr. Peters meets so few of your sex in winter," Magee apologized, "you must pardon his clumsiness. This gentleman"—he indicated the professor, who arose—"is Thaddeus Bolton, a distinguished member of a certain university faculty, who has fled to Baldpate to escape the press of America. And this is Mr. Bland, who hides here from the world the scars of a broken heart."

The girl smiled brightly. "And you"—she asked.

"William Hallowell Magee," he returned, bowing low. "I have a neat little collection of stories accounting for my presence here, from which I shall allow you to choose later. Not to mention the real one, which is simple almost to a fault."

"I am so happy to meet you all," said the girl. "We shall no doubt become very good friends, for mamma and I have also come to Baldpate inn—to stay."

Mr. Bland opened wide his usually narrow eyes and ran his hand thoughtfully over his one day's beard. Professor Bolton blinked his astonishment. Mr. Magee smiled.

"I for one am delighted to hear it," he said.

"My name," went on the girl, "is Mary Norton. May I present my mother, Mrs. Norton?"

The older woman adopted what was obviously her society manner.

"I certainly am pleased to meet you all," she said in her heavy voice. "Ain't it a lovely morning after the storm? The sun's almost blinding."

"Some explanation," put in Miss Norton quickly, "is due you if I am to thrust myself thus upon you. I am perfectly willing to tell why I am here, but the matter mustn't leak out. I can trust you, I'm sure."

"The bandits of Baldpate," Magee remarked flippantly, glancing at the two men, "have their own code of honor, and the first rule is never to betray a pal."

"Splendid!" laughed the girl. "You said, I believe, that Professor Bolton was fleeing from the newspapers. I am fleeing for the newspapers—to attract their attention, to lure them into giving me that thing so necessary to a woman in my profession—publicity. You see, I am an actress. The name I gave you is not my stage name. That, perhaps, you would know. I employ a gentleman to keep me before the public as much as possible. It's horrid, I know, but it means bread and butter to me. That gentleman, my press agent, evolved the present scheme—a mysterious disappearance."

She paused and looked at the others. Mr Magee surveyed her narrowly. He wondered.

"I am to disappear completely for a time," she went on. "'As though the earth had swallowed me,' will be the good old phrase of the reporters. I am to linger here at Baldpate inn, a key to which my press agent has secured for me. Meanwhile the papers will speak tearfully of me in their headlines, at least I hope they will. Can't you just see them—those headlines? 'Beautiful Actress Drops From Sight!'" She stopped, blushing. "Every woman who gets into print, you know, is beautiful."

"But it'd be no lie in your case, dearie," put in Mrs. Norton, feeling carefully of her atrociously blond store hair.

"Your mother takes the words from my mouth," smiled Mr. Magee.

"From what part of Ireland do you come?" laughed the girl. She seemed somewhat embarrassed by her mother's open admiration. "Well, setting all blarney aside, such will be the headlines. And when the last clew is exhausted and my press agent is the same I come back to appear in a new play, a well known actress. Of such flippant things is a Broadway reputation built."

"We all wish you success, I'm sure," Mr. Magee searched his memory in vain for this "actress'" name and fame. The answer was simple. Another fable was being spun from whole cloth beneath the roof of Baldpate inn. "We have a New York paper here," he went on, "but as yet there seems to be no news of your sad disappearance."

"Wouldn't it be the limit if they didn't fall for it?" queried the older woman.

"Fall for it," repeated Professor Bolton, not questioningly, but with the air of a scientist about to add a new and rare specimen to his alcohol jar.

"She means if they didn't accept my disappearance as legitimate news," explained the girl. "That would be very disappointing. But surely there was no harm in making the experiment."

"They're a clever lot, those newspaper guys," sneered Mr. Bland, "in their own opinion. But when you come right down to it every one of 'em has a nice little collection of gold bricks in his closet. I guess you've got them going. I hope so."

"I am to disappear completely for a time."

"Thank you," smiled the girl. "You are very kind. You are here, I understand, because of an unfortunate—er—affair of the heart?"

Mr. Bland smoothed back his black oily hair from his forehead and smirked. "Oh, now"—he protested.

"Arabella," put in Mr. Magee, "was her name. The beauties of history and mythology hobbled into oblivion at sight of her."

"I'm quick to forget," insisted Mr. Bland.

"That does you no credit, I'm sure," replied the girl severely. "And now, mamma, I think we had better select our rooms"—

She paused, for Elijah Quimby had come in through the dining room door.

"Well!" he drawled. "Mr. Magee," he said, "that letter from Mr. Bentley asked me to let you stay at Baldpate inn. There wasn't anything in it about your bringing parties of friends along."

"These are not friends I've brought along," explained Magee. "They're simply some more amateur hermits who have strolled in from time to time. All have their individual latchkeys to the hermitage. And all, I believe, have credentials for you to examine."

Mr. Quimby stared in angry wonder. Professor Bolton rose from his chair.

"So you are Quimby," he said in a soothing tone. "I'm glad to meet you at last. My old friend John Bentley has spoken of you so often. I have a letter from him." He drew the caretaker to one side and took an envelope from his pocket. The two conversed in low tones.

(to be continued)

The departure of the cook or maid does not prostrate the lady who knows the efficiency of Press want ads.

And want ad-reading servants are of the desirable class.

ENTER THE OBESITY EDITOR (HE'S SOME ARTIST, TOO)

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

BORO HIGH AGAIN BEATS WESTFIELD

Nip and Tuck First Half Gives Way to a One-sided Finish.

DUNNING WAS INJURED

Boroughites Come Into Their Own in the Second Half and Put Grand Finale on Contest—Dunning the Leader in Point Gathering.

For the second time this season, the North Plainfield High School basketball team took the measure of Westfield High School five yesterday afternoon, this time on their opponent's court. The final score was 40 to 24. Many fouls were called during the game and shooting was the main feature of the last half.

The visitors had the "bad" basket in the initial period and Love could not cage a single foul shot, although many were called. Because of the very low ceiling at one end of the court the boroughites found it hard to score but managed to keep up with their opponents. Both teams showed streaks of fast teamwork that generally resulted in points, the home team scoring four points on fouls, the fine shooting of Ewing being responsible for these. North Plainfield led by two points at the end of the first half, the score being 14 to 12.

The first part of the second half was nip and tuck, the home team taking the lead by one point for a short time. Near the close of the game, Taylor and Dunning, opposing centers, were forced to retire because of injuries, their places being filled by Day and Conroy, respectively. Gilmartin also replaced Sisserson for Westfield. Ewing starred at foul shooting, scoring eight points. Van Mater and Dunning led the majority of the scoring for the Canadians, while Ewing and Pearsall divided the total between them.

The score:

N. P. H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
Van Mater, f.	5	0	10
Love, f.-c.	4	0	8
Conroy, f.	0	0	0
Dunning, c.	10	0	20
Burner (capt.), g.	0	0	0
Abrams, g.	1	2	2
	20	0	40

WESTFIELD H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
Ewing (capt.), f.	5	8	18
Pearsall, f.-c.	3	0	6
Day, f.	0	0	0
Taylor, c.	0	0	0
Sisserson, g.	0	0	0
Burns, g.	0	0	0
Gilmartin, g.	0	0	0
	8	8	24

Summary—Time of halves, 20 minutes; referee, Huber (W. H. S.); umpire, Collier (N. P. H. S.); timer, Smalley; scorer, Miss Spencer.

Score by halves:

N. P. H. S.	14	26—40
W. H. S.	12	12—24

A TWO-BAGGER.

Frank (Home-Run) Baker, the demon slugger of the Philadelphia Athletics, and Mrs. Baker are the parents of a husky boy and equally robust girl born Saturday. Baker claims they are both ballplayers and that women will be playing the National Pastime by the time his daughter grows up.

TOURNEY DELAYED.

Owing to the fact that all of the entries have not been turned in to the proper authorities the Scotch Plains bowling tourney scheduled to be opened on the Parish House alleys last night, was postponed to the latter part of the week.

—Advertise in the Daily Press

Queries, Comment and Answers

Sporting Editor:

Query—What is radium? Is it a metal, and what does it look like? What color is it and what is it used for? What would an ounce be worth?—L. S. R.

Answer—Whew! Is that all? Radium, although named as a metal, has never been found in the pure metalic state. It is obtained by a very costly process from pitchblende (which is a lead—oxide of uranium) and is known to exist only in a few places on the earth's surface. It was discovered about twelve years ago by the Curies (husband and wife, the wife being the actual discoverer) in some of their laboratory experiments in Paris. When finally procured, cheimcally pure, it is in the minutest of tiny, radiant crystals which have to be kept in platinum capsules for use. The particle which was lost or stolen late in December while being used to treat a patient with superficial cancer, was thirty-five milligrams in weight, in size about half that of a pinhead, and was worth $4,500. With all the search for the pitchblende ore that produces it there is much less than a pound troy of it in existance in the whole world today. The value of a pound, if that much can be produced, would be several millions of dollars. Physicians are experimenting, where all other remedies fail, in the hope that its use (enclosing the crystals in the tube in the diseased tissues) may prove to be a remedy in cancer.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Please inform me when the Chinese empire was made a republic and who its president is now?—L. P. E.

Answer—The revolution broke out October 10, 1911. The emperor abdicated February 8, 1912, the edict of the emperor dowager of that date directing that, from that date, all power of herself and son should be vested in Yuan Shih-Kai, the prime minister. On March 10 he was inaugurated first provision president of the republic. He was elected its first permanent president October 1, 1913, and holds that place and title—but practically seems to be ruling as a dictator. What the future of China will be as a republic many people hold in doubt.

Sporting Editor:

Query—How you you address a letter to Mr. Ford, of the Ford Motor Company?—H. J. K.

Answer—Whadaya mean, you want to leave Plainfield and get a real job? Just address your application to Henry Ford, Ford Motor Co., Detroit, Mich.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Is it lawful and possible to get a loan on some property and then taking another loan for the sole purpose of paying off the first?—B. S. F.

Answer—Certainly it is lawful. Go to some one advertising money to loan on first mortgage.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Can I have any kind and generous neighbor punished by law when he places an enticing plate of meat and poison on his ash pile, thus inviting the neighbors' dogs to partake of it, causing them to go through the streets frenzied with pain, jumping on children and other dogs? If so, answer through your columns.—W. T. A.

Answer—Yes, but why "kind and generous neighbor?" Call on the agent for the S. P. C. A.

HOPPE TO DEFEND TITLE AGAINST GEORGE SUTTON

New York, Feb. 3.—Before a select gathering of followers of the green table sport Willie Hoppe, the balkline billiard champion of the world, will defend his 18.2 balk-line title against George Sutton, the Chicago cue expert, in a match at the Hotel Astor tonight. For over a month each of the principals has been training and practicing for the big strain he will have to undergo in the match. Neither can say anything after the contest about not being in condition, as each has been doing great work in the way of preparation. Hoppe holds both the professional championship titles for 18.1 and 18.2 balkline. He has successfully defended both against the foremost of the American experts and this has led the lovers of the art of carroms to ask one another if he is not invincible. The condition of affairs is regarded as similar to that which prevailed some fifteen or twenty years ago, when "Napoleon" Ives swept all of the championships into his bag. None of the veterans of that day, not even "Wizard" Schaefer or "Student" Slosson, could wrest the titles from Ives. As a consequence there was a slump in professional matches, which prevailed until Ives' death. Followers of the game are wondering whether or not Hoppe is to repeat the page of billiard history which Ives wrote in his day.

LEALS AND N. P. H. S. MEET IN LEAGUE GAME TOMORROW

Basketball representatives of Leal School and North Plainfield High School will engage in their second Interscholastic League tussel on the Y. M. C. A. court tomorrow afternoon. The Leal School youths were defeated by an overwhelming score in their first engagement but anticipate a come-back on their home court tomorrow afternoon and the boroughites will probably have to scrap even harder for the second match.

Both teams plan to have their regular lineups in the game tomorrow afternoon and a battle royal is predicted by those who have been following the work of the rivals since the last meeting. The teams will take the floor in the following order:

LEAL	N. P. H. S.
Stewart	Van Mater
Forward.
Dickerson	Love
Forward.
Krom	Dunning
Center.
Schneider	Burner
Guard.
Harrington	Abrams
Guard.

CALENDAR OF SPORTS

TODAY.

Willie Hoppe vs. George Sutton, for 18.2 balkline championship, at New York.

Opening of annual St. Valentine's golf tournament at Pinehurst, N. C.

Jim Savage vs. Jack Dunn, 10 rounds, New York.

WEDNESDAY.

Annual bench show of Fanciers' Association of Indiana, at Indianapolis.

Opening of annual show of St. Joseph Automobile Dealers, St. Joseph, Mo.

Annual tournament of Ohio State Bowling Association opens in Toledo.

Finish wrestling match between Waldek Zbyszko and Karl Lemle, at Boston.

THURSDAY.

Opening of annual automobile show in Los Angeles, Cal.

FRIDAY.

Annual meeting of intercollegiate football rules committee at New York.

Annual indoor meet of First Regiment Athletic Association of Chicago.

SATURDAY.

Annual indoor meet of Boston Athletic Association at Boston.

European speed skating championships begin in Berlin.

Annual carnival of Canadian Snowshoe Union, at Sherbrooke, Que.

Opening of annual show of Cincinnati Automobile Trade Association.

"Sportdom Tips"

REMARKABLE RECORD.

In shutting out the Bound Brook High School girls' basketball team without a single point in a contest on the latter's court Saturday afternoon the North Plainfield High School feminine basket tossers did something that is seldom if ever turned in competition of this variety, male or feminine. Once or twice during the last few years (we don't remember very many years back) a feminine team has managed to hold an opponent to a no-field goal record but never have we heard of an opponent being whitewashed. Generally, when a team holds a rival to a scoreless field record the guarding is so close that many fouls are called but Saturday afternoon the borough girls made fewer fouls by far than did their opponents and the Bound Brook maidens had but three chances to score from the fifteen foot mark.

A GOOD SUGGESTION.

Chester L. Buckley, the Rahway official, advances a plan which he believes would put an end to all roughness in A. A. U. basketball. Buckley finds his remedy in two rules which have made collegiate basketball such an interesting pastime. His first rule would require all players to jump with one hand behind the back. Observance of this rule would put an end to all the shoving and heeling so evident when two players jump for a ball and which have caused no end of quarrels. The second rule he would introduce is that covering free throws, and which disqualifies a player after he has committed four fouls.

COMING CHAMPIONS.

Track and field competition in the Plainfield High School ranks is becoming more popular every day and indications are that the number of athletes who took part in the meet at Central High School meet in Newark, Saturday night, will be tripled for competition in the South Side High School meet next Saturday. Mann, Day and Runyon have set the pace and their schoolmates are responding readily.

SUGGESTION POPULAR.

The suggestion we made in these columns several days ago advocating an athletic meet to be held between Westfield, Plainfield, North Plainfield and Leal Schools has met with popular favor if the criticism forthcoming on every hand is an indication of the way in which it is received. All four schools are strong for the plan and although one or two may be handicapped because of the limited number of athletes they have other schools can be substituted readily.

The Herons again led the Hope Chapel team in a flight of victory Saturday night. Without the brothers the church team would probably be minus its string of victories.

Bob Fitzsimmons says that young Bob can clean up on all of the present heavyweight white hopes—including the old man himself.

Why not give up young Bobbie and let the Boxing Commission hibernate in peace?

Leal's and North Plainfield get together again tomorrow. Why not play the game behind closed gates just to pull something out of the ordinary?

Have you noticed the worried expression Ralph Smalley is wearing these days. Ralph is making preparations to corral his youngsters before the Feds get in their deadly work.

It might be well for those Battin High School girl athletes to take a glance about the country before laying claim to any State basketball records. North Plainfield High School sports a team that would be hard to beat in any competition.

W. E. Cann, physical director of the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. and referee of the basketball games played in the Company F armory in Elizabeth, got in Dutch, Saturday night, with the Seton Hall collegians. The Orange college five walked off the floor with the score tied. Every referee has his ups and downs and this is probably one of the latter for Cann. The soldier boys swear they won't can Cann, however, for he has helped them to sew up many a contest.

That Union county baseball league idea "listens" good. Why not get busy, Dorflinger, it's time to begin work again?

Why not place a feminine track meet on the interscholastic menu for the spring months? Here's a tip on the best method to swell that A. A. fund.

A local basketball team once more proved a nemesis for the Westfield High School five, yesterday afternoon. N. P. H. S. repeated the double trounciug custom inaugurated by P. H. S. earlier in the season.

Dunning's harvest of field goals has been a bright spot in the scores turned in following each of the N. P. H. S. games this season. He had an off day yesterday. Only got ten baskets. Rotten. "Jun," don't let it happen again.

North Plainfield High School athletes draw up a new constitution. They must be going to reform and lose a game once in a while.

WALTER WOOLSEY MAKING GOOD ON FRESHMAN TEAM

Walter B. Woolsey, manager of the Battin High School basketball team, of Elizabeth last year, and also center, and a member of the Elizabeth Y. M. C. A. quintet, both of which opposed the local Y. M. C. A. last season with him in the lineup, is holding down that position on the Rensselaer Polytechnique freshman five.

He was a second string man on the varsity squad but resigned to accept a regular berth on the freshman team. In a game last night the freshman walloped Troy High School 49-3, Woolsey collecting six baskets. His team has trimmed Williams College freshmen and has not as yet been beaten. Woolsey is well known locally being a conspicuous basketball performer because of his great height and basket caging ability.

K. OF C. LEAGUE.

Bayley Council pinners will play the Newark Knights in Newark tonight in a scheduled Knights of Columbus League match.

HANDICAP MEN WON ELKS' OPENING SET

Limit Players Defeated in Pool Tourney Ushered in Last Night.

Harry DeMeza and Frank Denckla u made good use of their forty-ball handicaps in the Elks' League Pool Tournament last night and managed to defeat their opponents, both of whom were limit men, in the opening round of play. William Hand pocketed but forty-four balls while DeMeza was going "pool" and Edward Hardingham rolled off all but seven of the ivory spheres necessary to finish on even terms with his rival, Frank Dencklau, the score of this match being 60—93.

The scratch men both found their handicaps too large and the cueists playing with an advantage had little trouble in winning in each case. The tournament has aroused considerable interest among the members of the Elks' Club and the matches will no doubt be keenly contested. Marcus Hoyt and Clarence Mundy, both limit men, will match their skill against Arthur H. Osmun and C. L. Crist, respectively, tonight, the latter two being handicap men.

PLAN UNION COUNTY BASEBALL CIRCUIT

Plainfield Mentioned as One of the Eight Teams for New League.

Harry Mason, who so successfully managed the Pearl A. C. of Elizabeth, on the baseball diamond last season, has proposed the organization of a Union county baseball league to operate in this vicinity next season and Plainfield has been mentioned as one of the possible contents. Besides Plainfield, Mason expects to interest Cranford, Westfield, South Elizabeth, Kenilworth and other club nines in this section and it is probable that the playing will be done on both Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

It is planned to form an eight team organization, and if the promoter is successful in his effort the championship race will be infinitely interesting one. Teams desirous of entering the league may communicate with Harry Mason, 622 Norwood Terrace, Elizabeth, N. J.

SAMUELS SIGNS.

Bill Samuels, who played first base for the Dunellen Central New Jersey League Baseball Club last season, has signed a contract with the Wilkesbarre team of the New York State League and will report March 1.

MATCH GAME OFF.

The bowling series scheduled to be rolled between the Rahway and Plainfield Elks for next Thursday night has been declared off.

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY from the fact that breakdowns will happen, no matter how high a grade of wheel you own. Unless you are exceptionally fortunate, you'll need our services as bicycle repairers par excellence sooner or later. True, you may save a mishap by letting us overhaul your machine after a long ride; but at any and all times will do the best possible for you and your wheel.

LEO ZEISEL

Bicycles, Sundries, Musical Instruments and Sporting Goods.
Temporary at 328 W. Front St.
Permanent Headquarters after March 1st, 222 W. Front St., Next Door to Proctor's.

SCHOOLBOY MEET ON PARKER FIELD

Trio of High Schools Plan to Hold Big Open Air Attraction in Near Future.

TRACK SPORT REVIVAL

Westfield, North Plainfield and Plainfield High Schools Interested in Mammoth Proposition—Local Field Affords Excellent Place.

Active steps have been started in the direction of organizing a schoolboy athletic meet to be held on Parker Field as soon as the weather permits and several High Schools in the immediate vicinity of Plainfield have become thoroughly enthused over the proposition. Taking up a suggestion offered in the columns of this paper several days ago advocating a three-cornered meet between Plainfield and North Plainfield High Schools and Leal School those interested have also communicated with Westfield High School and the support of the athletes representing this institution is assured.

Several years ago a meet between the local and Borough High Schools and Leal School was an annual event in the local sporting world but for some unknown reason the plan has been dropped of late. Leal School has but a limited number of track men and it seems possible that the private school athletic association will see fit to drop out of the proposed proposition, leaving three High Schools to fight for honors. The last year the old time meets were held in Plainfield the Leal School team handed in its resignation from the meet and Westfield was at that time proposed as a substitute but because of the waning interest in the affair no steps were taked to promote the affair the following year.

The meets were formerly held during the winter months on the Y. M. C. A. court but the fact that Plainfield now possesses one of the finest athletic fields in the State led those promoting the coming affair to turn it into an indoor meet. Plainfield and Westfield High Schools have taken an active interest in track and field sports of late and although North Plainfield High School has not promoted this branch of sport to any great degree athletes of good quality are known to exist in the borough school's ranks.

Plainfield was represented in the Central meet Saturday night and both Westfield and Plainfield will be represented in the annual meet of the South Side High School next Saturday night in Newark. The track at Parker Field will without doubt be in the best of shape inside of a few weeks and in the meantime the schools contemplate selecting committees and launching the proposition substantially.

JUNIOR TOURNEY—MAYBE.

Having held the junior golf tournament for the past two seasons with great success on the links of the Plainfield Country Club the Metropolitan Golf Association will probably award the event to the local club at its next meeting. The tentitive dates are June 23 and 24.

MAY POSTPONE GAME.

An effort is being made to postpone the basketball game scheduled to be played by the Plainfield High School five at Glen Ridge next Saturday afternoon in order to allow the basketball players to take part in the South Side High School athletic meet in Newark, Saturday night.

ELKS' GAMES TONIGHT.

Hoboken Elks will roll on the New Brunswick alleys tonight and the Elizabetheans will go to Orange for a league series.

HOW ABOUT N. P. H. S. FOR STATE TITLE?

Plum Cutting Appears to Be in the Hands of Battin High School This Year.

Battin High School feminine basketball players have announced that they are on the trail of the State feminine basketball championship honors and are making preparations to celebrate the coming of the title to Elizabeth in fitting style some time in the near future. The Battin girls have trimmed everything that has come their way in the line of opposition but the North Plainfield High School maidens are evidently a foreign element in the Union county seat.

While Battin High has cleaned up on six or seven consecutive victories the borough maidens have chalked up something like thirteen in a row and are aching to get a wallop at the Elizabetheans who hail themselves the coming champions. While Battin High may be entitled to the Union county title, and it undoubtedly is (being the only girls' team outside of P. H. S. operating in this county), North Plainfield is certainly entitled to consideration when the State plum is passed around.

TEAMS PREPARE FOR SOUTHERN FLIGHT

Big Leaguers Get Ready for Spring Training Trips.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 3.—If present plans are carried out the Chicago Cubs, at least a batch of them, will be the first major leaguers to make a getaway for the spring-training camp. The Cubs will get into condition at Tampa, and Manager Evers announces he will pilot a squad of rookies out of Chicago next Friday. The regulars will depart for the South ten days later. The Cubs are to play many exhibition games on the training trip, among them a series of six battles with Connie Mack's world's champions. Three of the games will be played in Tampa and three in Jacksonville.

Connie Mack will put the Athletics through their training paces in Jacksonville, having forsaken the old training grounds at San Antonio. By for the American League season opens the Macks will play series of games with three National League clubs, Chicago, Philadelphia and Brooklyn.

The White Sox squad will leave this city for Paso Robles, Cal., on the night of February 19. "Kid" Gleason will have charge of the Sox until the arrival of Manager Callahan, who is now with the world-touring ball players.

As for several years past the New York Giants will work out at Marlin, Texas. The team will start training under the direction of Scout Dick Kinsella on the first day of March. Manager McGraw will arrive in New York from Europe a week later and will join the team at Marlin at once.

The Cleveland American League team has shifted its training quarters from Mobile to Athens, Ga. Manager Birmingham will have a large squad in the Georgia University city, including many youngsters. Two teams will be formed and a daily battle on the diamond will be staged.

Manager Clarke Griffith will have fifty-five varieties of ball tossers under his wing when the Senators go on their spring training trip. He has made arrangements to care for that number of men at Charlottesville, Va., where the Washingtons will get in shape for the pennant race.

Charley Herzog, former Giant and present manager of the Cincinnati team, will try to whip the Red Birds into winning form at Mobile. Joe Tinker and "Miner" Brown will be missing from the Reds' lineup, having signed with the Federal league.

The first squad of Boston Red Sox will leave for the training camp at Hot Springs, Ark., on February 24 or 25. Manager Bill Carrigan will lead the advance guard, which will include four or five veterans and a large bunch of youngsters. Carrigan plans to have his entire squad, numbering 31 men, at work by March 9.

With Manager Fred Clarke in charge, the Pittsburgh Pirates will make their getaway for West Baden Springs on March 7. After a week's sojourn at the Indiana resort the players will leave for Hot Springs, Ark., where the finishing touches will be added to the spring work-out.

Groundkeeper Fred Heisman, of Detroit, has been at Gulfport, Miss., several weeks engaged in putting the training grounds in shape for Cobb, Crawford and the rest of the Tigers. Fred also has to furnish alfalfa for Manager Hugh Jennings to practice his grass-pulling stunt.

Wilbert Robinson, former coach of the Giants and now manager of the Brooklyn team, will start for the Superbas' training camp at Augusta on February 20. The Brooklyn recruits will accompany Robinson and the regulars will follow ten days later.

Branch Rickey, who was signed the latter part of last seanson to manage the St. Louis Browns, has picked St. Petersburg, Fla., as a suitable place for the Browns to get into condition. The Browns will dwell in their own "hotel," a house of 26 rooms having been built especially for them at the training grounds.

The desertion of Knabe, Brennan, Packard and Camnitz, of the Philadelphia Nationals has made a big hole in the Phillies' lineup. Manager Dooin and the advance guard will leave for Wilmington, N. C., on February 24. At Wilmington Charley will try to bolster up what now appears to be a pretty weak outfit.

Manager Stallings will take his Boston Braves to Macon, Ga., for spring training. He will have a squad of 32 men, among them three Cuban tossers.

Manager Frank Chance, of the New York Yankees, has passed up Bermuda in favor of Houston, Texas, for the training quarters of the Yanks this year. He has scheduled 30 exhibition games to be played before the opening of the championship season.

The St. Louis Cardinals have forsaken Texas as a training ground and will get into condition this year at St. Augustine, Fla. Manager Huggins and a band of rookies will leave St. Louis on February 23. The veterans of the team will leave March 1. Huggins is of the opinion that he will find several real ball players in his squad of youngsters.

COMMISSION CANNOT BAR YOUNG BOB FITZ

So Says the Old Man, and the Youngster is now Tuning up.

"They can bar me, but there will be a 'Bob' Fitzsimmons fighting," said the fifty-one-year-old maker of 370 distinct chapters in prize-ring history, pointing to his son, Robert Fitzsimmons, Jr., who, while only eighteen years of age, is three-quarters of an inch taller and pounds heavier than his father.

"That boy can whip any 'white hope' in the ring today," continued Fitz, as Robert, Jr., scattered corn to a brood of chickens in the dooryard of the family farm at Dunellen. "But what's the use of rushing the boy to work that his father can do just as well?

"I have never really taught the boy anything. He is just a natural fighter. His mother, Rose Julian, was one of the finest of women athletes, and his father three kinds of a champion at one time. He's the greatest fighting prospect I ever heard of.

"That boxing commission has as much right to stop me from earning a living in my profession as some body of men would to rule that a man couldn't shoe a horse because of being fifty-one years old, or a minister preach the Gospel because of being fifty-one years of age. I don't want to box, anyway. I want to fight. That's what I always have done and that's what 'Bobbie' will do. Probably if I had arranged to fight at the right club this boxing commission wouldn't have suddenly decided that I was too old. I offered to appear in private before the members of the commission and meet 'Gunboat' Smith, 'Jess' Willard or any man they might choose, and if I didn't whip 'em all they could bar me. Fair enough, wasn't it?"

Stripped for action, "Bobbie," a trifle high in flesh, stood beside his father, while Fitzsimmons, Sr., brought out the good points in "Bobbie" like an art connoisseur in raptures over a find of rare beauty.

"Look at the chest," said Fitz. "The boy is bigger and better than I was at his age, and at that time I had already won more than fifty hard fights. Just size up his reach. It's almost two inches greater than mine. He can't expand his chest like I can, though, because there's a little knack in it, and 'Bobbie' has never practised."

After Fitzsimmons, Sr., had punched the bag for fifteen minutes "Bob" and "Bobbie" squared off for six full three-minute rounds.

In the first round "Young" Fitz brought over his right solidly to the jaw, after falling short with a left lead. Then the veteran ring general worked on the defense, while "Bobbie" peppered him with rights and lefts at short range. Nothing about "Bobbie's" movements seemed studied. He boxed with the smooth precision suggesting intuition. Not one of "Bob's" hard rights landed cleanly, so deftly did the youngster pick off the punches. "Bob" increased speed in the second and third rounds, but "Bobbie" was fast and elusive. At no time did "Young" Fitz cease fighting to be clever. It all came together, and at the end of six rounds "Bobbie" played handball while "Bob" dressed for the street.

"Bobbie" was born in Houston, Texas, and celebrated his eighteenth anniversary on November 26. With a younger brother, Martin Carson Fitzsimmons, sixteen years old, whose middle name was suggested by his father's knockout of Jim Corbett at Carson City, Nev., a few months before the boy's birth, and Rosalie Julia Fitzsimmons, fifteen years old, "Bobbie" takes care of the live stock on the farm in Dunellen and helps his father in training.

"I want to have a few fights in the amateur ranks," said "Bobbie," "but father says that would be wasting time. Any time father wants me to box I am ready. I can't help learning lots by boxing with father, but he doesn't tell me much because he says that I am getting along too fast. Until father made up his mind to fight again I was working in a printer's office, but one day father asked me to 'cut loose' in a boxing bout we were having. Since then I have been home putting on the gloves any time father felt like exercising."

"Bob" took up his son's story with great earnestness. "Because I was more than twenty-five years old when I came to this country lots of people have urged that I should wait for several years before sending 'Bobbie' out. They forget about all the fights I had in Australia and New Zealand."

Measurements of Bob and Bob, Jr.

"Bob" Fitzsimmons.	"Bob" Fitz., Jr.
51	18
Age
5 ft. 11 in.	5 ft. 11¾ in.
Height
166	195¼
Weight
74½ in.	76¼ in.
Reach
16 in.	15½ in.
Neck
8 in.	8½ in.
Ankle
16 in.	15¼ in.
Calf
22 in.	24¼ in.
Thigh
7½ in.	7¼ in.
Wrist
11 in.	11½ in.
Forearm
13 in.	12¼ in.
Biceps
33 in.	32 in.
Waist
44½ in.	40½ in.
Chest
49 in.	43 in.
Chest expanded

ELIZABETH PINNERS HAVE A BIG NIGHT AND WIN ALL

ELKS' LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	H. S.
Jersey City	28	14	1019
Newark	25	14	1012
New Brunswick	25	14	1032
Paterson	24	18	1011
Hoboken	22	17	995
New York	21	21	1008
Plainfield	20	22	1029
Elizabeth	19	20	1057
Rahway	13	29	927
Orange	7	35	968

Pining on their home alleys last night the Elizabeth Elks captured all three of the contests rolled with Rahway, setting up marks that passed 900 in each instance.

Langton, Gathman, Maloney and Clauss all passed the double century mark and Gathman set up the best mark of the evening getting 224 pins in the first game.

The scores:

RAHWAY.
Worth	152	169	155
Schmidt	164	189	193
Langton	189	195	213
Koops	166	173	170
McCartney	181	149	153
	852	875	884
ELIZABETH.
Nolte	166	166	197
Gathman	224	173	161
Maloney	185	213	209
Clauss	187	212	180
Bock	198	167	175
	960	931	922

DUNELLEN IN ON THIS.

"Putting Dunellen on the map" will be the title of the new reel of motion picture films recently snapped by Henry Brynairski, operator at the Plainfield theatre. Brynairski recently rolled off 140 feet of film with the camera pointing at "Ruby" Robert Fitzsimmons while the latter was going through his daily training stunts and the pictures will be reproduced on the screen by a well known motion picture concern.

BACK TO SLEEPTOWN.

James Nash, the local athlete, who has been visiting his parents on West Front street, returned yesterday to his studies in Temple Institute, Philadelphia. Nash is a candidate for the backstop berth on the Temple baseball team and expects to "make good," although he is but a mere "freshie."

BOROUGHITES LEAD OFF.

Manager Julian Nevius, of the New Brunswick High School baseball team, has announced his schedule for the coming season and it includes games with North Plainfield, Plainfield and Bound Brook High Schools. North Plainfield will open the New Brunswick season at that place April 8.

GAME CALLED OFF.

The basketball game originally scheduled to be played by the local Y. M. C. A. basketball team on the Bernardsville court tonight was called off by the management of the latter team last night.

GIANTS ORDERED SOUTH.

Secretary Jack Foster, of the New York Giants, has sent out a clarion call for the first squad of Giants and they will leave for the Southern camp at Marlin, Washington's Birthday.

P. H. S. JUNIOR GAME.

A junior basketball game is scheduled to be played in the Plainfield High School "gym" tomorrow afternoon between the Grace church five and the P. H. S. Red Stars.

"BUCK" WEAVER DEAD.

Samuel H. (Buck) Weaver, famous as a baseball pitcher thirty years ago, died suddenly in Philadelphia yesterday. He played with the Philadelphia Athletics.

BRANDYWINE TOOK TWO OUT OF THREE OF THE GAMES

Brandywine bowlers took two out of the three games rolled with the Lexington quintet in connection with the Columbus Club Bowling League race last night, dropping the second contest but coming back with a rush in the third and winning by 108 pins.

Kyle knocked down 195 pins in the first game and this mark stood for the high score honors of the evening.

The scores:

BRANDYWINE.
Strappe	179	133	179
T. F. Carty	170	134	148
Sullivan	141	133	141
Kyle	195	140	143
McInerney	182	179	183
	867	719	794
LEXINGTON.
Brady	189	137	131
Green	155	134	129
King	142	138	140
James Kyle	166	161	153
E. Taylor	161	177	133
	813	747	686

BROWNLEE WINS FENCE VAULT BY A MARGIN OF TWO INCHES

Jim Brownlee captured first place in the fence vault in connection with the Y. M. C. A. junior boys' Indian League schedule yesterday afternoon covering a height of 57 inches.

The scores:

Brownlee, Omaha	57 inches
Fullerton, Iroquois	55 "
Ed. Smith, Sioux	53 "
Alf. Smith, Sioux	53 "
Drake, Omaha	50 "
Henwood, Sioux	50 "
Clawson, Wawayanda	50 "
Krausse, Omaha	48 "
Pastor, Wawayanda	48 "
Poling, Sioux	48 "
Whitford, Omaha	43 "
Angelman, Omaha	41 "
Goss, Iroquois	41 "
Wilson, Wawayanda	41 "
Little, Omaha	41 "
Townley, Wawayanda	41 "
Ellis, Wawayanda	41 "
Mehl, Omaha	41 "
Henry, Iroquois	41 "
Willett, Sioux	41 "
Cuming, Wawayanda	41 "
Johnston, Omaha	30 "

BOOM FOR ATHLETICS.

Professor Ehler Believes College Sports Should Be Broadened In Scope.

The control and regulation of intercollegiate sport furnished a fruitful theme for discussion at the recent convention of the National Collegiate Athletic association in New York. The moral and ethical value of athletics to the college student was admitted, but the means of imparting the knowledge of athletics as a physical benefit developed many suggestions of more or less value. It was asserted by Professor George W. Ehler of the University of Wisconsin that faculty control has eliminated many abuses and evils of athletics, but it has failed to develop any considerable moral force of a constructive type, except in so far as there has been recognized and made effective the paramount function of the athletic director and his associates—namely, moral leadership of a positive and virile type.

Professor Ehler pointed out that the department of physical education at all colleges should be broadened so as to include every person having anything to do with any aquatic, gymnastic or athletic activity conducted in that institution, and the association should enter upon a constructive campaign to regulate athletics. Professor Ehler in an interesting address discussed many of the phases of college athletics and quoted from a number of physical educators in support of his argument. He concluded his address with the following remarks on the present conditions and suggestions for remedies:

"The regulation of intercollegiate athletics must cease to be negative and must become positive and constructive. Instead of repressing and restricting it must encourage and promote. Regulation of athletic sport must be designed to secure the values of athletics rather than to waste time and energy in the endeavor to prevent their abuses and vices—an exploded pedagogic error."

Red Sox Training Plans.

Arrangements for the spring training trip of the Boston American baseball team have been completed. Most of the work will be done at Hot Springs Ark., where training will begin on March 9.

After three weeks there the team will leave for home on March 31, playing eleven games on the way.

Basin and Hanlon.

We know now that Millionaire Basin is behind the Baltimore Federals, but to make it perfectly clear to the readers we would like to know just how far behind. No matter how far, we'll make a little bet that our old friend Ned Hanlon is right with him.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SOMERVILLE will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon after 4:30 by Jacob Gernert, the Main street newsdealer and stationer.

THE DAILY PRESS IN LINCOLN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by E. Purvis, newsdealer.

—Something unusual for the table is always a welcome treat to the home folks. The ad-reading women does not find the problem hard.

Fast Canuck Hockeyists Who Will Play In U. S.

Photo by American Press Association.

OUTDOOR hockey is the most popular branch of this great winter game, but lack of ice prevents the sport from being indulged in regularly in many sections of the country. Consequently indoor hockey is relied on in the deciding of most league championship contests. In Canada, however, outdoor ice can be had almost all winter, and in the illustration Montreal players are seen in action. They are members of the McGill university team, which will visit the United States.

Canadians play the most expert form of hockey, but Uncle Sam's puck pushers are fast rising to be their equals.

NEWS OF THE SPORTING WORLD

Stakes at Metropolitan Tracks Fill Well.

TO WELCOME BIG TEAMS.

Fans Prepare For Returning World's Baseball Tourists—Gunboat Smith and Jess Willard Matched—Charge Dictograph Was Used to Get Federal League Secrets.

Nominations for stakes to be run at the Westchester Racing association's meeting at Belmont park next spring are contained in the Racing Calendar, just issued. All have filled well, and if only a fair proportion go to the post the racing will be of a much more interesting nature than last season.

August Belmont, Harry Payne Whitney, John E. Madden, James Butler and Jefferson Livingston are among the biggest nominators for the two-year-old stakes, such as the Juvenile, Fashion, Keene Memorial and Bonnie, but many of the newcomers to the sport have named youngsters of promise. C. K. G. Billings has two entered, colts by Peep o' Day and Golden Maxim. Gifford A. Cochran, who raced Early Rose as a two-year-old last year, will have four to pick from for these stakes, the sires being Sain, Mazagan, The Scribe and Golden Maxim. The trio entered by another beginner, Schuyler L. Parsons, are by Peep o' Day, McGee and Star Shoot, while Mrs. Payne Whitney has entered the chestnut colt New Broom, by Broomstick—Breakdown.

For the Metropolitan handicap, the feature of the meeting, the great sprinter Iron Mask is entered. There is no Whisk Broom this year, so that if he retains his form Mr. Livingston's horse is likely to be top weight. August Belmont has five in the handicap, including last year's crack three-year-old, Rockview. Harry Payne Whitney has not entered any of his three-year-olds in the handicap, but the best of these are to be found among those listed for the stakes for horses of their age.

In the Belmont Mr. Whitney has the Futurity winner Pennant, also Forum, Black Broom and Trumps, the same quartet being named for the Withers. The naming of Old Rosebud for both these stakes will make the events of paramount importance. Pennant and Old Rosebud divided the two-year-old honors last season, but never met.

As the time approaches for the return of the world's baseball tourists the plans for welcoming them back to this country assume striking magnitude. The National and American leagues will play a prominent part in order to show the benefits that will be derived from the tour, while the banquet to be held in New York on the night of March 7 promises to be the greatest event in the history of the national game. Representatives from the major and many of the minor leagues will be on hand to greet the tourists, while club owners, managers, players and others identified with the sport will make a remarkable gathering.

Managers McGraw and Comiskey and their players will have a busy time for a few days following their return. Chicago will send a delegation of over 300 baseball fans, while from St. Paul, Duluth, Dubuque and St. Louis many of Comiskey's friends will make the trip. Philadelphia, Boston, Pittsburgh, Washington, Baltimore and other eastern cities will be well represented.

Mike Bennett, the former Pennsylvania athlete, will coach the Haverford college football team next season. The coming of Bennett and the renewal of football relations with Swarthmore mean a radical change in Haverford athletics, and the two events will mark the beginning of the new era at Haverford. The former Penn star has had much experience both as a player and later as a coach.

More dates for golf tournaments are being arranged for the season of 1914. The Tuxedo (N. Y.) Golf club has asked Frederick H. Thomas, secretary of the Metropolitan Golf association, for May 28, 29 and 30, which corresponds to its time of last year, when Walter J. Travis won the chief cup, defeating the national champion, Jerome D. Travers, on the way. In fact, Thomas has done considerable corresponding with clubs wishing tournament assignments. Several letters have been exchanged between the secretary and the Garden City Golf club about the resumption of its tournament, which was allowed to lapse last year because of the national amateur championship preparations at that links. Garden City requested June 4, 5 and 6, but as that is the regular time for the New Jersey state championship it will likely get dates in the week following.

The board of control in Australia has taken action against the cricketers who plan to invade Canada and the United States next summer. It is stated that players who join the Australian team will not be permitted to play in Australia again. The board of control refuses to sanction the tour and announces that several noted players have refused to join the team. The prominent ones are Bardsley, Armstrong, Ransford and Laver. There is a report current that the trip may be abandoned.

Gunboat Smith, who claims the white heavyweight championship of America is matched to meet Jess Willard in a twenty round match on July 4 under the auspices of Coffroth's club in San Francisco, according to an agreement that was reached between Jim Buckley and Tom Jones, the respective managers of the two scrappers. Coffroth urged upon Buckley the wisdom of accepting the match, but it was not a go until Jones declared himself willing to guarantee $7,500 to the "Gunner," win, lose or draw. Willard will gamble with Coffroth on the attendance, but Jones and Coffroth feel certain the match will work itself into a big attraction.

Australian Cricketers Coming.

The Australian cricket team, which toured the United States and Canada last summer, is making arrangements for a similar tour next spring, which may include the Pacific coast as well as eastern centers.

WE DO FINE JOB PRINTING. TRY US

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office, Rowleys' Drug Store, 218 West Front St. Tel. 2081-J-2.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 1155

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 321 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street. Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

FEW FOLKS HAVE GRAY HAIR NOW

Druggist Says Ladies Are Using Recipe of Sage Tea and Sulphur.

Hair that loses its color and lustre, or when it fades, turns gray, dull and lifeless, is caused by a lack of sulphur in the hair. Our grandmother made up a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur to keep her locks dark and beautiful, and thousands of women and men who value that even color, that beautiful dark shade of hair which is so attractive, use only this old-time recipe.

Nowadays we get this famous mixture by asking at any drug store for a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," which darkens the hair so naturally, so evenly that nobody can possibly tell it has been applied. Besides, it takes off dandruff, stops scalp itching and falling hair. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, but what delights the ladies with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur is that, besides beautifully darkening the hair after a few applications, it also brings back the gloss and lustre and gives it an appearance of abundance.—Adv.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD, WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN.
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
714 Webster Place, Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1309-R.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

Over $9,000,000 in Taxes have been paid by The Prudential in New Jersey, since the organization of the Company.

Founded by JOHN F. DRYDEN — THE PRUDENTIAL HAS THE STRENGTH OF GIBRALTAR — Pioneer of Industrial Insurance in America

THE PRUDENTIAL

FORREST F. DRYDEN, President.

Safe Deposit and Storage Vaults

In a building of fireproof construction

INCREASING YOUR POSSESSIONS

may be your first business in life but it is quite as necessary to

SAFEGUARD WHAT YOU HAVE.

It has cost this Company thousands of dollars to erect its massive vaults but the security which they afford is offered to you for a nominal sum. If you will call at the bank our Officers will be glad to show you our safe deposit boxes, the smallest of which will hold many valuable papers.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Boxes may be rented for $5.00 to $150.00 a year.

THE POWLISON & JONES FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

TODAY, FEBRUARY 2, WE BEGIN OUR FEBRUARY SALE OF FURNITURE

The discontinued and unmatched pieces are taken from our regular stock and marked at prices much below their real value. The offering includes many artistic reproductions and period pieces and represent all the standard woods. Furniture that meets the needs of every part of the Home.

It's the kind of FURNITURE everybody wants and at the price concessions we make they are real bargains both in quality and price. The pieces we offer are not factory "Seconds" bought for the purpose of making a sale, but good dependable FURNITURE.

It includes DINING ROOM and CHAMBER SUITS as well as single pieces of all kinds, LEATHER COVERED CHAIRS and ROCKERS, LIBRARY TABLES, METAL BEDS and a host of odd pieces. The quality will please you and the price interest you.

We will be glad to have you visit our warerooms no matter if you wish to buy or not.

POWLISON & JONES

149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Sanitary 2100 ROTH & CO. Market 2100

Blade Cut Rib Roast, lb	14c
Sirloin Steak, lb	20c
Fresh Chopped Beef, lb	16c
Fresh Spare Ribs, lb	14c
Fresh Shoulders, lb	14c
Small Cal. Hams, lb	14c
Smoked Cal Hams, lb	12½c
Fresh Hams (regular), half or whole, lb	16c
Pigs Feet in jelly, lb	6c
Fish cakes, 3 for	5c
Legs of Lamb, lb	16½c
Hindquarters of Lamb, lb	16½c
Loin of Pork, lb	16½c
Pork Chops, lb	16½c

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.08, 5.40, 5.52, 6.27, 6.55, 7.22, 7.26, 7.41, 7.44, 7.55, 7.57, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.42, 8.59, 9.29, 9.55, 10.26, 11.27, 11.52 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.25, 2.39, 2.55, 3.12, 3.48, 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.42 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.40, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.34, 9.40, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.39, 2.58, 4.28, 7.09, 8.23, 9.55, 3.17, 4.29, 5.34, 6.57, 7.14, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.27, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.03, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8.36, 9.29, 10.26, 11.27 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.39, 2.55, 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.39, 12.58, 1.28, 2.09, 2.55, 3.17, 4.29, 5.34, 7.14, 8.13, 9.35, 9.27, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.06, 9.44, 11.27 a. m., 2.00, 5.24, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), (6.59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.32 a. m., 1.58, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.18, 9.44 a. m., 5.44 p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.32 a. m., 5.44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.12, 11.27 a. m., 12.34, (12.58 Red Bank only), (3.12 Red Bank only), 4.36, 6.25, 8.27, 11.43 p. m. Sundays—8.41, 8.52 a. m., (2.09 Red Bank only), 3.17, 8.35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.34 Saturdays only), 3.12. Sunday—9.40 a. m., 1.28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6.38, 7.39, 8.45, 10.43, 11.53 a. m., 12.42, 1.54, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 a. m. Sunday—8.45, 9.39, 9.57, 10.59, 10.43, 11.41 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.39, 4.56, 5.39, 6.39, 6.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.55, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk. 12 21 13

—It is wiser to know what a thing ought to cost before buying it; and ad-readers usually do know this.

AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S Vaudeville Front Street. 10c, 15c, 25c.

Monday Tuesday Wednesday

PAULINE

And Her Six Colored Madcaps

5 OTHER BIG ACTS

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.
Waiting room at Kensington Hotel, Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD
WEEK DAYS.

Leave Plainfield—7.45, 9.00, 11.45 a. m., 1.00, 4.00, 5.00, 7.00, 9.00, 10.20, x11.10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—8.00, 9.30 a. m., 12.00, 1.30, 4.30, 5.30, 7.30, 9.30, 10.45, x11.30 p. m.
xSaturdays only.

SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—9.00, 12.00 a. m., 2.00, 3.00, 5.00, 9.00 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—10.00 a. m., 12.15, 2.30, 4.30, 5.30, 9.30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE AND MT. BETHEL.
WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6.30 a. m., 3.00, 6.25, 11.00 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6.45 a. m., 3.15, 6.40, 11.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3.30, 6.50, 11.30 p. m.
Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.
Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30, 7.25, 11.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.40, 11.45 p. m.
Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 7.55, 12.00 p. m.
xSaturdays only.

Sundays and holidays the bus will leave Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel 9.00 a. m. instead of 6.30 a. m. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STERLING.
WEEK DAYS ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—8.45 a. m., 4.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—9.00 a. m., 4.45 p. m.
Leave Stirling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m.
8.45 a. m. bus connects with 9.27 a. m. train at Sterling, for Newark.
4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m. train at Sterling, from Newark.

An enclosed, electric-lighted and heated bus may be procured for an afternoon or evening, from The Plainfield Transit Co., to carry from 15 to 25 passengers to any point within a radius of 25 miles from Plainfield

R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. 'Phone 130, Plainfield.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take Salts to Flush Kidneys and Neutralize Irritating Acids.

Kidney and bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning scalding sensation, or setting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days. This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation. Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.

Here you have a pleasant, effervescent lithia-water drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.—Adv.

Stop! Look! and Listen!

Twenty-five desirable building lots felt at $75.00 each. Sold on terms to suit the purchaser; located at LINCOLN HEIGHTS, N. J., in a fine industrial location, near large industry in course of construction. Apply to WILLIAM J. DAVENPORT at first house west of Dunellen Car barn.

1 30 6

L. Moraller & Son

WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.

Jobbing a specialty. Estimates cheerfully given. Telephone 347-J.

1120 Myrtle Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It pays.

NECESSITY -- PRUDENCE -- CONVENIENCE

All these point the way to a Safe Deposit Box in the Manganese Vault of The State Trust Company. Necessity because the Safe Deposit Vault has long since superseded the secret hiding place. Prudence because of the maximum of protection afforded. Convenience because of ease of access.

Rentals $5 to $100 per year. Hours 8:15 to 4:30.

SERVICE

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

At the sign of the clock. 201 Park Ave.

NO WOMAN CONSIDERS---

her wardrobe complete without a pair of TAN BOOTS, heavy or light weight as her fancy dictates, but tan they must be.

We have them in all leathers.

$3.50 TO $6

M. C. Van Arsdale

127 E. FRONT ST.

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probabzly come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists
AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Free Consultation.
Hours 10 to 4:30.

J. L. BROWER

STATIONERY, BOOKS and MAGAZINES

311 PARK AVENUE

Valentines and Booklets from E. P. Dutton & Co.

Have you read?
The Initials
On the Branch
The Heart of Life

TELEPHONE 1012.

J. HIMMELFARB

Ladies' Tailor, Dressmaker and Furrier.

NOS. 309-311 NEW ST., BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH STS., TEL. 903-W.

Particular pains exercised in the making of a garment, the fitting of the same and attending properly to the little details that mean so much in the finished garment—thus satisfactions follows.

Expert workmanship and Perfect Fit Guarauteed.

I will appreciate a call and will be pleased to show styles and samples of work. Prices reasonable

---

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING
CANDIES, ICE CREAM
DAINTY LUNCH

We Give S&H Green Trading Stamps. Ask For Them

MID-WINTER CLEARANCE SALE

Pure Lard

A&P 2 lbs 25c A&P

THIS WEEK ONLY

SALMON	Red Alaska Usually 15c a can	2 cans 25c
JAPAN RICE LB 5c	IONA PEAS Usually 10c a can	8c
Marmalade	Millar's . . . a jar Hartley's . . a jar	12½c 14c
SPLIT PEAS	Green . . . . lb Yellow . . . lb	5c 4c
LAYER RAISINS Usually 10c a package	7c	FARD DATES Usually 10c a package 7c
Imported Sardines	Usually 10c a can—¼'s	8c
Evaporated Peaches a lb 6c
JELLY	The kind mother used to make Just to introduce it—a jar .	7c
Best Creamery Butter	Our Butter makes the table complete, and price pleases the purse —lb	33c

EXTRA STAMPS WITH TEAS AND COFFEES

30 Stamps with 1 lb El Ryad Coffee 35c
25 Stamps with 1 lb Ambosa Coffee 32c
20 Stamps with 1 lb Sultana Coffee 30c
15 Stamps with 1 lb very good Coffee 28c
10 Stamps with 1 lb good Coffee 25c
125 Stamps with 1 lb Very Fancy Tea 70c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Fancy Tea 60c
80 Stamps with 1 lb Fine Family Tea 50c
50 Stamps with 1 lb very good Tea 40c
40 Stamps with ½-lb packet A&P Blend Golden Tipped India Ceylon Tea 25c

19 STAMP SPECIALS AT THE A&P STORE

137-139 WEST FRONT ST. TEL. 117

THE GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TEA CO. — THE LARGEST GROCERY HOUSE IN AMERICA — 800 STORES.

Free Delivery

We Give S&H Green Trading Stamps. Ask For Them

Winslow Ice Skates Sale

An extremely low price on all skates. The following prices apply to goods now in stock:

Our $1.50 Hockey Skates, now	$1.15
Our $2.25 Hockey Skates, now	$1.55
Our $3.50 Hockey Skates (flange runner)	$2.60
Our $3.75 Hockey Skates (flange runner)	$2.70
Our 75c Lever Club	58c
Our $1.00 Lever Club	83c
Our $2.00 Rink Club	$1.43
Our $1.25 Ladies', strap heel	98c
Our $2.25 Ladies', strap heel	$1.75
Our $1.75 Ladies', strap heel	$1.25

Hockey Sticks, Pucks and Straps.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.
Two 'Phones 6—214

NO HEART STOP

for you when the fire gong sounds if you have one of our policies.

FREDERICK A. MARTIN CO.
(Successor to Elston M. French Insurance Agency)
Insurance Mortgages Real Estate
171 NORTH AVENUE Telephone 2304
The Oldest Insurance Agency in This City. 8 23 twtf

THE ONLY WAY to become familiar with local building progress is to read the Daily Press Building Page each Saturday.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.
Fair and colder tonight and Thursday; light west winds.
Max., 48; Min., 41.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 4, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

ONE WHO OPPOSES CONSOLIDATION

A. C. Pleydell Tells Board of Trade He Does Not Think People Want It.

OTHERS SPEAK IN FAVOR

Topic Cause for Discussion at Monthly Meeting Last Night—Dinner Plans for February 19 Announced. Open Meeting March 3.

Declaring that there was no political reason so far as he could see for the annexation and consolidation of the borough with Plainfield, and intimating that it was quite possible that the sentiment existent for such a merger was in the minds of but comparatively few persons, A. C. Pleydell, spoke against the proposition last night at the meeting of the Board of Trade. A. E. Force and Councilman Edmund Rushmore expressed themselves as being favorable to the scheme. Mr. Pleydell is secretary of the New York Tax Reform League and is a tax expert of New York, who lives in this city.

Decision was reached at last night's meeting to hold a general symposium at the meeting of the organization in March at which time speakers will be heard pro and con on the subject. President William Jeffery is heartily in accord with Mayor Robert Clark, jr., of North Plainfield, who believes annexation and consilidation should be effected and without further loss of time.

In the opinion of President Jeffery of the Board of Trade, the subject is one of the most important for the members of his organization to consider. In an interview which he gave the Daily Press recently President Jeffery declared that all other business should be subordinated to this matter and every member of the Board of Trade should work vigorously to accomplish the desired result.

Announcement was made last night by A. E. Force, of the dinner committee, that the catering arrangements would be in charge of Mrs. Lena Helstrom. Linner tickets were distributed to members and are now on sale at $3 each. The principal speaker at the dinner will probably be Charles H. Sherrill, former American minister to Argentine Republic. The dinner will be held in Columbus Hall on the night of February 19.

COLLEGE WOMEN PLAN TO AID KENTUCKY MISSION

Marooned in the Cumberland Valley between the mountains of Kentucky are groups of American people whose past, present and future are full of interest. During the twenty-five years following the Revolutionary War, over 95 per cent. of the emigants to this country were Anglo-Saxons. Those settling in the Cumberland Valley have been an isolated people, retrograding instead of advancing along all lines of education and civilization. The discovery of these neglected Americans has roused the sympathy and inspired the efforts of philanthropists, who are eager to give to those of their own blood some of the advantages that this country has offered freely to foreigners from every clime, who have come to our shores.

To aid the chapel at Pine Mountain is the object of the Plainfield Pine Mountain Association, who will present scenes from the Kentucky mountains, adapted by Miss Margaret W McCutchen from "The Scarborough Spoons," a story by Lucy Furman which appeared in one of the current magazines a few weeks ago. The cast is made up from some of the young women of Plainfield who have given much pleasure in dramatic representations of the College Club and Park Comedy Club.

"The Scarborough Spoons" will be presented at the Hartridge Auditorium on Friday evening, February 13 at 8:30 o'clock. Tickets are for sale by members of the association and at the door.

TEACHERS TRAINING IN BORO.

Three practice teachers from the Trenton Normal School, reported to the Somerset School yesterday for two weeks practice work in the grades. This is a part of the students' routine at Trenton and some come to the borough school every year. Those who are now at the school are the Misses Margaret Schoonmaker and Helen Elling, of Somerville, and Miss Minie Tewes, of Bernardsville.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

—Dr. Chasl L. Moore has purchased from the E. & C. Auto Sales Co., an electric lighted and electric started Reo touring car.—Adv. ***

—Neuman Brothers are selling choice butter, including Rockdale creamery at 35 cents; Rockdale print at 36 cents, and Elgin creamery at 32 cents.—Adv. ***

RECKLESS AUTOIST ENDANGERS CHILDREN

William Bousenbury, of Elizabeth, Arrested in the Borough for Speeding.

Lives of many children were imperilled in North Plainfield yesterday when an out of town automobilist drove his high powered business car at a speed of thirty-five miles an hour on Somerset street. The Somerset School was being emptied of its several hundred pupils shortly after noon and the street was thronged with girls and boys who were crossing that thoroughfare on their way home to luncheon. The automobile, running swiftly, its speed swirling clouds of dust in its wake, did not slacken its pace and the car hustled through the throng of children, fortunately without striking or injuring any of them, but causing fright and great excitement.

The car was seen by Chief Marshal George Weiss as it sped by the borough police station and he gave chase to the reckless driver immediately. Placed under arrest, the charge made against him being that of speeding his machine in front of Somerset School, the prisoner gave his name as William Bousenbury, and his address as Elizabeth. He declared that he had not realized the high rate of speed at which his car was traveling and is said to have expressed regret because of his carelessness in driving so rapidly through the street and particularly when so many school children were crossing and recrossing the thoroughfare.

Chief Marshal Weiss, as is customary in all cases where automobilists are arrested, made a charge of speeding. The prisoner was permitted to leave in his car for home after his name, address and the license number of his car had been recorded by the police. He was instructed to be present in court this morning for arraignment before Recorder Frederick Hand. He did not appear, however, and unless he surrenders himself and pleads to the charge a warrant for his arrest will be secured and served. Bousenbury is engaged in the sale of meats and is well known to butchers in this vicinity. The license number of his car is 10,745.

PLAN FOR A RECITAL IN NEW PARISH HOUSE

The first public event to be held in the new parish house of the Congregational church on West Seventh street is being planed by a committee of church workers and will be presented in the nature of a musical recital, the proceeds of which will go toward furnishing the new building. The event will be held Monday night, February 16, and the program of music will be one of the best ever presented at a function of this kind in Plainfield.

Two well-known artists have been engaged to supply the entertainment on that occasion, Miss Mary Henry, a violinist of New York city and George Carre, also of New York, a popular tenor soloist in the Tompkins Avenue church. Miss May, who is a favorite in musical circles, has consented to give a solo.

Miss Henry has many friends among the music lovers of Plainfield and her appearance will be the source of considerable interest. She has appeared here under the auspices of the Woman's Club and for several years past her work has featured the graduating exercises of the Plainfield Seminary. Appearing in the Congregational church she will render, among other numbers, two of her solos, 'Scottish Rhapsody" and "Fantasie," her own compositions.

Mr. Carre has held the position of church soloist in the New York ecclesiastical institution for the past ten years and in this period of time he has sung before thousands of people. He has been associated with a number of the leading choral societies of the country and has been a feature on programs with such famous artists as Eames, Nordica and Plancon. Miss J. R. May will accompany Miss Henry at the piano and Miss B. T. Barnes, the church organist, will accompany Mr. Carre.

The committee in charge of the affair is composed of Mr. and Mrs. Phillip S. Suffern, Miss Florella Clark, Mrs. Rufus P. Lincoln, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rice and Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Whiton.

RECORDER'S BUSY DAY.

Recorder David Campbell, of Dunellen, had a busy day yesterday, when four men who had been arrested by the marshals were arraigned before him. Two of these men, Benjamin Jones and Joseph Howard, who were arrested on the charge of pan-handling from local residences, were both sentenced to spend thirty days in the county jail at New Brunswick. Charles Howman and William Han were arraigned on drunk and disorderly charges. Recorder Campbell gave both these men a suspended sentence of thirty days.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

BURIED WITH FULL MILITARY HONORS

Detachment of U. S. Infantry Officiate at Funeral of Arthur B. Stewart.

With full military honors, three volleys being fired over his grave and "taps" being sounded by a trumpeter, the body of the late Arthur B. Stewart, who died on Sunday, February 1, at Bound Brook, was laid to rest in Hillside cemetery this morning. The funeral services were particularly impressive, a detachment of regulars, eight enlisted men, in charge of Sergeant William A. Cacciola, of G Company, Twenty-ninth U. S. Infantry, attending the funeral, the blue uniforms and the olive drab military overcoats lending a touch of color to the scene. After the firing of three volleys over the grave the impressive strains of "Taps" the synonym for "lights out," was sounded by Regimental Trumpeter H. Horowitz. The services at the grave were conducted by the Rev. J. C. Culp, of the Presbyterian church, of Bound Brook. The military detachment was from Fort Jay, on Governor's Island, New York.

The casket was draped with the American colors. The deceased was a brother of Capt. M. B. Stewart, of the Fifth U. S. Infantry, who is stationed at Plattsburgh Barracks, in New York State. The late Mr. Stewart served as an officer of a coast artillery regiment during the Spanish-American war and it was his dying request that military honors be accorded him at his funeral which was done today. The detachment of soldiery had luncheon at the Hotel Kensington and left for home on the noon train.

MRS. FRED J. LYNN IS GIVEN PLEASANT SURPRISE

Mrs. Fred J. Lynn, of Grant avenue, was given a delightful surprise party at her home yesterday afternoon in honor of her birthday. The affair was arranged by the "Eight' Card Club, of which she is a member, and was attended by twenty friends in all. She was absolutely unprepared for the descent upon her home but quickly regained her composure and made the delegation welcome.

The playing of 500 was a feature of the informal program during the afternoon. Mrs. Edward Clark was awarded first prize, Mrs. V. W. Nash, jr., second and Mrs. Augustus Laggren booby. Mrs. Lynn was presented with a handsome cut glass fern dish, bearing a large fern, as a birthday gift. The serving of refreshments concluded the afternoon's diversion.

AGED COUPLE CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Celebration of the golden wedding of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Simmons was held at their home on Berkeley Heights on Sunday. Numerous friends and relatives extended their congratulations to the aged couple on their having passed the fiftieth milestone in their happy married life. The couple have three daughters and one son. Friends of the celebrants joined in presenting them with the sum of $50 in gold pieces which greatly pleased and surprised the recipients.

Mr. Simmons is a veteran of the Morman war, having served through that famous campaign under General Hancock. Mr. Simmons is now blind. Among the guests present at the golden wedding anniversary Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas P. Rogers and their two daughters, Mr. and Mrs. John Crowe and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. William Lossee and William Simmons.

PUBLIC SCHOOL LECTURE.

The next entertainment in the public school lecture course in the Washington School auditorium is Thursday, February 5. The lecturer will be George N. Cross, who will talk on "Scotland, the Land of Lochs and Braes," the home of Wallace and Bruce. The lecture will be illustrated with a collection of beautiful stereopticon views showing wild valeys, castled crags, and cloud swept mountains, and many places in that historic land that have been made famous in history and literature. Admission will be free.

McALL AUXILIARY MEETING.

The McAll Auxiliary will hold its regular meeting tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock at the Y. W. C. A., which is considered more convenient for the members.

—Mr. Geo. H. Losey, of Westfield, has just purchased an electric lighted and electric started Reo roadster from the E. & C. Auto Sales Co., 124 Madison avenue.—Adv. ***

"THE BACHELORS" ISSUE INVITATIONS FOR A DANCE

"The Bachelors" have issued invitations for a dance to be given at the Hartridge Auditorium, Friday night, February 20, at 9 o'clock. The committee comprises C. Ames Brooks, Owen H. Fleming, William Palmer Smith, jr., and Edward M. Jeffcott.

Accompanying the invitation is the following list of 'bachelors:" Dudley H. Barrows, Albert D. Beers, DeWitt Brokaw, C. Ames Brooks, Wylie Brown, Curtis N. Browne, Clinton Burke, Marson I. Buttfield, C. C. Campbell, T. Wardner Carpenter, Robert H. Cox, Howard H. Craig, Gerald Easton, Alvin W. Fargo, William D. Flanders, J. L. Fleming, Owen H. Fleming, R. Sidney Gough, Ralph E. Hallock, John Haughey, Clement Hedman, Clinton F. Ivins, Howard G. Lapsley, James F. Middledith, James P. Murray, Percy A. Ransome, Rosewell G. Rolston, Reginald Rowland, Murray Rushmore, Walter C. Scott, W. J. Schoonmaker, J. Rex. Schoonmaker, L. B. Smith, William Palmer Smith, jr., Porter Steele, E. F. Stevenson, Earl Stockton, Linden Stuart, A. Mellick Tweedy, John Valiant, George T. VanBoskerck, Joseph Wadsworth, Willard Wadsworth, Orville G. Waring, J. D. Williams and George B. Yerkes.

ENDEAVOR UNION HOLDS RALLY AT WARREN CHAPEL

Services to commemorate the thirty-third anniversary of the organization of the Christian Endeavor Society was held in the Warren chapel parlors last night, Arthur Finkel, the president of the local Union, being in charge of the session. Rev. Joseph O. McKelvey was in charge of the devotional services.

Rev. C. C. Conover and Rev. John Y. Broek delivered short addresses, speaking on "Increase and Efficiency." Both of the clergymen told of the growth of the society since its organization. The societies of Hope Chapel, First Presbyterian, Trinity, Netherwood Reformed, Seventh-Day Baptist, Temple Baptist, Warren Chapel, First Baptist and Presbyterian church of Dunellen were present at the meeting.

President Finkel presented a short summary of the work accomplished by the local union this year and since its organization in 1905.

TRINITY DUTCH ARMS BAND SELECTS NEW OFFICERS

The annual meeting of the Dutch Arms Band of Trinity Reformed church was held last night. Officers elected for the ensuing year were A. B. Cole, president; Leslie Leland, vice-president; W. J. Trembath, secretary; George Volk, treasurer. The members elected E. D. Young as musical director, and Edawrd Guest, assistant musical director. Following the election there was a band rehearsal and later in the evening refreshments were served. Nearly every member of the organization was present at last night's meeting.

MISS GRIMES A BRIDE.

Somerville, Feb. 4.—Louis Espisoto, of New Brunswick, and Miss Sadie T. Grimes, of Somerville, were married at the Church of the Immaculate Conception, at that place, at 2 o'clock this afternoon, the ceremony being performed by the Rev. Richard T. Byan. The couple were attended by Miss Mary Murphy, of New Brunswick, and Edward L. Grimes, brother of the bride, of Somerville. The bride was attired in a becoming gown of blue eponge, with hat to match. After a brief honeymoon trip, Mr. and Mrs. Espisoto will reside at New Brunswick.

TO EXCHANGE PULPITS.

On Sunday morning, the Rev. C. W. F. Attlee, the supply at Netherwood Reformed church will exchange pulpits with the Rev. John Y. Broek, of Trinity Reformed church. It will be communion Sunday and the newly elected deacons and elders of the Netherwood Reformed church are to be installed. The Rev. Mr. Attlee will preach at the evening service at Netherwood Reformed church as usual on Sunday.

MARRIED IN THE CHURCH.

Miss Catherine Whelan and William Edmundson, who were married in this city on Wednesday afternoon, January 21, at 5:30 o'clock, were married in St. Mary's R. C. church by the Rev. Father Daniel Hogan, and not in St. Mary's rectory, as announced yesterday.

TURKEY SUPPER.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Netherwood Reformed church will serve a turkey supper at the church on the evening of Friday, February 27.

—The E. & C. Auto Sales Co., 124 Madison avenue, have just delivered to Messrs. Wyman & Haberle, contractors, a Reo business truck—Adv. ***

PATRICK BRAY DIES IN HIS 75TH YEAR

Turned First Spade of Earth When Pond's Shop Was Built.

Patrick Bray, aged 75 years, a resident of Plainfield for twenty-seven years, and who, it is claimed was the man to turn the first spade of earth when the plant of the Pond Machine Tool Works was built, died this morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. John Neylon, on Stebbins place. He had been in failing health for some time.

During his residence in Plainfield Mr. Bray had worked for twenty years at the Potter Printing Press Works, and had also been employed in other local shops as a laborer, and was considered a faithful employe. He was a communicant of St. Mary's R. C. church.

Mr. Bray is survived by three daughters, Mrs. John Neylon, with whom he lived; Mrs. Mary Meaney, of this city, and Mrs. Patrick Flaherty, of Philadelphia. The funeral will be held at St. Mary's church Friday morning at 9 o'clock and the burial will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

T. A. B. DRUM CORP GET HONORABLE MENTION

The St. Mary T. A. B. Fife and Drum Corps, of this city, was one of six similar organizations which participated in a competitive drill in Turn Hall, Elizabeth, last night, under the auspices of the Royal Fife and Drum Corps. The first prize, a handsome cup, was awarded to St. George Fife and Drum Corps, of Paterson, while the Hector Corps, of Newark, won the second prize. The Plainfielders, eighteen in number, were given honorable mention. The drill was followed by a dance in which the members of the local corps joined.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR COLUMBUS CLUB CARNIVAL

Elaborate plans have been completed for an indoor carnival to be held under the auspices of the Columbus Club in their auditorium on West Front street from February 7 to 14 inclusive. Many novelties have been planned for the occasion and the affair will probably be one of the largest of its kind ever held in this city.

Included in the complete program of events are numerous games, such as billiards and bowling, and motion picture shows. The films include scenes taken on the local streets during the business rush hours and pictures of the parisnioners coming out of St. Mary's church last Sunday morning. A meeting of the women who will assist the knights in giving the entertainment was held Monday and the committees selected for the event.

MRS. LAWRENCE SAUNDERS PASSES AWAY AT DUNELLEN

After a lingering illness, Mrs. Lillie Mae Saunders, wife of Lawrence Saunders, formerly of this city, but recently of Dunellen, died at the home of her father, Firman H. Gise, on Front street, Dunellen, this morning about 7 o'clock. Mrs. Saunders was an active member in the Dunellen Methodist church and her death was a shock to all who knew her. Besides her parents and husband, Mrs. Saunders is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lulu E. Krinic, and an aunt, Mrs. John Kinney, both of Dunellen.

The funeral will be held at the home of her father, on Front street, Dunellen, Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Rev. Dr. William Knox, pastor of the Dunellen Methodist church, will officiate. Interment will be made in Hillside cemetery.

REV. LITTLETON STURGESS.

Rev. Littleton Sturgess, for two years pastor of the Mt. Zion A. M. E. church, of this city, died Sunday night at Riverton from complications. He was a member of the A. M. E. Conference for thirty-three years, and has a son now preaching in the church of that denomination at Princeton. The funeral will be held in St. Paul's A. M. E. church, Orange, of which Mr. Sturgess was pastor for five years, and the burial will be at Orange.

SURPRISE IN STORE.

"The Balloon Dance," a novelty that is at present shrouded in mystery, will be presented by "Doc" Doyle and Daniel McCormack in their weekly reception in Debele's Hall tomorrow night. This week's affair will be one of the "surprise nights" that Doyle and McCormack are popularizing.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. A. D. SHEPARD

Well Known Plainfield Woman Passes Away at Home of Daughter in the South.

Sense of deep loss will come to a great number of people in this city and elsewhere upon learning of the sudden death of Mrs. Augustus D. Shepard. Word was received here by here son-in-law and her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John Doull Miller, of 222 East Ninth street, this morning that Mrs. Shepard has passed away last evening at the home of her son-in-law, Osborn W. Bright, at Gibsonville, N. C., where Mrs. Shepard has been residing since the death of her husband which occurred in September last. Mrs. Shepard had appeared to be in her usual good health through the past season and her friends and family had no reason to be at all anxious concerning her. The cause of death was given as heart failure.

Following closely upon the death of her husband, which occurred last September at their home, "The Gables," in Fanwood, this news will come as a great shock to a host of friends. In a short time there have thus been removed two of the most gracious and influential personalities, who have enriched the life of this community for the past forty years. Within the space of a few years Mrs. Shepard had lost, in quick succession, her sister, Miss Mary Mead, who made her home partly here and partly at Hampton Institute in Virginia, another sister, Mrs. Elinor Howells, the wife of William Dean Howells, the novelist; and a brother, Larkin Mead, the sculptor, whose home was in Florence, Italy. One brother, William Rutherford Mead, is a member of the architectural firm of McKim, Mead & White, of New York city.

The sons and daughters of the late Mrs. Shepard are Mrs. John Doull Miller, Augustus D. Shepard jr., Burritt Shepard, Rutherford M. Shepard, Frederick Shepard and Mrs. Osborn W. Bright.

Mrs. Shepard had been for many years a member of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, of this city, where she and her husband had been among the most devoted worshippers and supporters. It is not too much to much to say that there was no one in this community who possessed more personality and charm than Mrs. Shepard, and her death removes one of the most beautiful and gracious influences which this city has known.

Funeral services will be held at the home of Mrs. John Doull Miller, 222 East Ninth street, her daughter, on Friday afternoon, February 6, at 2:15 o'clock.

JACOB BLOCK DIES AFTER THREE YEARS ILLNESS

Following an illness of three years, the greater part of which time he was confined to his bed, Jacob Block died at his home on Orchard place last night. Mr. Block's condition had been considered serious from the first but he grew weaker weaker during the past two months and his death has been expected for some time.

Prior to his illness Mr. Block was employed as a shoe salesman in the store of his brother-in-law, Morris Abrams, and while engaged in this work he made a host of friends here. Several years ago he was active in social gatherings and entertainments held under the auspices of the Young Men's Hebrew Association, and his death is a source of keen regret among his many friends.

Mr. Block is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Block, with whom he made his home, three sisters, Mrs. Morris Abrams, of Grove street; Mrs. Harry Cowen, of Orchard place, and Mrs. Harris Hollander, of New Brunswick; and one brother, Morris Block, of Orchard place. The funeral was held this afternoon from his late home and interment was made in Gateville cemetery near Somerville.

FIREMEN WERE CONFIRMED.

The technicality referred to regarding the appointment by Mayor Percy H. Stewart of five new members of the local department, at the meeting of the Common Council, Monday night, was that the five men were confirmed at one time and not individually as has always been the custom in the past. The late Corporation Counsel Craig A. Marsh held that such appointments should be made individually and not collectively, but Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed contends that this is not necessary, and the five new firemen were therefore confirmed.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held tomorrow night in Room 214, Babcock building. As considerable business of importance is to be discussed, a full attendance is desired.

P. C. C. HOLDS FIRST BANQUET

Annual Meeting of Popular Club Marked by Pleasing Features.

AT COLUMBUS HALL

Presentation to Leighton Calkins, Retiring President—Trustees Elected and Reports Read—Several Fine Speeches.

Marking the retirement of Leighton Calkins as president for six years, and as a member of the board of trustees for ten years, the banquet which was held in connection with the annual meeting of the Plainfield Country Club in Columbus Hall, last night, combined to provide an enjoyable evening for the large number of members present and their guests. It was the first time that efforts were made to hold a banquet and it was such a success that it promises to be an annual feature.

During the evening there was a short business session when Julius E. Erickson, George P. Mellick, W. Lester Glenney and Charles A. Reed were elected trustees for three years and Albert D. Beers, LeRoy H. Gates and Harry C. Munger were chosen as the nominating committee for 1914. They will meet later to elect officers. It is believed that John P. Stevens will succeed Mr. Calkins as president.

One of the pleasant features of the evening, and a complete surprise, was the presentation to Mr. Calkins of two large solid silver salvers, by the trustees. They were suitably inscribed. The presentation was made by S. Durell Lounsbery, treasurer and chairman of the entertainment committee, in which he voiced the appreciation of the trustees for the valuable services given by Mr. Calkins. The latter made an appropriate response thanking his colleagues for the beautiful gift.

Mr. Calkins was toastmaster and the toasts were as follows:

"Our Club," George P. Mellick; "More About Our Club," Elliot T. Barrows; "National Lawn Tennis," Miles S. Charlock; "The Handicapped," Hugh F. Fox; "Notwithstanding Natural Handicaps," Charles A. Reed. Charles W. McCutchen, of the Park Club, who was to have spoken on "Our Neighbors Over the Brook," and George A. Chapman, the

(Continued on page 5.)

CO. K RECEIVES ORDERS TO MOBOLIZE AT TRENTON

Captain Charles A. Peterson, commander of Company K, the local citizen soldiery, received orders from Colonel Horace M. Reading, of Trenton, that the Second regiment would mobilize at Trenton Armory on Friday night not later than 8 o'clock. The local command will form in the armory early Friday evening and will proceed to the Plainfield station where they will embark on a special train, on which the three companies of Elizabeth will be included.

Orders have been issued that Company K will assemble in the armory Friday night at 6:20 o'clock preparatory to embarking on the train at 6:40 o'clock. The olive drab uniform, campaign hats, blue overcoats and russet shoes will be worn. As there will be an interesting session at Trenton all the men are urged to attend. The Quartermaster Sergeant will be in the armory Thursday night to issue and equip all men who need uniforms.

CONCERT BY MRS. H. LEWIS AND MRS. H. JOHNSON

A large audience of music lovers greeted Mrs. Howard Lewis and Mrs. Harry Johnson in their first appearance together in a recital in this city last night, the Hartridge Auditorium being well filled for the occasion with an appreciative gathering of critcs. The affair was a marked success and Mrs. Lewis, a soprano soloist, rendered her numbers in excellent voice. Mrs. Johnson rendered a number of fine selections during the evening. Aditional interest was manifest in the concert as both of the artists are residents of this city and are well known to a large circle of acquaintances.

BONNIE BURN REPORT.

Nineteen patients, ten men and nine women, were admitted to Bonnie Burn Sanitorium durig the month of January. Fourteen patients, eight men and six women, were discharged, five men and three women of this number having died. The smallest number of patients during the month was seventy. The daily average has been 74.6.

Old Glory Council, No. 62, Daughters of Liberty, will install officers Saturday night.

INVENTORY IS OVER

And many odd lots are on sale away below regular prices—as well as

The Biggest Sale of Remnants We Ever Held at Half Price

Hundreds of remnants including WASH DRESS MATERIALS, DRESS GINGHAMS, FLANNELETTES, OUTING FLANNEL, GALATEA, MUSLINS, PERCALES, APRON GINGHAMS, WHITE GOODS, CREPES, LAWNS, RATINES, TOWELING, ETC.

Lowest Prices of the Season for Women's and Misses' Ready-to-Wear Garments

Nothing talks like price—therefore no descriptions—come and see the garments.

Women's and Misses' Coats
2.50, $5, 7.50 & $10
Former Prices $7.50 to $21.50.

Women's and Misses' Suits
3.98, 8.00 and 13.50
Former Prices $8.98 to $35.00

Children's Coats.
$1, $2 and $3
Former Prices $3.98 to $7.50.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"The White Store"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

Store Opens at 8:30; Closes Saturdays at 10 p. m. Others days at 5:30.

German Valley. and Chester

Kenneth Naughright, of German Valley, is recovering slowly from injuries sustained by being kicked by a horse a few days ago.

Mrs. Mary Gillen, of German Valley, is visiting in Hackettstown.

The Chester Township Committee has let contracts as follows: For furnishing material, painting and lettering fifty-three signboards, George Mulford, $73; furnishing and painting thirty-two posts, James M. Hildebrant, $30.20; carting, digging holes, setting posts and placing signs, Milton Chambers, $25.

Reuben C. Carlisle of Chester, concluded a visit Sunday to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis, of Irvington.

Charles H. Wack, of Jersey City, was an over-Sunday visitor to his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Wack, who lives near Chester.

Miss Katherine Gardner is spending a few days with her parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Edward P. Gardner, of Chester.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Hoffman, of Mine Brook, concluded a visit Sunday to the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Frey, of Chester.

Miss Nellie Tredway, of Park Ridge, and Miss Edith Tredway, of Millburn, were week-end guests of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Tredway, of Chester.

The Young People's Society of the Chester Congregational church met last night at the home of Mrs. Daniel H. Skellenger.

Ralph Carlisle, of Stanhope was an over-Sunday guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reumen C. Carlisle, of Chester.

Harry Hoffman, of Dover, concluded a visit Sunday to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Hoffman, of Chester.

Union Made Union Stamped

The Waldorf Shoes

$2.50 and $3

All Waldorf Shoes received since January 1st, 1914, bear the official stamp of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, insuring to the wearer the best workmanship.

Sole agency for Plainfield.

SHOES FOR THE BIG FOLKS

Stuart's SHOE SHOP

SHOES FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS

215 WEST FRONT ST.

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

Westfield.

Nicholas H. Dennis, eighty-four years old, father of former Mayor J. Allston Dennis, died Monday at his home, 130 Prospect street. He had been a resident of the town for nearly fifty years. Funeral services will be held at his residence this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Fireside Council, Royal Arcanum, has offered a special prize to the member who brings in the most new members during the year. The council has set out to bring the membership of the council up to 450, and to do this fifty-one members must be secured.

The marriage of Miss Nettie Sparkman, of Westfield, to George Stiff, of Garwood, is announced to take place at the home of the bride on February 24.

Dunellen & Vicinity

Considerable trouble was experienced by Peter Benson and Bergen Naylor, of the Stryker Motor Company, on their trip from Dunellen to Trenton Monday. The machine which they were driving to Trenton, ran all right until Princeton was reached. The balance of the trip was made by trolley and the local men after notifying the owner of the automobile returned home by train.

Miss Mamie Margentino is spending a week with her cousins the Misses Musante, of New York city.

A meeting of the Past Councilors' Association of New Jersey, Jr. O. U. A. M., was held in the William G. Holton Council, Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall last night. After routine business was transacted a social time was enjoyed. Charles Tinsman, of the local council, acted as chairman of the entertainment committee.

Mrs. Henry Schneidler who has been detained at her home by an attack of pneumonia, is improving slowly.

The regular Board of Education meeting was held in the Whittier School last night. The plans for the proposed additions to the Whittier and Lincoln Schools were again before the meeting and were acted upon.

Thomas Frescoln has just completed wiring Tozze's tonsorial parlors for electric lights.

A number of the members of the local Christian Endeavor Society, connected with the Presbyterian church, attended the anniversary local union meeting held in Warren chapel, Plainfield, last night.

Bound Brook.

Mrs. John J. Campbell and daughters, Virginia and Rita, of East Bound Brook, are spending ten days at Binghamton, N. Y.

The February meeting of the Bound Brook Building Loan Association will be held this evening in the office on Maiden lane.

Miss Minnie Grenlock, of Conshohocken, Pa., is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. George Van Nostrand, of South Bound Brook.

The February meeting of the Board of Education of the Borough of Middlesex was held on Monday night. Meeting called to order by President Wirtz, Clerk Polhemus read the annual financial report, which was ordered printed, and placed in the hands of the members of the Board for distribution to the voters. Mayor Harris was present and questioned the habit of dismissing pupils during examinations, after a lengthy discussion by Principal Love and others, it was satisfactorily settled. The annual school meeting will be held on March 17.

The regular meeting of Pioneer Council, No. 58, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held in Hamilton Hall at 8 o'clock this evening.

Miss Sarah Fenner, of Plainfield, was a visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson M. Giles, at Harris Lane, yesterday.

The Mayor and Council of South Bound Brook will meet this evening in the town hall.

Harry G. Auten and family have removed from Somerville to Mrs. Peter R. Hall's house on West Franklin street.

Fred Coriell has returned to this borough after spending several months at Netcong, where he was cashier of the Citizens' Bank.

John McNeill, of Baltimore, Md., is spending some time with Dr. and Mrs. John T. Leahy, of East Union avenue.

Somerville

An organ recital will be given in the First Reformed church this evening by Miss Laura E. Hongland, assisted by the Junior choir, the proceeds being for the benefit of the latter organization.

Special exercises, in observance of Christian Endeavor Day, were held last evening at the Second Reformed church. An excellent address was delivered by Rev. Wallace H. Carver, of Matteawan, N. Y.

Miss Elsie Alpaugh has returned to New Germantown, after a visit to friends in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank L. Brokaw, formerly of this place, but now residing at Bound Brook, will remove shortly to Virginia.

A conference will be held on Friday evening between a committee of the Borough Council and the officers of Central Hook and Ladder Company and Lincoln Hose Company in reference to the collection of garbage. This matter has grown to be an expensive item in the yearly budget of the borough, and in all probability a plan will be evolved whereby the two fire companies will assume this work at an agreed sum, under contract, and thus save a considerable sum for the borough.

Raritan

Mr. and Mrs. Sol. DePaola will move from this place to Newark very shortly.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Smith, of Roselle Park, have been visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Purcell, on Anderson street.

The members of Relief Hose Company will hold their monthly meeting in their rooms on Anderson street tomorrow evening.

Rev. John S. Gardner, of Somerville, will preach at the Reformed church on Sunday morning.

'Plains & Fanwood.

A meeting of the Sunday-school teachers of the Baptist church was held at the home of the superintendent, Martin A. Korff, of Watchung avenue, Plainfield, last night. Following the regular business session, at which the routine business was transacted, a social hour was enjoyed by the teachers. Refreshments were served.

Numerous rehearsals are being held by the members of the Methodist church who are to take part in the series of tableaux which will be given for the benefit of the church the latter part of this month. At the rehearsal tomorrow night the various parts will be assigned to different members.

A number of the local people will go to Stony Hill tonight in a body and attend the dance to be given by St. Mary's church at that place.

It is understood that the three-months'-old colored baby which was found last Saturday in the big woods section of town, near the boundaries of the golf grounds, by Jesse Sargent, all wrapped up in a bundle of rough clothes without any identification marks on, and later turned over to County Physician Frank W. Westcott, has been placed in an institution.

Evart Marston, of the Parish House second basketball team, who had his nose broken in the game between the Parish House second team and the Mount Pleasant aggregation a week ago last Saturday night, is again able to participate in his favorite game without fear of undue injury to the now healed member of his face.

Mrs. L. R. Curtis, of New York city, is spending a few days with friends in town.

Miss Margaret Edwards, of Brooklyn, has returned to her home after spending several days with friends in town.

Henry Schreiner, caretaker of the J. Ackerman Cole estate, is slowly recovering from a slight stroke of paralysis.

Mr. and Mrs. James Kaufman and daughter, Mary, have returned from a stay with Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Michaels, of Murray Hill.

The Borough Council will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Fanwood fire house tonight.

The Fanwood Fire Company has accepted with regret the resignation of Harry E. Knight, who had been a member ever since his residence here.

Charles Frank, a former resident of this place, has returned to his home in Rahway after visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Gifford.

"TWENTIETH CENTURY RELIGION"

A Sermon by

Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring

"Twentieth Century Religion," was the subject of Rev. Dr. Charles E. Herring's discourse at the First Presbyterian church, Sunday night. He compared the simplicity of the religious scheme as presented by Dr. Eliot, president-emeritus of Harvard University, with that of Dr. Rainsford, who some years ago was rector of St. George's church in New York city.

He said in effect: "Dr. Eliot declares that the name 'Our Father' is the name of God which best satisfies modern thought. It follows from this that all men are brothers, and the world is a great home, at the heart of which is a love akin to mother love, for God's love is 'mother-love made infinite.' Dr. Eliot gives Christ a very high place in his thought by calling him 'The Supreme Teacher of Religion.'

"The one great omission in his beautiful and simple creed is to me a vital omission. To Dr. Eliot the sacrifice on Calvary is an unnecessary part of the Christian scheme.

"In a recent number of the New York Evening Post, Dr. Rainsford writes a letter, which is based on his recent experience in East Africa. This is the burden of the message, 'We must simplify our creeds.' He makes that apply to missionary work in Africa, where there are so many different religious denominations working to make Africa Christian.

"He contends that it is a monstrous and impossible fallacy to attempt to make these people Anglicans, Methodists, or Presbyterians. Such a thing is unthinkable to one who has lived among these people. Africa is filled with the habitations of cruelty. The parents take their dying children and the children their dying parents out of their homes into the jungle to be eaten by the hyenas. The Mahometans are with their simple religion pushing into the centre of Africa and while that religion is better than slavery, it makes the African more difficult to reach by the Christian missionary.

"Dr. Rainsford declares further that the man on the street or at home demands a simpler religion. 'We have overlaid the simple fundamental truth of the Gospel with complications of statement, that our preaching does not always reach the practical man of today.'

"If we could only forget some of our forms, exclusiveness, some petty thing that divides us from perfectly uniting us with other Christians the Kingdom of God would have greater furtherance.

"There is wonderful suggestiveness in these words of Phillips Brooks uttered on his return from Japan some years ago. 'There is no place in Japan for our thirty-nine articles, or the Westminster Confession. All we ought to do is to take Jesus Christ to Japan and leave Him with the Japanese.'"

WHERE HISTORY IS LAME.

Benefactors of the Human Race Who Get Too Little Credit.

History as it is written and as it is taught is one great panorama of wars and dynasties. It bristles with the names of doughty warriors and rulers, describes at length their struggles and achievements and dismisses the inventors and promoters of the great agencies which have made modern civilization possible, with scanty, if any, mention.

The invention of printing has had more influence upon the development of the race than any act of any ruler that the world has ever known, and more than half of those who read this will not know the inventor's name.

The men who invented and developed the steam engine did more to lighten human toil and to make possible to each of the dwellers upon earth a larger mead of comfort and enjoyment than all the generals who ever pitted men against their fellows. Hunt for their names in the indexes of your histories.

Art and literature have been broad highways to fame. The high school scholar can tell you who wrote what and when he wrote it, but ask him who built the first railroad in America and when and where it was. The magnificent Albert memorial is covered with the names of authors and painters and sculptors, but Michelangelo is there because he was an artist, not because he was an architect, and Leonardo Da Vinci because he was a painter and not because he was an engineer.—Power.

KEPT HIS SECRET WELL.

Even Scott's Son Didn't Know Who Wrote the Waverley Novels.

A Scotch newspaper having referred to the old story that Walter Scott, son of the great novelist, had never read his father's novels, the Dunfermline Court Journal reprints a letter that first appeared in its columns on Sept. 17, 1859. It was signed "Veritas," and the writer says: "From 1810 to 1833 I resided in Edinburgh and was on intimate terms with Walter Scott. Sitting together one winter evening several years before his father made the famous declaration at the theatrical fund dinner held in the assembly rooms of Edinburgh that he was the author of the Waverley novels, I put the following questions to my friend: 'Do you not really and truly believe your father to be the author of the Waverley novels, or who do you suppose the author to be?'

"His answer was: 'I have really no idea who the author is. If my father is the author he keeps the secret to himself, for none of the family knows.' And then he added, 'The moment a new novel (by the author of "Waverley") is announced my father orders a copy from his bookseller, and the whole family assemblies in the parlor in the evening to hear the novel read by myself and my sisters, each taking a turn.'

"He further added, 'When anything very droll or funny occurs in the reading of the novel my father joins most heartily in the laugh, perhaps more so than any of the family.'"

Got the Best of Carlyle.

The Rev. Thomas Alexander, a Presbyterian minister, long resident in Chelsea and well known as a brother Scot, was most anxious to know Carlyle, but had no opportunity of getting an introduction to him. One day in the King's road he saw Carlyle coming in his direction and took advantage of the opportunity by going up to the sage and saying, "Thomas Carlyle, I believe?" Carlyle's reply was, "Tom Alexander, I know!" They became good friends, and later Mr. Alexander wrote to Carlyle for a subscription toward a school building fund, and Carlyle wrote back a refusal in doggerel, whereupon Mr. Alexander replied that if he did not send him £5 he would sell his poetry to a collector or publish it. The £5 was at once forthcoming.

Naming the Picture.

The artist was of the impressionist school. He had just given the last touches to a purple and blue canvas when his wife came into the studio.

"My dear," said he, "this is the landscape I wanted you to suggest a title for."

"Why not call it 'Home?'" she said after a long look.

"'Home? Why?'

"Because there's no place like it," she replied meekly.—Glasgow Times.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

IT IS SERIOUS.

Some Plainfield People Fail to Realize the Seriousness of a Bad Back.

The constant aching of a bad back,
The weariness, the tired feeling,
The pains and aches of kidney ills
May result seriously if neglected.
Dangerous urinary troubles often follow.

A Plainfield citizen shows you what to do.

Mrs. Anthony Wahl, R. F. D. No. 1, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I had such distressing pains in my back that I could hardly stand and it was out of the question for me to stoop. I was all crippled up and I knew perfectly well that my kidneys were the cause of the trouble. A neighbor recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to me and on her suggestion, I used them. They gave me almost immediate relief and three boxes changed me from a chronic sufferer to a healthy woman. I still take Doan's Kidney Pills occasionally when a cold settles on my kidneys and they act as a preventive of any serious trouble. You may publish this account of my experience for the benefit of other kidneys sufferers."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.—Adv.

REV. DR. DAGAR TELLS HOW PEOPLE ARE "STUNG"

Rev. Dr. Forrest E. Dagar, of Temple University, Philadelphia, in which James Nash, of West Front street, is a student, interested an audience of nearly 750 people in the First Baptist church, last night, when he delivered a two hours' discourse on "Stings," under the auspices of the Matlack Bible Class. He told of the methods employed by present-day fakers to "sting" the public at large and the various ways in which the person of the twentieth century is liable to be "stung."

He outlined the clever get-rich-quick schemes practiced in the big cities and explained how many people, commonly referred to as "wise ones," were caught napping by the fakir. Dr. Dagar dealt with his subject in a manner that interested everyone present and he held the close attention of his audience from start to finish.

—Use Press Want Ads.

—It is wiser to know what a thing OUGHT TO COST before buying it; Want ad-readers usually do know this.

STYLISH RELIABLE

A LESSON IN LOGIC

"Logic," says Webster's Handy-Book, "is the science of correct reasoning."

Assuming that you are a normal man, with a normal man's likes and dislikes, you must desire to see yourself not only clothed in your right mind, but clothed in garments that are cut well, styled well and LOOK well.

What prevents you, then, from buying a suit or an overcoat that will greatly improve your appearance?

Assuming again that you are perfectly normal, your answer will probably be, "the prices are too steep," or words to that effect.

The whole thing hinges on the question of price—and that's where the Rothberg Clothes - shop comes in.

Here you get better values than the same price buys at most stores.

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's

J. B. GREENHUT, PRES. "THE BIG STORE"

GREENHUT-SIEGEL COOPER CO.
"MEET ME AT THE FOUNTAIN"

BOTH SIDES OF SIXTH AVE.-18TH TO 19TH ST.
NO CONNECTION WITH ANY OTHER STORE

"The Big Store" Has Built Its Reputation

Upon ECONOMY, Square Dealing, Good Merchandise and Good Service

These are the four corner-stones that have established GREENHUT'S in the good-will and daily life of scores of thousands of nice people who are not extravagant, and who know and appreciate the sound and sensible methods upon which this store is conducted and which contribute so largely to making it possible, here in "Economy Centre," to supply good and carefully selected merchandise, at lower prices than are possible in stores less economically conducted. The offerings announced below are possible only because of "The Big Store's" efficient methods:

MAIN BUILDING

The "Season's Supply" Sale of

Men's and Women's Gloves

Yes, that is exactly what clever men and women do, when there is a sale like this at "The Big Store"—they BUY A WHOLE SEASON'S SUPPLY—and always have fine, clean Gloves that have COST ONLY ABOUT ½ THE USUAL PRICES.

This has been a season when manufacturers had to face certain losses. "The Big Store's" representative was ready to distribute the biggest quantities that offered, IF THE PRICES WERE SMALL ENOUGH. That's the only explanation we can make of SUCH A BIG PRICE CUT as we announce for tomorrow. All fashionable styles are included, in full ranges of sizes, for men and women. Plenty of the much-wanted blacks and whites, as well as stylish colors. Many men and women will buy the kinds they want by the DOZENS. Come EARLY for the best pick.

Women's $1.50 and $2 (2- and 3-Clasp) French Kid Gloves—the genuine article from France; made of real kid; Paris-point-embroidered; over-seam-sewn; fine light skins; perfect in every way; guaranteed to fit and wear; black, tan, brown, gray, white and mode; tomorrow, a pair..... 78c

Men's Gloves—kid, cape, Mocha, chamois and suede; best English make (we agreed not to print the name of the maker, a name famous all over the world as representing the best gloves on earth). However, the name is on each pair of the gloves.
Men's $1.50, $1.75 and $2 Gloves—tans, grays, natural chamois and white chamois (washable); all perfect and in all sizes; tomorrow, a pair..... 78c

In Addition to the Above We Offer These Lines:

1,500 Pairs of Men's and Women's $1 to $2 Cape and Suede Gloves—factory "seconds," but in absolutely good condition; ready for wear; guaranteed for all practical purposes; all leathers; black, white, and colors; tomorrow, a pair..... 59c

Women's 16-Button-Length Silk Gloves—including Milanese and Tricht weave; heavy, fine cloth; full length; double finger tips; factory "seconds," but so near perfect that in most cases it is impossible to find any imperfections; black or white; when sold as perfect goods these gloves are priced 75c to $1.25; pair..... 55c

This Fine Lot of "Seconds" of Men's and Women's Kid, Cape & Suede Gloves
Tomorrow, at, a Pair 49c
From One of the Most Famous Importers in America
They are "seconds" or "menders"—which means that in their manufacture they have developed certain slight faults. But nothing to affect their wear.
And every pair has been carefully "gone over," so that you may be certain of securing an exceptional bargain, even if you decide to lay in a dozen, two dozen—yes, even three dozen for your future needs.
The maker ABSOLUTELY STANDS BY HIS GLOVES—and so do we.
We bought these gloves for a fraction of their worth, and in all sincerity we urge that you SEIZE THIS EXCEPTIONAL OPPORTUNITY. BUY AS MANY PAIRS AS YOU ARE LIKELY TO NEED FOR MONTHS TO COME AT THIS WONDERFULLY LOW PRICE.

Women's 16-Button-Length Glace Gloves—$2 quality; fine, soft, delicate skin; perfect goods; white only; tomorrow, a pair. $1.48

Women's 2-Clasp Silk Gloves—double-tipped fingers, guaranteed to outwear the gloves; black, white, tan, gray and navy; 50c quality; perfect goods; tomorrow, a pair..... 38c

A "Sample" Lot of Men's and Women's 50c and 75c Fabric Doe and Chamoilisle Duplex Gloves—in gray, natural, tan, etc.; a genuinely famous make; see the name on the button; pair..... 35c

Everybody's Going to THE BIG STORE — Double S. & H. Green Trading Stamps with Purchases Made Before 12 o'Clock—Single Stamps Thereafter

PRESIDENT NAMES HAIGHT FOR JUDGE

Wilson Disappoints Senators Hughes and Martine.

HAD HIS OWN CANDIDATES

President Assured by Them That They Will Offer No Objection to Confirmation — Nomination as United States District Judge For District of New Jersey Sent to Senate.

Washington, Feb. 4.—President Wilson sent to the senate the nomination of Thomas G. Haight of Jersey City to be United States district judge for the district of New Jersey.

While the nomination was not entirely satisfactory to either Senator Hughes or Senator Martine, each having a candidate of his own, the president has been assured by both senators that they will offer no objection to confirmation. Mr. Haight was recommended by Secretary Garrison and the attorney general.

Senator Hughes had been so earnest in his recommendation of the appointment of United States Attorney Davis to the vacant judgeship that he voiced his disappointment at the time the president first made known his intention of naming Mr. Haight.

The president expressed to both senators some embarrassment because he was obliged to choose from three candidates, all of whom were personal friends of his, but he justified his action on the ground that Secretary Garrison, who had served for many years as vice chancellor of New Jersey, was a better authority on the judicial qualifications of the candidates than either of the senators.

400 ASK MAYOR FOR WORK.

Newark Unemployed Call at City Hall in a Body.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 4.—About 400 men, representing all classes of skilled and unskilled labor, called on Mayor Haussling in the city hall and begged that work be provided for them. The men asked for a hearing, but they were told that they would have to come back later. They waited at the Broad street entrance of the building and appointed Edward Radler, Harry Joseph, Frederick Rudge, Theodore Kaiser and George Schultz to represent them. The mayor said he sympathized with them, but could do nothing and advised them to send a committee of the meeting to the board of works Thursday.

According to the municipal employment bureau, more men and women, about 4,500, have applied for work since Jan. 1 than during the entire twelve months of 1913.

FIGHTS MOTHER'S WILL.

William L. Geddes Seeks Share of $500,000 Licorice Stock.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 4.—Contending that undue influence was responsible for his mother cutting him off in her will, William L. Geddes, a son, before Judge Martin in the orphans' court began a contest of the will of Mrs. Susan L. Geddes. The estate is said to be worth half a million dollars.

Mrs. Geddes died in 1912. The estate was the fruit of the life work of her husband, Alexander Geddes, in the licorice industry here.

It is understood that the son received part of the licorice company stock from his father before his death. He is contending that his mother received the wrongful impression that the stock he received was considered his share of the estate.

DARK NIGHTS AT ALMSHOUSE.

Newton Board of Freeholders to Reduce Expenses—Cut Number of Lights.

Newton, N. J., Feb. 4.—Dark nights are promised the inmates of the almshouse here if the board of freeholders carries out the plan it has adopted in connection with its policy of reducing expenses.

At the almshouse at present there are 150 lights which burn every night, but at a meeting of the board a resolution was passed cutting down the number of lights to ninety.

CONDENSED STATE NEWS.

The First Methodist Episcopal church of Asbury Park has extended a call to the Rev. Leon Kurtz William, pastor of the Spring Garden Street church, Philadelphia.

Arthur McConachy, a farmer of Johnsonberg, near Newton, was cutting down an oak tree when he came upon a quantity of honey. He says it is the first time he ever heard of bees building their nests in an oak tree.

Since Jan. 1 the New Brunswick board of aldermen has been deadlocked by a 6 to 6 tie. Mayor Austin Scott has arranged for a meeting tonight at which he and two Republican aldermen and two Democratic aldermen will effect a compromise which will allow city business to proceed.

Mrs. E. Krauthause was badly scalded at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. R. Brown, in Egg Harbor City. Seven-year-old Willie Brown, her grandson, had tied a string to the top of a hot water boiler and playfully pulled at it. The boiler upset, and the scalding hot water was dashed over the woman.

—The merchant who, in his advertising, emphasizes ten value-giving facts to his competitor's one, uses the best sort of "strategy" to upbuild his business.

Get the Community Spirit---Patronize Home Stores

To make a city, a model city, there must be co-operation between the merchants and its citizens.

There must be reliable merchants who sell goods at a reasonable profit and who stand behind each sale.

This is called modern merchandising and being based on a foundation of truth and mutual benefit it must eventually win the confidence of the public.

Truth is the only thing that will stand.

We have learned after many years that truth pays.

We have found that the Golden Rule works wonders.

We have learned that when a house or a city is divided against itself it cannot stand.

It has been whispered that buying abroad was what started Rome on the roller coaster to destruction.

We do not vouch for the truth of that statement--but we know that Plainfield can become a great city. You can help make it so by patronizing local merchants, craftsmen and mechanics.

Let's get together! A little more team-work!

DO IT FOR PLAINFIELD!

The Business Men's Association

of Plainfield, N. J. P. O. Box 575

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

FORESIGHT

There is such a thing as looking so far ahead as to overlook the dangers close at hand. The foresight which induces an owner to take proper precautions to safeguard his property with insurance are excellent.

Yet it should require no foresight to employ us—it is as plain as daylight that this office and the companies represented are all the protection an owner needs.

REAL ESTATE
LOANS
RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

CITY OF PLAINFIELD
SEWER ASSESSMENTS.
NOTICE.

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield, held on the second day of February, A. D. 1914, by resolution adopted and approved on that date, to which resolution, and the record thereof in the office of the City Clerk, reference is hereby made and the same made a part of this notice, the Common Council did ascertain and determine that the whole amount of the costs, damages and expenses of making and constructing that definite part of the system of sewerage of the City of Plainfield already completed and constructed, and therein referred to, amounted to the sum of Seventy-eight Thousand, One Hundred and Fifty-six Dollars ($78,156), and did refer the assessment thereof and all assessments of damages and benefits in the City of Plainfield, authorized by the acts of the Legislature and the ordinances and resolutions in said resolution referred to, to the subscribers, the Commissioners duly appointed, qualified and sworn under the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the Appointment of Commissioners of Assessments to assess damages and benefits under and by virtue of the Act entitled 'An Act to provide for drainage and sewerage in cities of this State,' approved April 7, 1890, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto," approved February 8, 1905; and

WHEREAS, the ordinances referred to in said resolution include the ordinances entitled "An Ordinance to Provide for the Construction of a Further Addition to the System of Sewerage already Constructed in the City of Plainfield," Approved October 11, 1912, and "An Ordinance to Provide for the Construction of a Further Addition to the System of Sewerage already Constructed in the City of Plainfield," Approved May 7, 1913; and other ordinances and resolutions of the Common Council enacted and passed under and in pursuance of the act of the Legislature entitled: "An Act to provide for drainage and sewerage in cities of this State," approved April 7, 1890, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto.

Notice is hereby given that the subscribers, the said Commissioners of Assessments, will hold their first meeting for the purpose of making said assessments in the manner and according to the principles prescribed in said acts of the Legislature, on Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of February, A. D. 1914, at the hour of 8 o'clock P. M. of that day, in the Council Chamber, No. 149 North Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, New Jersey, at which meeting all persons interested in or affected by the said improvements will be given ample opportunity to be heard upon the subject of said assessments. The character of the work and improvements for which said assessments are directed to be made, is the making and construction of sewers and appurtenances, including house connections; and the following is a description of the streets and avenues and rights of way for sewer construction, or particular sections thereof, upon and along which said improvements were made, the lands fronting on which are required to be included in said assessments:

East Front Street, from Leland Avenue to Emerson Avenue;
Woodbine Avenue;
St. Mary's Avenue, from Jackson Avenue to Hill Street;
East Seventh Street, from the present sewer to a point 2,200 feet east of Leland Avenue;
Henry Place;
Marshall Place;
Lorraine Avenue;
Leland Avenue, from Lorraine Avenue to Woodmere Place;
Randolph Road, from Park Avenue to Woodland Avenue;
West Third Street, from Grant Avenue to Plainfield Avenue;
Plainfield Avenue, from West Third Street to West Sixth Street;
West Sixth Street, from Plainfield Avenue to Park Avenue;
East Sixth Street, from Park Avenue to Watchung Avenue;
Watchung Avenue, from East Sixth Street to East Seventh Street;
East Seventh Street, from Watchung Avenue to Berckman Street;
Berckman Street, from East Seventh Street to Midway;
Midway, from Berckman Street to Netherwood Avenue;
Netherwood Avenue from Midway to East Second Street;
East Second Street, from Netherwood Avenue to Terrill Road;
Terrill Road from East Second Street to Green Brook;
Woodland Avenue, from Randolph Road to Chetwynd Avenue;
Chetwynd Avenue, from Hillside Avenue to Woodland Avenue;
Hillside Avenue, from Randolph Road to Chetwynd Avenue;
Watson Avenue;
Leland Avenue, from East Front Street to Green Brook;
East Front Street, from Emerson Avenue to Raymond Avenue;
Prospect Avenue, from a point 953 feet east of Hillside Avenue to Woodland Avenue.

Also improvements at sewage disposal works.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., February 3, 1914.

ARMSTRONG MULFORD,
DANIEL J. COURAIN,
FRANK J. HUBBARD,
Commissioners.

2-4-11-21

EDUCATIONAL.

SECRETARIAL

ELEMENTARY, REGULAR AND SPECIAL COURSES
At

HERR'S SCHOOL

(Plainfield Business College and School of English)

"One of the most complete EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS in the State of New Jersey, devoted to BUSINESS EDUCATION."
All inquiries promptly attended to.
Call, 'Phone or Write

PROFESSOR A. S. Herr, Principal.
Woodhull & Martin Bldg., Plainfield, N. J.
m-w-f

HORTON'S Charlotte Russe

Fresh Twice Daily

325 W. FRONT ST.

Between Madison and Central Aves.

m-w-f tf

Sweater Sale Still on

Those heavy Sweaters, were $6.00, now $4.75

Fancy Vests, neat patterns; were $3.50; now $2.50

Mocha Jersey Lined Gloves; were $1.75; now $1.50

Underwear to please all men; prices right.

J. R. Blair

119 PARK AVE.

The Home of Fine Neckwear

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.08, 5.40, 5.5. 5.27, 6.55, 7.22, 7.26, 7.41, 7.44, 7.55, 7.5 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.42, 8.59, 9.24, 9.55, 10.20 11.27, 11.52 a. m.; 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.25 1.39, 2.55, 3.12, 3.48, 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25 5.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.4 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.40, 7.23, 7.58 8.52, 9.34, 9.40, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.39 2.58, 4.28, 6.09, 6.23, 6.55, 8.17, 4.29, 5.34 6.57, 7.14, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.27, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.08, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8.36, 9.29, 10.26 11.27 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.39, 3.55 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.30 10.36 p. m. Sundays—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.39, 12.58, 1.58, 2.09, 2.55, 3.17, 4.29, 5.34, 7.14, 8.13, 9.35, 9.27, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *5.06, 9.44, 11.27 a. m.; 2.00, 5.24, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), (6.59 to Easton) p. m. Sundays—5.19, (9.44 to Allentown), 10.32 a. m., 1.58, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.18, 9.44 a. m., 5.44 p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.32 a. m., 5.44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—8.41, 8.12, 11.27 a. m. 12.34, (12.58 Red Bank only), (4.12 Red Bank only), 4.36, 6.25, 8.27, 11.45 p. m. Sundays—8.41, 8.52 a. m., (2.09 Red Bank only), 5.17, 8.35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—5.41, 9.29 a. m. (12.34 Saturdays only), 3.12. Sunday—9.49 a. m., 1.28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6.37, 7.39, 8.45, 10.42 11.53 a. m., 12.42, 1.54, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 a. m. Sunday—8.45, 9.29, 9.57, 10.39, 10.43, 11.41 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.39, 4.56, 5.39, 6.39 8.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.55, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk. 12 21 1.

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

—Merchants realize that the house wives who appreciate "special sales are critical buyers—and that mere price-lure is not enough. The goods must be RIGHT.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

FEBRUARY 4TH IN HISTORY.

1824—Congress by resolution offered a ship to convey the Marquis de Lafayette to America.

1831—Baron Aymer entered upon his term of office as Governor of Canada.

1861—Provisional congress met in Montgomery to organize a Government for the Confederate States of America.

1874—Ashantee war ended with the taking of Coomassie by a British force under Sir Garnet Wolseley.

1887—Interstate Commerce Commission established.

1890—Capital of Arizona removed from Prescott ho Phoenix.

1913—Sir John Gordon Sprigg, four times premier of Cape Colony, died in Cape Town. Born in England in 1830

Plainfield, N. J., February 4, 1914.

GOOD ADVICE.

"Just because there's been a little thunder and a cloud or two in the business sky, the rabbits of business have been scurrying for shelter, and incidentally disturbing everybody else. Don't forget that this great country is all right, that we who live in it are all right, and that if we stand together we are great enough to laugh at clouds, for our prosperity is inter-dependent."

The foregoing is from "Business" published at Detroit, Michigan. It has the right ring. Why is it that we cannot all "pull together" for strengthening business conditions. There is no use talking about business being bad. It is only harmful. Is business bad? Is it not because we think so? We have all been so accustomed not only to good, but unusual business success that we think it not good now. We have had abnormal business prosperity in this country for the past ten or fifteen years. We may not be making as much as we have made in years past, but, nevertheless, we are all doing business now at a reasonable profit and conditions we are sure are looking better.

During the past year we have passed through a semi-panic. We have fought off a real panic. From this time on things must be better. They will be. Say you believe this is to be and it will help it to be. It does not make business any better, by continually saying "business is bad." Stop it. "Don't forget that this country is all right, that we who live in it are all right, and that if we stand together we are great enough to laugh at the clouds," which now are passing.

The United States is so much better than so many other countries and people, that we should all be glad that it is no worse and that we have escaped a real panic. The country has been readjusting itself to new conditions, new laws and legislation. The sunlight is breaking and old time prosperity will surely come with the dawn. Let all of us make it come the sooner by declaring that business is becoming normal again and that renewed prosperity is due, and is sure to come. There is not a reason that can be given why business should not be good in 1914. Let everybody hope and work for it and it will be.

The determination of the police to break up corner loafing, especialy on Sundays, receives the commendation of every self respecting person in the city. There are a whole lot of young fellows who seem to think that standing on a street corner and making audible remarks about passers-by is great sport. Judge DeMeza, in fining two of them three dollars each will make all of their ilk realize that while it may be "sport" to their way of thinking, he is going to do all he can to keep it from being "cheap sport." While it must be admitted that places where young men may congregate amid pleasant surroundings are few and far between in Plainfield, and that there is some excuse for their gathering on the streets, they must be taught that such gatherings must not be made the occasion for insulting others who use the sidewalks. Chief Kiely and his men are to be congratulated upon the crusade against the rowdies, and they should receive the support of every citizen who wishes to protect the fair name of the city, even to the extent of appearing in court as witnesses in case of necessity.

Senator Hennssy, of Bergen, has introduced a bill to relieve personal property, except that of railroads and banks, from taxation, also building, if the people so vote. This Mr. Hennessy says is not a single tax act. In the past year the subject matter of the Senator's bill was widely discussed and it is making many converts. Its interest is State wide and it will stand thoughtful consideration. It gives each locality the right, if the people so vote, to tax personal property or not as it chooses. Why should not the people of Plainfield for instance, decide this question for themselves?

Atlantic City and Newark are now closing their saloons on Sunday, hence legislation is immediately presented at Trenton to permit saloons to open on that day from one P. M. to midnight. Why? Six days in the week is enough for any other business, why not the saloon? The moral forces of the State should rise in might to prevent the opening of the saloon to desecrate the Sabbath and make men unfitted to think of serious things.

The Pierce tax bills introduced by the Union county Senator, are an exceptionally fine line of proposed legislation. No man in the Legislature is better informed or more earnest to enact legislation in the interest of the people than Carlton B. Pierce. More power to his good right arm.

The Union county Progressives want it distinctly understood that they are still to be reckoned with. There is going to be a big dinner of the new party at Elizabeth on February 17, at which Senator Moses E. Clapp and Miss Alice Carpenter will be the principal speakers.

THE FORUM.

Editor Daily Press:

Sir: Although Father Bogan and I are as far apart as the poles in matters of religions, I desire to add my protest to his against the vile slanders and inuendoes of "The Menace." It has never been my bad fortune to see but one copy of this miscalled newspaper, and I never wish to see another. Of all the contemptible charges made against fellow citizens of reputable life that were set forth in that number with a wealth of filth in the description, there was not a single one that invited credence. It seemed to be the effort of some person to make money by going to the extreme of sensationalism in an attempt to stir up religious hatred. I trust that no patriotic well wisher of his country will encourage its promoter by either subscribing for it or reading it.

EDWARD C. PEARSON.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

There appeared in your paper of last evening an article which stated in substance that Mrs. Elizabeth DeForest had been induced to sign a note for $250 for a man named Rudge, and that Detective Flynn had the case in hand.

As attorney for Robert K. Rudge, I desire to make the following statement of the case: Mr. Rudge, who is engaged in business in New York, came to Plainfield on business some days ago, and met W. DeWitt Stanford, whom Mr. Rudge had known for a couple of years. Mr. Stanford was desirous of getting a note discounted for $250, and asked Mr. Rudge to endorse a note, which he did. The note was also signed by Elijah Taborn. The note was then taken by Mr. Stanford to the First National Bank, where it was not discounted because none of the persons on the note were property owners in this State. Mr. Rudge then asked Mrs. DeForest if she would sign the note, explaining the circumstances to her, which she did. The note was again presented to the bank but the loan was not made, and the note destroyed. It was made known to everyone, including the bank that Robert Rudge was not to reap any nefit from the note, but was merely an accommodation endorser, lending his name to help out Mr. Stanford and Mr. Taborn. Mr. Rudge has been an acquaintance of mine for a couple of years and I know him to be a man of integrity and standing.

ROBERT NEWTON CRANE.

SESAME CLUB.

The Sesame Club will meet tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. LeRoy H. Gates, 826 First place.

CANCEL SHOW.

"Little Miss Brown," announced to appear at the Plainfield theatere, Lincoln's Birthday, has been cancelled.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

FROM THE 90 PER CENT.

We cannot make stump speeches,
Our voices are too light.
We cannot march in hobble skirts,
Because they are too tight.
We cannot be policemen,
For we would die of fright.

We cannot drop the dinner
When the fire-whistle blows.
We cannot take our babies
To the jury, goodness knows!
We'd be no good in Mexico,
We could not hit our foes.

With worry over politics,
We'd lie awake o nights.
We cannot vote for candidates
Who are such a sorry sight.
A sure seat in The Subway,
We prefer to think our "Rights."

M. W. McCUTCHEN.

MIRON & LIFSON LEASE ROTH & CO.'S BUILDING

Miron & Lifson, Elizabeth's largest furniture dealers, have leased Roth & Co.'s new building on East Front street, for a term of years, where they will open about March 1, with a full line of furniture, carpets, rugs, stoves and general housefurnishings, and judging from the success they have in Elizabeth, Plainfield will have a most up-to-date furniture establishment, where people can get almost anything in home furnishings, and they will not be compelled to travel to New York or Newark to furnish their homes.

Miron & Lifson are not newcomers in the furniture business. They started business eighteen years ago in a small store on Elizabeth avenue, Elizabeth, and owing to the increase in trade, they were compelled to look for larger quarters. In 1899 they moved to 169 First street, Elizabeth. Through hard work, courteous and honest dealings, the trade increased to such an extent that they were compelled to look for a larger store, and as there was not any large store to rent, they bought the adjoining two lots, and in May, 1901, the corner-stone for a five-story building 50x100 was laid. Four years lapsed, and the enterprising furniture concern found itself again cramped for room, and as there was not any available ground to buy they decided to extend in height and in two months' time the roof of the building was removed and two more floors added to the building, making seven stories 50x100, with steam heat, electric elevators and giving them 35,000 square feet of floor space.

Outside of Elizabeth, their trucks are delivering goods in all Union county, part of Essex, Morris, Middlesex, Monmouth counties. The firm employs a force of twenty-two men and women.

RECKLESS RAILROADING.

They Kicked on the Speed and Baggage Smashing In 1846.

A correspondent, Professor Edward L. Morse of Salem, sends the following extract from a letter written by Louis Agassiz to his mother. The letter is dated Boston, December, 1846:

"Leaving Boston the 16th of October, I went by railroad to New Haven, passing through Springfield. The rapidity of the locomotion is frightful to those who are unused to it, but you adapt yourself to the speed and soon become, like all the rest of the world, impatient of the slightest delay. I well understand that an antipathy for this mode of travel is possible. There is something infernal in the irresistible power of steam, carrying such heavy masses along with the swiftness of lightning.

"The habits growing out of continued contact with railroads and the influence they exert on a portion of the community are far from agreeable until one is familiar with them. You would cry out in dismay did you see your baggage flung pell mell like logs of wood—trunks, chests, traveling bags, hat boxes—all in the same mill, and if here and there something goes to pieces no one is astonished. Never mind! We go fast—we gain time. That is the essential thing."

And this was on the Boston and Albany! And there was baggage smashing in 1846!—Boston Herald.

TIME TO CURTAIL STUDY.

Check Brain Work When the Child Is Growing Rapidly.

As soon as a child begins to grow rapidly all intellectual exertion should be checked. Such is the theory which Dr. C. Mercier, the famous English authority on children, expresses in an article in the London Lancet. Especially when there is any family tendency to nervous or mental disorder, rapidly growing children should be withdrawn from school altogether until the period of rapid growth is over.

Mercier does not think that intellectual work at high pressure is harmful to either boys or girls as long as food, sleep and bodily exercise are sufficient, but he is sure that pressure of intellectual work in those who are growing rapidly should never be permitted, and if growth be proceeding very rapidly all intellectual work should be put aside.

Dr. Mercier insists that it is scarcely possible to give growing children too much to eat, and it should always be borne in mind that the carbohydrates—starch, sugar and fat—are mainly fuel that is burned up in producing muscular movement and that the proteins are the main elements in the formation of tissue. Consequently it is a mistake to restrict the meat ration of children.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It brings results.

Feb'y Furniture Sale

You will possibly need Furniture in the Spring. But if you wait till then to buy it you'll pay more for it, so why not take advantage of the big savings offered now? There's positively no excuse for waiting. If you don't want the goods delivered till after housecleaning time we'll store them free of charge and deliver when you are ready. Then again

CLUB PLAN PAYMENTS MAY BE ARRANGED

You can take advantage of these February selling prices; pay a little down and so much weekly or monthly, as best suits your convenience.

THE FEBRUARY SALE OF BED OUTFITS

WHITE ENAMEL BEDS, Complete with Spring and Mattress, at 6.98 8.50 10.98 14.50 16.98 23.50

SOLID BRASS BEDS, Complete with Spring and Mattress, at 16.98 24.50 37.50 49.50

BLOCH PULLMAN CARRIAGES

SOLD EXCLUSIVELY IN THIS CITY BY US.

1914 MODELS NOW ON SALE AT SPECIAL PRICES DURING FEBRUARY SALE.

Regular Price—	16.98	19.50	21.50	23.50	25.00	29.50
Sale Price	14.95	17.95	18.95	19.95	21.95	24.95

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Woodhull & Martin Co.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

WE GIVE FIVE PER CENT. PROFIT SHARING COUPONS.

PERSONAL.

Charles Baumann, of West Front street, has returned home after visiting relatives in Philadelphia.

Miss Emma J. Philpott, of Brooklyn, is visiting Miss Philpott, of 36 Norwood avenue.

Mrs. Harry Thomas, of West Front street, who has been visiting relatives in Philadelphia, has returned home.

Patrolmen Martin Flatley, Martin Welsh and Arthur McGinley, of this city, were guests at the annual ball of the Hoboken Patrolman's Benevolent Association in that city, last night.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church will hold a social Friday evening in the new parish house. The intermediate department will hold a party in the same place Saturday afternoon from 3 to 5 o'clock.

A musical entertainment will be given by the junior stewardesses of Mt. Zion A. M. E. church tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. The organist will be Miss Patsy Lander. Refreshments will be served.

The Plainfield Graded Union of Sunday-school Teachers will meet Monday afternoon, February 9, at 4 o'clock in the Y. W. C. A. Mrs. F. W. Miller, of Somerville, will have charge and the subject will be "Feats of Tabernacles."

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church will meet at the church at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, when special business will be considered. Arrangements are being made for the annual birthday social to be held on Thursday night, February 1.9

PROCTOR'S GOOD SHOW.

Absolutely different from the usual run of musical comedy productions now appearing on the valudeville stage is the one-act playlet, "A Dutch Courtship," which will be presented at Proctor's, Thursday, Friday and Saturday as the headliner of an unusualy interesting and pleasing vaudeville program. Not the least feature of "A Dutch Courtship" is the reproduction of the quaint Dutch costumes and the quainter manners of the Dutch peasant folk. "The Battle of San Dago" offered by Sherman DeForrest and Company, is the laugh getter of the program. A scream from start to finish. Other features of the program include the Musical Coattas, introducing instrumental novelties and a "Morning in Bellville," in which figure their $2,500 revolving electrical chimes, the sensation of the musical world; Mlle. Salaya, European novelty acrobat; Yerrick and Pease, in a variety of varieties, and Lillian Price and Her Harmony Boys, constituting a mirthful, musical mixed quartet.

CHURCHMEN HEAR FINE SPEECHES AT BANQUET

Somerville, Feb. 4—Former Judge Clarence E. Case presided at the annual dinner given last night at the First Reformed church, in Somerville. Grace was asked by Rev. Dr. E. G. Read, of Plainfield, formerly pastor of the Second Reformed church here. The dinner was served under the supervision of Mrs. Austin Moore. Toastmaster Case read a letter received from the pastor, Rev. Dr. William S. Crammer, who is in Florida, recuperating from a severe illness. The letter aroused much enthusiasm, couched as it was in the pastor's usual inimitable and happy way. George A. Post spoke to the toast "Neighbor." James T. McCleary, of Minnesota, and a former Assistant Postmaster General, also spoke, as did Dr. Louis Bevier, of New Brunswick.

The music at the dinner was under the auspices of Herman Jungmann. W. H. Morehead contributed musical selections. The singing of the quartet, composed of F. L. Brokaw, Russell S. Bailey and George Gillespie, of Bound Brook, and William Lutz, of New Brunswick, was greatly enjoyed. The dinner committee was Charles W. Moore, Herman F. Moosbrugger, Albert E. Carr and Lloyd Vosseller.

VOTERS WILL DECIDE QUESTION OF APPROPRIATION

An additional appropriation of $10,000 was asked for by the Dunellen Board of Education at is regular monthly business meeting held in the Whittier School, Dunellen, last night, for carrying out the proposed plans of erecting additions to the Lincoln and Whittier Schools. Plans for the issuing of a call for a meeting of the voters was discussed and authorized. This meeting has been set for Tuesday evening, February 17, and will be held in the assembly hall of the Whittier School.

At that time the legal residents of the town will decide whether the appropriation should be granted or not.

It was also decided to rescind the previous appropriation of $23,0000 and a new call will be issued for $33,000 which will be the cost of all the changes to be made in the local school property. The new division of the funds will be, $7,000 for the Whittier School and $26,000 for the Lincoln school. It was also reported at the meeting that the State Board of Education had approved the plans for the changes to the Lincoln School and their report on the changes to be made to the Whittier School would be forthcoming within a few days.

CHORAL SOCIETY CONCERT.

The Korulimo Choral Society, organized last fall by the Korulimo Bible Class, of the First Presbyterian church, is to become a permanent organization. Tom Daniel, a well known musician and singer of New York, will be the conductor at the initial concert to be held tomorrow evening in Hartridge Auditorium. An especially fine program, consisting of choruses and quartets, has been arranged for.

—Advertise in the Daily Press

Follow the Crowd to the

Park Ave. Baptist Church

Tomorrow Night

SUBJECT--"LAUGHTER"

DOANE'S KIDNEY PILLS 45c.

Genuine English COLTS FOOT ROCK in sticks

COUGH CORDIAL

Something different in the way of cough medicine. Prompt relief after first doses.

SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists
PARK AVE., COR. SECOND ST.

Headquarters for

GIBSON'S

RYE

E. C. WESCOTT.

115 East Front Street.

THE THREE COMPONENT PARTS

of our banking service are accuracy, courtesy and promptness.

We extend to you every banking privilege consistent with sound, conservative business

Your account subject to check (large or small) is cordially invited.

3% INTEREST ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS OF $500.00 AND ABOVE

4% INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS OF $10.00 AND ABOVE

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK

OF PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Capital $150,000.00 Surplus and Profits $300,000.00 (all earned)

Inventory Sale

Final Reductions On All Millinery

Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats, Fancy Feathers, Wings, etc., at prices that represent MUCH LESS THAN HALF FORMER PRICES.

Our Trimmed Hats are all made in our own workroom. We trim them with a view of pleasing the individual person.

Therefore this announcement of such sacrificing reductions should appeal to you.

See Window Display and note prices on each Hat and Trimmings.

ROSENTHAL'S
210 WEST FRONT ST.
2 Doors From Proctor's

Always Say "No!"

—when the grocer hands you a substitute for KLEEN-MAID Bread. None other "will do"; none other is so absolutely reliable, so full of crisp flavor and the nutty richness of the wheat!

KLEEN-MAID BREAD

is like all other good things—it has imitations, but, like all imitations, they can't compare with the original. KLEEN-MAID is the genuine. It will save you hours of sweltering labor; and all at a gain to the family in health and appetite. Rest for the children.

Clean and Pure—10c and 5c a Loaf

Zeek Baking Co.

Copyright 1913

The Smile That Won't Come Off

is always worn by the thrifty housewife who uses a

"WHITE DAISY" WASHING MACHINE
Ball Bearings
$9.00
or a
"WHITE LILY" WASHING MACHINE
$7 50

and has her washing done before breakfast. For sale by

Gayle Hardware Co.
GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS
'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

Attend the Remarkable
FUR SALE
of
Charles Kurtzman Furs of Quality
178 E Front St
DR. PITTIS OFFICE BUILDING

AT ONCE! CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN, HEAD COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

Breathe Freely! Clears Stuffed-up, Inflamed Nose and Head and Stops Catarrhal Discharge—Cures Dull Headache.

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it. Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely. Dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear. Adv.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD.

JAMES R. MANN.

Representative Who Helps to Defeat Anti-Asiatic Bills.

Led by the patriotic speeches of Representatives Mann, Sabath and Rainey of Illinois and Sherley of Kentucky, the house overwhelmingly defeated all amendments to the pending immigration bill looking to the exclusion of Asiatics. An amendment proposed by Representative Raker of California to exclude all persons living east of a line drawn through the Red sea and the Ural mountains was beaten by a vote of 182 to 6 and was followed immediately by the defeat of the Hayes amendment excluding all representatives of the brown, black and yellow races by a vote of 204 to 54.

HOUSE VOTES DOWN JAPANESE EXCLUSION

Pressure by Administration Causes Quick Change.

Washington, Feb. 4.—As a result of influence brought to bear by President Wilson and his advisers, the danger of Japanese exclusion legislation has been avoided for the present. The house recalled by an overwhelming vote the amendment which it incorporated in the Burnett immigration bill providing for exclusion of Asiatics, including the Japanese.

Republicans joined Democrats in pleading with the house to ignore the exclusion question in order that the administration might proceed with its diplomatic negotiations with some hope that the differences between the two countries will be adjusted. The house thereupon reversed itself, and it is predicted that as a result no further effort will be made in congress at this time to bring the exclusion question forward.

Administration leaders were greatly concerned when they were informed of the action of the house in adopting the Lenroot amendment excluding Asiatics. While the amendment specifically provided that the proposed legislation should not affect treaty obligations and therefore did not change the status of this government's relations with Japan, the administration felt that the action might be misunderstood in Tokyo and cause great irritation. Leaders of the administration immediately got busy, and the results appeared in the vote taken by the house.

The debate was one of the most stirring witnessed in the house this season. Regardless of party members vied with one another in opposing the exclusion amendments, all arguing that such legislation should be side tracked as a patriotic duty. Representative Mann of Illinois, the Republican leader, was applauded when he declared: "This is no time to play politics. We all owe allegiance to our country. Let us show it."

The change in the sentiment of the house overnight as the result of arguments advanced by representatives of the administration was strikingly shown in two votes.

General Markets.

New York, Feb 4

OATS—Receipts, 43,000, standard white in elevator, 44½a45c.; No. 2, 45a45½c.; No 3, 44a44½c.; No. 4, 43½a44c.; natural white and clipped white, 44a47c.

BUTTER—Slightly higher and firm; receipts, 12,586 packages; creamery, extras, lb., 27a27½c.; firsts, 25½a26½c.; seconds, 23½a25c.; held, extras, 26½a27c.; firsts, 24½a26c.; seconds, 23a24c.; state dairy, tubs, finest, 26a26½c.; good to prime, 24a25½c.; common to fair, 19a22c.; process, extras, 23a24c.; firsts, 21a22c.; seconds, 20a20½c.; imitation creamery, firsts, 22a23c.; factory, held, 21c.; current make, firsts, 21c.; seconds, 20a20½c.; packing stock, 19a20c.; current make, No. 2, 18½a19c.; No 3, 17a18c.

CHEESE—Firm; receipts, 2,621 boxes; state, whole milk, specials, white, held, 18a18¼c.; fresh, 17½a17¾c.; colored, held, 18a18¼c.; fresh, 17½a17¾c.; average fancy, white, held, 17½a17¾c.; fresh, 17¼c.; colored, held, 17½a17¾c.; fresh, 17¼c.; skims, specials, held, 13¾a14¼c.; good to choice, held, 11½a12½c

EGGS—Weak; receipts, 14,536 cases; fresh gathered extras, doz., 33a34c.; extra firsts, 31½a32c.; firsts, 30½a31c.; seconds, 28a30c.; refrigerators, best, 28½a29c.; fair to good, 26½a28c.; state, Pennsylvania and nearby hennery whites, 32a40c.; gathered whites, 38c.; hennery browns, 34c.; gathered browns and mixed colors, 31a32c.

NEW HAY AND STRAW—Easy; timothy, per ton, $17a21.50; shipping, $16; clover, $15a18; clover mixed, $15a19.50; long rye straw, $16a17; oat, $16a17; small bales, 50c. per ton less than large.

POTATOES—Weak; Bermuda, per bbl., $3.50a5.25; domestic, bbl. or bag, $2a2.50 European, bag, $1a1.50; sweets, Jersey basket, 60a90c

LIVE POULTRY—Firm; prices unsettled.

—To a merchant, the "cost of ADEQUATE ADVERTISING is a mere incident. While the cost of inadequate advertising is always difficult to meet.

MURPHY ASSERTS HE WILL REMAIN

Will Not Be Ousted, Says Tammany Chief.

LEADER DEFIES HIS FOES

Makes Retort to O'Dwyer—The Fight Against Him, It Is Said, Will Continue—Supporter Says Democratic Club Resolution Was Not Passed.

New York, Feb. 4.—Charles F. Murphy, Tammany leader, asserted with considerable force that he intends to remain leader and treated with contempt the attack made on him by City Court Judge Edward F. O'Dwyer at the National Democratic club meeting.

"I'm the leader of Tammany Hall, and I'm going to remain the leader of Tammany Hall," was the way he put it. "That's all; it's closed now."

In return Judge O'Dwyer threatened a general fight against Murphy for the leadership at the fall primaries. He declared that the resolution condemning Murphy had been adopted by a majority vote of those present at the National Democratic club meeting regardless of Tammany protest to the contrary.

Mitchel Evades Issue.

Mayor Mitchel established himself as an interested spectator of the rumpus in the local Democratic organization, refusing to identity himself with either element. When pressed for comment on the incident he remarked, smiling:

"I'm not prepared to take issue with any one who would eliminate Murphy."

The mayor made it plain that he does not intend to be shaken in his determination not to identify the municipal administration with any of the warring political factions. Judge O'Dwyer said that the National Democratic club had begun its anti-Murphy war and that it proposed to keep it up, saying:

"We're going to be missionaries among the Democrats of the city and the state to carry into effect the purpose of the resolution that we passed."

That resolution called for the elimination of Murphy as leader of Tammany.

"But Mr. Murphy's adherents claim that that resolution was not actually passed." Judge O'Dwyer was apprised. "They say that if a roll call vote had been taken the result would have been the other way."

"The resolution was adopted by an overwhelming majority," asserted the judge hotly.

"Why didn't you grant the roll call?" he was asked.

"When Mr. Smith asked for the roll call the meeting had been adjourned already, and I had no power to reconvene the meeting."

"Mr. Smith claims that you would not order the roll call because you knew that were in the minority and that the adjournment itself was illegal."

"The reason for the adjournment was that the men who were sent by Mr. Murphy to defeat the resolution did not deport themselves in a proper manner. They wanted to chew the rag, and I had no time to waste on an unclubable, frivolous minority.

"Now, the situation is this: A majority of those present expressed their views. We can't remove Mr. Murphy physically from the leadership. That leadership can be retained as long as a majority of the assembly district leaders continue to support Mr. Murphy. However, there is a fall primary, and the Democrats who are unsatisfied with such conditions can get out and remedy them."

Secretary Thomas F. Smith, who spoke up as the champion of Murphy at the meeting, said regarding the national organization:

"The National Democratic club has never helped us in the past eight years. It's pretty nervy in 'em to step in now and try to do this."

CURLEY NOW BOSTON'S MAYOR

Fitzgerald, His Predecessor, Gets a Drubbing In Inaugural.

Boston, Feb. 4.—James M. Curley who was installed as mayor of Boston in Tremont temple, requested all former mayors of the city, the department heads and others to meet him before the ceremony, but he arrived there half an hour late and barely had time to grasp a few of the officials by the hand before ascending the platform.

Among those in the official group was former Mayor Fitzgerald, whose administration the new mayor criticised in his inaugural address. Mr. Fitzgerald's face reddened several times during the speech.

Mayor Curley announced a policy of economy and publicity. He said that he would end the practice of "discharging political debts through the mediumship of the city treasury" and declared that he was a firm believer in the value of publicity in the city's business as it "will eliminate graft and corruption."

Weather Forecast.

Unsettled today with probably local rains; tomorrow fair and colder with moderate winds, becoming south.

—Some store may be placing on "special sale" just now the article you have not felt like paying "regular" prices for.

P. C. C. BANQUET

(Continued from page 1.)

club's first president, were both detained, but sent their congratulations to the club. The occasion was made merry by a popular program of instrumental and vocal music by Brown's orchestra, of New York and the singing of college songs by club members. Mrs. Lounsbery as treasurer, read his anual statement, an abstract of which was given by Mr. Calkins in his report.

Mr. Mellick reviewed the early history of the club, when it was known as the Hillside Tennis and Golf Club, when the foundations were set for the present large organization. He said that it was due to the courage of the first president, Mr. Chapman, that the club owns its beautiful and well-equipped property. He recalled the meetings of the club to decide the Sunday golf question, expressing the belief that the final action was for the best. He referred to Mr. Barrows, who succeeded him as president and then Mr. Calkins, emphasizing their achievements of which he said the club should feel proud. In conclusion he asked what would Plainfield be without the Plainfield Country Club, predicting as successful future as the present and past.

Mr. Barrows reviewed briefly some of the things accomplished at the club, stating that the members had lived within themselves and built themselves up into a club representative of the city in which they live, remarking the ever-present hospitality shown those visiting the clubhouse. He declared that the club had a unique record in that it had never failed to retire its bonds.

Mr. Charlock, who is a member of the tanking committee of the National Lawn Tennis Association, made a few remarks in which he explained how tennis players are giving their ranking, the system being intended to treat all alike.

There was considerable humor in the remarks of Mr. Fox, who explained that he though possibly the reason a man could play better golf on Sunday than Saturday was because he hears a good sermon in the morning, and yet he had heard some sermons which he thought might put a man off his game. Golf, he said, appeals to all sorts of people. In baseball 5 per cent. of the people play and 95 per cent. of the people look on, while in golf it is the reverse. He wished the club health, happiness and success.

Mr. Reed said that he felt honored in being elected a trustee, but he could not exactly understand the toast assigned to him. "Notwithstanding Natural Handicaps," and he then went on to explain what he considered to be one of them. He said that one day he was playing golf with Justice Gummere at Baltusrol, and they were watching a professional match. Mr. Reed said that he inquired of his partner why they could not play as good a game as the "pros," and the reply was that they had everything but brains. This is considered a natural handicap.

Mr. Reed said that he had been into every bunker on the local course and knew how to get out of them, which was more than some of the better players could say. He said that the club is a good one, but he thought it would be a better one if golf was permitted all day Sunday, for one might as well be killed for a sheep as a lamb.

Mr. Calkins, the retiring president, in his annual report, called attention to what he considered to be one of the most important items of the past year, that was the work done toward completing the golf course. "Great credit is due the green committee," he said," for its labors in carrying out the plans for trapping and modernizing the course. I take great pleasure in testifying myself from experience in such work that the money has been spent with scrupulous economy. We do not openly admit it, but if we are privately satisfied that we are all golfers in the making, we may discover in this splendid array of pits and bumps the reason for our arrested development."

Reference was made to the new rules regarding outside guests at club dances, and he advocated the changes in the classification of members which the trustees recommended in 1908 as a means of eliminating still further any confusion. He said he believed that the dues of $6 a year for the social and athletic privileges enjoyed by women and suggested that they join the associate class and pay $12. He said that he believed children under fifteen could be allowed to play golf and tennis, exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, for half rates, and in place of the junior associate class, a class designated as "house members" could be created at $10 a year, for those wishing clubhouse privileges only, where their families are active members.

The report further showed that there was a cash balance last year of $800 which paid for the improvements made in December, 1912, to the farm house, and further improvements were made at a cost of about $625, re-surfacing the upper tennis courts, filling in the old automobile drive, building a retaining wall, etc.

"In retiring as a trustee tonight, after ten years membership on the board," and honored by my associates for the last six years in their choice for president," said Mr. Calkins, "I want to thank them for their support and co-operation in everything which has been accomplished in the upbuilding of the organization. Ten years ago we had 293 active members, 19 non-resident members, 79 associate members and 153 junior associate members, a total of 544. Our membership tonight stands at 741, consisting of 355 active, 21 non-resident, 109 associate and 256 junior associate.

"Our income from the regular sources in 1904, was $8,003 and the total income $9,000. For the year just ended the income from regular sources, including dues, locker rentals, etc., was $16,258, and $26,996 from all sources. In 1904 we could only afford $2,240 for the up-keep of the golf course, $418 for tennis and $1,037 for the house committee. Last year our regular appropriations included $5,300 to the green committee, $4,500 to the house committee and $1,325 to the tennis committee.

"In particular, we can congratulate ourselves on our financial condition. We own property, against which there are bonds outstanding amounting to $26,300. We redeem $1,000 bonds yearly. A floating debt of several thousand dollars was finally liquidated in 1910 and since then have operated within our income."

N. P. H. S. NOTES.

The motto board has been placed in the front of the assembly hall bearing the words, "Victory After Labor." This is the motto that the student body selected for the High School a few weeks ago. The board was made by Sherman Chandler, a member of the Sophomore class.

At a meeting of the Boys' Athletic Association this morning the new constitution which was drawn up by the committee in charge the first part of the week, was read and accepted.

John Dawe, manager of the Sophomore basketball team, broke his wrist while performing at the Y. M. C. A. Monday night.

The Sophomore basketball team has established a record in the High School this year. They have played eleven games, five of which were with independent teams and all have been victories with the exception of one.

Owing to lack of interest, Miss Ray, instructor of English, has decided to disband her elocution class for the present.

Principal Earley announced today that if enough members of the geometry classes could be interested he would start a class in field mathematics in the near future. It will be held once or twice a week and will consist of putting the practical part of geometry to use.

PERSONAL.

Miss Marjorie Cowling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Cowling, of Regent street, is detained at her home with chickenpox.

Mrs. Harry M. Cooke, of Somerset street, is convalescing from an attack of pneumonia.

Mrs. Edwin Smith, of West Front street, has returned home after spending three weeks with her parents in New York State.

Mrs. Gifford Beers, of New York, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Horace C. Huff, of Codington avenue.

THE DAILY PRESS IN LINCOLN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by E. Purvis, newsdealer.

ROYAL

The world-wide standard
Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

Royal Baking Powder is the embodiment of all the excellence possible to be attained in the highest class baking powder and its use is more economical than other leavening agents, because of the superlative quality and absolute wholesomeness of the food it makes.

Cheap baking powders, containing alum, are frequently distributed from door to door, or advertised as pure and wholesome. Such mixtures are not desirable for food ingredients. Most persons have learned to their sorrow that a low price does not always mean economy. This is especially so in a food article. No baking powder can properly be substituted for Royal.

Read the ingredient clause upon the label. If it does not show "Cream of Tartar," don't buy the powder.

OLIVE OIL

In Gallon Cans, Half Gallon Cans, Quart Cans, Quart Bottles, Pint Bottles and Half Pint Bottles.

DIRECT FROM FRANCE

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS

Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760

Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage

WAREHOUSE

North Avenue

OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE

125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.

OLD RELIABLE

STORAGE

All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry

Furniture Packed and Shipped

Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS

THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.

AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading

Auctioneers

W. A. SCHORB & CO.

Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.

120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg

Telephone 1707-W.

HENRY J. SIEBERT & CO.

1147 East Jersey St.,

ELIZABETH, N. J.

(Opp. Proctor's Theatre).

We specialize:

AWNINGS

WINDOW SHADES

CURTAIN MATERIALS

BRASS GOODS, etc.

Large assortment.

Low prices.

'Phone Elizabeth 852.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JUST RECEIVED 8,000 ROLLS OF THIS YEAR'S

WALL PAPER

At special prices, selling at 8 and 10 cents per roll. This is an opportunity to secure up-to-date wallpaper at a big saving.

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators.

145 NORTH AVENUE.

Now is the Time

To paint your house—in the cool of the year, when the paint dries slowly, and consequently lasts longest. No hot sun to cause blisters. And the house painted now is preserved against the ravages of winter storms.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's pure colors, ready mixed paint, varnishes, glass, etc.

JAMES C. HANSEN

Tel. 346.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

February 1, 1913.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—6:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 5:20, 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 8:00, 9:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:00 a. m., 12:30, 3:15 and 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00 a. m., 1:30, 4:3 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—6:30, 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:0 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:0 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:3 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9.00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easto Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7.00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:0 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close—8:00 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30 8:00, 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:30 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—8:00 a. m., 2:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

W. A. BIRD, P. M.

Dr. Robert W. Rogers

OSTEOPATH

720 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1936-W.

Office hours: 8 to 9 a. m., 7 to 8 p. m.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

JANE ADDAMS.

Suffragette Active In Chicago Women Registering.

Women registered for the first time in Chicago preparatory to exercising their right of franchise at the spring aldermanic primaries. Upward of 200,000 women registered. Acting as judges and clerks of election for the first time in the history of Chicago, approximately 700 women assisted in registering the new voters. Among those actively engaged at the polls was Jane Addams. The newly enfranchised women were generally slow in registering for the primary election which is to mark their advent in general politics in this city. In some of the strictly residential wards few women visited the polling places in the early hours. "Detained by household duties" was the explanation given by the women clerks and judges of election.

HOLD THAT SUFFRAGE IS A STATE ISSUE

Democrats Adopt a Resolution to That Effect.

Washington, Feb. 4.—At a caucus of the house Democrats a resolution was adopted declaring that woman suffrage is a state and not a federal issue.

The resolution was offered by Representative Heflin of Alabama, one of the most active opponents of equal suffrage in public life. The house Democrats voted 123 for the resolution to 57 against it.

The caucus was called for the purpose of ratifying or reversing the previous action of the majority of the house committee on rules, which decided last month against a resolution providing for a standing committee on woman suffrage.

The prosuffragists among the Democrats circulated the call for the caucus in the hope that when they got a majority together they would through fear of possible party defeat in the suffrage states grant the request of the National Association For Woman Suffrage that the committee be created.

At the hour for the assembling of the caucus only a small fraction of the Democrats in the house had arrived. For a time it was feared that a quorum would not put in an appearance. Members kept dropping in, however, and finally a sufficient number to transact business was found to be present.

After discussing for some time a resolution introduced by Representative Raker of California expressing it to be the sense of the caucus that a standing committee on woman suffrage should be created Representative Heflin introduced his resolution, reading as follows:

Resolved, That it is the sense of the Democratic caucus in the house of representatives that the question of woman suffrage is a question for the decision of the states and not a federal question.

After an unsuccessful effort to displace Mr. Heflin's substitute resolution as to the business before a caucus a record vote was taken. Here the Democrats found themselves in the position of expressing to the nation at large and specifically to President Wilson the party dictum on the question of woman suffrage.

BREMNER HAS CHANCE.

Brother Denies Report That He Was In Dying Condition.

Baltimore, Feb. 4. Mr. Bremner's condition was unchanged. Hope has not yet been abandoned for his possible recovery. This is the only word obtainable at Dr. Howard A. Kelly's sanitarium, where the congressman from New Jersey is undergoing radium treatment for cancer.

The story that Mr. Bremner was in a dying condition was contradicted by William Bremner, brother of the congressman, who said the family still held hopes for his recovery.

Mr. Bremner's brother, Leigh, of Richmond, Va., the Rev. Walter Bremner from Taylorsville, Va., his wife, who was Miss Edith McLaughlin of New Jersey, and his sister, Miss Helen Bremner, are at his bedside.

—Competition between the stores in value-giving grows keener all the time—and makes the store ads of increasing purse-interest to you all the time.

Classified Advertisements---Copy Received Until 1:30 P. M. Daily

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No Display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

REMEMBER

We carry the largest and finest stock of plants and cut flowers in the city. Floral design work by expert designers. Plant or flowers delivered to any city of the United States. Store, 159 East Front street; Tel. 928; greenhouses, 1126 South avenue. 40,000 feet of glass.

STANLEY

159 E. Front St. Tel. 928.

Woodhull & Martin Building.

Greenhouses, South Ave., Tel. 331-J

T. A. MOORE

UNDERTAKER

612 E Sixth St.

Tel. 741-R

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON,

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS

Office, 116 Park Avenue. Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St., Tel. 584-W. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2654-Gramercy.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,

UNDERTAKERS

402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1229. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

JAS. J. CHAS. A.

J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS

FUNERAL PARLORS

109 W. Fourth St. Tel. 1753-J.

Our Booklet Entitled A Modern Mortuary Establishment Sent Upon Request.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS

Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

ALLEN—On Monday, February 2, 1914, Ann E. Allen, in her 93d year.

Funeral services at her late residence, 12 Mountain avenue, Thursday, February 5, at 10:30 a. m. Interment in Evergreen cemetery. 2 3 2

LUNGER—February 3, 1914, Abram Z. Lunger, aged 67.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend funeral at late residence 201 Watchung avenue, Wednesday, February 4, at 7:30 p. m. Interment at Whitehouse at convenience of family.

SHEPARD—Joanna Mead, beloved wife of the late Augustus D. Shepard, suddenly on February 3, 1914 at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Osborn W. Bright, Gibsonville, North Carolina.

Funeral service at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Doull Miller, 222 East Ninth street, Plainfield, N. J., Friday, February 6, at 2:15 p. m.

MISCELLANEOUS.

TAXIDERMIST—Birds and animals stuffed and mounted. T. W. Sisty, Wayside Park, 'Phone 1299-J Dunellen, N. J. 11 14 3mos

FASHIONABLE dressmaker, skillful, artistic, speedy worker; understands every detail of first-class dressmaking; very reasonable; home or out. Address Mme. Eugene Andre, General Delivery. 1 2 3

EMBROIDERY, INITIALS, ETC.—Orders taken for all kinds of embroidery and initials; first class work; prices reasonable. Mrs. C. S. Groot, 768 Woodland avenue, near Putnam avenue; telephone 1687-M. 1 15 1mo

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES, AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY CO. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—Two new seven room houses; all improvements; garage, sleeping porch, decorated to suit tenant or buyer. 839 Osborne avenues, Netherwood, telephone 894-M. 1 28 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD WANTED.

WANTED—By gentleman, one or two furnished rooms, vicinity North Plainfield. Address Reasonable, care Press. 2 3 2

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Airedale terrier dog, part brown, black saddle, tan markings, white toes. Reward. Thos. K. Bray, Terrill road, Plainfield. 1 31 4

LITTLE TALKS BY THE WANT AD MAN

Copyright, 1913, The Int. Syndicate, Baltimore.

No. 56.

EVERY time I see any "poetry" in advertising I feel like getting up and breaking a few windows.

However, here is a really sensible little piece of rhyme, with a worth-while moral, clipped from "Economic Advertising," an interesting little publication printed in Toronto, Canada. It is entitled:

DEAD.

Breathes there a man with soul so dead
Who never to himself hath said:
"My trade of late is getting bad;
I'll try another ten-inch ad."
If such there be, go mark him well;
For him no bank account shall swell,
No angels watch the golden stair
To welcome home the millionaire.
The man who never asys for trade
By local line or ad. displayed
Cares more for rest than worldly gain,
And patronage but gives him pain.
Tread lightly, friends; let no rude sound
Disturb his solitude profound;
Here let him live in calm repose,
Unsought except by men he owes.
And when he dies, go plant him deep,
That naught may break his dreamless sleep;
Where no rude clamor may dispel
The quiet that he loved so well.
And that the world may know its loss,
Place on his grave a wreath of moss,
And on a stone above: "Here lies
A man who wouldn't advertise."

The man who doesn't advertise his business doesn't usually remain long in business.

Hiding your light under a bushel, Mr. Merchant, will some day result in the light going out.

Keep step with the spirit of the times—keep your name and your business in the minds of the great purchasing public—keep growing—

ADVERTISE!

The Want-Ad Man

(All rights reserved, 1913, by Jerome P. Fleishman.)

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Manning, 183 North avenue. 10 14 tf

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Cook, laundress, waitress-chambermaid. Apply evenings, 915 Kensington avenue. 2 2 tf

WANTED—Experienced assistant chambermaid, understanding mending. 'Phone 773.

WANTED—Girl for general housework; family of three adults. 720 Watchung avenue. 2 4 2

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

REFINED English woman wants position as companion to elderly lady; excellent sewer. Apply Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'Phone 1724. 2 3 2

AN EXPERIENCED laundress will take work home or go out. Call or write, 814 Richmond street. 2 4 2

FIRST-CLASS laundress wants washing out by day or at home. Clark, 643 West Fourth street. 2 3 2

REFINED English woman wants place as infant's nurse; excellent sewer. Apply Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place. 'Phone 1724. 2 3 2

WANTED—Day's work of any kind. Housework, care Press. 2 2 2

HELP WANTED—MALE.

COLORED painter and paperhanger wanted. Call 1148 West Front St. 2 2 2

MAN wanted to do collecting and take charge of Plainfield office; permanent position at good salary; must be honest and know city well; cash bond of $100 required. Opportunity, care Press. 2 4 tf

FOR SALE.

ROYAL TYPEWRITERS — The best built standard typewriter in the world for only $35. Write or call for a demonstration. Plainfield Office Supply Co., Local Agents, P. O. Box 791. 'Phone 921-W. 1 25 1mo

FOR SALE—A good horse. Apply to A. E. Force & Co. 2 4 2

FOR SALE—Stable manure. Apply to A. E. Force & Co. 2 4 2

FOR SALE—Manure, soil. Sam Redd, 933 West Third street. 2 3 1m

GUINEA PIGS or cavies, breeders, 75 cents each. 1008 Arlington avenue. 2 4 4

FOR SALE—All kinds fine gloves for ladies, men and boys, at wholesale and retail; large variety of deer skin gloves for auto, driving and working; best canvas, 10c; per dozen, $1.00; kid gloves, slightly damaged, half price. H. Texier, 58 Somerset street. 12 31 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

TO LET—Attractive rooms, with board. Mrs. L. R. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue. 2 24 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board; also table board. 433 East Seventh street. 1 17 tf

FOR RENT—Two comfortable rooms with excellent home table. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 12 27 tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Good house, for colored people; 6 room house, part improvements; right in town. See Mr. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 6 26 tf

FOR SALE—To close "French Estate," Somerset street carriage factory, stores, and tenement houses and stable in rear; lot 100x200 ft.; alley at side and in rear; bargain, terms arranged. Apply, Elston M. French, executor, 171 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 12 19 tf

FOR RENT.

FLAT to let, five rooms, all improvements. 538 West Fifth street, or enquire 432 Watchung avenue. 11 11 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street, with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FIVE-ROOM apartment, all modern improvements; central location. Inquire P. C. Thomsen, 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—Six room house and bath. Inquire 147 East Fifth street. 11 28 tf

TO LET—Six room, steam heated flat, all improvements, on Plainfield avenue near Front street; also other apartments and houses; rent reasonable. Inquire 126 Plainfield avenue. 1 29 6

TO LET—Store, 304 West Front street, price $75 a month, including heat and water; also apartments, from $20 to $30. Apply afternoons to William M. Stillman, 212 West Front street. 2 4 tf w-s

TO RENT—Flat, 6 rooms and bath; all improvements; $25.50. Inquire 384 East Fifth street. 2 4 1t

TO LET—Four rooms, East Seventh street, near Berckman street. Inquire 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—No. 45 Prospect place, near Washington avenue, 6 rooms, reception hall and bath; all improvements. Apply to J. V. E. VanderHoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 12 4 tf

TO LET—At eleven dollars, to respectable colored families, 4-room houses, with improvements. Inquire 1348 West Front street. 2 2 1t

TO LET—House, six rooms and bath. 409 Liberty street. Tel. 450-W. 12 8 tf

TO LET—New four room apartments; improvements; 1361 and 1351 South Second street; $10.50 per month. John Herlman, 369 Somerset street; 'Phone 2512-W. 1 23 1mo

HOUSE to rent; eight rooms, all improvements; small garage. Inquire 222 Madison avenue. 1 16 1mo

SIX ROOM house to let; all modern improvements; rent reasonable. W. R. VanDerveer, superintendent, 231 East Second street, Cor. Church. 1 17 tf

FOUR-ROOM flat to let, part improvements, $10. 203 Grant avenue. 11 21 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town, rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 11 6 tf

HOUSES $12 to $50; flats, $16 to $30; stores $7 upwards. D. McInness, West Third street, Tel. 1196-W. 6 30 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, reliable help only; all nationalities, faithful service commands good situations and our fees are very reasonable; courteous treatment to all. 326 West Front street, near Grove; Phone 666. 11 26 tf

HANSEN'S Employment Agency, 128 Watchung avenue, corner Second street. Excellent positions furnished to reliable help of all nationalities. Telephone 2559. 2 5 1mo

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 3 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

MAN wishes position as butler; experienced; personal reference. 625 West Fourth street. 2 2 3

COLORED chauffeur, experienced, willing and handy; go anywhere; best reference. Address J., Press office. 2 3 3

HOUSEWORK, 25c an hour, wanted by handy colored man. 317 Liberty street. 10 28 tf

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rate; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Ford delivery wagon, with runabout body; new tires and in perfect condition. E. & C. Auto Sales Co., 124 Madison avenue. 2 4 6

Of Interest to Women and the Home

The Housewife's Daily Economy Calendar

FRANCES MARSHALL

Some Practical Aspects of New Styles

At first thought the present style seem to combine all of the impractical details imaginable. But here are some details that will appeal to the economical woman.

Probably the French dressmakers who first invented this combination had no idea of economy in doing it; French dressmakers seem to think little of this necessary accompaniment of everyday life. However, that may be, some of the new lingerie frocks show frills at the elbows of black lace. Sometimes the black lace is used for further trimming. The frill at the elbow is especially useful, for it is this part of a sleeve that always looks soiled the soonest and naturally black lace looks fresh longer than white lace would.

Some of the newest petticoats, made of thin silk Jersey cloth, are edged with a wide, pleated flounce, banded at the bottom in a three-inch band of black. Although this black band was doubtless put on for effect to begin with it is an economical idea. A petticoat of a fragile color can be worn for a long time because the black border gets the hardest wear.

For the same reason a dark dress braid on the bottom of a linen skirt is a good idea. A dark brown braid can be used with good effect on a tan skirt.

Many of the new lingerie frocks show a facing or hem of colored silk, and this keeps the white part of the frock fresh for a long time. A bright cherry satin hem folded under the edge of a skirt made out of flouncing, for instance, or a black moire silk hem applied to the bottom of a while voile skirt, is both effective and useful.

It is too soon to know whether the braid bound coats and skirts, of linen and eponge and other fabrics, will be used this year as they were last. If they are, they are good investments. The bottom of the skirt, the ends of the sleeves and the edges of the coat, all bound with dark brown silk braid, for instance, on a tan linen suit, get much wear and tear and handling, and yet look fresh until the suit is ready for a trip to the cleaner.

Dark Collars and Cuffs.

Dark collars and cuffs are far more serviceable than light ones, on coats. Fortunately they are used on many of the new coats. Brilliantly colored brocaded velvet and silk are used, and gold and silver fabrics are used too. So is black satin and black moire silk.

The extensive use of white about the neck and hands is as economical, almost as the use of dark colors. For the white collars and cuffs can be cheaply and easily renewed, and so a dark cloth frock may be kept fresh for a long time.

Some of the new French lingerie blouses have separate little lining slips of white or flesh-colored wash silk. These are economical, as they can be easily washed, and help to keep the waist over them fresh.

(Copyright, 1914, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

VOTES FOR WOMEN

Conducted by the Equal Suffrage League of Plainfield and North Plainfield.

AN ILLUSTRATION.

We had not seen much of Bess since her marriage and removal to another State, when she came for a visit. Someone tentatively remarked, "There is to be a Suffrage meeting this evening, Bess, would you like to go?"

"Like to go Yes, indeed. I am an ardent Suffragist myself and what is more, Bob is just as enthusiastic as I am. You know, I was delegate to the State convention, didn't you?

"No; how was that? Tell us about it." "Well, I had gone with Bob all winter to the meetings of the Political Club and occasionally taken part in the discussions. But when the evening came for naming delegates to the convention I was too tired to go—you know I am doing my own housework,—so Bob went alone.

"When he came in, sometime in the small hours, he called out, 'Bess, don't you want to hear about the meeting? I am elected delegate.'

"'Yes,' sleepily, 'that is fine.'

"'Well,' continued he, 'you are delegate too.'

"Mr. Bob, it is too early in the morning for you to be getting jokes off on me.'

"'It is no joke, we are both chosen delegates. But of course we cannot go.'

"'Can't go?' My eyes popped wide open. 'Can't go? We must go, we will go.'

"'But you know, Bess, it will be a pretty expensive outing for the two of us: railroad fares to the distant Capitol, board at an expensive hotel, besides incidental expenses, and you know we are already economizing.'

"'So we are, and we will economize somewhere else, but we'll go'—and we went.

"'How did you enjoy it?' asked the hostess.

"'Very much, indeed; it was also novel and interesting, besides, I learned more about Bob.'

"'How so Tell us all about it I never went to a convention in all my life.'

"'Of course the delegates were met by a band and escorted to the hotels then came the preliminary meeting where we presented our credentials and were given campaign banners. Now followed long dull sessions when numerous candidates were presented and discussed, till I began to think we should never arrive anywhere, but we had agreed each to vote for the candidate who seemed to us best. At last someone rose and nominated the very man we both liked. The rest seemed of the same opinion, for the assembly broke out in shouts of approval and fierce clapping of hands, rising to their feet and waving banners in wild enthusiasm. I sprang upon my seat and waved with a banner in each hand—Bob had given me his, not expecting to use it. Suddenly I looked to see where Bob was, and there he stood beside me waving his hat and shouting at the top of his voice. I never knew before how enthusiastic Bob could be."

The hostess smiled and said, "It seems to me that you two are a living illustration of that 'terrible discord' that is to arise in families when women get the vote."

Bess laughed merrily. "Bob says that if a man and woman are bound to quarrel there are a good many subjects that lie much nearer home than politics."

Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

No. 7247 shows a smart little blouse with the back cut with an extension that gives the effect of a small shoulder yoke. Yokes are very modish and the set-in sleeve vies with the drop-shoulder and raglan design for popularity.

This design is especially suited to linen, one of the heavier cotton weaves or a heavy silk.

Natural pongee is an excellent material for a plain blouse of this kind and if desired a touch of embroidery or a bright contrasting silk may be used for the collar and cuffs with pleasing effect. Pongee washes well and wears excellently. It averages 36 inches in width and may be purchased from 50 cents a yard up.

Hooks and eyes or a line of novelty buttons, a washable kind, may be used to close the blouse. Very often the home dressmaker finds herself inconvenienced by a lack of sizes in her hook and eye box. Instead of buying one size of black or white hooks and eyes it is economical to purchase a card of every size from the smallest to the largest dress hook and keep them on hand. An assortment of snap fasteners will also be found very handy at times.

This blouse may be made in size 36 with 2¼ yards of 36 inch material.

The pattern is cut in 6 sizes: 32 to 40.

This Is a Perfect Pattern.

Be sure to state right size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust for dimensions.

It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15 cents in stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

COUPON

Name .....

Street and No. .....

City and State .....

Pattern No. .....

Sizes .....

A. E. Force & Co., "The White Store," carry all patterns in stock and the Daily Press recommends that its readers procure them there. They will be furnished by this paper when the orders come direct to us, through A. E. Force & Co.

The departure of the cook or maid does not prostrate the lady who knows the efficiency of Press want ads.

And want ad-reading servants are of the desirable class.

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

BY EARL DERR BIGGERS

Copyright, 1913, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER VII.

The Mayor Casts a Shadow Before.

QUICKLY the girl in the corduroy suit leaned toward Mr. Magee. She whispered, and her tone was troubled

"Stand by me I'm afraid I'll need your help."

"What's the matter?" inquired Magee.

"I haven't much of any right here, I guess. But I had to come."

"But your key?

"I fear my—my press agent—stole it."

"Never mind," he said very gently; "I'll see you through

Quimby was standing over Mr. Bland. "How about you?" he asked.

"Call up Andy Rutter and ask about me," replied Bland in the tone of one who prefers war to peace.

"I work for Mr. Bentley," said Quimby. "Rutter hasn't any authority here. He isn't to be manager next season, I understand However, the professor wants me to let you stay. He says he'll be responsible" Mr. Bland looked in open mouthed astonishment at the unexpected sponsor he had found. "And you?" went on Quimby to the women.

"Why"— began Miss Norton.

"Absolutely all right," said Mr. Magee. "They come from Hal Bentley, like myself. He's put them in my care. I'll answer for them." He saw the girl's eyes. They spoke her thanks.

Mr. Quimby shook his head as one in a dream.

"All this is beyond me—way beyond," he ruminated. "I'm going to write all about it to Mr. Bentley, and I suppose I got to let you stay till I hear from him. I think he ought to come up here if he can."

"The more the merrier," said Mr. Magee, reflecting cheerfully that the Bentleys were in Florida at last accounts.

"Come, mamma," said Miss Norton, rising, "let's go up and pick out a suit. There's one I used to have a few years ago. You can see the hermit's shack from the windows. By the way, Mr. Magee, will you send Mr. Peters up to us? He may be able to help us get settled."

"Ahem!" muttered Mr. Magee. "I—I'll have a talk with Peters. To be quite frank, I anticipate trouble. You see, the hermit of Baldpate doesn't approve of women"—

"The idiot!" cried Mrs. Norton.

"Delicious!" laughed the girl.

"I shall ask Peters to serve you," said Magee "I shall appeal to his gallant side. But I must proceed gently. This is his first day as our cook, and you know how necessary a good first impression is with a new cook. I'll appeal to his better nature."

"Don't do it!" cried the girl. "Don't emphasize us to him in any way or he may exercise his right as cook and leave. Just ignore us. We'll play at being our own bellboys."

"Ignore you!" cried Mr. Magee. "What herculean tasks you set! I'm not equal to that one!" He picked up their traveling bags and led the way upstairs. "I'm something of a bellboy myself when roused," he said.

The girl selected suit 17, at the farther end of the corridor from Magee's apartments. "It's the very one I used to have years and years ago—at least two or three years ago," she said. "Isn't it stupid? All the furniture in a heap!"

"And cold," said Mrs. Norton. "My land, I wish I was back by my own fire."

"I'll make you regret your words, Mrs. Norton!" cried Magee. He threw up the windows, pulled off his coat and set to work on the furniture. The girl bustled about, lightening his work by her smile.

"I hope you don't expect a tip," the girl said, laughing.

"I do," he said, coming closer and speaking in a voice that was not for the ear of the chaperon. "I want a tip on this—do you really act?"

She looked at him steadily.

"Once," she said, "when I was sixteen, I appeared in an amateur play at school. It was my first and last appearance on the stage."

"Thanks, lady," remarked Mr. Magee in imitation of the bellboy he was supposed to be. He sought No. 7. There he made himself again presentable, after which he descended to the office.

Mr. Bland sat reading the New York paper before the fire. From the little card room and the parlor, the two rooms to the right and left of the hotel's front door, Quimby had brought forth extra chairs. He stood now by the large chair that held Professor Bolton, engaged in conversation with that gentleman.

"Yes," he was saying, "I lived three years in Reuton and five years in New York. It took me eight years—eight years to realize the truth."

"I heard about it from John Bentley," the professor said gently.

"He's been pretty kind to me, Mr. Bentley has," replied Quimby. "When the money was all gone he offered me this job. Once the Quimbys owned most of the land around Baldpate mountain. It all went in those eight years. To think that it took all those years for me to find it out!"

"If I'm not impertinent, Quimby, put in Magee, "to find what out?"

"That what I wanted, the railroad men didn't want," replied Quimby bitterly, "and that was the safety of the public. You see, I invented a new rail joint, one that was a great improvement on the old kind. I had sort of an idea, when I was doing it, an idea of service to the world you know. God, what a joke! I sold all the Quimby lands, and went to Reuton, and then to New York to place it. Not one of the railroad men but admitted that it was an improvement and a big one—and not one but fought like mad to keep me from getting it down where the public would see it. They didn't want the expense of change."

Mr. Quimby looked out at the small stretch of snow.

"Eight years," he repeated. "I fought and pleaded. No, I begged that was the word—I begged. You'd be surprised to know the names of some of the men who kept me waiting in their private offices and sneered at me over their polished desks. They turned me down—every one. Some of them played me—as though I'd been a fish. They referred me to other ends of the same big game, laughing in their sleeves, I guess, at the knowledge of how hopeless it was. Oh, they made a fine fool of me."

"You might have put down some of your joints at your own expense," suggested the professor

"Didn't I try?" cried Quimby. "Do you think they'd let me? No, the public might see them and demand them everywhere" Once I thought I had convinced somebody. It was down in Reuton—the Suburban railway." There was a rustle as Mr. Bland let his paper fall to the floor. "Old Henry Thornhill was president of the road he is yet, I guess—but young Hayden and a fellow named David Kendrick were running it. Kendrick was on my side—he almost had Hayden. They were going to let me lay a stretch of track with my joints. Then something happened. Maybe you remember. Kendrick disappeared in the night he's never been seen since."

"I do remember," said the professor softly.

"Hayden turned me down" went on Quimby. "The money was all gone. So I came back to Upper Asquewan—caretaker of an inn that overlooks the property my father owned—the property I squandered for a chance to save human lives."

He moved away, and the men sat in silence for a time. Then the professor spoke very gently:

"Poor devil—to have had his dream of service—and then grow old on Baldpate."

"Well, everything's shipshape in the kitchen," announced the hermit cheerfully, hurrying into the room. "I couldn't go without seeing to that. I wish you the best of luck, gentlemen, and goodby."

"Goodby?" cried the professor.

"By the gods, he's leaving us!" almost wept Mr. Bland.

"It can't be," said Mr. Magee.

"It has to be," said the hermit of Baldpate, solemnly shaking his head. "I'd like to stay with you, and I would if they hadn't come But here they are, and when women come in the door I fly out of the window, as the saying is."

"But, Peters," pleaded Magee, "you are not going to leave us in the hole like this?"

"Sorry," replied Peters. "I can please men, but I can't please women. I tried to please one once but let the dead past bury its dead I live on Baldpate in a shack to escape the sex, and it wouldn't be consistent for me to stay here now. I got to go. I hate to, like a dog, but I got to."

"Peters," said Mr. Magee. "I'm surprised. After giving your word to stay! And who knows—you may be able to gather valuable data for your book. Stick around. These women won't bother you. And we'll pay you beyond the dreams of avarice of a Broadway chef. Won't we, gentlemen?"

The others nodded. Mr. Peters visibly weakened.

"Well," he began. "I"— His eyes were on the stairs. Mr. Magee also looked in that direction and saw the girl of the station smiling down. She no longer wore coat and hat, and the absence of the latter revealed a glory of golden hair that became instantly a rival to the sunshine in that drear bare room.

"No, Peters," she said, "you mustn't go. We couldn't permit it. Mamma and I will go."

She continued to smile at the obviously dazzled Peters. Suddenly he spoke in a determined tone:

"No, don't do that. I'll stay." Then he turned to Magee and continued for that gentleman's ear alone: "Doggone it, we're all alike! We resolve and resolve and then one of them looks at us and it's all forgot. I had a friend who advertised for a wife—leastways, he was a friend until he advertised. He got ninety-two replies, seventy of 'em from married men advising against the step. 'I'm cured,' he says to me. 'Not for me.' Did he keep his word? No. A week after he married a widow just to see if what the seventy said was true. I'm mortal. I hang around the buzzsaw. If you give me a little money, I'll go down to the village and buy the provisions for lunch."

Gleefully Mr. Magee started the hermit on his way, and then went over to where the girl stood at the foot of the stairs.

They went together to the kitchen, found a pail and filled it with icy water from the pump at the rear of the inn. Inside once more, Mr. Magee remarked thoughtfully:

"Who would have guessed a week ago that today I would be climbing the broad staircase of a summer hotel carrying a pail of water for a lady fair?"

They paused on the landing.

"There are more things in heaven and earth, Horatio," smiled the girl, "than are dreamed of, even by novel-

"The mayor has the fifth key."

ists." Mr. Magee started. Had she recognized him as the Magee of light fiction? Her face went suddenly grave. She came closer. "I can't help wondering," she said, "which side you are on?"

"Which side of what?" asked Magee.

"Why, of this," she answered, waving her hand toward the office below.

"I don't understand," objected Mr. Magee.

"Let's not be silly," she replied. "You know what brought me here. I know what brought you. There are three sides, and only one is honest. I hope, so very much, that you are on that side."

"Upon my word"— began Magee.

"Will it interest you to know," she continued, "I saw the big mayor of Reuton in the village this morning? With him was his shadow, Lou Max. Let's see—you had the first key, Mr. Bland the second, the professor the third and I had the fourth. The mayor has the fifth key, of course. He'll be here soon."

"The mayor," gasped Mr. Magee. "Really, I haven't the slightest idea what you mean. I'm here to work"—

"Very well," said the girl coldly, "if you wish it that way." They came to the door of 17, and she took the pail from Mr. Magee's hand. "Thanks."

"'Where are you going, my pretty maid?'" asked Magee, indicating the pail.

"'I'll see you at luncheon, sir,' she said,'" responded Miss Norton, and the door of 17 slammed shut.

Mr. Magee returned to No. 7 and thoughtfully stirred the fire. The tangle of events bade fair to swamp him.

"The mayor of Reuton," he mused, "has the fifth key. What in the name of common sense is going on? It's too much even for melodramatic me." He leaned back in his chair. "Anyhow, I like her eyes," he said. "And I shouldn't want to be quoted as disapproving of her hair either. I'm on her side, whichever it may be."

(to be continued)

Some Cookery Suggestions

LOBSTER SALADS

COLD boiled lobster is used in making these salads. The lobster may be purchased already cooked, which is perhaps the most convenient way, or it may be bought live and killed and cooked at home. In that case be sure that the lobster is in good condition.

May Be Quickly Made.

A salad that is easily prepared is the following:

Emergency Salad.—Prepare thick and well seasoned mayonnaise dressing and put it on the ice. Then thrust a clove of garlic in a small cube of bread, and put the bread, garlic side down, in the bottom of a cold salad bowl. Mix the diced meat of a boiled lobster, a hard boiled egg chopped fine, a cupful of chopped celery, salt and pepper and the mayonnaise. Put the mixture in the salad bowl and arrange a border of crisp, white lettuce leaves. Garnish the dish with the small claws of the lobster.

Lobster and Tomato Salad.—Place a bed of lettuce in a dish and on it the meat of the lobster. Cover with mayonnaise sauce. Then arrange a border of sliced tomato, hard boiled egg and shredded lettuce round and decorate the center of the mayonnaise with sieved yolk of egg.

A Salad That Looks Nice.

Lobster in Aspic Jelly.—Cut meat from one or two boiled lobsters into pieces. Pour one-quarter inch aspic jelly into border mold and when it begins to set arrange neatly round it lobster pieces and a few tarragon leaves. Fill up space with more aspic and set away till firm. Turn out on a salad bowl and fill center with shredded lettuce and remainder of lobster, seasoned with tarragon vinegar, a little oil, pepper and salt.

Spread mayonnaise over it. Garnish with hard boiled eggs cut in slices and with lobster coral.

Individual Salads.

Lobster Balls.—Pound in a mortar the hard boiled yolks of two eggs, with six tablespoonfuls of minced lobster, cayenne pepper to taste and enough salad oil to form a smooth paste. Mold it to balls the size of a large marble. Serve on individual salad plates in heart of lettuce leaves.

Anna Thompson

He Would Sit Down and Make Speeches.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

A Story of Abraham Lincoln's Childhood.

"DADDY," said Jack, "my very favorite hero is Abraham Lincoln, and I think it's splendid his birthday is celebrated every year, don't you?"

"Yes," said daddy, "it is really only right that it should be kept, for he gave up his whole life to do good to the country and to all its people.

"Besides being such a good man and doing so much for his country he was very fond of studying, and as a little boy his great ambition was to make wonderful speeches.

"When Abraham Lincoln was a little boy he had a garden full of cabbages. It was his very own garden, for he planted the cabbage seeds himself, and he watched them grow with the greatest interest. When their little heads peeped up above the ground he was delighted and clapped his hands, saying, 'My cabbages are coming up, my cabbages are coming up!' Then, where they were thickest, he took them up and with a little trowel he dug another row of holes into which he put them, just as he had seen his father do. And then he watched some more until the cabbages were full grown, and they all stood rows as straight and stiff and erect as could be. And little Abraham Lincoln was so proud of them. He now was quite satisfied with his cabbages, and so he thought he'd no longer fuss about them as they couldn't be any nicer than they were. So he pretended they were real people and named them. The straightest and very best looking one he named General Strong, and another he named Captain Brave. One more he admired especially and thought it an exceptionally fine looking cabbage and called it Mr President, which was and is, of course, the highest ambition of every little American boy. Lincoln would get a little stump and sit down and begin to make speeches to the rows of cabbages. He told them all his ideas on bravery and truth telling and kindness, and then he'd turn to the cabbage he'd named General Strong and say, 'Don't you agree with me, general?' or 'Don't you think that's right, Mr. President?'

"One day little Abraham Lincoln's father was walking by this small cabbage garden when he saw his little son talking to the cabbages and telling them the things he hoped would come to pass one day.

"His father thought to himself: 'I wonder if my little boy will ever really be a great man. At least, he's a splendid little boy, and one person—his daddy—will always be proud of him!'

"And that is a good thing to have one's daddy proud of one, and it shows that being a good little boy makes one turn out to be a fine man."

NEEDLEWORK

By MARGARET LAWRENCE

A SIMPLE DESIGN FOR EMBROIDERING YOUR SHEETS AND PILLOW-CASES

This simple design for embroidering a top-sheet and pillow-cases to match is very effective for the amount of work necessary to develop it. The edge of the sheet may be finished with hemstitching, as shown in the illustration, or with plain scalloping and the design should be developed, either entirely solid work or in solid and eyelet embroidery. The transfer pattern of stamping the sheet is 56 inches long by 3½ inches wide. This should be placed about two inches above the hemstitching or scalloping, and an initial may be placed two inches above the center of the design. Three-inch letters may be used for forming this monogram and either the script or old English style is appropriate.

The pillow cases should be stamped two inches from the hem or scalloping, and the pattern includes two sprays each 16½ inches long by 3½ inches wide. An initial or monogram of two-inch letters, to match those on the sheet may be placed two inches above the embroidery.

These simple and attractive sprays are also appropriate for embroidering towels, pillow-cases, bureau-scarfs, sideboard-covers and table covers. The flowers and wreaths may be developed in well padded solid work or in eyelets or the two stitches may be combined as shown in the illustration. The stems should be worked in stem-stitch and the centers of the flowers in French knots.

Guaranteed, hot iron, transfer pattern, 14633, for stamping a set of sheet and pillow-cases, can be supplied to readers on receipt of price, 15 cents.

LOHRMAN'S Chocolate Shop
161 EAST FRONT STREET.
High Grade Chocolates, Candies, Ice Cream and Sodas. Mottoes, Favors and Ice Cream Forms for all occasions. Orders taken for Frozen Puddings, Glaces, Mousses, Etc.

O. A. R. GARAGE
915-917 South Avenue.
Carbon removed by Oxygen method—$3 for 4 cylinder, $4 for 6 cylinder. Sole agents for Symplex Gas Savers—positively gives more power, speed and uses 25 to 50% saving.
GUARANTEED REPAIRS

TRY THESE DELICIOUS CRULLERS
Plymouth Home Made Crullers, sold by us, are made by a new method—they are Pure, Clean and Digestible. Sanitary package, 10 cents.
W. W. Dunn
THE PARK GROCER
Duer Street and Lincoln Place.

Your Appearance Counts
Have you ever realized how well you are received when your appearance is favorable? Men, send your Suit and have it cleaned and pressed. Ladies, your tea gowns, woolen dresses, opera cloaks, plain or fancy waists, and indeed anything worth cleaning.
I guarantee my work and assure you that my method will tend to renew the fabric, brighten the colors and raise the nap, thereby restoring the garment to the freshness of new clothing.
A. ROTGUN
432 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 1976-W.
Nine years with G. O. Keller.

Hoagland's Express
FINE FURNITURE.
MOVING
Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

NOBODY LOVES A FAT MAN---NOT EVEN SCOOP

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

"Sportdom Tips"

MAYBE ANOTHER ONE.

Understand that the board of directors of the Rahway Y. M. C. A. has granted the Ladies' Auxiliary the use of the gymnasium one afternoon a week. This announcement means that a basketball team of girls will represent Rahway High School in the near future, and it also probably means trouble from an unexpected angle for those Plainfield and North Plainfield High School maidens. Although Rahway High School has not been represented by a sextet in several years, records established by these teams are still remembered, and if the new outfit follows in the footsteps of their older sisters, Rahway's going to have a brand new company in the championship parade and it already sports several floats.

FOOTBALL MAKES MEN.

That college football, with its rigorous training, necessity for self-control and ability to surmount repeated setbacks on the part of its players, is particularly fitting for a successful political career later in life would appear to be indicated by the number of famous players who have achieved positions of prominence in both State and nation. There is seldom an election of importance in which some football player is not elevated to public life by the voters of one or another political party. These former knights of the gridiron are selected or appointed to all manner of political positions, and, almost without exception, discharge the duties of their offices in an extremely satisfactory manner.

HYDE OVAL A REAL FIELD.

So great has been the success with which those North Plainfield High School baseball players have met during their campaign for funds to reconstruct Hyde Oval, their present ball park, that, sufficient money has now been collected to enable them to turn the field into one of the best ball parks in this section, not excluding Parker Field. The location of the field is ideal and a few dollars spent in the right way will turn it into a great playing field.

LATE BUT SUGGESTIVE.

Someone has come across with a suggestion advocating a three-cornered basketball league to put a great finale on the present season with North Plainfield High School, Hope Chapel and the Y. M. C. A. as contenders. This sounds good and would without a doubt be the real thing as far as the fans were concerned, but for what title could they fight? We might suggest the International Championship, Canada being the leading consideration.

"Flock" Luyster, the batter who brought the Central New Jersey League championship to these diggings last year, has announced that he has become a holdout and will not sign a New England League contract this season. Here's your chance to corral a star, Ernie, old man.

That Somerset county interscholastic baseball league this season ought to be the real thing in spring athletic competition in these parts. N. P. H. S. is evidently counting on having a real ball nine once more.

While en route to Newark, Saturday night, to take part in the Central High meet, Jack Fritts was asked if he intended to win the mile in which he had a sixty-five yard handicap and he replied that he never would have left the little city by the hills if he didn't intend to cop a first place. Jack must have been laboring under an illusion.

Bill Schardt, Indianapolis pitcher, formerly with Brooklyn, has proposed a ruling to the players' fraternity to improve conditions of the players who are compelled to play extra exhibition games throughout the summer and get nothing for it. The frat likely would have taken it up this winter had it not been for so many other measures in regard to the signing of players, recently adopted. It is due for a hearing next fall.

Queries, Comment and Answers

Sporting Editor:

Query—What was Jack Martin's batting average for last year?—L. D. T.

Answer—Jack clouted the phere at a .294 clip. He was in 131 games and got 145 hits. Not so werse, eh?

Sporting Editor:

Query—Who is president of Cuba at the present time and what salary does he command? K. S.

Answer—The president is General Mario Menocal and he draws annually $25,000.

Sporting Editor:

Query—What is the saloon license in Plainfield?—B. A.

Answer—The retail license is $1,200 and the wholesale license $1,000

Sporting Editor:

Query—What was the original name of Park avenue?—L. S. I.

Answer—Cherry street was the name by which it went before "Park avenue" was introduced.

Sporting Editor:

Query—What will be the exact cost of building the new addition to the High School here?—M. M.

Answer—It is impossible to state the exact figures until the building is completed. The work will probably not be finished until April.

Sporting Editor:

Query—How many trains are there that stop here during the afternoon en route to Philadelphia—K. S.

Answer—Consult a timetable.

NEW BRUNSWICK NOW EVEN WITH JERSEY CITY

ELKS' LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	H. S.
New Brunswick	28	14	1052
Jersey City	28	14	1019
Newark	25	14	1012
Paterson	24	18	1011
New York	21	21	1008
Elizabeth	22	20	1057
Hoboken	22	20	995
Plainfield	20	22	1029
Rahway	13	29	927
Orange	7	38	968

New Brunswick bowlers, rolling on their own alleys last night, took three games in a row from the Hoboken quintet and thus tied the Jersey City pin knights for first place in the Elks' League, each having won twenty-eight games and lost four. The New-arks are now third, having lost the same number of games as the leaders, but with three less victories to their credit. The Elizabeths rolled in Orange last night and also made a clean sweep.

The scores:

HOBOKEN
Miller	173	204	199
Eppel	191	162	162
Duffy	166	144	201
Earle	198	198	225
Steinbruck	175	201	171
	903	909	958

NEW BRUNSWICK.
Greenwald	193	141	212
Harkins	167	195	208
Coyne	188	211	170
Burton	225	176	208
McCormick	197	191	191
	970	914	989

PRACTICE IN Y. M. C. A.

Returning Manager Van Mater's favor of two weeks ago, Captain Dickerson, of the Leal's School team, invited the North Plainfield High School basketball team to the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon, for practice in consideration of today's league contest. The boroughites practiced for an hour.

KNIGHTS IN ACTION.

The Watchung Council bowling team will roll a series in connection with the Knights of Columbus bowling league tonight with the Star of Bethlehem five.

COLORED COURT GAME.

The Nonpareil and Oak Club basketball teams, two fast local aggregations, will meet for the second time this season on the Saengerbund Hall court tonight.

—Something unusual for the table is always a welcome treat to the home folks. The ad-reading women does not find the problem hard.

CORNELL WILL HAVE BIG ATHLETIC FIELD

One to Rival the Big Yale Bowl to Be Constructed in Ithaca.

While the new Yale bowl work on which is being pushed, will be the biggest athletic stadium in the country, it is interesting to note that two universities in New York State will rank very favorably with it. One of these is at Syracuse and the other at Cornell. Work on the latter is now under way.

There will be three separate fields for football, baseball and track at Ithaca which will cost approximately $200,000. In addition to this, about $100,000 will be spent by the Cornell authorities in erecting training quarters. They will be located in a building 200 feet long. The football and baseball stands are to be constructed of concrete and will have seating capacities of 9,000 and 6,000 respectively.

The reinforced concrete stadium at Syracuse is one of the most notable products of modern engineering and was the first one built in the United States with the playing field below the level of the ground. It has a seating capacity of 20,000 and was built at an initial expenditure of $800,000.

The Pennsylvania grand stand at Franklin Field is constructed of stone, brick and wood, and is one of the largest in the United States, having a seating capacity of 27,000. This structure, with the adjoining gymnasium, cost $500,000.

The stands at the present Yale Field are the largest wooden stands which have ever been built, having a capacity of 38,089. With one or two exceptions, such as the concrete high school stadium at Seattle, Wash., practically all other private grand stands in the United States are wooden and are of relatively small capacity.

When the present Harvard stadium was first constructed it had an actual seating capacity of 22,000, but since then, by the addition of the colonnade and the wooden stands at the east end of the field, the original capacity has been doubled, for at the Yale game last fall over 45,000 seats were allotted. This structure is at present the largest in the East and cost $375,000.

At Princeton, plans for a new stadium are being discussed, but to date no definite statement has been issued.

Y. M. C. A. WILL PLAY.

Contrary to expectations, the Y. M. C. A. basketball team will appear in its weekly game on the Y. M. C. A. court next Saturday night and the aggregation will not go to Belleville as previously announced. Summit Chapel Club will furnish the opposition and the Belleville trip has been pushed ahead one week.

FITZSIMMONS MUST PUT UP OR SHUT UP

'Ruby' Robert Meets Another Obstacle in His Troubles Against Commission.

Attorney-General Carmodey yesterday called the turn on Robert Fitzsimmons, the former heavyweight champion pugilist of the world, who, although a resident of the State of New Jersey, has been freely using the machinery of the courts of the State of New York without putting up the customary and legal undertaking, which in the case wherein Ruby Robert sought to remove the ban of the New York State Athletic Commission against his boxing in New York amounts to about $250.

Deputy Attorney-General William A. McQuade went before Justice Bijur of the Supreme Court yesterday and asked that Fitzsimmons be compelled to put up the customary security before he proceeded with his application for a stay pending his appeal from the recent decision of Justice Seabury, who upheld the Athletic Commission in its decision barring the former heavyweight champion from keeping his engagement to spar ten rounds with Soldier Kearns before the Atlantic Garden Athletic Club.

By consent of George C. Norton, of 115 Broadway, attorney for Fitzsimmons, the case was postponed until next Tuesday. By that time Mr. Norton expects to show that although Fitzsimmons does own a farm out in Dunellen, where he trains, he also owns property in Brooklyn and hence there is no necessity for compelling him to put up any bond for costs. Mr. Norton said in discussing the case afterward:

"The action of the Attorney-General merely amounts to this: no one has any constitutional rights in this State unless he has $250. Constitutional rights are not for the poor but only for those who can afford to put up bonds or who have plenty of property on which the State can levy in case of an adverse decision. Fortunately Fitzsimmons can do both, and we shall contest to the bitter end the right of any three men, appointed even by the Governor, who arrogate to themselves the power to prevent a boxer in first-class standing and in excellent physical condition from following his profession in this State.

"It won't be long before Fitzsimmons will have licked everybody in the ring today who will dare to get into the ropes with him—but he will probably have to do it outside of New York for awhile. From now on it will be one grand tour with Fitz putting 'em to sleep all over the country. Then we will see what the Athletic Commission and the Court of Appeals will do about it. The people of New York want to see Fitzsimmons box and they're not going to rest until they do."

"That's all right," said the Deputy Attorney-General when he heard of Mr. Norton's attitude, "but all we ask is that Fitz play the legal game like all other litigants. Being, as we contend, a non-resident, Fitz must put up or shut up. He can't forever go merrily on using our courts for relief without doing as other New Jerseyites do—Put up a bond."

ELIZABETH ALSO COPS THREE FROM ORANGE PINNERS

Elizabeth bowlers had little trouble in taking three games in the Elks' League match at Orange. The Betsytown performers were there for 943 in the initial encounter and the home five was almost 100 pins to the bad. The visitors came back stronger than ever and tallied 969, while Orange only accumulated 843. In the last game the home five had 734, while Elizabeth accounted for 897. Joe Nolte rolled 212 and 205 and had an average of 204-1. Henry Clauss was there for 220 and 203 and his average was 201. Maloney rolled 218. Haines was high for Orange with 207.

The scores:

ELIZABETH.
Nolte	212	196	205
Keller	194	175	192
Maloney	176	218	182
Clauss	203	220	180
Bock	158	160	138
	943	969	897

ORANGE.
Haines	177	207	125
Keaster	158	141	126
Henderson	157	193	193
Cooper	168	167	129
Oetzel	189	135	158
	849	843	734

N. P. H. S. AT LAST DEFEATED BY RIVALS

For the First Time This Year Boroughites Bow to a P. H. S. Quintet.

For the first time this year, a Plainfield High School basketball team defeated a North Plainfield team, when the Senior five of the city institution invaded Saengerbund Hall and beat the borough Juniors in a fast game by the score of 34 to 27, yesterday afternoon. The entire forty minutes of play was exciting and both teams kept the scorers busy. The first period ended with the visitors leading by three points, the score being 19 to 16.

Plainfield led in allround playing in the second half and a scoring rally that did not stop until the final whistle had blew. Fetherstone and Day were the mainstays of the vanquished, Day leading with fourteen points. Cottrell was high scorer with eight baskets and one foul.

The score:

P. H. S.	G.	F.	P.
Cottrell, f	9	1	19
Blair, f	2	1	5
Gavett, c	4	0	8
Williams, g	1	0	2
Goodrich, g	0	0	0
	16	2	34

N. P. H. S.	G.	F.	P.
Fetherstone, f	3	1	7
Day, f	7	0	14
Chandler, c	0	1	1
Hughes, g	0	1	1
French, g	0	3	3
	10	6	27

*One point awarded.

Summary: Time of halves 20 minutes; referee, Abrams; umpire, D. MacNamee; scorer, Dunning; timers, Nash and Denny.

Score by period.

P. H. S.	19	15—34
N. P. H. S.	16	11—27

COLE A YANKEE.

King Cole, former Cub pitcher, signed a one-year contract with the New York American League club yesterday afternoon. His contract calls for a salary of $3,300.

LOCAL SCHOOLS ARE LISTED IN CLASSES

Plainfield High School Will Probably Be Represented in Big Meet.

Invitations were received today by the various high school and preparatory school track team managers in this vicinity for the twenty-second relay races of the University of Pennsylvania to be held on Franklin Field, Philadelphia, April 25. Judging from a survey of the local and surrounding schools the entry list will be larger than ever this year for the classic event. The relays enjoy the distinction of not only being by far the largest track meet, but they are so attractive that more schools train and schedule meets of the year.

Last year nearly eight colleges were on hand with nearly 200 schools. This year the tools and colleges will be more numerous and although the college invitations have been out but one week the acceptances amount up to forty, with Harvard, Princeton, Yale and other big colleges on the list.

As usual, quite a few changes have been made in the classification of the various schools and Plainfield High School has been placed in Class 7 among the high schools. Leal School ranks in Class 8 among the preparatory schools and Rahway is in Class 6 of the high schools, two rungs above the local.

TIES FOR FIRST AND SECOND POSITIONS IN FENCE VAULT

O'Donnell and Brunnelley chalked up the best marks in the College League fence vault in the Y. M. C. A. boys department yesterday afternoon, their record of sixty-two inches going for first place. King and Naylor were also tied for second.

The scores:

	in.
O'Donnell, Columbia	62
Brunnelley, Princeton	62
King, Yale	58
H. Naylor, Harvard	58
Angerbauer, Harvard	56
Brower, Yale	56
Johnson, Yale	56
Tomlinson, Columbia	56
H. Willett, Yale	54
Ross, Princeton	54
Manley, Columbia	54
Morrell, Harvard	54
Blake, Harvard	54
Ericson, Princeton	53
Witsie, Harvard	53
Drake, Harvard	52
Lunger, Princeton	52
Hamman, Columbia	52
Bolsterle, Princeton	50

Y. M. C. A. LEADERS MET.

Members of the Y. M. C. A. senior department leader corps met in the association parlors last night and at that time Benjamin Harris was elected vice president of the corps. The first social under the auspices of the organization will be held tonight and all branches of the association work will be represented.

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY

from the fact that breakdowns will happen, no matter how high a grade of wheel you own. Unless you are exceptionally fortunate, you'll need our services as bicycle repairers par excellence sooner or later. True, you may save a mishap by letting us overhaul your machine after a long ride; but at any and all times will do the best possible for you and your wheel.

LEO ZEISEL

Bicycles, Sundries, Musical Instruments and Sporting Goods.

Temporary at 328 W. Front St. Permanent Headquarters after March 1st, 222 W. Front St., Next Door to Proctor's.

LIST OF ENTRANTS FOR POOL TOURNEY

Results of Last Night's Contests in Elks' Club Pool Tournament.

ELKS' CLUB POOL TOURNEY.

Individual Standing.

	Hcap	W.	L.	P. C.
Mundy	100	1	0	1,000
Emmons	90	1	0	1,000
Lohrman	85	1	0	1,000
DeMeza	60	1	0	1,000
Dencklan	60	1	0	1,000
Hardingham	100	0	1	.000
Hand	100	0	1	.000
Van Emburgh	90	0	1	.000
Westcott	90	0	1	.000
Crist	60	0	1	.000

Scheduled for Tonight.

Fred Firstbrook (100) vs. William Heath (70).

Lorenzo Townsley (100) vs. George Bird (70).

Three more contests were laid on the shelf in the Elks' Club pool tournament last night, Lohrman defeating Van Emburgh, Mundy defeating Crist and Emmons winning from Westcott.

The scores:

	Handicap	Net
Lohrman	85	87
Van Emburgh	90	88
Mundy	100	100
Crist	60	58
Emmons	90	90
Westcott	90	73

In the above matches the first one was by far the closest, the two contestants being evenly matched and exhibiting some good pool. Emmons and Westcott, playing on even terms, excited considerable interest among those who witnessed the games, Emmons finally winning out.

Those in the tournament and their rating are as follows:

	Handicap
Hardinghani	100
Hand	100
Hoyt	100
Mundy	1[illegible]
F. Firstbrook	1[illegible]
L. Townley	1[illegible]
J. Lane	1[illegible]
Ardern	[illegible]
Van Emburgh	[illegible]
French	[illegible]
Powers	[illegible]
J. Todd	90
Dally	90
Banks	90
E. Emmons	90
G. Westcott	[illegible]
C. Woolston	90
A. Van Arsdale	90
H. Blimm	[illegible]
C. Pope	[illegible]
Prudhon	[illegible]
Lohrman	85
Duckworth	[illegible]
W. Firstbrook	[illegible]
G. Bird	[illegible]
Heath	70
Crist	60
Osmun	60
H. DeMeza	60
Dencklan	60

OHIO STATE BOWLING TOURNEY.

Toledo, O., Feb. 4.—Beginning today and continuing for a period of two and possibly three weeks Toledo is to entertain the annual meeting and tournament of the Ohio State Bowling Association. Individual and team bowlers are already here from numerous points and many more are expected when the tournament gets fully under way.

GIANTS TURN HOMEWARD.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Cairo, Egypt, Feb. 4.—The members of the New York Giants and Chicago White Sox who are touring the world, introducing baseball, turned their faces toward home today, when they left for Alexandria en route to Italy.

QUEER BASEBALL ADS.

Would Look Out of Place to One Ignorant of Slang.

To one not familiar with the vernacular of baseball the classified want columns of a baseball paper contain some astonishing statements. Recently a player advertising for a position announced that he had spent the last three years with California outlaws. Another, yearning to break into the big leagues, proclaims that salary is no object, which ought to help his case considerably.

A left handed Indian and white promoters for a negro league are requested to open correspondence. A batter who bats both ways and an educated press agent can also find positions.

Harvard to Row Navy.

Harvard has accepted the invitation from rowing associations at Annapolis to enter the varsity crews in the races on the Severn next spring. The navy, reports say, will entertain the Crimson crew from April 19 to 25 with a race between the Wray coached first and second eights and those of the middies taking place during that time.

FIFTY TAUGHT TO SWIM.

Fifty members of the Y. M. C. A. boys' department were taught to swim by Instructor Henri Welle during the fall, many members taking advantage of the opportunities offered in the class which was conducted from 3 to 4 o'clock each Tuesday afternoon. Welle is continuing his work of instruction and the class is open to all Y. M. C. A. members.

HIGH SCORE RECORD.

The St. Benedict's "prep" school basketball team set up a new record for high scoring yesterday afternoon when it defeated the Upsala College quintet by a count of 120 to 11 in a regulation forty minute game.

N. P. H. S. GIRLS' GAME.

An eleventh hour arrangement gave the North Plainfield High School girls' basketball team a game for this afternoon and the boroughites are playing Westfield High on the latter's court.

YESTERDAY'S LOCAL WEATHER.

8 a. m. temperature	28
8 p. m. temperature	42
Maximum temperature	48
Minimum temperature	25
Mean temperature	36
Normal temperature	26

THE TEMPERATURE.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 38 degrees; 11 a. m., 52 degrees; 1 p. m., 57 degrees.

—Daily Press want ads. bring results

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probabzly come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists
AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Free Consultation.
Hours 10 to 4:30.

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOM
Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces
KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.
William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964.
OPP. DEPOT.

HORSES CLIPPED
By Charles C. Brower,
PLAINFIELD CAB CO.,
130-134 E. Second St. 'Phone 10.
11 & 6mos

B. KIVATINOS
(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 886-W

[illegible] Z Inc.
BABCOCK BUILDING
CANDIES, ICE CREAM
DAINTY LUNCH

HODGE'S PHARMACY
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

JOHN P. WHITE.

Active In the Demand For Miners' Wage Increase.

A flat increase of 5 cents a ton on a mine run basis, a 10 per cent increase on all dead work, yardage and day labor, and a holiday on Saturdays were the principal recommendations of the scale committee submitted to the convention of the United Mine Workers of America. The report is the basis for work of the joint conference of miners and operators of the central competitive field, which meets in Philadelphia next Tuesday. This field includes Illinois, Ohio, Indiana and western Pennsylvania. John P. White, president of the organization, spoke in favor of the 5 cents advance. He said the demand was reasonable and believed it would be granted by the operators.

ANOTHER N. Y. GIRL STRANGELY MISSING

Kisses Her Mother Goodby, Then Disappears.

New York, Feb. 4.—A pretty sixteen-year-old high school girl is missing from her home in Brooklyn, and the police have been asked to search for her. After kissing her mother goodby Florence Lawlor, a pupil at the Girls' high school, Brooklyn, left her home at 5619 Fifteenth avenue, Borough Park, on her way to school and has not been seen by her parents since then.

The girl's father, George H. Lawlor, is a druggist at 1401 Sixtieth street. His missing daughter has blond hair and blue eyes, weighs 135 pounds, is five feet four inches in height and is a member of the Sigma Delta Phi fraternity at the high school, which is located in Nostrand avenue, an hour's ride from her parents' home.

When the girl started for school she wore a round black velvet hat with a single feather, a blue coat with big round red buttons, tan shoes and stockings. A bracelet not initialed encircled one of her wrists. She also wore a diamond cluster ring, a signet ring with her mother's initials, "M. L." set with two diamonds, and a Sigma Delta Phi ring. A gold pin which she wore was engraved with her initials, "F. L." Suspended from a gold chain about her neck was a little gold basket.

The last seen of Miss Lawlor was when a girl friend left her on a Sixteenth avenue car bound for Fulton street.

The parents of the missing girl are at a loss to account in any way for her absence. They say that Florence was perfectly happy. She went to church and Sunday school and had never been afflicted with aphasia or hysteria or inclined toward romancing. Mrs. Lawlor, the girl's mother, is in a state of collapse.

SHARP IN PLACE OF PINDELL.

Ohio Representative to Be Urged For St. Petersburg Post.

Washington, Feb. 4.—Senator Pomerene and Democratic members of the Ohio delegation in the house will call on President Wilson Thursday and formally recommend Representative William G. Sharp of Ohio for appointment as ambassador to Russia.

Mr. Sharp is a wealthy manufacturer who is second in rank on the foreign affairs committee of the house and is a member of the Interparliamentary union.

The movement in his behalf was taken up by other members of the Ohio delegation in congress who believe that if Representative Sharp is nominated that he will accept. It is known that President Wilson at one time considered favorably the appointment of Representative Sharp to a foregn mission.

WEATHER EVERYWHERE.

Observations of the United States weather bureau taken at 8 p. m. yesterday follow:

	Temp.	Weather.
Albany	38	Cloudy
Atlantic City	46	Cloudy
Boston	48	Cloudy
Buffalo	40	Cloudy
Chicago	26	Cloudy
New Orleans	52	Clear
New York	48	Cloudy
St. Louis	26	Clear
Washington	54	Cloudy

—Jacob Gernert, newsdealers, Somerville, sells the Daily Press or will deliver it to your home each day

—At Westfield, C. F. Witke has the Daily Press on sale each day.

'WAR NOW OVER,' SAYS GEN. VILLA

Asserts That Wilson's Action Means Mexico's Freedom.

ORDER IS EFFECTIVE NOW

President Takes Drastic Step and Allows Rebels to Import United States Arms—His Policy Has Been of Assistance to Huerta.

WILSON EXPLAINS LIFTING EMBARGO.

The executive order under which the exportation of arms and ammunition into Mexico is forbidden was a departure from the accepted practices of neutrality—a deliberate departure from those practices under a well considered joint resolution of congress—determined upon in circumstances which have now ceased to exist.

It was intended to discourage incipient revolts against the regularly constituted authorities of Mexico. Since that order was issued the circumstances of the case have undergone a radical change. There is now no constitutional government in Mexico, and the existence of this order hinders and delays the very thing the government of the United States is now insisting upon—namely, that Mexico shall be left free to settle her own affairs and as soon as possible put them upon a constitutional footing by her own force and counsel. The order is therefore rescinded.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 4.—"The war is over." This was Pancho Villa's first comment when told of President Wilson's decision to raise the embargo on arms and ammunition "I want to thank the United States for its action. Wilson's decision does him honor, for it does justice to Mexico. With plenty of ammunition at our command the Constitutionalist revolution will sweep Huerta's forces from Mexico in a short while.

"Once more we have proof that the United States is the greatest friend the Mexican people have. This latest act of friendship will do more than anything else to bind the two countries together."

The rebel leader's eyes shone with delight as he walked nervously up and down the room. Friends crowded in to congratulate him.

"We could have been in Mexico City by now if we had possessed all the ammunition we needed," he said. "As it was we had to capture most of our weapons and cartridges from the federals. But now, thank God, the greatest obstacle to our success is removed.

"Your president is a great man. I don't think the Americans as a whole realize how strong and good a character he is. His decision means freedom for Mexico and the erection of a government like your own. Of course we would have won anyhow, but the lifting of the embargo will make things much easier. Thousands of lives will be saved by that act."

Washington, Feb 4.—President Wilson decided to remove the embargo on the exportation of arms and munitions of war to Mexico, thus enabling the Constitutionalist army, which is fighting to oust General Huerta from the presidency, to arm their men properly at last.

The president's decision means that both the Huerta and Carranza forces will be permitted to purchase arms and munitions of war in the United States and export them to Mexico, but it has been contended that Huerta has been able to buy all the arms he needs abroad while the Constitutionalists, limited almost entirely to shipments from the United States, could get their arms and ammunition only by smuggling.

It is believed here that the president determined to permit the exportation of arms to Mexico because he was convinced that in maintaining the embargo the United States was showing partiality to Huerta rather than neutrality.

Assurances have been given frequently to the administration that if the United States would permit free shipment of arms to the forces headed by General Carranza the Constitutionalists would restore peace in Mexico and set up a constitutional government within a short time.

Send Word to Mexico.

The restoration of peace in Mexico without recognizing the authority of General Huerta has been President Wilson's earnest desire.

A proclamation permitting the export of arms and ammunition is expected to issue from the White House within a short time. It became known that the subject was discussed at the session of the cabinet.

It was reported that the announcement of the president's determining to lift the embargo has already been forwarded to Mr. O'Shaughnessy, the American charge in Mexico City, probably accompanied by instructions to notify the Huerta government.

The exportation of arms to Mexico was barred by a proclamation issued by President Taft on March 14, 1912, under the authority of a resolution of congress empowering him to do so "whenever he found that in any American country conditions of domestic violence exist which are promoted by the use of arms and munitions of war procured from the United States."

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It pays.

—Daily Press want ads. bring results.

Get the clean, pure, healthful

WRIGLEY'S SPEARMINT

with your paper every night.

Get an appetite with it—purify your breath with it. Preserve the teeth and improve the digestion of your family. It costs less than a cent a stick if you of twenty 5 cent packages — for 65 cents — of most dealers.

BUY IT BY THE BOX

Be SURE it's WRIGLEY'S and get real mint leaf juice—real 'springy' gum with no after taste.

It's the hospitality confection, ideal to have in the house for family or friends. It stays fresh until used.

Be SURE it's WRIGLEY'S
Look for the spear

Chew it after every meal

OUR MID-WINTER FURNITURE SALE

We are selling lots of good Furniture and Bedding at this time, for the trade know us and the character of our goods and appreciate the advantage of a sale like this—and only need to be told about it.

WE DO SELL GOOD FURNITURE AT LESS PRICES THAN ANY OTHER STORE.

Just visit our store, look through carefully, note the splendid savings on our regular goods; many odd pieces at specially low prices.

JUST NOTE THESE EXTRAORDINARY VALUES.

ODD CHIFFONIERS in many styles of oak, mahogany, birdseye maple and Circassian walnut, from ..... $8.98 to $24.00

ODD DRESSERS in many styles of oak, mahogany, birdseye maple and Circassian walnut, from ..... $9.98 to $35.00

SAMPLE BRASS BEDS, finish guaranteed— ... $10.50, $13.50, $16.50, $18.50, $23.50

GOOD QUALITY 9x12 AXMINSTER RUGS, $22.50 & $25.00 values, at $18.98

Be Sure and See Our Window Display—It Means Money Saved.

WE GIVE AND REDEEM SURETY COUPONS.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON
BABCOCK BUILDING PLAINFIELD, N. J.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office, Rowleys' Drug Store, 218 West Front St. Tel. 2081-J-2.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-19

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 1155

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street. Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel
Waiting room at Kensington Hotel, Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD
WEEK DAYS
Leave Plainfield—7.45, 9.00, 11.45 a. m., 1.00, 4.00, 5.00, 7.00, 9.00, 10.20, x11.10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—8.00, 9.30 a. m., 12.00, 1.30, 4.30, 5.30, 7.30, 9.30, 10.45, x11.30 p. m.
xSaturdays only
SUNDAYS
Leave Plainfield—9.00, 12.00 a. m., 2.00, 4.00, 5.00, 9.00 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—10.00 a. m., 12.15, 2.30, 4.30, 5.30, 9.30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE AND MT. BETHEL.
WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6.30 a. m., 3.00, 6.25, x11.00 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6.45 a. m., 3.15, 6.40, x11.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3.40, 6.50, x11.30 p. m.
Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.
Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30, 7.30, x11.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.40, x11.45 p. m.
Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 7.55, x12.00 p. m.
xSaturdays only
Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9.00 a. m. instead of 6.30 a. m. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STERLING.
WEEK DAYS ONLY.
Leave Plainfield—8.45 a. m., 4.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—9.00 a. m., 4.45 p. m.
Leave Stirling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m.
8.45 a. m. bus connects with 9.57 a. m. train at Stirling, for Newark.
4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m. train at Stirling, from Newark.

An enclosed electric-lighted and heated bus may be procured for an afternoon or evening from The Plainfield Transit Co., to carry from 15 to 25 passengers to any point within a radius of 25 miles from Plainfield.
R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. 'Phone 130, Plainfield.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN.
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
714 Webster Place, Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1309-R.

Safe Deposit and Storage Vaults

In a building of fireproof construction

INCREASING YOUR POSSESSIONS

may be your first business in life but it is quite as necessary to

SAFEGUARD WHAT YOU HAVE.

It has cost this Company thousands of dollars to erect its massive vaults but the security which they afford is offered to you for a nominal sum. If you will call at the bank our Officers will be glad to show you our safe deposit boxes, the smallest of which will hold many valuable papers.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Boxes may be rented for $5.00 to $150.00 a year.

AMUSEMENTS.

MOVING PICTURES

Under Auspices of

PLAINFIELD WOMEN'S EXCHANGE

THURSDAY, FEB. 12

IN

Y. M. C. A. HALL

Two Matinees at 2:00 and 3:45
Evening at 8:15
Admission Matinee 10c, Evening 25c
Tickets at Women's Exchange and at door.
1 31 2 s-w

Lyric Theatre

202 WEST FRONT STREET.
Daylight Motion Pictures.
Changed Every Day.
Admission, Mat., 5c; Evening, 10c
11 1 tf w-th-f-s

Stop! Look! and Listen!

Twenty-five desirable building lots felt at $75.00 each. Sold on terms to suit the purchaser; located at LINCOLN HEIGHTS, N. J., in a fine industrial location, near large industry in course of construction. Apply to WILLIAM J. DAVENPORT at first house west of Dunellen Car barn.
1 30 6

L. Moraller & Son

WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS

WATCHES, CLOCKS and JEWELRY

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.
Jobbing a specialty Estimates cheerfully given. Telephone 347-J.
1120 Myrtle Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

—Advertise in the Daily Press, pays.

NECESSITY -- PRUDENCE -- CONVENIENCE

All these point the way to a Safe Deposit Box in the Manganese Vault of The State Trust Company. Necessity because the Safe Deposit Vault has long since superseded the secret hiding place. Prudence because of the maximum of protection afforded. Convenience because of ease of access.

Rentals $5 to $100 per year. Hours 8:15 to 4:30.

SERVICE

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

At the sign of the clock. 201 Park Ave.

THE POWLISON & JONES FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

TODAY, FEBRUARY 2, WE BEGIN OUR FEBRUARY SALE OF FURNITURE

The discontinued and unmatched pieces are taken from our regular stock and marked at prices much below their real value. The offering includes many artistic reproductions and period pieces and represent all the standard woods. Furniture that meets the needs of every part of the Home.

It's the kind of FURNITURE everybody wants and at the price concessions we make they are real bargains both in quality and price. The pieces we offer are not factory "Seconds" bought for the purpose of making a sale, but good dependable FURNITURE.

It includes DINING-ROOM and CHAMBER SUITS as well as single pieces of all kinds, LEATHER COVERED CHAIRS and ROCKERS, LIBRARY TABLES, METAL BEDS and a host of odd pieces. The quality will please you and the price interest you.

We will be glad to have you visit our warerooms no matter if you wish to buy or not.

POWLISON & JONES

149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

NO WOMAN CONSIDERS---

her wardrobe complete without a pair of TAN BOOTS, heavy or light weight as her fancy dictates, but tan they must be.

We have them in all leathers.

$3.50 TO $6

M. C. Van Arsdale

127 E. FRONT ST.

AMUSEMENTS AMUSEMENTS

Here It Is the Best Yet

"A Dutch Courtship"

A one-act musical comedy production different from the rest, with a definite plot and original music.

PROCTOR'S VAUDEVILLE FRONT ST. THEATRE

Thursday, Friday and Saturday

And a Big Vaudeville Program Including

Mlle. SALAYA, acrobatic novelty; YERRICK & PEASE, a Variety of Varieties, MUSICAL COATTAS, "A Morning in Bellville;" LILLIAN PRICE and HARMONY BOYS and

Sherman DeForest Co., in the Rip-roaring Burlesque Comedy

"The Battle of San Dago"

Continuous 2-5; 7-11; Saturdays All Day; Prices 10c, 15c, 25c.

DON'T STOP SAVING

Some young people resolve to save and for a time they deposit their money regularly in the Bank—but after a while they lose interest and spend money for luxuries not actually needed.
Start an account now with us and determine to make a deposit to your credit each week.

4 PER CENT. INTEREST PAID.

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

THE ONLY SAVINGS BANK IN PLAINFIELD.
ORGANIZED 1868.

OFFICERS.

WM. F. ARNOLD ..... President
A. C. STEBBINS ..... Vice President
JAMES C. POPE ..... Secretary and Treasurer
H. A. POPE ..... Assistant Secretary and Treasurer
H. B. MacDONALD ..... Second Assistant Secretary and Treasurer

Money deposited by the third of the month will draw interest from the first.

Curtice Bros. Blue Label Catsup large bottle 18c

S. Scheuer & Company

BEST GROCERIES AT LOWEST PRICES

Curtice Bros. Assorted Jams New Goods bottle 15c

Scheuer's xxxx Minnesota Patent Flour 24½ lb bag 72c, per barrel $5.64

Refined Granulated Sugar 25-lb bags $1.15	Campbell's Baked Beans 3 cans 25c	B. T. Babbitt's White Naphtha Soap 7 cakes 25c	Huyler's Breakfast Cocoa 25c size 19c
Choice Pink Salmon 1-lb can, 3 for 25c	Old Dutch Cleanser Chases Dirt 3 cans 25c	Scheuer's Premium Chocolate ½-lb cakes, 2 cakes 25c	Shad Roe ½-lb cans 2 cans 25c
Bufeeco Rolled Oats 40c size, package 8c	Leggitt's Premier Corn Flakes large package 8c	Steero Boullion Cubes 30c kind 25c	Dr. Johnson's Loose Educator Wafers lb 15c
Robertson's Scotch Orange Marmalade 1-lb jars 15c	Fancy California Bartlett Pears, large cans; Extra special, 2 cans 25c	Albert's Washing Compound Regular 10c size a package 3c	Swift's Borax Soap 10 cakes 37c
Pride of the Farm Catsup or Onion Salad, Bottle 9c	Swift's or Armour's Sliced Bacon 1-lb jars 27c	Assorted Mixed Candy or Chocolate Creams 3 lbs 25c	Just Received Pure Peanut Butter, lb 15c
Large Cans of Fancy Cut Beets a can 9c	Fancy No. 3 Tomatoes large can a can 8c	Fancy Empress Brand Asparagus large spears, can 17c	Extra Fancy California Delmonte Asparagus Extra Thick Spears, can 23c

FRESH CEREALS.

Pinhead Oatmeal, 5c lb, 6 lbs 25c
Southern Hominy, 3 lbs 10c
Rolled Oats, 6 lbs 25c
New Farina, 6c lb, 4 lbs 22c
Best Head Rice, 3 lbs 25c
Imported Lentils, 7c lb, 4 lbs 25c
White or Yellow Meal, 3 lbs 10c

PEAS AND BEANS.

Whole Green Peas, lb 6c
Yellow Split Peas, lb 6c
Green Split Peas, lb 6c
Red Kidney Beans, lb 8c
Best Marrow Beans, lb 8c
Best Pea Beans, lb 6c
California Limas, lb 8c

SOUPS.

Richardson & Robbin's Tomato Soup, pint cans 10c
Franco-Amreican Ready-maid Soups, all kinds, can 8c
Campbell's Assorted Soups, 3 cans 25c
Richardson & Robbin's Chicken Broth, pint cans 10c

CALIFORNIA FRUITS, LARGE CANS—HUNT BROS.

Lemon Cling Peaches, can 23c
California Bartlett Pears, can 23c
Royal Anne Cherries, can 23c
Fancy Apricots, can 23c
Hawaiian Pineapple, can 23c
San Bernado Peaches, can 19c
Fancy Raspberries, can 15c

FANCY JERSEY BUCKWHEAT HONEY IN 1-lb COMBS—SPECIAL, BOX 16c

10 S&H STAMPS WITH

Royal Dental Cream 10c
1 Box Ball Blue 10c
1 Box Royal Talcum Powder 10c
1 Box Royal Tooth Paste 10c
1 Package Macaroni 10c
1 Bottle Lemon or Vanila 15c
1 Can Black Jack Stove Polish 10c
1 Can Liquid Enameline 10c
1 Package Parlor Matches 12c
Large Bottle Ammonia 10c
7-lb bag Salt 10c
1 Bottle Shoe Polish 10c

EXTRA STAMPS WITH TEAS.

125 Stamps with 1 lb Tea 70c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Tea 60c
80 Stamps with 1 lb Tea 50c
50 Stamps with 1 lb Tea 40c
40 Stamps with 1 lb Tea 35c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Baking Powder 45c

EXTRA STAMPS WITH COFFEES.

10 Stamps with 1 lb Santos 25c
15 Stamps with 1 lb Maracaibo 27c
20 Stamps with 1 lb Premium Java 27c
20 Stamps with 1 lb Java 29c
25 Stamps with 1 lb Java & Mocha 32c
30 Stamps with 1 lb Java & Mocha 35c

D. M. C. ROTH & Co.

SANITARY MARKET

New Sauerkraut, lb 5c
Pigs Feet, fresh, lb 6c
Small Fresh Cal Hams, (Spare Ribs), lb 14c
Fresh Shoulders, lb 14c
Reg. Fresh Hams, Pork Chops, Loin Pork, Pork to Roast, lb 16½c

DELICATESSEN DEPT.

Fresh Tripe, lb 10c
Chopped Cabbage Salad, lb 10c
Fish Cakes, 3 for 5c
Potatoe Salad, lb 12c
Pigs Feet in jelly, lb 12c
Lambs Tongue, each 6c
Meat Croquets, 2 for 5c

CANNED GOODS.

Can Corn 7c
Can String Beans 7c
Booth's Catsup, bottle 8c

CAMPBELL'S SOUPS.

Clam Chowder, Tomato, Consomme, Vegetable, can 8c
Fresh Butterine, lb 16c

J. L. BROWER

STATIONERY, BOOKS and MAGAZINES

311 PARK AVENUE

Valentines and Booklets from E. P. Dutton & Co.

Have you read?
The Initials
On the Branch
The Heart of Life

TELEPHONE 1012.

J. HIMMELFARB

Ladies' Tailor, Dressmaker and Furrier.

NOS. 309-311 NEW ST., BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH STS., TEL. 903-W.

Particular pains exercised in the making of a garment, the fitting of the same and attending properly to the little details that mean so much in the finished garment—thus satisfactions follows.

Expert workmanship and Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

I will appreciate a call and will be pleased to show styles and samples of work. Prices reasonable.

—It is wiser to know what a thing ought to cost before buying it; and ad-readers usually do know this.

Children's Shoes

Children's feet need considerable attention as they grow rapidly. Therefore they must be fitted correctly with the proper shapes, such as Tread-straight or Orthopedic lasts. We devote a large part of our time to children's footwear, and would like to convince you that our shoes and prices are both correct.

A. K. WILLETT

107 PARK AVENUE

"Oldest Shoe House in Town."

ASK THE MAN

for whom we have done plumbing and tinning of any description whether it wasn't an expert and scientific job. Or permit us to refer you to them, and when you want anything done in our line you will come to us. Let us give you an estimate on new or old work.

Work guaranteed satisfactorily done.

A stock of Hardware and Housefurnishing Goods unequalled in the city.

Let us serve you.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.
Two 'Phones 6—214

THE ONLY WAY to become familiar with local building progress is to read the Daily Press Building Page each Saturday.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.

Unsettled tonight and Friday, probably snow; colder tonight; light northeast winds.
Max., 56; Min., 29.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIFLD, NEW JERSEY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

NEVER RODE ON TRAIN OR TROLLEY

North Plainfield Man Has Lived in City 58 Years and Knows Not Broadway.

THINKS LIVING IS HIGH

George Shroppe, of Jackson Avenue, Holds Local Record—Longest Trip Was to Somerville Fair Many Years Ago.

"As has been said "contentment is the rarest jewel of life," then is George Shroppe, of 39 Jackson avenue, North Plainfield, rich indeed. For more than half a century he has lived here. During that long time he has never visited New York. Other cities, towns and villages have no attraction for him. He likes North Plainfield where he has liven so long and yearns for nothing, so he said today, that he does not possess.

Seventy-five years old, still hale and hearty, though his shoulders are a bit bowed from years of toil as a tailor, Mr. Shroppe lives a peaceful, orderly and quiet life, his only dissipation being an occasional visit, he declares, in warm weather, "across the brook" to Plainfield, and even trips of as short a distance as is that are but few and far between. He has lived in North Plainfield for fifty-eight years.

Never in all his life has Mr. Shroppe met a woman whom he cared for enough to marry, or so he said today, at all events. Certain it is that he has reached the ripe old age of 75, and in all those years he has had no wife, nor chick, nor child to bother or delight him.

No wanderlust; no yearning for other fields and pastures new does this aged resident of North Plainfield know. North Plainfield is good enough for him, he says, and there he still remains.

Railroad trains he sees and hears at times and also trolley cars. But he does not ride on either. And what's the use. North Plainfield is his home. He likes the place. He sees no reason whatsoever why he should make a visitation elsewhere and he don't.

Born in New York, his parents brought him over to New Jersey when he was two years old. They went to Morristown. Then they came to North Plainfield. Here Mr. Shroppe has resided ever since.

In the spring, the summer and the fall Mr. Shroppe plants and tends his garden, a spacious plot of ground at the rear of his house. Some of the green corn, peas, lima beans and other vegetables he sells about the neighborhood. He keeps some chickens, too, but he said today it's hardly worth his while as eggs are scarce in winter and chicken feed is high.

Averse to spending good money for which he receives no practical returns, aged Mr. Shroppe does not patronize the local theatres or moving picture shows. He is above all levity such as that. Years since, occasionally, he used to take a drive over to the old county fair at Somerville, but that was in his sprightly and far more youthful days.

While thoroughly contented with North Plainfield as a place of residence, Mr. Shroppe believes the living there to be highly expensive, declaring that one can live much more cheaply in almost every other place. This assertion, however, must be based upon neighborhood gossip and hearsay generally, it is believed, as the aged gentleman has not personally traveled away from home to any of those places that he mentions. He pays $50 taxes every year, and that is another expenditure that he says he always regrets.

The father of Mr. Shroppe lived to be eighty-eight years old. His mother died twenty-eight years since. Both his father and mother were born in Germany. Before Mr. Shroppe retired from the cares of an active business life he was employed as a coatmaker by Schwed Brothers, of West Front street.

PLAN TO CONSOLIDATE.

The women's missionary societies of the First Baptist church at a conference this week practically decided in favor of consolidation, believing that better results can be obtained from united effort, than in working independently as in the past. The interests of one society concerns the other and undoubtedly it will be voted to merge all the societies into one body.

WOMAN'S EXCHANGE ANNUAL.

The annual meeting of the board of managers of the Woman's Exchange will be held at the parish house of Grace church, Tuesday morning, February 10, at 10:45 o'clock. All subscribers are invited to be present.

—Mr. Geo. H. Losey, of Westfield, has just purchased an electric lighted and electric started Reo roadster from the E. & C. Auto Sales Co., 124 Madison avenue.—Adv. ***

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

MISS CREAGER WEDS ASHUR FLEMING

Ceremony Performed Last Night at Bride's Home by Rev. Dr. Anderson.

In the presence of the members of the immediate family, Miss Nellie Cregar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher L. Creger, and Ashur Fleming, of New Brunswick, were married last night at the home of the parents of the bride, at 345 Watchung avenue, North Plainfield. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson, of the First Methodist church.

The bride wore a handsome traveling gown. Miss Elva Lippincott, of the borough, was her maid-of-honor. The best man was Wells Creger, a brother. The maid of honor's gift to the bride, who has long been her intimate friend, was a very beautiful lavalliere of pearls and emeralds. After a wedding supper the newly-married couple left for New Brunswick, where the groom is engaged in business, and where they are to go to housekeeping.

Miss Elva Lippincott entertained the bride and numerous of her friends at a cobweb party Tuesday evening. The guests presented the bride with many handsome gifts, including china, cut glass, linen and a handsome bronze clock. There were games and singing during the evening and a delightful collation was served by the charming young hostess.

ANNUAL TURKEY SUPPER WAS AN ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The annual turkey dinner given last night by the Woman's Society for Christian Work at the Seventh-Day Baptist church was attended by fully 250 persons. The dinner was a thoroughly good one, and was followed later in the evening by an excellent entertainment. The table decorations were ferns and pink carnations. The dinner arrangements were in charge of Mrs. C. P. Titsworth. Members of the refreshment committee included Mrs. E. Frank Champlin, Mrs. M. L. Clawson, Mrs. George L. Babcock, Mrs. Asa F. Randolph, Mrs. O. B. Whitford, Mrs. C. H. Dunham, Mrs. W. C. Hubbard and Mrs. F. H. Smith

The young women who served were the Misses Dorothy P. Hubbard, Mary L. Hunting, Ethel L. Titsworth, Nellie St. John, Miriam E. West, Frances I. Kinne, Anna Stillman, Laura M. Stillman, Grace L. Stillman, Mary T. Green, Helen M. Rogers C. Isabel Randolph, Sina Greve and Mrs. F. A. Langworthy.

Mrs. A. W. Vars was chairman of the entertainment committee and was aided and assisted by Mrs. Raymond Burdick. A charming instrumental duet was played by Mrs. Roland M. Davis and Mrs. Theodore G. Davis. The ladies' chorus sang both old and new songs. Earl Barker and Roy Titsworth sang solos and there was a pantomime play given.

TELLS OF EDUCATIONAL VALUE OF MOTION PICTURES

General Secretary Hebert E. Parker, of the Y. M. C. A., addressed the members of the Bryant-Lincoln Parent-Teacher Association at its regular meeting in the Bryant School, yesterday afternoon. His topic was the "Educational Value of Moving Pictures." "The motion picture is more than a picture, it is a reality," said Mr. Parker. "It has come to stay and will ultimately play a large part in education. By means of it two years can be saved in the primary and secondary schools."

Mr. Parker also spoke of the ideal moving picture ordinance in force in East Orange. This city demands the greatest care in the construction of buildings for this purpose, was the opinion of the speaker, and also a close supervision of the entertainment. One of the best features of the ordinance referred to, in the opinion of Mr. Parker, is the clause requiring the use of the inverted light which makes it possible to exhibit the pictures in a light room.

MISSIONARY ALLIANCE MEETING

The C. and M. Alliance will hold their usual meeting at 3:30 and 7:45 in the Brick church, corner of Duer street and Craig place, tomorrow. James T. Jones and Mr. Young, of Nyack, will speak. A young peoples meeting will be held in the evening with special singing.

DR. R. V. PIERCE.

Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, father of Hugh V. Pierce, of this city, died yesterday at his winter home in Florida. He made a fortune in the patent medicine business. Three sons survive, Hugh V. Pierce, Ralph Pierce and Dr. Mott Pierce.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It brings results.

SECOND FIRE BURNED TWO-STORY BUNGALOW

Frame Structure Completely Destroyed by Blaze Discovered Last Night.

A fire, the origin of which is a mystery, was discovered in the bungalow just over the city line on Clinton avenue at 8:30 o'clock last evening and the proprietor, Peter Martin, sent in a call to the local headquarters for assistance. When the firemen arrived on the scene the frame structure was a mass of flames and the two story affair appeared doomed.

Immediately adjoining the Martin property are four similar bungalows and the firemen confined their efforts to saving these from the blaze which assumed a threatening appearance from the beginning and the excellent work of the local fire-fighters was responsible for the saving of the other buildings. The frame house burned readily and the structure was practically demolished before the fire was extinguished, contents valued at $250 being consumed by the blaze.

An effort was made to get the furniture out of the burning building and while engaged in this work, William Jaeger, one of the local firemen, was severely burned about the hands in handling hot furniture. So close were the other bungalows to the one owned by Martin that the flames scorched the side of the one adjoining the burning dwelling and it is probable that all would have been burned to the ground but for the work of the local department.

Monday afternoon a slight fire was discovered in the same house and the local firemen were called out to extinguish it. The blaze yesterday started in a different portion of the place and the previous fire is in no way attributed as the cause for this one. The damage to the building and contents will amount to $750, fully covered by insurance.

"PEOPLE'S FORUM" TO BE STARTED HERE

First Meeting Will Be Held on February 19 at Washington School.

As a feature of the movement having for its object the wider use of the public school buildings, a "People's Forum" for the discussion of public questions will be started at Washington School on Thursday evening, February 19. The committee having charge of the program has arranged for two addresses by men who are recognized leaders of public opinion. They are Dr. Thomas C. Hall, of New York, who will speak on "Free Speech," and Winston Paul, of Jersey City, who will have as his topic "Democratizing Public Schools." Following the speeches, opportunity will be afforded for open discussion. Admission will be free and everyone is cordially invited to attend.

The purpose of the "People's Forum" is to give opportunity for the presentaion of important subjects of a civic, political, industrial, sociological and ethical nature by experts together with a thorough public discussion of such questions in order to assist in the wise solution of present day problems by developing a sound public interest and promoting a true understanding of them.

Experience has shown that it is best that such a movement shall not ally itself with any political, social or religious party. The "People's Forum" of Plainfield will therefore be quite independent of all such parties. It will respect all differences of opinion and, by the cultivation of a spirit of tolerance and fraternity, will seek to unite all in a common effort for the advancement of the individual and society.

MAX SMELSON DIES FOLLOWING LONG ILLNESS

Max Smelson, aged 44 years, who was for eight years engaged in the restaurant business on Somerset street, died this morning at Liberty, Sullivan county, New York, where he was sent last Monday by his physician for treatment for trouble of long standing. Mr. Smelson had been a resident of Plainfield for a number of years.

There survives a wife, the stepmother of Mr. Smelson's two children, Miss Rose Smelson and Samuel Smelson. Arrangements will be made to bring the body to the late home, when the announcement of funeral will be made.

WILL ENTERTAIN CLASS.

Members of Henry Seader's Bible class of Trinity Reformed church will be entertained this evening at the home of Mrs. William Trembath, on Chatham street.

TYPES OF MEN AND CULTURE LEVELS

Subject of Address by Dr. M. P. E. Grossmann Before German Society.

LIMITATIONS OF LIFE

Expert in Study of Exceptional Children Describes and Illustrates Peculiar Characteristics in the Lives of Men.

"Types of Men and Culture Levels," was the subject of an interesting address given by Dr. Maximillan P. E. Groszmann, of this city, educational director of the National Association for the Study and Education of Exceptional Children, before the German Language Society, of Newark, last night.

The speaker introduced his lecture with calling attention to the fact that the influence of a certain kind of life and of the limitations of such a life manifests itself in the development of a clearly circumscribed type of man. Similarly, it has been observed that certain professions and occupations leave an imprint of special characteristics upon their representatives. Further, he discriminated between various temperaments as well as between the intellectual type, the artistic and Bohemian type, the type of the chafferer, the boor, etc. The evolution of these types and its determining causes are beginning to be investigated scientifically. It suggests itself that through the study of the laws of growth and of the psychological developments in the child, many harmful elements may be eliminated.

Dr. Groszmann further showed that a nervous condition is not invariably to be considered in the light of

(Continued on page 2.)

FREDERICK SANDFORD REPORTED SERIOUSLY ILL

Friends of Frederick Sandford, of 112 Sycamore avenue, the borough, who with Mrs. Sandford, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Staats, and Dr. P. J. Zeglio, of this city, is spending some weeks in Florida, learned today that Mr. Sandford was seriously ill at Crescent City, Fla., where the party of well-known Plainfielders are stopping. Mr. Sandford is said to be suffering with heart trouble. His condition is so serious, it is said, that he has found it impossible since his arrival in Florida to join his friends in any of their many hunting expeditions.

Confirmation of the news that on a recent hunting trip Dr. Zeglio was accidentally shot by one of his companions was received in this city today. Although part of the charge of bird shot struck Dr. Zeglio in the knee and one shot penetrated one of his eyes it was said that his sight will not be affected.

PURCHASE OF DARLING FARM STILL IN ABEYANCE

Owing to the fact that the committees recently appointed by the joint sewage commission to select a permanent engineer to take charge of the work of constructing the big trunk pipe line, and to see about the purchase of the Darling farm were unable to present full reports, there was no meeting of the commission last night. It will now be necessary to issue a call for a special meeting when the reports of the committees are ready for presentation.

The sewage commission it was said, today, by one of its members, is working on the project as rapidly as possible and once the full plans have been determined upon the the necessary arrangements perfected, including the purchase of the Darling farm, the work will be begun and pushed forward towards completion with all possible expedition.

ASK THAT WESTFIELD CO. BE DECLARED BANKRUPT

Trenton, Feb. 5—Alleging that the Dietz Engineering Company, of Westfield, of which Louis A. Dietz is the head, is insolvent, creditors filed a petition in the United States Court here today, asking that the concern here be declared bankrupt and its affairs be wound up. The petitioners were Schuyler M. Cady, the A. M. Clark Stone Company and the Heidritter Lumber Company, their claims aggregating about $4,000.

DAUGHTERS OF SCOTIA.

The monthly meeting of Craigalea Lodge, No. 43, Daughters of Scotia, was held in Exempt Firemen's Hall, last night. Six new members were initiated, and following the business session refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed.

RECKLESS AUTOIST WILL NOT ESCAPE

William Bousenbury's Failure to Appear in Court Will Be Reported to Authorities.

Failure of William Bousenbury, the reckless automobilist of Elizabeth, who speeded through Somerset street last Tuesday, imperilling the lives of school children, to appear and answer to the charge Chief Marshal George Weiss made against him, is very apt to result in serious consequences.

Bousenbury failed to appear at the opening of police court in North Plainfield yesterday morning, although Recorder Frederick Hand waited considerable time for him. Chief Weiss had telephonic communication with the Elizabeth firm which employs Bousenbury to make express deliveries by automobile in Plainfield and vicinity. It was promised that the reckless driver would certainly appear in court this morning, but again the borough authorities were disappointed.

Although Chief Weiss had determined yesterday to take out a warrant for Bousenbury's arrest and have it served in Elizabeth, he has since determined to make formal complaint to State Commissioner of Motor Vehicles Job Lippincott, at Trenton, and have the State authorities get after and prosecute the offender. The Chief learned today that Bousenbury had remarked to a North Plainfield butcher, to whom he made delivery of merchandise shortly after he had been arrested, that he was not worried over his arrest as he had frequently been in trouble for driving his car too fast, and had always managed to get off upon arraignment with a reprimand.

The failure of Bousenbury to keep his promise to appear in the borough yesterday and again today has caused the borough officials to wonder just what means might be adopted in the case of out-of-town automobilists who are arrested for speeding. Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., in conversation with a Daily Press reporter this morning, suggested that it might be a good idea for the police to impound the car, in some garage, in all such cases as a guaranty that the offenders would appear in court when told to do so. This mode of procedure would, it is believed, save the local police much annoyance and bother.

U. S. EXPRESS COMPANY ANNOUNCES LOWER RATES

The Plainfield agent of the United States Express Company has announced the inauguration of lower rates. Hereafter the company will quote a rate for shipment of parcels to any other express company point in the United States. New uniform express receipts will also be given shippers. Heretofore each company has used a separate form of receipt.

The new system of express rates on a scale sixteen per cent. lower than those formerly prevailing became effective under orders issued by the Interstate Commerce Commission.

On the same basis of decrease in rates the States of New Jersey, Maine, Vermont, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Delaware, West Virginia, Kentucky, Illinois and Louisiana are putting into force a new system in interstate express business.

The new interstate rates are based upon a block system, the country being divided into 826 blocks formed by the intersections of the meridians of longtitude and parallels of latitude. The first and second charges are based upon rates per 100 pounds. Third class rates are one cent for each two ounces, not to exceed first-class rates.

NO PROTESTS RECEIVED.

No property owners appeared last night to enter a protest against the assessments levied by the borough for the macadamizing of that portion of Watchung avenue from Coddington avenue to the brook. The three commissioners appointed to hear complaints of property-owners who might feel themselves aggrieved had no work to do as the Council chamber was deserted save for themselves. The borough pays one-third of the cost of the mecademizing and the remaining two-thirds is borne by the property-owners bordering the improvement.

GOING TO PANAMA.

Lieut. N. Pendleton Rogers, Jr., U. S. A., son of Mr. and Mrs. N. Pendleton Rogers, of this city, who has been stationed in Washington for some time, will leave soon for Panama where he expects to remain some time.

—Neuman Brothers are offering a very fine line of olive oil, just imported for their special use, in gallon and half gallon cans at prices lower than before. By the gallon the price is $2.65 and the half gallon $1.40. Quart cans are 75 cents and 20-ounce bottles 65 cents. The quality of this oil is the very best.—Adv. ***

BOYS ESCAPE FROM PROTECTORY

Raymond Vail, One of Quintet, is Found at His Home in the Borough.

Advices received from the authorities of the Cathoic Protectory for Boys at Arlington, by Chief Marshal George Weiss, resulted in the arrest late last night of fourteen-year-old Raymond Vail, on Duer street, in the borough. Young Vail was one of five boys who escaped from the institution yesterday by making a rope of sheets and other bedding, on which they slid from the dormitory, five stories above ground, to short-lived liberty.

Three of the youths were captured by the police of Arlington before they could make their getaway. There is still another boy missing. He is Frederick Mooney, whose home is said to be in Hartford, Conn. He is believed to have reached North Plainfield with Vail. The police have a clue to his whereabouts and his arrest is expected sometime today. An officer from the Catholic Protectory for Boys has notified Chief Marshal Weiss that he will come for the prisoner today.

Raymond Vail, now under arrest, has been a frequent offender against the law, the police declare. He had only been an inmate of the protectory for about two months. He was sent there by City Judge William G. DeMeza, after being found guilty of cutting wires along the railroad track in this city.

WINDOW-BREAKER'S ESCAPADE COSTLY

James O'Gorman Paid $15 for Rowdy Tactics Committed in Tobin's Home.

Charged with committing acts of rowdyism on the premises of George Tobin, at 510 Grant avenue, last night, James O'Gorman, of 209 West Second street, was arraigned before City Judge W. G. DeMeza in the city court this morning. He was fined $15 and given instructions to settle with Mr. Tobin for the damage he had done to the latter's property.

O'Gorman, who was formerly employed by Tobin as a coachman, visited the latter's office on North avenue, yesterday, while in an intoxicated condition, it is alleged, and his discharge followed. Angered at Tobin's action, O'Gorman went to the latter's home last night and proceeded to break things up in fine style. After gathering some articles he had in Mr. Tobin's barn, giving them to Dennis Dillon, who accompanied him on the occasion, he went to the house and smashed the windows in the butler's pantry and kitchen. Tobin claims that O'Gorman hurled vile language through the broken pains of window glass and sent several members of the household into hysteria by his rowdy tactics.

Mr. Tobin went to the front of the house and blew a whistle to which Patrolman Tobias Nolan responded, and after a wild chase finally landed the miscreant at Park avenue and Second street and lodged him in jail. Dillon, who accompanied O'Gorman on the escapade, claimed that he was ignorant of his companion's designs when he went with him to the Tobin household and he was accordingly let go on a suspended sentence this morning.

WILLIAM STRANZENBACH DIES IN PHILADELPHIA

William Stranzenbach, aged 37 years, son of Mrs. Amelia Stranzenbach, of this city, and himself a resident of Plainfield for many years, died yesterday afternoon in Philadelphia, where he had been living for the past five years. Particulars as to the cause of death have not been received. Mrs. Stranzenbach is now in Philadelphia, where she has been visiting her daughter. The funeral and burial will be in that city.

Mr. Stranzenbach was a paperhanger by trade, and when Thomas A. Moore, the undertaker, was located on Watchung avenue, he was employed there for some time. He had a large number of friends here. There survives beside a mother, two sisters, Mrs. Harry Thayer, of Camden, and Mrs. Sally Korb, of Philadelphia, and three brothers, Charles Stranzenbach, of Camden, and Edward and Fred Stranzenbach, of this city.

FUNERAL OF PATRICK BRAY.

The funeral of Patrick Bray will be held at the late residence, at 203 Stebbins place, tomorrow morning at 8:30 o'clock and at St. Mary's R. C. church at 9 o'clock. Burial will be in St. Mary's cemetery.

DROPS DEAD WHILE HUNTING

D. Firman Godown Suffers Attack of Heart Trouble—Expires at Watchung.

WELL KNOWN CITIZEN

In Company With Joseph Newman, Dead Man Had Been Searching for Terrapin—Is Survived by His Wife.

While engaged in hunting for terrapin along the brook that runs between the Cooley and Phillips farm lands at Watchung today, D. Firman Godown, 60 years old, a well-known resident of the borough dropped dead. He was a carpenter by occupation and resided at 26 Chatham street.

Mr. Godown went to Watchung early this morning in company with a friend, Joseph Newman, of Steiner place, the two men having decided to hunt terrapin which are more or less plentiful in the deep black mud of the brook in the region of Watchung lake. Mr. Godown was in excellent spirits throughout the morning, laughing and joking with his companion. Mr. Newman was probing with a long iron rod which he and his companion carried when Mr. Godown, who was likewise engaged on the opposite side of the stream, suddenly complained of feeling ill. He placed his hand on his heart, fell over, and before his friend could reach him, it is said, was dead.

Chief Marshal George Weiss was notified of the death and hurried to the scene in an automobile. County Physician Long, of Somerville, was notified. He instructed Chief Weiss to have the body removed and it was carried in the automobile to Henry DeMott's undertaking place in the borough where it is at present. County Physician Long will go to North Plainfield this afternoon and grant the usual burial permit. The dead man had lived in North Plainfield for many years and at one time was a member of the firm of Sheppard & Godown, contractors. He is survived by a wife. Mr. Newman, who was with Mr. Godown at the time of the latter's death, was greatly shocked at the occurrence.

WILL STUDY GARBAGE DISPOSAL QUESTION

Eliott T. Barrows, of the Board of Health, and Councilman Charles C. Graves, with Councilman Richard A. Claybrook, as chairman of the Councilmanic public affairs committee, ex-officio, will invesitgate the question of introducing a municipal system of garbage and ash disposal for the city. Steps to solve this perplexing problem were first taken this year by the public affairs committee of the Common Council, of which Mr. Claybrook is the head, and then followed a conference of the committee and the Board of Health and the selection of a small committee to inquire into the matter.

It is frankly admitted by Mr. Claybrook, as well as his associates, that it will be a difficult matter to decide upon a system which will prove adequate and not too expensive. This has been the opinion of other councilmen who have investigated the matter. Within the last two or three years conferences have been held and experts have given their opinions on the subject, but it has never been possible to decide upon a system to be recommended to the Council for adoption.

TROUBLESOME YOUTH HELD FOR THE JUVENILE COURT

Frank Chiarville, a fifteen-year-old Italian youth, who, the police allege, has given them more trouble than any other boy of his age in town, was arraigned in the city court this morning, charged with disorderly conduct while in one of the local motion picture houses last night, and City Judge W. G. DeMeza held him to await the action of the Juvenile Court and an effort will probably be made to have him placed in some institution.

Repeated warnings on the part of the police and Miss Mabelle Phillips, the agent for the Charity Organization Society, to have the boy kept off the streets have been futile and he has been arraigned many times on the charge of vagrancy. He has made himself a general nuisanee among shoppers begging for pennies and delighting in jumping from some dark corner and scaring women.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 32 degrees; 11 a. m., 34 degrees; 1 p. m., 38 degrees.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

INVENTORY IS OVER

And many odd lots are on sale away below regular prices—as well as

The Biggest Sale of Remnants We Ever Held at Half Price

Hundreds of remnants including WASH DRESS MATERIALS, DRESS GINGHAMS, FLANNELETTES, OUTING FLANNEL, GALATEA, MUSLINS, PERCALES, APRON GINGHAMS, WHITE GOODS, CREPES, LAWNS, RATINES, TOWELING, ETC.

Lowest Prices of the Season for Women's and Misses' Ready-to-Wear Garments

Nothing talks like price—therefore no descriptions—come and see the garments.

Women's and Misses' Coats
2.50, $5, 7.50 & $10
Former Prices $7.50 to $21.50.

Women's and Misses' Suits
3.98, 8.00 and 13.50
Former Prices $8.98 to $35.00

Children's Coats.
$1, $2 and $3
Former Prices $3.98 to $7.50.

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"The White Store"

We Give the Famous S.H.C. Green Trading Stamps

Store Opens at 8:30; Closes Saturdays at 10 p. m. Others days at 5:30.

German Valley. and Chester

The Morris County Principals' Association will meet in the courthouse in Morristown, Saturday afternoon. The program will include a report on medical inspection by Robert V. Spencer, of Succasunna, a review of the State monograph on arithmetic, with a critical discussion of the first three grades by Supervising Principal M. P. Reagle, of Boonton, and a continuation of the discussion on reading report by Superintendent J. B. Willey, of Morristown.

The Chester Literary Circle will meet tomorrow afternoon with Mrs. William E. Young, in Budd avenue. Readings from Kipling will be given by Mrs. Alvin Marteals and Miss H. Erna Redman.

Peter Christensen, of Bartley, has leased the Williams farm near Chester for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. George Hankinson, of Chester, are visiting in Mendham.

Miss Emma Nunn, of German Valley, is sick at the home of her sister, Mrs. Edward Garrabrant, of Mendham.

Rev. Julius Prochman has been installed as pastor of the German Valley Presbyterian church.

High Bridge-Califon.

Alford Slater, of Hackettstown, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ribbons, of Little Brook.

Irwin J. Hoffman will move from Little Brook to Belvidere about February 15. Mrs. Anna Gardner, of Chester, will occupy the house vacated by Mr. Hoffman.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Smith, of Califon, recently entertained Dewit Smith, of Flemington.

Mrs. Jennie Gibson, of High Bridge, is recovering from illness.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Cokesbury Presbyterian church will hold a social in Specht's Hall, February 13.

Rev. C. W. Vawter, of Hampton, conducted services at the High Bridge Methodist church last night.

Several cases of mumps are reported at High Bridge.

Westfield.

Miss Clara Taverner, daughter of W. H. Taverner, was taken to the Elizabeth General Hospital, Tuesday, to be treated for appendicitis.

The Golf Club minstrels will be given at the Playhouse this and Friday evenings.

A dog belonging to H. B. Tremain, of Stoneleigh Park, supposed to have had rabies, was killed Tuesday and the head sent to the State Board of Health for examination.

Hunterdon County.

Theodore Smith has resigned his position at Bacher's Hotel, Glen Gardner, and will go into the poultry business near Changewater.

The Lebanon Township Committee will meet in Glen Gardner, February 14.

Mrs. Anna Wallander and daughter, Miss Hazel Wallander, of Hampton, are visiting Mrs. Jennie Brown, of Glen Gardner.

Gillard Cregar, of Glen Gardner, is suffering from eye trouble.

A progressive euchre for the benefit of St. Ann's Catholic church, of Hampton, will be given at the rectory next Wednesday night.

Chester Apgar will move from Hampton to Anthony.

Mrs. Christopher X. Smith, of Hampton, is in the Easton (Pa.) Hospital, where she will undergo an operation.

Bound Brook.

C. Nelson Staats has sold his farm on the Canal road near the ten-mile lock to Arthur F. Randolph.

Mrs. A. C. Sturr, of New York, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Smith, of East Bound Brook.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church will meet in the chapel tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. The hostesses will be Mrs. Henry, Mrs. Docker and Mrs. Veghte.

The funeral services of Mrs. May Eickman Foster was held at the Reformed church yesterday morning at 11:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. H. E. Green, of South Bound Brook. Mrs. Foster is survived by a husband and one son, also a sister, Mrs. Clarence Holt, of Beechwood Heights. At the service Mrs. Harry R. Giles and Miss Orrel Wrench sang "There Be No Shadows" and "Saved by Grace." Interment was made in the Bound Brook cemetery.

Eugene Mathews, of South Bound Brook, is confined to his bed with quincy sore throat.

John J. Hall, of Somerville, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Allison C. Hall, of South Bound Brook.

Mrs. E. L. Goodsell has returned to her home at South Bound Brook after spending several weeks at Daytonia and Jacksonville, Fla.

Berg Naylor, of Dunellen, was a visitor with Bound Brook friends yesterday.

Dunellen & Vicinity

Peter Benson, of Columbia street and Thomas Frescoln, of New Market road, spent yesterday with friends in Garwood.

The stewards of the Dunellen Methodist church will serve a chicken supper in the lecture room of the church tonight, between the hours of 6 and 9 o'clock.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church was in charge of the regular mid-week prayer service held last night, in celebration of the thirty-third anniversary of the organization of the society.

Thomas J. Hoagland, secretary of the local Board of Health, is detained at his home by a severe illness.

Alfred Day, of Front street, the local athlete who competed in the Central High School athletic meet at Newark last Saturday night, and finished fourth in the one mile run, has entered in the one mile run of the Erasmus athletic meet, which is to be held in New York city tomorrow night.

Mrs. Lewis T. Churchill, of Fourth street, returned home yesterday morning, after an extended visit with out of town friends.

The Central Railroad detectives are again active in this section of the State. Tuesday and yesterday six arrests were made. The arrests of the six persons was for stealing rides on coal trains. Four of the fellows gathered in were arraigned before Recorder David Campbell, Tuesday night, and were given sentence. Two of the men who were arraigned on the charge of panhandling were given sentences of thirty days each at the county jail at New Brunswick. The other two arraigned were given suspended sentences of thirty days each. Two of those captured were not prosecuted because of their inability to show that they were "victims of circumstances."

Flemington.

Anthony Kilgore, Tuesday, announced himself a candidate for the Democratic nomination of surrogate for Hunterdon county next fall.

The monthly meeting of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church was held at the home of Mrs. Amy Shropie yesterday afternoon. The subject was "New America."

Rev. Dr. A. W. Lamar, of Georgia, will occupy the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday.

Neighborhood cottage prayer-meetings are being held by the congregation of the Baptist church this week. Monday afternoon the services were held at the home of Mrs. Jacob Carkhuff, and in the evening at Mrs. William Stothoff's home. Tuesday evening services were held at the home of Mrs. William Dilts. Services yesterday afternoon were held at the home of Mrs. Frank O. Godown, and last evening they were conducted at the home of Miss Rhoda Wagoner, Park avenue.

Whitehouse.

Mrs. William J. Lonsdale and daughter, Gertrude Lonsdale, of Lebanon, left today for a visit to Mrs. Lonsdale's mother, Mrs. Ellen Frost, of Syracuse, N. Y.

The pastor's Bible class of the Lebanon Reformed church is making arrangements to hold a mock trial in the chapel February 13. It will be a breach of promise case and the attorneys will be Rev. William J. Lonsdale and Alvah Haver, jr.

County Engineer and Mrs. Grant Davis entertained several young persons at their home at Whitehouse Station Saturday night in honor of the fifteenth birthday of their daughter, Miss Catherine Davis.

Miss Mary Wyckoff, of Trenton, is visiting relatives near Whitehouse Station.

Mrs. Samuel Daggett, of East Whitehouse, who underwent a successful operation in St. Barnabas hospital in Newark two weeks ago, has returned.

Benjamin McDowell returned to Lamington Tuesday after a visit to Dr. Frank McDowell in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Marietta Henry entertained Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Willets, Rev. and Mrs. J. T. Scott, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick V. Anthony, Mr. and Mrs. John Stout and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Erickson at a dinner party Tuesday.

Miss Marion Jones, of Plainfield, is visiting at Peapack.

William Gunlock, of Glen Cove, L. I., is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. John N. Stout at Lamington.

Mrs. William B. Dunham, of Newark, is spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. John H. Skillman, who live near New Germantown.

Mrs. William Herrington, of Lamington, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. William Parsons, of East Orange.

Mrs. John T. E. VanDerveer and children, of Westchester, N. Y., are guests of Mrs. VanDerveer's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard F. Craig, who live near New Germantown.

Mrs. George Dalley, of Neshanic, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. John N. Apgar, of East Whitehouse.

John Stone, of East Whitehouse, has been a visitor in North Branch.

Mrs. William Redmond, of Bound Brook, is a guest of relatives at Potterstown.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Edward Hatfield, of Grand street, is enjoying a week's vacation from his studies at Stevens Institute. He will return to his studies next Monday morning.

The game of basketball scheduled for tomorrow night between the Parish House Junior team and the Marathon quintet has been cancelled because of the entertainment which is to be given in the Parish House.

Henry L. Jasperson, Jr., of Martine avenue, Fanwood, returned home yesteray morning, after a month's business trip through the western section of the United States.

The entertainment in which Miss Bass, of New York, will appear, will be held in the Parish House tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. The proceeds will be turned over to the Parish House council for use in defraying the expenses of that institution.

The regular weekly meeting of the troop of Boy Scouts connected with the Parish House was held in their rooms last night. A business session was held, after which the members were given a drill.

Mrs. John Marston, of Farley avenue, is spending a few days with friends in New York.

Mrs. C. I. Hall, of South avenue, is spending a few days in Washington.

Clifford Hall entertained a number of friends at his home on North avenue, last evening. The time was spent in playing cards and with music, after which refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Renison and daughter, Lillian, have returned from visiting relatives in Paterson.

Borough Tax Collector Charles Sheelen has issued printed forms of the financial standing of the borough.

The local Board of Education has secured a Miss Crowly to fill the seventh grade vacancy in School No. 1.

—You can make it pay you to read the store ads in today's paper—make it pay you in actual savings on purchases you need to make. Try the experiment.

Somerville

Mrs. James T. Van Derveer has been seriously ill for some time at her home on West Main street.

Word was received here yesterday morning that W. Howard Lake, aged 63 years, brother of J. Ross Lake, proprietor of the Ten Eyck House, had died at his home at Keyport, after a long illness. Besides one other brother, Harris Lake, of Copper Hill, he leaves a sister and one daughter, Miss Blanche Lake. Mr. Lake was formerly sheriff of Hunterdon county, and had a host of friends. He was proprietor of the Mansion House, at Keyport. The funeral services will take place at the hotel tomorrow afternoon, and burial will be at Quakertown on Saturday.

A play, "The Elopement of Ellen," will be given under the auspices of the Girls' Friendly Society of St. John's church, in the parish house Friday evening, February 20, for the benefit for the church debt.

A pleasing organ recital was given in the First Reformed church last night by Miss Laura E. Hoagland, the organist, assisted by the junior choir. Proceeds were for the benefit of the children's choir.

Somerville merchants will have a "Dollar Week," beginning February 14. The project is in charge of the Merchants' Association, which practically includes all merchants in town.

There was a social this afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. W. Davenport, on Altamont place, by the ladies of St. John's church.

At the Y. P. B. meeting next Monday evening at the home of Miss Bertha Brady, on South street, the society will hold a Willard Memorial Service, observing the occasion in a suitable manner. Members are requested to come prepared with quotations and study from the life and works of Miss Willard.

South Plainfield.

Henry Richards, formerly of this place, a veteran of the 26th N. J. Vols., visited this place yesterday on the occasion of the seventy-fourth anniversary of his birthday and was given a cordial reception by many of his old friends. Mr. Richards enlisted in the Civil War in '61 and served throughout the conflict.

MEN AND CULTURE LEVELS

(Continued from page 1.)

a disease. Nervousness is, in a measure, the result of increasing civilization. Savage people are free from it. Of course, where there are distinctly morbid disturbances of the nervous system, we should see to it that, as early as in the age of childhood, a clear diagnosis is made and further development checked.

The speaker then devoted his attention to the various criminal types. He showed that it is not tenable to consider drunkenness in every case as a cause of crime. Apart from a relatively small number of cases, the inebriety is rather a symptom of a deeper disturbance of the system. We are dealing here with a distinct type of degeneracy in which this weakness appears as a hereditary burden. In degenerate families we may observe a series of defects such as drunkenness, epilepsy, feeblemindedness, pauperism, prostitution, etc., each appearing alternately in succeeding generations. He further showed that crime is sometimes caused by physical conditions which effect the psychic life temporarily. Juvenile courts have given opportunity for investigations which have shown that many juvenile offenders could be saved for useful life by the removal of adenoids, the relief of eyestrain, circumcision or other medical means.

There is, indeed, another criminal type in which a distinct defect of the moral sense manifests itself. This type is related to feeble-mindedness and exhibits the absence of the sense of responsibility or the ability to connect cause and effect. Here we are dealing not merely with problems of the individual, but with problems of social layers. Then Dr. Groszmann reviewed briefly some recent criminal cases. He spoke of the strange disappearance of Capt. Cruickshank and Edna Lanning, of the Thaw and Brandt trials, of John Armstrong Chaloner, of the McNamaras, and of the Italian Camorrists. He further quoted an interesting experience with Zapatas Mexican rebels, who, he showed, represent a reversion to the savage type of their ancestors.

In all these cases we are confronted with a more or less primitivement and emotional condition; in part with symptoms which the nemologist and alienist can better judge than the jurist. Dr. Groszmann pleaded urgently for a reorganization of our criminal laws and institutions, so that the problem of the individual offender may be approached with scientific methods. Merely to punish is a very primitive method of treating the so-called criminal. With every court there should be connected an observation clinic, and the prisons should be so organized that they be educational institutions and hospitals rather than penal institutions.

Referring to his own formulation of the "culture epoch theory," which was first suggested by the German philosopher, Herbart, Dr. Groszmann showed that there are many individuals who represent a reversion to the earlier periods of civilization. In such radical upheavals as are brought about by the reorganization of our entire social fabric, these deeper levels of culture are sometimes brought to the surface, just as we observe in the formation of the crust of the earth earlier strata on top, having been forced up by volcanic action. These lower civilization strata exist in every nation; conditions which cannot always be explained have brought it about that they were left untouched by the progress of civilization, and they represent to this day medieval or even primitive life conditions and instincts. The great modern improvement in the means of travel, and the new migration of peoples, have mixed these various layers of human material together and have distributed them all over the world without their becoming at once modern element of culture.

Likewise, there are entire races and peoples which must be considered backward as compared with modern civilization. Dr. Groszmann mentioned the problem of the colored race, the Filipinos, etc.

The development of culture and civilization is brought about by a process of mental maturing. The enormously rapid advance which has taken place during the last century in our life conditions, and the development of democratic forms of government, have made it particularly difficult for the backward types and culture levels to become assimilated. Even though it can be observed that vast numbers of our immigrants are quickly "Americanized," as it is called, we must concede that this process is rather a superficial one, and that it will take generations before these masses will enter fully into the inheritance of culture and liberal institutions of which the true American type is an expression. Again, this is a process of maturing, not merely of external coalescence.

Thus, the speaker unfolded problem after problem without attempting to offer solutions, as he had to be satisfied with pointing out the enormous perspective which all these great questions open up. Solutions can be found only through the co-operation of all thinking people. The lecture contained such a large number of details and suggestions that it is impossible to show justice to its argument in a brief abstract.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETING.

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Board of Governors of Muhlenberg Hospital has almost completed arrangements for the dance to be given at Columbia Auditorium Friday night, February 20, from 9 to 12 o'clock. Tomorrow night, Nat N. Nye, who has been popular here this winter, has been engaged to furnish the music. The support to the dance and especially attractive feature is included in the price of the tickets, which will be nominal.

Union Made Union Stamped

The Waldorf Shoes

$2.50 and $3

All Waldorf Shoes received since January 1st, 1914, bear the official stamp of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, insuring to the wearer the best workmanship.

Sole agency for Plainfield.

SHOES FOR THE BIG FOLKS

Stuart's SHOE SHOP

215 WEST FRONT ST.

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

SHOES FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS

STYLISH RELIABLE

A LESSON IN LOGIC

"Logic," says Webster's Handy-Book, "is the science of correct reasoning."

Assuming that you are a normal man, with a normal man's likes and dislikes, you must desire to see yourself not only clothed in your right mind, but clothed in garments that are cut well, styled well and LOOK well.

What prevents you, then, from buying a suit or an overcoat that will greatly improve your appearance?

Assuming again that you are perfectly normal, your answer will probably be, "the prices are too steep," or words to that effect.

The whole thing hinges on the question of price—and that's where the Rothberg Clothes - shop comes in.

Here you get better values than the same price buys at most stores.

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's

Be Sure and Get the February Number of

Literary Magazine

FREE with this paper on Saturday, Feb. 7

We consider this number the best we have ever issued and we know it will please every one of our readers. It is a big fiction number and contains five of the very best short stories of the winter season. The front cover in three colors is a real beauty and will be classed as unique. It is by one of the country's foremost cover artists.

The Big Story Features in This Number are as follows:

"When the Test Came to Olga Craddock"
BY ARTHUR STRINGER
ILLUSTRATED BY THORNTON D. SKIDMORE

The Girl in the Ermine Ca
BY JOHN H. CUNNINGHAM, JR.
WITH PICTURE BY CYRUS FOSMIRE

"The Haughty Lady"
BY BERTON BRALEY
ILLUSTRATED BY FRANK GODWIN

Mrs. Bluebeard No. 47"
BY JAMES W. REILLY
ILLUSTRATED BY FLORENCE JULIE BACH

"Eleanor's Marriage"
BY MARION AMES TAGGART
ILLUSTRATED BY HOWARD HEATH

Get the Literary Magazine Absolutely FREE with This Paper on SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7

Get the Community Spirit---Patronize Home Stores

To make a city, a model city, there must be co-operation between the merchants and its citizens.

There must be reliable merchants who sell goods at a reasonable profit and who stand behind each sale.

This is called modern merchandising and being based on a foundation of truth and mutual benefit it must eventually win the confidence of the public.

Truth is the only thing that will stand.

We have learned after many years that truth pays.

We have found that the Golden Rule works wonders.

We have learned that when a house or a city is divided against itself it cannot stand.

It has been whispered that buying abroad was what started Rome on the roller coaster to destruction.

We do not vouch for the truth of that statement--but we know that Plainfield can become a great city. You can help make it so by patronizing local merchants, craftsmen and mechanics.

Let's get together! A little more team-work!

DO IT FOR PLAINFIELD!

The Business Men's Association
of Plainfield, N. J. P. O. Box 575

GENERAL HUERTA.

Mexican Dictator Alarmed Over Wilson Lifting Embargo on Arms.

Photo by American Press Association.

FEAR THAT MISSING GIRL IS STAGESTRUCK

Also Said to Have Failed in School Work.

New York, Feb. 5.—Two motives which might have led Florence Lawlor, the pretty sixteen-year-old girl who disappeared from her home at 5619 Fifteenth avenue, Brooklyn, on Monday, to run away were revealed. One is that she ran away with the idea of earning her own living on the stage or in a movie company, the other that she has ended her life because of disappointment and shame at having failed in her school examinations.

Mr. Lawlor says that for the past two years Florence has been taking elocution lessons and that she was much interested in the stage.

"Only last Thursday evening," said Mr. Lawlor, "I went with my wife to a meeting of the Day Star chapter of the Eastern Star at the Parkway assembly, Fifty-first street and Fourth avenue, to hear Florence recite the sleep walking scene from 'Macbeth.' She received much praise for her work, and it may have set her mind working along new channels. I never heard her express the wish to go on the stage though."

A new light was thrown on the case when Dr. William Felter, principal of the high school which Florence attended, called Mr. Lawlor on the telephone and said that Florence had failed in her examinations. The girl's parents had understood that the examinations had been successfully passed.

TESTS PISTOL, KILLS SELF.

Rich Widow Fires Twice In Fireplace Before Act.

New York, Feb. 5.—Having calmly discharged two chambers of a revolver at the brick fireplace of her bedroom evidently to determine if the pistol was in good working order, Mrs. Eliza beth Clarke, fifty-two years old, a well to do widow, of 564 Second street Brooklyn, placed the weapon over her breast and sent a bullet into her heart

Startled by the reports, Isaac Pickford, eighty years old, her father Emilie, seventy-six years old, her mother, and Mabel Lent, one of the maids, ran to the bedroom on the third floor. Mrs. Clarke had died almost instantly. Her mother was the first to reach the body, which was lying on the floor.

Illness was given as the reason for her act. Three brothers, one of them Sherman Pickford, a lawyer, of 203 Montague street, lived with the family, and Mrs. Clarke had been nursing one of her brothers, who has been suffering from erysipelas.

FLIES UP TO 15,000 FEET.

Aviator Makes a New British Altitude Record.

London, Feb. 5.—Raynham, a British aviator, established a new British altitude record by ascending to a height of 15,000 feet. He started at Brooklands and when he reached 15,000 feet made a twenty mile glide to Hendon, where he alighted.

WEATHER EVERYWHERE.

Observations of the United States weather bureau taken at 8 p. m. yesterday follow:

	Temp.	Weather.
Albany	34	Cloudy
Atlantic City	44	Clear
Boston	40	Clear
Buffalo	26	Cloudy
Chicago	20	Cloudy
St. Louis	28	Cloudy
New Orleans	66	Cloudy
New York	38	Clear
Washington	46	Cloudy

—The merchant who, in his advertising, emphasizes ten value-giving facts to his competitor's one, uses the best sort of "strategy" in extending his business.

RUSH OF ARMS TO VILLA'S MEN

Huerta Invites Reporters at His Expense.

WAR SUPPLIES SHIPPED

Rebels Appoint Buying Agents at El Paso—Big Battles Are Said to Be Raging at Tampico and Torreon. Wilson Waiting.

IMPORTANT EVENTS IN MEXICAN SITUATION.

General Huerta's only reply to President Wilson's order lifting the embargo on arms was to suggest that the leading newspapers of the United States send reporters to follow his military operations, all expenses to be paid by the Mexican executive.

This suggestion, which was contained in a special cable message, was accompanied by the statement that the federal army now numbers 189,000 men and that the provisional president is conducting an energetic campaign to restore peace in the southern republic.

Shipments of arms and ammunition began to cross the border from the United States into Mexico. Constitutional agents were busy at El Paso and also at New Orleans closing contracts for big shipments of war supplies.

President Wilson is determined to resume his policy of watching and waiting, and no further developments in the Mexican situation are expected for some time in the national capital.

Mexico City, Feb. 5.—The Mexican rebels simultaneously attacked Tampico, on the gulf, and Torreon, the last federal stronghold in northern Mexico.

When news of the two battles was received here President Huerta's family prepared to move at once into Chapultepec castle. Cadets from the military school at Tlalpan were ordered to Chapultepec and will be kept there as a guard for the dictator and his family.

The Constitutionalists lost no time in making good their assertion that President Wilson's action in lifting the embargo on the shipment of arms into Mexico would be followed by vigorous attacks on the Huerta forces.

Thousands In Torreon Fight.

About the same time came a report of a violent conflict between Constitutionalists and federals on the outskirts of Torreon. For several days the Carranzistas have been advancing steadily on Torreon. Several thousand men were said to be engaged in the battle there.

Should the rebels capture Torreon their march on Mexico City would be comparatively easy. Zacatecas would be the only obstacle in their way. The capture of Tampico on the coast would give the rebels easy access to Mexico City from that direction.

Rear Admiral Fletcher at Vera Cruz was ordered by Washington to be ready for any emergency, and it was expected here that American warships at Vera Cruz would be ordered immediately to Tampico.

Rushing Arms Toward Border.

Washington, Feb. 5.—Secretary of State Bryan expressed considerable satisfaction over President Wilson's change in policy with respect to the shipment of arms from the United States into the hands of the Mexican revolutionists. Mr. Bryan was at one time vigorously opposed to such action but he has now been won over to the other side and may be regarded as fully in sympathy with the president.

The state department has not yet received from Charge O'Shaughnessy any report on the reception of his announcement in Mexico City of the raising of the embargo. Secretary Bryan does not, however, anticipate that there will be any trouble as a result of the president's proclamation. Information thus far received unofficially from Mexico City indicates that Huerta intends to assume an attitude of indifference. In many quarters this is regarded as a shrewd move, and the one most calculated to diminish the moral effect the president's action might have upon the Huerta supporters in Mexico and elsewhere.

The flood of arms into northern Mexico from United States ports on the border is expected to start at once. The administration is advised that very large quantities of ammunition are already at border points awaiting the formal lifting of the embargo. The Constitutionalist agents here declare that they have already ordered large quantities of munitions of war and that they have the money with which to pay for them and more besides. They express considerable gratification over the president's lifting of the embargo.

$5,000 TO TRANSOCEANIC FLIER

London Women's Aerial League Offers Prize For Atlantic Trip.

London, Feb. 5.—The Women's Aerial league has offered, through Mrs. Woodhull Martin, an American, a prize of $5,000 and a trophy to the first aviator of any nation who flies across the Atlantic.

The offer is made in connection with the coming Anglo-American exhibition in London.

—Some store may be placing on "special sale" just now the article you have not felt like paying "regular" prices for.

CASSIDY AND WILLETT.

Brooklyn Politicians Who Were Sentenced to Serve Prison Term.

Joseph Cassidy, once the "boss" of Queens, and William Willett, once a congressman, were sentenced to Sing Sing prison for conspiring in 1911 to make Willett a supreme court justice. Louis T. Walter, who acted as go-between, was sent to the penitentiary for three months. Justice Jaycox sentenced Cassidy and Willett each to serve one year and six months, but not less than one year, in state prison and to pay $1,000 fine. For each dollar of the fine unpaid they will be kept in prison a day. Walter, besides his three months in the penitentiary, was sentenced to pay $1,000 fine, which may be remitted by Justice Jaycox at the conclusion of the imprisonment if Walter submits proof that he is unable to pay.

JOHN D. FACES JAIL IN OHIO TAX FIGHT

Governor Cox Backs Fight to Collect Assessments.

Cleveland, O., Feb. 5.—John D. Rockefeller may go to jail if the county tax commission is successful in forcing to an issue the payment of $12,000,000 in taxes demanded of him.

Commissioners said that the new Warnes tax law provides that should a person fail to list his personal property for taxation he may be arraigned before the probate court and upon his refusal to answer questions concerning his property may be declared in contempt and committed to jail. The county tax commissioners received the backing of Governor Cox and the State Tax commission today in their attempt to force Mr. Rockefeller to pay taxes on $900,000,000 of personal property.

The Rockefeller forces prepared for a hot battle in the courts. Mr. Rockefeller declined to make any statement personally and all questions were referred to Virgil P. Kline, his attorney.

The Rockefeller attorneys will attack the Warnes law and will ask an injunction to prevent the assessing of property for taxation under the new law on the ground that the law is unconstitutional.

Mr. Kline repeated his statement that Rockefeller has not acquired legal residence here under the law. The Warnes tax law provided that a person remaining in a county the greater part of twelve months preceding Feb. 1 shall have acquired a legal residence in the county and shall be taxed as such.

General Markets.

New York Feb 5.

WHEAT — Receipts, 114,000, shipments, 209,000; No. 2 red, elevator export, $1. No 2 red, f. o b. afloat, $1.01½; No 1 north Duluth, f. o. b. afloat, $1.02¾; the wheat market was steady in the afternoon; the Price Current showed conditions in the winter wheat belt from 96c to $1.06. May, 99⅞c July, 96⅝c

BUTTER—Firm, generally unchanged; receipts, 6,939 packages; creamery extras, lb., 27a27½c.; firsts, 25½a26½c.; seconds, 23½a25c.; held, extras, 27a27½c.; firsts 25a25½c.; seconds, 23a24½c.; state dairy, tubs, finest, 26a27c.; good to prime, 24a25½c.; common to fair, 22a23c.; process, extras, 23a24c.; firsts, 21a22c.; seconds, 20a20½c.; imitation creamery, firsts, 22a23c., factory, current make, firsts, 21c., seconds, 20a20½c.; packing stock, held, 19a20c., current make, No. 2, 18½a19c.; lower grades, 16a18c

CHEESE — Firm, receipts, 211 boxes; state, whole milk, specials, white, held, lb., 18a18¼c.; fresh, 17½a17¾c.; colored, held, 18a18¼c.; fresh, 17½a17¾c., average fancy, white, held, 17½a17¾c.; fresh, 17¼c.; colored, held, 17½a17¾c.; fresh, 17¼c.; skims, specials, held, 13½a14¼c.; good to choice, held, 11½a12½c

EGGS — Weak; receipts, 9,621 cases; fresh gathered extras, doz., 32a33c., extra firsts, 30½a31c., firsts, 29½a30c., seconds, 29c.; refrigerators, firsts, 27½a28c.; seconds, 26a27c.; state, Pennsylvania and nearby hennery whites, 39a40c., gathered whites, 48c; hennery browns, 32c.; gathered browns and mixed colors, 30a32c.

NEW HAY AND STRAW—Easy; timothy, per ton, $17a17.50, shipping, $16; clover, $15a18, clover mixed $15a19.50, long rye straw, $[illegible] and $10a12, small bales, 50c.; per ton [illegible]

—To a merchant, the "cost of ADEQUATE ADVERTISING is a mere incident. While the cost of inadequate advertising is always difficult to meet.

MANY CHANGES AT CONFERENCE

First Time in History Same Bishop Will Preside Two Years in Succession.

INNOVATIONS PLANNED

Considerable Guessing as to Changes in Pastorates—Local Preachers' Expected to Remain—Ministers to Retire This Year.

The fifty-seventh annual session of the Newark Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church will convene in the Halsey Street church, Newark, Wednesday morning, March 18. Bishop Luther B. Wilson will preside. This will be the seventh time that the conference has convened in this church. It will be the first time in the history of the conference that the same bishop has guided its deliberations during two successive years. Bishop Wilson will preside at next year's conference also.

This innovation is due to a new ruling of the church to the effect that bishops should preside as often as possible over all important church gatherings in their own residential districts in order that they may keep more closely in touch with affairs directly concerning them.

Another innovation in the conduct of the conference will be the arrangement of the program. Formerly the entertainment and address features were scattered throughout the entire period of the conference. In this next conference, however, these will be concentrated into one day, Friday, March 20. The program will commence at 8 a. m., and will continue until 9:30 in the evening. Professor Walter Rauschenbusch, who was expected to have addressed the conference on important social service questions, has just announced that he will be unable to be present.

Pastors in the districts outside Newark considered likely to change during the coming year are: Rev. Dr. H. F. Randolph, who has received calls elsewhere. The pastorates at Chatham, occupied by Rev. Dr. J. H. Egbert, and Maplewood, by Rev. Dr. R. I. Watkins, are said to be certain to have new men this year. Among the possibilities for a transfer out in exchange for Mr. Mallalieu, Mr. Watkins's name has been mentioned.

There are no ministers who will complete fifty years of service at this conference who are at the present time active in the work, although there are many residing within its limits who have passed that period and occasionally render service. The oldest pastors in point of length of time in the ministry, other than Dr. Hurlburt, are Dr. Winfield C. Snodgrass, who entered the ministry in 1868 and is now at Paterson, and Rev. Dr. A. H. Tuttle, who as already stated will retire this year and who took his first charge in 1869.

Among outstanding facts from the districts beyond Newark is that of the great success in the First Church of Hoboken, of Rev. Dr. W. R. Neff, who left De Groot church of the Newark district at the last conference. Others are the success of Methodism in Plainfield and the great demand that has been made by other churches for the ministration of Revs. C. C. Cain and F. J. Hubach, of the Grace and Monroe Avenue churches, respectively, both of whom are likely to receive other charges at the coming conference. These churches, with that of Rev. C. M. Anderson, in the fifth year of his pastorate at the First church in Plainfield, have attained to splendid growth during the past year.

A grave matter affecting the discipline of the conference will be the trial of Rev. Willis S. MacRorie, late pastor of the Mount Horeb and Springdale churches. Mr. MacRorie was tried and suspended for six months by the conference on charges of immorality in connection with a young woman member of one of his congregations. Previous to his trial by the conference, the minister had written a confession, as had also the young woman. He appeared before the conference, however, and retracted his confession and was tried with the result named.

It is wiser to know what a thing OUGHT TO COST before buying it; Want-readers usually do know this.

Not a home in this city but has its quota of discarded furniture, rugs, stoves perhaps, a wheelbarrow maybe.

A few cents for a Press want ad and some one who needs the very article that lies rotting in your garret will call and pay you for it.

You are better off—new owner is pleased—and the article itself is contributing to the reduction of the high cost of living.

Leland Manning
MASON AND BUILDER.
Jobbing a specialty. Estimates cheerfully given. Telephone 347-J.
1120 Myrtle Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.

Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

FEBRUARY 5TH IN HISTORY.

1663—The valley of the St. Lawrence was visited by a serious earthquake.

1788—Sir Robert Peel, English statesman, born. Died July 2, 1850.

1811—The Prince of Wales was appointed Regent for George III. of England.

1814—Seventeen British officers were put in close confinement at Chillicothe, O., by way of retaliation.

1867—City of Mexico was evacuated by the French troops.

1901—L. P. Brodeur was elected Speaker of the Dominion House of Commons.

1911—Missouri State Capitol at Jefferson City was destroyed by fire.

1913—President Araujo, of Salvador, was assassinated as a result of a political conspiracy.

Plainfield, N. J., February 5, 1914.

NEW JERSEY AT SAN FRANCISCO

The New Jersey State Commission in charge of this state's interests at the Panama-Pacific Exposition to be held at San Francisco in 1915, recently met at the State Capitol at Trenton and considered the plans for the New Jersey building and for furthering New Jersey business representation at the Exposition. New Jersey will have the President of the nation in 1915 and she will stand out among the sister States all the more strongly. She must have a suitable building for Jerseymen to go to as their home. To build the one proposed will cost about $35,000. This cost is largely due to the excessive cost of labor, and of some kinds of material at San Francisco above the cost in the East.

The New Jersey building is to be a replica of the "Old Barracks" at Trenton that were occupied by the British in revolutionary times. They are unique and will attract wide attention. There will be meeting halls for New Jersey business men in which to exploit New Jersey interests. The Commission conferred with representatives of the newly organized New Jersey State Chamber of Commerce and planned for securing the co-operation of all the varied business interests of the State. New York, Pennsylvania, Massachusetts and all the leading middle and Western States are spending large sums on their State buildings, in some cases as high as two hundred thousand dollars. It will be a great exposition. This is a great State—the fourteenth in population and the sixth in its industrial wealth—and the Legislature will do wisely to make New Jersey interests exceptionally attractive.

UNCLEAN JOURNALISM.

Not content with disgracing the newspaper profession by publishing the so-called life story of the notorious Evelyn Thaw, a New York newspaper now proposes to continue its affrontery to an intelligent public by presenting a resume of the Haines-Annis murder case written by one of the principals. To paraphase a familiar saying, such editorial enterprise as this has its own reward.

The great majority of reading people tolerate these miserable intrigues ending in homicide as a matter of course in the daily chronicling of news, but when they are pulled out of their foul-smelling recesses, reeking with accumulated stench it is time to call a halt. The added circulation that comes from pandering to hysteria is offset by the loss of substantial patronage. Clean thinking men and women simply will not have such stuff shoved before their eyes or brought to the observation of their children. As a consequence, they turn to other papers for the right kind of news matter.

The story told by Evelyn Thaw was simpering "slush," related for the purpose of gaining sympathy, attacking innocent members of her husband's family and the money it brought her. She failed in everything but the last named. She has never been much better than the poorest panderer and she quickly found it out when she recently entered vaudeville. Women's clubs everywhere boycotted the theatres where she was billed and the wise managers acted accordingly. Despite the knowledge of these facts the newspaper in question exploited her spotted career and while the odor of it still nauseates the people the newspaper digs up another decaying social corpse and shoves it in the open to assail the senses. The public wants to forget, why not let it?

The railroads are beginning to take the matter of the abuse of the pass privilege into their own hands, instead of letting the Legislature provide that every Tom, Dick and Harry who holds a pretense of a State job shall ride free on their lines. Some years ago the free pass privilege was so abused that a law was enacted cutting the list of those entitled to ride free to a very few. Gradually minor office-holders persuaded their friends in the Legislature that the act should be amended to allow just a few more to ride free, until the list was stretched to provide for practically everyone except the janitors of the State house. The Lackawanna railroad was the first to refuse to honor the passes issued to some of these people, and now the Pennsylvania has taken the same action. The members of the Legislature have risen up in wrath and instructed the Attorney-General to bring action against the railroads, but as the courts have decided in favor of the Lackawanna in a test case, the chances are that the Attorney-General will be wasting his time by appealing further. It is well enough for the higher officials, who have to travel much in the performance of their duties, to have passes, but those who wish them to use for pleasure jaunts and for personal business should not be given the privilege.

Senator McGinnis, of Passaic county, has introduced a resolution in the Legislature providing for a State wide investigation of the telephone companies, following complaints which have appeared in the public press regarding the service, discrimination, exorbitant rates, and other minor matters. We know of nothing that would be of more benefit to the people at large than the placing of this great monopoly under direct and careful supervision of the public utility commission. There are injustices in the city of Plainfield in the matter of charges. The same rates that are asked here should be asked in every community in the State for the same kind of service. There is no disputing the fact that direct wire users in the business section of the city pay more for limited service than do business houses in other places for unlimited service. It is also a fact that wherever there is competition better service for less money is given, and still the companies make a reasonable profit. The telephone service is one that is perhaps best when controlled by one company, but they should be under the strictest supervision of the State Public Utility Commision and should be compelled to charge exactly the same price for the same service in every community they reach.

Plainfield's recently formed Business Men's Association is a lively young organization. The advertisements advocating that Plainfield people but at home being inserted in the local newspapers, are having a telling effect and the plan for a "dollar day" on February 28 is being pushed with a vigor which promises one of the biggest business days that has ever been known in this city. The merchants in the Association really mean to make the day one long to be remembered and in order to do so all are planning to have a dollar go further than it ever has before in a Plainfield store. There are plenty of the merchants in the city who have not yet joined the association who should be in it. The interest and enthusiasm which has been worked up among those who are already members is contagious and it is safe to predict that this wil become the liveliest and most active organization for the benefit of the city that Plainfield has ever known.

Just as a means to create a little excitement, why not have a debate between President Smalley of the Chamber of Commerce and President Jeffery of the Board of Trade on the subject "Resolved that a new county is much more practical and for the benefit of the city and borough than would be consolidation." We venture that it would be a hard task to find a hall big enough to hold the crowd.

Soloman Nutman, the Scotch Plains tailor, of Park avenue, is detained at his home by a slight illness. While Nutman is sick, the town is without anyone who can do general tailoring work.—Scotch Plains news item.

A real calamity to the east of Plainfield.

The prudent buyer will put February 28 down in his or her diary as a red letter day, for "dollar day" is going to mean as much to the purchaser as to the merchant.

THE FORUM.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

An interesting article appeared in your journal dated January 31st over the name of Mr. Bogan. This gentleman's attack was far from manly.

If Mr. Bogan believes "The Menace" to have lied and misrepresented the Roman Catholic Church, why is it that no legal steps have been taken to vindicate her honor?

If we understand Mr. Bogan aright, he would like the citizens of Plainfield and the world at large, to believe that his organization is a victim to the attacks of unprincipled men.

All civilized nations have a court of justice where grievapces imaginary or real can be satisfactorily adjusted.

To appeal to the State to enact laws with the avowed purpose to suppress and muzzle the press is decidedly unconstitutional. This policy is against every principle of fair-play, and no honest fair-minded American would countenance such an unfair method of dealing with an opponent.

Whatever accusations Mr. Bogan can direct against "The Menace"—one thing is sure—he cannot accuse that editor of taking a mean advantage in his crusade against the papacy. "The Menace" openly makes its charge and invited the papcy to prove it false.

It is easy to deluge "The Menace" with unsavory compliments, but this is no proof that this paper has lied.

Further, "The Menace" has petitioned for a Congressional investigation of the grave charges against the Roman Catholic church—Rome must stand on her own ground and prove conclusively to the civilized world that "The Menace" has lied.

The American court of justice is good enough for any case. Why not simplify matters by vigorous legal proceedings?

Abandon the idea of legislating on religious matters—it is uncompromisingly opposed to American principles of liberty and fair play, besides still leaving the question unsettled.

The repeated threats of the Roman hierarchy against her Nemesis has so far proven a hoax, and which is gradually but surely lessening the confidence of both Catholics and Protestants in Rome's ability to vindicate her honor.

The only straight-forward policy to adopt is to institute legal proceedings; and if "The Menace" fails to substantiate her terrible catalogue of accusations against the papcy "The Menace" will die a natural death.

LIONEL CRUICKSHANKS.
752 East Second street.

FUNERAL OF A. V. LUNGER ATTENDED BY MANY FRIENDS

The funeral of the late Abraham V. Lunger was held last night at his home at Watchung avenue and Second street, being conducted by Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, of which church Mr. Lunger was long a member. He was also a member of the Brotherhood of that church and interested in Sunday school work as well. Members of Jerusalem Lodge, F. and A. M., were present at the funeral, the deceased having been a member of that organization. Miss Etta Raybert, soloist of Trinity Reformed church sang at the services. The burial was at Whitehouse this morning.

JERUSALEM LODGE ESTABLISHES BUILDING FUND

Jerusalem Lodge, No. 26, F. and A. M., has increased its dues for the purpose of establishing a fund to be known as the Masonic Temple Building Fund, it being the plan of the Masons at some time possibly in the near future to erect a building strictly for the use of the affiliated organizations.

The fund will be invested from time to time in such manner as the lodge may decide. There was a plan talked of some time ago to purchase the property at Somerset and Front streets, owned by Christian Gloekner, upon which a building could be erected, one that would be a credit to the city, but this scheme fell through.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

Feb'y Furniture Sale

You will possibly need Furniture in the Spring. But if you wait till then to buy it you'll pay more for it, so why not take advantage of the big savings offered now? There's positively no excuse for waiting. If you don't want the goods delivered till after housecleaning time we'll store them free of charge and deliver when you are ready. Then again

CLUB PLAN PAYMENTS MAY BE ARRANGED

You can take advantage of these February selling prices; pay a little down and so much weekly or monthly, as best suits your convenience.

THE FEBRUARY SALE OF BED OUTFITS

WHITE ENAMEL BEDS, Complete with Spring and Mattress, at 6.98 8.50 10.98 14.50 16.98 23.50

SOLID BRASS BEDS, Complete with Spring and Mattress, at 16.98 24.50 37.50 49.50

BLOCH PULLMAN CARRIAGES

SOLD EXCLUSIVELY IN THIS CITY BY US.

1914 MODELS NOW ON SALE AT SPECIAL PRICES DURING FEBRUARY SALE.

Regular Price—	16.98	19.50	21.50	23.50	25.00	29.50
Sale Price	14.95	17.95	18.95	19.95	21.95	24.95

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Woodhull & Martin Co.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

WE GIVE FIVE PER CENT. PROFIT SHARING COUPONS.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The valentine social held Tuesday night at the Monroe Avenue Methodist church, under the auspices of the Epworth League, was a well attended and highly successful affair.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Grace M. E. church will give a clam chowder supper Friday night, February 20, at the church. Mrs. Charles L. Force is chairman of the committee of arrangements.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. Raymond Miller and her sister, Miss Griscom, of this city, left yesterday for Bermuda, for an indefinite stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Ford Johnson, of New York and Dobbs Ferry, are parents of a girl, born to them last week. Mrs. Johnson was Miss Anna Fisk, being the daughter of former Mayor and Mrs. Charles J. Fisk.

MANY APPLICANTS.

Twenty-five applicants for the vacancies on the police force were put through a physical examination in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium this afternoon. The men will appear in the Council chambers tonight at 8 o'clock, when they will be given an oral test.

WILL GIVE TWO PLAYS.

The Sunshine Mission Band of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will give two plays at the church, tomorrow afternoon and evening. The casts have been rehearsing for some time and finished performances are expected.

BOROUGH COUNCIL MEETING.

The North Plainfield Council will hold its February meeting tomorrow night, when it is expected that a number of matters of interest to the taxpayers will be taken up, including taxation and sanitary sewers.

"BALLOON NIGHT."

A special program has been arranged for the "Party Night" social held by "Doc" Doyle and Daniel McCormack in Debele's Hall tonight and a novelty known as the "Balloon Dance" will be introduced.

YESTERDAY'S LOCAL WEATHER.

8 a. m. temperature	41
8 p. m. temperature	39
Maximum temperature	56
Minimum temperature	41
Mean temperature	48
Normal temperature	26

POLICE CHIEFS MEET.

A meeting of the New Jersey Police Chiefs' Association is being held in Camden this afternoon.

—Merchants realize that the house wives who appreciate "special sales" are critical buyers—and that mere price-lure is not enough. The goods must be RIGHT.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR DEACON R. W. BARNES

The entire hour of the mid-week service at the First Baptist church, last night, was taken up with reminiscences and testimony concerning the late Robert W. Barnes, who was long a deacon of the church. There was a large attendance at the meeting, the gathering being even larger than usual owing to the fact becoming known that the services of commemoration would be held.

Church Clerk O. B. Leonard presented a testimonial reciting the worth and services of the late Deacon Barnes which memorial is to be spread at length upon the records of the church. A copy is also to be presented to the widow.

HEALTH BOARD TO ORGANIZE.

The Plainfield Board of Health will hold its monthly meeting tomorrow evening, at which time an organization for the coming year will be effected. Dr. T. S. Davis and S. H. Voorhees were re-appointed to the Board this week by Mayor Percy H. Stewart.

NEGOTIATIONS FAVORABLE.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Washington, Feb. 5.—Secretary of State Bryan assured the committee on immigration that the negotiations with Japan are going along most favorably to a settlement which will be reached if Congress does not interfere.

NEW YORK FISCAL AGENCY.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New York, Feb. 5—The Governor of California has designated the Bankers Trust Company to be fiscal agent under a law passed during the summer of 1913 which provides for such an appointment in New York.

Mrs. Henry S. Phillips, of 62 Duer street, will entertain a number of friends at her home this evening.

FIRST PENSION IS GRANTED TO RAHWAY CITY EMPLOYE

Rahway, Feb. 5—Common Council has granted its first pension in the city's history, placing Nathan V. Compton, a Civil War veteran, formerly of Plainfield, who has been an assessor twenty-nine years, on a pension of $50 a month. This was done on the recommendation of the law committee.

Eighty commuters along the trolley line between Rahway and Westfield petitioned for better service at night. The communication was ordered sent to the Public Utility Commission.

Dog Warden William Cook was criticized by Councilman Oxman for disposing of dead dogs in the city dump. Cook was ordered hereafter to bury all the dogs he kills.

Lincoln Hook and Ladder Company No. 2, offered to buy a lot and erect a suitable building for a firehouse if the city would agree to pay a rental of $20 a month. The proposal was referred to the finance committee. Council accepted an invitation to attend the sixtieth anniversary of Washington Hose Company No. 1, which will be held next Wednesday.

PILGRIMAGE OF FRIENDS.

There will be a pilgrimage to the Plainfield meeting of the Religious Society of Friends, on Sunday, of the joint fellowship committee of both branches of Friends of New York. There will be a meeting at 11 o'clock in the morning and at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The topic for discussion will be "What Lack I Yet?" All interested are invited.

PROGRESS ON STREET LIGHTS.

The Public Service Corporation is making rapid progress in the work of installing the new street lighting system in the business section of the city, and it is expected that the twenty-seven new lamps will be in position within a short time. An underground distributing point has been located at Park avenue and Front street.

WILL LEAVE BOSTON AND MAINE

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Boston, Feb. 5.—It was officially stated, today, that Morris McDonald shortly will retire from the presidency of the Boston and Maine and will confine himself to the duties of president of the Maine Central and its subsidiaries. Mr. McDonald became head of the B. and M. last July.

MENNEN'S TALCUM 15c

THAT STUBBORN COUGH

possibly hasn't yielded to the ordinary cough syrup. Get a bottle of NARCO Wine of Cod Liver Oil with Malt, Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites; pleasant to take, agrees with all stomachs and cures chronic coughs and bronchitis, etc. An excellent tonic.

Large Bottles 75c Only at

SCHREINER BROS.

Prescription Druggists

PARK AVE., COR. SECOND ST.

Headquarters for

GIBSON'S RYE

E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

THE THREE COMPONENT PARTS

of our banking service are accuracy, courtesy and promptness.

We extend to you every banking privilege consistent with sound, conservative business.

Your account subject to check (large or small) is cordially invited.

3% INTEREST ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS OF $500.00 AND ABOVE

4% INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS OF $10.00 AND ABOVE

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK

OF PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Capital $150,000.00 Surplus and Profits $300,000.00 (all earned)

SPRING STYLES FOR THE SOUTHLAND WARDROBE

WHILE French couturiers are puzzling their heads to invent new styles, Palm Beach wardrobes are disclosing the smartest fashions to reckon with at the moment. These take into account every sort of gown from the crisp linen suit for the morning stroll, bathing outfits, sports toggery, to filmy laces, nets and silks for the ceremonious evening occasions.

For those who are about to plan spring and summer clothes which can be had for moderate cost, the simpler types of gowns and blouses are especially interesting. Already, the new note is sounded in rough weaves of cottons and linens, almost as beautiful as the silk and woolen materials which they resemble. Fabrics like velvet, known as uncut frisette, cotton velour either ribbed or plain; and cotton duvetyn are attracting attention for two-piece suits and dresses. On the left of this page is a jaunty spring suit of brown wide wall ribbed cotton velour.

This model (coat 7716, skirt 8038) has a straight cutaway jacket, loose fitting, and quite plain except for the straps of velvet trimming the front; and a wide belt of velvet with fringe on the ends. The skirt, in misses' sizes from 14 to 18 years, can be cut from a single breadth of 54-inch material. The price ranges from $1.85 per yard up to $4.

Designed to wear with this suit is the dainty bodice of ecru net (7909) with strips of the suit material making the effective trimming on the sleeves and their full ruffles. A sash of salmon pink satin is tied in a bow at the front. The collar is a dainty combination of batiste and Valenciennes lace.

Rose pink and white crinkled cotton is the inexpensive wash goods of which the coat suit in the middle of the page is made, (coat 7810, skirt 7811). The trimming is a six-inch band of rose linen with a line of h[illegible]stitching near either edge. The fulness of the coat blouse is held in by the band which has the latest upward direction. This suit can be duplicated in the same material for $8, or at the same price in ratine, linen or taffeta.

There is continued use of brocaded and broché designs in cotton and light weight woolen materials for warm weather wear; and one such dress varies the monotony of all plain dresses, and adds what is very novel. A deep old rose brocaded poplin is the material of the model on the left lower side of the page (8045) chosen as an instance of the one-piece gown which is very easy to make. This closes at the back and has a crush girdle of velvet [illegible] at the waistline. The collar is a band of white [illegible] with soutache braid in a design which can be reproduced with pattern 14272. Each number of the patterns mentioned above is 15 cents.

7716
8038
Street Suit of Ribbed
Terry Cloth

7810-7811
Crinkled Cotton
With Rose Linen Band

7909
Suit Blouse
of Filmy Net

14658 Collar with Hand Embroidery

14448-Cherry Blossom
Design

One-Piece
Dress
Ornamented with Soutache
Border

8045

14142-Cord and Embroidered Dots on Net.

14270-Design in Fine Soutache on Net.

NEW [illegible] are most effective [illegible] with bordered designs [illegible] and soutache braid. The [illegible] new styles [illegible] for spring [illegible] cents. [illegible] sists of [illegible] and green silk net with a hand similar to No. 14270 in self color silk soutache [illegible] of a two-inch hem. Either of the second designs illustrated is suitable for such ornamentation, and can be [illegible] well at little expense. No. 14272 [illegible] while No. 14270 is 2[illegible] Each comes [illegible] patterns for 10 cents. The [illegible] is done with fine cord couched on the net.

HAND embroidery adds beauty and value to modish accessories of gowns that are admired also for their individuality. Happily, it is the kind of ornamentation which the clever needlewoman can have at trifling cost, other than time. The collar shown above (14658) is a very new shape with a standing section which may be wired or starched, if one would have the latest effect in high neckwear. It is a design suitable for linen, silk, or ratine. White embroidery or bright colored silks may be used with equally good result according to the dress for which it is intended. Separate net collars with French hand embroidery are also very dainty and could be made with this pattern. It costs 10 cents.

The bag with a cherry blossom embroidered design is one of the newest kinds to carry with summer costumes, or to use for fancy work. It is shown in tan color silk poplin with embroidery in self color and trimmed with blue silk. The pattern for sketch is 7¼ by 4½ inches, and is one set of three designs sold for [illegible] (14448). The price of the set is 10 cents.

Seen In the Shops

[illegible] are [illegible] popular [illegible]. They are shown with [illegible] the same, or [illegible] the [illegible] and very [illegible] of shading [illegible].

[illegible] of skirt. [illegible] the [illegible] a [illegible] fold [illegible] up on the right side. Ruffles of [illegible] are [illegible] the ends of transparent short sleeves for dressy frocks and evening gowns.

Small hats of black taffetas or black moire are shown for between seasons. Some are smartly trimmed with standing ruchings of black tulle and jet. Jet, by the way, is featured in every possible use for millinery and dress.

Parasols for 1914 are not only flowered and bordered with velvet and lace; but they are shown in novel minaret shapes. Some have an inner lining several inches lower than the turret canopy. Watteau panels like those on quaint fans are painted on white silk parasols.

Household Hints

[illegible] the hardwood trim of a house, and pieces of old mahogany furniture [illegible] rubbed repeatedly with a mixture [illegible] oil and turpentine in the proportion [illegible] of the former to one of the latter, they will have a soft beautiful polish. The mixture "feeds" the wood and takes away what one dealer expresses as the "hungry" look wood has when [illegible].

How to Hang Pictures

[illegible] hang preferably nowadays [illegible] long pieces of wire [illegible] from a moulding, except in the case of extra large and heavy ones. [illegible] be hung flat against the [illegible] small pins or hooks that hold [illegible] do not mar the wall, may be used to effect the invisible hanging.

One Way to Boil Rice

[illegible] so that each kernel is [illegible] separate from the others is [illegible] way by adding cold water after [illegible] cooking has begun. Wash and dry the desired quantity of rice and put it into boiling water to which salt has been added. When it begins to swell add a teacupful of cold water. When it boils up again, add another cup of cold water, and repeat until the kernels are swelled and begin to crack. While the grains remain separate, pour off the water, and drain the rice in a colander before serving.

Prune Souffle

Stew, drain and remove the pits from one and one-half pounds of prunes, and cut them into pieces. To the beaten yolks of four eggs add three ounces of sugar, and beat until creamy. Add the prunes, and the whites of the eggs. Bake twenty minutes.

Patterns for designs shown on this page can be obtained from any agency selling LADIES' HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

OLIVE OIL

Gallon can $2.65

Half Gallon can $1.40

Quart can 75c

20 oz. bottle 65c

DIRECT FROM FRANCE

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS

Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760

Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage

WAREHOUSE

North Avenue

OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE

125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.

OLD RELIABLE

STORAGE

All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry

Furniture Packed and Shipped

Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS

THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.

AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS

The Leading

Auctioneers

W. A. SCHORB & CO.

Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.

120 Madison Av., Jackson Bl'g

Telephone 1707-W.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JUST RECEIVED 8,000 ROLLS OF THIS YEAR'S

WALL PAPER

At special prices, selling at 8 and 10 cents per roll. This is an opportunity to secure up-to-date wallpaper at a big saving.

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators.

145 NORTH AVENUE.

Now is the Time

To paint your house—in the cool of the year, when the paint dries slowly, and consequently lasts longest. No hot sun to cause blisters. And the house painted now is preserved against the ravages of winter storms.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's pure colors, ready mixed paint, varnishes, glass, etc.

JAMES C. HANSEN

Tel. 346.

HENRY J. SIEBERT & CO.

1147 East Jersey St.,

ELIZABETH, N. J.

(Opp. Proctor's Theatre).

We specialize:

AWNINGS

WINDOW SHADES

CURTAIN MATERIALS

BRASS GOODS, etc.

Large assortment.

Low prices.

'Phone Elizabeth 852.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

February 1, 1913.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30, 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 8:00, 9:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5.50, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:00 a. m., 12:30, 3:15 and 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00 a. m., 1:30, 4:2 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:3 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:0 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:0 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:3 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6.30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton Close—6.30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:20, 8:4 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:20 p. m. Close—8:00 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 5:50, 9:00 p. m

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00, 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:30 5.50, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m Close—9:00 a. m., 2:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

W. H. BIRD, P. M.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

Dr. Robert W. Rogers

OSTEOPATH

720 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1936-W.

Office hours: 8 to 9 a. m., 7 to 8 p. m.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

GRACE CHURCH ACTIVITIES SHOWN IN YEAR BOOK

The year book for 1914 of Grace church has just been issued by Rev. E. Vicars Stevenson, the rector, and is a most complete compilation of the many activities of this busy parish. It also contains a detailed account of the year's work, together with reports, order of services, an excellent picture of the late Dean Erskine M. Rodman, rector for many years, a picture of the new rector, the gift of Thomas M. Mumford, and a historical sketch of the parish. There are also pictures of memorial gifts to the parish, and a revised list of the communicants.

FUNERAL OF MRS. ALLEN IS LARGELY ATTENDED

The funeral of Mrs. Aaron Allen, aged 93 years, one of the oldest residents of the borough, was held at 10:30 o'clock this morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harrison Coddington on Mountain avenue. There was a large attendance of relatives, friends and neighbors and many beautiful floral tributes.

Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor of the First Baptist church, of which Mrs. Allen was almost a life-long member, officiated, reading the Scriptures, offering prayer and making a brief address of eulogy. The burial was in Hillside cemetery and the bearers were Frank W. Jones, and her grandsons, Allen Coddington and Harry Coddington, and William Morrison.

RECEPTION GIVEN TO REV. AND MRS. BORETTI

Women of the First Presbyterian church gave a reception to Rev. and Mrs. Theodore P. Boretti, who were recently married, at the Italian Mission, at 409 East Third street, yesterday afternoon. Forty guests were present. Mr. Boretti is in charge of the Italian Mission. The reception was held from 3 until 5 o'clock and was a very enjoyable affair.

The compliment of the reception which the women of the church extended them was greatly appreciated by Mr. and Mrs. Boretti, both of whom were warmly congratulated by those who were present. Knowledge that they have the cordial support of the women in their mission work and that they can depend upon their aid and co-operation at all times Mr. Boretti said would be an incentive to do more work for the advancement of religion among the Italians of the city.

CHAPMAN-YETMAN.

Miss Beatrice Chapman, of Richmond, Va., and Richard Yetman, of 616 East Third street, were married last night in the groom's home in the presence of a gathering of relatives and intimate friends. The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. W. Vaughan, pastor of Mount Olive Baptist church. Miss Nora Good, a cousin of the bride, and H. Ammond Jackson, were the attendants. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of blue satin and carried white roses. The ceremony was followed by a reception and collation. Mr. Yetman is well-known throughout the city and borough.

SLAYER'S TRIAL MONDAY.

New Brunswick, Feb. 5—Monday has been fixed by Justice James J. Bergen for the trial of Joseph Toth, of Woodbridge, charged with the murder, January 26, of Michael Matyi. Toth found Matyi and his former sweetheart, Miss Julia Delzebone, at Matyi's boarding house. He became angry and fired at them through the door of a closet in which they were hiding. Matyi was killed and the girl shot through the arm. She is now held in jail as a witness. Toth has not yet been called upon to plead, but it is expected that he will be arraigned tomorrow.

COMMANDS NEW SHIP.

Rotterdam, Feb. 5.—The steamship Principello, the newest and largest vessel of the Uranium Line, sailed from here today on her maiden trip to New York. The new ship is in charge of Captain Francis Inch, who commanded the ill-fated Volturno when that vessel was burned at sea last October with the loss of many lives, and who later was exonerated of any blame and warmly praised for the bravery and efficiency he displayed at the time of the castastrophe.

CONGRESSMAN BREMNER DEAD.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Congressman Robert G. Bremner, of the Seventh New Jersey District, died of cancer, today, at Dr. Howard Kelly's sanitorium, Baltimore. Mr. Bremner had taken the radium treatment and his case had attracted world wide attention.

LARGE MUNICIPAL LOAN.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Philadelphia, Feb. 5—The finance committee reported to Council this afternoon an ordinance for the creation of a municipal loan of $12,700,000 in addition to all those heretofore authorized.

STRIKE IS SETTLED.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Apollo, Pa., Feb. 5—The strike of the employes of the Apollo Steel Company has been settled as the result of a conference held yesterday.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

Classified Advertisements---Copy Received Until 1:30 P. M. Daily

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No Display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

THE ROYAL TYPEWRITER

Best built STANDARD Typewriter in the world. Nineteen exclusive features not possessed by any other machine—best references of local users. Write or phone for particulars and demonstration.

PLAINFIELD OFFICE SUPPLY CO., 116 West Front Street. P. O. Box 701. 'Phone 921-W 1 27 6 eod

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING

CANDIES, ICE CREAM

DAINTY LUNCH

HODGE'S PHARMACY

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Telephone 62.

REMEMBER

We carry the largest and finest stock of plants and cut flowers in the city. Floral design work by expert designers. Plant or flowers delivered to any city of the United States. Store, 159 East Front street; Tel. 928; greenhouses, 1126 South avenue. 40,000 feet of glass.

STANLEY

159 E. Front St. Tel. 928.

Woodhull & Martin Building.

Greenhouses, South Ave., Tel. 331-J

T. A. MOORE

UNDERTAKER

612 E Sixth St.

Tel. 741-R

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON,

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS

Office 116 Park Avenue. Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 2d St. Tel. 584-W. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 23d St. Tel. 2694-Gramercy.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,

UNDERTAKERS

402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. can 5345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

JAS. J. CHAS. A.

J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS

FUNERAL PARLORS

109 W. Fourth St. Tel. 1753-J.

Our Booklet Entitled A Modern Mortuary Establishment Sent Upon Request.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS

Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

SHEPARD—Joanna Mead, beloved wife of the late Augustus D. Shepard, suddenly on February 3, 1914, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Osborn W. Bright, Gibsonville, North Carolina.

Funeral service at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. John Doull Miller, 222 East Ninth street, Plainfield, N. J., Friday, February 6, at 2:15 p. m.

BRAY—In this city, February 4, 1914, Patrick Bray, in his 75th year.

Funeral from his late home, 203 Stebbins place, Friday, February 6th, at 8:30 a. m.; high mass of requiem at St. Mary's church at 9 a. m. Interment in St. Mary's cemetery.

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Manning, 183 North avenue. 10 14 tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

MAN wanted to do collecting and take charge of Plainfield office, permanent position at good salary; must be honest and know city well; cash bond of $100 required. Opportunity, care Press. 2 4 tf

Copyright, 1913, The Int. Syndicate, Baltimore.

No. 57.

IN the window of a store located in the heart of the retail shopping district, I saw, the other day, a crudely hand-lettered cardboard sign, about 12 inches wide by 6 inches deep. It was practically buried among a lot of miscelleaneous merchandise, and read:

Sales Lady
Wanted.

Now, let's see: How many out-of-a-job sales ladies pass that store in the course of a day? I guess 50. That's a fair estimate, isn't it? How many of the 50 will stop to look in that window and discover the little cardboard sign? Say, 10 per cent. That's 5. The store isn't a particularly attractive one, and wouldn't convey the idea that a good salary is attached to the vacancy in the sales force. So I figure that only three out of the five who see that sign would apply for the job. That makes three applicants a day for the proprietor of that store to select from.

Suppose the proprietor, instead of depending on an obscure sign in his window, should insert in this newspaper a little Want Ad. in the "Help Wanted—Female" column. Suppose he worded his ad. something like this:

WANTED—A neat courteous SALES-LADY; one with experience preferred. Apply BLANK'S, 2000 West Lexington street.

That ad would cost him, say thirty cents or so. Several hundred women would read that ad., and, instead of having only a few applicants to select from, he would have quite a number—and of a better class than those who walk the streets in search of employment.

Such is the power of advertising—and, really, isn't it quite simple and inexpensive?

The Want-Ad Man

(All rights reserved, 1913, by Jerome P. Fleishman.)

MISCELLANEOUS.

TAXIDERMIST—Birds and animals stuffed and mounted. T. W. Sisty, Wayside Park; 'Phone 1299-J Dunellen, N. J. 11 11 7mo

EMBROIDERY, INITIALS, ETC.—Orders taken for all kinds of embroidery and initials; first class work; prices reasonable. Mrs. C. S. Groot, 768 Woodland avenue, near Putnam avenue; telephone 1687-M. 1 15 1mo

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY CO. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

TO LET—Attractive rooms, with board. Mrs. L. R. Williams, 13 Crescent avenue. 2 24 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board; also table board. 433 East Seventh street. 1 17 tf

FOR RENT—Two comfortable rooms with excellent home table. Mrs. Berrien, 602 Madison avenue. 12 27 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

COLORED chauffeur, experienced, willing and handy; go anywhere; best reference. Address J., Press office. 2 3 2

HOUSEWORK, 25c an hour, wanted by handy colored man. 317 Liberty street. 10 28 tf

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—Two new seven room houses; all improvements; garage, sleeping porch, decorated to suit tenant or buyer. 839 Osborne avenues, Netherwood, telephone 894-M. 1 28 tf

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Cook-laundress, waitress-chambermaid. Apply evenings, 915 Kensington avenue. 2 2 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

AN EXPERIENCED laundress wishes to take work home or go out. Call or write, 814 Richmond street. 2 4 2t

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FARM FOR SALE—20 acres, midway between two depots on outskirts of Plainfield, N. J., good seven room house, chicken house, artesian well, 550 feet frontage on county road, well travelled. Apply Edward C. Hardingham, 152 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 2 5 7

FOR SALE—Good house, for colored people; 6 room house, part improvements; right in town. See Mr. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 6 26 tf

FOR SALE—To close French Estate," Somerset street carriage factory, stores, and tenement houses and stable in rear; lot 100x200 ft.; alley at side and in rear; bargain, terms arranged. Apply, Elston M. French executor, 171 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 12 19 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, reliable help only; all nationalities, faithful service commands good situations and our fees are very reasonable; courteous treatment to all. 326 West Front street, near Grove, Phone 666. 11 26 tf

HANSEN'S Employment Agency, 128 Watchung avenue, corner Second street. Excellent positions furnished to reliable help of all nationalities. Telephone 2559. 2 5 1mo

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

HORSES FOR SALE.

SIX DELIVERY HORSES FOR SALE, SUITABLE FOR EXPRESS, GROCERY OR FARM WORK; ALL IN GOOD CONDITION; THIS STOCK BEING REPLACED BY AUTOMOBILES. L. BAMBERGER & COMPANY, PLANE STREET STABLES, NEWARK, N. J.

FOR RENT.

FLAT to let, five rooms, all improvements. 538 West Fifth street, or enquire 432 Watchung avenue. 11 11 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street, with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FIVE-ROOM apartment, all modern improvements; central location. Inquire P. C. Thomsen, 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—Six room house and bath. Inquire 147 East Fifth street. 11 24 tf

TO RENT—Flat, 6 rooms and bath; all improvements; $25.50. Inquire 334 East Fifth street. 2 4 12

TO LET—Four rooms, East Seventh street, near Berckman street. Inquire 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

HOUSE TO RENT—Splendid offer to good small family. In answering give name and address. Address Opportunity, care Daily Press. 2 5 3

FOR RENT—No. 45 Prospect place, near Washington avenue, 6 rooms, reception hall and bath; all improvements. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 12 1 tf

APARTMENT for rent, steam heat; 95 Westervelt avenue; 6 rooms. Lamar Van Syckel. 1 6 tf tu-th-s

HOUSE for rent, 1072 Arlington avenue; 9 rooms; steam heat. Lamar Van Syckel. 1 6 tf tu-th-s

TO LET—Flat of five rooms, with improvements. Callahan & Son, Third and Richmond Sts. 1 24 tf eod

TO LET—At eleven dollars, to respectable colored families, 4-room houses, with improvements. Inquire 1348 West Front street. 2 2 12

TO LET—House, six rooms and bath. 409 Liberty street. Tel. 450-W. 12 8 tf

TO LET—New four room apartments; improvements; 1361 and 1351 South Second street; $10.50 per month. John Herrman, 369 Somerset street; 'Phone 2512-W. 1 23 1mo

HOUSE to rent; eight rooms, all improvements; small garage. Inquire 222 Madison avenue. 1 16 1mo

SIX ROOM house to let; all modern improvements; rent reasonable. W. R. VanDerveer, superintendent 231 East Second street, Cor. Church. 1 17 tf

FOUR-ROOM flat to let, part improvements, $10. 203 Grant avenue. 11 21 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town, rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 11 6 tf

HOUSES $12 to $50; flats, $16 to $30; stores $7 upwards. D. McInness, West Third street, Tel. 1196-W. 6 30 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

FOR SALE.

ROYAL TYPEWRITERS — The best built standard typewriter in the world for only $75. Write or call for a demonstration. Plainfield Office Supply Co., Local Agents, P. O. Box 701, 'Phone 921-W. 1 25 1mo

FOR SALE—A good horse. Apply to A. E. Force & Co. 2 4 2

FOR SALE—Stable manure. Apply to A. E. Force & Co. 2 4 2

FOR SALE—Manure, soil. Sam Redd, 933 West Third street. 2 3 1m

GUINEA PIGS or cavies, breeders, 75 cents each. 1008 Arlington avenue. 2 4 4

FOR SALE—All kinds fine gloves for ladies, men and boys, at wholesale and retail; large variety of deer skin gloves for auto, driving and working; best canvas, 10c; per dozen, $1.00; kid gloves, slightly damaged, half price. H. Texier, 58 Somerset street. 12 31 tf

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rate; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Ford delivery wagon, with runabout body; new tires and in perfect condition. E. & C. Auto Sales Co., 124 Madison avenue. 2 4 6

Of Interest to Women and the Home

The Housewife's Daily Economy Calendar

FRANCES LAWRENCE

Useful Boxes.

There are two ways of keeping things in order. One is to have few things—and perhaps that is the easiest way. The other is to have plenty of places to put the things you have—and that is the most practical way. Most of us have more possessions than we need or desire, but they somehow belong to modern civilized life. They are so much a part of it that we can get rid of them only when we get away from modern civilized life.

Boxes of many sorts help to solve the problem of suitable places to put things. And it is possible now to have boxes of every shape and size.

For one thing, there are window seats with boxes beneath them. In a dining room, these can be used to store table linen in. In a living room games and children's coats and rubbers and hats can be kept in them. In a bedroom they can be used to hold extra supplies of bed clothes or clothes of one sort and another. A window seat box makes the best sort of shoe box, and one can be used to hold such odds and ends as photographic supplies or toys or the paraphernalia of a canary bird's life—its tub and box of sand and packages of seed and cuttlefish.

Then there are the boxes that slide under beds. These are big and roomy and can be used to hold frocks and coats and hats, comforters and blankets, sheets and towels or shoes. The most easily managed are the sort that hang from a frame fastened to the under part of the bed. These are easily pulled out and in and because they do not touch the floor they do not collect dust.

The tiers of boxes, covered with chintz or cretonne, that are piled in enameled or painted wooden frames, to hold hats and shirtwaists and gloves and veils and other articles of apparel, are convenient space savers, but they are rather expensive. Boxes of various shapes and sizes can be covered at home with wall paper, or cretonne, and piled on closet shelves or else piled in a home-made frame, which is nicely enameled.

(Copyright, 1914, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Some Cookery Suggestions

PINEAPPLE DAINTIES.

DINNER MENU.
Baked Stuffed Skirt Steak.
Brown Sauce.
Browned White Potatoes.
Escalloped Tomatoes.
Pineapple Tapioca.
Coffee.

PEOPLE who like pineapple and are aware of the wholesome nature of the fruit will appreciate these nice desserts.

Uses For Canned Pineapple.

Pineapple With Cream.—Cook one can of grated pineapples with a cupful of sugar ten minutes. Strain through a cloth, pressing out the juice. Add a pint of ice water, a cupful of sugar, one-quarter cupful of lemon juice and freeze as usual. Serve in glasses. Decorate the top of each with a star of whipped cream. The whipped cream is prepared as follows: To a cupful of double cream well chilled add one-quarter teaspoonful of vanilla extract and a tablespoonful of powdered sugar. Beat with a whisk until solid. To shape the cream use a pastry bag with star tube attached.

Pineapple Tapioca.—Take a cupful of tapioca and soak it overnight. In the morning drain and put it in a double boiler with one and one-half cupfuls of hot water, one-third teaspoonful of salt, a cupful of sugar, one-half can of shredded pineapple and the juice of a lemon and an orange. Cook until clear, fold in the stiffly beaten whites of three eggs, cook two minutes longer and serve cold with or without cream.

Served With Cornstarch.

Pineapple Blancmange.—Take two and two-thirds cupfuls of milk and scald in a double boiler. Mix one-third cupful of cornstarch with one-third cupful of cold milk and add to the hot milk with three tablespoonfuls of sugar and one-half saltspoonful of salt. Stir until smooth and thick. Cover and cook fifteen minutes, stirring occasionally. Add the stiffly beaten whites of two eggs and one cupful of grated pineapple, turn into wet individual molds, chill and serve with cream, either plain or whipped.

Pineapple Sponge.—Take one and one-half cupfuls of grated pineapple, three-fourths cupful sugar and one-half cupful water and let them simmer together for fifteen minutes. Add one-fourth package gelatin soaked in one-fourth cupful cold water and strain through a cheesecloth, pressing the juice from the pulp. Place in a pan of cracked ice and stir constantly till it begins to set. Then add juice of half a lemon and the beaten whites of two eggs and stir till stiff. Turn into a mold and set in a cold place. This may be served with whipped cream.

Anna Thompson.

In a Few Minutes Mr. Robin Came.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—Robin Red-Breast's and Miss Robin's Wedding.

"LITTLE Miss Robin was preening her feathers and smoothing them down, for it was the 14th of February and she had received a valentine. Naturally she was very much excited, and she looked at herself and her reflection as she stood over the brook.

"'Yes,' she said to herself, 'I am looking well today. I do hope Mr. Robin Redbreast will think so too. My, what a fine bird he is! And, oh, how lucky I am to have received a valentine from him!'

"Now Mr. Robin Redbreast for a long time had admired Miss Robin and thought she was the most beautiful bird he'd ever seen. And so he began to get his valentine ready 'way back in the autumn when the trees had turned red. He would fly from tree to tree and spent hours each day looking for the most beautiful and perfect leaf, and he wanted it to be a real crimson color. At last he found it and put it away in his nest, very carefully covering it over with moss and straw to keep it well protected and so it wouldn't fade or shrivel up on the ends. Then a few days before Valentine's day he got a little stick which he stuck through the red leaf, which he had pecked off into the shape of a heart, and this was the valentine he sent to Miss Robin. Of course the stick was to mean that his heart had been pierced by love.

"Mr. Robin Redbreast sent his valentine by a messenger, and then he waited what seemed hours to him before he went to call on Miss Robin, and it seemed hours to Miss Robin, too, who had smoothed her feathers so many times.

"At last Miss Robin heard him singing the most beautiful song, with such high notes it seemed as if they almost reached the sky. And, oh, how proud Miss Robin was to feel that such a beautiful singer was to be her mate!

"In a few moments Mr. Robin Redbreast came in sight and stood before her by the brook. Miss Robin was all of a flutter with joy and nervousness.

"'I've come,' said Mr. Robin Redbreast, 'to ask you if you'll be my wife and come to my new nest in the apple tree.'

"And then he sang another little song.

"'I would love to, I would love to!' chirped Miss Robin.

"'We'll be married today, then,' said Mr. Robin Redbreast, 'for I've invited the guests.'

"Then he gave a long call. At that, from far and near, countless robins flew down and hovered around.

"Mr. Robin Redbreast and his bride flew to the branch of a nearby tree, and all the others perched about them singing such merry, happy songs.

"And then they all went back to Mr. Robin Redbreast's nest, where a banquet awaited them of fat, juicy worms."

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

LOHRMAN'S Chocolate Shop
161 EAST FRONT STREET.
High Grade Chocolates, Candies, Ice Cream and Sodas. Mottoes, Favors and Ice Cream Forms for all occasions. Orders taken for Frozen Puddings, Glaces, Mousses, Etc.

O. A. R. GARAGE
915-917 South Avenue.
Carbon removed by Oxygen method—$3 for 4 cylinder, $4 for 6 cylinder. Sole agents for Symplex Gas Savers—positively gives more power, speed and uses 25 to 50% saving.
GUARANTEED REPAIRS

MOTHERS' WORK

Conducted by the Plainfield Mothers' Association. Every Thursday

Contributing Staff.
Mrs. G. Stuart Simons, Mrs. Jos. Smith, Mrs. Herbert Parker.

The Daily Press for Thursdays containing the column on Mother's Work will be sent by mail for one dollar a year, in advance.

Good Citizenship is promoted by forming habits of co-operation in play. People who play together find it easier to live together. Individuals enjoying a wholesome happy play life are more loyal as well as more efficient citizens. Family Unity is most easily secured when the members of the family have formed the habit of playing together in their leisure hours. Community spirit is most easily developed through play in which all members of the community may share. Democracy rests on the most firm basis when a community has formed the habit of playing together. Social progress depends upon the extent to which a people possess a play spirit.

Under the auspices of the Public Recreation Committee of Plainfield whose duty it is to provide for a wider use of the public school buildings the Washington School is now open every night in the week except one the Franklin School two evenings, the Stillman School frequently used for night school entertainments and a social meeting of the grammar school children. A public Forum is promised for the near future and definite plans are made for public organ recitals. The public is cordially invited to visit these activities, probably the most interesting of which are the Dunbar Club meetings Friday evenings, the Wasanington Social Club Saturday evenings and the public concerts by the orchestra announced in the papers, at intervals, all of which take place in the Washington School.

A Parents' League has been organized recently in New York city, the object of which is to unite parents and teachers in establishing wholesome common sense standards for the education, amusement and home-life of the children. Committees on music, theatre and recreation were appointed. Their platform is as follows: "We believe that boys and girls of school age should refuse all invitations to parties, theatres, etc., during school terms, except occasionally Fridays and Saturdays, and that parties and theatre-going should be limited during the holidays.

"We think that parents should arrange simple and appropriate forms of recreation for the children, for instance, attendance at young people's concerts, visits to the country, museums and places of interest and that time should be reserved during the holidays to join the children in such recreations. We want parents to advocate reasonable hours for beginning and ending dances for young people that the hours be stated in all invitations and that the manner of dancing be carefully supervised." Some of the plays recommended by the theatre committee were Forbes-Robertson in his repertoire, "Seven Keys to Baldpate," "Peg o' My Heart," "Potash and Perlmutter," "The Things that Count" and the Hippodrome.

The luncheon committee of the Mothers' Association held a meeting at the home of the president, Mrs. C. G. Munro, on Tuesday. Definite plans were made for a luncheon to be served in the near future to raise money for the current expenses and to extend the lunches to the Lincoln School. An average of over a hundred children are served each day at the Bryant School. The actual food sold balances its cost but money is needed to pay the cook, assistant cook and to buy the equipment of dishes, cooking utensils and incidental expenses of the extension work. The mothers have willingly offered their services, three each day to serve the children, by making sandwiches, wrapping crackers, candy, serving cocoa, collecting the money, etc. The soup is made each day to contain the proper food value for a good meal, so a child can buy for one penny a substantial dish. Other things such as sandwiches, wholesome puddings, stewed fruits, cocoa, assorted crackers and pure candy are sold for a penny, on which a slight profit is made, which makes it possible to sell the nourishing soup for a penny. Contributions of jelly and money are solicited and a cordial invitation extended to visit the Bryant School basement between 12:45 and 1 o'clock on school days.

M. C. S.

BROKE PATERSON LAMP 27 YEARS AGO, SENDS $2 NOW

Paterson, Feb. 5—Bothered by his conscience because he broke a street lamp in Governor street twenty-seven years ago, a citizen whose identity is not known sent $2 to Mayor Fordyce Tuesday to pay for the damage.

The letter and the money were turned over to the Board of Public Works by the Mayor yesterday afternoon. The officials decided this was the first time one ever had contributed to repair damage done to city property.

THE PLAINFIELD THEATRE

Stepping in to watch a rehearsal of "Busy Izzy" is an experience that is well worth while, for George Sidney, the comedian and owner of the musical comedy, does all his own rehearsing. His keen eye looks after every detail, and he selects everything in his productions from the smallest detail of a costume to the last chorus girl in the last row. Selecting a chorus is no mean job, in itself. All sorts of people apply for positions on the stage. Some of them come fresh from beaneries, where they have had no experience except that of balancing trays. Others come from the country, with the smell of new mown hay on their skirts, and still others come from factories and sweat-shops. They have all been tackled with the glamour of the footlights. For example, one of the girls will inquire: "When do you play Podunk?" She is advised. Then she will break out: "Oh, fine, that is my home town, and we'll pack 'em in to the doors." This is an old story and as like as not, when Podunk is played, not a soul in the town knows or cares whether Tottie Tickletoes is there or not. It is a pet superstition of the chorus girl, however, that she can drawn like a house afire in her home town. "Busy Izzy" will appear at the Plainfield theatre, Saturday afternoon and evening, February 14.

—To go straight to the right store, at the right time, in making a particular purchase, is not a matter of luck, or of general knowledge of the stores—but of keeping in touch with store advertising all the time.

NEEDLEWORK

By MARGARET LAWRENCE

AN ATTRACTIVE BORDER FOR APPLIQUE, STENCILING OR EMBROIDERING

This conventional apple-blossom spray has many possibilities for decorating table-covers, curtains, runners, pillow-covers and portieres. If you wish to stencil this design, it is necessary to stamp it on very heavy wrapping paper or stencil board, then cut out the spaces with either a sharp knife or sharp pointed scissors. When the motif has once been cut from the stencil board it can be repeated any number of times to form a border or an all-over pattern. For your bed-room, you could make a pretty set of curtains and covers from scrim, lawn, cross-bar muslin, swiss or even cheese cloth, stenciled with this design in delicate pinks and green. The curtains, bed-spread, table-cover, pillow-cover and couch cushions might all be decorated with one design making a very dainty, fresh room, especially if the wall paper be of a plain color in a light shade of green or pink.

Spread your material to be stenciled over a large blotter on a table, and place the cut stencil in the desired position, then fasten it down with pins or thumb-tacks so that the color medium can not run under the edges of the design. Have as many brushes as you wish to use colors. These should be cut off within one-fourth-inch of the ferrules. Dip the brush into the paint and before applying it to the stencil, rub it almost dry on another piece of material, then rub the color thoroughly into the fabric so that it will have the appearance of being woven into the material, not painted on it.

The ordinary artist's oil colors, mixed with gasoline or with a fixatif preparation made from one pint or turpentine, one ounce of acetic acid, and one ounce oil of winter green will be satisfactory color mediums; for if the work is done with either of these, the articles can be washed when they become soiled.

A guaranteed, hot iron transfer pattern, 14112, including 2¼ yards of this border, which is 4½-inches wide, can be supplied to readers on receipt of price, 15 cents.

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

BY EARL DERR BIGGERS

Copyright, 1913, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER VIII.

Ghosts of the Summer Crowd.

IT was past 1 o'clock and Mr. Magee with his four mysterious companions stood before the fire in the office, each with an eager eye out for the progress of the hermit, who was preparing the table beside them. Through the kindness of Quimby, the board was resplendent with snowy linen.

"We may seem overeager," commented Professor Bolton. "I have no doubt we do. It is only natural. With nothing to look forward to but the next meal, the human animal attaches a preposterous importance to his feeding. We are in the same cases as the summer guests"—

"Are we?" interrupted Mr. Magee. "Have we nothing but the next meal to look forward to? I think not. I haven't. I've come to value too highly the capacity for excitement of Baldpate inn in December. I look forward to startling things. I expect, before the day is out, at least two gold laced kings, an exiled poet and a lord mayor, all armed with keys to Baldpate inn and stories strange and unconvincing."

"Your adventures of the last twenty-four hours," remarked the professor, smiling wanly, "have led you to expect too much. I have made inquiries of Quimby. There are, aside from his own, but seven keys in all to the various doors of Baldpate inn. Four are here represented. It is hardly likely that the other three will send delegates, and if they should you have but a slim chance for kings and poets. Even Baldpate's capacity for excitement, you see, is limited by the number of little steel keys which open its portals to exiles from the outside world. I am reminded of the words of the philosopher"—

"Well, Peters, old top," broke in Mr. Bland in robust tones, "isn't she nearly off the fire?"

"Now see here," said the hermit, setting down the armful of dishes with which he had entered the office, "I can't be hurried. I'm all upset, as it is. I can't cook to please women—I don't pretend to."

"I'm sure," said Miss Norton sweetly, "that I shall consider your luncheon perfect."

"They get more faultfinding as they get older," replied Mr. Peters ungallantly, glancing at the other woman.

Mrs. Norton glared.

"Meaning me, I suppose," she rasped. "Well, don't worry. I ain't going to find anything wrong."

"I ain't asking the impossible," responded Mr. Peters. "I ain't asking you not to find anything wrong. I'm just asking you not to mention it when you do." He retired to the kitchen.

Mrs. Norton caressed her puffs lovingly.

"What that man needs," she said, "is a woman's guiding hand. He's lived alone too long. I'd like to have charge of him for awhile. When I was a girl I was mighty popular. I had a lot of admirers."

"No one could possibly doubt that," Mr. Magee assured her.

"Then Norton came along," she went on, rewarding Magee with a smile, "and said he wanted to make me happy. So I thought I'd let him try. I always brought him up sharp. 'Your great desire,' I told him, 'is to make me happy. I'd keep on the job if I was you.' And he did, to the day of his death. A perfectly lovely man, though careless in money matters. If he hadn't had that ailing I wouldn't be"—

Miss Norton, her cheeks flushed, broke in hurriedly.

"Mamma, these gentlemen can't be at all interested." Deftly she turned the conversation to generalities.

Mr. Peters at last seated the winter guests of Baldpate inn and opened his luncheon with a soup which he claimed to have wrested from a can. This news drew from Professor Bolton a learned discourse on the tinned aids to the hermit of today. He pictured the seeker for solitude setting out for a desert isle with canned foods for his body and canned music for his soul. "Robinson Crusoe," he said, "should be rewritten with a can opener in the leading role." Mrs. Norton gave the talk a more practical turn by bringing up the topic of ptomaine poisoning.

While the conversation drifted on Mr. Magee pondered in silence the weird mesh in which he had become involved. What did it all mean? What brought these people to Baldpate Christmas week? His eyes sought the great safe back of the desk and stayed there a long time. In that safe, he was sure, lay the answer to this preposterous riddle. When his thoughts came back to the table he found Mr. Bland eying him narrowly.

The luncheon over, Miss Norton and her mother prepared to ascend to their rooms. Mr Magee maneuvered so as to meet the girl at the foot of the stairs.

"Won't you come back," he whispered softly, "and explain things to a poor hermit who is completely at sea?"

"What things?" she asked.

"What it all means," he whispered. "Why you wept in the station, why you invented the story of the actress why you came here to brighten my drab exile—that this whole comedy of Baldpate inn amounts to anyhow?"

She only looked at him with incredulous eyes.

"You can hardly expect me to credit that," she said. "I must go up now and read mamma into the pleasant land of thin girlish figures that is her afternoon siesta. I may come back and talk to you after awhile, but I don't promise to explain."

"Come back," pleaded Mr. Magee. "That is all I ask."

"A tiny boon," she smiled. "I grant it."

Laughing, Mr. Magee sought the solitude of No. 7.

"After all, I'm here to work," he told himself. "Alarms and excursions and blue eyes must not turn me from my task. Let's see, what was my task. A deep heart searching novel, a novel devoid of rabid melodrama. It's going more difficult every minute here at Baldpate inn. But that should only add more zest to the struggle. I devote the next two hours to thought."

He pulled his chair up before the blazing hearth and gazed into the red depths. But his thoughts refused to turn to the masterpiece that was to be born on Baldpate. They roamed to far off Broadway; they strolled with Helen Faulkner, the girl he meant to marry if he ever got around to it—along dignified Fifth avenue. Then joyously they trooped to a far more alluring, more human girl, who pressed a bit of cambric to her face in a railway station, while a glazed haired agent peeped through the bars. Soon Mr. Magee's thoughts were climbing Baldpate mountain, there to wander in a mystic maze of ghostly figures which appeared from the shadows, holding aloft in triumph gigantic keys. Mr Magee had slept but little the night before. The quick December dusk filled No. 7 when he awoke with a start.

He remembered that he had asked the girl to come back to the office and berated himself to think that probably she had done so only to find that he was not there. Hastily straightening his tie and dashing the traces of sleep from his eyes with the aid of cold water, he ran downstairs.

The great bare room was in darkness save for the faint red of the fire. Before the fireplace sat the girl of the station, her hair gleaming with a new splendor in that light. She looked in mock reproval at Mr. Magee.

"For shame," she said, "to be late at the trysting place."

"A thousand pardons," Mr. Magee replied. "I fell asleep and dreamed of a girl who wept in a railway station, and she was so altogether charming I could not tear myself away."

"I fear," she laughed, "you are old in the ways of the world. A passion for sleep seems to have seized the hermits. The professor has gone to his room for that purpose, and Mr. Bland, his broken heart forgot, slumbers over there." She pointed to the haberdasher inert in a big chair drawn up near the clerk's desk. "Only you and I in all the world awake."

"Pretty lonesome, isn't it?" Mr. Magee glanced over his shoulder at the shadows that crept in on them.

"I was finding it very busy when you came," she answered. "You see, I have known the inn when it was gay with summer people, and as I sat here by the fire I pretended I saw the ghosts of a lot of the people I knew flitting about in the dusk. The rocking chair fleet sailed by."

"The what?"

"Black flag flying, decks cleared for action—I saw the rocking chair fleet go by." She smiled faintly. "We always called them that. Bitter, unkind old women who sat hour after hour on the veranda and rocked and gossiped and gossiped and rocked.

"And I saw some poor little ghosts weeping in a corner," she went on; "a few that the fleet had run down and sunk in the sea of gossip. A little ghost, whose mother had not been all she should have been, and the fleet found it out and rocked and whispered and she went away. And a few who were poor—the most terrible of sins—to them the fleet showed no mercy. And a fine proud girl, Myra Thornhill, who was engaged to a man named Kendrick, and who never dared come here again after Kendrick suddenly disappeared because of the whispered dishonors the fleet heaped upon his head."

"What wicked women!" said Magee.

"The wickedest women in the world," answered the girl. "But every summer resort must have its fleet. I doubt if any other ever had its admiral, though, and that makes Baldpate supreme."

"Its admiral?"

"Yes. He isn't really that, I imagine—sort of a vice or an assistant, or whatever it is, long ago retired from the navy. Every summer he comes here and the place revolves about him. It's all so funny! I wonder if any other crowd attains such heights of snobbishness as that at a summer resort? It's the admiral this, and the admiral that, from the moment he enters the door. Nearly every day the manager of Baldpate has a new picture of the admiral taken, and hangs it here in the hotel. I'll show them to you when it's light. There's one over there by the desk of the admiral and the manager together, and the manager has thrown his arm carelessly over the admiral's shoulder with 'See how well I know him' written all over his stupid face. Oh, what snobs they are!"

"And the fleet?" asked Mr. Magee.

"Worships him. They fish all day for a smile from him. They keep track of his goings and comings, and when he is in the card room playing his silly old game of solitaire they run down their victims in subdued tones so as not to disturb him."

"What an interesting place!" said Mr. Magee. "I must visit Baldpate next summer. Shall—shall you be here?"

"It's so amusing," she smiled, ignoring the question. "You'll enjoy it. And it isn't all fleet and admiral. There's happiness and romance and whispering on the stairs. At night, when the lights are all blazing and the band is playing waltzes in the Casino and somebody is giving a dinner in the grill room and the girls flit about in the shadows, looking too sweet for words—well, Baldpate inn is a rather entrancing spot. I remember those nights very often now."

"Many men have loved you," he said. "Are you reading my palm?" she asked, laughing.

"No—your face," answered Mr. Magee. "Many men have loved you, for very few men are blind. I am sorry I was not the man on the stair or on the mountain in the moonlight. Who knows? I might have been the favored one for my single summer of joy."

"The autumn always came," smiled the girl.

"It would never have come for me," he answered. "Won't you believe me when I say that I have no part in this strange drama that is going on at Baldpate? Won't you credit it when I say that I have no idea why you and the professor and Mr. Bland are here nor why the mayor of Reuton has the fifth key? Won't you tell me what it all means?"

"I mustn't," she replied, shaking her head. "I can trust no one, not even you. I mustn't believe that you don't know—it's preposterous.—I must say over and over—even he is simply—will you pardon me—flirting, trying to learn what he can learn. I must."

"You can't even tell me why you wept in the station?"

"For a simple silly reason. I was afraid. I had taken up a task too big for me by far—taken it up bravely when I was out in the sunlight of Reuton. But when I saw Upper Asquewan Falls and the dark came and that dingy station swallowed me up something gave way inside me, and I felt I was going to fail. So—I cried. A woman's way."

"If I were only permitted to help"—Mr. Magee pleaded.

"No, I must go forward alone. I can trust no one now. Perhaps things will change. I hope they will."

"Listen," said Mr. Magee. "I am telling you the truth. Perhaps you read a novel called 'The Lost Limousine.'" He was resolved to claim its authorship, tell her of his real purpose in coming to Baldpate and urge her to confide in him regarding the odd happenings at the inn.

"Yes," said the girl before he could continue, "I did read it. And it hurt me. It was so terribly insincere. The man had talent who wrote it, but he seemed to say: 'It's all a great big joke. I don't believe in these people myself. I've just created them to make them dance for you. Don't be fooled—it's only a novel.' I don't like that sort of thing. I want a writer really to mean all he says from the bottom of his heart."

Mr. Magee bit his lip. His determination to claim the authorship of "The Lost Limousine" was quite gone.

"I want him to make me feel with his people," the girl went on seriously. "And he can't do that if he doesn't feel himself, can he?"

William Hallowell Magee actually hung his head.

"He can't," he confessed softly. "You're quite right. I like you immensely—more than I can say. And even if you feel you can't trust me I want you to know that I'm on your side in whatever happens at Baldpate inn. You have only to ask and I am your ally."

"Thank you," she answered. "I may be very glad to ask. I shall remember." She rose and moved toward the stairs. "We had better disperse now. The rocking chair fleet will get us if we don't watch out." Her small slipper was on the first step of the stair, when they heard a door slammed shut, and the sound of steps on the bare floor of the dining room. Then a husky voice called "Bland."

Mr. Magee felt his hand grasped by a much smaller one, and before he knew it he had been hurried to the shadows of the landing. "The fifth key," whispered a scared little voice in his ear. And then he felt the faint brushing of finger tips across his lips. A mad desire seized him to grasp those fingers and hold them on the lips they had scarcely touched. But the impulse was lost in the thrill of seeing the dining room door thrown open and a great bulk of a man cross the floor of the office and stand beside Bland's chair. At his side was a thin waif who had not unjustly been termed the mayor of Reuton's shadow.

(to be continued)

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOM
Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.
William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1064.
OPP. DEPOT.

SCOOP ALMOST HAS A HOLIDAY

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

"Sportdom Tips"

VICTORY ABOUT DUE.

If numbers count for anything the Plainfield High School ought to make a wonderful showing in that Southside High School meet next Saturday night. Those interested in the meet have asked if the Plainfielders intend to bring the entire male student body to Newark for the occasion.

FOOTBALL'S GROWTH.

Even close followers of British football have been startled by an analysis of the particulars of the various cup and league competitions returned by the Football Association. Forty-eight associations affiliated with the Football Association sent in under two separate headings, to wit, Class A, leagues and competitions wholly under the jurisdiction of a single association, and Class B, leagues and competitions under the jurisdiction of an association jointly with other associations. The Class A returns numbered 953, and the Class B number 572. In addition, it is estimated that at least 100 were left out of the report on Class A.

'RAH FOR GERMANY!

The Germans may have their faults but they see a great white light now and then and set a good example for the best stunts is to declare all and sundry of the cross-country hikers and 'round-the-world pedestrians, who claim to be walking for a huge and invariably a mythical purse, vagabonds pure and simple. Instead of making heroes of them, the German municipal and rural officials have been instructed to pinch the pests and give them suitable sentences on the stonepile. We suggested in this column a year or so ago that very thing, and are glad to note that the tip was taken. Like us, the German authorities could not see why an ordinary tramp should be sent to the calaboose, while fakers, who openly boasted they were traveling without working, and under no circumstances would work, should be given bed and board and spending money. Their fake sales of photos and their "lectures" are such pure bunk that we do not see how the most unsophisticated boob could fall for them.

A little session in the ethics of good sportsmanship would go a long ways toward making those interscholastic league games a lot more interesting than they already are. In yesterday's game one of the borough players was the subject for many slurring remarks that were forthcoming from the gallery.

Y. M. C. A. athletes have taken to the road once more. Several of the huskies are taking evening jaunts in the borough, some to reduce weight and others to keep it from falling off.

We note that the P. H. S. athletes have elected a temporary ice hockey manager to serve during the remainder of the winter. The groundhog is given credit for this move.

What has become of that Plainfield High School field hockey eleven?

Leal's and Plainfield High next Monday afternoon on the Y. M. C. A. court.

The Y. M. C. A. boys will take on an old rival Saturday night when the Summit basketers will be entertained on the Plainfield association's court. Another good game is anticipated.

Baseball practise will start in P. H. S. Monday afternoon. Why rush the season, Bennie?

"Hub" Stein is playing baseball these days with the Springfield College squad. Stein looks like a sure man in the backstop position.

Is there any significance surrounding the fact that the North Plainfield High School girls' basketball teams ran in opposition yesterday afternoon?

If those Supreme Court justices spar with Bob Fitzsimmons much longer the ruby product will be too old to even think of nodding the rosined platform again. The courts have stalled long enough, we want some decision and want it pretty quick, too.

Queries, Comment and Answers

Sporting Editor:
Query—What day did July 10, 1897, fall on?—J. K.
Answer—It fell on Saturday.

Sporting Editor:
Query—If a young man plays a piano and never took a lesson and cannot play by note, what would you say he played by, air or ear?
Answer—He plays by ear strikes the piano keys (single notes or chords) as his sense of melody, harmony and rythm, his memory of what he has heard played, serves him in recalling it. He has what is known as a musical ear.

Sporting Editor:
Query—A bets a wife has a right to open her husband's mail and B says not. Who is correct?—L. A. Y.
Answer—This is a matter that should be settled between husband and wife.

Sporting Editor:
Query—Kindly tell me if the words "Holy Bible" are used in the constitution of the United States.—K. K.
Answer—The words "Holy Bible" are not used in the constitution. Your lack of knowledge therein leads to the conclusion that you ought to read the constitution yourself and be under no necessity of asking such a question.

Sporting Editor:
Query—Please inform me in what year Oscar Weil (Wilde) the playright died?—D. F. C.
Answer—Oscar Wilde was an Irish poet born in Dublin, Ireland, in 1856. He died in Paris, November 30, 1900.

Sporting Editor:
Query—Please inform me what year April 21 fell on Monday since 1900?—C. S.
Answer—1913.

Sporting Editor:
Query—What is Billy Sunday's nationality?—L. H.
Answer—Billy Sunday is an American born in the middle west.

WITH THE BOXERS

Champion Willie Ritchie says he will get out of the game if he has to postpone another fight.

Manager Jim Buckley says "Gunboat" Smith must be handed $15,000 for his end of a go with Georges Carpentier.

Bud Anderson, who has been fighting in the lightweight division on the Pacific coast, has entered the welterweight class.

Jim Coffroth, the San Francisco promoter, has offered Eddie Murphy a chance to meet some star lightweight in the near future.

Freddie Welsh, the English lightweight champion, says he is willing to meet Tommy Murphy, of New York, on a winner-take-all basis.

Snowey Baker, the Australian fight promoter, is on his way to America. Baker is making a tour of the world and incidentally signing up attractions for his fight club.

Eddie Reddy, manager of Mike Gibbons, is authority for the statement that the Packey McFarland-Mike Gibbons match is clinched and will be pulled off in New York in the near future.

The National Sporting Club of London will stage a fight between Pat O'Keefe and Harry Reeve. The winner of the bout will be presented with the English middleweight championship belt.

BASEBALL NOTES

Charlie Carr's baseball college in Texas has not attracted many students.

Dr. Frank Bassett, of Hopkinsville, Ky., is the new president of the Kitty League.

Pete Noonan, former Holy Cross star and later a leaguer, has bought the Wilkesbarre franchise in the New York State League.

A dinner in honor of the world touring Giants and White Sox will be given in New York March 7 by the National and American Leagues.

"Germany" Schaefer, Washington's all-around player, is the first ball tosser to accept the terms of his club by cable. Schaefer is with the White Sox on the world tour.

The Union Association will be made up of six clubs the coming season. Boise, Idaho; Butte and Helena, Mont., and Ogden, Murray and Salt Lake City, Utah, will form the circuit.

Four ex-Giants, Bresnahan, Bowerman, Dahlen and Tenney, having failed as managers, it is up to Robinson, Herzog and McCormick to show that the McGraw school can turn out successful pilots.

The American Association will go back to the four-trip schedule, because several of the A. A. magnates are opposed to having their teams away from home too long on a single stretch.

President Gilmore, of the Federal League, claims he has signed 85 men of the American and National Leagues and that he will add a few more big leaguers before the first game of the season.

James Cooney, the clever young shortstop of the Worcester New England League team, has signed with the Boston Red Sox. He is a son of the Jimmy Cooney who was a member of the Chicago team in the days of Captain Anson.

"LEFTY" FLYNN BARRED.

New Haven, Conn., Feb. 5—"Lefty" Flynn has failed in his effort to re-enter Yale. The former fullback came to the "Junior Prom" Tuesday night and admitted that he wished to rejoin his class in the Sheffield Scientific School. Director Chittenden said that Flynn would not be allowed to return as a student, though efforts had been made in his behalf. He left the university and was dropped from the rolls when he married a chorus girl.

NEW SKATING RECORD.

Lake Placid, N. Y., Feb. 5—A new world's amateur record, ice skating, in the 50-yard dash was made here last night by Robert McLean, of Chicago, who covered the distance in five seconds flat, which is one-fifth of a second better than the record established by Morris Wood at Pittsburgh in 1907.

NEWARK'S EARLY START.

The players of the Newark club of the International League have been ordered to report for spring training to Manager Smith at Columbus, Ga., on February 25.

N. P. H. S. AGAIN DEFEATS LEALS

Second Meeting of the Season Goes to the Boroughites.

A SPECTACULAR FINISH

Leaders of the City League Advance One Step Nearer Title, Plainfield Next League Title Now Certain.

The North Plainfield High School basketball team advanced one step nearer the Abrams' trophy and the city scholastic title yesterday afternoon when the Leal School aggregation went down to defeat in a fast and exciting game played on the Y. M. C. A. court by the score of 35 to 17. Although there was quite a gap between the scores of the two teams, the boroughites were forced to the limit during the second half, and at one time the private school boys threw a scare when the scoring margin was greatly decreased.

Playing on their own floor the Leal team started on the offensive side and as a result of this playing, held their rivals to little scoring. The boroughites ran up a total of sixteen in the initial period. The home team lost many chances to score by taking practically impossible shots from all positions on the court. VanDeventer played center for Leals and Krom took a forward position while the invaders presented their usual line-up.

"Peanut" Stewart was the only one in the period that could score a counter for Leals and the one he got was made from the center of the floor. In the second half Krom went to center and Schneider to guard, Stewart shifting to forward.

As was the case last year when the two teams met on this court the private school boys started the finish half with a rush and played their opponents off their feet for the first few minutes. Love and VanMater kept the lead on their side by tallying six points between them, and this was increased by a field goal from Dunning. About the middle of the half Dunning was forced to retire and Conroy was sent to forward, Love taking center. The little "sub" made good during his period of play and scored three field goals in succession. During the last few minutes the ball was all over the floor and the scoring was a thing of the past, the boroughites playing defensive ball until the final whistle blew. Love led in the scoring department with three field goals and five fouls while VanMater came a close second with a total of ten points. Captain Dickerson was the mainstay for the losers, getting nine points.

The score:

N. P. H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
Love, c-f	3	5	11
VanMater, f	5	0	10
Conroy, f	3	0	6
Dunning, c	4	0	8
Burner, g	0	0	0
Abrams, g	0	0	0
	15	5	35

LEALS

	G.	F.	P.
Krom, f	1	0	2
Dickerson, f	4	1	9
Stewart, f-g	2	1	5
VanDeventer, c	0	0	0
Harrington, g	0	0	0
Schneider, g	0	0	0
	7	2	*17

*One point awarded.

Summary: Time of halves, 20 minutes; referee, MacNamee; scorers, Beckman and Philips; timers, Smalley and Schoonmaker.

Score by halves:

N. P. H. S.	16	19	35
Leals	2	15	17

BORO GIRLS' GREAT RECORD IS SMASHED

Westfield Girls Defeat the "Canadians" at That Place in a Fast Contest.

All hope of becoming State champions was lost to the North Plainfield High School girls' basketball team yesterday when it went to Westfield and met with defeat at the hands of the High School maidens of that place for the second time this season. The final score was [illegible] to 5. The contest was of a finer type than the first meeting of the year when the Westfielders trounced the locals by a large score. Yesterday's game was exciting from start to finish and it was not until the middle of the last half that the home team drew away from their opponents and won a whirlwind finish.

Miss Burris's reputation was the cause of her downfall yesterday, as her opponent would not leave her for the smallest part of a minute and consequently held her from scoring any field goals. She tallied two points in this half while her teammate managed to get two of the two point variety and an equal number of fouls. The home girls [illegible] idle, however, and scored nine points before the half ended. At the end of the period the score was [illegible] three points.

The second half was [illegible] than the first and there was [illegible] scoring. Miss Spencer [illegible] the lone field goal, which was the total for the boroughites in the stanza. The opposing forwards made the sum of six points between them, which was enough for an easy victory. Miss Pearsall led the point getters with nine, while the Misses Killimark and Spencer were tied for second honors. The defeat breaks the local girls' winning record, which had risen to twelve straight.

The scores:

WESTFIELD H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
Miss Pearsall, f	3	3	9
Miss Klillmark, f	2	2	6
Miss Howard, c	0	0	0
Miss Marsh, g	0	0	0
Miss Martin, g	0	0	0
	5	5	15

NORTH PLAINFIELD H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
Miss Burris, f	0	2	2
Miss Spencer, f	3	0	6
Miss Douglas, c	0	0	0
Miss Debele, g	0	0	0
Miss Smith, g	0	0	0
	3	2	8

Summary: Time of halves, 15 minutes; referee, Chandler; umpire, Miss Morris; scorer, Miss Stewart; timer, French.

Score by halves:

N. P. H. S.	6	2	8
W. H. S.	9	6	15

CHALLENGE FROM ENGLAND.

London, Feb. 5—Great Britian's challenge for the Dwight F. Davis international lawn tennis trophy won last year by the United States team, was sent by mail to the United States yesterday.

TWO LIMIT PLAYERS HANG UP VICTORIES

Hoyt and Townley Best Men in Elks' Contests Played Last Night.

ELKS' CLUB POOL TOURNEY.

Individual Standing.

	Group W.	L.	Pct.
Hoyt	10	1	[illegible]
Townley	[illegible]	1	[illegible]
Heath	7	1	[illegible]
Mundy	10	1	[illegible]
Dunnow	[illegible]	1	[illegible]
Lofthouse	8	1	[illegible]
DeMera	6	1	[illegible]
Dengler	7	1	[illegible]
Hardiaman	10	2	[illegible]
Clark	[illegible]	0	[illegible]
Van Ness	[illegible]	0	[illegible]
Westcott	[illegible]	0	[illegible]
Cris	[illegible]	0	[illegible]
Bird	[illegible]	0	[illegible]
Firstbrook	[illegible]	0	[illegible]
Gannon	[illegible]	0	[illegible]

Last Night's Results.

	H'cap	No.
Hoyt	[illegible]	[illegible]
Osmun	[illegible]	[illegible]
Townley	[illegible]	[illegible]
Bird	[illegible]	[illegible]
Heath	7	[illegible]
Firstbrook	[illegible]	[illegible]

Scheduled For Tonight.

[illegible]

Two more such hard fought victories in the Elks' [illegible] tournament last night. Hoyt beating Osmun 100 to 7, and Townley [illegible] over Bird [illegible] a score of [illegible] to [illegible]. Fred Firstbrook, another [illegible] found himself [illegible] for a near knock-out to Heath, who scored his [illegible] while Firstbrook [illegible] eighty-seven balls.

Last night's matches like those of [illegible] were well contested and some excellent shots were recorded by the half dozen players during the evening.

INTERSCHOLASTIC LEAGUE STANDING.

	W.	L.	Pct.
North Plainfield	[illegible]	[illegible]	[illegible]
Plainfield	0	1	.000
Leal's	0	2	.000

ATHLETES "NOT GUILTY."

The Registration Committee of the Metropolitan District, at a special meeting last night, lifted the suspensions of Abel Kiviat and Hannis Kolehmainen.

GAME POSTPONED.

The basketball game originally scheduled to be played by the Plainfield High School team in Morristown tomorrow afternoon has been postponed indefinitely.

COLUMBUS CLUB LEAGUE.

The Germantown and Gettysburg bowling teams will meet in the Columbus Club bowling league tomorrow night.

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY
from the fact that breakdowns will happen, no matter how high a grade of wheel you own. Unless you are exceptionally fortunate, you'll need our services as bicycle repairers par excellence sooner or later. True, you may save a mishap by letting us overhaul your machine after a long ride; but at any and all times will do the best possible for you and your wheel.

LEO ZEISEL
Bicycles, Sundries, Musical Instruments and Sporting Goods.
Temporary at 328 W. Front St.
Permanent Headquarters after March 1st, 222 W. Front St., Next Door to Proctor's.

LOCAL TEAM ON STATE CIRCUIT

Plans Being Made to Take Over Trenton's Bowling Franchise.

GOOD LOCAL TALENT

Plainfield Pin-knights Interested in Proposition to Put Queen City on the Bowling Map—Players Who Will Make up Local Quintet.

[illegible] will not be [illegible] in the New [illegible] State Bowling League [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] Plainfield [illegible] well [illegible] [illegible] Pin Pot City [illegible] of sport authorities that [illegible] of members of the league [illegible] on account of the distance [illegible] the majority of the other [illegible] in the league and the subsequent expense involved in coming [illegible] to Plainfield [illegible] Elks [illegible] Leal [illegible] Elks [illegible] Leal [illegible] suggestion that a [illegible] be made to the [illegible] Trenton [illegible] Plainfield [illegible] one of the teams and [illegible] indications [illegible] that the Queen City will [illegible] the league [illegible] the season [illegible] movement has already [illegible] and a team said to be made up of [illegible] pinners as Frank Blatz, Charles Stout, Hal Nash, Frank Eke and John Campbell [illegible] as a possible entrant.

The [illegible] of the great of bowling talent in this city and rank favorably as a unit with the other contenders on the State circuit. Plans are being made for a meeting of the State League and it is understood that a representative of the Plainfield team will be on hand to take out a franchise. While the Queen City team mentioned for State competition is made up exclusively of Elk [illegible] the quintet will be in a [illegible] with the national order and the contests will be pinned under the Elkdom title.

Dame rumor has it that one of the local alleys has already been tentatively chartered with a view to starting the project on its way as soon as a franchise can be taken out. Local enthusiasts are strong in their belief that the local quintet with these places would make big in the New Jersey organization.

NEWARK TOOK A TRIO AND CLIMBED BACK TO THE TOP

ELKS' LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	H. S.
Newark	28	14	1046
Jersey City	28	14	1019
New Brunswick	28	17	1032
Paterson	24	18	1011
New York	21	21	1098
Elizabeth	22	20	1057
Hoboken	22	20	995
Plainfield	20	22	1029
Rahway	13	29	927
Orange	7	28	968

Newark bowlers got back in a tie for first place in the Elks' League with the Jersey City quintet when they won three games in a row from the New Brunswick pin-knights last night on the Green street alleys. The New Brunswick had been tied with the Jersey City five for first place, but are now third in the race. Last night's feature was a total of 1,046 to the credit of the Newark bowlers, made in the last game. This score is the next to the best recorded this season, the Elizabeth leading with 1,057. In the second game last night the Newarks won by a single pin, having a count of 915 to their opponents' 914.

The scores:

NEW BRUNSWICK.
Greenewald	204	202	190
Harkins	189	146	136
Coyne	175	185	163
Burton	178	203	190
McCormick	165	178	182
	911	914	870

NEWARK.
Williams	215	176	208
Hinton	181	192	255
Clark	192	175	189
Erler	177	181	225
Weingarth	162	191	169
	927	915	1046

LOCAL KNIGHTS TOOK THREE IN SUCCESSION

Plainfielders Aided by Some Good Individual Pinning Swept the Boards.

Watchung Council pinners sprang a big surprise at the expense of the Star of Bethlehem pin-knights and romped away with all three of the contests rolled on the local alleys last night, in connection with the Knights of Columbus League tournament. Plainfield managed to hang up scores that passed the 900 mark in each of the first two games and took matters easy in the final contest, with the result that the visitors came within thirteen pins of tying matters up.

C. Shannon was the hero of the local team's great evening of competition pinning for an average of 221 in the three contests, his mark of 259 in the second being the best of the night. Shannon pinned 194 in the first, 259 in the second and 210 in the third. George Taylor also did some good work for the local knights, turning in 219 in the first and 198 in the third.

For the visitors, Connors had the best average, knocking down 181 in the first, and 192 in the second. T. Cribben and McLaughlin each got double centuries during the evening for the visitors.

The scores:

WATCHUNG.
G. Taylor	219	161	198
Mcinerney	182	188	182
H. Shannon	172	149	157
Howe	198	183	144
C. Shannon	194	259	213
	923	934	894

STAR OF BETHLEHEM.
L. Cribben	193	156	162
Quinn	172	174	168
T. Cribben	187	205	176
McLaughlin	161	188	212
Connors	181	192	192
	917	914	884

IROQUOIS INDIANS BEATEN OUT IN SPEEDY CONTEST

The Sioux team, of the Y. M. C. A. boys' department Indian League, hung up a 10 to 7 victory at the expense of the Iroquois redskins yesterday afternoon. Smith and Zelie starred for the victors while Fullerton led the rival team's scoring.

SIOUX.	G.	F.	P.
Eu. Smith, f	2	0	4
Zelie, f	2	1	5
Hennwood, c	0	1	1
Poling, g	0	0	0
Chamberlin, g	0	0	0
	4	2	10

IROQUOIS.	G.	F.	P.
Taylor, f	1	0	2
Henry, f	0	0	0
Fullerton, c	2	0	4
Goss, g	0	0	0
Kornfield, g	0	0	0
Windham, g	0	1	1
	3	1	7

ATHLETIC MEET IN CHICAGO.

Chicago, Ill., Feb. 5.—An army of athletes, representing the best amateur performers in the Central A. A. U. territory, is on its way to Chicago to take part in the twentieth annual indoor meet of the First Regiment Athletic Association. The meet promises to be the largest of the year in this section of the country. Owing to the large number of participants the program will cover two days. Tomorrow the preliminary events will be run off. These will be followed on Saturday by the open and track events. Most interest centers in the relay races, in which teams representing Chicago, Illinois, Notre Dame and other big universities of the middle west will compete for the championship honors.

LEAGUE GAMES TONIGHT.

Three games will be played in the Elks' League tonight, New York at Newark, Jersey City at Paterson and Elizabeth at Hoboken. The Plainfield and Rahway teams postponed their match to a future date.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It pays.

DEMANDS $10,000 FOR WIFE HE LOST

Browntown Man Sues Head of Designing School.

SAYS HE LAVISHED GIFTS

Plaintiff Declares That There Had Been No Trouble Between Him and Wife Until Defendant Came to Jersey to Live—Got Son Good Job.

New Brunswick, N. J., Feb. 5.—Trial was begun in this city of a suit brought by Ten Eyck Conover, a farmer of Browntown, against Ernest L. Phelps, head of the Phelps School of Design in New York, for $10,000 for the alleged alienation of his wife's affections.

Mr. Conover alleges that in 1909 his wife left their home and with their daughter went to New York and obtained employment in Phelps' school at 449 West Forty-fourth street. The Conovers were married in 1886. She is forty-five years old, and he is fifty.

A feature of the testimony was the reading of a deposition made in Denver by Mrs. Zoe Leonard. She said that for eighteen years she had lived with Phelps as his common law wife and that in November, 1910, he had given her $1,000 and paid her fare to Denver in settlement of all claims on him. She said Phelps ceased to care for her after he became acquainted with Mrs. Conover.

Conover testified that there had been no trouble between him and his wife until Phelps had come to Jersey to live. He said Phelps lavished presents on the two Conover children and got a thirty-five dollar a week position for John Conover with the Home Pattern company. His wife, Conover said, was a frequent visitor at the Phelps home, always saying she wanted to help "Mrs. Phelps." Mrs. Leonard being known by that name. The trial will continue.

SHORE ELECTION CASES END.

Indictments Against Harry Bacharach and Others Ordered Nolle Prossed.

Mays Landing, N. J., Feb. 5.—Nearly the last vestige of the conspiracy charges growing out of the Atlantic City election scandals were wiped off the slate when the remaining indictments against Harry Bacharach, William Lutten, Charles Cramer, Harry Haberly, George Amole and Thomas McDevitt were dismissed by Judge Cole on the motion of the special assistant prosecutor, Charles Wolverton.

Only two more indictments returned by the elisor drawn grand jury remain of any note. One is against former Sheriff, now county collector, Enoch Johnson, charged with removing election books from the clerk's office, and the other against County Auditor Absalom Higbee, charged with purchasing votes at Somers Point City.

THIEVES ONLY TAKE PICTURE.

Experts Escape With Valuable Canvas by Italian Master.

Morristown, N. J., Feb. 5. When the housekeeper at the home here of the Misses Margaret and Susan Hawes came downstairs she discovered that thieves had cut from its frame in the library a "Madonna" ascribed to Raphael, which the sisters obtained abroad years ago. Nothing else in the house was touched. The picture had been removed adroitly, apparently by experts who knew its value. The Misses Hawes are in Italy and will be away until Feb. 18.

The thieves gained entrance through a window by forcing the catch. The painting, which hung in the drawing room on the southeast side of the house, was cut from its frame. The canvas was circular and about twenty five inches in diameter.

MRS. LEEDS STILL RICHER.

"Tin Plate King's" Widow Shares Father's Estate With Sister.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 5.—Mrs. Nonnie S. Leeds, widow of the "tin plate king," William B. Leeds, benefits by the will of her father, William C. Stewart, which was filed for probate in the surrogate's office in Essex county. She is to share the estate with her sister, Mrs. Margaret S. Green, wife of Henderson M. Green of Montclair, with whom Mr. Stewart lived.

Mr. Stewart's second wife, from whom he was estranged in 1911, is not mentioned in the will. It is said Mrs. Leeds and her stepmother recently sailed to Europe on the same steamer and became reconciled, but this story has not been confirmed.

OVERBOARD FROM ENGINE.

Fireman Jolted Off Nearly Drowns Under Ice In Creek.

Sussex, N. J., Feb. 5.—Losing his balance when the engine he was firing lurched suddenly, Arthur Jones of Slatington, Pa., a Lehigh and New England railroad fireman, was jolted off the locomotive and hurled into Papakating creek.

Jones fell near a culvert, broke through the ice and disappeared in twelve feet of water. Trainmen found him in the dark, struggling beneath the ice. They rescued him with the aid of four long poles.

—Jacob Gernert, newsdealers, Somerville, sell the Daily Press or will deliver it to your home each day.

—At Westfield, C. F. Wittke has the Daily Press on sale each day.

PASSES BILL TO BAR ILLITERATES

Burnett Immigration Act Passed In House.

BITTER FIGHT ON MEASURE

Militants Are Excluded—Senate Expected to Pass It, but Wilson May Veto—Final Vote, 240 to 140—Heated Controversy Ensues.

Washington, Feb. 5.—The Burnett immigration bill, regarded as the most drastic piece of legislation of the kind proposed in many years, was passed by the house of representatives by a vote of 240 to 140.

The measure now goes to the senate and doubtless will be passed by that body. Whether it will be approved by President Wilson is a matter of lively speculation among both the opponents and proponents of the legislation.

The Burnett bill was bitterly opposed in the house, but it was known from the day it was reported from the committee on immigration that it would be passed by an overwhelming majority. Members who were opposed to the bill made strenuous efforts to amend it, but without avail.

The fight against the immigration bill in the house was led by Representative Goldfogle of New York, who had the assistance of practically every other member from that state. When the bill was called up for final passage Mr. Goldfogle made a motion to recommit the bill with instructions to the committee on immigration to strike from the measure certain features, among them the illiteracy test. The motion to recommit was defeated by 241 to 126.

The provision of the bill that excited most opposition was that providing for the exclusion from the United States of all alien immigrants over sixteen years old who are unable to read and write their own language or dialect. This provision, which will be attacked in the senate, reads as follows:

"There shall be excluded from admission all aliens over sixteen years of age physically capable of reading, who cannot read the English language or some other language or dialect, including Hebrew or Yiddish. Each alien may designate the particular language or dialect in which he desires the examination to be made."

Militant Suffragettes Barred.

Another important provision of the bill is that proposing the exclusion of militant suffragettes or other persons identified with organizations that seek to effect government reforms by violence. Strict regulations are imposed with a view to excluding persons supposed to have criminal tendencies.

Another important change made in the existing law is the penalizing of steamship companies for bringing in some aliens and imposing fines for such offenses ranging from $100 to $200 in each case. It is proposed also to exclude stowaways and deserting alien seamen.

The debate on the immigration bill was a very lively one. Representative Burnett of Alabama, who was in charge of the bill, had grown restive over the delay occasioned by the discussion of the Asiatic exclusion amendments, and he insisted on action. This prompted a number of Republicans among them Representative Manahan of Minnesota, to charge Mr. Burnett with resorting to unfair language.

"I have been commenting," said Mr. Manahan, "upon the unfairness with which this bill has been driven through and on the unfair statements of the chairman. Mr. Burnett, in view of the fear and cowardice which he has shown in not daring to answer objections and upon his method in moving to close debate."

The charge of cowardice brought Mr. Burnett to his feet at once. "Mr. Chairman," he shouted, "that's a lie and the gentleman knows it!"

Mr. Covington of Maryland made the point of order that Mr. Manahan was "notoriously proceeding out of order."

Representative Hay of Virginia, occupying the chair, called Mr. Manahan to order.

JUDGE MILLARD KILLED.

Westchester County Surrogate Hit by Fast Express.

Tarrytown, N. Y., Feb. 5.—Frank Vincent Millard, for six years surrogate of Westchester county, was struck and instantly killed by the Wolverine express, northbound. Judge Millard was on his way to attend a meeting of the executive committee of Mecca temple and stopped for a few minutes to talk with a friend about bowling, a game he was enthusiastic about, and as his train rounded the curve he started across the Main street crossing. The gates were down, but Mr. Millard pushed them up and slid under. He was so intent on watching his train coming south that he did not see the Wolverine approaching. The huge electric engine bore down and ground him to pieces.

Attempt to Kill Alfonso?

London, Feb. 5.—Another attempt to assassinate King Alfonso of Spain was reported in financial circles here. The Spanish embassy had no news of the alleged occurrence and discredited the rumor.

Weather Forecast.

Fair and colder today; tomorrow increasing cloudiness, probably snow.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It pays.

—Daily Press want ads. bring results.

FAVOR STATE-WIDE PARKWAY ALONG ARCHAIC MORRIS CANAL

A plan to make a boulevard and parkway out of the old Morris Canal is rapidly gaining favor throughout New Jersey. Its advocates have been trying to reconcile all conflicting interests and have been sufficiently successful to make the plan possible. They propose to leave the canal itself practically as it is outside of the towns, closing it only where the water can be advantageously used. A boulevard for automobiles, paid for out of the sale of adjoining lands, is to be the only change in the open country. In the various towns through which the canal passes, it will be left as it is or closed, of course, according to the wishes of the people living there.

Few, even of the residents of New Jersey, realize how beautiful the Morris Canal has become. It has been all but abandoned for many years, the Lehigh Valley Railroad, which leases it, keeping it open for navigation only because it had agreed to. Practically no boats ever pass over it, the tow-path has become grass grown, and, under the softening effect of time, it has acquired a quaint, old-world appearance. It has the restful touch of the archaic. Its meadow stretches, its old locks, the luxuriance of the foliage, have turned every visitor into an ardent advocate of the parkway plan.

Naturally a right of way across the whole of the State cannot be changed from one purpose to another without the necessity for adjustment of rights. The residents of Lake Hopatcong, for instance, believe that less water should be taken from the lake for the canal, and are presenting strong arguments. The many towns through which the canal passes also have individual needs. Practically the only party affected by the plan which has no suggestions to offer is the Lehigh Valley Railroad. It has been willing to abandon the canal for a long time and has shown a disposition to do whatever the people of the State desire.

For transportation purposes the Morris Canal has long been past all possibility of use on account of the twenty-three inclined planes over which the barges have to be hauled in cradles. This was a fairly good device in the year 1824, when the canal was started, but it is a century out of place now.

An opportunity to get something done about the canal will come shortly when the whole question will be up before the legislature. The Morris Canal Abandonment Commission has announced it will make a report, and action upon it will depend largely upon the public interest displayed. The first move will be for the State to take back title to the right-of-way, causing it to be abandoned as a canal and leaving the future plans free from complications.

The parkway advocates has suggested that the State arrange for the selling of building lots along the boulevard, raising enough money that way to build the highway and keep it in repair.

Scene from Klaw & Erlanger's Presentation of "The Little Cafe," at the New Amsterdam Theatre, New York.

OMAHA TEAM NOSED OUT FAST WAWAYANDA "INJUN" TEAM

Playing in the Y. M. C. A. boys' department Indian League basketball schedule yesterday afternoon the Wawayanda team was defeated by a margin of one field goal, the final score being 6 to 4.

OMAHA.	G.	F.	P.
Brownlee, f	3	0	6
Gates, f	0	0	0
Angleman, c	0	0	0
Feaster, g	0	0	0
Krausse, g	0	0	0
	3	0	6

WAWAYANDA.	G.	F.	P.
Rennt, f	0	0	0
Townley, f	1	2	4
Clawson, c	0	0	0
Cumming, g	0	0	0
Pastor, g	0	0	0
	1	2	4

DATE FOR BIG BOUT

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Paris, Feb. 5.—The boxing match between Georges Carpentier, French heavyweight, and Kid McCoy, former welterweight champion of the world, was today set for March 14 in this city.

P. H. S. GIRLS' GAME.

The manager of the Plainfield High School girls' basketball team has scheduled a game with South Orange High School to be played in the local gym Saturday afternoon.

NEXT LEAGUE GAME.

Plainfield High School and Local School basketball players will meet on the Y. M. C. A. court Monday afternoon in an interscholastic league game.

—J. Purvis, Lincoln, supplies the Daily Press to subscribers.

Attend the Remarkable
FUR SALE
of
Charles Kurtzman
Furs of Quality
178 E. Front St.
DR. PITTIS OFFICE BUILDING

TRY THESE
DELICIOUS CRULLERS
Plymouth Home Made Crullers, sold by us are made by a new method—they are Pure, Clean and Digestible. Sanitary package, 10 cents.
W. W. Dunn
THE PARK GROCER
Duer Street and Lincoln Place.

Stop! Look! and Listen!
Twenty-five desirable building lots left at $75.00 each. Sold on terms to suit the purchaser; located at LINCOLN HEIGHTS, N. J., in a fine industrial location, near large industry in course of construction. Apply to WILLIAM J. DAVENPORT at first house west of Dunellen Car barn.

L. Moraller & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES
CLOCKS and JEWELRY
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

Your Appearance Counts
Have you ever realized how well you are received when your appearance is favorable? Men, send your Suit and have it cleaned and pressed. Ladies, your tea gowns, woolen dresses, opera cloaks, plain or fancy waists, and indeed anything worth cleaning.
I guarantee my work and assure you that my method will tend to renew the fabric, brighten the colors and raise the nap, thereby restoring the garment to the freshness of new clothing.
A. ROTGUN
432 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 1976-W.
Nine years with G. O. Keller.

COAL DEALERS.
TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office, Rowleys' Drug Store, 218 West Front St. Tel. 2081-J-2.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 329. Telephone 10-F-19

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 1155

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

HOTELS.
HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street. Tel. 904

WEINMAN'S
CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus service between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Dunellen and Stelton, Plainfield and Metuchen, Metuchen and Perth Amboy.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD
WEEK DAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6.00, 6.30, 7.00, 7.30, 8.00, 8.30, 9.00, 9.30, 10.00, 10.30, 11.00, 11.30 a. m., 12.00, 1.00, 1.30, 2.00, 2.30, 3.00, 3.30, 4.00, 4.30, 5.00, 5.30, 6.00, 6.30, 7.00, 7.30, 8.00, 8.30, 9.00, 9.30, 10.00, 10.45, x11.30 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—9.00, 9.30, 10.00, 10.30, 11.00, 11.30 a. m., 12.00, 1.00, 1.30, 2.00, 2.30, 3.00, 3.30, 4.00, 4.30, 5.00, 5.30, 6.00, 6.30, 7.00, 7.30, 8.00, 8.30, 9.00, 9.30, 10.00 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—10.00 a. m., 12.15, 2.30, 4.30, 6.30, 8.30, 10.30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE AND MT. BETHEL.
WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6.30 a. m., 3.00, 6.25, x11.00 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6.45 a. m., 3.15, 6.40, x11.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 4.30, 6.50, x11.30 p. m.
Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.
Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30, 7.50, x11.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.10, x11.45 p. m.
Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 7.55, 12.00 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9.00 a. m. instead of 6.30 a. m. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STERLING.
WEEK DAYS ONLY.
Leave Plainfield—8.45 a. m., 4.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—9.00 a. m., 4.45 p. m.
Leave Sterling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m.
8.45 a. m. bus connects with 9.27 a. m. train at Sterling, for Newark.
4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m. train at Sterling, from Newark.

An enclosed, electric-lighted and heated bus may be procured for an afternoon or evening from The Plainfield Transit Co., to carry from 15 to 25 passengers to any point within a radius of 25 miles from Plainfield.

R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. 'Phone 130, Plainfield.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL,
TELEGRAM, AMERICAN,
BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN.
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
714 Webster Place, Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1309-R.

Safe Deposit and Storage Vaults

In a building of fireproof construction

INCREASING YOUR POSSESSIONS

may be your first business in life but it is quite as necessary to

SAFEGUARD WHAT YOU HAVE.

It has cost this Company thousands of dollars to erect its massive vaults but the security which they afford is offered to you for a nominal sum. If you will call at the bank our Officers will be glad to show you our safe deposit boxes, the smallest of which will hold many valuable papers.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Boxes may be rented for $5.00 to $150.00 a year.

AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S Vaudeville Front Street. 10c, 15c, 25c.

A DUTCH COURTSHIP

AND A BIG VAUDEVILLE PROGRAM
Continuous 2 to 5; 7 to 11 p. m.
SATURDAYS ALL DAY.

Lyric Theatre

202 WEST FRONT STREET.
Daylight Motion Pictures.
Changed Every Day.
Admission, Mat., 5c; Evening, 10c.
11 1 tf w-th-f-s

NECESSITY -- PRUDENCE -- CONVENIENCE

All these point the way to a Safe Deposit Box in the Manganese Vault of The State Trust Company. Necessity because the Safe Deposit Vault has long since superseded the secret hiding place. Prudence because of the maximum of protection afforded. Convenience because of ease of access.

Rentals $5 to $100 per year. Hours 8:15 to 4:30.

[SERVICE]

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

At the sign of the clock. 201 Park Ave.

THE POWLISON & JONES FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

TODAY, FEBRUARY 2, WE BEGIN OUR FEBRUARY SALE OF FURNITURE

The discontinued and unmatched pieces are taken from our regular stock and marked at prices much below their real value. The offering includes many artistic reproductions and period pieces and represent all the standard woods. Furniture that meets the needs of every part of the Home.

It's the kind of FURNITURE everybody wants and at the price concessions we make they are real bargains both in quality and price. The pieces we offer are not factory "Seconds" bought for the purpose of making a sale, but good dependable FURNITURE.

It includes DINING ROOM and CHAMBER SUITS as well as single pieces of all kinds, LEATHER COVERED CHAIRS and ROCKERS, LIBRARY TABLES, METAL BEDS and a host of odd pieces. The quality will please you and the price interest you.

We will be glad to have you visit our warerooms no matter if you wish to buy or not.

POWLISON & JONES

149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

J. L. BROWER

STATIONERY, BOOKS and MAGAZINES

311 PARK AVENUE

Valentines and Booklets from E. P. Dutton & Co.

Have you read?
The Initials
On the Branch
The Heart of Life

TELEPHONE 1012.

Read Our Ad TOMORROW

Van Arsdale's

127 E. FRONT ST.

FISH Sanitary Market FISH
ROTH & CO.

Fancy Herring, lb	7c
Fresh Caught Haddock, lb Fresh Caught Market Cod, lb Fancy Sea Bass, lb	8c
Fancy Weak Fish, lb Fancy Butterfish, lb	10c
STRICTLY FRESH CAUGHT
Spanish Mackerel, 2 lbs for Large Smelts, 2 lbs for	25c
Blue Fish, lb Green Cod Fish, steak or boil, lb	12c
Striped Bass Boston Mackerel Green Sea Bass
Extra Large Smelts, lb	15c
Fresh Scallops, lb	30c
Fancy Salmon, boil, lb	18c
Chicken Halibut, lb	16c & 20c
Small Fresh Shad, each	30c
Fish Cakes, 3 for	5c

ASK THE MAN

for whom we have done plumbing and tinning of any description whether it wasn't an expert and scientific job. Or permit us to refer you to them, and when you want anything in our line you will come to us. Let us give you an estimate on new or old work.

Work guaranteed satisfactorily done.

A stock of Hardware and Housefurnishing Goods unequalled in the city.

Let us serve you.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.
Two 'Phones 6—214

QUIT MEAT WHEN KIDNEYS BOTHER

Take a Glass of Salts if Your Back Hurts or Bladder Troubles You.

No man or woman who eats meat regularly can make a mistake by flushing the kidneys occasionally, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which clogs the kidney pores so they sluggishly filter or strain only part of the waste and poisons from the blood, then you get sick. Nearly all rheumatism, headaches, liver trouble, nervousness, constipation, dizziness, sleeplessness, bladder disorders come from sluggish kidneys.

The moment you feel a dull ache in the kidneys or your back hurts, or if the urine is cloudy, offensive, full of sediment, irregular of passage or attended by a sensation of scalding, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any reliable pharmacy and take a tablespoonful fn a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine so it no longer causes irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which all regular meat eaters should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and the blood pure, thereby avoiding serious kidney complications. —Adv.

SPECIAL

For Friday and Saturday.

10 lbs Sugar	47c
5 lbs Sugar	24c
1 (reg. 20c) Bot. Catsup	13c
1 (reg. 15c) Bot. Sneider Catsup	13c
1 (reg. 25c) bottle Sneider Catsup	21c
1 (reg. 15c) can Corn	13c
1 (reg. 10c) can Corn, 3 for	25c
1 (reg. 13c) can Peas	11c
1 (reg. 15c) can Peas	13c
1 (reg. 15c) can String Beans	12c
1 (reg. 18c) can String Beans	15c
1 (reg. 13c) can Beets	11c
1 (reg. 18c) can Beets	13c
1 (reg. 18c) can Peaches	14c
1 (reg. 16c) can Cherries	13c
1 (reg. 18c) can Pears	13c
1 (reg. 14c) per lb Evaporated Peaches	11c
Reg. 10c) per pkg. Jello, 3 for	25c
Reg. 10c) per pkg. Cooper Jellitine, 3 for	25c

C. O. SMITH

Cor. 4th and Liberty Sts.
Telephone 1346.

SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's Recipe to Bring Back Color and Lustre to Hair.

That beautiful, even shade of dark glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray, streaked and looks dry, wispy and scraggly, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred-fold.

Don't bother to prepare the tonic. You can get from any drug store a 50 cent bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," ready to use. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color, thickness and lustre of your hair and remove dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy, lustrous and abundant. —Adv.

Children's Shoes

Children's feet need considerable attention as they grow rapidly. Therefore they must be fitted correctly with the proper shapes, such as Tread-straight or Orthopedic lasts. We devote a large part of our time to children's footwear, and would like to convince you that our shoes and prices are both correct.

A. K. WILLETT

107 PARK AVENUE

"Oldest Shoe House in Town."

The Smile That Won't Come Off

is always worn by the thrifty housewife who uses a

"WHITE DAISY" WASHING MACHINE
Ball Bearings
$9.00
or a
"WHITE LILY" WASHING MACHINE
$7 50

and has her washing done before breakfast. For sale by

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS
'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

J. HIMMELFARB

Ladies' Tailor, Dressmaker and Furrier.

NOS. 309-311 NEW ST., BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH STS., TEL. 903-W.

Particular pains exercised in the making of a garment, the fitting of the same and attending properly to the little details that mean so much in the finished garment—thus satisfactions follows.

Expert workmanship and Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

I will appreciate a call and will be pleased to show styles and samples of work. Prices reasonable

---

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 2.41, 5.08, 5.40, 5.55, 6.27, 6.55, 7.22, 7.26, 7.41, 7.44, 7.55, 7.58, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.42, 8.59, 9.29, 9.55, 10.26, 11.27, 11.52 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.29, 2.55, 3.12, 3.48, 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.27, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.4 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.40, 7.23, 7.58, 8.22, 9.34, 9.40, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.59, 1.28, 2.09, 2.33, 2.55, 3.17, 4.29, 5.34, 6.37, 7.14, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.27, 10.28, 10.3 p. m.

For Newark—5.08, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8.36, 9.29, 10.26, 11.27 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.29, 2.55, 3.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.3 a. m., 12.39, 12.58, 1.28, 2.09, 2.50, 3.17, 4.29, 5.34, 7.14, 8.13, 9.35, 9.27, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.08, *8.06, 9.44, 11.27 a. m., 2.09, 5.24, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), (6.59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—(7.23 to Allentown), 10.36 a. m., 2.58, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), 7.14, 10.36 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.10, 9.44 a. m., 5.44 p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.36 a. m., 5.44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park—3.41, 8.12, 11.27 a. m., (12.34, (12.58 Red Bank only), (3.12 Red Bank only), 4.36, 6.25, 8.27, 11.44 p. m. Sundays—3.41, 8.52 a. m., (2.09 Red Bank only), 3.17, 8.35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.34 Saturdays only), 3.12. Sunday—4.40 a. m., 1.28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6.39, 7.39, 8.45, 10.43, 11.53 a. m., 12.42, 1.54, 2.45, 3.13, 6.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 a. m. Sunday—8.45, 9.39, 9.57, 10.39, 10.43, 11.41 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.39, 4.56, 5.39, 6.39, 8.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.55, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington—Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk. 12 21 13

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Lay Out and Open Emerson Avenue and Sumner Avenue from East Front Street to George Street," a copy of which is subjoined to this notice, has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Common Council to adopt said ordinance at the regular meeting of the Common Council to be held in the Council Chamber, No. 140 North Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, N. J., at eight o'clock p. m., on Monday, the second day of March, A. D. Nineteen hundred and fourteen, at which time and place prior to the adoption of said ordinance said ordinance will be considered by the Common Council, and all persons interested may be heard before the Common Council with reference to the proposed ordinance.

By order of the Common Council.
JAMES T. MacMURRAY,
City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., January 19, 1914.

AN ORDINANCE

to Lay Out and Open Emerson Avenue and Sumner Avenue, from East Front Street to George Street.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield by their Common Council do enact as follows:

Section 1. That the streets known as Emerson Avenue and Sumner Avenue, from East Front Street to George Street, as already laid out, opened and dedicated to the public and shown on map entitled "Map of Highland Park, Plainfield, N. J., 1906," on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Plainfield, be and the same are hereby accepted as public streets of said city.

1 29 2th

Abrams' Shoe Store

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS
On All Our
RUBBER GOODS
Owing to the backward season we will offer our entire stock of
BOOTS, RUBBERS AND ARCTICS
at a great sacrifice.

M. ABRAMS 229-233 W. FRONT ST.

FORESIGHT

There is such a thing as looking so far ahead as to overlook the dangers close at hand. The foresight which induces an owner to take proper precautions to safeguard his property with insurance are excellent.

Yet it should require no foresight to employ us—it is as plain as daylight that this office and the companies represented are all the protection an owner needs.

REAL ESTATE
LOANS
RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

HORSES CLIPPED

By Charles C. Brower,
PLAINFIELD CAB CO.,
130-134 E. Second St. 'Phone 10.
11 6 6mos

—It is wiser to know what a thing ought to cost before buying it; and ad-readers usually do know this.

J. J. GOFF

FISH MARKET. 18 SOMERSET ST.

FRESH CAUGHT FISH.

Large Steak Cod, lb	15c
Cod to boil, lb	10c
Fresh Caught Flounders, 3 lbs	25c
Fresh Caught Halibut, lb	20c
Fresh Caught Spanish Mackerel, lb	15c
Fancy Butterfish, lb	10c
Stem Clams, 3 bunches for	25c
Oysters, 25 for	25c

B. KIVATINOS

(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)

Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.

211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 886-W

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

Hoagland's Express

FINE FURNITURE.

MOVING

Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections.
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

THE ONLY WAY to become familiar with local building progress is to read the Daily Press Building Page each Saturday.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER. Snow or rain and warmer tonight; Saturday clearing and colder; increasing east winds becoming northwest and brisk Saturday. Max., 39; Min., 25.

Established May 10, 1887. FOURTEEN PAGES PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1914. FOURTEEN PAGES Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

DISCUSS NEED FOR TUBE UNDER RIVER

Chamber of Commerce Wants Railroad to Have Underwater Connection.

JEFFREY PAYS VISIT

One Result of Last Night's Session May Be Union of Board of Trade With Commerce Body—To Attend Dinner February 19.

Believing that a tunnel beneath the North River would be highly beneficial to Jerseyites and would be of material aid in populating the central part of this State, the Chamber of Commerce, at its meeting held last night, determined to present the matter for the consideration of the officials of the Central Railroad of New Jersey. President Newton B. Smalley appointed Captain J. E. Curtis and C. H. Hand, a committee to take the matter up with the railroad heads. The Plainfield Board of Trade will also appoint a committee for the same purpose. These two local committees of business men will act in conjunction with the allied Trade Boards of Union county in this important matter, it was said.

The idea of taking steps with a view of securing tunnel connections with the New York shore, and as soon as possible, through the co-operation of the railroad officials, was introduced at last night's meeting by C. H. Hand. He pointed out, briefly, the fact that many large business establishments in which New Jersey people are employed had moved to the uptown section of Manhattan. As a consequence New Jersey employes in some cases have had to remove from central New Jersey to other and more accessible sections and have also migrated to Long Island and to Westchester county.

Mr. Smalley addressed the members of the organization on the subject of the State Board of Education asserting that this body compelled the various municipalities to build certain type of public schools which must each have a certain amount of air space and be thoroughly fireproof. The idea seemed ridiculous to his mind, the speaker said, inasmuch as there were many private schools throughout this State which were not restricted as to the sort of buildings their pupils were housed in. He said that he believed the lives of all children in private schools should be of as much concern to the State Board of Education as the lives of public school children. Suggestion was made by the speaker that all schools be only one story in height as the best means of safe-guarding lives.

President Smalley also spoke of the need of greater home rule for municipalities. The present Board of Freeholders as at present constituted, he declared, was far too large and held that its methods were too extravagant. He advocated a much smaller board to be composed of business men which he believed would result in a business administration.

Present at the meeting was President William Jeffrey, of the Plainfield Board of Trade. He was warmly welcomed by Mr. Smalley. He extended an invitation to the members of the chamber to attend the Board of Trade dinner which will be held on Thursday night, February 19, at Columbus Hall. The invitation was accepted.

It was a matter of regret, President Jeffrey said, that Plainfield should have more than one organization for doing the work of the Chamber of Commerce and the Board of Trade. He said he hoped the time would come when both organizations might be amalgamated to the good of Plainfield. In responding Mr. Smalley declared that he would resign his office at any time that a man appeared whom he thought would give proper time and attention to the work of the chamber.

STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

The Councilmanic street committee has plenty of work ahead of it for this year putting the streets of the city in proper repair. It is estimated that it will require many thousands of dollars to do this work right, and the committee will probably ask for a large appropriation when the budget is made up. During the past two or three years the work has been chiefly in repairs, the amount of permanent work on the principal thoroughfare being small.

IMPROVED STREET LIGHTING.

The Public Service Corporation has completed the work of changing the street lamps in the residential section from 25 candle-power incandescents to 32 candle power Tungstens, and there is a marked improvement in street lighting.

—Ritz Saturday special, chocolate patties, 30c lb.—Adv. ***

—Van Arsdale's February "step lively" cash shoe sale begins tomorrow morning.—Adv. ***

—Fresh strawberries are now being offered at Neuman Brothers' market, corner Watchung avenue and Fifth street.—Adv. ***

KORULIMO CHORAL CONCERT PLEASES

Appreciative Audience Attends Society's First Entertainment.

The Korulimo Choral Society, of the First Presbyterian church, scored a success, last night, at its initial concert given at the Hartridge Auditorium, under the direction of Tom Daniel, of New York city. Miss Helen Whitton was the acompanist. There was a large attendance and those present evidenced their appreciation of the numbers given, both by soloists and chorus, by frequent applause. There were sixty trained voices in the chorus. The singing showed excellent results through the training under an experienced director.

Especially pleasing was the singing of Miss Ruth D. Sadler, the soloist at the First Presbyterian church. She was given two handsome bouquets by some of her admirers. Her rendition of the song cycle, "Love's Epitome," was very enjoyable as was the duet, "Still Wie Die Nacht," by Miss Sadler and Mr. Daniel. Rossini's "Sancta Maier" (Stabat Mater) was given by a quartet composed of Miss Sadler, Mrs. Nora Kemery, Randall H. Trumpe and Mr. Daniel. Verdi's aria, "Infelice! e tu credevi" (Ernani), was sung by Mr. Daniel. He was in excellent voice and sang with the utmost phrasing and expression.

Saint-Saens' beautiful aria, "O Love, Thy Help," from Samson and Delilah, was well sung by Mrs. Nora Kemery. The members of the Korulimo Choral Class were heard, and well received by the audience, in Pinsuti's part song, "In This Hour of Softened Splendor," and also in Molloy's part song, "The Song of the Triton," and Hervey's "Good Night, Love," the last named being unusually pleasing. Mr. Daniel greatly pleased his audience by his singing of the "Banjo Song" and "Rolling Down to Rio," and applause greeted Mrs. Nora Kemery at the conclusion of her two songs, "A Legend" and "Will o' the Wisp." Mr. Trumpe also sang solos, "Stille Sicherheit," by Franz, "Obstinatoin," and the "Four Leafed Clover." The concert was opened by the Korulimo Choral Society singing Fanning's "The Miller's Wooing."

CLINTON VAN VLIET, FORMERLY OF PLAINFIELD, LOSES LEG

Clinton VanVliet, formerly a Plainfield resident, and president of the Goodyear Rubber Company, is in Flushing Hospital at Flushing, New York, dangerously ill as the result of the amputation of his left leg just below the knee and the shock following an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. VanVliet is 68 years old. He has many friends in Plainfield. He has made his home for the last fifteen years at Douglaston, on Long Island. He underwent the operation for appendicitis two weeks ago. Four years ago he was operated on for apendicitis, but when he was stricken the second time it was found that the physicians had refrained from removing the appendix and had removed an appendicular abscess.

After his second operation for appendicitis gangrene set in which his physician, Dr. Charles B. Story, attributed to a congestion of blood due to lack of exercise. Mr. VanVliet's condition became so grave that the amputation of his leg was deemed necessary. Little hope of his recovery is entertained.

FUNERAL SERVICE OF GEORGE W. MEYER IS HELD

The funeral of George W. Meyer was held at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, at his late home, 115 New street. The Rev. F. L. Greene, of Hope chapel, conducted the service. Mr. Meyer had been a member of Hope chapel for twenty-three years. Two solos were sung at the funeral by Mrs. E. D. Young, "Lead Thou Me On," and "Safe In the Arms of Jesus." There was a profusion of handsome floral tributes. Employes of the Rushmore Dynamo Works sent a large floral piece in honor of their fellow-workman. The burial was in Plainfield avenue cemetery. The pall bearers were Donald MacInnes, John Frazee, George Rockfellow, John Bennett, Isaac Kennedy and John Le Matty. The family desires to thank the friends who sent sympathy and flowers.

—Nesselrode pudding and fresh fruit strawberry ice cream, at The Ritz, 50c qt.—Adv. ***

—Neuman Brothers will again have an unusually fine line of fresh fruits and vegetables at their Watchung avenue market tomorrow. Fancy Boston head lettuce, romaine, celery, cucumbers, tomatoes, new beets, green and wax beans, green peas, spinach, cauliflower, egg plant and rhubarb are among the attractive green things offered.—Adv. ***

UNION CHURCH AT WATCHUNG

Members of Mary E. Wilson Organize as Independent Body.

LOCAL PASTORS ASSIST

Apostles' Creed Adopted as Confession of Faith—Rev. Dr. E. G. Read to Continue as Preacher for the Present.

Members and friends of the Mary E. Wilson Memorial chapel at Watchung, met last night, and took steps toward organizing a union church, according to plans which have been under consideration for some time. The movement has the support of the local Protestant churches and among those attending last night's meeting to assist in the preliminary details were Rev. J. Y. Brock, of Trinity Reformed church; Rev. C. C. Cain, of Grace M. E. church; Rev. Dr. E. G. Read, of this city, who has been serving the chapel as preacher for some time, and Edward L. Bonney, of the borough, who has been superintendent of the Sunday-school for thirty years.

George W. Winans presided at the meeting and after the purpose of it was explained, it was voted to adopt the name of Mary E. Wilson Union Memorial chapel, and the Apostle's Creed was agreed upon as the confession of faith and basis of membership. It is expected that Dr. Read will continue to serve the congregation as preacher for the present at least. There were about fifty persons present at the meeting who signified their desire to unite with the church and contribute to its support.

During the evening there were interesting remarks by the visiting clergymen, all of whom promised the support and co-operation not only of themselves, but their congregations to the new church, offering to lend assistance whenever possible. Mr. Bonney, who was superintendent of the Sunday-school for thirty years, in addressing the gathering said that he was glad to see the prospects of a strong church as the result of many years of service. The Sunday-school was established about sixty years ago, a long time prior to the erection of the present attractive edifice.

The present edifice was erected by the late Col. John F. Wilson, former Mayor of North Plainfield, in memory of his wife, who during her lifetime was devoted to the religious work in the vicinity of Watchung. The building was constructed of stone cut from quarries in the vicinity, and is especially well adapted to the religious needs of the people of Watchung and nearby places. During the past few years the attendance at the services and interest has increased until it was thought that the time was ripe for establishing a church. The members of the congregation were congratulated last night upon their achievements and the outlook is promising for a strong organization. During a social hour the Ladies' Aid Society served refreshments.

S. P. C. A. THINKS NEW ROADS ARE HARD ON THE HORSES

Elizabeth, Feb. 6—Complaint that many of the county roads are too slippery for horses and that in consequence farmers suffer much loss through injuries to animals was made at a meeting of the Union County Board of Agriculture yesterday. It was decided to meet February 26 and to invite the Freeholders to hear protests at that time against "patent" pavements. Colonel E. S. Edwards, of the New Jersey S. P. C. A., discussed the difficulties and losses encountered through traveling on slippery roads.

Professor Fred Minkler, of the State Experimental Station, gave a talk on the care of animals.

"PARTY NIGHT" AT DEBELE'S.

One of the many pleasing dances of the season that have been held at Debele's Auditorium under the direction of "Doc. Doyle and Daniel MacCormack," was held last evening. About two hundred young people enjoyed the dancing by the strains of Prof. Squire's four-piece orchestra. The grand march took place at 11 o'clock and each received a souvenir. One of the features of the evening was a balloon dance which was enjoyed by all. Four rows of balloons were suspended from the ceiling and at a given time the cords were broken and amid the shower of variously colored balloons the couples danced. Refreshments were served. Next week will be amateur night and all the public is invited.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

—The E. & C. Auto Sales Co., 124 Madison avenue, have just delivered to Messrs. Wyman & Haberle, contractors, a Reo business truck.—Adv. ***

THREATENING BLAZE DISCOVERED IN TIME

Firemen Experience Difficulty in Fighting Fire in Iron Covered Shed.

A blaze, thought to have been started by a spark from the emery wheel in one of the small buildings of the Sauer plant of the International Motor Company on Clinton avenue, was discovered shortly after 9 o'clock last night, and in response to a still alarm Chief Doane dispatched No. 3 hose company to the scene of the fire. Upon arriving at the plant the chief sized the blaze up as a threatening one and sent in an alarm from box 49.

The flames were raging in a small iron covered house between the main building and the factory and was an extremely difficult one to get at. The interior of the structure was lined with wood and the iron covering held the heat inside making the work of extinguishing the blaze a hard task. The intense heat for a time endangered the other buildings and although the fire was burning briskly when the firemen arrived the flames were confined to the structure in which they started.

The inside lining of the building and the wooden fixtures were burned considerably and the loss has been placed at $400.

SCOTCH PLAINS HACKMAN WANTS $400 DAMAGES

Elizabeth, Feb. 6—John Alberts, of Scotch Plains, submitted a claim for $400 damages to the Board of Freeholders at its meeting yesterday for damage to his carriage and injuries to his horse received while conveying Miss Mosier, a trained nurse, to Bonie Burn Sanitorium at Scotch Plains, Janury 20. Mr. Alberts stated that the night was dark and that he drove his vehicle into an excavation on the sanitorium premises. The excavation had no lights over it, he said. The matter was referred to the Bonnie Burn Sanitorium committee and the county attorney.

William B. Lundie, of the Department of Public Health, of Plainfield, reported the abating of a mosquito-breeding place on the premises of Albert Rajotte, Jefferson avenue and Greenbrook, Plainfield.

The Board increased the salary of the custodian and matron of the county courthouse from $1500 to $1800 per year and then reappointed William H. Hulskamper and Mrs. Hulskamper for a period of five years. The salary of Mrs. Fanny Dodd, matron of the county jail, was increased from $360 to $480 because of her increasing duties. After a spirited contest G. Dwight Stone, of Cranford, defeated Nathan Compton of Rahway, for inspector of soldiers' graves, to take the place of the late J. Madison Drake.

PUPILS OF MRS. PHILLIPS GIVE PLEASING RECITAL

In honor of her pupils, a recital was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. H. S. Phillips, at her home, 62 Duer street, the borough. The guests were the Misses Edna Stutzbuger, Margaret Coogan, Gladys Stites, Gussie Probs and Julia Siedler, and Masters Clement Texier, William Lubeck and William Siedler. Refreshments were served and the guests enjoyed themselves from 3 untfl 6 o'clock. Musical selections given by the pupils of Mrs. Phillips were from Mozart, parts of the opera "Rigoletto," selections from the "Midsummer Night's Dream," and other classical musical compositions.

CIVIC ASS'N ENTERTAINMENT.

The West End Civic Association has completed arrangements for its annual entertainment to be given at the Washington School, Tuesday night, February 17. The program will be furnished by the Lotus Glee Club and Maurice, a comedy magician from New York. Tickets for the affair are now in the hands of the officers and members of the association.

PARCEL POST INCREASING.

The parcel post business passing through the local postoffice is constantly increasing, according to Postmaster E. H. Bird. The incoming and outgoing parcel post mail seems to be evenly divided and one man with a horse and wagon is kept busy full time making deliveries in the city and borough.

MAKING NEEDED REPAIRS.

The Public Service Corporation has been making a thorough inspection of its tracks in this city, with a view to making any needed repairs. The accident recently at West Front street and Grant avenue, when a car jumped the tracks because of a broken rail, put the company on its guard.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

TWENTY-SIX MEN WOULD BE 'COPS'

Many and Varied Are the Applicants for Positions on Local Police Force.

SOME RARE SPECIMENS

Mental Test Included Question Calling for Martine's Residence Which Floored Six—All Knew the Locations of the Various Saloons.

The announcement recently made by Mayor Percy Hamilton Stewart that seven new patrolmen were to be named for the local police force resulted in twenty-six applicants for the positions presenting themselves before the examiners yesterday. They were of all sizes and ages and from all parts of the city, not to mention a couple of huskies hailing from the wilds of Stirling, who thought they had a chance to become bluecoats. There were also two colored applicants who made no secret of their belief that one Afro-American cop was not enough representation for the 5,000 sable residents of the city.

The would-be minions of the law first assembled in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium yesterday afternoon, where City Physician Norman W. Currie had them peel off their clothes. One by one he gave them the "double O," which in the popular slang of the day means the "once over." In quick succession fifteen of the twenty-six were mustered out because of physical imperfections. One man was so knock-kneed he interfered with his own locomotion while another had a bad case of "Charley horse," common among ball players at this particular season of the year. A third claimant for appointment had feet originally built for a sick duck, giving him the grace of a cow when he made haste. The colored men were among the rejected. The eleven candidates remaining were put through a stiff physical test, all of them standing it like trained athletes. Director Ostlin said afterwards that they were as fine a bunch of burlies as he had ever put over the hurdles. Last night the still hopeful eleven stood before City Stenographer George B. Wean and submitted themselves to a mental test. They answered all kinds of questions about the city, the State, the country and the governing bodies of each.

One interrogation that floored six or seven was "Where does Senator Martine live?" He was located in Washington, Cedar Brook, Watchung avenue and Martinsville (only it was written Martinesville). Another question, "How far is it from the postoffice to Oak Tree" elicited the repsonse from one diplomat that if his beat was going that far he didn't want the job. The best replies, however, came when the men were asked if the Common Council had granted any more licenses this year and where all the saloons were located. Every man-jack of them gave the identical spot where the booze parlors stand and seven said they could give the first names of the bartenders if it would help any. The query was not asked, but one applicant claimed he could tell when a man was intoxicated, and that was when he climbed into the lunch wagon at 2 "a. m." and said "Let me off at Spooner avenue."

There was also arithmetic work and spelling before the test was declared at a finish. The results of the examinations will be made known to the police board as soon as possible and it is probable that the lucky seven will be named at the special meeting of the Council on February 17. The original quota of twenty-six men is the largest number of applicants ever applying at one time for the police jobs.

ADMITS SHOOTING FOR WHICH BROTHER IS A PRISONER

New Brunswick, Feb. 6—Although his brother is in jail here, charged with assaulting Henry Koch, who is in St. Peter's hospital suffering from blood-poisoning as the result of being shot in the arm in a quarrel over a dog, Antonio Spiro, who was brought back from Albans, Vt., by Chief of Police Michael O'Connell, declares he did the shooting.

Koch identified the man in jail as the one who fired the shot. Antonio, when examined at Montreal by immigration officials on fleeing from the United States, suddenly threw up his hands, declaring "I killed him." He thought Koch was dead. He was lodged in the jail here.

BROKE HIS LEG.

Michael Horowitz, of Manville, had his leg broken at the Somerville station yesterday while removing a barrel of meat from the station platform to a train and was removed to the Somerset hospital. While transferring the heavy barrel Horowitz lost his footing and the barrel fell on top of his left leg breaking it below the knee.

G. W. SHELDON PASSES AWAY AT SUMMIT

Former Plainfielder, Graduate of Princeton, and Prominent in Literary World.

George William Sheldon, who died at his residence in Summit on Wednesday, at the age of seventy-one years, was well-known here. In 1874 he married Miss Sara Edwards Annin, daughter of the late Joseph Annin, of this city, and by the union there were five children. His father, Rev. Dr. George Sheldon, was for many years a resident of this city and it was here that Mr. Sheldon prepared for college. He was a brother of Edward W. Sheldon, president of the United States Trust Company, of New York.

Mr. Sheldon was born in 1843 at Summerville, S. C., and was graduated from Princeton University in 1863. After being a tutor at Princeton and an instructor of oriental languages in Union Theological Seminary, New York, he took up literature as an occupation. For several years he was art editor of the New York Evening Post, and subsequently from 1890-1900, literary adviser at London of the publishing firm of D. Appleton & Co.

Several years ago Mr. Sheldon retired from active work and had since resided at Summit. Among the books published by him were "American Painters," "Story of the Volunteer Fire Department of New York," "Hours with Art and Artists," "Artistic Homes," "Artistic Country Seats," "Recent Ideals of American Art," "Ideals of Life in France." He received the honorary degree of doctor of letters from Princeton University in 1896. He leaves surviving a widow, daughter and four sons.

Mr. Sheldon was a member of the following clubs: National, National Liberal, Authors', Whitefriars, Savage, Society of Authors (all of London, England); Authors', and Princeton (both of New York). He was also a Fellow of the Royal Geographical Society, of Great Britain.

MISS HELEN WARNOCK DIES IN 37TH YEAR

Miss Helen Warnock, daughter of the late Alexander and Laura Warnock, and a native of this city, died yesterday morning at her home in Brooklyn. She had been ill only ten days. Miss Warnock was thirty-seven years old and had lived in Plainfield until a young woman. She was for a long time employed by the American Banknote Company, but more recently had been secretary for a large manufacturing concern in New York.

Miss Warnock is survived by one sister, Mrs. Margaret Wilson, of Grove street, and two brothers, William W. Warnock, of Craig place, and Harry Warnock, of San Francisco. The funeral will be held at the late home in Brooklyn tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock and the burial will be in Greenwood cemetery.

MRS. MARY B. HANDON FILES CAVEAT AGAINST WILL

Efforts will be made to prevent the admission to probate of the will of Mrs Lydia P. Bullock, of this city, who died recently, by Mrs. Mary B. Handon, of Rahway, a niece, who has filed a caveat. As yet no date has been fixed by the court for a hearing. The estate, which is said to be valued at about $30,000, was practically all left to Mrs. Robert Crosson, of West Fifth street, another niece, who was very attentive to her aunt. There are numerous other relatives.

McDermott & Enright, of Jersey City, represent Mrs. Handon, while Reed & Hetfield, of this city, are counsel for Mrs. Crosson. Mrs. Bullock was a life-long resident of Plainfield. She died a few weeks ago.

NEW FENCE IN POSITION.

The New Jersey Central has completed the work of erecting a new iron fence at the North Avenue Station, separating the east and west bound tracks and workmen are now painting it. The old fence was torn up and demolished several weeks ago when a freight train was wrecked near the station.

ANNUAL TURKEY SUPPER.

Details are complete for the annual turkey supper to be given at Warren chapel, Thursday night, February 12, under the auspices of the Missionary and Aid Society. In connection with the affair there will be an informal entertainment during the evening as an added attraction for the patrons.

—Roast turkey, chestnut stuffing, 35c, Ritz Saturday lunch special.—Adv. ***

—The big shoe event of the season —Van Arsdale's cash shoe sale. It starts tomorrow morning, and there are bargains galore.—Adv. ***

SEEKS TO RECOVER MONEY INVESTED

Archibald McArthur Brings Suit in Chancery Against F. A. Ballantine.

CLAIMS A BIG LOSS

In Defending Foreclosure Action Plaintiff Alleges Misrepresentation—Asks That Mortgages Representing $15,000 Be Cancelled.

Newark, Feb. 6.—Vice Chancellor Stevens heard testimony today in a foreclosure suit growing out of a farm deal between Archibald McArthur, of Kearny, and Frederick A. Ballantine, of Bedminster county, Somerset. McArthur bought an 98 acre farm of Ballantine in 1912, being ill and desirous of giving up his plumbing business and going in the country as a "gentleman farmer."

He paid $18,500 for the farm. Of this sum only $2,000 was paid in cash. McArthur gave notes for another $1,000, which he later secured by a chattel mortgage, and assumed an existing mortgage in the sum of $5,000 and gave another lien of $7,000 on the farm property to the seller.

In addition to these incumbrances McArthur gave Ballantine a collateral mortgage on property which he owned at Kearny. Farming did not turn out to McArthur's liking and he finally found upon striking a balance sheet at the end of his first year's work that he had lost something more than $1,000. His expenses, it was said in court today, were about $2,300, and his receipts from all farm sources less than $1,300. He alleges that Ballantine told him at the time he sold him the farm that he had spent the previous year $2,800 in conducting the farm and had received returns over and above all of his living expenses of $3,995.

McArthur in defending the foreclosure suit which Ballantine has brought alleges that there was fraud and misrepresentation on the part of the seller at the time he acquired possession of the Ballantine farm. He asks the court that all of the mortgages, aggregating about $15,000, be cancelled and extinguished because of the fraudulent representations of the seller.

Both men involved in the present litigation are well known in that section of New Jersey where they live. The farm as run by McArthur employed the same number of men as Ballantine claimed to have done the year that he is alleged to have asserted he made nearly $4,000 net profit. He is said to have advised the purchaser, it was brought out during the court proceedings today, that with his herd of eighteen cows the income from the sale of milk alone should total $2,400.

The outcome of the suit will be awaited with considerable interest by real estate dealers, farmers and owners of real property generally in this State as it has not infrequently been claimed by purchasers of properties of various sorts that the seller so to speak "pulled the wool over the eyes of the buyers" and grossly misrepresented the worth of the land sold and its income possibilities.

PHOTO PLAY PROGRAM WITH ORCHESTRAL MUSIC

Commencing on Monday a great photo-play program, with incidental music by a full orchestra, will be introduced at Proctor's theatre on West Front street. The picture service will be furnished by the Mutual Film Company, the General Film Company, including pictures by the Edison Company, the American Vitagraph Company, Pathe Freres, Lubin, Majestic and Keystone comedies; also other producers and the pictures will be changed daily. The feature films will be announced.

The musical selections will be arranged with great care and a musical and picture entertainment equal to the best will be presented. The prices will not be increased, but will remain at the present popular scale. Further particulars regarding the change of program will be made tomorrow.

IN CONTEMPT OF COURT.

Albert Conklin, a carpenter, of Dunellen, is in the Middlesex county jail charged with being in contempt of the Court of Chancery, in having failed to pay alimony and counsel fees in the divorce suit brought against him by his wife, Harriet Conklin. He has defaulted payment, it is said, in the sum of $224. It will be necessary for him to get an order from the Court of Chancery before he can secure his release from prison. His lawyer is S. S. Swackhamer, of this city.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

—Read VanArsdale's ad. today on page 14, announcing his annual shoe sale.—Adv. ***

A TIE WONDER

MEN'S TIES SILK FOUR IN HANDS at 15c

Four for Fifty Cents

THE COLORS

Gray
Emerald
Copenhagen
Lavender
Black
Navy
Purple
Cardinal
White
Cerise
Cadet
Plum
Garnet
Wine
Russet
Steel
Myrtle
Brown

You are not "up" on silks, of course, but you know that silk, which, when made up into ties slip easily through the collar—never tearing the button holes.

By the way, it is tugging at ties, not the laundry, that oftener than not plays havoc with the shirt band and collars.

The silk that slips through is "Bengaline"—the silk of which these ties are made. They are reversible, and that you may know they are not skimped, we will tell you their length —46 inches. The bargain is amazing. There are 1,500 ties; see the window display; choice 4 for 50c; each... 15c

WOMEN WILL WANT THEM, TOO.

Women who wear tailored waists or the new Silk shirts will want half a dozen at least. Altogether this is the most desirable collection of new silk four-in-hand ties we have ever had to offer. Mr. Busy Man, be sure to tell your wife to get enough of these fine ties—15c each or 4 for 50c.

Trimmed Hats 69c.

Last call; choice of any trimmed hat in stock; Saturday only, each.....69c

$1.25 Pajamas 75c.

Women's good flannelette pajamas in neat stripe patterns; Saturday only....75c

Women's 25c Hose 19c.

"Gordon" brand black hose, medium weight, sizes 8½ to 10; Saturday only at, a pair 19c

15c Caps 10c.

Women's percale dusting caps, in various colors; only .....10c each

Women's Neckwear 29c.

Regular 50c and 59c neckwear, in a number of dainty styles.

Unusually Big Values for SATURDAY

Read Every Item. They are All Money-Savers

10c Muslni 6½c a Yard.

Fine bleached muslin, yard wide. Limit 15 yards to one customer.

$1.00 Corsets 59c.

Saturday only, a well known corset in all sizes, but a trade deal does not allow us to mention the maker, at only 59c

12½c Chambrays 7c a Yard.

Fine quality, all plain colors; only.....7c a yard

$3.98 Dress Skirts $2.98.

Women's fine skirts in checks and plain colors; Saturday only, each..$2.98

Women's $1 Underwear 50c.

Women's part wool vests and pants, white only, at 50c

Children's Gloves 19c.

Regular 25c to 39c wool and cashmere gloves at.19c

Curtain Materials 5c a Yard

Values up to 20c including cretonnes, silkolines and scrims; all at ....5c a yard (On sale 2nd floor).

$1.00 Bags 50c.

Women's all leather hand bags in the new small styles at 50c

Women's Suits $3.50.

Values $7.50 to $12.50; well made and tailored; black and colors; Saturday's price $3.50

25c to 35c Brassieres 19c.

Women's fine brassieres, embroidery trimming, all sizes, each 19c

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"The White Store"

We Give the Famous S.H.Green Trading Stamps

Store Opens at 8:30; Closes Saturdays at 10 p. m. Others days at 5:30.

Bound Brook.

Israel W. Stout has returned to his home in Beechwood Heights, after spending several weeks with relatives at Rockville, Md.

Joseph J. Miller has purchased a lot on North Winsor street adjoining his property, of Elwood Thorne.

The Washington Camp Ground Association has arranged to hold the annual Washington Birthday celebration in the Presbyterian church on Sunday afternoon, February 22. They expect to have a very fine speaker at that time inasmuch as a strenuous effort is being made to secure the Rev. N. McGee Waters, D. D., of Brooklyn, N. Y., who is the pastor of the Tompkins Avenue Congregational church.

Wilbur H. Smith, of Bound Brook, has the contract for the electrical work on the new house of N. W. Giles at Washington Heights.

The Bound Brook Boy Scouts will attend service in the Methodist church on Sunday evening and hear a sermon by Rev. Alfred Evans.

Mrs. C. E. Sherin has returned to her home on the Canal road, South Bound Brook, after spending several weeks in New York city.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Whitaker are spending some time at Washington.

A sacred concert and lecture will be given at St. Joseph's church Sunday night. The Rev. William I. McKean has been engaged to lecture on "Irish Rhymers in the English Tongue." A musical program will be given and will include selections by Mrs. Agnes Williams and Miss Helen Field, sopranos; Mrs. Rose Murphy, contralto; Martin Devanney and Dr. John T. Leahy, tenors; Elmer Brown, bass, and John J. Campbell, baritone. J. Hughes, formerly organist of Our Lady of Lourdes church, of Brooklyn, will give several numbers on the organ, and John Davies will be heard in violin solos. A quartet composed of A. J. Mueck, William V. Fehr, Dr. John T. Leahy and John J. Campbell, will be heard in two numbers, and Oberbrunner's orchestra, of Somerville, will play.

Mrs. Thomas H. Brantingham, of Plainfield, was a visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Nelson M. Giles, yesterday.

In the pool tournament held at Efinger's parlors on Wednesday night, Charles Hicks beat G. Clyde Somers by a score of 81 to 100.

German Valley. and Chester

The condition of Mrs. Caleb V. Horton, of Chester, who has been ill for several months, is worse.

William Odell, of Chester, is recovering from illness.

Rev. C. K. Mahoney expects to end his pastorate with the Chester Methodist church within a few weeks. He wishes to get nearer Drew Seminary, where he is now a student.

The board of governors of the Chester Clubhouse has ruled that Tuesday afternoons from 4 to 6 o'clock shall be for the boys, and similar hours for the girls on Thursday afternoons. Other changes are being considered.

Mrs. Mervin Fields of German Valley, who has been ill, is much improved.

Stewart Neighbor, of German Valley, is improving slowly from injuries sustained several weeks ago.

New Providence.

The New Providence Township Committee will meet tonight in the Columbia School, Plainfield avenue, Berkeley Heights.

Joseph Weiss, of Newark, is visiting his brother-in law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Carrell, of the Circle, Murray Hill.

Collector Dayton Baldwin, of River road, Chatham township, returned home Wednesday, after a two weeks' trip throughout the Middle West.

Otto Brueger of Long Hill, Chatham township, left Thursday for Bermuda, where he will spend the remainder of the winter.

The young folk of St. Mary's church, Stony Hill, New Providence township, entertained more than 150 at their dance and entertainment Wednesday night, in the parish hall.

Dunellen & Vicinity

A match has been arranged between the Dunellen Bowling Club, which is better known here as the Baraca Class, and the Bound Brook All-Stars to be rolled on the alleys of the Presbyterian church, Tuesday night, February 10.

Mrs. Louise M. Trust and daughter, Louise, of Mountainview terrace, left this morning for Florida, where they will spend the balance of the winter.

Owing to the illness of Thomas J. Hoagland, the secretary of the Dunellen Board of Health, the meeting of that Board which was scheduled for Wednesday night, was postponed

Russell Brakeley, of Front street, returned home yesterday afternoon, after spending a few days with friends in New York and Brooklyn.

H. Clifford Smith, the newly-appointed dog catcher, is "on the job," and using novel methods to round up the roaming canines. Smith appears on the street with a number of light lead chains fastened to a leather waist belt. When he sees a stray dog, whether with or without a license, he captures the animal, loosens one of the chains, snaps the hook to the collar of the dog and continues on his way.

Clarence T. Voorhees, the North avenue butcher, received his new runabout car from the Stryker Motor Company, yesterday afternoon.

Robert Fitzsimmons, better known as "Lanky Bob," continues his training, which includes long runs on the country roads. He expects to arrange another boxing match soon.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Edward Hatfield and Frank Hand have started a new dancing class at Meyer's Hall.

At present there are but ten entries for the bowling tournament which is being inaugurated by W. A. Batterson, the physical director and supervisor of the Parish House gymnasium. The first game of the tournament will be played on the Parish House alleys Monday night.

Henry L. Jasperson, Sr., of Martine avenue, leaves Monday for a three months' business trip through the southern and western sections of this country.

Fred Bowe, of Farley avenue, has returned home after spending a few days with friends in New York State.

A number of new books have been added to the lists of the public library, within the past week, and they will be put in circulation soon.

Owing to the fact that every Wednesday night prayer services are held in the Baptist church, no basketball games will be scheduled for the Parish House on that night.

An entertainment will be given at the Parish House tonight. Miss Bass, of New York, will furnish the program.

The monthly meeting of the Fanwood Borough Council was held at the home of Mayor Hoar, on Martine avenue, on Wednesday evening. A balance of $4,040.08 in the borough treasury was reported. The police committee reported that the estimated cost of repairs in the police court would be about $40. The fire committee reported the purchase of thirty new firemen's badges. Additional street lights are to be placed on Paterson and Russell roads and on Farley avenue. The following expenditures during the month of January were reported: $118 for street lighting; $19.50 for fire badges; $93.75 to the water company; $75 for police officer. Dr. F. W. Westcott appeared before the Council to protest against the proposed law decreasing the number of members comprising the Board of Freeholders. He showed what he considered was the fallacy of such a change and how it would affect Fanwood and other small boroughs. A resolution was adopted against changing the present number of freeholders. Emil Eckhardt was present to call the attention of the streets and sidewalks committee to a necessary improvement in Paterson road. Provision was made for the needed repairs. An ordinance regarding sidewalks was passed on first and second readings, providing that only cement and slag walks be laid. The following were appointed as trustees of the Fanwood Public Library by the Mayor: Mrs. J. Hudston Thompson to serve until January, 1917; Miss Alice Kyte to serve until January, 1918; Mrs. Thomae to serve until January, 1919. A letter from Mr. Palmer, of Tillotson road, protesting against the vocal aspirations of a neighboring cockerel, was read and was laid on the table. The appointment of Dr. Ray Munger as a member of the Board of Health was approved. It was decided to purchase rolled gold badges for the Mayor, the clerk, and the councilmen.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Weller are entertaining Mrs. Weller's brother, George Hellinger, of Springfield, Mass., who is enroute to Virginia.

An organization playing under the name of the "B. A. C." of Westfield, appeared on the Parish House court, last night, and by way of getting revenge for a defeat at the hands of the first team several weeks ago, overwhelmed the second team by a score of 44 to 24. Hall starred for the home team.

The Saturday Night Club will meet in the Fanwood fire house tomorrow evening.

Raritan

Mrs. J. F. Ayres has been visiting at Glen Gardner.

John Ramsden has been on the sick list, but is again able to be about.

Mr. and Mrs. John Manning have been entertaining relatives from Washington, N. J., at their home on Thompson street, the past week.

Mrs. M. F. Hunt, of Somerset street, has returned from a visit with her parents at Annandale.

Mrs. Edward Willett and family have moved from this place to Wallington, Del.

Mrs. John O'Hanlon, of Elmora, is spending the week with Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brutcher, on Gaston avenue.

Somerville

The Somerset County Poultry and Pet Stock Association will have a meeting in Stryker's Hall Wednesday evening of next week.

The members of Company M will participate in a regimental drill at the Second Regiment Armory, Trenton, this evening.

Philip Case, of Hightstown, has been visiting relatives here.

Miss Oleo Gray is spending a month with Mrs. Karel VanderVeer, at Syracuse, N. Y.

Miss Olive Haberle has been entertaining Miss Archer, of Highland Park.

The alumni of the Somerville High School has elected the following officers for the year: President, Arthur C. Swinton; vice president, Edgar Saums; secretary, Miss Ella Lane; treasurer, Voorhees Kline. A committee has been appointed to make arrangements for a banquet to be held Saturday evening, March 7.

Miss Margaret Schoonmaker, from the Normal School, Trenton, and Miss Miriam Hodge, from the Newark Normal School, are practice teaching in North Plainfield.

A considerable amount of machinery was unloaded here yesterday for the Schwartz-Hermann Steel Works on North Bridge street. Most of it came from Germany. It is being carted by local contractors.

Gallagher Brothers have received a great quantity of ice from Lake Hopatcong, which has been placed in their ice house at this place.

John B. Dunster has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Mary D. Pickell, at Bernardsville.

YOUNG FRIENDS' ASSOCIATION.

The Young Friends' Association will hold its monthly session at 8 o'clock this evening at the meeting-house on Watchung avenue. The subject for discussion will be "Home and Foreign Missions." Perhaps, the most interesting event of the winter to local Friends will be the pilgrimage to the Plainfield meeting of the joint fellowship committee of both branches of Friends of New York, on Sunday. The meeting for worship will be at 11 o'clock, as usual. The conference in the afternoon will be held at 2:30 o'clock and the topic for consideration will be "What Lack I Yet?"

—To a merchant, the "cost of ADEQUATE ADVERTISING is a mere incident. While the cost of inadequate advertising is always difficult to meet.

Saturday Specials

Prices mentioned are only a few of the many bargains offered you at this sale beginning Saturday, Feb. 7. Selections can be made now at sale prices and delivered later at your request. Place your order now and save money.

$18 Sideboards	$14.00
17.50 Extension Tables	13.50
14.50 Oak Dressers	9.75
6.00 Chiffoniere	4 98
9.00 Dressing Tables	7.50
7.00 Bed Couches	5.75
10.00 Bed Outfits	6.98
12.00 Bed Outfits	8.50
8.00 Iron Cribs	6.50
2.50 Comforts	1.75
98c Blankets	75c
98c Pillows	69c

Birdseye Maple Dressers

New styles with either oval or square French plate mirror; price $25.00—

Saturday $15.75

Vacuum Cleaners

Another shipment of those Vacuum Cleaners manufactured by the Domestic Vacuum Cleaner Co., and guaranteed to do the work and do it right; price $7.50—

Saturday $5.98

Bed Mattresses

Our special grade, considered good value at $7.00—

Saturday $4.98

35c Mattings	25c
$2.50 Axminster Rugs	$1.69
89c Velvet Rugs	59c
59c Stair Carpet	45c
69c Door Mats	49c
25c Furniture Polish	18c
$2.00 Folding Screens	$1.25
$3.49 Umbrella Stands	$2.00
$3.50 Leather Bags	$2.49
$1.50 Suit Cases	98c
25c Table Oilcloth	18c
$4.00 Bed Springs	$2.98

L. B. VAN CAMP FRONT and SOMERSET STS. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

STYLISH RELIABLE

A LESSON IN LOGIC

"Logic," says Webster's Handy-Book, "is the science of correct reasoning."

Assuming that you are a normal man, with a normal man's likes and dislikes, you must desire to see yourself not only clothed in your right mind, but clothed in garments that are cut well, styled well and LOOK well.

What prevents you, then, from buying a suit or an overcoat that will greatly improve your appearance?

Assuming again that you are perfectly normal, your answer will probably be, "the prices are too steep," or words to that effect.

The whole thing hinges on the question of price—and that's where the Rothberg Clothing - shop comes in.

Here you get better values than the same price buys at most stores.

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's.

The John Wanamaker Store

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co.

Broadway and Ninth, New York

"But This is the Fine Furniture--I Want to See the Medium-Priced Pieces"

Said a woman at this February Sale last Saturday.

She didn't wait to examine the price tags. The furniture looked fine (it was fine.) And it seemed to her that it must be expensive. But it was not.

She was looking at the medium-priced furniture, and didn't realize it!

This February Sale is bearing fruit we didn't quite foresee when we originated it. Then, it was to keep factories going and give our customers the benefit of real economies. Now, it has taken on—with us, at least—the nature of a National expostiion of all grades of furniture, the good grades.

At—bear in mind—10 to 50 per cent. below usual.

No wonder people who have not seen the furniture on these three great city-block-wide-and-avenue-block-long Galleries, cannot quite realize what good furniture may be bought for little money.

Here is Some of It

Furniture of harmonious, simple lines; comfortable pieces, furniture to love, which suggests home and invites one to "grow old along with one."

Bedroom Suites

4-piece white enamel; full-size bedstead, dresser, chiffonier and dressing table, $85, regularly $94.50.

6-piece decorated white enamel; twin bedsteads, dresser, chiffonier, dressing table and bedroom table, $285.75, regularly $317.50.

3-piece bird's-eye maple; dresser, chiffonier and dressing table, $57.25, regularly $75.

7-piece Circassian walnut; full size bedstead, dresser, chiffonier and dressing table, somnoe, desk and table, $210, regularly $313.50.

5-piece mahogany; twin bedsteads with cane panels, dresser, chiffonier and dressing table, $166, regularly $203.

Dressers

White enamel, $23, regularly $26.
Bird's-eye maple, $24, regularly $32.
Circassian walnut, $24, regularly $32.
Circassian walnut, $33, regularly $45.
Mahogany, $20, regularly $27.

Chiffoniers

White enamel, $16, regularly $18.
Bird's-eye maple, $24, regularly $32.
Bird's-eye maple, $18.50, regularly $28.
Circassian walnut, $32, regularly $48.
Mahogany, $24, regularly $32.

Dressing Tables

White enamel, $14, regularly $15.50.
White enamel, $12, regularly $24.
Bird's-eye maple, $17, regularly $25.50
Bird's-eye maple, $13.50, regularly $18.
Circassian walnut, $10, regularly $24.
Circassian walnut, $20, regularly $30.
Mahogany, $12, regularly $18.
Mahogany, $15, regularly $20.

Sixth Gallery, New Building.

Dining-room Suites

11-piece mahogany; inlaid buffet, mirror, china closet, serving table, extension table, five side and one arm chair, $221, regularly $294.50.

3-piece golden oak; buffet, china closet and extension table, $151.50, regularly $229.

3-piece fumed oak; buffet, china closet and serving table, $64.50, regularly $97.50.

Buffets

Mahogany, $25.50, regularly $34.
Mahogany, $69.75, regularly $92.50.
Fumed oak, $34, regularly $51.
Golden oak, $20, regularly $31.
Golden oak, $36, regularly $54.

China Closets

Mahogany, $41, regularly $61.50.
Fumed oak, $20, regularly $27.
Fumed oak, $33.50, regularly $37.50
Golden oak, $15, regularly $17.
Golden oak, $27, regularly $41.

Extension Tables

Mahogany, 6 ft. 48-inch top, $35, reg. $39.
Mahogany, 8 ft. 48-inch top, $39, reg. $52.
Fumed oak, 6 ft. 48-inch top, $23, reg. $26.
Fumed oak, 6 ft. 48-inch top, $27, reg. $30.
Fumed oak, 8 ft., 54-in. top, $37.50, reg. $50.
Golden oak, 6 ft. 48-in. top, $19.75, reg. $22.
Golden oak, 6 ft. 45-in. top, $25.50, reg. $34.

Serving Tables

Mahogany, $18, regularly $27.
Mahogany, $24, regularly $36.
Fumed oak, $12.50, regularly $19.
Golden oak, $10.50, regularly $14.
Golden oak, $17, regularly $25.50.

Seventh Gallery, New Building.

STARTS SATURDAY AT

STUART'S SHOE SHOP

An event which should appeal as strongly to your appreciation of quality as to your sense of economy.

The following prices, backed by the real worth of the Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes offered, make it to your advantage to buy now for future needs.

Men's and Women's $3.50 and $4.00 Shoes; now 2.95

Men's and Women's $3.00 and $3.50 Shoes, discontinued lines; now 2.45

Men's and Women's $2.50 and $3.00 Shoes, discontinued lines; now 1.95

Men's High Cut Storm Shoes, regular $3.75; now 2.95

Men's English Style Black and Tan; regular $3.50; now 2.95

Men's Oil Grain Bluchers, regular $3.00; now 2.65

Women's Cloth Tops in Patent and Dull; reg. $3, now 2.45

Women's Juliets, regular $1.50 grade; now 95c

Women's $1.50 and $1.00 Furfelt Slippers; now 85c

Boys', Girls' and Children's Shoes All Reduced.

No imaginary values are quoted. A shoe that was $3.50 in November is still a $3.50 shoe, but you can now save 50c to $1.00 on it. Make it a point to supply your shoe needs now.

Stuarts SHOE SHOP

215 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

The Catskill Aqueduct Greater Engineering Feat Than the Panama Canal

WHEN New York city's mayor, standing in the sump at the foot of a 440 foot shaft the other day, threw an electric switch and set off the dynamite charge which demolished the last heading in the largest tunnel in the world it may be truly said that he made history. Immediately it became possible to walk beneath ground from the Catskills to the heart of Brooklyn. The assurance of that fact brings home, as nothing else could, how near to completion is the titanic project of the Catskill aqueduct, by which more than 500,000,000 gallons daily of soft, cool water are to be led down from the mountains to thirsty New York city. The entire aqueduct is about 120 miles in length, and from the great Ashokan reservoir, a marvel of engineering skill in itself, a distance of ninety-two miles, it has been practically completed. From the confines of the Ashokan reservoir the water will be led through the Catskill aqueduct, skirting hills, boring through mountains, dipping under deep valleys, brooking no obstacles in the superhuman endeavor to reach the city at as high an elevation as possible, so that the water will rise of its own accord to the top of a twenty story building.

Under construction concurrently with the Panama canal and the New York subway system, each of which monuments to human industry would lend distinction to any age, the Catskill aqueduct—so say engineers—is by long odds the most noteworthy feat.

The cost to New York city of the completed water supply system will fall a trifle short of $180,000,000, considerably less than what the nation will have expended to connect the two oceans at the south. But the problems which have arisen here have taxed engineering ingenuity as even the difficulties met on the isthmus have not. The amount of exploratory and pioneer work in the two great tasks was not comparable. Every variety of ticklish, puzzling obstacle has cropped up on the nearer work. Mountains have been burrowed under, and the fifteen foot bore tunnel led far beneath five rivers. Apart from the actual construction the preliminary work was enormous.

Photo by American Press Association.

SECTION OF AQUEDUCT NEAR ASHOKAN RESERVOIR.

The new water system may be thus briefly outlined: Four watersheds comprising altogether nearly 900 square miles, lying in the Catskill mountains, between 75 and 125 miles from Brooklyn bridge, are to be drawn on. In the beginning only one of these drainage areas, that of Esopus creek which in dry years will provide at least 250,000,000 gallons daily is being utilized. When the need arises the other three watersheds, Rondout, Schoharie and Catskill creeks, will be made use of and an aggregate of 770,000,000 gallons thus secured.

For the Esopus drainage area the mammoth Ashokan reservoir will impound the water, and thence it will be led by aqueduct a little east of south some forty-five miles to the Hudson river. In this distance the four chief types of construction are used—the so called cut and cover, in which the concrete aqueduct is laid in a shallow trench to half its depth and then buried beneath a fill; the grade tunnel concrete lined and designed to convey water at no greater pressure than that of gravity; the pressure tunnel circular and also concrete lined, but cut in solid rock, able to resist high pressures, and the steel pipe siphons so called, used where extra pressure is to be withstood and solid rock is not at hand.

It is not the reservoirs, however, notable as they are, that the engineers regard as the most striking feature of their work. It is to the pressure tunnels they feel able to point with most pride. There are five of these, each running through solid rock and several miles in length, the longest being 18.2 miles.

The tunnel under the Hudson was the most spectacular achievement. Flowing along quietly on the three day journey from the Ashokan reservoir to consumers in the five boroughs, the imprisoned water will drop suddenly some 400 feet almost perpendicularly to pass under Moodna creek. After a very slight grade for nearly five miles it will plunge again, this time almost 1,000 feet, into the tunnel 1,100 feet beneath the surface of the Hudson.

—The merchant who, in his advertising, emphasizes ten value-giving facts to his competitor's one, uses the best sort of "strategy" in advancing his business.

Special for Saturday, Boys' 59c Pants, sizes from 6 to 16; good dark colors; special 42c. Bargain Basement.

ROSENBAUM'S BAZAAR

Special for Saturday, reg. 50c Corsets, spring model; spec. ..39c
$1 Corsets, special ..69c

OUR SPECIAL ADVERTISED BARGAINS FOR SATURDAY

You'll Find Many More by Coming Here First

Clearance Sale Prices on all Winter Goods in our Cloak Department.

COATS AND SUITS.

A collection of about 60 coats and suits including a few fancy all wool broadcloths and boucles, zibelines and suits in all wool serge, blue or black; marked down special; sale price 5.98

(Values up to $15).

Clean Sweep on all Children's Coats.

$5.00 COATS FOR 98c

We have about 25 good heavy school coats from last year; sold regularly to $5.98; sizes from 6 to 14.

SPECIAL AT $1.98 AND 2.98

All Children's Coats, sold regular up to $6; a collection of miscellaneous smart styles, all from this season, with the belt effect. This is really less than half of their regular price.

LEATHER BAG SPECIALS.

New styles, leather lined; 98c value, special for..... 59c

GLOVE SPECIALS.

$2.00 Meyer's guaranteed sewed gloves; 2 buckles, sizes from 5½ to 8; Saturday, special 1.25

DRESS GOODS SPECIALS.

Newest spring shades in fine silk mull and plaids; colors are wistaria, taupe, gray, green, cadet, rose, pink, navy and black; values up to 50c; special for 25c

$1.25 Middy Balkan Blouses; special 98c

$1.50 House Dresses, about 20 new styles; for Saturday special 98c

50c Silk Hose for Ladies....39c
25c Burson Hose 19c
Buster Brown Hose, guaranteed for four months; for ladies, men or children; 4 pairs in a box for 1.00

WAIST SPECIALS.

$4.00 Crepe de Chine Waists, trimmed with French net; newest effects 2.98
$1.25 and 98c Waists, spec. ..79c
50c Dressing Sacques, spec. ..39c

We sell MAY MANTON Patterns.

Rosenbaum Bros., 115-117 West Front St., opp. Somerset

PLAINFIELD'S FAST GROWING STORE

SIXTY ATTENDED VARIETY SHOWER FOR MISS LONG

A variety shower was tendered to Miss Josephine Long at the home of Mrs. A. B. Stites, last night, about sixty of her friends being present from this city and nearby towns. During the evening music was furnished and dancing proved to be the leading form of amusement.

Miss Long, who will be married to Leslie Stites in the near future, was the recipient of many handsome and useful presents. Following the evening of entertainment refreshments were served by the hostess.

RAYMOND VAIL WILL NOT RETURN TO PROTECTORY

Frederick Mooney, the Hartford, Conn., youth who, with fourteen-year-old Raymond Vail, of Dver street, the borough, and three others made their escape from the Catholic Protectory for Boys at Arlington, a few days ago, is once more safely locked within the institution. He was taken back to the school last night by a priest who came to North Plainfield for that purpose.

Raymond Vail is still with his father and will, it is said, be placed in some farmer's care with the sanction of City Judge W. G. DeMeza, who sent him to the Protectory because of malicious mischief about two months ago. Chief Marsh George Weiss was congratulated by the priest for his celerity in finding and arresting both youths.

LARGE CHURCH ACCESSION.

Several adults will be baptized Sunday morning by the Rev. Frederick J. Hubach, pastor of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, the baptismal services taking place at 10:45 o'clock. Ten members of the probation class, and others, will be received as church members, on and from probation, and by letter. On Sunday evening the pastor will preach on the subject, "Holden With Cords." There will be a meeting of the cantata chorus of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church this evening, when the program of Easter music will be rehearsed.

CLASS ELECTS OFFICERS.

The annual meeting of Class 21, of Trinity Reformed church, of which Henry P. Scader is the teacher, held its annual meeting, last night, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Trembath, on Chatham street, when these officers were elected for the coming year: President, Mrs. William J. Trembath, vice president, Mrs. Arthur Stevens, secretary, Mrs. Henry T. Stryker, treasurer, Mrs. Henry P. Scader. After the business there was a social hour with games and refreshments were served.

VISITORS' QUARTERLY MEETING.

The quarterly meeting of visitors of the home department of Trinity Reformed church was held yesterday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. Elmer E. Wheeler, at 17 Mountain avenue. There were about twenty members present. Refreshments were served and a very pleasant afternoon was enjoyed.

WILL SPEAK ON COREA.

The Women's Foreign Missionary Society will meet on Monday afternoon at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. The members will listen to a lecture by Rev. George S. McCune, of St. Louis, on the subject, "The Conspiracy Case in Corea."

TROLLEY CAR AND AUTO COME TOGETHER AT RIGHT ANGLES

One of the large auto trucks, owned by the New Jersey Telephone Company, used in repair work, backed out of the alleyway at the side of the company's building on East Fourth street shortly after 7 o'clock this morning, and struck a Fourth street trolley car which happened to be passing at the time. Although those in the trolley car at the time of the collision were considerably shaken up no one was injured and the only damage that was done was the breaking of a window in the side of the trolley.

The motorman of the car, Charles Delahunt, did not see the automobile until it was too late to stop the trolley and the two came together at right angles. The chauffeur of the automobile was driving the car backwards and failed to see the trolley approaching.

BOARD STOPPED ONE DAIRY, GAVE 32 NOTICES IN MONTH

Trenton, Feb. 6.—The production and sale of milk was stopped in only one dairy in this State last month, according to the report issued yesterday by the Bureau of Creamery and Dairy Inspection of the State Board of Health. This dairy supplied milk to Atlantic City.

Thirty-two dairymen were notified to improve their methods of handling milk within a specified time. Three persons were summoned before the Board to show cause why they should not be prohibited from selling milk or manufacturing ice cream. This was because of their failure to meet the Board's requirements. The dairies are near New Brunswick and [illegible] and the ice cream factory is in Plainfield.

One inspector spent six days in inspecting over fifty-nine dairies in Broad Chenango county, N. Y., which supply part of the milk distributed in South Orange. The sanitary condition of these dairies is [illegible] favorable.

In the laboratory of the [illegible] samples of food and drugs were examined. There were 222 [illegible] below standard and 348 [illegible] teen suits were begun. The [illegible] spent fifteen days in court.

The division of sewerage [illegible] ter analyzed 197 samples in the water laboratory. Stream pollutions [illegible] Lanamed [illegible] found about [illegible] Notices to remove [illegible] on a number of [illegible] 25 cases forced to the attorney [illegible]

"THE COUNTIES FORUM."

The [illegible] to be staged at the Washington Public School on Tuesday, February 10, will be under the auspices of the Public Relations Committee of Plainfield.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The temperature recorded from the State Trust Company today was as follows: 9 a. m., 28 degrees; 11 a. m., 28 degrees; 1 p. m., 31 degrees.

The Westminster Guild of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church will meet on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock for the purpose of receiving the thank offerings from its members.

—Competition between the stores in value-giving grows keener all the time—and makes the store ads of increasing purse-interest to you all the time.

WOOLSTON AND LANE WIN THEIR MATCHES

Two More Matches Decided in Elks' Pool Tournament Last Night.

Playing in the Elks' Club pool tournament last night, Lane chalked up 100 balls while William Firstbrook was pocketing his sixty-two, and Banks, playing on even terms with Woolston, lost by a score of 90 to 86. The result of the match between Duckworth and Ardern could not be learned this morning.

The results:

	H'cap	Net
Lane	100	100
W. Firstbrook	85	62
Banks	90	86
Woolston	90	90

Scheduled for Tonight.

French (90), vs. Prudhon (85); Powers (90), vs. Pope (85).

ELKS' CLUB POOL TOURNEY.

Individual Standing.

	H'cap	W.	L.	P. C.
Lane	100	1	0	1.000
Hoist	100	1	0	1.000
Townley	100	1	0	1.000
Woolston	90	1	0	1.000
Heath	70	1	0	1.000
Mundy	100	1	0	1.000
Simmons	90	1	0	1.000
Lohrman	85	1	0	1.000
DeMeza	60	1	0	1.000
Donckian	60	1	0	1.000
Hardingham	100	0	1	.000
Hand	100	0	1	.000
W. Firstbrook	100	0	1	.000
Banks	90	0	1	.000
Van Emburgh	90	0	1	.000
Mansfield	90	0	1	.000
W. Firstbrook	85	0	1	.000
[illegible]	70	0	1	.000
Crist	60	0	1	.000
Osmun	60	0	1	.000

THE PLAINFIELD THEATRE

The 1914 edition of the merry musical comedy "Busy Izzy," with George Sidney, and an exceptionally large cast headed by the charming comedienne, Miss Carrie Webber, comes to the Plainfield Theatre, Saturday afternoon and evening, February 14. "Busy Izzy" has undoubtedly taken a firm hold upon the affections of amusement seekers, for the reason of its many side claims of superiority of construction. With a well developed plot to guide the action of its manifold merriment, it is reputed to possess such novelty of scenes and incidents, as would naturally enhance the value of its character as an entertainment which is novel in the extreme. Evidently those who have the financial interests of "Busy Izzy" at heart have not overlooked the necessity for providing such a pretty girl contingent of players and singers, as may be relied upon for all manner of entertainment ideas, and especially that class of girls who add to their personal charm by being able to gown themselves with startling distinction.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

—To go straight to the right store, at the right time, in making a particular purchase, is not a matter of luck, or of general knowledge of the stores—but of keeping in touch with store advertising all the time.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $2.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application. Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9.00 a. m.

Plainfield, N. J., February 6, 1914.

CHURCH ADVERTISING.

That advertising pays, keeping everlastingly at it is productive, and that publicity is the greatest lever with which to reach the people, will no doubt be amply evidenced to clergymen of Plainfield when they begin their plan of advertising for the "Go to Church" movement here. Special effort on the part of our local clergy, backed by a substantial advertising campaign will accomplish the result aimed at by the Ministers' Association for the "Go to Church" Sundays.

It has often been suggested by laymen, who are in close touch with the best methods of publicity, that in view of the falling off in church attendance throughout the land, it might be well for the churches generally to introduce modern business methods in their management and advertise their services that all who run might read. Such exploitation would be of slight expense to the church making use of it and the plan would do no harm so far as one can see and might be prolific of considerable good besides tending to increase the number of worshippers.

Some of the local clergymen have already seen the value of advertising their Sunday services and are reaping results in increased congregations and incidentally in collections to be used for furthering the various charities of the church.

Once again the general public is notified that it can get garden seeds at the expense of the government. Of all the petty forms of wasting the public money this method is the worst, and scores of the Senators and Representatives who send out a lot of stuff annually do so because they have to get rid of a certain amount, and not because they care anything about it. Seven or eight years ago a determined fight was made to have the seed appropriation dispensed with, but those who were interested financially succeeded in having the practice kept up. There is no part of the government in which money is more flagrantly wasted than in this case. The people might just as well have packages of breakfast food or some other useful article given to them, as to be made the recipients of these petty articles, and we don't know but that they would get more real value in the breakfast food than they do in the seeds, many of which are worthless.

Plainfield women advocates of equal suffrage express themselves as much pleased with the action of the Assembly in passing the resolution to amend the constitution giving the women of New Jersey the ballot.

Assemblymen Leonard and Griffin, of Union county, maintained their attitude of last year and voted against the proposition, but the new member, Assemblyman Dobbins, cast his ballot in its favor. There is little doubt but that the amendment will be passed by the Senate, before which it is now pending. The suffragists are jubilant over the prospect of having the question submitted to the vote of the people. The amendment will have to be advertised for three months and then passed by the Legislature of 1915, after which it will be submitted for popular vote.

Flagrant disregard of the rules of the road and fast and reckless driving on the part of some automobilists hereabouts, should be stopped. It is not always the paid chauffeurs but oftentimes the owners who operate the vehicles who are guilty of such practices. The rank and file of automobilists generally deplore the tendency on the part of some to infringe upon the rights of the public and approve of the action of the police department in arresting and prosecuting the "speed maniacs." A few days in jail for some of these fellows would do no harm and prove a salutary lesson, which would undoubtedly serve as a warning to others who are accustomed to violate the speed laws.

That Plainfield, with its population of nearly 30,000, is deserving of and needs a City Hall, as Councilman Richard A. Claybrook has advocated, admits of no dispute. Few cities much smaller than Plainfield are without a City Hall. The idea is a good one. There is no doubt of that. But, would it not be wiser to await the time when the borough and this city are one municipality. Whether Plainfield's City Hall be built now, or in the future, it must be large enough to meet all of the demands which a thriving city like Plainfield may make for many years to come. In a matter of this kind it behooves the City Fathers to make haste slowly.

John P. Dullard, one of the best known newspapermen at the State Capital, has been named to succeed Henry C. Buchanan as State Librarian. It is a case of turning one good man out to put another of equal calibre in his place. Mr. Buchanan has proven a faithful public servant, and the only reason given for his being displaced is that he has always been a Republican. The State is to be congratulated upon securing Mr. Dullard for so responsible a position, and Mr. Buchanan is to be congratulated upon the excellent manner in which he has conducted the office for fifteen years or more.

Rev. Bernard M. Bogan's description of the way some of the young people dance now-a-days as "the manners of cultured animalism," is literally true. Time was, and not so many years ago, when it was quite possible to attend a dance at which eminent respectability pervaded the atmosphere. Even the new dances can be gone through with in a proper manner and still afford pleasure for those participating. But the actions of some of the young people who should know better often warrant the calling of the police.

February 28 "Dollar Day." The time to be impressed upon the memory of every thrifty Plainfielder.

WOULD LIKE TO SEE OFFENDERS BEHIND BARS

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Washington, Feb. 6—When the Senate took up the Norris resolution for the investigation of financial operations of the New Haven Railroad, Senator Norris read to the Senate the charges made in recent publications of the New York World as to the disposition of some of the investments. Senator Kenyon asked if these charges had been denied, and Senator Norris replied in the negative. Senator Norris expressed belief in the honesty ond good intentions of the present management of the New Haven, but saw no reasons why punishment should not be dealt to offenders in the past. Senator Lodge said that if anything can be done to reimburse the small stockholders who have suffered dreadfully it should be done. Senator Borah said that no legislation would be so effective as the moral effect of the sight of five or six men in stripes behind the bars, men in high place who had abused their positions. Senator Norris said he was tired of hearing the cry every time an effort was made to investigate that immunity from prosecution might be afforded by investigation.

POULTRY TRUST CONVICTED.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New York, Feb. 6.—The Apellate Division of the Supreme Court today upheld the conviction of thirteen members of the so-called poultry trust for violating the laws of New York by forming a combination to restrain trade. The thirteen defendants must serve three months on Blackwell's Island and pay a fine of $500 each. The defendants gave notice they would carry their case to the Court of Appeals.

If the man who says, "I can't afford to advertise" will look over the list of big concerns that were LITTLE concerns before they started to advertise, he will be more likely to say:

"I can't afford NOT to advertise.

The Press is Plainfield's best advertising medium because its circulation is among the people who make and spend the most money.

Plainfield Daily Press,
"The Home Newspaper"

FUNERAL OF MRS. T. E. CURRIN, JR., IS HELD

The funeral of Mrs. Thomas E. Currin, jr., was held at her late home on Mountain, yesterday afternoon, there being a large gathering of relatives and friends. The service was conducted by Rev. Dr. C. E. Herringp, pastor of the First Presbyterian church. Two solos were sung by Miss Grace Carroll of the Crescent Avenue church. There were many floral tributes. The pall-bearers were John Abbott, Samuel Clouston, John S. Johnston, John G. Bicknell, Samuel S. Swackhamer and Frank O. Dunning. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

THE FORUM.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

My attention has been drawn to a communication in last evening's "Daily Press" in which the writer takes exception to my article in the editor's column of last Saturday's issue, and says my "attack" was "far from manly." Well, it was "in the open," and much of it in good manly company. Your correspondent evinces admirable self-control however, for one who takes his Menace with his meals. A student, in such a library must look upon a Catholic priest as most intrusive company and might be expected to follow the diction of his teacher and say harder things.

In his communication he enjoys the privilege, which I should deny to no man, namely, of courteous retaliation against what he presumes to be offensive. It is much to be regretted, however, as I look upon it from my limited point of view that his manliness and his courage are not expended in a nobler cause than the defense of such a conspiracy.

The enclosed clipping from Friday evening's "Telegraph," Philadelphia, January 30 may help even him to see the deception in his friend, the Menace. In it will be found the blatant effrontery of a self-confessed liar asking the confidence of its patrons. When two dupes of the Menace, C. H. Stage, 4143 Lancaster avenue, and Charles Megonigel, 43d and Brown streets, Philadelphia, indicted for libel and conspiracy to libel the Knights of Columbus, appealed through their counsel to the Menace to substantiate the truth of the libelous statement—the now famous as infamous Knight of Columbus alleged "oath"—the answer admits that "the Menace Publishing Company was not in possession, and never had been of the Knight of Columbus ritual," and "advises the defendants it would be folly for them to base their defence on the authenticity of the information which they had received from it." "A statement in a recent issue of the Menace which led you to believe we had it (the ritual containing the blood-curdling alleged K. of C. oath) in our possession while somewhat of a bluff on our part was based on the fact that we know where it can be had." After such an admission of lying deception, the Menace asks its other dupes to believe that the alleged defamatory "oath" of the A. O. H., presented on the same authority (?) is authentic. The prisoners admitted their guilt and begged for lenience.

If this evening's correspondent is sincere in his desire to have proof that the Menace is undeserving of his confidence, the submitted article should be informing.

B. M. BOGAN.

The article from "the Evening Telegraph" is here subjoined for the convenience of interested readers.

Admitting that the circulars which they printed and distributed last spring, purporting to be an oath taken by the Knights of Columbus, was a base calumny and absolutely without foundation, C. H. Stage, of 4143 Lancaster avenue, and Charles Megonigel, of Forty-third and Brown street, entered pleas to indictments charging libel and conspiracy to libel the organization, in Quarter Sessions Court, today.

Megonigel, who printed the circulars, entered a plea of guilty on the indictments, while Stage, who distributed them, did not contest the charges, entering a technical plea of nolle contendre. James A. Flaherty, Supreme Knight of the Knights of Columbus, and Attorney Joseph P. Gaffney, counsel for the order, told Judge Wilson that the Knights of Columbus felt that they had been vindicated by the pleas entered by the defendants, and expressed themselves as satisfied if the Court would discharge the defendants under a suspension of sentence.

In granting the requests for leniency, Judge Wilson said:

"It is very proper action on the part of your society to relieve any doubt that may exist in the minds of other persons concerning this oath. I realize that your church is doing a very important work in the community, and while I am not a member of your faith, I have no prejudice, either at heart or intention, and fully believe what Mr. Flaherty has said."

In presenting to the Court the views of his order, Mr. Faherty said:

"This alleged oath is a tissue of falsehoods from the first word to the last—absolutely false. This prosecution was brought simply to vindicate the Knights of Columbus, because of the wide circulation given to this vile and scurrilous circular. Its purpose was to breed strife and arouse religious bigotry. The alleged oath is absolutely baseless and of such a flagrant character that it is indeed surprising that anyone would give it the slightest credence."

"It was so persistently circulated for ulterior purposes that the Knights of Columbus were compelled to take some steps to refute it, and we thought criminal prosecution would be the best way."

Peter F. MacLaren, counsel for the defence, in asking the Court to suspend sentence, declared Megonigel received the "oath" from an anti-Catholic publication known as the Menace, of Aurora, Mo. The defendants, said the attorney, believed the circular they printed and distributed was based on truth. They, however, subsequently learned that they had been "duped" and at once hastened to Mr. Flaherty and apologized.

To prove to the Court's satisfaction that the two defendants had been duped, Mr. MacLaren said he had written to the Aurora publication, and had received a reply, signed by the "Menace Publishing Company." The answer admits that the Aurora publication was not in possession of the Knights of Columbus ritual and advises the defendants it would be folly for them to base their defence on the authenticity of the information which they received from it. The reply from the publishing company follows:

"Replying to your letter of February 27, we wish to state we are not in possession of the ritual and secret work of the Knights of Columbus, but we believe we are in a fair way to get it, and a statement in a recent issue of the Menace which led you to believe we had it in our possession, while somewhat of a bluff on our part, was based on the fact that we know where it can be had. You will note that we printed in our No. 99 the ritual and secret work of the Hibernians, and we are positive it is authentic.

"The alleged oath which your clients in Philadelphia were arrested for distributing was circulated in practically every State during the late campaign, and the demand upon us for this document was somehting great, and we had received copies of them from so many sources we simply printed and handled them as we would any other job of printing, to supply the demand, and while we have no apologies to make for doing so, we do not have any evidence that the oath is one which is taken by members of the Knights of Columbus.

"We feel sure that it would be folly for you to undertake to base your defense on the authenticity of this document."

The communication concludes by stating that some of the officials of the order are claiming that it is not cathbound, but to "bluff away their critics, and if they are so bent on vindicating themselves, why not ask that they present in court the obligations which they take."

Mr. Flaherty, speaking as the head of the Knights of Columbus, told the court, that while the order was quasi-secret, it was in no wise oathbound.

After hearing from both sides, Assistant District Attorney Taulane stated all parties seemed to be satisfied wih a suspension of sentence and Judge Wilson accordingly discharged Stage and Megonigel.

—Use Press Want Ads.

Feb'y Furniture Sale

You will possibly need Furniture in the Spring. But if you wait till then to buy it you'll pay more for it, so why not take advantage of the big savings offered now? There's positively no excuse for waiting. If you don't want the goods delivered till after housecleaning time we'll store them free of charge and deliver when you are ready. Then again

CLUB PLAN PAYMENTS MAY BE ARRANGED

You can take advantage of these February selling prices; pay a little down and so much weekly or monthly, as best suits your convenience.

THE FEBRUARY SALE OF BED OUTFITS

WHITE ENAMEL BEDS, Complete with Spring and Mattress, at 6.98 8.50 10.98 14.50 16.98 23.50

SOLID BRASS BEDS, Complete with Spring and Mattress, at 16.98 24.50 37.50 49.50

BLOCH PULLMAN CARRIAGES

SOLD EXCLUSIVELY IN THIS CITY BY US.

1914 MODELS NOW ON SALE AT SPECIAL PRICES DURING FEBRUARY SALE.

Regular Price—	16.98	19.50	21.50	23.50	25.00	29.50
Sale Price	14.95	17.95	18.95	19.95	21.95	24.95

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Woodhull & Martin Co.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

WE GIVE FIVE PER CENT. PROFIT SHARING COUPONS.

NEWARKER MAY BE NAMED AS CRANFORD SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Cranford, Feb. 6.—J. A. Corlies, a teacher in the local High School and a resident of Newark, will probably be appointed as principal of the school at a meeting of the Board of Education, Saturday night. He is a candidate for the job. The vacancy occurred with the selection of Arthur L. Johnson as county superintendent of schools.

With the retirement of Mr. Johnson the local Board named Miss Sarah Elwood as a supervising principal. She was the principal while Mr. Johnson held the position of supervising principal. Mr. Corlies has been a teacher in the school for some time and is regarded as the logical man for the principalship.

JERSEY DEATHS FOR MONTH SHOW AN INCREASE OF 170

Trenton, Feb. 6.—An increase of 170 deaths in New Jersey over the corresponding period last year is shown by the State Board of Health in its report for the month ending January 10. The total was 3,289. Pneumonia caused the death of 311 persons, as compared with an average of 249 for the previous twelve months.

By age periods there were 548 deaths among infants les than one year old; 231 among children more than one year and less than five, and 1,069 among persons sixty years old or more.

Communicable diseases reported to the board for December reached a total of 2,141 cases. Reports of tuberculosis showed a large increase, but this is mainly ascribed to a better adherence to the law requiring that this disease be reported. The cases reported in December numbered 622, against 480 in the same month the year before.

Typhoid fever decreased. There were 73 cases, against 136 the previous December. Diphtheria increased, but scarlet fever was much less prevalent.

READS OBITUARY, BUT CAN STILL TURN A HANDSPRING

Hackettstown, Feb. 6. "Morris Bird of Bird's Lock, Waterloo, died Wednesday. Mr. Bird has had charge of this lock for fifty years."

This was an obituary notice that Mr. Bird had the privilege of reading yesterday in print.

Mr. Bird is much alive and has been in Hackettstown each day this week, having the contract to transport pupils to the Hackettstown Public School. He says he is willing to demonstrate to the writer of his "obituary" that he is alive and, though fifty years a lock tender on the Morris Canal, can "skin a cat" or turn a handspring.

PRAISE DR. GROSZMANN'S WORK.

The New York State Federation of Women's Clubs have, in a recent resolution complimented and recommended to the club women of that State the educational work of the National Association for the Study and Education of Exceptional Children. Dr. M. P. E. Groszmann, of this city, is at the head of this work. New York club women are urged by the Federation to study the proceedings and publications of the organization. The resolution is an endorsement of Dr. Groszmann's work.

William Briggs, of Albert street, has taken a position with the Edison Company, of New York, his work being in the motion picture studio of the concern.

— Advertise in The Daily Press.

YESTERDAY'S LOCAL WEATHER.

8 a. m. temperature	31
8 p. m. temperature	30
Maximum temperature	39
Minimum temperature	29
Mean temperature	34
Normal temperature	22
Precipitation for the day	Trace

PLAINFIELD EXCHANGE FOR WOMAN'S WORK.
207 Park Avenue.

Tea and coffee served daily from 10.45 until 2 o'clock. Table delicacies. A large variety of dainty work bags. Orders taken for braided or woven rag rugs.

MENNEN'S TALCUM 15c

THAT STUBBORN COUGH

possibly hasn't yielded to the ordinary cough syrup. Get a bottle of NARCO Wine of Cod Liver Oil with Malt, Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites; pleasant to take, agrees with all stomachs and cures chronic coughs and bronchitis, etc. An excellent tonic.

Large Bottles 75c Only at

SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists
PARK AVE., COR. SECOND ST.

Headquarters for

GIBSON'S RYE

E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

THE THREE COMPONENT PARTS

of our banking service are accuracy, courtesy and promptness.

We extend to you every banking privilege consistent with sound, conservative business.

Your account subject to check (large or small) is cordially invited.

3% INTEREST ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS OF $500.00 AND ABOVE

4% INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS OF $10.00 AND ABOVE

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Capital $150,000.00 Surplus and Profits $300,000.00 (all earned)

Make the Slack Hours Count —Telephone

MANY merchants use the slack hours of the business day to good advantage by calling their customers by TELEPHONE and offering for sale articles that are likely to be in demand. Telephone selling provides an efficient means for holding old customers and for reaching out after new.

And the cost of selling by telephone is far less than the cost of personal solicitation.

Have YOU a telephone in your place of business to help you in selling?

Our nearest Commercial Office will gladly give you full information if you will just telephone, write or call.

NEW YORK TELEPHONE CO.

17—14

A. B. WILSON, Local Commercial Manager.

109 East Fourth Street, Plainfield, N. J.

THE APPLEGATE QUALITY COUNTS

One of the chief topics of conversation today is the high cost of living. Hundreds have already found that a sure way of reducing it is by trading at this market. They have found that because I sell for cash and do not deliver goods and conduct my business on an economical basis I am able to quote prices that no other market can meet without giving inferior goods.

They have found also that they are better pleased when they come to the market and select their own goods. If you are seeking to cut down the cost without getting inferior goods you must consider this market.

Remember nothing but the highest quality in this market at all times.

Specials for Saturday, Feb. 7

Best Creamery Butter, Gud's Royal Print, lb	33c
Strictly Fresh Eggs, dozen	39c
Hindquarters Genuine Lamb, lb	18c
Legs Genuine Lamb, lb
Hindquarters Mutton, Legs Mutton, lb	14½c
Loins Mutton,
Loins Pork, lb	17c
Roast Pork, lb
Fresh Hams, lb	18c
Prime Rib Roast, lb	22c
Sirloin Steak, best cut, lb	25c
Blade Roast, lb	17c
Oven Roast, lb	17c
California Hams, lb	12½c
Sausage, own make, lb	20c
Fresh Killed Stewing Chickens, lb	18c
Fresh Killed Fowl, lb	23c
Fresh Killed Roasting Chickens, lb	26c

Clifford L. Applegate

164 E. Front St. Tel. 1110. Opp. Woodhull & Martins

PLAN FOR MINSTREL.

The Nonpariel Social Club held a rehearsal of its proposed minstrel show in the club rooms on St. Mary's avenue, last night, and the black face comedians in the coming event are rounding into shape in great style. William Groves is coaching the show and Robert Stevens is the manager. The show will be presented the night of Lincoln's Birthday and one of the features will be a sketch given by Ford and Taylor, a pair of laugh provokers.

PICTURE ENTERTAINMENT.

Under the auspices of the Woman's Exchange, and the courtesy of George L. Babcock, a fine motion picture entertainment will be given Thursday afternoon and evening, February 12, at the Y. M. C. A. There will be two exhibitions in the afternoon at 2 and 3:45 o'clock and one in the evening at 8:15 o'clock. Mr. Babcock will provide the films for the entertainment. The proceeds will be for the benefit of the Exchange.

FUNERAL OF PATRICK BRAY.

The funeral services of Patrick Bray were held this morning at 8 o'clock at the house of his daughter, Mrs. John Neylon, at 203 Stebbins place and at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's R. C. church, where a requiem mass was celebrated by Rev. Bernard M. Bogan. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery. The pall-bearers were Lawrence Bray, John Mooney, Frank Connors and George Howe.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SOMERVILLE will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon after 4:30 by Jacob Gernert, the Main street newsdealer and stationer.

CASE POSTPONED.

John Smith, colored, of 212 Plainfield avenue, was arraigned before Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court this morning, on complaint of Mrs. Stephen Van Hoesen, the local agent of the S. P. C. A., who charged him with cruelty to animals. Smith, who is an ashman, is alleged to have left a horse to die of starvation in the dumps on Watchung avenue one day last week. The case was postponed until Tuesday morning.

ASSESSMENT WORK PROGRESS.

John G. McLaughlin, DeWitt C. Ivins, Armstrong Mulford and Frank J. Hubbard, commissioners appointed to equalize the tax assessments in Plainfield, have about completed land values in the city and have partially completed assessments on properties in some of the wards. They hope to finish their task in time for this year's regular levy by the Board of Assessors.

FUNERAL OF D. F. GODOWN.

The funeral of the late Duillis F. Godown, aged 61 years, who died suddenly of heart disease, yesterday, while engaged in hunting for terrapin at Watchung, will be held tomorrow evening at 7 o'clock, at the family residence, 26 Chatham street, the borough. Burial will be in Sandy Ridge cemetery, Hunterdon county, Sunday.

Rev. George B. Shaw, formerly pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, but now of North Loup, Neb., who spent several weeks in this city assisting at revival services, has returned home.

FARMING AND HIGH SCHOOLS.

Innovation in Public School Work Started In Douglas County, Wash.

Douglas county, Wash., is combining scientific farming with the regular course in its high school. A. L. Rogers of Waterville, in that state, who is responsible for this innovation in public school work, is a firm believer in utilizing the schoolhouse and public utilities to the fullest extent all the time. He combats the custom only to allow use of schoolhouses and grounds for the specific purposes for which they were originally intended, which, he argues, does not give the greatest possible benefit of such investment.

Mr. Rogers contends that the schools are turning out young men with education that is not practical to fit them for the life work they must take up. So Douglas county has taken advantage of a recently enacted state law which permits counties of Washington to accept the United States government's appropriation of $900 per month toward hiring of farm directors for schools. Douglas county will stand the rest of the necessary expense of a farm director's salary.

An eighty acre tract adjoining the new high school has been leased for ninety-nine years, and last summer the boys got their primer lesson in agriculture. Considerable grain was raised and some vegetables and fruit. The schoolboys of Douglas county will be given every incentive to become proficient in farming. Each boy receives an acre of land to cultivate, and the most proficient boys of the entire class have full supervision over ten acre tracts. In this way competition is keen, and cash prizes add to their interest in the work. Douglas already has a notable county fair, but with these high school boys contributing to the exhibits this fair is destined to attract national attention. The schoolboys are made to keep books and charge all debits and credits so they know what results they are achieving. One of the results is shown in the illustration—monster potatoes raised by C. V. Ogee, one of the high school pupils and a prize winner.

C. V. OGEE, WINNER IN POTATO CONTEST.

MR. AND MRS. SAYRE AT HOME.

After a Trip Abroad They Begin Their Real Housekeeping.

The national bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, have returned from their honeymoon trip abroad and from much feting. They stopped for a few days at the White House and then went to Williamstown, Mass., to the house which had been made ready for their coming and which is to be their permanent home. Mr Sayre has taken up his new duties as assistant to President Harry Garfield of Williams college.

Photos by American Press Association.

HOME OF THE NEWLYWEDS, MR. AND MRS. FRANCIS B. SAYRE.

The only affair at which social Washington had opportunity to catch a glimpse of the White House bride and bridegroom was at the president's reception to the judiciary. There Mr. and Mrs. Sayre were surrounded by members of the diplomatic corps and public officials and their wives who wished to extend felicitations and inquire about the bridal tour.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

THE DAILY PRESS IN LINCOLN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by E. Purvis, newsdealer.

TRAVELING SALESMAN GOT AWAY WITH $56 AND WATCH

"Love at first sight" cost Hattie Smith, colored, of 977 Madison avenue, $56 in real money and a gold watch valued at $25, according to a statement she made to the local police this morning, implicating one Albert Smith in what appears to be a cleverly executed swindling game. Smith came here several months ago and represented himself to Miss Smith as a traveling saleman in the employ of a Baltimore dry goods firm and the two Smiths became close friends, in fact so close that Miss Smith was led to believe that he would eventually marry her, according to her statement to the police.

On December 29 the traveling salesman secured a loan from the local woman and in return gave her a "promisory note" for the sum of $56 and took her gold watch to New York with him saying that he would have it fixed. Although the note, which is the work of a clever penman, states that the sum loaned will be repaid within ninety days from December 29, Miss Smith became suspicious of the salesman when he neglected to write her during his absence and his failure to return the watch. She now believes that he "fixed" both her and the watch and has requested the police to help her in her search for the money, watch and man.

PERSONAL.

Miss Brodnax, who was summoned home from Delaware, where she is a school teacher, on account of the death of her mother, has returned to her position. She is a graduate of the Plainfield High School and Oberlin College.

Mrs. J. R. Schoonmaker, of Park avenue, has about recovered from an operation for appendicitis performed several weeks ago.

Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor of Hope chapel, has returned from a visit in Albany and will occupy his pulpit on Sunday.

Rev. Arthur E. Wilson, who recently resigned as pastor of the Unitarian church, with Mrs. Wilson will soon return to the vicinity of Boston, where they will live for the present.

Samuel Huntington, of Franklin place, has about recovered from a recent operation performed in a New York hospital.

Miss Anna E. Utzinger, of 112 Jackson avenue, the borough, has returned home after a four weeks' visit with relatives at Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Mrs. William N. Tier entertained a company of friends at her home on East Front street, yesterday afternoon.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

VAN ARSDALE SHOE SALE.

Morris C. VanArsdale, the East Front street shoe merchant, today announces the opening of his anual shoe sale, which affords the people an exceptional opportunity to secure great bargains. The policy of this sale will be the same as in former years. There will be real bargains. All goods will be sold for cash only. There will be no charge accounts, exchange nor refund on sale goods. Purchasers are urged to see that they get a comfortable fit when buying shoes. Mr. VanArsdale has made a big reduction on the regular lines, discontinued lines and broken lots, and many special bargains will be found in the large stock. The goods sold by this house are the best and the public, through generous treatment in the past, will doubtless make it possible for Mr. VanArsdale to convert his stock into ready cash, which is the real purpose of the sale. See his advertisement on the last page of today's Daily Press.

FUNERAL OF MAX SMELSON.

The funeral of Max Smelson, who died suddenly on Wednesday, at Liberty, N. Y., where he had gone on account of illness, was held this afternoon in Brooklyn. The funeral arrangements were in charge of members of the Workmen's Circle, to which organization the deceased belonged. The burial was in a Brooklyn cemetery. The restaurant at 15 and 17 Somerset street, which the late Mr. Smelson conducted for the last eight years is to be run hereafter by Samuel Smelson, his son, who has taken into partnership S. B. Miller, of this city.

DUNBAR CLUB PROGRAM.

Members of the Dunbar Social and Educational Club will be treated to a program of dancing and music in the Washington School auditorium tonight. The numbers will include solos by Henry VanBlake and N. Clay and music for the dancing will be furnished by an orchestra composed of drums and a piano. Novelty races will also be held.

MAKING SEWER ASSESSMENTS.

Armstrong Mulford, Daniel J. Courain and Frank J. Hubbard, commissioners of sewer assessments, have begun their work of making assessments of benefits and damage for the sewer extension in the west end of the city, according to the instructions of the Common Council.

ABOUT COMPLETED.

The work of placeing the ornamental spires on the tower of the First Baptist church, is about completed, this being the finishing touches of a job which has taken many months. The contractor expects to remove the scaffolding in a short time.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

PROPOSED LAW BASED ON THAW CASE

Assemblyman Dobbins Would Make it Possible to Plead "Guilty but Insane."

One of the most interesting bills presented to the present legislature is that introduced by Assemblyman Francis V. Dobbins, of Union county. It is probably an outgrowth, directly or indirectly, of the Thaw case, and is a supplement of the Crimes Act. The purpose is to provide that in criminal cases a jury may bring in a verdict of "guilty but insane." The act abolishes the defense of insanity in all criminal cases and provides that a prisoner charged with a crime may elect to plead "not guilty" or "guilty but insane."

In case of the latter plea, the prosecutor, with the consent of the judge, may accept the plea, in which case the prisoner indicted is committed to one of the State hospitals without further proceedings.

If the prosecutor is of the opinion that the defendant is merely shamming insanity, he may go to trial before a jury on the question of insanity. If the jury is convinced beyond doubt that the prisoner is sane, they bring in a simple verdict of "guilty," but if they are convinced that the prisoner is insane, they bring in a verdict of "guilty but insane," and in that case, the prisoner is committed to one of the State hospitals.

Mr. Dobbins in discussing the matter, said today: "In the discussion of criminal punishment, most people have heretofore been inclined to look at the matter through the wrong end of the telescope. The interests of the accused have been very jealously guarded. The interests of the public have been but slightly considered. This might be forgiven if the object of criminal punishment was vindictive and the object merely the punishment of the criminal. The object, however, of criminal punishment, looked at from a more philosophical point of view, is primarily the protection of the public. The public needs to be protected fully as much from an insane man who has committed a crime, as it is from a man who, in a fit of passion, has committed a similar crime. It is as dangerous to have lunatics at large as it is to have persons with criminal instinct, who are not lunatics.

"The notion that an insane man should not be held responsible for his crimes is an exploded one. The protection of the public demands that the bill that I have introduced to the legislature become a law. I find on all hands that it is receiving the approval of persons best fitted to judge of its merits. I understand the English Parliament has in late years passed a bill similar to mine."

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MRS. A. D. SHEPARD ARE HELD

The funeral services of Mrs. Joanna Mead, widow of the late Augustus D. Shepard, of "The Gables," Scotch Plains, who died suddenly of heart failure at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Osborn W. Bright, at Gibsonville, North Carolina, last Tuesday, were held this afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. John Doull Miller, at 222 East Ninth street at 2:15 o'clock, being conducted by Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church. Mrs. Shepard and her husband were members for many years of that church and contributed generously of both their time and money towards its support and maintenance. There were many beautiful floral tributes. There was a large attendance of relatives and friends at the services. Both Mr. and Mrs. Shepard had resided at Scotch Plains for more than forty years. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

MANY APPLICANTS FOR INDUSTRIAL HOME JOB

William Waldron is being urged as the successor to Henry G. Hummer as a steward of the Industrial Home by many residents of South Plainfield. They appeared and presented his name to the Piscataway Township Committee at their meeting held this week. No action has yet been taken in the matter. There are numerous applicants for the post. The South Plainfield men who endorsed Mr. Waldron's candidacy include Messrs. Hamilton, Kaine, Kelly, Brantingham, Manning, Horn and Gray.

A delegation from the Italian village near Samptown, protesting against the erection by Theodore Glaser of what is supposed to become a fertilizer and rendering plant, was assured by the Committee that should the anticipated nuisance develop, the Board of Health would take steps to abate it.

A petition from the residents of two streets in South Plainfield asking the township to accept these streets, heretofore kept up by private enterprise, was received, action deferred pending a personal inspection of the streets by the Committee.

The New York and New Jersey Telephone Company presented a petition asking an ordinance to grant them the use of all streets, lanes and roads in the township for a term of fifty years.

Curtice Bros. Blue Label Catsup large bottle 18c

S. Scheuer & Company

BEST GROCERIES AT LOWEST PRICES

Curtice Bros. Assorted Jams New Goods bottle 15c

Scheuer's xxxx Minnesota Patent Flour 24½ lb bag 72c, per barrel $5.64

Refined Granulated Sugar 25-lb bags $1.15	Campbell's Baked Beans 3 cans 25c	B. T. Babbitt's White Naphtha Soap 7 cakes 25c	4-lb Package Grandma's Washing Powder 12c
Choice Pink Salmon 1-lb can, 3 for 25c	Old Dutch Cleanser Chases Dirt 3 cans 25c	Scheuer's Premium Chocolate ½-lb cakes, 2 cakes 25c	Shad Roe ½-lb cans 2 cans 25c
Bufceco Rolled Oats 10c size, package 8c	Leggitt's Premier Corn Flakes large package 8c	Steero Boullion Cubes 30c kind 25c	Dr. Johnson's Loose Educator Wafers lb 15c
Robertson's Scotch Orange Marmalade 1-lb jars 15c	Fancy California Bartlett Pears, large cans; Extra special, 2 cans 25c	Albert's Washing Compound Regular 10c size a package 3c	Swift's Borax Soap 10 cakes 37c
Pride of the Farm Catsup or Onion Salad, Bottle 9c	Swift's or Armour's Sliced Bacon 1-lb jars 27c	Assorted Mixed Candy or Chocolate Creams 3 lbs 25c	Just Received Pure Peanut Butter, lb 15c
Large Cans of Fancy Cut Beets a can 9c	Fancy No. 3 Tomatoes large can a can 8c	Fancy Empress Brand Asparagus large spears, can 17c	Extra Fancy California Delmonte Asparagus Extra Thick Spears, can 23c

FRESH CEREALS.

Pinhead Oatmeal, 5c lb, 6 lbs	25c
Southern Hominy, 3 lbs	10c
Rolled Oats, 6 lbs	25c
New Farina, 6c lb, 4 lbs	22c
Best Head Rice, 3 lbs	25c
Imported Lentils, 7c lb, 4 lbs	25c
White or Yellow Meal, 3 lbs	10c

PEAS AND BEANS.

Whole Green Peas, lb	6c
Yellow Split Peas, lb	6c
Green Split Peas, lb	6c
Red Kidney Beans, lb	8c
Best Marrow Beans, lb	8c
Best Pea Beans, lb	6c
California Limas, lb	8c

SOUPS.

Richardson & Robbin's Tomato Soup, pint cans	10c
Franco-Amreican Ready-maid Soups, all kinds, can	8c
Campbell's Assorted Soups, 3 cans	25c
Richardson & Robbin's Chicken Broth, pint cans	10c

CALIFORNIA FRUITS, LARGE CANS—HUNT BROS.

Lemon Cling Peaches, can	23c
California Bartlett Pears, can	23c
Royal Anne Cherries, can	23c
Fancy Apricots, can	23c
Hawaiian Pineapple, can	23c
San Bernado Peaches, can	19c
Fancy Raspberries, can	15c

FANCY JERSEY BUCKWHEAT HONEY IN 1-lb COMBS—SPECIAL, BOX 16c

SPECIALS IN OUR MEAT DEPARTMENT

Loins of Jersey Pork for roasting, lb	16c
Small Fresh Hams for roasting, lb	17c
Small Fresh Cal. Hams, lb	15c
Legs of Genuine Spring Lamb, lb	18c
Forequarters of Spring Lamb, lb	12c
Short Cuts of Sirloin Steak, lb	18c
Sugar Cured Regular Hams, lb	17c
Sugar Cured Callie Hams, lb	12c
Fresh Made Sausage, lb	20c
Fancy Strips of Boneless Bacon, lb	18c
Fresh Killed Roasting Chickens, lb	23c
Good Cuts of Native Rib Roast, lb	16c, 18c and 20c

OLIVE OIL

Gallon can $2.65

Half Gallon can $1.40

Quart can 75c

20 oz. bottle 65c

DIRECT FROM FRANCE

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS

Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760

Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage

WAREHOUSE

North Avenue

OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE

125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.

OLD RELIABLE

STORAGE

All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry

Furniture Packed and Shipped

Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS

THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.

AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading

Auctioneers

W. A. SCHORB & CO.

Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.

20 Madison Av., Jackson Blg

Telephone 1707-W.

HENRY J. SIEBERT & CO.

1147 East Jersey St.,

ELIZABETH, N. J.

(Opp. Proctor's Theatre).

We specialize:

AWNINGS

WINDOW SHADES

CURTAIN MATERIALS

BRASS GOODS, etc.

Large assortment.

Low prices.

'Phone Elizabeth 852.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JUST RECEIVED 8,000 ROLLS OF THIS YEAR'S

WALL PAPER

At special prices, selling at 8 and 10 cents per roll. This is an opportunity to secure up-to-date wallpaper at a big saving.

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators.

145 NORTH AVENUE.

Now is the Time

To paint your house—in the cool of the year, when the paint dries slowly, and consequently lasts longest. No hot sun to cause blisters. And the house painted now is preserved against the ravages of winter storms.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's pure colors, ready mixed paint, vanishes, glass, etc.

JAMES C. HANSEN

Tel. 346.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

February 1, 1913.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—6:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 3:30, 5:00, 5:30, 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 8:00, 9:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:00 a. m., 12:30, 3:15 and 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00 a. m., 1:30, 4:3 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:0 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:0 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:3 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:4 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close—8:00 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30 8:00, 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:30 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 2:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:3 to 10:30 a. m. Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

E. A. JIRD, P. M.

Dr. Robert W. Rogers

OSTEOPATH

720 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1936-W.

Office hours: 8 to 9 a. m., 7 to 8 p. m.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

HALL AND WILLIAMS.

Nominated by Wilson to Interstate Commerce Commission.

The announcement of the nomination of H. C. Hall of Colorado Springs, Colo. (top), and W. M. Daniels of Princeton, N. J. (below), by President Wilson to be members of the interstate commerce commission has caused much favorable comment. Both are recognized as capable and competent men to serve in this important capacity.

BRYAN WANTS THE HAGUE CONFERENCE

The Other Powers Appear to Be Indifferent.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Steps are being taken by the United States government to prevent if possible the third Hague conference, supposed to be held in 1915, from going by default. The indifference of the other governments up to this time has jeopardized the meeting of the conference in 1915, and it is now believed that at best the United States will succeed only in bringing about a definite agreement that the conference be held in 1916.

Two distinct steps have been taken by Secretary Bryan with regard to the holding of the conference in 1915. On Saturday last he circularized the foreign governments which have participated in previous conferences suggesting that the permanent advisory council of The Hague court be constituted a committee to prepare a program for the next conference. This advisory council consists of the diplomatic corps at The Hague.

The other step was instruction to Minister Van Dyke at The Hague to sound out Queen Wilhelmina as to whether she would be willing to issue a call to all the powers to meet at The Hague in a third conference on peace in the summer of 1915. This measure was supposed to be held confidential until reply had been received from Queen Wilhelmina, as it was feared that owing to the delicacy of the situation embarrassments might ensue if it became prematurely known that the United States was seeking to have the Dutch government take the initiative.

The first Hague conference was called by the czar of Russia. The second was called for by President Roosevelt, but some of the powers then suggested it might be better to let the czar again issue the call, especially as Japan and Russia were then at war and did not care to take part in another Hague conference at that time. Accordingly the czar issued the call for the second conference, held in 1907, to which practically all the governments of the civilized world responded favorably.

ARREST MILITANT AS FIREBUG

Woman Believed to Know Something About Fires Near Glasgow.

Glasgow, Feb. 6.—The police of this city arrested a woman on suspicion of knowing considerable about incendiary fires which destroyed a castle and a mansion and damaged another building.

The woman, believed to be a member of the militant suffragette arson squad, gave the name of Rhoda Robinson. She was taken to Punblane Perthshire, which place is near the scene of the fires.

—Some store may be placing on "special sale" just now the article you have not felt like paying "regular" prices for.

Classified Advertisements---Copy Received Until 1:30 P. M. Daily

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No Display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

LECTURER OUTLINED SCOTLAND'S HISTORY

Many Attended Talk Given in Connection With Public School Course.

A large audience of those interested in the public school lecture course enjoyed the talk delivered by George Cross on "Scottish Poets" in the Washington School auditorium, last night, the affair being one of the best yet given in this course. The speaker dwelt particularly on the life of Robert Burns, reviewing the life of the most noted writer in Scottish history. He described and quoted several of Burns' best works and told of the environment in which the great poet spent his early life, the latter furnishing inspiration for his masterpiece.

The talk was illustrated with numerous colored views showing the famous points in Scotland visited by tourists and the places told of in Scottish history. He outlined the geographical features of the country in Scotland, showing views that have been taken of the hills and Scottish heather. A number of castle ruins were also shown on the screen and the lecturer outlined the points of interest significant of these landmarks.

"WOMAN'S INFLUENCE."

At Temple Sholem, on Grove street tonight, the pastor, Rev. Samuel Schoenbraun will preach on "Woman's Influence." The sermons of Rev. Mr. Schoenbraun have been usually interesting and attract large congregations.

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING

CANDIES, ICE CREAM

DAINTY LUNCH

REMEMBER

We carry the largest and finest stock of plants and cut flowers in the city. Floral design work by expert designers. Plant or flowers delivered to any city of the United States. Store, 159 East Front street; Tel. 928; greenhouses, 1126 South avenue. 40,000 feet of glass.

STANLEY

159 E. Front St. Tel. 928.

Woodhull & Martin Building.

Greenhouses, South Ave., Tel. 331-J.

T. A. MOORE

UNDERTAKER

612 E Sixth St.

Tel. 741-R

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON,

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS

Office 116 Park Avenue. Telephone 561-W. Res. 415 W. 2d St. Tel. 584-W. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 24 E. 23d St. Tel. 2243-Gramercy.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,

UNDERTAKERS

402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 46. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—30 Great Jones St. Telephone 2145-Spring. New York Embalmers License 1530. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

JAS. J. CHAS. A.

J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS

FUNERAL DIRECTORS

169 W. Fourth St. Tel. 1753-J.

Our Booklet Entitled

A Modern Mortuary Establishment

Sent Upon Request

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS

Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

GODOWN Suddenly on February 5, 1914, Duillis F. Godown, in his 61st year.

Services at his late residence, 26 Chatham street, North Plainfield, Saturday evening, February 7, at 8 o'clock. Interment Sandy Ridge cemetery, Hunterdon county, Sunday.

ROOMS AND BOARD.

TO LET—Attractive rooms, with board. Mrs. L. R. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue. 2 24 tf

FURNISHED rooms to let, with board also table board. 433 East Seventh street. 1 17 tf

LITTLE TALKS BY THE WANT-AD MAN

Copyright, 1913, The Int. Syndicate, Baltimore.

No. 57.

IN the window of a store located in the heart of the retail shopping district, I saw, the other day, a crudely hand-lettered cardboard sign, about 12 inches wide by 6 inches deep. It was practically buried among a lot of miscellaneous merchandise, and read:

Sales Lady
Wanted.

Now, let's see: How many out-of-a-job sales ladies pass that store in the course of a day? I guess 50. That's a fair estimate, isn't it? How many of the 50 will stop to look in that window and discover the little cardboard sign? Say, 10 per cent. That's 5. The store isn't a particularly attractive one, and wouldn't convey the idea that a good salary is attached to the vacancy in the sales force. So I figure that only three out of the five who see that sign would apply for the job. That makes three applicants a day for the proprietor of that store to select from.

Suppose the proprietor, instead of depending on an obscure sign in his window, should insert in this newspaper a little Want Ad in the "Help Wanted—Female" column. Suppose he worded his ad. something like this:

WANTED—A neat courteous SALES-LADY; one with experience preferred. Apply BLANK'S, 2000 West Lexington street.

That ad. would cost him, say thirty cents or so. Several hundred women would read that ad., and, instead of having only a few applicants to select from, he would have quite a number—and of a better class than those who walk the streets in search of employment.

Such is the power of advertising—and, really, isn't it quite simple and inexpensive?

The Want-Ad Man

(All rights reserved, 1913, by Jerome P. Fleishman.)

MISCELLANEOUS.

TAXIDERMIST—Birds and animals stuffed and mounted. T. W. Sisty, Wayside Park. 'Phone 1999-J Dunellen, N. J. 11 14 1mos

EMBROIDERY, INITIALS, ETC.—Orders taken for all kinds of embroidery and initials; first class work; prices reasonable. Mrs. C. S. Groot, 768 Woodland avenue, near Putnam avenue; telephone 1687-M. 1 15 1mo

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES. AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY CO. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, reliable help only, all nationalities, faithful service commands good situations and our fees are very reasonable; courteous treatment to all. 326 West Front street, near Grove, Phone 666. 11 26 tf

HANSEN'S Employment Agency, 128 Watchung avenue, corner Second street. Excellent positions furnished to reliable help of all nationalities. Telephone 2559. 2 5 1mo

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place, all nationalities; 'Phone 1721. 2 2 tf

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—Two new seven room houses, all improvements, garage, sleeping porch, decorated to suit tenant or buyer. 839 Osborne avenues, Netherwood, telephone 834-M. 1 28 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

EXPERIENCED colored waitress will serve luncheon dinner; cottage set and short notice. 'Phone 835-W. 2 6 2t

WANTED—Laundry work to do at home; small washes preferred. Mrs. Reed, 517 East Third street; 'Phone 2186-W. 2 6 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

HOUSEWORK, 25c an hour, wanted by handy colored man. 317 Liberty street. 10 28 tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FARM FOR SALE—20 acres, midway between two depots on outskirts of Plainfield, N. J., good seven room house, chicken house, artesian well, 550 feet frontage on county road, well travelled. Apply Edward C. Hardingham, 152 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 2 5 7

FOR SALE—Good house, for colored people; 6 room house, part improvements, right in town. See Mr. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 6 26 tf

FOR SALE—To close "French Estate," Somerset street carriage factory, stores, and tenements, houses and stable in rear; lot 100x200 ft., alley at side and in rear; bargain, terms arranged. Apply, Elston M. French executor, 171 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 12 15 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

TO LOAN—Mortgage money, $1,000 to $3,000, at 6 per cent. Write, "Mortgages, 2281 Woolworth Building, New York." 2 6 3

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 2 6 1mo

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Manning, 183 North avenue. 10 14 tf

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—Cook-laundress, waitress-chambermaid. Apply evenings, 915 Kensington avenue. 2 2 tf

WANTED—Young girl to assist with housework. 423 Central avenue.

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Ford delivery wagon, with runabout body; new tires and in perfect condition. E. & C. Auto Sales Co., 124 Madison avenue. 2 4 6

FOR RENT.

FLAT to let, five rooms, all improvements. 538 West Fifth street, or enquire 432 Watchung avenue. 11 11 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street, with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FIVE-ROOM apartment, all modern improvements; central location. Inquire P. C. Thomsen, 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—Six room house and bath. Inquire 147 East Fifth street. 11 28 tf

TO RENT—Flat, 6 rooms and bath; all improvements; $25.50. Inquire 334 East Fifth street. 2 4 1d

TO LET—Four rooms, East Seventh street, near Berckman street. Inquire 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

HOUSE TO RENT. Splendid offer to good small family. In answering give name and address. Address Opportunity, care Daily Press. 2 5 3

FOR RENT—No. 45 Prospect place, near Washington avenue, 6 rooms, reception hall and bath; all improvements. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 12 1 tf

TO LET—At eleven dollars, to respectable colored families, 4 room houses, with improvements. Inquire 1318 West Front street. 2 12

TO LET—House, six rooms and bath. 409 Liberty street, Tel. 150-W. 12 8 tf

TO LET—New four room apartments, improvements, 1361 and 1351 South Second street, $16.50 per month. John Herrman, 369 Somerset street; 'Phone 2512-W. 1 23 1mo

HOUSE to rent, eight rooms, all improvements, small garage. Inquire 222 Madison avenue. 1 16 1mo

SIX ROOM house to let; all modern improvements, rent reasonable. W. R. Vanderveer, superintendent, 231 East Second street, Cor. Church. 1 17 tf

FOUR-ROOM flat to let, part improvements, $10. 203 Grant avenue. 11 21 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town, rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 11 6 tf

HOUSES $12 to $50; flats, $10 to $30; stores $7 upwards. D. McInness, West Third street, Tel. 1198-W. 6 30 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

FOR SALE.

ROYAL TYPEWRITERS — The best built standard typewriter in the world for only $75. Write or call for a demonstration. Plainfield Office Supply Co., Local Agents, P. O. Box 701, 'Phone 921-W. 1 25 1mo

FOR SALE—Manure, soil. Sam Redd, 923 West Third street. 2 3 1m

FOR SALE CHEAP—Desk, 3 tables, clothes-rack, chairs, etc., mission finish. 120 North avenue. 2 6 3

GUINEA PIGS or cavies, breeders, 75 cents each. 1008 Arlington avenue. 2 4 4

FOR SALE—All kinds fine gloves for ladies, men and boys, at wholesale and retail; large variety of deer skin gloves for auto, driving and working; best canvas, 10c; per dozen, $1.00, kid gloves, slightly damaged, half price. H. Texier, 58 Somerset street. 12 31 tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

MAN wanted to do collecting and take charge of Plainfield office; permanent position at good salary; must be honest and know city well; cash bond of $100 required. Opportunity, care Press. 2 4 tf

WANTED—First class cabinet maker. Vitaphone Co. 2 6 2

WANTED—Man to work on farm. Call to stableman, Eastern Bottling Co. 2 6 3

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rate; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE—CHICKENS AND EGGS

FOR SALE—Choice White Wyandotte cockerels; also eggs for hatching. 1037 Sherman avenue, near Clinton. 2 6 3

Get the Community Spirit---Patronize Home Stores

To make a city, a model city, there must be co-operation between the merchants and its citizens.

There must be reliable merchants who sell goods at a reasonable profit and who stand behind each sale.

This is called modern merchandising and being based on a foundation of truth and mutual benefit it must eventually win the confidence of the public.

Truth is the only thing that will stand.

We have learned after many years that truth pays.

We have found that the Golden Rule works wonders.

We have learned that when a house or a city is divided against itself it cannot stand.

It has been whispered that buying abroad was what started Rome on the roller coaster to destruction.

We do not vouch for the truth of that statement--but we know that Plainfield can become a great city. You can help make it so by patronizing local merchants, craftsmen and mechanics.

Let's get together! A little more team-work!

DO IT FOR PLAINFIELD!

The Business Men's Association

of Plainfield, N. J. P. O. Box 575

Be Sure and Get the February Number of

Literary Magazine

FREE with this paper on Saturday, Feb. 7

We consider this number the best we have ever issued and we know it will please every one of our readers. It is a big fiction number and contains five of the very best short stories of the winter season. The front cover in three colors is a real beauty and will be classed as unique. It is by one of the country's foremost cover artists.

The Big Story Features in This Number are as follows:

"When the Test Came to Olga Craddock"
BY ARTHUR STRINGER
ILLUSTRATED BY THORNTON D. SKIDMORE

"The Girl in the Ermine Cap"
BY JOHN H. CUNNINGHAM, JR.
WITH PICTURE BY CYRUS FOSMIRE

"The Haughty Lady"
BY BERTON BRALEY
ILLUSTRATED BY FRANK GODWIN

"Mrs. Bluebeard No. 47"
BY JAMES W. REILLY
ILLUSTRATED BY FLORENCE JULIE BACH

"Eleanor's Marriage"
BY MARION AMES TAGGART
ILLUSTRATED BY HOWARD HEATH

Get the Literary Magazine Absolutely FREE with This Paper on SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7

ZAPATA BOASTS HE'LL RULE MEXICO AND HANG GEN. HUERTA

Picturesque Rebel Leader For First Time Tells Story of His Life.

Would Keep Out Foreigners. Ridicules Carranza and Assails Diaz.

EMILIANO ZAPATA, the bandit chief who since 1910 has held at his mercy the great state of Morelos and has been a menace to the Mexican capital itself, is the most dreaded man in Mexico City today, for if Huerta falls and chaos follows the bandit chief is expected to hasten there and loot the city.

Commissioned by the St. Louis Post-Dispatch to interview this man at his camp in the San Gaspar mountains, on the border between the states of Morelos and Mexico, a correspondent accomplished this mission, after many difficulties, through the good offices of one of Zapata's friends.

Three Mexican reporters in the last two years lost their lives in efforts to obtain interviews with this "Attila of the South," as Zapata has been nicknamed by the Mexican press.

Two more were killed when trains upon which they were traveling into Morelos were dynamited by Zapata's order. A third succeeded in getting into Zapata's camp, but never returned. Zapata's resentment against newspaper men has been aroused by unflattering articles concerning him and his deeds, printed in Mexico City newspapers.

Bedecked With Jewels.

Zapata, writes the Post-Dispatch correspondent, was the embodiment of sullen, suspicious, defiant, insolent brute force. Across his lanky legs, which were incased in tightly fitting charro trousers strapped under dusty tan boots, his red, hairy hands lay loosely. Three fingers were circled with rings. One finger from the knuckle to the first joint was covered with rings, four or five had diamonds, a ruby and an emerald. Bigger diamonds were on other fingers. A gold watch was strapped around his wrist. Every man in his entourage was similarly decked out with gaudy but valuable jewelry. Over a soiled, rumpled blue silk shirt Zapata wore a short charro jacket, embroidered in gold bullion, almost hiding the fabric of which the jacket was made. The buttons were of gold. So was a double row of buttons on the outside of his tight trousers, as well as tiny chains that connected up the buttons two by two.

Knotted under the bandit chief's low collar was a red silk tie with long ends that flared down to the waist. In the tie was a diamond as big as the butt of a 33 Mauser cartridge.

Two automatic revolvers, resembling young cannons, snuggled in stamped leather holsters at his hips. In gold on each holster were monogrammed his initials. Close by stood his rifle. The steel of the barrel, lock and magazine were cunningly inlaid with gold, while Zapata's name was spelled out in golden script on the polished hardwood stock, "Emiliano" on one side and "Zapata" on the other.

Loves His Stomach.

Tactful endeavor on the reporter's part to kindle a spark of recollection in Zapata's mind that he had talked with him once before in Mexico City fell upon apparently deaf ears until he had eaten his supper. This consisted of boiled goat meat, baked sweet potatoes, fried bananas, frijoles, tortillas, coffee and beer.

The meal finished, the bandit chief signified that he would talk. "Ask me what you wish," he said. "I do not have to answer unless I choose. See that you tell no lies. Put no words into my mouth. But ask me nothing of my fights or my plans, for I shall be silent."

Brutality, ruthlessness and cunning, but nothing of real cleverness, ill proportioned ambition, vanity and other qualities akin to these, forced themselves upon the writer as the rebel leader's dominant characteristics. He is illiterate, although able to read and write. Of Mexican history, he knows little or nothing.

Before he revolted against Diaz in 1910 Zapata was a peddler of cheap wares through the countryside. His jack of all trades is an ex-schoolmaster who writes his high sounding pronunciamentos, supplies such scholastic veneer as Zapata requires, composes the florid appeals to the people of Mexico reciting their wrongs and promising redresses which are sent out in Zapata's name.

Would Keep Out Foreigners.

"For what are you fighting, what are your aims?" was one of the questions asked him.

"I'm fighting for the people of Mexico against the aristocrats," he replied. "I want to give them back the land that has been stolen from them. They have been robbed for a long time. You Americans have robbed them. All foreigners have robbed them. I have taken care of all thieving Gatchupinas—Mexican nickname for Spaniards—in Morelos. I have killed them all excepting those who ran away and have taken their property.

"When I become president I shall pass laws to keep foreigners out of the country. They come in and take everything that belongs to the Mexicans—mines, lands, oil, everything. Diaz let them do it. He ruined the country by letting the foreigners build railroads.

"We do not need railroads in Mexico. If there were none Americans would not come here. Only a few of them came before there were railroads because it was too long a journey. We drove the Spaniards out of the country long ago. Then we Mexicans were happy because the country was ours. We did with our own as we pleased.

"That thief Diaz became president, and he sold what belonged to his countrymen to the foreigners. If Diaz had never been president Mexico would still belong to the Mexicans.

"When I become president I shall take only what is my due, nothing but my salary. That is plenty. They say that the president is paid 20,000 pesos every year. For doing what? Nothing.

Says He Will Hang Huerta.

"Yes; it is true that I sent out a proclamation before Christmas to warn every one in the national palace that I was coming to kill them. Huerta

Photo by American Press Association.

EMILIANO ZAPATA

and every one who is with him I shall hang. I shall not shoot them, for they do not deserve a soldier's death, for they are traitors and thieves.

"I am told that your country taxes foreigners who come into it. I shall do that too. I shall put a big tax—maybe 1,000 pesos—upon every foreigner who wants to join us. That will keep them out."

Zapata said he was not an Indian. "My mother was an Indian," he admitted, "but my father was a Spaniard. That is why I am so big and white. Indians are small men."

The only friend of the poor people Mexico has had since the Spaniards left was Madero, says Zapata.

"Why did you fight Madero if you had such a good opinion of him?" he was asked.

"I was not fighting Madero," answered Zapata. "Madero was all right, but he allowed himself to be fooled by people who deceived him. They were too smart for him. He was honest and thought all men were.

"Madero came to see me when I was in Cuautla, when De la Barra sent Huerta out to kill me and my men. We got along well, for we understood each other. He knew I was fighting for the poor people, as he was. There was no reason why we, Madero and I, should fight.

"He promised me that if I would keep the peace in Morelos and Guerrero he would see that I was elected governor, that my men were well paid and that all land taken from the poor people should be given back to them when he became president. We were agreed. Madero made De la Barra call back his soldiers and leave me in peace.

Hints at Fate of Spies.

"But they told Madero lies about me. He called me to Mexico City and asked me about them. I told him the truth, that I had stolen and killed, but that I had stolen only to pay and feed my men and killed only those who were oppressors of the poor. He was satisfied.

"But without Madero knowing it they sent many troops into Morelos to catch me. They even sent spies and assassins into my camps to bribe my men to murder me. But those spies never went back to tell what they had done, to boast of beating me.

"But all this was not Madero's fault. They say that he paid me much money to keep peace; that I got the money, then betrayed him. That is only partly true. He did promise me 20,000 pesos, not for myself, but for my men. I did not want money, for I have a-plenty. The poor people for whom I fight make me many gifts. Owners of haciendas also pay me for protecting their property.

"One day I received 50,000 pesos. After that I waited, but the rest of the money never came. Madero's brother and others had stolen the 150,000 which was mine. Madero told me that when I went to see him in Chapultepec castle."

"When was that?"

"Not more than a year ago; no, it was before Christmas a year ago. Flores Magon was then minister of gobernacion. He was honest too. Magon arranged everything. One night I rode all alone down the mountains into the valley as far as Tlalpam, a suburb of the City of Mexico. There Magon met me with an automobile and took me to Chapultepec. No one saw us, for it was very late. Madero was waiting for us.

"We had a long talk, so long that it was light before we finished. We sat in Madero's office. In the morning we went to bed. I slept in the room next to Madero. No one knew I was there, not even Madero's family, only his wife, for he told her everything.

"Madero wanted to make peace with me. He said there were traitors around him who were trying to kill him to get the country back into their control. Felix Diaz was one, he said. I promised to help him. It was then he told me that my money had been stolen. I offered to send back the 50,000 pesos, for he said the country needed the money. But he would not agree and again promised that I should have the other 150,000 pesos. I was to go back to Morelos and stay quiet until I heard from him.

"That night I went away. Magon took me down the hill from the castle by a little path. From then I did no more fighting, but before Madero could talk to me again they had killed him—Huerta and Felix Diaz."

Often Boldly Enters Capital.

Recounting the vain efforts put forth by the federal armies to capture him aroused mirth in Zapata.

"I will tell you something," he said. "It is a joke. Many, many times I go to Mexico City. Yes, straight to the city. I have friends there. They know I was there in September during the fiestas. You would not believe it, but when Huerta was reviewing his soldiers I stood where I could see him plainly. The sun shone on his anteojos (eyeglasses). I was so near that I could have sent bullets straight to his heart had I wished. It was very funny. At night I went to the theater. I go there whenever I like. If the soldiers should recognize me they would not betray me, for their love for Huerta is not wonderful."

Zapata was asked if he had any alliance with Carranza.

"I will tell you about that, for it also is funny," was his response. "I have no allies, for Zapata fights alone. Why should I ally myself with any one?

"Orozco flattered me when he was fighting Madero, and I told him that I would help him as much as I could, for both he and I thought alike about Madero. We trusted Madero, but were against his friends. So Orozco and I worked together. What did he do? He sold himself to Huerta.

"Carranza wanted me to capture Mexico City. I could do it, but why should I turn it over to him? When I take Mexico City I shall keep it for myself, not give it away to a man who cannot win his own battles.

"Then I shall do as I promised—capture the city, hang Huerta and all his ministers unless they run away too fast.

"No; I am fighting for my own cause, which is the cause of the common people."

Scoffs at Carranza.

Zapata thrust a hand into his pocket and brought out a thick gold medal half again as large as a silver dollar. On one side was engraved his portrait, with a huge diamond set beneath it. On the reverse was engraved in Spanish an inscription of which the following is a literal translation:

"To that most illustrious and bravest son of Mexico, Emiliano Zapata, conqueror of armies, the refuge of the poor and defender of the constitution, from his humble, adoring and grateful followers, Sept. 16, 1913."

Zapata fingered the medal lovingly and watched the diamond flash back gleams from the fire.

"No one ever received a more valuable gift from the Mexican people," said he. "It shall be buried with me."

Then his boastful mood returned.

"You may tell Huerta if you wish when you return to Mexico," said he "that he can never find me, but that if he lingers too long in the place which he has usurped my people will find him and that it will not be a happy day.

"Say to him anything that you wish. What do I care how many soldiers he sends? Nor do I care how much they fight in Mexico. The harder and longer they fight the easier it will be for me to triumph when I am ready."

Cocks were heralding the dawn before Zapata had talked himself out.

Died From Swallowing a Tack.

Joseph Wojtor, a Chicago shoemaker, is dead as the result of swallowing a tack. While repairing a shoe he held some tacks in his mouth. One slipped down his throat.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office, Rowleys' Drug Store, 218 West Front St. Tel. 2081-J-2.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 1155

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W
Fourth and Washington Streets

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street. Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.
Waiting room at Kensington Hotel, Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD.
WEEK DAYS.
Leave Plainfield—7.45, 9.00, 11.45 a. m. 1.00, 4.00, 5.00, 7.00, 9.00, 10.20, x11.10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—8.00, 9.30 a. m., 12.00, 1.30, 4.30, 5.20, 7.30, 9.30, 10.45, x11.30 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—9.00, 12.00 a. m., 2.00, 4.00, 5.00, 9.00 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—10.00 a. m., 12.15, 2.30, 4.30, 5.30, 9.30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE AND MT. BETHEL.
WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6.30 a. m., 3.00, 6.20, x11.00 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6.45 a. m., 3.15, 6.40, x11.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3.40, 6.50, x11.30 p. m.
Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.
Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30, 7.50, x11.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.40, x11.45 p. m.
Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 7.55, x12.00 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9.00 a. m. instead of 6.30 a. m. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STERLING.
WEEK DAYS ONLY.
Leave Plainfield—8.45 a. m., 4.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—9.00 a. m., 4.45 p. m.
Leave Stirling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m.
8.45 a. m. bus connects with 9.27 a. m. train at Sterling, for Newark.
4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m. train at Sterling, from Newark.

An enclosed, electric-lighted and heated bus may be procured for an afternoon or evening, from The Plainfield Transit Co., to carry from 15 to 25 passengers to any point within a radius of 25 miles from Plainfield.
R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave.
'Phone 130, Plainfield.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN.
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
714 Webster Place, Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1309-R.

RUMMAGE SALE!

This includes the lot of Coats, Suits and Dresses bought from Franken Sternberg, of New York, who has gone out of business, as advertised last Friday.

What we offer in this sale, you will not duplicate in the value and price of the articles anywhere in the city or elsewhere.

Be on Hand Early

6 Sets Black Hare (Muff and Scarf), Value $10.00. Rummage Price	$4.98
2 Long Wool Plaid Coats, Value $6.00. Rummage Price	.98
8 Navy Blue Poplin Raincoats, Value $8.50. Rummage Price	$2.98
6 White Serge Separate Skirts, Value $5.00. Rummage Price	$1.98
15 Coats, Good Mixed Cloths, Value $10.00. Rummage Price	$3.98
6 Children's Cloth Coats (Spring weight), Value $5.00. Rummage Price	$1.59
14 Children's Cloth Coats(Winter weight), Value $5.00 Rummage Price	$2.98
25 Children's White Dresses (Emb. Trim.), Value $1.95. Rummage Price	.89
14 Children's White Dresses (Emb. Trim.), Value $1.00. Rummage Price	.59
8 Children's Blue Gingham Dresses. Value $1.00. Rummage Price	.59
13 Sport Coats	$6.90
21 Serge Dresses in Blue and Blacks	$3.98
15 Serge Suits, at	$5.00, $7.50 and $10.00
9 Plaid Skirts	$2.98
17 Skirts in Blue and Gray	$1.98

THIS IS YOUR OPPORTUNITY. SALE STARTS AT 9 A. M. SHARP.

J. A. Fess
THE PARIS STORE

Oh, But It's Good!

Cut me another slice, quick, mamma! And don't bother with any butter.

KLEEN-MAID BREAD

is so rich and tasty that it's a treat all by itself.

It's the best 'tween meals food you can give the little folks, mothers!

Wrapped at the bakery—at your grocer's in

10c and 5c Loaves

ZEEK BAKING CO.

Copyright 1913

Sanitary Market
ROTH & CO

Phone 2100 Morning Delivery 8:45-10:30.

Phone 2100 Afternoon Delivery 2:00-4:30.

Hindquarters of Canada Lamb, lb	12½c	Legs of Canada Lamb, lb	14c
Hindquarters of Mutton, lb		Legs of Mutton, lb

Pork — Pork

Fresh Pigs Feet, lb	6c
Fresh Spare Ribs	14c
Heavy Leaf Lard
Fresh Cal. Hams
Fresh Shoulders
Small Fresh Hams
Loins of Jersey Pork	16½c
Jersey Pork Chops
Pork to Roast
Legs of Jersey Pork, lb	17½c
Reg. Fresh Hams, lb
Brookfield Sausage, lb	22c
Pure Sausage, links or meat, lb	18c
Small Smoked Cal. Hams, lb	12½c
Smoked Shoulders, lb
Pork Tenderloin
Taylor Pork Roll, by bag	22½c

Lamb — Lamb

Forequarters of Lamb, lb	12c
Lamb for Roasting or stuffing, lb
Shoulder Lamb Chops, lb	16c
Legs of Best Lamb	18c
Hindquarters of Best Lamb, 16½c and Rib Lamb Chops, no better at any price

Veal — Veal

Legs of Veal, lb	18½c
Hindquarters of Veal, lb
Veal to Roast, lb	22c
Rumps of Veal, lb	22c
Loins of Veal, lb
Veal Chops, lb	22c

SWEETBREADS CALF LIVER

BEST DRESSED BEEF.

Fresh or Corned Plate, Brisket or Naval Beef, lb	10c
Blade Cut Rib Roast, lb	15c
Pot Roast, lb
Best Cut Sirloin Steak, lb	22c
Rib Roast, lb

OX TAILS BEEF LIVER

JERSEY POULTRY.

SQUABS	BROILERS
Fancy Fricassee Chickens, lb	18c
Fancy Maryland Geese, special, lb	22c
Fancy Turkeys, lb	28c
Fancy Ducks, lb	25c

DELICATESSEN DEPARTMENT.

Potato Salad, lb	12c
Cabbage Salad, lb	10c
Pork and Beans, pan	10c
Fish Cakes, 3 for	5c
Pigs Feet in jelly, lb	12c
Chicken Salad, portion	15c

All Kinds of Cheese—Imported and Domestic.

CANNED GOODS.

Lighthouse Cleanser, 6 for	25c
Butterine, lb	16c
Can Corn, can	7c
String Beans, can	7c
Tomatoes, reg. 12c, can	10c
Booth's Catsup, bottle	8c
Fancy Peas, can	14c
Florida Brand Pineapples, can	18c
Eggs, dozen	34c
High Grade Ceylon Tea, pkg	10c
Regular 30c Coffee, special	25c
Regular 35c Coffee, special	30c
Regular 35c Teas, English Breakfast	25c
Regular 50c Tea	35c

NO STAMPS—ALL VALUE.

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES.

Fresh Strawberries, French Endives, Fresh Ripe Tomatoes, Cucumbers, Cauliflower and Green Beans, always on hand.

Sweet Tangerines, 15 for	25c
Extra large Florida Oranges, dozen	25c & 30c
Fancy Messina Lemons, dozen	15c
Fancy Large Grape Fruit, 3 for	25c

One More Week OF OUR Special Sale

Heavy and medium weight suits to order

$22.50

Former prices $30 to $35.

We have the largest stock of Spring and Summer woolens in the city and will make a special low price on all suits ordered now to be finished when you say.

H. J. HOOK & CO.
Tailors
120 NORTH AVE.

Children's Shoes

Children's feet need considerable attention as they grow rapidly. Therefore they must be fitted correctly with the proper shapes, such as Tread-straight or Orthopedic lasts. We devote a large part of our time to children's footwear, and would like to convince you that our shoes and prices are both correct.

A. K. WILLETT
107 PARK AVENUE

"Oldest Shoe House in Town."

SPECIAL
For Friday and Saturday.

10 lbs Sugar	47c
5 lbs Sugar	24c
1 (reg. 20c) Bot. Catsup	13c
1 (reg. 15c) Bot. Sneider Catsup	13c
1 (reg. 25c) bottle Sneider Catsup	21c
1 (reg. 15c) can Corn	13c
1 (reg. 10c) can Corn, 3 for	25c
1 (reg. 13c) can Peas	11c
1 (reg. 15c) can Peas	13c
1 (reg. 15c) can String Beans	12c
1 (reg. 18c) can String Beans	15c
1 (reg. 13c) can Beets	11c
1 (reg. 18c) can Beets	13c
1 (reg. 18c) can Peaches	14c
1 (reg. 16c) can Cherries	13c
1 (reg. 18c) can Pears	13c
1 (reg. 14c) per lb Evaporated Peaches	11c
(Reg. 10c) per pkg. Jello, 3 for	25c
(Reg. 10c) per pkg. Cooper Jellitine, 3 for	25c

C. O. SMITH
Cor. 4th and Liberty Sts.
Telephone 1346.

J. HIMMELFARB
Ladies' Tailor, Dressmaker and Furrier.

NOS. 309-311 NEW ST., BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH STS., TEL. 903-W.

Particular pains exercised in the making of a garment, the fitting of the same and attending properly to the little details that mean so much in the finished garment—thus satisfactions follows.

Expert workmanship and Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

I will appreciate a call and will be pleased to show styles and samples of work. Prices reasonable.

Your Appearance Counts

Have you ever realized how well you are received when your appearance is favorable? Men, send your Suit and have it cleaned and pressed. Ladies, your tea gowns, woolen dresses, opera cloaks, plain or fancy waists, and indeed anything worth cleaning.

I guarantee my work and assure you that my method will tend to renew the fabric, brighten the colors and raise the nap, thereby restoring the garment to the freshness of new clothing.

A. ROTGUN
432 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 1976-W.
Nine years with G. O. Keller.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.08, 5.40, 5.52, 6.27, 6.35, 7.22, 7.30, 7.41, 7.44, 7.55, 7.58, 8.12, 8.20, 8.26, 8.42, 8.59, 9.29, 9.55, 10.28, 11.27, 11.52 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.38, 3.39, 3.42, 3.48, 4.13, 4.36, 5.29, 6.27, 7.41, 8.27, 9.27, 9.50, 10.15, 10.50, 11.41 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.40, 7.13, 7.55, 8.34, 9.34, 9.40, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.29, 2.58, 4.00, 5.22, 5.55, 8.17, 4.29, 5.34, 6.57, 7.14, 8.13, 8.27, 8.55, 9.27, 10.28, 10.56 p. m.

For Newark—5.08, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8.26, 9.29, 10.28, 11.27 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.38, 3.39, 5.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.50, 10.56 p. m. Sunday 7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.39, 1.58, 4.28, 5.09, 5.56, 8.17, 4.29, 5.34, 7.14, 8.13, 9.55, 9.27, 10.56 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, 8.26, 9.44, 11.27 a. m., 2.09, 3.24, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), (6.59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday 7.19, 10.05 to Allentown, 10.52 a. m., 1.28, 5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), 7.56 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.18, 9.44 a. m., 3.24 p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.22 a. m., 5.44 p. m.

For Red Bank and branch and Asbury Park, 2.41, 8.12, 11.27 a. m., 12.34 (12.58 Red Bank only), (3.12 Red Bank only), 4.36, 6.25, 8.27, 11.45 p. m. Sundays—2.41, 8.52 a. m., (2.09 Red Bank only), 5.17, 8.55 p. m.

For Atlantic City—2.41, 9.29 a. m. (12.34, Saturdays only), 3.12. Sunday—9.40 a. m., 1.28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6.39, 7.29, 8.45, 10.42, 11.52 a. m., 12.42, 1.54, 2.45, 3.13, 6.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 a. m. Sunday—8.47, 9.29, 9.51, 10.29, 10.43, 11.41 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.29, 4.56, 5.29, 6.39, 7.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.55, 12.14 p. m., 1.20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington, Daily—8.45, 10.42 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOM

Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces

KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.

William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964.
OPP. DEPOT.

HORSES CLIPPED
By Charles C. Brower,
PLAINFIELD CAB CO.,
130-134 E. Second St. 'Phone 10.
11 6 6mos

HODGE'S PHARMACY
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

SPECIALS at 181 Somerset St.

Leg Lamb, lb	18c
Loin or Rib Lamb Chops, special, lb	20c
Small Shoulder Lamb, lb	12½c

PORK PORK

Fresh Hams, 8 to 9 lbs, lb	17½c
Fresh Shoulders, lb	15c
Chuck Roast, lb	15c

JERSEY CHICKENS
Roasting and Stewing

JERSEY VEAL

Small Cal. Hams, lb	13c

O. P. CRANE, Mgr.

WILL U. B.
With us at our
INDOOR CARNIVAL
FEBRUARY 7 TO 14
—AT—
COLUMBUS CLUB.
Prize Bowling, Pocket Billiards, Dancing, Motion Pictures
And many other features that will please.
WATCHUNG COUNCIL, K. OF C.
ADMISSION ..... 10 CENTS
2 to 10

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

The Smile That Won't Come Off

is always worn by the thrifty housewife who uses a

"WHITE DAISY" WASHING MACHINE
Ball Bearings
$9.00
or a
"WHITE LILY" WASHING MACHINE
$7.50

and has her washing done before breakfast. For sale by

Gayle Hardware Co.
GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS
'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

B. KIVATINOS
(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.
111 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 886-W

Leland Manning
MASON AND BUILDER.
Jobbing a specialty. Estimates cheerfully given. Telephone 347-J.
1120 Myrtle Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

SEES MILITANCY IN NEW SUFFRAGE IDEA

MRS. ARTHUR M. DODGE.

What she calls the "first outward manifestation of militancy in the United States" by the suffragists was criticised by Mrs. Arthur M. Dodge, of New York city, president of the National Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage, in a statement given out at the Washington headquarters of the organization. She assailed Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, a suffrage leader, who, she says, threatened to boycott members of Congress and other public officials who refuse to pledge themselves to work for woman suffrage.

$1.50 DINING CHAIR

79c

Solid oak, golden finish; strong construction; spindle back, brace arm, cane seat.

Double Stamps Mornings — 29c — Single Stamps Afternoons

Ludwig Baumann & Comp'y

America's Greatest Furniture House

49-51 MARKET STREET
NEWARK, N. J.
OPEN SATURDAY EVENING UNTIL 10 O'CLOCK
NEW YORK STORE—BLOCK 8th AVE.—35th TO 36th ST.

$2 Solid Oak Costumer

49c

Made of solid oak, golden finish; very strongly constructed; an exceptional value.

Accounts Opened from $5 to $1,000 on Small Weekly Payments

OUR GREAT FEBRUARY FURNITURE SALE

Unparalleled Savings of From 33⅓% to 50% Made Possible Only by Our Tremendous Buying Facilities

Only a Few of the Thousands of Bargains Are Shown. Everything in Our Enormous Stock Is Included in This Sale

Every homefurnishing want has been anticipated by our buyers, who, in order to secure price concessions for this sale, bought entire factory outputs. Durable, well made Furniture, with our time-honored guarantee, was never before sold at such money-saving prices. You can buy during this sale at savings of half, Carpets, Rugs, Linoleum, Comfortables, Blankets, Portieres, Curtains, Ranges, Refrigerators, Sewing Machines, Phonographs, etc.

YOU CAN OPEN AN ACCOUNT WITH ADVERTISED ARTICLES WITHOUT EXTRA CHARGE
OUR LIBERAL CREDIT REQUIRES NO CLUB FEES, NO INTEREST ADDED, NO EXTRA CHARGES OF ANY KIND

$30 China Closet

14.98

Solid oak China closet, golden finish, highly polished, neatly carved top with dragon heads; four deep roomy shelves; heavy claw feet.

$40 Phonograph

17.49

Cabinet of selected quartered oak, piano polished; fixed arm, elbow, tone arm, reproducer crank and turntable rim are nickeled and burnished; black enameled horn, with gold trimmings. Equipment includes a supply of needles.

$40 DRESSER

19.98

In mahogany, tuna mahogany, birdseye maple and golden oak. Highly polished, large beveled plate mirror.

Chiffonier to match, in same woods, at 17.49

$5 Oil Heater

2.49

The best and safest Oil Heater to be purchased. Smokeless and odorless. Our line embraces all sizes in japan and nickel finish.

$10 Brass Bed

Heavy posts, five substantial filler rods in head and foot; perfect lacquer and construction.

5.89

$20 Kitchen Range

8.98

Extra large kitchen range; high-grade construction, with nickel trimmings. Heavy castings—a fine baker.

SALE EXTRAORDINARY OF ROOM-SIZE RUGS

In Tapestry, Axminster and Wilton Velvet—Patterns to Please Every Taste

Room-Size Tapestry Rugs

Every wanted pattern; values up to $40, special at 14.98

Room-Size Axminster Rugs

Choice of Oriental and Persian designs; values up to $50, at .. 19.98

You must see these Rugs in order to appreciate the values

Room-Size Wilton Velvet Rugs

Genuine Wilton Velvet; choice of floral patterns; Oriental and Persian designs; values up to $75, specially priced at 24.98

You can open an account with the purchase of one of these rugs, or you can add it to your account without any extra charges of any kind.

A Cabinet Filled With KEEN KUTTER Tools

is a present any man or boy will be proud of.

Gentlemen, if you havn't someone to give you a set, buy one yourself; it will be a treat.

They are always useful in making repairs around the house, and when a Tool is wanted the Cabinet is the place to go.

Why buy odd jobs tools when you can purchase a Cabinet with a complete set of the most useful tools, and then have a place for each one.

F. A. Kirch & Co.

205 Park Ave.

Phone 578.

REPAIRING OF Watches, Clocks and Jewelry and everything that can be repaired by a Jeweler done here at short notice, and all work guaranteed.

WE ARE READY TO MEET ANY DEMAND IN DIAMONDS, Watches, Jewelry or Silverware you may desire at prices so moderate that you will find no need to go elsewhere. Come in and let us convince you.

PETER DELGYER The Jeweler

130 PARK AVENUE

Phone 893-J. Near Front Street

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

The Store is opened at 9 A. M.

B. Altman & Co.

have arranged for to-morrow (Saturday)

AN EXTRAORDINARY SALE OF

Over 20,000 Yards of All-Silk Crepe Charmeuse and Drap de Charmeuse

(40 inches wide), at the special price of

$1.80 per yard

in the newest shades for Afternoon and Evening, as well as in white, ivory and black.

Fifth Avenue, 34th and 35th Streets, New York.

Attend the Remarkable FUR SALE of

Charles Kurtzman Furs of Quality 178 E. Front

DR. PITTIS OFFICE BUILDING

SCHMIDT GUILTY; LAUGHS AT JURY

Smiles as Verdict Dooming Him Is Read.

WILL OPPOSE ANY APPEAL

Tells Counsel He Wants No Delay and Death Will Be Welcome—To Be Sentenced Next Week—One Ballot Taker by Jury.

New York, Feb. 6.—Guilty of murder in the first degree was the verdict returned by the jury under Justice Vernon M. Davis in the case of Hans Schmidt, former priest of St. Joseph's church, in West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, who on Sept. 2, 1913, killed Anna Aumuller and later cut her body up and threw it into the Hudson river. He will be sentenced next Wednesday.

Schmidt later said he would not aid his counsel in any appeal in his behalf and said he would like to die today and not delay it.

The whole attitude of the prisoner seemed to indicate that as soon as he heard the verdict a big load had been lifted off his shoulders, and he was apparently happy.

When Foreman E. Howard Underhill in a clear voice announced the verdict of guilty Schmidt, who had not been looking at the jurors, turned his head slightly, uttered a guttural "Ugh!" and started to walk away. Court Captain James Cavanagh grabbed him and faced him about. From then on there was a smile on the face of the condemned man, and he gave his pedigree in a clear voice.

Clerk Penney of the court took Schmidt's pedigree. He said he was born on Jan. 3, 1881, at Aschaffensburg, Germany, and that his parents were born in that country. When asked his occupation Schmidt in a low but distinct tone answered, "Priest." Then followed the formal record, as follows:

Says He Was Married.

"Are you married?"

"Yes," after considerable hesitation.

"Can you read and write and speak English?"

"Yes."

"Are your parents living?"

"Yes, both."

"Have you ever received any religious instruction?"

"Yes," answered Schmidt as he laughed audibly.

"Are you temperate, intemperate or moderate?"

"Moderate," was his answer after a slight delay, with the same smile about his mouth.

He said he had taken out his first naturalization papers two years ago. He also answered that he had never before been convicted of crime.

This ended the ordeal for Schmidt, and his counsel, Terence J. McManus, asked that sentence be deferred until he could have a chance to prepare his motions. Justice Davis set the date of sentence for Wednesday next.

Schmidt was then taken from the courtroom. He held his head erect, but for the first time since his trial began he seemed to take an interest in his surroundings. He looked about the court, but kept right on going and was in his cell in the Tombs within fifteen minutes.

The murder of Anna Aumuller was one of the most horrible in the crime history of this city. Schmidt was a priest attached to St. Joseph's church in West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street when he took the girl to a flat he had fitted up at 68 Bradhurst avenue. He confessed that on the morning of Sept. 2 last he went to the house about midnight and while she slept cut her throat and then dismembered the body, cutting it into nine parts. These he disposed of by throwing them into the Hudson river. The torso was found on the Jersey shore, and three pieces have been found. The head is still missing.

Inspector Faurot and his staff of detectives got to work, and Schmidt was arrested Sept. 15 at the rectory of the church. He made a complete confession to the police.

Assistant District Attorney Delehanty, assisted by Morris Koenig and Deacon Murphy, tried the case. This was the second trial. The first began in general sessions before Judge Foster Dec. 9 and ended Dec. 30 in a disagreement, standing 10 to 2 for conviction of murder in the first degree. The jury was kept locked up thirty-four hours.

The second trial was started Jan. 19. District Attorney Whitman was in court when the verdict was announced, but he would make no comment.

ANOTHER BRYAN TREATY.

Denmark Latest to Enter "Peace Pact" With United States.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Secretary Bryan and Minister Brun signed an arbitration treaty effective between the United States and Denmark.

This is the eighth so called "peace pact" signed by Bryan and the second with a European power, Holland having previously signed.

Bryan announced that the Persian authorities agreed to a peace treaty similar to that signed by Salvador last year.

Bavaria to Buy Radium.

Munich, Feb. 6.—The Bavarian parliament appropriated $150,000 for the purchase of radium with which to treat the poor of the kingdom for cancer.

—Something unusual for the table is always a welcome treat to the home folks. The ad-reading women does not find the problem hard.

HANS SCHMIDT.

Picture of Ex-Priest, Convicted of Crime of Murder.

Photo by American Press Association.

PRESIDENT FIGHTS THE TOLL EXEMPTION

Wilson Accepts the Contention of England.

Washington, Feb. 6.—President Wilson let it be known that he favors the repeal at this session of congress of the provision of the Panama canal act exempting American coastwise vessels from the payment of tolls.

This was the first statement of any official character regarding the president's attitude toward the canal toll controversy in which Great Britain has made such vigorous protests against what she deemed a violation of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty.

The president in permitting the announcement to go forth settled definitely the reports that he will support the pending house bill, which would suspend the operation of the free toll provision until such time as the water way becomes self supporting.

The president made it clear that he will not dally with any measure designed to evade the issue either for a period of years as provided by the house bill or for six months as suggested by Senator O'Gorman.

The president is definitely convinced that the exemption of the American vessels would constitute a discrimination against the terms of the treaty.

With the merits of the issue settled in his mind the president will work for the outright repeal of the discriminatory provision as early as possible in the present session.

It is not known definitely that the president will send a message to congress on the tolls question, but he will take such a step should any considerable difficulty be encountered in either house in the way of the desired repeal.

The need for action at the present session has impressed itself on the president because of the fear that postponement until the next session might delay the repeal beyond the opening of the canal.

LIGHTNING CURES PARALYSIS

Mr. Partlow's Rheumatism, Too, Is Healed by the Flash.

Shelby, Mich., Feb. 6.—That he was cured of an attack of rheumatism by the shock of a bolt of lightning which struck very close to him a short time ago is the statement of George Partlow of Shelby.

Previous to his narrow escape from death by lightning Partlow was crippled not only by rheumatism, but by the effects of a paralytic stroke. Since he was struck by lightning he has been steadily gaining, and he now appears to have recovered entirely from both the rheumatism and the paralysis.

He was burned badly by the lightning. The lower part of one leg still shows peculiar scars. He lost several teeth also, but the loss of his rheumatism amply compensates him.

FOR NEW HAGUE CONFERENCE

United States Sends Suggestion to Queen Wilhelmina.

Washington, Feb. 6.—The first move looking to a new Hague peace conference has been taken by the United States, according to persons who talked with President Wilson. It was stated that this government has written to Queen Wilhelmina regarding the matter and that United States Minister Van Dyke has been instructed to present the communication.

MAY IMPEACH GOVERNMENT.

Minorities In Diet Resent Cabinet's Naval Policy.

Tokyo, Feb. 6.—The minority parties in the imperial diet adopted a resolution to impeach the government because of its naval policy. It was believed that the impeachment would fail because the Seiyukai party is supporting the government.

—You can make it pay you to read the store ads in today's paper—make it pay you in actual savings on purchases you need to make. Try the experiment.

BREMNER TO HAVE LARGE FUNERAL

Governor Fielder and State Officials Will Attend.

SYMPATHY FROM WILSON

Obsequies For Late Congressman Probably Will Be Held Sunday From His Home In Passaic—Congress Adopts Resolutions—He Made Heroic Fight. His Early Career.

Passaic, N. J., Feb. 6.—The funeral of Congressman Robert Bremner, from the Seventh New Jersey district, who died in Baltimore while undergoing a treatment for cancer, will probably be held Sunday afternoon from his home here.

Already preparations are being made by civic bodies for attending the obsequies, which promise to be the largest ever held in this section of the state.

Included in the funeral cortege will be Governor Fielder and practically all members of the legislature and many state officials.

News of Mr. Bremner's death was immediately transmitted to President Wilson and congress. Speaker Clark of the lower house and Democratic Leader Underwood held a conference, and it was decided that after the pressure of important business had been done away with to adjourn in honor of "genial Bob Bremner."

President Wilson sent the following telegram to Mrs. Bremner:

"Allow me to express my deep sympathy with you. I feel for myself I have lost a dear and an admirable friend."

Mr. Bremner's illness had attracted widespread public attention, and it was the application of radium to his case that prompted Secretary of the Interior Lane to recommend the passage of a bill reserving to the government lands containing radium bearing ores. The Lane bill has been reported to the house and soon will be passed in that body.

The house adopted a resolution extending its sympathy to the family of Mr. Bremner and providing that at a future date eulogies on the life and public services of the deceased should be pronounced. The date of this memorial session will be fixed later. The resolution also provided for the appointment of a committee of members to attend the funeral of Mr. Bremner.

Robert Gunn Bremner's career was typically American, though he was born across the seas on the shores of Scotland. He battled his way through the world and rose step by step in the ranks of journalism until when the end came he was the owner of one of the most flourishing newspapers of this state. Not alone was he the successful business man. In the world of letters he also was self taught, but nevertheless achieved a position of culture, his brilliant mind scintillating with the logic of the scholar. He never lost his democracy or his optimism. He always had faith in human nature. He always felt that there was a good strain in every man; that there was good to be done by every one.

The pathetic feature of Mr. Bremner's career was that he was cut down even before he reached the prime of life and that his years of achievement and effort were not marked by a period of fruitful rest and enjoyment with those whom he loved and who reciprocated his efforts.

The New Jersey congressman went to Dr. Howard Kelly's sanitarium to try the radium after physicians of this country and Europe had vainly tried to cure. It was found that the disease had made such inroads upon him that the fight against death would be made with all the odds against him. Mr. Bremner was optimistic, however, and tubes containing $100,000 worth of radium were applied to the growth. For a time the patient seemed to improve, and members of his family frequently expressed the belief that he would recover. They clung to this hope until a few days ago, when the sick man was seized with a sinking spell.

STATE SHORT ON AUTO TAGS

Owners Running on 1913 Licenses Subject to Arrest.

Paterson, N. J., Feb. 6.—There is a shortage of 1914 automobile license tags in this part of New Jersey and, though the thirty days of grace were up Feb. 1, many autoists are running their cars on the 1913 numbers.

A score of owners arrested by the police here have been discharged, investigation having proved the tags are not obtainable. State Inspector Lippincott's supply has been exhausted, owing in great part to the demand for New Jersey numbers by New York autoists this year.

HER "OLD MASTERS" TRASH.

Miss Buttner Died Thinking They Were Worth More Than $25,000.

Montclair, N. J., Feb. 6.—A collection of "old masters," which Miss Marie Augusta Buttner believed was worth at least $25,000, has a value of not more than $450, according to an opinion filed by Vice Chancellor Howell, who has been engaged for some time interpreting the ambiguous clauses of Miss Buttner's will. For twenty years she taught German in the Barringer High school in Newark.

—There's not a dull, nor an unimportant ad. in today's paper. There's not one that may safely be overlooked by any great number of the paper's readers.

GOOD ILLUSTRATION, BUT NO CHANCE TO RUN IT

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

NEWARK PINNERS LEADING LEAGUE

They Took Three in a Row From New York Bowlers Last Night.

LOCAL'S SERIES OFF

Jersey City Overwhelmed and Suffer Triple Defeat at the Expense of Paterson—One Match Was Postponed.

ELKS' LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	H. S.
Newark	31	14	1050
New Brunswick	28	17	1032
Jersey City	27	17	1019
Paterson	27	18	1011
Hoboken	24	21	1032
Elizabeth	23	22	1057
New York	21	24	1008
Plainfield	20	22	1029
Rahway	13	29	927
Orange	7	38	968

Newark Elks are now enjoying a three-game lead in the bowling competition being conducted by the Elks' League. They won three games in a row last night on their own alleys from the New York pin knights, while the Jersey City Elks, who were their closest rivals, dropped three games straight at Paterson. Jersey City is now tied with New Brunswick for second place, with Paterson only a game each way behind.

The Newark bowlers accounted for a total of 1,050 in the first game last night, this being only seven pins behind the league record of 1,057, made by the Elizabeths. It was only Wednesday night that the Newarks rolled 1,046 in a league match, and their performance last night showed that they are consistent performers. New York only accounted for 810 in this game.

The scores:

NEWARK.

Williams	247	191	179
Hinton	218	166	164
Clark	198	161	171
Erler	184	181	194
Weingarth	203	204	175
	1050	903	883

NEW YORK.

L. Westphal	193	155	178
A. Westphal	175	169	178
Pringle	105	...	...
Schmitt	...	132	147
Engelking	168	167	166
Starr	169	137	174
	810	760	843

SURPRISE FOR JERSEY CITY.

Jersey City bowlers were treated to an unpleasant surprise when they dropped three games in an Elks' League match at Paterson last night. They put up a pretty fair argument, though the scores were not extraordinary. In the first game the Patersonians, with 881, showed to the front by thirty-two pins. The next game saw the home five tally 869, and it had an advantage of twenty-one pins. In the last game there was no chance at all for Jersey City. The visitors only marked 790, Paterson finishing 107 pins ahead.

The scores:

JERSEY CITY.

Wright	157	189	153
Russell	141	165	152
Delehanty	209	167	154
Wasserman	184	150	131
Corydon	158	177	200
	849	848	790

PATERSON.

Roth	179	173	188
O'Gorman	167	167	166
Curtis	173	189	168
Romary	186	187	206
Taylor	176	153	169
	881	869	897

BIG MARKS AT HOBOKEN.

There were some big tallies in the Elks' League match at Hoboken last night, the home team getting two games out of three from the Elizabeth bowlers. In the last game Hoboken was there for 1,032 and Elizabeth marked 956. The visitors did their best pinning in the second game, when they accounted gor 967, Hoboken being fifty-eight pins behind. The first game was a hard fight all the way, Hoboken, with 868, winning by twelve pins. Miller rolled 245 and 211 for Hoboken and Eppel was there for 207. Bock had 224 for Elizabeth, Henry Clauss had 215 and 204, with an average of 202-1, and Maloney rolled 208.

The scores:

HOBOKEN.

Eppel	167	169	207
Mittlesdorf	193	163	199
Duffy	196	172	197
Earle	161	194	184
Miller	151	211	245
	868	909	1032

ELIZABETH.

Nolte	165	167	139
Gathman	166	196	188
Maloney	178	208	195
Clauss	188	204	215
Bock	159	192	224
	856	967	956

LEAGUE MATCH POSTPONED.

The Elks' League bowling match, scheduled to be rolled last night between the Plainfield and Rahway teams on the latter's alleys, was postponed. No date was set for the match.

Queries, Comment and Answers

Sporting Editor:

Query—Where can I secure information regarding the applications which have to be made for positions on the local police force?—J. T.

Answer—See Chief of Police Kiely at the local headquarters.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Would you be kind enough to give me the values on the following coins: Half dollar dated 1858, half dollar 1875, dimes of 1840, 1843, 1853, 1858; large copper cents dated 1817, 1833 and 1838?—R. M. T. R.

Answer—Half dollar dated 1858 is worth fifty cents, half dollar of 1875 is worth half a dollar; your dimes are each worth ten cents, and your cents have no premiums.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Will you kindly tell me the value of a large copper penny dated 1844?—J. P.

Answer—One cent.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Please tell me if there is any premium on a nickle dated 1867 with thirteen stars around the "5"?—L. P.

Answer—Your neckle is worth ten cents today.

Sporting Editor:

Query—How long and how wide should the regulation basketball court be?—B. D.

Answer—Seventy by fifty feet is the regulation dimension, or 4,000 square feet of floor space.

Sporting Editor:

Query—When will the Sportsman's Show be opened in New York city?—N. M.

Answer—February 21 is the opening date for this event.

SOUTH SIDE HIGH SCHOOL ATHLETES CANCELLED MEET

Plainfield High School track athletes were treated to a rude bump yesterday afternoon, when at the eleventh hour the South Side High School athletes, of Newark, cancelled the engagement they had with the local track team at that place tomorrow afternoon. The announcement was made after a full week of hard practise had been put in by the locals and the Plainfielders were acquainted with the news shortly after the tryouts had been completed yesterday afternoon.

This is the second cancellation between these two teams this season and it now seems doubtful if the local athletes will go to the trouble of arranging a third meet. The locals were primed to win the meet and the squad of athletes selected to compete was one of the best ever taken from High School material here.

PARADE BALL PLAYERS.

Naples, Feb. 6—A great procession of the sporting clubs, under the leadership of Count Filangieri, will meet the members of the New York Baseball Club of the National League and the Chicago Club of the American League on their arrival here tomorrow from Cairo.

WESTFIELD TEAM RAN AWAY WITH PLAINS SECOND TEAM

The "B. A. C.," of Westfield, went to the Scotch Plains Parish House, last night, and took the second team into camp by a 44 to 24 score. Taylor carried off honors for the evening, dropping the ball in for nineteen counters. Hall started for the Parish House with ten points.

The scores:

SCOTCH PLAINS.

	G.	F.	P.
Hall, f	3	4	10
Saunders, f	1	0	2
Jaspersen, c	4	0	8
Marston, g	1	0	2
Anson, g	0	0	0
Gilmartin, f	1	0	2
	10	4	24

"B. A. C."

	G.	F.	P.
Day, f	5	0	10
Alleger, f	1	1	3
Taylor, c	9	1	19
Poole, g	1	0	2
G. Dilmartin, g	4	0	8
Trimble, f	1	0	2
	21	2	44

Score by halves:

Scotch Plains	12	12—24
"B. A. C."	21	23—44

Referee, Batterson.

TWO GOOD GAMES WILL BE PLAYED IN HOPE CHAPEL

Hope Chapel will be the scene of two basketball games tomorrow night, the first team taking on the Peerless Five, of Newark, and the second team lining up against the fast traveling Holy Cross five.

It is expected that the Chapelites will have their regular lineup tomorrow night for the first time since the Y. M. C. A. game and followers of the sport who frequent that rendezvous wil be treated to a real program of the court game.

BALTUSROL AS HOST.

A new invitation tournament and one that will be most welcome to golfers in the metropolitan district will be held in all probability during the coming season. The Baltusrol Golf Club at present is considering plans for an invitation tourney, and Frederick H. Thomas, the secretary of the Metropolitan Golf Association, has been asked to reserve Thursday, Friday and Saturday, June 25, 26 and 27, for Baltusrol.

AMERICAN LEAGUE MEETING.

President Ban Johnson has issued a call for a special meeting of the American League at the Biltmore Hotel, New York, next Wednesday for the ostensible purpose of adopting the playing schedule.

DOUBLE BASKETBALL BILL FOR Y. M. C. A.

Plainfield High School Will Appear in the Preliminary Engagement.

Contrary to previous expectations, those interested in local basketball will be able to get plenty of nourishment in this city Saturday night, the Y. M. C. A. team having cancelled its engagement with the Belleville aggregation and taken on the Summit Chapel Club, thus substituting a home game and pushing the Belleville contest along for two weeks. Added interest has been given to Saturday night's program by the fact that the Plainfield High School team will appear in a preliminary contest with the Glen Ridge combination.

Plainfield played the Summit Chapel Club last year and won by a narrow margin and the manager of the visiting team has bolstered his lineup considerably for this engagement. The Plainfield High School five was beaten by the Glen Ridge scholboys early in the season and this contest is also expected to be a hummer. Both of the Plainfield teams will have their regular lineups on the floor tomorrow night.

"Sportdom Tips"

Many are the grievances a substitute on a High School basketball team has to relate concerning the treatment he is handed during the playing season and many are the known hardships which the "sub" has to contend with. Such is the case with an able bodied group of North Plainfield High School second string men who daily don basketball togs and either adorn the sidelines or act as sparring partners for the first team men. True, these players will probably be stars of the future, but why not let them get used to appearing in the limelight while they are stamped with the tolerable handle of "Substitute?" The borough school has one of the finest squads of second string performers that has ever been herded together by a High School team in the borough, and their zealous and untiring efforts during weeks of unrecognized "grinding" have done much toward turning out a championship first team in the Canadian territory.

THE CANUCKS LOOK BEST.

The Canucks of the North Plainfield High School look like the one best bet just at present for the Interscholastic basketball champion, both Plainfield High School and Leal School players having fell before their prowess during the league race. N. P. H. S. has yet to defeat Plainfield High and if this is accomplished next Thursday night on the Saengerbund Hall court the hostilities will be at an end. N. P. H. S. is the conceded champion of Somerset county and with the local interscholastic title tucked away the boroughites will have established a record similar to the one of two years ago when they brought down the double honors.

It may be true that those Hope chapel youths do not want to mingle with common basketball players but we would a great deal rather see them trying to dislocate their vertebrae in their efforts to put on that series with North Plainfield High School.

In case of North Plainfield High School life is just one darn victory after another.

A bystander hearing the murmurs coming from the Y. M. C. A. gym last Saturday night might have got the impression that a feminine game was in progress. The contest was one of the soft pedal variety.

The chief fault we have to find with the sporty game of hockey is that it enabled those P. H. S. athletes to break the monotonous defeat grind in their 1914 routine.

Central High School basketball players intend to declare a war on the school's athletic association unless they are given the money they advanced personally for the purchase of shoes before the season opened. Why begin with a foot kick?

News item—A game between the Battin girls and the local Y. M. C. A. team (without lines) would be well worth seeing. We admit it would be well worth seeing, but why rub it in?

In a practice game in the P. H. S. gym yesterday afternoon, the second team defeated the first squad by a score of 17 to 11. The proceedings were secret.

JAKE DAUBERT BROUGHT IN THE MOST COUNTERS

Jake Daubert, of the Superbas, who won the Chalmers car offered to the National League player most valuable to his team, led the old organization in batting in runs last season, but he did not set the pace in driving in runs. That honor was claimed by Gavvy Cravath, of the Phillies, who hung up a new mark for timely clouting in the National by putting the finishing touches to 129 tallies. The previous high water mark in this respect was 121, reached by Frank Schulte, of the Cubs, the year the Chalmers jury of newspaper experts voted him an auto for his meritorious work, which was 1911.

Cravath alone was in the century class in driving in runs last season. Men who previously had batted in one hundred or more tallies from 1907 to 1912, inclusive, were Hans Wagner, of the Pirates, with 106 in 1908, 102 in 1909 and 108 in 1911; Mike Donlin, of the Giants, with 100 in 1908; Sherwood Magee, of the Phillies, with 116 in 1910; Frank Schulte, of the Cubs, with 121 in 1911, and Chief Wilson, of the Pirates, with 108 in 1911.

Of the 129 tallies batted home by Cravath in 1913, 114 came in on safe hits, eight on sacrifice flies and seven on infield outs. Gavvy's biggest day's work with the stick was on May 21 in a game with Cincinnati, Johnson, Harter and Smith pitching, he then being responsible for six of the twelve runs his team made. Two Cubs—Fred Williams and Heinie Zimmerman—equalled Cravath's stunt of May 21 later in the season, the outfielder driving in six runs on August 5 against Brooklyn, Rucker and Curtis pitching, and the infielder hammering home half a dozen counters on August 16 against Philadelphia, Rixey, Seaton, Marshall and Imlay pitching.

Zimmerman ranked second to Cravath in the Timely Hitting League, the big Cub being credited with driving in ninety-seven counters. The third most opportune clubber among the National Leaguers of 1913 was Vic Saier, of Chicago; the fourth, Jack Miller, of Pittsburgh; the fifth, Fred Luderus, of Philadelphia; the sixth, J. Carlisle Smith, of Brooklyn; the seventh, George Cutshaw, of Brooklyn; the eighth, J. Owen Wilson, of Pittsburgh; the ninth, Fred Merkle, of New York, and the tenth, Ed. Konetchy, of St. Louis.

The team leaders in driving in runs were Cravath, for Philadelphia, 129; Zimmerman, for Chicago, 97; Miller, for Pittsburgh, 90; Smith for Brooklyn, 79; Merkle, for New York, 74; Konetchy, for St. Louis, 74; Hoblitzel, for Cincinnati, 68, and Connolly, for Boston, 55. By positions these men excelled:

Cravath, Philadelphia, for right fielders, 129.

Zimmerman, Chicago, for third basemen, 97.

Saier, Chicago, for first basemen, 93.

Cutshaw, Brooklyn, for shortstops (he used to be one), 78.

Wilson, Pittsburgh, for centre fielders, 76.

Doyle, New York, for second basemen, 72.

Schulte, Chicago, for left fielders (he used to be one), 72.

Meyers, New York, for catchers, 72.

Adams, Pittsburgh, for pitchers, 14.

The National Leaguers of 1913 who most often cleared the bases of their three inhabitants by projecting doubles, triples and homers were Cravath, of the Phillies; Merkle, of the Giants, and Saier, of the Cubs. Each athlete delivered three clean up blows, Saier's record being a mite the better in that twice he tripled with the bases loaded and once he clouted for the circuit with the sacks all tenanted. The trio of base-cleaning drives contributed by the two Easterners consisted of a brace of doubles and a triple.

Here is a list of the National League players who batted in fifty or more runs last season:

	Safe Hits.	S. Flies
Cravath, Philadelphia	114	8
Zimmerman, Chicago	82	11
Saier, Chicago	78	10
Miller, Pittsburgh	72	15
Luderus, Philadelphia	72	8
Smith, Brooklyn	72	5
Cutshaw, Brooklyn	68	8
Wilson, Pittsburgh	68	2
Merkle, New York	59	7
Konetchy, St. Louis	59	13
Schulte Chicago	64	9
Doyle, New York	58	9
Wheat, Brooklyn	57	7
Fletcher, New York	55	7
Hoblitzel, Cincinnati	59	5
Magee, Philadelphia	58	7
Viox, Pittsburgh	52	8
Tinker, Cincinnati	55	5
Lobert, Philadelphia	53	6
R. Fisher, Brooklyn	58	6
Becker, Cin.-Phila	51	3
Murray, New York	45	8
Wagner, Pittsburgh	48	2
Connolly, Boston	48	4
Mitchell, Chi.-Pitts.	43	7
Carey, Pittsburgh	50	1
Knabe, Philadelphia	42	7
Burns, New York	43	4
Sweeney, Boston	41	6

BRUGGY WITH AMERICANS.

Frank Bruggy, the local ball player, who has gained considerable fame on the basketball court during the winter months, will play with the American Five, of Paterson, during the remainder of the season. He will appear with the Silk City five in a game against the Bayview Wheelmen, in Newark, Sunday.

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY

from the fact that breakdowns will happen, no matter how high a grade of wheel you own. Unless you are exceptionally fortunate, you'll need our services as bicycle repairers par excellence sooner or later. True, you may save a mishap by letting us overhaul your machine after a long ride; but at any and all times will do the best possible for you and your wheel.

LEO ZEISEL

Bicycles, Sundries, Musical Instruments and Sporting Goods.

Temporary at 328 W. Front St. Permanent Headquarters after March 1st, 222 W. Front St., Next Door to Proctor's.

PHILADELPHIA HARBORS MANY TIMELY SWATTERS

Philadelphia was the abiding place last season of the two men who lead the major leagues in timely hitting. Frank Baker, of the Athletics, having lead the Americans in this respect just as Gavvy Cravath did the Nationals. J. Franklin hammered home 133 marks in 1913, which was four more than were driven over the plate by the fence breaker from California who ran Jake Daubert, winner of the Chalmers car offered to the National's most valuable player, such a close race for the batting laurels. Baker, like Cravath, was the lone man in the century class in his league in driving in tallies. Derrill Pratt, of the Browns, was the runner-up, just falling short in his attempt to get in the three figure division. The St. Louis infielder added the finishing touches to 98 runs. Third among the timely wallopers stood McInnis, of the White Elephants, with 93 to his credit; fourth, was Jack Barry, also a Mackman, with 92; fifth, was Sam Crawford, of Detroit, with 90; sixth, was Duffy Lewis, of Boston, with 86; seventh, was Joe Jackson, of Cleveland, with 84; eighth, was Tris Speaker, of Boston, 81; ninth, was Eddie Collins, of Philadelphia, with 75, and tenth, was Napoleon Lajoie, of Cleveland, with 74. In 1912 the ten first opportune hitsmiths were Baker, of Philadelphia, with 133; Lewis, of Boston, with 111; Crawford, of Detroit, with 108; McInnis, of Philadelphia, with 103; Speaker, of Boston, with 98; Lajoie, of Cleveland, with 96; Jackson, of Cleveland, with 95; Cobb, of Detroit, with 90; Gandil, of Washington, with 85, and Gardner, of Boston, with 85.

There were only two changes among the team leaders in timely hitting. Baker again excelled for the White Elephants, Gandil for the Senators, Lewis for the Red Sox, Bodie for the White Sox, Pratt for the Browns, and Crawford for the Tigers, Cree supplanting Chase as the Yankees' best willow wielder in the pinches, and Jackson beating out Lajoie for the honor among the Naps. The eight team leaders of 1913 batted in 679 runs, which was sixteen more than were driven home by the Athletics, who had the most powerful attack of any American League club.

The Johnsonites' ablest team of timely hitters for the past season would be of World's Championship calibre and would have on it men from every club save New York. Its battery would consist of Walter Johnson, of Washington (winner of a Chalmers car), and Ray Schalk, of Chicago; McInnis, Barry and Baker, of Philadelphia, and Pratt, of St. Louis, would form its infield, and Crawford, of Detroit; Jackson, of Cleveland, and Lewis, of Boston, would compose its trio of gardeners.

Of the 126 runs batted in by Baker last season, 110 were registered on safe hits, seven on sacrifice flies and nine on infield outs. McInnis, of Philadelphia, and Collins, of Chicago, players who both were born in the Bay State, took the lead in bringing in runners on aerial sacrifices, each athlete scoring eleven. At scoring men on infield outs, Jack Barry, of Philadelphia, set the pace, with 17. The reason Barry was the leader was that he was the man Connie Mack selected when the White Elephants were due to work the double squeeze. On no less than eight occasions the Tall Tactician had the pleasure of seeing the double squeeze worked on the unsuspecting opposition. The Tigers were the victims of this play thrice, the Browns twice, the Red Sox twice and the Nationals once. Walter Johnson was Washington's gunner when Barry worked the double squeeze against the Senators.

Baker did not claim the 1913 record for the greatest number of men driven home in a game, that honor being procured by Peckinpaugh, of New York, in a game with Detroit on August 22. Then the Nap discard put the finishing touches to six of his teams' dozen markers, hitting for the full distance with the bases all occupied in the second inning and doub-

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons
Store Closes Saturday at 9 P. M.

COATS FOR THE LITTLE TOT

INFANTS COATS AT 2.50

USUALLY SOLD FOR $3.50

Just in from the maker—these unusual coats for infants, in both long and short models. They are made of wool cashmere and interlined with a warm material to give added protection for the little tots. Very tastefully embroidered collars, too.

Worth $3.50—these coats—but tomorrow's price, because of a special purchase, will be $2.50

CHILDREN'S 59c WASH DRESSES FOR 39c

Children's Washable Dresses of Gingham and Percale, several very pretty styles; in good, washable checks and stripes; effectively trimmed; round neck and three-quarter length sleeves; sizes 2 to 6 years; reg. 59c, special at ... 39c

SECOND FLOOR

THE NEW BIT OF MUSLINWEAR

WOMEN'S KNICKERBOCKER DRAWERS 29c TO 98c

The Knickerbocker Drawer is the ideal undergarment for the present-day style of dress, doing away with all unnecessary fullness and insuring a perfect garment. Tomorrow we feature these:

Women's Knickerbocker Drawers of good quality Nainsook; gathered at the knee with pretty embroidery; ribbon run; both open and closed styles; special at 29c

Women's Knickerbocker Drawers of fine Nainsook, gathered at the knee; trimmings of lace and embroidery; special at 39c

Women's Knickerbocker Drawers of excellent quality Nainsook, gathered at the knee, with trimming of dainty lace insertion and edge; also embroidery with ribbon finish; special, tomorrow, at 50c

Women's Knickerbocker Bloomers of Seco Silk, in white, gathered at knee with elastic; also elastic waist band, making it an ideal garment for milady; special at 98c

SECOND FLOOR.

NEW SILK PETTICOATS ARE COMING IN

Together with many other new things for women. Especially interesting are the new silk petticoats.

New Messaline Petticoats at $1.98—A most excellent quality of messaline, new style and the very newest colorings.

New Silk Petticoats for $2.98—To conform to the new style turns—made of a superior quality messaline, in the new shades; both plain and two-toned effects; and with a silk underflounce.

Extra Size Silk Petticoats at $4.50—Splendid petticoats for those women who take the extra sizes; of heavy quality messaline; beautiful colorings, and with a silk underflounce.

MEN'S NEGLIGEE SHIRTS AT 87c

MADE OF THE MATERIALS USUALLY FOUND IN $1 AND $1.50 GRADES

We contracted for these shirts months ago and therefore are offering shirts that have been made strictly up to the Hahne & Co. standard. The material involved in the making is the finest count percale, in a good assortment of color combinations. Cut in the popular coat style and have cuffs attached and neck bands. They are made in either plain or plaited bosoms. The material is the same as that usually employed in the making of $1.00 and $1.50 shirts. Special at 87c

HAHNE & CO.

Newark, New Jersey's Greatest Store

FRESH CUT FLOWERS, $1 THE BOX.

A box of Fresh Cut Flowers, consisting of Roses, Sweet Peas, Carnations and other spring flowers, with an abundance of ferns and asparagus; special at $1.00

Violets—50 to the bunch; tomorrow at 35c

Floral Designs, $1.00 and up.

Potted Plants of all kinds.

All kinds of spring Flowers—Tulips, Daffodils, Freesia, Lily of the Valley, Orchids, etc.

Flower Department—Main Floor and Basement.

Now for a Great Clean-Up of Men's Suits and Overcoats

One of Newark's Greatest sales. Every fancy suit and overcoat in the Men's Clothing Section goes in this sale. Nothing reserved except black and blue suits and full dress suits. Summing up in a few words, the story is this:

385 Men's Suits that have been marked at $12.50 and $13.50, for .. $7.75

125 Men's Overcoats, with shawl and convertible collars—of all wool materials $7.75

THE SUITS—Made of fine all-wool materials, in checks, stripes, plaids and plain colors. Also plenty of plain grays and brown and tan mixtures. Suits for almost any man. Sizes range from 34 to 46.

465 Men's Hand-Tailored Suits that have been priced $18 and up to $22.50 ..... $10.75

169 Men's Winter Overcoats—coats from our regular $18, $20 and $22.50 stocks $10.75

THE OVERCOATS—Overcoats of Chinchilla, and Black Kerseys, in plain and fancy backs. Several shades of gray, brown and blue, newest models, too. Single and double breasted models with shawl collars, belted backs, patch pockets and split sleeves. Also fancy mixtures and plain colored cheviots and cassimeres. Sizes 34 to 42.

BOYS' CLOTHING AT RARE LOW PRICES

200 Pairs of Boys' School Knickerbocker Trousers at 59c

75 Boys' School Suits, Norfolk and double breasted models, at $3.98

100 Boys' Blue Serge Norwolk Suits at $5.98

150 Boys' Spring Reefers, sizes 3 to 8 years, at $2.98

SECOND FLOOR

BLANKETS---SATURDAY AT VERY LOW PRICES

BLANKETS AT $2.00

White or gray Woolnap Blankets, soft close nap; made with pink or blue borders; size 64x76 inches; special at $2.00

BLANKETS AT $2.50

White or gray Woolnap Blankets, good medium weight, soft close nap, with pink and blue borders; size 66x80 inches; special at $2.50

WHITE WOOL BLANKETS AT $3.45

White Wool Blankets, full weight; cotton and wool mixed; made with dainty pink or blue borders; size 70x80 inches; an exceptionally good value at $4.25, special $3.45

WHITE WOOL BLANKETS AT $3.98

White Wool Blankets, cotton and wool mixed, standard weight, dainty pink or blue borders; size 70x80 inches; special at $3.98

WHITE WOOL BLANKETS AT $4.25

White Wool Blankets, one of our own special makes; filled with fine quality wool and cotton, full weight; 4-inch taffet silk binding in blue or pink to match border; size 70x80 inches; very special at $4.25

WHITE WOOL BLANKETS AT $5.50.

White California Wool Blankets, slight admixture of cotton, which adds to the wearing qualities; soft and fluffy; deep taffeta silk binding; pink or blue borders; size 70x80 inches, special at $5.50

COUNTERPANES AT $3.00 AND $3.50

White Satin Marseilles Counterpanes, in all new patterns; beautiful art lace and floral designs; very fine satin finish; large bed size; may be had with either hemmed or scalloped and cut corners.

Hemmed Counterpanes, at $3.00

Scalloped Counterpanes, at $3.50

MAIN FLOOR.

EXTRA! EXTRA! FROM THE GROCERY STORE

Three items only mentioned here to show the unusually low prices for Saturday. Homekeepers should certainly take advantage of them.

CRISCO—the regular 25c Proctor & Gamble's famous vegetable compound—a perfect substitute for every-day lard—at 19c

OLD DUTCH CLEANSER—the famous dirt chaser—known to every housekeeper; 2 cans for 13c

CONDENSED MILK—Borden's "Magnolia Brand" Condensed Milk, special, 2 cans for 19c

No mail or 'phone orders filled. We reserve the right to limit quantities to prevent dealers from buying.

BASEMENT.

9.98 ART GLASS DOMES AT 6.00

A very pretty bent panel dome; choice of one-light gas or electricity; usually sold at $9.98, special, tomorrow, at $6.00

$15.98 TO $21.50 DOMES AT $12.00

About fifteen factory samples of leaded glass Domes, one-light style, made for either gas or electricity; usually priced at $15.98 to $21.50, special, Saturday at $12.00

INVERTED LIGHTS FOR 23c

Inverted Lights, with gooseneck burner, good quality mantle and a half frosted globe; complete, Saturday at 23c

75c Surety Inverted Lights at 45c

84c Inverted Lights, choice of glassware, at 45c

10c Surety Inverted Mantles at 7c

15c Surety Inverted Mantles at 9c

25c Surety Inverted Mantles at 15c

BASEMENT.

Hahne & Co., Broad, New & Halsey Streets, Newark

ling and driving in two players in the first. The Detroit pitcher was North, a recruit from the Jackson club, of the Southern Michigan League. Joe Jackson, Frank Baker and Sam Crawford each drove in five tallies in contests. Players often batted in four runs in games. Crawford, McInnis, Cree, Baker and Barry each turning the trick twice.

Forty-one instances cropped up last season where the bases were cleared of their three inhabitants, because some one singled, doubled, tripled or hit for all four hassocks at the psychological moment. Baker had three clean-up drives to his credit (a single, double and triple), Cree two (a double and a homer), Cobb two (a double and a homer), Jackson two (a triple and a homer), and Chapman two (a double and a triple).

The greatest number of clean up smashes were collected off the deliveries of the Washington artillerists who yielded seven. Needless to say, Walter Johnson did not permit any. The batsmen garnered six clean-up drives off New York pitchers; six off Detroit's, six off Chicago's, five off St. Louis', five off Cleveland's, three off Boston's and three off Philadelphia's.

SHIFTED AGAIN.

The game originally scheduled to be played on the Plainfield High School gym tomorrow afternoon between the local girls and the quintet from the South Orange High School is being played this afternoon, as the result of an eleventh hour arrangement.

A GOOD CONTEST.

The Holy Cross Boys' Club basketball team has arranged to meet the Arrow Five of Brooklyn, on the local court next Wednesday night, in what promises to be the best game of the season staged by the borough churchboys.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

THIRD STRAIGHT VICTORY FOR HOLY CROSS QUINTET

The "Delta Phive" went down to defeat at the hands of Holy Cross Club last night on the latter's court by a score of 31 to 12. Holy Cross, although closely guarded, had many shots but could not seem to make them count until the game was nearly over. At the beginning of the second half Hebert caged a basket from the centre of the floor, closely followed by many shots from Day, Boylan and Denny. On the defense Van Mater and Miller starred. Day and Coudray, the mainstays of Holy Cross, were way off form, missing many easy shots.

Van Mater and Denny's passing together with Hebert's shooting were easily the features of the game. For the losers, Kirch and A. Seidel starred.

The scores:

HOLY CROSS.

	G.	F.	P.
Day, f	4	0	8
Coudray, f	1	0	2
Denny, f	2	0	4
Boylan, c	3	0	6
Hebert, g	5	1	11
Van Mater, g	0	0	0
Miller, g	0	0	0
	15	1	31

DELTA PHIVE.

	G.	F.	P.
Kirch, f	2	0	4
LaPorte, f	2	0	4
A. Seidel, c	2	0	4
Willett, g	0	0	0
W. Seidel, g	0	0	0
	6	0	12

Summary: Referee, Mr. Little. Timer, Ball; scorer, Stewart.

LEAL SCHOOL GAME.

According to the schedule issued by Manager Chauncey Stewart, the Leal School basketball team is due to play the Staten Island Academy boys at the latter place tomorrow afternoon.

LOCAL REFEREE SELECTED.

George Bridge, of this city, has been chosen to referee the big soccer match of the season to be played on the West End grounds in Somerville tomorrow afternoon for the cup donated by Sons of St. George Caledonian Club. The Nottingham Castle and Hawthornes will oppose each other.

WILL GO VIA AUTO BUS.

The Plainfield High School basketball team and a crowd of rooters will go to Morristown tonight, to play the High School basketball team of that place. The game will be contested on the Y. M. C. A. court in Morristown.

BACK IN ACTION.

After a long rest the Plainfield High School girls' basketball team will renew hostilities tomorrow afternoon, taking on the South Orange High School feminine quintet on the local court.

P. H. S. BASEBALL BEGINS.

Captain Benjamin Rosenson has issued the initial call for pitchers and catchers and the first practice of the Plainfield High School candidates will be held in the local gym Tuesday afternoon.

RICH KENTUCKY DERBY.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 6.—The Kentucky Derby of 1914 will have $10,000 added money, making it the richest derby that has been known since the first was run in 1875.

DATES FOR CUP RACES.

Races for the American Cup will be held over the regular cup course off Sandy Hook Thursday, Sept. 10, Saturday, Sept. 12, and Tuesday, Sept. 15.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It pays.

PERSONAL.

Captain James Parker, of Perth Amboy, father of Mrs. F. E. DuBois, of Washington avenue, is in very feeble health and has been unable to make his accustomed visits to this city for some time.

Peter Garretson, of East Millstone, has been visiting friends here for a short time.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McWilliams, of Hillside avenue, have been stopping in New York for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Love, who were recently married, have been spending a part of their honeymoon in Washington. Upon their return they will reside in the borough.

Mrs. Thomas MacDonald, of East Seventh street, who was a member of the chorus choir of the First Baptist church, has temporarily given up her position.

Edward R. Finch, of New York, has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Finch, of Park avenue, for a short time.

Hugh Jarvis, of Watchung avenue, is in San Domingo on an extended business trip.

D. W. Littell, of West Eighth street, who has been seriously ill at his home for some time, is slightly improved.

David J. Carney, editor of The Review, who is at Dr. I. H. Cooley's sanitarium on Somerset street, is in a critical condition.

Mr. and Mrs. James Parrish, of this city, who made an extended trip through the West and who returned to this city recently, have planned to remain here for the present.

Walter Murray, of New York, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Murray, Sr., of this city, who recently underwent an operation at St. Luke's Hospital, New York, is improving rapidly.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Hartley Mellick, who have been living for sometime at the home of Mrs. Mellick's father, O. T. Waring, have leased a residence on Park avenue near Cedarcroft, and will remove there March 1.

William French, formerly of Plainfield, but who has lived in the West for some time, is visiting his brother, Elston French, of Somerset street.

Albert J. Leader, of Duer street, who recently injured his leg which was fractured some time ago, is improving at his home under the care of Dr. T. S. Davis and he hopes to return to business in the near future.

Albert Galloway, formerly of Plainfield, but now of Lincoln, has resigned his position at the Saurer plant of the International Motor Company.

Mrs. George Angleman, of Jersey City, has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Corey of West Front street.

James C. Field, the West Front street druggist, will remove to Park avenue and West Fourth street March 1.

Mrs. Royle T. Phillips, of West Front street, is detained at home with an attack of the grip.

Herbert Langrod, of Compton avenue, has returned from a business trip to Boston.

William Murray of the west end has leased Henry Liefke's house on West Front street, near West End avenue, formerly occupied by Adolph Tepper, and will take possession about March 1.

Mrs. W. J. R. Thiers, of Grant avenue, who has been ill with the grip, has about recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank T. Ostrom, of Albert street, are occupying the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Smith, of Arlington avenue, during their sojourn in Bermuda for a month.

Mrs. Francis Bigelow, of Central avenue, who has been seriously ill for a long time is in a critical condition.

Charles H. Hall, the druggist, who has been seriously ill with a fever for some time, is convalescing.

KAISER'S SON-IN-LAW WHO RENOUNCED THRONE

PRINCE AND PRINCESS ERNST-AUGUST OF CUMBERLAND.

The government of the Duchy of Brunswick, which has been without a reigning Duke since 1884, was assumed by Prince Ernst August of Cumberland, who May 24 married Princess Victoria Luise, daughter of the German Emperor.

Differences between the Hohenzollern and Guelph families have thus been settled, for the new Duke in a declaration issued recently promised unswerving loyalty to the German Empire and Emperor and to the federated rulers of Germany.

He thus impliedly, though not actually, renounced his pretensions to the throne of Hanover, annexed to Prussia in 1866.

Advertise in The Daily Press

MEXICAN REBELS TAKE MAZATLAN

Port Is Captured After a Hard Fight.

MANY BANDITS ARE SLAIN

Artillery Fire Shatters Many Buildings Before They Are Successful—Huerta Issues Order For the Protection of All Noncombatants.

Nogales, Ariz., Feb. 6.—According to dispatches here, Mazatlan, an important seacoast port in the state of Sinaloa, has fallen into the hands of the rebels.

The capture of Mazatlan places the first seaport in the possession of the rebels. For months the Carranzistas have battled for Guaymas, Sonora's most important seaport, but without avail.

The rebels had been investing Mazatlan for several weeks, having captured Culiacan, the state capital, several weeks ago. Culiacan is north of Mazatlan, and it was used as a base for the rebel attack.

The federals had sent the larger part of their troops to the defense of Guaymas, which they evidently thought the rebels would first try to invest. This weakened the garrison to such an extent that the rebel victory was comparatively easy, although much hot fighting is said to have accompanied the fall of the port.

The rebels used artillery, and the shells shattered many buildings. The rebels had the advantage of protecting hills, and the federal gun fire was not effective.

Mazatlan is the home of many rich Spaniards and Mexicans, and the fall of the town will place many of them in a position where they may be forced to contribute to the rebels. Mazatlan has a commerce with California ports.

Guards Noncombatants.

Mexico City, Feb. 6.—A circular of instructions was issued by Provisional President Huerta to the chiefs of all army divisions and governors of states to the effect that the government, having began a more active campaign against the rebels extreme diligence be observed in giving all possible protection to noncombatants, foreign as well as native, removing them when necessary from the zones of operations.

Dr. Ignacio Alcocer, acting minister of the interior, in commenting today on the raising of the embargo on the exportation of arms and munitions of war from the United States to Mexico said it was proof of the sincerity of President Wilson, since for a long time nobody had been ignorant of the fact that there had been undisguised tolerance in the subject of introducing arms and ammunition across the border.

He said it would not aid the revolutionists, but that on the other hand the Mexican government would profit by it, "since it presents a happy opportunity to make known the power which it really possesses."

Juarez, Mex., Feb. 6.—Maxime Castillo, the bandit leader, after twenty-two of his men had been captured and put to death by a revolutionary force at El Valle, near Casas Grandes, set fire to the woodwork of the Drake tunnel, which carries the Mexico Northwestern railroad through the continental divide, and escaped to the mountains.

The Drake tunnel runs through soft earth and the burning of the wooden sheathing may cause heavy loss by cave-ins.

KILLS FAMILY, THEN HIMSELF

German Teamster Murders Wife and Four Children With Hatchet.

Berlin, Feb. 6.—A dispatch from Giesen says that William Lehman, a teamster, killed his wife and four children with a hatchet and then committed suicide by running in front of a speeding train. The bodies of the wife and the oldest of the children were horribly hacked. The youngest child was three years old.

No reason for Lehman's act is given, but it is believed that he went insane.

BORDAS CHARGES FAIL.

Senate of Santo Domingo Refuses to Impeach the President.

Washington, Feb. 6.—Impeachment proceedings against President Bordas have failed, the Dominican senate rejecting the charges, according to a radiogram received from the United States gunboat Petrel. Bordas was accused of using his office for private gain.

WEATHER EVERYWHERE.

Observations of the United States weather bureau taken at 8 p. m. yesterday follow:

	Temp.	Weather
Albany	26	Clear
Atlantic City	36	Cloudy
Boston	34	Cloudy
Buffalo	22	Clear
Chicago	28	Cloudy
New Orleans	70	Cloudy
New York	32	Clear
St. Louis	34	Cloudy
Washington	28	Cloudy

—Jacob Gernert, newsdealers, Somerville, sell the Daily Press or will deliver it to you; home each day.

—At Westfield, C. F. Wittke has the Daily Press on sale each day.

"GENIAL BOB" BREMNER.

Congressman Who Died of Cancer Despite Radium Treatment.

Representative Robert G. Bremner of Passaic, N. J., whose long fight against death from cancer attracted attention because of the use of radium, died in Dr Howard A. Kelly's sanitarium in Baltimore. Mr. Bremner combated the disease with a steady will and optimism that were the admiration of those around him in the last months of his life. He never gave up hope, even when told that death was certain and only a few days ago said that he was sure radium would cure him and that he would yet go back to congress to take up his work.

"I'M GOING TO STAY LEADER," SAYS MURPHY

Tammany Chieftain Not Worried Over Reports.

New York, Feb. 6.—"I am going to stay here as long as I live," said Charles F. Murphy, leader of Tammany Hall, when asked if there was any truth in the report that he was going to get out of the political game altogether as soon as the next primaries were over.

The leader of Tammany Hall appears just as calm as usual. His friends say he will from now on have to face all sorts of intrigues to force him to retire.

"You say you are going to remain leader as long as you live?" repeated one of Mr. Murphy's interviewers. "That's pretty strong, isn't it?"

"You know what I said the other day," continued the leader of Tammany. "I meant what I said then, every word of it. And you can add the declaration that I will remain here as long as I live."

"Where do you think emanated that report to the effect that you were to quit after the primaries?" was asked.

"I suppose the committee on rumors was busy as usual," replied Murphy.

The leader of Tammany appeared to be prepared for any kind of a report or a subterfuge to force him out. His friends say every manner of game will be played in reality from now on to oust the Tammany chief, but he will stand pat.

General Markets.

BUTTER—Steady and quiet; receipts, 4,237 packages; creamery extras, lb., 27a27½c.; firsts, 25½a26½c.; seconds, 23½a25c.; held, extras, 27a27½c.; firsts, 25a26½c.; seconds, 23a24½c.; state dairy, tubs, finest, 26a27c.; good to prime, 24a25½c.; common to fair, 19a23c.; process, extras, 23a23½c.; firsts, 21a22c.; seconds, 20a20½c.; imitation creamery, firsts, 22a23c.; factory, current make, firsts 21c.; seconds, 20a20½c.; packing stock, held, 18½a19½c.; current make, No. 2, 18a18½c.; No. 3, 16a17½c.

CHEESE—Firm; receipts, 1,057 boxes; state, whole milk, specials, white, held, lb., 18a18¼c.; fresh, 17½a17¾c.; colored, held, 18a18¼c.; fresh, 17½a17¾c.; average fancy, white, held, 17½a17¾c.; fresh, 17¼c.; colored, held, 17½a17¾c.; fresh, 17¼c.; skims, specials, held, 13¾a14¼c.; good to choice, held, 11½a12½c.

EGGS—Unsettled; receipts, 12,043 cases, fresh gathered extras, doz., 30a31c.; extra firsts, 28½a29c.; firsts, 27½a28c.; seconds, 26a27c.; refrigerators, firsts, 25a26c.; fair to good, 23a24c.; state, Pennsylvania and nearby hennery whites, 33c.; gathered whites, 37c.; hennery browns, 30a31c.; gathered browns and mixed colors, 28a29c.

NEW HAY AND STRAW—Easy; timothy, per ton, $17a21; shipping, $16; clover, $15a18; clover mixed, $15a19; long rye straw, $16a17; oat, $11a12; small bales, 50c per ton less than large.

Live Stock Market.

Pittsburgh, Feb. 6.

CATTLE—Supply light, market steady; choice, $8.60a8.90; prime, $8.30a8.60; good, $8a8.25; tidy butchers, $7.75a8.15; fair, $7.25a7.75; common, $6.50a7; heifers, $5.50a8; common to good fat bulls, $4.50a7; common to good fat cows, $3.50a7; fresh cows and springers, $50a85.

SHEEP AND LAMBS—Supply light; market steady; prime wethers, $5.75a6; good mixed, $5.40a5.70; fair mixed, $4.75a5.25; culls and common, $2a3.50; lambs, $6.50a8; veal calves, $11a11.50; heavy and thin calves, $7a8.

HOGS—Receipts, 10 double decks; market higher; prime heavy, $8.90a9.30; heavy mixed, $8.85a9; mediums, heavy Yorkers and light Yorkers, $9.10; pigs, $8.75a9; roughs, $8a8.25; stags, $5a7.25.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It pays.

—Daily Press want ads. bring results.

26th ANNIVERSARY SALE

Do You "Spend" or "Invest" Your Furniture Money?

If you merely spend a certain amount of money for your furniture, you cannot always be sure of getting utmost value. On the other hand, if you invest your money at KIRCH'S, you are sure of getting satisfaction—and remember—

WE SELL IT A LITTLE LOWER IN PRICE—WE HAVE ALWAYS DONE IT—IT'S OUR WAY

77-79 Market St. Newark, N. J.

E. A. KIRCH & CO.

77-79 Market St. Newark, N. J.

3-Piece Leather Suite

42.75

—Another Demonstration of Kirch's Buying Power—

1767 Pieces of Genuine Royal Dutch Pure Aluminum Ware

Will Be Offered to the Housewives of Newark and Vicinity at Less Than

No Seconds—MANUFACTURER'S COST—All Guaranteed

No Mail or 'Phone Orders

Your Choice 95c

9-Qt. Preserving Kettle Regular $2.50 Value 95c

None C.O.D. or Double Rice Boiler Regular $2.25 Value 95c

7-Qt. Berlin Kettle Regular $2.25 Value 95c

3-Piece Leather Suite

(LIKE CUT) Massive mahogany frame, hand carved claw feet, elegantly finished and upholstered in best Spanish leather; sold regularly for $85, special,

59.50

Chiffonier LIKE CUT

16.75

Set of Six Dining Chairs

Solid oak, golden finish, stylish leather seats and backs, full spring construction; regular price for 6 chairs, $26.88, special, set of

21.75 21.75

Extension Table Quartered oak top, beautifully [illegible] colonial base, 6-foot extension. Regular $18.50, special

12.50

Dresser LIKE CUT

Full swell front French legs, beautifully polished, large bevel mirror; in tuna mahogany, birdseye maple or quartered oak, regular price $22.00, at

17.75

Mission Chair and Rocker

Fumed oak, genuine leather seats [illegible]

7.50 EACH

Reed Pullman Carriage

Heavy roll, very stylish body, with reclining back; very neatly upholstered in corduroy; steel tubular pushers. Regular $18, special

12.98

Your Purchases May Be Charged

Couch Values

Regular $13 Spec. 9.75

Regular $18 Spec. 13.75

Your Purchases May Be Charged

Hall Rack Like Cut

Beautiful quartered oak, finely carved, nicely finished; mirror is large size with beveled edges; regular $23.50, special

14.98

This $30.00 Brass Bed Outfit, 21.98

Brass Bed has 2-inch posts with 14 1-inch fillers; guaranteed lacquer; mattress is roll edge 1-ft. with art ticking, made in two parts; spring is sag-proof type with spiral springs to support it. The actual retail price of each piece is as follows: Bed, $15; Spring, $5; Mattress, $10; complete outfit at . . . .

Buffet Like Cut

Beautifully quartered oak, highly polished, all hand carvings; the biggest value ever offered; regular price $35; very special at

25.75

TAKE SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if You Feel Backachy or Have Bladder Trouble.

Meat forms uric acid which excites and overworks the kidneys in their efforts to filter it from the system. Regular eaters of meat must flush the kidneys occasionally. You must relieve them like you relieve your bowels; removing all the acids, waste and poison, else you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, sharp pains in the back or sick headache, dizziness, your stomach sours, tongue is coated and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment; the channels often get irritated, obliging you to get up two or three times during the night.

To neutralize these irritating acids and flush off the body's urinous waste get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine and bladder disorders disappear. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys and stop bladder irritation. Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then, thus avoiding serious kidney and bladder diseases.—Adv.

Inventory Sale

Final Reductions On All Millinery

Trimmed and Untrimmed Hats, Fancy Feathers, Wings, etc., at Prices that represent MUCH LESS THAN HALF FORMER PRICES.

Our Trimmed Hats are all made in our own workroom. We trim them with a view of pleasing the individual person.

Therefore this announcement of such sacrificing reductions should appeal to you.

See Window Display and note prices on each Hat and Trimmings.

ROSENTHAL'S

210 WEST FRONT ST.

2 Doors From Proctor's

ADVERTISE All Your Wants, To Let, For Sale, Boards, Personals, etc., in The DAILY PRESS. 1c A WORD

NOSTRILS AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLD? TRY MY CATARRH BALM

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely; Dull Headache Goes; Nasty Catarrhal Discharge Stops.

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it. Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open, you will breathe freely, dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleasing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed, nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear. Adv.

Moss Aztec Pottery

New Lines of Incrusted Gold Border Dinnerware

Joseph W. Gavett

WEST FRONT STREET

Of Interest to Women and the Home

The Housewife's Daily Economy Calendar

FRANCES MARSHALL

When the Window Shades Are Old.

Nothing gives a more untidy, uncared for look to a room than worn and shabby shades at the window. They are not very easy to keep in order, for they get constant wear and tear, and much dust and dampness come in contact with them. Here are some suggestions for prolonging their life and keeping their appearance fresh and trim.

In the Beginning.

In the beginning it pays to get shades of a good quality. They look well until they are really worn out. The cheaper ones soon crack and show little pinheads of daylight through their broken surface. They sag more quickly than the expensive ones and the cheap rollers are more likely to get out of order, too, than the first-class ones.

The shade should be long enough so that when it is pulled down to cover the window it is not necessary to strain it; that is to say, when it is down, there should be two or three thicknesses of the Holland or other cambric still on the roller.

If by chance a shade is too short for this it can be easily lengthened at home. Buy some heavy and strong cloth the color of the shade. A good quality of paper cambric will do. Untack the shade from the roller and stitch a strip of the new material, the width of the shade, to its top. Cut this strip wide enough to give the desired added length to the shade and tack it carefully on the roller again.

When the lower edge of a shade becomes soiled, it is possible to reverse the shade. Untack the upper edge and turn and stitch a neat hem. Run the stick from the old hem in this. Then rip out the old hem and tack that end of the shade to the roller.

The best way to clean the shades is to lay them flat on the floor and rub them with powdered bath brick, with a stiff brush.

Paint the Cracked Ones.

A cracked shade can be greatly benefited with a coat of oil paint, bought in a can at a paint shop. The shades should be laid on the floor, on a sheet of newspaper, and painted thoroughly on one side. When this is thoroughly dry the shade should be turned and painted on the other side.

Some persons use the fabric of the old and soiled shades in this way. Soak the old shades in soap and water and then rub them on a rubbing board and boil them. This proceeding takes out much of the sizing or dressing put in them to make them stiff and shiny. The resulting cloth is strong and can be used for cleaning cloths.

(Copyright, 1914, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

A neat little one-piece house dress is shown in 7820. It is a suitable design for gingham, madras, percale, a cotton voile or crepe. By way of contrast and trimming the collar, cuffs and narrow stitched belt may be of another color or material.

Checked cotton voile is one of the most practical fabrics for a dress of this sort. It ranges in width from 38 to 40 inches and in price from about 29 to 50 cents a yard. It is a bit sheerer than the long favored gingham, clings a trifle more, washes as well and has a slightly dressier look.

This design (7820) would be unusually effective made up in a brown and white check with trimming bands, collar and cuffs of plain white voile. The pattern gives a choice between a long and elbow length sleeve and a high or low collar.

The skirt is a three-piece model with a slight fullness in the back.

This dress may be made in size 36 with 5½ yards of 36 inch material.

The pattern is cut in 5 sizes; 34 to 42.

This Is a Perfect Pattern.

Be sure to state right size, measuring over the fullest part of the bust for dimensions.

It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15 cents in stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

COUPON

Name .....

Street and No. .....

City and State .....

Pattern No. .....

Sizes .....

A. E. Force & Co.,s "The White Store," carry all patterns in stock and the Daily Press recommends that its readers procure them there. They will be furnished by this paper when the orders come direct to us, through A. E. Force & Co.

—Merchants realize that the housewives who appreciate "special sales" are critical buyers—and that mere price-lure is not enough. The goods must be RIGHT.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It brings results

Some Cookery Suggestions

SEASONABLE FRUIT TRIFLES.

WHEN lightness and simplicity are desired in a dessert a fruit trifle is one of the daintiest sweets that the housewife can contrive.

Pineapple Trifle.—Take two-thirds of a cupful of sugar and one pint can of grated pineapple and boil until a good sirup is formed. Dissolve one-half package of gelatin in one-half pint of boiling water. Add pineapple sirup, juice of an orange and let set. When well set add one-half cupful of whipped cream and beat until well mixed. In carrying out a color scheme of red or green a decoration of maraschino cherries could be used. It should be topped with whipped cream.

Handsomely Decorated.

Banana Trifle.—Take six bananas, six small sponge cakes, one orange, half a lemon, some strawberry jam, half a pint of good custard, half a pint of cream and half an ounce of pistachio nuts. Peel the bananas and cut them into quarters lengthways. Slice the cake thinly and spread each piece with some jam. Peel the orange, cut it into thin slices and then again into small disks. Grate the lemon rind. Put a layer of the cakes into the dish and put on them a spoonful or two of custard. Next put a layer of the bananas and a few of the pieces of orange and lemon rind. Continue this till the dish is nicely filled up. Pour in the remainder of the custard. Whip the cream and heap it all over the top. Shell and shred the pistachio nuts and stick them in rows over the cream.

Two Wholesome Sweets.

Apple Trifle.—Take some apples and pass through a sieve to form a thick layer at the bottom of a dish. Scald cream then add sugar to taste and the finely grated rind of half a lemon. Now mix together half a pint of cream, the same quantity of milk, the yolk of an egg and scald over the fire. Stir well and do not let it boil. Add sugar to taste, and when it is cold pour over the apples. Whipped cream flavored with vanilla should cover the whole.

Apricot Trifle.—Spread the underside of some macaroons with apricot jam and pile them all up in a pyramid. Pour over them a tumblerful of sherry and water (one-third sherry to two-thirds water). Dip up what flows into the dish and pour it over again. Cover with whipped cream.

Anna Thompson.

LENTEN SANDWICHES.

How to Prepare Two Dainty and Nourishing Foods For Luncheon or Tea.

With Lent coming on apace, the question of suitable and attractive food in which meat is no factor begins to occupy the mind of the housewife. For luncheon or the small informal Lenten tea the novel sandwiches in which these requirements are met will be appreciated. Recipes are given here for two dainty sandwiches.

To make sardine or anchovy sandwiches with canapes, says the Boston Cooking School Magazine, pound the flesh of the fish in a wooden bowl until smooth; if convenient add the sifted yolks of two or more hard cooked eggs and again pound until smooth; season with paprika, salt if necessary, and press through a sieve; add chopped pimentos and truffles. Have ready one-fourth the measure of rich cream; beat this stiff and fold into the fish mixture; add salt and pepper as needed and use as a sandwich filling. Garnish the plate of sandwiches with three or four canapes or open sandwiches. For these toast the halves of crackers. When cold spread with the fish mixture, rounding it slightly to dome shape; make smooth with a silver knife and draw the knife through the center of the surface to make a design; fill this with chopped truffles and set a few bits of pimento on the edge.

SARDINE AND CHEESE SANDWICHES.

To prepare cream cheese sandwiches with canapes, mash Neuchatel or Philadelphia cream cheese to a smooth paste and fold into it enough stiff beaten cream to make a mixture that will flow easily through a pastry bag and tube. Spread entire wheat bread made with whole filberts with creamed butter and cheese; set one or two preserved strawberries or bar le duc on the cheese and cover with a second piece of bread spread lightly with butter and the cheese mixture. Garnish the plate of sandwiches with three or four open sandwiches. To make these, pipe a ring of the cheese mixture on toasted halves of crackers and set a strawberry or currant in the center and at each side.

New Glass Rolling Pin.

For some time the glass rolling pin which is filled with ice and which has wooden handles has been on the market, but the new glass rolling pin is made entirely of heavy crystal glass, handles and all. It has therefore no cracks or crevices to absorb either paste or water and by actual test was cleaned in five seconds. It is very light and so rolls easily, and if desired it can be placed in a refrigerator to have it extra cold before using. It has proved one of the most worth while of the season's household novelties and can be recommended to those housekeepers who are contemplating buying a new rolling pin.

An Emergency Hint.

To bake large potatoes quickly place in boiling water and boil until tender, then wipe dry and place in the oven until done. Usually about twenty minutes will provide them ready for the table. Bake very large potatoes until done, but not very soft, the day before wanted. At breakfast peel, slice in even slices and fry to crisp brown, sprinkling with salt or sugar, as preferred.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SOUND BROOK will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by Hoagland's Union News Stand at station, and ...

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

BY EARL DERR BIGGERS

Copyright, 1913, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER IX.

The Mayor Begins a Vigil.

"ASLEEP," bellowed the big man. "How's this for a watch dog, Lou?"

"Right on the job, ain't he?" sneered the thin one.

Mr. Bland started suddenly from slumber, and looked up into the eyes of the newcomers.

"Hello, Cargan," he said. "Hello, Lou! For the love of heaven, don't shout so! The place is full of them."

"Full of what?" asked the mayor.

"Of spotters, maybe—I don't know what they are. There's an old high brow and a fresh young guy, and two women."

"People," gasped the mayor. "People—here?"

"Sure."

"You're asleep, Bland."

"No, I'm not, Cargan!" cried the haberdasher. "Look around for yourself. The inn's overrun with them."

Cargan leaned weakly against a chair.

"Well, what do you know about that!" he said. And they kept telling me Baldpate inn was the best place! Say, this is one on Andy Rutter! Why didn't you get it out and beat it?"

"How could I?" Mr. Bland asked. "I haven't got the combination. The safe was left open for me. That was the agreement with Rutter."

"You might have phoned us not to come," remarked Lou, with an uneasy glance around.

Mr. Cargan hit the mantelpiece with his huge fist.

"By heaven, no!" he cried. "I'll lift it from under their very noses. I've done it before. I can do it now. I don't care who they are. They can't touch me. They can't touch Jim Cargan. I ain't afraid."

Mr. Magee, on the landing, whispered into his companion's ear. "I think

"Clear out," he snarled.

I'll go down and greet our guests." He felt her grasp his arm suddenly as though in fear, but he shook off her hand and debonairly descended to the group below.

"Good evening, gentlemen," he said suavely. "Welcome to Baldpate. Please don't attempt to explain. We're fed up on explanations now. You have the fifth key, of course."

The big man advanced threateningly. Mr. Magee saw that his face was very red, his neck very thick, but his mouth a cute little cupid's bow that might well have adorned a dainty baby in the park.

"Who are you?" bellowed the mayor of Reuton in a tone meant to be cowering.

"I forgot," replied Mr. Magee easily. "Bland, who am I today?"

The mayor pointed dramatically to the stair.

"I give you fifteen minutes," he roared, "to pack up and get out. I don't want you here. Understand?"

To Cargan's side came the slinking figure of Lou Max. His face was the withered yellow of an old lemon.

"Clear out," he snarled.

"By no means," replied Magee. "I was here first. Put me out, will you? Well, perhaps, after a fight. But I'd be back in an hour, and with me whatever police Upper Asquewan Falls owns to."

He saw that the opposing force wavered at this.

"I want no trouble, gentlemen," he went on. "Believe me, I shall be happy to have your company to dinner. Your command that I withdraw is ill timed, not to say ill natured and impolite. Let us all forget it."

The mayor of Reuton turned away, and his dog slid into the shadows.

"Have I your promise to stay to dinner?" went on Magee. No answer came from the trio in the dusk. "Silence gives consent," he added gaily.

He ran up the stairs. At the top of the second flight he met the girl, and her eyes, he thought, shone in the dark.

"Oh, I'm so glad," she whispered.

"Glad of what?" asked Magee.

"That you are not on their side," she answered.

Mr. Magee paused at the door of No. 7.

"I should say not," he remarked. "Whatever it's all about I should say not. Put on your prettiest gown, my lady. I've invited the mayor to dinner."

* * * * * * *

One summer evening in dim dead days gone by an inexperienced head waiter at Baldpate inn had attempted to seat Mrs. J. Sanderson Clark of Pittsburgh at the same table with the unassuming Smiths of Tiffin, O. The remarks of Mrs. Clark, who was at the time busily engaged in trying to found a first family, lingered long in the memory of those who heard them. So long, in fact, that Miss Norton standing with Mr. Magee in the hotel office awaiting the signal from Peters that dinner was ready, could repeat them almost verbatim. Mr. Magee cast a humorous look about.

"Lucky the manners and customs of the summer folks aren't carried over into the winter," he said. "Imagine a Mrs. Clark asked to sit at table with the mayor of Reuton and his picturesque but somewhat soiled friend, Mr. Max. I hope the dinner is a huge success."

The girl laughed.

"The natural nervousness of a host," she remarked. "Don't worry. The hermit and his tins won't kill you."

Together they strolled to a window. The snow had begun to fall again, and the lights of the little hamlet below showed but dimly through the white blur.

"I want you to know," said the girl, "that I trust you now. And when the time comes, as it will soon, tonight, I am going to ask you to help me."

She stopped and looked very seriously into Mr. Magee's face.

"I'm mighty glad," he answered in a low tone. "From the moment I saw you weeping in the station I've wanted to be of help to you. The station agent advised me not to interfere. He said to become involved with a weeping woman meant trouble. The fool. As though any trouble"—

"He was right," put in the girl, "it probably will mean trouble."

"As though any storm," finished Mr. Magee, "would not be worth the rainbow of your smile at the end."

"A very fancy figure," laughed she. "But storms aren't nice."

"There are a few of us," replied Magee, "who can be merry through the worst of them because of the rainbow to come."

For answer she flattened her finely modeled nose into shapelessness against the cold pane.

What Mr. Magee flippantly termed his dinner party was seated at last, and there began a meal destined to linger long in the memories of those who partook of it. Puzzled beyond words, the host took stock of his guests. Opposite him, at the foot of the table, he could see the lined tired face of Mrs. Norton, dazed, uncomprehending, a little frightened. At his right the great red acreage of Cargan's face held defiance and some amusement; beside it sneered the cruel face of Max; beyond that Mr. Bland's countenance told a story of worry and impotent anger. And on Mr. Magee's left sat the professor, bearded, spectacled, calm, seemingly undisturbed by this queer flurry of events, beside the fair girl of the station, who trusted Magee at last. In the first few moments of silence Mr. Magee compared her delicate features with the coarse, knowing face of the woman at the table's foot and inwardly answered "No."

Without the genial complement of talk the dinner began. Mr. Peters appeared with another variety of his canned soup, whereupon the silence was broken by the gastronomic endeavors of Mr. Max and the mayor. Mr. Magee was reflecting that conversation must be encouraged, when Cargan suddenly spoke.

"I hope I ain't putting you folks out none," he remarked, with obvious sarcasm. "It ain't my habit to drop in unexpected like this. But business"—

"We're delighted, I'm sure," said Mr. Magee politely.

"I suppose you want to know why I'm here," the mayor went on. "Well"—he hesitated—"it's like this"—

"Dear Mr. Cargan," Magee broke in, "spare us, I pray, and spare yourself. We have had explanations until we are weary. We have decided to drop them altogether and just to take it for granted that, in the words of the song, we're here because we're here."

"All right," replied Cargan, evidently relieved. "That suits me. I'm tired explaining anyhow. There's a bunch of reformers rose up lately in Reuton. Maybe you've heard about 'em. A lovely bunch. A white necktie and a half portion of brains apiece. They say they're going to do for me at the next election."

Mr. Max laughed harshly from the vicinity of his soup.

"They wrote the first joke book, them people," he said.

"Well," went on Cargan, "there ain't nobody so insignificant and piffling that people won't listen to 'em when they attack a man in public life. So I've had to reply to this comic opera bunch, and, as I say, I'm about worn out explaining. I've had to explain that I never stole the town I used to live in in Indiana and that I didn't stick up my father with a knife. It gets monotonous. So I'm much obliged to you for passing the explanations up. We won't bother you long, me and Lou. I got a little business here, and then we'll mosey along. We'll clear out about 9 o'clock."

"No," protested Magee. "So soon? We must make it pleasant for you while you stay. I always hate hosts who talk about their servants. I have a friend who bores me to death because he has a Jap butler he believes was at Mukden. But I think I am justified in calling your attention to ours, Mr. Peters, the hermit of Baldpate mountain. Cooking is merely his avocation. He is writing a book."

"That guy?" remarked Cargan, incredulous.

"What do you know about that?" asked Mr. Bland. "It certainly will get a lot of hot advertising if it ever appears. It's meant to prove that all the trouble in the world has been caused by woman."

The mayor considered.

"He's off—he's nutty, that fellow," he announced. "It ain't women that cause all of the trouble."

"Ahem—Mr. Cargan," put in Professor Bolton, "you give it as your opinion that woman is no trouble maker, and I must admit that I agree with your premise in general, although occasionally she may cause a—a slight annoyance. Undeniably, there is a lot of trouble in the world. To whose efforts do you ascribe it?"

The mayor ran his thick fingers through his hair.

"I got you," he said, "and I got your answer too. Who makes the trouble? Who's made it from the beginning of time? The reformers, Doc. Yes, sir. Who was the first reformer? The snake in the garden of Eden. This hermit guy probably has that affair laid down at woman's door. Not much. Everything was running all right around the garden, and then the snake came along. It's a twenty to one shot he'd just finished a series of articles on 'The Shame of Eden' for a magazine. 'What d'ye mean?' he says to the woman, 'by letting well enough alone? Things are all wrong here. The present administration is running everything into the ground. I can tell you a few things that will open your eyes. What's that? What you don't know won't hurt you? The old cry,' he says, 'the old cry against which progressives got to fight,' he says. 'Wake up. You need a change here. Try this nice red apple, and you'll see things the way I do.' And the woman fell for it. You know what happened."

"An original point of view," said the dazed professor.

"Yes, Doc," went on Mr. Cargan, evidently on a favorite topic; "it's the reformers that have caused all the trouble, from that snake down. Things are running smooth, folks all prosperous and satisfied, then they come along in their gum shoes and white neckties. And they knock away at the existing order until the public begins to believe 'em and gives 'em a chance to run things. What's the result? The world's in a worse tangle than ever before."

"You feel deeply on the subject, Mr. Cargan," remarked Magee.

"I ought to," the mayor replied. "I ain't no writer, but if I was I'd turn out a book that would drive this whiskered hermit's argument to the wall. Woman—bah! The only way women make trouble is by falling for the reform gag."

Mr. Peters here interrupted with the dessert, and through that course Mr. Cargan elaborated on his theory. He pointed out how, in many states, reform had interrupted the smooth flow of life, set everything awhirl and cruelly sent "the boys" who had always been faithful out into the cold world seeking the stranger, work. While he talked the eyes of Lou Max looked out at him from behind the incongruous gold rimmed glasses, with the devotion of the dog to its master clearly written in them. Watching him now, Mr. Magee marveled at this cheap creature's evident capacity for loyalty.

"It was the reformers that got Napoleon," the mayor finished. "Yes; they sent Napoleon to an island at the end. And him without an equal since the world began!"

"Is your—begging your pardon—is your history just straight?" demurred Professor Bolton timidly.

"Is it?" frowned Cargan. "You can bet it is! I know Napoleon from the cradle to the grave. I ain't an educated man, Doc. I can hire all the educated men I want for $18 a week, but I'm up on Bonaparte."

"It seems to me," Miss Norton put in, "I have heard—did I read it in a paper?—that a picture of Napoleon hangs above your desk. They say that you see in your own career a similarity to his. May I ask—is it true?"

"No, miss," replied Cargan. "That's a joking story some newspaper guy wrote up. No, I ain't no Napoleon. There's lots of differences between us—one in particular." He raised his voice and glared at the company around the table. "One in particular. The reformers got Napoleon at the end."

"But the end is not yet," suggested Mr. Magee, smiling.

Mr. Cargan gave him a sudden and interested look.

"I ain't worrying," he replied. "And don't you, young fellow."

(to be continued)

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

The Fairy Queen's Lovely Valentine Party.

Down Dropped Heart Shaped Boxes.

"IT was Valentine's eve in Fairyland, and all the fairies were dancing around, dressed in lovely, flimsy red frocks. They carried little red wands from which dangled red hearts, and on their heads they wore red crowns with bright spangles.

"On all the trees were big strings of red hearts, which went from tree to tree. Over the grass they had spread a big red rug, upon which already some of the fairies were dancing. Every fairy had made a valentine for the fairy queen, and they were all scattered about the queen's throne, which was also decorated with red hearts. The fairy queen had not yet arrived, as she was going to give them a surprise.

"Before long they heard a tinkling of bells, and, riding in a bright red coach drawn by 100 red lizards, appeared the fairy queen. She was dressed in an exquisite red trailing gown, and in her hair she had a wreath of geranium blossoms. Two red birds acted as her coachman and footman and helped her alight from the coach.

"'Come and see your valentines, fairy queen!' they shouted after they'd recovered from the excitement of the queen's new coach. Her coachman and footman and the 100 lizards stood by the coach watching everything.

"So the fairy queen opened countless little red envelopes in which were the lovely valentines the fairies had made. The fairy queen was delighted and thanked the little fairies again and again for them, and then she said:

"'When I wave my wand from all the trees around will fall valentines, so that each little fairy will have one.'

"So with a flourish of her wand all the trees began to tremble and then wave around as if a storm were coming, but in a second down dropped little red heart shaped boxes. Each fairy scampered about wildly to get a valentine.

"None of them could open the valentines until the fairy queen said so, as they all had magic locks.

"At last every fairy had one, and the fairy queen waved her wand, saying, 'Open lids, open valentines!' at which every little red heart shaped box popped open and out sprang from each a little red coral necklace. From each necklace hung a glittering heart shaped charm on which was written, 'To My Valentine, From the Fairy Queen, Feb. 14.'"

"How wonderful!" shouted Evelyn. "The fairies must have been delighted."

"Then they all had the most marvelous supper on a long table decorated with red bonbons and lighted with little red lanterns, and the fairies said it was the loveliest valentine party they had ever had."

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

LOHRMAN'S Chocolate Shop
161 EAST FRONT STREET.
High Grade Chocolates, Candies, Ice Cream and Sodas, Mottoes, Favors and Ice Cream Forms for all occasions. Orders taken for Frozen Puddings, Glaces, Mousses, Etc.

O. A. R. GARAGE
915-917 South Avenue.
Carbon removed by Oxygen method—$3 for 4 cylinder, $4 for 6 cylinder. Sole agents for Symplex Gas Savers—positively gives more power, speed and uses 25 to 50% saving.
GUARANTEED REPAIRS

NEEDLEWORK

By MARGARET LAWRENCE

A SIMPLE DESIGN FOR EMBROIDERING A NIGHTGOWN

There is no garment simpler to make than a slip-over nightgown such as this, for it is cut entirely in one piece and needs only some simple hand embroidery for trimming. The cutting pattern, 7267, comes in sizes 32, 36, 40 and 44, for 15 cents.

The embroidery design can be used on any size to form the neck-outline and finish the sleeves. It is unusually simple and easy to develop as it can be done entirely in solid work with the exception of the eyelets for the ribbon. If you prefer however, the dots can be worked as eyelets.

This transfer pattern can be used on a front-closing nightgown, or it may be adapted to a chemise or combination garment which opens in front or is slipped over the head. The neck-outline would also be very pretty for finishing a slip-over blouse of crêpe de Chine, crêpe voil or any of the new cotton crêpes, and might be embroidered in white or any color.

This guaranteed, hot iron transfer pattern 14568, can be supplied to readers on receipt of price, 15 cents.

Safe Deposit and Storage Vaults

In a building of fireproof construction

INCREASING YOUR POSSESSIONS

may be your first business in life but it is quite as necessary to

SAFEGUARD WHAT YOU HAVE.

It has cost this Company thousands of dollars to erect its massive vaults but the security which they afford is offered to you for a nominal sum. If you will call at the bank our Officers will be glad to show you our safe deposit boxes, the smallest of which will hold many valuable papers.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

Boxes may be rented for $5.00 to $150.00 a year.

AMUSEMENTS.

PROCTOR'S Vaudeville Front Street. 10c, 15c, 25c.

A DUTCH COURTSHIP

AND A BIG VAUDEVILLE PROGRAM
Continuous 2 to 5; 7 to 11 p. m.
SATURDAYS ALL DAY.

Lyric Theatre
202 WEST FRONT STREET.
Daylight Motion Pictures.
Changed Every Day.
Admission, Mat., 5c; Evening, 10c.
11 17 tf w-th-t-s

J. L. BROWER
STATIONERY, BOOKS and MAGAZINES
311 PARK AVENUE

Valentines and Booklets from E. P. Dutton & Co.
Have you read?
The Initials
On the Branch
The Heart of Life

TELEPHONE 1012.

L. Moraller & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES. CLOCKS and JEWELRY
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

NECESSITY -- PRUDENCE -- CONVENIENCE

All these point the way to a Safe Deposit Box in the Manganese Vault of The State Trust Company. Necessity because the Safe Deposit Vault has long since superseded the secret hiding place. Prudence because of the maximum of protection afforded. Convenience because of ease of access.

Rentals $5 to $100 per year. Hours 8:15 to 4:30.

[SERVICE]

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

At the sign of the clock. 201 Park Ave.

EDUCATIONAL.

SECRETARIAL
ELEMENTARY, REGULAR AND SPECIAL COURSES
At
HERR'S SCHOOL
(Plainfield Business College and School of English)

"One of the most complete EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS in the State of New Jersey, devoted to BUSINESS EDUCATION."
All inquiries promptly attended to.
Call, 'Phone or Write
PROFESSOR A. S. Herr, Principal,
Woodhull & Martin Bldg., Plainfield, N. J.
m-w-f

HORTON'S Charlotte Russe
Fresh Twice Daily.
325 W. FRONT ST.
Between Madison and Central Aves.
m-w-f tf

TRY THESE DELICIOUS CRULLERS

Plymouth Home Made Crullers, sold by us, are made by a new method—they are Pure, Clean and Digestible. Sanitary package, 10 cents.

W. W. Dunn
THE PARK GROCER
Duer Street and Lincoln Place

ASK THE MAN

for whom we have done plumbing and tinning of any description whether it wasn't an expert and scientific job. Or permit us to refer you to them, and when you want anything one in our line you will come to us. Let us give you an estimate on new or old work.

Work guaranteed satisfactorily done.

A stock of Hardware and Housefurnishing Goods unequalled in the city.

Let us serve you

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.
Two 'Phones 6—214

FORESIGHT

There is such a thing as looking so far ahead as to overlook the dangers close at hand. The foresight which induces an owner to take proper precautions to safeguard his property with insurance are excellent.

Yet it should require no foresight to employ us—it is as plain as daylight that this office and the companies represented are all the protection an owner needs.

REAL ESTATE
LOANS
RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

Abrams' Shoe Store

SWEEPING REDUCTIONS
On All Our
RUBBER GOODS

Owing to the backward season we will offer our entire stock of

BOOTS, RUBBERS AND ARCTICS

at a great sacrifice.

M. ABRAMS 229-233 W. FRONT ST.

Sweater Sale Still on

Those heavy Sweaters, were $6.00, now $4.75

Fancy Vests, neat patterns; were $3.50; now $2.50

Mocha Jersey Lined Gloves; were $1.75; now $1.50

Underwear to please all men; prices right.

J. R. Blair
119 PARK AVE.
The Home of Fine Neckwear.

HUB-MARK RUBBERS

See that the Hub-Mark is on the rubber before you buy. It is your insurance of Standard First Quality Rubber Footwear for every purpose

SOLD BY
JOHN J. KENNEY
10 17 20-f

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

Hoagland's Express
FINE FURNITURE.
MOVING
Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

WE DO FINE JOB PRINTING. TRY US

VAN ARSDALE'S SALES

OFFER REAL VALUES

Step-Lively Sale

STARTING AT VAN ARSDALE'S TOMORROW

Hundreds of pairs of winter shoes in a big hurry to get out of this store figure in the big "STEP-LIVELY" SALE, which will attract hundreds of eager feet to Van Arsdale's beginning tomorrow.

This "STEP-LIVELY" SALE will be the snappiest and liveliest Mid-winter Clearance Sale we ever held. Winter Shoes have got to go and "STEP LIVELY" prices will force them out. "STEP LIVELY" while the assortments are best. Here are a few of the leading attractions:

A LOT OF WOMEN'S $6.00 BOOTS—at $4.48 and $3.33; high cut tan and regular cut tan and black.

500 PAIRS OF WOMEN'S BOOTS, TAN AND BLACK—at $3.37 and $2.98; regular $4.50 and $5.00 grades.

500 PAIRS OF WOMEN'S BOOTS—
$2.50, $3.00, $3.25, $3.50 and $4.00 shoes; sale price $1.48 to $2.48.

300 PAIRS MEN'S SHOES that were $4.00 to $6.00; priced from $2.48 to $4.98.

A LOT OF BOYS' SHOES
priced at $1.48, $2.48 and $2.98; that were good values from $2.50 to $4.00.

A LOT OF MISSES' AND CHILDREN'S SHOES
Reduced to 98c, $1.48, $1.98 and $2.48; splendid values.

This is an unusual Stock Reduction Sale wherein the Greatest Price Concessions of the season are offered.

And there are many lines of shoes in this sale not mentioned in this advertisement that will be to your interest to investigate.

This sale will be conducted as formerly. No sale shoes charged at sale prices. No sale shoes exchanged or money refunded. Be sure and try on both shoes to insure a comfortable fit.

M. C. VAN ARSDALE 127 EAST FRONT ST.

THE ONLY WAY to become familiar with local building progress is to read the Daily Press Building Page each Saturday.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.
Clearing and colder tonight; Sunday fair, colder.
Max., 36; Min., 34.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

PROTEST AGAINST SEWER PROJECT

Property Owners, Through Counsel, Oppose Purchase of Darling Farm.

TO TAKE LEGAL ACTION

Borough Council Confirms Judge Isaac P. Runyon as Legal Adviser—Numerous Reports and Routine Business Considered.

Vigorous protest against the acquisition of the Darling farm as a site for the sewage dispasol beds by the joint municipalities of Plainfield, the borough and Dunellen, was made last night by residents and taxpayers of Greenbrook Valley, at the February meeting of the Borough Council. Residents and property owners of that locality have engaged William A. Coddington as their counsel and are determined to frustrate the designs of the officials of this and the other local governments if it be possible to do so. They declared through Mr. Coddington, that the location of the sewage disposal beds on the above mentioned farm would be detrimental to health, a continual nuisance; would cause a depreciation in the value of the surrounding property and would in almost every way be a menace to the community. The communication regarding this matter was ordered placed on file.

Judge Isaac P. Runyon was elected as borough counsel at a salary of $600. His appointment is for one year. Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., declared that it was, in his opinion, highly necessary that the borough government have a legal adviser. Councilman Rushmore offered the resolution appointing Judge Runyon as legal adviser and it was passed, Councilman Milne alone voting negatively. Mayor Clark nominated Judge Runyon for the same position recently, but the Council he declared, last night, did not seem to want to confirm the nomination.

Upon the suggestion of Mayor Clark the Borouh Council voted to adopt tentatively the same budget as was passed last year, the statement being made that out of the moneys appropriated last year there was a balance of $1,687. Councilman Cowperthwait announced that he favored an increase in the allowance made for the maintenance of the borough police force and intended to offer a resolution to increase the salaries at a later time, whether his fellow members were in favor of such an increase or not.

The usual routine business was transacted at the meeting. Permission was granted to Mrs. Herman Keller to conduct an employment bureau. The Watchung assessment commissioners, M. C. VanArsdale and George Kirch, reported the amount necessary to be raised for the improvement to be $271.76. Taxpayers will have a chance to protest if they so desire within a short time. Recorder Hand reported fourteen arrests during the last month and that he had received $25 in fines. The bonds of Recorder Hand, Tax Collector George F. Brown and of Overseer of the Poor Frederick Becker, were reportd as having been received. The bonds of these officials were continuous undertakings it was said. The sum of $130.82 was spent on the streets of the borough last month. Percy S. Brown and George F. Brown asked the municipality to release the southwesterly part of Walnut street which has been opened only as far as Jackson avenue. The application was favorably considered. Bids are soon to be asked for crosswalks, stone and flagging, which will be opened in March. Permission was granted the Prudent Realty Company to erect a two-story addition on its property on Duer street, near Gavits place. Consent was also given to the application of W. H. Williams who wants to build an addition to his premises, 100x40 feet, on Rockview avenue, and for an addition to the house of Mrs. N. D. Nelson on Somerset place, and to the premises of Mrs. Mary E. Martin on Summit avenue.

Owners of the properties located at 200 Grove street and at 295 Somerset street desire the borough authorities to give them a tax deed, the premises having been sold for unpaid taxes in 1912. The police department reported having spent in January $490.80. Eight incandescent lights in the borough were out every night last month and steps will be taken to have the lighting bill reduced that much. The fire department spent during January $276.19. The value of the fire department's property was given as $2,992.50. The total expenditures of the borough government last month was $2,758.-03. The fire department, it was reported last night, answered 27 calls last year, of which 20 were telephone alarms. Damage to buildings in the borough totalled $2,630 and personal property to the amount of $750 was destroyed; a total loss of $3,380. The Board of Health reported total receipts of $1,102.10, with a balance

(Continued on page 4.)

PLANNING FINE LOAN EXHIBITION

Will Be Held at the Plainfield Public Library February 9-14.

The forthcoming loan exhibition to be held in the art gallery of the Plainfield Public Library, during the week beginning February 9 and closing February 14, promises to prove of eceptional interest. The committee having the matter in charge has taken considerable pains to secure an exhibit highly artistic and of educational value to the community. Those who miss seeing it will be losing an opportunity such as has been rarely, if ever afforded in this city. The quality of the work being shown has already been touched upon in the Daily Press by brief sketches of the careers of the artists exhibiting. All those interested in the cultured advancement of the city and are lovers of the beautiful are urged to see this loan collection.

The sculptural work comprises figurines, corbels, an exceptionally attractive group of children's figures supporting a shallow bowl, the whole about five feet in height, some medallions and children's portrait heads in bronze. The paintings some of which are portraits in life size are all painted in that rich key of color for which the Russian schools have been so noted, but a description cannot convey their beauty.

The pen and ink work is said by those who are not only connoisseurs but who have worked in that medium exceptionally delicate and among the collection are many conceived in a semi-fanciful spirit as befits illustrations intended for children's nature books—bugs, beetles and worms and what not. The exhibition will be open daily from 1 to 10 p. m., and on Lincoln's Birthday the opening hour will be at 10 o'clock in the morning.

GERMAN SOCIETIES TO BE ENTERTAINED HERE

Time and place for the holding of the next annual convention of the New Jersey State Saengerbund will be determined upon at a meeting of some forty representatives of German societies from all over this State to be held tomorrow at Saengerbund Hall, in the borough.

The delegates will hold an executive session and listen to reasons advanced by various delegates as to why their city or town should have the honor of the next convention of the German singers.

It is believed, however, that Trenton will get the convention, which is scheduled for sometime next September. The visitors to this city will be the guests of the members of the Plainfield Gesang and Turn Verein. Dinner is to be served the guests in the banquet room of Saengerbund Hall. Eugene Rentz, president of the Plainfield organization, is chairman of the reception committee. The delegates who will represent the Plainfield society are Richard Walter and Henry Haurand.

SOCIETY WOMEN GIVE DELIGHTFUL MUSICALE

Mrs. Marion S. Ackerman and Miss Maud VanBoskerck entertained a number of friends at a musicale at Miss VanBoskerck's studio in Truell Inn, yesterday afternoon, their being about seventy-five guests. The studio was attractively decorated with a profusion of flowers and softly-shaded candles which lent a charm to the scene. Miss Gabrielle Drosse, soprano soloist of the First M. E. church, and Udo Gossweiler, 'cellist, were the soloists with S. Frederick Smith, organist of Grace church, at the piano.

Miss Drosse was in excellent voice, and her singing was greatly enjoyed. The selections by Mr. Gossweiler also delighted the audience with his charming work, while Mr. Smith, as accompanist, added to the pleasure of the affair.

Mr. Gossweiler was heard in Borgiel's adagio, Davidoff's Romance Sans Parole and in Schumann's Anwante. Miss Drosse sang Jensen's Am Ufer des Manzonares and Schumann's Der Nuss Baum, Gounod's Jewel Song from Faust and De Bussey's Mandolin, and Mrs. Gossweiler was also heard in Van Goen's Romance, Charpentier's Valse Lente and in Massenet's selection Meditation, from the opera "Thais."

After the musicale Mrs. Ackerman and Mrs. Robert Rushmore served tea, assisted by Mrs. William S. Tyler, Mrs. Thomas R. VanBoskerck, Mrs. A. F. H. Streuli and Miss Huntington.

THE DAILY PRESS IN SCOTCH PLAINS

and Fanwood is delivered every afternoon by carrier leaving the main office in Plainfield at 3:45. Orders may be telephone or mailed to the main office and will receive prompt attention. 'Phone Plainfield 1200.

SEEKS DAMAGES FOR INJURIES

Miss Vail, Through Reed & Hetfield, Brings Suit as Result of Auto Accident.

Miss Agnes Vail, of Park avenue, through her attorneys, Reed & Hetfield, has brought suit against Charles L. Dana and his wife, of Evergreen avenue, for severe injuries suffered by her when she was struck by an automobile driven by the Danas. The accident occurred on the evening of November 11 last.

Miss Vail, it is said, was walking towards Plainfield on the extreme right hand side of the roadway on that part of Park avenue south of the city limits where there is no sidewalk. The car came up behind her running rapidly, it is said, and instead of keeping to the left of the pedestrian in front, attempted to pass to her right and in doing so, struck Miss Vail, breaking her leg and inflicting other serious injuries from which she is still suffering.

The bringing of the suit was postponed pending negotiations for settlement by the company in which the Danas are insured, but this company is unwilling to make a payment satisfactory to the injured party. Action has now been brought in the Supreme Court of the State, for $5,000 damages by Reed & Hetfield, attorneys for Miss Vail.

MOTORCYCLE CLUB'S ANNUAL BANQUET

Popular Organization Gathers at Waldorf Hotel and Enjoys Song and Speeches.

The second annual meeting and banquet of the Plainfield Motorcycle Club was held in Hotel Waldorf last night, and the event was a thoroughly enjoyable affair, surpassing in interst the success of last year. A large gathering of those who burn the roads with gasoline during the summer in this vicinity was on hand to partake of the sumptuous banquet that preceded the annual meeting and an informal program of entertainment and speeches provided amusement for the diners during the evening.

Ralph Auerbach, president of the club, acted in the capacity of toastmaster, and the following responded to their respective toasts: Hampson, "System;" Herlick, "Good Roads;" Horner, "Everything In General;" Johnson, "Club Runs;" Pope, "County Roads;" Gowdy, "Dunellen;" Moore, "Features of the Tandem;" Klein, "F. A. M.;" Latsko, "Road Helps;" Uhler, "Motorcycle Helps;" Dickhunt, "Roads;' Conway, "Good Fellowship;" Higgins, "Green Horns;" Coddington, "Long Island Police;" Alberts, "Experiences Of a Green Rider;" Renninger, "What a Carpenter Can Do With a Motor;" Auerbach, "The Making of a Club;" Phillips, "Girls In General;" Peterson, "Indians;" R. Vroom, "Music of a Motor;" W. Vroom, "Speeding;" Gullberg, "From Bicycle to Motorcycle." The toasts were based on salient features of each of the speakers and the various short talks were interesting and amusing.

It was decided to hold the next regular meeting of the club Thursday night, February 19, when the initiation of several new members will take place and the nomination of officers for the coming year will be made. The election of officers will be held at the following meeting, March 5. The initiation ceremonies promise a surprise and will be followed by a club "feed."

Those present last night were Bert Coddington, Bud Klein, Warren Groff, of Cranford; J. J. Moore, A. Gowdy, of Dunellen; Les Renninger, Al Bowlby, Al Herlick, of New Market; Ralph Auerbach, C. F. Pope, of Westfield; Freddie Rich, of Garwood; Windy Hampson, Jim Conway, Gus Johnson Roy Vroom, R. Gullberg, Warren Vroom, Paul Phillips, Fanwood; Julius Dickhunt, of Samptown; Harry Uhler, Bill Higgins, Jack Horner, Henry Peterson and A. Latsko.

ADOPT A SON.

Wanting a little son to take the place of a son who died, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Ryno, of Dunellen, have adopted Charles Henry Stanley, five years old, who has been a member of their household for the last two years. His name has been changed, through judicial sanction to Walter C. Ryno. The couple have a young daughter.

DR. DANIEL C. LOGUE.

Dr. Daniel C. Logue, surgeon on the Monitor, when that old time dreadnaught fought the Merrimac, is dead at his home at Belmore, Long Island, N. Y. Dr. Logue served under Commander Worden, an uncle of Lynn Worden, of this city.

DECISION TO BE GIVEN LATER

In Suit Brought by Archibald McArthur to Recover Money Invested.

DEFENSE DENIES FRAUD

Evidence Given to Show That the Purchaser of the Ballantine Farm Knew What He Was Doing—Frederick A. Pope a Witness.

Newark, Feb. 7—Decision was reserved by Vice-Chancellor Stevens in the matter of the suit brought by Frederick A. Ballantine to foreclose liens aggregating $10,000 on property of Archibald McArthur, of Kearney, who bought a 98-acre farm of Ballantine about two years ago. The farm is situated in Bedminster township, in Somerset county. Ballantine, testifying yesterday, Ballantine that the farm cost him originally $9,750, but that with the various improvements he made and paid for, the total cost to him aggregated $16,400. Other farmers, residing in the neighborhood of the farm, testified that it was a good property and should pay a good return to any practical man who worked it. The farm was one that they believed capable of excellent profits these witnesses declared.

Arguing in behalf of Ballantine, Judge Clarence Case, of Somerville, pointed out the fact that McArthur had come into court armed with a memorandum book in which he said he had set down the figures which he declared Ballantine had given him at the time he purchased the farm, showing the large profits he had earned the year previous.

According to McArthur, Ballantine gave him a detailed statement showing that his net income from eighteen cows for the year amounted to $2,400; that he sold thirty-five tons of hay for $875; 400 bushels of oats for $240; 200 bushels of wheat for $200; a quantity of corn in the ear for $100; poultry and eggs for $100, and $80 worth of pork.

If one eliminated the verbal statements of McArthur, Judge Case declared, the whole charge of fraud and misrepresentation failed and utterly.

County Prosecutor Frederick A. Pope declared that he had especial knowledge of farming, having been brought up on a farm as a boy. He asserted that it was humanly impossible for any man to successfully farm a 100-acre farm tract and make a reasonable profit on as large an initial investment as $18,500.

Mr. Pope declared that in those cases where a vendor to induce a sale makes positive statements of material facts of which he has special knowledge, and of which the vendee is ignorant, such representations, if false, will make the vendor liable. In this case the old rule of caveat emptor, which translated means "Let the Buyer Beware," does not apply.

In buying the farm McArthur took it subject to a $5,000 mortgage, paid $2,000 cash, gave three notes, aggregating $1,000, executed a $7,000 mortgage on the farm and assigned to Ballantine a $2,000 collateral mortgage on his Kearney property. The cross-bill alleges that $7,500 would have been a good price for the farm, and that McArthur agreed to pay $18,500 in ignorance of the value of farm lands and relying utterly upon the representations made to him by Ballantine.

HOSPITAL DANCE ON FEB. 17 TO HAVE NOVEL FEATURES

Arrangements for the dance which is to be given in the Columbus Hall on West Front street on Tuesday, February 17, for the benefit of Muhlenberg Hospital, under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary, are rapidly being completed. Music under the direction of Mr. Kee, who has played at a number of entertainments given in Plainfield during the winter, will be of an exceptionally fine character, and the supper is to be a novel and attractive feature of the evening. The price of the tickets has been set at a nominal figure, and they can be procured of any of the members of the auxiliary, or at the door. Dancing will continue from 8 to 12.

SMALL BOYS ARRAIGNED.

Samuel Smelson, John Donnelly and Raymond Rockefeller, boys living in the West End ranging in age from twelve to fourteen years, were arraigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court this morning, charged with annoying Solomon Mann, of West Third street, and after a short reprimand delivered by the court were given another chance, with a warning to let Mann alone in the future. Frank Pelligan, a fourth member of the gang, failed to appear this morning.

—Van Arsdale's February "step lively" cash shoe sale is now on.—Adv. ***

MAY CONTRACT STREET WORK

Councilmanic Committee Discusses Plans to Improve the City Thoroughfares.

The Councilmanic street committee intends to make substantial progress in the repair of Plainfield streets the coming year, provided it can secure an appropriation adequate to accomplish what should be done. At a meeting of the committee, last night, plans were discussed for extending the permanent pavement in the business section of the city, and particular attention will be given to the residential section. It has not been decided what form of permanent pavement wil be used, whether it will be brick or some other patent material.

An important question that came before the committee last night was whether the street improvement work should be done by the city or put out on contract. It has been stated that by contract the city would be able to save a large amount of money and beside get better results. The present method is considered to be very expensive.

There was also discussed plans for opening several streets in the West End, which will probably be petitioned for in the near future. The committee realizes that in order to save the streets of the city especially in the residential section, a considerable sum of money will have to be expended. It has been said that $100,000 would not be any too much to spend for the permanent improvement of streets. Another meeting of the committee will be held the latter part of the month to consider street matters.

VAIN SEARCH FOR A MISSING YOUTH

Local Parents Employ Private Detectives to Locate Boy Absent Five Months.

William R. Lindsley, the sixteen-year-old boy who mysteriously disappeared from the home of his parents at 1336 West Front street, October 13 last, is still missing and all attempts to ascertain his whereabouts have been in vain. Young Lindsley attended the Irving School in this city, where he was considered an unusually precocious pupil and overstudy is assigned as the reason for his mysterious absence, his parents believing that he has wandered from home and met with foul play.

Mrs. Lindsley still holds out hope of locating her son and is making efforts to institute a State-wide search for the youth. She called at the Newark police headquarters yesterday afternoon and asked the authorities of that place to aid the corps of detectives and police of other nearby cities in the quest. Numerous rumors have been brought to her attention and she believes that he is either in New York or Newark.

The mother of the lad has paid out nearly $250 in hiring private detectives who are looking for the boy in New York and Pennsylvania. She said that one of the detectives traced him from Philadelphia to Camden and then to Newark, but lost him at the latter place. Mrs. Lindsley visited Newark yesterday and she said that she learned at one of the Salvation Army barracks that a youth answering her son's description stopped there Wednesday night.

The boy is four feet, ten inches tall and has a glass eye. He wore a pair of light trousers and a blue coat and cap the day he disappeared. Although bright in school the boy was afflicted with wunderlust and gave those with whom he came in contact considerable trouble at times.

HEARD MYSTERIOUS NOISE BUT POLICE FOUND NOTHING

Mrs. Anna A. Zimmer, of 403 Watchung avenue, telephoned the police early yesterday morning stating that she heard mysterious noises coming from the rear of the store occupied by D. F. Starck, auctioneer, just below her home and Captain Frederickson sent two cops to the scene of the trouble, but found nothing of a mysterious nature.

According to the story told by Mrs. Zimmer someone was prowling around the rear of the store for a period of one and one-half hours and although she thought at first that Mr. Starck was probably working overtime she became suspicious as the noise continued and finally called the police.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

—To go straight to the right store, at the right time, in making a particular purchase, is not a matter of luck, or of general knowledge of the stores—but of keeping in touch with store advertising all the time.

AUTO ENGINE FUND SWELLED BY SHOW

Many Were Present at Production of "Oak Farm" in Y. M. C. A. Last Night.

A large audience haling principally from Watchung and Warrenville, attended the production given by the Oak Farm Dramatic Club in the Y. M. C. A. Hall, last night, and as a result the fund being raised to purchase a new auto fire engine for the Watchung Chemical Company will be swelled to the extent of $150. "Oak Farm," a sketch that has been presented here on several previous occasions was admirably will given by the cast of local characters and the plot on which the playlet is founded furnishes numerous incidents which were will portrayed.

Charles Mumford, playing the role of the Joel Weatherby, an overgrown farmer's boy, was the big hit of the show and his ability to draw a laugh on every appearance added much to the presentation. The scene of the play is laid near a little New Hampshire village and three acts tell the story of the life of a farmer's family from the time the youngest son leaves home with $1,000 raised by mortgaging the homestead until he returns in the third act at psychological moment and pays off the debt.

All of the parts were well taken and the characters fitted into their various positions in fine form. Vocal solos rendered by Miss Mildred McAuliffe, Charles Mumford, John B. Richards and James Goodwin added much to the enjoyment of the affair.

Those in charge of the business end of the production were: W. F. Richards, business manager; Frank Dehough, treasurer; Charles Mumford, stage manager; George Simons, assistant stage manager.

BURGLARS VISIT THE HOME OF C. T. VOORHEES

Awakened by a slight noise, Mrs. Voorhees, mother of Clarence T. Voorhees, of Jackson avenue, Dunellen, was startled about 2 o'clock yesterday morning by frequent flashes of an electric lamp in the kitchen. Arousing her son, who in turn awakened his brother, a search of the house was made when evidences of the presence of burglars were found, but the burglars had fled. Entrance was effected through a rear window.

An investigation disclosed the fact that the burglars had taken a new overcoat and had rifled the pockets of another coat. The matter was reported to the Dunellen poilce. It is the belief of the borough authorities as well as those of Plainfield, who have been consulted, that the robbery was committed by some of the rough characters who have been riding on coal and freight trains and pan-handling from the public.

PATRONESSES ANNOUNCED FOR COMING RECITAL

The recital to be given at the Congregational church Monday evening, February 16, by Miss Mary Henry, violinist; George C. Carre, tenor, and Miss May, pianist, promises to be one of unusual enjoyment. This will mark the formal opening of the new parish house as a social centre. The patronesses for the affair are as follows:

Miss Isabel S. Arnold, Mrs. Albert H. Atterbury, Mrs. George L. Babcock, Mrs. George H. Batchelor, Mrs. Guy Bender, Mrs. Morris F. Benton, Mrs. William G. Besler, Mrs. Levis M. Booth, Mrs. Erastus W. Bulkley, Mrs. Leighton Calkins, Mrs. J. Herbert Case, Mrs. Willard L. Case, Miss Florella F. Clark, Mrs. Frank T. Clawson, Mrs. Richard A. Claybrook, Mrs. Peter B. Cregar, Mrs. Henry A. Fiske, Mrs. Charles H. Franklin, Mrs. Leroy H. Gates, Mrs. Frederick M. Genung, Mrs. Charles L. Goodrich, Mrs. John F. Harman, Mrs. Arthur M. Harris, Mrs. Eugene H. Hatch, Mrs. Otis E. Hovey, Mrs. Frank J. Hubbard, Mrs. William C. Hubbard, Mrs. Thomas F. Hylan, Mrs. Frank W. Iredell, Miss May Kirkner, Mrs. C. C. Emil Larrson, Mrs. Rufus P. Lincoln, Mrs. Robert H. Lowry, Mrs. William A. McClurg, Mrs. Charles W. McCutchen, Mrs. Frederick G. Mead Mrs. George P. Mellick, Miss Ethel Millar, Mrs. William H. Murray, Mrs. Norman H. Probasco, Miss Nan F. Randolph, Mrs. Edward P. Sharretts, Mrs. Percy H. Stewart, Mrs. George A. Strong, Mrs. Duncan W. Taylor, Mrs. Eugene P. Thomas, Mrs. William S. Tyler, Mrs. Edward L. Suffern, Mrs. Philip S. Suffern, Mrs. Lawrence H. Van Buren, Mrs. Frank D. Warren, Mrs. Alexander J. Watson, Mrs. Frank A. Weeks, Mrs. Lawrence C. Whitall, Mrs. John M. Whiton, Mrs. Gates Willard.

—Genuine bargains for everybody at Van Arsdale's February "step lively" cash shoe sale.—Adv. ***

WILL TALK ABOUT SOUTH AMERICA

Charles H. Sherill, Prominent Yale Man, at Board of Trade Dinner.

HELD TRACK RECORDS

Principal Speaker Has Had Diversified Career—Rev. C. F. Reisner Also Interesting Personality—Unique Musical Entertainment.

Charles Hitchcock Sherrill, American minister to Argentine Republic under President Taft, who will be the principal speaker at the annual banquet of the Plainfield Board of Trade, to be held in Columbus Hall on February 19, has had an interesting and varied career, and the dinner committee considers itself fortunate in securing him for the evening. Mr. Sherrill returned to this country only a little over two years ago, but his talk is so interesting that since that time he has been called upon to speak at 117 meetings and banquets of various Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce. Some idea of the great opportunities offered in South America, with amusing instances of the ignorance which the average American displays about the country will be given by the speaker. As an example of Mr. Sherrill's hustling proclivities it may be said that he increased the trade between Argentine and the United States from $47,000,000 to $80,000,000 in two years time, and succeeded in securing for American firms $26,000,000 worth of contracts after the American bids had been thrown aside. He is now a practising lawyer in New York.

Local Yale men are taking much interest in the dinner because of the fact that Mr. Sherrill is a graduate of that university, in the class of 1889, and while there, and since has been very active in matters of interest to the college and his class, of which he is the secretary. He has published four books recording reunions 6, 10, 15 and 20 years after graduation. While in college Mr. Sherrill was the intercollegiate 100-yard championship sprinter all four years, and the 220-yard champion for three years. He also won the American championship in 1887 for 100 yards, and made records for 110, 150 and 250 yards. So great was his interest in athletics after leaving college that he was instrumental in bringing about a series of inter-university track athletic matches which began with Yale vs. Oxford in 1894. Mr. Sherrill has a number of personal friends in this city.

Another speaker will be Rev. Christian F. Reisner, pastor o Grace Methodist church, New York. Mr. Mr. Reisner has brought business methods into the conduct of his church, especially modern methods of publicity, and during a very few years he has built the congregation from three hundred to fourteen hundred. He is a convincing talker and when he spoke before the Elizabth Advertising Men's Club a few months ago the two hundred or more men present refused to let him stop. William C. Freeman, the famous advertising expert in New York, who recently spoke in Plainfield, says of Mr. Reisner, "If churches everywhere do not learn the value of publicity in saving souls after hearing Mr. Reisner's plan, they had better close their doors. There is no more sense in keping religion a secret than there is in a business man refusing to advertise." Mr. Reisner makes a clear cut talk of the kind that interests every one, and while his topic is "Church Publicity" it is broad enough in its scope to hold the attention of every one.

The other speakers will be Congressman William E. Tuttle, Jr., Rev. Charles A. Eaton and William L. Saunders. Charles A. Reed, corporation counsel, will act as toastmaster, and an innovation in the matter of music will be introduced, the committee having secured the Eureka Trio, a group of colored men who sing all the popular songs, accompanying themselves on stringed instruments. This trio has proven very popular upon hundreds of similar occasions, including the recent dinner of the Plainfield Country Club.

At a meeting of the dinner committee held yesterday afternoon in the Daily Press office, it was decided to select a secretary and treasurer for the committee, and Herman Schwed was chosen. Tickets have been on sale all this week, and the members of the committe reported that much interest is being taken in the dinner. Because of Mr. Sherrill's presence a special invitation will be sent to the members of the local Yale Club, urging them to attend the dinner.

Some confusion has arisen because of the wording of a letter which has been sent out, regarding the small tables seating eight, which will be provided. It is not necessary for anyone to take an entire table as is the impression which has been gained by some, as groups of any number up

(Continued on page 5.)

Next Thursday, Feb. 12
LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY
Store Closes at 12 o'clock Noon

BUT

OUR ANNUAL GRANITEWARE SALE BEGINGS TUESDAY MORNING, FEB. 10

See Monday Evening's Advertisement for Full Details

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY

Time to Save! Time to Save!

HANDSOME—MASSIVE—ACCURATE

FREE!

AND there are thousands of other useful and beautiful articles in the S&H Premium Parlor. The possession of one or more of these Premiums is a positive indication of a thrifty housewife. No purchase is complete until you get your change and your S&H Green Stamps—Always. THEY'RE FREE!

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"The White Store"

We Give the Famous S&H Green Trading Stamps

Store Opens at 8:30; Closes Saturdays at 10 p. m. Others days at 5:30.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Mrs. Howard Broach has returned to her home on Park avenue, after visiting relatives in Quarrytown, N. Y.

Mrs. Floyd I. Jones, of Paterson road, is entertaining Mrs. Zimri West, of Asbury Park.

Anthony L. Hophan, who has been on a business trip through the south for the past two weeks, has returned home.

The Saturday Nihtg Club meets in the Fanwood fire house this evening at 8 o'clock. The entertainment committee, composed of Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Meeker and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew I. Nichol, has arranged for an enjoyable evening.

The young girls of the borough met at the home of Miss Sallie Kyte, on Martine avenue this morning to make garments for sewing missions.

A Valentine luncheon will be held at the home of Mrs. Edward Sherwood on Martine avenue on Friday, February 13. The affair will be under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of the All Saints' Episcopal church.

Mr. and Mrs. William Reynolds, of Bartle avenue, have been entertaining their daughter-in-law, Mrs. William Reynolds, Jr., of Newark.

Henry Tepe, who lives in the vicinity of the mountains, has returned home after spending two weeks in the southwestern section of Pennsylvania.

Jack Barr, of Valley road, has left town for Buffalo, where he has taken a position with a large manufacturing concern.

Among the local youths who have recently joined Company K, of Plainfield, appears the name of Frank Amory, of Forest road. Last night young Amory had his first experience in guard life, when he went to Trenton with the organization.

The Parish House first basketball team will play the fast Elizabeth Banks quintet on the local floor tonight. As a preliminary game the second team will try conclusions with the Grace church aggregation of Plainfield. As both teams are about evenly matched two exciting and interesting games are anticipated.

In spite of the disagreeable weather conditions a large number of people turned out at the Parish House last night to the entertainment in which Miss Bass, of New York, featured.

A meeting of the executive board of the Parish House was scheduled for last night, but owing to the holding of the entertainment no business was transacted.

The work of erecting the dwelling for Albert Meyers, on Meyers avenue, which will be occupied by the owner and his bride after their marriage next week, has been completed and is now ready for occupancy.

Fred Coombs, of Park avenue, is detained at his home by a severe attack of tonsilitis.

Hunterdon County.

The Glen Gardner baseball team, recently organized, has elected these officers: Manager, Cecil Drake; captain, Grover Drake; secretary, Robert Houston; treasurer, Leslie Hockenbury.

The 200-foot stack at the powerhouse of the sanitarium at Glen Gardner is completed.

Mrs. M. H. Potter, of Glen Gardner, gave a birthday party Thursday for her little daughter, Alice Potter.

Mrs. Isaac Cramer, of Sunnyside, is at the home of her sister, Mrs. George Johnson, who is ill at Pittstown.

Miss Viola Barker, of Easton, Pa., is visiting her aunt, Mrs. William H. McConnell, of Annandale.

After spending some time in New Germantown, Mrs. Elmer Fritts has returned to her home in Annandale.

German Valley. and Chester

Mr. and Mrs. James Levy, of Paterson, returned home Thursday from a visit in Chester.

A. E. Borie is making improvements to the buildings on the McChestney farm, near Chester.

Emmet M. Hockenbury, of Chester, has purchased an automobile.

Edward Hill, of Newark, is a guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Lancaster, of Chester.

Mrs. William P. Orts, of Chester, is ill.

Westfield.

A canvass is being made under the supervision of the Sociological Club for the benefit of the Resident Nurse Association. The association has maintained a nurse for two years, but the funds are not sufficient.

The Bankers' Club at a meeting in the town hall Tuesday evening will hear an address by L. S. Critchell, of the Guaranty Trust Company, of New York, on the income tax.

Whitehouse.

Mrs. Keturah Wilson and daughter, Miss Lottie Wilson, of Lebanon, have gone to Newark to care for Mrs. Wilson's son, Joseph Wilson, who is ill.

Arrangements are being made for a progressive [illegible] party, which will be held at the Willowhurst, in East Whitehouse, Tuesday evening, February 17, by the Wishbone Club.

Abram Honeyman, of East Whitehouse, hurt recently when he was struck in the head by a piece of wood which flew from a circular saw, was taken to Somerset Hospital, in Somerville, Thursday.

Miss Ethel Hildebrant returned Thursday to Lebanon, after a visit to her aunt, Miss C. T. Voorhees, who lives near Whitehouse Station.

Mrs. Joseph H. Lindsley returned to her home in East Whitehouse, Thursday night, after a visit to New York.

Arrangements have been completed by Vesper Lodge, I. O. O. F., of Lebanon, for a supper in Odd Fellows' Hall next Friday evening.

Mrs. George Force and son, Oliver Force, of Lebanon, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hughes, at High Bridge.

Miss Florence Knox, of Lebanon, a student in the State Normal School in Trenton, is practising teaching in the Somerville public schools this month.

Miss Emma Voorhees returned to Lebanon, Thursday, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. George Taylor, in Somerville.

Mrs. Charles Jerolaman is suffering from an attack of tonsilitis at her home in Gladstone.

The body of Abram Vliet Lunger, sixty-eight years old, was buried in Rural Hill cemetery, Whitehouse, Thursday. Mr. Lunger died from apoplexy. He was a native of Potterstown, and was a brother of S. H. Lunger, of Lebanon. He leaves a widow and two daughters.

The Valley Boys' basketball team will play the Bernardsville five on the courts at Peapack tonight.

Theodore Cramer, an aged resident of Lebanon, who has been very ill, is reported to be improved.

A son has been born to Mr. and Mrs. Leon Gillespie, of Peapack.

Donald Trumbower returned to the parsonage of the Methodist church in East Whitehouse, Thursday night, after a visit in Bayonne.

Mrs. C. P. Oliver returned to East Whitehouse, Thursday, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Palmer, in Brooklyn.

Elias Trimmer, of Gladstone, has gone to Newark to visit his son, Irvin Trimmer, for a few days.

High Bridge-Califon.

Silas Waters is ill from pneumonia.

The monthly meeting of the High Bridge Common Council will be held Monday night.

Charles H. Davis, of High Bridge, has recovered from illness.

Nathan Kor, of High Bridge, is visiting in Newark.

Miss Anna Neighbour, of High Bridge, recently entertained the members of the Entre Nous Club at her home in West street.

William R. Hann, of Little Brook, is reported to be seriously ill.

Mrs. Lester M. Apgar gave a dinner party Wednesday to a number of her friends at her home in Centre street, Califon.

Somerville

Mrs. Theodore Staats, of Division street, is visiting her brother, H. W. Hoffman, at Hudson, N. Y.

Miss Kathryn Opdycke has been visiting her sister, Mrs. H. H. Brokaw, at Plainfield.

On account of the storm and wet grounds the proposed game of soccer football on the West End grounds this afternoon was indefinitely postponed.

The Rev. James J. Hoffman, of the Raritan Reformed church, will preach tomorrow morning at the First Reformed church. The Rev. Dr. John S. Gardner, of this place, will preach in the evening.

An all-day sewing meeting will be held in the First Reformed chapel on Tuesday, beginning at 10:30 a. m. Luncheon will be served at noon. The meeting will be under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society.

The business of William E. Maxwell is being transferred to the new location, and that of T. I. Honeyman & Company is being moved to the store lately occupied by Mr. Maxwell.

The Rev. Roy Ewing Vale, the pastor, is preaching a series of sermons at the Second Reformed church on Sunday evening, on "Jacob and You and I—A Man's Life in Five Scenes." His subject for tomorrow night will be, "Jacob's Ladder—A Young Man's Ideals." In the morning, the Rev. H. L. Bowlby, general secretary of the Lord's Day Alliance, will preach.

Raritan

Charles G. Myers and family will move shortly from this place to Somerville. He has been a resident of this place for many years, and will be greatly missed.

The Rev. J. J. Zimmer is confined to his room from a heavy cold.

John DeLorenzo, who was sericusly injured in a motorcycle accident several months ago, is able to be about again with the aid of crutches.

The annual valentine social will be given under the auspices of the Young Ladies' Bible Class of the Reformed church, in the chapel, on Thursday evening, February 12.

The Ga-Bibble Club, composed of young men of this place, will give a dance in Germania Hall on Friday evening, February 20.

The Rev. Dr. John S. Gardner, of Somerville, will preach in the Reformed church tomorrow morning.

Frank Alders has resumed his former position as designer in the old mill.

Bound Brook.

Mrs. Herbert A. Suydam and Mrs. Ralph L. Reed have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Stanley B. Hunt, at Roselle Park.

The services in the Presbyterian church tomorrow will be as follows: Sunday-school, 10:00 a. m.; Men's Bible Class will meet in the gallery of the church at 10:15 a. m.; morning worship at 11:00 o'clock, sermon by Rev. C. J. Culp, subject, "The New Age and Its Leadership;" evening service at 7:30 p. m., subject, "The Christianity of Abraham Lincoln."

Mrs. A. Manness, of Somerville, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Allison C. Hall, of South Bound Brook.

The services in the Methodist church tomorrow will be as follows: Sunday-school at 9:45 a. m.; morning worship at 11:00 o'clock, when the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed; evening service at 7:30 o'clock, when Rev. Alfred Evans will preach to the Boy Scouts of Bound Brook.

"Do Justly," will be the subject of Rev. William T. Boult's sermon tomorrow morning at the Congregational church; evening service at 7:30, subject, "How to Get the Most Out of Your Business."

Elmer J. Schoonmaker has been attending the Eastman School of Professional Photography in New York city this week.

The Bound Brook Boy Scout Council has elected the following officers for the ensuing year: President, C. C. Rawlings; vice presidents, George H. Packer, Dr. C. R. P. Fisher, William B. R. Mason, George V. La Monte; secretary, H. C. Watlous; treasurer, T. H. S. Cone; chairman of the court of honor, Samuel H. Miller.

Frederick W. Patrick, of New Brunswick, and Miss Catherine Brown, of Voorhees Station, were married in the local Methodist church on Thursday by Rev. Alfred Evans.

Rev. William T. Ro[illegible] will preach in the Chimney Rock chapel on Sunday, February [illegible] instead of tomorrow.

Dunellen & Vicinity

Mrs. Ernest Weston, of New York, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Charles Day, of New Market.

Raymond Huff, of Raritan, who has been visiting friends in town for the past few days, has returned to his home.

Mrs. Henry Kirchner, Sr., of Lincoln avenue, who has been detained at her home for the past week by a severe illness, is reported as improving slowly.

Miss Alma Wyckoff, of Bayonne, is spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Edith Wyckoff, of Front street.

J. J. Stites, the borough tax collector, has completed the work with the auditors, of going over the tax books. Everything was found to be in first class shape.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hall, of New Market, are visiting friends in Paterson.

Mrs. Raymond Hamley, of Washington avenue, and Mrs. A. L. Barto[illegible], of the same street, have returned home after spending a few days with friends in New York.

The local police authorities are kept busy these days by a number of young fellows riding through the town on coal and freight trains.

PERSONAL.

Miss Rae M. Harris, of Central avenue, with Miss M. E. Harris, of Evanston, Ill., are guests at Hotel Grafton, Washington.

Edward Flynn, son of Detective-Sergeant and Mrs. J. J. Flynn, of West Front street, is recovering from a severe illness.

Miss Carrie Drake, of Compton avenue, is visiting in Brooklyn, during the absence in the South of Halstead C. Compton and Miss Mary Compton.

Miss Frances Newman, of 120 Duer street, is visiting her cousin, Miss Marguerite Kress, of Brooklyn.

Mrs. Leonard Smith, of Duer street, has been called to Bedminster because of the serious illness of her uncle.

Miss Florence Hall and brother, John Hall, Jr., children of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. H. Hall, of Netherwood avenue, are detained at home with tonsilitis.

WOMAN HIT BY AUTOMOBILE ESCAPES WITH SCALP WOUND

Fred Harrington, Jr., an eighteen-year-old automobile driver of 1016 Central avenue, reported to the police at 10 o'clock last night, that he had hit a woman at South and Leland avenues, with his automobile and had taken her to the office of Dr. Albert Pittis on East Front street.

It was learned today that Miss Mary Garretson, of 745 St. Mary's avenue, was the victim of the accident and suffered a severe scalp wound but was able to go to her home unassisted after having it dressed at the doctor's office. This is the second accident Harrington has had within a short time, having collided with a hack driven by Harry Huff several weeks ago.

OLD TIME PORTRAITS.

Does There Exist a Reliable Painting of the Poet Burns?

Was this the face that launched a thousand ships
And burnt the topless towers of Ilium?

asks Marlowe, writing of the vision of golden Helen. A similar question has been asked in regard to the diverging portraits of Mary Stuart. Was this the face that turned so many heads some 350 years ago? The queen of Scots was assuredly bewitching. Knox admits it; Knollys asserts it; Ruthven lost his heart to her in Lochleven castle; whoever saw her desired her. Yet not one of Mary's portraits represents her as beautiful. Romney has sufficiently explained the fascination of Lady Hamilton for Nelson. But Mary Stuart's charm remains unexplained by her portraits.

And what about Burns? The point I wish to make is that old portrait painters are not to be depended on for strict fidelity to their originals. The mere fact that they differ so much in their representations of the same subject is enough to prove it. In regard to Burns, the question bears a twofold aspect. Not only do the portraits of the poet disagree with one another, but even that which by its frequent reproduction has tacitly been accepted as the truest representation cannot have been exactly like him when it was done. I refer, of course, to the familiar Nasmyth head and bust, painted in 1787, when Burns was carrying all before him on his first visit to Edinburgh.—J. Cuthbert Hadden in Scribner's.

REAL ESTATE LEASES.

Origin of the Custom of Making Rentals For 99 or 999 Years.

Whence originated the use of the odd term in leases, 99 or 999 years?

In other days lessees and mortgagees in possession of real estate for 100 or 1,000 years demised the same at an annual rental, retaining a reversion for the last year of the original term. The object of this proceeding was to be found in the unwillingness of the under tenant to become bound to the performance of the covenant contained in the original grant and also in the importance to the lessor of a reversionary interest, without which, under the old English practice, he could not recover his rent by distraint.

Sometimes this reversion was for only three days or even for only one day, but usually in long terms the last year was retained. Out of this came the popular notion that the law provided this distraint, and hence leases were made for 99 or 999 years, when there was no reason whatever for any such odd period of time.

In England there was in special cases a restraint on corporations or ecclesiastical persons prohibiting the demise of lands belonging to them to the impoverishment of their successors for a term beyond 100 years and such leases were accordingly made for 99 years.—Harper's Weekly.

Boosting a Stock.

"Stocks are valuable in keeping with the demand for them," said a Wall street man, "and the 'demand' is often created by queer methods. A few years ago a man who is well known in the street was overloaded with a certain stock. He told his wife there was money in it and that it would soon have a big rise. Next day the good woman gave the tip to the woman who came daily to massage her. The latter had many wealthy clients, to whom she gave the get-rich-quick tip. The stock became popular, the man sold out, and the masseuse who set the ball in motion never knew why she received a present of extraordinary value at Christmas time from her client."

"From which one?"

"Why, from the one who said it was a 'good thing,' of course. The others probably discharged her."—New York Tribune.

Hyderabad.

The state of Hyderabad, located about midway between Madras and Bombay, in the south central part of India, with a population about equal to that of New York and Massachusetts combined and with an area of 82,698 square miles (just about the same area as Kansas) is, generally speaking, the most important native state in India in population, wealth and potential resources. It has many wild creatures, including tigers and leopards in abundance and occasionally bison and elephants. There are also wild hogs, antelope, hyenas, wolves, jackals and bears.

SURPRISED ALFRED TOWNLEY.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Townley, of Watchung avenue, gave a surprise party last night for their son, Alfred Townley, they being assisted in the arrangement of the affair by the latter's cousin, Miss Lida Townley. There were about twenty children present. Games were played and refreshments served.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

MO-JO

White Chewing Gum

Talk No. 38

IT IS BETTER to be safe than sorry any time—better to use a chewing gum that is clean through and through than one that may or may not be.

How can you tell?

Look at the color of a piece of chewing gum—break it open—if it is white through and through it is clean.

If it is brown or some other color, you have a right to doubt it.

MO-JO is the only chewing gum we know of that urges you to test it in every way. MO-JO is sure of itself. It knows its ancestry. It knows it is free from every particle of dirt.

It is the sunlight of the chewing gum industry.

Just insist on clean gum and you will get MO-JO.

THE CHICLE PRODUCTS CO. NEWARK, N. J.

INSISTED ON SMOKING.

Matthew Ward, 21 years old, a plumber, of 1 Halsey street, was arrested last night about midnight in Saengerbund Hall on Somerset street, by Policeman Walter Dennis. Ward persisted, it is said, in smoking on the floor during the dance held there last night by the members of the Arion Social Club. He was remonstrated with by members of the floor committee, grew insolent and loud-voiced and as a result he was taken across the street to the borough police station and locked up. Recorder Hand this morning fined him $5, which he said his employer, Abraham Rosenthal, of West Third street, this city, would pay if he was telephoned for. The police sent the telephone message and Ward expects to be free again before night.

Rev. Frederic L. Greene, of Hope chapel, will preach a Christian Endeavor sermon at 7:[illegible] o'clock tomorrow night.

Rev. E. W. Roberts, who will conduct revival services at the Shiloh Baptist church, next week, will be assisted by Rev. J. A. Jordan.

STYLISH RELIABLE

A LESSON IN LOGIC

"Logic," says Webster's Handy-Book, "is the science of correct reasoning."

Assuming that you are a normal man, with a normal man's likes and dislikes, you must desire to see yourself not only clothed in your right mind, but clothed in garments that are cut well, styled well and LOOK well.

What prevents you, then, from buying a suit or an overcoat that will greatly improve your appearance?

Assuming again that you are perfectly normal, your answer will probably be, "the prices are too steep," or words to that effect.

The whole thing hinges on the question of price—and that's where the Rothberg Clothes-shop comes in.

Here you get better values than the same price buys at most stores.

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's

GIMBELS

$40,433 Worth of SILVERWARE for $22,231

An Event That Will Be a Fitting Anniversary Celebration of Our Sale of the Retail Stock of the Mauser Company's Fifth Avenue Store

We have been working toward this end for the past three months, and our preparations have been amply rewarded. By our determined efforts we have secured an assemblage of very fine wares which we bought advantageously from many of the best factories in the country—and this assortment actually excels, in many instances, our past efforts for value and beauty.

This disposal of merchandise to the amount of the figures quoted above is made up as follows:

$19,738 worth of Fine English and Dutch Silver for $9,874
$5,000 worth of Sterling Silver Flat Ware for $3,734
$1,800 worth of Silver Deposit on Glass for $1,200
$1,850 worth of Silver Frames for $1,012.
$9,360 worth of Rogers Plated Ware for $4,080
$2,675 worth of Fine Sheffield Plate for $1,817

The Average Saving on This Entire Sale Is About Half Price

What a rare occasion for those who have wedding or anniversary gifts to buy. We will engrave, without charge, every piece of Sterling Silver purchased in this Sale.

From other sources we have secured a great number of Sterling Silver Novelties and Jewelry, and a limited but very fine assortment of German Silver Mesh Bags, plated with silver or gold.

Reproductions of Sheffield Plate
On Copper

A manufacturer's stock, which we offer to the public at a saving of one-quarter to one-third less than regular—in two patterns, Grape and Thread.

Gravy Boats and Trays, $6.50.
Gravy Boat (only) $3.75.
Card Trays, 75c and $1.
Meat Platters, $6 to $13.50.
Bread Trays, $3.50 and $4.50.
Water Pitchers, $9.
Five-Piece Tea Sets, $28.50.
Cheese and Cracker Dishes, $3.75 and $4.50.
Sandwich Trays, $4.50 and $6.
Double Vegetable Dishes, lock handles, $7.50.
Chop Dishes, $4 and $5.75.
Main Floor

About 500 German Silver Mesh Bags
Selling at Less Than Half Price

These we have divided into four groups:

Group No. 1—German Silver Bags, assorted frames, reversed mesh, 4 in. frame, etched, all at $1.

Group No. 2—German Silver Bags, with narrow frames, reversed mesh, some soldered, all at $2.95.

Group No. 3—German Silver Soldered Mesh Bags, engine turn, hand etched or engraved frames, and Sterling tops, at $2.95.

Group No. 4—Limited quantity of Gold Plated Bags on German Silver mesh, $4.95.

Fine English Silver, All At Half Price
Hand-Wrought and Pierced

Four-Piece Tea Sets, $105.
Centrepieces, $150 and $455.
Bowls, $15 to $135.
Bonbon Dishes, $6 to $28.
Five-Piece Tea Sets, $200 and $240.
Tea Set Tray, $200.

Beautiful Dutch Silver At Half Price

Baskets, $32.50 to $87.50.
Dishes, $20 to $45.
Bowls, $40 to $65.
Tea Sets, $90 to $200.
Jewel Boxes, $32.50 and $35.
Tea Kettle, $120.
Coffee Set, $46.50.

Sterling Silverware
At One-Quarter to One-Third Less Than Regular

Tea Spoon, $6.75 doz.
Dessert Spoons, $14 doz.
Table Spoons, $18 doz.
Soup Spoons, $14 doz.
Dessert Forks, $14 and $18 doz.
Medium Forks, $18, $23 doz.
Medium Knives, $16.50 doz.
Dessert Knives, $14.50 doz.
Coffee Spoons, $4.50 and $5 doz
Bouillon Spoons, $9.50 doz.
Berry Spoons, $3.50 ea.
Ice Cream Spoons, $12 doz.
Mustard Spoons, 75c ea.
Children's Sets, $2.75 set.
Lettuce Forks, $2 ea.
Olive Spoons, $1.40 ea.
Oyster Forks, $8.50 doz.
Salad Sets, $6 set.
Cream Ladles, $1.50 ea.
Butter Knives, $1.50 ea.
Gravy Ladles, $2.50 ea.
Butter Spreaders, $12 doz.
Tomato Servers, $3 ea.
Carving Sets (3 pcs.), $8.75 set.

Discontinued Patterns of Sterling Silver
At a Saving of One-Quarter to One-Third

Ladles, $2 and $2.50 ea.
Butter Knives, $1.25 ea.
Lettuce Forks, $1.75.
Berry Spoons, $2.25 ea.
Pie Servers, $2.

Other Serving Pieces, from a Butter Pick at 85c to a Berry Spoon at $2.75 ea.

Sterling Deposit Glassware
At Reductions of One-Third and More

Candlesticks, 50c ea.
Vases, 50c to $1.75 ea.
Jam Jars, $1 ea.
Oil Bottles, 50c ea.
Cheese and Cracker Dishes, $2.50 ea.
Whiskey Bottles, $1.75 and $2.50 ea.
Water Pitchers, $2.50 and $3.75 ea.
Sandwich Plates, $1.25 and $2.50 ea.
Compotes, 65c ea.
Wine Bottles, $1.25 ea.
Cracker or Tobacco Jars, $1.25 ea.

And many other pieces, including Lemon Plates, Sugar and Cream Sets, Butter Dishes, Bottles, Pitchers and Sandwich Plates.

Rogers Fine Sectionally Plated Ware
In Discontinued Pattern

These are all in a pattern suitable for hotels and boarding houses, as they are not too fancy. All are marked at

One-Third to One-Half Less Than Regular

Medium Knives, $7 doz.
Dessert Knives, $6.75 doz.
Tea Spoons, $1.25 doz.
Dessert Spoons, $2.25 doz.
Table Spoons, $2.50 doz.
Bouillon Spoons, $2.50 doz.
Dessert Forks, $2.25 doz.
Medium Forks, $2.50 doz.
Individual Salad Forks, $2.50 doz.
Oyster Forks, $1.75 doz.
Soup Spoons, $2.50 doz.
Ice Cream Forks, $2 doz.
Butter Spreaders, $2.50 doz.
Pickel Forks, 20c each.
Berry Spoons, 50c doz.
Jelly Spoons, 35c each.
Cold Meat Forks, 30c and 40c each.
Butter Knife and Sugar Spoon, 25c each.
Soup Ladles, $1.15 each.
Oyster Ladles, 85c each.
Gravy Ladles, 40c each.
Punch Ladles, $2.25 each.

And many other pieces, including Carving Sets, Game Sets, Fruit Knives, etc., etc.

Sterling Silver Photo Frames
One-Third to One-Half Lower Than Usual

Some of these are plain, hand engraved and etched, all very heavy and well made—only a few of each kind, as they are samples.

Prices range from 75c, $1, $1.65 up to $8.25 and $13.50.

A Manufacturer's Surplus Lot of Gold Filled Jewelry, One-third to One-half Less

These values are of course very remarkable, especially as the designs are new and very good looking.

Ribbon Soutoire, mounted with sterling ornaments, 50c.
Rhinestone Brooches set in with sterling silver, 50c.
Sterling Top Hatpins in sterling designs, 25c.
Hand engraved Sterling or Gold Filled Friendship Circles, 25c.

And many hundreds of pretty Novelties, such as Rhinestone Bar Pins set in sterling, Cuff Pins, Collar Pins, Shoe Buckles, Ribbon Soutoirs, Lingerie Clasps, Hatpins, jeweled or plain or with vermicelli finish, and many items for Men, such as Cuff Links, Scarf Pins and Tie Clasps in sets, all of these ranging in price from 25c to $1 and all at HALF PRICE OR LESS.

Main Floor.

Broadway GIMBEL BROTHERS Thirty-third Street, New York

ASK THE MAN

for whom we have done plumbing and tinning of any description whether it wasn't an expert and scientific job. Or permit us to refer you to them, and when you want anything done in our line you will come to us. Let us give you an estimate on new or old work.

Work guaranteed satisfactorily done.

A stock of Hardware and Housefurnishing Goods unequalled in the city.

Let us serve you.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.
119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.
Two 'Phones 6—214

NO HEART STOP

for you when the fire gong sounds if you have one of our policies.

FREDERICK A. MARTIN CO.
(Successor to Elston M. French Insurance Agency)
Insurance Mortgages Real Estate
171 NORTH AVENUE Telephone 2304
The Oldest Insurance Agency in This City. 8 23 twtf

Attend the Remarkable FUR SALE of

Charles Kurtzman Furs of Quality 119 E. Front St

DR. PITTIS OFFICE BUILDING

LOST

Millions of dollars each year by Fire, Wind-storms and accidents.

FOUND

Relief and protection in the policies issued by

J. C. POPE & COMPANY
First National Bank Building, Plainfield, N. J.
Insurance and Real Estate.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

ANTI-SUFFRAGE

Conducted by Plainfield Branch New Jersey Association Opposed to Woman Suffrage.

(Speech of Mrs. Grace Duffield Goodwin before the Rules Committee at Washington, Dec. 4, 1913.)

THE FAILURE OF SUFFRAGE TO AID TEMPERANCE.

Your attention has been called today to the many phases of the organized opposition of woman suffrage, representing the convictions of thousands upon thousands of women over the age of 21 years, who, with intelligent deliberation, have enrolled their names in formal protest; representing also the large body of women who today are carrying a large share of the executive and financial responsibility of hundreds of civic and philanthropic enterprises throughout the length and breadth of the land.

If we who address you today indeed represent, as our suffrage friends have declared, the "slave half of human kind," it would not have taken us quite fifty years to find it out. Were this true you would not find us here today urging you to allow us to continue in this state of enslavement. We would not be investigating, at every turn, the promises made to women by the advocates of woman suffrage, promises of greater freedom, wider justice, more comprehensive equality.

We are asking, quite reasonably, it seems to me, for the fulfilment now in equal suffrage states, of promises made a generation ago by pioneers of the equal suffrage movement. One promise held out to many conscientious women was this: "Give the ballot to women and in six months they will wipe out the liquor traffic." Many of you remember that. Believing, before proof was possible, many adherents to equal suffrage were won upon this point alone. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union give its endorsement as an organization solely because it welcomed any legitimate aid toward its desired end, the abolition of the liquor traffic. It is quite fair to ask what has been done by the ballot in the hands of women to modify, control or abolish the sale of intoxicants, now costing the American people over one billion dollars a year.

The suffragists charge openly and by written word that the anti-suffragists are in league with the liquor interests. We recognize that some of the liquor publications and organizations are opposed to woman suffrage. That neither throws them into our camp nor constitutes us their allies. Their opposition is rapidly dying out. They no longer fear that which has proven itself harmless to them. The United Brewers' Association in a letter to the Plainfield N. J., Courier-News, signed by Hugh Fox, secretary, states that the anti-suffragists have never received nor asked for contributions from them, although he adds, "We have had appeals from the other side."

Mrs. Ida Porter Boyer, of Pennsylvania, campaigning for woman suffrage in Oklahoma, a prohibition State, said in 1910, that "the only way to save the State to prohibition is to carry woman suffrage." And two years later, in an interview in Michigan, reported in the Detroit Journal, she said, "Yes, I am afraid that the fear that if women obtain the ballot they will legislate saloons, boxing matches, horse races and even smokin out of existence is costin hundreds of votes. Nothing could be further from our minds. Personally if a man wants to smoke or drink or go to a horse race or see some man batter another it is his business, and none of mine. Suffrage will never attack personal liberties."

Some confusion evidently exists here as to the necessary and frequently inevitable limitations of personal liberty in organized society.

The Equal Franchise League of Denver, Co., so feared an infringement of this "personal liberty" that it protested, in March, 1913, to the Council of the city and county of Denver against the passage of a bill known as the O'Driscoll bill, making it a misdemeanor to sell liquor to a woman. The fact that this form of legislation was designed primarily for the protection of the child failed of apprehension by the league. The secretary of the Knights of the Royal Arch, a Pacific coast organization, stated in the San Francisco Examiner:

"We long ago made a thorough investigation in the states where women suffrage has been tried, and we learned that the liquor business has not been hurt in the least by the woman's vote."

In November, 1912, prohibition was submitted to the voters of Colorado. The Denver Post stated that the most ardent workers for the saloons were women. The saloon won by a large majority.

In Boise City, Idaho, in June, 1912, local option was voted on, and the saloon won by 2,300.

In 1912, in 156 elections on local option in California, 57 were in incorporated cities, and of these 37 voted for the saloon.

In Los Angeles the vote in favor of the saloon was three to one in some districts where registered woman votes were in the majority.

Wyoming, the oldest equal suffrage State, had then not even local option.

Commenting upon these facts, the New York Times remarked editorially:

"If the entrance of women into politics is not alleviatory, where is there any gain, either for them or for the nation, in a grant of the franchise?"

The contention here made is not that all women would in voting favor the liquor interests. Far from it. I contend only that upon this matter women divide as men divide, that the average condition remains unchanged, and that the promise that women will purify politics in this particular at least is not kept, because, in the nature of the case, it cannot be.

It is possible to understand that even conscientious women would not vote for prohibition which suffered such signal defeat in Colorado. The promise to the Women's Christian Temperance Union was impossible of fulfilment on the face of it. But why should local option, one method of liquor control favored by many men who are not prohibitionists, suffer defeat in Boise City and in 37 cities in California? This is certainly not in keeping with the often repeated statement that when women have the vote they will wipe out the liquor traffic.

Meanwhile in eight of the nine prohibition states male suffrage alone still prevails, and Kansas was a prohibition State before it granted the franchise to women.

Whatever may be said for the methods of liquor traffic control, and no intelligent person believes it should be uncontrolled, the fact remains that the strongest efforts to secure that control have been put forth by men, voting alone.

The case of Michigan in this matter has been repeatedly brought to your attention—Michigan, which was the first thought to have endorsed woman suffrage, then, on recount, to have repudiated it by a large majority. The following are a few of the figures given in the Michigan Manual. I will read but one or two and ask leave to file the others with the clerk.

"Woman Suffrage was defeated in Michigan by a majority of 96,144. Seventeen of the 83 counties in Michigan gave a majority in favor of suffrage. Twelve of these 17 are 'wet' counties and five of the 17 are 'dry' counties."

"There are in Michigan 33 counties which are theoretically 'dry' counties. Of these 33 so-called 'dry' counties, 28 voted against woman suffrage. Eighty-four per cent. of the so-called 'dry' counties of Michigan gave substantial majorities against woman suffrage."

In other words, 70 per cent. of the counties giving a majority in favor of woman suffrage are "wet" counties and less than 30 per cent. of all the counties giving a majority in favor of woman suffrage are "dry" counties.

"Every county voting on county prohibition April 7, 1913, gave a majority aginst woman suffrage."

The rest I will leave with you.

"There are 50 'wet' or non-prohibition counties in Michigan, of which 38 voted against woman suffrage.

"Twelve counties in Michigan voted for or against county prohibition on April 7, 1913, the same day on which woman suffrage was submitted to the electors for the second time.

The total majority against woman suffrage in the 12 counties where the "wet" and "dry" question was the paramount issue on the same day was 12,733.

Six counties, Genesee, Ionia, Saniiac, Lenawee, Clinton and Montcalm, voted for county prohibition by an aggregate of 2,519 on April 7, 1913, and at the same time gave an aggregate majority of 7,026 against woman suffrage.

The other six counties, Emmet, Iosco, Huron, Jackson, Tuscola and Calhoun, voted against prohibition by an aggregate majority of 3,149 on April 7, 1913, and at the same time gave a majority of 5,707 against woman suffrage.

It is interesting to note that a majority of those counties which voted in favor of woman suffrage are small, sparsely populated counties, situated either in the Upper Peninsula, as is the case with Baraga, Chippewa, Gogebic, Iron, Luce, Marquette, Ontonagon and Schoolcraft, or in the pine barrens of the backwoods district of the Lower Peninsula, as is the case with Alcona, Antrim, Benzie, Montmorency and Poscommon.

The Michigan Manual of 1913 records these interesting figures:

On page 448: "The majority against woman suffrage in the election of November 5, 1912, was 760."

Page 778: "The majority against woman suffrage at the election of April 7, 1913, was 96,144."

Page 779: "Constitutional amendments relative to the initiative on constitutional amendments was adopted by a majority of 42,404."

Page 780: "The constitutional amendment relative to the initiative and referendum upon legislative measures was adopted by a majority of 66,669."

Page 782: "The constitutional amendment relative to the recall of elective officers was adopted by a majority of 92,321."

"Any charges that the voters in this election were controlled by the liquor interests must therefore apply equally to the voters who enacted these so-called progressive measures."

I would request that this information be incorporated in the report of the hearing.

The Chairman: I will state that you may round out your statement and add those things if you wish, to complete it.

Mrs. Goodwin: Thank you, Mr. Chairman, but I think that will be sufficient for the committee to understand what I was driving at.

The suffragists want sympathy from you, gentlemen, by the declaration that they desire to help men, to stand shoulder to shoulder with men in the strife of party policies. We who have watched with deep interest the history of the last ten years in regard to such matters as those I have brought to your attention feel with Henry Howland, that "the best way to help a man is to help him keep his faith in himself."

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office, Rowleys' Drug Store, 218 West Front St. Tel. 2081-J-2.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 1155

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Pabst Bros. and Krueger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
107 Somerset Street. Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations
Up to the Minute
'PHONE 1527.

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.
Waiting room at Kensington Hotel, Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD
WEEK DAYS.
Leave Plainfield—7.45, 9.00, 11.45 a. m. 1.00, 4.00, 5.00, 7.00, 9.00, 10.20, x11.10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—8.00, 9.30 a. m., 12.00, 1.30, 4.30, 5.20, 7.30, 9.30, 10.45, x11.30 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—9.00, 12.00 a. m., 2.00, 4.00, 5.00, 9.00 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—10.00 a. m., 2.15, 2.30, 4.30, 5.30, 9.30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE AND MT. BETHEL.
WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6.30 a. m., 3.00, 6.25, 11.00 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6.45 a. m., 3.15, 6.40, 11.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3.30, 6.50, x11.30 p. m.
Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.
Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30, 7.30, x11.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.40, 11.45 p. m.
Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 8.00, x12.00 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9.00 a. m. instead of 6.30 a. m. Trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STERLING
WEEK DAYS ONLY
Leave Plainfield—8.45 a. m., 4.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—9.00 a. m., 4.45 p. m.
Leave Stirling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m.
8.45 a. m. bus connects with 9.27 a. m. train at Sterling, for Newark
4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m. train at Sterling, from Newark

An enclosed, electric-lighted and heated bus may be procured for an afternoon or evening, from The Plainfield Transit Co., to carry from 15 to 25 passengers to any point within a radius of 25 miles from Plainfield
R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 319 Park Ave.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL
TELEGRAM, AMERICAN,
BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN.
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

Plainfield Daily Press

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY.
105 North Avenue.
Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Postoffice as second class mail matter.

LESLIE R. FORT, MANAGING EDITOR.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application. Copy for change of advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9 a. m.

PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, FEBRUARY 7, 1914.

On Saturdays the editorial columns of the Daily Press are conducted by citizens who are free to express their own views. The contributing editor for today is Rev. Cortlandt H. Mallery, Rector of the Church of the Heavenly Rest.

THE INFLUENCE OF THE MODERN NEWSPAPER.

That the newspaper has always been an important factor in the life of any community at any time cannot be successfully denied; however this may be, it seems to me that it is especially so in these modern days in which you and I live. Let me briefly give my reasons for this supposition.

First one might say that everybody reads the newspaper in these days partly because modern facilities have enabled it to reach remote localities formerly inaccessible, partly to the fact that newspapers are more attractive than in time past, and pre-eminently because in the rush of modern life many people cannot find the time, or do not have the inclination to read much of anything else. All this being true we see at a glance what tremendous influence the newspaper may be for good or evil, reaching as it does these great masses of people and constituting as it does in many cases their sole library.

Second. The modern newspaper has a great influence politically, educating and moulding as it does the minds of its readers along the lines of the policies it feels called upon to promote, in many instances creating a constituency in the political world which formerly was non-existent.

Third. The modern newspaper exerts a wide moral influence over a large number of men, women and children, an upward or downward influence, just in proportion to the moral rectitude of its promoters. Here is where the newspaper can be of invaluable aid to religion in reaching that class of the community which unfortunately seldom or never enter the door of the Church, but who do read the newspapers. If what we believe to be the greatest moral force in the world is not allowed to come in contact with their lives, namely the church, and in addition the newspaper which they do come in contact with every day is not morally what it should be, you can easily draw a mental picture of the possible result.

Fourth. The literary style of the newspaper has a large intellectual influence upon the minds of its readers, for it is the nature of man to imitate. Thus we can see that a carelessly written newspaper read day by day will—like the drop of water constantly dropping in one place—sooner or later perniciously affect the mental attitude of its readers and also their mental habits, the reverse also being true.

It ought to be an inspiration to every newspaper in this particular to know that a few years ago one of our leading universities adopted the editorials of one of the New York newspapers as a part of textbook in its English course, owing to the excellency of its style.

Last of all the newspaper can be and is a great power socially and economically in any community—Voicing the interests and yearnings of that most important department of our lives, namely the community interests as apart from our individual concerns. This is especially applicable to smaller communities where the people can be reached and impressed as a whole much better than in our large centres of population.

The principles for which the newspaper stands in such places will go far towards determining the policies ultimately adopted, be they good, bad or indifferent.

I have thus tried to show in a very disconnected manner something of the possibilities and indirect actualities of the modern newspaper. There are many more of them, but lack of space forbids their mention. All that I would urge in conclusion is that the newspaper wielding as it does such power ought to be in all cases—just because of that fact—sensible of its great responsibility and act accordingly.

REV. CORTLANDT H. MALLERY.

DESCRIBES BEAUTIES OF SUNNY SOUTH

Peter Floersch Talks of Trip to Florida—Chapter of Accidents.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Floersch, of the Queen City Hotel, who have been spending the past two weeks in Florida, returned home last night greatly benefitted by the trip to the sunny south. While away they visited Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Palm Beach, Daytona and other well-known places along the Florida coast. The weather was warm and balmy, being a delightful change from the rigors of the weathers in this part of the country.

In his travels throughout the far West and in the great prarie states, Mr. Floersch said he had seen thousands of acres of waste land, but never had he viewed so much waste land as he saw during his recent visit to Florida. In most cases there is no attempt made by the natives to keep up their farms an in few places in the country districts is there to be seen as much live stock as a chicken. This state of affairs seems particularly strange to Northerners when it is known how fertile and productive the soil of Florida is and with what small effort the most bounteous crops can be raised.

One of the delightful incidents of the trip Mr. Floersch said today, was a forty-mile automobile trip he and his family enjoyed down the motor pathway at Daytona. The road is laid out along the ocean on a beach that is the wonder of all beholders, the sand being packed as hard as asphalt and the ride along the route, with the ocean on the one hand and beautiful scenery on the other is one long to be remmbrd.

Thre is a great boom now on in Jacksonville. Everyone there is intent upon boosting the city with a view of increasing the population. Signs reading "Watch Jacksonville Grow" are to be met with on every side. The newspapers carry this slogan. It is displayed on street corners, in store windows and there are banners bearing the inscription to be seen on every side, Mr. Floersch said. He declared that Plainfielders might well emulate the example set by th citizns of Jacksonvill. Largely owing, it is said, to the boosting of their city by the business men of Jacksonville and all of the citizens generally property values in some cases have risen as much as 1,000 per cent. within the last few years. Jacksonville is a thriving municipality. Efforts are also being made, he said, to boom St. Augustine, both as a place of residence and business. St. Augustine is a charming place as well as a most historic one, but its growth has been nothing as compared with that of Jacksonville.

The other Plainfielders who are now in the southland, Dr. P. J. Zeglio, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Sandford, and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Staats, were said to have had an unfortunate time. They have suffered numerous misfortunes it was said. The accidental shooting of Dr. Zeglio by his hunting companion, Mr. Staats, cast a gloom over the party, especially as it was at first feared that Dr. Zeglio would lose the sight of one eye. It was necessary to send specially to Jacksonville for a specialist after the accident, and aid did not reach Dr. Zeglio until 3 o'clock the following morning. Then too, the illness of Frederick Sandford, who was obliged on account of his trouble, to forego all hunting trips and remain quietly at home, was disheartening to his companions. Added to these misfortunes William Kelly, of Oak Tree, who accompanied the party on its hunting trips was in a runaway accident one, his team of mules bolting and throwing him from the wagon. For several days his life was despaired of. Dr. Zeglio is expected to return to Plainfield within the next few days, but the other members of the party will remain south for some time.

MURDERESS FOUND DYING IN HOSPITAL

Daring Crime Committed Yesterday in Newark Cleared up This Afternoon.

One of the most daring crimes committed in this State in years was solved by the police of Newark this afternoon, when Miss Hazel Herdman, of Montclair, was taken to the Montclair General Hospital in a dying state, suffering from bichloride of mercury poisoning which she took early today. The murderess went to the home of Mrs. Harriet Manning, at 219 Warren street, Newark, late yesterday afternoon and fired three shots that resulted in the death of Mrs. Manning and the wounding of two other members of the family.

The murder was committed without a word of warning and the strange woman departed as she had come, unknown, and without leaving a single clue by which the police could trace her whereabouts. Upon hearing of the admittance of an unknown person into the hospital in Montclair this afternoon the police of Newark investigated the case and secured a statement from the woman which cleared up the whole mystery.

The murderess, who is said to be in a dying state, said that she had committed the rash act out of pure jealousy, Mrs. Manning having become acquainted with one of the assailant's male friends since leaving her husband. The police of this city were asked to assist in the search last night as rumor had it that the woman who committed the deed boarded a Lehigh Valley train for South Plainfield, but after keeping up an all night vigil Detective-Sergeant Flynn and Sergeant Higgins gave up the case this morning.

VIVISECTION SOCIETY WILL STUDY METHODS

Mrs. S. H. Van Hoesen, of this city, is one of the vice presidents of the New Jersey Vivisection Society, formed for the purpose of investigating the methods made use of by those known as vivisectionists and to acquire and disseminate information regarding such matters to the general public.

The officers of the newly formed organization are Dr. J. C. Corlies, president; Mrs. J. C. Corlies, treasurer; Mrs. H. L. Rost, recording secretary; Mrs. Ella S. Bates, corresponding secretary all of Newark. The members of the board of directors are Mrs. Clinton Pinckney Farrell, Mrs. Maude Ingersoll Probasco, Mrs. Judson Ladd, S. Irving Manners, the Rev. John Miller and Rogers Stevens, the last named a resident of this city.

The society does not propose to prosecute vivisectionists but simply to investigate and report its findings to the public. The organization is to hold a meeting at Trenton some time next month. Later there will be a meeting in Plainfield. Prominent speakers who are interested in medicine and surgery will address the Plainfield meeting. The idea is to have the society meet frequently in various parts of the State.

DUNBAR SOCIAL CLUB.

Members of the recently formed Dunbar Social and Educational club, organized under the auspices of the Public Recreation committee, met last night at Washington School and enjoyed an entertainment. There was dancing and refreshments were served. Miss Anne Melvin thrilled all present by her recital of a real ghost story. It was a tale of one "Brother Blandon," and had to do with a haunted dwelling siuated in that garden spot of the world, the far-famed eastern shore of Maryland, Miss Melvin's family lived long in that section of the country. Because of the inclemency of the weather the attendance at last night's meeting was not large.

FORM THEATRICAL CLUB.

For the purpose of forming a theatrical club, a meeting was held at the home of Miss Marion Mortimer, in the borough, last night. Those present were Miss Aleta Spencer, Miss Roberta Spencer, Fred H. Becker, Ray J. Becker, Ray W. Fuller and H. Newton Spencer, who will be the charter members of the organization. Fred H. Becker was chosen to direct the stage activities. No name has as yet been decided upon. The society adopted a Latin crest for its stationery reading, "Little things to big ones grow."

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

—The merchant who, in his advertising, emphasizes ten value-giving facts to his competitor's one, uses the best sort of "strategy" in expanding his business.

Feb'y Furniture Sale

You will possibly need Furniture in the Spring. But if you wait till then to buy it you'll pay more for it, so why not take advantage of the big savings offered now? There's positively no excuse for waiting. If you don't want the goods delivered till after housecleaning time we'll store them free of charge and deliver when you are ready. Then again

CLUB PLAN PAYMENTS MAY BE ARRANGED

You can take advantage of these February selling prices; pay a little down and so much weekly or monthly, as best suits your convenience.

THE FEBRUARY SALE OF BED OUTFITS

WHITE ENAMEL BEDS, Complete with Spring and Mattress, at 6.98 8.50 10.98 14.50 16.98 23.50

SOLID BRASS BEDS, Complete with Spring and Mattress, at 16.98 24.50 37.50 49.50

BLOCH PULLMAN CARRIAGES

SOLD EXCLUSIVELY IN THIS CITY BY US.

1914 MODELS NOW ON SALE AT SPECIAL PRICES DURING FEBRUARY SALE.

Regular Price—	16.98	19.50	21.50	23.50	25.00	29.50
Sale Price	14.95	17.95	18.95	19.95	21.95	24.95

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Woodhull & Martin Co.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

WE GIVE FIVE PER CENT. PROFIT SHARING COUPONS.

SUNSHINE MISSION BAND GIVES TWO FAIRY PLAYS

The members of the Sunshine Mission Band of the Crescent Avenue church presented the fairy plays "Cinderella," and "Rumpelstilzkin" in the church parlors last night before a large and appreciatvie audience. The plays were also given yesterday afternoon. Both performances were highly praised and every member of the cast acquitted herself in a creditable manner.

The cast included Caroline Powers as "Cinderella;" Helen Voorhees, as the mother; Gretchen Wherry and Frances Shaw, as the two sisters; Mary Genung, as fairy godmother; Adelaide Harper, as the prince, and Emily DeForest, as the herald. In the other play the characters were Margaret Stout, as the King; Alice Bormann, as the Prime Minister; Katherine Borden, as the First Lord of the Admiralty; Marian Gildersleeve, as Minister of War; Catherine Jones, as the page; Jean Lachlan and Helen Voorhees, as the two little elves, and Jane Stout, as Rumpelstiltzkin.

ADDRESS ON "CHINA."

The semi-monthly meeting of the Men's Association of the Church of the Heavenly Rest will be held on Thursday, February 12. An address will be delivered by Burnett Brodziak on "China." Mr. Brodziak was with the allied forces at the taking of Pekin. Arrangements are being made by the Rev. C. H. Mallery to hold a parish sociable at the parish house on the night of Thursday, February 19. Cards of invitations are soon to be mailed to parishioners. There will be music and refreshments and a good time for everybody free of charge.

GIVEN ANOTHER CHANCE.

Frank Chairville, the seventeen-year-old youth who has given the police of the city more trouble than any other boy, was arraigned before City Judge William G. DeMeza in the city court this morning, and pleading on the part of his father, a respected resident, got him another chance to make good. The question of sending the youth, who is deformed, to some institution was discussed, but it was concluded that his health was such that this step would likely result in his death.

FEBRUARY 7TH IN HISTORY.

1807—Napoleon defeated the Russians at the battle of Eylau.
1812—Charles Dickens, the great English novelist, born. Died June 9, 1870.
1855—The Palmerston ministry entered office in England.
1867—George Peabody announced a gift of $1,200,000 for educational purposes.
1901—Marriage of Queen Wilhelmina, of the Netherlands, and Prince Henry, of Mecklenburg-Schwerin.

—Some store may be placing on "special sale" just now the article you have not felt like paying "regular" prices for.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Follow the Crowd to the Park Ave. Baptist Church
Tomorrow Night
SUBJECT--"LAUGHTER"

First Presbyterian Church
CHARLES E. HERRING—Pastor.

Morning—Rev. C. C. Cain preaches.

NIGHT—ARE WE HELPLESSLY FATED?

PROTEST AGAINST SEWER

(Continued from page 1.)

on hand at the close of the year of $60.35. The reports of the various borough departments were unanimously adopted.

Judge Isaac P. Runyon was allowed $500 for legal services by the members of the Council, last night, but the members balked at paying a balance of $79 to Donald McLean for legal services rendered in and about the joint sewer proposition. The matter was laid over for a month. Mr. McLean has already received $100. Council voted the sum of $450, the balance of the fee for legal services in tax matters due to Major Carl Lentz. He did six days' work at an agreed upon compensation of $100 a day. The Council refused to pay Tax Collector George F. Brown the sum of $250 due him for extra help and $200 due him for rent of his office, Councilman Rushmore going on record by declaring that it was illegal to pay out money before it was due and earned. He suggested that the amounts be paid in twelve monthly payments. No decision was reached in the matter last night. The Nursing Bureau made application to the Council for an appropriation of $250 for a district nurse and a further sum of $250 for a school nurse. The matter was referred to the committee on laws and ordinances. The Council then adjourned.

RANSOME CONCRETE MACHINERY COMPANY

At a meeting of the Board of Directors held January 23rd, a quarterly dividend of 2% was declared on the preferred stock, payable February 16th to holders of record on that date.

EDWARD F. FEICKERT,
2 7-9-11-14 Treasurer.

First Church of Christ SCIENTIST
Babcock Building.
FRONT ST. AND MADISON AVE.
9:45 a. m., Sunday-school.
11:00 a. m., Sunday service.
8:00 p. m., Wednesday evening meeting.
Testimonial service.
2 to 5 p. m., Reading Room.
Open daily, except Sundays and legal holidays.

MENNEN'S TALCUM 15c

THAT STUBBORN COUGH
possibly hasn't yielded to the ordinary cough syrup. Get a bottle of NARCO Wine of Cod Liver Oil with Malt, Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites; pleasant to take, agrees with all stomachs and cures chronic coughs and bronchitis, etc. An excellent tonic.
Large Bottles 75c Only at
SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists
PARK AVE., COR. SECOND ST.

Headquarters for
GIBSON'S
RYE
E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

—Daily Press want ads. bring results

THE THREE COMPONENT PARTS

of our banking service are accuracy, courtesy and promptness.

We extend to you every banking privilege consistent with sound, conservative business.

Your account subject to check (large or small) is cordially invited.

3% INTEREST ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS OF $500.00 AND ABOVE

4% INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS OF $10.00 AND ABOVE

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Capital $150,000.00 Surplus and Profits $300,000.00 (all earned)

The John Wanamaker Store

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co.

Broadway and Ninth, New York

A Large Event in SMALL ORIENTAL RUGS
Told in a Few Words

One of the oldest, largest, most reliable rug-importing houses in America called us up some days back.

"For quick sale," said its representative, "we have an invoice, just in from Asia Minor; take it at its face and enough to cover expenses of landing."

This was unusual enough to be interesting, and we looked into it; found the rugs were the kind our customers want—the cream of the weaving of Asia Minor—and we took them.

We shall offer them on Monday at 25 per cent. below the lowest price asked of rug retailers for such grades.

520 Rugs in All—$6.50 to $69.50

In sizes from about 2½x2 feet to 8½x5 feet.

Some very pretty pieces at $20, $22.50, $25; deep blues, reds of many shades, camel's-hair brown; silky, tightly woven; in range of designs and colors varied enough to match any decorative scheme.

Hall Runners at $25

We think they are worth, conservatively, $35. 8 to 15 feet in length.

Mossouls, $11, $13.50, $17.50
Khiva-Bokharas, $8 to $15
Kermanshahs, $25, $30

These from our own zealously-assembled collection; about 3x5 feet and 4x7 feet; the wonderful Kirman creams and Khiva reds; no crooked pieces.

Just a few of each. That is why we offer them at these prices, less—by actual test—than we can buy their like for in today's rug market.

Fourth Gallery, New Building.

Because Two Freight Car Loads Failed to Arrive in Time for December Holidays, We Now Offer at Special Prices

Victrola and Music Cabinets

(Exclusively Designed for John Wanamaker)
With Interior Equipment for Player-Piano Rolls Has Latest 1914 Features

B1	B2	B3	B4	B5
Cabinet only Was $60	Cabinet only Was $25	Cabinet only Was $25	Cabinet only Was $15	Cabinet only Was $15
Now $48	Now $20	Now $20	Now $12	Now $12

Your own choice of cabinets in all wood finishes of oak, golden and mission, or solid mahogany, at the above reduced prices. Victrolas to fit these cabinets priced at $40 and $50 extra, permitting special purchase terms of a first payment of $5 and balance in monthly payments of $5 each.

All Other Cabinets, Record Albums, Album Racks, etc., Specially Priced at Not Less Than a Third Under Regular Prices

This is an unusual opportunity to secure a cabinet for your talking machine, sheet music, player rolls and records.

Victrola Salons, First Gallery, New Building.

CLEARANCE
Annual Shoe

STARTS SATURDAY AT
STUART'S SHOE SHOP

An event which should appeal as strongly to your appreciation of quality as to your sense of economy.

The following prices, backed by the real worth of the Men's, Women's and Children's Shoes offered, make it to your advantage to buy now for future needs.

Men's and Women's $3.50 and $4.00 Shoes; now	2.95
Men's and Women's $3.00 and $3.50 Shoes, discontinued lines; now	2.45
Men's and Women's $2.50 and $3.00 Shoes, discontinued lines; now	1.95
Men's High Cut Storm Shoes, regular $3.75; now	2.95
Men's English Style Black and Tan; regular $3.50; now	2.95
Men's Oil Grain Bluchers, regular $3.00; now	2.65
Women's Cloth Tops in Patent and Dull; reg. $3, now	2.45
Women's Juliets, regular $1.50 grade; now	95c
Women's $1.50 and $1.00 Furfelt Slippers; now	85c

Boys', Girls' and Children's Shoes All Reduced.

No imaginary values are quoted. A shoe that was $3.50 in November is still a $3.50 shoe, but you can now save 50c to $1.00 on it. Make it a point to supply your shoe needs now.

Stuarts SHOE SHOP

215 WEST FRONT ST., PLAINFIELD, N. J.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY PRESS

ARION SOCIAL CLUB DANCE WAS A SUCCESS

Members of the Arion Social Club held their first annual ball last night at Saengerbund Hall, in the borough. Music was furnished by Professor Streep, of Elizabeth. There was a large attendance. The decorations of the hall were pleasing, large American flags being used to drape the side walls. A novelty dance by Mr. Betz, of Elizabeth, won a handsome prize and a Mr. Yeager of this city, was awarded the prize for the best dancing.

Owing to the success of the dance of last night it is said that the Arion Social Club will give a similar affair in the near future. The committee in charge last night was composed of the officers of the club. They are L. Lane, president, L. Russel, secretary, and W. Miller, treasurer.

ITALIANS FAIL TO PROVIDE FOR CHILDREN

Joseph DeFalco and Nuncio DeVeco, two able-bodied Italians, were arraigned in the city court, this morning, on complaint of Miss Mabelle Phillips, the local agent for the Charity Organization, who alleged that they have failed to provide for the support of their nine children, now being taken care of by the city. The men have been provided with work by Miss Phillips in the past, but failed to pay their share of the expenses incurred by the city in keeping the children.

DeFalco, who is a barber by trade, insisted that the work given him to do by Miss Phillips was too hard and that he was not used to manual labor. Judge DeMeza gave the defendants the choice of working two-and-half days a week for the Charity Organization or going to jail. They decided to work.

TEACHER TRAINING COURSE BY DR. GROSZMANN

The National Association for the Study and Education of Exceptional Children announces that its next teachers' training course will begin February 16. This will be both a theoretical and practical course, and will be combined with the clinical and research work which is being done in its laboratory and school on "Watchung Crest." The term will extend until the middle of June. The association has been fortunate in securing some of the foremost authorities in medicine, education and sociology to lecture to the students. Successful completion of the course will entitle the student to a certificate. As there is a great demand for properly trained teachers for special classes in the public schools in most of the large cities of the country, such a certificate receives special consideration by the school authorities.

One of the features of the course is that several of the lectures will be held in the convenient meeting halls in Plainfield to which the public will be invited. As the work of the association is everywhere received with enthusiasm, the parents and teachers and others interested in this important problem will be given a splendid opportunity to become personally acquainted with this recognized authority of the movement.

WILD BEASTS AT LARGE ON FRONT STREET NEXT MONDAY

"Wild Beasts at Large" is the title of the feature photo play which will be presented on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday at Proctor's Front street theatre, inaugurating the new policy at that house, which was announced yesterday. In addition to the splendid first-run pictures, several films changed every day, will be shown, and a splendid full orchestra will provide the musical accompaniment, in place of the piano which has formerly done duty. Manager Sanderson will present as fine a motion picture show as has ever been seen in this country at every performance. The Plainfield theatre, on Second street, will discontinue running pictures, and will be dark except when road companies are showing there.

The feature for the first three days next week is one of the most sensational photo plays that has recently been produced, telling what happened when the menagerie of a circus broke lose. It is a comedy and a drama combined, showing a circus menagerie after a train wreck. The animals appear walking down the railroad track, lions, tigers, monkeys, bears, elephants, kangaroos and every other kind, amble along until they reach a small country town. What they do to the inhabitants, the houses and the stores form the most startling incidents that have ever been witnessed on any screen.

The regular Monday program will include a Keystone comedy, "Making a Living," and four other subjects in single and multiple reels.

"The Great Leap," a four part production will be the feature for the last half of the week, with photo plays changed daily.

—The Plainfield Auto Tire Co., 407 Watchung avenue, has taken the agency for the Case automobile. See adv. in this issue.

—Jacob Gernert, newsdealers, Somerville, sells the Daily Press or will deliver it to your home each day.

In the Churches

Baptist.

First Baptist Church—Rev. Dr. Philip B. Strong, pastor—10:30, preaching by the pastor; 2:30, Men's Conference Class; 6:50 Christian Endeavor Society meeting; 7:45, preaching by the pastor.

Park Avenue—Rev. Gabriel Reu Maguire, pastor—9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00 a. m., preaching by the pastor; 7:45, preaching by the pastor, subject, "Laughter."

Seventh-Day Baptist Church, corner of Central avenue and Fifth street—Pastor, Rev. Edwin Shaw—Preaching service every Sabbath (Saturday) morning at half-past ten o'clock; Sabbath-school at 11:45 a. m., William C. Hubbard, superintendent; Junior Society prayer meeting at 3 p. m., Miss Frances I. Kinne superintendent; Young People's Christian Endeavor meeting at 4:00 p. m., Franklin A. Langworthy, president; prayer meeting on Friday at 8 p. m. All are welcome to these services.

Temple—Rev. E. C. Conover, pastor—9:00, prayer meeting; 11:00, preaching; 9:45, Sunday-school; 7:00 C. E. Society services; 7:45 preaching; special services all day.

Mt. Olive—M. W. Vaughan, D. D., pastor—11:00, preaching; 3:30, Sunday-school; 7:30, preaching.

Calvary—Rev. D. F. Campbell, pastor; 11:00 a. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:45, preaching by the pastor.

Shiloh—Rev. Edward Roberts, pastor—11:00, preaching by the pastor, subject, "Light in Darkness;" 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00, preaching, subject, "New Creation."

Ebenezer Baptist Church—East Third and Washington streets—Rev. G. W. Bailey, pastor—10:45, preaching; 7:00 p. m., B. Y. P. U.; 7:45, preaching.

Reformed.

Trinity—Rev. John Y. Broek, pastor; Rev. Dr. Cornelius Schenck, pastor-emeritus — 10:30 a. m., preaching by Rev. Dr. C. W. F. Attlee; 2:30, Sunday school; 6:45, C. E. Society meeting; 7:45, preaching by the pastor, subject, "Abraham Lincoln."

Netherwood Reformed Church, Leland avenue—Rev. C. W. F. Attlee, supply—10:30, preaching; 7:00, Christian Endeavor Society meeting, 8:00 p. m., preaching.

Marconnier Reformed—Rev. J. Tucker Lansdale, pastor—9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00, morning service; 7:45, evening service.

German Reformed—Craig place and Duer street—Rev. George Hauser, pastor—9:45, Sunday-school; 11 a. m., preaching by the pastor; first Sunday in each month evening service at 7:45 o'clock.

Presbyterian.

First Presbyterian—Rev. Dr. Chas E. Herring, pastor—10:00, Sunday-school; 11:30, preaching by Rev. C. C. Cain; 7:45, preaching by the pastor, subject, "Are We Helpless Fated?"

Crescent Avenue—Rev. Dr. John Sheridan Zelie, minister—10:30 morning worship; 11:30, Sunday-school; 4:45 p. m., [illegible] hospital; 5 p. m., evening worship.

Hope Chapel—Rev. Frederic L. Greene, pastor—[illegible] preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 7:00, Y. P. S. C. E. meeting; 7:45, preaching.

Warren Chapel—Rev. J. O. McKelvey, pastor—10:30 a. m., preaching by the pastor; 2:45, Sunday-school and Berean Bible class for men, E. E. Parvin, teacher; 7:45, preaching.

Bethel chapel—Rev. F. D. Tildon pastor—Services 11:00 a. m., preaching; 3:00, Sunday-school; 8:00 p. m. preaching.

Episcopal.

Grace Church, East Seventh street—The Reverend E. Vicars Stevenson, rector—Services, 7:30 a. m., Holy Communion; 11:00 a. m., (first Sunday excepted), morning prayer, litany and sermon; first Sunday Holy Communion and sermon; 4:30 p. m., choral evensong; daily at 5 p. m., Thursday, Saints' Days and Holy Days, 10 a. m., Holy Eucharist.

Holy Cross Church, corner Washington and Mercer avenues—9:45 a. m., Sunday-school; 7:00 a. m. early celebration; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer and sermon; Thursdays and Saints' Days, Holy Communion at 9:30 a. m. On the first Sunday of the month, Holy Communion at 11:00 a. m. Rev. Dr. Charles H. Knox, of New York, in charge.

Church of the Heavenly Rest, Clinton avenue and West Fifth street, Rev. Cortlandt R. Mallery, rector—8:00, Holy Eucharist; 9:45, Sunday school; 11:00, matins and sermon; 7:30 p. m., evensong and sermon by the rector. Fridays and Holy Days, Holy Eucharist at 10:00 a. m.

St. Stephen's Church—Rev. Warner E. L. Ward, rector—8:00 a. m., Holy Communion; 11:00 a. m., morning prayer and sermon (Holy Communion first Sunday in each month), 9:45, Sunday-school; on Saints' Days Communion at 9:[illegible] a. m.

St. Mark's Mission for Colored People—Masonic building, St. Mary's avenue—Evensong and sermon Sundays at 8:00 p. m.; Holy Eucharist second Sunday in the month at 9:00 a. m.; Sunday-school at Parish House, Sundays at 10:00 a. m.

Methodist Episcopal.

First—Rev. Dr. Charles M. Anderson, pastor—9:45, Sunday-school; 11:00 a. m., preaching by the pastor; 7:45 p. m., preaching.

Monroe Avenue M. E. Church—Rev. F. J. Hubach, pastor—10:45 reception of members; 3:00, Sunday-school; Men's Bible Class; 7:15, Epworth League vesper service, 8:00, preaching by the pastor, subject, "Holden With Lords."

Grace M. E. Church—Rev. C. C. Cain, pastor — 10:30, preaching 2:30, Sunday-school; 7:00, Epworth League; 7:45, preaching by the pastor.

Mt. Zion A. M. E.—Rev. W. H. Hicks, pastor—11:00 a. m., preaching by Rev. E. E. Wilson, of Newark. 12:15, class meeting; 2:00 p. m., Sunday-school; E. B. Maynard, superintendent; 6:45 p. m., C. E. Society meeting; 8:00 p. m., preaching by Rev. Dr. A. L. Murray, presiding elder.

Roman Catholic.

St. Mary's—Rev. Bernard M. Bogan, rector—Masses, 6:30, 7:30 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m.; vespers at 3:30.

St. Joseph's—Rev. William H. Miller, rector—Masses at 8:30 and 10:30 a. m.; Sunday-school at 3:00; benediction of the blessed sacrament at 3:30.

Congregational.

Congregational Church—Rev. C. L. Goodrich, pastor—10:30, preaching services; 11:50, Sunday-school, 3:00 p. m., C. E. Society meeting at the parsonage.

Swedish Pilgrim Church—Rev. Gottfrid Sjoblom, pastor—1030, Sunday-school; 4:30, young people's meeting; 8 p. m., preaching.

Friends.

Meeting house, Watchung avenue and Third street—Meeting First-day at 11:00.

Lutheran.

St. Peter's Lutheran—Grove street and Mercer avenue—Rev. Conrad Blunk, pastor—9:30, Sunday-school, 10:30, preaching in English.

First Church of Christ, Scientist.

Babcock building, Front street and Madison avenue—9:45, Sunday-school; service, 11:00, subject of lesson sermon, "Spirit;" Golden Text, Psalms 143:10, "Thy Spirit is good; lead me into the land of uprightness;" reading room open between hours of 2 and 5 o'clock daily, with exception of holidays and Sundays; Wednesday, 8:00 p. m.

Unitarian.

All Souls'—10:45 a. m., preaching, 12:05 p. m., Sunday-school.

Not Classified.

Salvation Army—Adjutant and Mrs. Wall, officers in charge—Public services at 10:30 a. m. and 8:00 p. m.; 2:30, Sunday-school; 6:30 Young People's Legion.

Swedish Lutheran—Rev. J. Alfred Lundgren, pastor—Grove street and Mercer avenue—Preaching at 4:00 p. m.

Plainfield Rescue Mission—In W. C. T. U. rooms—8:00, gospel service.

Italian Mission—409 East Third street—Preaching by Theodore Boretti, Sundays at 10:30 a. m. in Italian, and song and prayer services Wednesday evenings at 8:00; Sunday-school in English and Italian at 2:30; 7:00 and 8:00 p. m., preaching services.

Evona Chapel—3:00 p. m., Sunday-school 7:00, C. E. Society meeting; 8:00 p. m., gospel address by George Dufford.

W. C. T. U.—Madison avenue—4:00 p. m., gospel temperance service; Raymond Manley will speak and sing.

International Bible Students' Association—Bible Class meets Sunday morning 10:30, for Berean Bible study, at 436 West Fifth street; Wednesday evening 8:00, prayer and testimony, 536 West Fifth street; Friday evening, 8:00, study; 436 West Fifth street; all interested in Scripture studies are invited.

—Competition between the stores in value-giving grows keener all the time—and makes the store ads of increasing purse-interest to you all the time.

MAYOR STRIVES TO ATTRACT FACTORIES TO BOUND BROOK

Bound Brook, Feb. 7.—Mayor George H. Packer, who took office January 1, has a new Mayoralty ambition. He is leaving the "new broom" honors to other Mayors and is out for a record as a "new spade." New factories are his ambition. In this he has had as "runner-up," Peter H. Burniett, industrial commissioner of the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

The most conspicuous of the activities Mayor Packer has interested himself in, is the recent location of the $300,000 plant of the Commercial Acetylene Railway Light and Signal Company there. Concrete buildings are being erected with a total floor space of 100,000 square feet. When the plant is in operation more than 200 men will be employed. The company was formerly at Harrison, but its plant there has been sold to the Otis Elevator Company.

The H. W. Johns-Manville Company's $5,000,000 plant at Manville, just over the line from Bound Brook, rapidly is nearing completion. The greater part already is in operation. A third industry here has been started by the Standard Paint Company. It is augmenting its plant by the addition of a large hollow tile construction warehouse.

STATE SCHOOL FUND BOARD TO ABOLISH ITS CLERKSHIP

Trenton, Feb. 7.—The board of trustees of the State school fund have decided to abolish the position of clerk to the board which has been held for many years by Robert C. Hutchinson, a member of the Republican State Committee from Burlington county. The salary of the clerk is $3,000 a year and the board is said to have decided that the work of the office can be more economically administered by a clerk in the Treasury Department.

The removal of Mr. Hutchinson has been contemplated almost since the Democrats came into control of State affairs. The proposition was considered during the term of President Wilson as Governor, but was abandoned because of the serious opposition of former State Treasurer Daniel S. Voorhees. Mr. Hutchinson is protected by civil service, but this would probably not help him in the event of the abolition of the position.

The trustees of the school fund are Governor Fielder, State Treasurer Grosscup, Comptroller Edwards, Secretary of State Crater, Attorney-General Westcott and Commissioner of Education Calvin N. Kendall.

TO TALK ABOUT SO. AMERICA

(Continued from page 1.)

to eight will be seated together when the committee is so requested. For the benefit of those who do not know where to secure tickets, Herman Schwed can be found at Schwed Brothers store at any time, or they can be procured of the members of the committee and of the chairman, Leslie R. Fort, at the Daily Press office.

AGENCY FOR AUTOLINE.

The Plainfield Auto Tire Co., 407 Watchung avenue, has secured the sole agency, as distributors in Union and Somerset counties, of Autoline oils and greases. Autoline has been manufactured by William C. Robinson Son Co., of Baltimore, Md., for the last eighty years and is strictly Pennsylvania premium crude, non-acid treated and does not contain coke or tar.

THE DAILY PRESS IN BOUND BROOK will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by Hoagland's News Stand at station, and A[illegible]

Royal
BAKING POWDER

Absolutely Pure

ROYAL—the most celebrated of all the baking powders in the world—celebrated for its great leavening strength and purity. It makes your cakes, biscuit, bread, etc., healthful, it insures you against alum and all forms of adulteration that go with the cheap brands.

The only baking powder made from Royal Grape Cream of Tartar.

Royal Cook Book—500 Receipts—Free. Send Name and Address.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

OLIVE OIL

Gallon can $2.65

Half Gallon can $1.40

Quart can 75c

20 oz. bottle 65c

DIRECT FROM FRANCE

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS

Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760

Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage

WAREHOUSE

North Avenue

OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE

125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.

OLD RELIABLE

STORAGE

All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry

Furniture Packed and Shipped

Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS

THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.

AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading

Auctioneers

W. A. SCHORB & CO.

Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold

120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg

Telephone 1707-W.

HENRY J. SIEBERT & CO.

1147 East Jersey St.,

ELIZABETH, N. J.

(Opp. Proctor's Theatre).

We specialize:

AWNINGS

WINDOW SHADES

CURTAIN MATERIALS

BRASS GOODS, etc.

Large assortment.

Low prices.

'Phone Elizabeth 852.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JUST RECEIVED 8,000 ROLLS OF THIS YEAR'S

WALL PAPER

At special prices, selling at 8 and 10 cents per roll. This is an opportunity to secure up-to-date wallpaper at a big saving.

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators.

145 NORTH AVENUE.

Now is the Time

To paint your house—in the cool of the year, when the paint dries slowly, and consequently lasts longest. No hot sun to cause blisters. And the house painted now is preserved against the ravages of winter storms.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's pure colors, ready mixed paint, varnishes, glass, etc.

JAMES C. HANSEN

Tel. 346.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

February 1, 1913.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—6:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 6:30, 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 8:00, 9:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:00 a. m., 12:30, 3:15 and 7:0 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00 a. m., 1:30, 4:3 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:3 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:0 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:0 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:3 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:4 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close—8:00 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 3:00, 5:50, 9:00 p. m

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30 8:00, 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:30 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m Close—9:00 a. m., 2:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m Close—9:00 a. m.,

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:3 to 10:30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

W. H. TIRD, P. M.

Dr. Robert W. Rogers

OSTEOPATH

720 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1936-W.

Office hours: 8 to 9 a. m., 7 to 8 p. m

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

HOW BATTLES ARE FOUGHT

National Guardsmen Are Entertained With Motion Pictures in Trenton Armory.

Company K, the local citizen soldiery, participated in the mobilizing of the Second Regiment at Trenton last night. The local company assembled in their armory at 6:15 o'clock and proceeded to the North Avenue station, where it embarked on a special train for the capital city.

Upon the arrival in Trenton the First Battalion, of which the local company is a unit, formed and marched under the command of Major Wm. B. Martin, of Elizabeth, to the Second Regiment Armory, where an interesting lecture with the aid of motion pictures was given. The lecture was divided into three parts as were the pictures, the first of which was on the National and International Rifle Matches held at Camp Perry, Ohio, during the past summer. The second part of the performance was of the infantry branch of the regular army. In this part of the performance the pictures described fully the conditions that the men in the army labor under when in heavy marching order and how the various steps in entering a battle are commanded and controlled. The third division was moving pictures of the jumping horses of the army and the various ways that a mounted officer is trained while taking up the course in the horsemanship school.

Captain Dixon, chaplain of the Sixth United States Field Artillery, delivered the lecture and talk, in connection with the pictures. Following the completion of the lecture the different companies formed and those belonging in Trenton were dismissed while the companies from Somerville, Plainfield and Elizabeth were marched to the Philadelphia and Reading railroad station, where they again embarked on the special train for their home towns. The local company arrived in Plainfield about 12:45 o'clock this morning.

Upon the return of the local company notice was given out that the command would again assemble with the other eleven companies of the Second Regiment in the Trenton Armory Monday night, February 23, and participate in a review which will be held in honor of Governor Fielder. It is expected that the various companies will journey to Trenton in the early afternoon and participate in a parade before the review at night.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to extend our thanks to the friends and relatives for their kindness and sympathy shown us in our late bereavement.

MRS. GEORGE MEYERS AND FAMILY.

CARD OF THANKS.

Mrs. Julie Belue and sister, Mrs. Ella Hoppock wish to thank their many friends for their kindness and sympathy shone them during the late bereavement of son and brother.

Your Appearance Counts

Have you ever realized how well you are received when your appearance is favorable? Men, send your Suit and have it cleaned and pressed. Ladies, your tea gowns, woolen dresses, opera cloaks, plain or fancy waists, and indeed anything worth cleaning.

I guarantee my work and assure you that my method will tend to renew the fabric, brighten the colors and raise the nap, thereby restoring the garment to the freshness of new clothing.

A. ROTGUN

432 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 1976-W.

Nine years with G. O. Keller.

TRUSSES

NEW FITTING ROOM

Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces

KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.

William M. Walsh

North and Watchung Avenues,

Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964

OPP. DEPOT.

HORSES CLIPPED

By Charles C. Brower,

PLAINFIELD CAB CO.,

130-134 E. Second St. 'Phone 10

11 6 6mos

HODGE'S PHARMACY

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Telephone 62.

FLOORS

HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.

Old Floors Refinished.

S. E. WARD & CO.

714 Webster Place, Plainfield, N. J.

Telephone 1309-R.

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.

Jobbing a specialty. Estimates cheerfully given. Telephone 347-J.

1120 Myrtle Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

Classified Advertisements---Copy Received Until 1:30 P. M. Daily

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No Display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.08, 5.40, 5.52, 6.27, 6.55, 7.22, 7.26, 7.41, 7.44, 7.55, 7.58, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.42, 8.59, 9.29, 9.53, 10.26, 11.27, 11.52 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.23, 2.39, 2.55, 3.12, 3.48, 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.45 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.40, 7.22, 7.58, 8.52, 9.34, 9.40, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.39, 2.58, 4.28, 5.09, 6.23, 6.55, 8.17, 4.29, 5.34, 6.57, 7.14, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.27, 10.28, 10.3 p. m.

For Newark—5.08, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8.36, 9.29, 10.28, 11.27 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.39, 3.5 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.3 a. m., 12.39, 12.58, 1.28, 2.09, 2.55, 3.17, 4.29 5.34, 7.14, 8.13, 9.35, 9.27, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.06, 9.44, 11.27 a. m., 2.00, 5.24, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), (6.59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5.19, (9.44 to Allentown), 10.32 a. m., 1.58, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk) 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.1 9.44 a. m., 5.44 p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.3 a. m., 5.44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.12, 11.27 a. m (2.34, (12.58 Red Bank only), (4.12 Red Bank only), 4.26, 6.25, 8.27, 11.43 p. m. Sundays—3.41, 8.52 a. m., (2.09 Red Bank only), 3.17, 8.35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m. 12.34 Saturdays only), 3.12. Sunday—40 a. m., 1.2 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6.38, 7.39, 8.45, 10.43 1.53 a. m., 12.42, 1.54, 2.45, 5.13, 6.43 7.47, 9.46, 10.18 p. m., 1.20 a. m. Sunday—8.25, 9.29, 9.57, 10.29, 10.43, 11.43 m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.47, 3.42, 4.22, 4.56, 5.29, 6.3 7.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.25, 12.54 p. m., 1.20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m

*Except Mauch Chunk 12 21 1

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING

CANDIES, ICE CREAM

DAINTY LUNCH

REMEMBER

We carry the largest and finest stock of plants and cut flowers in the city. Floral design work by expert designers. Plant or flowers delivered to any city of the United States. Store, 159 East Front street; Tel. 928; greenhouses, 1126 South avenue. 40,000 feet of glass.

STANLEY

159 E. Front St. Tel. 928.

Woodhull & Martin Building.

Greenhouses, South Ave., Tel. 331-J

T. A. MOORE

UNDERTAKER

612 E Sixth St.

Tel. 741-R

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON,

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS

Office, 116 Park Avenue. Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 584-W. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2624-Gramercy.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,

UNDERTAKERS

402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

JAS. J. CHAS. A.

J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS

FUNERAL PARLORS

109 W. Fourth St. Tel. 1753-J.

Our Booklet Entitled A Modern Mortuary Establishment Sent Upon Request.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS

Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

HELP WANTED—MALE.

WANTED—First class cabinet maker. Vitaphone Co. 2 6 2

WANTED—Man to work on farm. Call to stableman. Eastern Bottling Co. 2 6 3

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Watch charm, maltese cross bearing Masonic emblem on one side, Independent Order of Foresters on the other; date 1910. Liberal reward if returned to F. W. Vail, Dunellen, N. J. 2 7 2

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Ford delivery wagon, with runabout body; new tires and in perfect condition. E. & C. Auto Sales Co., 124 Madison avenue. 2 4 6

FOR SALE—CHICKENS AND EGGS

FOR SALE—Choice White Wyandotte cockerels; also eggs for hatching. 1037 Sherman avenue, near Clinton. 2 6 3

ROOMS AND BOARD.

TO LET—Attractive rooms, with board. Mrs. L. R. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue. 2 24 tf

LITTLE TALKS BY THE WANT AD MAN

Copyright, 1913, The Int. Syndicate, Baltimore.

No. 57.

IN the window of a store located in the heart of the retail shopping district, I saw, the other day, a crudely hand-lettered cardboard sign, about 12 inches wide by 6 inches deep. It was practically buried among a lot of miscelleaneous merchandise, and read:

Sales Lady
Wanted.

Now, let's see: How many out-of-a-job sales ladies pass that store in the course of a day? I guess 50. That's a fair estimate, isn't it? How many of the 50 will stop to look in that window and discover the little cardboard sign? Say, 10 per cent. That's 5. The store isn't a particularly attractive one, and wouldn't convey the idea that a good salary is attached to the vacancy in the sales force. So I figure that only three out of the five who see that sign would apply for the job. That makes three applicants a day for the proprietor of that store to select from.

Suppose the proprietor, instead of depending on an obscure sign in his window, should insert in this newspaper a little Want Ad. in the "Help Wanted—Female" column. Suppose he worded his ad. something like this:

WANTED—A neat courteous SALES-LADY; one with experience preferred. Apply BLANK'S, 2000 West Lexington street.

That ad. would cost him, say thirty cents or so. Several hundred women would read that ad., and, instead of having only a few applicants to select from, he would have quite a number—and of a better class than those who walk the streets in search of employment.

Such is the power of advertising—and, really, isn't it quite simple and inexpensive?

The Want-Ad Man.

(All rights reserved, 1913, by Jerome P. Fleishman.)

MISCELLANEOUS.

TAXIDERMIST—Birds and animals stuffed and mounted. T. W. Sisley, Wayside Park; 'Phone 1299-J Dunellen, N. J. 11 14 3mos

EMBROIDERY, INITIALS, ETC.—Orders taken for all kinds of embroidery and initials; first class work; prices reasonable. Mrs. C. S. Groot, 768 Woodland avenue, near Putnam avenue; telephone 1687-M. 1 15 1mo

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY CO. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

TO LOAN—Mortgage money, $1,000 to $3,000, at 6 per cent. Write, "Mortgages, 2281 Woolworth Building, New York." 2 6 3

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 2 6 1mo

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Manning, 183 North avenue. 10 14 tf

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—Two new seven room houses; all improvements; garage, sleeping porch, decorated to suit tenant or buyer. 839 Osborne avenues, Netherwood, telephone 894-M. 1 28 tf

FOR SALE OR RENT—Premises 323 East Front street, southwest corner Westervelt avenue; lot 45x100; house containing all improvements; also, premises 418 East Second street; house with all improvements; good sized lot. State Trust Co. 2 7 6

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rate; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

FOR SALE.

ROYAL TYPEWRITERS — The best built standard typewriter in the world for only $75. Write or call for a demonstration, Plainfield Office Supply Co., Local Agents, P. O. Box 701, 'Phone 921-W. 1 25 1mo

FOR SALE—Manure, soil. Sam Redd, 933 West Third street. 3 3 1m

FOR SALE—Indian motorcycle, twin cylinder, in good running condition. Call at 756 Kensington avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey. 2 7-10-13

FOR SALE—Milk wagon, in first class condition. Apply William Hamilton, South Plainfield.

FOR SALE—Depot wagon, cheap. Enquire Frank Hedden, 118 East Fourth street.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Desk, 3 tables, clothes-rack, chairs, etc., mission finish. 120 North avenue. 2 6 3

GUINEA PIGS or cavies, breeders, 75 cents each. 1008 Arlington avenue. 2 4 4

FOR SALE—All kinds fine gloves for ladies, men and boys, at wholesale and retail; large variety of deer skin gloves for auto, driving and working; best canvas, 10c; per dozen, $1.00; kid gloves, slightly damaged, half price. H. Texier, 58 Somerset street. 12 31 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, reliable help only; all nationalities, faithful service commands good situations and our fees are very reasonable; courteous treatment to all. 326 West Front street, near Grove, Phone 666. 11 26 tf

HANSEN'S Employment Agency, 128 Watchung avenue, corner Second street. Excellent positions furnished to reliable help of all nationalities. Telephone 2559. 2 5 1mo

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

FOR RENT.

FLAT to let, five rooms, all improvements. 538 West Fifth street, or enquire 432 Watchung avenue. 11 11 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street, with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FIVE-ROOM apartment, all modern improvements; central location. Inquire P. C. Thomsen, 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—Six room house and bath. Inquire 147 East Fifth street. 11 28 tf

TO RENT—Flat, 6 rooms and bath; all improvements; $25.50. Inquire 334 East Fifth street. 2 4 12

TO LET—Four rooms, East Seventh street, near Berckman street. Inquire 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

HOUSE TO RENT—Splendid offer to good small family. In answering give name and address. Address Opportunity, care Daily Press. 2 5 3

TO LET—Store, 304 West Front street, price $75 a month, including heat and water; also apartments, from $20 to $30. Apply afternoons to William M. Stillman, 212 West Front street. 2 4 tf w-s

TO LET—Five rooms; improvements. 423 John street. 2 7 1mo

APARTMENT for rent; steam heat; 95 Westervelt avenue; 6 rooms. Lamar Van Syckel. 1 6 tf tu-th-s

HOUSE for rent, 1072 Arlington avenue; 9 rooms; steam heat. Lamar Van Syckel. 1 6 tf tu-th-s

FOR RENT—No. 45 Prospect place, near Washington avenue, 6 rooms, reception hall and bath; all improvements. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 12 1 tf

TO LET—At eleven dollars, to respectable colored families, 4-room houses, with improvements. Inquire 1348 West Front street. 2 2 12

TO LET—House, six rooms and bath. 409 Liberty street. Tel. 150-W. 12 5 tf

TO LET—New four room apartments; improvements; 1361 and 1351 South Second street; $10.50 per month. John Herrman, 369 Somerset street; 'Phone 2512-W. 1 23 1mo

HOUSE to rent; eight rooms, all improvements; small garage. Inquire 222 Madison avenue. 1 16 1mo

SIX ROOM house to let; all modern improvements; rent reasonable. W. R. VanDerveer, superintendent, 231 East Second street, Cor. Church. 1 17 tf

FOUR-ROOM flat to let, part improvements, $10. 203 Grant avenue. 11 21 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town, rent reasonable; also two large, light lofts. Apply Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 11 6 tf

HOUSES $12 to $50; flats, $16 to $30; stores $7 upwards. D. McInness, West Third street, Tel. 1198-W. 6 30 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FARM FOR SALE—20 acres, midway between two depots on outskirts of Plainfield, N. J.; good seven room house, chicken house, artesian well, 550 feet frontage on county road, well travelled. Apply Edward C. Hardingham, 152 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 2 5 7

FOR SALE—Good house, for colored people; 6 room house, part improvements; right in town. See Mr. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 6 26 tf

FOR SALE—To close "French Estate," Somerset street carriage factory, stores, and tenement houses and stable in rear; lot 100x200 ft.; alley at side and in rear; bargain; terms arranged. Apply, Elston M. French, executor, 171 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 12 19 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

EXPERIENCED colored waitress will serve luncheon dinner; cottage set and short notice. 'Phone 835-W. 2 6 21

WANTED—Laundry work to do at home; small washes preferred. Mrs. Reed, 517 East Third street; 'Phone 2186-W. 2 6 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

HOUSEWORK, 25c an hour, wanted by handy colored man. 317 Liberty street. 10 28 tf

Of Interest to Women and the Home

The Housewife's Daily Economy Calendar

FRANCES MARSHALL

Remember to Go Home.

Time is money to most of us, in one way or another. Yet many of us forget to go home—and so waste a lot of somebody else's money, in the guise of time.

Were you ever in this position? The maid had gone out for Thursday afternoon, or else there was no maid. A guest was coming for dinner at half past six. The dinner was partly prepared—thanks to your desire to be ready for emergencies. At half past five it would be time to put the meat in the oven, and at six the vegetables must go on. You must in the meantime dress yourself, and perhaps put a child to bed, or else help an older one dress. A neighbor called at half past four. You looked thankfully at the clock, realizing that she could not stay long enough to harm your dinner. But she stayed.

At five you began to be nervous, thinking of the things yet to be done. At half past five, making some excuse about hearing a knock at the kitchen door, you scurried out to the kitchen and put in the meat. Then you sat in agony, waiting for the caller to take her departure and when she did, about six, you madly dashed to the kitchen to look into the oven and put on the vegetables, then madly dashed upstairs to have a frantic ten-minute seance with your toilet, then madly dashed down again to whip the cream for the dessert and mix the salad, and air the dining room and heat the soup and set the table and put things to rights in the living room and light the lights and do the dozens of last-minute things that ought to have been done in last hour—not in the last minute.

Most of us have been in some such predicament, and, remembering this, it behooves us to remember to go home before we have worn out our welcome.

When to Go Home.

This is just one of the occasions when a guest should make an early departure. There are many others.

A caller on a sick person should always make a short call, unless by staying for a longer, specified time, she can relieve the nurse.

When guests are expected, a caller should always take her departure promptly. If unexpected callers arrive, the first comers should go before many minutes have passed.

If there is illness in the house, a caller should not keep the members of the household very long. Even if they are not bearing the duties of nurse, they probably have many calls on their time.

If your hostess is going out later in the afternoon—if you have found out that this is the case in some chance manner—you should not keep her in, even if she protests that she is in no hurry.

Put yourself in the place of the hostess on all occasions when you are wondering whether or not it is time to go home.

(Copyright, 1914, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

7682

An excellent separate skirt model is shown in No. 7682. It is plain enough for general wear and dressy enough to be worn with a chic little dinner blouse of chiffon or net.

Silk aeolian, poplin, moire or taffetas would be suitable, also one of the novelty cottons or crepes, as well as any of the wools or cloth. It is a two-piece design with a slightly raised waistline, a bit of fullness in back and just a suggestion of drapery on the side front.

These silks vary in width and may be purchased from about $1.50 a yard.

Instead of using the ordinary pin if the home dressmaker will use instead the steel pin which comes by the box especially for dressmakers she will find that they leave no marks or holes in the finest silk.

This skirt requires for size 24 2¾ yards of 42 inch material.

The pattern is cut in 5 sizes: 22 to 30.

This Is a Perfect Pattern.

Be sure to state right size, passing the tape tightly around the smallest part of the waist and loosely around the widest part of the hips.

It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15 cents in stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

COUPON

Name .....

Street and No. .....

City and State .....

Pattern No. .....

Sizes .....

A. E. Force & Co., "The White Store," carry all patterns in stock and the Daily Press recommends that its readers procure them there. They will be furnished by this paper when the orders come direct to us, through A. E. Force & Co.

Some Cookery Suggestions

CABBAGE IN COLD WEATHER.

DINNER MENU.
Fried Flounder.
Mashed Potatoes.
Cabbage and Pork.
Pickled Beets.
Rice Pudding.
Coffee.

CABBAGE cooked alone or with meat makes a substantial addition to the winter meal. It is best eaten at midday, as it is hard to digest. Some simple ways of preparing it are given here.

Using Cold Cabbage.

Cabbage Pudding.—Take the remains of a cold cooked white cabbage, rub it through a sieve, adding if necessary a little veal stock to help it through. Then add to this puree an ounce of butter cut into small pieces, a dash of nutmeg, salt to taste and an egg well beaten. Mix all together and have ready a buttered baking dish. Put the cabbage in this and bake or steam for several minutes. Turn out to serve.

Cabbage and Pork.—Take cold boiled cabbage, chop fine and put in the oven until thoroughly heated. Cut slices of salt pork into cubes and render in a frying pan. Strain over the warmed cabbage. Season with pepper and salt and serve hot.

A Novel Combination.

Cabbage and Oysters.—Cut a small head of cabbage in quarters, soak in cold water one hour, then put in boiling salted water, to which one-quarter of a teaspoonful of soda has been added, and boil ten minutes. Drain, cover with fresh boiling water, boil until tender and drain again. Melt one tablespoonful of butter with two tablespoonfuls of thick cream, pour over cabbage, sprinkle lightly with curry powder and cover with broiled oysters.

Cabbage With Rice.—Slice a head of cabbage, place it in water with some well washed rice and let them simmer together for about an hour. Then strain off the water and put the rice and cabbage into a saucepan with some butter, a little pepper and salt and about a quarter of a grated nutmeg. Toss these about in the butter over the fire for several minutes without allowing them to change color. Then add a little veal stock and let them stew until tender. Serve very hot with grated parmesan cheese sprinkled on the top.

Anna Thompson.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

Isa's Valentine Party In the Hospital.

The Nurse and Isa Arranged the Flowers.

"ONCE upon a time there was a little girl named Isa, who had been very ill in a large city hospital. Her mother and her daddy had sat up night after night wondering and worrying whether or not Isa was going to get well, for at one time the doctors even had almost given up all hope, and Isa was an only child.

"But at last a joyful time came when Isa really seemed to be on the road to getting well, and very happy her mother and daddy were.

"One evening Isa was sitting up in bed while her nurse was telling her all about the other children in the hospital. The hospital was almost entirely a children's hospital, and as it was very large there were ever and ever so many children in it. The nurse told Isa about the different wards, where there were rows of white beds in which were all the little girls and boys who were sick, and many of them she told Isa were very poor. Isa listened with great interest and said: 'Oh, how I wish I could do something for them, as I always have everything I want. Couldn't I send my flowers into some of the wards?'

"The nurse and Isa then arranged a little bunch of flowers for each ward. There were roses and carnations and violets and bright red geraniums. Isa could hardly wait until the nurse came back from the wards to tell her how the children enjoyed the flowers.

"The next morning Isa's daddy and mother came to see her. 'Oh, little Isa!' said her daddy. 'We're going to have a surprise for you. You know, tonight is St. Valentine's eve, and I have an idea my little daughter may be going to have all kinds of bright, heart shaped presents!'

"'Oh, daddy!' said Isa. 'Instead of giving just me a valentine party couldn't we have one for all the children in the hospital? I'm well enough to be moved into the big ward, and all the children who are able to be there can have a party with me, and we can have a huge valentine party. Oh, couldn't we do that, daddy?' He said:

"'Yes, indeed, we will have a lovely big party, and I am proud of my little girl because she thinks of other people after she has suffered so much herself.'

"So in the evening the big ward was bright with red hearts strung from the ceiling and hanging over the beds. The lights were covered with red paper shades, and in the very center of the room was an enormous big heart, and what do you suppose was in the heart?"

"What?" asked Evelyn eagerly.

"Why, for every child there was a red ribbon. Each child pulled his ribbon attached to the heart and at the end was a beautiful present."

LOHRMAN'S Chocolate Shop
161 EAST FRONT STREET.
High Grade Chocolates, Candies, Ice Cream and Sodas. Mottoes, Favors and Ice Cream Forms for all occasions. Orders taken for Frozen Puddings, Glaces, Mousses, Etc.

O. A. R. GARAGE
915-917 South Avenue.
Carbon removed by Oxygen method—$3 for 4 cylinder, $4 for 6 cylinder. Sole agents for Symplex Gas Savers—positively gives more power, speed and uses 25 to 50% saving.
GUARANTEED REPAIRS

ADVERTISED MAIL MATTER

E. H. BIRD, P. M.

Plainfield, N. J., Feb. 2, 1914.

Men:

Astor Theatre; Amundsen, Mr. Herbert; Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Candler P.; Arrowsmith, Mrs. James. Barber, A. G.; Brady, Mr. B.; Beers, Mr. Edward T.; Bothar, Mr. L.; Brittle, Mr. H.; Burgess, Mr. John.

Clawson, Mr. Walter J.; Codington, Mr. Frank P.; Cohen, Mr.

Fretas, Mr. L. E.

Giangreco, Mr. Giuseppi.

Montour, Mr. Stanley.

Porter, Mrs. E. H.

Quackenbush, Mr. Harry.

Rudl, Henry.

Searles, Mr. Benjamin L.; Speer, Mr. F. A.; Smythe, Mr. Frank; Somervetz, Mr. Z.; Stevens, I. M.; Strube, A. S.

Williams, Mr. Jamie; Whitenack, Mr. E. S.

Women:

Barry, Miss Lucille; Bartell, Mrs.; Ball, Mrs. Caroline P.; Baker, Helen A.; Bernhardson, Miss B.; Berg, Mrs. H. C.; Bird, Mrs. H. O.; Boardman, Miss Elizabeth; Booker, Mrs. James; Brown, Mrs. Stella; Brooks, Mrs. Mabel.

Coutts, Mrs. M. L.; Chamberlain, Mrs. W.

Daily, Mrs. Alice; Deal, Mrs. Sara M.; Doremus, Mrs. C. T.; Douglas, Jr., Mrs. Oscar F.

Edwards, Miss.

Greene, Miss H. R.; Greenwood, Miss Willette.

Hackensack, Anna.

Johnson, Mrs. Maggie.

Lindsay, Miss Jannette.

Murray, Miss C.; Morris, Mrs. Sarah F.

Pellegrin, Miss Rose.

Reeve, Miss M.; Randolph, Mrs. A. B. Fitz; Riley, Mrs. C. W.; Robinson, Miss T.; Robinson, Mrs. M.; Ruckman, Mrs. Frank; Rushmore, Miss Alice.

Smith, Miss S. F.

Walsh, May.

"PLEASE SAY ADVERTISED."

B. KIVATINOS
(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 886-W

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

BY EARL DERR BIGGERS

Copyright, 1913, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER X.

Mr. Max Tells a Tale of Suspicion.

PETERS entered with coffee and was engaged in pouring it when Mr. Bland started up wildly from the table with an expression of alarm on his face.

"What's that?" he cried.

The others looked at him in wonder.

"I heard steps upstairs," he declared.

"Nonsense," said Cargan; "you're dreaming. This peace and quiet has got to you, Bland."

Without replying, Mr. Bland rose and ran up the stairs. In his absence the hermit of Baldpate spoke into Magee's ear:

"I ain't one to complain," he said. "Livin' alone as much as I do I've sort of got out of the habit, having nobody to complain to. But if folks keep coming and coming to this hotel, I've got to resign as cook. Seems as though every few minutes there's a new face at the table, and it's a vital matter to me."

"Cheer up, Peters," whispered Mr. Magee. "There are only two more keys to the inn. There will be a limit to our guests."

"What I'm getting at is," replied Mr. Peters, "there's a limit to my endurance."

Mr. Bland came downstairs. His face was very pale as he took his seat, but in reply to Cargan's question he remarked that he must have been mistaken.

"It was the wind, I guess," he said.

Mr. Peters shortly bade the company goodby for the night. When he had started off through the snow for his shack Mr. Cargan took out his watch.

"You've been pretty kind to us poor wanderers already," he said. "I got one more favor to ask. I come up here to see Mr. Bland. We got some business to transact, and we'd consider it a great kindness if you was to leave us alone here in the office."

Mr. Magee hesitated. He saw the girl nod her head slightly and move toward the stairs.

"Certainly, if you wish," he said. "I hope you won't go without saying goodby, Mr. Cargan."

"That all depends," replied the mayor. "I've enjoyed knowing you, one and all. Good night."

The women, the professor and Mr. Magee moved up the broad stairway. On the landing Mr. Magee heard the voice of Mrs. Norton somewhere in the darkness ahead.

"I'm worried, dearie—real worried."

"Hush!" came the girl's voice. "Mr. Magee—we'll meet again—soon."

Mr. Magee seized the professor's arm, and together they stood in the shadows.

"I don't like the looks of things," came Bland's hoarse complaint from below. "What time is it?"

"Seven-thirty," Cargan answered; "a good half hour yet."

"There was somebody on the second floor when I went up," Bland continued. "I saw him run into one of the rooms and lock the door."

"I've got charge now," the mayor reassured him. "Don't you worry."

"There's something doing." This seemed to be Max's voice.

"There sure is," laughed Cargan. "But what do I care? I own young Drayton. I put him where he is. I ain't afraid. Let them gumshoe round as much as they want to. They can't touch me."

"Cheer up, Peters," whispered Magee.

"Maybe not," said Bland. "But Baldpate inn ain't the grand idea it looked at first, is it?"

"It's a h— of an idea!" answered Cargan. "There wasn't any need of all this folderol. I told Hayden so. Does that phone ring?"

"No; it'll just flash a light when they want us," Bland told him.

Mr. Magee and Professor Bolton continued softly up the stairs, and in answer to the former's invitation, the old man entered No. 7.

"It is an amazing tangle," he remarked, "in which we are involved. I have no idea what your place is in the scheme of things up here. But I assume you grasp what is going on, if I do not."

"If you think," answered Mr. Magee, proffering a cigar, "that I am in on this little game of 'who's who,' then you are vastly mistaken."

The professor smiled.

"Indeed," he said in a tone that showed his unbelief. "Indeed."

He was deep in a discussion of the meters of the poet Chaucer when there came a knock at the door, and Mr. Lou Max's unpleasant head was thrust inside.

"I been assigned," he said, "to set up here in the hall and keep an eye out for the ghost Bland heard tramping about. And being of a sociable nature, I'd like to sit in your doorway, if you don't mind."

"By all means," replied Magee. "Here's a chair. Do you smoke?"

"Thanks." Mr. Max placed the chair sidewise in the doorway of No. 7 and sat down. From his place he commanded a view of Mr. Magee's apartments and of the head of the stairs. With his yellow teeth he viciously bit the end from the cigar. "Don't let me interrupt the conversation, gentlemen," he pleaded.

"We were speaking," said the professor calmly, "of the versification of Chaucer, Mr. Magee."

He continued his discussion in an even voice. Mr. Magee leaned back in his chair and smiled in a pleased way at the settings of the stage—Mr. Max in a cloud of smoke on guard at his door, the mayor and Mr. Bland keeping vigil by a telephone switchboard in the office below, watching for the flash of light that should tell them some one in the outside world wanted to speak to Baldpate Inn; a mysterious figure who flitted about in the dark; a beautiful girl who was going to ask Mr. Magee to do her a service, blindly trusting her.

The professor droned on monotonously.

An hour passed. Mr. Max admitted when pressed that a good cigar soothed the soul and accepted another from Magee's stock. The professor continued to talk. Obviously it was his favorite diversion. He seemed to be quoting from addresses. Mr. Magee pictured him on a Chautauqua platform, the white pitcher by his side.

As he talked Mr. Magee studied that portion of his delicate, scholarly face that the beard left exposed to the world. What part had Thaddeus Bolton, holder of the Crandall chair of comparative literature, in this network of odd alarms? Why was he at Baldpate, and why was he so little moved by the rapid changes in the makeup of the inn colony, changes that left Mr. Magee gasping? He took them as calmly as he would take his grapefruit at the breakfast table. Only that morning Mr. Magee, by way of experiment, had fastened upon him the suspicion of murder, and the old man had not flickered an eyelash.

Mr. Max inserted a loud yawn into the professor's discourse.

"Once I played chess with a German," he said, "and another time I went to a lecture on purifying politics, but I never struck anything so monotonous as this job I got now. I was just thinking as I set here how it all comes of people being suspicious of one another. Now, I've always held that the world would be a better place if there wasn't no suspicion in it. Nine times out of ten the suspicion ain't got a leg to stand on, if suspicion can be said to have a leg."

Evidently Mr. Max desired the floor; graciously Professor Bolton conceded it to him.

"Speaking of suspicion," continued the drab little man on the threshold, turning his cigar thoughtfully between his thin lips, "reminds me of a case told me by Pueblo Sam a few years ago. In some ways it's real funny, and in others it's sad as hades. Pueblo Sam was called in them terms because he'd never been west of Sixth avenue. He was a swell, refined gentleman who lived by his wits, and he had considerable—

"A confidence man," suggested Magee.

"Something along that order," admitted Mr. Max, "but a good sport among his friends, you understand. Well, this case of suspicion Sam tells me about happened something like this: One scorching hot day in summer Sam gets aboard the Coney boat, his idea being to put all business cares away for an hour or two and just float calm and peaceful down the bay and cool off. So he grabs out a camp chair and hustles through the crowd up to the top deck, beside the pilot's hangout, and sits down to get acquainted with the breeze, if such there was.

"Well, he'd been sitting there about ten minutes, Sam tells me, when along came about the easiest picking that ever got loose from the old homestead"—

"I beg your pardon," protested Professor Bolton.

"The ready money, the loosened kale, the posies in the garden waiting to be plucked," elucidated Mr. Max. "This guy, Sam says, was such a perfect rube he just naturally looked past him to see if there was a trail of wisps of hay on the floor. For awhile Sam sits there with a grouch as he thought how hard it was to put business aside and get a little rest now and then and debating whether, being on a vacation, as it was, he'd exert himself enough to stretch forth his hand and take whatever money the guy had. While he was arguing the matter with himself the jay settled the question by coming over and sitting down near him.

"He's in the city, he tells Sam, to enjoy the moving pictures of the streets, and otherwise forget the trees back home that grow the cherries in the bottom of the cocktail glasses. 'And believe me,' he says to Sam, 'there ain't none of those confidence men going to get me. I'm too wise,' he says.

"'I'll bet money you are,' Sam tells him laughing all over at the fish that was fighting to get into the net.

"'Yes, siree,' says the last of the Mohicans, 'they can't fool me. I can tell them as fur away as I can see 'em, and my eyesight's perfect. One of 'em comes up to me in City Hall park and tries to sell me some mining stock. I guess he ain't recovered yet from what I said to him. I tell you, they can't fool Mark Dennen,' says the guy.

"Sam told me that at them words he just leaned back in his seat and stared at the jay and whistled under his breath. Years ago, it seemed, Sam had lived in the town of Readsboro, Vt., and ran up and down the streets with one suspender and a stone bruise, and the kid that had run with him was Mark Dennen. And Sam says he looked at this guy from the woods that was running round crying to high heaven he needed a guardian, and he sees that sure enough it was the towhead Mark Dennen and—Sam told me—something seemed to bust inside him, and he wanted to stretch out his arms and hug this guy.

"'Mark Dennen,' shouts Sam, 'as I live. Of Readsboro, Vt. The kid I used to play with under the arc lights—don't you remember me?'

"But Sam says the guy just looked him straight in the eye and shut his jaw and says, 'I suppose you'll be asking after my brother George next?'

"'You ain't got any brother George, you idiot!' laughs Sam. He told me he was thinking how he'd treat his old friend Mark to a dinner that would go down in history in Readsboro. 'Mark, you old rascal,' he says, 'don't you remember me? Don't you remember little Sam Burns that used to play andy over with you and that stole your girl in 1892? Don't you remember the old days in Readsboro?' He was all het up by this time, Sam tells me, and all the old memories came creeping back, and he kept thinking he never was so glad to run across anybody in his life. 'You remember little Sam Burns, don't you?' he asks once more.

"But this guy just looks back into Sam's eye, with his own cold as steel, and he says, says he: 'You're pretty clever, mister, but you don't fool me. No, you don't come any games on Mark Dennen.'

"'But, Mark,' says Sam, 'I swear to you by all that's holy that I'm that kid—I'm Sam Burns. What proof do you want? Do you remember old Ed Haywood that used to keep the drug store right across from the postoffice, the guy that never washed his windows? I do. And Miss Hunter, that taught the sixth grade school when we went there, a little woman with washed out gray eyes and a broken front tooth, and that pretty little girl, Sarah somebody—wait a minute, I'll get it or bust—Sarah—Sarah—Sarah Scott, you used to be so sweet on? Did you marry her, Mark? And old Lafe Perkins, who used to be on hand whenever there was any repairs being made anywhere—rheumatism and a cane and a high, squeaky voice that he used to exercise giving orders about things that wasn't any of his business. Why, Mark, I remember 'em all. Good Lord, man,' says Sam, 'do you want any more proof?'

"But this country blockhead just looked Sam up and down and remarks judicious: 'It's certainly wonderful how you know all these things—wonderful. But you can't fool me,' he says, 'you can't fool Mark Dennen.'"

Mr. Max paused in his narrative for a moment. The sound of voices came up from the office of Baldpate inn. One, that of the mayor, boomed loudly and angrily. In an evident desire to drown it Mr. Max went on with spirit:

"Well, gentlemen, it got to be a point of honor, as you might say, for Sam to convince that guy. He told me he never wanted anything so much in his life as for Mark Dennen to give in. It was a hot afternoon, and he'd come aboard that boat for a rest, but he peeled off his collar and started in. He gave Mark Dennen the number of bricks in the Methodist church, as reported in the Readsboro Citizen at the time it was built. He told him the name of the piece Mark's sister recited at the school entertainment in the spring of 1890. He bounded on all four sides the lot where the circuses played when they came to Readsboro. He named every citizen of the town, living or dead, that ever got to be known outside his own family, and he brought children into the world and married them and read the funeral service over them, and still that bonehead from the woods sat there, his mouth open, and says: 'It's beyond me how you know all that. You New Yorkers are slicker then I give ye credit for. But you can't fool me. You ain't Sam Burns. Why, I went to school with him.'

"They was drawing near Coney now," went on Mr. Max, "and Sam's face was purple and he was dripping with perspiration, and rattling off Readsboro happenings at the rate of ten a second, but that Mark Dennen he sat there and wouldn't budge from his high horse. So they came up to the pier, Sam almost weeping real tears and pleading like his heart would break: 'Mark, don't you remember that time we threw little Bill Barnaby into the swimming hole and he couldn't swim a stroke and nearly drowned on us?' and still getting the stony face from his old pal.

"And on the pier this Dennen held out his hand to Sam, who was a physical wreck and a broken man by this time, and says: 'You sure are cute, mister. I'll have great times telling this in Readsboro. Once you met one too smart for ye, eh? Much obliged for your company, anyhow!' And he went away and left Sam leaning against the railing, with no faith in human nature no more. 'I hope somebody got to him,' says Sam to me, 'and got to him good. He's the kind that if you work right you can sell stock in a company for starting roof gardens on the tops of the pyramids in Egypt. I'd trimmed him myself,' says Sam to me, 'but I hadn't the heart.'"

(to be continued)

WORDS FROM HOME.

Statements That May Be Investigated —Testimony of Plainfield Citizens.

When a Plainfield citizen comes to the front, telling his friends and neighbors of his experience, you can rely on his sincerity. The statements of people residing in far away places do not command your confidence. Home endorsement is the kind that backs Doan's Kidney Pills. Such testimony is convincing. Investigation proves it true. Below is a statement of a Plainfield resident. No stronger proof of merit can be had.

Albert Naylor, musician, 256 East Second street, Plainfield, N. J., says: "Several years ago I suffered from an ache in the small of my back and sharp pains when stooping or lifting. I took Doan's Kidney Pills, as I was told that they were good for such trouble and by the time I had finished two boxes, I was feeling better in every way. I have often recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to people I have heard complaining of kidney trouble."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.—Adv.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Darkens Beautifully and Restores Its Thickness and Lustre at Once.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added, will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mixing the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While wipsy, gray, faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger.—Adv.

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists
AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.
EVERY THURSDAY.
Free Consultation.
Hours 10 to 4:30.

—Merchants realize that the housewives who appreciate "special sales" are critical buyers—and that mere price-lure is not enough. The goods must be RIGHT.

SCOOP REDUCES THE FAT IN HIS HEAD

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

TWO GOOD GAMES IN Y. M. C. A. GYM

Plainfield Association Quintet Will Take on Summit in First Game.

Two good games of basketball will be played in the Y. M. C. A. gym tonight, the first team lining up against the Summit Chapel Club and the second team taking on the Jolly Five, a local team. The teams in the big attraction will lineup as follows:

Y. M. C. A.	SUMMIT
Moulton, forward	Newton
McNamee, forward	H. Voegtlen
Gavett, center	Cook
Glover, guard	T. Voegtlen
Farmer, guard	Dean

Referee—Lidgate.

"Sportdom Tips"

BASEBALL COMMISSION—BAH!

It had to come. Wherefore, no surprise need be felt over the fact that a bill has been introduced into the New York legislature for the regulation of baseball by a commission. We have been amazed in this age of the craze for free publicity and handmade halos that some lightweight has not introduced that bill before. The New York legislature has suffered from such a plethora of 2x4 intellects for a number of years that we would not have been startled if we had seen thirty or forty of the baseball commission bills brought up every session. The bill that has come at last provides that 5 per cent. of the receipts from all games where admission is charged shall go to the State, of which receipts 3 per cent. shall go to the public playgrounds and 2 per cent. to the payment of the "expense" of the commission. The public playgrounds clause is merely a cheap appeal to make a hit with people of the caliber of the introducer of this disingenuous proposition. The real object is to have the commission on the State payrolls and to give a lot of four-flushing politicians a better chance to have a finger in the baseball pie. Political sandbaggers can, and do, shake down clubs for tickets as things are now. It can be understood what chance regular people would have if the sport were dominated by a dinky commission which would have no reason on earth for existence except to play to the people with a null.

DON'T WANT TO SHINE.

Although a number of local ivory chasers entered their John Hancocks in the Elks' Pool Tournament which has just been sent under way several of those who were vanquished in the initial round have requested that their names be given no publication in the sporting chronicles of the city. This has led us to wonder just what motive the stars had in sending in their names for this event and why they deprive their opponents of a little publicity when the latter score victories at their expense.

Plainfield High School sprang another surprise and took the Morristown boys into camp for the second time this season last night. Wonder what they will do on the Y. M. C. A. court tonight?

Speaking of basketball, a pair of good games are on the menu in the Y. M. C. A. tonight.

P. H. S. track team men assign the reason for the Southside High School's cancellation to a chilly feeling around the locomotive works.

Queries, Comment and Answers

Sporting Editor:
Query—On what day did February 19, 1912, fall?—B. D.
Answer—This date fell on Monday.

Sporting Editor:
Query—What is a small nickle cent with a flying eagle and the date 1856 worth?—M. F.
Answer—Your coin is worth $1.50.

Sporting Editor:
Query—What is a small three-cent silver piece worth dated 1863?—L. S.
Answer—Thirty-five cents.

Sporting Editor:
Query—How can I get in touch with the membership committee of the Plainfield Bicycle Club?—L. E. P.
Answer—Jack Horner will furnish you with all the information you desire at his store on Somerset street.

Sporting Editor:
Query—How far is it from the postoffice to Oak Tree?—P. E.
Answer—Ah, a copper. What's the matter, did you flunk this one in the cop's examination? It all depends upon what part of Oak Tree you refer to.

A. C. S.—Consult a lawyer.—Sporting Editor.

T. P. E.—You did right, soak him again.—Sporting Editor.

Sporting Editor:
Query—How many different species of mosquitoes are there in New Jersey?—P. K.
Answer—Forty, not counting the variety of "bugs" that ask such questions as this one.

Nothing like being one of the chosen few on the "inside" of such matters.

Leals vs. P. H. S. Monday afternoon. Watch the feathers fly when these two much talked of rivals stack up against each other.

BASEBALL NOTES

Walter Kenefick, a young Springfield (Mass.) catcher, will be taken South by the Boston Braves. "Rabbit" Maranville discovered the youngster.

Secretary Foster, of the Giants, announces that all of McGraw's men will be in line when the band starts the parade across the field on opening day.

John Castle, who managed the Atlantic City Tri-State League team last season, has been signed to pilot the Allentown team, in the same organization.

Al Hummell, of the Knoxville Appalachian League team, has signed with the Pittsburgh Federals. He is a brother of "Silent John" Hummell, of the Superbas.

Under the terms of his contract with the Washington Club, Harry Harper, a young southpaw pitcher, is permitted to remain out of the game on Sundays.

The Georgia-Alabama League has been reorganized on an eight-club basis. Anniston, Rome, Gadsden, Talladega, Selma, Opelika, Newman and La Grange form the circuit.

C. B. Owens, W. B. Carpenter, W. T. Finneran, John Mullen, William Halligan, Hugh Rorty, G. W. Miller, Peter Harrison and Robert Hart compose the 1914 umpiring staff of the International League.

James C. McGill, who owns the Denver team in the Western League and the Indianapolis team in the American Association, refuses to sell his Denver holdings and will control both teams the coming season.

The Pittsburgh Pirates have signed 28 men, with Honus Wagner and Claude Hendrix the only prominent members of last year's team unsigned. Hendrix has jumped to the Feds, but Honus will line up with the Pirates later on.

Manager Joe Cantillon, of the Minneapolis club, says if any player on his team can better himself he can hop to it. Wise Joseph. He knows that his "Old Home Week" team couldn't jump. They would have to be carried into the new league.

NEXT LEAGUE GAME.

Plainfield High School will meet the Leal School quintet in an Interscholastic League match on the Y. M. C. A. court Monday afternoon.

WITH THE BOXERS

Winnipeg Jack O'Brien defeated Jack Morris in four rounds in London the other night.

Jim Buckley, who manages Gunboat Smith and Tommy Murphy, is going to England with his two fighters in April.

The way Ad Wolgast has been trimming 'em of late makes it look as though Ad was in line for a return match with Willie Ritchie.

Jack Ward, the English lightweight who was in America for a while, has been meeting with considerable success since he returned home.

George Chip has called off his bouts with Leo Houck and Johnny Howard because his hand was broken in his recent bout with Joe Borrell.

Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Tommy Bresnahan, the Omaha feather, are to engage in a 10-round contest in Syracuse next week.

Johnny Dundee is a busy boxer these days. He will tie up with Joe Shugrue at Waterbury on February 19 and a week later will battle Pal Moore in New York.

Tom Cowler, an English heavyweight, is to meet Joe Bonde at Vancouver next week. Bonde is a protege of Denver Ed Martin, the retired colored heavyweight.

HOPE CHAPEL GAMES.

Two games of basketball will be played in the Hope chapel gym tonight, the first team taking on the Peerless Five, of Newark, and the seconds lining up against the Holy Cross youths.

The teams will lineup as follows:

HOPE CHAPEL	PEERLESS A.C.
J. Heron, forward	Murphy
T. Heron, forward	Rea
Doig, center	Stewart
Snyder, guard	Gannon
Hunter, guard	Smith

SOLONS WILL MEET.

The annual meeting of the United States Lawn Tennis Association, which was to have been held last night at the Waldorf-Astoria in New York, has been postponed until February 13. Several hundred delegates from all sections of the country will attend.

NATIONAL SQUASH TOURNEY.

Play in the National Squash Tournament began this afternoon on the Heights Casino court, Brooklyn. The entries include a large list from Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD HIGH WON FAST CONTEST

Locals Managed to Nose Out Speedy Home Quintet in Final Minutes.

The Plainfield High School boys basketball team journeyed to Morristown last night and defeated the Morristown High School team by the score of 25 to 22. The game was fast and exciting from the beginning.

The teams were evenly matched and the game resulted in some good passing and few sensational long shots. Snyder opened the scoring after two minutes of play. He scored again before Morristown started counting on a pretty goal.

The game swayed back and forth, Plainfield always holding the upper hand, the first half ending with the score at 14 to 10.

In the second half the two teams were as evenly matched as in the first half. In the middle of the second period the Morristown team crept up on the locals and tied the score at twenty points. A foul goal by Peacock and a field goal by Gavett again put Plainfield in the lead and the game soon ended at 25 to 22 in favor of Plainfield.

The lineups:

P. H. S.	G.	F.	P.
Snyder, f	4	0	8
Hetfield, f	1	1	3
Gavett, c	1	0	2
Rosenson, g	2	0	4
Peacock, g	3	2	8
	11	3	25

M. H. S.	G.	F.	P.
Meyers, f	5	0	10
Butera, f	3	0	6
Mitchell, c	0	0	0
West, g	2	0	4
Freeman, g	1	0	2
	11	0	22

Score by periods:

P. H. S.	14	11—25
M. H. S.	10	12—22

Summary: Referee, Pierson; umpire, Patch, timers, Brooks and Day.

B. A. A. BOYS TEAM WON FROM HEAVENLY REST BY ONE POINT

In a fast basketball game the B. A. A. defeated the Heavenly Rest church boys by a score of 17 to 16, last night:

The scores:

B. A. A.	G.	F.	P.
Blanchard, lf	3	0	6
Sykes, rf	2	0	4
Mills, c	1	1	3
Zelie, rf	0	0	0
O'Donnell, rg	2	0	4
Case, lg	0	0	0
	8	1	17

HEAVENLY REST.	G.	F.	P.
Sirgrist, lf	3	2	8
Hutchcroft, rf	1	1	3
L. Mills, c	0	0	0
Babcock, rg	2	1	5
Ludgate, lg	0	0	0
	6	4	16

A CORRECTION.

A mistake made by the N. P. H. S. correspondent in his column last Thursday, is corrected in this article. It was stated that the elocution class of the borough High School had been dropped, but the class meets as usual, the only change being the union of the boys and girls divisions which meet every Tuesday afternoon.

BASKETBALL REVIVED.

After an absence of five weeks, Rutgers College athletes will return to the basketball court tonight and take on the C. C. N. Y. five in a comeback engagement.

LOCAL SCHOOLGIRLS LOST TO VISITORS

South Orange High School Maidens Won by a Score of 27 to 19.

The Plainfield High School girls' basketball team met defeat at the hands of the girls' basketball team of South Orange, yesterday afternoon, in the local High School gym by the score of 25 to 17. It looked as if the Plainfield team was in for another good beating the way the game started, for in the first five seconds of play Miss Seager scored a basket. Miss Philips soon tied the score with a pretty shot from the side of the court. Miss Seager and Miss Thomas each scored, putting South Orange in the lead. The first half ended with the score at 17 to 10.

In the second half Miss Crane was the whole show for Plainfield, scoring nine foul goals out of eleven tries. In this half Plainfield did not score a field goal, but the local guards played a very good game, holding their opponents to eight points.

The scores:

P. H. S.	G.	F.	P.
Miss Crane	1	9	11
Miss Philips	3	2	8
Miss Bremble	0	0	0
Miss Good	0	0	0
Miss Mortimer	0	0	0
Miss Mendell	0	0	0
	4	11	19

S. O. H. S.	G.	F.	P.
Miss Seager	9	3	21
Miss Thomas	2	0	3
Miss Lucker	0	0	0
Miss Martin	0	0	0
Miss Collyer	0	0	0
Miss Casler	0	0	0
	12	3	27

The score by periods:

P. H. S.	10	9—19
S. O. H. S.	17	10—27

Referee, Miss Sminck.

NO RULE CHANGES.

The joint football rules committee met last night in New York to consider changes in the code for next season, but although many suggestions for changes were made it was announced following the meeting that no fundamental changes will be made in the present code.

LEVINSKY A WINNER.

Battling Levinsky handed Tom McMahon, the "Pittsburgh Bearcat," a nifty lacing in the Empire A. C. last night. Levinsky pounded his man all around the ring and gained the decision in great style.

TINKER IN DUTCH.

A civil movement was started today, which if successful, will prevent Joe Tinker from playing baseball this season. President Murphy, of the Cubs, is in back of the step.

—You can make it PAY you to read the store ads in today's paper—make it pay you in actual savings on purchases you need to make. Try the experiment.

WOOD VS. LAMY RACE IN DEMAND

Great Pro Skaters Should Settle Championship Question.

SARANAC LAKE LAD IS SHY.

And Experts Are Unkind Enough to Suggest That Lamy Is Fearful of the New Jersey Boy's Well Known Speeding Qualities—Wood Ready For Contest.

The ice sport season has attained lively proportions, and, so far as the skaters are concerned, chief interest enters in the proposed match race between Edmund Lamy of Saranac Lake, N. Y., and Morris Wood of Long Branch, N. J., for the world's professional title.

That Lamy is afraid of Wood there is no doubt. The Jersey lad's performances place him almost in a class by himself, as he is remarkably fast at all distances, long or short.

Photo by American Press Association.

EDMUND LAMY

Wood will race Lamy any distance, anywhere, at any time, for $500 a side or for nothing. He doesn't want the money so much as he desires to show the public that Lamy is the second best skater.

Nothing Else but Fear.

Just why Lamy should dodge a meeting with Wood is unexplainable if Lamy is as fast as he says he is. The ice experts state that the New York boy is afraid of Wood and there is nothing else to the situation.

However, Lamy may be "smoked out" before the season closes, and it is to be hoped that he will agree to meet Wood, for if he does one of the most sensationally fast contests of recent years will be the result.

Wood is known to be in excellent condition, and he says he feels that he can break records if pushed hard by an opponent.

"I was never in better shape in my life than I am today," he said recently.

Saranac lake is the spot selected for the contemplated race, and there is usually no difficulty there in regard to having plenty of good, hard ice.

Wood is in active training and, like Lamy, is engaging in races almost every week, in order to keep in the best condition.

JOHNSON CONFIRMED AS COUNTY SUPT. OF SCHOOLS

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 7.—The nomination of A. L. Johnson, of Cranford, as Superintendent of the Public Schools of Union county was unanimously confirmed today by the State Board of Education at its regular monthly meeting. Mr. Johnson has been supervising principal of the schools of Cranford and succeeds J. J. Savtiz. He was nominated for the county superintendency by State Commissioner of Education Kendall and upon the question of confirming the nomination every member of the board voted in his favor. The confirmation of the appointments by the State Board is required under the law of 1912.

"DEACON" CONWAY COLLECTS FROM ALLEGED EMBEZZLER

Spencer Conway, a colored fisherman, of West Fourth street, appeared in the city court this morning as complainant against James Carter, a former employe, whom he charged with the embezzlement of $2.20 alleged to have been collected and not turned in. Carter denied the charges, stating that he had turned the collections in question over to his employer but the court thought differently and City Judge DeMeza instructed him to pay Conway's counsel, J. Henry Crane, the $2.20 within the next week.

While giving testimony Carter alleged that "Deacon" Conway had used him as an accomplice in taking preserves, potatoes and various other food stuffs and fuel from the cellars of houses where he made collections, but this Conway denied, and was accorded the benefit of the doubt. Conway has had trouble with his employes on various other similar occasions and evidence given at the trial brought out the fact that after discharging Carter he was instrumental in having him thrown out of a second position which he, Carter, secured after being released by Conway.

ORGANIZE "500" CLUB.

Several residents of the West End met last night, at the home of Samuel Robinson on West Third street, and organized a new "500" club, with a membership of sixteen. Mrs. John Coffey and Mrs. Ferdinand Denckla received first honors for the women, while Fred Cross and Donald McInnes were given the honors for the men. Other features included singing, dancing and refreshments. The club will be entertained Thursday night, February 26, by Mr. and Mrs. Donald McInnes.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 36 degrees; 11 a. m., 38 degrees; 12:30 p. m., 40 degrees.

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY
from the fact that breakdowns will happen, no matter how high a grade of wheel you own. Unless you are exceptionally fortunate, you'll need our services as bicycle repairers par excellence sooner or later. True, you may save a mishap by letting us overhaul your machine after a long ride; but at any and all times will do the best possible for you and your wheel.

LEO ZEISEL
Bicycles, Sundries, Musical Instruments and Sporting Goods.
Temporary at 328 W. Front St.
Permanent Headquarters after March 1st, 222 W. Front St., Next Door to Proctor's.

NEWS OF INTEREST IN THE PLAINFIELD BUILDING WORLD

BIG DECREASE IN JAN'Y BUSINESS

Amount Authorized for New Buildings About One-Fifth That of 1913.

$17,000 WORK STARTED

Falling Off in All Wards, $15,000 Permit for Alteration to Hillside Avenue Residence Being Largest Amount Involved.

As compared with January, 1913, the building industry has fallen off greatly in Plainfield during the past month. Not only in the amount of permits granted for new buildings is the decrease marked, but the amount authorized for improvements have fallen behind. In 1913, during January, $81,020 worth of permits were granted, while last month the figures reached but $17,435, or only a little over one-fifth that of the previous year.

The following is a comparison of the amounts and number of permits granted during the months of January, 1913, and January, 1914:

NEW BUILDINGS.

	1913	1914
First ward	$49,525	$3,900
Second ward	9,030	2,700
Third ward	19,200	8,475
Fourth ward	3,265	2,360
Total	$81,020	$17,435

ALTERATIONS.

	1913	1914
First ward	$ 2,100	$1,200
Second ward	3,400	15,000
Third ward	———	———
Fourth ward	12,000	250
Total	$17,500	$16,450

During January, 1913, eighteen permits were issued by Inspector T. O. Doane for the erection of new buildings. Eight of these went to the First ward, five to the Second, three to the Third, and two to the Fourth. During the same period in 1914 there were nine issued. Two for the First ward, two for the Second, three for the Third, and two for the Fourth. For alterations there were three permits issued in 1913, one each in the First, Second and Fourth wards. This year there were also three permits issued, one going to each of the same wards as in 1913. While the Fourth ward was awarded the largest alteration permit for the month of January, 1913, which amounted to $12,000, the permit issued for that ward this year was for but $250. The permit for the largest amount this year was for $15,000 for the alterations which are now being made to the residence of Francis A. Martin, at 950 Hillside avenue, in the Second ward.

The new building amount for the month of January, 1914, is a little over one-fifth of the total amount involved in the erection of new buildings during the month of January, 1913. As the summary shows the First ward has the heaviest drop in valuations.

Considerable of this difference in the aggregate totals of the two years is no doubt due to the spell of extremely cold weather which hit the city a week or so ago. If the weather conditions of the past month had been as mild as during January, 1913, there is no doubt that the amount of money involved in the building trade for this year would have equalled if not excelled the amount invested for the first month last year.

If the conditions continue in the building trades for the balance of the year the way that they have been going forward since January 15, there is no doubt in the minds of the local contractors that the total amount of the year's business will not only equal but in some of the wards will excell, not only last year's totals, but also any figure that has ever been set during the past ten years.

NEW BUTCHER SHOP FOR JOS. CREAGER ON FOURTH ST.

Anthony Albert, of Scotch Plains, is erecting a 14 by 16 foot frame structure at the front of the property owned by Joseph Creager, at 416 East Fourth street, this city. The new building will be used by the owner as a butcher shop and will cost not less than $300.

The exterior walls of the building will be faced with white pine siding painted gray, with dark green trimmings. The stone front will be built with paneled bulkheads under the window sashes. The ceiling and side walls of the interior will be faced with North Carolina ceiling strips which will be left natural, filled and varnished. North Carolina yellow pine flooring will be used. The building will be piped for gas. The roof, which is flat, will be covered with three-ply rubberoid.

Anthony Albert has the general contract and has sublet to John Creager, of Plainfield, the mason work; Louis Sutterlin, of Plainfield, the painting; Samuel Macauley, of Scotch Plains, the plumbing. The J. D. Loizeaux Lumber Company supplied all the material, millwork and trim used.

ONLY TWO PERMITS IN CITY DURING THE WEEK

Big Drop From Corresponding Week of 1913 in Amount of Money Involved.

Another dull week was experienced in the building trades of this city, making a poor start for the month. Only two permits were issued, both for alterations.

During February, 1913, twenty-two permits were issued for new buildings and alterations. In the first week seven permits were issued. The amount of money involved by the granting of these seven permits was about $48,465 or $47,025 more in the first week of the month this year.

The permits issued up to yesterday noon were: Louis C. VanNest, 215 East Fifth street, tin rooed addition to north side of rear of house. Frame construction, upon a concrete and brick foundation, 12 by 20 feet; cost $450. Owner will do the work.

Charles F. Sebring, alterations to building at 230-232 West Front street. Specifications call for remodeling of store front. Description elsewhere.

PLAINS AND FANWOOD HAVE REAL BOOM ON

Contractors Can Not Build Fast Enough for Prospective Tenants.

The building boom continues in Scotch Plains. Work has recently been started on half a dozen houses and several others have been finished. The demand by tenants has brought about the erection of a number of the better class residences both in Scotch Plains and Fanwood.

For a town of its size, Scotch Plains is excelling Plainfield in building. Fanwood, where a number of bungalows are being erected by the Lockwood Improvement Company, of New York, for its size not only exceeds the work of new buildings being erected in Plainfield but a number of other cities larger than Plainfield in this part of the country. The majority of the buildings that have been erected in Fanwood are in the vicinity of the Jersey Central Railroad station and those that have been completed are owned and rented by commuters. In Scotch Plains the new buildings are all within two blocks of the main line trolleys.

A builder of Scotch Plains who is erecting a fine residence for himself said that before the foundation walls had been laid there had been eight different people to see him about the possibility of renting it. He claims that many who are engaged in the improvement of real estate around that town are swamped by the requests o would-be house renters. The same conditions are also encountered by those interested in the improvement of Fanwood real estate, and no houses remain unoccupied after erection.

STEPHEN BRISKEY'S HOME IN DUNELLEN NEARLY DONE

Stephen Brisk[illegible] of North avenue, Dunellen, is hav[illegible] two and a half story frame dw[illegible] erected on his property on Col[illegible] a street, in that place. The struc[illegible]s to be placed on a lot 75 by 1[illegible] he building will be 28x30 and co[illegible] out $3,500. The exterior of the building will be faced below the beams with weatherboards, painted a dark gray. The walls and roof above will be faced with shingles, left natural. Across the entire front will be a large veranda, supported by brick piers, upon which round columns to support the porch roof will be placed.

On the first floor will be four rooms, parlor, dining room, kitchen, with pantry, and reception hall. With the exception of the pantry and kitchen all will be finished with a detailed trim of chestnut, comb grained pine floors. The trim will be stained a dark oak. The kitchen and pantry will be finished with trim of cypress, left natural and varnished, and comb grained pine floors, with walls and ceilings painted buff. Leading from the reception hall to the second story an open stairway has been built complete of chestnut material. The mission type handrail and banister will be stained dark oak to match the other trimmings.

Four bedrooms and a bathroom occupy the space on the second floor, trimmed with craftsman type chestnut, stained golden oak, and North Carolina pine flooring. The bathroom will have modern enamel fixtures, and a medicine cabinet. The side walls to a heighth of four feet from the floor will be marked to represent tile. The top floor will be used for storage. Each room will be equipped with gas fixtures, and there will be a hot air heating system. Laundry trays will be placed in the kitchen.

Samuel Titus has the general contract and is doing the carpenter work. Forman H. Gise is doing the masonry and plastering; Joseph Tetlow the plumbing. Runyon & Field, of Bound Brook, supplied the building materials; the J. D. Loizeaux Lumber Company furnished the millwork, and the Dunellen Lumber and Supply Company the mason material.

The building will be completed by March 25, when its owner will move in.

H. C. MEYER BUILDING HOUSE AT PLAINS

Will Place It on Market for Rental About April First.

Henry C. Meyer, of Front street, Scotch Plains, is having a two and a half story frame dwelling erected on his property on Park avenue, Scotch Plains, near the main line trolleys. The building is on the front of a large lot and has a frontage of 22 feet and a depth of 32 feet. The building is being erected for rental purposes only.

The exterior of the house below the belting will be faced with weatherboards and above, including the gables and roof, with shingles. The weatherboards will be painted cream color, while the shingles of the walls and gables will be stained a velvet brown and the roof creosote green. Across the front a large veranda has been built, supported by four concrete piers. Supporting the porch roof are three large square columns, to be finished in white, as will also be the balustrade railing around the porch. The facing of the foundation walls will be of light colored stucco.

On the first floor will be a living room, a dining room, kitchen, pantry and reception hall. An open stairway will be built in the reception hall. All the rooms on this floor will be trimmed with craftsman type chestnut trim stained a golden oak. Double flooring with a finished surface of white oak will be laid.

Four bedrooms and a bathroom will be on the second floor. These will also be trimmed in chestnut stained a golden brown. A double flooring will be laid, finished with a surface of comb grained North Carolina pine. The stairway will be built with chestnut risers and sides, and oak treads which will be stained the same as the trimmings. The third floor will be used for storage. The house will be wired for electric lights, be heated by a hot air system and the kitchen will be piped for gas. The bathroom equipment will have white enamel fixtures and a metal medicine cabinet will have a plate glass mirror door. In the kitchen laundry trays will be placed in addition to the regular equipment, including a combination range and gas hot water heater.

Anthony Albert has the contract for the building and is supervising the carpenter and interior decorative work. Johnson Brothers are doing the masonry and plastering work, and Louis Morel, the plumbing and heating. These contractors are all from Scotch Plains. Frank Sands, of Fanwood, is wiring the house and placing the fixtures. The J. D. Loizeaux Lumber Company furnished all the millwork and trim; the Fanwood Lumber and Supply Company all the lumber and mason materials, and the A. M. Griffen Company the hardware. The painting contract has not been awarded as yet.

The building will be completed about April 1 and will then be placed on the market for rental purposes.

DANISH LUTHERAN CHURCH MAY ERECT NEW EDIFICE

Steps are being taken by the congregation of the Danish Lutheran church to have a double building erected on their property on Arlington avenue, near the Plainfield High School, during the early spring. The proposed building will have on the first floor a large assemly room in which services will be held, and the second story it is proposed to divide into two apartments, which will be used as living quarters.

The committee that have been appointed to look into the matter of the type and cost of the building is composed of Charles Northen, Franz Goldman and Gunnar W. Hansen. M. D. Madsen has already drawn a rough sketch which will be presented at the next meeting of the church members the early part of next month.

—Something unusual for the table is always a welcome treat to the home folks. The ad-reading women does not find the problem hard.

NEW STORE UNDERWAY FOR WOOLWORTH CO.

Work Soon to Start on the Remodeling of the Sebring Building.

Sheriff Charles P. Sebring, of North Plainfield, has secured a permit for alterations to the front of the building owned by him and occupied by the F. W. Woolworth Co., at 230 and 232 West Front street. The show windows and interior of the store will be changed so as to take in the store now occupied by Leo Slonim, the jeweler, who will soon move into his own building. The cost will be about $1,000.

The specifications call for the taking out the half round show window now in the centre of the building and erecting a larger window of the same type in its place so as to take in part of the space now occupied by Slonim's show window and entrance. Another quarter round window will be placed at the extreme right, leaving space for the staidway leading to the upper floors. The windows will all have heavy curved plate glass running from the floor to the ceiling of the second floor. Parquet floorings will be placed in all the windows, which will be finished with rear mahogany paneled partition with doors leading into the store.

The partition between the Woolworth and Slonim stores will be removed and the entire space thrown into one large room. The measurements will then be 144x40 feet with sixteen feet clearance from floor to ceiling.

A comb grained pine floor will be laid throughout the store, and numerous counters will be arranged to meet all the conveniences of the customers. New lighting systems will be installed throughout. A large fireproof door will be built at the rear of the new section of the building.

Work will be commenced on the alterations as soon as Mr. Slonim moves into his new store. The Greiner Contracting Company, of Brooklyn, will do all the work. It is expected that the alterations will be completed by April 1.

HOUSE AT SCOTCH PLAINS RENTED BEFORE COMPLETION

Anthony Albert is having a two and a half story frame dwelling erected on his property on Forest road, Scotch Plains. The building, on a lot 75 by 100 feet will have a frontage of 28 feet and a depth of 23 feet. It is estimated that the cost will be about $4,000.

The walls below the belting will be faced with colonial style weatherboards, painted white, while above, including the roof, will be shingles. The upper walls and gables will be stained silver gray and the roof with a green stain. A large front veranda will have a colonial style entrance. Brick piers will support the porch flooring and sixteen inches square panelled columns will support the roof of the veranda.

The foundation walls are of hollow blocks. In the cellar are built a boiler room and closets. A dining room, living room, kitchen, butler's pantry and hallway are on the first floor. Both the dining room and living room will be finished with false ceiling beams faced with a finished surface chestnut. All the rooms on this floor will be trimmed with a craftsman type trim of chestnut material which will be stained a golden brown, except the kitchen and butler's pantry, which will be trimmed with chestnut left natural. A double flooring will be laid throughout the lower of North Carolina yellow pine, and the upper of white oak. In the dining room and living room window seats will be built. Triple frame windows will be placed at each of these window seats. These windows will have a six panelled glass upper sash and a plate glass lower sash.

An open stairway will lead from the living room to the second story, constructed with chestnut risers and oak threads and finished with a carved balister and handrail decorated as are the trimmings on the first floor.

Three bedrooms and a bathroom are on the second floor. All will be trimmed in chestnut and have finished floors of North Carolina pine. The bathroom will be equipped with up-to-date enamel fixtures, and a medicine cabinet with a mirror door. The lower portion of the walls will be marked to represent tile. All the bedrooms will have large closets, equipped with coat rods and tiers of shelves.

Gas and electric fixtures and steam heat will be installed. In the kitchen will be a combination range. The butler's pantry will be finished with two dressers and a linen closet. The building will be completed by April 1, when it will be occupied by a tenant who has already obtained a lease on it.

Anthony Albert, the owner, is supervising the carpenter work; Johnson Brothers the masonry and plastering; and Samuel Macauley the plumbing, etc. The contract for the painting and finishing of the interior decorations has not been awarded as yet. George Ord wired the house; A. M. Griffen Hardware Company furnished the hardware; the Fanwood Lumber and Supply Company the lumber and mason material and the J. D. Loizeaux Lumber Company all the millwork and decorative materials.

BRIDE AND GROOM TO HAVE FINE NEW HOME

Albert Meyers, of Scotch Plains, Has Completed Residence.

Albert Meyers has had a two and a half story frame dwelling erected on his property on Meyer avenue, Scotch Plains, at an estimated cost of about $4,000. The house has a frontage of 24 feet and a depth of 28 feet, and is placed on a lot 75x110. The foundation walls are of cement blocks. The building below the belting is faced with weatherboards to be painted light yellow, while above it the walls, gables and roof will be finished with shingles. The wall and gable shingles have been stained velvet brown while the roof has been left natural. These exterior decorations are set off to advantage with trimmings of white.

A living room, dining room, kitchen, butler's pantry and reception hall are on the first floor and three bedrooms and a bathroom on the second. An open stairway has been built to the second story. All the rooms on the first floor are finished with a craftsman type trim in oak which has been left its natural color. The stairway is built entirely of oak, finished the same as the trim on the first floor. A large open fireplace has been built in the living room, with exterior facings of tapestry brick and a tile hearth. A large bay window with stained glass sash has been built in the side of the dining room.

The bedrooms have been finished with a detail trim of oak finished naturally. All floors in the house are of the double layer type, with yellow pine under a finished surface of white oak. The bathroom has been equipped with the most up-to-date white enameled fixtures. Laundry trays have been placed in the kitchen, in addition to its regular equipment, which includes a combination range. The kitchen walls and ceilings have been painted light buff.

The house was completed this week and will be occupied by the owner, who is to be married next Tuesday.

Anthony Albert was the general contractor on the building and supervised the carpenter work. Johnson Brothers did the masonry and plastering; Samuel Macauley the plumbing, heating, etc. Louis Sutterlin of Plainfield did the painting; George W. Ord wired the house and placed the fixtures. The Fanwood Lumber and Supply Company and the Wright Otis Company, of Cranford, furnished all the lumber and mason materials used. The J. D. Loizeaux Lumber Company supplied all the millwork and decorative materials, and the A. M. Griffen Hardware Company all the hardware.

RAISED METUCHEN TEACHER'S PAY, BUT DIDN'T KNOW IT

Metuchen, Feb. 7—How the Board of Education, having been pledged to vote against an increase in salary for Thomas G. VanKirk, principal of the public schools, voted to raise Mr. Van Kirk's pay $250 shortly after election formed a topic of discussion at the meeting of the board at its meeting here.

None of the members of the board could remember voting for the raise; no record of any such vote could be found in the minutes and some of the members said thy didn't know the principal had received the increase until they went over the temporary budget the night before. Members of the board say they do not know how the matter finally will be disposed of, for under the tenure of office act a principal's salary cannot be reduced.

Permission was given to Mr. Van Kirk to attend the convention of school superintendents and principals at Richmond, Va., February 23 to 27, but Mr. Van Kirk must leave town the night of Monday, February 23 and be back at school again Friday morning, February 27.

MEETING OF MISSION BAND.

The Young Women's Mission Band of Trinity Reformed church met at the home of Mrs. Leonard Smith, on Duer street, yesterday afternoon. Miss Ethel VanZandt conducted the devotional exercises. The subject for informal discussion was "The Needs of the Women and Children of Arabia." Interesting letters were read from Dr. Paul W. Harrison and from those in charge of the Indian stations where Christmas boxes were sent.

—It is wiser to know what a thing OUGHT TO COST before buying it; and ad-readers usually do know this.

The Smile That Won't Come Off

is always worn by the thrifty housewife who uses a

"WHITE DAISY" WASHING MACHINE

Ball Bearings

$9.00

or a

"WHITE LILY" WASHING MACHINE

$7 50

and has her washing done before breakfast. For sale by

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

AUTOLINE OILS AND GREASES

STRICTLY PENNSYLVANIA PREMIUM CRUDE

NON ACID TREATED—NO COKE—NO TAR.

Plainfield Auto Tire Co.

407 Watchung Ave.

DISTRIBUTORS FOR

Wm. C. Robinson & Son Co., Baltimore, Md.

OUR MID-WINTER FURNITURE SALE

We are selling lots of good Furniture and Bedding at this time, for the trade know us and the character of our goods and appreciate the advantage of a sale like this—and only need to be told about it.

WE DO SELL GOOD FURNITURE AT LESS PRICES THAN ANY OTHER STORE.

Just visit our store, look through carefully, note the splendid savings on our regular goods; many odd pieces at specially low prices.

JUST NOTE THESE EXTRAORDINARY VALUES.

ODD CHIFFONIERS in many styles of oak, mahogany, birdseye maple and Circassian walnut, from ..... $8.98 to $24.00

ODD DRESSERS in many styles of oak, mahogany, birdseye maple and Circassian walnut, from ..... $9.98 to $35.00

SAMPLE BRASS BEDS, finish guaranteed— ... $10.50, $13.50, $16.50, $18.50, $23.50

GOOD QUALITY 9x12 AXMINSTER RUGS, $22.50 & $25.00 values, at $18.98

Be Sure and See Our Window Display—It Means Money Saved.

WE GIVE AND REDEEM SURETY COUPONS.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON

BABCOCK BUILDING PLAINFIELD, N. J.

4,600 People Are Employed in New Jersey by The Prudential. Probably 13,000 others are dependent upon them for support. The Prudential advances the welfare of New Jersey.

Founded by JOHN F. DRYDEN — THE PRUDENTIAL HAS THE STRENGTH OF GIBRALTAR — Pioneer of Industrial Insurance in America

The Prudential

FORREST F. DRYDEN, President.

Acts in any Trust Capacity

Resources $5,000,000.00

THE INCOME TAX

has emphasized the burden of property. It has laid an extra weight on those whose time and thought were already heavily taxed.

YOU MAY AVOID

much of the care and responsibility of your property by appointing this Company as your Custodian and allowing us to hold your securities in our vault, cut your coupons and fill out the income tax certificates to be attached thereto, collect your interest and render you periodically a statement of your income. Our Officers will be glad to talk with you on this subject.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

The Car With the Famous Motor is Here.

We are demonstrating and selling this car now. Have you seen it? We are ready and willing to show you the many merits of the CASE. We dwell at great length on the motor, because we know in the CASE we have a motor that has abundant power—also that you should be sure of the power plant in the car you buy.

However, in addition, we offer in the CASE the only completely equipped car that we know of.

Better Than Ever---At Price Unmatched

Electric Starter, Electric Lighting—Westinghouse equipment; you know the brains and capital back of that name.

- Demountable rims.
- Extra tire on extra rim.
- Extra tubes (two).
- Weed tire chains.
- Bosch magneto.
- Warner Speedometer.
- Eight Day Clock.
- Electric Horn.
- Rain vision ventilating windshield.
- Ample springs, platform and semi-elliptic.
- Brakes—expanding and contracting—12-inch.
- Mohair top.
- Work or trouble lamp on long wire.

REMEMBER—You assume no obligation by investigating the CASE. We want you to know the CASE whether you buy or not. Call, write or phone. Three models. The CASE is manufactured by a company 72 years in the mechanical line—backed by 40 million dollars.

PLAINFIELD AUTO TIRE COMPANY

407 WATCHUNG AVE.

PHONE 1980 PLAINFIELD, N. J.

AMUSEMENTS.

Lyric Theatre

202 WEST FRONT STREET.
Daylight Motion Pictures.
Changed Every Day.
Admission, Mat., 5c; Evening, 10c.
11 15 tf w-th-f-s

HAVE YOU EVER VISITED A LAUNDRY?

We invited you to inspect our plant, and see the sanitary conditions under which your laundry is handled.

Flat Work 35c a dozen.

Rough Dry 6c per pound.

Marshall's Laundry, Inc.

Watchung and Fourth.

Phone 702.
19 27 m-s tf

J. L. BROWER

STATIONERY, BOOKS and MAGAZINES

311 PARK AVENUE

Valentines and Booklets from E. P. Dutton & Co.

Have you read?
The Initials
On the Branch
The Heart of Life

TELEPHONE 1012.

THE ROYAL TYPEWRITER

Best built STANDARD Typewrite in the world. Nineteen exclusive features not possessed by any other machine—best references of local users. Write or phone for particulars and demonstration.

PLAINFIELD OFFICE SUPPLY CO.
116 West Second Street.
P. O. Box 701. 'Phone 921-W
1 27 6 eod

L. Moraller & Son

WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS

WATCHES. CLOCKS and JEWELRY

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

THE COFFEE YOU'LL LIKE.

People who try our Mocha and Java Coffee order it again because they like its Quality and Flavor—the taste is inviting and pleasant to the palate. We also sell Select Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables.

W. W. Dunn
THE PARK GROCER
Duer Street and Lincoln Place

UNION COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT.

James B. Guttridge vs. } IN ATTACHMENT
Hart S. Farlee

Notice is hereby given that a writ of attachment was issued out of the Union County Circuit Court against the rights and credits, moneys and effects, goods and chattels, lands and tenements of Hart S. Farlee, an absent debtor, at the suit of James B. Guttridge, for the sum of $386.70, returnable on December 31, 1913 has been served and duly executed, and was returned on the 17th day of December, 1913, by the Sheriff of the County of Union.

Dated January 9, 1914.

JAMES C. CALVERT, Clerk.
Robert Newton Crane, Attorney.
1 10 5 -s

Hoagland's Express

FINE FURNITURE.

MOVING

Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections
125 WATCHUNG AVE

—At Westfield, C. F. Wittke has the Daily Press on sale each day.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It brings results.

3% paid on checking accounts of $500.00 or more. Out of town items collected at par. New York checking privileges.

4% paid on Special Department accounts of $5.00 or more subject to liberal Savings Bank rules. Out of town savings accounts collected without charge.

Acts as Administrator, Executor, Guardian and Trustee; the fees are the same as those allowed an individual.

Modern Safe Deposit and Storage Vaults. Boxes for rent $5.00 and upwards. Values in bulk stored for from 50s cents per month.

Real Estate Department acts as agent and broker. Unusual services for the usual commission.

SERVICE

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

Capital $100,000.00

The "Step-Lively" Sale

ATTRACTING EVERYBODY'S FEET TO VAN ARSDALE'S.

Considering the bad weather this morning, the big sale had a great start. Scores of eager shoppers have already been here, and saved good money on the best of winter Shoes. "Step-Lively" is the slogan of the sale; winter shoes must "Step-Lively" out of this store, and the prices we have marked them will make you "Step Lively" to get them.

$4.48, $3.98, $2.98, $1.98, $1.48, 98c, 48c means something here.

VAN ARSDALE'S

127 E. FRONT ST.

IF BACKACHY OR KIDNEYS BOTHER

Eat Less Meat Also Take Glass of Salts Before Eating Breakfast.

Uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish ache, and feel like lumps of lead. The urine becomes cloudy; the bladder is irritated, and you may be obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night. When the kidneys clog you must help them flush off the body's urinous waste or you'll be a real sick person shortly. At first you feel a dull misery in the kidney region, you suffer from backache, sick headache, dizziness, stomach gets sour, tongue coated and you feel rheumatic twinges when the weather is bad.

Eat less meat, drink lots of water; also get from any pharmacist four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity, also to neutralize the acids in urine, so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder weakness.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everyone should take now and then to keep the kidneys clean and active. Druggists here say they sell lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

J. HIMMELFARB

Ladies' Tailor, Dressmaker and Furrier.

NOS. 309-311 NEW ST., BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH STS., TEL. 903-W.

Particular pains exercised in the making of a garment, the fitting of the same and attending properly to the little details that mean so much in the finished garment—thus satisfactions follows.

Expert workmanship and Perfect Fit Guarauteed.

I will appreciate a call and will be pleased to show styles and samples of work. Prices reasonable.

THE HOME OF PHOTO-PLAYS DE LUXE

PROCTOR'S

FRONT STREET THEATRE, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

MONDAY First Presentations of a Series of World's MONDAY

Greatest Film Creations

Beginning With

The Most Marvelous Picture Play Ever Produced

"WILD BEASTS AT LARGE"

"A SCREAM" "A ROAR!" "A HOWL!"

IMAGINE—A Circus Menagerie Broke Loose—IMAGINE
SEE—One That Really Does—SEE
LIONS, TIGERS, BEARS, ELEPHANTS, MONKEYS

And Every Species of Four Footed, Two Footed and Legless Animals

On a Merry Rampage in a Small Town

No One Wants to Miss This Surprise of Surprises!

"Making a Living"
This Keystone Comedy Will Show You How

"From Rail-Splitter to President" in Three Reels

"Simple Simon has a Fight"
Fun for the Kiddies

Coming Thursday
"The Great Leap"
Wonderful Drama in 4 Parts

APPROPRIATE ORCHESTRAL MUSIC
TIMELY MUSICAL SELECTIONS INTRODUCED
REGULAR PROGRAMS CHANGED DAILY
IN ADDITION TO SPECIAL PHOTO-PLAY MASTERPIECES
CHANGED EVERY MONDAY AND THURSDAY

DON'T STOP SAVING

Some young people resolve to save and for a time they deposit their money regularly in the Bank—but after a while they lose interest and spend money for luxuries not actually needed.

Start an account now with us and determine to make a deposit to your credit each week.

4 PER CENT. INTEREST PAID.

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

THE ONLY SAVINGS BANK IN PLAINFIELD.
ORGANIZED 1868.

OFFICERS.

WM. F. ARNOLD ..... President
A. C. STEBBINS ..... Vice President
JAMES C. POPE ..... Secretary and Treasurer
H. A. POPE ..... Assistant Secretary and Treasurer
H. B. MacDONALD ..... Second Assistant Secretary and Treasurer

Money deposited by the third of the month will draw interest from the first.

The Question of PURE MILK

IS SETTLED HERE

We are just as PARTICULAR about the superiority of our MILK as you are. That's why we have the DAIRY with a reputation and that dairy is

THE FAMOUS ONE OF DR CHARLES A. EATON

Modern sanitary machinery BOTTLES THE MILK AT THE DAIRY in STERILIZED BOTTLES, and sealed and iced it is delivered to you.

THE MILK WHERE PURITY REIGNS SUPREME

WELSH FARMS DAIRY

188 East Front Street. Phone 1964.

FORESIGHT

There is such a thing as looking so far ahead as to overlook the dangers close at hand. The foresight which induces an owner to take proper precautions to safeguard his property with insurance are excellent.

Yet it should require no foresight to employ us—it is as plain as daylight that this office and the companies represented are all the protection an owner needs.

REAL ESTATE
LOANS
RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO.

Babcock Bldg.
Telephone 205
Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS WILL BE FOUND HEREAFTER ON THE PAGE BEFORE THE LAST.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.

Fair tonight and Tuesday; moderate westerly winds.
Max., 32; Min., 12.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 9, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

FRIENDS JOIN IN PILGRIMAGE

Both Branches of Religious Society Attend the Plainfield Meeting.

HELPFUL ADDRESSES

Daniel Oliver L. Hollingsworth Wood and Samuel Willits Discuss Pertinent Topics—Box Luncheon Is Served.

Many members of both branches of the Religious Society of Friends visited the Plainfield meeting, yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. The silence was first broken by L. Hollingsworth Wood, of Mt. Kisco, N. Y., in a prayer for guidance, inspiration and help. Daniel Oliver, who had recently been sent by the English Friends as a missionary to Syria, preached of "The Kingdom of Heaven."

Mr. Oliver said he had been asked whether Quakerism now has a message for the world. Amid the troubled conditions with the church divided against itself, capital pitted against, labor, the building of dreadnaughts and maintenance of armies, he would tell the masses who are thirsting for the Water of Life that the Kingdom of Heaven is not far away in Jerusalem, not something to be looked forward to in the future, but a great spiritual reality in the heart. The speaker went on to say that patriotism as usually understood is "my country right or wrong," whereas true patriotism is to love the whole world because all are brothers.

Samuel Willits, of Purchase, N. Y., spoke of a special instance when dependence on the Divine impression of immediate duty resulted in a woman's being able to rescue a young girl from a terrible danger and restore her to her parents. Following the morning service a box-luncheon was served and a social hour was enjoyed.

The afternoon session was opened by a reading from Matthew. The story of the rich young man whose answer was "All these things have I kept from youth up—what lack I yet?" And from this the subject of the day was chosen. L. Hollingsworth Wood said he would quote with some appropriateness in the native State of that Quaker saint, John Woolman, some passages from his works.

Ministry is one lack of Friends—the Holy Spirit is the great Minister and those taking part should be diligent students of the Bible and of the signs of the times. In England Friends are working for the abolition of the death penalty. The fact of the existence of foreign mission work has brought there a new inflow of life. Women must in no way fall back from their inheritance of equal opportunity in the meeting.

The Friends' meeting-house at Twentieth street, New York, is open on Monday evenings to the most destitute who are fed first physically and then spiritually.

These pilgrimages are being made at frequent intervals by representatives of both Friends' meetings to many towns within a radius of sixty miles of New York and much good is being done by throwing down the barriers between the branches and increasing the opportunities of working together. The day proved to be uplifting and delightful.

FORMER GOVERNOR FORT TO TALK ABOUT LINCOLN

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Men's Club of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, held yesterday noon, arrangements were completed for the dinner to be given by the club on Thursday night in the church parlors, at which former Governor J. Franklin Fort will speak on "Lincoln." It was decided that as there had been requests for tickets from members of the Men's Club of other churches that tickets would be sold to anyone who might care to attend the dinner. William Abbe, 832 Webster place, is in charge of the arrangements for the dinner, and anyone wishing tickets can procure them by applying to him.

BOARD WILL NOT MEET.

Owing to the absence of several of the members the special meeting of the Board of Education of the borough called for this evening has been postponed.

Free Cup of Coffee or Tea.

The Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company has chosen this week to demonstrate several lines of their famous teas and coffees and anyone who stops at 137 West Front street will receive a cup of either one of these delicious beverages with the compliments of the management. The lines being demonstrated are El Ryad coffee and Plaza and Silver Key tea.

Advertise in the Daily Press

ANNUAL STATEMENT OF ST. MARY'S PARISH

Shows That $27,512.36 Was Contributed During the Past Year.

A pamphlet, compiled for the purpose of arousing and stimulating interest in the work being carried on in St. Mary's church, was issued to the parishioners at the services yesterday and contains many interesting facts concerning the various activities connected with the ecclesiastical institution. Included in the booklet is a financial statement for the year just closed arranged by Father B. M. Bogan, the rector, and the trustees, Michael D. O'Keefe and Timothy J. Meaney.

During the year the receipts have amounted to $27,512.36 and the expenditures total the same amount, the new year being started on even terms. Included in the receipts have been the special collections taken up for the school and coal and the one at Easter time, the names of the contributors being published in the book.

DISCUSS PLANS FOR SINGING CONTEST

Gesang and Turn Verein Entertain Delegates From State Saengerbund.

Whether or not the members of the Plainfield Gesang and Turn Verein will take part in the coming prize singing contest to be held by the New Jersey State Saengerbund at Trenton on Decoration Day and for two days thereafter, will probably be decided within a short time. The local organization of German singers, comprising as it does some of the best known residents and business men of this vicinity, has a membership of 150. Not all of the members, however, engage actively in participation in the society's affairs.

Thirty-five delegates from various sections of New Jersey assembled yesterday, and held an interesting meeting in the afternoon at Saengerbund Hall, in the borough. The delegates were cordially received and dinner was served the guests by the local society.

President Eugene Renz, of the Plainfield Gesang and Turn Verein, made an address of welcome to the visitors, his remarks being responded to in behalf of the visiting delegation by Vice-President Seizerer, of the New Jersey State Saengerbund. He spoke in a particularly happy vein, praising the members of the local singing society for their work, and complimenting them on the excellent dinner and entertainment that they had provided for the enjoyment of the visiting singers.

The coming singing contest of the New Jersey State Saengerbund promises, it is said, to be a thoroughly enjoyable affair. It will be largely attended by the members of those singing societies that make up the membership of the State wide organization. Richard Walter and Henry Haurand were the delegates who represented the Plainfield Gesang and Turn Verein at yesterday's meeting. The prize singing contest will be held in Hill's Park, in Trenton. Officers of the local society are Eugene Renz, president; Adam Muff, vice-president; J. Clattes, secretary; August Wolff, financial secretary, and Richard Walter, treasurer.

COMPLAINANT NOW THINKS SWINDLER WAS TRUE LOVER

Miss Hattie Smith, colored, of 977 Madison avenue, who appeared as complainant against one Albert Smith, whom she declared has swindled her out of $56 and a gold watch reported this morning that she had located the accused through a letter which he sent to her following her complaint and the woman declares that everything pertaining to the case has now been satisfactorily adjusted.

Smith, the alleged swindler, sent the woman a letter in which he said he had been sick since leaving Plainfield on December 29 and that was the reason he had not communicated with her regarding her timepiece and the money. The complainant retracted her accusation today and now awaits the arival of her watch and lover with whom she has communicated with.

AUTO ENGINE ON THE WAY.

Fire Chief T. O. Doane has received word that the city's new automobile fire engine has been shipped from Minneapolis, and it should be here within a week's time. An expert from the Nott Fire Engine Company will accompany the machine here and see that everything is put together properly and in first class running order.

LINCOLN THEME OF DISCOURSE

Rev. J. Y. Broek Says Life of President Reads Like a Romance.

WAS A TRUE PATRIOT

Preacher Describes Characteristics Which Made Him a Great and Good Man—His Was a Varied Career.

"Abraham Lincoln," was the subject of an interesting discourse by Rev. J. Y. Broek at Trinity Reformed church, last night, the pastor addressing a large congregation. The sermon was taken from the text John 1:6, "There was a man sent from God." In part Mr. Broek said:

"The life of Lincoln reads like a romance. He was a patriot, a humanitarian, statesman and a devoutly religious man with deep faith in God. His name is great among the nations as the champion of freedom in setting at liberty those that were captive.

"What a varied career he had. First a farmer, then a woodman. A little later he is grinding corn for 31 cents a day. He then abandons the axe and the plow. He becomes a Mississippi boatman, a captain in the Black Hawk war, a surveyor, blacksmith, clerk, postmaster in a country store, where he said he carried the office in his hat.

"God never forgets the vows of true souls. In the spring of 1831, Lincoln navigated a boat to New Orleans. He saw the slaves sold in the open market by a burly, red-faced auctioneer. A beautiful mulatto woman was being sold, trembling upon the block. Lincoln saw the ugly sight and vowed 'Great God, If I ever get a chance to hit that thing, I'll hit it hard.' God never forgot the vow.

"One cannot read the stirring events of the bloody war, without being convinced of the strong religious character of Lincoln. He was a President plus a man of prayer. While the decisive Battle of Gettysburg was being fought, in the White House was the President upon his knees. He said: 'Oppressed by the gravity of our affairs, I went into my room one day, and got down on my knees before Almighty God and prayed to Him mightily for victory at Gettysburg. I told Him this was His war, our cause was His cause, but that we could not stand another Fredericksburg or Chancellorville, and I then and there made a solemn vow to Almighty God that if He would stand by our boys at Gettysburg, I would stand by Him and He did and I will. And after that (I don't know how it was and I can't explain it), but soon a sweet comfort crept into my soul that things would go allright at Gettysburg.' Back of the statesmanship of Lincoln was his deep faith in the Bible, in God, in Christ, in the Providence of God, in prayer and these were the qualities that made him great and good."

CLINTON VAN VLIET, FORMER PLAINFIELDER, BURIED HERE

The remains of Clinton Van Vliet, who until his removal to Douglaston, L. I., fifteen years ago, was a resident of Plainfield, were buried this afternoon in the family plot at Hillside cemetery. Mr. Van Vliet, who was 62 years old, died last Friday in the Flushing Hospital, of shock following an operation for appendicitis and the amputation of one of his legs.

Mr. Van Vliet was a cousin of Mrs. J. K. Arnold, of North Plainfield, and was a man of large affairs, being president of the Goodyear's India Rubber Selling Company. He was also a director of that concern and the treasurer and one of the directors of Goodyear's India Rubber Glove Manufacturing Company. He leaves a widow.

GRASS FIRE.

West End Hose Company, No. 3, was called out on a still alarm at 7:05 last night, for a grass fire at Grant avenue and South Second street. The flames threatened a shed and several fences and people in the vicinity were unable to put them out. The firemen extinguished the blaze before any damage occurred.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.

Anouncement of the engagement of Miss Marjorie Corbett, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Corbett, of West Seventh street, to Roderick Duncan Force, son of Dexter N. Force, of Montclair, was made at a luncheon given by Miss Finlay, of Montclair, on Friday.

WILL NOMINATE OFFICERS.

The monthly meeting of Plainfield Typographical Union, No. 399, will be held tonight in Building Trades Council Hall, when nominations for international officers wil lbe made.

K. OF C. INDOOR CARVINAL OPENS

Novel Affair Arranged by Catholic Club Attracts Many Patrons.

UNIQUE DECORATIONS

Recreation of Every Kind, Including Dancing, Provided by Various Committees—Will Continue During the Week.

An attendance that filled the Columbus Auditorium, on West Front street, to its capacity, Saturday night, greeted those in charge of the indoor carnival which was opened with an unusual display of splendor. The affair promises to surpass anything of its kind ever conducted by the organization. Novel forms of indoor entertainment have been provided for the guests and the amusement devices are arranged for old and young alike.

Every conceivable form of indoor recreation is being conducted under the auspices of the club members and their assistants from the Women's Auxiliary and the carnival will continue for the rest of this week with additional attractions to be added nightly. An army of members and helpers were required to cope with the large gathering Saturday night and all of the booths and game centres were well patronized.

The hall has been appropriately decorated for the occasion and the entire building has been transformed into a bower of gayety. Dancing, with music furnished by a full orchestra supplies entertainment for many while games such as pocket billiards bowling and pool attract both men and women. Prizes have been offered for the best low and high scores made on the alleys during the week of festivities and many are out to win the coveted laurels.

Local motion pictures will be shown for the first time tomorrow night and interesting film productions will be thrown on the screen each of the remaining nights of the carnival.

The committee of men in charge of the carnival comprises: John J. Carty, chairman; Wilbur E. Schaefer, Joseph F. O'Keefe, A. Arthur Cannon, Daniel J. Courain, Andrew E. Kenney, David B. Doyle, Thomas F. Carty, Charles S. Shirley, John J. McCaffrey, Hugh T. Tracy, William V. Sullivan, Frank P. Burke, George J. Tobin, Edward Harding, Jr., John J. Kenney, Robert McCormack, A. R. Martel, M. B. Caffrey.

The committee of women working in conjunction with the men comprise: Mrs. Edward A. Feiring, chairman; Miss Margaret Burke, secretary of the committee; Mrs. Joseph O'Keefe, Mrs. M. T. Treacy, Miss Rose Carty, Miss Anabel McAfee, Miss Abbie Dorgan, Mrs. Edward Harding Sr., Miss Grace Harding, Miss Katherine Harding Miss Anna Daly, Miss Mae Birmingham, Miss Alice McAfee Miss Nora Callahan, Mrs. H. P. Greenwood, Mrs. William Schaeffer, Mrs. Helen Reagan, Miss Mahoney, Miss Marion Blimm, Miss Madeline Blimm, Mrs. Edward Harding, Jr., Miss Mae Burke, Miss A. Doyle, Mrs. A. Martel, Miss Nora Meaney, Miss Helen Meaney, Miss Emma Sullivan, Miss Katherine Flynn, Mrs. A. Kenney, Mrs. J. J. Varley, Miss M. Brady, Miss K. McCauley, Miss Margaret McCarty, Mrs. Bailey, Mrs. Harper, Miss K. Powers, Mrs. J. McCaffrey, Mrs. Francis Cavin, Miss Margaret McDonough, Miss Mary Drake, Miss Nell Meaney, Miss L. Brady, Mrs. F. Hillman, Miss Josephine Murphy, Miss Elizabeth Mara, Mrs. Elizabeth Casey, Miss Nellie Casey Mrs. Peter McDonough, Mrs. Catherine Neylon, Miss M. Dillon, Mrs. M. B. Caffrey, Miss T. Murray and Miss T. McGinley.

E. E. IREMONGER INJURED AS CAR JUMPS THE TRACK

Through the derailment of a Netherwood trolley car, which jumped the track at Woodland avenue at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, E. E. Iremonger, of 657 Belvidere avenue, was painfully injured. Mr. Iremonger was standing on the rear platform of the car when it left the rails. His eye was cut with glass from a shattered window, he was bruised badly and the fingers of his right hand were dislocated.

There were four passengers on the car at the time of the accident. Mr. Iremonger is said to have been the only one hurt. It was said today at his home that he was resting comfortably. An X-ray of his injured hand was taken and his physician is hopeful that his injuries are but slight.

DRAWN FOR JURY DUTY.

Elizabeth, Feb. 9.—Plainfielders drawn today as petit jurors to serve for the next two weeks, are Robert Alpaugh, Arthur E. Crone, Arthur T. Goodenough, Samuel M. Kriney, John F. Zerega and Frank Dunham. Harvey Goodwin, of Fanwood borough, was also drawn on the panel.

WILLIAM LINDSEY RETURNS HOME

Absent for Five Months He Calls on His Parents in This City.

VICTIM OF WANDERLUST

Sixteen-year-old Boy Has Evaded Police of Many Cities During His Prolonged Stay From Home—Is Living in Philadelphia.

Returning as he left, unheralded and unexpected, William R. Lindsey, the sixteen-year-old son of Mrs. Edith M. Lindsey, of 1336 West Front street, appeared at his home yesterday after an absence since October 13, during which a country wide search has been instituted by his mother. Welcomed with outstretched arms by a mother who had practically dispaired of ever seeing him again, young Lindsey immediately set aside all rumors that have been awakened since his disappearance. Companions of the youth in this city had told his mother that he had planned to go to Mexico and others suggested that he had sailed on a cattle boat for Europe.

Telling the story of prolonged absence the youth outlined a period of adventure during which he has evaded the police of every city and a corps of private detectives employed by his parent. The missing boy's picture has been sent broad-cast throughout the country and his mother's appeal for his return has been flashed before his eyes on many occasions.

Determined to "make good" now that he had severed all home ties the youth persevered in Philadelphia against seemingly unsurmountable obstacles and managed to keep body and soul together by selling papers and doing odd jobs until he finally landed a good position in the Quakertown. Lindsey returned yesterday for the purpose of setting the mind of his mother at rest and went back to Philadelphia this morning, where he will continue the work he started. While engaged in business in that town he is attending night school and so satisfactory was the report that he had to offer on his return that his mother forgave him for his rash act and readily consented to his return to the city where he has chosen to live in.

Questioned regarding the cause of his disappearance Lindsey maintained that he wanted to see more of the world and not being able to induce any of his companions to accompany him on his tour set out alone with no definite stopping place in view. He is in the best of health and his long absence has had little or no effect on his personal appearance.

Since he left Plainfield on October 13 the mother of the lad has paid out over $250 in hiring private detectives who searched New York State and Pennsylvania for the youth and he has personally visited the newspaper offices of the Metropolis and Newark.

MRS. E. T. B. LORD PASSES AWAY AFTER LONG ILLNESS

Mrs. Elizabeth Talmage Brokaw Lord, a resident of this city for the greater part of her life, died Saturday night at her home, 409 East Fifth street. She was in her fifty-first year. She is survived by nine children. They are Annette, wife of L. H. Lightner, of Roselle; Edison Lord, of Bayonne; Sadie, wife of Edward Gescheidt, of Plainfield, and Hazel, Laura, Leslie, David, Alfred and Lois, all of whom reside in this city.

Mrs. Lord had been seriously ill since last June. Born in Brooklyn, Mrs. Lord removed with her family to Plainfield many years ago. She was well-known here and had a host of relatives and friends in Plainfield and its vicinity. The departed was a member of the Hanson Place Baptist church, of Brooklyn. Mrs. Lord was a granddaughter of the late Joseph Tingley, a well-known and highly respected citizen of Plainfield. The family has been prominent for years in this locality.

The funeral will be held at the family residence on Wednesday afternoon, at 2 o'clock. Burial will be in the family plot in Hillside cemetery at Samptown.

JOSEPH S. SCHLOSS.

Joseph S. Schloss, aged sixty years, died on Sunday after a brief illness. He had been a resident of Plainfield for several years. The funeral will be held tomorrow morning at the undertaking rooms of J. J. & C. A. Higgins, at 109 West Fourth street. Burial will be in Hillside cemetery.

—Neuman Bros. are offering an exceptionally fine assortment of fresh vegetables, including cauliflower, Boston head lettuce, French endives, celery, new beets, cucumbers, tomatoes, green and wax beans, peas, and in fact everything that the market affords.—Adv. ***

BURGLARS INVADE FANWOOD SECTION

Enter Offices of Lumber Co. and Freight House, Getting Little for Their Trouble.

Burglars invaded Fanwood borough on Saturday night. They entered the home of Councilman Thomas Norton, on Martine avenue by prying open a rear window, but were probably scared after having ransacked the kitchen and pantry for food, by the barking of the dog of the household. The same burglars are believed to have been the ones who broke into the office of the Fanwood Lumber and Supply Company, on South avenue.

The desk drawers were ransacked and the office furniture disarranged. The thieves secured some postage stamps and the sum of $1.68 which they found in the cash drawer. The freight house of the New Jersey Central was also entered by the burglars. They are believed to have made off with some boxes of canned goods and macaroni. They left no clues by which they could be traced, it is said. Chief of Police William J. Logan is busy today conducting an investigation of the three burglaries.

ASTOR THEATRE ON "FAIR LIST"

Owners of Property Finally Make a Settlement With the Building Trades Council.

The Astor Theatre building has been placed on the "fair list" by the Building Trades Council of Plainfield, it was learned today, upon the payment of $300 by the owners.

Out of town people, it is said, are negotiating for the lease of the theatre. It is believed that final arrangements will be concluded sometime this week. It is the intention of those who are said to be interested to open the play house within a short time. Certain repairs and alterations are to be made in the building, it was said today. The expenditure will be in the neighborhood of $5,000.

Owners of the theatre, Morris Abrams and Harry Dreier, of this city, experienced considerable trouble with the Building Trades Council. Officers of the local organization and also of the Master Builders' Association claimed that non-union workmen had been employed in the building of the theatre. Efforts made to remove the stigma of unfairness as regards the construction of the building have been made from time to time by the owners and satisfactory arrangements have been made with the local labor unions, which bodies, it was learned today, have finally decided to sanction the project.

President C. W. Krausse, of the Master Builders' Association of Plainfield, is said to have been largely instrumental in bringing about a satisfactory settlement of the disputes which arose over the building of the Astor Theatre between its owners and the local labor unions.

MRS. SARAH E. ROLSTON DEAD IN HER 77TH YEAR

Mrs. Sarah Elizabeth Rolston, widow of Rosewell Graves Rolston, who was president of the Farmers Loan and Trust Company, of New York for forty-five years, and grandmother of Brown Rolston and Rosewell Rolston, of North Plainfield, died Saturday in her apartment at the Albermarle Hotel, New York. She was actively interested in the Little Missionary Day Nursey, an allied interest of the Netherwood Fresh Air Home, and the Gallaudet Home for the Blind, New York. Beside her two grandchildren, she is survived by two sons, W. H. Rolston and L. B. Rolston, of New York and one daughter, Mrs. J. B. Marston, of Cranford.

JONAS LIE'S SUCCESS.

Jonas Lie, the artist well known here, has been achieving great success in New York this winter, were some of his pictures have attracted widespread attention from lovers of art. He has also been engaged in some special art work.

WILL GIVE A COSTUME DANCE.

Under the auspices of the entertainment committee of the Park Club a costume dance will be given at the club on Wednesday night. It is expected that the costume idea will be carried out in elaborate fashion.

CENT-A-WORD PAGE.

The cent-a-word page of The Daily Press will be found today and hereafter on page nine of the paper.

BOY ROBBERS ARE LODGED IN CELLS

Youthful Thieves Apprehended in Jersey City Enroute to the Bowery.

THRILLING EXPERIENCE

Prisoners Planned Dime Novel Exploit—Robbed Three Places and Were on Their Way to Dispose of Loot—Take Arrest Indifferently.

Three local youths, all in their early 'teens, are seated behind cold steel bars in the local police headquarters calmly and indifferently awaiting the fate that will inevitably come to them as convicted burglars. Two of the trio were apprehended for burglarizing a local stationery store two weeks ago and when arraigned in the Juvenile Court they were accorded another chance to "make good" but returned to Plainfield and immediately proceeded to finish up the job they had started when arrested.

Francis McCarthy, Joseph Miscal and Stephen Alston were arraigned in the City Court this morning before Judge W. G. DeMeza and were remanded to appear before the Juvenile Court in Elizabeth, when they will probably be placed in some institution until they are twenty-one years of age. The story told the police by the juvenile desperadoes is one filled with thrills and savors strongly of the dime novel material. The plot for their daring deeds was carefully laid and they carried their plans out to the limit.

Gathering at the home of McCarthy, on East Sixth street, Saturday noon, the three youngsters drew up a set of plans for their adventure and agreed to meet at McCarthy's house the same night at 7 o'clock. All three were on hand promptly at the appointed hour and proceeded immediately to the office of L. C. Whitall, on Park avenue, the first stop on their list, and entering a window gathered together twelve cents in change and two checks, one for $87.65, and the other for $6. Arranging everything as they had found it and carefully locking the door behind them the trio then proceeded to the store of Peter Zimmerman on Watchung avenue.

Zimmerman had a "Dutchman" against his back door and this the youngsters evidently knew for they poked a lathe underneath the door and knocked over the "Dutchman." Entrance was then easily gained and the trio divided up in squads to prepare a meal. Zimmerman conducts a delicatessen store and the youthful thieves found plenty of good things to cook and eat.

The fire was started and the boys cooked twenty eggs (two of which they declare were rotten), bolonga, sausage and all the fixin's. When they had eaten their fill they banked the fire and took whatever they could find lying around and then went to the Y. M. C. A. to witness a motion picture show. The trio remained until the last film was thrown on the sheet and then returned to Zimmerman's store and entered the place through the door which they had purposely left open. The fire had been carefully banked and the thieves cooked a second meal and enjoyed it as they did the first.

After finishing their banquet and not waiting to wash the dishes and fix the fire a second time the trio left the Zimmerman store and departed for a new field of adventure. They went to the stationery store of W. H. Olmstead on Watchung avenue, which McCarthy and Miscal had entered two weeks ago, and prying open the iron bars on the window smashed the pain of glass and entered the store.

The youths found plenty of loot and loaded up on tobacco, candy, cigar holders and money, taking goods and change valued at $40. While leaving the store they were seen by a passerby who yelled at the top of his voice at them and they jumped the back fence leading to the railroad. A freight train happened along at that time and the boys boarded a flat car.

The riding was extremely cold on the unprotective flat car and the boys were well night numbed when they reached Fanwood. The car came to a halt at that place and they got off and changed to a "side door" Pullman and found this much more comfortable. The boys occupied their time while en route to Jersey City in telling tales of famous robberies and smoking the stolen tobacco.

In the meantime the police of this city had communicated with other stations along the Central Railroad and three men riding on a flat car through Elizabeth were discovered by a pair of "Betsytown" coppers who gave chase. The policemen thought they had the Plainfield desperadoes and called to the suspicious characters to "get off," and upon the latter's refusal the bluecoats opened fire. Bullets whizzing about their heads made the train riders think

(Continued on page 4.)

Our ANNUAL SALE of GRANITE WARE

Begins tomorrow, Tuesday morning. A solid car load, bought direct from the factory (saving you the jobbers profit) as well as sharing our profits brings you Granite-Ware at One-third Below Regular Prices. Those who shared in former sales know the big savings afforded. Comparative prices clearly point to the wonderful economies. Plenty of salespeople to serve you promptly. See Window Display—Come.

DEMONSTRATION of SAMOLINE

COME AND SEE WHAT IT DOES. SAMOLINE WASHES, CLEANS, POLISHES EVERYTHING.

It pleases housewives while cleaning the knives and forks, dishes and cans, the stains and scrawls on flat painted walls, the table and shelf, the glassware, mirror, window and screen, the tile floor, the woodwork and door, and everything else it will clean.

COME AND GET ACQUAINTED.

Thursday, Feb. 12, Lincoln's Birthday

STORE CLOSES AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON

GALVANIZED GARBAGE AND ASH CANS.

55c—4 gallon size 38c
65c—5 gallon size 49c
75c—6 gallon size 59c
98c—9 galon size 69c
$1.25—11 gallon size 79c

ASH CANS.

$1.50—21 gallon size 98c
$2.50—22 gallon size $1.98

TIN WASH KETTLES.

39c—24 quart size 27c
50c—36 quart size 38c
60c—46 quart size 45c

TIN PAILS.

25c—12 quart size 15c
35c—Blocked Tin 22c

GALVANIZED TUBS.

50c—8 gallon size 38c
65c—10 gallon size 49c
75c—12 gallon size 58c
85c—15 gallon size 69c

DOUBLE BOILERS.

40c—2 quart size 27c

RICE BOILERS.

55c—2 quart size 30c
65c—2½ quart size 43c
75c—3 quart size 49c
85c—3½ quart size 58c

BERLIN KETTLES With Covesr.

22c—2-quart size 16c
25c—3-quart size 18c
30c—4-quart size 22c
35c—5-qurat size 25c
45c—6-quart size 33c
55c—8-quart size 38c
60c—10-quart size 43c
75c—12-quart size 55c

LIPPED SAUCE PANS.

10c—1½ quart size 7c
12½c—2 quart size 8c
20c—4 quart size 15c
25c—5 quart size 17c
35c—6 quart size 22c
40c—8 quart size 25c

GRANITE WATER PAILS.

39c—10 quart size 25c
59c—12 quart size 38c

COFFEE POTS.

35c—1½ quart size 22c
40c—2 quart size 25c
45c—3 quart size 27c
55c—4 quart size 33c

LIPPED PRESERVING KETTLES.

10c—1½ quart size 7c
12½c—2 quart size 8c
20c—4 quart size 15c
25c—5 quart size 17c
35c—6 quart size 22c
40c—8 quart size 25c
50c—10 quart size 33c
60c—12 quart size 38c
65c—16 quart size 45c

BERLIN SAUCE POTS. With Covers.

45c—6 quart size 33c
55c—8 quart size 38c
60c—10 quart size 43c

TEA KETTLES.

55c—4 quart size 33c
60c—5 quart size 43c
75c—7 quart size 49c
85c—8 quart size 55c

TEA POTS.

25c—1 quart size 18c
35c—1½ quart size 22c
39c—2 quart size 27c

BERLIN SAUCE PANS.

25c—2 quart size 16c
30c—3 quart size 18c
35c—4 quart size 22c
40c—5 quart size 25c
50c—6 quart size 33c
60c—8 quart size 38c
65c—10 quart size 43c

Brooms 25c

Would be a cracker-jack value at 39c; for this sale as long as the lot lasts only ..... 25c each

Clothes Baskets 59c

Were made to sell at 98c; good size No. 2 split willow baskets, as long as the lot lasts only 59c

GALVANIZED CHAMBER PAILS.

49c—12 quart size 35c

GALVANIZED WATER PAILS.

25c—10 quart size 17c
29c—12 quart size 19c
35c—14 quart size 22c
85c Granite Chamber Pails 85c

DISH PANS.

39c—14 quart size 25c
50c—17 quart size 33c
39c Rinsing Pans, each 18c

COLLANDERS.

30c—11-inch size 20c
40c—12-inch size 25c

GRANITE CHAMBERS.

25c—medium size 18c
35c—large size 25c

59c Granite Foot Baths 33c
85c 14 quart Convex Pots 58c
$1.00 16 quart Convex Pots 72c
19c Granite 12-inch Wash Basins 10c

GRANITE ROASTING PANS.

29c—8½x12 inch size 19c
35c—9½x14 inch size 27c
50c—10½x15 inch size 33c
10c—9 inch Pie Plates 5c
12c—10 inch Pie Plates 7c

JAPPANED TIN WARE.

15c Flour, Sugar, Tea and Coffee Boxes 10c
50c 20-lb Flour Cans 35c
65c Bread Boxes 45c
75c Bread Boxes 55c
85c Bread Boxes 65c

WASH BOILERS.

$1.98, No. 8 Wash Boilers, copper bottom, at only $1.39

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"The White Store"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

Store Opens at 8:30; Closes Saturdays at 10 p. m. Others days at 5:30.

Westfield.

This year the stores of all of the members of the Retail Merchants' Association will be closed on all holidays except Washington's Birthday. As this is celebrated on Monday the storekeepers decided not to close.

The local Board of Health has organized by electing Dr. J. B. Harrison president, C. W. Harden secretary, and Andrew Carney inspector. The milk report posted by the Board showed the best milk supply in nearly a year.

Owing to the absence of Mayor Baechtold, there was no meeting of Mountainside Council, Friday night. The meeting will be held Friday night.

'Plains & Fanwood.

One indication of the growth of this place is the fact that there are now issued 125 commutation tickets to New York, an increase of 50 per cent. in the last three years. During this time there has been about five new trains put on the local schedule.

A meeting of the men of this place has been called for Wednesday evening in the Fanwood fire house at 8 o'clock when plans will me made for a social organization.

Lincoln's Birthday will be observed in School No. 1 on Wednesday afternoon. A program appropriate to the occasion will be rendered by the pupils and as is the annual custom Lincoln's Gettysburg speech will be recited. There will be no school on Thursday.

The members of the Saturday Night Club met for an enjoyable evening in the Fanwood fire house on Saturday evening. Cards were enjoyed the fore part of the evening, after which dancing was indulged in.

The Rev. W. I. Stearns, pastor of the Westfield Presbyterian church, conducted the services at Willow Grove chapel yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. James Hastings have returned to their home in the borough, after visiting the former's brother, William Hastings, of Baltimore.

Thomas Raridan, who left town last fall for Connecticut, returned to the borough Saturday and is now staying with his nephew, Charles Walpole, of Park avenue.

A party of young folks will go from here to Sterling Friday night to attend the fireman's ball at that place. Those that are going will meet at Joseph Albert's store on Park avenue, and proceed by automobile to the destination of the ball.

Carl Von Bigelio, of Valley road, is acquainting himself with the work at Bonnie Burn Sanitarium with the idea in view of devoting his time to the work being done by that institution.

Friends of James Grolletto, formerly of this town, but now of Great Falls, Montana, have received letters from their acquaintance which state that he has entered into the sign-writing and display card writing with a large retail establishment in that town.

John Carrano, of Stanley avenue, has resigned his position with Samuel Macauley, the local plumber, so as to take up a new position with an out-of-town concern.

The first game in the bowling tournament to be held at the Parish House during the coming weeks will be held tonight. There are ten entrants. The prizes which will be awarded are about the same as last year.

Miss Marguerite Jahn, of Park avenue, spent the week-end with relatives in New York.

Edward Hatfield, of Stout avenue, returned to his studies at Stevens Institute this morning, after enjoying a week's vacation between the winter and spring terms.

Chris Keene expects to leave for Montana within a short time.

Bound Brook.

Edward S. Fisher has removed his office from Reed & Suydam's real estate office to room No. 5 in the Voorhess building.

The official board of the Methodist church will meet in the assembly room this evening at 8 o'clock.

Miss Sadie Mundy, of Bonhamtown, was a recent visitor with Mrs. Ella Brower, of West Second street.

St. Paul's Guild will meet in the Parish House tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Catherine Vanderveer has returned to her home in Prospect place, after spending several weeks with relatives at Millington.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Congregational church will meet in the chapel tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Miss Helen Duryee, of Somerville, was a week-end visitor with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Duryee, of Cedar street, South Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Andretta, of East Bound Brook, have been to Keyport for a few days, where they attended the funeral of Mrs. Andretta's uncle, W. Howard Lake, of that place.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

Whitehouse.

Walter Murphy, of Morristiwn, is ill at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas B. Murphy, of New Germantown.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alpaugh, of New Germantown, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elsie Alpaugh, to Daniel Coughlan, of Somerville.

Rev. Sylvanus D. Decker, pastor of the Methodist church at Lebanon, preached yesterday morning on "Sons of God and Their Destiny."

Mrs. Annie Pickel and son, Willard Pickel, and Miss Ida Miller, of New Germantown, returned home Friday from a visit of a month at Columbus Junction, Ia.

A valentine party will be held in St. Luke's Hall at Peapack, Thursday night.

Miss Irene Cordes, a trained nurse of New York, is spending a vacation of two months with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Cordes, of Peapack.

Mrs. Anna Alpaugh and daughter, of Morristown, are visiting Mrs. Ellis Tiger, at Gladstone.

Misses Bertha and Hazel Thaw returned to New Germantown, Friday, after a visit to relatives in Mt. Bethel and Plainfield.

Mrs. Andrew Alpaugh is ill at her home in New Germantown.

Mr. and Mrs. John G. Sanderson and daughter, Miss Elizabeth Sanderson, of Greenville, S. C., are visiting Mrs. Sanderson's sister, Mrs. William Alpaugh, of New Germantown.

The Peapack Valley Fire Company will hold its annual ball February 20.

Miss Eva Wortman, of Pottersville, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Pickell, at Peapack.

Miss Mary Flomerfelt, of Far Hills, is a guest of Miss Hazel Lunger, at Peapack.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Elliott, of Blairden, near Peapack, are on an outing to the Bermudas.

Miss Edith Wilson, of Gladstone, has returned home from Overlook Hospital in Summit, where she underwent an operation.

Rev. and Mrs. Thomas M. Simanton returned to the parsonage of the Peapack Reformed church, Friday, after a visit at Lower Valley.

Hunterdon County.

Mrs. Calvin Slater, of Anthony, is with her mother, Mrs. J. W. Bannister, who is ill at her home in Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Rush, of New York, are in Anthony.

Miss Emma Ley, of Changewater, is a guest of Miss Ruby Adams, at Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse L. Lake and two children, of Plainfield, are visiting Mrs. Lake's mother, Mrs. Jacob Sharp, in Annandale.

Mrs. Anna Lance, of Hampton, is on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. William Kuhns, at Anthony.

Miss Lillian DeCator, of New York, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas DeCator, in Hampton.

Miss Deborah Hill, of Frenchtown, is a guest of her sister, Mrs. D. M. Apgar, in Bloomsburg.

Rev. F. P. Bemesderfer, pastor of the Baptist church in Hampton, took for his theme yesterday, "Love That Impels Surrender."

Leo Dineen, of Seton Hall College, is on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Dineen, in Hampton.

Mrs. Jennie Brown, of Glen Gardner, is spending the week-end with Mrs. Anna Wallander, in Hampton.

Mrs. Joseph H. Williams is ill at her home in Clinton.

Miss Bessie Hougland and Miss Flora MacCormack, of West Chester, Pa., are visiting in Clinton.

After managing a grocery store in Clinton for some time, William Bird has resigned and left Saturday night for Bangor, Pa.

Mrs. Emma Budd, of Asbury, is spending a week with relatives in Chester.

Mr. and Mrs. George B. Dalrymple, of Asbury, are visiting their daughter in Phillipsburg.

Mrs. George Kisnline and children, of Phillipsburg, are visiting in Asbury.

William Bowlby, of Pattenburg, has purchased the George Osmun property in Clinton and will move there.

The Annandale Fruit Exchange has elected these officers: President, John C. Haynes; vice-presidnt, Frank G. Sharp; secretary, Charles Arkell; treasurer, John W. Sharp.

Amos B. Coleman, of Clinton, is kept to his home by injuries received when he was thrown from a wagon.

Mrs. Ella Hoffman, of Clinton, is suffering from injuries received by a fall a few days ago.

Dunellen & Vicinity

Miss Eliza Taylor, of Lincoln avenue, has been entertaining out of town friends.

A class of initiation will be held by Washington Camp, Patriotic Order Sons of America, in the Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall, Thursday night, February 26. It is expected that several of the State officers will attend this class.

The Crescent Tennis Club will hold another dance in the Jr. O. U. A. M. Hall next Friday evening. As these dances usually draw a large number of young folks a good time is anticipated

The heavy wind that struck town Saturday afternoon did considerable damage to a number of the shade trees around the borough. In several cases large limbs were blown down and many an accident was just avoided by the quick action of the pedestrians who happened to be passing under the trees that were damaged.

Harry Cooke, superintendent of the Watchung Water Company, received his new 1914 model Ford runabout from the Stryker Motor Company, Saturday afternoon.

The local troop of Boy Scouts went out Saturday afternoon for a hike through the New Market sections. On the return they stopped at the Whittier School and used the playgrounds of that institution as a baseball field and spent a couple of hours at the national game.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Sheppard, of Freneau, N. J., spent the week-end with friends in town.

Mrs. Firman H. Gise, of Front street, who has been on the sick list for the past few weeks, is reported as improving.

Another robbery similar to the one at the home of C. T. Voorhees la Friday morning, when nothing but a dress overcoat was taken, occurred at the home of C. E. Kelley, on Prospect avenue, New Market. Here the robbers made their getaway with an overcoat and a gold-handled umbrella. The New Market as well as the Dunellen police authorities are now on the job and are hoping that the thieves will make another attempt so that they may have the opportunity of capturing them.

Somerville

Mrs. Amos Field, wife of the janitor of the public school, died at her home on Hamilton street on Thursday, after a short illness from pneumonia. Besides her husband she is survived by several children. The funeral services were held from St. Thomas' A. M. E. Zion church yesterday afternoon, the Rev. W. D. Robeson officiating. Interment was in the new cemetery.

The Somerset County Board of Freeholders will meet at the court house tomorrow for the regular monthly session.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will hold a supper in the chapel on Thursday evening, February 26, from 5 to 8 o'clock.

The Rev. Dr. Frederick J. Soule will preach his farewell sermon as pastor of the Baptist church here Sunday morning. There will be no evening service.

The February meting of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Baptist church will be held tomorrow evening. The regular church prayer service on Wednesday evening will be omitted this wek to unite in the special observancs on Friday, when the Home and Foreign Mission Societies will have interesting meetings throughout the day, at 10 a. m., 2 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. In the evening there will be a special program of value and interest under the direction of the Missionary Committee. It is hoped to secure an instructive stereopticon lecturer for this occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Gaston, of New York city, were guests yesterday of the former's brother, Postmaster Gaston, and wife.

William Waldron, who has conducted a livery in this place for several years, will dispose of his business here in a few weeks and move his family to Whitehouse Station, where he has purchased a hotel property.

The name of William E. Maxwell has been sent by President Wilson for confirmation as postmaster of Somerville.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Alpaugh, of New Germantown, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elsie A. Alpaugh, to Daniel J. Coughlin, of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cawley, of High Bridge, were guests of relatives in town on Saturday.

Raritan

The name of William Slattery has been sent to the Senate by President Wilson for postmaster of this place, and it is thought that he will be confirmed at once, as Postmaster Hope's term expired some time ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Speer, of Hastings, N. Y., have been visiting at the home of the parents of the latter, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cain.

The Bridgewater Township Committee met here today and transacted considerable routine business.

YESTERDAY'S LOCAL WEATHER.

8 a. m. temperature 25
8 p. m. temperature 24
Maximum temperature 32
Minimum temperature 24
Mean temperature 28
Normal temperature 27

—It is wiser to know what a thing OUGHT TO COST before buying it; and ad-readers usually do know this

STYLISH RELIABLE

ROTHBERG'S

Stein-Bloch Smart Clothes

"Most Things Men Wear."

214 W. FRONT ST.

Right Next to Proctor's

R. & G. CORSETS AT $1 TO $3.

Made in the new boneless style in low and medium bust and long hip models. They are trimmed with pretty lace or embroidery and have strong hose supporters attached. All corsets will be fitted free of charge. Prices, $1, $1.50, $2 and $3.

HAHNE & CO.
Newark, New Jersey's Greatest Store

Annual Distribution of the Famous Valentine Silks
Every Design Exclusive With Hahne & Co.

Few silks are known so well and are in such high favor as Valentine Silks—one of the best features about them being their ability to shed water and remain spot-proof. Few silks, indeed, have attained this distinction. Each year's output seems more and more varied, but this year we have even better assortments than in the past—prettier and better patterns and thousands of more yards of these splendid silken fabrics.

Women know Valentine Silks for their wonderful patterns, their remarkable "shedwater" capacity and for their economy. The prices that we offer this week will enable hundreds of women to buy Valentine Silks at lower than usual prices, and we venture to remark that many thousands of yards will be sold early Tuesday morning. Hahne's is famous for its annual distribution of Valentine Silks, and bear in mind that every designs is exclusive with us and to be found only at the Hahne store. A few of the many fine offerings for tomorrow include:

40-INCH SHEDWATER FOULARDS $2.

This double width silk is printed with all of the new Oriental colorings in small, neat designs; a silk that will prove especially popular with women who want real exclusiveness. The price is $2.00

40-INCH PRINTED CREPE DE CHINE $2.85

A much desired silk, this 40-inch printed crepe de chine, in the famous and very popular Poiret and Martine effects. Hard to describe their beauty in type; come, inspect them, for only then can you realizte their real beauty. By the yard.....$2.85

EXTRA!

$1.75 31-INCH SILK AND WOOL MATELASSE, $1.25.

A superior quality of this desirable silk, in black and navy only; two designs; for suits or coats. Regularly sold at $1.75 a yard; special at $1.25

$1.50 40-INCH CREPE ORIENTAL $1.00.

An all silk crepe of great lustre, possessing exceptional wearing qualities, in Copenhagen, wistaria, sage, old rose, reseda, cadet, copper brown, navy and black. Regularly sold at $1.50 a yard; special at.....$1.00

40-INCH CREPE DE CHINE $2.00.

New Bulgarian and Martine designs; small and medium effects; one of fashion's most wanted silks for Spring wear. By the yard, at $2.00

40-INCH CREPE DE CHINE AT $1.50 A YARD.

For evening or street dresses; a firm, even silk, in every wanted new and staple shade; a crepe with a high lustre; at.....$1.50

23-INCH SHEDWATER FOULARDS 79c.

This season's new and exclusive designs in two and three color printings; most serviceable for Spring and Summer wear ..79c

Hahne & Co. Newark

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Rev. Frederic J. Hubach, of the Monroe Avenue M. E. church, will preach at the First M. E. church, Sunday morning, in exchange with Rev. Dr. C. M. Anderson.

The Women's Home Missionary Society of the First M. E. church will meet in Vincent chapel, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when the mite boxes will be opened. Miss Corbin, general field secretary and organizer, will be present and tell of her work.

The Junior Epworth League meeting of the First M. E. church will be omitted this week.

The Young Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist church will hold an all-day sewing meeting on Wednesday at the home of Mrs. George Headley, 529 East Second street.

There will be a union foreign mission prayer meeting by the women's societies of the First, Temple and Park Avenue Baptist churches at the First Baptist church, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the First Baptist church held a religious service at the Industrial Home, yesterday afternoon.

The scaffolding which has been in position at the First Baptist church for several months past while the tower was being repaired will be removed this week.

"Race Problems and the Church," will be the subject of the mid-week prayer meeting at the Congregational church, Wednesday night.

The Ladies' Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed church will hold a sewing meeting this afternoon.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of Trinity Reformed church will hold a consecration service Wednesday afternoon. Helen Clarkson will be the leader.

Under the auspices of Mrs. F. E. Woodruff's Sunday-school class of Trinity Reformed church, a valentine sale and tea will be held in the Sunday-school room Thursday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock.

The monthly meeting of the Consistory of Trinity Reformed church will be held Thursday night.

The intermediate department of Trinity Reformed church Bible school will hold a social in the church Friday night.

Rev. J. Y. Broek, of Trinity Reformed church, will speak at the shop meeting to be held at the Saurer plant on Thursday noon, under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A.

The fifth annual banquet of the Dutch Arms, men's association of Trinity Reformed church, will be held Thursday evening, February 19.

The board of trustees of the First M. E. church held a routine business meeting at the close of the morning service yesterday.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First M. E. church will serve a dinner in the dining hall of the church tomorrow evening from 6 to 7:30 o'clock, to be followed by a social and entertainment in Vincent chapel. This will be preceded by a business meeting at 5 o'clock.

Rev. George S. McCune, of St. Louis, will speak at the Crescent Avenue church, Friday afternoon, on "Korea."

Under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society a mission study class is to be formed from among the members.

The Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church will hold a social and entertainment this week.

The Sunday-school of the Congregational church will hold a sociable on Friday night, February 27. Mrs. D. Foster Updike's class is to provide the entertainment.

The Junior Christian Endeavor Society of the Congregational church will meet at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon and enjoy a special program.

Several new members will be received at the March communion service at the Congregational church.

PERSONAL.

George A. Chapman, of this city, is spending some time at Mt. Carmel, Conn., recuperating his health.

Alexander Gilbert, of West Eighth street, who has been very ill with the grip, continues to improve slowly.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Love, who were recently married, have returned from their honeymoon, and are residing in the borough.

Mrs. Robert W. Barnes, whose husband died recently in the South, is temporarily making her home with Mr. and Mrs. John Butler, of West Sixth street.

Mrs. Charles Conover, of Elmwood place, has been detained at home with an attack of acute indigestion.

Miss Carrie Drake, of Compton avenue, who has been visiting in Brooklyn, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Sandford Ramsey, formerly of Dunellen, have taken an apartment in the Manning building on Park avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Harris, of Central avenue, have been sojourning at Atlantic City.

David E. Titsworth, of Madison avenue, who has been quite ill for some time, is improving slowly.

Mrs. William Gilbert, of the West End, has returned to her place as a member of the chorus choir of the First Baptist church.

Rev. Dr. Charles A. Eaton returned on Saturday from a short visit in Cleveland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hedden, of Union street, are parents of a girl, born to them on Friday night.

Paul Moyer, of Philadelphia, who has been visiting friends in this city, has returned home.

Dr. and Mrs. Norman H. Probasco, who have been stopping in New York for a short time, have returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Drake, of Trenton, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned home.

Wallace Zimmerman, of this city, has returned from a visit with friends in Newark

Miss Edith Pearson, of East Front street, is detained at home with a severe attack of grip.

L. V. F. Randolph, of East Front street, who is enjoying a pleasure trip through the South, is expected home about March 1.

Miss Jennie Brown, of Jersey City, who has been spending several days with friends in this city, has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Staats, of Brooklyn, have returned home after a visit with relatives in this city.

Dr. T. S. Davis, of Sixth street, is confined to his home by a slight illness.

Miss Cora Reynolds and brother, James Reynolds, of Red Bank, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Elston Johnston, of this city.

Miss Marian Irving, of Westfield, who has been visiting Miss Jennie Sears, of the borough, has returned to her home.

Mrs. Lewis Smith, of Somerset street, has been entertaining Miss Edith Cooper, of Warrenville.

Miss Cora Harsell, of Three Bridges, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Hopewell, of 438 Watchung avenue.

The Misses Mabel and Lillian Conover, of 74 Jackson avenue, the borough, spent the week-end with relatives at Whitestone, Long Island.

Miss Frances Newmann, of Duer street, who has been visiting relatives in Brooklyn, has returned home.

Alson M. Abbot, of Myrtle avenue, will leave on Saturday for a five weeks' trip to the Mediterranean, and Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cole, of Somerset street, have purchased a house on Fairview avenue, and they will take possession on the first of April.

Oscar Huff, of Centreville, has returned after spending a few days with his sister, Mrs. Arthur Mosher, of Watchung avenue.

Andrew Billings, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Billings, of Codington avenue, is detained at his home with chicken-pox.

Mrs. Henry Seader, of Manning avenue, is convalescing from an attack of grip and tonsilitis.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

—Daily Press want ads. bring results.

ASSISTANCE WANTED FOR CARE OF THREE CHILDREN

The Charity Organization Society asks for $5.00 a month to help take care of three children whose mother is at Bonnie Burn. The amount is small, but the good to be accomplished is keeping a family together for a period of several months while the mother regains her health.

The secretary is also trying to find a job for a man who is strong and trustworthy but handicapped by the loss of his right arm. If anyone needs a watchman or can give any work to such a man who has a family to support please telephone 103.

RELIGION AN OBLIGATION, RATHER THAN OPPORTUNITY

The sermon by Rev. Frederic L. Greene, at Hope Chapel, last night, was appropriate to the closing of the anniversary week of the Christian Endeavor Society, and was heard by a large congregation of worshippers. The preacher took for his text, "Whatsoever a man soweth so shall he also reap." He declared that anniversaries were no occasions for statistics nor a time for dwelling too much on the accomplishments of the past, but rather a time for looking into the future.

Mr. Greene called attention to the fact that the young people of the church are engaged in character building through their own efforts and hands. "We cannot reach the higher thing of life," said the pastor, "unless we realize our obligations towards our fellowmen as well as towards God. Our growth and usefulness and power, depend upon our use of our opportunities. The great question with Christian Endeavorers should be not so much what we get out of life but what we put into it. Religion, being an opportunity rather than an obligation, is something to be used in our development and support rather than our developing and supporting religion."

CANDIDATES FOR PASTORATE.

Rev. Stanley Tyndal, of Yonkers, N. Y., will preach at the Netherwood Reformed church, next Sunday, as a candidate for the pastorate. He is now pastor of a Reformed church at Yonkers. Rev. E. S. Rolston, of Piermont, N. Y., who has preached at the church, is also being considered for the place.

RASORES CLUB.

The Rasores Club will meet tomorrow morning at the home of Mrs. Samuel Milliken, on Central avenue.

MANNING FACES MURDER CHARGE

Formally Held as Accessory to Killing.

DENIES PART IN THE CRIME

Two Mysterious Women Confer With Authorities, Who Refuse to Talk. Funerals of Both Women Were Held Today—Motive Not Explained.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 9.—According to F. W. Tuite, captain of detectives, Charles I. Manning, husband of Mrs. Harriet Manning, who was killed by Hazel Herdman, who then committed suicide, will be charged with murder.

"Manning will be charged with murder. We are satisfied that he is an accessory both before and after the fact. He is a liar, for we are convinced he knew who killed his wife at the time we first questioned him, though he denied it."

That was all the police had to say on the subject of the charge against Manning. They would not tell what basis there was for the accusation. Manning is now a prisoner, and Captain Tuite said he would be booked for murder very soon.

Detective Meyers of the prosecutor's staff and Conlon of the police brought two well dressed middle aged women to headquarters. What their connection with the case is no one would say.

The detectives have had a theory all along that Manning met Miss Herdman after the shooting and assisted her to Bloomfield.

Manning denies that he met Miss Herdman. Doctors of the staff of the Mountainside hospital in Montclair, where Miss Herdman died, say that there was nothing in her farewell letter which connected Manning with the murder.

Though there is no doubt expressed that Miss Herdman killed Mrs. Manning through jealousy and took her own life in a sudden moment of realization of the enormity of her crime, the police can hardly believe that the dual tragedy has been entirely explained in such a brief and startling manner. For this reason they are going carefully over the case in an effort to assure themselves that the tragedy of life and love and jealousy and death has no more mystery concealed.

Blames No One.

The funerals of both Mrs. Manning and the young girl who calmly murdered her, only to take her own life, were held today.

Inculpating no one, Miss Herdman confessed she had committed the murder because of her love for Mrs. Manning's husband and because Mrs. Manning was the only one that stood between them. Repeatedly she declared that Mrs. Manning had refused to obtain a divorce from her husband, and, realizing that she and her year and a half old baby never could have their proper home without the father, she had determined to slay her rival.

In her dress was found her farewell message, the last line of a note written to Manning. It read:

"Take good care of baby."

"We had suspected this woman from the first," said Chief Long, "because of what we had found concerning her relations with Manning. At our investigation last night we had Mrs. Manning's mother and her sister present, but they couldn't identify her. They couldn't say positively that she was the woman who had done the shooting. We felt certain that Mrs. Riley, Mrs. Manning's sister, would know, because Mrs. Riley had admitted the murderer to the house and was most likely of all to be able to make an identification."

MRS. CAHILL KICKS LAST.

Wire Performer Says Husband Kicked Her Off Wire.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Mrs. Vivian Cahill of New York has a kick coming, though her husband Michael has been doing most of the kicking. They are slack wire performers. In a divorce hearing Mrs. Cahill testified that her husband had frequently kicked her off a wire stretched ten feet above the stage.

"On Jan. 12, 1912, while we were rehearsing in Kansas City, he threw me from the wire," she testified.

"The next time was at Athens, Ga. We had a trick in which I went between his feet on the wire, and again he deliberately kicked me. I was hurt and fell to the stage, but did my best to prevent the audience from seeing that there was trouble between us."

She was kicked from the wire on Oct. 29, 1912, at Piedmont, Ala., and again on Nov. 28 of the same year, she said.

BANK FIGHTS RACE SUICIDE.

Chicago Institution to Give Dollar For Each New Baby.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Announcement is made by the State bank of Evanston that $1 will be placed to the credit of every baby born within the limits of the city. Parents are advised to deposit sums corresponding to the age of the child on each birthday, making a total of $250 by the time the child is twenty-one. The bank hopes to combat any tendency toward race suicide.

Weather Forecast.

Fair and continued cold today; tomorrow, fair, with moderate west winds.

—You can make it PAY you to read the store ads in today's paper—make it pay you in actual savings on purchases you need to make. Try the experiment.

DR. JAMES M. TAYLOR.

Resigned Recently as President of Vassar College.

Photo by American Press Association.

After twenty-seven years as head of Vassar college Dr. James M. Taylor resigned. It is rumored that he may enter the diplomatic service.

TWO CITIES OBSERVE TILDEN CENTENARY

Many Prominent Men Honor His Memory.

Albany, N. Y., Feb. 9.—Celebration of the Tilden centenary continues here. A joint session of the state legislature was addressed by Lieutenant Governor Wagner, Speaker of the Assembly Thaddeus C. Sweet and Dr. Talbot Williams, director of the Columbia School of Journalism.

The climax of the centenary comes tomorrow evening at Carnegie hall, New York. President Wilson in Washington will press a button, and the throng in the hall here will see unveiled a tablet in memory of the dead statesman. The tablet bears a full length portrait, heroic size, painted by Franklin Barber, an American pupil of Bougereaux.

Mayor Mitchel, Herman Ridder, Governor Baldwin of Connecticut, Francis Lynde Stetson and Charles S. Fairchild will speak. Miss Anna Case of the Metropolitan opera will sing.

The program will be in souvenir form. The upper gallery is to be open to the public.

The New York Public library, to which Tilden gave most of his fortune, has opened an exhibition of books, manuscripts, portraits and views relating to his career. The exhibit will be open all through February.

There are textbooks that Tilden used at school and at Yale, an engrossed copy of his will, many prints and photographs showing him, his home and the proposed Tilden library.

The Tilden Democratic club of the Nineteenth assembly district gave a dinner in West End hall, 226 West One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Samuel Untermyer, Fire Commissioner Robert Adamson, Judge O'Dwyer, president of the National Democratic club; Henry de Forest Baldwin and Stuart G. Gibboney spoke.

A bust of Tilden by William Ordway Partridge was shown.

DR. WILEY'S PLAN WINS.

Board of Food and Drug Inspection Is Abolished.

Washington, Feb. 9.—The board of food and drug inspection in the department of agriculture, which often was the center of attack by Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, former chief chemist, has been abolished by Secretary Houston.

At the department of agriculture it was said the board had been abolished in the interest of efficiency and economy. Dr. Carl Alsberg, who succeeded Dr. Wiley as pure food chief, will decide the appeals that formerly went to the board. He will be assisted by Dr. R. L. Emerson of Boston.

Under the new plan the enforcement of the pure food law virtually will be intrusted to one man. That was what Dr. Wiley contended for.

The country will be divided into three inspection districts, with Washington, Chicago and San Francisco as headquarters. The three men selected as chiefs of the district are Walter G. Campbell, eastern district; L. M. Tolman, central district, and B. R. Hart, western district.

Robin Pardon Denied.

Kingston, N. Y., Feb. 9.—Joseph G. Robin, who served a term on Blackwell's island in New York for bank wrecking, has appeared before Justice Hasbrouck in the supreme court here seeking a rehearing in the matter of his pardon issued by William Sulzer as governor. The court had previously ruled the pardon invalid and in effect so ruled again by refusing to grant a rehearing.

—To a merchant, the "cost of ADEQUATE ADVERTISING is a mere incident. While the cost of inadequate advertising is always difficult to meet.

SEE NO HOPE OF SAVING VICTIMS

Fire Is Still Raging In Cumbre Tunnel.

RESCUE WORK DIFFICULT

Over Fifty Mexicans Perish—Villa Will Take Personal Charge of His Troops. War Department Denies Attack on Suburbs of Capital.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 9.—Rescuers from El Paso and Juarez have reached Cumbre tunnel to join in the search for the fifty-one passengers who are thought to have lost their lives on the Mexican Northwestern train wrecked in the tunnel last week. Several high officials of the road are among the missing.

To the list of missing passengers have been added the names of Mrs. Lee Carruth and five children, who were en route from El Paso to Madera to join Mr. Carruth, an engineer in the employ of the Northwestern. The family had been refugees in El Paso several months.

The missing railroad men include Superintendent M. J. Gilmartin, H. Schofield, superintendent of Juarez terminals; Lee Williams, assistant commissary; Engineer E. G. McCutcheon, Conductor J. E. Wasster and H. F. Marders, Wells Fargo superintendent.

The El Paso rescuers are at work from the north end of the tunnel, while the men from Madera, under Superintendent F. C. Clark, are working from the other side. In the south end of the tunnel the rescuing party has already uncovered the locomotive which dashed into the freight train that the bandits had already destroyed by fire in the south mouth of the tunnel. The locomotive of the passenger train is only slightly damaged, indicating that the crew was aboard when the train ran in and that the steam had been shut off and the brakes applied.

Villa to Take Charge of Troops.

A telegram received from General Villa contained the information that he is coming to Juarez at once to take charge of the troops and run down the Castillo band. Villa has been in Chihuahua, preparing to go south to take command at Torreon, but when he learned of the tragedy he ordered a special train for Juarez.

Reports from Mexico City say the military authorities are making a mystery of the cause of the extraordinary preparations, and at the war department it was denied that the suburbs of the capital are to be attacked. It was learned, however, that there was some fighting at Los Reyes, eight miles distant from Mexico City, and that twenty-five were wounded and a hundred prisoners taken to Villa Guadalupe. President Huerta denied the existence of a plot against him.

Information came from Vera Cruz that the government had confiscated all of the Aguila Oil company's fuel oil in that city for use by the National railway lines. The oil belonging to the Aguila Oil company is for the Mexican railway, but the government has not heeded the protest of the latter.

Mr. John Lind is in Vera Cruz anxiously awaiting the arrival of the steamship Navarre of the French line today with Norman and Jenny, his son and daughter, on board.

Washington, Feb. 9.—According to their agents, the Constitutionalists who are now closing in on Tampico are to take military measures to prevent the sale of fuel oil to the Huerta government. It is said that the oil companies have broken their pledge that they made to General Aguilar not to sell oil to the federal railroads, and that as a result General Aguilar proposes to take steps to stop such traffic.

If that requires the destruction of property the Constitutionalist agents say it is sanctioned by military law. There will not be any unnecessary destruction, however, they say. The reports of the threats of the Constitutionalists to set fire to the tanks and destroy Tampico are considered gross exaggerations.

MANY FIREMEN TRAPPED.

Explosion Catches Them In Disastrous Chicago Fire.

Chicago, Feb. 9.—Thirty firemen had a narrow escape from death in the blaze which destroyed a big grain elevator owned by the Armour Grain company. Twenty minutes after the fire was discovered and when it was believed to be under control an explosion occurred, and for a time all the firemen in the building were given up for lost.

All escaped, although a number were overcome by smoke and had to be carried out by comrades.

The loss was estimated at $300,000. The elevator had a capacity of 1,500,000 bushels and contained a large quantity of wheat.

The building was destroyed. A second explosion brought down the wall facing the Chicago river and a third caused the remaining walls to crumble inward.

Rescued Crew at Genoa.

Genoa, Feb. 9.—The Italian steamship Dora Laltes has arrived here from New Orleans and Norfolk and landed the crew of the British schooner Carrie W. Wambach, which was abandoned at sea, dismasted. The Carrie W. Wambach left Halifax, N. S., on Dec. 27 for Ingrumport and Demerara.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

THE DAILY PRESS IN LINCOLN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by E. Purvis, newsdealer.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9.00 a. m.

FEBRUARY 9TH IN HISTORY.

1763—France ceded Canada to Great Britain.

1773—William Henry Harrison, ninth President of the U. S., born in Berkeley, Va. Died in Washington, D. C., April 4, 1841.

1814—Samuel J. Tilden, Democratic candidate for President in 1876 born in New Lebanon, N. Y. Died in Westchester county, N. Y., August 4, 1886.

1865—Gen. Robert E. Lee made commander-in-chief of the Confederate forces.

1870—United States Signal Bureau established by act of Congress.

1875—First train passed through the Hoosac Tunnel.

1886—Gen. Winfield Scott Hancock died in New York city. Born in Montgomery, Pa., February 14, 1824.

1889—United States Department of Agriculture established as a separate department by act of Congress.

1913—Manuel Araujo, President of Salvador, died from wrounds inflicted by five assassins.

Plainfield, N. J., February 9, 1914.

UNFORTUNATE OPPOSITION.

Opposition that has developed to the purchase of the Darling farm as a site for the joint sewage disposal beds is unfortunate. That an effort will be made to restrain the joint sewer commission from obtaining possession of that particular site for the purpose mentioned is evident and will again unnecessarily delay the greatly desired improvement.

Municipal improvements of all kinds are always difficult to get started and usually slow in their completion. So excellent a beginning, however, has been made by the members of the joint sewer commission that it was hoped by citizens generally that the project might be undertaken and completed without delay.

Contention that the location of the disposal beds on the Darling property would seriously inconvenience adjacent property owners, and would be inimical to health as well as tending to depreciate property values, may be well founded, but it will be unfortunate for the larger number who are so vitally interested from a sanitary viewpoint, if the joint sewer commission is forced to look elsewhere for a location. If the trunk line sewer is to be built it should be started soon.

The Plainfield High School addition is rapidly nearing completion and when it is finished the institution will be one of the largest, if not the largest and most adequately equipped in the State. The finishing touches are now being put on a portion of the building and the outlines of the large gymnasium reveal the magnitude of that section. With a modernly equipped swimming pool and conveniences unknown in other gymnasiums hereabouts the addition will fill a long felt want. The schoolboy of the lower grades who has little or no hope of ever being able to attend high school is beginning to speculate on his chances of using the facilities and sharing in the advantages offered by the new structure. It is said that only the pupils of the high school will use the gymnasium and swimming pool, but a definite schedule to include the lower grades would prove of everlasting benefit to the youth of the city.

Not only will the offerings of the members of the Business Men's Association on "Dollar Day" be liberal in value, but the scheme is one that will undoubtedly prove beneficial to the merchants of Plainfield generally. The idea is in line with the policy of the Business Men's Association to do everything possible to stimulate local trade by emphasizing the excellent values and the fair treatment accorded to the buying public here. That Plainfield people should trade at Plainfield stores is self-evident. The "Do it for Plainfield" slogan should be firmly impressed on the mind of all good citizens and it can be no better exemplified than by buying from Plainfield merchants. Buying at home means better stores, larger assortments of goods and better community spirit and progress.

Certainly a "People's Forum" should be of material aid in developing a sound interest among Plainfield people in public questions of the day and in promoting a correct understanding of them. The idea is an excellent one and the project deserving of whole souled support on the part of the citizens of this community. It will be surprising if the idea does not become an unqualified success from the start.

Chief of Police George Weiss, of North Plainfield, some time ago ordered the management of a hall in the borough to provide two special officers at each dance held there. The order has done much to eliminate objectionable practices and demonstrates the wisdo mof the chief's order.

"It appears that there is a general wave of righteousness throughout New Jersey," says the New Brunswick Home News. Yes, it's true. Even Plainfield is to have a "Go to Church" propaganda.

WARREN TOWNSHIP VOTES $3,600 FOR COMING YEAR

Members of the Board of Education of Warren township met on Saturday evening and discussed the matter of the budget to be appropriated for net year. It was decided to ask for $3,600. The attendance at the school was reported as good both by the attendance officer and the county superintendent, H. C. Krebs, who said he found school conditions at Warren to be good.

The board voted to adopt a new song book, called "Songs We Like to Sing," for assembly singing. The spring meeting for the election of three trustees for the ensuing year will be held at Warrenville School, on March 17. The retiring trustees are Augustus Shoemaker, George Irving and Richard Rogers.

PERSONAL.

Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Clawson, of Park avenue, are entertaining the latter's father, J. E. Witter, and sister, Mrs. E. A. Carpenter, of Oneida, N. Y.

Fireman William Jaeger, of No. 3 Hose company, is detained at his home on East Second street with a severe attack of grip, bordering on pneumonia.

Miss Mary C. Caulfield, a pupil nurse of the Newark City Hospital, has returned to her duties after a visit with her brother of West Front street.

John Moran, of West Fourth street, has returned home after a two months' visit in New York State.

Frank Reynolds, of Grove street, has been spending the past few days with relatives at Lakewood.

Miss Pauline Bottenstein, of New street, has returned home after a visit with her parents at Yonkers, N. Y.

Miss Mary Buffer, of Westerly, R. I., is the guest of Miss Gertrude Slocum, of Central avenue.

William Baker and family, who have been living at 418 East Second street, have removed to 414 New street.

Miss Sarah Burgess, of Philadelphia, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George B. Allen, of Somerset place, the borough.

Danley C. Terry, of Myrtle avenue, has been removed to Muhlenberg Hospital to undergo treatment for a severe attack of rheumatism.

Dr. C. B. Lufburrow, of West Front street, has returned from Chicago, where he was called to perform an operation on a former patient.

Miss Sadie Tiffany, of Central avenue, is entertaining her sister, Miss Helen Tiffany, of Trenton.

HUNT CLUB ENTERTAINMENTS.

For the purpose of keeping up the interest among the members during the off season, when weather conditions will not permit runs, the Watchung Hunt Club plans to hold a social gathering at its clubhouse occasionally, when the members and their friends will be entertained in an informal way. The first of these affairs was held recently and proved enjoyable.

PASTORS EXCHANGE.

Rev. Dr. C. E. Herring of the First Presbyterian church, and Rev. C. C. Cain, of Grace M. E. church, exchanged yesterday mornnig, both preaching to large congregations. In the afternoon, Dr. Herring preached at the 5 o'clock service at the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church, for Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie.

RECOVERS FROM ILLNESS.

James Patterson, of West Front street, one of the Potter Printing Press Company's erectors, has been able to take to the road again after a severe attack of ptomaine poisoning. Mr. Patterson contracted the illness while working in New York and fo rseveral days was in a serious condition.

SPECIAL REHEARSAL.

There will be a special rehearsal of the Junior Orchestra at Franklin School, tomorrow evening, at 8 o'clock. M. A. Korff, the director, will be in charge.

WALSH SAYS BRYAN O. K.'D FREE TOLLS

Montana Senator Asserts He Passed on Plank.

Washington, Feb. 9.—In a statement Thomas J. Walsh, United States senator from Montana, who was a member of the platform committee of the Baltimore convention, asserts the plank for free tolls for American coastwise ships was not a "joker" surreptitiously inserted, but was passed on repeatedly by William J. Bryan and other committeemen.

This throws much light on the way in which the Democratic party tied itself to this policy, a policy which since has been repudiated by President Wilson and by Secretary Bryan in an effort to appease Great Britain.

Walsh says he does not believe Bryan is responsible for the statements being sedulously circulated to the effect that this plank in the platform was adopted through subterfuge and that therefore it should be disowned if the necessities of diplomacy require it.

Since it was announced that President Wilson would ask congress to repeal the free tolls clause of the Panama canal, against which Great Britain has more than once protested, many have pointed to the Baltimore platform pledge as a fixed and final reason why this repeal should be opposed.

The platform contained a plank indorsing the exemption from toll of American coastwise vessels. This was set forth in unqualified terms, and the apparent object of those who are seeking to make it appear the plank was secretly placed in the platform is to relieve the president of embarrassment.

"Although I have regarded the transactions within the resolutions committee as more or less confidential," said Walsh, "I am willing to give my recollection of the steps by which the free tolls plank became a part of the Baltimore platform of 1912. The recent implications in the newspapers may tend to create the impression that there was something disingenuous, mysterious or sinister in respect to this subject. There was not. On the contrary, there was nothng connected with it which affords the slightest foundation for such a charge or suspicion."

MISS SADIE BERNSTEIN BRIDE OF BENJAMIN MERRILL

Miss Sadie Bernstein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nat Bernstein, of Craig place, was married in the Synagogue on New street last night to Benjamin Merrill, by Rabbi Davidson, assisted by Rabbi Miller. The couple was attended by Miss May Sminck, Miss Soffie Sacher and Miss Beckie Merrill, as bridesmaids, and Louis Sachar, of New York, as best man. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride was gowned in bridal satin, with a silk shadow lace and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. Guests were present from this city, Elizabeth, Newark, Lincoln and New York State. Upon their return from a short honeymoon trip the couple will reside at Fourth and John streets.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was held and opera selections were given by Miss Port and Miss Kate Shur, of New York.

GIVE A PARTY IN HONOR OF THEIR DAUGHTER

In honor of their daughter, Miss Violet E. Fredin, Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Fredin entertained a number of friends on Saturday evening, at their home, at 63 Mountain avenue. The decorations were pink and white carnations. Prizes were awarded B. Harrison Fahn and Miss Edna H. Green. There was vocal and instrumental music during the evening. Dancing was also enjoyed by the guests. Miss Fredin received numerous handsome gifts. Refreshments were served.

Among the guests present were Miss Katherine F. Carter and Fred A. Schmidt, of Providence, R. I.; Fred W. Gaensly and C. W. Brewster and son, of New York, and the Misses Florence Barnes, Anne Hull, Edna Green, Clara Runyon, Mildred Colleen, Daisy Fredin and Chester Denton, Albert Lockley, B. Harrison Fahn and Charles Creager.

TO CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY.

Perseverance Lodge, No. 74, K. of P., has issued invitations for a musical and entertainment to be held in its rooms in the Babcock building, Friday night, to celebrate the fiftieth anniversary of the organization of the order. A committee composed of Thomas Caleen, John Bicknell and Benjamin Thomas is in charge of the arrangements.

ARRAIGNED FOR NON-SUPPORT.

William Johnson, colored, of Muhlenberg place, was arraigned before Judge DeMeza inthe City Court this morning on a charge of non-support preferred by the local Charity Organization, and was ordered to pay $2.50 for the support of his children.

PREACHED AS CANDIDATE.

The Rev. Mr. McKinney, of Philadelphia, preached at All Souls' Unitarian church yesterday morning, as a candidate for the vacant pastorate.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

The February Furniture Sale
Specially Fine Offerings
In Dining-Room Suites

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Club Plan Payments May Be Arranged

$110.00 SUITE FOR 87.00
Mission design, Early English finish, 9 pieces, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six Chairs

$112.00 SUITE FOR 95.00
A pretty Golden Oak Suite, consisting of Buffet, China Cabinet, Table and six Chairs, 9 pieces.

$125.00 SUITE FOR 100.00
Colonial pattern in Fumed Oak, 9 pieces, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six Chairs.

$100.00 SUITE FOR 85.00
A Fumed Oak Suite, mission style, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six chairs, 9 pieces.

Brass Beds in the February Furniture Sale

Heavy solid brass beds in satin, bright and poulettefinish. Note the great savings:

$16.98 Brass Beds now	$10.98
$19.50 Brass Beds now	$14.98
$24.50 Brass Beds now	$17.50
$26.50 Brass Beds now	$20.50
$34.50 Brass Beds now	$26.50

BUY RUGS NOW AND SAVE MONEY.

9x12 Wilton Velvet Rugs	$16.50
9x12 Body Brussels Rugs	$22.00
9x12 Tapestry Brussels Rugs	$12.50
9x12 Axminster Rugs	$20.00
9x12 Royal Wilton Rugs	$35.00

"Storage of your purchases without charge until you need them," and "our Easy Payment Club Plan" enables you to take full advantage of this February Money Saving Sale.

Club Plan Payments May Be Arranged

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Woodhull & Martin Co.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

WE GIVE FIVE PER CENT. PROFIT SHARING COUPONS.

BOY ROBBERS LODGED IN CELL

(Continued from page 1.)

better of their refusal and they got off but the police were satisfied that they had the wrong party and lodged them in jail on a charge of trespassing on the railroad.

The youngsters were speeding to Jersey City in the meantime and the "Skeetertown" police were waiting to welcome them at the terminal in response to a request coming from Chief Kiely.

Thomas A. Hiney, a member of the Jersey City force who is being entertained in royal style by Chief Kiely here today, opened the door of the robbers' "Pullman" when the train came to a halt in the freight yards and hollered "All out!" Three pale-faced urchins poked their heads out of the side-door and inquired the shortest route to the bowery and accepted Hiney as a guide. The genial Hiney piloted the youths to the Jersey City headquarters where they were detained until yesterday morning when Chief Kiely and Detective Sergeant Flynn went to Jersey City and brought the boys home to their native town.

The lads immediately assumed a defiant air and spent Sunday singing popular songs in their cells. They took pride in explaining their thrilling experiences of the night before and also told of other places they had planned entering but were scared out. Starck's second-hand store on Watchung avenue was on their list but when they got inside the gate a man appeared in his night-clothes and frightened them away. When questioned this morning about this place one of the youths said, "Aw, that old jink was easy, we could have done him up in great shape if he had of come down from his perch."

When arraigned for the first robbery of the Olmstead store two weeks ago in the Juvenile Court the McCarthy and Miscal youths were given another chance through the pleading of the complainant and immediately upon their release the youngsters proceeded to rob their benefactor. The boys are the sons of respectable parents and much regret for their people is expressed by those interested in the case.

CHURCH OFFICERS INSTALLED.

Rev. J. Y. Broek, pastor of Trinity Reformed church, took charge of the service at the Netherwood Reformed church, yesterday morning, in exchange with Rev. C. W. F. Attlee, installing Claude Gonoud, William Carson and S. O. Rush as elders and A. V. Kennedy as a deacon. John Hunt, the other deacon, will be installed tonight. Two new members were received by letter at the communion service yesterday.

BICYCLE THIEF CAUGHT.

Edward Irby, a troublesome colored youth, was arrested this morning with a bicycle which he had stolen in this city. He was remanded to a cell and will be arraigned tomorrow morning in the City Court.

DAVE CARNEY WEAKER.

David Carney, who is seriously ill in Cooley's Sanitarium, is steadily growing weaker and death is expected to occur at any minute.

BOROUGH COURT.

Edward Gillete, colored, 42 years old, who said he was a driver and lived in Newark, was fined $5 by Recorder Hand this morning after he had pleaded guilty to having been intoxicated in the borough on Saturday night. Policeman Swody arrested the Newarker.

Dennis Nolan, 25 years old, a laborer, who said he lived on Fritz place, in the borough, and who admitted to having been much intoxicated when he was placed under arrest on Saturday by Policeman Pope, was also given the choice of paying a fine of $5, or of spending a few days in restful confinement by Recorder Hand.

Clan Mackenzie, No. 204, Order Scottish Clans, will meet this evening at 109 Park avenue. A full attendance of members is requested as matters of importance concerning the approaching concert in the Park Club, Friday night, February 20.

—Daily Press want ads. bring results

THE TEMPERATURE.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 17 degrees; 11 a. m., 20 degrees; 1 p. m., 22 degrees.

MENNEN'S TALCUM 15c

THAT STUBBORN COUGH

possibly hasn't yielded to the ordinary cough syrup. Get a bottle of NARCO Wine of Cod Liver Oil with Malt, Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites; pleasant to take, agrees with all stomachs and cures chronic coughs and bronchitis, etc. An excellent tonic.

Large Bottles 75c Only at

SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists
PARK AVE., COR. SECOND ST.

Union Made Union Stamped

The Waldorf Shoes
$2.50 and $3

All Waldorf Shoes received since January 1st, 1914, bear the official stamp of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, insuring to the wearer the best workmanship.

Sole agency for Plainfield.

SHOES FOR THE BIG FOLKS

Stuart's SHOE SHOP

215 WEST FRONT ST.

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

SHOES FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS

Headquarters for

GIBSON'S RYE

E. C. WESCOTT.
115 East Front Street.

RANSOME CONCRETE MACHINERY COMPANY,

At a meeting of the Board of Directors held January 23rd, a quarterly dividend of 2% was declared on the preferred stock, payable February 16th to holders of record on that date.

EDWARD F. FEICKERT,
2 7-9-11-14 Treasurer.

"Do the Very Best You Can"

This applies to saving money as well as working with zeal. Start an account with us—it will give you the right kind of incentive.

3% INTEREST ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS OF $500.00 AND ABOVE

4% INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS OF $10.00 AND ABOVE

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK
OF PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Capital $150,000.00 Surplus and Profits $300,000.00 (all earned)

FROCKS FOR BETWEEN-SEASONS

THAT fashion's incessant demand for novelty is by no means tempered by the four seasons alone is indicated in the attractive array of new costumes looming up for late winter occasions, and for wear at the resort centres, whither the smartest styles of the year are certain to be seen. There is a noticeable trend toward fuller skirts, not with increased breadth at the foot, but with interesting draperies and overdresses that show to advantage beautiful fabrics and trimmings. In fact, it is the material which lends especial interest to models otherwise very simple in their making. Dresses for indoor wear continue to have filmy bodices, and no fitted linings, while the lower parts may be as gorgeous and elaborate as taste and the pocketbook will permit.

The composé gown, as the French modistes describe the type which is made of two or more materials in combination, is leading; for it allows color effects, as well as designs which would be tame indeed, when developed in a single kind of silk or woolen material.

Women appreciate the becomingness of soft laces, chiffon and net near the face; and these the fashionable dresser must have to a less or greater extent. Creamy laces, some almost deep coffee shade, are a bit more exclusive than the écru tints; and brown is favored for some choice evening gowns, when hung over white satin. There is continued demand for gold and silver metal laces, and metallic embroidery on net.

Chic little evening hats and headdresses, two of which are shown on the figures at the left, are quite indispensable just now for theatre wear. They are easily made over gilt wire frames, bent to suit the contour of the wearer's head, and set off with a band of fur, or a flower. Snappy little hats of taffetas are appearing for a change between seasons. A very new idea is a hat with a full crown of silk, twisted in corkscrew effect at the top of a moderately high crown, and having the little knob edged with fur to match the band at the base of the crown.

7986 · Draped Empire Evening Gown

Gray Brocade with Tulle 8122 ·

Deep Yoke and Drop Shoulder Effect in One

8092

Striped Net Tunic Bordered with Fur

8106

14046 Forget-me-nots in Wreath Design

14079 Hand Embroidery for Corset Cover

14118

TULLE dresses in January, and furtrimmings for mid-summer are the extremes of fashion incongruity 'twixt which one may make a choice, or embody both for her gown to wear between seasons, so long as she has the extra dress or two at this time of the year. Where smart women are gathered together for bridge, or tea, or at some charity "benefit" there is one surprise after another in the charming frocks with a note of individuality. We may know that these products of the expensive modiste's art cost their wearers many dollars; yet a few of us realize that they can be duplicated for almost trifling cost by the ingenious woman who has taken advantage of the bargains at the short lengths after stock-taking season in the city shops.

Brocades are holding their own, and those on thin silk crepe or even chiffon cloth grounds are best adaptable to the dress which will be worn far into the summer. Among the choicest new materials are cotton velours in brocaded designs, others with wide ribs, resembling the coarsest wall corduroys, and both resembling the silken fabrics. These and several other loom variations in cotton will be vim fashionable for spring and summer. The ribbed weaves and frisettes are used for sports coats of new cut, and for two-piece suits.

As for the designs of the gowns of immediate interest, a group of attractive and practical models is pictured to call attention to the simplicity on which the style vogue is based. For instance, the costume on the extreme left (7986) is appropriate for any formal occasion. It has a slightly draped skirt with a graceful train, a slightly raised waistline, and a deep square yoke with a kimono blouse having only one seam under either arm. It is developed, in the model, of gray satin brocade, with a girdle of cerise velvet, lace bodice, and a fancy garniture and ropes of crystal beads in white and colors. The pattern is 15 cents.

The girl, seated on the bench (8092) displays a very simple and yet smart black satin dress, the skirt of which has three straight breadths, slightly peg-top at the belt. The blouse has the combination of drop-shoulder and kimono yoke in one—a design which will be popular for summer dresses, and separate blouses of silk or cotton materials. The indispensable vest of net with buttons as trimming, appears, and is finished at the neck with a standing frill. Just now there is a fad for high stocks, and even stiffened Medici and band collars. This reversion from the open neck will naturally take for a time, but there is doubt as to whether it will be very generally adopted. Four yards of 42-inch material will make the dress described. The pattern is 15 cents.

A girlish type of dress, which becomes equally good for an older woman, according as it is developed and trimmed, is that of the model illustrated on the extreme right (8106). This has a slightly circular tunic made of cerise satin striped chiffon, hung over stone color satin charmeuse. The overblouse has a slightly low round neck and deep armholes which are bordered with gun metal beaver fur, matching the border of the tunic. The sleeve is made of fancy cream net, and is finished with a narrow band of satin. This pattern is an excellent one by which to make over a gown, adding the contrasting new material for the tunic and overblouse. It comes in six sizes, from 32 to 42. The price is 15 cents.

RUFFLES and flounces characterize all the latest model gowns which arrive from Paris. The costume shown above (8122) has a foot ruffle introduced under the edge of the soft coral and gray brocade. It is made of silk net, the same as the short plaited tunic, and the outer layer of the diaphanous blouse of chiffon. The kimono foundation fastens at the side front, under a vest with a surplice arrangement of lace. There is no indication of lessening the breadth of the figure through the hip line, nor at the waist, for crush girdles, and the soft graceful folds of the costume materials continue in modish evidence. The pattern is 15 cents.

STENCILLING is so effective and so quickly done that it is one of the best decorative treatments for furnishings in which color is wanted. It is especially useful in ornamenting bedroom hangings, couch cover, dresser scarfs, etc. Two plain panel screens are illustrated with stencil designs of jonquils and roses, respectively, done on a background of burlap. Such screens can be made by the amateur, though it is easier to buy inexpensive ones, when the color can be found, and then decorate to match other things in the chosen decorative scheme. The designs shown are two of five which come in a set (14118) for 15 cents.

THOUGH fashion emphasizes window lace and net lingerie at the moment, dainty and yet durable underwear made of nainsook and ornamented with hand embroidery, finds favor because of its practical worth. If one enjoys the luxury of pieces, the French underwear is really the cheapest to wear, as well as very beautiful. No. 14046 is a flower design which can be used for nightgown and chemise, as well as for a corset cover. It is 10 cents. No. 14079 is a design with forget-me-not wreaths suitable for either solid embroidery or eyelet work. It is very attractive, considering the comparatively little work. The pattern is 15 cents.

To Clean Velvet Flowers

Dry bran will clean light furs and make them fluffy. It will also clean velvet flowers, such as are now very fashionable for dress garnitures as well as for millinery; and it is said to also take the soil from woolen material. Rub the bran on the article, and then shake and brush it off. Try cleaning light kid gloves, that would lose their color in gasoline with French chalk.

Patterns for designs shown on this page can be obtained from any agency selling LADIES' HOME JOURNAL PATTERNS

CRYSTALLIZED grape fruit, or the candied peel of oranges and grape fruit finds a place on the menu of sweets for formal dinner parties, in lieu of other candy or bonbons. Both may be easily made at home, with a sugary syrup boiled to the point where it will harden when dropped into water. Dip the sections of fruit pulp or peel into the syrup, and then dry on oiled paper. The peel should be dipped also into castor sugar.

Pineapple Snow

For dessert, try pineapple snow. Dissolve one box of gelatine as directed on cover of small box of the same; add one quart of cold water, the juice of three lemons, a quart of shredded pineapple, cooked or fresh, and sugar to sweeten. When the mixture begins to stiffen in the refrigerator, fold in half a pint of whipped cream, and put into individual molds or a single large one.

Lemon Sauce

Boil one cupful of granulated sugar with two cupfuls of water five minutes; add three tablespoonfuls of cornstarch, moistened with water, and a pinch of salt. Cook ten minutes and add one tablespoonful of butter, the grated rind juice of one lemon. The beaten yolk of one egg, and the stiffened white makes the sauce richer.

WHICH RELATIVE DOES DACHS LOOK THE MOST LIKE ?

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

"Sportdom Tips"

FOOTBALL RULES CHANGES.

The Intercollegiate Rules Committee at its meeting held in New York Saturday afternoon decided that hereafter coaches should be barred from the sidelines, when a free kick hits the goal posts and bounds back into the field of play it shall be counted as a touchback, after the teams lineup the team having the ball shall not enter the neutral zone in shift formation, intentional grounding of a forward pass will be penalized by the loss of ten yards from the point of scrimmage, a player out of bounds when the ball is put in play penalizes his team by the loss of ten yards, and the committee left it optional with teams to decide whether they should have a fourth official to be known as field judge.

This is a short resume of the work accomplished at the annual gathering and although many changes were made an equal number of suggestions were turned down. There is an apparent movement to revolutionize the gridiron game and many more penalties are being added to the list every year. The above changes sound good in print but how they will work out in the playing field remains to be seen.

BLACKLIST NEEDED.

There is a constant need for some means of blacklisting a basketball team that fails to fill an appointment with a rival quintet and at present amateur teams are unprotected against such embarrasing circumstances as were brought out in the Y. M. C. A. Saturday night. The Summit Chapel Club five, a supposedly reputable team of players, notified the local management only Saturday morning that they would be on hand without fail Saturday and a gallery full of basketball enthusiasts awaited their arrival for nearly two hours Saturday night. The failure of the Summit team to keep its engagement made the playing of a "scrub" game necessary and these exhibitions are never satisfactory to the court spectators. The penalty for leaving a rival in this predicament should be the blacklisting of the offender from all competition in the town in which the act is committed and it is safe to say that before many years of the sport roll by local managers will get together and frame up some kind of an agreement to deal with this case. Saturday's "non-appearance" was the first of the season for the Y. M. C. A. team but that was just one too many.

APPLICABLE TO HIGH SCHOOLS.

With the object of increasing interest in athletics among the general student body and of making physical training a pleasure, George A. Cann, of New York University, has devised a plan of giving up one day a week to general athletics The men will be coached in high-jumping, shot-putting and running and the men will be rated upon their success in these three branches on a point system, the total number of points to determine the standing.

At the end of the season it is planned to give prizes consisting of gold, silver and bronze medals for general all-around excellence. By this means it is hoped that broader interest will be aroused among the students. Participation is optional and those participating will be excused from the regular work for that day. Several High Schools in this section have been studying out just such a plan as this one and an investigation into Cann's idea would probably be worthwhile.

Kingsley High School, the little Essex Fells institution of learning, whose basketball players have proven nemesis for both Plainfield High School and Leal School this season, lost their first game of the season Saturday to the Horace Mann School by a count of 30 to 26. This was the seventh game for Kingsley.

Queries, Comment and Answers

Sporting Editor:

Query—Is real estate subject to inheritance tax in New Jersey? If so, who determines the amount, and, in case of dispute, who decides this question?—L. J. K.

Answer—It depends upon the relationship existing between the tstator and heir. An inheritance tax is levied in New Jersey on bequests, real as well as personal, to all persons except parents, husband or wife, children, grandchildren, brother or sister, husband of daughter, wife or widow of son. All other heirs pay a 5 per cent tax, except that $500 is exempted.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Is there a movement now being made to secure additional brick pavement for the streets of Plainfield? If so, when will the bids be received?—C. H. G.

Answer—Haven't heard of any such step being taken.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Does a person who remains out until two o'clock remain out all night?—P. L. T.

Answer—Whaddaya mean? A person who remains out until 2 o'clock does not remain out all night and if you don't believe it try it and see for yourself. The calendar day begins one second after 12 o'clock at night, but the popular understanding is that night lasts until sunrise. Therefore, 12 o'clock at night is called midnight—not the end of the night.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Where was President Wilson married?—T. N. J.

Answer—President Wilson married Helen Louise Axson, of Savannah, Ga., on June 24, 1885, and it may be assumed that the wedding took place in Savannah.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Among heirs to a small estate are a minor and an insane person. Can the executor be appointed guardian for either one or both?—S. S. E.

Answer—Yes, if the interested parties are satisfied.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Can a woman obtain a divorce from her husband on the ground that her husband has been sent to jail and convicted of a crime?—R. F.

Answer—Not in New Jersey.

D. R. C.—Send a stamped and self-addressed envelope for the information you desire and we will forward it to you.—Sporting Ed.

Speaking of rival school basketball teams we might remark that Morristown School, conqueror of North Plainfield and Leals, added another victory Saturday afternoon defeating the Ethical Culture School, of New York, by a count of 53 to 14.

Rahway High whipped Woodbridge Saturday night by a count of 32 to 21.

Br-r-r—And the Yankees leave on their spring training trip next Thursday.

Rutgers lost its first basketball game in five years Saturday night to C. C. N. Y. by a score of 17 to 11. This was the first game the New Brunswick collegians have played in five years.

A complaint that too much time is taken up with athletic activities at Cornell is voiced by Charles E. Courtney, the crew coach. The same assertion applies to numerous other colleges and not a few High Schools in the country.

CALENDAR OF SPORTS

TODAY.

Schedule meeting of International Baseball League, at New York.

Opening of second annual automobile show at Seattle, Wash.

Ad Wolgast vs. Charley Write, 10 rounds, at Milwaukee.

Jim Flynn vs. Battling Levinsky, 10 rounds, at Troy, N. Y.

Joe Mandot vs. Frankie Whitney, 10 rounds, at New Orleans.

TOMORROW.

Schedule meeting of National League of Baseball Clubs, at New York.

Annual meeting of American Polo Association, at New York.

Gus Christie vs. Glen Coakley, 10 rounds, at Terre Haute, Ind.

WEDNESDAY.

Annual tournament of International Bowling Association opens in Minneapolis.

Annual bonspiel of Manitoba Curling Association opens at Winnipeg.

Annual St. Valentine's golf tournament for women opens at Pinehurst, N. C.

Annual indoor track and field games of New York Athletic Club, at New York.

Opening of annual exhibition of the Louisville Automobile Dealers' Association.

THURSDAY.

Canadian figure skating championships for the Grey Cup begin in Ottawa.

National indoor lawn tennis championship tournament opens in New York city.

Annual championship tournament for the gold racquet, at Tuxedo Park, N. Y.

Jimmy Clabby vs. Ed Petroskey, 20 rounds, at Vernon, Cal.

Johnny Lore vs. Patsy Drouillard, 8 rounds, at Windsor, Ont.

FRIDAY.

Annual meeting of United States National Lawn Tennis Association, at New York.

National intercity and individual squash racquet championships, at Philadelphia.

SATURDAY.

World's speed championship ice skating races begin at Christiania, Norway.

Meeting of Intercollegiate Association of Amateur Gymnasts, at New York.

Opening of national championship ski meet, at Virginia, Minn.

Annual bench show of the Newark Kennel Club, Newark, N. J.

DANCING AFTER CONTESTS ON PARISH HOUSE COURT

In the event that the dope being sifted about these parts by those interested in Scotch Plains Parish House athletics materializes in the near future we will have a weekly program of dancing to follow the basketball games at that rendezvous. Terpsichore programs have proven a valuable asset as drawing cards to basketball teams in various cities of this State during the present season and the introduction of this feature at the 'Plains Parish House would no doubt meet with hearty approval.

According to one on the "inside" the proposition has been advanced to the Parish House Council and this body is taking the matter under serious consideration. The floor at the Parish House, while small, consists of ample room for dancing and the crowd of spectators that witness basketball games at that place would without a doubt be increased two-fold if the idea was put in practice. North Plainfield High School has made a financial success out of its basketball season because of dancing and a revival of the sport would probably be brought about in the 'Plains in this way.

PLAINFIELD YOUTH WOULD A MASCOT BE

Raymond Alston Has the Necessary Qualifications for the Coveted Job.

A mascot without a hump is like a ball player without a mitt of diamond lingo and every American born youth with the "Lucky Hump" seeks to become a bat lugger or base-sweeper at some time in his career. Such is the case with seventeen-years old Waymond Alston, a local youth who is an ardent admirer of "Mugsy" McGraw and "Bix Six" Mathewson and the ambition of this young adventurer is to pull down a berth as head batboy for the New York Giants.

So earnest is the juvenile magnate in his efforts to mascot a real ball nine that he has communicated with Jack Foster, secretary of the New York Nationals, and it is generally understood that the gan'el Foster has assured him of a try-out on the spring training trip this year. "Spuds" Hennessey, the Giants' mascot of six lon seasons, has announced his retirement and tempting offers and delicious bait offered by the Federals have had no effect on the Irish youth with the Yiddisher grin. He has dusted bats that have brought to earth three championship flags and is content to retire on his hard-earned laurels.

Hearing of the vacancy and jumping at such a wonderful opportunity to become the living model for such cartoonists as Al Demarest and Ludwig Goldberg, Alston filed his application with numerous references in the office of Mr. Foster in Fifth avenue, New York, and is now awaiting further directions from his chief to be. Among the references the ambitious Plainfield youth enclosed in his job-snatcher were those of Jack Martin, his hero; the manager of the local sod-busters, and various other pilots and promoters of bat-splitting combinations that do business in this section of the world.

Those who are intimate with the Plainfield applicant claim that he has every one of the qualifications necessary for the "position" (for its no job) and all expect to see the small sized diamond warrior trotting around the ball park ere Old Sol gets high in the heavens and starts to raise that mercury to the century spot on the thermometer. He has a hump which is an exact duplicate of the one that has been bringing the Giants good luck for the past six years on the person of Hennessey and has the additional qualification of being used to the sun and the McGraw clan will not be subjected to a tie-up due to mascot sunburn such as they were when Hennessey handled the wagon-tongues. Alston also has the gift of gab and if he once plants his shoes under a Giant berth he will be recognized as a permanent fixture, for no living soul can talk to the youth when he once gets up steam. Rumor has it that he is packing up to leave for the Sunny South and we await results with much anticipation.

ANNOUNCE LEAGUE SCHEDULES.

New York, Feb. 9.—Club owners and officials of the National League of Baseball Clubs are rounding up in this city preparatory to the adjourned annual meeting to be held tomorrow. The meeting will be little more than perfunctory. The only real business to be transacted is the adoption of the playing schedule already decided upon for the coming season. The American League schedule will be announced at the same time, although the joint spring meeting of the two leagues will not take place until the first week in March, or just before the arrival of the baseball tourists from Europe.

HOCKEY GAME BOOKED.

Taking advantage of the good ice, Acting Manager Morris Mann, of the Plainfield High School hockey team, has scheduled a game with St. Benedict's Preparatory School, of Newark, to be played here Wednesday afternoon

RUSSELL LAWRENCE BEATTY REGAINS HIS FORMER SKILL AS SHOT PUTTER

R. L. BEATTY OF COLUMBIA.

Russell Lawrence Beatty, formerly of Leal School, intercollegiate record holder in the sixteen-pound shot-put and captain of the Columbia track team, put the shot with his right hand on Friday for the first time in months and showed that he is rapidly getting back into form. Early last spring Beatty's shoulder became sore, and in consequence he was nowhere near his true form and was beaten out of first place in the intercollegiates by Whitney, of Dartmouth, with a put over a foot shorter than Beatty's ordinary distance.

Rowing during the summer, instead of helping the shoulder, kept it from getting well, and last fall Beatty found that he could put the shot only a few feet and has been forced to use his left hand in practice and competition

Lately, however, the Columbia captain's shoulder has been feeling about all right, so he decided to try it out, and was overjoyed to find that he could put the shot practically as far as his best performances.

He indulged in only light practice on the floor of the Columbia gymnasium, but with very little exertion he easily outdistanced the best puts of Chistead, the promising Columbia man who was a close second to Whitney, the intercollegiate champion, in the recent junior national indoor championship meet. With his shoulder back in shape Beatty is practically certain of first place in the intercollegiate meet this spring.

LOCAL PLAYERS IN LINE.

A list of the players signed by International League clubs for the coming season was made public today and includes Eugene Lidgate, of Fanwood, and Albin Carlstrom, who helped bring the Central New Jersey League pennant to Plainfield last summer. Lidgate is listed as a catcher for the Baltimore Orioles, while Carlstrom is on the Montreal club's roster as a first baseman.

WILL PLAY WITH YANKS.

Jimmy Eschen, who played with Jack Martin's All-Star team of the International League against the Plainfield Pets last season, has signed a contract to perform for the New York American League club. Eschen formerly played with the Jersey City Skeeters

METUCHEN SOCCER TIE.

The Torrance F. C., of Harrison, played a fast and interesting game of soccer with the Metuchen team at the latter place, Saturday afternoon. The game ended with each team in possession of a goal.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY

from the fact that breakdowns will happen, no matter how high a grade of wheel you own. Unless you are exceptionally fortunate, you'll need our services as bicycle repairers par excellence sooner or later. True, you may save a mishap by letting us overhaul your machine after a long ride; but at any and all times will do the best possible for you and your wheel.

LEO ZEISEL

Bicycles, Sundries, Musical Instruments and Sporting Goods.
Temporary at 328 W. Front St. Permanent Headquarters after March 1st, 222 W. Front St., Next Door to Proctor's.

ELKS WILL USHER IN SECOND ROUND

Pool Sharks Being Unearthed in Club's Tourney Now Well Under Way.

The second round of play in the Elks' Club pool tournament will be opened tonight, when Hardingham meets DeMeza and Hand takes on Dencklau. The week-end matches resulted in victories for Dalley, Pope and Ardern and forfeits to Blimm and Leonard.

Competition is close in the event and the second round of cue pushing promises to evoke considerable interest among those entered and the pool sharks who are watching with interest each step of progress in the tourney.

The scores:

Week-end Results.

Friday night:

	H'cap	Net
Ardern	100	100
Duckworth	85	51

French forfeited to Leonard.
Todd forfeited to Blimm.

Saturday night:

	H'cap.	Net
Dalley	90	90
Van Arsdale	90	71
Powers	90	64
Pope	85	[illegible]

Individual Standing.

	H'cap	W.	L.	P.
Dalley	90	1	0	1.000
Pope	85	1	0	1.000
Blimm	85	1	0	1.000
Leonard	85	1	0	1.000
Ardern	100	1	0	1.000
Lane	100	1	0	1.000
Hoyt	100	1	0	1.000
Townley	100	1	0	1.000
Woolston	90	1	0	1.000
Heath	70	1	0	1.000
Mundy	100	1	0	1.000
Emmons	90	1	0	1.000
Lohrman	85	1	0	1.000
DeMeza	60	1	0	1.000
Dencklau	60	1	0	1.000
Van Arsdale	90	0	1	.000
Powers	90	0	1	.000
Todd	90	0	1	.000
French	90	0	1	.000
Duckworth	85	0	1	.000
Hardingham	100	0	1	.000
Hand	100	0	1	.000
F. Firstbrook	100	0	1	.000
Banks	90	0	1	.000
Van Emburgh	90	0	1	.000
Westcott	90	0	1	.000
W. Firstbrook	85	0	1	.000
Bird	70	0	1	.000
Crist	60	0	1	.000
Osmun	60	0	1	.000

Games Tonight.

Hardingham (100) vs. DeMeza (60).

Hand (100) vs Dencklau (60).

INCOGNITO CROWD TROUNCED LOCALS

Substituting for Summit Chapel Five, Aggregation of Notables Springs Surprise.

A pair of usterwares, two Plainfield High School by-products and a Leal School shouter made the local Y. M. C. A. players look like a bunch of novices in the association gym Saturday night, substituting for the Summit Chapel Club aggregation and taking the association youths into camp by a score of 22 to 19. After the Plainfielders had waited two hours for the Summit clan to put in appearances it finally gave up hope and the gallery of spectators were treated to an indifferent program of the court game, the Y. M. C. A. team playing listlessly while their hurried gathered opponents put every ounce of zeal they possessed into the fray in an effort to gain glory at the expense of the shattered association crew.

Four baskets in quick succession gave the "scrubs" a big lead right off the bat and they continued scoring goals until the mid bell rang with the count 16 to 4 in their favor. The Y. M. C. A. rallied somewhat in the second period and while holding the invaders to three field goals ran up a total of seven two-point counters and came within an ace of tying the score in the final minutes of battling.

For the winners, Eugene Lidgate was easily the whole show. Laying aside his duties as arbitrater for one night, "Liddy" donned the fighting togs of a basket cager and although he has been out of the game for over a year he played good basketball and kept the speedy Gavett hustling from whistle to whistle. Just by way of variation, Lidgate broke into the scoring in the second period and ran up a pair of counters. Peacock, playing against the team on which he formerly starred, ran a close second to the redoubtable Fanwood Giant, and his passing and phenomenal long distance basket caging in the first period caused considerable consternation in the Y. M. C. A. camp.

For the home team Joe Gavett did some excellent work along the scoring line, bagging a quartet of field goals for a total of eight out of the nineteen points credited to his team Moulton, while he did some fine passing, was plainly experiencing an off night and an unshakable jinx followed his throws to the basket on every attempt.

The score:

Y. M. C. A.

	G.	F.	P.
Moulton, f	0	1	1
McNamee, f	5	0	10
J. Gavett, c	4	0	8
R. Gavett, g	0	0	0
Glover, g	0	0	0
	9	1	19

SCRUBS.

	G.	F.	P.
Briggs, f	1	0	2
Stewart, f	1	0	2
Lidgate, c	2	0	4
Wheelan, g	3	0	6
Peacock, g	4	0	8
	11	0	22

Score by periods:

Y. M. C. A.	4	15—19
Scrubs	16	6—22

Summary: Referee, Farmer; scorer, Berse; timer, Dunning.

BURLESQUE BASKETBALL GAME WON BY P. H. S. POPPIPURRI

In a wierd contest, in which the holiday injection of interest was thrown in by Comedian Berse, the Plainfield High School reserves defeated the Y. M. C. A. second team by a score of 30 to 23 in the association gym Saturday night. Slow and listless was the battling until the second half, when Berse was sent in to take the place of one of the guards and when the wiry little youngster got into the fray the gallery kept up a constant fracas, not over the game but over the efforts of the new player to squeeze the atmosphere out of the inflated pigskin.

The High School youths held the upper hand from start to finish and were never in danger of losing their hold on the winner's laurels, which they firmly grasped in the first part of the initial period of battling. Cottrell starred for the winning side, while Karlberg did most of the scoring for the home team.

The scores:

Y. M. C. A. SECONDS.

	G.	F.	P.
Harris, f	2	0	4
Smith, f	2	1	5
Borden, f	0	0	0
Karlberg, c	4	0	8
Huennke, c	1	0	2
Gunzelman, g	0	0	0
Berse, g	0	0	0
Seals, g	2	0	4
	11	1	23

P. H. S. RESERVES.

	G.	F.	P.
D. McNamee, f	3	0	6
Cottrell, f	8	2	18
Hetfield, c	1	0	2
Peacock, g	2	0	4
Williams, g	0	0	0
Wheelan, g	0	0	0
	14	2	30

Score by periods:

Y. M. C. A.	11	12—23
P. H. S. Reserves	17	13—30

PLAINFIELD AND WESTFIELD IN RAHWAY'S BALL SCHEDULE

Rahway High School is the first Union county High School to announce its baseball schedule for the 1914 season and included in the list of games are contests with Plainfield and Westfield High Schools. With seven of last year's championship team in line and with Arthur Armstrong to twirl for Rahway, the lads of that school are expecting a banner year.

The red and black's schedule reads as follows:

April 4, Cathedral College, of New York, at Rahway.

April 11, Morris High School, of New York, at Rahway.

April 18, Rutgers Prep., at Rahway.

April 22, Plainfield High School at Rahway.

April 25, Battin High School, at Elizabeth.

April 29, De Witt Clinton High School, of New York, at New York.

May 2, Trenton High School, at Rahway.

May 6, Rutherford High School, at Rutherford.

May 9, Roselle High School, at Rahway.

May 12, East Orange High School, at East Orange.

May 19, Orange High School, at Orange.

May 23, Battin High School, at Rahway.

May 30, Rahway Alumni, at Rahway.

June 10, Westfield High School, at Westfield.

June 12, Jersey City High School, at Rahway.

WEATHER AFFECTED WOODBRIDGE TEAM

"Cold Feet" Assigned as Reason for Visitor's Non-Appearance in the Borough.

Owing to the non-appearance of the Woodbridge High School team, the "Dutch Cleanser A. C." was substituted in Saengerbund Hall, Saturday afternoon. Some of the alumni played with this team. The game was one-sided as N. P. H. S., was too fast, for its opponents and won 64 to 33.

The first ten minutes of play the score was one to one, and the game looked as if it was going to be a good one, but Conroy started things agoing and it was not long before the score was all on the N. P. H. S. side, the score at the end of the first period being 35 to 11 in favor of N. P. H. S.

The second period started with a rush and N. P. H. S. played all around its opponents. Abrams made a sensational shot and Preston Dunning and Percy Bailey did most of the scoring for the Dutch Cleanser five. Love and Conroy did the most scoring for the N. P. H. S. team.

The scores:

DUTCH CLEANSER A. C.

	G.	F.	P.
W. Townley, lf	4	2	10
Bailey, rf	2	1	5
P. Dunning, c	7	0	14
Hebert, rg	2	0	4
Newkirk, rg	0	0	0
G. Townley, lg	0	0	0
	15	3	33

N. P. H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
Van Mater, f	3	0	6
Conroy, f	10	1	21
Love, c	11	5	27
Burner, g	3	0	6
Abrams, g	2	0	4
	29	6	64

Summary: Referee, Chandler; timer, Lee; scorer, Beckman.

PLAINS COURT TEAM WALLOPED VISITORS

Ricketts the Star of Court Encounter With Money Pushers Who Got No Change.

The Elizabeth Bank Clerks five went down to defeat on the Scotch Plains Parish House court Saturday night at the hands of the first team of that place by a score of 33 to 16.

Ricketts was the star of the evening, making shots from all over the floor for a total of sixteen pointers.

The scores:

S. P. P. H.

	G.	F.	P.
Ricketts, f	7	2	16
Dallas, f	2	2	6
Marston, c	2	0	4
Walker, g	1	0	2
Smith, g	2	1	5
	14	5	33

ELIZABETH.

	G.	F.	P.
Laurie, f	2	0	4
Nolan, f	2	0	4
Hall, c	0	0	0
Marchist, g	2	0	4
Schmandt, g	2	0	4
	8	0	16

Score by periods:

S. P. P. H.	13	20—33
Elizabeth	8	8—16

Referee, Batterson.

GUNNER TUNING UP.

Neaf Apgar, the local sharpshooter, who is entered in the Professional Sharpshooters' tournament at Madison Square Garden in connection with the Sportsman's Show, is tuning up for the big shoot and expects to capture some of the valuable prizes offered. At least 300 shooters will compete, including the best New York and Eastern cracks.

ELKS' LEAGUE GAME.

Rahway Elks will go to New York tonight for a game with the antlered pinners of that place.

APPROVED BY TAFT.

Former President William H. Taft, who is a vice president of the National Association for the Study and Education of Exceptional Children, recently reaffirmed his views as to the importance of the proper understanding of the needs and rights of the exceptional child, who, while differing from the average, he holds to be capable of developing into an ordinary or even an unusually good citizen. The society is well known in Plainfield, Dr. M. P. E. Groszmann being at its head.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

CHAPEL QUINTET WON FROM ELIZABETHEANS

Peerless Five No Match for Local Churchboy Five Here Saturday Night.

Hope Chapel hung up a victory at the expense of the Peerless Five, of Elizabeth, on the local court Saturday night, the final score being 34 to 22. The Heron brothers starred for the locals, while Shubert led the visiting team's scoring.

The scores:

HOPE CHAPEL.

	G.	F.	P.
J. Heron, f	5	5	15
T. Heron, f	5	3	13
Doig, c	0	1	1
Wardrop, g-c	2	0	4
Clark, g	1	0	2
Grisley, g	1	0	2
	14	9	*38

*One point awarded.

PEERLESS FIVE.

	G.	F.	P.
W. Rae, f	1	0	2
Murphy, f	0	0	0
Shubert, c	3	7	13
J. Rae, g	0	0	0
Hoeiner, g	2	0	4
	6	7	19

Score by periods:

Hope Chapel	19	19—38
Peerless Five	13	6—19

GETTYSBURG TOOK THREE IN A ROW FROM RIVALS

The Gettysburg team, of the Columbus Club Bowling League, took three games in quick succession from the Germantown pinners on the club alleys, Saturday night.

Taylor rolled the best game for the winners and set up the high score mark of the evening in the second game, when he rolled 222. Howe was runner-up for high score honors, getting a 213 in the initial contest. He fell far below in the next two games however, doing 155 in the second and 146 in the final.

The scores:

GETTYSBURG.

Connors	198	14[illegible]	16[illegible]
Donnolly	163	126	146
Regan	133	162	168
Pasch	184	157	163
Taylor	203	222	194
	881	814	774

GERMANTOWN.

Wilson	189	136	173
Hillman	149	151	169
Mack	158	127	129
McCarty	136	178	122
Howe	213	155	146
	845	747	746

NETHERWOOD FINALLY SLIP ONE OVER ON 'PLAINS

After four trys the Netherwood Five managed to nose out the Scotch Plains Parish House Seconds on the latter's court Saturday night by a 23 to 17 score. Coughlin was high score man with twelve points to his credit. Marston for the 'Plains was good on the defensive besides making his usual foul shots.

The score:

S. P. P. H.

	G.	F.	P.
K. Saunders, f.	2	0	4
F. Saunders, f.	1	1	3
Marston, c.	1	2	4
G. Saunders, g.	1	0	2
Anson, g.	2	0	4
	7	3	17

NETHERWOOD.

	G.	F.	P.
Bellows, f.	1	2	4
Coughlin, f.	5	2	12
Vander Vender, c.	0	1	1
Dennison, g.	1	0	2
LaRue, g.	0	0	0
Wilmerding, f.	2	0	4
	9	5	23

Score by halves:

S. P. P. H. Seconds	5	12—17
Netherwood	7	16—23

Referee—Smith.

CHURCHBOY QUINTET ENGAGE IN HOT BASKETBALL SCRAP

The Hope Chapel second basketball team scored a 34 to 22 victory at the expense of the Holy Cross boys' club five Saturday night in the Fourth street gym. Hunter starred for the victors, while Coudray and Day did some good work for the losing side.

The scores:

HOPE SECONDS.

	G.	F.	P.
Bohl, f	2	0	4
Grisley, f	4	1	9
Schott, c	0	5	5
Cratsley, g	0	0	0
Hunter, g	7	0	14
Porter, g	1	0	2
Wardrop, g	0	0	0
	14	6	34

HOLY CROSS.

	G.	F.	P.
Coudray, f	4	0	8
Day, f	3	2	8
Boylan, c	3	0	6
Van Mater, g	0	0	0
Martin, g	0	0	0
Miller, g	0	0	0
	10	2	22

PATERSON HAS A VERY DRY SUNDAY

City Never Experienced One Like It Before.

RESIDENTS GO ELSEWHERE

Many Folks Who Couldn't Stand It Go to Suburbs, Where They Quenched Their Thirst—Clergymen Pleased With Mayor's Action—Two Arrests Made For Sunday Selling.

Paterson, N. J., Feb. 9.—Chief of Police John Bimson sat hard on the lid yesterday and Paterson was very, very dry. In fact, it was one of the driest, if not the driest, Sunday that the city has ever experienced.

This unusual condition of affairs was due to the crusade started by the Paterson Ministerial association to clean up the "dives" and bring about an enforcement of the excise laws on the Sabbath as well as weekdays.

As Captain John Tracey of the detective bureau put it, "Paterson was as dry as the desert of Sahara."

The greater part of 100 members of the Law and Order league circulated about the city on the lookout for offending saloonkeepers and the police attended strictly to business.

Two arrests were made on evidence secured by the police, not the volunteer sleuths. The prisoners were Martin Dugan of 51 Morris street and James Ainsworth of 292 Market street. Both were accused of Sunday selling in violation of the bishops excise act.

Owing to the drought many Paterson folks, who simply couldn't stand it, boarded trolley cars and went into the suburbs where the beer pump still worked in roadhouses. More folks were seen staggering on the streets than were usually seen on Sundays when the excise lid wasn't fastened down quite so tight.

The Rev. A. N. Smith of Totowa said that the members of the clergymen are much pleased with the stand taken by Mayor Robert Fordyce and by Chief of Police Bimson for a strict enforcement of the law. He said that the clergymen believe thoroughly in both Bimson and the mayor.

LINDEN COUNCILMAN DIES.

William McDonagh Was President Since Organization of Borough.

Linden, N. J., Feb. 9.—William McDonagh, who had been president of the borough council since the organization of the borough of Linden in 1892, is dead. He was seventy years old. He had lived in Linden since 1888.

Two years ago Mr. McDonagh retired from the wholesale paint business, which is now conducted by his sons in New York. He was one of the organizers of St. Elizabeth's parish, was a member of the board of education and was otherwise engaged in public affairs here. Mrs. McDonagh died in 1892. Those who survive are a daughter, Mrs. Joseph N. de Raismes of Elizabeth, and three sons—William junior, Joseph B. and Leo A. McDonagh, all of Linden.

EDITOR'S FOES TO TESTIFY

Washington Will Hear Hackensack Committee Against Norton.

Hackensack, N. J., Feb. 9.—The contest over the Hackensack postmastership is to be continued before the senate committee in Washington tomorrow morning, when members of the citizens' committee, which preferred charges against James Norton, editor of the Bergen News, will testify. Norton was recommended by Congressman A. C. Hart, and his appointment was confirmed. Senator Smoot caused the appointment to be held up pending an investigation of the charges.

The citizens' committee charged that Norton, as head of the Democratic Publishing company, was responsible for an overcharge of $888 on a printing job for the town. The amount was refunded.

TWO DROP DEAD IN PATERSON

Sexton Expires In Church—Another Stricken on Way.

Paterson, N. J., Feb. 9.—William McCall, seventy-four years of age, who had been employed for twenty years as sexton of the First Baptist church, was found dead in the church. When he failed to return home his wife informed one of the trustees of the church, and a search was made. McCall was found dead in the boiler room. Death was due to heart disease.

Jeremiah Phalen, fifty-eight years of age, a retired silk worker, was entering St. Mary's Roman Catholic church for mass when he dropped to the sidewalk dead. Phalen's death also was due to heart disease.

ASKS $20,000 FOR WIFE'S LOVE

Contractor Charges Her Parents With Alienating Her Affections.

New Brunswick, N. J., Feb. 9.—John Cselle, a contractor, of Roosevelt, N. J., has brought suit against Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Rizsak, his wife's parents, for alienating her affections. He demands $20,000 damages.

Rizsak is a wealthy banker and is well known throughout eastern New Jersey, as is Cselle.

—Some store may be placing on "special sale" just now the article you have not felt like paying "regular" prices for.

CANNOT SELL ANOTHER'S SHOES, SAYS RECORDER

That a shoemaker has no right to sell a customer's shoes after they have been repaired, even though the owner of the footwear neglects to call and pay for them for as long a time as seven weeks, was the judgment of Recorder Frederick Hand today. He was appealed to by Eugene Wood, of the borough, who claimed that David Reese, a cobbler, who has a shop immediately adjoining the borough police station had taken a pair of his shoes to repair and had later sold them. The shoes Wood claimed were really worth $3, but he had obtained them for $2.50. Needing them half-soled he had taken them to Reese. Seven weeks later he discovered the shoes had been sold. He asked for redress. Summoned to court by Chief Marshal George Weiss, Reese said that it was true that he had sold the shoes. The sale had been made, he said, so he could get his money out of them. He had waited seven weeks for Wood to call and pay him and had then disposed of the shoes for the small sum of ninety cents.

"It was a very cheap pair of shoes, Judge," he told Recorder Hand this morning, when he was questioned by that official. "They were not worth 15 cents when they were brought in my shop to be half-soled. I only got ninety cents for them when I sold them."

Reese, although he declared that he would starve to death if he could not collect his bills for repairs, and that he had a right to sell them under the circumstances, was told by Recorder Hand that he would probably have to pay Wood for the loss of his shoes. The matter of the price to be paid by the shoemaker was not determined in court today.

Under the laws of this State goods cannot be sold within one year and then only after public advertisement of the sale being made in the newspapers.

FEATURE PHOTO-PLAYS.

For the first time in Plainfield, the Vitagraph feature photo-play, "Wild Animals at Large," will be shown at Proctor's theatre on West Front street, today. The picture is a decidedly interesting as well as a thrilling one. It shows scenes when the wild animals of a big menagerie break loose after a train wreck. The third of the series of Harold McGrath's famous picture story, "The Adventures of Katnlyn," will also be shown today. It is called "The Temple of the Lion," and the heroine is portrayed in the most fearsome experiences of her career. Two reels of "From Railsplitter to President," showing the life of Abraham Lincoln, will also be exhibited. Tomorrow's big feature will be "Giovanni's Gratitude" and a two reel drama, "Time is Money," will also be shown, in addition to the "Wild Beasts at Large" reels.

—The merchant who, in his advertising, emphasizes the value-giving facts to his competitor's [illegible] the best sort of "[illegible]" for his business.

SHERIFF'S SALE—In Chancery of New Jersey. Between Jonathan Dawson, complainant and Berkeley Heights Association et al., defendants. Fi fa. for sale of mortgaged premises.

By virtue of the above-stated writ of fieri facias to me directed I shall expose for sale by public vendue at the sheriff's office in the Courthouse, in the city of Elizabeth, N. J., on at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of said day, all the following described tracts or parcels of land situate, lying and being in the city of Plainfield, in the county of Union and State of New Jersey.

WEDNESDAY, THE TWENTY-FIFTH DAY OF FEBRUARY, A. D., 1914,

First tract, lot number twenty-seven (27), in block number one (1) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Second tract, lot number thirty-one (31), in block number one (1), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Third tract, lot number twenty-two (22), in block number one (1), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Fourth tract, lot number seven (7), in block number two (2), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Fifth tract, lot number one (1), and the easterly half lengthwise of lot number three (3) in block number one (1), on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union, described as follows:

Beginning at a point being the intersection of the southerly side line of Woodbine avenue and the southwesterly side line of Park avenue and running thence along the said southerly side line of Woodbine avenue in a westerly direction a distance of one hundred and sixty-three and ninety-five one hundredths (163.95) feet to a point being the centre of the front line of lot number three in block number one on a "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E.," which map is filed in the clerk's office of the county of Union; thence southerly and making a new line through the centre of said lot number three in block number one aforesaid a distance of one hundred and forty (140) feet to the centre point in the rear line of said lot; thence easterly along said rear line which is also the rear line of lot number twenty-eight in block number one, a distance of twenty-five (25) feet to a point and corner of lot number three and also a corner of lots numbers twenty-eight, twenty-nine and two; thence northerly and along the line of lot number three and the rear line of lot number two, a distance of seventy (70) feet to a corner of lot number two and also lot number one; thence easterly along the line of lot number one and two, one hundred and eighty-nine and fifty-six one hundredths (189.56) feet to the southwesterly side line of Park avenue aforesaid; thence northwesterly along the southwesterly side line of Park avenue eighty-six and thirty-eight one hundredths (86.38) feet to the point and place of beginning.

Together with the land in front of the same to the centre of Park avenue and Woodbine avenue to be used as a public highway and subject to the easement of the public therein.

Sixth tract, lot number five (5) in block number one (1) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Seventh tract, lot number eight (8), in block number one (1) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Eighth tract, lot number two (2), in block number one (1) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Ninth tract, lot number nine (9) in block number two (2) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Tenth tract, lot number ten (10) in block number two (2) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Eleventh tract, the easterly portion of lots numbers thirteen (13) and eighteen (18), in block number one (1) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union, described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the northerly side of Randolph road as the same is now laid out and opened, said point being distant one hundred and twenty-five and twenty-eight one hundredths (125.28) feet in a magnetic course of south eighty-six degrees east (S. 86° E.) along said northerly side of Randolph road from its intersection with the easterly side of Arlington avenue said beginning point being in the old property line between lands of Dusenbury and Clawson; thence running along said old property line north ten minutes east (No. 10' E.), a distance of two hundred and thirty-one and thirty-three one hundredths (231.33) feet to a point on the southerly side of Woodbine avenue; thence along said southerly side of Woodbine avenue in a general easterly direction and following the curves of the same a distance of twenty-two and sixteen hundreds (22.16) feet more or less to a point being the northwesterly corner of lot number twelve; thence along the westerly line of lot number twelve and nineteen south four degrees west (S. 4° W.), a distance of two hundred and thirty-seven (237) feet more or less to a point on the northerly side of Randolph road aforesaid; thence along said northerly side of Randolph road north eighty-six degrees west (N. 86° W.), a distance of six and thirty-two one hundredths (6.32) feet to the place of beginning.

It being the intention to convey that portion of lots number thirteen and eighteen in block number one, lying east of the old property lines between Dusenbury and Clawson.

Together with the land in front of the same to the middle of Randolph road and Woodbine avenue to be used as public highways and supbject to the easement of the public therein.

Twelfth tract, lot number two (2), in block number two (2) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union, excepting and reserving, however, therefrom a strip of ten feet in width front and rear off of the southerly side lengthwise of said lot, described as follows:

Beginning at a point on the westerly side of Park avenue distant ninety-five and six one-hundredths (95.06) feet northerly from the northwesterly corner formed by the intersection of the westerly side of Park avenue with the northerly side of Woodbine avenue; running thence westerly one hundred and eighty-four and ninety-seven one hundredths (184.97) feet parallel with Woodbine avenue to the line of lot number three; running thence northerly and along the line of lot number three fifty-nine and forty-six one hundredths (59.46) feet to the rear corner of lot number three; thence easterly parallel with Woodbine avenue one hundred and forty-four (144) feet, to the westerly side or line of Park avenue; thence southeasterly and along the westerly side of Park avenue seventy-three and ninety-one one hundredths (73.91) feet to the point or place of beginning.

Being the said several dimensions more or less as an accurate survey may show.

Thirteenth tract, a strip of ten feet in width front and rear off of the southerly side lengthwise of lot number two (2) in block number two (2) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., February, 1903, F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union.

Beginning at a point in the westerly side line of Park avenue distant in a northerly course along said side line eighty-five and six one hundredths (85.06) feet from a point at the intersection of the westerly side line of Park avenue with the northerly side line of Woodbine avenue and is a corner of lot number one, thence running along the said westerly side line of Park avenue in a general northwesterly direction a distance of ten (10) feet to a point in said side line; thence westerly and parallel with the northerly side line of Woodbine avenue aforesaid to a point in the rear line of lot number two and also in the side line of lot number three; thence southerly along the said rear line of lot number two and the side line of lot number three to the corner of said lot number two, also corner of lot number one; thence along the side line of lot number two and lot number one, which line is also parallel with the northerly side line of Woodbine avenue, a distance of one hundred and ninety-four and ninety-seven hundredths (194.97) feet to the westerly side line of Park avenue and the place of beginning.

Be the said several dimensions more or less as an accurate survey may show. It being the intention to convey ten (10) feet frontage on Park avenue.

Together with the land in front of the same to the middle of Park avenue to be used as a public highway.

Fourteenth tract, lot number one (1), in block number two (2) on map entitled "Map of valuable building lots owned by C. Elmer Gulick, situated in the city of Plainfield, N. J., F. A. Dunham, C. E., Plainfield, N. J.," and now on file in the register's office of the county of Union, described as follows:

Beginning at a point being the intersection of the northerly side of Woodbine avenue with the southwesterly side of Park avenue, as the same are now laid out and opened; thence running along said southwesterly side of Park avenue in a magnetic course of north thirty-one degrees and fifty-two minutes west (N. 31° 52' W.), a distance of eighty-five and six one-hundredths (85.06) feet to a point and corner of lot number two; thence along the southerly line of said lot north eighty-six degrees west (N. 86° W.) and parallel with Woodbine avenue aforesaid, a distance of one hundred and ninety-three and twenty-two hundredths (193.22) feet to a point in the easterly line of lot number three; thence along said line and at right angles with Woodbine avenue south four degrees west (S. 4° W.), a distance of sixty-eight and ninety-two one-hundredths (68.92) feet on a point on the northerly side of Woodbine avenue aforesaid; thence along said northerly side of Woodbine avenue south eighty-six degrees east (S. 86° E.), a distance of two hundred and forty-two and ninety-nine one-hundredths (242.99) feet to the place of beginning.

Together with the land in front of same to the middle of Park avenue and Woodbine avenue to be used as public streets.

The second tract, ninth tract and tenth tract above described are sold subject to the sale for past due taxes and interest and costs thereon, and all of the above tracts, including the second tract, ninth tract and tenth tract, are sold subject to any and all unpaid taxes and assessments of any kind.

WILLIAM H. WRIGHT, Sheriff.
JOHN H. VAN WINKLE & SON, Sol'rs.
2 2 4-m EDJ&PDP Fees, $104.38

Walking to and from the Telephone is wasteful

A Telephone on every desk saves wasteful walking

"Walking is Waste"

Says an Eminent Efficiency Expert.

"AN ORGANIZATION that is economically managed is equipped to handle all its business without waste of time, useless moves and confusion."

Such an organization must have adequate telephone facilities to help cut the corners, to eliminate wasteful walking between desks and departments and to create order.

Are your telephone facilities adequate?

We will gladly send a representative to talk the matter over with you and to assist you to fit telephone service to your needs.

NEW YORK TELEPHONE CO.

8—14

A. E. WILSON, Local Commercial Manager,
109 East Fourth Street, Plainfield, N. J.

A Cabinet Filled With KEEN KUTTER Tools

is a present any man or boy will be proud of.

Gentlemen, if you havn't someone to give you a set, buy one yourself; it will be a treat.

They are always useful in making repairs around the house, and when a Tool is wanted the Cabinet is the place to go.

Why buy odd jobs tools when you can purchase a Cabinet with a complete set of the most useful tools, and then have a place for each one.

F. A. Kirch & Co.

205 Park Ave.

Phone 578.

Of Interest to Women and the Home

The Housewife's Daily Economy Calendar

FRANCES MARSHALL

Clean Mirrors.

Fly-specked, streaked and dusty mirrors are a disgrace to any good housekeeper, and rather than see them she should take down the mirrors from the walls and pack them all away in the storeroom. There is, of course, the alternative of keeping them clean, and this is open to everyone who can wield a cleaning cloth.

Clean cloths are essential to clean mirrors. A cloth that has been used for something else and is only a trifle so will ruin the appearance of a big mirror, for every speck of dust or smear of grease seems to be much enlarged on the smooth and hard surface of a mirror.

So the first requisite to clean mirrors is a supply of cloths which are never to be used for any purpose save cleaning mirrors. These should be kept clean and dry and folded. They can be used more easily if they are not ironed.

One Method of Cleaning.

The mirrors should be dusted every day, and when it is necessary to wash them they should first be freed from dust with a dry cloth. They should then be covered with a film of some cleaning preparation—there are several cleaning materials sold in cakes or bricks, and some pastes, which need only the addition of a little water to be ready for use.

The cleaning preparation should be washed off with a fresh damp cloth, and then the mirror should be rubbed dry with a dry cloth, chamois or bits of tissue paper wadded up. All clean tissue paper—the sort that comes about hats and suits—can be saved in a big cretonne bag for polishing mirrors and windows.

Some persons wash mirrors first with a chamois wet in lukewarm water, and then dry them with another chamois. This method of cleaning does not call for soap or cleaning material of any kind—save water.

A few drops of alcohol sprinkled on a damp cloth will immediately take all dust and dirt from glass of any kind; but after being cleaned with alcohol, a mirror must be entirely rinsed with clear water in order to keep the surface from clouding.

Caring For Mirrors.

No mirror can be cleaned if it is in bad condition—that is, no such mirror will look clean, no matter how much time is spent over it. For this reason no cleaning paste of brick should be used which can possibly scratch the surface of the mirror deeply enough to show. The mirror should be protected, as much as possible, from sudden changes of temperature. A mirror hung against an outside wall, where the excessive cold of winter nights can reach it, frequently becomes mottled and clouded because the quicksilver lining is affected by the low temperature.

(Copyright, 1914, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

If one has a straight skirt that is somewhat out of date, it is a simple enough matter to modernize it by adding a tunic or one of the new hip draperies that are so much favored just now. These draperies need not necessarily be of the same color or material as the dress, but may be of silk in a contrasting or self color as preferred. This combining of contrasting colors and materials is new and economical.

No. 7202 shows two complete patterns, four distinct peplums. Two designs are draped and two are plain.

If you have a plain little dress of white voile or crepe from last summer that you would like to change a trifle one of these tunics in a flowered crepe, draped pannier fashion, will make a fascinating addition, and the dress will practically be new.

This pattern requires for any size about 1½ or 1⅝ yards of 36 inch material.

It is cut in 6 sizes: 22 to 32.

This Is a Perfect Pattern.

Be sure to state right size, passing the tape tightly around the waist.

It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15 cents in stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

COUPON

Name .....

Street and No. .....

City and State .....

Pattern No. .....

Sizes .....

A. E. Force & Co., "The White Store," carry all patterns in stock and the Daily Press recommends that its readers procure them there. They will be furnished by this paper when the orders come direct to us, through A. E. Force & Co.

Some Cookery Suggestions

HOW TO BOIL RICE.

PROCEED in the same manner as for macaroni—that is, cook in plenty of fast boiling water to which is added salt. Lemon juice is often added to insure a good color. The rice is boiled sufficiently when a grain can be pressed between the finger and thumb and feels quite soft.

Rice may be served in the same ways as macaroni.

The simplicity of boiled rice makes it especially suitable for children and invalids, but it is rarely cooked with sufficient care.

Excellent Meat Substitutes.

Italian Boiled Rice.—Take a cupful of rice and wash it. To about a quart of boiling water add a slice of bacon, a tablespoonful of grated Parmesan cheese and a pinch of saffron to deepen the color. Boil well for five minutes, then add rice gradually and cook according to directions for boiled rice. When done remove the bacon, dot with bits of butter and set in the oven to dry. Serve hot.

Boiled Rice With Cheese.—Take a half cupful of rice, boil and drain as usual; then stir a tablespoonful of grated cheese, tossing it with a fork. Heap in a dish, sprinkle another tablespoonful of cheese over it after putting bits of butter on the rice, set in the oven for a few minutes until the butter is melted and the cheese slightly browned; then serve hot in the dish.

Simple and Nutritious.

Rice and Cream.—Simmer three tablespoonfuls of rice with six lumps of sugar in a pint and a half of milk till the rice is quite soft and has absorbed all the milk. Add a little milk or water if the rice becomes too dry. Turn into a wet mold to set. When cold serve with whipped cream and jam.

Pink Cream.—Boil four ounces of ground rice in a quart of milk, adding two ounces of butter, two ounces of sugar and any flavoring liked. Stir after the rice is added to the milk and for twenty minutes after it boils till it is a smooth custard. Color the rice to a pretty pink with cochineal. Spread the bottom of the glass dish with strawberry preserve and when cool pour the rice over the jam till the dish is full. Set aside till cold and then scatter desiccated cocoanut over the surface.

Anna Thompson

Gerry Sang With All His Might.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—

Gerry at the Monument of George Washington.

"GERRY was very proud of his name," daddy began as Jack and Evelyn settled down for his story. "He had been named after his great-great-grandfather, who had fought in the Revolutionary war with General George Washington. To Gerry had been given a little chair that had once belonged to George Washington. It had been given to his great-great-grandfather by Washington himself. It had been handed down to Gerry, and of all the treasures the world could hold Gerry thought the little chair was the most wonderful of all. He would sit in it and dream of the little George Washington who grew up to be the Father of His Country.

"But he spent all his time dreaming. He was quite a lazy little boy and never really did anything. He lived in the past and never thought that there was any possibility of being brave or fine at the present day.

"One day—Washington's birthday it was—Gerry was sitting in the little chair, thinking, as always, of his beloved hero, George Washington. The flags were out, and, of course, it was a holiday. Gerry heard the sound of distant drums. Yes; a band it surely was. It must mean a parade. He rushed to the window. There they were coming, and a big parade too. An old soldier of a more recent war carried the glorious flag, and two little boy scouts walked beside him. Next came the band playing 'Yankee Doodle' and behind were soldiers and citizens of the town. Following after were lots of little boys. Gerry put on his overcoat and followed the parade.

"They marched a long distance, but at last the old soldier cried 'Halt!' and they stopped before a monument of George Washington sitting upon his horse.

"The old soldier then addressed his followers, telling them that his grandfather had fought with George Washington, and he told many stories that his grandfather had told him of the great hero. Then he spoke to all the small boys present. He told them that the days were past when there was freedom to fight for. Now the day had come to live up to the example of Washington. They need not fight. That had been done, but there were other kinds of bravery and goodness. To be the right followers of Washington he told them that each little boy should be unselfish, kind and useful in his home, and then if ever a war came he would be the right kind to fight for his country.

"And then every one sang 'My country, 'tis of thee.'

"And Gerry was thinking. He was not unselfish; he was lazy, and all he did was to dream and, sadder yet, to realize he wasn't a boy his great-great-grandfather would have been proud of. But as he sang with all his might, 'Sweet land of liberty,' he said to himself, 'I'll be a boy and not just an idle dreamer from now on.'"

LOHRMAN'S Chocolate Shop

161 EAST FRONT STREET.

High Grade Chocolates, Candies; Ice Cream and Sodas. Mottoes, Favors and Ice Cream Forms for all occasions. Orders taken for Frozen Puddings, Glaces Mousses, Etc.

O. A. R. GARAGE

915-917 South Avenue.

Carbon removed by Oxygen method—$3 for 4 cylinder, $4 for 6 cylinder. Sole agents for Symplex Gas Savers—positively gives more power, speed and uses 25 to 50% saving.

GUARANTEED REPAIRS

German Valley. and Chester

Silas Silker, of Orange, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Dickson, of Chester.

George Praster and family, of Montclair, are visiting Mrs. Jacob Praster, of Chester.

The Young People's Society of the Chester Congregational church realized $45 from its recent supper.

The young people's meeting of the Chester Presbyterian church last night was led by Emmet M. Hockenbury.

Sylvester N. Dilts, of German Valley, is convalescing from illness.

Miss Myra Commons, of Chester, is recovering from pneumonia.

Olin Van Nest, of German Valley, is recovering from impaired vision.

Mrs. Elias Wack has decided to remain on her farm near Chester for the coming season.

Dr. Lorenzo B. Phillips will move from German Valley to Lawrence, Long Island, in about three weeks.

Rev. Charles H. B. Seliger preached a patriotic sermon in the Chester Congregational church yesterday morning.

TRUSSES

NEW FITTING ROOM

Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.

William M. Walsh

North and Watchung Avenues.

Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964.

OPP. DEPOT.

FLOORS

HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.

Old Floors Refinished.

S. E. WARD & CO.

714 Webster Place, Plainfield, N. J

Telephone 1309-R.

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

BY EARL DERR BIGGERS

Copyright, 1913, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER XI.

Melodrama in the Snow.

MR. MAX finished, and again from below came the sound of voices raised in anger.

"An interesting story, Mr. Max," commented Professor Bolton. "I shall treasure it."

"Told with a remarkable feeling for detail," added Mr. Magee. "In fact, it seems to me that only one of the two participants in it could remember all the fine points so well. Mr. Max, you don't exactly look like Mark Dennen to me, therefore—if you will pardon the liberty"—

"I get you," replied Max sadly. "The same old story. Suspicion—suspicion everywhere. It does a lot of harm, believe me. I wouldn't"—

He jumped from his chair and disappeared, for the voice of Cargan had hailed him from below. Mr. Magee and the professor with one accord followed. Hiding in the friendly shadows of the landing once again, they heard the loud tones of the mayor's booming voice and the softer tones of Bland's.

"How about this?" bellowed the mayor. "Hayden's squealed. Phones to Bland—not to me. Whines about the courts—I don't know what rot. He's squealed. He didn't phone the combination."

"The rat!" screamed Mr. Max.

"By the Lord Harry," said the mayor, "I'll have it open, anyhow! I've earned what's in there fair and—I've earned it. I'm going to have it, Max."

"See here, Cargan"— put in Mr. Bland.

"Keep out of the way, you," cried Cargan. "And put away that popgun before you get hurt. I'm going to have what's mine by justice. That safe comes open tonight. Max, get your satchel."

Mr. Magee and the professor turned and ascended to the second floor. In front of No. 7 they paused and looked into each other's eyes. Professor Bolton shrugged his shoulders.

"I'm going to bed," he said, "and I advise you to do the same."

"Yes," replied Mr. Magee, but had no idea what he had said.

He entered No. 7 and paused in amazement. Outside one of his windows Miss Norton stood, rapping on the glass for him to open. When he stood facing her at last, the window no longer between, he saw that her face was very pale and that her chin trembled as it had in the station.

"What is it?" cried Magee.

"I must come in," she answered. "Listen! You said you wanted to help me. You can do so now. I'll explain everything later. That is all I need tell you just at present. Downstairs in the safe there's a package containing $200,000—do you hear, $200,000. I must have that package. Don't ask me why. I came here to get it. I must have it. The combination was to have been phoned to Cargan at 8 o'clock. I was hiding outside the window. Something went wrong—they didn't phone it. He's going to open the safe by force. I heard him say so. I couldn't wait to hear more. I saw him."

"Who?" asked Mr. Magee.

"I don't know—a tall black figure—hiding outside a window like myself. The man with one of the other keys, I suppose. The man Mr. Bland heard walking about tonight. I saw him, and I was terribly frightened.

"You trust me?" asked the girl, with a little catch in her voice. "Without knowing who I am or why I must have the money—you'll get it for me?"

"Some people," said Mr. Magee, "meet all their long lives at pink teas and never know one another, while others just smile at each other across a station waiting room—that's enough."

"I'm so glad," whispered the girl. "I never dreamed I'd meet any one like you—up here. Please, oh, please be very careful. Neither Cargan nor Max is armed. Bland is. I should never forgive myself if you were hurt. But you won't be, will you?"

"I may catch cold," laughed Mr. Magee; "otherwise I'll be perfectly safe." He went into the room and put on a gay plaid cap. "Makes me look like Sherlock Holmes," he smiled at the girl framed in the window. When he turned to his door to lock it, he discovered that the key was gone and that it had been locked on the outside. "Oh, very well," he said flippantly. He buttoned his coat to the chin, blew out the candles in No. 7 and joined the girl on the balcony.

"Go to your room," he said gently. "Your worries are over. I'll bring you the golden fleece inside an hour."

"Be careful," she whispered. "Be very careful, Mr.—Billy."

The justly celebrated moon that in summer months shed so much glamor on the romances of Baldpate Inn was nowhere in evidence as Mr. Magee crept along the ground close to the veranda. The snow sifted down upon him out of the blackness above. Three feet ahead the world seemed to end.

"A corking night," he muttered humorously, "for my debut in the hold-up business."

He swung up over the rail on to the veranda and walked softly along it until he came to a window opening into the office. Cautiously he peered in. The vast, lonely room was lighted by a single candle. At the foot of the broad stair he could discern a great bulk seated on the lowest step, which he correctly took to be the mayor of Reuton. Back of the desk, on which stood the candle, Mr. Max's head and shoulders were visible. He was working industriously in the immediate vicinity of the safe door. Occasionally he consulted the small traveling bag that stood on the desk. Many other professions had claimed Mr. Max before his advent into Reuton politics. Mr. Bland was nowhere in sight.

"Keep out of the way, you," cried Cargan.

No word was spoken in the office. Minutes passed. The bulk at the foot of the stairs surged restlessly.

Suddenly Mr. Max ran out into the center of the office. Almost on the instant there was a white puff of smoke and a roar. The inn seemed about to roll down the mountain after all those years of sticking tight. The mayor looked apprehensively up the stair behind him. Mr. Max ran to the open safe door and came back before the desk with a package in his hand. After examining it hastily, Mr. Cargan placed the loot in his pocket. The greedy eyes of Max followed it for a second; then he ran over and gathered up his tools. Now they were ready to depart. The mayor lifted the candle from the desk. Its light fell on a big chair by the fire, and Mr. Magee saw in that chair the figure of Mr. Bland, bound and gagged.

Mr. Cargan and his companion paused and appeared to address triumphant and jesting comment in Mr. Bland's direction. Then they buttoned their coats and, holding aloft the candle, disappeared through the dining room door.

Now Magee knew the moment had come to act. Max he could quickly dispose of he felt; Cargan would require time and attention.

He hurried round to the front door of the inn and, taking the big key from his pocket, unlocked it as a means of retreat where the men he was about to attack could not follow.

He heard Cargan and Max on the veranda just above his head. They were speaking of trains to Reuton. In great good humor, evidently, they started down the steps. Mr. Magee crouched, resolved that he would spring the moment they reached the ground. They were on the last step—now!

Suddenly from the other side of the steps a black figure rose, a fist shot out and Mr. Max went spinning like a whirling dervish down the snowy path to land in a heap five feet away. The next instant the mayor of Reuton and the black figure were locked in terrific conflict.

For fifteen seconds, muttering, slipping, grappling, the two figures waltzed grotesquely about in the falling snow. Then the mayor's feet slid from under him on the treacherous white carpet, and the two went down together. As Mr. Magee swooped down upon them he saw the hand of the stranger find the mayor's pocket and draw from it the package that had been placed there in the office a few moments before.

Before that gentleman realized what had happened Magee had wrenched the package from his hand, thrown him back on the prostrate form of the highest official of Reuton and fled up the steps. Quickly the stranger regained his feet and started in pursuit, but he arrived at the great front door of Baldpate inn just in time to hear the lock click inside.

Safe for a moment behind a locked door, Mr. Magee paused to get his breath. The glory of battle filled his soul. It was not until long afterward that he realized the battle had been a mere scuffle in the dark.

With no thought for Mr. Bland bound in his uneasy chair, Mr. Magee hurried up the broad staircase of Baldpate. Now came the most gorgeous scene of all—a fair haired lady, a knight she had sent forth to battle, the knight returned. "You asked me to bring you this, my lady." Business of surprise and joy on the lady's part, business also perhaps of adoration for the knight.

At the right of the stairs lay 17 and the lady, at the left a supposedly uninhabited land. As Mr. Magee reached the second floor, blithely picturing the scene in which he was to play so satisfactory a part, he paused, for halfway down the corridor to the left an open door threw a faint light into the hall, and in that light stood a woman he had never seen before. In this order came Mr. Magee's impressions of her—fur coated, tall, dark, handsome, with the haughty manner of one engaging a chauffeur.

"I beg your pardon," she said, "but are you by any chance Mr. Magee?"

The knight leaned weakly against the wall and tried to think.

"I—I am," he managed to say.

"I'm so glad I've found you," replied the girl. It seemed to the dazed Magee that her dark eyes were not overly happy. "I cannot ask you in, I'm afraid. I do not know the custom on such an occasion. Does anybody? I am alone with my maid. Hal Bentley, when I wrote to him for a key to this place, told me of your being here and said that I was to put myself under your protection."

"Delighted, I'm sure," he murmured.

"I shall not try to impose on you," she went on. "The whole affair is so unusual as to be almost absurd. I have come here to get something—and I haven't the least idea how to proceed. I came because I must have it—so much depends on it."

Prophetically Mr. Magee clutched in his pocket the package for which he had done battle.

"I may be too late." The girl's eyes grew wide. "That would be terribly unfortunate. I do not wish you to be injured serving me"— She lowered her voice. "But if there is any way in which you can help me—in this difficulty—I can never be grateful enough. Downstairs in the safe there is, I believe, a package containing a large sum of money."

Magee Wrenched the Package From His Hand.

Mr. Magee's hand closed convulsively in his pocket.

"If there is any way possible," said the girl, "I must obtain that package. I give you my word I have as much right to it as any one who will appear at the inn. The honor and happiness of one who is very dear to me are involved."

With the eyes of a man in a dream Mr. Magee looked into the face of the latest comer to Baldpate.

"Hal Bentley is an old friend and a bully chap," he said. "It will be a great pleasure to serve a friend of his." He paused, congratulating himself that these were words, idle words. "When did you arrive, may I ask?"

"I believe you were having dinner when I came," she answered. "Mr. Bentley gave me a key to the kitchen door, and we found a back stairway. There seemed to be a company below—I wanted to see only you."

"I repeat," said Mr. Magee, "I shall be happy to help you if I can." His word to another lady, he reflected, was binding. "I suggest that there is no harm in waiting until morning."

"But—I am afraid it was tonight"—she began.

"I understand," Magee replied. "The plans went wrong. You may safely let your worries rest until tomorrow."

"You are very kind," she said. "I hardly expected to be here the night through. It is rather cold, but I am sure we have rugs and coats enough."

Mr. Magee's duty was clear.

"I'll build you a fire," he announced. The girl seemed distressed at the thought.

"No, I couldn't let you," she said. "I am sure it isn't necessary. I will say good night now. I am Myra Thornhill of Reuton. Until tomorrow." She went in and closed the door.

Mr. Magee sat limply down on the cold stair. All the glory was gone from the scene he had pictured a moment ago. He had the money, yes, the money procured in valiant battle, but at the moment he bore the prize to his lady another appeared from the dark to claim it. What should he do?

Mr. Magee unlocked the door of No. 7 and entered. Lighting his candles and feeding the fire, he composed a note to the waiting girl in 17.

"Everything all right. Sleep peacefully. I am on the job. Will see you tomorrow. Mr.—Billy."

Slipping this message under her door, the ex-knight hurried away to avoid an interview and sat down in his chair before the fire.

"I must think," he muttered. "I must get this thing straight."

For an hour he pondered, thrashing out as best he could this mysterious game in which he played a leading part unequipped with a book of rules.

"Tomorrow is another day," he reflected. "I'll solve this whole thing then. They can't go on playing without me. I've got the ball."

He took the package from his pocket. Its seals had already been broken. Untying the strings, he began carefully to unwrap the paper, the thick yellow banking manila and then the oiled inner wrapping. So finally he opened up the solid mass of—what? He looked closer. Crisp, beautiful $1,000 bills. Whew! He had never seen a bill of this size before. And here were 200 of them.

He wrapped the package up once more and prepared for bed. Just as he was about to retire he remembered Mr. Bland, bound and gagged below. He went into the hall with the idea of releasing the unlucky haberdasher, but from the office rose the voices of the mayor, Max and Bland himself. Peace evidently had been declared between them. Mr. Magee returned to No. 7, locked all the windows, placed the much sought package beneath his pillow and after a half hour of puzzling and tossing fell asleep.

(to be continued)

North Branch.

A meeting was held at the parsonage of the Reformed church, this place, Friday night, for the purpose of organizing a Boy Scout troop. Rev. Charles E. Corwin, the pastor, is at the head of the movement.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Reformed church in North Branch is making arrangements for a sociable in the chapel next Friday evening.

Mrs. Archibald B. Van Derbeek returned Friday to her home at Burnt Mills, near here, after a visit to her daughter, Miss Mabel Paulison, in New York.

Mrs. Herbert Van Fleet returned Saturday to her home at Readington. She has been visiting her sister, Miss Louise Conover, at Whitehouse Station.

Miss Edith Hill entertained the Sunshine Society at her home at Neshanic Saturday afternoon.

Miss Ella Hall, of Clover Hill, is visiting Mrs. William Y. Herder, at Neshanic Station.

Under the auspices of the Women's Missionary Society of the Reformed church at Neshanic a mission conference was held in that edifice last night.

Mrs. Lurena Brokaw, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. P. A. Hoagland, returned to South Branch Friday.

Miss Flora Bush, of Whitehouse, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Alvah Bush, at Readington.

Miss Alice M. Horner, who has been suffering from an attack of tonsilitis at her home at Neshanic Station, is able to be about again.

Miss Helen Wilbur, of New York, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry C. S. Sebring at Neshanic.

Mrs. John Young, of South Branch, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Amerman, at Neshanic Station.

Miss Edna Miller, of Trenton, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis S. Miller, at Neshanic.

Miss Sarah Labaw, of Neshanic, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Labaw, at Frankfort.

Freeholder and Mrs. Edward B. Hoagland, of Neshanic, returned Friday from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Peter R. Hall, in Bound Brook.

Charles S. Phillips, of Pine terrace, South Branch, was in Newark on Thursday to visit a sister, who is ill.

Mrs. D. W. Bowman, of South Branch, is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Houston Brown, in Somerville.

Miss Sophia Thompson, of Readington, has gone to Raritan to visit Mr. and Mrs. William V. Dalley.

George V. Conover, of Whitehouse Station, is visiting his father, Jesse Conover, Sr., at Readington.

HORSES CLIPPED

By Charles C. Brower,

PLAINFIELD CAB CO.,

130-134 E. Second St. 'Phone 10.

11 6 6mos

HODGE'S PHARMACY

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.

BELLE MEAD SWEETS.

Telephone 62.

B. KIVATINOS

(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)

Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.

311 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 886-W

OLIVE OIL

Gallon can $2.65

Half Gallon can $1.40

Quart can 75c

20 oz. bottle 65c

DIRECT FROM FRANCE

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS

Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760

Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage

WAREHOUSE

North Avenue

OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE

125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.

OLD RELIABLE

STORAGE

All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry

Furniture Packed and Shipped

Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS

THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.

AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading

Auctioneers

W. A. SCHORB & CO.

Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.

20 Madison Av., Jackson Blg

Telephone 1707-W.

HENRY J. SIEBERT & CO.

1147 East Jersey St.,

ELIZABETH, N. J.

(Opp. Proctor's Theatre).

We specialize:

AWNINGS

WINDOW SHADES

CURTAIN MATERIALS

BRASS GOODS, etc.

Large assortment.

Low prices.

'Phone Elizabeth 852.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JUST RECEIVED 8,000 ROLLS OF THIS YEAR'S

WALL PAPER

At special prices, selling at 8 and 10 cents per roll. This is an opportunity to secure up-to-date wallpaper at a big saving.

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators.

145 NORTH AVENUE.

Now is the Time

To paint your house—in the cool of the year, when the paint dries slowly, and consequently lasts longest. No hot sun to cause blisters. And the house painted now is preserved against the ravages of winter storms.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's pure colors, ready mixed paint, varnishes, glass, etc.

JAMES C. HANSEN

Tel. 346.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

February 1, 1913.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:20, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:20, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30, 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:00, 8:00, 9:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:00 a. m., 12:30, 3:15 and 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00 a. m., 1:30, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:20, 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:20, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:20, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:20, 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton. Close—6:20 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:20, 8:40 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close—8:00, 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:20, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:20, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00, 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:30, 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 2:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

W. H. LIRD, P. M.

Dr. Robert W. Rogers

OSTEOPATH

720 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1936-W.

Office hours: 8 to 9 a. m., 7 to 8 p. m.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

New Providence.

The Borough Council will meet tonight.

Miss Martha Radzio, of Mountain avenue, New Providence township, is ill.

Miss Rachel A. French, of Plainfield, returned home Friday, from a visit to Mr. and Mrs. William Losee, of Plainfield avenue, Berkeley Heights.

"The Individual Christ" was the topic of the sermon yesterday morning by Rev. W. A. L. Jett, pastor of St. Luke's Reformed Episcopal Mission, of South street, Murray Hill.

Rev. G. R. Brower, of Englewood, preached yesterday morning in the Presbyterian church.

Mrs. William E. Atteridge, of Springfield avenue, is visiting her mother, Mrs. M. A. Bruen, of Madison.

Nathaniel B. Woodruff, of Brooklyn, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Louis B. High, of Passaic street.

Rev. William H. Evans, of the Methodist church, preached yesterday morning on "The Knowledge and Sympathy of Christ." In the evening his subject was "The Two Brothers."

Mrs. Louis C. Rubsamen, of Mountain avenue, Murray Hill, left Friday for Green Cove Springs, Fla., where she will be the guest of her mother, Mrs. Louise Schultz-Sievers.

BIBLE CLASS BANQUET.

Dr. Norman H. Probasco's Bible class at the First Baptist church will hold its annual banquet at the Y. M. C. A., on Thursday night, February 19. There will be several prominent speakers from this city and New York, and Guy Hunter, a blind musician, will give selections on the violin.

BURGLARS AT NEW MARKET.

Burglars entered the home of C. L. Kelley, on Prospect avenue, in New Market on Friday, stole a gold handled umbrella. They also took an overcoat which they left on the lawn and which the owner afterwards recovered.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists

AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Free Consultation.

Hours 10 to 4:30.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.08, 5.40, 5.52, 6.27, 6.55, 7.22, 7.36, 7.41, 7.44, 7.55, 7.58, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.42, 8.59, 9.29, 9.55, 10.26, 11.27, 11.52 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.29, 2.39, 2.55, 3.12, 3.48, 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.43 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.40, 7.23, 7.58, 8.52, 9.34, 9.40, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.39, 2.58, 4.28, 5.09, 6.23, 7.55, 8.17, 9.29, 9.54, 10.57, 7.14, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.27, 10.28, 10.3[illegible] p. m.

For Newark—5.08, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8.36, 9.29, 10.26, 11.27 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.39, 2.55, 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.3[illegible] a. m., 12.39, 12.58, 1.28, 2.09, 2.55, 3.17, 4.29, 5.34, 7.14, 8.13, 9.35, 9.27, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.06, 9.44, 11.27 a. m.; 2.00, 5.24, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), (6.59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5.19, (9.43 to Allentown), 10.32 a. m.; 1.58, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.18, 9.44 a. m., 5.44 p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.32 a. m., 5.44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, *8.12, 11.27 a. m., (2.34, (12.58 Red Bank only), (4.12 Red Bank only), 4.36, 6.25, 8.27, 11.43 p. m. Sundays—3.41, 8.52 a. m., (2.09 Red Bank only), 3.17, 8.35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m., (12.34 Saturdays only), 3.12. Sunday—9.40 a. m., 1.28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6.38, 7.39, 8.45, 10.43, (1.53 a. m., 12.42, 1.54, 2.45, 3.13, 6.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 a. m. Sunday—8.45, 9.39, 9.57, 10.39, 10.43, 11.41 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.29, 4.56, 5.39, 6.33, 7.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.55, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk. 12 21 12

Your Appearance Counts

Have you ever realized how well you are received when your appearance is favorable? Men, send your Suit and have it cleaned and pressed. Ladies, your tea gowns, woolen dresses, opera cloaks, plain or fancy waists, and indeed anything worth cleaning.

I guarantee my work and assure you that my method will tend to renew the fabric, brighten the colors and raise the nap, thereby restoring the garment to the freshness of new clothing.

A. ROTGUN

432 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 1976-W.

Nine years with G. O. Keller.

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.

Jobbing a specialty. Estimates cheerfully given. Telephone 247-J.

1120 Myrtle Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

Classified Advertisements---Copy Received Until 1:30 P. M. Daily

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No Display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

VAIL

JEWELER and OPTICIAN.

236 Park Avenue

OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING

CANDIES, ICE CREAM

DAINTY LUNCH

REMEMBER

We carry the largest and finest stock of plants and cut flowers in the city. Floral design work by expert designers. Plant or flowers delivered to any city of the United States. Store, 159 East Front street; Tel 928; greenhouses, 1126 South avenue. 40,000 feet of glass.

STANLEY

159 E. Front St. Tel. 928.

Woodhull & Martin Building.

Greenhouses, South Ave., Tel. 331-J.

T. A. MOORE

UNDERTAKER

612 E Sixth St.

Tel. 741-R

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON,

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS

Office, 116 Park Avenue, Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 584-W. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2584-Gramercy.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,

UNDERTAKERS

402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 46. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 3345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

JAS. J. CHAS. A.

J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS

FUNERAL PARLORS

109 W. Fourth St. Tel. 1753-J.

Our Booklet Entitled A Modern Mortuary Establishment Sent Upon Request.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS

Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

DIED.

STARTUP—Mrs. Elizabeth Startup, mother of W. C. Startup, of this city, died at her home Sunday morning, in Middletown, N. Y.

She is survived by six children, also two sisters, Mrs. T. S. Armstrong and Mrs. Alburtus Swalm, both of this city.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED—An experienced white waitress-chambermaid at 930 Madison avenue; 'Phone 1859.

EXPERIENCED waitress and chambermaid wanted at once; good wages. Call Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'Phone 1724. 2 9 2

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Gold ring with red stone and pearls, between Webster place, Watchung and Crescent avenues, West Eighth street and Arlington avenue. Reward if returned to Daily Press office. 2 9 2

LOST—Watch charm, maltese cross bearing Masonic emblem on one side, Independent Order of Foresters on the other; date 1910. Liberal reward if returned to F. W. Vail, Dunellen, N. J. 2 7 2

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, reliable help only; all nationalities, faithful service commands good situations and our fees are very reasonable; courteous treatment to all. 326 West Front street, near Grove; Phone 666. 11 26 tf

HANSEN'S Employment Agency, 128 Watchung avenue, corner Second street. Excellent positions furnished to reliable help of all nationalities. Telephone 2559. 2 5 1mo

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

LITTLE TALKS BY THE WANT AD MAN

Copyright, 1913, The Int. Syndicate, Baltimore.

No. 58.

OVER in the Eastern section of town, let us say, there is a man who has a gas engine for sale. Away out in the Western district there is a man who needs just that kind of an engine. If the man over East knew about the man out toward the West, he wouldn't lose any time in telling him about the article he wants to sell.

But the man over East doesn't know the man out at the other end of town. And the man at the other end, not being a mind reader, doesn't know that there is a man over Eastward with a gas engine for sale.

Now, how can these two men get into touch with each other? I know, and so do you: Through a little Want Ad. in the "For Sale" column.

Perhaps these two men—the man who wants to sell and the man who wants to buy—rubbed elbows somewhere within the past few days without knowing it. But that didn't help either one of them in the matter of that gas engine, did it?

The man with the engine would like to get into touch with the man who wants an engine. He could do it in the "For Sale" column at a cost of forty or fifty cents—perhaps less than that.

Mr. Man Over East, you can get a profitable introduction to Mr. Man Toward The West in the "For Sale" column.

The Want-Ad Man

(All rights reserved, 1913, by Jerome P. Fleishman.)

MISCELLANEOUS.

TAXIDERMIST—Birds and animals stuffed and mounted. T. W. Sisty, Wayside Park; 'Phone 1289-J Dunellen, N. J. 11 1[illegible] 1mo

EMBROIDERY, INITIALS, ETC.—Orders taken for all kinds of embroidery and initials; first class work; prices reasonable. Mrs. C. S. Groot, 768 Woodland avenue, near Putnam avenue; telephone 1687-M. 1 15 1mo

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES. AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY CO. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Lewis A. Clement, lawyer, Babcock building. 2 9 6

TO LOAN—Mortgage money, $1,000 to $3,000, at 6 per cent. Write, "Mortgages, 2281 Woolworth Building, New York." 2 6 3

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 2 6 1mo

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Manning, 183 North avenue. 10 14 tf

FOR SALE—CHICKENS AND EGGS

FOR SALE—Choice White Wyandotte cockerels; also eggs for hatching. 1037 Sherman avenue, near Clinton. 2 6 3

HELP WANTED—MALE.

MARRIED man (white), sober and industrious; handy with tools; can drive and care for auto, and make himself generally useful; city references. Address White, care Press. 2 9 3

WANTED—Man to work on farm. Call to stableman, Eastern Bottling Co. 2 6 3

FOR SALE.

ROYAL TYPEWRITERS — The best built standard typewriter in the world for only $75. Write or call for a demonstration, Plainfield Office Supply Co., Local Agents, P. O. Box 701. 'Phone 921-W. 1 25 1mo

FOR SALE—Manure, soil. Sam Redd, 933 West Third street. 2 3 1m

FOR SALE—Reasonable, large wardrobe, iron bed, complete, also other articles. Call this evening in basement of Public Library Eighth street entrance.

FOR SALE CHEAP—Desk, 3 tables, clothes-rack, chairs, etc., mission finish. 120 North avenue. 2 6 3

FOR SALE—All kinds fine gloves for ladies, men and boys, at wholesale and retail; large variety of deer skin gloves for auto, driving and working; best canvas, 10c; per dozen, $1.00; kid gloves, slightly damaged, half price. H. Texier, 58 Somerset street. 12 31 tf

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—Two new seven room houses; all improvements; garage, sleeping porch, decorated to suit tenant or buyer. 839 Osborne avenues, Netherwood, telephone 894-M. 1 28 tf

FOR SALE OR RENT—Premises 323 East Front street, southwest corner Westervelt avenue; lot 45x100; house containing all improvements; also, premises 418 East Second street; house with all improvements; good sized lot. State Trust Co. 2 7 3

ROOMS AND BOARD.

TO LET—Attractive rooms, with board. Mrs. L. R. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue. 2 24 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

HOUSEWORK, 25c an hour, wanted by handy colored man. 217 Liberty street. 10 28 tf

FOR RENT.

FLAT to let, five rooms, all improvements. 538 West Fifth street, or enquire 432 Watchung avenue. 11 11 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street, with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FIVE-ROOM apartment, all modern improvements; central location. Inquire P. C. Thomsen, 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—Six room house and bath. Inquire 147 East Fifth street. 11 28 tf

TO RENT—Flat, 6 rooms and bath; all improvements; $25.50. Inquire 334 East Fifth street. 2 4 1m

TO LET—Four rooms, East Seventh street, near Berckman street. Inquire 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

TO LET—Five rooms, improvements. 423 John street. 2 7 1mo

FOR RENT—No. 45 Prospect place, near Washington avenue, [illegible] rooms, reception hall and bath; all improvements. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 12 1 tf

TO LET—At eleven dollars, to respectable colored families, 4-room houses, with improvements. Inquire 1348 West Front street. 2 2 1m

TO LET—House, six rooms and bath. 409 Liberty street, Tel. 450-W. 12 8 tf

TO LET—New four room apartments; improvements; 1361 and 1351 South Second street; $10.50 per month. John Herrman, 369 Somerset street; 'Phone 2512-W. 1 23 1mo

HOUSE to rent; eight rooms, all improvements; small garage. Inquire 222 Madison avenue. 1 16 1mo

SIX ROOM house to let; all modern improvements; rent reasonable. W. R. VanDerveer, superintendent, 231 East Second street, Cor. Church. 1 17 tf

TO RENT—April 1st, a modern dairy and poultry farm of 72 acres on Valley road; 10-room modern house, with furnace; rent $480 per year. Address Mountain Farms, care of Press. 2 9

FOUR-ROOM flat to let, part improvements, $10. 203 Grant avenue. 11 21 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town, rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 11 6 tf

HOUSES $12 to $50; flats, $11 to $30; stores $7 upwards. D. McInness, West Third street, Tel. 1198-W. 6 30 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FARM FOR SALE—20 acres, midway between two depots on outskirts of Plainfield, N. J.; good seven room house, chicken house, artesian well, 550 feet frontage on county road, well travelled. Apply Edward C. Hardingham, 152 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 2 5 7

FOR SALE—Good house, for colored people; 6 room house, part improvements; right in town. See Mr. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 6 26 tf

FOR SALE—To close "French Estate," Somerset street carriage factory, stores, and tenement houses and stable in rear; lot 100x200 ft.; alley at side and in rear; bargain; terms arranged. Apply, Elston M. French, executor, 171 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 12 19 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

EXPERIENCED colored waitress will serve luncheon dinner; cottage set and short notice. 'Phone 835-W. 2 6 2t

WOMAN wishes children's sewing. 710 Webster place.

WANTED—Laundry work to do at home; small washes preferred. Mrs. Reed, 517 East Third street; 'Phone 2186-W. 2 6 3

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rate; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Ford delivery wagon, with runabout body; new tires and in perfect condition. E. & C. Auto Sales Co., 124 Madison avenue. 2 4 6

Acts in any Trust Capacity

Resources $5,000,000.00

THE INCOME TAX

has emphasized the burden of property. It has laid an extra weight on those whose time and thought were already heavily taxed.

YOU MAY AVOID

much of the care and responsibility of your property by appointing this Company as your Custodian and allowing us to hold your securities in our vault, cut your coupons and fill out the income tax certificates to be attached thereto, collect your interest and render you periodically a statement of your income. Our Officers will be glad to talk with you on this subject.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

HAVE YOU EVER VISITED A LAUNDRY?

We invited you to inspect our plant, and see the sanitary conditions under which your laundry is handled.

Flat Work 35c a dozen.

Rough Dry 6c per pound.

Marshall's Laundry, Inc.

Watchung and Fourth.

Phone 702.

10 27 m-s tf

3% paid on checking accounts of $500.00 or more. Out of town items collected at par. New York checking privileges.

4% paid on Special Department accounts of $5.00 or more subject to liberal Savings Bank rules. Out of town savings accounts collected without charge.

Acts as Administrator, Executor, Guardian and Trustee; the fees are the same as those allowed an individual.

Modern Safe Deposit and Storage Vaults. Boxes for rent $5.00 and upwards. Values in bulk stored for from 50s cents per month.

Real Estate Department acts as agent and broker. Unusual services for the usual commission.

SERVICE

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

Capital $100,000.00

Step-Lively Sale

Women's $4.25 and $3.50 TAN BOOTS $2.98

A straightforward mark-down of two of this winter's most popular Boots.

This is just one example of the many big bargains now in effect at the big "STEP-LIVELY" SALE. "STEP-LIVELY."

The balance of our stock of

HOCKEY SHOES

are marked to close out at $2.98

Van Arsdale's

127 EAST FRONT STREET

Store Closed Noon Lincoln's Birthday.

Every Young Man Should Know that he cannot acquire wealth and good standing by spending his money for unnecessary luxuries and trifles.

It is the constant practice of economy and saving that counts in the long run.

Start an account now with us.

4 PER CENT. INTEREST PAID.

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

THE ONLY SAVINGS BANK IN PLAINFIELD.

ORGANIZED 1868.

OFFICERS.

WM. F. ARNOLD ..... President
A. C. STEBBINS ..... Vice President
JAMES C. POPE ..... Secretary and Treasurer
H. A. POPE ..... Assistant Secretary and Treasurer
H. B. MacDONALD ..... Second Assistant Secretary and Treasurer

---

ASK THE MAN

for whom we have done plumbing and tinning of any description whether it wasn't an expert and scientific job. Or permit us to refer you to them, and when you want anything done in our line you will come to us. Let us give you an estimate on new or old work.

Work guaranteed satisfactorily done.

A stock of Hardware and Housefurnishing Goods unequalled in the city.

Let us serve you.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

Attend the Remarkable

FUR SALE

of

Charles Kurtzman Furs of Quality

178 E. Front St.

DR. PITTIS OFFICE BUILDING

ADVERTISE all Your Wants, at Let, For Sale, Boards, Personals, etc., in The DAILY PRESS. 1c A WORD

EDUCATIONAL.

SECRETARIAL

ELEMENTARY, REGULAR AND SPECIAL COURSES

At

HERR'S SCHOOL

(Plainfield Business College and School of English)

"One of the most complete EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS in the State of New Jersey, devoted to BUSINESS EDUCATION."

All inquiries promptly attended to. Call, 'Phone or Write

PROFESSOR A. S. Herr, Principal

Woodhull & Martin Bldg., Plainfield, N. J

m-w-f

HORTON'S Charlotte Russe

Fresh Twice Daily

325 W. FRONT ST.

Between Madison and Central Aves.

m-w-f tf

Corporation Notice.

PROPOSALS.

For Furnishing Crushed Stone and Materials for Culverts and Crosswalks.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield at the regular adjourned meeting held January 19, 1914, notice is hereby given that the Common Council will meet at the Council Chamber, No. 149 North Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, on Monday evening, March 2, 1914, at 8 o'clock p. m., at which time and place said Common Council will receive sealed proposals for furnishing crushed stone, and for furnishing materials for culverts and crosswalks as follows:

For crushed stone for the remainder of the year 1914, with the privilege on the part of the city to continue until new contract is made in 1915, the bids to state the price per ton of 2,000 pounds for furnishing the following sizes, namely:

"Binder Dust," or stone dust with an admixture of not more than 50 per cent of clay.

"Screenings," or stone which will pass through a one-half inch mesh;

"½-inch," or stone which will pass through a 1-inch and not through a ½-inch mesh;

"1-inch," or stone which will pass through a 1½-inch mesh and not through a 1-inch mesh;

"1½-inch," or stone which will pass through a 2-inch and not through a 1½ inch mesh;

"2½-inch," or stone which will pass through a 3-inch and not through a 2 inch mesh;

In such quantities, and delivered at such times and places in the city as the Street Commissioner may direct.

The approximate quantities of the several kinds of crushed stone, as estimated by the Street Commissioner, are as follows:

Binder Dust	500 Tons
Screenings	500 Tons
½-inch	500 Tons
1-inch	1,000 Tons
1½-inch	1,000 Tons
2½-inch	500 Tons

and such estimated quantities may be taken into account in awarding bids.

The above must be of the best quality trap rock, free from soft stone, dirt or other foreign matter, and each bidder shall submit with his bid or bids samples of the crushed stone to be furnished. If such bid or bids is or are accepted and guarantee that the crushed stone to be furnished shall in every instance be equal in quality and practically equal in size to the samples submitted with the bid, the Common Council reserving the right to pass on the quality of the crushed stone as well as on the prices bid.

The stone must be weighed on such scales as the Street Commissioner may direct, and a voucher or weigh bill must be delivered with every load to the said Street Commissioner or his authorized representative.

Also for furnishing the following materials for culverts and crosswalks:

Cover stone for culverts not larger than 4 feet by 3 feet by not less than 30 inches in thickness, per square foot.

Curbing 16 inches by 4 inches, 3 to 4 feet long, per linear foot.

Curbing 20 inches by 4 inches, 3 to 4 feet long, per linear foot.

Crosswalk stone 24 inches by not less than 4 inches, 3 to 4½ feet long, Belgian edge, per linear foot.

Crosswalk stone 30 inches by not less than 4 inches, 3 to 4½ feet long, Belgian edge, per linear foot.

The approximate quantities of the several kinds of materials for culverts and crosswalks, as estimated by the Street Commissioner, are as follows:

Cover Stone	300 Square Feet
Curbing, 16 inches	50 Linear Feet
Curbing 20 inches	300 Linear Feet
Crosswalks, 24 inches	1,000 Linear Feet
Crosswalks, 30 inches	100 Linear Feet

and such estimated quantities may be taken into account in awarding bids.

All to be of the best hard blue stone equal in quality and durability to stone from the Hudson River quarries.

No bid for crushed stone will be considered which does not include prices for all sizes of stone, and all bids must be submitted on forms which can be obtained from the Street Commissioner.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals at the time and place appointed, the Common Council will immediately proceed to unseal the same and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding or their agents, providing said parties or their agents choose to be then and there present, and also make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Common Council.

The right to reject any or all bids is expressly reserved.

By order of the Common Council.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., January 19, 1914

2 2 2-m

ADMINISTRATOR'S SETTLEMENT.

NOTICE is hereby given that the account of the subscriber substitutionary administrator with the will annexed of Joseph Webster, deceased, will be audited and stated by the Surrogate, and reported for settlement to the Orphans Court of the County of Union, on Friday the sixth day of March, next.

JOHN H. VAN WINKLE, Jr.
JOHN H. VAN WINKLE & SON
Proctors.

Dated January 30th 1914

2 2 5-m Fees—$4.24

J. L. BROWER

STATIONERY, BOOKS and MAGAZINES

311 PARK AVENUE

Valentines and Booklets from E. P. Dutton & Co.

Have you read?
The Initials
On the Branch
The Heart of Life

TELEPHONE 1012.

L. Moraller & Son

WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS

WATCHES. CLOCKS and JEWELRY

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

THE COFFEE YOU'LL LIKE.

People who try our Mocha and Java Coffee order it again because they like its Quality and Flavor—the taste is inviting and pleasant to the palate.

We also sell Select Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables.

W. W. Dunn

THE PARK GROCER

Duer Street and Lincoln Place.

Hoagland's Express

FINE FURNITURE.

MOVING

Office, 116 West Second St.

Telephone 883-W.

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting

Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Contractor for Sewer Connections.

125 WATCHUNG AVE

Corporation Notice.

PROPOSALS FOR OATS, HAY AND STRAW.

Pursuant to a resolution adopted by the Common Council of the City of Plainfield at the regular adjourned meeting held January 26, 1914, notice is hereby given that the Common Council will meet on Monday, the second day of March, A. D. 1914, at 8 o'clock p. m., at the Council Chamber, No. 149 North avenue, at which time and place said Common Council will receive sealed proposals for furnishing the following, that is to say:

1,000 Bags, more or less, best No. 2 Natural White Oats, Old Oats to be furnished up to November 1st;

50 Tons, more or less, of Timothy Hay

25 Tons, more or less, of Rye Straw.

To be delivered at the various engine houses, and police station, in quantities as required by each of said departments during the remainder of the current year with the privilege on the part of the City to purchase at the same prices for the first three months of 1915.

Upon receipt of the bids or proposals the Common Council will immediately proceed to unseal the same, and publicly announce the contents in the presence of the parties bidding or their agents, provided said parties or agents choose to be then and there present, and also make proper record of the prices and terms upon the minutes of the Council.

The right to reject any or all bids is expressly reserved by the Common Council. Proposals should be endorsed "Proposals for Oats, Hay and Straw."

By order of the Common Council.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., January 26, 1914

2 2 2-m

J. HIMMELFARB

Ladies' Tailor, Dressmaker and Furrier.

NOS. 309-311 NEW ST., BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH STS., TEL. 903-W.

Particular pains exercised in the making of a garment, the fitting of the same and attending properly to the little details that mean so much in the finished garment—thus satisfactions follows.

Expert workmanship and Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

I will appreciate a call and will be pleased to show styles and samples of work. Prices reasonable.

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris

Dealers in LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.

Office, Rowleys' Drug Store, 218 West Front St. Tel. 2081-J-2.

Kindling and Grate Wood.

Prompt deliveries. Orders received at

89 SOMERSET STREET.

JOHN MOBUS.

P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley

COAL

741 South Ave. Tel. 1155

N. MEYERS & SONS

COAL

COKE AND WOOD

Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av

Yard tel. 1911-W.

Fourth and Washington Streets.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.

EAST FRONT STREET.

Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room

---

HOTEL SOMERSET

Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.

Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.

W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.

27 Somerset Street. 'Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE

GENERAL NEWS TICKER.

Stock quotations.

Up to the Minute.

'PHONE 1527.

TIME TABLE

Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.

Waiting room at Kensington Hotel, Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD.

WEEK DAYS.

Leave Plainfield—7.45, 9.00, 11.45 a. m., 2.00, 4.00, 5.00, 7.00, 9.00, 10.20, x11.10 p. m.

Leave South Plainfield—8.00, 9.30 a. m., 2.00, 1.30, 4.30, 5.20, 7.30, 9.30, 10.45, x11.30 p. m.

xSaturdays only.

SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—9.00, 12.00 a. m., 2.00, 3.00, 5.00, 9.00 p. m.

Leave South Plainfield—10.00 a. m., 2.15, 2.30, 4.30, 5.30, 9.30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE AND MT. BETHEL.

WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.

Leave Plainfield—6.30 a. m., 3.00, 6.20, 11.00 p. m.

Leave Watchung—6.45 a. m., 3.15, 6.40, 11.15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3.30, 6.50, 11.30 p. m.

Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.

Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m.

Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30, 7.50, 11.30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.40, 11.45 p. m.

Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 7.55, 12.00 p. m.

xSaturdays only.

Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9.00 a. m. instead of 6.30 a. m. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STERLING.

WEEK DAYS ONLY.

Leave Plainfield—8.45 a. m., 4.30 p. m.

Leave Watchung—9.00 a. m., 4.45 p. m.

Leave Stirling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m.

8.45 a. m. bus connects with 9.27 a. m. train at Sterling, for Newark.

4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m. train at Sterling, from Newark.

An enclosed electric-lighted and heated bus may be procured for an afternoon or evening, from The Plainfield Transit Co., to carry from 15 to 25 passengers to any point within a radius of 25 miles from Plainfield

R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. 'Phone 130, Plainfield.

ADVERTISEMENTS

—FOR—

NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE

—AND—

NEWARK EVENING NEWS

RECEIVED AT

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

AMUSEMENTS AMUSEMENTS

PLAINFIELD'S HOUSE OF PHOTO PLAYS DELUXE

PROCTOR'S

Perfect Picture Programs With Orchestral Accompaniment

BEGINNING TODAY

FROM 1:00 TO 5:30 P. M., 6:30 TO 10:30 P. M.

First of a Series of Motion Picture Masterpieces

TODAY--2000 Feet of Thrills 2000--TODAY

The Most Surprising Picture Ever Produced

"WILD BEASTS AT LARGE"

—OR—

"WHEN THE MENAGERIE BROKE LOOSE"

"A SCREAM!" "A ROAR!" "A HOWL!"

THIRD IN THE SERIES

Of Harold MacGrath's Famous Picture Story

"THE ADVENTURES OF KATHLYN"

This is the most fearsome experience of the harried and beautiful heroine in a picturesque ruin where wondering pilgrims come to worship and where savage lions pace the lonely corridors—Enthralling, Wonderful.

Read the "Kathlyn" Stories in the "Sunday Sun."

"Making a Living"

This Keystone Comedy Will Show You How

"From Rail-Splitter to President"

Incidents in the Life of Our Martyred President.

SPECIAL PHOTO-PLAY PRODUCTIONS

Changed Every Monday and Thursday

REGULAR PHOTO-PLAY PROGRAMS

New Every Day

AUGMENTED ORCHESTRA

TOMORROW

"GOVANNI'S GRATITUDE"

Reliance Drama in Two Parts

"TIME IS MONEY"

A Stirring Drama in Three Parts

OTHER FEATURES

PLAINFIELD THEATRE

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, MATINEE AND NIGHT

GEORGE SIDNEY in BUSY IZZY

With the Inimitable Camedienne CARRIE WEBBER

And a Cast of 50 People.

PRICES—Matinee—25c, 50c. Evening—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00

The Smile That Won't Come Off

is always worn by the thrifty housewife who uses a

"WHITE DAISY" WASHING MACHINE

Ball Bearings

$9.00

or a

"WHITE LILY" WASHING MACHINE

$7 50

and has her washing done before breakfast. For sale by

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS

'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

It is Very Important

that an assured should know that we ourselves prepare the forms and write a policy to cover properly his individual needs. This means much to our clients and has a decided advantage in making a prompt and satisfactory adjustment of a loss

REAL ESTATE
LOANS
RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

WE DO FINE JOB PRINTING. TRY US

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS WILL BE FOUND HEREAFTER ON THE PAGE BEFORE THE LAST.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.
Unsettled tonight and Wednesday; probably snow; moderate northeast winds.
Max., 26; Min., 16.

Established May 10, 1887. TWELVE PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 10, 1914. TWELVE PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

LOAN EXHIBITION ARTISTIC SUCCESS

Fine Collection of Sculpture and Paintings at Plainfield Public Library.

SOME RARE SPECIMENS

Miss Caroline Peddle Ball, Sigismond de Ivanowski and Frederick C. Gorden Are Among the Exhibitors—Description of Work.

Visitors by the score, both men and women, attended the opening of the fine loan exhibition in the art gallery of the Plainfield Public Library yesterday afternoon, indicating that the public interest is aroused and that the attendance afternoons and evenings until the exhibition closes on February 14, will be large. Not only will the loan collection be shown visitors daily from 1 to 10 o'clock but the art gallery will open at 10 o'clock in the morning on Lincoln's Birthday. A record attendance of visitors is expected on that holiday.

The loan exhibition is well worth a visit. The art committee, of which Grove P. Hinman is chairman has gone to considerable trouble and not inconsiderable expense to secure exhibits in the way of sculpture, paintings and drawings in pen and ink that is at once a showing highly artistic and great worth from an educational standpoint.

The work of Caroline Peddle Ball of Sigismond de Ivanowski, and of Frederick C. Gordon is being shown Plainfielders at this exhibition. Mrs. Ball is a native of Indiana. She attended classes at the School of Design for Women, in Philadelphia, was a student at the Pennsylvania Academy, in the same city, and in the Art Student's League, in New York, she studied under such eminent masters as Kenyon Cox and Augustus Saint Gaudens. Her work as shown in the Victory for the Quadriga on the United States Government Building at the Paris Exhibition, in 1900, and the bronze clock that she designed and for which she was awarded an "Honorable Mention" by the art connoisseurs of the exposition entitle her to the laurels of fame which she has spent so many years to achieve. Other works of Mrs. Ball which have been accorded high mention are the "Young Virgin," her "Christ of the Sacred Heart," and also a memorial fountain for Mary Lawrence Eliman. Her skill in decorative work is amply evidenced by the memorial corbels which she designed for Grace church, in Brooklyn.

Perhaps the portrait of Anton Herkomer, the nephew of Sir Hubert Herkomer, widely celebrated as a painter, writer and composer, shows to the fullest extent Mrs. Ball's versatility and talent. One marvels at the charm and touch of humor shown so cleverly in the figurines of litle children many of which are shown at the loan exhibition at the art gallery. The loving handiwork of an artist-mother is depicted in the sympathetic insight Mrs. Ball shows herself to have in the moulding of the little figurines, deft touches showing chubby arms and dimpled cheeks. Her work, a "Fountain for Birds," is excellent. So is her medallion portrait work, especially the bas relief of Madame Ivanowski, the wife of the painter, whose works are also shown at the art exhibition. This medallion shows touches of that master, Saint Gaudens, under whose instruction Mrs. Ball had the good fortune to sit for so long a period. Her reproductions in gold of some of her work is particularly pleasing, it being of the utmost delicacy and refinement of execution. In those works where one sees reflected some touch of humor always there is to be found and easily distinguished, a note of delicacy. There are some who have seen the collection now on view who profess to believe that the medallion, "The Kiss," which is executed in the Italian style, is one of Mrs. Ball's best works.

Some of the paintings of Sigismond de Ivanowski are very fine and nearly all of them are pleasing to the sight. The artist was born in Poland. Two silver medals, and a gold one, were awarded him by the Imperial Academy of Art of St. Petersburg. He studied in Paris under the famous Benjamin Constant and Jean Paul Laurens, adding to his native genius the skill which he acquired from these consummate masters of the brush and palette. Since coming to America he has done much work in illustrating such big characters of fiction as Romola and Ben Hur. The glittering mosaics of old time Byzantium are reflected in the oriental warmth of some of his paintings. His pictures show him to possess great talent in fixing colors upon canvas. His portrait of Admiral Melville now hangs in the National Gallery, at Washington.

Working in a rich key, a depicter of the heroic, the mystic, and the artistic, untramelled by details, Sigis-

(Continued on page 6.)

SEISMIC DISTURBANCE IS FELT HERE

Residents of Greenbrook Road and Parts of City Experience Peculiar Sensation.

While eating dinner at their home on Greenbrook road this afternoon, Mrs. William Smalley and her son Ralph, were startled by a shaking of the house from top to bottom, which caused the pictures on the wall and otner chattels in the room to sway back and forth. Mrs. Smalley's nerves were upset by the phenomena and she was compelled to leave the house.

The shaking which is thought to have been a seismic disturbance, lasted for several seconds and caused the pictures on the wall to sway to and fro. It was not confined solely to the Smalley home which is located on the top of a hill for similar reports were received from the neighborhood and families on Ninth street, this city, had the same experience.

Several years ago when a shipload of dynamite exploded at Communipaw the shock was distinctly felt for fifty miles in an easterly direction, while at Bayonne, a distance of eight miles to the west, there was not a particle of shock and the only knowledge the residents of that section had of an extraordinary occurrence was a loud report.

No explosions have been reported within the last twenty-four hours and although there may have been an unusual occurrence somewhere in the imediate vicinity none with a knowledge of this fact could be located this afternoon.

NIECE OF MRS. HUMPHREY WARD TO TALK ON SUFFRAGE

Miss Eva Ward niece of Mrs. Humphrey Ward, will give a talk on "Suffrage" in the lecture room of the Plainfield Public Library, Tuesday afternoon, February 24, at 4 o'clock. Miss Esther Ogden, president of the Elizabeth Equal Suffrage League, will also be present and speak.

Miss Ward although an English woman, is not a militant, and it is said that she does not approve of such methods. She is said to be a charming and convincing speaker and all persons interested are given a cordial invitation to attend the meeting to be held in the library.

SCIENCE DEPARTMENT DISCUSSES "PURE FOODS"

Discussion of pure food products engaged the attention of the members of the science department of the Monday Afternoon Club at their meeting, held yesterday afternoon, in the lecture room of the Plainfield Public Library.

Mrs. Hugh Fox read a paper on "Pure Foods, What They Are and Where They Are Obtained," and Mrs Charles A. Rice gave the women present some excellent recipes for making use of left-over food supplies and also told them secrets of preserving fruits. The subject of "Dietaries" was ably discussed by another member of the club, Mrs. William H. Murray.

COMPLAINT DISMISSED.

John Smith, an ash carter, living at 212 Plainfield avenue, was arraigned before Judge DeMeza in the city court this morning, charged with cruelty to animals by Mrs. S. H. Van-Hoesen, the special officer of the S. P. C. A., and because of lack of evidence the case was dismissed. Smith was charged with neglecting an old horse and leaving it to die in the city dumps.

BIRTHDAY ANNIVERSARY.

In observance of his eighth birthday, Walter L. Hetfield, third, son of Assistant Corporation Counsel and Mrs. Walter L. Hetfield, Jr., of East Second street, entertained several of his schoolmates at his home yesterday afternoon. Games and victrola selections were enjoyed by the youngsters, while refreshments concluded the affair.

MISS ANNIE MILLARD.

Miss Annie Millard, of New Market, who has been a patient at Bonnie Burn Sanitarium, died there this morning. The body was removed to her home by Undertaker W. G. Runyon, of Dunellen. The funeral arrangements will be made later.

ALL LICENSES DUE.

All licenses expire March 1 and those who fail to renew their licenses before that date will not be allowed to do business in this city, according to a statement made by Chief of Police Kiely this morning.

—Delicious table apples, King oranges and Florida grape friut are among the fruit offerings at Neuman Brothers' Watchung avenue market.—Adv. ***

MEDICINE MAN WOKE UP HIS CUSTOMERS

Herb Peddler Tried to Do Business in the Black of Night.

A full-blooded Sioux Indian, hailing from nowhere in particular, dropped into police headquarters last night and asked for permission to dispose of some "back to nature" medicines that he had in his possession in order to raise funds for his train fare to Philadelphia whence he claimed to be going. Captain Frederickson refused the man the right to peddle without a license but several of the kind-hearted coppers around at the time dug down into their jeans for coins and a collection was taken up which soon totaled up to the exact amount that would save the "Injun" the embarrassment of having to ride in a "side-door" Pullman or of taking "Shank's mare" for the seventy-six miles that divide Plainfield from Philadelphia.

The redskin left the police station bearing a genuine "Injun" smile and was profuse in thanks to the bluecoats for their little bit of charity extended in his behalf. Whether because he could not get one of the Central's best expresses at that hour or whether he wanted to roam about in the open air for awhile is not known, but at any rate the warrior went through the railroad tunnel without purchasing a pasteboard and was soon wandering about the wilds of the west end of town.

Stopping at the home of a West End resident shortly after 11 o'clock the Indian displayed a medicine box containing nature's best tonics guaranteed to kill or cure everything from chilblains to arterial scleriosis. After the redskin agent had disposed of nearly a mile of the best selling lingo the householder asked him if he knew what time it was. The Indian answered in the negative and added that his time was his own and he was willing to stay awhile and explain just how easy it was to cure common complaints at the lowest possible cost. The resident was insistent on telling the intruder the time of night, however, and when he was informed that eleven bells had already tolled he offered humble apologies for awakening the household at the unearthly hour and disappeared in the darkness to gather more herbs on the hills of Watchung. Nothing more has been heard from the redskin and it is thought that he used the kind-hearted policemen's funds and departed for "Sleeptown."

JOHN VAN PELT DIES AT MILLSTONE, AGED 72

John Van Pelt, aged about 72 years, father of Harvey Van Pelt, of this city, died yesterday at his home in Millstone, from heart trouble, with which he had suffered for some time. Mr. Van Pelt was a native of Somerset county and had lived in Millstone practically all his life. For many years he was engaged in business as a wheelright his shop being one of the best known in that section of New Jersey.

Mr. Van Pelt frequently visited Plainfield, where he had many friends. He was a veteran of the Civil War, being a member of Co. K, 30th Regiment, N. J. Vols. He is survived by three sons, Frank, Harvey and Harry Van Pelt; three sisters, Miss Martha Van Pelt, Mrs. Covert and Mrs. Duryea, the last named of Princeton, and two brothers, George and Alfred Van Pelt. The funeral will be held at the late home in Millstone at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning.

SUPPER TICKETS ALL SOLD.

The Missionary and Aid Society of Warren chapel, under whose auspices a turkey supper will be held on Thursday night, announces that 350 tickets have been sold for the affair and that it will be impossible to take care of any more than that number. No tickets will be sold at the door on Thursday night and while the society regrets its inability to provide for more people, does so because the accommodations will not permit otherwise.

CHIMNEY FIRE AT 'PLAINS.

The Scotch Plains fire department was called to the home of T. J. Walsh, on Park avenue, near the foot of the mountain, late Sunday afternoon, to extinguish a chimney fire. The damage was slight. Henry Meyer, a member of the 'Plains department, also driver for the apparatus, in his haste to reach the fire drove there in his shirt sleeves and hatless, while the thermometer was hovering around the zero mark.

DAVID W. WOLCOTT.

David Wellington Wolcott, the eight-day-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman A. Wolcott, died yesterday at the home of the parents, at 1,323 East Seventh street. The funeral was held this afternoon, the Rev. Edwin Shaw, pastor of the Seventh-Day Baptist church, officiating. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

BURGLARS ACTIVE IN NEW MARKET

Visit Home of A. H. Burdick and Get Away With a Lot of Clothes.

That burglars are becoming active in the suburban districts, is indicated by the fact that they visited the home of A. H. Burdick on Prospect avenue, New Market, a few nights ago, forcing an entrance through a rear window. They ransacked the rooms on the first floor, and only clothing was taken. An overcoat belonging to Mr. Burdick's son was taken from a closet and an old one substituted for it. A new suit of clothes owned by the lad was also taken and the pockets rifled, after which the clothes were thrown away.

The burglars discovered a letter in one of the pockets, but believing it to be of no importance threw it away. This contained several dollars. A raincoat belonging to Mr. Burdick's daughter was taken. While ransacking a closet the burglars overlooked a hand-bag containing several dollars.

The police are somewhat puzzled over these robberies, not being sure whether they are the work of hoboes or local parties. In each case entrance was effected through a window by means of a sharp pointed instrument. The police are working diligently in the hope of being able to capture the guilty parties.

MILLION DOLLAR POULTRY CONCERN

Articles of Incorporation Filed Today at Elizabeth by United Poultry Farms.

Elizabeth, Feb. 10.—The United Poultry Farms, of Scotch Plains, filed articles of incorporation in the office of the county clerk, this morning, with a capitalization of $1,000,000. The stock is divided into 40,000 shares of $25 each. Percy A. Cook, of Scotch Plains, is named as the agent, and the objects of the incorporation are to breed fancy poultry and to sell the products of the same.

The following incorporators and the number of shares they hold are as follows: Percy A. Cook, eight shares; Hugh R. Fischel, sixteen shares; Charles Fischel, eight shares; J. C. Fischel, eight shares. All of the incorporators except Mr. Cook are from Hope, Indiana.

The Cook Poultry Farm at Scotch Plains is one of the best known in the country, many noted birds, including English pheasants, having been bred there and sent to all parts of the world. May Irwin, the well-known actress, is said to have purchased a prize rooster at this farm, paying $400 for the bird.

SUCCESS OF COLUMBUS CLUB CARNIVAL CONTINUES

Another large crowd of pleasure seekers attended the second night of the indoor carnival being conducted under the auspices of the Columbus Club in its club house on West Front street, last night, and a repetition of the first night's success was the result. Novelties of every sort were added to the attractions and additional surprises are in store for the guests tonight, including motion picture scenes of local interest.

Box-ball, bowling and other games furnish entertainment for both men and women and the prizes offered have induced the keenest of competition. The hall has been appropriately decorated for the event and an orchestra furnishes music for those who enjoy the terpsichore art.

ERROR DISCOVERED IN ACT TO LEGALIZE JURIES

Trenton, Feb. 10.—An error has been discovered in the act just passed to legalize juries which are to serve until the machinery of the Chancellor-Sheriff Act can be set in motion. Owing to the blunder, the act will have to be repealed and another one passed in order to validate existing juries and their official acts.

BAPTIZED AN INFANT.

George Francis Murphy, Jr., infant son of Mr. and Mrs. George Francis Murphy, of 842 East Front street, was baptized on Sunday by Rev. J. Y. Broek, of Trinity Reformed church.

REHEARSAL FOR CONCERT.

The junior municipal orchestra will hold a rehearsal in the Franklin School auditorium tonight in preparation for the concert which will be given in the Washington School auditorium Thursday night.

MISS GUNTON BRIDE OF O. F. DOUGLAS, JR.

Ceremony Performed by Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie at Home of Bride's Parents.

Miss Ethel A. Gunton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Gunton, of 1230 West Front street, was married at her parents' home last night to Oscar F. Douglas, Jr., of Fall River, Mass., by the Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue church. The bridesmaids were the Misses Louise Stroherker, of Philadelphia; Matilda Cole, of Pottsville, Pa.; Gertrude Williams, of Morristown; Helen Williams, of Metuchen, and Ruth Gunton, sister of the bride. Roy Crayton, of New York, was the best man.

The matrons of honor were Mrs. Randolph A. Little and Mrs. Bennet Chappel, a cousin. Miss Celia McDowell and Miss Dorothy McDowell, nieces of the bride, were the flower girls, and scattered pink sweet peas in the path of the bride, who was given in marriage by her father.

The ushers were Randolph A. Smith, of Concord, N. H.; Edward Turner, of Elizabeth; Bennet Chapel, of Mt. Vernon, N. Y.; Stanley Wood, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., and Harry Van Arsdale, of New York. The bride was gowned in white charmeuse trimmed with old point lace and carried a shower bouque of white orchids and lillies-of-the-valley. The bridesmaids wore pink charmeuse with lavender butterfly bows, and the matrons were gowned in lavender charmeuse, with white lace drapery and pink butterfly bows. They all carried pink roses tied with tulle. The maid of honor wore pink charmeuse with lavender trimmings and carried pink roses and lilacs.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas sail tomorrow for Europe on the Lusitania, where they will spend their honeymoon, returning about the middle of May. Miss Gunton is well known in this city having been an active worker in the Crescent Avenue church where she has made many friends. The groom has visited in this city at various times. He holds a position in Fall River where the couple will make their future home.

Guests were present at the ceremony from Philadelphia, Wilkes-Barre, Orange, Montclair, Brooklyn and New York.

YOUTHFUL OFFENDER CAUGHT STEALING TEACHER'S WHEEL

Edward Irby who, although but fourteen years of age, has been arrested by the local police for larceny five times, was arraigned in the city court again this morning on the charge of stealing a bicycle belonging to A. W. Hauck and held by Judge DeMeza to await the action of the Juvenile Court.

Mr. Hauck is the German instructor in the Plainfield High School and Irby was detected in the act of stealing his bicycle from in front of the Public Library by Benjamin Mann, one of Mr. Hauck's pupils, who turned him over to Special Officer Evans at the High School.

MISS KATHERINE M. WALL BRIDE OF F. M. MANSBERRY

The wedding of Miss Katherine Wall and Francis M. Mansberry took place this morning at St. Joseph's R. C. church, in the borough. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Father Baldwin. The groom was attended by Daniel McAfee, who acted as best man.

Miss Katherine Gertrude Metcalf was the bride's maid of honor and Miss Margaret Louise Metcalf was the flower girl. It was a simple, but impressive ceremony and was attended by numerous relatives and friends of the couple.

FINDS PLAINFIELD DRUGGISTS ARE OBEYING THE LAW

Lewis A. Brown, of Englewood, an examiner of chemistry of the State Board of Pharmacy, paid an official visit to Plainfield yesterday. One of Mr. Brown's duties is to see that all pharmacists employ properly registered help in compounding prescriptions.

Plainfield's druggists, it is said, were found to have obeyed the law and to have had all of their licensed pharmacists registered as is required by the New Jersey law.

"LADIES' NIGHT."

"Ladies' night" will be observed this evening at the Jardin de Danse at Debele Auditorium. The music will be in charge of Prof. Paroubek. These dances are held every Tuesday evening.

—Advertise in the Daily Press

MAY GO TO JAIL FOR MONTH FOR SPEEDING

Bousenbury, Charged With Speeding, Gets Heavy Fine in Borough Court.

Reckless driving of his automobile delivery wagon, imperiling as it did the lives of many children attending the Somerset School, in the borough, has finally resulted in the incarceration of Russell Bousenbury, the Elizabeth chauffeur, whose appearance in North Plainfield has been awaited for many days by the police authorities. He is now in jail, awaiting the payment of a fine of $50, imposed on him today.

Chief Marshal George Weiss has been indefatigable in his efforts to bring the reckless automobilist to justice, believing, as do the other borough authorities, that there is altogether too much speeding of motor cars, and that especially along the long reaches of Somerset street. He got in touch with the firm for which Bousenbury delivers meats in this vicinity and was eventually promised that the much-wanted driver would be produced in court to answer the charge of speeding made against him by the head of the police force of the borough. Because of the pledge of the man's employers that they would have him appear in court Chief Weiss did not, as he had at first intended doing, make an appeal to Superintendent Lippincott, of the Motor Vehicle Bureau, at Trenton, to take charge of the prosecution of the case. Recorder Hand on three separate days awaited the coming of Bousenbury, to enter a plea to the charge of reckless driving but each time he was delinquent.

Bousenbury, who seemed to be in excellent spirits this morning, and rather inclined to take a humorous view of the situation in which he found himself, faced Recorder Hand and admitted that he had been guilty of exceeding the speed limits at the time that Chief Weiss arrested him. He looked surprised and pained when Recorder Hand fined him $50. As he had no money he was led away to a cell where he will remain for thirty days unless his Elizabeth employers or some friends come forward with the amount of the fine which will immediately free him. Although it was Bousenbury's first offense in North Plainfield spectators who were present in the court room this morning when the prisoner was arraigned expressed themselves as, being surprised that the full penalty of a $100 fine was not meted out to the offender, and especially in view of the fact that the man had so often imposed upon the generosity and good nature of the court by failing to put in an appearance to plead to the charge made against him, on the days that he had agreed to come. Some days since Bousenbury is said by the police to have made his boasts to some North Plainfield customers that his arrest would not amount to anything as he had been brought up on similar charges in other places heretofore and had always been let off with a reprimand when arraigned in court.

WILL PRESENT A FLAG TO FRANKLIN SCHOOL, GARWOOD

Garwood Council, No. 309, Jr. O. U. A. M., is making final preparations for the presentation of a flag and Bible to the new Franklin School at Garwood on February 21st, next. Every council in Union county has been invited to send delegations and a very large attendance is expected. Past State Councilor William La Rue will present the flag and Past State Councilor Rev. Leslie L. Hand will present the Bible. State Council Conductor Rene P. Von Minden, of New Market, will also be present and make a few remarks.

The flag will measure 12"x18," and the Bible is bound in morroco leather and is suitably inscribed. Garwood Council was instituted September 10, 1912, with 35 charter members and now number 60 members and own 5 shares in the local building and loan association.

GAVE A DINNER PARTY.

Mrs. Susan Reed, of East Third street, gave a dinner party, last night, in honor of Miss Bertie Clayborne. During the evening an informal program of music was enjoyed. Miss Clayborne will leave tomorrow for Washington, where she will take a course of study in domestic science. Those present last night were the Misses Cora Vaughan, Montrose Holmes, Clara Holmes, Cora Pierson, of Dunellen; Mrs. Lucy Gates and Mrs. Ellen Brinkley and Messrs. Hammond, Jackson, James Carter, Nathan Pollard and James McCrea.

—Neuman Brothers will offer for tomorrow's trade another lot of very fine fresh vegetables, including Boston head lettuce, hothouse cucumbers and tomatoes, celery, radishes, rhubarb, cauliflower, green and wax beans.—Adv. ***

EXEMPTS ATTEND STATE HEARING

Discuss Merits of Legislative Bills Introduced by Firemen's Association.

MEMBERSHIP QUESTION

State Relief Association Endeavoring to Compel Volunteer Departments to Surrender Moneys Received From State Aid.

Plainfield was represented at the hearing held yesterday at Trenton, before members of the judiciary committee on the merits of bills numbers 40, 41 and 42, introduced at the behest of the New Jersey State Firemen's Association. State Secretary H. G. Adams, of the Exempt Firemen's Association, of Plainfield, and Captain William Townley, of the paid department of this city, were present at yesterday's hearing.

Brief speeches were made by John S. Gibson, State auditor of the Relief Association; State President John Kennell, of the New Jersey State Exempt Firemen's Association, by Attorney Ashley, as counsel of the Paid Firemen's Association of the State, by Attorney William Cotter, counsel for the Relief Association, and others.

Major A. P. Rush, a member of the old Jersey City fire department, addressed the committee in favor of the claims of the exempt firemen, as did Warren S. Humphrey, of Passaic. President Plunkett, of the Paid Firemen's Association, of Bayonne, also spoke.

The question raised at the hearing and which is a mooted topic in exempt circles, here in Plainfield as elsewhere in this State, is the effort being made on the part of the relief association of this State to compel the volunteer departments, wherever a paid department is established, to retain membership in one relief association and to permit the paid members of the department to participate in such relief. Members of the paid departments of the State declare they are well satisfied with their present status and that they see no reason for any legislation so far as they are concerned. At the present time they are receiving one-half of the two per cent. tax which the State receives from all foreign insurance companies doing business here, which goes into their pension fund.

The Exempt Firemen's Association claims that as the paid fire departments are now receiving one-half of the aforementioned tax, that where a paid department is maintained and established, the fund at that time should be taken over by the then exempt firemen and thereafter the other one-half of the two per cent. tax should be received by them for maintenance of the fund that is used for the support of aged and indigent firemen, widows and orphans.

POSTOFFICE LEGISLATION TO BE TUTTLE'S TOPIC

Congressman William E. Tuttle Jr., has advised the Board of Trade dinner committee that he will take "Postoffice Legislation" as his subject at the annual banquet which will be held in Columbus Hall on Thursday, February 19. Senator James E. Martine, who was also invited, does not expect to be present. Charles H. Sherrill, Rev. Christian F. Reisner, Mayor Percy H. Stewart and William L. Saunders will be among the other speakers, and Corporation Counsel Charles A. Reed will be the toastmaster.

Several tables seating eight people have been engaged. One will be occupied by the members of the board of governors of Muhlenberg Hospital, while at another it is expected that the members of the City Council will be found. The sale of tickets has been brisk, and present indications are that there will be at least 200 at the dinner. Because of Mr. Sherrill's prominence as a Yale alumnus, special invitations have been sent to the members of the local Yale Club, urging them to be present at the dinner. The members of other local civic organizations are also urged to attend the dinner, including the Netherwood Residents' Association the West End Civic Association, Chamber of Commerce, Business Men's Credit Association, East End Taxpayers' Association and the Business Men's Association. Tickets can be procured from Herman Schwed, at Schwed Brothers' store, Leslie R. Fort, chairman of the committee, at the Daily Press office, and from any member of the committee.

PARENT-TEACHER MEETING.

There will be a parent-teacher meeting of the Irving-Jefferson Schools at the Irving School, tomorrow afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock. Dr. A. F. Van Horn will give a talk to mothers on "The Care of the Child During the Years of School." There will be music and refreshments. All interested are invited.

Our ANNUAL SALE of GRANITE WARE

NOW IN PROGRESS. A solid car load, bought direct from the factory (saving you the jobbers profit) as well as sharing our profits brings you Granite-Ware at One-third Below Regular Prices. Those who shared in former sales know the big savings afforded. Comparative prices clearly point to the wonderful economies. Plenty of salespeople to serve you promptly. See Window Display—Come.

DEMONSTRATION of SAMOLINE

COME AND SEE WHAT IT DOES.
SAMOLINE WASHES, CLEANS, POLISHES EVERYTHING.

It pleases housewives while cleaning the knives and forks, dishes and cans, the stains and scrawls on flat painted walls, the table and shelf, the glassware, mirror, window and screen, the tile floor, the woodwork and door, and everything else it will clean.

COME AND GET ACQUAINTED.

Thursday, Feb. 12, Lincoln's Birthday

STORE CLOSES AT 12 O'CLOCK NOON

BERLIN KETTLES With Covesr.

22c—2-quart size	16c
25c—3-quart size	18c
30c—4-quart size	22c
35c—5-qurat size	25c
45c—6-quart size	33c
55c—8-quart size	38c
60c—10-quart size	43c
75c—12-quart size	55c

COFFEE POTS.

35c—1½ quart size	22c
40c—2 quart size	25c
45c—3 quart size	27c
55c—4 quart size	33c

TEA KETTLES.

55c—4 quart size	33c
60c—5 quart size	43c
75c—7 quart size	49c
85c—8 quart size	55c

LIPPED SAUCE PANS.

10c—1½ quart size	7c
12½c—2 quart size	8c
20c—4 quart size	15c
25c—5 quart size	17c
35c—6 quart size	22c
40c—8 quart size	25c

LIPPED PRESERVING KETTLES.

10c—1½ quart size	7c
12½c—2 quart size	8c
20c—4 quart size	15c
25c—5 quart size	17c
35c—6 quart size	22c
40c—8 quart size	25c
50c—10 quart size	33c
60c—12 quart size	38c
65c—16 quart size	45c

TEA POTS.

25c—1 quart size	18c
35c—1½ quart size	22c
39c—2 quart size	27c

GRANITE WATER PAILS.

39c—10 quart size	25c
59c—12 quart size	38c

BERLIN SAUCE POTS. With Covers.

45c—6 quart size	33c
55c—8 quart size	38c
60c—10 quart size	43c

BERLIN SAUCE PANS.

25c—2 quart size	16c
30c—3 quart size	18c
35c—4 quart size	22c
40c—5 quart size	25c
50c—6 quart size	33c
60c—8 quart size	38c
65c—10 quart size	43c

Brooms 25c

Would be a cracker-jack value at 39c; for this sale as long as the lot lasts only ..... 25c each

Clothes Baskets 59c

Were made to sell at 98c, good size No. 2 split willow baskets, as long as the lot lasts only 59c

GALVANIZED CHAMBER PAILS.

49c—12 quart size	35c

GALVANIZED WATER PAILS.

25c—10 quart size	17c
29c—12 quart size	19c
35c—14 quart size	22c
85c Granite Chamber Pails	85c

DISH PANS.

39c—14 quart size	25c
50c—17 quart size	33c
39c Rinsing Pans, each	18c

59c Granite Foot Baths	33c
85c 14 quart Convex Pots	58c
$1.00 16 quart Convex Pots	72c
19c Granite 12-inch Wash Basins	10c

GRANITE ROASTING PANS.

29c—8½x12 inch size	19c
35c—9½x14 inch size	27c
50c 10½x15 inch size	33c
10c—9 inch Pie Plates	5c
12c—10 inch Pie Plates	7c

COLLANDERS.

30c—11-inch size	20c
40c—12-inch size	25c

JAPPANED TIN WARE.

15c Flour, Sugar, Tea and Coffee Boxes	10c
50c 20-lb Flour Cans	35c
65c Bread Boxes	45c
75c Bread Boxes	55c
85c Bread Boxes	65c

GRANITE CHAMBERS.

15c—medium size	18c
25c—large size	25c

WASH BOILERS.

$1.98, No. 8 Wash Boilers, copper bottom, at only $1.39

DOUBLE BOILERS.

40c—2 quart size	27c

RICE BOILERS.

55c—2 quart size	38c
65c—2½ quart size	43c
75c—3 quart size	49c
85c—3½ quart size	58c

GALVANIZED GARBAGE AND ASH CANS.

55c—4 gallon size	38c
65c—5 gallon size	49c
75c—6 gallon size	59c
98c—9 galon size	69c
$1.25—11 gallon size	79c

ASH CANS.

$1.50—21 gallon size	98c
$2.50—22 gallon size	$1.98

TIN WASH KETTLES.

39c—24 quart size	27c
50c—36 quart size	38c
60c—46 quart size	45c

TIN PAILS.

25c—12 quart size	15c
35c—Blocked Tin	22c

GALVANIZED TUBS.

50c—8 gallon size	38c
65c—10 gallon size	49c
75c—12 gallon size	58c
85c—15 gallon size	69c

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"The White Store"

We Give the Famous S.H.N. Green Trading Stamps

Store Opens at 8:30; Closes Saturdays at 10 p. m. Others days at 5:30.

Guess What Store

10% Discount

All your purchases until Saturday, Feb. 21st, will yield you 10 PER CENT. IN CASH.

Sign the coupon below, bring or mail it at once to the store that owns it—the trade mark.

Register NOW for coupons will not be honored if presented after 11 P. M. Saturday, Feb. 21st, 1914.

NOTE—Only one coupon registered for each person.

GUESS WHOSE TRADE MARK?

POI SR COUPON

Name .....

Address .....

City .....

German Valley. and Chester

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. King, of Lamville, Ill., are visiting friends in German Valley.

Mrs. Augustus T. Lance is assistant postmistress in the German Valley postoffice during the absence of Mrs. Mervin Fields, who is ill.

William Ader on Saturday moved from Chester to Gladstone. The house vacated by him will be occupied by Charles Rinehart.

Miss Marian Gardner, of Blairstown, concluded a visit last Saturday to her parents, Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Eddard P. Gardner, of Chester.

The Epworth League of the Chester Methodist church will hold a social in the church parlors tomorrow night.

Miss Lucy C. Hulbert, of Milldale, spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hulbert, of Ironia.

Mrs. James M. Hildebrant, of Chester, is ill.

Miss Mary C. Call, of Monroe, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Call, of Chester.

New Providence.

Hose Company No. 1 will meet tonight in the firehouse.

Henry O'Brien, of Bedford, and Mrs. Mary Dillon, of Portchester, N. Y., were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Woodruff, of Springfield avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Sampson, of Passaic street, are visiting Mrs. Sampson's sister, Mrs. Jane B. Sayre, of Mendham.

Mrs. Mary A. Nason, of Union avenue, West End, is the guest of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Nason, of New York.

Miss Emma Frentz, of Morris avenue, is the guest of Miss Florence High, of Passaic street.

Mrs. Margaret E. Lovell of Springfield avenue, West Summit, is visiting Dr. and Mrs. Walter Beams, of Newark.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hoover, of Elizabeth, were week-end guests of Mr. and Mrs. William O. Richards, of Springfield avenue, West Summit.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the New Providence Methodist church will meet tomorrow afternoon at the residence of Mrs. John F. Wahl, of Springfield avenue.

—To a merchant, the "cost of ADEQUATE ADVERTISING is a mere incident. While the cost of inadequate advertising is always difficult to meet.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

South Plainfield.

William Farrell, of Metuchen, has returned home after visiting Mrs. Mary McDonough, on Lehigh avenue.

William Hamilton spent yesterday with friends in Newark.

Robert Hamilton has returned home after visiting his grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Hamilton, of Fords.

Mrs. L. D. Randolph and daughter, Elma, have returned home after visiting friends in Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Herb and daughter, Florence, have returned to their home in Easton, after spending a day with Mr. and Mrs. James Thorp on Lehigh avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Miller and daughters, Louise and Myrtle, of Hancock avenue, have returned home after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Miller's daughter, Mrs. Newton Bray, of Hampton.

Bound Brook.

Miss Dorothy Hall, of Somerville, was a Sunday visitor with Mr. and Mrs. Allison C. Hall, of South Bound Brook.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hoagland were visitors with friends at Califon, on Sunday and Monday.

The first annual minstrel show of the Y. M. A. will be given in Voorhees' Hall tomorrow night. The cast of characters: interlocutor, Philip B. Koechlein; bones, Harry Southard, Floyd Merlett, Leonard Hodge; tambos, Eugene Mathews, Percy Koechlein, William Mathews; circle, Mr. Fisher, Bert Giles, Mr. Oesterling, Mr. Sebring, Mr. Stryker, Mr. Whitenack, Mr. Ulmer, Mr. Wolferz, Mr. Wibble, Mr. Jones, J. Mathews, H. Hall, Mr. Apgar; opening song, "Old Folks at Home," entire company; end song, "Mississippi I ou," Mr. Merlett. "Will You Take This Woman For Your Lawful Wife?" Eugene Mathews; solo, "In the Heart of the City That Has No Heart," Ewood Stryker; end song, "Sailing Down Chespeake Bay," Leonard Hodge; end song, "Swanee Sue," William Mathews; solo, "Then I'll Stop Loving You," Mr. Jones; end song, "Dixie Days," Harry Southard; end song, "I Never Heard of Anybody Dying from Kissing," Percy Koechlein; solo, "Drink to Me Only With Thine Eyes," LeRoy Fisher; closing, "Y. M. A. Song," entire company. "Gallus Jake:" "Jake," Mr. Merlett; Ephraim, Percy Koechlein; Coon and Chink, Mr. Hodge and B. Giles; Burnstein and Firlstein, E. Mathews and Mr. Wolferz; Garland of Old Fashioned Roses, Messrs. Jones Stryker and Fisher; Slim Jim, and the Hoodoo: Slim Jim, Mr. Ulmer; Slippery Dick, J. Mathews; Deacon Jones, Mr. Dibble; Patent Peter H. Hall; Copper Cachem, W. Mathews.

Mr. and Mrs. [illegible] Porter, of Plainfield, were Sunday visitors with Mrs. Mary Giddes, at Harris Lane.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duryee, of Somerville, were visitors with Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hull, of Cedar street, South Bound Brook, on Sunday.

The wardens and vestry of St. Paul's church will hold their monthly meeting in the chapel this evening at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Sarah Fenner, of Plainfield, has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Nelson M. Giles, at Harris Lane.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist Episcopal church will meet at the home of Mrs. L. Campbell, on West Second street, tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Lewis Parker Lodge, No. 276, I. O. O. F., will meet in the Voorhees building at 8 o'clock this evening.

Regular meeting of Ivy Hook and Ladder Company No. 1, will be held in Ivy Hall at 8 o'clock this evening.

Ray Rinehard, of East High street, was a Sunday visitor with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rinehart, at North Branch Station.

Westfield.

Miss Constance Morris, teacher of physical culture in the Westfield schools, has resigned to take a place in New York.

The local health inspector reports sixty-four cases of measles in the town during January. The epidemic is considered over.

Four vacancies on the Board of Education will be filled at the school election next month. Three members, including Dr. C. M. F. Egel, who has been president several years, have declined re-election. Edward Malmar, James E. Cutler and William H. Orr are being mentioned as candidates for the vacancies.

Dunellen & Vicinity

Julius Margentino, of North avenue, a clerk in Clarence T. Voorhees' butcher shop on North avenue, is suffering from the effects of the wound received by him while in discharge of his duties about six weeks ago. While chopping meat in the electrically-driven meat chopper, with which the shop is equipped, he caught the second finger of his left hand in the feed screw of the machine and lost the top portion of the digit. The wound had practically healed when in some way it became infected.

Herbert Nelson, of North avenue, the local hackman, who has been out of business for the past few weeks, due to the breaking of the crank case on his automobile, has resumed his business, after receiving the machine from Paterson, where it was sent for repairs.

Miss Mamie Margentino, of North avenue who has been spending the past week with her cousins in New York, returned home yesterday.

Thomas Frescoln, of New Market road, has just completed repairs in the electrical fixtures at the home of Samuel Strickland on Second street.

Robert Fitzsimmons, senior and junior, are both spending the week in Philadelphia, where they have been booked for a week's appearance at a theatre, in a boxing act.

The stork paid a visit to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Hardingham, on Mountainview terrace, Sunday, and left them a baby girl.

Mrs. Herbert Nelson and family, of North avenue, spent the week-end with Mr. Nelson's sister, Mrs. A. E. Weston, of New York.

Miss Meta Pennock, of Mountainview terrace, has resumed her studies at Barnard College, after spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Pennock.

Somerville

The Raritan Ministerial Association will meet in the First Reformed chapel on Monday at 10:30 a. m. The Rev. Henry Jean Wahl, pastor of the Fourth Reformed (German) church, has been appointed to read a paper on "The Order of the Jesuits."

Miss Martha Van Tuyl, of Denver, Colorado, and Mrs. Marla King, of Bound Brook, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Bolmer, of South street.

Mrs. Arthur K. Ballentine and son, Lawrence, of Warren street, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. John B. Ballentine, at Green Knoll.

William Orr, has been visiting Charles Young, at Green Knoll.

Willet S. Laming, of this place, has bought the Lamar Van Syckle farm near Jutland, Hunterdon county.

Tunis Huff, who recently sold his farm near South Somerville to the Somerville Water Company, has purchased the King farm near Belle Mead, and is about to move there.

Thomas Anderson has moved his family from Doughty avenue to East Main street.

Miss Jane Messenger, one of the teachers in the public school, has been quite ill for some time, but is now fully recovered.

Invitations have been issued for the annual assembly dance of the Somerville Athletic Association, which will be held in the armory on Friday evening, February 20. The patronesses are Mrs. O. G. Allen, Mrs. J. D. Case, Mrs. J. G. Caston, Mrs. L. P. Gaston, Mrs. W. J. Kirby, Mrs. George Nolan, Mrs. Alfred Renskorf and Mrs. C. J. Smith.

Frances Willard Thank Offering Day will be observed by the W. C. T. U., of this place, on Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. James Terwilliger, on East Main street. Mrs. L. C. Davis will have charge of the meeting.

A lecture will be given in the assembly room of the public school on Thursday of next week by Minnie Elliott Tenney Peck on "Ireland, the Land of the Shamrock."

The regular monthly meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Reformed church will be held in the chapel on Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Leader, Mrs. J. Newton Vander Beek. Tea will be served at the close of the meeting.

'Plains & Fanwood.

Albert Meyer, of Front street, and Miss Gertrude Schlerf, of East Fifth street, Plainfield, will be married at the home of the bride's father tonight. A number of the friends and relatives of the couple from this place will be among those present. After a short honeymoon trip the couple will reside in the home recently completed for the groom on Meyer avenue.

Chris Lewis, of Montague avenue and Grand street, entertained two of his friends, Harold Simonson and Richard Rice, both of Brooklyn, over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lewis, of Plainfield, spent Sunday with Mr. Lewis' mother, on Montague avenue.

Norman Smith, of Westfield, is spending a few days with Miss Eleanor Walsh, of Park avenue.

Henry L. Jasperson, of Martine avenue, Fanwood, left yesterday morning on a week's business trip through Pennsylvania and New York State.

A meeting of the Lend-a-Hand Sewing Society was held at the Parish House yesterday afternoon.

Mawrey Hall, of Martine avenue, returned to his studies at Stevens Institute, yesterday, after spending a week at home, which was the regular vacation between the winter and spring terms of the institute.

Harry Paff was the leader of the meeting held by Baptist Young People's Union, Sunday night.

A rehearsal for the entertainment which is to be given by the members of the Methodist Episcopal church, Friday night, February 27 was held last night. Harry Paff, who for the past three years up to the time of his graduation, did all the electrical work, both display and practical, at the Plainfield High School, will be in charge of that branch and has arranged to give an elaborate display.

A meeting of the Seniors' dancing class will be held in Meyer's Hall tonight.

A meeting of the Parish House council will be held in the upper rooms of that edifice tonight. Matters pertaining to the welfare of the Parish House will be brought up before the meeting and discussed.

The Parish House first basketball team will clash with the fast Plainfield Y. M. C. A. quintet tonight. The game will be played on the local boys' court. As both teams are in excellent shape and are anxious to get at each other with the idea of each being the victor an exciting and interesting game is promised those who attend.

William A. Batterson, instructor of the Parish House gymnasium, spent the week-end with his parents on Long Island.

The first game in the bowling tournament being held at the Parish House under the supervision of W. A. Batterson, the instructor, was rolled last night. All ten men who entered for the matches appeared and bowled their frames.

Philip Becker and his sister, Miss Florence Becker, of Lebanon, have returned from a visit with their grandmother, Mrs. Rosa Jahn.

Marshal Logan, of the borough, has purchased a trotting horse.

Mrs. William Lidgate, of the borough, is improving from an attack of grip.

The Fanwood Tuesday Afternoon Literary Club met at the home of Mrs. Charles Beardslee, this afternoon. An interesting discussion of English History during the reign of George III. occupied most of the afternoon, after which refreshments were served.

Ray Paxson is visiting his daughter, Mrs. James Allen, of Park Hill, N. Y.

Miss Helen Hoar, of the borough, is entertaining Miss Evelyn Clark, of Bath Beach.

The new house of James Henderick on South avenue is nearly completed and will be ready for occupancy about March 1.

Miss Edith Hastings has accepted a position as teacher in the grammar school of Cranford.

Mrs. Lawrence, of Willow Grove, is sojourning in Florida for several months.

The weekly meeting of the Ladies' Guild of the All-Saints' Episcopal church was held at the residence of Mrs. Hudson Thompson, yesterday afternoon.

—It is wiser to know what a thing OUGHT TO COST before buying it; and ad-readers usually do know this.

February White Sale

The best White Event we have ever held begins tomorrow, Wednesday, with large stocks of beautiful white goods and white wear at the lowest prices in years.

The February White Sale is beyond question one of the most important events on our Store Calendar and this particular February White Sale is surrounded with unusual importance because of the bigger and broader stocks and better values than we ever before offered.

It is our rule that each succeeding year is to see biger sales and better value giving than the year before.

This year we have last year's tremendous records to beat. Unusual preparations have been enlisted to make this sale a banner event. Months and months of conscientious planning, series after series of buying must, and will, we know, bring about the desired result.

Everything that's white is here, be it for person or home. You will find values in this great sale and display that will live in your memory for a good time to come.

Sale Begins Wednesday, February 11th, at 9 A. M.

WHITE SALE SPECIALS IN WHITE UNDERSKIRTS.

AT 25c—Women's white cambric short underskirts with ruffle and tucks; specially priced for this white sale at 25c

AT 79c—White underskirts of long cloth, some have 12-inch ribbon run embroidery flounce; others with 16-inch flounce, no ribbon; specially priced for this white sale at 79c

AT $1.00—Skirts made of very good quality long cloth; have 9-inch embroidery flounce, ribbon run or without ribbon; this is a very special value; during this white sale at 1.00

AT $1.25—Skirts made of very fine cambric, has 13-inch embroidery flounce of splendid quality; an extra special value during this white sale at 1.25

AT $1.49—Underskirts of Seco Silk, tastily trimmed in dainty shadow lace let in scallops, ribbon run and bow of ribbon on side to match; pink and blue; specially priced for this white sale at 1.49

AT $1.49—Underskirts made of mercerized crepe cloth and finest quality long clothes; 5 rows of dainty Val. lace and embroidery insertion, edged with 3½-inch German Val. pleated ruffle; others trimmed in lace and embroidery; special at 1.49

A splendid assortment of better grades are specially marked for this white sale at—
$1.98, $2.49 and $2.98.

DAMASKS, SHEETS, PILLOW CASES, TOWELS AND BED SPREADS.

72-inch pure Linen Snow White Table Damask, during this white sale, at per yard..... 79c

58-inch Mercerized Table Damask, per yard 29c

72x90 Sheets, the Madison Ave. 59c
81x90 Sheets, the Madison Ave. 69c
90x90 Sheets, the Madison Ave. 79c

42x36 and 45x36 Madison Ave. Pillow Cases, either size, at each 10c

White Dimity Bed Spreads for single bed only; actual measurement 52x90; a very desirable spread—is easy to laundry; a white sale special at 59c

WHITE SALE SPECIALS IN CORSET COVERS.

AT 15c—Corset Covers, made of muslin; trimmed in torchon; special at..... 15c

AT 19c—Corset Covers, made of muslin, trimmed in good quality embroidery; special for this white sale at 19c

AT 25c—Corset Covers, made of nainsookk, trimmed in lace or embroidery; big assortment o fstyles; all sizes; specially priced for this white sale at..... 25c

AT 39c—Corset Covers, made of better quality nainsook, exquisitely trimmed in embroidery; large selection to choose from; for this white sale 39c

AT 50c—Corset Covers, made of fine quality long cloth, and all over embroidery; lace and embroidery trimmed; a value yo uwill appreciate; during this white sale 50c

AT 79c to $2.98 EACH—Corset Covers, made of fine quality shadow lace, trimmed in ribbon and rosettes of ribbon; each a marvel of beauty; priced specially during this white sale at 79c, 98c, $1.39, $1.98 and up to $2.98

PRINCESS SLIPS AT 98c to $2.98

Of long cloth and nainsook in women's and misses' sizes, lace and embroidery trimmed; all sizes in each lot; a splendid collection to choose from at our special white sale prices, 98c to.... 2.98

HONEY COMB SPREAD AT $1.25

Full size, extra good quality, at the price, you would do well to lay in a season's supply, at the white sale price of..... 1.25

Snow White Bleached Turkish Towels, double thread actual size 20x40; special at, each.. 19c

Heavy Linen Huck Towels, hemstitched; good quality; size 19x36; special 25c

45-inch Pillow Casing, one of the best known cotton materials sold anywhere; special at... 15c

Best Quality Bleached Domet, 36 inches wide; special at a yard 10c

REAL LINEN AND IMITATION TORCHON EDGES AND INSERTIONS 5c PER YARD

Hundreds upon hundreds of dozens of real and imitation linen torchons, an unusually large line of neat patterns, all are included during the white sale, per yd. 5c

24-INCH SHADOW LACE

Flouncing, 6 different styles, all new designs; special, at a yard 39c

WHITE SALE SPECIALS IN MUSLIN DRAWERS.

AT 19c—Made of cambric has 5-inch ruffle tucked and 3 rows of hemstitching; specially priced for this white sale at..... 19c

AT 39c—Drawers made of good quality cambric, 3 inch embroidery ruffle, 5 rows of fine tucks, either circular or straight cut; specially priced for this white sale at 39c

AT 39c—Marcella Drawers, made of good quality nainsook; ruffled and tucked; specially priced for this white sale at..... 39c

AT 45c—Circular Drawers, made of good quality nainsook, trimmed with embroidery; specially priced for this white sale at.. 45c

DRESS GOODS AND LINENS.

Non-crushable and non-shinkable 36-inch pure Linen in white and colors; at a yard..... 50c

36 inch Ramie Linen, white and colors; at per yard..... 39c

28-inch Two-tone Eponge, mostly light colors; special, at a yard 50c

17 inch Pure Linen Toweling Crash, good weight; special at a yard 10c

40 inch Crepe Voile; value 39c; at a yard..... 29c

36-inch Rice Cloth; regular 50c; at a yard..... 39c

Mercerized Poplin, white; regular 25c, at a yard..... 19c

45-inch Mercerized Batiste, 50c quality; special 29c

SHEER LINENS, VERY POPULAR FOR WAISTS.

Fine Count Handkerchief Linen, regular 69c; for this white sale at 59c

Fine Count Handkerchief Linen, regular 79c; for this white sale at 69c

Heavier quality linen; reg. 59c; for this white sale at... 49c

Heavier quality linen, reg. 79c; for this white sale at... 69c

LONG CLOTH BY THE PIECE.

No. 200 Imperial Long Cloth; piece of 12 yards 98c

No. 300 Imperial Long Cloth; piece of 12 yards 1.39

No. 400 Imperial Long Cloth; piece of 12 yards 1.69

MUSLIN GOWN SPECIALS.

AT 39c—Gowns, made of nainsook, round yoke of embroidery, neck and sleeves trimmed in lace and insertion; for this white sale the yare 39c

AT 79c—Gowns, made of long cloth, round yoke, low neck and short sleeves; trimmed in embroidery; special at 79c

AT $1.00—Gowns, made of fine quality long cloth, trimmed either in Val. lace, torchon or swiss embroidery; round yoke or V neck, big selection of styles; specially priced during this white sale at 1.00

SPECIALS IN WHITE COMBINATIONS.

AT 59c—Skirt and Drawer Combinations, made of muslin, cover of swiss flouncing; special for this white event at..... 59c

AT $1.00—Combinations, made of good quality nainsook, trimmed in two rows of Val. insertion and one row of ribbon run embroidery beading, neck and armholes edged with Val. lace to match; other styles at same price trimmed in embroidery; special 1.00

AT $1.49—Combinations, made of very fine quality nainsook, exquisitely trimmed in Val. and shadow lace and ribbon; a very special value for this white event at 1.49

AT $1.98—Marcella Combinations of dotted silk mull, trimmed in ribbon and Val. lace; specially priced during this white sale at 1.98

Other Marcella Combinations 98c to $2.98 each.

WHITE MADRAS TAILORED WAISTS.

Six different style materials, mostly of satin striped madras with soft detachable collars to match, also plain linen detachable collars workmanship is of th ebetter kind perfect fitting; a white sale special at 79c

Our Corset Department

is now stocked with the product of fourteen of this country's best Corset makers, a full line of sizes in every style, and every one a 1914 model. The model best suited to your individual figure will be suggested in every instance by our experienced corsetierre. We don' urge the sale of "just as good," but the one most suited to your own liking, fitted to your satisfaction, altered if necessary. Try ours next.

Berkley fine Cambrics, 36 inches wide; during this white sale, special at per yard..... 10c

More For Your Money at—
Tepper's
PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY
THE BUSY STORE.

Good quality Bleached Huck Toweling in lengths of 1 to 5 yards; a very special value; to be sold only during this white event at per yard 8c

M'COMBS AND GLYNN.

Confer With Wilson on New York State Policy.

Photo by Ar... Press Association.

LIGHTS LAMP SIX MILES AWAY BY WIRELESS

Signor Marconi Announces His Latest Achievement.

London, Feb 10. It is announced that Signor Marconi has succeeded in lighting an electric lamp by electricity through the agency of wireless at a distance of six miles. A bulb was attached to a receiver connected with an aerial receiving wire. The transmitter was linked up with a 100 horsepower apparatus and as soon as the power was applied the lamp lighted and remained lighted so long as the power was kept on.

The experiment brings a step nearer realization Nikola Tesla's prediction of long ago that houses would eventually be illuminated by electricity caught from the air by masts on the roofs, and Signor Marconi hopes that it will be the forerunner not only of lighting, but of heating houses by etheric waves. At present, however, Signor Marconi is giving his main attention to aerophony. He said:

"I am now aiming particularly to obtain a distinctly audible message. This is really more valuable than spectacular calls for long distances. I have been able to communicate quite easily and clearly for 100 miles, using the ordinary receivers and apparatus which are very like the ones usually used on telephones. The difficulty is with the transmitter, which is very heavy and needs two men to carry it."

Signor Marconi concluded by saying that he hoped to have direct aerophony connection between Belmar, N. J., and Carnarvon, Wales, completed in a few months.

Signor Marconi ridicules the theory of M. Duroquiere, a French [illegible] that when wireless waves [illegible] halfway point they are the cause of great disturbances and that the Messina and other disasters were caused by interference of Herzian waves. Marconi says wireless waves do not meet.

FEAR FOR TUG POTOMAC.

Craft With Crew of Thirty Gives No Reply to Wireless Calls.

Norfolk, Va., Feb. 10. No replies have yet been received to wireless calls sent out from stations along the Atlantic coast to locate the naval tug Potomac, which left here several weeks ago towing a long craft off New Foundland.

The Potomac carries a crew of thirty men and is commanded by Boatswain [illegible] Johnson. The Potomac's wireless is not strong, and it is possible that she may be safe, but beyond speaking distance.

CRASH ON BOSTON AND MAINE

Four Passengers Hurt as Train Runs Into Open Switch.

Salem, Mass., Feb. 10.—Four passengers were injured and many were severely shaken up when a Boston and Maine train, No. 1063, bound for Marblehead was derailed by an open switch and plowed into a freight car on a siding.

THE DAILY PRESS IN DUNELLEN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by Edward Pennock, druggist and newsdealer.
—J. Purvis, Lincoln, supplies the Daily subscribers.

MO-JO
White Chewing Gum

Talk No. 39

A FEW MO-JOs spread out on a pretty platter make an inviting looking dish. They are so clean and white and dainty.

They appeal to the appetite through the eye, and when you taste one the palate echoes the appeal a dozen times over. The flavor of MO-JOs is the most enticing mint flavor you ever tasted.

And you need have no doubt about chewing a MO-JO. It is not merely white on the outside, but it is white through and through—white because it was made from gum properly cleaned and purified.

It is the only white chewing gum on the market today—if you can't remember the name MO-JO just insist on white gum.

THE CHICLE PRODUCTS CO., NEWARK, N. J.

CO. K NOTES

Special meetings of the various committees for the tenth fair, to be held in the armory from February 21 to 28 inclusive, have been called by the chairman of each committee for the purpose of determining what progress is being made for the coming event. The reports to the general chairman by the different committees indicate that as in former years this event will be a successful one.

The first official meeting of the school of musketry will be held in the armory Thursday night. Major William B. Martin, of Elizabeth, who inaugurated this school system in the State of New Jersey last year will be present at the meeting and will give a practical lecture, as well as demonstrate the new army rifle, which is being used by all regularly organized National Guard bodies. The number of men enlisted for the school this coming season more than equals the number enrolled last year.

At the meeting of the school of musketry held in the armory last Thursday night, under the direction of Captain Charles A. Peterson, thirty-four of the fifty-five regularly enlisted men attended. The subject taken up at the meeting was the proper way of attaching the sling to the rifle and how to properly use it in the shooting from the kneeling sitting and prone positions. These positions were illustrated by the three members of the company who served on the State rifle team at Camp Perry, Ohio, and who were also appointed assistant instructors by the inspector-general of rifle practice of the State, because of their ability to qualify in all the branches of the school of musketry held in this State last year.

There was no regular drill session held in the armory last night, due to the fact that the company participated in the mobilizing of the Second Regiment at Trenton last Friday night. Although the regular drill session was dispensed with a drill for the new recruits was held under the supervision of Captain Peterson, who was assisted by several of the newly-appointed and elected corporals.

Members are anticipating an interesting time at the Governor's review which is to be held at Trenton, Monday afternoon and night, February 23. It is expected that at this gathering and review the medals which are awarded for qualifications on the Sea Girt rifle range will be presented those who succeeded in making marksmen or better. In the local company there will be several who will receive the expert rifleman's medals, two who will receive the distinguished expert rifleman's bar and star, several who will be awarded the marksmanship's signa and a number who will get the marksman bar, the lowest possible qualification medal which is awarded.

The work of repairing the armory and replacing the old plaster ceiling with a metal one, and the straightening out of the quartermaster's supplies in his newly erected office, is progressing rapidly and will be completed by the end of next week.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN.
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week $2.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

FEBRUARY 10TH IN HISTORY.

1775—Charles Lamb, famous English writer, born. Died Dec. 27, 1834.

1808—John E. Thomson, who was president of the Pennsylvania Railroad when its first surveyed line was completed, born. Died May 27, 1874.

1814—Richard Rush, of Pennsylvania, became Attorney General of the United States.

1840—Marriage of Queen Victoria and Prince Albert of Saxe-Coburg.

1899—President McKinley signed the peace treaty with Spain.

1904—The Czar of Russia proclaimed war with Japan.

1913—News received that Capt. Scott and four members of his party had perished while on their return from the South Pole.

Plainfield, N. J., February 10, 1914.

THE GOOD WITH THE BAD.

Two Italians were taken before the City Judge, one the father of five children and the other of four, both charged by the city with non-support. The children of these foreigners, each of whom has been a resident of Plainfield for seven years, are being taken care of by the local Charity Organization and the wife of one of the men is a public charge in Bonnie Burn Sanitarium, kept there by county funds. The two men have been enjoying the privileges afforded by residence in Plainfield for seven years, during which time they have received more than the average native born taxpayer and yet neither has made any step toward naturalization or paid any taxes. Like thousands of other foreigners that invade this country every year, scores of whom come to this city, they never intend to become citizens, their main object being to get all they can, and when they have accumulated sufficient funds, to return to their native land.

This type can be classed as parasites. They let the city and county care for their offspring while they hoard up every penny they get, with the thought of returning to old homes to live the remainder of their lives in comparative ease. A movement was started some time ago to provide a method by which prisoners could be sent to the county jail in Elizabeth and from there put to work on the County roads or in County institutions, receiving in return a stipulated sum to be applied to the support of those dependent upon them. Nothing definite has been accomplished. It is high time something was done to make such people support their families.

Of course, the instances quoted are extreme ones, but they are nevertheless a good illustration of some of the men who come into this country from abroad. But it must be borne in mind that for every undesirable that reaches this country, there are probably a thousand who come through the Ellis Island portal who make good citizens, settling down in various parts of the country, and raising families which are a credit to the country and which form the backbone and sinew of the nation at large. The country would be a sorry one indeed, were it to depend upon its growth from sons and daughters of American parentage. The bad have to be accepted along with the good, and the nation is extremely fortunate in that the largest percentage are of the substantial, trustworthy and honest class who make good Americans

MANAGERS FOR COUNTIES.

There are 2,855 counties in the United States and it requires $300,000,000 a year to run them—half as much as the cost of the Federal government itself. Despite the high cost of counties, despite also the direct interest of all taxpayers and the county's vital importance as the connecting link between cities and the state and nation, it has only been very recently that any attention whatsoever has been paid to the character and quality of county administration.

Less than eight months ago, the first discussion of reform in county government was started by the publication by the American Academy of Political Science of a large volume upon the evils and mistakes of the county organization. The New York Legislature, as a result this early in the campaign, will be asked at its present session to pass a law to do away with the large board of supervisors and long list of elected officers and, instead of the present cumbersome system, to install a county manager to have expert and efficient control of the whole county government with duties and responsibilities of the city manager now to be found in Dayton and Springfield, O., and a score of smaller towns. It is proposed that the county manager be the administrative official, purchasing agent and general manager. He need not be selected from the county which he is to serve, but he must be efficient and experienced.

It is probably too early in the discussion of the reorganization of county government to try to actually replace the old system with something new at once, but experiments will be watched with interest and it is to be hoped that they will not spell disaster.

It has required a decade and a half to evolve the new forms of municipal government and that movement is admitted to be some distance from its ultimate goal. Neither is it possible to bring a revolution in county government, which is more intricate and peculiar to itself, without mature deliberation. Civic reform has been easier, since there is a more compact and a simpler organization dealnig with an urban population with identical interests. County reform must take into account varied interests and different people. Advocates of change are differing widely in their opinions. That some change is essential at least is generally admitted. Greater efficiency and economy and more expert government are as necessary or more necessary to counties than to cities. Certain specific benefits may be confidently expected as a result of centralization of authority in the former.

The practise of selling cigarettes and cigars to minors in this city is deplorable and merchants guilty of such acts should be made to suffer the maximum penalty which the law provides for the defense. During the past few days the police have had brought to their attention a case wherein two youngsters have purchased the weed from a West End merchant and in turn have distributed it among their companions. When these young striplings, neither tall enough to see over the store counter, made their purchases those who sold to them could not fail to know that they were violating the law. Many an habitual smoker has started on the downward path because of flagrant disregard of law such as this. The police are ready and willing to do everything in their power to curtail the practice of selling tobacco to minors, but unless parents of boys found with tobacco on their person co-operate with the authorities it will be extremely difficult to stamp out the practise.

THE FORUM.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press.

In reply to Mr. Bogan's article dated 6th February, we wish to remind him that side issues such as he cites between two irresponsible parties does not come for any consideration here. The papacy and "The Menace" are the principals in this controversy. The cleric must go after his Nemesis The sword of Democles is about to fall.

While Mr. Bogan barricades himself behind the legislative body crying for the moon, the other shows his indomitable courage borne of his convictions and raps loud and long at the very portals of the nation.

His claim to be in the "open" is somewhat of a farce when compared with the editor of that dirty little sheet. For his edification it will suffice to say that. I do not champion "The Menace" as a journal; but I certainly admire the principles that actuates that paper to hurl down its colossal foe. Somehow true manhood always sides with the weak and with the under dog. This, of course, is entirely foreign to his policy as proven in his editorial.

Rome has the pulpit and the public platform at her command, and yet it's wondrously strange she cannot silence that dirty sheet. It is evidently an admission that her preaching is not witnessed and sanctified by that vital spark of inspiration which characterized the work of the Apostles Luther, Wesley, and others, who have revolutionized society and brought the Kingdom of God nearer to humanity.

As students of history, it highly concerns us to know by what means those ancient Papal Empires were founded, the steps by which rose to the exalted pitch of grandeur, and what was the cause of the ignoble downfall of a system which claims to be Divine.

We ought to be acquainted with the character and disposition, virtues and vices of that system which flares up to the skies with meteoric rapidity and then crumble to the dust. The many specific charges "The Menace" lays at the door of Rome—the greatest of which is not her "self confessed immorality"—this is only the natural consequence of a still greater sin, viz., it claims Divine sanction for its dogmas and practices. To illustrate one point: Take for example the doctrine of Celibacy—how can such a doctrine and practice be supported? Must we exhume the Ritual of Egypt, India, Greece and Rome? Can the philosophy of these ancient pagans prop up her dogmas.

The teachings of Christ prohibits any connection with Rome. Allow us to quote from the Roman Catholic Bible: 1st Epistle to Timothy, 3. 1, 4:

"It behoveth therefore a bishop to be the husband of one wife."

"One that ruleth his own house having his children in subjection with all chastity."

Thus the Bible is diametrically opposed to any such teaching which has been a bone of contention between papal claims and other Christian's sects

The history of the Catholic Church also frankly admits that this practice has been flagrantly abused. We append extracts from "The Catholic Encyclopedia." Vol. X, page 452. Art Monasteries says:

"It is not surprising that such a system was sometimes abused, and hence it was always an object of solicitude and strict legislation at the hands of ecclesiastical authority. Many synodal and concilar decrees recognized its dangers and ordered the strictest surveillance of all communications between nuns and monks."

The history of Europe is full of the evil of this pernicious practice which eventually resulted in wholesale destruction of monasteries and nunneries. We quote from the same Catholic Encyclopedia, Vol. X, page 453, says in part: "Hapsburg lost 165 convents, abbeys, or priories, in all. 738 religious houses were suppressed in the Empire during the reign of Joseph II."

This is only German history—time and space wont permit further evidence—it's unnecessary.

In view of these extracts from standard Catholic works can anyone refute and deny facts? If not, where does "The Menace" lie?

L. CRUICKSHANK.

DR. ANNA SHAW SPOKE TO 500 AT WESTFIELD

Suffragist's Remarks as They Impressed a Votes-for-Women Enthusiast.

By Miss A. J. Vermilye.

The largest attendance at any meeting of the Woman's Club, of Westfield, occurred yesterday afternoon, when the club threw open its doors to the public in the interest of Woman Suffrage.

Dr. Anna Howard Shaw is always a great drawing card, and the five hundred men and women who came to hear her, showed their appreciation, also, by frequent applause, and laughter at her delightful humor.

People came from Rahway, Cranford, Plainfield and Elizabeth. I said, "Men and women." It is quite true the women were in preponderance, but the men who were there represented some of the best of Westfield and included ministers and physicians; the early hour preventing the business men from attending.

At a quarter past three, the business meeting of the club being over Mrs. Robert W. Harden gave much pleasure by the singing of four songs, after which Mrs. Frank W. Smith, president of the club, introduced Miss Shaw. The prolonged applause with which she was greeted, testified not only to her popularity as a speaker and as a woman, but also to the growing vital interest felt in the suffrage question today.

In the first part of Dr. Shaw's address, she outlined the development of our republican form of government from the monarchial, and showed how slowly universal male suffrage had come in the United States. How from a limitation to members of a certain religious body, in Massachusetts, through a property qualification of 250£ that included women (only those without husbands, however) as well as men, the franchise has gradually been extended, until we have only to eliminate the word "male" from the Constitution to make this a true Republic—a representative government of the people, not a government of one class of citizens by another.

Dr. Shaw referred to the amusing incident that recently occurred at Pottstown in connection with voting. Two men who had not paid a poll-tax, and whose votes would have made a majority of one for their side, had their votes thrown out, and the opposition won. Whereupon, the matter was taken to court, and it was decided that as the two men in question had each paid a dog-tax, their votes could be counted, and the election reversed. The question now is, did the men or the dogs decide the election?

Dr. Shaw said that working-women needed the vote to-day for the same reasons that working-men needed it, the protection of the working-man is his power to organize and his power to legislate, but because of disadvantages of women-workers, they need it more.

She also referred to visiting the polls in Denver on election day when Taft was elected five years ago. She was particularly interested to see conditions in the "red-light" districts. She saw no women voting there at all, but the returns showed in the two districts, out of 1,294 votes cast 52 were women, not necessarily bad women.

SPECIAL AUTO BUS SERVICE FOR OAK TREE SOCIAL EVENT

Special arrangements have been made by the Plainfield Transit Company to provide auto bus service to and from Oak Tree tomorrow night, for the purpose of accommodating those who will attend the social and dance to be held at that place.

It is expected that representatives from civic organizations all over the state will attend the affair and preparations have been made to accommodate hundreds of guests. The cars will leave this city at 7:30, 8:00, 8:30, 9:00 and 10:20 o'clock, arriving in ample time for the performance. Buses will leave South Plainfield at 7:45, 8:15, 9:15 and 10:35 o'clock and Metuchen at 8:05, 8:45 and 9:15 o'clock.

SAMUELS A SONGSTER.

Bill Samuels, who played first bas for the Dunellen Central New Jersey League team last season, has secured a position in New York as cabaret singer, and appears at some of the leading restaurants every afternoon and evening. Bill has made a hit here in several amateur shows and a New York friend, Roy McClure, thought so well of his work that he got him the position referred to. He sings in a quartette. So far as known Samuels will not give up baseball. The position he has taken is probably only for the winter season.

RECITAL

—BY—

MISS MARY HENRY
The Scottish Violinist

MR. GEORGE C. CARRE
TENOR

At the

CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
West Seventh St. and Madison Ave.

MONDAY EVENING, FEB'RY 16
AT 8:15 O'CLOCK.

TICKETS $1.00

2 10 2 tu-s

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

The February Furniture Sale

Specially Fine Offerings

In Dining-Room Suites

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Club Plan Payments May Be Arranged

$110.00 SUITE FOR 87.00

Mission design, Early English finish, 9 pieces, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six Chairs

$112.00 SUITE FOR 95.00

A pretty Golden Oak Suite, consisting of Buffet, China Cabinet, Table and six Chairs, 9 pieces.

$125.00 SUITE FOR 100.00

Colonial pattern in Fumed Oak, 9 pieces, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six Chairs.

$100.00 SUITE FOR 85.00

A Fumed Oak Suite, mission style, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six chairs, 9 pieces.

Brass Beds in the February Furniture Sale

Heavy solid brass beds in satin, bright and poulettefinish. Note the great savings:

$16.98 Brass Beds now $10.98
$19.50 Brass Beds now $14.98
$24.50 Brass Beds now $17.50
$26.50 Brass Beds now $20.50
$34.50 Brass Beds now $26.50

BUY RUGS NOW AND SAVE MONEY.

9x12 Wilton Velvet Rugs $16.50
9x12 Body Brussels Rugs $22.00
9x12 Tapestry Brussels Rugs $12.50
9x12 Axminster Rugs $20.00
9x12 Royal Wilton Rugs $35.00

"Storage of your purchases without charge until you need them," and "our Easy Payment Club Plan" enables you to take full advantage of this February Money Saving Sale.

Club Plan Payments May Be Arranged

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Woodhull & Martin Co.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

WE GIVE FIVE PER CENT. PROFIT SHARING COUPONS.

N. P. H. S. NOTES.

A number of the pupils of the N. P. H. S. sophomore class went on a straw ride Saturday night to Westfield. On their arrival there refreshments were served at the Kutler Candy Shop, then back to Plainfield at a late hour.

The Delta Phi Nu will their monthly meeting at Leroy Force's home on Mountain avenue, last evening.

The report cards will be given out tomorrow, just before the P. H. S. basketball game.

YESTERDAY'S LOCAL WEATHER.

8 a. m. temperature	12
8 p. m. temperature	19
Maximum temperature	25
Minimum temperature	12
Mean temperature	19
Normal temperature	[illegible]

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

—Something unusual for the table is always a welcome treat to the home folks. The ad-reading women does not find the problem hard.

MENNEN'S TALCUM 15c

THAT STUBBORN COUGH

possibly hasn't yielded to the ordinary cough syrup. Get a bottle of NARCO Wine of Cod Liver Oil with Malt, Wild Cherry and Hypophosphites; pleasant to take, agrees with all stomachs and cures chronic coughs and bronchitis, etc. An excellent tonic

Large Bottles 75c Only at

SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists
PARK AVE., COR. SECOND ST

Union Made Union Stamped

The Waldorf Shoes

$2.50 and $3

All Waldorf Shoes received since January 1st, 1914, bear the official stamp of the Boot and Shoe Workers' Union, insuring to the wearer the best workmanship.

Sole agency for Plainfield.

SHOES FOR THE BIG FOLKS

Stuart's SHOE SHOP

SHOES FOR THE LITTLE FOLKS

215 WEST FRONT ST.
We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

Headquarters for

GIBSON'S

RYE

E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

RANSOME CONCRETE MACHINERY COMPANY

At a meeting of the Board of Directors held January 23rd, a quarterly dividend of 2% was declared on the preferred stock, payable February 16th to holders of record on that date.

EDWARD F. FEICKERT,
2 7-9-11-14 Treasurer

"Do the Very Best You Can"

This applies to saving money as well as working with zeal. Start an account with us—it will give you the right kind of incentive.

3% INTEREST ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS OF $500.00 AND ABOVE

4% INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS OF $10.00 AND ABOVE

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK

OF PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Capital $150,000.00 Surplus and Profits $300,000.00 (all earned)

W. & J. SLOANE

Price Reductions Up to 40% on Desirable Rugs

High-grade domestic weaves of decorative excellence, from our regular stock, at these substantial reductions.

Reversible "Kalliston" Rugs

The designs include Plain Red and Blue Centres, in 9 ft. x 12 ft., and Plain Tan Centre in 6 ft. x 9 ft.—all with Greek Key Border.

Size 9 ft. x 12 ft.; regularly $43.00; at— $24.50
Size 6 ft. x 9 ft.; regularly $21.50; at— $11.75

Body Brussels Rugs of Standard Makes

Size 9 ft. x 12 ft. Artistic chintz, self-colored and Oriental effects.

Reg. $28.25; at $22.75 Reg. $32.50; at $25.50

Scotch Weave Wool Art Rugs

Size 9 x 12 ft. The well-known "Mohegan" and "Inverness" qualities in two-tone, plain centre and chintz effects.

Reg. $18.50; at $14.75 Reg. $30.25; at $24.25

Smaller sizes at corresponding reductions.

"Imperial" Smyrna Rugs—Oriental Effects

Size 6 ft. x 6 ft.; regularly $11.75; at— $8.50
Size 6 ft. x 9 ft.; regularly $15.50; at— $11.25
Size 7.6 ft. x 10.6 ft., reg. $24.00; at— $17.25

FIFTH AVE. & FORTY-SEVENTH ST., NEW YORK
San Francisco Washington, D. C.

Children's Shoes

Children's feet need considerable attention as they grow rapidly. Therefore they must be fitted correctly with the proper shapes, such as Tread-straight or Orthopedic lasts. We devote a large part of our time to children's footwear, and would like to convince you that our shoes and prices are both correct.

A. K. WILLETT

107 PARK AVENUE

"Oldest Shoe House in Town."

FEBRUARY

Reduction sale applies to our entire line of regular patterns; also odd pieces of

FURNITURE and BEDDING

at prices far below anything offered you at any other season of the year. The object of this is simply to reduce stock previous to taking inventory and the saving is well worth your investigation.

SALE

L. B. Van Camp

FRONT AND SOMERSET STREETS.

The Question of PURE MILK

IS SETTLED HERE

We are just as PARTICULAR about the superiority of our MILK as you are. That's why we have the DAIRY with a reputation and that dairy is

THE FAMOUS ONE OF DR CHARLES A. EATON

Modern sanitary machinery BOTTLES THE MILK AT THE DAIRY in STERILIZED BOTTLES, and sealed and iced it is delivered to you.

THE MILK WHERE PURITY REIGNS SUPREME

WELSH FARMS DAIRY

188 East Front Street. Phone 1964.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

The Ladies' Christian Work Society of Trinity Reformed church expect to realize $275 from the recent turkey supper. The summer of $250 has already been turned in.

Rev. Dr. J. S. Zelie, of the Crescent Avenue church, is spending a short time out of the city.

"TYPOS" NOMINATE.

Plainfield Typographical Union, No. 399, at its meeting held last night endorsed Marsden G. Scott, of Big Six, for the presidency of the International Typographical Union. The organization also endorsed the candidacy of John Hayes for secretary and treasurer of the I. T. U., to succeed himself.

"QUESTION BOX."

The Washington School Parent-Teacher Association will hold its regular monthly meeting in the school auditorium tomorrow afternoon. A "Question Box" will be a feature of the program of work.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

There will be a birthday supper at the association for all of its members whose birthdays fall in January and February, Saturday evening at 6:15 o'clock, and those who can attend are asked to register at the association's office. These suppers are most delightful, and other associations, hearing of Plainfield's good times, are beginning to copy the idea.

There will be a valentine party for all senior members of the association, Saturday evening at 8 o'clock. Cupid will have a branch postoffice there, and will receive and deliver valentine mail. Members of the association may deposit their valentines in this postoffice for delivery that evening.

Sunday afternoon next the song service will be in charge of the gymnasium classes, and Mrs. F. G. Mead, the president of the association, will read aloud. Tea will be served at 5 o'clock, and all young women and girls of Plainfield are invited.

The embroidery class will meet on Friday evenings instead of on Mondays as announced.

On Saturday evening about thirty members of the Sigma Gamma Kappa and their chaperones will attend an all-day conference of Association High School Clubs of New Jersey. The conference will be held in Jersey City, and the main address of the day will be given by Miss Margaret Slattery. Club reports, club songs, and an afternoon reception will be features of the program.

BIG ENTRY LIST FOR PRIZE AUTO RACES THIS MONTH

Los Angeles, Cal., Feb. 10.—The entry lists for the Vanderbilt Cup and International Grand Prize races closed yesterday at noon at the headquarters of the Western Automobile Association. The fastest field ever seen in a road race in America will compete at Santa Monica February 21 and 23.

In the entries are found America's speediest cars, pitted against the pick of Europe's motor whirlwinds. No less than five cars of foreign make will compete as representatives of England, Germany, France and Italy. Among the names of the drivers are found the best known in the world.

For the Vanderbilt sixteen cars were nominated, while eighteen were named to start in the long Grand Prize, which carries with it emblematic of the world's road race championship. Practically all the cars entered will appear in the races. Practise begins on the Santa Monica course next Friday.

DEATHS IN JERSEY CITIES DUE TO VEHICLE ACCIDENTS

The National Highways Protective Society has sent out figures showing the comparative number of fatalities due to street traffic in the principal cities of New York and New Jersey for the year 1913; and with these gives for purposes of comparison similar figures for American and European cities for 1912.

"With respect to the fatalities in New York and New Jersey a curious difference is evident," says the report of the society. "While in New York State the automobile fatality rate per million of population is highest in the large cities and lowest in the small towns and in the open country, in New Jersey the rate is highest in the small towns and in the rural districts, while in the large cities the rate is notably lower, and generally lower than for cities of the same size in New York State.

"This is probably due principally to two causes: In New York State by far the greater part of the population lives in the cities, and these lie along a few well defined trade routes. The larger part of the automobile traffic is within or between these cities. Outside of these traffic lanes the country is thinly populated and automobile traffic is very light. In New Jersey, on the contrary, the whole northern part of the State is dotted with towns and cities of moderate size. There is a large volume of automobile traffic between all these points along excellent roads which penetrates nearly every square mile of a well populated rural country."

SCHOOLBOY SIGNS.

Orange, N. J., Feb. 10.—Belmont Evans, the former Orange High School athlete, announced yesterday that he had signed a contract to play with the Pittsburgh Club of the Virginia State League.

ANNOUNCE ENGAGEMENT.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Miss Ethel Barber, daughter of Mrs. J. H. Barber, of Scotch Plains, to Foster M. Bird, of Dunellen. The date for the wedding has not yet been announced.

COMMITTEE WILL MEET.

The recreation committee will hold its regular meeting in the Public Library tonight. Plans will be discussed and a program of work outlined for the coming year at that time.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED.

James R. Knowlton, of West Fifth street, has announced the engagement of his daughter, Elsie L., to Earl Moran, also of West Fifth street.

PARADE MAY HAVE ARMY OF MARCHERS

Organizations from Fourteen Municipalities Want Places in Birthday Procession.

If all the religious and patriotic organizations within a forty-mile radius of Newark that have expressed a desire to join in the Washington's Birthday parade, in that city, on February 23, actually participate, the committee in charge of the affair estimates there will be more than 50,000 persons in line. If only a small percentage of the visitors actually appears in the line of march, the parade promises to be one of the largest ever held in this city. Patriotic societies planning to join in the parade are requested to communicate with Percy S. Brown, of 439 East Seventh street, this city.

Starting at Washington Park at 10 o'clock in the morning, headed by a float on which will be a figure of Washington, the procession will march south on Broad street to Clinton avenue, to High street, to Central avenue, to South Eleventh street and back to Washington Park by way of Clinton avenue and Broad street.

At the city hall the parade will be reviewed. Governor Fielder, Senator James E. Martine and Mayor Haussling and city and county officials will be asked to form the reviewing party. Churches and public buildings along the line of march will be asked to display the national flag and every one watching the pageant will also be requested to carry a small flag. Every one in the parade will carry a flag.

After the parade returns to its starting point the various bands will gather and play selections. There will also be speakers at Military and Washington parks.

A special effort will be made to have school children take part. With this end in view the city Board of Education will be asked to give permission to the youngsters and the State board will be asked to give its sanction to the municipalities outside of the city.

U. S. SENATOR GORE IS SUED BY WOMAN

Mrs. Minnie Bond Seeks $50,000 Damages.

Oklahoma City, Okla., Feb. 10.—Never since the federal government prepared to try C. M. Haskell, then governor of the state, on a charge of having conspired with other prominent citizens to thwart a government policy in disposing of the Creek town site of Muskogee has Oklahoma been as interested in a lawsuit as it is in the trial of the suit for $50,000 damages brought by Mrs. Minnie Bond of this city against United States Senator Thomas P. Gore of Lawton.

The alleged personal indignities on which the present action is based were the basis of sensational dispatches from Washington shortly after President Wilson's inauguration. Three persons who professed to have broken into a room in a Washington hotel in response to the screams of Mrs. Bond prepared a formal charge and presented it to Vice President Marshall demanding that the same be submitted to the senate for investigation. This the vice president declined to do.

An effort was then made to procure criminal prosecution of Senator Gore, but the United States attorney for the District of Columbia issued a public statement to the effect that his investigation of the matter did not show evidence that would warrant filing a criminal complaint.

Senator Gore told the Washington newspapers and news associations that the charges against him were false, that political conspirators had framed them for the purpose of destroying him and he gave warning that he would hold every newspaper liable under the law for what is published concerning the matter.

Weather Forecast.

Fair today except snow in extreme north portion; tomorrow fair, with moderate west winds.

General Markets.

New York, Feb. 10.

BUTTER—Steady to firm; receipts, 4,727 packages; creamery, extras, lb., 27a27½c.; firsts, 25½a26½c.; seconds, 23a25c.; held extras, 27a27½c.; firsts, 25a26½c.; seconds, 22a24½c.; state dairy, tubs, finest, 26a27c.; good to prime, 24a25½c.; common to fair, 19a23c.; process, extras, 22a23c.; firsts, 21a21½c.; seconds, 19½a20½c.; imitation creamery, firsts, 21a22c.; factory, current make, firsts, 20a20½c.; seconds, 19a19½c.; packing stock, held, 18a19c.; current make, No. 2, 18c.; No. 3, 15a17½c.

CHEESE—Firm; receipts, 197 boxes; state, whole milk, specials, white, held, lb., 18a18½c.; winter, 17½a17¾c.; colored, held, 18a18½c.; winter, 17½a17¾c.; average fancy, white, held, 17½a17¾c.; winter, 17¼c.; colored, held, 17½a17¾c.; winter, 17¼c.; skims, specials, held, 13½a14¼c.; good to choice, held, 11a12½c.

EGGS—Higher and unsettled; receipts, 8,751 cases; fresh gathered extras doz., 32a33c.; extra firsts, 30½a31c.; firsts, 29½a30c.; seconds, 28½a29c.; refrigerator, firsts, 26a27c.; seconds, 24a25c.; state, Pennsylvania and nearby hennery whites, 39a40c.; gathered whites, 39c.; hennery browns, 32a33c.; gathered browns and mixed colors, 30a33c.

NEW HAY AND STRAW—Easy; timothy, per ton, $17a21; shipping, $16; clover, $15a19; clover mixed, $16a17; long rye straw, $15a17; oat, $11a12; small bales, 50c. per ton less than large.

LIVE POULTRY—Firmer on fowls; unsettled.

—Daily Press want ads. bring results.

GIMBELS

Limbert "Arts & Crafts" Furniture At Savings of a Third in the February Furniture Sale

The "Arts and Crafts" Furniture Illustrated

Side Chair, $4 from $6 — Arm Chair to match, $7.50 from $11
Side Rocker, $4 from $6 — Library Table, $9 from $13.50

Since a company of Holland Dutch workmen, expert in furniture making, founded a guild in Grand Rapids a number of years ago and began the manufacture of Furniture on the old Dutch lines—straight, and sturdy, and vastly comfortable. Limbert "Arts and Crafts" Furniture, originated by the chief of this guild, has become ever more widely known for its excellence and its beauty.

It is this splendid "Arts and Crafts" Furniture of which we bought $7,000 worth for the February Furniture Sale, to sell 33⅓% below regular prices, because of coming changes in pattern. The pieces are in the rich fumed oak finish, with upholstered seats, and many with upholstered backs, covered with fine oak tanned Spanish leather.

Here Are Some of the Pieces

Arm Rockers, high back, with Spanish leather spring seats
At $10 from $15 At $11 from $16.50 At $11.50 from $17

Drop-leaf Breakfast Table, $10 from $15.
Small Side Rocker, $4 from $6.
Arm Chair, $4.50 from $6.50.
Library Tables, $10 from $15; $13.50 from $20.00; $20.75 from $31.
Settees, $12 from $18; $13.50 from $20; $18 from $30.
Large Arm Rocker, $15 from $22.50.
Flower Stand, $4.75 from $7.
Comfortable Arm Rocker, $8.50 from $12.50.

Eighth Floor.

100 Odd Arm Chairs and Rockers—Very Special

Arranged on the Seventh Floor, a fine group of Arm Chairs and Rockers of which there are but few of a style. Upholstered seats covered with Spanish Leather

At $10, $20, and $30, Regulary $20 to $55

Seventh Floor

The February Sale of Pictures

Begins Tomorrow in the Subway Store

At Savings Averaging One-Half

This semi-yearly event never fails to rouse the greatest interest among people who look forward to its unusually good values.

For this occasion we have been particularly fortunate in assembling a remarkable collection of which we are able to sell at prices within reach of the most economical.

Framed Pictures, Oil Paintings, Mirrors

Pictures suitable for every room in the home, from an inexpensive print in a plain frame to an Imported Oil Painting elaborately framed; or a plain mirror for kitchen or bathroom, to a magnificent mantel mirror for living room or parlor.

At 5c Each
Reg. 10c and 15c
2,000 Framed Pictures; many subjects and styles. From post-card size to 7x9 in.

At 15c Each
Reg. 25c and 35c
Group of odds and ends, including fac-similes, water colors, photo colors; many novelties.

At 15c to 50c
Reg. 35c to $1.25
Copyright subjects, including French prints, authors, musicians, combination verse pictures, artistically framed

At 25c, 35c, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50, $2, $3,
Regularly 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50, $2, $3, $5, $6.50
About 1,000 beautifully framed pictures, manufacturers' samples and surplus stocks, including every style of picture.

Oil Paintings, $2.50 to $10
Regularly $5 to $22.50. Mostly imported; in gold burnished gilt frames, and burnished bronze antique frames. Subjects include landscapes and marines.

Landscape Oil Paintings, $5
Regularly $13.50. A particularly fine group of 25 paintings; framed in full burnished antique frames. Canvas size 20x30 inches.

$3.75 Mirrors, $1.50
40 Combination Mirrors in imitation Circassian and imitation mahogany frames, with nature prints and other subjects, 9x13-in. tops, 9x32-in. plates.

$10 to $12 Mirrors, $5
25 Framed Mirrors; oval and square plates, 18x40 in. In heavy gold burnished gilt and burnished antique frames.

Pictures Framed
All this month at a reduction of 40 per cent on all frames to order, including moulding, glass, mats and labor. 25 per cent on all stock frames and glass.

Subway Store, Balcony

Sale of Kitchen Furniture

A good test of housewifely care is the appearance of the kitchen furniture. Perhaps some pieces are not fit through long usage to be where "sanitary" is the watchword—that is, the kitchen. So, for your benefit, tomorrow we have a special economy test of these Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets, complete kitchens in themselves, at $20 to $43.50.

Kitchen Closets, 6 ft. high, 86 in. wide, glass doors, full size drawers, golden oak finish; $12.50, reg. $16.

3 ft. Pastry Tables, made especially for small apartment kitchens. Flour bin, sugar bin, with galvanized iron bottoms; one linen drawer and one pastry board; $6.95, reg. $8.50.

Kitchen Tables, white top, extra heavy; with square tapered legs, round corners, 3 ft. size, $2, reg. $2.75. 3½ ft. size, $2.35; reg. $3.50.

3½ ft. Kitchen Tables, fancy turn legs, made extra strong and durable; $1.50, reg. $2.25.

Drop Leaf Kitchen Tables, plain or golden oak finish; $3, reg. $4.

Kitchen Extension Tables, made especially for small kitchens; finished in golden oak; can be closed within 24-inch space and opened to 5½ ft. long; $4.75, reg. $6.50.

Kitchen Chairs, high back, extra strong and durable, two styles; $1.50, reg. $1.95.

Library Steps, folding style, made of ash, antique or plain; $3, reg. $4.

Cricket Steps, made of ash or antique finished; $1.50, reg. $2.

Kitchen Step Ladder Chair, natural finish, extra strong; $1.35, reg. $1.75.

Round Back Kitchen Chairs, plain or varnished, 85c.

White Enamel Costumers, brass hooks, strong and durable, $3.

Fifth Floor.

GIMBEL BROTHERS

BROADWAY NEW YORK THIRTY THIRD ST.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

Store Closes Saturday at 9 P. M.

HAHNE & CO.
Newark, New Jersey's Greatest Store

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

These Valentine Silks Are Going Great!

One of the best-known features about them is their ability to shed water and remain waterproof. Few silks indeed have attained this distinction. Bear in mind that Valentine Silks are exclusive with Hahne & Co., and can be found at no other store. Tomorrow:

40-INCH CREPE DE CHINE AT $2.00.

New Bulgarian and Martine designs, small and medium effects, one of the fashion's most wanted silks for spring wear; by the yard at $2.00

$1.50 40-INCH CREPE ORIENTAL AT $1.00.

An all-silk crepe of great luster—possessing exceptional wearing qualities—in Copenhagen, wistaria, sage, old rose, reseda, cadet, copper, brown, navy and black. Regularly sold at $1.50 a yard; special at $1.00

23-INCH SHEDWATER FOULARDS, 79c.

This season's new and exclusive designs in two and three color printings; most serviceable for spring and summer wear, at 79c

$1.75 31 INCH SILK AND WOOL MATELASSE, $1.25.

A superior quality of this desirable silk, in black and navy only; two designs; for suits or coats. Regularly sold at $1.75 a yard; special at $1.25

40-INCH SHEDWATER FOULARDS, $2.00.

This double width silk is printed with all of the new Oriental colorings in small, neat designs; a silk that will prove especially popular with women who want real exclusiveness. The price is $2.00

40-INCH CREPE DE CHINE AT $1.50 A YARD.

For evening or street dresses; a firm, even silk, in every wanted new and staple shade; a crepe with a high luster, at $1.50

Main Floor.

"How Can You Sell Such Pretty Dresses for $1.98?"

Said one of Saturday's visitors—and she bought two, by the way! Very simple, we told her. For we agree to take a maker's entire output, and he naturally favors us a bit in his price! There's no scrimping of good quality materials—no scrimping of excellent workmanship—no scrimping of good measure!

12 different models—extremely becoming and smart—in choice combinations of ginghams, ratines, chambrays and cotton voiles. And the trimmings are decidedly out of the ordinary.

Many stores would ask $3 for these self-same dresses—we'd rather sell them by hundreds and ask $1.98.

GIRLS' WASH DRESSES AT 98c—One-piece models of chambray, blue and pink ginghams, with the new Gibson waist, long belted tie effects and gored skirts. The collar and cuffs are made o white lawn and the dresses open all of the way down the front. Sizes for girls of 6 to 14 years in this attractive group of dresses at 98c

Second Floor.

HAHNE & CO., Broad, New and Halsey Sts., Newark, N. J.

WRECK BANDITS NEAR CAPTURE

Sixteen Americans Were Killed In Crash.

ALL ARE DEAD IN TUNNEL

Mexican Rebels Are Closing In on the Men Responsible For the Calamity. Rescue Parties Are Handicapped Because of the Debris In Tunnel.

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 10.—That fifty-one passengers, including sixteen Americans, perished on the Mexican Northwestern train which was wrecked and burned in Cumbre tunnel, near Chihuahua, is now a certainty. Maximo Castillo and his bandit band, who wrecked the train, were located in the mountains without a single prisoner in their possession.

Castillo and his men are headed for the American border, and rebel troops are closely pursuing them. The rebels are well mounted on fresh horses. Castillo's men are on jaded animals. It is believed the bandits will soon be overtaken and slain according to Villa's order.

Rescuers at the south end of the tunnel found the burned body of a man, either the engine driver or fireman. The body of Rear Brakeman Juan Fernandez was found Saturday near the northern end of the tunnel. The fact that the front end and rear end men of the train perished left little doubt regarding the fate of those in the center of the train.

Another American Victim.

Mrs. Julius Hagan, who was en route to Madera to join her husband, an employee of the Pearson company of that place, was one of the victims of the wreck. This makes sixteen Americans known to have been on the train when it ran into the tunnel as Castillo's men watched and was wrecked by dashing into the freight train set on fire by the bandits.

Rescuing parties have found the north end of the tunnel blocked with rock and dirt and will be unable to remove it without the use of dynamite. A force of men was sent south on a special train under W. E. McKeehan, the dynamite expert of the Copper Queen Mining company, who arrived from Bisbee.

The body of Fernandez, the brakeman, indicates that he was killed by an explosion and not by fire or smoke. This bears out the theory that Castillo's bandits mined the tunnel before the train dashed into it. Explosions were heard during the burning of the tunnel Saturday.

P. C. Thede, plant manager, and J. L. P. Pruitt, general superintendent of the railroad, said that when Castillo went to Cumbre he left a mine near El Valle, where he was known to have been in hiding while the rebels from Casas Grandes were searching for him. There was a quantity of blasting powder at this mine, and it is believed that Castillo's men carried the powder into the tunnel and planted it in the form of mines.

Thomas or Theron Kelly, conductor on the Northwestern, who was a passenger on the train, was from Emporia, Kan., where his father, the Rev. Bernard Kelly, has lived for a number of years.

To Rochester, Buffalo, Toronto, Chicago and the West

Three through trains now stop at South Plainfield.

NEW YORK-CHICAGO EXPRESS ..... 10:51 A. M.
CHICAGO-TORONTO EXPRESS ..... 7:01 P. M.
THE BUFFALO TRAIN ..... 10:01 P. M.

Phone Plainfield 38 for Reservations.

NEWARK CITY TICKET OFFICE
211 Market Street. Phone 287-Market.

AMUSEMENTS. AMUSEMENTS

PLAINFIELD'S HOME OF PHOTO-PLAYS DE LUXE.

PROCTOR'S

FRONT STREET THEATRE, PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Perfect Picture Programs With Orchestral Accompaniment.

TO-DAY

"TIME IS MONEY"
Powerful Drama of Present Day Conditions, in Two Parts.

"Giovanni's Gratitude"
A Romance of the Lowly—Two Reels of Sentiment.

"The CONSPIRATORS"
An Exciting Story of Secret Service.

PATHE'S WEEKLY
World's Latest Events in Pictures.

EVERYONE IS TALKING ABOUT
That Sensational Comic Thriller,

"WILD BEASTS AT LARGE"

—OR—

"WHEN the MEVAGERIE BROKE LOOSE"

Most Extraordinary Picture Ever Made.

TOMORROW—Another Great Program—TOMORROW
"THE MASQUERADERS"—Gripping Drama in Two Parts.
"TWINS AND A STEPMOTHER." "THE TEN OF SPADES."
Many Other Big Features.

THURSDAY

THE THRILL OF THRILLS!

"THE GREAT LEAP"

IN FOUR PARTS.

REGULAR PHOTO-PLAY PROGRAMS DAILY
SPECIAL PHOTO PRODUCTIONS CHANGED MONDAY AND THURSDAY.
APPROPRIATE ORCHESTRAL MUSIC.

Tremendous Price Reductions. Final Markdowns
ON ALL OUR

Coats, Suits, Gowns and Skirts

1-2 to 1-3 CUT OFF THE PRICES

Make your purchases during the next 10 days and you will secure the greatest bargains of the year. INCOMING SPRING GOODS DEMAND THE ROOM. We must make a QUICK and ABSOLUTE CLEARANCE. Just see what we have done to the prices—then come and get bargains that you'll remember for years.

NEW SPRING DRESSES ON DISPLAY

$10.00 Misses' and Women's Coats for 3.95
In chinchillas and mannish novelties; also some sport coats, 14 to 18 years, 32 to 36 bust.

$12.50 Misses' and Women's Coats for 5.00
Smart models, chinchillas, novelties and astrakhans, 14 to 18 years, 32 to 36 bust.

$15.00 Misses' and Women's Coats for 7.50
Handsome garments, in fine astrakhans, chinchillas and novelties, 14 to 18 years, 32 to 36 bust.

$20.00 to $25.00 Misses' and Women's Coats for 10.00
Stylish models, some lined throughout with guaranteed satin, in mannish novelties, astrakhans, and fine chinchillas, 14 to 18 years, 32 to 36 bust.

$22.50 Misses' and Women's Suits for 12.75
Attractive models, shown in fine serges and novelties, coats lined throughout with guaranteed satin, draped skirts, newest shades, 14 to 18 years, 32 to 36 bust.

$20.00 Misses' and Women's Suits for 10.75
Beautiful suits, in fine serges, diagonals and novelties, plain tailored and trimmed effects, 14 to 18 years, 32 to 36 bust.

SKIRTS

50 Skirtst, sol dfrom $3.00 to $5.00; Sale price 1.98
15 Smart Skirts, all newest styles; former price $3.50 to $5; sale price. 2.98
1 Smart Black and White Check Skirt, former price $5; sale price.. 2.98
1 Smart Novelty Eponge Skirt; former price $5.00; sale price..... 2.98
10 Gray Mixture Skirts; all wool; former price $5.00; sale price..... 2.98
2 Novelty Striped Corduroy Skirts; former price $5.00; sale price..... 2.98

T. H. Fass
The Paris

18 Heavy Winter Coats
For Misses and Ladies.
Worth from $7.00 to $15.00, for $1.98

LOAN EXHIBITION A SUCCESS

(Continued from page 1.)

mond de Ivanowski is keen in that knowledge which teaches him just where to place the emphasis in his work. Some of his paintings are sketchy in the extreme but his effort shows painstaking care. His "Mary Garden as Melisande," is a sketchy portrait, the artist having laid on his colors with his palette knife and wholly without the aid of his brush. His "Blue Vase" is excellently done the color work, exquisitely shaded as it is, being markedly beautiful. Throughout the works shown in the present exhibition the artist shows a wide range of technique.

One should not forget to examine the work of Frederick C. Gordon who is well known as an embellisher of forms of illustrative art. He is widely known, is a native of Canada, and studied art both in Paris and in New York. Formerly he was head instructor in a Canadian School of Art. Mr. Gordon has shown particular talent in illustrating books and magazines. His work is in great demand among publishers. At the local exhibition Mr. Gordon is showing book and magazine covers and illustrations in black and colors, decorative borders, book plates, and a host of other dainty and fanciful artistic designs.

NO CLUE TO BURGLARS.

No clue has as yet been obtained to the burglars who broke into various buildings in Fanwood borough last Sunday night. Detectives of the New Jersey Central are co-operating with the local police to effect the capture of the thieves. The depredations of the burglars are found to have embraced one of the new buildings of the Lockwood Realty Company, of New York. The thieves carted away electric light globes and fixtures after breaking open the front door. The store of Sheelen Brothers, grocers, located on South avenue, was also entered and some butter taken.

FUNERAL OF JOSEPH SCHLOSS.

The funeral of Joseph S. Schloss who died at his home on Grant avenue, was held this morning at the undertaking parlors of J. J. & C. A. Higgins, at 109 West Fourth street. The service was in charge of the Rev. C. W. F. Attlee, and was attended by a gathering of relatives and friends. Burial was in Hillside cemetery.

MISS ADDAMS TO SPEAK.

Miss Jane Addams, of Hull House, Chicago, will speak at 81 Orange street, Newark, at 8 o'clock tomorrow night, under the auspices of the Women's Political Union, of Newark. Many Plainfielders are planning to attend the meeting and they are advised to go early if they desire to secure a seat.

U. S. TO RESERVE ALASKA COAL

Administration Bill Provides For Leasing Part of Land.

Washington, Feb. 10.—The administration plan for the development and use by the government of coal in Alaska is embodied in a bill introduced in the house by Representative Ferris of Oklahoma. It provides for a survey of all coal lands in the territory and authorizes the reservation of 5,120 acres of land in the Bering river district and 7,680 acres in the Nantansuka fields.

The rest of the Alaska coal land is to be leased to corporations and individuals on a royalty basis. Such leases are to cover areas ranging only from forty to 2,560 acres under penalty of fine or imprisonment, or both.

TOO BUSY TO PLAY WAR.

Naval Maneuvers Give Way to Serious Work In Mexico and Haiti.

Washington, Feb. 10.—United States battleships and cruisers are too busy attending to the Mexican situation and the troubles in Haiti to hold any maneuvers off the New England coast, Assistant Secretary of the Navy Roosevelt informed Senator Weeks.

Senator Weeks conferred with Mr. Roosevelt in behalf of the citizens of Rockport, Mass., who requested that the maneuvers be held there this year.

WEATHER EVERYWHERE.

Observations of the United States weather bureau taken at 8 p. m. yesterday follow:

	Temp.	Weather
New York	23	Clear
Albany	18	Clear
Atlantic City	28	Clear
Boston	20	Clear
Buffalo	16	Snow
Chicago	20	Cloudy
St. Louis	42	Clear
New Orleans	50	Cloudy
Washington	32	Clear

—Merchants realize that the housewives who appreciate "special sales" are critical buyers—and that mere price-lure is not enough. The goods must be RIGHT.

YOUNG WOMEN'S GUILD HOLD VALENTINE SOCIAL

Under the auspices of the Young Women's Guild a valentine social was given yesterday afternoon, from 2 until 6 o'clock in the parish house of Grace church. There was a large attendance and the young women who arranged the affair were complimented by many on its unique character, the handsome decorations and the financial success of the entertainment. About $90 was collected and this money is to be sent by the Young Women's Guild to Bishop Thomas, of Wyoming, to aid him in his mission work in that Western State.

Ice cream, cake, tea and valentines were sold yesterday and at times during the afternoon trade was exceedingly brisk. The scheme of decoration was red and white and the efforts of the young ladies were the subject of much admiring comment, the effect being most artistic. A decided novelty was a grab bag, called "Mrs. Wigg's Cabbage Patch." Small cabbages contained prizes which could be had for a slight monetary consideration. Mrs. H. F. Avery was in charge of the candy table, Miss Marguerite Carpenter, of the refreshments, Miss Hope Ivins was in charge of the cake table, and Mrs. Seymour Perkins, assisted by Miss Katherine Titus was in charge of the grab bag.

The officers of the Young Women's Guild are Miss Emily Perkins, president; Mrs. H. F. Avery, vice-president; Miss Mabel Trembath, secretary-treasurer.

HOLIDAY AT THE LIBRARY.

The circulating department of the Plainfield Public Library will be closed on the morning of Lincoln's birthday, Thursday, February 12th. The reading room and adult circulating department will be open in the afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock. The art gallery, with its special exhibit, will be open from 10 a. m. until 10 p. m.

MISS KATHERINE DUFFY ENTERTAINS MANY FRIENDS

Numerous friends were entertained last Saturday evening by Miss Katherine Duffy, at her home on Grove street. Piano and violin selections were given by George Wilson and Jeremiah Buckley, of Bayonne, who also played for dancing. The guests enjoyed games during the evening also and a delightful supper was served at midnight. Guests present were Mr. and Mrs. Francis Daley, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Burke, Miss Mary Daley and Thomas Daley, of Elizabeth, and the Misses Maria Miller, Katherine Duffy, Mary Egenton, Katherine McNulty, Mary McLoughlin, Margaret Egenton, Teresa Reynolds, Ellen Lowry, Annie Bowen, Delia Burke, Hannah Connelly, Alice Daley, Delia Bowen, Annie Waldron, Margaret Hart, Delia Lowry, Margaret Freeman, Mary McNulty, Annie Horan, Mary O'Connor, Emma Grey, Katherine McNulty, Mary Hunt, Sabina Churchill, Delia McNulty, Katie Brooke, Mr. and Mrs. T. Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. J. Murtha, Mrs. Bimble and Mrs. Duffy. The other guests were William Reilly, of Elizabeth; John Murry, of Bayonne, and the following Plainfielders: John Kenny, Jeremiah Buckley, Michael McNulty, Frank McElone, Thomas Davis, John Raftery, William Daley, James Murtha, James Freeman, Thomas Warde, Gus Johnston, Bert Lubeck, John Duffy, James Caulfield, John Healey, William Carpenter, Peter Russ, Michael Griffin, John Keboe, Harry Henery, Morris Daley, Thomas Freeman, William Ohearn, John O. Gorman, James Connolly, James McGalley, John Barry, Stanley Huff, William Fisher, Jack Steboe, Frank Collins, Charles Bimble, James Freeman and George Hughes.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 27 degrees, 11 a. m., 32 degrees; 1 p. m., 35 degrees.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

WESTERN UNION TELEGRAM

THEO. N. VAIL, PRESIDENT

DAY LETTERS
50 words delivered during the day at 1½ times the cost of a 10-word telegram.

NIGHT LETTERS
50 words over night at the cost of the regular 10-word telegram.

MONEY ORDERS
Reduced Rates -Safe-Speedy. Without Red Tape.

Improvements in Western Union Service that make the telegraph more useful to everybody every day

CABLE LETTERS
12-word message at a much lower rate than regular cablegrams, deliverable abroad in 24 hours.

WEEK END CABLE LETTERS
24-word message at an even lower rate per word. Sent Saturday, delivered abroad Monday A. M.

THE WESTERN UNION TELEGRAPH COMPANY
Full information gladly given at any office

ASK THE MAN

for whom we have done plumbing and tinning of any description whether it wasn't an expert and scientific job. Or permit us to refer you to them, and when you want anything done in our line you will come to us. Let us give you an estimate on new or old work.

Work guaranteed satisfactorily done.

A stock of Hardware and Housefurnishing Goods unequalled in the city.

Let us serve you.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.
119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.
Two 'Phones 6—214

The Smile That Won't Come Off

is always worn by the thrifty housewife who uses a

"WHITE DAISY" WASHING MACHINE
Ball Bearings
$9.00
or a
"WHITE LILY" WASHING MACHINE
$7 50

and has her washing done before breakfast. For sale by

Gayle Hardware Co.
GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS
'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

Moss Aztec Pottery

New Lines of Incrusted Gold Border Dinnerware

Joseph W. Gavett
WEST FRONT STREET

LOST
Millions of dollars each year by Fire, Wind-storms and accidents.

FOUND
Relief and protection in the policies issued by

J. C. POPE & COMPANY
First National Bank Building, Plainfield, N. J.
Insurance and Real Estate.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.
the man whose birthday we honor this week by making it a legal holiday, placed his insurance in the "Hartford," a company represented in this office. A company that was good enough for Lincoln should be good enough for you.

FREDERICK A. MARTIN CO.
(Successor to Elston M. French Insurance Agency)
Insurance Mortgages Real Estate
171 NORTH AVENUE Telephone 2304
The Oldest Insurance Agency in This City. 8 23 twtf

PRINCIPALS IN MURDER.

Charles Manning and Miss Herdman, Who Did Shooting.

MANNING AND SISTER ARE HELD IN NEWARK

Formal Charge of Murder Against Husband.

Newark, N. J., Feb. 10.—Charles I. Manning, the Verona garage owner, whose wife was shot to death in this city last Friday by Hazel Herdman, is still in the custody of the local police.

Mrs. Sadie E. Garrabrant of Verona, a sister of Manning, is at the First precinct police station. She, too, is being detained in order that the police may investigate her story.

Prosecutor Louis Hood advised Chief of Police Long to swear out a warrant charging Manning with murder.

Shortly after Chief Long called up the prosecutor gave him an outline of what Manning had said in the course of his long examination in police head quarters and was instructed to charge the husband with murder. The prosecutor also advised the chief to hold Mrs. Garrabrant.

Manning was formally arrested. He was led out of the office of Chief Long, where he had been undergoing a gruelling examination and taken to the desk, where Captain Tuite charged him with violation of section 20 of the crimes act. Manning is charged technically with "concealing crime." Chief Long was given credit for the arrest.

The police said the fact that they charged Manning with concealing the crime instead of murder is not to be taken as indicating the case they are trying to work up against the prisoner has collapsed in any way.

Frank McDermit, his lawyer, came to police headquarters and sent a note to Chief Long saying if he was not permitted to see his client he would ask for a writ of habeas corpus. To prevent Manning obtaining his release by a writ the police made the charge against him immediately.

It was rumored a woman was arrested in Montclair in connection with the case, but the Montclair police denied it.

CANADA TO CONTROL RADIUM

Government to Reserve All Found on Lands of the Dominion.

Ottawa, Feb. 10. — Following the statement of Sir Richard McBride, premier of British Columbia, that his government would control all radium deposits, it was learned that the Dominion government desired to make the case for Canadium radium still stronger by passing orders in council reserving all radium found on Dominion lands in any of the provinces of Canada and that the cabinet will take the necessary steps.

The mines branch of the government believes that there is considerable radium in British Columbia and Alberta.

Aviators Not For Politics.

Paris, Feb. 10.—Frenchmen demonstrated that they do not want aviators in politics by defeating Bleriot for the Versailles counsel by a bigger majority than that which extinguished Vedrine's political ambitions.

—You can make it PAY you to read the store ads in today's paper—make it pay you in actual savings on purchases you need to make. Try the experiment.

LAST RESPECT IS PAID TO BREMNER

Thousands Escort Body to Resting Place.

WILSON SENDS FLOWERS

Immense Wreath Composed of Lavender, Orchids, White Carnations, Violets and Ferns Sent by President and Wife—Flowers From National, State, County and City Officials.

Passaic, N. J., Feb. 10.—The funeral services of the late Congressman Robert Gunn Bremner, who died of cancer, after undergoing the radium treatment as a last resort, were held here at the Bremner home. The services at the house were attended only by the family and intimate friends. In the procession to the cemetery, however, were a number of fraternal organizations, including the Spanish War veterans and thousands of Passaic citizens anxious to pay a final tribute to the memory of the late congressman, who was for many years editor of the Passaic Herald.

Possibly never before in the history of Passaic county has there been a funeral so largely attended. It is estimated that 8,000 persons viewed the remains.

The body reposed in a solid mahogany casket. Resting on the casket was an immense wreath composed of lavender orchids, white carnations, violets and ferns. It bore the cards of the President and Mrs. Woodrow Wilson. To one side was a cluster of orchids and white roses, the tribute of Joseph P. Tumulty. On all sides were banked flowers from national, state, county and city officials, as well as from personal friends and relatives of the late congressman.

With the arrival of Mrs. Alexander Bremner, mother of the late congressman, and her daughter, Miss Nina Bremner, the Bremner family was completed, with the exception of Alexander, a brother, who found it impossible to leave his home in Canada.

Former United States Senator James Smith, Jr., of Newark, telegraphed his sympathy and later arrived to attend the funeral.

FIELDER NAMES JUSTICES.

Reappoints Parker and Bergen to Supreme Court—Other Places Filled.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 10.—Governor Fielder sent to the senate several appointments for confirmation. They were:

To be justices of the supreme court, Charles W. Parker of Hudson county and James J. Bergen of Somerset county, both reappointed; William D. Lippincott of Moorestown, to succeed John G. Horner as judge of the inferior court of common pleas of Burlington county; Benjamin B. Bobbitt of Monmouth, to be state commissioner of the department of public reports, succeeding Thomas B. Holmes of this city; Charles E Annett of Bayonne, to succeed Mark M. Fagin, resigned, on the Hudson county tax board; Albert J. Ivins of Red Bank, to succeed Rulif V. Lawrence, resigned, on the Monmouth county tax board; Everett Colby of Essex and Charles McLaughlin of Passaic, to be commissioners of old age insurance and pensions.

ENDS LIFE ON LONELY ROAD.

Lemmonton Man Buys Shotgun From Host and Commits Suicide.

Mount Holly, N. J., Feb. 10.—With most of his head blown off Levi Fox of Lemmonton was found a suicide along a road near Lewiston.

He killed himself with a shotgun he purchased from Joshua Horner, with whom he had spent the night. The gun was identified by Horner. Fox was well known throughout Pemberton township.

DIES FROM CUTTING CORN.

Machinist Expires From Blood Poisoning—Pared It With Knife.

Passaic, N. J., Feb. 10.—Christian Muller, sixty years old, a machinist, of Carlstadt died at St. Mary's hospital from blood poisoning.

While at work at his bench in Lyndhurst ten days ago he removed his shoe and pared a troublesome corn with a knife, infecting his toe. He leaves a wife and several children.

CONDENSED STATE NEWS.

Burglars entered the home of Abram J. Rose in Milburn township and made off with silverware valued at $300.

Senator Charles M. Egan introduced a bill in the New Jersey senate providing that no bichloride of mercury should be sold in the state unless in green cubes.

Chester A. Lovell, a motorman, was convicted of manslaughter in Newark for having caused the death of Terrance J. Gunning on Jan. 11, 1913, when his car ran over him.

Joseph Toth was placed on trial in New Brunswick, accused of shooting and killing Michael Matyi on Jan. 24 as he stood in hiding in a clothes closet with Miss Julia Delsebone at her home in Woodbridge.

The Jersey City police received word from the Chicago authorities that John Waring of Jersey City had been arrested there and confessed that he was responsible for the death of William Burke, an Erie railroad freight man, Dec. 10 last.

—Some store may be placing on "special sale" just now the article you have not felt like paying "regular" prices for.

Formerly A. T. Stewart & Co.

The John Wanamaker Store

Broadway and Ninth, New York

Know This---

About Certain Colonial Bedroom Furniture in the February Sale

IT is the best bedroom furniture ever offered at the price; of solid mahogany, in classical Colonial design; built for us; the concrete expression of our idea that something better could be done than was being done.

There are in the market pieces somewhat similar to these; some priced less, some more.

The lesser-priced is imitation furniture; not what it appears to be.

The higher-priced is unnecessarily high, either because the builders or the sellers, or both, desire large profits.

We Have Not Found

anywhere—and we have been all through the market—any Colonial bedroom furniture to compare with this under 40 to 60 per cent. more than the price of this.

The man who made this never made furniture so good before for the price he asked us to pay after reading our specifications.

He never sold furniture to any retailer at such little profit as was in the price we finally agreed upon; which enables us to sell

—All Solid Mahogany—

Bedsteads at $40 and $60, for $55 and $80 grades.

Dressers at $42, $52.75, $65, $80 for $56, $70.50, $90, $105 grades.

Chiffoniers at $40, $56.25, $62, for $55, $75, $82.75 grades.

And at similar lessening of prices, cheval glasses, dressing tables, bedroom tables, sommoes, costumers and writing desks.

Have You Ever Seen a Man's Chiffonier to Equal This at $72?

We never had one until this sale. It is made of all solid figured mahogany, has seven trays and two drawers. Even the drawer fronts of the trays are made of the same figured mahogany as the outside.

So is the wardrobe compartment, which is equipped with the most improved type of nickel-plated extension clothes rack, which will easily hold six suits.

There is an umbrella and cane holder, also a holder for a whisk brush; and in addition to all this there is a metal tray.

All the metal parts are nickel-plated, even to the hinges and the whole piece stands on solid brass wheels with ball bearing.

If any one has ever offered at $72, a chiffonier made of the same wood, made as well as this is made, and combining all these features, we have yet to hear of it.

Seventh Gallery, New Building

Other Bedroom Furniture in the February Sale, Seventh Gallery, New Building.
The Dining-room Furniture in the February Sale, Sixth Gallery, New Building.
Living-room, Library and fancy suits and pieces, Fifth Gallery, New Building.
All at 10 to 50 per cent below regular selling prices.

Beautiful Silverware

For the Home at Little Cost

Flat and hollow sterling silverware, and a superb variety of sterling spoons, forks, knives, and the other serving pieces—all at a third under usual prices and many at half.

Those who wish to buy presents for Easter and June brides, and those who wish to replenish their home silver-service, will find this

Silver Offering

an opportunity too unusual to be passed by

Chests of Sterling silver flatware in Louis XV pattern, as follows:—

	Regularly	Now
51 pieces	$100.50	$79.00
42 pieces	89.00	67.00
34 pieces	63.00	47.50
34 pieces	74.00	55.00

Silver Courts, Main floor, Old Building.

Hand-Made Cluny Lace

To Sell at Half Usual Prices

Laces for trimming gowns and wraps; for table linens, fancy work and decorative lace work of all sorts.

Never before have such prices prevailed.

They are 20c to $3.25
Regularly 40c to $6.50 and more

Their present prices are far below the wholesale ones. It would cost more than 20c to $3.25 even to land these laces.

Included are all the well known old cluny patterns as well as the higher clunys which are finding favor now.

Edging and insertions from three-quarter inches to 9 inches wide; majority are matching patterns.

An importer's clearaway.

First floor, Old Building.

Get the Community Spirit!

The Business Men's Association of Plainfield was organized to bring more business to our city that will not only help Plainfield grow, but will make it a bigger, better and more prosperous city, and indirectly every citizen will benefit.

The city that boasts of the largest number of prosperous retail stores advertises itself as a prosperous community.

Plainfield is particularly fortunate in having a large number of progressive merchants and business men--not all are members of the Association--but we need the co-operation of everyone. You are invited to join.

These men are members--watch this list grow.

Adelberg H.
Bennett, J. H.
Collier, Paul R.
Courier News
Davis, Allan F.
DeMott, J. H.
DeMeza & Blimm.
Endress & Co.
Force & Co., A. E.
Fass, J. A.
Firstbrook, Fred
Griffin & Co., A. M.
Gavett, J. W.
Hansen, J. C.
Haurand, Henry.
Jeffrey, William.
Kresge Co., S. S.
Kurtzman, Charles.
Mann, Solomon.
Manning, C. D.
Murray, Robert.
Neidig, Frank.
Plainfield Daily Press.
Powelson & Jones.
Parrot, Richard, Jr.
Preger, Louis.
Queen City Laundry.
Reliable Jewelry Shop.
Rosenbaum Bros.
Rothberg, Sam.
Ritz, Inc.
Samilson, Chas. S.
Silbert, Carl.
Slonim, Leo.
Schwed Bros.
Stuart, K. H.
Tepper, M. & A.
Van Arsdale, M. C.
Varley, J. J.
Welsh Farms Dairy.
Woodhull & Martin.
Woolworth & Co., F. W.
Zeisel, Leo.

The Business Men's Association
of Plainfield, N. J. P. O. Box 575

Of Interest to Women and the Home

The Housewife's Daily Economy Calendar

FRANCES MARGULIES

Errors in Children's Diet.

A growing, hungry, or undersized child craves sugar, because sugar is a highly concentrated food, which is readily and quickly converted into energy. Sugar, of course, should have a place in the child's diet, but it should never be used in place of other food. The child's stomach is not adapted to digesting this particular form of highly concentrated food.

The child's diet should be made satisfying, as well as nourishing, so satisfying that the child will not crave sugar or any other food that it ought not to have.

A sweet dessert, such as apple sauce, custard, baked apple, or rennet can be safely given to a very young child. But a very little sugar on the child's cereal should be enough and, if it is given a little weak cocoa, this, too, should be only slightly sweetened. Don't begin to sprinkle the sugar on the cereal more and more generously, for, although a child does like sugar, it is you fault if the child gets a craving for sweets. The eating of sugar is largely a matter of habit, and can best be avoided by giving the child a little sugar, just enough to satisfy its desire for it but not enough to help it to form a habit of eating it in large quantities.

Not Too Much Soft Food.

So much for sugar. Another thing, beside this craving for sugar, to guard against is a liking for soft foods. Crust and dry bread should veritably be the daily diet of children, after their teeth are sufficiently developed to masticate thoroughly. For hard foods develop the teeth and the active chewing made necessary by these foods forces a generous flow of saliva, which, of course, helps digestion.

A little child looks on dry bread as a treat, if it is taught to do so. Make crust sandwiches to develop this taste. Cut the crusts thin, butter them, make sandwiches of them and then cut them in diamonds or circles to make them more tempting.

Toast sandwiches are another good treat for children. Toast one side of thin slices of bread butter the untoasted side, put two slices together—buttered side in, of course—and cut into strips.

Zwiebach is another good dry food for little children, and it is generally much liked by them. It is possible to make a very good dried bread substitute for the commercial Zwiebach. Cut bread in slices a quarter of an inch thinck, sprinkle a few grains of sugar on each slice or else have them unsweetened, and brown them thoroughly in a moderately cool oven, turning them often and keeping the heat low.

(Copyright, 1914, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Practical Fashion Hints

By Alice Gibson

Cotton duvetyn promises to be one of the most favored of materials for separate skirts the coming season; ratine, golfine and linen will also be used widely.

No. 7427 is a four-gored skirt in tunic effect with a slightly raised waist-line and a pleated section at the foot.

With out of door sports to be considered, these pleats are a practical feature, as they allow greater ease in walking than the modish narrow models while not losing in attractiveness.

It is well to have a dark skirt in the summer wardrobe as well as several of wash material; this design is well suited to serge, cloth or tweed.

This skirt may be made in size 24, with 3 yards of 42 inch material.

The pattern is cut in 6 sizes; 22 to 32.

No. 7422 shows a pleated blouse, an excellent design for linen, silk or any of the cotton materials.

It requires for size 36 2¾ yards of 36 inch material.

The pattern is cut in 6 sizes; 32 to 42.

This Is a Perfect Pattern.

Be sure to state right size, passing the tape tightly around the smallest part of the waist and loosely around the widest part of the hips.

It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15 cents in stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

COUPON

Name .....

Street and No. .....

City and State .....

Pattern No. .....

Sizes .....

A. E. Force & Co., "The White Store," carry all patterns in stock and the Daily Press recommends that its readers procure them there. They will be furnished by this paper when the orders come direct to us, through A. E. Force & Co.

Some Cookery Suggestions

FAVORITE EGG RECIPES.

LUNCHEON MENU.
Macaroni and Cheese.
Stewed Tomatoes.
French Eggs.
Pumpkin Pie.
Chocolate.

SOME popular ways of serving eggs for luncheon are given here. They are of especial interest when Lenten rules must be considered.

Served on Toast.

Scrambled Eggs.—Beat up three or four eggs, add a tablespoonful of rich gravy, a little salt and pepper to taste, then pour this into a small saucepan, add about half an ounce of fresh butter and stir over the fire until the eggs begin to set. Have ready one or more slices of toasted bread, butter them, place them in a hot dish and put the egg mixture lightly on the top.

Covered With Sauce.

French Eggs.—Take four eggs, one-half pint of milk, one ounce of butter, two chopped onions, a dessertspoonful of flour, pepper and salt and buttered toast. Hard boil the eggs. Fry the onions in butter, adding the flour. Mix well and pour in half a pint of milk, stirring until a nice white sauce is obtained. Season with salt and pepper. When the sauce is smooth, add the eggs, each cut into six pieces crossways. Shake them in the sauce and, when hot, serve on buttered toast.

Savory Eggs.—Take three or four eggs, two tablespoonfuls minced ham or tongue, one tablespoonful chopped parsley, one-half ounce butter and buttered toast. Butter some molds, mix the minced ham and parsley together and dust this freely on the sides of the molds. Break an egg carefully into the center of each, sprinkle with pepper and salt, and steam in a frying pan of water for five minutes. Turn out on to small rounds of buttered toast and serve at once.

A Plain Lenten Dish.

Omelet.—Take three eggs, one ounce butter, one tablespoonful of milk or cream, pepper and salt. Break the eggs into a basin, beat them well with a fork, then add the milk and season with a tiny pinch of pepper and salt. Dissolve the butter in an omelet or frying pan. When quite hot, but not burning, pour in the mixture, stir slowly with a fork over a quick fire, shake the pan. When set roll the omelet into shape of a cushion on one side of the pan, allow it to take color, then turn it quickly on to a hot dish and serve. For those who like onion flavor two small peeled and chopped shallots may be added, but they should be fried a little with the butter before the mixture is put in the pan.

Anna Thompson.

She Taught Her Pet Many Tricks.

Daddy's Bedtime Story—The Little Old Lady and Her Pet Monkey.

"ONCE there was an old lady," said daddy, "who lived all alone.

"She wasn't particularly fond of animals, so she had no pets, and she had spent so much of her life away from people and without many friends that she had grown to like her lonely life and had no wish for anything different.

"This old lady lived in a small village, but it was near a big city, so now and then, though not very often, the old lady would go into the city to do a little shopping. Even the shops didn't interest her much, and she was always rather bored by her city days.

"But one day she was in the city and passed by a shop in which were dogs and monkeys. One monkey happened to strike her fancy. At once she went into the shop to ask if it was for sale.

"'Oh, yes!' said the shopkeeper. 'All the animals are for sale.'

"'Then,' said the old lady, 'I would like that monkey.'

"'Do you mean this marmoset monkey?' asked the shopkeeper.

"'Yes,' replied the old lady; 'that's the one I want, and the only one.'

"So the shopkeeper put the monkey in a large cage and asked the old lady where to send him to.

"'Oh,' said the old lady, 'I won't have it sent! I'll order a cab and take the monkey along with me.'

"So the cab was ordered, and the old lady set forth happily with her pet. She named him Niles. He was only seven inches long and had a curly tail. He was a very dark gray color. He proved to be a most expensive pet, for he liked all the most delicious fruits and would only eat his bread and rice when plenty of rich cream was put over it.

"Now, the old lady did not know what kinds of toys to have for him, as, you see, she'd never had any pets before. She found a few things that had once been used on a Christmas tree, and she gave these to Niles. What fascinated him above all was the old lady's rings. She had quite a number of them. Niles jumped up in her lap and began playing with them.

"When the old lady saw how fond Niles was of jewels she took out her jewel box. Niles had the most glorious time playing with its contents. He decorated himself with all the beads and chains and bangles and looked at himself in the mirror. He shook all over, for he liked the noise as well as the glitter of the jewels.

"So the old lady was very, very happy with her pet monkey. Niles was delighted with his new home and his new mistress, for he had never had jewels to play with in the animal shop."

LOHRMAN'S Chocolate Shop

161 EAST FRONT STREET.

High Grade Chocolates, Candies, Ice Cream and Sodas, Mottoes, Favors and Ice Cream Forms for all occasions. Orders taken for Frozen Puddings, Glaces, Mousses, Etc.

O. A. R. GARAGE

915-917 South Avenue.

Carbon removed by Oxygen method—$3 for 4 cylinder, $4 for 6 cylinder. Sole agents for Symplex Gas Saver—positively gives more power, speed and uses 25 to 50% saving. GUARANTEED REPAIRS

Raritan

Miss Ella West's Sunday-school class is planning to give a play on Friday evening March 6, in the Reformed chapel.

Fred Conklin spent Sunday with relatives at Dunellen.

A number of the members of Raritan Valley Council, of this place, will attend the session of the Somerset Past Councilors' Association, which will meet in the rooms of North Star Council, at Peapack, on Saturday evening.

USED DRUG IN SHOEING HORSE.

New Brunswick, Feb. 10.—The problem of how to shoe Maud, the worst kicking horse in Middlesex county, who is owned by the International Powder Company, has been solved. It came about because there are two rival blacksmiths in South Amboy. When C. E. Applegate, who has had the job of fitting Maud, with new shoes for more than a year, refused to keep her on his list Andrew Kronmeyer, his rival, said: "There's not a horse in the country that I can't shoe. Bring on this Maud!" A minute after Maud was introduced to Kronmeyer the blacksmith picked himself up, ascertained that none of his bones was broken and began to study the case at a safe distance. He decided Applegate must not have the laugh on him in any event. He went to a telephone and called up Dr. Louis Belloff in this city: "Can you come over here and chloroform a horse?" he asked. Belloff made a fourteen-mile trip to Kronmeyer's and gave Maud chloroform in a feed bag. Then, as six men propped up the animal, the blacksmith did his work. When Maud came to there was a surprised look in her eyes.

—Daily Press want ads. bring results.

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

BY EARL DERR BIGGERS

Copyright, 1913, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER XII.

The Cold Gray Dawn.

IT was still quite dark when he awoke with a start. In the blackness he could make out a figure standing by the side of his bed. He put his hand quickly beneath his pillow—the package was still there.

"What do you want?" he asked, sitting up in bed.

For answer the intruder sprang through the door and disappeared in the darkness of the outer room. Mr. Magee followed. One of his windows slammed back and forth in the wind. Slipping on a dressing gown and lighting a candle, he made an investigation. The glass above the lock had been broken. Outside, in the snow on the balcony, were recent footprints.

Sleepily, Mr. Magee procured the precious package and put it in the pocket of his gown. Then drawing on his shoes he added a greatcoat to his equipment, took a candle and went out on to the balcony.

Mr. Magee followed the footprints along the east side of the inn to the corner, then along the more sheltered rear and finally to the west side. On the west was a rather unlovely annex to the main building, which increasing patronage had made necessary. Mr. Magee made his way to the door of the annex. It was locked. But as he turned away he heard voices on the other side.

Mr. Magee had barely enough time to extinguish his candle and slip into the shadows of the corner. The door of the annex opened. A man stepped out into the passageway. He stood there. The light from a candle held by some one in the doorway whom Mr. Magee could not see fell full upon his face—the bespectacled, wise face of Professor Thaddeus Bolton.

"Better luck next time," said the professor.

"Keep an eye on him," said the voice from inside. "If he tries to leave the inn there'll be a big row. We must be in on it—and win."

"I imagine," said Professor Bolton, smiling his academic smile, "that the inmates of Baldpate will make tomorrow a rather interesting day for him."

"It will be an interesting day for every one," answered the voice.

"If I should manage to secure the package by any chance," the professor went on, "I shall undoubtedly need your help in getting away with it. Let us arrange a signal. Should a window of my room be open at any time tomorrow you will know the money is in my hands."

"Very good," replied the other. "Good night—and good luck."

The old man moved off down the passageway.

After him crept Mr. Magee. He followed the professor to the east balcony and saw him pause at the open window of No. 7. There the old man looked slyly about, as though in doubt. He peered into the room and one foot was across the sill when Mr. Magee came up and touched him on the arm.

Professor Bolton leaped in evident fright out upon the balcony.

"It's—it's a wonderful night," he said. "I was out for a little walk on the balcony enjoying it. Seeing your open window I was afraid"—

"The night you speak so highly of," replied Mr. Magee, "is at your left. You have lost your way. Good night, professor."

He stepped inside and closed the window. Then he pulled down the curtains in both rooms of his suit and spent some time exploring. Finally he paused before the fireplace, and with the aid of a knife unloosed a brick. Under this he placed the package of money, removing the traces of his act as best he could.

"They can't play without me—I've got the ball," he repeated, with a smile. And, safe in this thought, he closed his eyes and slumbered.

The gayest knight must have a morning after. Mr. Magee awakened to his to find suit 7 wrapped again in its favorite polar atmosphere. Filling the door leading to the outer room, he beheld the cause of his awakening—the mayor of Reuton. Mr. Cargan regarded him with the cold steely eye of a Disraeli in action, but when he spoke he opened the jaws of a cocktail mixer.

"Well, young fellow," he remarked, "it seems to me it was time you got up and faced the responsibilities of the day. First of which, I may mention, is a little talk with me."

He stepped into the room, and through the doorway he vacated Mr. Max came slinking. The unlovely face of the foe of suspicion was badly bruised, and he looked upon the world with no cheerful eye.

"You used us pretty rough last night in the snow," Cargan went on. "That's why I ain't disposed to go in for kid gloves and diplomacy this morning. It's my experience that when you're dealing with a man who's got the good old Irish name of Magee it's best to hit first and debate afterward."

"I—I used you roughly, Mr. Cargan?" said Magee.

"No debate, mind you," protested the mayor. "Lou and me are making this morning call to inquire after a little package that went astray somewhere last night. There's two courses open to you—hand over the package or let us take it. I'll give you a tip—the first is the best. If we have to take it we might get real rough in our actions."

Mr. Max slipped closer to the bed, an ugly look on his face. The mayor glared fixedly into Magee's eyes. The knight who fought for fair ladies in the snow lay on his pillow and considered briefly.

"I get what I go after," remarked Cargan emphatically.

"Yes," sparred Magee, "but the real point is keeping what you get after you've gone after it. You didn't make much of an impression on me last night in that line, Mr. Cargan."

"I never cared much for humor," replied the mayor, "especially at this early hour of the morning."

"And I hate a fresh guy," put in Max, "like poison."

"I'm not fresh," Mr. Magee smiled. "I'm stating facts. You say you've come for that package. All right—but you've come to the wrong room. I haven't got it."

"The h— you haven't!" roared the mayor. "Lou, look about a bit."

"Look about all you like," agreed Magee. "You won't find it. Mr. Cargan, I admit that I laid for you last night. I saw you open the safe according to the latest approved methods, and I saw you come forth with a package of money. But I wasn't rough with you. I might have been to be frank, but somebody beat me to it."

"Who?"

"The man with the seventh key, I suppose—that man Bland heard walking about last night when we were at dinner. Don't tell me you didn't see him in that mixup at the foot of the steps."

"Well, I did think there was another guy," the mayor answered, "but Lou said I was crazy."

"Lou does you an injustice. There was another guy, and if you are anxious to recover your precious package I advise you to wake him up to the responsibilities of the day, not me."

The mayor considered. Mr. Max, who had hastily made the rounds of the three rooms, came back with empty hands.

"Well," said the mayor, "I might as well admit it. I'm up in the air. I don't know just at this minute where to get off. But that state of affairs don't last long with me, young fellow. I'll go to the bottom of this before the day is out, believe me. And if I can't do anything else I'll take you back to Reuton myself and throw you in jail for robbery."

"I wouldn't do that," smiled Magee. "Think of the awful job of explaining to the white necktie crowd how you happened to be dynamiting a safe on Baldpate mountain at midnight."

"Oh, I guess I can get around that," said the mayor. "That money belongs to a friend of mine, Andy Rutter. I happen to go to the inn for a little rest and I grab you dynamiting the safe. I'll keep an eye on you today, Mr. Magee. And let me tell you now that if I catch you or any of the bunch that's with you trying to make a getaway from Baldpate there's going to be a war break out."

"I don't know about the other hermits," laughed Magee, "but personally I expect to be here for several weeks to come. Whew! It's cold in here. Where's the hermit? Why hasn't he been up to fix my fire?"

"Yes, where is he?" repeated Mr. Cargan. "That's what everybody'd like to know. He hasn't showed up. Not a sign of breakfast, and me as hollow as a reformer's victory."

"He's backslid," cried Magee.

"The quitter," sneered Max. "It's only a quitter would live on the mountain in a shack anyhow."

"You're rather hard on poor old Peters," remarked Magee, "but when I think that I have to get up and dress in a refrigerating plant I can't say I blame you. If only the fire were lighted"—

He smiled his most ingratiating smile on his companion.

"By the way, Mr. Cargan, you're up and dressed. I've read a lot of magazine articles about you, and they one and all agree that you're a good fellow. You'll find kindling and paper beside the hearth."

"What?" The mayor's roar seemed to shake the windows. "Young man, with a nerve like yours, you could wheedle the price of a battleship from Carnegie. I—I"— He stood for a moment gazing almost in awe at Magee. Then he burst forth into a whole souled laugh. "I am a good fellow," he said. "I'll show you."

He went into the other room and despite the horrified protests of Lou Max busied himself amid the ashes of the fireplace. When he had a blaze under way Mr. Magee came shivering from the other room and held out his hand.

"Mr. Cargan," he laughed, "you're a prince." He noted with interest that the mayor's broad shoes were mighty near $200,000.

While Mr. Magee drew on his clothes the mayor and Max sat thoughtfully before the fire, the former with his dudgy hands folded over the vast expanse where no breakfast reposed. Mr. Magee explained to them that the holder of the sixth key had arrived.

"A handsome young lady," he remarked. "Her name is Myra Thornhill."

"Old Henry Thornhill's daughter," reflected the mayor. "Well, seems I've sort of lost the habit of being surprised now. I tell you, Lou, we're breaking into the orchid division up here."

While Mr. Magee shaved—in ice cold water, another black mark against the hermit of Baldpate—he turned over in his mind the events of the night before.

He was ready to descend at last and came into the parlor of his suit with greatcoat and hat. In reply to Mr. Cargan's unasked question, he said:

"I'm going up the mountain presently to reason with our striking cook."

"You ain't going to leave this inn, Magee," said the mayor.

"Not even to bring back a cook! Come, Mr. Cargan, be reasonable. You may go with me if you suspect my motives."

They went out into the hall and Mr. Magee passed down the corridor to the farther end, where he rapped on the door of Miss Thornhill's room. She appeared almost immediately, buried beneath furs and wraps.

"You must be nearly frozen," remarked Mr. Magee pityingly. "You and your maid come down to the office. I want you to meet the other guests."

"I'll come," she replied. "Mr. Magee, I've a confession to make. I invented the maid. It seemed so horridly unconventional and shocking—I couldn't admit that I was alone. That was why I wouldn't let you build a fire for me."

"Don't worry," smiled Magee. "You'll and we have all the conveniences up here. I'll present you to a chaperon shortly—a Mrs. Norton, who is here with her daughter. Allow me to introduce Mr. Cargan and Mr. Max."

The girl bowed with a rather startled air, and Mr. Cargan mumbled something that had "pleasure" in it. In the office they found Professor Bolton and Mr. Bland sitting gloomily before the fireplace.

"Got the news, Magee?" asked the haberdasher. "Peters has done a disappearing act."

It was evident to Magee that everybody looked upon Peters as his creature and laid the hermit's sins at his door. He laughed.

"I'm going to head a search party shortly," he said. "Don't I detect the odor of coffee in the distance?"

"Mrs. Norton," remarked Professor Bolton dolefully, "has kindly consented to do what she can."

The girl of the station came through the dining room door. It was evident she had no share in the general gloom that the hermit's absence cast over Baldpate. Her eyes were bright with the glories of morning on a mountain. In their depths there was no room for petty annoyances.

"Good morning," she said to Mr. Magee. "Isn't it bracing? Have you been outside? Oh, I"

"Miss Norton—Miss Thornhill," explained Magee. "Miss Thornhill has the sixth key, you know. She came last night without any of us knowing."

With lukewarm smiles, the two girls shook hands. Outwardly the glances they exchanged were nonchalant and casual, but somehow Mr. Magee felt that among the matters they established were social position, wit, cunning, guile and taste in dress.

When the rather unsatisfactory substitute for breakfast was consumed, Mr. Magee rose briskly.

"Now," he said, "I'm going to run up to the hermit's shack and reason with him as best I can. I shall paint in touching colors our sad plight. If the man has an atom of decency"—

"A walk on the mountain in the morning," said Miss Thornhill quickly. "Splendid! I"—

"Wonderful," put in Miss Norton. "I, for one, can't resist. Even though I haven't been invited, I'm going along." She smiled sweetly. She had beaten the other girl by the breadth of a hair, and she knew it. New glories shone in her eyes.

"Good for you!" said Magee. The evil hour of explanations was at hand surely. "Run up and get your things."

While Miss Norton was gone Mr. Cargan and Lou Max engaged in earnest converse near a window. After which Mr. Max pulled on his overcoat.

"I ain't been invited either," he said, "but I reckon I'll go along. I always wanted to see what a hermit lived like when he's really buckled down to the hermit business. And then a walk in the morning has always been my first rule for health. You don't mind, do you?"

"Who am I," asked Magee, "that I should stand between you and health? Come along, by all means."

The three went out through the front door and found under the snow a hint of the path that led to the shack of the post card merchant.

"Will you go ahead?" asked Magee of Max.

"Sorry," grinned Max, "but I guess I'll bring up the rear."

"Suspicion," said Mr. Magee, shaking his head, "has caused a lot of trouble in the world. Remember the cruelty practiced on Pueblo Sam."

"I do," replied Mr. Max, "and it nearly breaks my heart. But there's a little matter I forgot to mention last night. Suspicion is all right in its place."

"Where's that?" asked Mr. Magee.

Mr. Max tapped his narrow chest. "Here," he said. So the three began the climb, Mr. Magee and the girl ahead, Mr. Max leering at their heels.

Covertly Mr. Magee glanced at the girl striding along by his side. The red flamed in her cheeks; her long lashes were flecked with the white of the snow; her face was such a one as middle aged men dream of while their fat wives read the evening paper's beauty hints at their side. Far beyond the ordinary woman was she desirable and pleasing. Mr. Magee told himself he had been a fool, for he who had fought so valiantly for her heart's desire at the foot of the steps had faltered when the time came to hand her the prize. Why? What place had caution in the wild scheme of the night before? None surely. And yet he, dolt, idiot, coward, had in the moment of triumph turned cautious. Full confession, he decided, was the only way out.

(to be continued)

EASY TO DARKEN YOUR GRAY HAIR

You Can Bring Back Color and Lustre With Sage Tea and Sulphur.

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.—Adv.

MEAT INJURIOUS TO THE KIDNEYS

Take a Tablespoonful of Salts if Back Hurts or Bladder Bothers.

We are a nation of meat eaters and our blood is filled with uric acid, says a well-know authority, who warns us to be constantly on guard against kidney trouble.

The kidneys do their utmost to free the blood of this irritating acid, but become weak from the overwork. Then, not sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and thus the waste is retained in the blood to poison the entire system.

When your kidneys ache and feel like lumps of lead, and you have stinging pains in the back or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or the bladder is irritable, obliging you to seek relief during the night; when you have severe headaches, nervous and dizzy spells, sleeplessness, add stomach or rheumatism in bad weather, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast each morning and in a few days your kidneys will act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys, to neutralize the acids in urine so it is no longer a source of irritation, thus ending urinary and bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and cannot injure; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink, and nobody can make a mistake by taking a little occasionally to keep the kidneys clean and active.—Adv.

TRUSSES

NEW FITTING ROOM

Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.

William M. Walsh

North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964.
OPP. DEPOT.

HORSES CLIPPED

By Charles C. Brower,
PLAINFIELD CAB CO.,
130-134 E. Second St. 'Phone 10.
11 6 6mos

HODGE'S PHARMACY

Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

B. KIVATINOS

(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 886-W

"SOME DAWG" IS RIGHT

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

PLAINFIELD HIGH WON STIFF FIGHT

Leal School Aggregation Went Down to Defeat After a Hard Battle

In the first game of the series with Leal's for the City Championship, the Plainfield High School basketball team defeated the Leal School team by the score of 39 to 21 in the Y. M. C. A. gym yesterday afternoon. The game was hard and fast from beginning to end. The boys from Leal School were out for a victory and fought hard to gain one, but without success.

Five seconds after the referee's whistle Dickerson drew first blood by caging a neat basket. This gave the private school boys increased strength and made them fight hard. Peacock scored the first point for Plainfield High School by caging a foul goal, which was soon followed by a field goal by Rosenson. This put Plainfield High School in the lead, which they held throughout the struggle. The Leal boys fought hard, but were unable to hold their opponents on equal terms, and the first half ended with the score at 15 to 10 in High School's favor.

In the beginning of the second half the teams fought along on even terms, but the High School boys became stronger and gradually drew away.

The scores:

P. H. S.

	G.	F.	P.
Snyder, f	3	0	6
Hetfield, f	0	3	3
R. Gavett, c	4	0	8
Peacock, g	6	4	16
Rosenson, g	2	0	4
Wheelan, g	0	0	0
D. McNamee, f	0	0	0
Ryder, g	0	0	0
Hirsch, f	1	0	2
	16	7	39

LEAL'S SCHOOL.

	G.	F.	P.
Dickerson, f	3	0	6
Stewart, f	3	1	7
Krom, c	2	0	4
Schneider, g	1	0	2
Harrington, g	0	0	0
Van Deventer, c	1	0	2
Faber, g	0	0	0
	10	1	21

Score by periods:

P. H. S.	15	24	—39
Leal's	10	11	—21

Summary: Timer, Stevenson; scorer, Campbell.

RAHWAY ELKS ROLL IN GOOD FORM AND TAKE TWO

ELKS' LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	H. S.
Newark	31	14	1046
New Brunswick	28	17	1032
Jersey City	28	17	1019
Paterson	27	18	1011
Hoboken	24	21	1032
Elizabeth	23	22	1057
New York	22	26	1008
Plainfield	20	22	1029
Rahway	15	30	950
Orange	7	38	988

Rahway bowlers did some clever pinning and won two games out of three last night in an Elks' League match on the New York team's alleys. In the first game Rahway was there for 913, winning by more than 100 pins and the visitors were there for 950 in the final encounter, which was forty-one pins more than the home five could muster. In the second game of the match the Rahway bowlers dropped to 829 and New York just nosed them out, winning by nine pins with 838. Worth was there for counts of 242 and 215 for Rahway and averaged 211. McCartney tallied 207 and Schmidt 205. McCurdy had scores of 201 and 200 for New York; Engelking rolled 216, and L. Westphal 209.

The scores:

RAHWAY.

Worth	215	176	242
Schmidt	179	160	205
Langton	199	122	169
Koops	162	164	164
McCartney	188	207	170
	943	829	950

NEW YORK.

L. Westphal	181	199	209
Schueler	...	...	147
A. Westphal	181	139	...
McCurdy	...	200	201
Bentsey	170	...	...
Spencer	...	154	145
Engelking	172	146	216
Starr	138	...	...
	842	838	909

Queries, Comment and Answers

Sporting Editor:

Query—What is a nickle three-cent piece of 1877 worth?—L. A. P.

Answer—Twenty-five cents.

Sporting Editor:

Query—How many rounds did the Jeffrey-Sharkey fights go?—C. F.

Answer—The first went twenty and the second went twenty-five.

Sporting Editor:

Query—On what day did July 14, 1894, fall?—N. H. Y.

Answer—Saturday.

Sporting Editor:

Query—How many students are there registered in Yale University?—A. W.

Answer—3,262.

Sporting Editor:

Query—How many of the new lights will be placed on the streets of Plainfield by the public service?—K. S.

Answer—No definite number have been stated in the contract and we cannot give the exact total.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Will Dunellen have a baseball team this year? Will the Central New Jersey League be reorganized?—L. G.

Answer—No definite steps have been taken to reorganize the Dunellen team but it is understood that the league will be reorganized.

"Sportdom Tips"

ROD AND REEL.

The annual report of the Maine fish and game department will make interesting reading for anglers who delight in fishing through the State. Among the fish turned out from the State hatcheries were 3,455,550 square-tailed trout, 1,080,500 land-locked salmon, 60,615 togue and 46,500 brown trout. In addition to this great amount of fish, there is in reservation at the hatcheries 308,600 square-tailed trout, 131,500 land-locked salmon and 5,000 brown trout that are being wintered to be planted as yearlings and two-year-olds next season. Two million seven hundred and sixty-seven thousand fish eggs are in process of incubation, and several millions others have been purchased from private hatcheries. The hatchery at Lake Maxie has been enlarged by the addition of 24 new troughs and five cement pools, and a new gasolene engine was installed to be used in grinding liver for fish food. All the buildings at the Belgrade hatchery have been enlarged, and those at the Monmouth, Moosehead, Auburn, Oquossoc, Raymond and Camden hatcheries renovated and put in repair. The report contains a list of the streams stocked and the kind of fish placed in it. Thousands of copies are distributed and the anglers and guides use them for reference during the fishing season.

SEASON NOT YET OVER.

Interest is beninning to wax warm in basketball at the present time and the contests yet to come without doubt will be the hottest of the season. In the event that Hope Chapel and North Plainfield High School agree to get together we will have something to keep our hearts beating for awhile at least and then those Plainfield High School youths are now seriously contemplating challenging the Y. M. C. A. quintet for runner-up honors in the City title race. Scotch Plains is after the Y. M. C. A. quintet's scalp and the contest tonight will evoke no little amount of interest. Then there is that P. H. S.-N. P. H. S. fracas to give us a little nourishment on Lincoln's Birthday. All told we have enough contests to keep us thinking untile the warm weather blows around.

Ricketts is the fast traveling star of the Parish House quintet who has been reaping a harvest of field goals this season. What have you got left for tonight, Jack?

A big delegation of local basketball followers are counting on a trip to Scotch Plains tonight to see that Y. M. C. A. clash in the Parish House.

Captain Bennie Rosenson, of the Plainfield High School baseball team, has called the first practice for this afternoon.—Why rush the season, Bennie, old chap?

Right on top of this announcement comes Manager Mann of the hockey team with a game to be played tomorrow afternoon.—Baseball and ice hockey on the same day. Some menu.

Plainfield High now looks like a runner-up for the Interscholastic League honors this season. That is, if the locals don't spring a surprise and put a crimp in the boroughites' rushing tactics Thursday night.

Two local teams were treated to raw deals Saturday—The Summit Chapel players failed to report at the Y. M. C. A. and Woodbridge balked in straying away from home to meet North Plainfield. Looks like an icy footing in both instances.

Haven't heard much from those feminine High School quintets of late. It can't be that baseball is occupying their attention, too.

If Plainfield High only had that new swimming pool now the hockey team could stage some Union county championship games on it.

Wonder those N. P. H. S. cohorts wanted the Leal School team to win that Interscholastic League clash yesterday afternoon? Will Leals reciprocate (it can't be done) Thursday night?

Fishing note—Suckers are biting good on Tier's pond. Several youngsters have gone under the ice after the finny tribe but the flush turned the tables on the tickly bender artists.

Jack Martin is wearing a worried look these days—'tis said that Jack will entertain one Maranville at his home for a few days prior to the Hub team's training trip this seaason. Nothing like getting the jump on a rival, Jack.

Martin is getting something for nothing these days—he is training the High School ball artists and he admits that they are giving him some valuable tips on the side.

And Tommy Mullin is training in Canada. The N. P. H. S. clan is profiting by what he has to hand out with a little salt on the side.

"Peanut" Stewart was the whole show in the Plainfield-Leal clash yesterday afternoon. The little fellow was the main cog in the private school machine and he was the sole cause for worriment in the High School camp.

With four more Stewarts there would have been nothing to it but red and gold.

Some of these basketball players who are doing circus stunts on the courts hereabouts ought to get in touch with "Doc" Doyle. "Doc" is scouring the continent for good vaudeville material and many of the basket cagers would shine before the footlights stopping ripe tomatoes and cackling eggs.

Don't forget that game on the Scotch Plains Parish House court tonight.

GOOD BASKETBALL GAME ON PARISH HOUSE COURT

The Plainfield Y. M. C. A. basketball team, with a crippled lineup, will go to Scotch Plains tonight to lineup against the Scotch Plains Parish House quintet in the first of a series of games arranged to be played between these rivals. Moulton and Gavett, two of the Y. M. C. A. team's mainstays, will be out of the game and their place will be taken by a pair of substitutes.

Scotch Plains will have its strongest lineup on deck for the occasion, but the association juniors expect to make things lively for Scotch Parish House rivals despite the crippled condition of the team.

SOME DISAGREEMENT.

Westfield High School feminine basket tossers, aspirants to the State championship title, are scheduled to lineup against the Battin High School maidens on the Westfield court Thursday afternoon in what will probably be recognized as a title game. There is some disagreement between the two teams, however, regarding the rules to be used and it is said that the Battin girls will refuse to play unless the Westfielders agree to use side centers. Westfield defeated Battin in a former game by a score of 17 to 16.

BAKERS' TWINS DEAD.

Philadelphia, Feb. 10.—News of the death of the twin girls of J. Franklin Baker, third baseman of the Philadelphia American League baseball team, was received here last night. Announcement of their death was contained in a letter in reply to a congratulatory message sent to Mr. Baker by Eddie Collins, the Athletics' second baseman. The twins were born several days ago at Mr. Baker's home at Trappe, Md.

SHOOT AT METUCHEN.

Preparations are nearing completion for the Lincoln and Wasaington Birthdays shoot of the Rod and Gun Club. The shoot will begin at 9:30 the morning of the 12th, and the second leg will be held the morning of the 23d. Keen competition will be furnished by the many entrants, who will try their best to win the beautiful little "L. C. Smith" gun offered as first prize. Several other prizes are also to be given.

WILSON DESERTS GIANTS.

Chicago, Feb. 10.—Arthur Wilson, second string catcher with the New York Nationals last year, has become a member of the Toronto Federal League team, it was learned yesterday at Federal headquarters here.

FOR THE BIG GAME.

The Plainfield High School basketball team has been accorded the use of Saengerbund Hall for tomorrow afternoon to get in condition for the interscholastic match with North Plainfield on Thursday.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

BLATZ STILL LEADS K. OF C. PIN-KNIGHTS

Local Player Has Rolled But Three Games But Holds Tight to the Top Rung.

According to official records issued by Secretary William Herkness, Francis Blatz still leads the Knights of Columbus Bowling League race and the Newark quintet has a comfortable lead in the team averages, having won twenty-eight games and lost but five. Bayley is second with twenty victories and seven defeats and the Star of Bethlehem third, with twenty-four games won and fifteen lost.

Team average honors belong to Newark, with a mark of 859-20 and 997 to the credit of the Newarkers is the best single game tally to date. Blatz has a mark of 191-2 for three games, but the real leader is Sellers, of the Bayley team, whose mark is 185 for twenty-seven games.

The official figures

Team Records.

	W.	L.	Av.	H.S.
Newark	28	5	859-20	997
Bayley	20	7	842-22	953
Star of Bethle'm	24	15	785-13	914
Watchung	19	17	788-5	953
Montclair	15	18	733-14	829
Elizabeth	11	19	716-15	955
Belleville	10	20	721-21	851
Olive	2	28	683-6	804

Individual Records.

	G.	Ave	H.S.
Blatz, Watchung	3	191-2	232
Sellers, Bayley	27	185	214
J. Speary, Newark	5	183-5	246
Connors, Star of Beth.	39	175-6	227
Sullivan, Newark	30	173-21	233
Moran, Bayley	18	173-2	223
Parkhorn, Newark	33	172-12	224
Brochu, Olive	12	172-6	221
Hasson, Bayley	24	171-8	220
Fables, Bayley	3	171	173
G. Taylor, Watchung	36	167-1	222
McLaugh'n, Star of B.	39	166-33	212
A. Speary, Newark	33	166-24	232
Farrell, Newark	18	166-15	220
C. Shannon, Watch'g	36	165-27	259
McInerney, Watch'g	8	165-2	184
H. Shannon, Watch'g	18	164	213
Barnes, Bayley	27	161-22	222
Hastings, Bayley	18	160-16	196
Howe, Watchung	26	160-9	204
Donohue, Elizabeth	25	158-3	200
Salmon, Elizabeth	6	158-3	177
Kern, Newark	9	158-2	189
Meehan, Elizabeth	6	157	192
Healy, Montclair	33	156-26	195
Quinn, Star of Beth	21	156-3	190
Byrnes, Elizabeth	21	155-17	180
Coughlin, Elizabeth	28	154-4	205
Fallon, Bayley	9	153-7	182
T. Cribbin, Star	39	153	209
Ellis, Belleville	20	152-17	204
E. Taylor, Watchung	22	152-5	182
Devine, Belleville	27	151-4	199
Paulman, Elizabeth	15	151-1	176
Bender, Bayley	3	151	174
Griffin, Olive	21	149-2	188
Courter, Montclair	29	148-21	178
L. Cribbin, Star	30	148-14	202
Meagher, Montclair	24	148-11	202
Devine, Bayley	6	148-4	186
Moffit, Olive	21	147-12	[illegible]
Coghlan, Montclair	23	146-18	[illegible]
Hacker, Belleville	15	146-12	[illegible]
O'Brien, Elizabeth	4	146-2	197
Gallagher, Montclair	22	143-11	200
Kinneally, Belleville	13	143-2	[illegible]
Connelly, Belleville	30	141-9	184
Tierney, Montclair	17	139-12	172
Sheehan, Belleville	24	139-8	191
Strappe, Watchung	10	139-8	168
Reardon, Belleville	21	138-2	166
Cole, Olive	27	137-2	172
Manning, Elizabeth	14	136-8	177
Reilly, Star	15	136-1	158
Aummann, Elizabeth	18	135-15	214
Mullin, Newark	9	135-1	228
Myers, Montclair	9	130-8	154

MANY "COME BACK" ON THE BIG CIRCUIT

Former Stars Who Have Been Sojourning in the Minors Will Return.

New York, Feb. 10.—A big bunch of players are to return to the big league clubs this spring after sojourning for a time in the minor organizations. One of the most notable "comebacks" this year is Pitcher Harry Covaleskie. When he played with the Philadelphia Nationals a few years ago Covaleskie was a terror to the batsmen, especially the heavy artillery of the New York Giants. At that time the Giants were able to make about all of the National pitchers back up, with the exception of the Pole in the Philadelphia uniform. Covaleskie beat the McGraw clan so easily and so often that he was dubbed the "Giant Killer." Last season he starred with the Chattanooga team of the Southern League, and now he is to return to the big show as a member of the Detroit Tigers.

A number of other pitchers are scheduled to re-enter the big arena this spring. While these slabsters lack the reputation of a Covaleskie to back them up, they all look good enough for one or more feeds at a big league hotel. Dode Criss, who joined the St. Louis Browns as a pitcher several years ago and later developed into the best pinch hitter in the American League, returned to the major league as a member of the Yankees. Elmer Koestner, who was tried out several years ago by the Cleveland Naps, will essay to put over the proper shoots and benders for the Chicago Cubs. Another Cleveland cast-off pitcher, Bill James, who did some remarkable twirling for the Portland Pacific Coast League team last season, will be taken South by the St. Louis Browns.

Pitcher "Toots" Schultz, formerly of the Philadelphia Nationals, will be given a trial by Manager Jennings, of Detroit. "Casey" Hagerman, who led the Western League pitchers last season, is another flinger who will try to stick with the big circuit on his second trial. As a member of the Boston Red Sox a year or so ago "Casey" couldn't pitch, and "Casey" couldn't bat. But he caught on with the Denver club, made his mark as a slabster and now he has been signed by the St. Louis Cardinals.

The new Federal League also will try out a number of former big league pitchers, among them "King" Cole, once the leading mound artist of the Chicago Cubs and last season with Columbus in the American Association; George Mullin, for years the old stand-by in the box for the Detroit Tigers, and last year in the International League; "Lefty" Leifield, formerly with Pittsburgh and Chicago and last season with the Pacific Coast League, and William Fieno, former White Sox hurler and last season with the Minneapolis team.

Infield and outfield artists as well as pitchers are numbered among the players who will try to show they are now able to hold up their end in the speedy set. "Lena" Blackburne, who is said to have cost the White Sox something like $15,000 in real money a few seasons back, is to get another trial with the Sox. Blackburne first gained prominence in Providence, where he was hailed as the leading shortstop of the International League.

Another former big league infielder, Third Baseman Billy Purtell, has affixed his signature to a Detroit American League contract. Purtell once was with the Chicago White Sox and later with the Boston Red Sox. Last year he did brilliant work for Montreal, finishing the season with a batting average of .316 for 152 games.

Jimmy Johnson, former Cleveland Nap and last season a star in the Pacific Coast League, has been signed with the Chicago Cubs. Johnson holds the P. C. L. base-stealing record, with 123 pilfered sacks to his credit in 1913.

Outfielder Lester Channell is to don a New York American League uniform for the second time. He was purchased from Indianapolis by the Yankees three years ago, but broke his leg early in the season and was out of the game for a year.

Catcher "Hickory" Johnson, formerly of the St. Louis Cardinals, is slated for an opportunity to show his wares to Manager McGraw of the Giants. "Hickory" was strong with the bat in the Western League last season, being the leading long-distance walloper of the league.

NEW YORK A. C. ATHLETES PLAN BIG NIGHT IN GARDEN

New York, Feb. 10.—A gala night has been planned by the New York Athletic Club for its annual indoor games at Madison Square Garden tomorrow night. It will be thirty-five years since the club gave its first indoor meet, and the old-timers of the Mercury Foot will flock to the Garden to show their loyalty to the club after a third of a century. Some of the men who were at the first game, and who won prizes there, will be seen officiating tomorrow evening.

With this reunion of old-timers and men prominent in the business life of the city there will be other attractions. A program of sixteen events, five of which are limited handicaps, has been arranged.

The big feature of the meeting will be an international relay race, with the United States and Canada as contestants. Four men on a side will figure, with the American team consisting of Ted Meredith, the world's 800-meter and half-mile record holder, Mel Sheppard, Homer Baker and Tom Halpin. Canada will be represented by George Brook, Jack Tait, J. M. Phillips, an Englishman who has shown himself to be a flier, and Jack Tressider, holder of the Dominion records at 440 and 880 yards.

YERKES SIGNS WITH RED SOX.

Boston Mass., Feb. 10.—The signed contract of Steve Yerkes, the second baseman of the Red Sox, was received yesterday at the club's offices.

INTERCLASS LEAGUE.

The 1916 and 1917 teams of the Plainfield High School Interclass League will meet in the High School "gym" this afternoon.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

—To go straight to the right store, at the right time, in making a particular purchase, is not a matter of luck, or of general knowledge of the stores—but of keeping in touch with store advertising all the time.

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY

from the fact that breakdowns will happen, no matter how high a grade of wheel you own. Unless you are exceptionally fortunate, you'll need our services as bicycle repairers par excellence sooner or later. True, you may save a mishap by letting us overhaul your machine after a long ride; but at any and all times will do the best possible for you and your wheel.

LEO ZEISEL

Bicycles, Sundries, Musical Instruments and Sporting Goods. Temporary at 328 W. Front St. Permanent Headquarters after March 1st, 222 W. Front St., Next Door to Proctor's.

J. B. GREENHUT, PRES. "THE BIG STORE"

GREENHUT-SIEGEL COOPER CO.
"MEET ME AT THE FOUNTAIN"

BOTH SIDES OF SIXTH AVE.-18TH TO 19TH ST.
NO CONNECTION WITH ANY OTHER STORE

THIS STORE WILL BE OPEN ALL DAY THURSDAY—LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY

GREENHUT'S for Daily Economies

"Little by little, he got rich,
By saving on candle-ends, and sich"
—Benjamin Franklin

All philosophers teach the importance of saving the little things.

It is very fine to save big sums; but a few pennies saved every day make a fine nest-egg, that grows bigger and bigger, as you learn the art of SAVING.

If you save a few pennies on one thing, ten cents on another, and a dollar, now and then—AS EVERYBODY DOES at GREENHUT'S—you have a snug sum at the end of the year.

GREENHUT'S can afford to do business on a much smaller profit than most stores, because of the careful and economical way that this business is conducted.

We have no wasteful expenses—no extravagant methods, such as the public must always pay for elsewhere. Sound, able merchandising, and efficient, capable service for our customers.

That is why prices are always lower at GREENHUT'S; and that is why there are big economies here for you, EVERY DAY.

If You Are Not a Charge Customer of The Big Store
we will make it easy for you to become one. Consult our Department of Accounts, Balcony, MAIN Building.

MAIN BUILDING

Tomorrow THE BIG STORE Begins Its Greatest

February Sale of Bed Coverings

Comforters, Blankets, Spreads, Sheets; Also Pillows and Pillow Cases

An underprice distribution without a parallel in the sale events of the entire year. Unmatchably low prices on worthiest, most wanted lines which can be classed as "Bed Coverings."

This is another one of the many events planned to save money for our patrons.

Among the hundreds of items prepared, we feature the following:
Absolutely the Best 89c Comforters, at Each 54c
For single-size beds; silkoline-covered; cotton-filled; plain backs; only two to a customer; no mail or 'phone orders filled.

79c Crib Blankets—blue and pink; size 36x50; single crib blankets; slightly soiled; each 48c

$2.45 and $2.95 Medium-Weight Comforters—figured silkoline-covered; pretty patterns; light and dark colorings; pure white cotton filling; some have silk and cotton plain 9-inch borders; only 450 in this lot; each .. $1.95

$3.95 Blue Plaid Blankets—part wool; 60x76 inches; heavy weight; limit of 2 pairs to a customer; one pattern; no mail or telephone orders filled; pair $2.25

$1.19 and $1.39 Comforters—for full-size beds; sizes 72x78 and 72x84 inches; cotton-filled; silkoline covered; pieced; light and dark coverings; medium weight; each 78c

$1 White Fleeced Blankets—size 64x76 inches; spring weight; white fleeced cotton; pair 79c

$1.95 to $2.45 "Odd" Blankets—heavy weight; wool finish cotton blankets; plaid, gray and cardinal; pair $1.49

29c Small Jacquard Blankets—English make; cotton fleeced single "Teddy Bear" blankets for carriages and small cribs; each 19c

$1.95 Hemmed Crochet Spreads—extra heavy; large size; white crochet spreads; only 100; each $1.49

$1.49 to $1.69 Bedspreads—for full-size beds; included are crochet spreads, hemmed, fringed and a lot of colored spreads; each $1.18

$3.95 and $4.45 White Eastern Blankets—for full-size beds; wool and cotton mixed; also White and Cotton Mixed Blankets for single-size beds; wide silk binding; pair $2.95

5½-Lb. White Wool Blankets—with fine spun cotton warp; will wear well and are light and fluffy; pair, $4.45

59c Bed Pillows—covered with blue striped ticking; filled with clean feathers; each 36c

"Odd" Sheets—extra quality, fine muslin; for full-size beds; some are slightly soiled; each 79c

Soft Finish Bleached Muslin Pillow Cases—42 and 45x36 inches before hemming; hemmed and hemstitched; values to 19c; each 12c

25c Initial Pillow Cases—size 45x36 inches; only 350 dozen; each 18c

Embroidered Pillow Cases—scalloped and hemstitched; embroidered in pretty patterns; each 24c

$4.45 and $5.50 "Odd" Comforters—silk and cotton mull comforters with 9-inch plain borders; cotton-filled; each $2.95

$2.75 White Satin Finished Spreads—scalloped and cut corners or hemmed; choice patterns; each $1.95

$3.95 Marseilles Spreads—white; scalloped, cut corner or plain hemmed; only 200; each $2.95

79c Soft Finish Bleached Muslin Bed Sheets—size 81x90 inches before hemming; limit of 6 to a customer; no mail or telephone orders filled; each 53c

MAIN BUILDING

A Big Clearance of

Knit Underwear

For Women, Misses, Boys and Children; Garments Formerly Priced to 85c Each, Tomorrow, at

25c

Women's Medium-Weight Ribbed Merino, Heavy and Light-Weight Cotton-Fleeced, Fine Ribbed Cotton Vests and Pants. Also Cotton Combination Suits, lace-trimmed.

Children's Combination Suits—fine ribbed wool, plain merino and extra good quality cotton fleeced Vests and Pantalettes.

MAIN BUILDING

Hail to The Big Store's Annual Sale of

Blouses of Lingerie, Net, Lace, Chiffon and Silk

Values to $2, at 95c — Values to $3, at $1.50 — Values to $5, at $1.98

$1.50 $1.98 95c

When you come to our Waist Store, tomorrow, you will be in perfect accord with this important proposition:

The Material in These Waists Is Alone Worth What We Have Priced the Completed Garments

And you'll likewise admit that such waists for such a price are not sold anywhere else in New York.

Yes, it's true that some are a little mussed from handling; others have been assembled because of incomplete size-assortments.

But Don't Lose Sight of the Fact That the Prices Have Been Affixed Regardless of Original Cost and There Are Bargains Galore

One blouse from each group is illustrated—detailed descriptions are out of the question in view of the many styles shown:

At 95c. Handsome blouses of WHITE VOILE, embroidery- and lace-trimmed; likewise JAPONIKA SILK blouses. High- and low-neck models; long or short sleeves. Values to $2.

At $1.50. Dressy blouses of NET, LACE, SILK AND CHIFFON. Black and colors. Artistically designed and trimmed. Values to $3.

At $1.98. Charming models of CHIFFON, LACE AND SILK; a varied collection of styles, in the height of the present mode. Values to $5.

N. B.—QUANTITIES ARE LIMITED. NONE OF THESE BLOUSES ON APPROVAL. NO 'PHONE OR C. O. D. ORDERS FILLED.

We Give S.H. Green Trading Stamps
Complimentary S.H. Stamps Free, Tomorrow
Distribution in Ladies' Parlor, Main Building.
Only 100 Complimentary Stamps good in any one book.

GREENHUT BUILDING

Imported Turquoise Blue Enamel

Paragon Ware 69c

$1 to $1.50 Pieces

All genuine "Loon" brand, formerly known as "Stransky" ware. Every piece triple-coated. No mail or 'phone orders filled. In addition to the Paragon Ware, we offer tomorrow, many specials in aluminum ware and other housewares. Your choice, at 69c

MAIN BUILDING

"1914" Baby Carriages; Also Go-Carts and Sulkies
Newest, best-looking and most comfortable vehicles for their royal highnesses—THE BABIES. Of course, you save money when you buy at Greenhut's.

MAIN BUILDING

And Now a Sale of $2.50 & $2.95

Tailored Skirts

For Women & Misses, at

$1.95

At the most conservative estimate these skirts are worth $3. Their tailoring is excellent; the materials the most in demand and the most durable. Included are ALL-WOOL SERGES, CHEVIOTS, HONEYCOMB CHECKS, MIXTURES and CORDUROYS. Belt sizes 22 to 30; lengths 32 to 42 inches.

$3.95 Navy Blue Maternity Skirts—tomorrow, at $1.95

Skirts—values to $10; tomorrow, at $6.75
New models in the smartest styles for spring. Poplins, Serges, Matelasses, Plaids, Moires, Mixtures, Wide-Wale Serges, Shepherd Checks and Stripe Cloths; also All-Wool White Serges.

MAIN BUILDING

Women's $3, $3.50 and $4

Evening Slippers for DANCING

A Wonderful Collection in Tomorrow's Sale, at $1.95

Discontinued lines from our own superb stocks. Every pair of slippers is stylish. All perfect. The assortment comprises satins in all the popular shades; also Velvets, Suedes, Patent Leathers and Bronze.

This being a clearance of "odd" lots, the size-range in each style is not complete, but you will find all sizes and widths in the whole collection. You are sure to be fitted in a style to your liking. All of these slippers have hand-turned soles.

GREENHUT BUILDING

Why Is FURNITURE So Cheap in February?

This is a question that people often ask when they don't understand why there should be magic in the name of a month.

The furniture costs you LESS, because we are able to COMMAND LOW PRICES in February.

Manufacturers would be idle in December and January if they did not secure special orders for those months.

Housekeepers wouldn't buy much furniture in February, unless there were BIG INDUCEMENTS.

So it is a co-operative plan between us and certain big furniture manufacturers TO CREATE BUSINESS FOR FEBRUARY.

To accomplish this we COMPEL THEM to cut their prices to us, so that we can offer YOU

The LOWEST Prices of the Year

And our experts see that not one piece of unworthy furniture comes into our store, no matter how low the price, or how big the reduction.

You secure the regular, sound, solid, carefully constructed and handsome furniture that brings regular prices in March and April, while you save up to 45% of the regular price—and we deliver the furniture to you now, or later on in the spring, at your convenience. Do You Know of any Easier Way to Reduce the Cost of Living WELL?

Test the economies of this February Sale by these offerings:

$17.50 Brass Bed Outfits—as illustrated; 2-inch-post brass bedsteads with five filling rods; all regular sizes; 10-year-guaranteed spring and soft-top mattress; bright or satin finish; at $9.75

$7.50 White Enamel Bedstead Outfits—as illustrated; neat design white enamel bedstead, woven wire spring with steel frame; soft-top mattress; at $5.25

$24 Special Gray Drawing Mattresses—40 lbs.; covered in A. C. A. or fancy-striped ticking, at $17.75

$9 Cushion-Corner Springs—as illustrated; at $6.75
Something new in a spring built for comfort, strength and durability.

Has four corner coil springs which, added to the "give" of the flat steel fabric with the helical ends, makes it the "last word" in comfort in a spring.

$14 Fireside Wing Chairs—as illustrated; very suitable for living room or bedroom; large, roomy and comfortable; the frames are made of hardwood and finished in mahogany; has a spring seat and a loose cushion; chair is covered in a variety of fancy cretonnes; tomorrow at. $9.75

$1.20 Curled Hair Pillows—22x28, in fancy art cretonne ticking; at 90c

$5 Slumberland Springs—something new—made of one continuous piece of heavy gauge steel wire with helical ends; heavy, flat steel bands on each side to brace edges; all regular sizes; heavy steel frame; tomorrow, at $3.75

$13.50 Golden Oak China Closets—as illustrated; 33 inches wide; 64 inches high; three wooden shelves; claw feet, neatly finished; well constructed; tomorrow, at $11.50

MAIN BUILDING

We Specially Price, for Tomorrow, These

Women's Imported English Raincoats at $10.75

And That's About What You Would Pay for an Ordinary Domestic Raincoat

England is the home of the rain-proofing industry. We buy our best raincoats there, and when a sale of this character comes along YOU CANNOT AFFORD TO DISREGARD IT.

We have hardly 200 coats in this collection, in two models, shades of light and dark tan, olive green, navy and black.

Model 1—illustrated. It is called "THE ROKEBY," made with a full, graceful back, with raglan sleeves, collar buttons close at neck; slashed pockets.

Model 2—A smart full-back design; set-in, mannish sleeves and smart cuffs. Sizes to 44 bust-measure.

Women's & Misses' Coats Values to $9.75; at $3.95
This special sale continues—thanks to the inclement weather of last Saturday. Don't miss the BEST BARGAINS OF THE SEASON.

MAIN BUILDING

Tomorrow---But Come Early!

$3, $4, $5 and $6 Trousers, at $2

Why say more than is contained in our headline?

The sale is impressive enough—the bargain is apparent enough.

But we WILL go further.

We have added to this sale hundreds of pairs of

"Kingly" Trousers, "Crown" Trousers, "Wald-Walker" Trousers and "Sweet, Orr & Co." Trousers

not to speak of 600 pairs in Cassimeres and Cheviots, in patterns used for suitings. Blue and black Cheviots are included. Sizes 28 to 56.

Men's & Youths' "Odd" $10 Raincoats—double texture, odds and ends in tweeds and broken lots, all sizes, at $4.95

"Odd" Fancy Vests—Silks, Mercerized Silks, Worsteds and Flannels, samples in all regular sizes, values to $3, at 85c

Full Dress Vests—in white Piqué, Birdseye, Silks and Mercerized Silks; all sizes, in shawl collar and reg. styles, val. to $5 $1.65

"Everybody's Going to THE BIG STORE" — Double S.H. Green Trading Stamps with Purchases Before 12 o'Clock—Single Stamps Thereafter

OLIVE OIL

Gallon can $2.65

Half Gallon can $1.40

Quart can 75c

20 oz. bottle 65c

DIRECT FROM FRANCE

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS

Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760

Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage

WAREHOUSE

North Avenue

OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE

125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.

OLD RELIABLE

STORAGE

All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry

Furniture Packed and Shipped

Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS

THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.

AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many-years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading

Auctioneers

W. A. SCHORB & CO.

Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold

120 Madison Av., Jackson Big

Telephone 1707-W.

HENRY J. SIEBERT & CO.

1147 East Jersey St.,

ELIZABETH, N. J.

(Opp. Proctor's Theatre).

We specialize:

AWNINGS

WINDOW SHADES

CURTAIN MATERIALS

BRASS GOODS, etc.

Large assortment.

Low prices.

'Phone Elizabeth 852.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JUST RECEIVED 8,000 ROLLS OF THIS YEAR'S

WALL PAPER

At special prices, selling at 8 and 10 cents per roll. This is an opportunity to secure up-to-date wallpaper at a big saving.

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators.

145 NORTH AVENUE.

Now is the Time

To paint your house—in the cool of the year, when the paint dries slowly, and consequently lasts longest. No hot sun to cause blisters. And the house painted now is preserved against the ravages of winter storms.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's pure colors, ready mixed paint, varnishes, glass, etc.

JAMES C. HANSEN

Tel. 346.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

February 1, 1913

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5.30, 8:00, 8:40, 11 45 a. m., 12:20, 2:20, 5:00, 5:30, 6:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:20, 8:00, 9:00, 10 45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10.00 a. m., 12:20, 3:15 and 7:0 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00 a. m., 1:30, 4:3 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:20, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:20, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST. Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:3 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA West of Easton Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:4 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close—8:00 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:20, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:2 8:00, 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00 2:50, 5:30 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6 45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 2:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m. Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

W. H. BIRD, P. M.

Dr. Robert W. Rogers

OSTEOPATH

720 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1936-W.

Office hours: 8 to 9 a. m., 7 to 8 p. m.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

Every Grocery Store Is the Home of KLEEN-MAID BREAD

Everybody's selling it, because everybody's asking for it, eating it, praising it, and coming back for more.

Your Grocer Sells It—
10c and 5c Loaves

ZEEK BAKING CO.

Copyright 1913

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists

AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Free Consultation.

Hours 10 to 4:30.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.08, 5.40, 5.52 (5.27, 6.55, 7.28, 7.48, 7.41, 7.44, 7.55, 7.58 (8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.42, 8.50, 9.29, 9.55, 10.26 (11.27, 11.52 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.25 3.29, 3.55, 3.12, 3.48, 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.27 (6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.15, 10.36, 11.45 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.40, 7.23, 7.58 (8.52, 9.34, 9.46, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.39 2.58, 4.28, 5.09, 6.23, 7.55, 8.17, 9.29, 5.34 (6.57, 7.14, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.27, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.03, 6.25, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8.36, 9.29, 10.26 (11.27 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.29, 2.55 4.13, 4.36, 5.39, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.30 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.23, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.39, 12.58, 2.58, 5.09, 6.23, 8.17, 4.29 5.34, 7.14, 8.13, 9.35, 9.27, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.06, 9.44, 11.27, a. m., 2.00, 5.24, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), (6.59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5.19, (9.44 to Allentown), 10.32 a. m., 1.58, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk) 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.18 9.44 a. m., 5.44 p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.2, a. m., 5.44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, (6.39—3.41, 8.12, 11.27 a. m. 12.34, (12.58 Red Bank only), (3.12 Red Bank only), 4.36, 6.25, 8.27, 11.43 p. m. Sunday—2.41, 8.52 a. m., (2.09 Red Bank only), 3.17, 8.55 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m. 12.34 Saturdays only), 3.12. Sunday—9.40 a. m., 1.28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6.39, 7.39, 8.45, 10.43 11.53 a. m., 12.42, 1.04, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44 8.47, 9.46, 10.18 p. m., 1.20 a. m. Sunday—8.45, 9.29, 9.57, 10.39, 10.43, 11.41 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.39, 4.56, 5.29, 6.29 7.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.25, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.43 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk. 12.21.12

Your Appearance Counts

Have you ever realized how well you are received when your appearance is favorable? Men, send your Suit and have it cleaned and pressed. Ladies, your tea gowns, woolen dresses, opera cloaks, plain or fancy waists, and indeed anything worth cleaning.

I guarantee my work and assure you that my method will tend to renew the fabric, brighten the colors and raise the nap, thereby restoring the garment to the freshness of new clothing.

A. ROTGUN

432 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 1976-W.

Nine years with G. O. Keller.

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING

CANDIES, ICE CREAM

DAINTY LUNCH

DIED.

LORD—On Sunday, February 8, 1914, Elizabeth T., wife of David S. Lord, aged 50 years.

Services at her late residence, 409 East Fifth street, on Wednesday, February 11, at 2 p. m. Interment in the Samptown cemetery.

Classified Advertisements---Copy Received Until 1:30 P. M. Daily

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No Display or block face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

REMEMBER

We carry the largest and finest stock of plants and cut flowers in the city. Floral design work by expert designers. Plant or flowers delivered to any city of the United States. Store, 159 East Front street; Tel. 928; greenhouses, 1126 South avenue. 40,000 feet of glass.

STANLEY

159 E. Front St. Tel. 928.

Woodhull & Martin Building.

Greenhouses, South Ave., Tel. 331-J

T. A. MOORE

UNDERTAKER

612 E Sixth St.

Tel. 741-R

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON,

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS

Office, 116 Park Avenue. Tel. 584-W. Res. 417 W. 3d St. Tel. 584-W. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2604-Gramercy.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,

UNDERTAKERS

492 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Both lines day and night.

Office of Hillside Cemetery.

New York office, 31 Great Jones St. Tel. 691 or 345-Spring.

New York Embalmers' License—1250. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

JAS. J. CHAS. A.

J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS

FUNERAL PARLORS

109 W. Fourth St. Tel. 1753-J.

Our Booklet Entitled

A Modern Mortuary Establishment

Sent Upon Request

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS

Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

GIRL wanted for general housework; no waiting or upstairs work; references required. 945 Cedarbrook road, between Watchung and Prospect avenues. 2 10 tf

WANTED—Young lady to learn bookkeeping; must be quick at figures and good penman. Queen City Laundry, 303 Fillmore avenue. 2 10 2

A CHRISTIAN lady can make from 9 to 15 dollars per week. Address K., General Delivery, Plainfield.

WANTED—Girl for general housework in small private family. 19 Prospect place.

EXPERIENCED waitress and chambermaid wanted at once; good wages. Call Mrs. Keller's Agency, 22 Somerset place; 'Phone 1724. 2 9 2

LOST AND FOUND.

LOST—Gold ring with red stone and pearls, between Webster place, Watchung and Crescent avenues, West Eighth street and Arlington avenue. Reward if returned to Daily Press office. 2 9 2

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, reliable help only; all nationalities, faithful service commands good situations and our fees are very reasonable; courteous treatment to all. 326 West Front street, near Grove. Phone 666. 11 26 tf

HANSEN'S Employment Agency, 128 Watchung avenue, corner Second street. Excellent positions furnished to reliable help of all nationalities. Telephone 2559. 2 5 1mo

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

HOUSEWORK, 25c an hour, wanted by handy colored man. 317 Liberty street. 10 28 tf

MARRIED man (white), sober and industrious, handy with tools; can drive and care for auto, and make himself generally useful; city references. Address White, care Press. 2 10 3

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rate; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Ford delivery wagon with runabout body; new tires and in perfect condition. E. & C. Auto Sales Co., 124 Madison avenue. 2 4 6

LITTLE TALKS BY THE WANT AD MAN

Copyright, 1913, The Int. Syndicate, Baltimore.

No. 58.

OVER in the Eastern section of town, let us say, there is a man who has a gas engine for sale. Away out in the Western district there is a man who needs just that kind of an engine. If the man over East knew about the man out toward the West, he wouldn't lose any time in telling him about the article he wants to sell.

But the man over East doesn't know the man out at the other end of town. And the man at the other end, not being a mind reader, doesn't know that there is a man over Eastward with a gas engine for sale.

Now, how can these two men get into touch with each other? I know, and so do you: Through a little Want Ad. in the "For Sale" column.

Perhaps these two men—the man who wants to sell and the man who wants to buy—rubbed elbows somewhere within the past few days without knowing it. But that didn't help either one of them in the matter of that gas engine, did it?

The man with the engine would like to get into touch with the man who wants an engine. He could do it in the "For Sale" column at a cost of forty or fifty cents—perhaps less than that.

Mr. Man Over East, you can get a profitable introduction to Mr. Man Toward The West in the "For Sale" column.

The Want-Ad Man

(All rights reserved, 1913, by Jerome P. Fleishman.)

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—Enough second hand lumber to build shed 14x20x8. 'Phone 1624-J. 2 10 2

WANTED—Second hand lumber, suitable for building barn or small barn; must be cheap. Care S. S., Press. 2 10 2

WANTED—To borrow, an old fashioned crane, to use in play for benefit of Pine Mountain Association. Address Crane, care Press. 2 10 2

TAXIDERMIST—Birds and animals stuffed and mounted. T. W. Sisty, Wayside Park; 'Phone 1299-J Dunellen, N. J. 11 11 3mo

EMBROIDERY INITIALS, ETC.—Orders taken for all kinds of embroidery and initials; first class work; prices reasonable. Mrs. C. S. Groot, 768 Woodland avenue, near Putnam avenue; telephone 1687-M. 1 15 1mo

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES, AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY CO. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Lewis A. Clement, lawyer, Babcock building. 2 9 6

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 2 6 1mo

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Manning, 183 North avenue. 10 14 tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

CARPENTER would like to get job work. 633 South Second street. 2 10 3

WANTED—Silk winder, experienced; good pay and steady work. Jersey Silk Mills.

FOR SALE.

FOR SALE—Indian motorcycle, twin cylinder, in good running condition. Call at 756 Kensington avenue, Plainfield, New Jersey. 2 7-10-13

PRIZE-WINNING Buff Orpington cockerels for sale. Apply 516 Park avenue. 2 10 3

FOR SALE—Six room house, bath, hot water heat; fruit, large lot and room to build another house; half cash. Owner, 1020 East Front St. 2 10 3

ROYAL TYPEWRITERS — The best built standard typewriter in the world for only $75. Write or call for a demonstration. Plainfield Office Supply Co., Local Agents, P. O. Box 701. Phone 921-W. 1 25 1mo

FOR SALE—Manure, soil. Sam Redd, 933 West Third street. 2 3 1m

FOR SALE—All kinds fine gloves for ladies, men and boys, at wholesale and retail; large variety of deer skin gloves for auto, driving and working; best canvas, 10c; per dozen, $1.00; kid gloves, slightly damaged, half price. H. Texier, 58 Somerset street. 12 21 tf

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR TO LET—Two new seven room houses; all improvements; garage, sleeping porch, decorated to suit tenant or buyer. 839 Osborne avenues, Netherwood, telephone 894-M. 1 28 tf

FOR SALE OR RENT—Premises 323 East Front street, southwest corner Westervelt avenue; lot 45x100; house containing all improvements; also, premises 418 East Second street; house with all improvements; good sized lot. State Trust Co. 2 7 6

ROOMS AND BOARD.

TO LET—Attractive rooms, with board. Mrs. L. R. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue. 2 24 tf

FOR RENT.

FLAT to let, five rooms, all improvements. 538 West Fifth street, or enquire 432 Watchung avenue. 11 11 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street, with improvements. Call 570 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FIVE-ROOM apartment, all modern improvements; central location. Inquire P. C. Thomsen, 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—Six room house and bath. Inquire 147 East Fifth street. 11 28 tf

TO RENT—Flat, 6 rooms and bath; all improvements; $25.50. Inquire 334 East Fifth street. 2 4 12

FOR RENT—No. 107 Central avenue, 10 rooms and bath, improvements, hot water heat. Inquire of owner, No. 103 Central avenue. 2 10 6

TO LET—Four rooms, East Seventh street, near Berckman street. Inquire 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

TO LET—Five rooms, improvements. 423 John street. 2 7 1mo

FOR RENT—No. 45 Prospect place, near Washington avenue, 6 rooms, reception hall and bath; all improvements. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef at Woodhull & Martin Co. 12 1 tf

TO LET—At eleven dollars, to respectable colored families, 4-room houses, with improvements. Inquire 1348 West Front street. 2 2 12

TO LET—House, six rooms and bath. 409 Liberty street, Tel. 450-W. 12 8 tf

APARTMENT for rent; steam heat; 95 Westervelt avenue; 6 rooms. Lamar Van Syckel. 1 6 tf tu-th-s

HOUSE for rent, 1072 Arlington avenue; 9 rooms, steam heat. Lamar Van Syckel. 1 6 tf tu-th-s

TO LET—New four room apartments; improvements; 1361 and 1351 South Second street; $10.50 per month. John Herrman, 369 Somerset street; 'Phone 2512-W. 1 23 1mo

HOUSE to rent; eight rooms, all improvements; small garage. Inquire 222 Madison avenue. 1 16 1mo

TO RENT—Large room for one or two ladies; private family; breakfast if desired. 20, The New Madison. 2 10 3

SIX ROOM house to let; all modern improvements; rent reasonable. W. R. VanDerveer, superintendent, 231 East Second street, Cor. Church. 1 17 tf

TO RENT—April 1st, a modern dairy and poultry farm of 72 acres on Valley road; 10-room modern house, with furnace; rent $480 per year. Address Mountain Farms, care of Press. 2 9 7

FOUR-ROOM flat to let, part improvements, $10. 203 Grant avenue. 11 21 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town, rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 11 6 tf

HOUSES $12 to $50; flats, $10 to $30; stores $7 upwards. D. McInness, West Third street, Tel. 1194-W. 6 20 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FARM FOR SALE—20 acres, midway between two depots on outskirts of Plainfield, N. J.; good seven room house, chicken house, artesian well, 550 feet frontage on county road, well travelled. Apply Edward C. Hardingham, 152 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 2 5 7

FOR SALE—Good house, for colored people, 6 room house, part improvements; right in town. See Mr. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 6 26 tf

FOR SALE—To close "French Estate," Somerset street carriage factory, stores, and tenement houses and stable in rear; lot 100x200 ft.; alley at side and in rear; bargain; terms arranged. Apply, Elston M. French, executor, 171 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 12 19 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

EXPERIENCED colored waitress will serve luncheon, dinner, parties, at short notice. 'Phone 835-W. 2 9 2t

—Advertise in the Daily Press, it pays.

$4,300,000 Paid to New Jersey Policyholders in 1913

During 1913 the total payments to policyholders in its Home State by The Prudential was over $4,300,000. The good done by the distribution of this great amount of life insurance money in one year was felt in every part of the State.

Founded by JOHN F. DRYDEN — THE PRUDENTIAL HAS THE STRENGTH OF GIBRALTAR — Pioneer of Industrial Insurance in America

The Prudential

FORREST F. DRYDEN, President.

Acts in any Trust Capacity

Resources $5,000,000.00

THE INCOME TAX

has emphasized the burden of property. It has laid an extra weight on those whose time and thought were already heavily taxed.

YOU MAY AVOID

much of the care and responsibility of your property by appointing this Company as your Custodian and allowing us to hold your securities in our vault, cut your coupons and fill out the income tax certificates to be attached thereto, collect your interest and render you periodically a statement of your income. Our Officers will be glad to talk with you on this subject.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

WE MAKE A CLEAN CUT PROPOSITION

to our customers. All the unmatched pieces and discontinued patterns are marked at prices that make them very attractive bargains. They are just as good as ever only we give you an opportunity to buy them at lower prices.

There's a lot of good FURNITURE to choose from and you can't make a mistake in looking it over.

MAHOGANY DINING SUIT, BUFFET, CHINA CLOSET, EXTENSION TABLE, was $170.00; now 140.00

FUMED OAK DINING SUIT, 10 PIECES; was $92.50; now 78.00

MAHOGANY CHAMBER SUIT, DRESSER, BED, CHIFFONIER, was $67.50; now 49.50

MAHOGANY CHAMBER SUIT, DRESSER, BED CHIFFONIER, was $77.50; now 62.50

Odd Dressers, and Chiffoniers, Bookcases, Music Cabinets, Ladies' Desks, Library Tables, Chairs and Rockers.

POWLISON & JONES

149-151 E. Front St. Plainfield, N. J.

Step-Lively Sale

Women's $4.25 and $3.50 TAN BOOTS $2.98

A straightforward mark-down of two of this winter's most popular Boots.

This is just one example of the many big bargains now in effect at the big "STEP-LIVELY" SALE. "STEP-LIVELY."

The balance of our stock of

HOCKEY SHOES

are marked to close out at $2.98

Van Arsdale's

127 EAST FRONT STREET

Store Closed Noon Lincoln's Birthday.

WILL U. B.
With us at our
INDOOR CARNIVAL
FEBRUARY 7 TO 14
—AT—
COLUMBUS CLUB.
Prize Bowling, Pocket Billiards, Dancing, Motion Pictures
And many other features that will please.
WATCHUNG COUNCIL, K. OF C.
ADMISSION ..... 10 CENTS
2 6-10

PLAINFIELD EXCHANGE FOR WOMAN'S WORK.
207 Park Avenue.
Tea and coffee served daily from 10:45 until 2 o'clock. Table delicacies. A large variety of dainty work bags. Orders taken for braided or woven rag rugs.

FLOORS
HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
714 Webster Place, Plainfield, N. J
Telephone 1309-R.

Leland Manning
MASON AND BUILDER.
Jobbing a specialty. Estimates cheerfully given. Telephone 347-J.
1120 Myrtle Ave. Plainfield, N. J

J. L. BROWER
STATIONERY, BOOKS and MAGAZINES
311 PARK AVENUE

Valentines and Booklets from E. P. Dutton & Co.
Have you read?
The Initials
On the Branch
The Heart of Life

TELEPHONE 1012.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

To Charles D. Robinson, Receiver, Etc., and The Mercantile Co-Operative Bank.

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein Catherine Dezendorf is complainant and you, Charles D. Robinson, Receiver Etc., and The Mercantile Co-Operative Bank, are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, answer or demur to the bill of said complainant, on or before the 30th day of March next, or the said bill will be taken as confessed against you.

The said bill is filed for the purpose of quieting title to certain lands in the City of Plainfield, in the County of Union and State of New Jersey, bounded and described as follows, to wit:

Known as Lots Nos. 30 and 31, Block D, on a map of 264 lots, owned by Watson Whittlesey, at Netherwood Station in the City of Plainfield, Union County, N. J., surveyed Sept. 1891, by F. A. Dunham, C. E., and Surveyor of Plainfield N. J., and filed for record in the Register's Office of Union county, N. J., Sept. 1891. Beginning at a point on the west line of George Street 144 75-100 feet northeasterly from the northwest corner of George Street and Jackson Avenue; running thence northwesterly in a line parallel with the north line of Jackson Avenue 110 feet, thence northeasterly in a line parallel with the west line of George Street, 50 feet, thence southeasterly to the west line of George Street, 110 feet thence southwesterly along the west line of George Street, 50 feet, to the place of beginning.

Also, All of Lots 32 and 33, in Block D on a Map of 261 lots owned by Watson Whittlesey, located at Netherwood Station, in the City of Plainfield, County of Union, State of New Jersey, surveyed August, 1891, by F. A. Dunham, Engineer of Plainfield, N. J., and filed for record in the Register's Office of Union County, N. J., Sept. 1891, these tracts or parcels of land and premises, hereinafter particularly described. Beginning at a point on the west line of George Street, one hundred and fifty-four and seventy-five hundredths (154 75-100) feet southwesterly from the southwest corner of George Street and Netherwood Avenue; running thence northwesterly in a line parallel with the southerly line of Netherwood Avenue, one hundred and ten (110) feet thence southwesterly in a line parallel with the west line of George Street, fifty (50) feet; thence southeasterly to the west line of George Street, one hundred and ten (110) feet; thence northeasterly along the west line of George Street, fifty (50) feet, to the place of beginning.

And you, Charles D. Robinson, Receiver, Etc., are made a defendant because deed made by you as Sole Permanent Ancillary Receiver of the aforesaid Mercantile Co-Operative Bank to Catherine Dezendorf and her husband, July 21, 1903 was a quit-claim deed and intended to convey the title, this action being brought to quiet the title to the property and to have the said deed declared to be a sufficient conveyance. And you, The Mercantile Co-Operative Bank, are made a defendant because your receiver aforesaid failed to use a deed with the proper words of conveyance as aforesaid, this action being brought to give validity to such deed to pass title.

Dated January 29, A. D. 1914

C. M. DOLLIVER
Solicitor and of Counsel with Complainant,
148 East Front Street,
Plainfield, N. J

2 3 5 tu

J. HIMMELFARB
Ladies' Tailor, Dressmaker and Furrier.
NOS. 309-311 NEW ST., BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH STS., TEL. 903-W.

Particular pains exercised in the making of a garment, the fitting of the same and attending properly to the little details that mean so much in the finished garment—thus satisfactions follows.

Expert workmanship and Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

I will appreciate a call and will be pleased to show styles and samples of work. Prices reasonable

---

L. Moraller & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES. CLOCKS and JEWELRY

Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.

219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J

THE COFFEE YOU'LL LIKE.

People who try our Mocha and Java Coffee order it again because they like its Quality and Flavor—the taste is inviting and pleasant to the palate. We also sell Select Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables.

W. W. Dunn
THE PARK GROCER
Duer Street and Lincoln Place.

Hoagland's Express
FINE FURNITURE.
MOVING
Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 883-W.

A. H. ENANDER
Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

3% paid on checking accounts of $500.00 or more. Out of town items collected at par. New York checking privileges.

4% paid on Special Department accounts of $5.00 or more subject to liberal Savings Bank rules. Out of town savings accounts collected without charge.

Acts as Administrator, Executor, Guardian and Trustee; the fees are the same as those allowed an individual.

Modern Safe Deposit and Storage Vaults. Boxes for rent $5.00 and upwards. Values in bulk stored for from 50s cents per month.

Real Estate Department acts as agent and broker. Unusual services for the usual commission.

SERVICE

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY
Capital $100,000.00

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris
Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office, Rowley's Drug Store, 218 West Front St. Tel. 2081-J-2.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
89 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley
COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 1155

N. MEYERS & SONS
COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF
HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquors and Cigars. Hotel accommodations and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET
Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
97 Somerset Street. Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE
GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1527.

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.
Waiting room at Kensington Hotel, Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD.
WEEK DAYS.
Leave Plainfield—7.45, 9.00, 11.45 a. m. 1.00, 4.00, 5.00, 7.00, 8.00, 10.20, x11.10 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—8.00, 9.30 a. m. 12.00, 1.30, 4.30, 5.00, 7.30, 9.30, 10.45, x11.30 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
SUNDAYS
Leave Plainfield—9.00, 12.00 a. m., 2.00 4.00, 5.00, 9.00 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—10.00 a. m. 12.15, 2.30, 4.30, 5.30, 9.30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE AND MT. BETHEL.
WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6.30 a. m., 3.00, 6.25 x11.00 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6.45 a. m., 3.15, 6.40, x11.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3.30, 6.50 x11.30 p. m.
Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m
Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m
Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30, 7.30 x11.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.40, x11.45 p. m.
Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 7.55 x12.00 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9.00 a. m. instead of 6.30 a. m. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STERLING.
WEEK DAYS ONLY.
Leave Plainfield—8.45 a. m., 4.30 p. m
Leave Watchung—9.00 a. m. 4.45 p. m
Leave Stirling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m.
8.45 a. m. bus connects with 9.27 a. m train at Sterling, for Newark.
4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m train at Sterling, from Newark.

An enclosed, electric-lighted and heated bus may be procured for an afternoon or evening, from The Plainfield Transit Co., to carry from 15 to 25 passengers to any point within a radius of 25 miles from Plainfield
R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave.
Phone 130, Plainfield.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

We Give S&H Green Trading Stamps. Ask For Them

Special Reductions Feb. 9 to 14, Inclusive

Pink Salmon SPECIAL REDUCTION THIS WEEK can 7c

FAIRY SOAP
A&P 2 cakes 7c A&P

A & P BAKED BEANS
No. 1 Can 5c | No. 2 Can 8c | No. 3 Can 12c
Very healthy and economical, specially put up for our use. Just try a can

PEANUT BUTTER lb 11c | TAPIOCA lb 4c

Norway Mackerel . ea. 5c

Sliced PEACHES 3 cans . . 25c | PRUNES 90-100's. Pound 5c

Tuna Fish Small Can 12½c Large Can 18c

Seeded Raisins 3 pkgs 25c

Best Creamery Butter Lowest price in the city for quality butter. Try a lb today. Pound . 33c

KIRKMAN'S WASHING POWDER Reg. 5c pkgs 7 pkgs 25c

137-139 WEST FRONT ST. TEL. 117

THE GREAT ATLANTIC AND PACIFIC TEA CO. — THE LARGEST GROCERY HOUSE IN AMERICA — 800 STORES.

Free Delivery

We Give S&H Green Trading Stamps. Ask For Them

Attend the Remarkable FUR SALE of

Charles Kurtzman
Furs of Quality
178 E Front St

DR. PITTIS OFFICE BUILDING

It is Very Important

that an assured should know that we ourselves prepare the forms and write a policy to cover properly his individual needs. This means much to our clients and has a decided advantage in making a prompt and satisfactory adjustment of a loss.

REAL ESTATE LOANS RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 208
INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS WILL BE FOUND HEREAFTER ON THE PAGE BEFORE THE LAST.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.

Fair and somewhat colder tonight; Thursday fair, continued cold; diminishing northerly winds.
Max., 36; Min. 14.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 11, 1914 TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

JAPS CONSPIRE AGAINST KOREANS

So Declares Rev. George S. McCune in Talk Before Missionary Society.

MANY FALSE CHARGES

High Government Officials of Korea Are In Vile Dungeons As Result of Conspiracy, Says Speaker—Tells of Progress of Christianity.

Speaking before the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue church yesterday afternoon, the Rev. George S. McCune, of St. Louis, secretary of the Presbyterian mission in Korea, declared that the Korean people had been much maligned by the Japanese. Invasion of the country by Japan and its annexation as a province of the Mikado's empire was denounced in the most scathing terms by the speaker.

Charges made by Japan prior to the seizure of Korea that Koreans, aided and abetted by missionaries had plotted and connived at the murder of a Governor-General of Japan and that many other officials were marked for death, were characterized as absolutely false and declared to have been made by the Japanese to foster world-wide belief of the justification of Korea's seizure by Japan. Some high government officials of Korea, men who are absolutely innocent of all wrong-doing and who dreamed of no such thing as a conspiracy against the empire, are now languishing in vile dungeons, serving long terms of imprisonment, after having been adjudged guilty of the crimes charged by Japanese tribunals. This Mr. McCune termed in his lecture yesterday "The Conspiracy Case in Korea."

"Koreans," he said, "are really the philosophers of the Far East. They are even more interesting in many ways than are the Japanese and Chinese. One hundred missionaries are now laboring in Korea to spread the gospel of Christianity, which was first introduced in that country as short a time as twenty-nine years ago." Today, according to the speaker, there are some 300,000 Christians in that land. Collections from the natives who had embraced the Christian faith totalled twenty-five cents the first year, it was said, but last year the native population contributed $92,000 to the church. While now a province of Japan, Korea was said to be an entirely separate country, possessing its own language and customs. Christianity entered Korea through the fact that the son of a reigning empress of that land, who was thought dying of wounds which he had received in battle, was cured of his hurts by a medical minister who was found at the time on a ship lying in the harbor of Chemulpo.

Figures compiled by the Presbyterian mission in Korea for this year show that a steady growth has been made in its religious work. The total of 42,913 baptized shows an increase of 3,438 over last year, or ten per cent. There are now fifty-three ordained pastors in Korea, instead of twenty-three, the seventy-eight organized churches have increased to 135, nearly eighty per cent and Sunday-schools show a large increase also. Four thousand more students attended Bible classes in Korea than did last year, the principal gain being made among the women. Seven Bible institutes enrolled 503 students. The educational schools maintained by the mission, though fewer in number than last year are larger and more efficient. Contributions for educational, medical and religious work in Korea show an increase, it is said. The church in Korea, the speaker declared, is on the way to becoming a self-propagating and self-supporting church.

Since the Japanese began coming into Korea the Koreans have, it is said, been going over the border. There are now said to be some 800,000 in Manchuria and perhaps 300,000 in Siberia. The Presbyterian mission is hoping to start a church in Manchuria. It is said to be an exclusive field for Presbyterian missionary work. The Scotch Presbyterians and Danish Lutherans in Manchuria are said to be all undermanned. There seem to be two distinct districts of Korean occupations in Manchuria, one along the railroad and the other centering some 200 miles east of that. The religions are separated seventy-five miles. The strip along the Yalu river is Korean all the way up.

THE TEMPERATURE.

The temperature report from The State Trust Company today is as follows: 9 a. m., 21 degrees; 11 a. m., 23 degrees; 1 p. m., 22 degrees.

—VanArsdale's annual shoe sale is giving out some of the best values ever offered. Store will close tomorrow at noon, so "step lively" in the morning and make your selections.—Adv. ***

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

CHARLES P. RUSS JURY COMMISSIONER FOR UNION

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Trenton, Feb. 11.—Chancellor Walker today announced the list of appointments of jury commissioners in the counties of the State under the Chancellor-Sheriff Jury Act. Charles P. Russ, Democrat, was named for Union county. The act provides that the commissioner in each county shall not be a member of the same political party as the sheriff, and this provision was followed in the appointments. The commissioners are appointed for one year, and may be removed any time. Their salary is $750. The commissioners will act with the sheriff in drawing all grand and petit juries.

BOROUGH SCHOOLGIRLS FOBM GREEK LETTER CLUB

A number of the girls of the North Plainfield High School met at the home of Miss Marjorie Burtis, on Fairview avenue, last night, and organized a Greek letter society under the name of the Sigma Chi. This organization is unlike the other girls' club of the High School inasmuch as it is secret. Various committees, including one for forming a constitution, were appointed. The object of the club is to promote sociability among the members.

Meetings will be held once every month at the different member's homes and after every business session there will be a social hour including refreshments. Last night the following officers were chosen to serve one term: President, Margaret Ewart; vice-president, Marjorie Burtis; secretary, Ann Hull, and treasurer, Dorothy Martin. There are at present eight members in the society.

AUTO SPEEDER MAY GO TO SOMERVILLE TODAY

Unless some good friend of Russell Bousenbury, the fast driving automobilist, who was fined $50 yesterday by Recorder Hand, pays the amount of his fine by this afternoon, the borough police will take the prisoner to the county jail at Somerville, where he will be lodged as the guest of Sheriff Charles P. Sebring. It will be the first prisoner from North Plainfield that the county jail has housed in some time.

Investigation of the automobile law as regards reckless driving has led to the discovery by the police authorities of the borough that instead of having to remain in jail for thirty days because of non-payment of the fine imposed, Bousenbury must be given his freedom after he has served ten days. The borough police, however, incline to the opinion that the severe penalty meted out to Bousenbury upon his arraignment and after he had pleaded guilty to the charge of speeding, will be a deterrent to other reckless and careless motorists in this vicinty. They are determined to put a stop to the practice and will take steps accordingly, it is said, as soon as more settled weather comes and road conditions are improved.

UNION BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION ELECTS

The only changes made in its officers by the Union Building and Loan Association, at its annual meeting on Monday night, was that Lamar Van Syckel was made a member of the finance committee in place of the late W. E. Benjamin, and T. J. Parent was elected a director. The board is now constituted as follows:

E. M. Laing, president; A. D. Edgar, vice president; J. V. E. Vanderhoef, secretary; M. C. Van Arsdale, treasurer; Nelson Runyon and Charles M. Dolliver, attorneys; C. B. Vail, H. R. Thorn and A. H. Vanderhoef, auditing committee; C. H. Dunham, S. J. Robinson and Lamar Van Syckel, finance committee; A. D. Edgar, J. P. Emmons, Lamar Van Syckel and J. C. Manning, appraisal committee; J. P. Emmons, J. C. Manning, C. H. Dunham, A. D. Edgar, S. J. Robinson, E. M. Laing, M. C. Van Arsdale, Lamar Van Syckel, Nelson Runyon, J. V. E. Vanderhoef, Charles M. Dolliver and T. J. Parent, directors.

FORM A NEW CLUB.

The Misses Theo Van Zandt, Madeline Blimm, Mary Wierenga and Florence Briscoe met at the home of Miss Elizabeth Seals, of 218 Grant avenue, last evening, and formed what will be known as "The S. G. Club." The club will meet again on Tuesday evening, February 17, at the home of Miss Briscoe, 15 West End avenue, when further club preparations will be made.

—Neuman Bros. are offering an exceptionally fine assortment of fresh vegetables including cauliflower, Boston head lettuce, celery, new beets, cucumbers, tomatoes, green and wax beans, peas, and in fact everything that the market affords—Adv. ***

HOSPITAL AUXILIARY DANCE NEXT TUESDAY

Well Known New York Orchestra to Be Feature at Benefit Affair.

The dance to be held at Columbus Auditorium under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary Board of Muhlenberg Hospital on Tuesday of next week, will have as a particular attraction McKee's ofchestra of four pieces, which has been so popular at society dances in New York this winter. Another special feature will be the supper, which will be included in the price of the admission tickets. Lemonade will be on sale during the evening at five cents a glass.

The committee having the matter in charge consists of Mrs. Henry C. Irons, chairman; Mrs. Frank Warren, Mrs. Charles A. Reed, Mrs. Henry A. McGee, Mrs. Edward H. Ladd, Jr., Mrs. Stuart H. Patterson and Mrs. Frederick W. Butler. Tickets are on sale by members of the committee, at Miller's and Randolph's drug stores and at the Women's Exchange. Tickets will also be placed on sale at Westfield.

MRS. CHARLES DAY'S PUPILS TO GIVE A RECITAL

The advanced piano pupils of Mrs. Charles Day, of New Market, will give a Wagner recital at her home tomorrow evening to which a few friends have been invited. Mrs. Day and her pupils will be assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Leonhauser, also of New Market, who are well-known as tenor and soprano soloists. The program will be an especially attractive one, including some of the more familiar compositions by Wagner, and a feature will be the singing of the "Bridal Chorus," by a chorus of young women.

The program will include the following numbers:

"Fantasy," Miss Helen Swackhamer; "Evening Star," Miss Edith Giles; "Pilgrim's Chorus," Miss Agnes Bogue; "Fantasy," Tannhauser, Miss Anna DeHart; selection, Tannhauser, Miss Margaret Frederick; two piano trios, selected, Miss Helen Swackhamer, Miss Agnes Bogue and Mrs. Charles Day; selected, Miss Florence Curtis, Miss Anna DeHart and Mrs. Charles Day; "Pilgrim's Chorus," Miss Edith Giles and Mrs. Charles Day; selection, Act Third, Lohengrin, Miss Helen Swackhamer; "Swan Song," tenor solo; soprano and tenor duet, Lohengrin, Mr. and Mrs. Leonhauser.

BOYS DROWNED UNDER THIN ICE ON SOMERVILLE POND

Somerville, N. J., Feb. 11.—While sliding on Peters brook, near its junction with the Raritan river, Raymond Kline and Ellis Epstein, aged ten and twelve years respectively, broke through the ice and were drowned.

Hyman Epstein, the eight-year-old brother of Ellis, was the only person who saw the accident. He made a futile effort to rescue them when they came to the surface. They sank a second time and came up under the broken ice. The boy gave the alarm, and Chief of Police Bellis came with several citizens and recovered the bodies in about an hour and removed them to the homes of the boys' parents.

FREEHOLDERS REDUCE COST OF PRISONERS' BOARD

Somerville, Feb. 11.—Thomas P. Gallagher was re-elected Inspector of Weights and Measures at yesterday's meeting of the Board of Freeholders of Somerset county. His re-appointment was urged by 132 business men of Somerville, Raritan and Bound Brook. Melvin Cleaves, collector of North Plainfield township was the other candidate for the post. Total expenses to date of $11,384.64 were reported by the board. The members will meet on Monday morning, February 16, on Stirling road. The charges for the board of prisoners in the county jail has been reduced from 35 to 15 cents a day.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S BRANCH.

Young men and women over fourteen years of age, who are interested in organizing a Young People's Branch of the Women's Christian Temperance Union are invited to meet at the home of Mrs. W. J. Hamilton, 407 East Seventh street, tomorrow evening at 8 o'clock. Young married people are urged to co-operate. Mrs. M. D. Tomlinson will be present at the meeting and explain the objects and work of the branch.

"THE STRUGGLE FOR BREAD."

Rev. Gabriel Reid Maguire, of the Park Avenue Baptist church, will preach Sunday evening on the subject, "The Struggle for Bread."

DIVORCE DECREE WAS NOT SIGNED

Vice-Chancellor Stevens Withholds Decision for Alimony in Hood Case.

FIXES THE COST OF SUIT

Advises Contestants to Agree on Inventory of Goods Rightfully Belonging to Mr. Hood—Judge Whittemore to File a Report.

Newark, Feb. 11.—Proceedings in the Richard Haden Hood case were continued in the Court of Chancery here, today, when Vice Chancellor Stevens announced that inasmuch as Mrs. Hood had been granted the realty it would have to be shown that her husband was worth much more than the value of the property in order to grant her alimony. The divorce decree was not signed as expected, today, because of the fact that Judge Whittemore, of Elizabeth, had not filed a report in the alimony matter.

Vice Chancellor Stevens this morning signed a decree which makes Hood responsible for the costs of the case and directed that Mrs. Hood be given the amount to cover her counsel fees. The Vice Chancellor suggested that the counsel for both parties get together prior to the next hearing, which will be held Friday morning, and agree on an inventory of the effects that rightfully belong to Mr. Hood. In a previous statement Hood's counsel included a number of etchings, rugs, china relics and other small articles in his list which caused considerable dispute and the court ordered another inventory to be taken.

HERMAN FREDERICKS SEEKS A SEPARATION

Newark, Feb. 11.—Herman Fredericks, a lineman for the Central Railroad and a resident of Cranford, started proceedings here, today, for an absolute divorce from his wife, Mrs. Grace Fredericks, naming one George Shindler as a co-respondent. Fredericks, who has irregular hours in the company's employ, alleges that he returned home one night last month and found Shindler and his brother alone in the Cranford apartments with his wife.

Fredericks also alleges that he found fifty or more postal cards and letters written by Shindler to his wife. When he asked the men what they were doing in his house, Herman says that the men took their hats and fled through an open door. The Fredericks were married February 28, 1900, and lived together until last month.

PLAYERS VISIT POPE.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

Rome, Feb. 11.—Members of the Giants and White Sox, with some friends, the party numbering seventy, were received in audience by the Pope today. Charles A. Comiskey, president of the White Sox, was well enough to be present. No game was played today owing to bad weather.

MISS CHITTENDEN TO SPEAK.

Miss Alice Hill Chittenden, president of the New York Association Opposed to Woman's Suffrage, will speak in the Westfield Theatre, on Monday evening, February 16, at 8 o'clock. Plainfield members are expected to attend the meeting.

HANS SCHMIDT SENTENCED.

New York, Feb. 11.—Supreme Court Justice Vernon M. Davis today sentenced Hans Schmidt, convicted of the murder of Anna Aumuller, to die in the electric chair at Sing Sing prison, during the week beginning March 23.

SESAME CLUB MEETING.

The Sesame Club will meet on Friday morning this week, instead of tomorrow, as was originally planned. The meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Duncan W. Taylor, 455 West Seventh street.

SPECIAL FEATURE.

The Thursday night dance conducted by Daniel MacCormack and "Doc." Doyle will have six acts of vaudeville, tomorrow night, before the dancing. Prof. Squires' five-piece orchestra will furnish the music.

TAKING A DAY OFF.

Owing to the absence of Chief Marshal George Weiss, who is taking a day off, Roundsman Charles Keller is acting head of the borough police department today.

OPEN UNTIL ONE O'CLOCK.

The rooms of the Charity Organization Society will be open tomorrow until 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Miss Meriam Hodge, of Somerville, who is studying at the Newark Normal School, is teaching at the Bryant School as part of her Normal School course. While here Miss Hodge is stopping with her aunt, Mrs. Peter Hodge, of Plainfield avenue.

"UNCLE DAVE" RETURNS HOME

Editor of The Review is Reported to Be Slightly Improved.

David Carney, who has been seriously ill for some time, and who has been an inmate of Dr. J. H. Cooley's sanitarium, was removed to his home, at 37 Lincoln place, in the borough, last evening, in an ambulance. He is said to have stood the trip very well and it was said this morning at the home of Andrew Carney, his brother, that Mr. Carney seemed in much brighter spirits and to have rallied from unconsciousness early today, although he was at times delirious.

Suffering from pronounced heart trouble, and a dropsical affection, as well as with acute asthma, physicians who have attended him during his illness have done everything known to medical science, it is said, to prolong his life. At various times, during the progress of his maladies, Mr. Carney has been treated by Drs. J. H. Cooley, F. J. Hughes, W. H. Murray and Charles B. Lufburrow. He is under the care of the last named physician at the present time. Throughout his illness, Mr. Carney has been patiently waited upon by his cousin, Miss Mary Laughlin, who also accompanied him to the sanitarium.

Plainfield people know Mr. Carney well, both as a citizen and as the editor and owner of The Review, the weekly newspaper published in the borough. Friends are wont to refer to him as "Uncle Dave." Mr. Carney is about sixty years old.

ILLNESS OF COUNSEL POSTPONES O'CONNOR TRIAL

Elizabeth, Feb. 11.—Illness of counsel for the prosecution and the defense caused a postponement today of the trial of Edward J. O'Connor, charged with the embezzlement of $500 from the United States Express Company in Plainfield. It was postponed until next Wednesday. Witnesses, of whom there were a number from Connecticut, Philadelphia and New Jersey towns, were notified to be in attendance on the day set.

Mrs. Edna Senn, charged with being the accomplice of O'Connor, and who is said to have handed him the package of money, will probably not be sentenced tomorrow as expected. She is an important witness in the case against O'Connor and her testimony is needed by the State. Mrs. Senn recently changed her plea of not guilty to one of non vult.

"THE PEOPLE'S FORUM."

"The People's Forum," to be instituted under the auspices of the Public Recreation Committee, will be for the open discussion of mooted civic and social questions and is one of the natural outgrowths of public recreation work. Several years ago, President Wilson spoke of such use of school buildings, in an adress at Madison, Wis., as a "great, new and glorious means of common understanding."

MRS. ROSA DELMONICO.

Mrs. Rosa M. Delmonico died last night at Muhlenberg Hospital following an operation. The body was removed to the family residence, at 1,456 McCrea place, by Undertaker George W. Cole, this morning. She is survived by a husband and a two-day old child. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made.

PHOTO-PLAY PROGRAM.

The motion picture program to be shown at the Y. M. C. A. Saturday afternoon and evening will include the following interesting films: "Mother Goose," "King Henry IV. and the Woodchopper," "The Paris Fire Brigade," "A Caribou Hunt," and "The Artist's Dream," comedy.

TRIO ARRESTED.

Miss Martha Falls Fay Skillman and John Doman, all colored, were arrested by Detective Sergeant Flynn at 313 Plainfield avenue yesterday charged with disorderly conduct. They will be arraigned before City Judge W. G. DeMeza in the city court tomorrow morning.

"THE GREAT LEAP."

Attendants at Proctor's theatre tonight will witness a thrilling melodrama, "The Great Leap." This photo play has achieved a great success. It will be shown at performances the remainder of the week. Big features are scheduled at Proctor's for Lincoln's Birthday.

ZERO WEATHER TONIGHT.

(By Telegraph to The Daily Press.)

New York, Feb. 11—The cold wave which has held the Middle West in an icy grip for several days, will reach here tonight. The temperature may drop to zero.

BARBER SHOPS CLOSE.

All barber shops in the city will close at noon tomorrow, remaining open this evening until 10 o'clock.

WOMAN'S EXCHANGE SALES AGGREGATED $11,251

Sales of the Woman's Exchange last year totaled $11,251 and 175 women consigned articles of various sorts to the organization, it was announced at the annual meeting held yesterday in Grace church parish house. Officers elected for the coming year were:

President, Mrs. Howard Tracy; vice presidents, Mrs. Noah Barnhart and Mrs. C. Boardman Taylor; recording secretary, Mrs. Henry E. Haws; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Richard Boardman; treasurer, Mrs. Horace N. Stevens; trustees, Mrs. R. P. Lincoln, Mrs. Joseph W. Sanford, Mrs. William G. Cooke, Mrs. H. N. Stevens and Mrs. B. P. Hall.

MISS GERTRUDE SCHLEIF BRIDE OF ALBERT MEYER

Miss Gertrude Schleif, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen H. Schleif, of 434 West Sixth street, was married last night to Albert C. Meyer, of Scotch Plains, by the Rev. John Y. Broek, of Trinity Reformed church. The ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents and only the immediate relatives attended.

Miss Lillian Schleif, a sister of the bride, acted as bridesmain, and Keith Saunders, of Scotch Plains, was best man. Following the wedding a reception was held in the bride's home and the couple left last night on a short honeymoon trip. They will be "at home" to their friends at Scotch Plains after Monday.

The couple is well known to a large circle of acquaintances, both in this city and Scotch Plains. They have been active in social work in both communities. Mr. Meyer is employed by the Plainfield-Union Water Company at its office in Westfield.

"GUILDS OF PLAY" FORMED BY RECREATION COMMITTEE

The newest activity under the auspices of the Public Recreation Committee, reported at the meeting of the members last night, is the formation of the eighth grade children of the public schools into what will be known as "guilds of play," which will be divided into three groups. One group will meet each Friday at the Stillman School, spending an hour in playing games and an hour in folk dancing. The hours will be from 3 to 5 o'clock and the parents of the children are invited to attend. Miss Day, the principal, has conducted a similar recreation for sometime, but under the present plans it will be carried out in a systematic way.

Attention was called to the Junior Municipal Orchestra concert to be given tomorrow night. The young musicians under the direction of Martin A. Korff have attained a high degree of efficiency and an enjoyable concert is promised.

The Dramatic Club held a rehearsal of the play, "Paddle Your Own Canoe," last night, and those taking part are making excellent progress with their lines. The play will be given the latter part of the month, preparations for which are now well in hand.

DREIER CASE WILL BE HEARD NEXT MONDAY

Elizabeth, Feb. 11.—With the hearing by Judge James C. Connolly of the Orphans' Court, on Monday, of counsel for the heirs who object to the accounting made by the executors, the long litigation over the estate of the late Samuel Dreier, of Plainfield, will, it is believed, come to an end. The case has aroused considerable interest in Plainfield. Mr. Dreier was one of the wealthy residents of that city. His heirs have fought strenuously among themselves since his death over the disposition of his property.

DRAMATIC CLUB MEETING.

The Dramatic Club, recently organized, held its first meeting at the home of Miss Marion Mortimer, on East Fifth street, last night, and adopted a constitution which was drafted by Fred Becker. Several members were elected and propositions were received. The club is now looking for a permanent meeting place. The selection of a name for the club has been postponed until the next meeting to be held at the home of the Misses Spencer, of the borough, on Thursday evening, February 26.

WILL GIVE A RECEPTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Love, who were recently married, will have charge of the meeting at the Evona chapel, tomorrow night, after which a reception will be given to the bride and groom by the members of the chapel.

—Van Arsdale's "step lively" shoe sale is still on the move.—Adv. ***

CHANGES IN HOSPITAL BOARD

Charles Joel Fisk, Jules E. Erickson and H. W. Marshall Retire.

NAME NEW GOVERNORS

E. V. Cox Becomes New Treasurer, and C. Ames Brooks Elected to Membership—Mr. Erickson Remains On Board.

Former Mayor Charles J. Fisk and Harry W. Marshall have resigned as members of the board of governors of Muhlenberg Hospital, and Jules E. Erickson has resigned as treasurer, after many years of service in the interest of the institution. These resignations were received and accepted with regret at a meeting of the board on Monday night.

Mr. Erickson, who has served the hospital as treasurer for a long time, seeks relief from the great responsibility of his office. He will continue as a member of the board. His administration of the financial department of the hospital has been marked by ability, and self-sacrificing devotion to the duties of his office. During his tenure of office, after much study and labor, he changed the system of accounts used in the hospital, from an antiquated one to an up-to-date system approved by the most modern practices in accounting.

Mr. Erickson's handling of the finances of the campaign involving as it did a tremendous amount of detail work, was said to be the crowning event of a long and faithful service to hospital affairs, and in view of this he expressed a desire to be relieved of the responsibilities of the office.

While the hospital loses the services of a valued and efficient officers, the members of the board have expressed its pleasure in being able to secure as Mr. Erickson's successor, a man of the type and ability of E. V. Cox, who has been elected treasurer following his admission to the board, and the finances are now in his charge.

Mr. Fisk retires from the board to enable someone else to take his place who is able to give closer personal attention to hospital affairs. Mr. Fisk was identified with the hospital for many years, giving much of his time and money for the upbuilding of the institution.

Mr. Marshall retires as a member of the executive committee because of a pressure of other duties which will prevent him from giving the necessary time to the meetings of the committee and he feels that the interest of the hospital can be better served by someone who is able to give more time to the work.

In addition to E. V. Cox, another new member of the board is C. Ames Brooks, who was elected at the meeting this week. Mr. Brooks, like his father, the late Charles E. Brooks, who served the hospital for years, has always been interested in this work. His term will expire in 1916.

Mr. Cox, the new treasurer, in his report on the condition of the campaign fund, showed that there is still an uncollected balance on account of the campaign subscriptions of about $8,500. The board has made its plans based on the belief that these subscriptions would be paid in and the hope has been expressed that those who have not completed their payments will do so at the earliest opportunity.

The new private room pavilion is now, and has been since January 1, open to receive patients and the hospital authorities feel much encouraged in the use that has already been made of this new building and of the engagements for rooms ahead.

Upon the recommendation of the executive committee, Dr. H. W. Longbothum, who is associated in practice with Dr. Platt, of Dunellen, has been appointed to the auxiliary staff of the hospital.

FUNERAL OF MRS. LORD.

The funeral of the late Mrs. David S. Lord was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock at her late home, at 409 East Fifth street. The service was conducted by the Rev. Frank Fletcher, of Duer street. Mrs. Lord was a member of the Hanson Place Baptist church, of Brooklyn, and was born in that city. Friends and relatives sent a profusion of handsome floral tributes and were present at the service. Burial was in Hillside cemetery, Samptown.

WILL MEET IN DUNELLEN.

The annual meeting of the Young People's Society of St. Peter's Lutheran church will be held at the home of Miss Ernestine Richter, in Dunellen, on Friday evening. Members will take the 7:45 o'clock trolley from the Fourth street stand. At the meeting plans for the annual Dutch supper will be completed. This will be held Wednesday evening, February 18.

—The minstrel show under the auspices of the Nonpareil Club will be held at the club's house on St. Mary's avenue tomorrow night.

Attend Our Great Granite Sale All This Week---1-3 Less Than Regular Prices

OPEN UNTIL NOON TOMORROW, LINCOLN'S BIRTHDAY

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"The White Store"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

Store Opens at 8:30; Closes Saturdays at 10 p. m. Others days at 5:30.

BANDITS CAUGHT; DOOMED BY VILLA

Rebel Chief Promises to Execute the Outlaws.

TO PROVE HIS GOOD FAITH

Feels Part Responsibility For the Cumbre Tunnel Tragedy—Will Wipe Out Band as Reparation — Tunnel Search Is In Vain.

Cumbre, Mexico, Feb. 11.—It is reported that Maximo Castillo and the remnant of his outlaw band, who are responsible for the burning of the passenger train in the Cumbre tunnel, have been captured.

The capture is said to have been made at Beltram ranch, a few miles east of Pearson. The bandits were later escorted to Casa Grandes, the nearest railroad station, and were then to be taken to Juarez to be delivered to the rebel commander there or Villa himself, if he was still in Juarez.

The capture came as a surprise here, as it was feared that Castillo had escaped across the border near Palomas and would seek asylum in the United States. Villa had ordered his men to take Castillo prisoner and not to shoot him unless it was necessary. He promised a captain's commission to the man who brought him in alive.

Castillo and his band had been last reported at Pachcico, a small Mormon colony in western Chihuahua. He was then said to be headed north, with rebel troops in pursuit.

Working from the south end of the tunnel, helmet clad rescuers traversed the length of the burned passenger train, but no bodies were found, as the wreck is buried in earth. Of the private car, in which Superintendent Mark Gilmartin, formerly of Buffalo, rode, nothing was left but the steel framework.

Fragments of bones, which appeared to have belonged to different persons, were picked up; also a powder puff intact in its metal box, a small silver purse and the clasp of a larger one, believed to have been the property of Mrs. Lee Carruth, who was on the train.

But two bodies have been found in the tunnel, and no more are likely to be located until tons of rock and earth are removed from the floor of the bore. The north portal is still belching smoke, and there is no telling when the rest of the tunnel can be reached.

Guards have been established at both portals to prevent attempts of hysterical persons to enter the tunnel in search for relatives.

A Public Execution.

Juarez, Feb. 11.—When General Villa was told of the report of Castillo's capture he said he would arrange for a public execution in Juarez.

"Every American and every Mexican will be invited to attend the execution," he said. "I feel a great responsibility in this awful disaster, because I had given the Americans my promise that they would be protected. Having failed in this particular instance, I want to vindicate myself so far as I can by wiping out the bandits who slaughtered forty-one innocent persons."

Villa will postpone his departure for Torreon in order to see that the bandits are executed. He will then hurry away to take command of the troops mustered before that city. He will have 15,000 troops there when he assumes command. The federals have but 8,000, but have the advantage of a strong strategic position.

CANNERY ON GALILEE SHORE.

Company Proposes to Deal In Sardines From Lake.

Jerusalem, Feb. 11.—A company is about to be formed to run a sardine canning factory on the shore of the sea of Galilee. A local newspaper says there are great shoals of sardines in this section and a remunerative industry can be built up if a concession is granted.

The natives, who are extremely poor, would benefit greatly by such an industry, as the output is likely to be patronized extensively by Jews and Christians alike, not only because the Galilee sardines are of superior flavor, but because of the Biblical associations of the sea of Galilee.

CHRISTIAN FIELD.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor, of DeKalb avenue, will entertain the Christian Endeavor Society of Evona chapel, tonight, when a lunch box social will be held.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Park Avenue Baptist church will hold an all-day sewing meeting tomorrow, and at 2:45 o'clock in the afternoon the Young Women's Foreign Missionary Society will meet.

John LeMatty, of the Plainfield Rescue Mission, assisted by a band of mission workers, will conduct a public meeting at the Salvation Army Hall, tonight, at 8 o'clock.

LEFT $40,000 ESTATE.

The will of Edwin Haviland, who died here January 10, 1911, was offered for probate today. He left an estate of $40 000 to his daughter, Caroline, and his sons, Edward J. and Clarence M. Haviland.

WHY WOMEN SUFFER.

Many Plainfield Women Are Learning the Cause.

Women often suffer, not knowing the cause.

Backache, headache, dizziness, nervousness.

Irregular urinary passages, weakness, languor—

Each a torture of itself.

Together hint at weakened kidneys.

Strike at the root—get to the cause.

No other remedy more highly endorsed than Doan's Kidney Pills.

Recommended by thousands—

Endorsed at home.

Here's convincing testimony from a Plainfield citizen.

Mrs. C. B. Corlell, 60 Manning avenue, Plainfield, N. J., says: "I suffered from kidney disorders for years and the principal symptom was a severe backache. Since I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills, I have taken them off and on and they have always acted like magic, giving me prompt relief."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.—Adv.

CITY OF PLAINFIELD SEWER ASSESSMENTS. NOTICE.

WHEREAS, at a meeting of the Common Council of the City of Plainfield, held on the second day of February, A. D. 1914 by resolution adopted and approved on that date, to which resolution, and the record thereof in the office of the City Clerk, reference is hereby made and the same made a part of this notice, the Common Council did ascertain and determine that the whole amount of the costs, damages and expenses of making and constructing that definite part of the system of sewerage of the City of Plainfield already completed and constructed, and therein referred to amounted to the sum of Seventy-eight Thousand, One Hundred and Fifty-six Dollars ($78,156), and did refer the assessment thereof and all assessments of damages and benefits in the City of Plainfield, authorized by the acts of the Legislature and the ordinances and resolutions in said resolution referred to, to the subscribers, the Commissioners duly appointed, qualified and sworn under the ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to provide for the Appointment of Commissioners of Assessments to assess damages and benefits under and by virtue of the Act entitled 'An Act to provide for drainage and sewerage in cities of this State,' approved April 7, 1890, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto," approved February 5, 1895, and

WHEREAS, the ordinances referred to in said resolution include the ordinances entitled "An Ordinance to Provide for the Construction of a Further Addition to the System of Sewerage already Constructed in the City of Plainfield," Approved October 11, 1912, and "An Ordinance to Provide for the Construction of a Further Addition to the System of Sewerage already Constructed in the City of Plainfield," Approved May 7, 1913; and other ordinances and resolutions of the Common Council enacted and passed under and in pursuance of the act of the Legislature entitled "An Act to provide for drainage and sewerage in cities of this State," approved April 7, 1890, and acts amendatory thereof and supplemental thereto;

Notice is hereby given that the subscribers, the said Commissioners of Assessments, will hold their first meeting for the purpose of making said assessments in the manner and according to the principles prescribed in said acts of the Legislature on Thursday, the twenty-sixth day of February, A. D. 1914, at the hour of 8 o'clock P. M. of that day, in the Council Chamber, No. 149 North Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, New Jersey, at which meeting all persons interested in or affected by the said improvements will be given ample opportunity to be heard upon the subject of said assessments. The character of the work and improvements for which said assessments are directed to be made, is the making and construction of sewers and appurtenances, including house connections, and the following is a description of the streets and avenues and rights of way for sewer construction, or particular sections thereof, upon and along which said improvements were made, the lands fronting on which are required to be included in said assessments:

East Front Street, from Leland Avenue to Emerson Avenue;
Woodbine Avenue;
St. Mary's Avenue, from Jackson Avenue to Hill Street;
East Seventh Street, from the present sewer to a point 2,200 feet east of Leland Avenue;
Henry Place;
Marshall Place;
Lorraine Avenue;
Leland Avenue, from Lorraine Avenue to Woodmere Place;
Randolph Road, from Park Avenue to Woodland Avenue;
West Third Street, from Grant Avenue to Plainfield Avenue;
Plainfield Avenue, from West Third Street to West Sixth Street;
West Sixth Street, from Plainfield Avenue to Park Avenue;
East Sixth Street, from Park Avenue to Watchung Avenue;
Watchung Avenue, from East Sixth Street to East Seventh Street;
East Seventh Street, from Watchung Avenue to Berckman Street;
Berckman Street, from East Seventh Street to Midway;
Midway, from Berckman Street to Netherwood Avenue;
Netherwood Avenue, from Midway to East Second Street;
East Second Street, from Netherwood Avenue to Terrill Road;
Terrill Road, from East Second Street to Green Brook;
Woodland Avenue, from Randolph Road to Chetwynd Avenue;
Chetwynd Avenue, from Hillside Avenue to Woodland Avenue;
Hillside Avenue, from Randolph Road to Chetwynd Avenue;
Watson Avenue;
Leland Avenue, from East Front Street to Green Brook;
East Front Street, from Emerson Avenue to Raymond Avenue;
Prospect Avenue, from a point 953 feet east of Hillside Avenue to Woodland Avenue.

Also improvements at sewage disposal works.

Dated Plainfield, N. J., February 3, 1914.

ARMSTRONG MULFORD,
DANIEL J. COURAIN,
FRANK J. HUBBARD,
Commissioners.

2-4-11-24

The departure of the cook or maid does not prostrate the lady who knows the efficiency of Press want ads.

And want ad-reading servants are of the desirable class.

Westfield.

Funeral services for Helen Foley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Myles Foley, were held at the home of her parents, Monday afternoon. Burial was in St. Mary's cemetery, Plainfield.

The annual ball of the Westfield Fire Department will be held at Westfield Theatre Hall this evening. Guests of the firemen from the nearby towns are expected.

According to new rules of the fire department, the firemen will be called out twice a month for test drills with the apparatus.

STUART'S Mark Down Shoe Sale

It is what you get for what you pay that counts. We are offering at greatly reduced prices, men's, women's and children's shoes, that were remarkable values at their regular prices. Now during the Mark-down Shoe Sale the values are infinitely greater. You can't afford to miss them.

1.95 Men's and women's $2.50 and $3.00 Shoes—all leathers and styles.

2.95 Were $3.50 to $4.00; Several well known named shoes in this lot.

2.45 Men's and women's $3.00 and some $3.50 shoes; a splendid assortment at this price.

1.69 and 1.39 Boys, girls' and children's shoes; warranted solid leather.

Stuarts SHOE SHOP

215 W. FRONT ST.
PLAINFIELD, N. J.

German Valley. and Chester

Miss Gladys A. Carlisle, of Chester, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis, of Irvington.

Miss Grace Warner, of East Orange, will give an entertainment in the German Valley Luthern church, February 21.

Miss Martha Bunn, of Dover, was a guest Sunday of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Manning Bunn, of German Valley.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Chester Methodist church will meet this afternoon with Mrs. C. K. Mamoney, of Main street.

James Riker, of Chester, is suffering from injuries received in a fall.

'Plains & Fanwood.

The meeting of the Parish House council, which was scheduled to be held last night, was postponed for two weeks as no quorum was present.

Harold Hodge, of Forest road, is one of the few lucky trappers around this section. When he visited his traps in the big woods, near the golf grounds the first part of the week, he discovered that a large 'possum had been caught in the largest of his traps. It weighed about fifteen pounds. The skin will be cured and disposed of with the rest of the pelts that the lad is bringing in every week.

The Parish House first basketball team played and defeated the fast Plainfield Y. M. C. A. team on the local "gym" floor last night. The score at the close of the game was 37 to 13 in favor of the local boys.

M. A. Korff, superintendent of the Baptist Sunday-school, will lead the regular mid-week prayer service at the Baptist church tonight.

The meeting of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Parish House which was scheduled to be held at that institution last night, was postponed for two weeks.

The Holy Name Society, of Saint Mary's church, Stony Hill, will hold an invitation smoker in the chapel of the church tonight.

Pedro Rigando, of Park avenue, has opened another shoe repairing shop on Somerset street, Plainfield. Pedro will continue in business here and will be in charge of the local shop himself.

The light snow that fell last night spoiled the skating on Marsh's pond, near the foot of the mountain, where the local enthusiasts of the famous winter sport have been enjoying themselves for the past two days. The ice on the pond is between two and three inches thick.

Frank Lee, of Front street, has taken a position with the New York contractor who is installing the heating system in the new building at the Bonnie Burn Sanitarium.

In the first match of the bowling tournament now being held in the Parish House, on Monday night, Edward Hand carried away all the honors. The list of those who rolled and the results of their evening's bowling, are: Hand won 3, lost 1; Rheinhart won 3, lost 1; Weldon won 2, lost 2; F. Hand won 1, lost 3; Guest won 1, lost 3. Those that are scheduled to bowl tonight in the contest are Ward, Edward Hatfield, M. Hall, Goodwin, B. Macauley, Sam Macauley and E. Jahn.

The Fanwood Borough Board of Health, at its regular monthly session in the firehouse last night, was informed of the appointment of Dr. Ray Munger as a member.

A meeting of the men in the borough has been called for this evening in the firehouse, at which time a social organization will be formed.

A program appropriate to Lincoln's Birthday, was given by the pupils of School No. 1, in the assembly room of the school this afternoon. Lincoln's Gettysburg address was recited.

The Ladies' Aid Society of All Saints' Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. Albert Ribbet, of Russell road, this afternoon.

Archdeacon R. B. Shepherd, of Trenton, head of the mission work of the New Jersey diocese, will preach at the 11 o'clock morning service at the All Saints' Episcopal church on Sunday. "Missions" will be his topic.

Dunellen & Vicinity

Henry Kitchener, of Lincoln avenue, is building an addition to the rear of his home, to be eight by ten feet. It will be used as a laundry room and pantry.

The banquet committee of the Baraca Class of the Presbyterian church will meet Friday night to decide when the affair is to be held. Those on the committee are John Faber, chairman; Fowler W. Vail, Arthur Hamley, George I. Apgar, Jr., and J. R. Hamley.

D. J. Sullivan, who recently sold out his hostelry in New Market, will within a short time return to New York, where he will engage in the real estate business, it is said.

As soon as the weather permits several improvements will be started at Wayside Park. Walter Sisty, the owner of that resort, intends to put an addition onto the present dancing pavilion and will make several other changes in the different buildings about the place.

It is understood that W. J. Winges, the man who has had so much trouble with his neighbors over a spite-fence which was erected around his property on Lincoln avenue and Front street, is going to take down the eye-sore of the neighborhood, rent the property and remove to another place which he has recently invested in.

"The Oak Farm" will be given by the Oak Farm Dramatic Club for the benefit of the Baraca Class of the Presbyterian church, Thursday night, February 19, in the chapel of the church. This club, which is one of the best amateur theatrical organizations in this section, appeared here last winter.

No new developments have come to light in the police work in the case of the several robberies that have taken place in and around the borough within the past week.

Bound Brook.

Miss Freida Cuddaback, of Port Jervis, N. Y., is spending a few days with Rev. and Mrs. Harold E. Green, at the Reformed parsonage.

The regular meeting of Pioneer Council, No. 58, Jr. O. U. A. M., will be held in Hamilton Hall at 8 o'clock tonight.

Miss Alice Terhune, of Mountain avenue, is spending a few days with relatives and friends at Crosswicks.

Miss Florence Whitenack has been visiting with friends at North Branch Depot.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church will hold its annual valentine supper in the church on Friday night.

The annual Lincoln's Birthday dinner of the Congregational church will be given in the chapel tomorrow evening. It will be served by the Ladies' Aid Society.

Lincoln's Birthday will be observed tomorrow, as usual. The banks will be closed all day and the postoffice will close at 10 o'clock, the carrier's making the usual holiday delivery and collection.

Mrs. Sherwood, of Plainfield, is spending a few days with her daughter, Mrs. Ralph E. Apgar.

Mrs. Plumb has removed from Somerville to the Whiting house on East Union avenue.

Charles L. Staples, of Beechwood Heights, has gone on a Southern business trip of several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Robinson and children, of Roselle Park, have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oliver B. Mathews, of Cedar street, South Bound Brook.

Somerville

Dr. Francis McConaughy, of this place, will speak at the Green Knoll Sunday-school on Sunday afternoon.

Miss Jennie Stryker has been visiting Mrs. George Van Derveer, at North Branch Depot.

About a half inch of snow, the first of the present winter in this section, fell last night.

A special meeting of the Borough Council has been called for Friday night, at the engine house.

The public schools of the borough will close this afternoon for the week to observe Lincoln's Birthday. Because the children get an extra holiday at this time there will be no vacation granted to observe Washington's Birthday, which falls on Sunday this year, but which will be generally observed the day following. Lincoln's Birthday will not be a holiday in this place, however, among the business houses.

Raritan

A masquerade ball will be held in the Slavish Hall on Friday evening of next week for the benefit of St. Ann's church.

A valentine social will be held in the Reformed chapel on Friday evening, under the auspices of the C. E. Society.

CAVEAT AGAINST WILL.

Harry G. Runkle, of West Eighth street, through his counsel, Joseph H. Lecour, of New York, as filed a caveat against the probating of the will of his brother, William Runkle, of Orange, who died on January 31. The estate of the testator is estimated at $2,000,000. It is understood that while Harry G. Runkle received a large bequest, the bulk of the estate will go to charity.

—Advertise in the Daily Press. 1 days

Guess What Store

SR

10% Discount

All your purchases until Saturday, Feb. 21st, will yield you 10 PER CENT. IN CASH.

Sign the coupon below, bring or mail it at once to the store that owns it—the trade mark.

Register NOW for coupons will not be honored if presented after 11 P. M. Saturday, Feb. 21st, 1914.

NOTE—Only one coupon registered for each person.

GUESS WHOSE TRADE MARK?

P O 2 SR COUPON

Name .....

Address .....

City .....

Store Closes Saturday at 9 P. M.

HAHNE & CO.

Newark, New Jersey's Greatest Store

We Give and Redeem Surety Coupons

Folks Are Coming Straight to Hahne's for Rugs---

New Additions Daily to This Great $90,000 Disposal

Notwithstanding the brisk selling of Monday and yesterday, assortments are nearly as plentiful now as at the very beginning of the sale. Low prices, rare values, and the high quality of the rugs are chief incentives in this great clearaway. Better get your share soon—the good thing are going fast

Remember, too—any rug in this sale may be bought on the Club Plan, and at sale prices! Tomorrow's offerings include—

FIBRE RUGS.

Balance of a large purchase.
9x12 ft. Rugs, reg. $10.95, special at.....$8.95
6x9 ft. Rugs, reg. $6.45, special at.....$5.40
12x12 ft. Rugs, reg. $15.00, special at.....$11.75
12x15 ft. Rugs, reg. $18.00; special at.....$14.50
Third Floor.

SCOTCH ART RUGS.

Scotch Art Rugs of wool—reversible.
9x12 ft. Rugs, reg. $18.50, special at.....$16.50
8¼x10½ ft. Rugs, regularly $16.50, special at.....$14.55
6x9 ft. Rugs, reg. $9.85, special at.....$8.95
3x6 ft. Rugs, reg. $3.25, special at.....$2.95

GRASS RUGS.

May be had in gray, tan, red and blue.
9x12 ft. Rugs, reg. $8.25, special at.....$5.95
8x10 ft. Rugs, reg. $6.25, special at.....$4.50
6x9 ft. Rugs, reg. $4.25, special at.....$3.00
3x6 ft. Rugs, reg. $1.25, special at.....95c

ROYAL AXMINSTER RUGS.

9x12 ft. Rugs, specially priced at.....$17.95
8¼x10½ ft. Rugs, specially priced at.....$16.25
Small Rugs to match at lowered prices.

BODY BRUSSELS RUGS.

10½x14 ft. Rugs, reg. $45.00, special at.....$39.50
10½x12 ft. Rugs, reg. $42.50, special at.....$38.50
10½x12½ ft. Rugs, reg. $39.50, special at.....$32.50
9x12 ft. Rugs, reg. $29.50, special at.....$25.00
9x9 ft. Rugs, reg. $24.50, special at.....$22.00
6x9 ft. Rugs, reg. $17.50, special at.....$15.00
4½x7½ ft. Rugs, reg. $9.25, special at.....$8.95
8¼x10½ ft. Rugs, reg. $27.50, special at.....$22.50

NEW SELECTIONS OF ORIENTAL RUGS.

50 Guendjes Rugs, values $18 to $20; special at.....$14.45
75 Mossoul Rugs, values $22.50 to $25; special at.....$19.50
50 Extra Mossoul Rugs, value $29; special at.....$23.50
30 Selected, extra fine grade Mossoul Rugs, values $37 to $39; special at.....$29.50

HAHNE & CO., Broad, New and Halsey Sts., Newark, N. J.

LIONEL CARDEN TO VISIT WILSON

British Envoy to Mexico Gets Permission.

MAY MAKE EXPLANATION

His Statements Last Summer, Which Were Regarded as Reflecting on President Wilson's Knowledge of the Mexican Situation, Have Not Been Forgotten.

Washington, Feb. 11.—It was announced in official circles here that Sir Lionel Carden will soon come to Washington on his way to England, where he is to report to the British foreign office on the Mexican situation.

The British ambassador, Sir Arthur Cecil Spring-Rice, has already arranged with President Wilson and Secretary Bryan for Sir Lionel to come to Washington en route to England. While it is said that the British minister's program is subject to change and dependent to a certain extent upon boat schedules, there is little doubt here that he will appear in Washington in a few weeks. He will, of course, be presented to Secretary Bryan and President Wilson.

Thomas B. Kohler, who is en route to Mexico City to take charge of the embassy during Sir Lionel's absence, will leave Washington in a few days. Sir Lionel will not leave until Kohler's arrival, so that the minister's visit is not expected for some time. While no official announcement has been made nor is any expected, there is little doubt hat Sir Lionel will be given another post, presumably that of minister to Brazil.

The transfer of Sir Lionel is unquestionably the outgrowth of the concern of the Wilson administration over certain remarks said to have been made by Sir Lionel in Mexico City reflecting upon President Wilson's knowledge of Mexican conditions and his policy toward that situation.

In the willingness of the British government to remove him to another post and its sending Carden to Washington is seen an indication of the more cordial relations between the two governments resulting from the president's attitude on the Panama canal tolls question. There is now good reason to believe that President Wilson publicly announced his desire for the repeal of the exemption clause partly for the purpose of securing the good will of the British government and its strong support in Mexico.

While it is not possible at this time to make any positive statement in advance of Sir Lionel's visit, it would surprise no one here should the British minister take occasion to express on meeting Mr. Bryan or the president his regret that anything he may have said in Mexico City should have caused any concern in Washington. While it is not supposed that the British foreign office should require that Sir Lionel apologize, it is believed quite probable that the minister will find some way of indicating that he intended in no way to reflect on the policies of this government.

No Successor.

That the British government is already preparing to lend the United States more substantial support in Mexico than has been the case heretofore is indicated in the fact that, according to present plans no one will be sent to succeed Sir Lionel as minister. Thus the British foreign office will not be confronted with the problem of renewing its recognition of the Huerta government, as would be the case were a new minister sent to Mexico City. Charge Kohler will be accredited merely to the Mexican foreign office, whereas a new minister would be obliged to present letters to President Huerta, thus conferring upon him a renewal or reassertion of the British recognition of the Huerta government. The evidences that are accumulating of the more felicitous relations between this government and Great Britain are regarded as most important and as tending to strengthen the hands of the United States in its other contentions with foreign governments, notably with Japan.

FISHERIES TREATY IN SENATE

Senator Root's Measure Referred to Foreign Relations Committee.

Washington, Feb. 11.—Senator Root introduced in the senate a bill to give effect to the treaty with Great Britain relating to fisheries. The same bill was introduced in the house a few days ago by Representative Flood of Virginia, chairman of the house committee on foreign affairs. The bill was drawn after consultation with the state department and will not be contested.

Senator Root's bill was referred to the senate committee on foreign relations.

TRIES TO KILL OSSORIO.

Spanish Assassin Fires Shot at Ex-Governor of Barcelona.

Madrid, Feb. 11.—Ex-Governor Ossorio of Barcelona was fired at in the streets of Madrid, but was not hit. He had just arrived from Barcelona to attend a meeting of the Young Conservative party. The shot fired at him wounded another Young Conservative in the shoulder. The police made several arrests, but it is doubtful whether they captured the assassin.

—You can make it PAY you to read the store ads in today's paper—make it pay you in actual savings on purchases you need to make. Try the experiment.

BUY A RANGE NOW PAY FOR IT LATER

Under our Deferred Payment Plan any person who desires to buy a Gas Range or a Gas Water Heater now can have either or both installed within three or four days and wait until April 1 before making a first payment. After that the balance can be paid off in small sums monthly.

The buyer gets the use of the Range or Water Heater and we wait for the money.

We have Ranges and Water Heaters to suit all purposes and all pocketbooks.

PUBLIC SERVICE GAS CO.

This Store Will Close at 12 o'clock Noon Tomorrow, Thursday, February 12.

TEPPER'S

---THURSDAY SPECIAL--

OUR ENTIRE STOCK OF WINTER GOODS OFFERED AT PRICES FAR BELOW THE ACTUAL COST OF MANUFACTURE.

This is the last chance to secure a Coat, Suit or Dress at less than the cost of manufacture; only a few left and these we are determined to close out regardless of what they cost.

$2.00 and $3.00 Children's Coats, made of bearskin, serges, chinchilla and sizes 2 to 6 years; special..... 98c

$9.00 Ladies' Black Kersey Coats, extra long and well made; this season's garments; special..... 3.98

$9.00 Ladies' Coats, extra long, made of all wool mixtures; only a few left, your size may be among them; special..... 3.98

All our Dresses—some silk, charmeuse, serges, foulards, etc.; the cleaning up of a successful season; none to be carried over; we offer them for 50c ON THE DOLLAR.

SEE WINDOW DISPLAY.

THIS STORE OPEN ALL DAY TOMORROW.

ROSENTHAL'S
210 WEST FRONT ST.
2 Doors From Proctor's

Attend the Remarkable
FUR SALE
of
Charles Kurtzman
Furs of Quality
118 E. Front St
DR. PITTIS OFFICE BUILDING

CLOGGED NOSTRILS OPEN AT ONCE, HEAD COLDS AND CATARRH VANISH

In One Minute Your Stuffy Nose and Head Clears, Sneezing and Nose Running Cease, Dull Headache Goes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm."

Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it. Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone.

End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.—Adv.

Get the Community Spirit!

The Business Men's Association of Plainfield was organized to bring more business to our city that will not only help Plainfield grow, but will make it a bigger, better and more prosperous city, and indirectly every citizen will benefit.

The city that boasts of the largest number of prosperous retail stores advertises itself as a prosperous community.

Plainfield is particularly fortunate in having a large number of progressive merchants and business men--not all are members of the Association--but we need the co-operation of everyone. You are invited to join.

These men are members--watch this list grow.

Adelberg H.
Bennett, J. H.
Collier, Paul R.
Courier News
Davis, Allan F.
DeMott, J. H.
DeMeza & Blimm.
Endress & Co.
Force & Co., A. E.
Fass, J. A.
Firstbrook, Fred
Griffin & Co., A. M.
Gavett, J. W.
Hansen, J. C.
Haurand, Henry.
Jeffrey, William.
Kresge Co., S. S.
Kurtzman, Charles.
Mann, Solomon.
Manning, C. D.
Murray, Robert.
Neidig, Frank.
Plainfield Daily Press.
Powelson & Jones.
Parrot, Richard, Jr.
Preger, Louis.
Queen City Laundry.
Reliable Jewelry Shop.
Rosenbaum Bros.
Rothberg, Sam.
Ritz, Inc.
Samilson, Chas. S.
Silbert, Carl.
Slonim, Leo.
Schwed Bros.
Stuart, K. H.
Tepper, M. & A.
Van Arsdale, M. C.
Varley, J. J.
Welsh Farms Dairy.
Woodhull & Martin.
Woolworth & Co., F. W.
Zeisel, Leo.

The Business Men's Association
of Plainfield, N. J. P. O. Box 575

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.
Waiting room at Kensington Hotel, Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD
WEEK DAYS.
Leave Plainfield—7.45, 9.00, 11.45 a. m 1.00, 4.00, 5.00, 7.00, 9.00, 10.20, x11.10 p. m
Leave South Plainfield—8.00, 9.20 a. m 12.00, 1.30, 4.30, 5.50, 7.30, 9.30, 10.45, x11.30 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—9.00, 12.00 a. m., 2.00 4.00, 5.00, 9.00 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—10.00 a. m. 12.15, 2.30, 4.30, 5.30, 9.30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE AND MT. BETHEL.
WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6.30 a. m., 3.00, 6.25 x11.00 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6.45 a. m., 3.15, 6.40 x11.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3.30, 6.50 x11.30 p. m.
Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m
Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m
Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30, 7.30. x11.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.40 x11.45 p. m.
Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 7.55 x12.00 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9.00 a. m. instead of 6.30 a. m. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STERLING.
WEEK DAYS ONLY.
Leave Plainfield—8.45 a. m., 4.30 p. m
Leave Watchung—9.00 a. m., 4.45 p. m
Leave Stirling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m.
8.45 a. m. bus connects with 9.27 a. m train at Sterling, for Newark.
4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m train at Sterling, from Newark.

An enclosed, electric-lighted and heated bus may be procured for an afternoon or evening, from The Plainfield Transit Co., to carry from 15 to 25 passengers to any point within a radius of 25 miles from Plainfield
R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave.
'Phone 130. Plainfield.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

To Natalie Wildey Farlee.
By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a certain cause wherein Hart Scudder Farlee is petitioner, and you, Natalie Wildey Farlee, are defendant, you are required to appear, and plead, answer or demur to petitioner's petition on or before the seventh day of April next, or, in default thereof, such decree will be taken against you as the Chancellor shall think equitable and just.
The object of said suit is to obtain a decree of divorce, dissolving the marriage between you and the said petitioner.
Dated February 4, 1914.
NELSON & WILLIAM N. RUNYON,
Solicitors of Petitioner,
P. O. Address, 221 Park Avenue,
Plainfield, New Jersey.
2 11 5-w

ESTATE OF DANIEL F. GINNA, Deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, executors of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscribers under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the tenth day of February, 1914, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscribers.
TYLER & TYLER, Proctors.
KATHARINE L. GINNA,
WILLIAM S. TYLER,
Executors.
2 11 9-w Fees—$11.10

—Daily Press want ads. bring results.

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

FEBRUARY 11TH IN HISTORY.

1735—Daniel Boone, the famous Kentucky pioneer, born in Pennsylvania. Died in Missouri, Sept. 26, 1820.

1780—The British under Sir Henry Clinton began an attack on Charleston, S. C.

1812—Alexander H. Stephens, vice president of the Confederate States of America, born near Crawfordsville, Ga. Died in Atlanta, March 4, 1883.

1858—Benito Juraez was declared president of Mexico.

1873—Abdication of King Amadeus of Spain and proclamation of a republic.

1889—Gen. Henry Jackson Hunt, who commanded the Federal artillery at Gettysburg, died. Born Sept. 14, 1819.

1909—Archibald Lampman, noted Canadian poet, died. Born Nov. 17, 1861.

1913—The Mexican revolutionists and Federal troops engaged in battle in the streets of Mexico City.

Plainfield, N. J., February 11, 1914.

NEIGHBORHOOD CLUBS.

There is no force which plays so great a part in the up-building of a city, no agency which brings the average citizen in such close touch with the welfare of his community and so enlists his services in its interests, as the neighborhood club.

Plainfield has three such clubs, the West End Civic Association, the Netherwood Residents' Association and the East End Taxpayers' Association, all of which have done good work for their own localities during the past year. It cannot be disputed that such live organizations as this get closer to the citizen than any other civic organization. It deals with his own locality and its betterment, it seeks to enlarge the value of his property and comforts by increasing his city advantages, it proposes to look after his welfare and it organizes sections with a common cause into a solid society for promotion of good things for, not only the locality, but the city in general. What the Chamber of Commerce or Board of Trade seeks to do for the whole city, the neighborhood club does do for the individual sections of the city.

Joined by common interests and welded by a common cause, there exists the neighborhood responsibilities and the neighborly spirit. There is nothing to be discussed which applies to some other section of the city afar off; every topic in these locality clubs is of importance to the members. Such an organization is not unwieldy. When something of importance to the whole city does arise, the neighborhood takes it up, discusses it as it concerns individuals and draws out the neighbors to hear about it. It would be less easy to attract the citizen to a meeting of the whole city. Being smaller, too, it allows a freer discussion of subjects. Citizens who would not "say their piece" before a central civic body, will talk freely before their own neighbors.

Probably in no city in the country has the neighborhood club been developed to such an extent as in Oakland, Cal., and Oakland gained 124 per cent in population in the last decade. During recent years, the growth of the clubs has been marvelous and today this city of 200,000 people has 43 distinct civic organizations comprising practically the entire population. Movements for a better city and more prosperity are originated, promoted and pushed to successful culmination in these clubs.

UTILIZING WASTE.

No matter of public importance has been more discussed in Plainfield in recent years than the municipal collection and disposal of garbage and ashes. Year after year the Board of Health has recommended that such a system be put into being, and year after year the Council has passed the matter by for things which have been considered more important. The officials seem to be afraid of the expense of doing the work under municipal control, and do not seem to be enough interested to really investigate and see whether the individaul taxpayer would save money over the present system of paying private scavengers. There is one viewpoint which is an important one, which seems to have been completely overlooked. That is the large amount that the public would gain annually because of the money that a contractor would be able to get for the items which now go to waste.

Philadelphia has just made provision for the collection and sale by the city of old rags, bottles, paper and other waste, which have heretofore been thrown upon the ashpiles by householders. The municipal officials in the city of Brotherly Love have started a campaign to eliminate rag pickers who have been in the habit of delving into receptacles left on the curbs by the people. These scavengers, some thousand in number, have made a substantial living by picking and sorting over the waste before it is collected by the city wagons. Now it is propsed to cart the entire unsorted waste to city dumps and to sell the rags, bottles, paper and other articles of value to the highest bidder. The city expects in this manner, to realize $100,000 a year, which will help to pay the cost of municipal government.

The modern contractors, who handle this sort of work for cities, figure the value of all these things in their contracts, and in that way materially reduce the cost to any municipality for collection and disposal. Plainfield is actually throwing away thousands of dollars worth of good material every year because of the hap-hazard method permitted here. There is only one proper way to handle this problem, and that is for it to be let to a responsible, bonded contractor, who will do the work in a sanitary way. Plainfield is behind every other community of its size in the state in the handling of this problem, so important to the health of the entire people.

The movement to organize Parent-Teacher Associations in the local public schools is a popular one and each of the local institutions has a flourishing body. The gatherings, held once a month, give the parents an opportunity to confer with the teachers, thus securing an insight of the pupil's school work and the subjects in which he or she is deficient. Several of the Associations have introduced a "Question Box" and the members of the organization can thereby obtain information regarding the school work which they would otherwise be unable to get.

Secretary Parker, of the Y. M. C. A., recently had the Association reading room thrown open to all men who wish to gather there to read, whether or not they are members of the association. Such action is opportune, as it comes at a time when many men are out of work and the hundreds of unemployed who line the city streets daily for the want of something better to do, can find a better way to improve their time by going to the Y. M. C. A. Literature of interest to all is provided and this is one method of abolishing loitering.

Few people realize that cancer is getting to be about as serious a disease as tuberculosis. The number of deaths is not so great, but they are increasing every year, and the most learned physicians do not seem to be able to find a cure. Last year 2,026 died from this dreaded disease in New Jersey, and in Union county alone the number reached 120, of which 57 were from Elizabeth. The man who discovers a real cure for this awful scourge will be one of the greatest benefactors to mankind that the world has ever known.

The contributed editorial on Saturday will be written by one of the live wire young business men of the city, and he will have something to say which every person who has any real interest in Plainfield will thoroughly approve.

Don't forget that "Dollar Day" is going to bring forth some of the rarest buying opportunities that have ever been presented to the Plainfield public. The date is February 28.

—You can make it pay you to read the store ads in today's paper—make it pay you in actual savings on purchases you need to make. Try the experiment.

EARTHQUAKE SHOCK ROCKS ALL THE EAST

Buildings Shaken In Many New York Towns.

New York, Feb. 11.—New York city was shaken by an earthquake, though most of the residents in Manhattan didn't know it. Brooklyn felt the tremor most distinctly, and the general question was, "Where is the explosion?" In the heights section the disturbance was the most pronounced. It was felt by persons in the Brooklyn club at Clinton and Pierrepont streets and in some of the large hotels and apartment houses.

The disturbance was part of a general movement of the earth which was felt from Brooklyn to Buffalo, through Connecticut and Pennsylvania and north to the district along the St. Lawrence river. The shock seemed to be along the whole Laurentian formation, which has come to be regarded as almost immune from seismic disturbances.

Up state there was a genuine scare. In several of the cities buildings rocked, and in Syracuse the excitement bordered on a panic for a time. The capitol at Albany was shaken, and a picture fell from the wall in the state comptroller's office. Along the line of the New York Central a dozen clocks stopped.

In this city the only seismograph in commission was that at the Museum of Natural History. The instrument there recorded four distinct shocks. The general direction of the earthquake was south by southwest.

That the tremor was felt by many persons in Brooklyn was shown by the many inquiries that poured into police headquarters. All asked where the big explosion was.

William Seibert, traffic manager for the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, was standing on the second floor of a building at Montague and Clinton streets at the time of the shock. He noticed the mineral water in a nearby bottle bubble and felt a slight tremor of the building.

THE FORUM.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

Menace-mothered minds beget peculiar progeny. Last evening's explosion of the East Second street think-tank, the report of which was heard in the Forum column, is too malodorous for me.

I apologize to my friends to whom I have unconsciously introduced the intellectual and moral curiosity.

B. M. BOGAN.

STATION OPEN TIL 10:44 P. M.

Trenton, Feb. 11.—The Central Railroad Company has advised the Board of Public Utility Commissioners that in future the Spring Street station at Elizabeth will be kept open until the departure of train No. 216 at 10:44 p. m. The action of the railroad is the outcome of an informal complaint made to the board by J. E. Sullivan, of Elizabeth. Heretofore it has been the custom to relieve the agent from duty at 6 p. m., except Saturday, when he remained until 7 p. m. General Superintendent Meredith, who advised the board of the new rule, expressed some fear that the waiting-room might become a lounging place for undesirable characters. This trouble, he said, was experienced some years ago when a similar experiment was made.

COAL TRAINS COLLIDE.

Whitehouse, Feb. 11.—Two coal trains, eastbound on the Central Railroad of New Jersey, were in collision yesterday morning while rounding the curve at the foot of Pickell's Mountain. Nobody was hurt, but several cars were smashed up and the caboose of the first train burned. The brakes of the rear train did not work properly, it is explained, and the engine crashed into the caboose of the train ahead. For almost two hours both tracks were blocked, but wrecking trains from Elizabethport and Phillipsburg got the westbound track clear and by noon were working on the other track.

REWARD FOR ABSTINENCE.

In order to encourage total abstinence among its employes, the Philadelphia Quartz Company, of Chester, Pa., issued a statement to its 300 workers yesterday, declaring an increase of 10 per cent. in wages for every employe who would agree not to use strong drink. The girls in the clerical department jumped at the offer. Every one of the men and boys also came forward and signed their names to the pledge.

EARTHQUAKE IN HAVANA.

Havana, Feb. 11.—A strong earthquake felt at 2 o'clock this morning at Santiago, Cuba, created great excitement among the population. No reports of damage were received.

GRADED UNION MEETING.

Mrs. Robert Love will have charge of the Graded Teachers' Union meeting at the Y. W. C. A. Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Her subject will be "The Temple."

—Competition between the stores in value-giving grows keener all the time—and makes the store ads of increasing purse-interest to you all the time.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

The February Furniture Sale
Specially Fine Offerings
In Dining-Room Suites

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

$110.00 SUITE FOR 87.00
Mission design, Early English finish, 9 pieces, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six Chairs

$112.00 SUITE FOR 95.00
A pretty Golden Oak Suite, consisting of Buffet, China Cabinet, Table and six Chairs, 9 pieces.

$125.00 SUITE FOR 100.00
Colonial pattern in Fumed Oak, 9 pieces, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six Chairs.

$100.00 SUITE FOR 85.00
A Fumed Oak Suite, mission style, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six chairs, 9 pieces.

Club Plan Payments May Be Arranged

Club Plan Payments May Be Arranged

Brass Beds in the February Furniture Sale

Heavy solid brass beds in satin, bright and poulettefinish. Note the great savings!

$16.98 Brass Beds now $10.98
$19.50 Brass Beds now $14.98
$24.50 Brass Beds now $17.50
$26.50 Brass Beds now $20.50
$34.50 Brass Beds now $26.50

BUY RUGS NOW AND SAVE MONEY.

9x12 Wilton Velvet Rugs $16.50
9x12 Body Brussels Rugs $22.00
9x12 Tapestry Brussels Rugs $12.50
9x12 Axminster Rugs $20.00
9x12 Royal Wilton Rugs $35.00

"Storage of your purchases without charge until you need them," and "our Easy Payment Club Plan" enables you to take full advantage of this February Money Saving Sale.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Woodhull & Martin Co.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

WE GIVE FIVE PER CENT. PROFIT SHARING COUPONS.

PERSONAL.

Sidney Frazee, of Elmwool place, has been detained at home by a severe cold which threatened pneumonia.

Walter Ulmer has been detained at his home by illness.

Mr. and Mrs. George E. Crowell, formerly of Plainfield, but now of Elizabeth, are parents of an eight-and-a-quarter pounds girl, born to them on Saturday. Mrs. Crowell was formerly Miss Blanche Benson, and is the daughter of Mrs. Harry O. Bogert, of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. James McClymont, of West Sixth street, have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eckert of Newark.

Mrs. Benjamin Fritts, of Trenton, is spending a few days with her son, John Fritts, of West Fifth street.

Miss Amanda Stine, of Mt. Carmel, Pa., has been visiting friends at Warrenville and this city.

Dr. T. S. Davis, of Park avenue, is convalescing from a recent illness.

Mrs. Morris Abrams, of Grove street, underwent an operation for hernia at Muhlenberg Hospital, yesterday afternoon. It was performed by Drs. Endicott and Clawson and today the patient was reported as resting comfortably.

Mrs. "Jack" Martin, of West Third street, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Lulu Hinkle, is visiting relatives at Asbury Park. They will be joined by Mr. Martin Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Ellsworth, of West Fifth street, are entertaining relatives of Harrisburg, Pa.

Dr. Ellis Campus, of New York, has returned home after a visit with Morris Abrams, of Grove street.

Harry Moulton, Jr., of Chatham place, is spending the week at Gladstone.

Samuel J. Jacques, of Portland, Me., is visiting his grandfather, James B. Martin, of West Second street.

Henry C. Welle, of the Y. M. C. A., represented the local Association at the monthly meeting of the New Jersey Physical Director's Association which was held in Newark yesterday.

Mrs. P. H. Currin, of Mountain avenue, is able to be about again, after being confined to her home for the past two weeks with grip and tonsilitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey J. Weltman, of Sandford avenue, have returned from Bermuda.

Mrs. Arthur Van Arsdale, of Summit avenue, who recently underwent a serious operation at Muhlenberg Hospital, is now at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Emmons, of Prospect avenue, where she will remain for an indefinite time.

Arthur Seidel, of Jackson avenue, is detained at home by illness.

Miss Knight, of Elmwood place, is detained at home by illness.

WEEKLY DANCES.

Weekly dances are to be held in the Abrams Auditorium, commencing on Saturday evening of this week, February 14. Music will be furnished by Naylor.

Every Young Man Should Know that he cannot acquire wealth and good standing by spending his money for unnecessary luxuries and trifles.

It is the constant practice of economy and saving that counts in the long run.

Start an account now with us.

4 PER CENT. INTEREST PAID.

PLAINFIELD SAVINGS BANK

THE ONLY SAVINGS BANK IN PLAINFIELD.
ORGANIZED 1868.

OFFICERS.

WM. F. ARNOLD ..... President
A. C. STEBBINS ..... Vice President
JAMES C. POPE ..... Secretary and Treasurer
H. A. POPE ..... Assistant Secretary and Treasurer
H. B. MacDONALD ..... Second Assistant Secretary and Treasurer

It is Very Important

that an assured should know that we ourselves prepare the forms and write a policy to cover properly his individual needs. This means much to our clients and has a decided advantage in making a prompt and satisfactory adjustment of a loss.

REAL ESTATE LOANS RENTS

GEO. M. CLARKE CO. Babcock Bldg. Telephone 205 Plainfield

INSURANCE OF ALL KINDS.

WE DO FINE JOB PRINTING. TRY US

—Something unusual for the table is always a welcome treat to the home folks. The ad-reading women does not find the problem hard.

Doan's Kidney Pills 45c
Father John's Medicine 45c

NYAL'S YELLOW-PILLS

For Billiousness, Liver Complaint, Malaria, Sick Headache, Dizziness, Constipation and troubles due to torpidity of the liver.

Small, Active, Safe and Sure.

Dose—One pill.

25c PER BOTTLE.

SCHREINER BROS.
Prescription Druggists
PARK AVE., COR. SECOND ST.

Headquarters for

GIBSON'S

RYE

E. C. WESCOTT,
115 East Front Street.

RANSOME CONCRETE MACHINERY COMPANY

At a meeting of the Board of Directors held January 23rd, a quarterly dividend of 2% was declared on the preferred stock, payable February 16th to holders of record on that date.

EDWARD F. FEICKERT,
2 7-9-11-14 Treasurer.

CITY NATIONAL BANK PLAINFIELD, N.J.

"Do the Very Best You Can"

This applies to saving money as well as working with zeal. Start an account with us—it will give you the right kind of incentive.

3% INTEREST ON CHECKING ACCOUNTS OF $500.00 AND ABOVE

4% INTEREST ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS OF $10.00 AND ABOVE

THE CITY NATIONAL BANK

OF PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Capital $150,000.00 Surplus and Profits $300,000.00 (all earned)

You'll wake up with a good taste in your mouth

if you chew this after every meal.

The refreshing digestion aiding mint leaf juice does it.

This clean, pure, healthful gum purifies your mouth—sweetens your breath. It's a pleasant, inexpensive, beneficial pastime. It brightens teeth besides.

BUY IT BY THE BOX
at most dealers
for 85 cents

Each box contains twenty 5 cent packages

Chew it after every meal
It stays fresh until used

6

OUR MID-WINTER FURNITURE SALE

We are selling lots of good Furniture and Bedding at this time, for the trade know us and the character of our goods and appreciate the advantage of a sale like this—and only need to be told about it.

WE DO SELL GOOD FURNITURE AT LESS PRICES THAN ANY OTHER STORE.

Just visit our store, look through carefully, note the splendid savings on our regular goods; many odd pieces at specially low prices.

JUST NOTE THESE EXTRAORDINARY VALUES.

ODD CHIFFONIERS in many styles of oak, mahogany, birdseye maple and Circassian walnut, from ..... $8.98 to $24.00

ODD DRESSERS in many styles of oak, mahogany, birdseye maple and Circassian walnut, from ..... $9.98 to $35.00

SAMPLE BRASS BEDS, finish guaranteed— ... $10.50, $13.50, $16.50, $18.50, $23.50

GOOD QUALITY 9x12 AXMINSTER RUGS, $22.50 & $25.00 values, at $18.98

Be Sure and See Our Window Display—It Means Money Saved.

WE GIVE AND REDEEM SURETY COUPONS.

SHIRLEY & JOHNSTON

BABCOCK BUILDING PLAINFIELD, N. J.

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

300 GUESTS QUIET DURING HOTEL FIRE

Atlantic City Fashionable Hostelry Has Small Blaze.

BUT FEW LEAVE PREMISES

House Fire Brigade Makes Vain Effort to Extinguish Flames—Men In Full Dress and Women In Evening Gowns Joke as Firemen Fight the Flames—Loss Small, Says Proprietor.

Atlantic City, N. J., Feb. 11.—More than 300 visitors gave a demonstration of self command during a fire in the fashionable Hotel Dennis which has not been equaled in the records of the fire service here. Some were in their apartments, others had retired, many were attending a concert in the music room and others were in the billiard and shuffleboard rooms, while many loungers were talking in the wide exchange when the smoke was first seen coming from behind the elevator shaft.

Summoning the house fire brigade a vain effort was made to control the blaze, which was smoldering through a disused shaft, in which were confined thousands of small electric light wires. Quietly the thrilling word went through the hotel of the danger, and the guests quickly gathered on the two lower floors. Men were in full dress and ladies in evening gowns. But there was no undue excitement, no panic, and while they showed some concern, yet few left the premises. Every one, however, carried some small parcel of precious valuables which had been hastily gathered.

When the flood of water which extinguished the danger began to flow from the upper floors men laughed and turned up coat collars, women moved about trying to pick their way through the rivulets and held up skirts, but nowhere could there be noticed any signs of the panic which usually accompanies a fire in a hotel of the capacity of the Dennis, which houses 700 people. The firemen left the hotel after an hour's work.

Proprietor Walter Buzby said that $500 would cover the loss and that while the furniture suffered he did not believe it would aggregate a very large sum to repair and replace it.

APPOINTMENTS BY FIELDER.

Fills Some Positions—Submits Other Selections to Jersey Senate.

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 11.—The following nominations were sent to the senate by Governor Fielder:

Member of state fish and game commission, Bernard M. Shanley of Essex, vice Percival H. Christie, resigned.

New Jersey Public library commissioners, John P. Dullard of Trenton, vice William C. Kindall, deceased, and Everett T. Tomlinson, of Elizabeth, reappointed.

Members board of managers of State hospital at Morris Plains, Charles Hetzel of Essex, vice George W. Jagle, resigned.

The following personal appointments requiring no confirmation were also announced: Board of trustees of industrial education of Hoboken, Mrs. Helene Willenberg, vice Edward H. Norwood, deceased; John H. Cuntz reappointed, and William L. E. Keuffel reappointed.

Delegates to the annual conference of the national child labor committee at New Orleans: Mrs. H. T. Rutten heim, Madison; Mrs. G. W. B. Cushing, Orange, former Senator Everett Colby, West Orange; A. D. Chandler, Orange; the Rev. Hugh B. MacCauley, Paterson, and Thomas L. Masson, Glen Ridge.

BROTHER FIGHTS WILL.

Files Caveat Against Probating of Testament of Wealthy Founder.

Orange, N. J., Feb. 11.—A caveat against the probate of the will of the late William Runkle, the wealthy founder, who died here on Jan. 31, was filed in the office of Surrogate Shoenthal for Harry G. Runkle, a brother.

The paper contained no explanation of the brother's action.

It was generally believed at the time of Mr. Runkle's death that his will made large gifts to charitable institutions of the Oranges. The will is in the surrogate's office, McCarter and English, counsel for the estate, not yet having moved for its probate.

RETURN STOLEN MINT NOTES

Engraving Incomplete—Restitution as Mysterious as Theft.

Washington, Feb. 11.—The secret service division of the treasury department is investigating the mysterious disappearance and surreptitious return of 400 unfinished ten dollar notes from the bureau of engraving and printing. The notes could not possibly have been passed, the process completed by counterfeiting operations. They disappeared from the bureau three weeks ago.

Director of the Mint Joseph E. Ralph found the notes in his office. The director said certain employees of the bureau were suspected and their arrests were expected in a short time.

Weather Forecast.

Fair in north; snow in south portion today. Tomorrow fair, with increasing north to northeast winds on the coast.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

The Saving of Money by the use of Royal Baking Powder is considerable

Royal is economical, because it possesses more leavening power and goes further. Royal saves also, because it always makes fine, light, sweet food, all digestible; never wastes good flour, butter and eggs.

More important still is the saving in health. Royal Baking Powder adds anti-dyspeptic qualities to the food.

There is no baking powder so economical in practical use, no matter how little others may cost, as the Royal

"FEATHERED" CHICKENS HAVE THRIVED WELL ON GOLD DUST

Positive evidence of the fact that Randolph Marsh's backyard, located in the rear of his home on the westerly side of Plainfield avenue, midway between Third and Fourth streets, holds within its earthly grasp an undeveloped gold mine, possibly as rich as any lode in the heart of the Sierras, was established to the full satisfaction of the owner in a peculiar manner Saturday afternoon. Certain details of the great discovery have been withheld from the public to prevent an influx of seasoned prospectors from Cripple Creek and other pike's strikes but despite all attempts at secrecy on the part of speculators land values in that particular section of the city have risen to a Woolworth altitude in the last forty-eight hours. Every foot of ground that looks as if it might have a subterranean connection with the Marsh estate has been optioned by promoters and a dozen stock companies may be launched on the market at any time.

The first information of the marvelous find was revealed by Mr. Marsh himself, Saturday night. He hurried into "Mike" Devine's barber shop, on Liberty street, for his accustomed shave and while waiting his turn related the following facts with an unblushing countenance: He had killed two home-grown chickens that afternoon and in the process of drawing them for Sunday's dinner noticed a large number of glittering particles in the crops. Picking them out to the amount of nearly half an ounce he was dumbfounded to find that it was gold, but not willing to trust his vision he passed the gleaming mass to keener-sighted members of his family for inspection. They declared in unison that it surely was the stuff for which men sell their souls. The corroboration tickled him immensely, yet he believed expert opinion should be secured before he lapsed into the pipe-dream stage. He accordingly hot-footed it around the corner to the residence of a friend who had taken the Keely cure. While boarding at the White Plains institution the latter gentleman had frequently seen the bags of gold d mixed up in the anti-booze medic and he could tell the genuine st with one eye shut. Mr. Marsh, he said, had the real goods or what known to the trade as the aged the wood kind quoted at $200 a ton. Trembling with agitation the visitor thanked the connoisseur and hastening back home hurriedly erected a steel wire guard all around his property. He knew right well that his chickens had been nowhere else but in thir own yard, therefore, the gold in their crops had been picked up almost at his back door. It also must have been near the surface of the ground, he argued, as the pullets scratched it up themselves and it would be a cinch for him to rake up enough to buy the Pennsylvania railroad.

"What I have told you," he said in conclusion, "is the unalloyed truth but as I put in a hard day's work at my trade I don't propose to start developing the mine until Monday."

The effect of Mr. Marsh's story created a terrible commotion in the tonsorial parlor. A dozen men who had previously been deeply absorbed in the Police Gazette or busily discussing the local license question, made frantic leaps for the front door. Devine's apprentice boy was caught in the mad rush and when tenderly lifted from the floor a moment later was a whimpering, bleeding mass of humanity. A doctor, called in to look him over, said he could collect accident insurance for at least half a year. Meanwhile the avaricious mob disregarded life and limb as it tore through the boulevard like a lose herd of Texas steers, each individual intent only on getting somewhere near the Marsh home and staking out a claim. The hubbub following their arrival in the golden area has never been equaled since the time twenty years ago when a Plainfield avenue man strung up a young Jack Taylor by the thumbs for stealing apples from his one lone tree. This original method of punishment started a riot that lasted all one afternoon and was quelled only when the police threatened to call out the State militia.

The precious metal hunters searched all about for pay dirt with the aid of improvised lights. Nobody found any quartz but one man located two half pints that had been carefully tucked away in the corner of a fence and as it was after eleven o'clock he said they were as welcome to him as a two-pound nugget. A portion of the crowd remained on the scene all night while others went home to snatch a little sleep before returning at daylight. The quest is still on but late comers might just as well stay away as the affected region is under close guard.

This is not the first time that Mr. Marsh's backyard has come into prominence. For the past forty years it has enjoyed the distinction of being the first place in town to have potatoes planted in it each spring. Mr. Marsh never varies from the custom of starting his half-acre of spuds on St. Patrick's day and gathers a portion of the crop for his Fourth of July dinner. He said today that in the event of excavating for more gold he would positively reserve a small portion of the yard for his annual potato exploit.

REFUSED TO PAY POLL TAX, TRENTON SOCIALIST JAILED

Trenton, Feb. 11.—For refusing to pay his poll tax amounting to $2 and interest, Louis Josephson was arrested Monday by Edwin Fell, commissioner of delinquent taxes, and lodged in the Mercer county jail. The arrest was made in a large store in which Josephson is employed.

Josephson, an active Socialist is chairman of a committee chosen by his party to protest against the enforcement of the poll tax as unconstitutional, and to take steps to resist its collection. The committee has arranged for a mass meeting to be held next Sunday afternoon for the purpose of forming a permanent organization to bring about the abolition of the poll tax.

—Some store may be placing on "special sale" just now the article you have not felt like paying "regular" prices for.

METHODIST WOMEN GIVE PLEASING AFFAIR

The bi-monthly supper given in the First M. E. church, last night, under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society, was patronized by more than 200 members and friends of the church, and proved a great success. The affair was arranged by the society and a majority of the members assisted either in preparing or serving the supper, which was an excellent one. Mrs. Harry Gee was chairman of the general committee of arrangements, the members of which were those whose last names began with the letters B to J.

After the supper there was a pleasing musical entertainment in Vincent chapel. Miss Hope Irene Miller, contralto soloist of Trinity Reformed church, sang several solos and there were recitations by Miss Marion Wean. As an added attraction there was an exhibition of dumb-bell work and calisthenics.

ARCANUMITES PLAN FOR SERIES OF MEETINGS

The orators' committee of Plainfield Council, No. 711, Royal Arcanum, at a meeting at the residence of A. L. Littell, made arrangements for the entertainment of members of the council for the meetings in the early spring. On Thursday evening, February 26, there will be an initiation of six new members into the council. The grand regent of the State, Charles H. Haring, of Elizabeth, will be the principal speaker. Deputy Grand Regent Frank Arrear, of Jersey City, will also address the council and it is expected that there will be several other of the grand officers present. The will be recitations by different members, cigars will be passed and a good time is promised in general.

Thursday evening, March 12, the council will go in a body to Rahway, where they will visit Carteret Council of that place, at which time another big "class initiation" will take place similar to the one held in Westfield in December last. On Thursday evening, March 26, Plainfield Council will hold what is called a "shooting contest." For this purpose an air-gun will be used. There will be several handsome prizes for this affair and the winners will be rewarded.

ENTERTAINED CARD CLUB.

Mrs. O. P. Crane, of Westervelt avenue, entertained the card club, of which she is a member, together with the husbands of the women, at her home, last night, when "500" was the feature of the evening. At the conclusion of the play, which was spirited, honors were awarded to Mrs. John Snyder and Mrs. Peter VanFleet for the women and to Walter Walker and William N. Tuer for the men. Refreshments and a social time were enjoyed.

—It is wiser to know what a thing OUGHT TO COST before buying it; and ad-readers usually do know this.

—Merchants realize that the housewives who appreciate "special sales" are critical buyers—and that merely price-lure is not enough. The goods must be RIGHT.

IF SCOOP DON'T LOOK OUT HE WILL GET HIMSELF DISLIKED

IN THE SPORTING SPOTLIGHT

BRUNSWICK MADE A BIG CLEAN-UP

Pinning Sensationally on the Jersey Cty Alleys, Take Three Games.

HOBOKEN TOOK A PAIR

Brunswick Tribe Pushed Hard in the First But Rang Up a 1051 In the Second—Burton and Coyne Do Some Good Work.

ELKS' LEAGUE RECORD.

	W.	L.	H. S.
Newark	31	14	1046
New Brunswick	31	17	1051
Paterson	27	18	1011
Jersey City	28	20	1019
Hoboken	26	22	1032
Elizabeth	23	22	1057
New York	22	26	1008
Plainfield	20	22	1029
Rahway	15	30	950
Orange	8	40	998

New Brunswick Elk pinners took three in a row from the Jersey City Skeeters on the latter's alleys last night, in an interestingly fought series. The first ended in a tie, each team having spilt 963 pins and in the roll-off the Brunswick tribe forged ahead by a count of 105 to 85.

The second game was the feature contest of the evening, New Brunswick setting up a high water mark of 1051 and winning by ninety-one pins. Coyne and Burton set up high score marks during the evening, the former chalking up a score of 244 in the second game and the latter knocking down 233 of the wooden images in the first encounter.

The scores:

NEW BRUNSWICK.

Greenwald	177	196	168
Harkins	172	244	194
Coyne	188	244	164
Burton	233	203	171
McCormick	193	164	193
	*963	1051	890

JERSEY CITY.

Wright	200	200	193
Russell	185	201	142
Delahanty	165	188	165
Wasserman	200	212	166
Corydon	204	159	170
	*963	960	842

*Roll-off—New Brunswick, 105; Jersey City, 85.

HOBOKEN TOOK TWO.

Although the Orange pinners started off with colors flying on the Paterson alleys last night, the Silk City Elks did the come-back stunt and captured the second and third games in quick succession. Henderson, of Orange, bowled the only double century of the evening in the first game.

The scores:

ORANGE.

Doeckel	155	157	154
Kunze	148	139	132
Henderson	200	152	164
Earle	176	173	132
Oetrel	170	211	122
	849	832	704

HOBOKEN.

Eppel	164	171	134
Mittlesdorf	161	191	147
Duffy	141	164	235
Earle	132	179	180
Miller	179	188	158
	777	893	854

BIG GYM EXHIBIT.

The gymnastic team of the Springfield Training School, which appeared in the local association gym two years ago, is booked to perform in a big gym exhibit to be given under the auspices of the Newark association in the latter's gym next Saturday night.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

Queries, Comment and Answers

Sporting Editor:

Query—What is raw water? What does "popipurri" mean?—A. D. E.

Answer—We have never heard the term "raw water" used, but it probably means water that has not been put through a filtration process. "Poppipurri" is the colloquial misuse of the French term "Pot-purri," meaning a mixture or medley.—Use your imagination.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Will you please give me the value on a dime dated 1823. Also a quarter dated 1857.—W. H.

Answer—If your dime was dated 1822 it would be worth fifty cents, but the one with 1823 is worth but ten cents. Your quarter is worth twenty-five cents.

Sporting Editor:

Query—What has become of Becker, the former New York policeman who was mixed up in the Rosenthal case?—L. S.

Answer—Charles Becker, convicted in the slaying of Herman Rosenthal, is now in the Sing Sing death house awaiting the decision on an appeal for a new trial which will be handed down next Friday.

Sporting Editor:

Query—What salary does Jack Martin draw with the Boston Nationals?—N. H.

Answer—Your query is a personal one and all we can tell you is that he gets more than he did with Rochester.

Sporting Editor:

Query—Is the Commission Government League formed in this city several months ago still in existence? If so, is there any definite program of work?—S. P. T.

Answer—Haven't heard from the organization recently. Perhaps some one interested in the movement can furnish the information desired.

Sporting Editor

Query—What is a $5 silver piece dated 1815 with the turban head to the left worth?—J. G.

Answer—If in good condition the coin will bring $100.

LOCAL ENTHUSIASTS WILL WATCH KIVIAT PERFORM

A. KIVIAT.

Kiviat, winning the Hunter mile trophy in the big Metropolitan meet of last Saturday night, will be the main attraction in the annual athletic games of the New York A. C. meet in Madison Square Garden tonight. Kiviat will be a performer in the mile run and also several of the other middle distance events.

A large crowd of track and field enthusiasts from this city will attend the events at the Garden tonight, which are a set of the biggest games of the year run off in the Metropolis.

"Sportdom Tips"

THAT LEAGUE MATCH.

Feathers will fly in Saengerbund Hall tomorrow afternoon when the North Plainfield and Plainfield High School basketball teams meet in an Interscholastic League match, the result of which will have a direct bearing on the championship. While North Plainfield rules a popular favorite because of past performances the local boys, inspired by the keen sense of rivalry which always accompanies a clash with the Canadians, are looked upon as dark horses and will no doubt command respect from the rival crew. Captain Hetfield and his men used Saengerbund Hall as a camping site this afternoon with a view of familiarizing themselves with the playing floor while the bofoughites indulged in a day of rest. The players on each quintet are tuned to a breaking point to enter the fray and the best interscholastic match of the season is on the bill of fare for that occasion, taking all things into consideration.

STOP "RIOT" PLAYING.

The question of securing competent officials to referee and umpire basketball games in this vicinity is an unsolved problem that is worrying the minds of those interested in the sport. In the early days the "passing" or "open" game predominated and was popular with spectators as well. Basketball has grown in favor so rapidly that many are now playing who know nothing of this style, by which the famous Buffalo Germans won the world's championship at the Olympic Games held in St Louis during the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, a style to which the team still adheres. Many of the present day games result in riots, five individuals on each side playing the roles of "rioters" and the spectators as official abettors. This is nothing like basketball and should be called "riot ball" instead.

REVOLUTIONIZED GAME.

Many reports have been received stating that the passing game wherever used had a larger percentage of success than the "personal contact" game. The league plan last season emphasized the superiority of the "passing" game and with the prospects of a larger number of leagues being organized locally in 1914-15, accurate passing will undoubtedly supercede the present hit-or-miss style. It is best for the game, more popular with the spectators, and while still vigorous, reduces the danger of injury to a minimum.

News headline—Fractured her leg while playing football. She was evidently trying to unearth a substitute for the tango.

Daily health hint.—Shoot pool and acquire muscle.

Plainfield color in that New York A. C. meet tonight.—'Tis said that a number of local followers will view the track and field sports.

Captain Frank Blatz, of the Elks' Bowling League, is leader off of the Knights of Columbus tourney.—Blatz is one wise pinner. He rolled three games and set a high water mark and now refuses to participate with the common herd.

It's pretty nearly time for those City League magnates to come out of hibernation. Now is the time to snatch the real ball players.

OLD-TIME BASEBALL STAR DEAD.

Newark, Feb. 11.—"Jack" Farrell, who played second base for the Providence Grays when they were the baseball champions in 1884, died in a hospital at Overbrook, yesterday.

ITALIANS SAY BASEBALL IS A BRUTAL SPORT.

Rome Feb. 11.—The unfamiliarity of the Italians with baseball was demonstrated yesterday by the refusal of the authorities to permit an exhibition game between the New York team of the National League and the Chicagos of the American League without first being convinced that it is not a "brutal game."

After the points of the game were explained the authorities still insisted that a net be erected within the Stadium to protect the spectators. Even when promises were given that this precaution would be taken, permission was withheld until today noon, when a few innings were played for the benefit of the authorities, who desire to judge for themselves what manner of game the American national pastime is.

Arrangements have been made for an audience with the Pope today, but on account of the action of the civic authorities some of the players will have to forego this honor. A regular game at the Stadium is on the program for this afternoon.

'PLAINS SMEARED Y. M. C. A. QUINTET

Locals Never Had a Look-in in Rough Game on Parish House Court.

In a game in which rough-house was the dominant factor, the Scotch Plains Parish House basketball team ran away from the crippled Y. M. C. A. quintet on the 'Plains court, last night, the final score being 37 to 13. Foul tactics featured the work of both sides and the players had to be rough in consideration.

The [illegible] was the brilliant feature of the winning team's play and Dan McNamee, a midget recruit substituting on the association team, led the scoring and all around play of the losing side. He counted for 10 of his side's thirteen points, Glover getting a field goal and Peacock a foul.

The scores.

Y. M. C. A.

	G.	F.	P.
D. McNamee, f	4	2	10
J. McNamee, f	0	0	0
Peacock, c	0	1	1
Brynairski, c	0	0	0
Glover, g	1	0	2
Farmer, g	0	0	0
	5	3	13

SCOTCH PLAINS.

	G.	F.	P.
Dallas, f	1	2	4
Ricketts, f	3	1	7
Marsten, c	9	0	18
Walker, g	4	0	8
Smith, g	0	0	0
	17	3	37

Score by periods

Scotch Plains	17	20	—37
Y. M. C. A.	3	10	—13

Referees, Berse and Batterson.

MANY ENTRIES FOR INDOOR CHAMPIONSHIPS NEXT MONTH

The New York members of the A. A. U. Championship Committee who attended the Boston A. A. Games at Mechanics Hall, Boston, last Saturday evening, held a conference with Messrs. A. J. Lill president of the A. A. U., Edward B. Babb, Charles Carter, Major F. H. Briggs and Colonel George B. Billings, of the New England Association, after the games, and it was decided that the association should send all the winners in the coming New England Indoor Championships, scheduled for February 28, to New York city to compete in the Indoor Athletic Championships of America, which are to be held at Madison Square Garden on Monday evening, March 2. In all probability the following star athletes from New England will be on the team:

Harry Barwise, New England indoor and outdoor high jump champion; Fred Burns, 300 yard indoor champion of America; D. S. Caldwell, who finished fourth in the world's 800 meter championship at Stockholm, 1912; J. A. High, New England high hurdle champion; Oscar Hedlund, member Olympic team, 1912 and runner-up to Abel Kiviat in Hunter mile; J. O. Johnstone, indoor high jump champion of America; E. T. Marcean, outdoor junior mile champion; W. F. Meanix, Maine intercollegiate and New England low hurdle champion; J. C. Silva New England five and ten mile champion, and Larry Whitney, intercollegiate and American shot put champion.

The entry of Thomas J. Halpin, of the Boston A. A., the Canadian quarter-mile champion and holder of the world's record for a quarter-mile, indoors, has been already received for the 100 and 600 yard championships. Entries will close with James E. Sullivan, chairman of the championship committee, 21 Warren street, New York city, on February 21.

CLIFF RANDOLPH, WHO WILL AGAIN BE SEEN IN A PLAINFIELD PETS' UNIFORM

CLIFF RANDOLPH.

Scout Jack Martin's chore to locate a pitcher to fill a berth for Cliff Randolph in the Plainfield Pets' uniform when the 1914 season opens is already under way, Manager Ernest Darling is already signing up material for which he hopes to develop into a pitcher. Martin and Randolph's presence will be a source of considerable surprise by the fans who have expected to "hook up" with "Sunny Jim" again this year.

Two seasons ago this twirler for the Lawrence team of the New Jersey State League, and later was one of the most consistent pitchers in the circuit until he developed a weakness in his arm and he was [illegible] the middle of the season. When he was able to regaining his old time speed and cunning, Cliff laid off for a whole year and when the season opened last year he was in first class condition once more.

Twirling for Plainfield he was recognized as one of the premier twirlers in the Central New Jersey Saturday minor league circles. He was [illegible] and he was [illegible] and as a consequence [illegible] the Suburbans, of Brooklyn, once more to be seen in a Plainfield uniform when the 1914 season opens. The manager of the Suburbans offered him a contract for the remainder of the season to pitch Sunday games, but the $50 a game he was to receive on Sundays could not repaid him and he resigned from the local club. On the strength, Randolph came to Plainfield in a Sunday uniform by twirling [illegible] Leighton late last season. He mowed down both offers [illegible] that he would be [illegible] this season [illegible] was not forthcoming.

Jean offers a good assortment of [illegible] and he ought to prove a valuable man for the Plainfield team once more this season.

JOHNNY EVERS FIRED, HANK O'DAY GETS JOB

Big Surprise Sprung by Charlie Murphy Last Night at Moguls Meeting.

Like a bolt of lightning from a clear sky, and without any of the "dignity" that Tom Lynch admonished the National League Club owners to display in the future, Charles Webb Murphy, President of the Chicago Cubs, exploded a bombshell in the old organization yesterday afternoon when he announced at the annual meeting of the league at the Waldorf-Astoria that Johnny Evers, the little Trojan, had been fired as manager of the Cubs.

While Governor Tener and the other magnates were recovering from the shock, the owner of the Cubs sprang another surprise by announcing that Hank O'Day, the veteran umpire and one of the members of the National League Rules Committee, would succeed Evers as manager of the Cubs during the 1914 campaign, providing Murphy can obtain the umpire's release from Governor Tener.

HOLY CROSS LOST TO TEAM OF NEW BASKETBALL TOSSERS

A new junior basketball team called the St. Aloyious Five, trimmed the Holy Cross Boys' Club aggregation on the latter's home court last night by a score of 24 to 14. Doty and Stewart starred for Holy Cross while Seidel brothers were the mainstays for the winning side.

The scores:

ST. ALOYIOUS SODALITY

	G.	F.	P.
Laporte, f	2	1	5
McDonough, f	2	0	4
A. Seidel, c	4	1	9
W. Seidel, g	3	0	6
Pasch, g	0	0	0
	11	2	24

HOLY CROSS

	G.	F.	P.
Doty, f	2	0	4
Force, f	1	0	2
Boos, g	1	0	2
Carson, c	0	0	0
Harper, g	0	1	1
Perry, g	0	0	0
Stewart, g	1	3	5
	5	4	14

MASON GETS OFFER.

Johnny Mason, a former local ballplayer who has been doing some creditable backstopping for teams in this vicinity for some time past, is considering an offer from the Danbury Club, of the Eastern League, formerly of the New York and New Jersey League.

HOCKEY GAME OFF.

Manager Mann, of the Plainfield High School hockey team, cancelled the game scheduled to be played here this afternoon with the seven of St. Benedict's Preparatory School because of the unfavorable condition of the ice.

NEW BOOK OUT.

"Newcomb," a game for the gymnasium and playground, by Clara Gregory Baer, of the Tulane University of Louisiana, has just made its appearance in the Red Cover Series of the Spalding Athletic Handbooks.

IMPORTANT GAME TONIGHT.

The biggest game of the basketball season for the Holy Cross boys will be played tonight when the Arrow "5," of Brooklyn, plays on the local court.

HOLY CROSS GAME.

Holy Cross will play the Watchung A. C. basketball team on the borough court tomorrow night.

YOU CAN'T GET AWAY

from the fact that breakdowns will happen, no matter how high a grade of wheel you own. Unless you are exceptionally fortunate, you'll need our services as bicycle repairers par excellence sooner or later. True, you may save a mishap by letting us overhaul your machine after a long ride; but at any and all times will do the best possible for you and your wheel.

LEO ZEISEL

Bicycles, Sundries, Musical Instruments and Sporting Goods.

Temporary at 328 W. Front St. Permanent Headquarters after March 1st. 222 W. Front St., Next Door to Proctor's.

EARLY START FOR BIG COURT GAME

Plainfield and North Plainfield Will Meet in Saengerbund at 2:20 O'clock.

The second meeting of the North Plainfield and Plainfield High School basketball teams in the Interscholastic League will be staged tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The time has been arranged for the early part of the afternoon so as to afford time for dancing after the contest.

Hyman Abrams and Frank Dunning, two of the leading men on the N. P. H. S. team, are laid up at the present time and may not be able to play in tomorrow's contest. The boroughites have several good first string substitutes to draw from and will pit a good aggregation against the rival clan.

The teams will take the floor in the following order:

P. H. S.		N. P. H. S.
Snyder	Forward.	Van Mater
Hetfield	Forward.	Love
Gavett	Center.	Dunning
Rosenson	Guard.	Burner
Peacock	Guard.	Abrams

BOUND BROOK BOWLERS SMASHED DUNELLEN MARK

A team of Bound Brook All Star pinners defeated the Dunellen Baraca Class quintet in the latter's alleys last night in three straight games. Knocking down 257 pins in the second game Byer, of the winning side, broke the alley record.

The scores:

BARACA CLASS.

Braum	136	163	170
Hodge	156	153	188
Smith	132	138	109
Oakley	131	158	165
Voorhees	143	139	167
	698	751	799

BOUND BROOK.

Snyder	136	172	175
Graham	119	195	134
Jones	149	157	136
Wells	202	158	151
Byer	175	257	156
	781	939	752

FANWOOD CUBS WALLOPED SCOTCH PLAINS PLAYERS

Playing together for the first time a team under the name of the Fanwood Cubs was defeated by the Scotch Plains Parish House third team on the Parish House court yesterday afternoon.

Jesperson starred for the winner with twenty-five points. Lidgate had thirteen to his credit.

The score:

FANWOOD CUBS.

	G.	F.	P
Lidgate, f.	6	1	13
McAneny, f.	3	1	7
Beeken, c.	2	1	5
Meggy, g.	0	0	0
Van Horn, g.	0	1	1
	11	4	26

SCOTCH PLAINS.

	G.	F.	P
Howell, f.	4	0	8
Venizia, f.	7	0	14
Jesperson, c.	13	0	26
Johnston, g.	3	0	6
Southard, g.	0	0	0
	27	0	54

Score by halves:

Fanwood Cubs	40	14—54
Scotch Plains	10	16—26

Referee—Batterson.

P. H. S. SOPHOMORES TRIMMED RIVAL FRESHMAN QUINTET

The Sophomore Class of the Plainfield High School defeated the Freshman Class team yesterday afternoon by the score of 43 to 21. The first ten minutes of play were exciting, first one man scoring and then the other, but the Sophomores gradually drew away and had the game sewed up at the end of the first period. Hunter was the star of the game scoring 19 points.

The scores:

SOPHOMORES.

	G.	F.	P.
O'Leary	2	0	4
Fitch	2	0	4
H. Peacock	1	0	2
Hunter	9	1	19
Wheelan	3	0	6
Coudray	4	0	8
Crone	0	0	0
	21	1	43

FRESHMEN.

	G.	F.	P
Mutnick	3	0	6
Zeek	2	0	4
Daniels	2	2	6
Rosenthal	0	0	0
Alpaugh	2	0	4
	9	2	*21

Score by halves:

Sophomores	18	25—43
Freshmen	9	12—21

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

LOCAL POLE VAULTER IN BIG NEW YORK A. C. MEET

Sporting the track silks of the Pastime Athletic Club, of the Bronx, Ralph Runyon, the local High School athlete, is entered to compete in the pole vault event in connection with the New York Athletic Club's annual meeting in Madison Square Garden tonight.

Runyon is acknowledged to be a leader among schoolboys in this event and the members of the Gotham club expect him to cop one of the prizes in the vault at the big meet tonight. Several Plainfielders expect to accompany Runyon on his debut, including representatives of the Plainfield High School track team.

SUNDAY SCHOOL BASEBALL TEAM WILL MEET AT HOPE

The first Sunday school baseball meeting for the season of 1914 has been called by the Hope chapel team of the Sunday School League for tomorrow night and at that time the Young Men's Club of the chapel will convene for the purpose of drawing up preliminary arrangements to place a team on the playing field this summer. It is the consensus of opinion that the Hope contingent will again be represented on the Sunday school circut and the Chapelites have a wealth of good material from which they can select players this season.

Jack Martin, who is interested in Hope Chapel athletics, will attend the first meeting and offer suggestions. Although Hope Chapel is the leader-off in the organization plans it is understood that several of the other schools have laid plans to call metings which will be held in the near future.

TEN BATTERY MEN REPORT TO HIGH SCHOOL CAPTAIN

Captain Rosenson, of the Plainfield High School baseball team, boomed the opening cannon of the season in the baseball line yesterday afternoon and in response to his call a squad of ten battery men reported.

A limbering up drill was on the menu for the first day and al lstrenuous work was eliminated. Those who reported were: Pitchers, Mann, Sminck, Cottrell, Brick, Hetfield, Rosenson and Denny; catchers, Peacock, Smith, Cantor and Apgar. Present indications are that Peacock wil lbe the catcher and Sincke the leading pitcher.

WILL PLAY SUMMIT.

The local Y. M. C. A. basketball team will go to Summit, Saturday night, February 21, to play the Y. M. C. A. team of that place in what promises to be one of the hardest games of the season. The Summit team recently beat Morristown, one of the local five's conquerors.

A "WHITE HOPE."

Captain Ralph Smalley, of the North Plainfield High School baseball team, is holding daily practises with his pitchers and catchers in Saengerbund Hall and has unearthed a new twirler in the person of Sherman Chandler. He is a southpaw and looks like real varsity material.

GET COURT EMBLEMS.

Members of the N. P. H. S. junior class basketball team, Interclass League champions, have been presented with monograms for their work during the season. Those getting the awards are Day, Dawe, Fetherstone, French, Hughes and Tomkinson.

LIDGATE WILL UMPIRE.

Eugene Lidgate, the Y. M. C. A. referee, has been secured to umpire the Plainfield-North Plainfield High School Interscholastic League game on the Saengerbund Hall court tomorrow afternoon.

SURPRISE PARTY.

Mrs. Edward J. Dusel, of Walnut street, Dunellen, tendered a surprise party in honor of her husband at her home last night. Cards furnished the chief entertainment and a collation was served.

GLAZEBROOK ACCEPTS POST.

President Wilson yesterday appointed Rev. Dr. Otis A. Glazebrook of Elizabeth, to be consul at Jerusalem, Palestine. He announced last night that he would accept.

N. P. H. S. NOTES.

Miss Kathryn Britting, of Warrenville, enrolled in the freshman class yesterday.

The Camp Fire Girls will hold a luncheon in the manuel training rooms next Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

Mr. Stillman, head of the manual training department, is at present detained at his home with sickness. His classes have not been meeting this week.

—There's not a dull, nor an unimportant ad in today's paper. There's not one that may safely be overlooked by any great number of the paper's readers.

The Sale Begins at GIMBELS Tomorrow

Of the Large and Very Dependable Stocks of

BLUM BROTHERS, Inc., Philadelphia

Which were purchased from the Receivers by GIMBEL BROTHERS, New York and Philadelphia, and which aggregate

Nearly a MILLION DOLLARS at RETAIL PRICES

The business of Blum Brothers, Inc., was established in Philadelphia eleven years ago, essentially as an exclusive Apparel Store. It won a wide clientele, and later developed into a complete department store of high standing.

Last August, however, circumstances forced this business into a friendly Receivership, the Court giving the Receivers power to continue purchasing fresh stocks and keep them at their very best. The result was a store full of exceptionally fine and winsome merchandise, even up to the last day on which it was open for business.

The Receivers ended their work a week ago by selling their entire stock to GIMBELS.

The share of this stock which comes to GIMBELS, New York, is of such a desirable character that, despite the quantity, we regret that we could not get more, and we are candid in telling you that

We Have Some Wonderful Additional Purchases

In such cases, where, for reasons of clearance on the part of manufacturers, we could buy cheaper even than the Receiver-sale Prices.

Entire Sale Takes Place in The SPACIOUS TWO-FLOOR SUBWAY STORE

A fine example of our pride in this large and airy Subway Store is the arrangement to have this important Sale of high-grade merchandise take place in it exclusively. You will find wonderful selection of merchandise in every department at prices such as only an unfortunate occurrence in business could ever bring about.

Over Sixty-five Departments Will Offer Their Share of Blum Brothers Merchandise

Women's Suits
Women's Costumes
Women's Separate Skirts
Women's Wraps
Blouses and Waists
Furs
Muslin Underwear
Colored Petticoats
Wrappers and Negligees
Corsets
Infants' Wear
Women's Shoes
Children's Shoes

Jewelry Silverware
Toilet Articles Ribbons
Leather Goods Laces
Handkerchiefs
Embroideries Millinery
White Goods
Veilings Notions
Lamps Dress Forms
Women's Hosiery
Vacuum Cleaners
Stationery
Beds and Mattresses
Women's Neckwear
Misses' Suits and Wraps

Children's Dresses
Children's Wraps
Colored Dress Goods
Art Needlework
Black Dress Goods
Cotton Dress Goods
Linens Wash Goods
Muslins and Sheetings
Blankets and Bedspreads
Braids Linings
Dress Garnitures
Women's Knit Underwear
Carpets and Linoleums

Children's Knit Underwear
Domestic Rugs
Upholsteries Draperies
House Furnishings
Kid Gloves

Fabric Gloves
Baby Carriages
Sporting Goods
Children's Hosiery
Trunks Umbrellas
Silks and Velvets

Oriental Rugs

Men's Goods

Furnishings Leather Goods Underwear
Gloves Shoes Canes
Hosiery Umbrellas Clothing
Boys' Hats and Furnishings

And Here Are a Few Pointed Examples of the Fine Values

Women's $18 to $25 Evening Dresses at $11.75
Women's $80 to $100 Dresses at $45. Fifteen only Women's $90 Suits at $45. Eight only
Misses' $37.50 and $40 Suits at $24.75. Eighteen only
Women's $30 and $32.50 Suits at $15
Women's $8 to $10 Suits at $5
Women's $15 to $25 Plush and Boucle Coats at $5
Juniors' $12 to $15 Coats at $5. Forty only
Women's $10 Silk Waists at $5. Four dozen only
Women's $5 to $7 Silk and Net Waists at $2.95
Women's $1.50 to $2.50 Waists at 50c
$1 to $4 Children's Dresses at 65c and $1
Many Thousand Dollars in Fine Furs at Prices Averaging HALF.
Women's Undermuslins, Petticoats, House Dresses and Kimonos Half Price and Less
$1.75 to $3 Corsets at $1.35 $1.25 Corsets at 85c
50c Corsets at 35c
Women's $3 and $3.50 Shoes, $1.60 Pair
$23 to $45 Pullman Baby Carriages at $15 to $30

Men's $27.50 to $35 Suits and Overcoats at $14.50
Men's $18 to $25 Suits and Overcoats at $10.75
Men's $50 to $60 Fur-lined Overcoats at $24.75
Boys' $4 to $6 Suits and Overcoats at $2.65
$1.50 Crepe de Chine, $1.10 Yd.
$1.75 Crepe Meteor, $1.25 Yd.
$1 Charmeuse Messaline, 75c Yd. $2 Printed Crepes, $1
75c to $3 Dress Goods at 48c to $1.65 Yard
Wash Goods at 5c to 68c Yd.—About Half Former Prices
$12 to $30 Small Oriental Rugs at $7 to $20
$125 to $250 Room-size Ghorevan Carpets at $75 to $150
9 x 12 ft. Royal Wilton Rugs at $25 from $40
9 x 12 ft. Body Brussels Rugs, $17.50 from $28.50
9 x 12 ft. Axminster Rugs, $16.50 from $25
8 ft. 3 x 10 ft. 6 in. Axminster Rugs, $15 from $22.50
6 x 9 ft. Axminster Rugs, $10.50 from $15
1000 Damask Table Cloths, regularly $2.75 at $1.50 each
$1.25 Pure Linen Table Cloths at 85c
$2.25 Damask Table Cloths at $1.25
$4.50 to $5 Irish Point Lace Curtains at 3.25

Not a single piece of merchandise shall bear a Blum ticket unless it came from the Blum Store, not even if it came from a manufacturer or importer that has been holding goods for delivery to Blum.

GIMBEL BROTHERS

BROADWAY NEW YORK THIRTY-THIRD ST.

IN CHANCERY OF NEW JERSEY.

To MARTIN A. VOM LEHN and MRS. MARTIN A. VON LEHN.

By virtue of an order of the Court of Chancery of the State of New Jersey, made on the day of the date hereof, in a cause wherein William H. Abbott is complainant and you are defendants, you are required to appear, plead, demur or answer to the complainant's bill of complaint, on or before the sixth day of April next, or in default thereof such decree will be made against you as the Chancellor shall think equitable and just.

The said bill is filed to foreclose a mortgage heretofore given by Frank P. Mills to William H. Abbott, covering lands in the City of Plainfield, Union County, New Jersey, and you, Martin A. Vom Lehn, are made a party defendant, because you are the owner of said premises; and you, Mrs. Martin A. Vom Lehn, are made a party defendant because you claim a right of dower in said premises as wife of Martin A. Vom Lehn, the owner of said premises.

Dated February 3, 1914.

AUGUSTUS C. NASH,
Solicitor of Complainant,
9 Elm Street, Westfield,
New Jersey.

2 11 -4w

ESTATE OF LILLIE A. TYRELL, Deceased. Pursuant to the order of George T. Parrot, Surrogate of the County of Union, made on the application of the undersigned, Administrator of said deceased, notice is hereby given to the creditors of said deceased to exhibit to the subscriber under oath or affirmation their claims and demands against the estate of said deceased within nine months from the tenth day of February, 1914, or they will be forever barred from prosecuting or recovering the same against the subscriber.

CODINGTON & BLATZ, Proctors.
CHARLES A. HIGGINS, Administrator.
2 11 9-w Fees—$11.10

ASK THE MAN

for whom we have done plumbing and tinning of any description whether it wasn't an expert and scientific job. Or permit us to refer you to them, and when you want anything done in our line you will come to us. Let us give you an estimate on new or old work.

Work guaranteed satisfactorily done.

A stock of Hardware and Housefurnishing Goods unequalled in the city.

Let us serve you.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.
Two 'Phones 6—214

The Smile That Won't Come Off

is always worn by the thrifty housewife who uses a

"WHITE DAISY" WASHING MACHINE
Ball Bearings
$9.00
or a
"WHITE LILY" WASHING MACHINE
$7 50

and has her washing done before breakfast. For sale by

Gayle Hardware Co.

GENERAL HARDWARE AND HOUSEFURNISHINGS
'Phone 398 Front Street and Park Avenue

Of Interest to Women and the Home

The Housewife's Daily Economy Calendar

Frances Nursuer

Savory Dried Fish Dishes.

No woman who is interested in economy in household management can afford to overlook the various sorts of dried fish—salt codfish, salt mackerel, dried herrings and other products of the sea which in their dried condition look so hopelessly clippy and leathery that we rather dislike of using them for palatable food. Here are some statistics that come straight from the United States bureau of agriculture that show the great economy of these dried fishes as food.

In a table showing how much energy and how much protein—the muscle-building element in food—is contained in various food we find that ten cents worth of salted mackerel supplies over two-thirds the amount of energy contained in ten cents worth of round of beef, considerably more than is contained in ten cents worth of milk and almost twice as much as is contained in ten cents worth of bananas. In ten cents worth of salt codfish there is almost four times the amount of protein—muscle forming substance—that there is in ten cents worth of sirloin steak. The most striking thing about it is, too, that in ten cents worth of salt cod you get more than twice as much energy and protein as you get in fresh cod. This seems to be due to the fact that it is much less expensive to handle, ship and market dried fish than fresh. Isn't this worth noting in your efforts at household and kitchen efficiency, especially when, if properly cooked, these dried and salted fishes are among the most delicious dishes to be found?

Here are recipes for two famous dishes made from salt fish that are good enough to tempt even the most fastidious palate.

Mackerel Pie.

Mix minced onion, chopped parsley, buttered bread crumbs, thyme and the yolk of an egg. Cut mackerel in strips and put a little of the crumb mixture on each strip. Roll each strip and arrange the little rolls in a deep buttered baking dish. Pour over them half a cupful of stock. Cover with a layer of mashed potato and bake an hour.

Finnan Haddock Savory.

Dip a Finnan haddock in boiling water. Remove the skin and bones and mash the meat to a pulp in a mortar. Add pepper, salt, a tablespoonful of cream, an ounce of butter, and a teaspoonful of lemon juice. Cook and stir until thick and serve on buttered toast softened over hot water.

Here is a recipe for fish croquettes that combines the goodness of dried codfish and potatoes—two food products that admittedly supplement one another. Mix a pint of flaked fish, a pint of hot mashed potatoes, a tablespoonful of butter, a cupful of hot milk, a well beaten egg, pepper, salt and chopped parsley. Make into balls, dip in beaten egg and crumbs and fry in hot fat.

There are as many ways of serving salt fish as there are of serving fresh fish. After it has been properly freshened it can be baked, scalloped with bread crumbs and baked, made into croquettes, baked in individual ramekins, boiled and served with hollandaise sauce and cooked in many other ways.

The next time you have salt mackerel try boiling it and serving it with a well-made cream sauce.

An excellent way to add still further to the economy of dried fish is to buy them in large quantities. A ten-pound kit of the finest Norway mackerel comes for a dollar thirty, or a fifty-pound pail for $5.44—a decided reduction over the price per pound for the same quality. When you remember that dried fish, as long as it is kept in a reasonably cool place, is sure to keep in good condition there is no reason to hesitate in buying it in quantity.

(Copyright, 1914, McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

VOTES FOR WOMEN

Conducted by the Equal Suffrage League of Plainfield and North Plainfield.

Votes for Women Contemporary Comments.

In his recent, much-talked of Anti-Feminist article, Professor Sedgewick gives elaborate biological reasons as to why there are so few prominent women physicians and surgeons. It is often illuminating to measure the value of such apparently imposing scientific statements by local conditions as actually existing. For instance, here in Plainfield we have women physicians and surgeons of acknowledged standing. How many Plainfielders know that the local Medical Society refuses membership to any except "male white physicians?" It seems hardly necessary to add that this test of membership according to sex and color is fixed by a body of "male physicians"—of varying shades of "white."

From the New York Times, February 10:

Mrs. Raymond Brown, president of the New York State Suffrage Association, announced yesterday from the State headquarters, 1 West Forty-first street, that the woman suffragists are quite willing to accept a referendum of their question to the women of the country, as the anti-suffragists propose, if the latter will see that the action is made legal. This is in answer to statements just made by Mrs. Arthur Dodge, national anti-suffrage president, and John Martin, of Staten Island, reiterating statements that they and other anti-suffragists have made from time to time that the suffragists were afraid to trust their question to the women.

"Mrs. Dodge, in her statement given out from the Washington anti-suffrage headquarters this morning, reproaches the suffragists for not being willing to work for suffrage through a referendum of women," said Mrs Brown. "Mr. Martin has made the same charge repeatedly, both in writing and in his speeches. This is not fighting fair, because both Mr. Martin and Mrs. Dodge must know that they are proposing an utterly impossible measure of procedure. Under the present laws it is illegal at least in New York State. The only way to get the franchise in this State is by a constitutional amendment, approved by a majority of the voters, and women are not voters.

"To ask us to stop our educational and propaganda work and to stop working for the constitutional amendment submitting the question to the voters of the State and devote ourselves to such a chimerical and illegal method is utterly foolish. Unfortunately, woman cannot legally decide for herself any question—not even the one as to whether she shall have the ballot."

In the same issue of The Times is a letter from Everitt P. Wheeler, under the sad caption: "The Ballot's Burden," in which Mr. Wheeler writes as follows:

"Permit me to express the opinion that the American people will not place this burden upon the mothers of the race."

Of course no one can get really angry with Rip Van Winkle if after his long nap he fails to wake up to things as they are. As a matter of fact, however, the American people have already placed this "burden" (viz.: the ballot) upon the mothers likewise the grandmothers, of the race in ten of these United States. Hasn't Mr. Wheeler found this out yet? And when he has slept another twenty years, by which time the mothers in all the remaining States will have become "burdened" with the ballot, will he rouse up again to express the opinion that the things which are can never be? In spite of such opinions, "The world do move."

Another opinion, this from Louis D. Brandeis: "The change in my opinion with respect to woman suffrage is due to the result of my own experience in the various movements with which I have been connected in which we have tried to solve the social, economic, and political problems that have presented themselves from time to time. As years have passed, I have been more and more impressed with the difficulty and complexity of those problems, and also with the power of society to solve them, but I am convinced that for their solution we must look to the many, not to the few. We need all the people, women as well as men."

GRACE SAVAGE SELDEN.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

Some Cookery Suggestions

BREAKFAST CROQUETTES.

BREAKFAST MENU.
Baked Apples.
Fried Mush.
Egg Croquettes.
Fried Sausages.
Corn Gems.
Coffee.

CROQUETTES may be made with cold meat or any savory leftovers. As they may be quickly prepared and are so very appetizing they are a desirable dish for breakfast when foods should be simple, yet tempting.

Using Cold Fish.

Salmon Croquettes.—To one can of salmon, take one egg, three crackers rolled fine, two tablespoonfuls cream, two tablespoonfuls melted butter. Mix with spoon until smooth; make in pats. Fry in deep fat until brown; then drain on paper.

Codfish Croquettes.—Take two cupfuls cold boiled codfish free from skin and bone and minced fine, two cupfuls mashed potatoes, one-half cupful hot milk, one egg well beaten, pepper, salt and a little chopped parsley, one tablespoonful melted butter. Mix well, form into balls, dip in beaten egg and breadcrumbs and fry in hot lard.

Served Immediately.

Egg Croquettes.—To make these take a plate of fine breadcrumbs and an egg beaten with a tablespoonful of milk. Stir the crumbs with the egg and milk until the mixture is stiff enough to roll and shape into small cakes. The croquettes are fried in butter heated to boiling temperature. When browned they should be laid on a plate and served hot.

Chicken Croquettes.—Mix two cupfuls of cold chicken, chopped, with a half teaspoonful of salt, one teaspoonful of lemon juice, one quarter teaspoonful of onion juice, one teaspoonful of chopped parsley and one cupful of white sauce. Add a tiny shake of cayenne pepper if desired. Shape these, rub in egg and crumbs and fry in deep fat.

Anna Thompson.

Daddy's Bedtime Story

Harry's Composition For Washington's Birthday Celebration.

Putting His Head on His Arms, He Cried.

"HARRY was a very clever little boy. He could recite better than any other boy in the school, and he always got very high marks in his lessons," daddy said to Jack and Evelyn. "All the other boys greatly envied Harry, for he didn't have to study as hard as they did. He was naturally so bright that nothing was any effort for him. His reciting was the best of all.

"The school Harry went to was to give an entertainment on George Washington's birthday. All sorts of plans and preparations were made for it. There were to be songs, recitations and a little play.

"One of the teachers thought it would be a good plan, though, to have something quite original. So several weeks before the entertainment was to take place the teacher of the class Harry belonged to said:

"'Now, I want every little boy and girl in this class to write an original composition on patriotism. To be patriotic one must be loyal to one's country, and I am sure you all want to be that. The pupil who writes the best composition will be given the honor of reciting it at the school entertainment.'

"The compositions were all written by a certain day. Three teachers were to look them over to decide who was the winner. Sure enough, as had really been the thought of every one, Harry won. He was told to learn his composition to recite at the entertainment. Strangely enough, he did not seem so pleased with his success as the teachers and his fellow pupils supposed he would surely be.

"The day before the entertainment at which, of course, all the mothers and daddies of the children were to be present, a rehearsal of everything was to take place. It was Harry's turn to recite his composition. As he got up on the platform his legs were shaking, and every one saw how nervous she was.

"He began, then he faltered, and then he broke down and sobbed. Harry, the hero of the school, was crying. Could it be true? The pupils looked at him with pity. What could be the trouble? they asked themselves.

"'Teacher,' he finally said between his choking sobs, 'I didn't write that composition. I cheated. I copied it out of an old book I found. I'm not worthy to recite on Washington's birthday.'

"And then he rushed from the platform down to his seat, and, putting his head in his hands, he cried and cried.

"'You've done a thing worthy of George Washington's birthday, Harry,' said the teacher. 'You've confessed. You're not able to act a lie, and because you are truthful and you have proved you cannot act a lie you will still recite the composition, giving the name of its real writer.'"

VAIL
JEWELER and OPTICIAN.
236 Park Avenue
OPPOSITE NORTH AVENUE.

SEVEN KEYS TO BALDPATE

BY EARL DERR BIGGERS

Copyright, 1913, by the Bobbs-Merrill Company

CHAPTER XIII.

The Quest of the Hermit.

"I DON'T know how to begin," muttered the novelist, whose puppets' speeches had always been so apt. "Last night you sent me on a sort of quest for the golden fleece. I didn't know who had been fleeced or what the idea was. But I fared forth, as they say. I got it for you"—

The eyes of the girl glowed happily. She was beaming.

"I'm so glad," she said. "But why—why didn't you give it to me last night? It would have meant so much if you had."

"That," replied Mr. Magee, "is what I'm coming to—very reluctantly. Did you note any spirit of caution in the fellow who set forth on your quest and dropped over the balcony rail? You did not. I waited on the porch and saw Max tap the safe. I saw him and Cargan come out. I waited for them. Just as I was about to jump on them somebody—the man with the seventh key, I guess—did it for me. There was a scuffle. I joined it. I emerged with the package everybody seems so interested in."

"Yes," said the girl breathlessly. "And then"—

"I started to bring it to you," went on Magee, glancing over his shoulder at Max. "I was all aglow with romance and battle and all that sort of thing. I pictured the thrill of handing you the thing you had asked. I ran upstairs. At the head of the stairs—I saw her."

The light died in her eyes. Reproach entered there.

"Yes," continued Magee, "your knight errant lost his nerve. He ceased to run on schedule. She, too, asked me for that package of money."

"And you gave it to her," said the girl scornfully.

"Oh, no," answered Magee quickly. "Not so bad as that. I simply sat down on the steps and thought. I got [illegible] cautious. I decided to wait until today. I—I did wait."

He paused. The girl strode on, looking straight ahead.

"I know," he said, "what you think. I'm a fine specimen of a man to send on a hunt like that—a weakkneed mollycoddle who passes into a state of coma at the crucial moment. But—I'm going to give you that package yet."

The girl turned her head. Mr. Magee saw that her eyes were misty with tears.

"You're playing with me," she said brokenly. "I might have known. And I trusted you. You're in the game with the others—and I thought you weren't. I staked my whole chance of success on you. Now you're making sport of me. You never intended to give me that money. You don't intend to now."

"On my word," cried Magee, "I do intend to give it to you—the minute we get back to the inn! I have it safe in my room."

"Give it to her," said the girl bitterly. "Why don't you give it to her?"

Oh, the perversity of women!

"It's you I want to give it to," replied Magee warmly. "I don't know what was the matter with me last night. I was a fool. You don't believe in me, I know"— Her face was cold and expressionless.

"And I wanted to believe in you—so much," she said.

"Why did you want to?" cried Magee. "Why?"

She plodded on through the snow.

"You must believe," he pleaded. "I don't know what all this is about—on my word of honor. But I want to give you that money, and I will—the minute we get back to the inn. Will you believe then? Will you?"

"I hate you," said the girl simply.

She should not have said that. As far back as he could remember such opposition had stirred Mr. Magee to wild deeds. He opened his mouth, and words flowed forth. What were the words?

"I love you! I love you! Ever since that moment in the station I have loved you! I love you!"

Faintly he heard himself saying it over and over. By the gods, he was proposing—inanely, in words of one syllable, as the butcher's boy might have told his love to the second kitchen maid.

"I love you," he continued. Idiot!

Often Mr. Magee had thought of the moment when he would tell his love to a woman. It was a moment of dim lights, music perhaps in the distance, two souls caught up in the magic of the moonlit night—a pretty graceful speech from him, a sweet gracious surrender from the girl. And this—instead.

"I love you." In heaven's name, was he never going to stop saying it? "I want you to believe."

Good lord! He recalled that a fellow novelist, whose love scenes were regarded as models by young people suffering the tender passion, had once confessed that he proposed to his wife on a street car and was accepted just as the conductor handed him his transfers.

The girl deliberately stopped. There was never less of sweet gracious surrender in a suffragette hurling a stone through a shopkeeper's window. She eyed Mr. Magee pityingly, and they stood until Mr. Max caught up with them.

"So that's the hermit's shack," said Max, indicating the little wooden hut at which they had arrived. "A funny

"Why didn't you give it to me last night?"

place for a guy to bury himself. I should think he'd get to longing for the white lights and the table d'hotes with red wine."

"A very unromantic speech," reproved the girl. "You should be deeply thrilled at the thought of penetrating the secrets of the hermitage. I am. Are you, Mr. Magee?"

She smiled up at Magee, and he was in that state where he thought that in the blue depths of her eyes he saw the sunny slopes of the islands of the blest.

"I—" he caught himself in time. "He would not be idiot enough to babble it again. He pulled himself together. "I'm going to make you believe in me," he said, with a touch of his old jauntiness.

Mr. Max was knocking with characteristic loudness at the hermit's door.

The door of the hermit's abode opened before Mr. Max's masterful knock, and the bearded little man appeared on the threshold. He was clad in a purple dressing gown that suggested some woman had picked it. Surely no man could have fallen victim to that riot of color.

"Come in," said the hermit in a tone so colorless it called added attention to the gown. "Miss, you have the chair. You'll have to be contented with that soap box davenport, gentlemen. Well?"

He stood facing them in the middle of his hermitage.

"We have come to plead"— began Miss Norton, turning her eyes at their full candle power on the hermit's bearded face.

"I beg pardon, miss," interrupted Mr. Peters, "but it ain't any use. I've thought it all out—in the night watches, as the poet says. I came up here to be alone. I can't be a hermit and a cook too. I can't and be true to myself. No, you'll have to accept my resignation, to take effect at once."

He sat down on an uncertain chair and regarded them sorrowfully. His long, well shaped fingers clutched the cord of the purple gown.

"It isn't as though we were asking you to give up the hermit business for good," argued Magee. "It's just for a short time—maybe only for a few days. I should think you would welcome the diversion."

Mr. Peters shook his head vigorously. The brown curls waved flippantly about his shoulders.

"My instincts," he replied, "are away from the crowd. I explained that to you when we first met, Mr. Magee."

"Any man," commented Mr. Max, "ought to be able to strangle his instincts for a good salary, payable in advance."

"You come here," said the hermit with annoyance, "and you bring with you the sentiments of the outside world—the world I have foresworn. Don't do it. I ask you."

"I don't get you," reflected Mr. Max. "No, pal. I don't quite grab this hermit game. It ain't human nature, I say. Way up here miles from the little brass rail and the sporting extra and other things that make life worth living. It's beyond me."

"I'm not asking your approval," replied the hermit. "All I ask is to be let alone."

"Let me speak," said Miss Norton. "Mr. Peters and I have been friends, you might say, for three years. It was three years ago my awed eyes first fell upon Lim, selling his postcards at the inn. He was to me then the true romance, the man to whom the world means nothing without a certain woman at his side. That is what he has meant to all the girls who came to Baldpate. He isn't going to shatter my ideal of him—he isn't going to refuse a lady in distress. You will come for just a little while, won't you, Mr. Peters?"

But Peters shook his head again.

"I dislike women as a sex," he said, "but I've always been gentle and easy with isolated examples of 'em. It ain't my style to turn 'em down. But this is asking too much. I'm sorry, but I got to be true to my oath—I got to be a hermit."

"Maybe," sneered Mr. Max, "he's got good reason for being a hermit. Maybe there's brass buttons and blue uniforms mixed up in it."

"You come from the great world of suspicion," answered the hermit, turning reproving eyes upon him. "Your talk is natural. It goes with the life you lead. But it isn't true."

"And Mr. Max is the last who should insinuate," rebuked Mr. Magee. "Why, only last night he denounced suspicion and bemoaned the fact that there is so much of it in the world."

"Well he might," replied the hermit. "Suspicion is the keynote of modern life, especially in New York." He drew the purple dressing gown closer about his plump form. "I remember the last time I was in the big town! seeing a crowd of men in the grill room of the Hoffman House. One of them, long, lean, like an eel, stooped down and whispered in the ear of a little fellow with a diamond horseshoe decorating his haberdashery and pointing to another man near by. 'No, I won't,' says the man with the diamonds. 'I don't introduce nobody to nobody. Let every man play his own game, I say.' That's New York. That's the essence of the town. 'I introduce nobody to nobody.'"

"It seems odd," remarked Mr. Magee, "to hear you speak of the time you walked on pavements."

"I haven't always been on Baldpate mountain," replied the hermit. "Once I, too, paid taxes and wore a derby hat and sat in barbers' chairs. Yes, I sat in 'em in many towns, in many corners of this little round globe. But that's all over now."

The three visitors gazed at Mr. Peters with a new interest.

"New York," said Mr. Max softly, as a better man might have spoken the name of the girl he loved. "It's a great little Christmas tree. The candles are always burning, and the tinsel presents always look good to me."

The hermit's eyes strayed far away down the mountain and beyond.

"New York," said he; and his tone was that in which Max had said the words, "a great little Christmas tree it is, with fine presents for the reaching. Sometimes at night here I see it as it was four years ago. I see the candles lit on the great white way. I hear the elevated roar and the newsboys shout and 'Diamond Jim' Brady applauding at a musical comedy's first night. New York!"

Mr. Max rose pompously and pointed a yellow finger at the hermit of Baldpate mountain.

"I got you!" he cried in triumph. "I'm wise! You want to go back."

A half hearted smile crossed the visible portion of the hermit's face.

"I guess I'm about the poorest liar in the world," he said. "I never got away with but one lie in my life and that was only for a little while. It was a masterpiece while it lasted too. But it was my only hit as a liar. Usually I fail, as I have failed now. I lied when I said I couldn't cook for you because I had to be true to my hermit's oath. That isn't the reason, I'm afraid."

"Afraid?" echoed Mr. Magee.

"Scared," said Mr. Peters, "of temptation. Your seventh son of a seventh son friend here has read my palm O. K. I want to go back. Not in the summer, when the inn blazes like Broadway every evening, and I can sit here and listen to the latest comic opera tunes come drifting up from the casino and go down and mingle with the muslin brigade any time I want and see the sympathetic look in their eyes as they buy my postals. It ain't then I want to go back. It's when fall comes and the trees on the mountain are bare and Quimby locks up the inn and there's only the wind and me on the mountain—then I get the fever. I haven't the postcard trade to think of—so I think of Ellen and New York. She's—my wife. New York—it's my town.

"That's why I can't come among you to cook. It'd be leading me into temptation greater than I could stand. I'd hear your talk and like as not when you went away I'd shave off this beard and burn the manuscript of 'Woman' and go down into the marts of trade. Last night I walked the floor till 2. I can't stand such temptation."

Mr. Peters' auditors regarded him in silence. He rose and moved toward the kitchen door.

"Now you understand how it is," he said. "Perhaps you will go and leave me to my baking."

"One minute," objected Mr. Magee. "You spoke of one lie—your masterpiece. We must hear about that."

"It was like this," he began. "Five years ago I worked for a fruit company, and business sent me sliding along the edges of strange seas and picture book lands. I met little brown men and listened to the soft swish of the banana growing and had an orchestra seat at a revolution or two. Don't look for a magazine story about overthrown tyrants or anything like that. It's just a quiet little lie I'm speaking of, told on a quiet little afternoon by the sands of a sea as blue as Baldpate inn must have been this morning when I didn't show up with breakfast.

"Sitting on those yellow sands the afternoon I speak of, wearing carpet slippers made for me by loving, so to speak, hands, I saw Alexander McMann come along. He was tall and straight and young and free, and I envied him, for even in those days my figure would never have done in a clothing advertisement owing to the heritage of too many table d'hotes about the middle. Well, McMann sat at my side, and little by little, with the sea washing sadlike near by, I got from him the story of his exile and why.

"I don't need to tell you it was woman had sent him off for the equator. This one's name was Marie, I think, and she worked at a lunch counter in Kansas City. From the young man's bill of fare description of her I gathered that she had cheeks like peaches and cream, but a heart like a lunch counter doughnut, which is hard.

"'She cast you off?' I asked.

"'She threw me down,' said he."

(to be continued)

EDUCATIONAL.

SECRETARIAL
ELEMENTARY, REGULAR AND SPECIAL COURSES
At
HERR'S SCHOOL
(Plainfield Business College and School of English)
"One of the most complete EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS in the State of New Jersey, devoted to BUSINESS EDUCATION."
All inquiries promptly attended to.
Call, 'Phone or Write
PROFESSOR A. S. Herr, Principal.
Woodhull & Martin Bldg., Plainfield, N. J.
m-w-f

Sweater Sale Still on

Those heavy Sweaters, were $6.00, now $4.75

Fancy Vests, neat patterns; were $3.50; now $2.50

Mocha Jersey Lined Gloves; were $1.75; now $1.50

Underwear to please all men; prices right.

J. R. Blair
119 PARK AVE.
The Home of Fine Neckwear.

HORTON'S
Charlotte Russe
Fresh Twice Daily
325 W. FRONT ST.
Between Madison and Central Aves.
m-w-f tf

L. Morailer & Son
WATCHMAKERS and JEWELERS
WATCHES.
CLOCKS and JEWELRY
Fine Watch and Clock Repairing a Specialty.
219 Park Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

TRUSSES
NEW FITTING ROOM
Elastic Hosiery, Supporters, Braces, KNEE CAPS, ANKLETS, Etc.
William M. Walsh
North and Watchung Avenues.
Plainfield, N. J. 'Phone 1964.
OPP. DEPOT.

O. A. R. GARAGE
915-917 South Avenue.
Carbon removed by Oxygen method—$3 for 4 cylinder, $4 for 6 cylinder.
Sole agents for Symplex Gas Savers—positively gives more power, speed and uses 25 to 50% saving.
GUARANTEED REPAIRS

HORSES CLIPPED
By Charles C. Brower,
PLAINFIELD CAB CO.,
130-134 E. Second St. 'Phone 10.
11 6 6mos

HODGE'S PHARMACY
Y. M. C. A. BUILDING.
BELLE MEAD SWEETS.
Telephone 62.

B. KIVATINOS
(Successor to Kivatinos & Jelling)
Fancy Fruits, Choice Confectionery, Nuts, Cigars, etc. We make a specialty of Olive Oil.
211 W. FRONT ST. Tel. 886-W

OLIVE OIL

Gallon can $2.65

Half Gallon can $1.40

Quart can 75c

20 oz. bottle 65c

DIRECT FROM FRANCE

NEUMAN BROS.

GROCERS

Watchung Ave. and Fifth St. Telephone 760

Efficient and Rapid Delivery Service to All Parts of the City

Mono Storage

WAREHOUSE

North Avenue

OPP. FREIGHT HOUSE

125 East Front Street

HAND'S EXPRESS CO.

OLD RELIABLE

STORAGE

All Rooms Separate, Light and Dry

Furniture Packed and Shipped

Office 69 Somerset St 'Phone 541

MURRAY'S STORAGE WAREROOMS

THE OLDEST IN THE CITY.

AT 326 TO 332 WEST FRONT ST.

Near Grove St.; all the rooms are separate, airy and dry; large and small, at very moderate prices. Many years' experience in buying, selling, handling, packing and appraising goods.

Auction Rooms at 326 West Front Street.

R. Murray, Auctioneer, 326 West Front St. Phone 666

AUCTIONEERS.

The Leading

Auctioneers

W. A. SCHORB & CO.

Also Dealers in Second Hand Furniture—Bought and Sold.

120 Madison Av., Jackson Blg

Telephone 1707-W.

HENRY J. SIEBERT & CO.

1147 East Jersey St.,

ELIZABETH, N. J.

(Opp. Proctor's Theatre).

We specialize:

AWNINGS

WINDOW SHADES

CURTAIN MATERIALS

BRASS GOODS, etc.

Large assortment.

Low prices.

'Phone Elizabeth 852.

ORGANIZED 1864

THE

FIRST NATIONAL BANK

OF PLAINFIELD.

A COMMERCIAL BANK WITH SAVINGS and SAFE DEPOSIT DEPARTMENTS.

FOUR PER CENT. INTEREST PAID ON SAVINGS ACCOUNTS.

PAINTERS AND DECORATORS.

JUST RECEIVED 8,000 ROLLS OF THIS YEAR'S

WALL PAPER

At special prices, selling at 8 and 10 cents per roll. This is an opportunity to secure up-to-date wallpaper at a big saving.

Woolston & Buckle

Painters and Decorators.

145 NORTH AVENUE.

Now is the Time

To paint your house—in the cool of the year, when the paint dries slowly, and consequently lasts longest. No hot sun to cause blisters. And the house painted now is preserved against the ravages of winter storms.

Distributor of John W. Masury & Son's pure colors, ready mixed paint, varnishes, glass, etc.

JAMES C. HANSEN

Tel. 346.

ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS AT PLAINFIELD POSTOFFICE.

February 1, 1913.

NEW YORK MAILS. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 8:40, 11:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:00, 5:30, 8:30 p. m., 12 midnight. Close—6:30, 8:00, 9:00, 10:45 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50, 7:45, 9:00 p. m.

SOMERVILLE AND EASTON. Arrive—8:40, 10:00 a. m., 12:30, 3:15 and 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00 a. m., 1:30, 4:30 p. m.

PHILADELPHIA—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:00, 9:40, 11:45 a. m., 12:30, 2:30, 7:00 p. m. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00, 9:00 p. m.

THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR EAST Close—12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:50 p. m.

DIRECT THROUGH FAST MAIL FOR WEST. Close—6:30, 11:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00 and 9:00 p. m.

DIRECT SOUTHERN MAILS. Close 6:30 a. m., 1:30, 7:00 and 9:00 p. m.

PENNSYLVANIA. West of Easton Close—6:30 a. m., 1:30, 5:00, 7:00 p. m.

ELIZABETH—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:40 a. m., 1:30, 2:00, 5:30 p. m. Close—8:00, 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

NEWARK—Direct. Arrive—5:30, 8:45 a. m., 1:30, 2:30, 5:30 p. m. Close—6:30, 8:00, 9:00 a. m., 12 noon, 2:00, 3:50, 5:30, 5:50, 9:00 p. m.

WATCHUNG. Arrive—1:00, 6:45 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m., 2:30 p. m.

WARRENVILLE. Arrive—1:00 p. m. Close—9:00 a. m.

SUNDAY MAILS. Office open from 9:30 to 10:30 a. m.

Mail closes at 6:15 p. m.

W. H. BIRD, P. M.

Dr. Robert W. Rogers

OSTEOPATH

720 Watchung Ave. Tel. 1936-W.

Office hours: 8 to 9 a. m., 7 to 8 p. m.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY PLANS ANNUAL MEETING

Officers are to be elected for the ensuing year by the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of the Crescent Avenue Presbyterian church at its annual meeting, to be held on Tuesday afternoon, March 9. The members of the nominating committee are Mrs. W. A. Holliday, chairman, and Mrs. Frank Conlin. It is believed that the present officers of the organization will be placed in nomination and all re-elected, because of their excellent work this year.

The officers are. President, Mrs. Edward G. Read; vice presidents, Mrs. John S. Zelie, Mrs. John Gray Foster, Mrs. I. W. Cochran; secretary, Mrs. William H. Murray; treasurer, Mrs. William E. Hoyt; secretary of literature, Mrs. Isaac N. Field; superintendent of collections, Mrs. A. V. D. Honeyman.

Standing committees of the society and their members are: Entertainment, Mrs. Daniel F. Ginna, Mrs. Howard McWilliams, Miss Margaret P. Mead, Miss Eva G. Brown, Miss Elsie C. Martin; music, Mrs. Stephen H. Voorhees, Miss Edith Mellick, Mrs. William C. Kinney; correspondence, Mrs. Charles Butler, Mrs. Samuel Milliken, Mrs. Charles L. Wilson, Mrs. W. A. Holliday. Meetings of the society are held on the second Tuesday of each month, at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. There is usually a large attendance. The March meeting will be in charge of Mrs. J. G. Foster.

YESTERDAY'S LOCAL WEATHER.

8 a. m. temperature	22
8 p. m. temperature	31
Maximum temperature	36
Minimum temperature	16
Mean temperature	26
Normal temperature	28
Precipitation	0.01

—Advertise in the Daily Press

YOUR DULL HEADACHES

Probably come from overstrained eye-sight. Nine-tenths of the headaches are the direct result of eye trouble. Bring those troubles to us and let us prescribe for you.

All work guaranteed.

STILES & CO

Philadelphia Eye Specialists

AT 107 EAST FRONT ST.

EVERY THURSDAY.

Free Consultation.

Hours 10 to 4:30.

NEW JERSEY CENTRAL

TRAINS LEAVE PLAINFIELD.

For New York—2.10, 3.41, 5.08, 5.40, 5.52, 6.27, 6.55, 7.22, 7.26, 7.41, 7.44, 7.55, 7.58, 8.12, 8.30, 8.36, 8.42, 8.59, 9.29, 9.55, 10.26, 11.27, 11.52 a. m.; 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.25, 2.39, 2.55, 3.12, 3.48, 4.13, 4.36, 5.29, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.27, 9.30, 10.16, 10.36, 11.43 p. m. Sunday—2.10, 3.41, 5.40, 7.22, 7.58, 8.22, 9.34, 9.40, 10.37, 11.52 a. m., 12.39, 2.58, 4.28, 5.09, 6.23, 6.55, 8.17, 9.29, 10.34, 11.57, 7.14, 8.13, 8.27, 8.35, 9.27, 10.28, 10.36 p. m.

For Newark—5.08, 6.27, (7.05 through train to Newark), 7.41, 8.36, 9.29, 10.26, 11.27 a. m., 12.34, 12.58, 1.44, 2.39, 2.55, 4.13, 4.36, 5.29, 6.25, 6.47, 7.41, 8.27, 9.30, 10.36 p. m. Sunday—7.22, 8.52, 9.34, 10.37 a. m., 12.29, 12.58, 1.28, 2.09, 2.55, 3.17, 4.23, 5.34, 7.14, 8.13, 9.35, 9.27, 10.36 p. m.

For Easton, Bethlehem, Allentown and Mauch Chunk—5.18, *8.06, 9.44, 11.27 a. m.; 2.00, 5.24, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk), (6.59 to Easton) p. m. Sunday—5.19, (9.44 to Allentown), 10.32 a. m., 1.58, (5.44 Allentown and Mauch Chunk) 7.05 p. m.

For Wilkesbarre and Scranton—5.18, 9.44 a. m., 5.44 p. m. Sunday—5.19, 10.32 a. m., 5.44 p. m.

For Red Bank, Long Branch and Asbury Park, etc.—3.41, 8.12, 11.27 a. m. (12.34, (12.58 Red Bank only), (3.12 Red Bank only), 4.36, 6.25, 8.27, 11.43 p. m. Sundays—3.41, 8.52 a. m., (2.09 Red Bank only), 5.17, 8.35 p. m.

For Atlantic City—3.41, 9.29 a. m. (12.34 Saturdays only), 3.12. Sunday—9.40 a. m., 1.28 p. m.

For Philadelphia—6.38, 7.39, 8.45, 10.42, 11.53 a. m., 12.42, 1.54, 2.45, 5.13, 6.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.48 p. m., 1.20 a. m. Sunday—8.45, 9.39, 9.57, 10.39, 10.43, 11.41 a. m., 12.42, 1.44, 2.45, 3.42, 4.39, 4.56, 5.39, 6.39, 8.44, 8.47, 9.46, 10.55, 11.54 p. m., 1.20 a. m.

For Baltimore and Washington. Daily—8.45, 10.42 a. m., 12.42, 2.45, 6.44 p. m.

*Except Mauch Chunk. 12 21 tf

Your Appearance Counts

Have you ever realized how well you are received when your appearance is favorable? Men, send your Suit and have it cleaned and pressed. Ladies, your tea gowns, woolen dresses, opera cloaks, plain or fancy waists, and indeed anything worth cleaning.

I guarantee my work and assure you that my method will tend to renew the fabric, brighten the colors and raise the nap, thereby restoring the garment to the freshness of new clothing.

A. ROTGUN

432 Watchung Ave. 'Phone 1976-W.

Nine years with G. O. Keller.

LOHRMAN'S Chocolate Shop

161 EAST FRONT STREET.

High Grade Chocolates, Candies, Ice Cream and Sodas. Mottoes, Favors and Ice Cream Forms for all occasions. Orders taken for Frozen Puddings, Glaces, Mousses, Etc.

RITZ Inc.

BABCOCK BUILDING

CANDIES, ICE CREAM

DAINTY LUNCH

Classified Advertisements---Copy Received Until 1:30 P. M. Daily

One cent a word for first insertion, one-half a cent a word for each subsequent insertion of the same advertisement for less than one month. Fifty cents a line for one month. Double Charge for Capitals. No advertisement received for less than 10 cents. No Display or black face type used in this column.

The Plainfield Daily Press cannot give information regarding advertisements for which answers are to be sent care of the Press. Persons replying to office addresses must mail or leave written answers as stated in advertisement.

REMEMBER

We carry the largest and finest stock of plants and cut flowers in the city. Floral design work by expert designers. Plant or flowers delivered to any city of the United States. Store, 159 East Front street; Tel. 928; greenhouses, 1126 South avenue. 40,000 feet of glass.

STANLEY

159 E. Front St. Tel. 928.

Woodhull & Martin Building.

Greenhouses, South Ave., Tel. 331-J

T. A. MOORE

UNDERTAKER

612 E Sixth St.

Tel. 741-R

Established 1872.

P. CASEY & SON,

UNDERTAKERS AND EMBALMERS

Office, 116 Park Avenue. Tel. 884-W. Res. 417 W. 3d St., Tel. 584-W. Office open day and night. N. Y. office 10 E. 22d St. Tel. 2094-Gramercy.

A. M. RUNYON & SON,

UNDERTAKERS

402 Park Avenue. Telephone No. 40. Office open day and night. Office of Hillside Cemetery. New York office—50 Great Jones St. Tel. call 5345-Spring. New York Embalmers License—1220. New York Registered Licensed Undertaker No. 515.

JAS. J. CHAS. A.

J. J. & C. A. HIGGINS

FUNERAL PARLORS

109 W. Fourth St. Tel. 1753-J.

Our Booklet Entitled A Modern Mortuary Establishment Sent Upon Request.

L. L. MANNING & SON,

STEAM GRANITE WORKS

Corner Central Ave. and West Front St. Opposite First Baptist Church.

HELP WANTED—FEMALE.

WANTED — Chambermaid and waitress; white; references required. Call 441 West Eighth street. 2 11 tf

GIRL for general housework; references required. 1121 East Seventh street. 2 11 2

WANTED—Young girl to assist with housework, with reference. 437 East Seventh street; 'Phone 290-W. 2 11 tf

A CHRISTIAN lady can make from 9 to 15 dollars per week. Address K., General Delivery, Plainfield. 2 11 2

WANTED—Young lady to learn bookkeeping; must be quick at figures and good penman. Queen City Laundry, 303 Filmore avenue. 2 10 2

FOR SALE OR TO LET.

FOR SALE OR RENT—Premises 323 East Front street, southwest corner Westervelt avenue; lot 45x100; house containing all improvements; also, premises 418 East Second street; house with all improvements; good sized lot. State Trust Co. 2 7 3

FOR SALE OR TO LET—Two new seven room houses; all improvements; garage, sleeping porch, decorated to suit tenant or buyer. Call or 'phone after 7 p. m., 839 Osborne avenue. Netherwood, telephone 894-M. 1 28 tf

SITUATIONS WANTED—MALE.

HOUSEWORK, 25c an hour, wanted by handy colored man. 317 Liberty street. 10 28 tf

MARRIED man (white), sober and industrious; handy with tools; can drive and care for auto, and make himself generally useful; city references. Address White, care Press. 2 10 3

REAL ESTATE AGENTS.

REAL ESTATE for sale, rent and exchange. Insurance in strong companies at lowest rate; money loaned on real estate. Thickstun & Emmons, 197 North avenue. tf

ROOMS AND BOARD.

TO LET—Attractive rooms, with board. Mrs. L. R. Williams, 137 Crescent avenue. 2 24 tf

HELP WANTED—MALE.

CARPENTER would like to get job work. 633 South Second street. 2 10 3

SITUATIONS WANTED—FEMALE.

EXPERIENCED colored waitress will serve luncheon, dinner, parties, at short notice. 'Phone 835-W. 2 9 21

LITTLE TALKS BY THE WANT AD MAN

Copyright, 1913, The Int. Syndicate, Baltimore.

No. 58.

OVER in the Eastern section of town, let us say, there is a man who has a gas engine for sale. Away out in the Western district there is a man who needs just that kind of an engine. If the man over East knew about the man out toward the West, he wouldn't lose any time in telling him about the article he wants to sell.

But the man over East doesn't know the man out at the other end of town. And the man at the other end, not being a mind reader, doesn't know that there is a man over Eastward with a gas engine for sale.

Now, how can these two men get into touch with each other? I know, and so do you: Through a little Want Ad. in the "For Sale" column.

Perhaps these two men—the man who wants to sell and the man who wants to buy—rubbed elbows somewhere within the past few days without knowing it. But that didn't help either one of them in the matter of that gas engine, did it?

The man with the engine would like to get into touch with the man who wants an engine. He could do it in the "For Sale" column at a cost of forty or fifty cents—perhaps less than that.

Mr. Man Over East, you can get a profitable introduction to Mr. Man Toward The West in the "For Sale" column.

The Want-Ad Man

(All rights reserved, 1913, by Jerome P. Fleishman.)

REAL ESTATE FOR SALE.

FARM FOR SALE—20 acres, midway between two depots on outskirts of Plainfield, N. J.; good seven room house, chicken house, artesian well, 550 feet frontage on county road, well travelled. Apply Edward C. Hardingham, 152 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 2 5 7

FOR SALE—Good house, for colored people; 6 room house, part improvements; right in town. See Mr. Vanderhoef, at Woodhull & Martin Co. 6 26 tf

MAKE THE RENT BUY THE HOUSE. Bargain, in fine section, seven rooms, square reception hall, bath, hot water heat large plot, near trolley; small cash payment and monthly rental makes you landlord, instead of tenant. It pays to investigate. Address Chickens, care Press. 2 11 4

FOR SALE—To close "French Estate," Somerset street carriage factory, stores, and tenemen; houses and stable in rear; lot 100x200 ft.; alley at side and in rear; bargain, terms arranged. Apply, Elston M. French, executor, 171 North avenue, Plainfield, N. J. 12 19 tf

EMPLOYMENT AGENCIES.

MURRAY'S Employment Registry office, reliable help only; all nationalities, faithful service commands good situations and our fees are very reasonable; courteous treatment to all. 326 West Front street, near Grove. Phone 666. 11 26 tf

HANSEN'S Employment Agency, 128 Watchung avenue, corner Second street. Excellent positions furnished to reliable help of all nationalities. Telephone 2559. 2 5 1mo

MRS. KELLER'S Employment Agency, 22 Somerset place; all nationalities; 'Phone 1724. 2 2 tf

AUTOMOBILES FOR SALE.

FIRST $50 takes 1908 Ford runabout, running order; good tires. Ask to see Mr. Rowe's car, Service Garage, or call Hotel Kensington.

FOR SALE.

PRIZE-WINNING Buff Orpington cockerels for sale. Apply 516 Park avenue. 2 10 3

FOR SALE—Six room house, bath, hot water heat; fruit, large lot and room to build another house; half cash. Owner, 1020 East Front St. 2 10 3

FOR SALE—Large oak roller top office desk; reasonable. Inquire No. 226 East Front street. 2 11 2

ROYAL TYPEWRITERS — The best built standard typewriter in the world for only $75. Write or call for a demonstration. Plainfield Office Supply Co., Local Agents, P. O. Box 701. 'Phone 921-W. 1 25 1mo

FOR SALE—Manure, soil. Sam Redd, 923 West Third street. 2 3 1m

FOR SALE—Finest quality pure butter from thoroughbred Jersey cows; weekly orders desired for five pounds or more; cash business only. Address X. X. X., care of Daily Press. 2 11 3

FOR SALE—All kinds fine gloves for ladies, men and boys, at wholesale and retail; large variety of deer skin gloves for auto, driving and working; best canvas, 10c; per dozen, $1.00; kid gloves, slightly damaged, half price. H. Texier, 58 Somerset street. 12 31 tf

MONEY TO LOAN.

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. J. T. Vail. 8 20 tf

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Mulford, opposite depot. 12 28 tf

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Lewis A. Clement lawyer, Babcock building. 2 9 6

MONEY to loan on first mortgage. Charles L. Moffett, attorney, Woodhull & Martin building. 2 6 1mo

MONEY TO LOAN on bond and mortgage. Manning, 183 North avenue. 10 14 tf

FOR RENT.

FLAT to let, five rooms, all improvements. 538 West Fifth street, or enquire 432 Watchung avenue. 11 11 tf

4 AND 5 room apartment to let on Webster place, near Seventh street, with improvements. Call 770 Woodland avenue. Tel. 1687-W. 10 28 tf

FIVE-ROOM apartment, all modern improvements; central location. Inquire P. C. Thomsen, 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

FOR RENT—Six room house and bath. Inquire 147 East Fifth street. 11 28 tf

TO RENT—Flat, 6 rooms and bath; all improvements; $25.50. Inquire 334 East Fifth street. 2 4 12

FOR RENT—No. 407 Central avenue, 10 rooms and bath, improvements; hot water heat. Inquire of owner, No. 403 Central avenue. 2 10 6

TO LET—Four rooms, East Seventh street, near Berckman street. Inquire 306 East Front street. 11 22 tf

TO LET—Five rooms, improvements. 423 John street. 2 7 1mo

STORE TO LET from April 1st, 325 West Front street. Apply 413 West Front street. 2 11 3

FOR RENT—No. 45 Prospect place, near Washington avenue, 10 rooms, reception hall and bath; all improvements. Apply to J. V. E. Vanderhoef at Woodhull & Martin Co. 12 1 tf

TO LET—At eleven dollars, to respectable colored families, 4-room houses, with improvements. Inquire 1318 West Front street. 2 2 1m

TO LET—Store, 304 West Front street, price $75 a month, including heat and water; also apartments, from $20 to $30. Apply afternoons to William M. Stillman, 212 West Front street. 2 4 tf w-s

TO LET—House, six rooms and bath. 409 Liberty street. Tel. 450-W. 12 8 tf

TO LET—New four room apartments; improvements; 1361 and 1351 South Second street; $10.50 per month. John Herrman, 369 Somerset street; 'Phone 2512-W. 1 23 1mo

HOUSE to rent; eight rooms, all improvements; small garage. Inquire 222 Madison avenue. 1 16 1mo

TO RENT—Large room for one or two ladies; private family; breakfast if desired. 20, The New Madison. 2 10 3

SIX ROOM house to let; all modern improvements; rent reasonable. W. R. VanDerveer, superintendent 231 East Second street, Cor. Church. 1 17 tf

TO RENT—April 1st, a modern dairy and poultry farm of 72 acres on Valley road; 10-room modern house, with furnace; rent $480 per year. Address Mountain Farms, care of Press. 2 9 7

FOUR-ROOM flat to let, part improvements, $10. 203 Grant avenue. 11 21 tf

FOR RENT—Store, centre of town, rent reasonable; also two large light lofts. Apply Elston M. French, 171 North avenue. 11 6 tf

HOUSES $12 to $50; flats, $14 to $30; stores $7 upwards. D. McInness, West Third street, Tel. 1198-W. 6 30 tf

MOVING PICTURE OR STEREOPTICON SHEET FOR RENT; big enough for the largest hall. Apply Daily Press office. tf

MISCELLANEOUS.

WANTED—Enough second hand lumber to build shed 14x20x8. 'Phone 1624-J. 2 10 2

WANTED—Second hand lumber, suitable for building barn or small barn; must be cheap. Care S. S., Press. 2 10 2

WANTED—To borrow, an old fashioned crane, to use in play for benefit of Pine Mountain Association. Address Crane, care Press. 2 10 2

TAXIDERMIST—Birds and animals stuffed and mounted. T. W. Sisty, Wayside Park; 'Phone 1299-J, Dunellen, N. J. 11 14 3mos

EMBROIDERY, INITIALS, ETC.—Orders taken for all kinds of embroidery and initials; first class work; prices reasonable. Mrs. C. S. Groot, 768 Woodland avenue, near Putnam avenue; telephone 1687-M. 1 15 1mo

INSURANCE, ALL BRANCHES; AGENT FOR NATIONAL SURETY CO. J. T. VAIL. 9 2 tf

Acts in any Trust Capacity

Resources $5,000,000.00

THE INCOME TAX

has emphasized the burden of property. It has laid an extra weight on those whose time and thought were already heavily taxed.

YOU MAY AVOID

much of the care and responsibility of your property by appointing this Company as your Custodian and allowing us to hold your securities in our vault, cut your coupons and fill out the income tax certificates to be attached thereto, collect your interest and render you periodically a statement of your income. Our Officers will be glad to talk with you on this subject.

THE PLAINFIELD TRUST COMPANY

He who serves his master well
Need not be afraid to ask his wages.

It takes skill and brains to produce printing that's worth while.

We strive continually to render superior printing service at a reasonable price.

We develop character in our printing--making it conspicuously distinctive in comparison with the usual hackneyed productions.

Each day's work proves our ability to make good with a service that denotes complete and accurate knowledge of our profession and an intelligent interpretation of your needs.

THE SERVICE SHOP

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
Job Printing Department
105 North Avenue

AMUSEMENTS.

Lyric Theatre

202 WEST FRONT STREET.
Daylight Motion Pictures.
Changed Every Day.
Admission, Mat., 5c; Evening, 10c.
11 to 11 w-th-f-s

J. L. BROWER

STATIONERY, BOOKS and MAGAZINES
311 PARK AVENUE

Valentines and Booklets from E. P. Dutton & Co.
Have you read?
The Initials
On the Branch
The Heart of Life

TELEPHONE 1012.

J. HIMMELFARB

Ladies' Tailor, Dressmaker and Furrier.
NOS. 309-311 NEW ST., BETWEEN 3RD AND 4TH STS., TEL. 903-W.

Particular pains exercised in the making of a garment, the fitting of the same and attending properly to the little details that mean so much in the finished garment—thus satisfactions follows.

Expert workmanship and Perfect Fit Guaranteed.

I will appreciate a call and will be pleased to show styles and samples of work. Prices reasonable.

THE COFFEE YOU'LL LIKE.

People who try our Mocha and Java Coffee order it again because they like its Quality and Flavor—the taste is inviting and pleasant to the palate.
We also sell Select Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables.

W. W. Dunn
THE PARK GROCER
Duer Street and Lincoln Place

3% paid on checking accounts of $500.00 or more. Out of town items collected at par. New York checking privileges.

4% paid on Special Department accounts of $5.00 or more subject to liberal Savings Bank rules. Out of town savings accounts collected without charge.

Acts as Administrator, Executor, Guardian and Trustee; the fees are the same as those allowed an individual.

Modern Safe Deposit and Storage Vaults. Boxes for rent $5.00 and upwards. Values in bulk stored for from 50s cents per month.

Real Estate Department acts as agent and broker. Unusual services for the usual commission.

SERVICE

THE STATE TRUST COMPANY

Capital $100,000.00

EVERYBODY ON THE RUN TO

Van Arsdale's Step-Lively Sale

Coming in autos and coming a-foot—coming in families—and coming in throngs. Everybody talking about the "STEP-LIVELY" SALE and its rich "DOLLAR HARVEST!" Such good shoes never sold at such quick-stepping, hurry-out, purchase-tempting prices, "STEP-LIVELY" and get here tomorrow.

The specials at $2.98 and $2.48 contain some of the best bargain we ever put out.

A lot of Children's and Misses' Shoes, sizes 6 to 2, at.....98c

If you need shoes for your children it will pay you to buy several pairs.

STORE CLOSES TOMORROW AT NOON.

Van Arsdale's 127 E. FRONT ST.

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting.
Steam and Hot Water Heating.
Contractor for Sewer Connections
125 WATCHUNG AVE.

FLOORS

HARDWOOD AND PARQUET.
Old Floors Refinished.
S. E. WARD & CO.
714 Webster Place, Plainfield, N. J.
Telephone 1305-R.

Leland Manning

MASON AND BUILDER.
Jobbing a specialty. Estimates cheerfully given. Telephone 347-J.
1120 Myrtle Ave. Plainfield, N. J.

Hoagland's Express

FINE FURNITURE.
MOVING
Office, 116 West Second St.
Telephone 882-W

S. Scheuer & Company

High Grade Groceries at Lowest Prices

A Good No. 6 Broom, each.....25c | National Biscuit Company's Uneeda Biscuits, pkg.....4c

Scheuer's XXXX Minnesota Patent Flour 24½ lb bag 72c, per barrel $5.64

Borden's Magnolia Condensed Milk 3 cans 29c	Refined Granulated Sugar 10-lb cotton bag 47c	Evaporated Milk Peerless Brand 3 tall cans 25c	California Asparagus Empress Brand large spears, can 17c	Imported Sardines Boneless, Packed in Olive Oil, 25c kind 19c
Crisco, Used Where You Would Use Butter or Lard, a can 22c	Breakfast Cocoa Gold Medal Brand ½-lb box 15c	Curtice Bros. Assorted Jams large bottle 15c	Old Dutch Cleanser Chases Dirt 3 cans 25c	Fancy Queen Olives 20c kind, a bottle 15c
Grand Ma's Borax Soap Powder 4-lb package 12c	Robertson Scotch Orange Marmalade 1-lb jar 15c	Franco-American Readymaid Soups assorted kinds, can 8c	Richardson & Robbin's Chicken Broth or Tomato Soup, pt. cans 10c	Irish Oatmeal Imported, 5-lb can 53c; 2-lb can 23c
Large Cans of Fancy Beets can 9c	Fancy No. 3 Tomatoes large can a can 8c	California Bartlett Pears, No. 3 can 2 cans 25c	Fancy Dark Buckwheat Honey 1-lb Comb 16c	Choice Pink Salmon, 1-lb can 3 for 25c
Swift's Borax Soap 10 cakes 37c	Babbitt's Laundry Soap 10 cakes 39c	Sugar Wafers Very Choice, a package 8c	Sweet Apple Cider a gallon 23c	Imported French Peas 2 cans 25c

OLIVE OIL.

Bertrand Freres Brand French Oil:

Pint tins, 40c; quart tins	79c
Two-quart tin, $1.50; gallon tin	$2.85
Italian Oil, 1 quart tin	70c
Two quart tin, $1.35; gallon tin	$2.50

CALIFORNIA FRUITS, LARGE CANS. HUNT BROS.

Lemon Cling Peaches, can	23c
California Bartlett Pears, can	23c
Royal Anne Cherries, can	23c
Fancy Apricots, can	23c
Hawaiian Pineapple, can	23c
San Bernado Peaches, can	19c
Fancy Raspberries, can	15c

PEAS AND BEANS.

Whole Green Peas, lb	6c
Yellow Split Peas, lb	6c
Green Split Peas, lb	6c
Red Kidney Beans, lb	8c
Best Marrow Beans, lb	8c
Best Pea Beans, lb	6c
California Limas, lb	8c

10 S&H STAMPS WITH

Royal Dental Cream	10c
1 Box Ball Blue	10c
1 Box Royal Talcum Powder	10c
1 Box Royal Tooth Paste	10c
1 Package Macaroni	10c
1 Bottle Lemon or Vanilla	15c
1 Can Black Jack Stove Polish	10c
1 Can Liquid Enameline	10c
1 Package Parlor Matches	12c
Large Bottle Ammonia	10c
7-lb bag Salt	10c
1 Bottle Shoe Polish	10c

EXTRA STAMPS WITH TEAS.

125 Stamps with 1 lb Tea	70c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Tea	60c
80 Stamps with 1 lb Tea	50c
50 Stamps with 1 lb Tea	40c
40 Stamps with 1 lb Tea	35c
100 Stamps with 1 lb Baking Powder	45c

EXTRA STAMPS WITH COFFEES.

10 Stamps with 1 lb Santos	25c
15 Stamps with 1 lb Maracaibo	27c
20 Stamps with 1 lb Premium Java	27c
20 Stamps with 1 lb Java	29c
25 Stamps with 1 lb Java & Mocha	32c
30 Stamps with 1 lb Java & Mocha	35c

COAL DEALERS.

TenEyck & Harris

Dealers in
LEHIGH VALLEY COAL.
Office, Rowleys' Drug Store, 218 West Front St. Tel. 2081-J-2.

Kindling and Grate Wood.
Prompt deliveries. Orders received at
39 SOMERSET STREET.
JOHN MOBUS.
P. O. Box 320. Telephone 10-F-49

TenEyck & Kelley

COAL
741 South Ave. Tel. 1155

N. MEYERS & SONS

COAL
COKE AND WOOD
Office tel. 1152-W. 121 Watchung Av
Yard tel. 1911-W.
Fourth and Washington Streets.

HOTELS.

HOTEL WALDORF

HENRY WINDHAM, Prop.
EAST FRONT STREET.
Gottfried Krueger's Extra Beer on draught. Imported Wines, Liquor and Cigars. Hotel accommodation and private Dining Room.

HOTEL SOMERSET

Newly Painted and Papered throughout. Table Board and Rooms by Day or Week.
Piel Bros. and Kruger's Beer on draught.
W. G. FEASTER, Proprietor.
17 Somerset Street. Tel. 991

WEINMAN'S CAFE

GENERAL NEWS TICKER.
Stock quotations.
Up to the Minute.
'PHONE 1327.

ADVERTISEMENTS

—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES.

AMUSEMENTS AMUSEMENTS

PROCTOR'S Tomorrow

THE THRILL OF THRILLS!

"THE GREAT LEAP"

—OR—

"UNTIL DEATH DO US PART"

A Tremendously Gripping Story of Kentucky Feud Life.

Most Sensational Feat Ever Seen in Motion Pictures

Awe Inspiring

The Acme of Film Creation

A Marvelous Production

Soul Stirring

Just One of the Many Big Moments
In This Four Thousand Feet of Excitement.
"PLAYING FOR A FORTUNE."
"FOR THE LOVE OF A MAN."
"DOCTYAK, MOVING PICTURE ARTIST."
OTHER BIG FEATURES.
AND SPLENDID ORCHESTRAL ACCOMPANIMENT.
PHOTO-PLAYS DIFFERENT DAILY.

PLAINFIELD THEATRE

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 14, MATINEE AND NIGHT

GEORGE SIDNEY in BUSY IZZY

With the Inimitable Camedienne CARRIE WEBBER
And a Cast of 50 People.
PRICES—Matinee—25c, 50c. Evening—25c, 50c, 75c, $1.00

TRY A PRESS WANT AD

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISEMENTS WILL BE FOUND HEREAFTER ON THE PAGE BEFORE THE LAST.

PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS

THE WEATHER.

Snow and not so cold tonight and Friday; increasing northeast winds. Max., 31; Min., zero.

Established May 10, 1887. TEN PAGES. PLAINFIELD, NEW JERSEY, THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 12, 1914. TEN PAGES. Two Cents a Copy, $5 a Year.

WANT OFFICIALS TO TAKE ACTION

Property-owners Complain of Allege Nuisance Maintained by Albert Rajotte.

SEEK REIMBURSEMENT

Municipal, County and State Officials Aid is Sought to Prevent Further Dredging of What is Called Public Thoroughfare.

With reference to the alleged general nuisance Albert Rajotte is maintaining near Jefferson avenue, Dunellen, William B. Lundie, of Weehawken, representing the petitioners in the complaint, has notified the governing bodies of Plainfield, North Plainfield and Dunellen, requesting that they take such steps as will grant an effectual abatement of all matters complained of that come under their jurisdiction, such as digging out on public rights of way, which are used by the public and some made impassable by the digging thereon.

Mr. Lundie further states in his communication that "as Soper's and also that of the Central New Jersey Land Improvement Company have been duly filed at the county seats, both Somerville and New Brunswick, this constitutes a virtual dedication of the roads to the public and are under your jurisdiction, as well as the county and township boundary lines which have been obliterated. We respectfully request that this Green brook be put into its original natural course as formerly or into one stream as it was formerly and the rights of way with adjoining land be filled in so as there will be proper drainage. Besides the act passed by the Legislature in 1883 on drainage matters, etc., there are many other points of the law covering these matters.

"We protest vigorously against the digging or dredging out on any further property in this vicinity, causing such outrageous conditions and must look for reimbursement for all damages done to our property in this vicinity by permitting these operations to go on contrary to our protests. If necessary, in case this draining and filling is not done, we insist that any party or parties be enjoined from further digging.

"As stated before we want the Boards of Freeholders, Councils or Township Committees, Health and Mosquito Exterminator Commissions to co-operate with us and each handle the respective matters that came under their jurisdiction. We wish to assure you this is a very serious matter."

Mr. Lundie has notified the authorities that he will be at the bridge on Jefferson avenue and Green brook or at Frank Marianchek's house, which is the dividing line of Somerset, Union and Middlesex counties Saturday afternoon from 2 to 5 o'clock, for the purpose of going over these grounds with the officials. A similar inspection was made last Saturday by freeholders, members of health boards, the mosquito commission and State Board of Health.

DR. T. S. DAVIS IS RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT

Members of the Board of Health met last night for the purpose of organization, at the office, 104 East Front street. The officers elected, the same as last year, are Dr. T. S. Davis, president; Dr. H. D. Corbusier, secretary; S. H. Voorhees, treasurer. N. J. Randolph Chandler is the health officer and Miss Harriet O. Mattison, the assistant health officer and registrar of vital statistics. No other business was transacted at the meeting. The next regular meeting of the board will be held in March.

KURTZMAN RENEWS LEASE.

Charles Kurtzman, the furrier, who has been located on East Front street for the past six years, has taken a lease on his present store, 178 East Front street, in the Pittis building, for another term of years. During the years that he has been here Mr. Kurtzman has developed by a steady attention to the wants of his patrons, the largest and only exclusive permanent fur business in the city. He will continue to handle the best lines of goods, and do repairing work, having had a wide experience in the latter line.

JAMES T. JONES TO SPEAK.

James T. Jones, of Nyack, N. Y., will speak at the Christian and Missionary Alliance meeting at the German Reformed church, tomorrow afternoon and evening, 3:30 and 7:45 o'clock. Mr. Young, of Nyack, is also expected to be present.

—The event looked forward to by thrifty shoppers is now going on at M. Abrams' shoe store. See adv. in this issue.—Adv. 2 12 2 ***

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

ALFRED ALUMNI HOLD REUNION BANQUET

John B. Cottrell, of This City, Is Chosen President for the Coming Year.

The annual dinner of the Alfred University Alumni Association, of New York, of which there are many Plainfield members, was held at the Fifth Avenue restaurant, New York city, last night, and was largely attended. Features of the evening were the singing of Alfred University songs, and the display of pictures of graduates, scenes at Alfred by the Bal-Optician. These pictures afforded much amusement, especially those of graduates taken during college days.

Fred C. White, the retiring president, was the toastmaster, and the guests of honor and speakers were Assemblyman Hamilton Fish, of New York; Supreme Court Justice Edward W. Hatch, of New York; Ira A. Place, vice president of the New York Central; Boothe Colwell Davis, president of Alfred University; Rev. Arthur D. Hilton, of Moorestown; Dr. Daniel Lewis, former health commissioner of New York. The soloists of the evening were Mrs. Arthur Whyland, of Chicago, and Oliver Amadueci, of the New York University.

John B. Cottrell, of this city, was elected president for the coming year and Dr. H. W. Prentice, of New York, secretary-treasurer. The Plainfield guests at the dinner were the following: Dr. and Mrs. Marcus L. Clawson, George M. Clarke, John B. Cottrell, Miss Celia Cottrell, Mrs. Roland Davis, Miss Rosalie Kling, Mrs. Nathan E. Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. Henry M. Maxson, Miss Ruth Maxson, Mr. and Mrs. Asa F. Randolph, Mr. and Mrs. Orra S. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Titsworth, Ferdinand Titsworth, Rollin Williams and Reba White.

HEALTH OF CHILDREN SUBJECT OF LECTURE

Dr. A. F. VanHorn Addresses Parent-Teacher Ass'n of Jefferson-Irving Schools.

The health of children and how to care for it during school years was the subject of an interesting talk given by Dr. A. F. Van Horn at the regular meeting of the Irving-Jefferson Parent-Teacher Association held at the Irving School, yesterday afternoon, following a short business meeting of the association. Dr. VanHorn said that many people looked upon the medical inspector as a necessary evil when he was really there for the good of the children.

The speaker divided his talk into first, the care of the mouth, the gateway of the body; how the first teeth needed attention as well as the second and the necessity of the use of the tooth brush from the beginning, second, the right things to eat, and the right way to eat them; not to bolt food down. Children should never be allowed to go to school without their breakfast and that chewing gum and candy were two of the worst things invented for children; third, clothing, one should dress according to the weather and not the season; not to dress too warmly indoors, but to put on heavier things when going out; fourth, hours of study, that no child should come home from school and sit right down to study. Two hours, at least, of fresh air and exercise are necessary.

"Children in the kindergarten and up to the fourth and fifth grades should be in bed by 8:30," said Dr. Van Horn, "and should sleep in a well ventilated room." The care of the eyes, ears and throat were then referred to and notices sent home in regard to these, the speaker said, should be carefully looked into. He also spoke of the necessity of adenoids and enlarged tonsils having immediate attention. In closing Dr. VanHorn spoke of the contagious disease prevalent among children, such as scarlet fever, diphtheria, measles and mumps and the symptoms by which they are known. At the close of the dddress, refreshments were served. There were about two hundred members and friends of the association present to enjoy the meeting and talk by Dr. VanHorn.

CONFIRMATION CLASS TO MEET.

Rev. C. H. Mallery, rector of Heavenly Rest church, will meet the confirmation candidates for organization at the church on Sunday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock. Bishop Scarborough will visit the parish on April 15 to confirm the candidates.

ADDRESS ON "CHINA."

The special feature of the meeting of the Men's Association of the Church of the Heavenly Rest tonight will be an address on "China During the Siege of Peking," by Burnett Brodziak.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

OLD WORLD SCENE AT COSTUME BALL

Brilliant Affair Given at Park Club by Entertainment Committee.

PORTRAY FAIRY PICTURE

Characters in History, Knights and Ladies of the Olden Time Mingle in the Maze of Merry Dancers—The Patronesses.

Characters in history, knights and ladies of the olden times; Watteau shepherdesses, men and women in Scotch Tartan plaids, swashbuckling English guardsmen, Russian and Cossack officers with their furred helmets and dolmans, dainty woodland sprites, duchesses, prime ministers and dukes of the realm of fancy, all these and a host of others were to be seen last night at the costume ball given at the Park Club, under the auspices of the entertainment committee.

It was a fairy picture, a well-created illusion of some royal reception and dance in one of the smaller principalities of Europe. One sensed the foreign atmosphere of the assemblage as one entered the hall and gazed, with curious eyes, at the maze of dancers, their costumes, befrilled and bedizened, sparkling with jewels and bizarre ornaments, showing a riot of color, dazzling to the beholder for the time. The shifting scene glowed prismatically in its sudden and kaleidoscopic changes as the whirling dancers swirled and dipped in graceful genuflections in the sheer abandon of the dance, poetic in their movements.

All in all, as one of the members said, last night, as he watched with admiring eyes the brilliant scene, sparkling and scintillant with its wealth of color, the few conventional black dress coats lending just the slightest touch of sombreness to the dazzling picture, it was one of the most successful as well as probably the most recherche affairs that has ever been given at the Park Club, famous as that well known organization is for its social functions.

Plainfield men as well as the women guests outdid themselves, so to speak, in dressing and garbing themselves for participation in last night's costume ball.

Tall and slim West Pointers, brave in trousers of white duck and brass-buttoned dress uniforms of cadet gray, glittering with golden chevrons, danced with betrousered Turkish beauties, gray-haired dowagers, coiffured and gowned in the style of the sixteenth century stepped the measures of the dance with young English aristocrats, of perfect bearing and deportment, lacking not even the vacuous expression or the monocle of their English prototypes. Soldiers and marines of the United States Navy, National Guardsmen of New Jersey, Admirals and Captains of this and other world powers vied with each other for the favor of fair dancers.

The dancing floor was smoothe and shining, the music soft, languorous and bewitching to the dancers feet. High overhead, and forming a glowing background to the ballroom American flags were hung and draped. The ceiling was veiled with countless strings of flags of all nations while palms and other greenery added to the beauty of the ball-room scene.

Fully 200 guests enjoyed the hospitality of the club. Safe to say that every person there enjoyed the dance, differing as it did from most of the usual affairs that the club members have given heretofore.

The chairman of the entertainment committee, Mrs. Wilbur H. Rogers, was congratulated last night by a host of members for the success of the dance and for the elaborateness of the decorations of the clubhouse for the festive occasion.

Patronesses of the costume ball were Mrs. Charles H. Lyman, Mrs. Alson M. Abbott, Mrs. William Barlow, Mrs. H. H. Pond, Mrs. H. H. Robinson, Mrs. E. B. Schoonmaker and Mrs. Augustus Van Deventer. The music was furnished by Muller's orchestra, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

CHIMNEY FIRE.

A chimney fire, in the building occupied by Burke & Timbo as a lunch room on North avenue, was discovered at 7:30 o'clock last night and City Judge William DeMeza sent in a call from box No. 13. Sparks were flying in a threatening way from the burning chimney and for a time it looked as though the adjacent buildings would be set on fire. The blaze was extinguished with little or no damage resulting.

SLIGHT BLAZE.

A still alarm was sent into the borough fire headquarters at noon today from 5 Rockview avenue, where a chimney fire was in progress. The blaze was extinguished with little or no damage resulting.

—M. Abrams' semi-annual clearing sale of fall and winter shoes and rubber goods is now on. See adv. in this issue.—Adv. 2 12 2 ***

SUIT AGAINST BORO THREATENED

Condition of West End Avenue Stirs Several Property Owners to Action.

COUNCIL FAILS TO ACT

Proposed Litigation Planned to Embarrass Administration, It Is Said—Another View of Judge Runyon's Appointment as Counsel.

Suit against the municipality of North Plainfield, because of the closing of West End avenue, necessitated by its impassability for vehicular traffic, has been threatened by former Councilman William L. Smalley and Timothy F. Harrington, of the borough. Both gentlemen have handsome homes at the end of West End avenue and Greenbrook road. Intimation that they would act on behalf of themselves and neighbors was made recently to Alexander Milne, the chairman of the committee on streets. He in turn notified Mayor Robert Clark, Jr., of the intended and impending litigation. Counsel has already been engaged.

West End avenue has been closed for about two weeks. Its closing was brought about after three automobiles and a milk wagon had been, with the greatest difficulty, hauled out of the mud into which the vehicles had sunk to their hubs, by Mr. Smalley and his neighbor, Mr. Harrington. Horses and mules were used to extricate the mired vehicles. One of the owners of the rescued quartet was the brother-in-law of Chairman Milne, of the street committee. The avenue was thereafter closed by Street Commissioner Uhrhahn. It has remained closed ever since although it was declared today by residents of that locality, no attempt had as yet been made to place the thoroughfare in proper repair or condition. No report as to the deplorable condition of West End avenue, nor of the fact that it had been closed for repairs, was made by Chairman Milne, of the street committee, at the meeting of the Borough Council held last Friday night.

Persons who travel a great deal through West End avenue have long experienced difficulty on that thoroughfare, particularly automobilists. The avenue has never been macadamized. The street surface is usually in a softened condition, which makes passage by vehicles of all kinds hazardous. The avenue was "filled in" since the new bridge was built. Through the enclosing of the large sewer pipe in the bridge wall the avenue was raised to a height of about five feet. It was therefore necessary to fill in in order to bring the street up to the proper grade. The borough authorities declared today that they were only awaiting the coming of good weather to improve, repair and macadamize West End avenue. It was said that macadamizing last fall was impracticable on account of weather conditions, or the improvement would have been made at that time.

Provided the borough authorities will agree to make repairs to the avenue as soon as practicable, and will put that thoroughfare in first class condition it was said today, that Mr. Smalley and Mr. Harrington will consent not to bring about the proposed litigation. Such an agreement, it is said, is offered now by Mr. Milne as a solution of the existing difficulty. Mayor Clark, when asked about the impending suit by taxpayers declined to discuss the matter, when seen today by a reporter for the Daily Press.

There are those in North Plainfield who profess, it is said, to believe that the threatened litigation against the borough government is an attempt to embarrass the administration of Mayor Clark. That is another story. Friends of the Mayor called attention to the fact that the Smalley-Milne faction in the Borough Council had more or less consistently opposed the improvements and certain policies of the administration suggested and fathered by the present head of the borough government.

In support of their contention they declared the opposition which developed at the January meeting of the Council to the appointment of Judge Isaac P. Runyon as counsel was a case in point. Mayor Clark suggested Judge Runyon's appointment to the post but by a vote of 4 to 2 the proposition was defeated. Later, certain of the councilmen said they had labored under a misunderstanding when they had voted negatively. At the February meeting the name of Judge Runyan was again advanced by Mayor Clark and on motion of Councilman Edmund Rushmore the appointment was confirmed. The vote was 4 to 1 in favor. Councilman Milne voted against the confirmation and Councilman Boyer was absent.

Mayor Clark is said to have been long desirous of having counsel in the borough. Certain matters, it is said, are at times taken up by the Council and disposed of not only too summarily, but said to be illegally

(Continued on page 5.)

AIM TO SIMPLIFY WORK OF COURT

Indetermediate Sentence Law Will Be Amended to Remove Difficulties.

FAVORED BY JUDGES

Corrective Legislation Needed, It Is Believed, to Secure Discharge of Prisoners Who Have Served Minimum Terms of Imprisonment.

Both City Judge William G. DeMeza, of this city, and Recorder Frederick Hand, of the borough, are heartily in favor of the bill which is to be introduced in the State Legislature within a few days to amend the present indeterminate sentence law. The measure, if passed, will, it is said, simplify and reduce the work of the members of the New Jersey Court of Pardons. It will have the full approval of members of that court and of judges and prosecutors generally throughout the State, it is believed.

"I think such a measure would be an excellent thing," said City Judge DeMeza today, when asked for his views upon the subject by a reporter for the Daily Press. "There seems to be good reason to feel that there is need of corrective legislation along the lines suggested by the proposed measure. It is only fair that a man who has been sentenced under the indeterminate sentence law should be liberated on parole provided his conduct has been exemplary, after the expiration of his minimum term." Recorder Hand declared he favored such a bill as is proposed.

The Court of Pardons now operates, it is said, under a cumbersome system. Corrective legislation was suggested during the last session of the Court of Pardons when several days' time was consumed in the examination of various cases which should have been in such condition as to permit of their being taken up and disposed of almost immediately. Of some 300 cases that came before the court for disposition, on appeals for clemency, one-third are said to have been those of prisoners who had been sentenced under the indeterminate sentence law. They had served their minimum sentence, it is said and were therefore eligible to be freed upon parole, where their conduct since their confinement had been good. Under those conditions their discharge should only, it is said, have been a matter of form.

Instead, however, the condition which confronted them and the Court of Pardons was that because an act, passed last year, took from the board of prison inspectors the right to grant paroles under any circumstances, which was an opinion given by the attorney general in the matter, it became necessary for the Court of Pardons to investigate and consider each of 98 cases as if the prisoners had not served their terms and were entitled to parole, but were merely seeking State clemency for one reason or another before the expiration of their terms. In other words, the act of last year made intervention by the Court of Pardons necessary before the release of any prisoner on parole could be given.

Under suggestions of the judges amendments to the indeterminate sentence law have been prepared which will, if passed, remedy the difficulty. In these amendments, it is proposed to change section two in the act in only one particular. At the suggestion of many judges and county prosecutors, the minimum sentence of one-half of the maximum will be changed to two-thirds, as it is considered that the minimum sentence of five years for manslaughter is not adequate, though that is the extreme limit under the present law. Section six of the law will be changed so as to provide that the principal keeper of prison, instead of the board of prison inspectors, shall have the power to establish, with the consent of the governor and the approval of the attorney general, needful rules for the purpose of the act. Section seven will be so amended as to provide a simple method by which the keeper may present to every term of the Court of Pardons a list of all prisoners entitled to parole under the indeterminate sentence law, up to and including the next suceeding term of the court. Such a list, it is pointed out, could be examined and passed upon within half an hour, instead of the five to ten days required for the same purpose under the existing method. Sections eight and nine will be briefly amended in such a manner as to make the act as a whole meet the changes made in the other sections.

FOR BENEFIT OF EXCHANGE.

Under the auspices of the Plainfield Exchange for Woman's Work, motion picture entertainments will be given at the Y. M. C. A., this afternoon and evening. There will be two performances this afternoon, and one this evening. The pictures for the entertainment will be loaned by George L. Babcock, who will have general direction of the affair.

FINE CAST CHOSEN FOR MISSION PLAY

Miss Ethel DeLong, of Pine Mountain School, to Witness Performance.

The Plainfield Fine Mountain Association in planning to present "Scenes from the Kentucky Mountains," adapted by Miss Margaret W. McCutchen from "The Scarborough Spoons," by Lucy Furman, at the Hartridge Auditorium, tomorrow evening at 8:30 o'clock, desire the public to know some of the conditions making the present time a critical one in the history of these neglected children of America.

Northern enterprise is developing mines and oil wells in the mountain regions, and new temptations, as well as great advantages will come to this people, who will need education and religious and industrious training as never before.

Miss Ethel DeLong, in charge of the Pine Mountain School, will be present tomorrow evening to explain the situation, and this will add considerably to the interest of the occasion. The following excellent cast for "The Scarborough Spoons" is announced by those directing the affair:

Emily Scarborough, A. B. Ph. D., Miss Elizabeth McGee; Miss Loring, of the Settlement School, Mrs. Allen Cowperthwait; Theodosia Vance, a mountain woman, Miss Helen Joy; Edwin Vance, the husband, Henry C. White; their children, Cynthia, Miss Louise Booth; Polly Ann, Miss Dorothy Lyon; Guilford, Bruce Buttfield; Emily, Miss Eva Brown; Charlie, Miss Helen Harman; Iry, Miss Ellen Burke; Mucky Mars, Miss Margaret Townsend; Killie Blair, Miss Margaret W. McCutchen; Joab Atkins, Miss Margaret Buttfield; Castoria Spence, Miss Katharine Lee.

"PEOPLE'S FORUM" BEGINS NEXT WEEK

"Free Speech" Subject Chosen as Topic for First of Series of Discussions.

Plans for a People's Forum occupied the attention of the Recreation Committee at its meeting at the new library building last Tuesday evening. The Forum is the next step in extending the use of the schools to meet the needs of the city. In it free discussions of topics of public interest will be conducted. Opportunity will be given for everyone to express his own views and to hear the views of others. Able speakers will present their ideas on such topics as the following: "Government by Commission," "The Cost of Living," "Conservation" and "The Recreation Problem."

The need of our time is an intelligent understanding of public questions by the voters. The success of democratic institutions depends upon this. Free discussion is one of the greatest of educational forces and in it lies the hope of a greater and more purposeful public opinion without which a community is defenseless against demagogue and corruptionist.

"Free Speech" is the subject of the first meeting. Dr. Thomas C. Hall, of the Union Theological Seminary, will deliver an address on this topic. He will be followed by Winston Paul, of Jersey City, who will tell of the People's Forum which has long been in successful operation there.

Champlain L. Riley will preside. In his introductory remarks Mr. Riley will present the views of the Recreation Committee and tell what it aims to accomplish through this series of meetings.

The first meeting will be held at the Washington School, on Thursday evening, February 19, at 8 o'clock. Take the Fourth street car to Darrow avenue.

MUSICAL TREAT PROMISED.

The recital to be given at the Congregational church, Monday night, promises to be one of the musical treats of the winter season. Miss Mary Henry, the Scottish violiniste; George C. Carre, tenor, assisted by Miss May, pianist, will provide the program, which will be an unusually attractive one. The Evening Mail, of New York, speaking of Miss Henry, says: "Miss Henry played in grand style. Her tone is beautiful, her execution faultless, her expression full of soul and sympathy."

PATRIOTIC SOCIAL.

The Woman's Relief Corps will hold a patriotic social tomorrow night in Reform Hall.

—Save money on your footwear. Abrams' clearing sale now on. See adv.—Adv. 2 12 2 ***

—Neuman Brothers are at the present time having a special sale of their famous olive oil, which they import at frequent intervals. Prices will be found in their advertisement on page 9.—Adv. ***

WOULD COVER WRONG DOING

Ernest R. Ackerman Discusses Government Plan to Regulate all Kinds of Business.

HE FAVORS EXPANSION

Proposed Bills in Congress Would Affect Smallest Corporation and Its Wage-earners, Declares Former Senator—Urges a Protest.

Former Senator Ernest R. Ackerman, a pioneer in advocating progressive legislation, and father of the New Jersey Civil Service Law, as well as an active business man familiar with the legitimate customs of trade and commerce, has some pronounced views regarding the proposition to establish a bureau at Washington regulating the sales and methods of small and large corporations doing an interstate business.

When questioned today about the proposed plan, Mr. Ackerman said:

"As we are a commercial nation the comfort and happiness of the people depends largely on the expansion and success of the trade of the country. Business to be successful must be as free as possible from unwise government restrictions. Existing laws if enforced will adequately cover wrong-doing. It should be the object of legislation to encourage the people in securing rewards for their efforts either in good wages or reasonable profits. We should remember that other nations enjoying great freedom from their governments from vexatious commercial legislation and restrictions, in some cases assisted by subsidies, are making every effort to capture our markets and it is the duty of our government to support and not to antagonize our industries."

Asked as to what affect the proposed legislation would have on the industries of New Jersey, Mr. Ackerman said, "That the bills if passed in their present form would allow the government at Washington to establish in the postoffice building in Newark a 'flying squad' of inquisitors authorized to go forth and enter the premises of any corporation, large or small, doing an interstate business with persons and corporations in New York, Pennsylvania or any other State, and,

"First, Demand without any previous complaint a list of customers; second, demand a copy of the cash book; third, demand copies of the monthly trial balance and the yearly record of profit and loss; fourth, demand copies of all records, accounts, minute books and papers relating to the personal and confidential matters of the business; fifth, make everything in connection with the business a matter of public record."

Mr. Ackerman said, "That the enactment of these bills as drafted—mind you as drafted—would show public opinion both neglectful and indifferent resulting in the decay of freedom throughout the land."

When Mr. Ackerman was asked what he thought of the effort on the part of the government to make ironclad standards as to the relation of buyer and seller, he replied, "The bargains and negotiations of the market place, the controversies and adjustments between buyer and seller, the shadings and concessions of barter and sale are as natural and as old as humanity. Any theoretical attempt by law to establish universal rules in a territory of over 3,500,000 square miles and among 100,000,000 people to govern buyer and seller by fixed rules could not of necessity be complied with because it would create unnatural conditions tending to a tyranny of bribery and blackmail and a fear not of the law but of an officer of the law. Any statute which is unnatural is bad law. Bad laws would destroy business initiative and progress leading to a final contraction and destruction of trade and commerce based on honest principles."

"Let us bring the question right home," said Mr. Ackerman. "Take Union county for instance with an annual manufacturing output of over $40,000,000.00. We make among other things, as I said in a speech some time ago: Tools and printing presses, silks and petroleum products, metal cornices and silverware, paper and safes, ice works and gloves, chemicals and automobiles, pottery and ship building, railroad signals and mineral waters, trolley cars and dynamos, organs and pianos, phonographs and surgical instruments, sewing machines and music boxes, the manufacturers of which are nearly all doing a large interstate business and in some cases a world-wide traffic, successfully built up through the freedom of individual initiative and which we should aim to preserve and to protect. Can we afford to further experiment with and to jeopardize the prosperity of the people by sanctioning the paralizing legislation as proposed?"

Mr. Ackerman said that he did not wish to be understood, as advocating even for a moment, anything but a very high standard of morals and

(Continued on page 7.)

Attend Our Great Granite Sale All This Week---1-3 Less Than Regular Prices

A. E. FORCE & CO.

"The White Store"

We Give the Famous S.H. Green Trading Stamps

Store Opens at 8:30; Closes Saturdays at 10 p. m. Others days at 5:30.

German Valley. and Chester

Mr. and Mrs. George Hankinson are spending several days with Mrs. William Weil, of Chester.

Roswell D. B. Smith, of Morristown, is visiting Walter Smith and family, of Chester.

Mrs. William F. Parliament, of Chester, is recovering from illness.

Chancellor George H. Bradford, of the University of Oklahoma, will lecture on educational problems in Day's Music Hall, Chester, Monday night, under the auspices of the local grange.

Chester Grange, No. 198, Patrons of Husbandry, will meet tomorrow.

Charles Rinehart has leased the Case house in Main street, Chester, recently vacated by William Ader.

Mrs. George D. Walters, of German Valley, is spending a month with her sister, Mrs. Lewis Stout, of Blairstown.

STUART'S Mark Down Shoe Sale

It is what you get for what you pay that counts. We are offering at greatly reduced prices, men's, women's and children's shoes, that were remarkable values at their regular prices. Now during the Mark-down Shoe Sale the values are infinitely greater. You can't afford to miss them.

1.95 Men's and women's $2.50 and $3.00 Shoes —all leathers and styles.

2.95 Were $3.50 to $4.00; Several well known named shoes in this lot.

2.45 Men's and women's $3.00 and some $3.50 shoes; a splendid assortment at this price.

1.69 and 1.39 Boys, girls' and children's shoes; warranted solid leather.

Stuarts SHOE SHOP

215 W. FRONT ST. PLAINFIELD, N. J.

Westfield.

The excise committee of the Town Council has decided not to recommend the renewal of the license for the hotel at Grove street and Central avenue.

An endurance bowling contest commenced at the Theatre alleys last night at midnight and continued for twelve hours. Ten teams of two men each were in the contest.

Funeral services for Mrs. John H. Worth were held Tuesday afternoon at her residence, 404 Elm street. Mrs. Worth was in her eighty-fourth year and had been a resident of the town for over forty years.

Bound Brook.

A sauerkraut supper was served at Hotel Bound Brook, last night for the benefit of St. Joseph's church.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will hold a Washington's Birthday social on February 17.

Mrs. Thorpe, of Jenkinstown, Pa. is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harry Gould at Harris Lane, for a few weeks.

Mrs. A. M. Sturr has returned to her home in New York city, after spending a week with Mr. and Mrs Peter M. Smith, in East Bound Brook.

Renel A. Brittle, of Newark will give his lecture that was postponed on account of stormy weather last Friday night, tomorrow night, in Hamilton Hall.

Charles Peterson and family, of Brooklyn, have taken possession of one of Miss La Monte's new houses at 15 Ronmey road.

Benjamin Carpenter, of Dunellen, is building a new barn for E. L. Voorhees, at Beechwood Heights.

Whitehouse.

Arrangements are being made by the Young People's Union of the Methodist church in East Whitehouse for an entertainment which is to be held in that edifice February 21. A short play will be presented by local talent and refreshments will be served at the close of the program.

Under the auspices of the Christian Endeavor Society of the Presbyterian church at Lamington a social will be held tomorrow night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick V. Anthony. There will be no preaching services in that edifice next Sunday, as the pastor, Rev. Dr. John T. Scott, and his wife, are going to Jeffersonville, Pa., to visit Rev. Dr. and Mrs. James Spratt.

William W. Shampanore is recovering from grip at his home at Whitehouse Station.

Mrs. Mary White returned to Newark yesterday after a visit of a week at Readington and Whitehouse Station.

Mrs. Lucas A. Voorhees entertained the Ladies' Home Circle of the Reformed church at her home in Lebanon yesterday afternoon. After the prayer meeting last evening a special meeting of the Christian Endeavor Society was held in the chapel for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing six months.

Under the auspices of Vesper Lodge, I. O. O. F., a supper was served in Odd Fellows' Hall last evening.

Miss Marguerite Bishop, of New Haven, Conn., is the guest of Miss Bertha Large, in East Whitehouse.

Miss Minnie Buckley, of New York, who is visiting Rev. and Mrs. Henry T. Jones at the parsonage of the Reformed church at Whitehouse, will leave in the near future for her former home in Stewart, Ia.

Miss Nellie Powelson, of Little Falls, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Powelson, near Lamington.

Miss Mary Lane returned to Lamington Tuesday, after a visit to her brother, David T. Lane, in Somerville.

Miss Irene Force, of Clove Hill, is spending a few days with her cousin, Miss Clara Layton, near Lamington.

William J. Schapley, of Plainfield, is visiting at the home of Luke Schapley at Lamington.

A paper is being circulated in this section and along the line of the New Jersey and Pennsylvania Railroad to secure the subscription of $2,500, which is the portion to be raised by the shippers of the $5,000 needed to assure the resumption of service on the road, according to an agreement made with a company which wishes to lease the road from the receiver.

Mrs. Margaret Jones, of Elizabeth, arrived at Lebanon Tuesday to spend a week.

Miss Edith Cooley, of Bedminster, is visiting her sister, Miss Alice Cooley, in East Whitehouse.

Dunellen & Vicinity

All the meat markets and several of the grocery stores closed at noon today, in honor of Lincoln's Birthday.

The house being built for John P. Fenner, on Washington avenue, is rapidly nearing completion. The house is entirely enclosed, the various rooms on the interior divided off and ready for lathing.

The high score record for the Baraca Class bowling alleys of the Presbyterian church was broken, last night, and a new record of 257 marked up in place of the old score. Byers, of the Bound Brook All-Star team, who defeated the local boys on the alleys Tuesday night, put up the new record. Arthur Voorhees, of the Baraca Class team, was the holder of the last established record of 255, which was busted by the visiting team Tuesday night.

John Rhinehart, of North avenue has taken a position with Joseph M. Meyers, of North avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Carman, of Jackson avenue, received a visit from the stork, Tuesday, who left them a baby girl.

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Hardingham, of Mountainview terrace, are parents of a girl, born to them on Sunday.

It is expected that the fast Interhaven bowling team of Plainfield will meet the local boys on the church alleys next Tuesday night. As these two teams are about evenly matched an interesting match is expected.

Miss Jacintha Frescoln, of New Market road, left for Philadelphia yesterday morning, where she will spend a week with relatives.

Louis A. Block, of East Orange street, manager of the National Beef Company's meat market on North avenue, received a painful wound yesterday, when the cleaver which he was using slipped and struck him on the thumb of the right hand, inflicting a wound which necessitated several stitches.

Mrs. W. J. Aletbon, of Mountainview terrace, who has been detained at her home for the past week by a slight illness, is again able to be around.

Somerville

E. M. Wight left yesterday morning for Washington, D. C. He will remain until Saturday or Sunday, attending President Wilson's reception tomorrow evening.

The improvements to the Methodist church are now about completed, and it is expected to have the reopening service on Sunday, February 22. The work has been done by local contractors and have been very extensive, transforming almost the entire interior.

Robert Haver has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Emery Haver, at North Branch.

Walter Pence, of Bloomsbury, formerly of this place, was a visitor in town yesterday.

An interesting meeting of the Somerset County Pet Stock and Poultry Association was held last night in Stryker's Hall.

At the meeting of the Women's Missionary Society in the First Reformed chapel tomorrow afternoon, Mrs. J. N. Vander Beek will preside. The special speaker will be Mrs. J. B. Kerr, of Elizabeth. Tea will be served at the close of the meeting.

Tomorrow will be observed as a day of prayer for missions at the Baptist church. Special meetings and speaking at 3 and 7.45 p. m. Tea will be served at 6 o'clock.

A minstrel performance will be given in the Somerville Theatre this evening for the benefit of the Somerville High School.

The Y. M. H. A. of this place held its annual reception and dance last night at the armory, and the attendance was very large.

New Providence.

A daughter was born recently to Mr. and Mrs. William J. Lawyer, of Springfield avenue.

Miss Anna Biel, of Baker avenue, West End, is recovering from pneumonia.

A. Elmer Cory, of Spraingfield avenue, is visiting in New York.

Rev. and Mrs. Jesse Lee Peck, of Cranford, returned home Tuesday, after visiting Mrs. Peck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Brower, of Lackawanna Park, West Summit.

William Kennedy, of Brooklyn, is a guest of his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. James Kennedy, of Springfield avenue.

—Some store may be placing on "special sale" just now the article you have not felt like paying "regular" prices for.

Guess What Store

SR

10% Discount

All your purchases until Saturday, Feb. 21st, will yield you 10 PER CENT. IN CASH.

Sign the coupon below, bring or mail it at once to the store that owns it—the trade mark.

Register NOW for coupons will not be honored if presented after 11 P. M. Saturday, Feb. 21st, 1914.

NOTE—Only one coupon registered for each person.

GUESS WHOSE TRADE MARK?

P 03 SR COUPON

Name .....

Address .....

City .....

'Plains & Fanwood.

Charles Montross, of Plainfield, and Miss Fannie Ochsner, of Stony Hill section, will be married at the St. Mary's church, Stony Hill, Monday, February 23, by Father MacGrath, pastor of the church.

The Holy Name Society, of the St. Mary's church, Stony Hill, held a smoker in the chapel rooms last night, which was well attended by the men of that society.

Miss Eleanor Walsh, of Park avenue, has been entertaining out of town friends during the past few days.

The Women's Auxiliary of the Parish House will hold an entertainment in the Parish House tonight.

Father Schwartz, who was formerly connected with the St. Mary's church, Stony Hill, but now of New Brunswick, is reported as being seriously ill at that place.

A body of young people of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. William Johnston, on Second street, tomorrow afternoon. The afternoon will be spent in sewing for a mission station in Africa.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will hold a valentine social in Meyer's Hall tomorrow night. The early part of the evening will be devoted to the regular monthly business meeting of the society, after which the social will be held. John Wade is the chairman of the social committee.

Joseph Albert, the Park avenue merchant, has had two new ice boxes installed in his store.

Dr. F. W. Westcott has been elected president of the Fanwood Board of Health, and S. W. McAneny, secretary. These committees have been appointed: Sewage, A. D. Becken; milk, Philip Neider; health, Dr. F. W. Westcott; plumbing, Dr. Ray Munger; registrar of records, S. W. McAneny.

The Lincoln Social Club was formed at Fanwood, last night, when these officers were elected: President, P. S. Beck; vice-president, Alfred Haphan; treasurer, George Eberly; secretary, A. H. Albert; trustees, L. A. Pandick, William Button and Edward Eckart. A charter membership of twenty-six was reported, also $10.50 in the treasury. The meeting was held in the fire house where future sessions will be held every two weeks.

The Ladies' Aid Society of All Saints' Episcopal church met at the home of Mrs. Albert Ribleton, yesterday afternoon.

Mrs. H. D. Bonnell entertained the Evening Bridge Club at her home on Martine avenue, last night.

High Bridge-Califon.

Mrs. Theodore Philhower, of Fairmount, is visiting her sons, William H. Philhower and Charles Philhower, of Califon.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of Mrs. Silas B. Jones of Easton, Pa., to Wilbour B. Wolfram, of High Bridge. The ceremony was performed last Wednesday by Rev. W. H. Shaw, pastor of the Second Methodist church, of Easton. Mr. and Mrs. Wolfram will live in Easton.

Miss Florence Creveling is ill at her home at High Bridge.

Robert Yawger, of Bound Brook, is in Califon.

John Ader will move from Cokesbury to Califon this week.

Mrs. Minnie Stires, of Clinton, recently was married at Lebanon to David E. Poor, of High Bridge. Rev. S. D. Decker performed the ceremony.

Edward Hann has returned to his home at New Vernon, after visiting his father, William R. Hann, who is ill at his home near Little Brook.

Jacob Ort is reported seriously ill at his home near Fleasant Grove.

Mrs. Luther A. Apgar is ill at her home in Main street, High Bridge.

Mrs. John W. Beaty and daughter, Miss Naomi Beaty, spent the first of the week in New York.

Lewis D. Trimmer will move from Hoffmans to Matawan about March 1.

Mrs. Jane Robinson is ill at the home of her brother, Daniel S. Apgar, of Califon.

NEW YORK AMUSEMENTS

BURTON HOLMES TRAVELOGUES.

Burton Holmes announces that the Panama Travelogue to be given in New York next week will be absolutely its last presentation in that city. For the week of February 23, the subject has been specially prepared by Mr Holmes, and is a combination and condensation of the most beautiful colored slides, the most descriptive motion pictures, and the most interesting incidents of travel in the three Philippine Travelogues recently given "New Manila," "Hiking Through Luzon" and "The Cruise Through the Philippines." "The New Panama" will be given Sunday evening and Monday afternoon of next week at Carnegie Hall. One week later "The Philippines" is scheduled.

—Advertise in The Daily Press.

—To go straight to the right store, at the right time, in making a particular purchase, is not a matter of luck, or of general knowledge of the stores—but of keeping in touch with store advertising all the time.

Bread 'n Milk Makes a Dish Hard to Beat when the bread you put into the milk is

KLEEN-MAID BREAD

Its rich butter flavor blends with the milk to hit just the right spot. Try it!

10c—in two sizes—5c

ZEEK BAKING CO.

Copyright 1913

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and abundant with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair fell out or took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy" you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, ready to use, for about 50 cents. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair and is splendid for dandruff, dry, itchy scalp and falling hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. It's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and abundant.

Corporation Notice.

Notice is hereby given that an ordinance entitled "An Ordinance to Lay Out and Open Emerson Avenue and Sumner Avenue, from East Front Street to George Street," a copy of which is subjoined to this notice, has been introduced before the Common Council, read the second time, and ordered engrossed preparatory to its third reading, and that it is the intention of the Common Council to adopt such ordinance at the regular meeting of the Common Council to be held in the Council Chamber, No. 149 North Avenue, in the City of Plainfield, N. J., at eight o'clock p. m., on Monday, the second day of March, A. D., Nineteen hundred and fourteen, at which time and place prior to the adoption of said ordinance, said ordinance will be considered by the Common Council, and all persons interested may be heard before the Common Council with reference to the proposed ordinance.

By order of the Common Council.

JAMES T. MacMURRAY, City Clerk.

Plainfield, N. J., January 19, 1914.

AN ORDINANCE

to Lay Out and Open Emerson Avenue and Sumner Avenue, from East Front Street to George Street.

The Inhabitants of the City of Plainfield, by their Common Council, do enact as follows:

Section 1. That the streets known as Emerson Avenue and Sumner Avenue, from East Front Street to George Street, as already laid out, opened and dedicated to the public, and shown on map entitled "Map of Highland Park, Plainfield, N. J., 1906," on file in the office of the City Clerk of the City of Plainfield, be and the same are hereby accepted as public streets of said city.

1 29 2th

A. H. ENANDER

Sanitary Plumbing, Gas Fitting.

Steam and Hot Water Heating.

Contractor for Sewer Connections.

125 WATCHUNG AVE.

O. A. R. GARAGE

915-917 South Avenue.

Carbon removed by Oxygen method —$3 for 4 cylinder, $4 for 6 cylinder.

Sole agents for Symplex Gas Savers—positively gives more power, speed and uses 25 to 50% saving.

GUARANTEED REPAIRS

—Advertise in the Daily Press. It brings results.

HAHNE & CO.

Newark, New Jersey's Greatest Store

WOMEN'S SILK WAISTS $3.98

Many of Which Belong to the $6.00 Ranks.

A most unusual group of dainty chiffon waists; lined throughout with net and made in the popular drop shoulder effect. Long sleeve models with a chiffon or lace vestee effect and trimmed with buttons or velvet. Quite smart are these chiffon waists, in navy, mahogany and other favorite shades, many of which belong to the regular $6 groups. A wonderful value at $3.98

Women's Waists at $1.98.

Tailored Linen Waists, which are often priced as high as $3, made with soft detachable or turn-over collars and with long sleeves and turnback cuffs; very unusual waists at $1.98

Women's $1.29 Robes at 89c.

Women's Novelty Fleeced Robes, with notched collars, long sleeves, deep pockets and heavy girdle tassel finish; may be had in light blue, tan and other shades; value $1.29; special at 89c

Women's $3.50 Bath Robes for $1.90.

Women's Novelty Blanket Bath Robes, with shawl collars, large patch pockets, deep girdles and tassel finish; may be had in the best sizes; value $3.50, spec. at.....$1.90

Dressing Sacques at 49c.

Percale and Lawn Dressing Sacques, in round and square neck styles, belted backs and smart trimmings, special at 49c

Adjustable House Dresses, $1.50.

Demonstration now being conducted of Adjustable House Dresses, which can be adjusted at the waist line to any size and used as either a house dress or kimono. These garments are easy to put and fit like a glove; spec...$1.50

Second Floor.

VALENTINES.

Every kind, from the ridiculous to the pretty hand colored ones. Good assortment of the every-popular celluloid and "paper-lace" novelties, too.

Prices right, of course.

Stationery Dept., Main Floor.

THE ONCE-A-YEAR DISPOSAL OF Valentine Silks

Famous for years for their stability, their dependable wearing qualities, their shedwater and waterproof qualities. This year's disposal is greatly exceeding that of last year, but we are ready with plentiful stocks and plentiful assortments. Tomorrow—

40-inch Crepe de Chine at $1.50 Yard.

For evening or street dresses; a firm, even silk, in every wanted new and staple shade; a crepe with a high lustre, at $1.50

23-inch Shedwater Foulard at 79c Yard.

Shedwater Foulards in the season's new and exclusive designs—two and three-color printings; most serviceable for Spring and Summer wear, at 79c

40-inch Crepe de Chine at $2.00 Yard.

New Bulgarian and Martine designs, small and medium effects; one of fashion's most wanted silks for Spring wear; by the yard, at.....$2.00

Extra!

Crepe de Chine and Marquisette at 79c Yard.

Black Crepe de Chine and Stripe Marquisette; good firm quality for dresses; regularly $1.00 a yard; spec..79c

Black Crepe de Chine at $1.39 Yard.

A fine, firm quality for entire dresses, 40 inches wide; a brilliant jet black; our reg. $1.59 quality, special at...$1.39

Main Floor.

HAHNE & CO., Broad, New and Halsey Sts., Newark, N. J.

WHEN A BOY HE MET LINCOLN

Henry E. Bowen, of Watchung Avenue, Recalls Seeing Martyred President.

FRIEND OF HIS FATHER

Local Man Talked Entertainingly About Wartime President and Draws Present Day Conclusions Regarding Bryan and Wilson.

Henry E. Bowen, of Watchung avenue, is one of the few men in Plainfield who personally remember Abraham Lincoln, and his reminiscences of the great President are most interesting. Mr. Bowen was seen by a Daily Press representative at the North avenue station, and in the course of the conversation the approaching observation of Lincoln's birth was mentioned.

"When a boy," said Mr. Bowen, "I saw Lincoln three times. The first was at Plymout church in Brooklyn, when he came to my father's pew to hear Henry Ward Beecher preach. At the conclusion of the service Mr. Beecher was introduced to Mr. Lincoln, who had come to New York to speak the following night at Cooper Institute, where he made the famous speech which a few months later caused him to become the candidate of the Republican party for the Presidency, defeating Seward for the nomination. Mr. Lincoln had for years attended to legal matters in the West for my father, and it was at his suggestion that an invitation was sent asking Lincoln to visit New York and deliver the speech.

"At the conclusion of the service in Plymouth church Mr. Lincoln walked home with us but declined an invitation to remain to dinner, as he had to prepare for the coming lecture, which would take all of his time that day. After he left us my father explained to me who Mr. Lincoln was, and he said he was likely to be the candidate for vice-president with Mr. Seward, who was expected to be named for President.

"The Republican convention held in Chicago soon was most exciting. Seward received the highest number of votes. When it was found after a number of ballots that he could not be nominated the New York delegation threw its vote to Lincoln and he was finally named.

"The second time I saw Mr. Lincoln was at the Astor House, when he arrived in New York on his way to Washington to be inaugurated as President. He arrived at the Hudson River railroad station, and rode down Broadway in an open carriage. The street was crowded but there was little enthusiasm, but when people did cheer I can remember seeing the President rise in the carriage and lift his famous tall plug hat from his head, as he bowed.

"The last time I saw Lincoln," Mr. Bowen continued, "was at his funeral, when his body lay in State at the City Hall. Never has New York in my life been draped in mourning as at that time. The Stock Exchange was closed as well as all business throughout the city. Banners with inscriptions hung from many of the buildings. One on the Bowery I have never forgotten. The inscription was hung on one of the small clothing shops and read, "The Three Benefactors of Mankind—A. Lincoln, G. Washington, J. Christ.'"

"While Mr. Lincoln was President my father, who was the owner of the Independent, with Mr Beecher as editor, visited Washington several times a year. During a call on Mr. Lincoln, my father asked why he had picked out Seward, his rival and his enemy many people suspected, and appointed him his Secretary of State. Mr. Lincoln, with a smile, replied, "Why, just to keep my finger on him"

"I guess that just explains the reason for President Wilson's strange appointment of Bryan as Seward's successor," said Mr. Bowen, as he swung himself aboard his train to go to his office in the New York Herald, with which he has been connected for almost a score of years.

Announcing

The New Typewriter OLIVER No. 7

WE ANNOUNCE AN AMAZING MODEL—The OLIVER No. 7—a typewriter of superexcellence, with automatic devices and refinements that mark the zenith of typewriter progress. A marvel of beauty, speed and easy action. Typewriting efficiency raised to the nth power.

The OLIVER No. 7 embodies all previous Oliver innovations and new self-acting devices never before seen on any typewriter. A leap in advance which places The Oliver ten years ahead of its time. So smooth in action, so light to the touch, so easy to run, that experts are amazed. A model that means to the typist delightful ease of operation.

A model that means a higher standard of tyepwriting, longer and better service.

The No. 7 is now on exhibit and sale at all Oliver Branches and Agencies throughout the United States.

The new model has more improvements, refinements and new uses than we can even enumerate here.

The "cushioned keyboard" with "anchor keys" and the new automatic features mean less work for the hands, less strain on the eyes, less manual and mental effort.

With all of these masterly mechanical improvements we have made the machine more beautiful and symmetrical. From every standpoint The OLIVER No. 7 attains superlative excellence.

Nothing you could wish for has been omitted. The new devices, refinements, improvements and conveniences found on the No. 7 represent an enormous outlay and vastly increase its value—the price has not been advanced one penny. We shall even continue in force our popular 17-Cents-a-Day purchase plan, the same as on previous Oliver models.

The OLIVER No. 7, equipped with the famous Printype, if desired, without extra charge.

You owe it to yourself to see the new machine before you buy any typewriter at any price. Note its beauty, speed and easy action, its wonderful automatic devices. Try it on any work that is ever done on typewriters. Try it on many kinds of work that no other typewriter will do.

It is a significant fact that the typewriter that introduced such epoch-making innovations as visible writing, visible reading, Printype, etc., should be the first to introduce automatic methods of operation.

The OLIVER Typewriter Co.

310 Broadway, New York, N. Y.

Get the Community Spirit!

The Business Men's Association of Plainfield was organized to bring more business to our city that will not only help Plainfield grow, but will make it a bigger, better and more prosperous city, and indirectly every citizen will benefit.

The city that boasts of the largest number of prosperous retail stores advertises itself as a prosperous community.

Plainfield is particularly fortunate in having a large number of progressive merchants and business men--not all are members of the Association--but we need the co-operation of everyone. You are invited to join.

These men are members--watch this list grow.

Adelberg H.
Bennett, J. H.
Collier, Paul R.
Courier News
Davis, Allan F.
DeMott, J. H.
DeMeza & Blimm.
Endress & Co.
Force & Co., A. E.
Fass, J. A.
Firstbrook, Fred
Griffin & Co., A. M.
Gavett, J. W.
Hansen, J. C.
Haurand, Henry.
Jeffrey, William.
Kresge Co., S. S.
Kurtzman, Charles.
Mann, Solomon.
Manning, C. D.
Murray, Robert.
Neidig, Frank.
Plainfield Daily Press.
Powelson & Jones.
Parrot, Richard, Jr.
Preger, Louis.
Queen City Laundry.
Reliable Jewelry Shop.
Rosenbaum Bros.
Rothberg, Sam.
Ritz, Inc.
Samilson, Chas. S.
Silbert, Carl.
Slonim, Leo.
Schwed Bros.
Stuart, K. H.
Tepper, M. & A.
Van Arsdale, M. C.
Varley, J. J.
Welsh Farms Dairy.
Woodhull & Martin.
Woolworth & Co., F. W.
Zeisel, Leo.

The Business Men's Association

of Plainfield, N. J. . P. O. Box 575

TIME TABLE
Plainfield Transit Co.

Auto Bus Service Between Plainfield and South Plainfield, Plainfield and Stirling, Plainfield, Warrenville and Mount Bethel.
Waiting room at Kensington Hotel, Plainfield.

PLAINFIELD and SOUTH PLAINFIELD
WEEK DAYS.
Leave Plainfield—7.45, 9.00, 11.45 a. m 1.00, 4.00, 5.00, 7.00, 9.00, 10.20, x11.10 p. m
Leave South Plainfield—8.00, 9.30 a. m 12.00, 1.30, 4.30, 5.50, 7.30, 9.30, 10.45, x11.30 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—9.00, 12.00 a. m., 2.00 4.00, 5.00, 9.00 p. m.
Leave South Plainfield—10.00 a. m. 12.15, 2.30, 4.30, 5.30, 9.30 p. m.

PLAINFIELD, WATCHUNG, WARRENVILLE AND MT. BETHEL.
WEEK DAYS AND SUNDAYS.
Leave Plainfield—6.30 a. m., 3.00, 6.25 x11.00 p. m.
Leave Watchung—6.45 a. m., 3.15, 6.40 x11.15 p. m.
Leave Warrenville—6.55 a. m., 3.30, 6.50 x11.30 p. m.
Arrive Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m
Leave Mt. Bethel—7.10 a. m., 7.15 p. m
Leave Warrenville—7.20 a. m., 3.30, 7.30 x11.30 p. m.
Leave Watchung—7.30 a. m., 3.45, 7.40 x11.45 p. m.
Arrive Plainfield—7.50 a. m., 4.00, 7.55 x12.00 p. m.
xSaturdays only.
Sundays and holidays the bus will leave for Watchung, Warrenville and Mt. Bethel at 9.00 a. m. instead of 6.30 a. m. Other trips will be the same as week days.

PLAINFIELD and STERLING.
WEEK DAYS ONLY.
Leave Plainfield—8.45 a. m., 4.30 p. m
Leave Watchung—9.00 a. m., 4.45 p. m
Leave Stirling—9.30 a. m., 5.15 p. m.
8.45 a. m. bus connects with 9.27 a. m train at Sterling, for Newark.
4.30 p. m. bus connects with 5.15 p. m train at Sterling, from Newark.

An enclosed, electric-lighted and heated bus may be procured for an afternoon or evening, from The Plainfield Transit Co., to carry from 15 to 25 passengers to any point within a radius of 25 miles from Plainfield.

R. W. CAMPBELL, Mgr., 310 Park Ave. 'Phone 130, Plainfield.

ADVERTISEMENTS
—FOR—
NEW YORK HERALD
WORLD, TIMES, SUN, JOURNAL, TELEGRAM, AMERICAN, BROOKLYN EAGLE, GLOBE
—AND—
NEWARK EVENING NEWS
RECEIVED AT
PLAINFIELD DAILY PRESS
AT REGULAR OFFICE RATES

THE COFFEE YOU'LL LIKE.

People who try our Mocha and Java Coffee order it again because they like its Quality and Flavor—the taste is inviting and pleasant to the palate.
We also sell Select Groceries, Fresh Fruits and Vegetables.

W. W. Dunn
THE PARK GROCER
Duer Street and Lincoln Place.

IRVING SCHOOL PUPILS PRESENT PLEASING PROGRAM

Lincoln's birthday was appropriately observed by the pupils of the Irving School yesterday, a program of music and recitations being presented by the student body. The program was given as follows: "Salute to the Flag," by the school; song, "When Lincoln Came," by the pupils of the fifth grade; selections, "The Boyhood of Lincoln," read by Frederick George Stevens and Alfred Green; story of the picture of the boy Lincoln, by Leslie Zeek; song, "Abraham Lincoln," by the school; selection, "Lincoln the Lawyer," by Irene Weber; song, "Columbia's Honored Son," by the school; selection, "The Assassination of Lincoln," by Elsie Vail; recitation, "Was Lincoln King?" by Ella Ward; recitation, "Abe," by Clifton Sieglin; music, "Marching Through Georgia," by Victor; song, "Lincoln," by the pupils of the sixth grade; closing song, "Lincoln, the Name Shall Linger," by the pupils of the seventh grade.

THE DAILY PRESS IN LINCOLN will be found on sale or delivered to any address every afternoon by E. Purvis, newsdealer.

Children's Shoes

Children's feet need considerable attention as they grow rapidly. Therefore they must be fitted correctly with the proper shapes, such as Tread-straight or Orthopedic lasts. We devote a large part of our time to children's footwear, and would like to convince you that our shoes and prices are both correct.

A. K. WILLETT

107 PARK AVENUE

"Oldest Shoe House in Town."

ASK THE MAN

for whom we have done plumbing and tinning of any description whether it wasn't an expert and scientific job. Or permit us to refer you to them, and when you want anything done in our line you will come to us. Let us give you an estimate on new or old work.

Work guaranteed satisfactorily done.

A stock of Hardware and Housefurnishing Goods unequalled in the city.

Let us serve you.

A. M. GRIFFEN CO.

119-121-123 E. Front St., Plainfield N. J.

Two 'Phones 6—214

Plainfield Daily Press

LESLIE R. FORT.....Managing Editor

Published Daily except Sunday, by the PLAINFIELD PRESS COMPANY, 105 North Avenue.

Entered at the Plainfield, N. J., Post-office as Second Class Mail Matter.

TELEPHONE PLAINFIELD 1300.
Private Branch Exchange connecting all departments.

Two cents a copy. Ten cents a week. $5.00 a year in advance. Delivered by carrier or by mail. No extra charge for papers mailed to points in the U. S. and Canada.

Any subscriber failing to receive a single issue will confer a favor by notifying the business office.

Advertising rates mailed on application.

Copy for change of Advertisements to ensure change for same day must be at the office by 9:00 a. m.

FEBRUARY 12TH IN HISTORY.

1554—Lady Jane Grey, who was Queen of England for ten days, beheaded in London. Born in Leicestershire in 1537.

1736—Marriage of Maria Theresa of Austria and Francis of Lorraine.

1809—Abraham Lincoln, sixteenth President of the U. S., born in Hardin county, Ky. Died in Washington, D. C., April 15, 1865.

1833—Henry Clay introduced the compromise tariff in the Senate.

1851—First discovery of gold in Australia.

1877—The first public exhibition of the telephone was given by Alexander Graham Bell at Salem, Mass.

Plainfield, N. J., February 12, 1914.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN.

Each recurring anniversary of the birth of Abraham Lincoln is more generally celebrated than the previous one. The people of this Republic, and of the world, in fact, look upon Abraham Lincoln as an ideal product of democracy. His standards are becoming the standards which all statesmen are striving to attain. His birth, life and death have both an attractive and tragic interest as the years go by. His early environment tended to create his devotion to the people, and his after years fulfilled the promise of his youth. All his public life was devoted to human uplift; to the freedom and equality of all men under a Republican form of government.

It is remarkable how all public men in our day, in the character of their public addresses attempt to strengthen their utterances by reference to something that Lincoln did or said. He set a standard that was high and uplifting. His sincerity was never questioned. His motives were always patriotic. His impulses always came from the heart. His love of humanity was unfeigned and sincere. You cannot touch his life along any line without being the better for the contact. The poorest man in the land finds as much comfort in his belief in Lincoln and in the government in which he believed as does the most wealthy. His ideals make all men realize their equality. He never claimed to be greater than any man and never admitted that he was less. He had a dignity of character and a moral force which leveled all men and made all men brothers.

The nation does well upon each recurring anniversary to study this plain, simple, poor, devoted patriot. It makes us better citizens and better friends of one another to contemplate the life and character of Abraham Lincoln.

INTERLOCKING DIRECTORS.

A great many people question the wisdom of interlocking directors. But why should one man be a director in many corporations? It has, it is true, some advantages, but taken as a whole, is it not a disadvantage to have the same mind brought in different boards to different propositions pending therein? If younger and more active men shall, as a result of the change, be brought into closer touch with the business interests of the country, it would probably be better. In banking it certainly will prevent concerted action and remove what is so frequently done; namely, manipulation in securities that issue by corporations.

There may not be any justice in the charge that, at the present time such combinations are made, but the people believe the allegation to be true, and hence it is just as harmful in its results as if it were true. No matter how honest banks or other institutions may be in the matter of issuing securities, the fact that the directorates of the appointing boards are largely composed of the same men, lead the public to believe that the action is the result of combination.

It would seem as if it might be admitted without causing controversy that no man or set of men are absolutely essential to all kinds of business interests and to the development of all institutions of the same kind, or of a cognate nature. Dissolving the interlocking directorates may not accomplish the purpose which the President seems to desire; that time only can determine. One thing is evident. It can do no harm to try, and if better results follow, well, and if ill results follow, it is a very easy matter to repeal the legislation. Independent boards in banks, railways and kindred business interests, freeing all from the domination of any controlling mind, is an experiment worth trying.

Recorder Hand is to be commended for his action in the borough court in sentencing a reckless autoist to pay a $50 fine or spend some time in jail. There is entirely too much speeding done, not only in the borough, but in the city. The Plainfield police department last summer watched the speeders carefully, and as a result several lawbreakers were brought before Judge DeMeza, who meted out punishment to fit the various cases. Auto speeding in the city limits, or where there are houses of any kind is absolutely inexcusable, and strict enforcement of the law on the part of the authorities receives the commendation of the general public, including auto owners who respect the rights of others on the road.

Senator Read, of Camden county, has introduced a bill in the Legislature to amend the Public Utility act by providing that at least one member of the Board shall be a person of practical experience. It would seem that as this body does work which is largely of a judicial character, that such experience is entirely unnecessary. Should the bill become a law it might seriously interfere with selecting competent men for the office.

Without a dissenting vote the repealer of the Hillery Maximum Tax Act was passed in the State Senate. It is to be hoped that it will go through the House with equal ease. No act put on the statute books in recent years has been so evidently for the benefit of the railroads, and the sooner it is repealed the better will it be for the whole state.

Out in Cincinnati a young woman is taking the silver nitrate cure to free herself from excessive cigarette smoking. She claims to be an actress and says she contracted the habit while playing the part of "Camille;" all of which leads us to believe that Annanias and Sapphira were simple pikers.

News despatches state that Essex county is suffering from an epidemic of field mice, the rodents being unusually large and voracious.

Now we understand why the suffragettes have been avoiding that part of the state lately.

We have it on good authority that the seismic disturbance of Tuesday was not caused by an earthquake, but by the Alphonse and Gaston quibbling of Senator Martine and Congressman Tuttle regarding the postmastership.

"Charles L. Reilly, of Plainfield," says the Paterson Call, in speaking of the head of the Men's League for Equal Suffrage. Such is fame!

Pu-Yi, the deposed emperor of China, was eight years old yesterday. He probably is not worrying much because he lost his job.

There is awful monotony about the use of "Ex" or "Former" preceding the name of men prominent in the Republican party.

LEADERS HELD SOCIAL.

The second weekly social evening held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. senior department leaders' corps was conducted last night in the association parlors, a representative number of members attending the affair. C. William Bingeman delivered a short address to the assemblage and piano selections were rendered by C. R. Borden. Marshmallows were served as refreshments.

NO DRILL TONIGHT.

The first regular meeting of the School of Musketry of Company K will not be held in the armory, tonight, as previously announced, as the work of placing a metal ceiling in the hall has not been completed and all the electric wiring which is used to supply light for the room are down. Captain Peterson will announce the next regular session at the Monday night drill session.

—Advertise in the Daily Press.

RUNKLE BEQUESTS TO CHARITY LARGE

Will of Orange Man, to Be Contested, Gives Large Sums to Institutions.

Containing twelve large public bequests, nineteen more to individuals and three trust funds, the will of William Runkle, of Orange, only brother of Harry G. Runkle, of this city, was offered for probate yesterday. The will is to be contested by the brother of the testator, who is one of the largest beneficiaries. Because of irregularities in the testament it will go into the Orphans' Court to be proved.

In his will Mr. Runkle disposed of an estate of about $2,000,000, of which three-quarters is devised in the thirty-four specific bequests.

The brother, who filed a caveat against the admission to probate of the will, is by the terms of the testament to receive the income of a trust fund of $250,000 and the residue of the estate, estimated at a half-million dollars. Two children of the brother, Daniel and Miss Mary G. Runkle, will also receive the income of two funds of $250,000 each until their death, when their children are to be given the incomes. All the trust funds are to be handled by the Fidelity Trust Company.

William H. Hulick, of New York, a life-long friend and business associate of the testator, who has just been elected to succeed Mr. Runkle as president of the Warren Foundry at Phillipsburg, Warren county, is also liberally provided for in the will. Besides a bequest of $50,000, unrestricted, he is to receive the testator's real estate, consisting of the ground on which his home was situated on Centre street and Highland avenue in Orange. The estate fronts on Centre street for a distance of 425 feet and on Highland avenue for 320 feet. To Mr. Hulick are bequeathed the buildings on the grounds and nearly all the decedent's furniture, horses and carriages.

The largest public gift is that of $100,000 to Lafayette College, at Easton, Pa., which was announced Tuesday. The next in size is a bequest to the Presbyterian Board of Relief for Disabled Ministers and the Widows and Orphans of Deceased Ministers, for $50,000. The Home Missions Board of the Presbyterian Church is given $25,000, as is the College Board of the same church.

Six institutions of Orange are remembered by Mr Runkle, including the Orange Orphan Society, the Orange Free Library and St. Mary's Hospital of Orange, each of which receives $25,000. To the Orange Memorial Hospital is bequeathed $10,000, and like sums are given to the Children's Aid and Protective Society of the Oranges and the Orthopaedic Hospital of Orange.

The remaining three charitable gifts include one in the sum of $25,000 to the American Sunday-school Mission of New York and two funds of $10,000 each, from which the incomes are to go to the Presbyterian church of Asbury, Warren county, and the Presbyterian church cemetery of that place.

DISORDERLY CHARACTERS BANISHED FROM THE CITY

John Doman, of 313 Plainfield avenue, Jay Skillman, of New Brunswick, and Martha Falls, of Elizabeth, all colored, were arraigned before City Judge W. G. DeMeza in the city court this morning charged with disorderly conduct, having been occupants of a house located at 313 Plainfield avenue, which was raided by Detective-Sergeant John Flynn on Tuesday night. A sentence of $200 fine or sixty days in the county jail was given the two women, but was suspended on the condition that they leave town before noon today. John Doman was given a suspended sentence of $20 fine or thirty days in jail.

THE FORUM.

Editor, Plainfield Daily Press:

It is only fair for the writer to state that he is not menace-mothered as the priest insinuates; on the contrary he has been mothered by the Catholic Church for over ten years.

The holy father must not forget his challenge to Protestants that, if they read Catholic works they will think differently; our investigations were prosecuted right here in the Plainfield Public Library.

Thanks to the generosity of the Roman hierarchy our local library has been enriched by the acquisition of such a valuable accumulation of papal humbug and nonsense.

The writer assures any unprejudiced individual to read for himself this astonishing papal admission of its own sophistry. Is it any wonder our Catholic professor of Catholic theology is unable to swallow his own medicine? The first shot fired and he crumbles up like an egg-shell—even his attempt to be funny only makes him the more ridiculous.

"How have the mighty fallen!"

LIONEL CRUICKSHANK.

—It is wiser to know what a thing ought to cost before buying it; and ad-readers usually do know this.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

The February Furniture Sale
Specially Fine Offerings
In Dining-Room Suites

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Club Plan Payments May Be Arranged

$110.00 SUITE FOR 87.00
Mission design, Early English finish, 9 pieces, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six Chairs

$112.00 SUITE FOR 95.00
A pretty Golden Oak Suite, consisting of Buffet, China Cabinet, Table and six Chairs, 9 pieces.

$125.00 SUITE FOR 100.00
Colonial pattern in Fumed Oak, 9 pieces, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six Chairs.

$100.00 SUITE FOR 85.00
A Fumed Oak Suite, mission style, consisting of Buffet, Table, China Cabinet and six chairs, 9 pieces.

Club Plan Payments May Be Arranged

Brass Beds in the February Furniture Sale

Heavy solid brass beds in satin, bright and poulettefinish. Note the great savings:

$16.98 Brass Beds now.....$10.98
$19.50 Brass Beds now.....$14.98
$24.50 Brass Beds now.....$17.50
$26.50 Brass Beds now.....$20.50
$34.50 Brass Beds now.....$26.50

BUY RUGS NOW AND SAVE MONEY.

9x12 Wilton Velvet Rugs.....$16.50
9x12 Body Brussels Rugs.....$22.00
9x12 Tapestry Brussels Rugs.....$12.50
9x12 Axminster Rugs.....$20.00
9x12 Royal Wilton Rugs.....$35.00

"Storage of your purchases without charge until you need them," and "our Easy Payment Club Plan" enables you to take full advantage of this February Money Saving Sale.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

Woodhull & Martin Co.

McDougall Kitchen Cabinets

WE GIVE FIVE PER CENT. PROFIT SHARING COUPONS.

PLAINFIELD LODGE GIVES AN ENTERTAINMENT

The second annual entertainment and ball of Plainfield Lodge, No. 627, I. O. B. A., was held in Sebring's Auditorium, last night, an elaborate program of mirth and music being enjoyed. Dancing was the feature, music being furnished by Townley's Imperial Orchestra. The second part of the program was given up to professional entertainment.

Appearing in the role of comedian, Benjamin Berse drew rapturous applause from the audience and his local jokes and songs were well appreciated. Maurice Stone, of Phillipsburg, sang several vocal selections, assisted at the piano by Miss Rachael Kantor. Miss Pauline Port, a grand opera singer, was present and sang several numbers, assisted by Miss Esther Greenberg at the piano.

Sebring's Auditorium was appropriately decorated for the occasion and an active committee of lodge members had turned the place into a scene of gayety prior to the arrival of the guests, many of whom came from other cities. The officers of the local lodge are president, E. Zeckendorf; vice-president, A. Brant; financial secretary, A. B. Cantor; recording secretary, S. Berkowitz. The floor committee was made up of J. Sklarew, manager; E. Zeckendorf, J. Himmelfarb, I. Fertig, N. Weintrob, H. Rothberg and N. Bernstein.

PERSONAL.

Mr. Sandberg, of New York, has been visiting his sister, Mrs. Harry Dreier, of West Front street.

Hyman Onar, of West Fifth street, entertained a company of friends at his home, last night, in honor of his brother-in-law, who left today for Cleveland. There were guests from Somerville, New Brunswick, New York and this city.

Frank L. C. Martin, of Park avenue, has entered the Post-Graduate Hospital, of New York, to undergo an operation. His ailment is the result of the injury he suffered six months ago, when a powerful solution was administered him in mistake for distilled water.

Robert A. Thompson, of Park avenue, has gone to Syracuse, N. Y., for a two weeks' visit with relatives.

Miss Lillian Cohen, of Brooklyn, is visiting at the home of Morris Abrams, of Grove street.

Caesar Grobes, of West Third street, is spending a few days with relatives in New York city.

DENTAL SOCIETY MEETING.

The monthly meeting of the Plainfield Dental Society was held at "The Homestead" on Washington avenue, last night, a full attendance of the members enjoying the affair. Dr. Robert Wakefield, of Cranford, who was announced as the speaker, was unable to be present on account of illness and substituting for him Dr. C. M. F. Egel, of Westfield, read a paper. Plans are being made to have Dr. Edward C. Kirk, of Philadelphia, read a paper before the society at one of the meetings later in the season.

SERVICE

3% paid on checking accounts of $500.00 or more. Out of town items collected at par. New York checking privileges.

4% paid on Special Department accounts of $5.00 or more subject to liberal Savings Bank rules. Out of town savings accounts collected without charge.

Acts as Administrator, Executor, Guardian and Trustee; the fees are the same as those allowed an individual.

Modern Safe Deposit and Storage Vaults. Boxes for rent $5.00 and upwards. Valuables in bulk stored for from 50 cents per month.

